TORONTO'S JUBILEE LASTED THROUGH THE NIGHT

Everybody Took a Holiday in Honor of the British Victories in South Africa—Unprecedented Scenes All Day Long.

The Parade in the Evening Was of a Military Character—Bands Were Galore and the Crowds Shouted Themselves Hoarse in Their Enthusiasm.

The Mayor never did a wiser act than to proclaim yesterday a public holiday. The little taste the people had of a real good old time on Wednesday night only whetted their appetite for a continuance of the jubilation. Toronto was determined to give the good time to a finish, even as the Empire has seen Kruger's finish. In reality the demonstration never ceased from the time it began on Wednesday night, and the holiday gave the people a fair chance of it. The good time merely dwindled away a little in the early hours of Thursday morning to be resumed with renewed vigor later in the day.

Nothing Like it on Record. Everybody was out, what a time they had. Even the oldest inhabitant could remember nothing to approach it. The crowd of Wednesday night was nothing to it, for thousands who could not be present then, were out yesterday. Never were the decorations around town so numerous or so lavish. But then everybody had to take up space telling about them. They were really fine, and showed that the citizens had spared no pains to do honor to the occasion.

In Full Swing at Noon. About noon the festivities got into full swing again, but with redoubled force. Each man came with a new pair of lungs, and about every third man had a horn, a trumpet or whistle, while megaphones, whistles and horns were to be seen and heard being used to good time along.

An Impressive Procession. If scenes such as this were to be witnessed down town yesterday afternoon and evening were universal through the Empire, then the aggregate good time that rolled around the globe must have been unparalleled in the history of the world, and better than that described. Just think of the number of people in Old London, if Toronto could put up such a wild time.

An Impressive Procession. In a multitude such as thronged the streets yesterday, when interesting and amusing events followed each other so closely as to be almost continuous, it is hard to pick out one which is more impressive than another, but one of the most inspiring occurred on the corner of King and Yonge-streets at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The biggest crowd of two or three thousand persons, headed by the band of the 48th Highlanders, reached the corner about the same time that another crowd, headed by an effigy of Kruger, arrived, and here a stand was made. Led by the band, the mighty throng which filled the square, sang "God Save the Queen" and other patriotic songs with a fervor rarely heard. Traffic was absolutely at a standstill for a quarter of an hour. Everybody made some kind of a noise.

Everybody Thronged Kruger. Then the crowd dispersed. The Kruger party went up Yonge-street, and Paul had a pretty bad time of it. He was whacked and clubbed and punched wherever a stick or a club could reach him. Scenes like these were being constantly enacted all day.

THE STREET PARADE

In the Evening Was of a Military Character, With Many Bands in Line. And the procession! Was there such a one ever held in Canada before? Order? Yes, there was no pretence made at any such thing. There was just a mad, surging crowd of thousands, delirious with joy and yelling like maniacs. They simply could give vent to all they felt. It has been truly said that given a fine day and plenty of fire-crackers all that is necessary to celebrate an event is secured. But add to this enthusiasm that has lain dormant; that has been smouldering in the heart of every true, loyal Torontonian and has never been given an opportunity of showing itself, and try if you can to imagine what last night's parade was like. It is beyond imagination, it cannot be described, it overwhelmed one and its intensity showed what a good loyal British nature is capable of.

A Military Parade. Although the scores of processions, the largest one started from the Armouries and paraded through the principal downtown streets. It was the Grenadier Guard drill night and that regiment, led by their band, led the thousands. They marched with their rifles and were almost the only ones that kept order. Following in their wake came a soft phalanx of citizens of all classes and dressed in very imaginable kind of costume, waving flags, shouting and yelling like Indians in a war dance.

Veterans Were Out. Next came all the veterans, proudly strutting along and keeping step to their own band. They, too, added their quota to the general noise and a good big quota at that.

BRITISH FLAG HAS BEEN RAISED OVER JOHANNESBURG, LORD ROBERTS' VICTORIES

No News Has Been Received From Pretoria Since Wednesday, and Possibly the Wires Have Been Cut—No Doubt in London That Roberts Has Pretoria.

Casualties in French's and Hamilton's Forces Said to Have Been Trifling—All the Rolling Stock in Johannesburg Has Been Imprisoned—Further Resistance Futile.

London, June 1.—(3.35 a.m.)—Belated messages from Pretoria confirm the reports of the departure of President Kruger with his Cabinet and staff officials Tuesday night and the selection at a meeting of citizens of a committee to administer the city provisionally.

Have the Wires Been Cut? Since these telegrams have reached London, apparently the Boer cables have been cut. The possession of Johannesburg at all events, as Lord Roberts has telegraphed, is a fact. State Attorney Smuts did not depart with President Kruger, but remained in Pretoria.

General Ruddle's Casualties When He Defeated the Boer Commando at Senekal. Cape Town, May 31.—General Ruddle has defeated a Boer commando at Senekal. His casualties were 45 killed and many wounded.

Forty-Five Were Killed. General Ruddle's Casualties When He Defeated the Boer Commando at Senekal. Cape Town, May 31.—General Ruddle has defeated a Boer commando at Senekal. His casualties were 45 killed and many wounded.

Where Boers May Hold Out. The Boers lately confining Lord Roberts appear to have gone eastward also towards the Lydenburg region. The defenders of Laing's Nek, when their position becomes too perilous, will probably retreat straight northward towards Lydenburg. When this concentration takes place, there will be possibly 20,000 men who may hold out for a time, with scattered bands of guerrillas elsewhere.

Hundreds of Boers Captured. Sought Refuge in a Mine, Where the British Grenadiers Have Taken Them All. London, May 31.—(4.20 p.m.)—A special despatch from Germiston, a suburb of Johannesburg, occupied by Lord Roberts, says several hundred Boers have sought refuge in a mine, where the British Grenadiers have cornered them, and barred all escape.

Was Kruger Captured? An Unconfirmed Story Published in the Westminster Gazette That He Has Been Caught. London, May 31.—(4.45 p.m.)—The Westminster Gazette says it is rumored to-night in a quarter likely to be well informed, that President Kruger had been captured by the British six miles beyond Pretoria.

To Prevent Disturbance. Lord Roberts Agreed to Delay His Entry Into Johannesburg. London, May 31.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts, under date of Germiston, May 30: "In answer of a flag of truce I sent to Johannesburg this morning the commandant came to see me. He begged me to defer entering the town for 24 hours, as there were many armed burghers still inside. I agreed to this, as I am most anxious to avert the possibility of anything like disturbance inside the town and as bodies of the enemy are still holding the hills in the immediate neighborhood, from which they will have to be cleared off before hand."

Handle Attacked Boers. "Runde reports that he attacked a large party of Boers near Senekal on May 28. He said his casualties were not heavy."

The Mines Are Uninjured. Nine Engines, a Coal Train and a Large Amount of Rolling Stock Was Captured. Germiston, Transvaal, May 30.—(Wednesday, 3.25 p.m.)—Johannesburg is practically in British possession. The Boer mines are uninjured. Nine engines, a coal train and a great quantity of rolling stock were captured. The remnants of the Boer rear guard remained behind and fought in the streets of Germiston, but they were easily cleared by the Grenadiers.

Further Resistance Futile. The Times says any further resistance the Boers may offer will be futile. The collapse of the Transvaal as a militant state may be regarded as complete. Threats of obstinate guerrilla warfare need not be taken more seriously than the exploded mine menace of resistance at Johannesburg and Pretoria. The formal annexation of the Transvaal will speedily follow.

understood that Dr. Leyds has not had lower will since the arrival here of the Boer peace delegates.

Local Councillors Captured. London, May 31.—Lord Cecil Manners, who is acting as a newspaper correspondent for South Africa, has been captured by the Boers during Lord Roberts' advance on May 20.

Africans All Booming. London, May 31.—The news of the impending surrender of Johannesburg and Pretoria caused general improvement in the market for African securities. Elsewhere the public bought only slightly, waiting for official confirmation of the war news. American and European copper shares were erratic, in connection with the Paris settlement.

British Occupy Heidelberg. Cape Town, May 31.—The British have occupied Heidelberg, on the railroad connecting Johannesburg with the Transvaal frontier town of Volksrust on the Natal frontier near Laing's Nek.

Police Called Out. Exuberant Celebrations Made a Bonanza for West Queen-street and Were Disorderly. Street railway traffic on the West Queen-street line was delayed some little time early this morning by the presence of a large bonfire in the roadway between the street and the foot of Dundas-street. The fire was started by a number of West End youths, who, while on their way to their homes, made kindling wood of an expressway shelter and several adjoining fences. The police had to be called out to extinguish the fire, and the firemen appeared on the scene some time later, but nobody was hurt and quiet was restored in a short time.

Fight at Political Meeting. Celebrators of Pretoria's Fall Marched into the Hall and Were Disorderly. Greenway, P.C., May 31.—(Special.)—Hon. Sir Curtis' final meeting of the campaign last night became a scene of fighting, caused by the exuberance of spirits of celebrators of the capture of Pretoria, who marched into the hall, and the ill-considered action of Chairman McArthur in attempting to have them thrown out. The police had to be called out to restore order, and the meeting was adjourned.

SIR HIBBERT MAKES CHARGES

Says Major Walsh Prostituted His Official Position to Exploit Valuable Mineral Claims on Dominion Creek.

Quotes the Case of Carbeno of Brockville and Moves a Vote of Censure on the Government, Which, However, Is Promptly Voted Down.

Ottawa, May 31.—(Special.)—To-day's session was devoted to an expose of Yukon corruption by Sir Hibbert Tupper. His famous speech of a year ago on this subject went into the matter exhaustively. This agreement was made on the Quebec, while Walsh, Carbeno and the rest of the commission's party were on route to Dawson. Yet the agreement was ante-dated at Port Arthur. Carbeno made the agreement to Phil Walsh, a brother of Major Walsh, because he wished to get $2000 a year salary instead of $600. He was threatened that if he did not do as Walsh said he would be sent home.

A Starting Feature. Another feature of the charge was that Walsh had caused Dominion Creek, one of the largest and most important gold-bearing districts in the Yukon, to be closed by placing it in the hands of his friends a few days before the public got a chance to stake claims. Carbeno was one of his friends and got a claim in this way.

Mrs. Koch Got a Share. Another friend who shared similarly was Mrs. Koch, a restaurant keeper. She had been concluded by placing in the hands of the Speaker a resolution that "the failure of Walsh was an employe of the Government, but agreed with Walsh that in all the

MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH OF THIS UNKNOWN YOUNG MAN

Was Found in Leader-Lane Dying and Taken to the Hospital, Where He Succumbed Without Making His Identity Known—Description of the Body.

A deep mystery that is puzzling the brains of the police was originated yesterday afternoon, when a young man was found lying in Leader Lane in a semi-conscious condition. At St. Michael's Hospital, where he was taken, death ensued without the patient's identity becoming known or the direct cause of death being ascertained. Up to an early hour this morning nobody had come forward who could throw any light on the young man, when movements before he was picked up. When he was lying on the roadway, opposite the premises of the Imperial Bank and a little north of Wellington-street. The discovery was made by some pedestrians, who are at present unknown. When they reached his side the young man was suffering to speak and was apparently unable to give any name. They carried him to the hospital at 2 o'clock, and he remained until the ambulance arrived.

Ambulance Officer John Fyfe endeavored to obtain some information about the patient, but those present at that time were unable to say anything. He was admitted to the hospital at 2 o'clock, and was placed in the Emergency Ward. Less than an hour after his admittance, he completely lost consciousness and began to sink. There was every evidence that he was suffering from a brain fever, but the usual remedies applied failed to bring about the desired result. His condition continued to grow worse, and at 9.45 o'clock he died.

The physicians in attendance say that the fever from which he appeared to be suffering might have been recovered by a fall, a sunstroke, or over-exercising. There were no injuries about the body. The dead man, to all appearances, was a mechanic. He wore a dark coat, light vest and light bicycle trousers, with black stockings and blue peaked cap. In the pockets of the clothing numerous personal effects were found, including an embossed A.O.U. stick pin and a Royal Gendarmerie mental pin. He was about 21 years of age, of slight build, but fully developed. He was 5 feet 8 inches in height, had light hair, brown eyes and prominent features.

To determine the cause of death, a post-mortem examination will be held at the hospital this morning, and an enquiry into the circumstances surrounding the mysterious death will likely follow. About midnight several members of the Royal Gendarmerie viewed the remains, but none of them could identify the body.
