Bulgaria Meets Resistance In Attempt To Quell Revolution

EVACUATION OF CORFU IS BEGUN

REBELS AND TROOPS IN SOFIA CLASH

Several Revolutionists Killed or Wounded; Prisoners are Beaten.

EXAGGERATED? Government Charged With Attempting to Create False Impression.

Athens, Sept. 21.—Advices from Sofia arriving here through diplomatic channels which are not specified, report clashes between troops and revolutionists in Sofia. A number of the revolutionists were killed or wounded, and it is asserted that those arrested were cruelly beaten and that several died from injuries.

Stronger Resistance. The advices add that the Bulgarian Government is taking severe measures to quell the movement, but is meeting with strong resistance in Northern Bulgaria, especially at Plevena.

The Bulgarian Government is said to be exaggerating the importance of the movement and trying to create an impression that it is connected with the Serbo-Bulgarian differences.

U-BOAT COMMANDER TURNS RUM-RUNNER

Brings 2,500 Cases Whisky From Fatheland to Massachusetts Coast.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 21.—Captain Eugene Friedrichs may never have reached the U. S. coast during his five years as a U-boat commander, but according to his story when he brought his 150 ton schooner Emmie Friedrichs in here, he reached it not long ago when his vessel was carrying 2,500 cases of whiskey from the Fatheland, and he found it quite profitable.

"A submarine commander on rum run" Captain Friedrichs said he was told of how he came there and how his instincts as a one-time raider taught him to guard against now becoming the prey of others. Sharing his adventures is his wife, "a woman on rum run" for whom the vessel was named.

Was U. S. Liqueur.

Following the war the captain engaged in coastal trade through the Baltic and North Sea. Some time ago he was approached, he said, by parties from Chicago who had exported large quantities of American distilled liquor to Germany when prohibition was in effect in the U. S., and these asked to charter his ship to carry some of it back to the Massachusetts coast.

Captain Friedrichs sailed from Hamburg early in May, was forced far to the south and covered 6,000 miles getting to his destination.

While waiting off the Massachusetts coast the J. Scott Hankinson was raided by rum pirates, and her captain shot, near the anchorage of the German vessel.

BREEN IS HAVING STORMY PASSAGE

Republican General Reported to be on Hunger Strike at Mount Joy.

Dublin, Sept. 21.—Dan Breen, former commandant general in the Republic forces is reported to be having a stormy passage in his career in Mount Joy prison, where he is confined. According to Republican headquarters, Breen and others of the prisoners, were released with machine guns when they refused to move from a wing of the prison and Breen was hit on the head with a piece of pipe when he showed an inclination to resist. A doctor who was a fellow prisoner is alleged to have been fired at when he attempted to assist Breen. The latter is now reported to be on a hunger strike.

Dublin despatches Wednesday reporting the opening of the Dail session mentioned a parade by a group of women outside the Parliament building with banners demanding the release of the Republicans held prisoners and announcing that Breen was dying.

DECIDE TO ASSIST IN FINDING WORK

Saskatoon Conference Deals With Keeping British Harvesters in Canada.

Saskatoon, Sept. 21.—Providing that the British harvesters who came to Canada for the harvest season really desire to stay in the Dominion and become citizens, the conference of Boards of Trade, Governments and farmers organizations for the three prairie provinces held here yesterday decided to do all in its power to enable them to do so.

During a discussion on the matter it became apparent that the problem presented was not so much the fact as to whether the immigrant harvesters who wished to remain in Canada could be retained, but the question as to whether employment could be found for them during the winter.

The conference decided to go on record as being in favor of requesting the employment Service of Canada, assisted by the Canada Colonization Association and other organizations to utilize every available method to bring employers and employees together, and further emphasized the importance of having as many as possible of those now engaged in agriculture pursue to continue as such.

CAN THINK ONLY OF CANADA, SAYS BYNG

This Dominion Was Consolidated on Vimy Ridge, He Declares.

Quebec, Sept. 21.—"If I have done anything to build up this Dominion into one consolidated whole I shall go home happy," exclaimed His Excellency Lord Byng in replying to the address of welcome extended to him by Premier Taschereau at a dinner in honor of His Excellency at the Legislature Cafe last night.

"My own subject, my favorite subject is Canada," he said. It is the only subject I can put into words. It really has entered into my soul of souls and the question arises what is to be the future of this country. I am the optimist of optimists. Two great nations stood side by side in this country, he said. Last year was one that might well be remembered. In spite of differences, France and England were now greater friends than ever. (Applause.) Every Canadian had reason to be proud to see how the people of Canada had stood united in thought and deed through a crisis which 100 years ago might have proved disastrous, he declared.

How they escaped with what are not regarded as serious injuries is almost beyond understanding.

The automobile was coming to this city from Maine. It did not turn but landed on its side, the woman being thrown clear of the car in the descent. She had her arm broken and otherwise badly bruised while the man received numerous bad bruises and cuts.

DIFFERENCE EXISTS ON RUHR ISSUE

Expected Collapse of Passive Resistance Still Agitates London.

MUCH SPECULATION

Opinion Divided as to Result of Premier's Conference in Paris.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 21.—Reports of the impending collapse of passive resistance in the Ruhr continue to be given much prominence in the London press. The importance of such a turn in the situation as it would affect Franco-Belgian co-operation is emphasized by the newspapers, although they print widely different opinions as to exactly what immediate result would be produced.

The commentators are puzzled by the absence of authoritative information respecting the meetings of the premiers in Paris, and take up much space in the morning papers in speculations as to the precise meaning of the official statement issued in Paris Wednesday night. Indeed, there are almost as many interpretations as commentators. One regards the communication as merely a piece of diplomatic rhetoric, meaning practically nothing. Another is convinced that it means more than it says, another that it means exactly what it says, and so on.

The Times, which took more than a page to consider the statement, before commenting on it, remarks today upon the close secrecy maintained respecting the premiers' conversation, and says:—

"We do not believe the meeting is likely to have any immediate positive effect. Its importance is rather psychological. Such co-operation between England and France in setting the reparations question as may still be possible will have been greatly facilitated by Mr. Baldwin's visit to Paris, which will do something to ease the deadlock that at present renders hopeless the task of restoring Europe."

Referring to Germany's reported readiness to cease passive resistance if expelled civilians are allowed to return, the political writer of the Daily Telegraph says such an offer has been made before and has been the subject of exchange of views between France and Great Britain. The French, he recalls, have stated that while they are willing to allow the return of minor employees, they will not consent to amnesty for the officials who organized the resistance and sabotage, and will only allow them to return with their names to appear before a French court-martial.

ANGRY HORSE BEATS UP A MOTOR CAR

Niagara Falls, Ont., Sept. 21.—In a contest between a horse and a motor car the horse came off best. Charles Cummings and George Stewart were motoring along Luindy's Lane when the horse, which had broken out of a field, was hit. The car was stalled, and the horse, in its excitement, kicked the radiator to pieces, smashed the lamps, went to the side and kicked the occupants of the car. The horse then paid a visit to the back of the car and smashed the rear lights. The horse did not receive a scratch, but the occupants of the car were badly shaken up by their experience.

Seattle, Sept. 21.—Captain Amundsen's plans for an airplane flight across the North Pole from Spitzbergen to Alaska next summer contemplated the use of three all-metal planes in relays, he announced yesterday, after a conference with H. H. Hammer, his business representative.

Captain Amundsen explained that the purpose of the proposed flight was to discover what lay within the million square miles of the unexplored Polar Basin.

Capt. Amundsen said that with Hammer he would return to Norway soon to perfect plans for next summer's flight.

Hammer said the three all-metal planes to be used in the relay flight are under construction in Germany.

Groves, returning officer in West Ottawa, has just received from Mr. Sproule, the latter's election expenses totalled $30, made up of $20 for 20,000 handbills and $10 for street car fare during the campaign.

New York, Sept. 21.—Justice was tempered with mercy when two children, dropped to their knees in a Convey Island courtroom, and prayed for their mother whom a magistrate had just sent to jail.

Charged with passing a worthless check, Mrs. Catherine Werner, the mother, had been ordered held to await action by the grand jury. A few minutes later, after the room had been cleared Assistant District Attorney Mabel Patterson found Mrs. Werner's children, Mabel, 14, and John, 4, kneeling on the courtroom floor. She listened Little John was silent but Mabel said over and over again, "Oh, God, save our mother."

Their prayer was answered, for when Magistrate Ejerin was told of the children's prayer he reduced the mother's bail from $1,000 to $500 that she might escape going to jail.

ITALIANS COMMENCED MOVE TODAY

Almost Week Ahead of the Time Set by Conference of Ambassadors.

Fiume Question

Lively Session of Bulgarian Chamber When Matter is Discussed.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 21.—Although the Conference of Ambassadors fixed Sept. 27 as the date for the Italian evacuation of Corfu, the Italians actually began their evacuation today, says a Central News despatch from Athens. Artillery brigades, guns and ammunition have already been embarked.

Answer Promised Today. Belgrade, Sept. 21.—Fiume provided a lively opening in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. The Democratic Left, supported by all the opposition, interpellated the Government as to whether it intends to condone the obvious violation of the Rapallo treaty and negotiate a new agreement granting Italy Fiume in exchange for Yugoslav Slav's own territory, the Porto Baros Delta, and insisting that the Government come out in the open and inform the nation, through Parliament, what it is doing.

The reading of the interpellation was accompanied by anti-Government cries which the speakers had difficulty in quelling. Eventually the Government announced that it would reply today. League Congratulated.

Geneva, Sept. 21.—Switzerland carried a vote of conciliation into the assembly of the League of Nations, which reconvened today after almost a week's rest, when ex-President Motta congratulated both the Council of the League and the assembly of plenipotentiaries on the happy settlement of the Greco-Italian crisis.

Motta declared the council had followed the spirit of the league covenant and he expressed the ardent hope that now the council had decided to permit the jurists to interpret the article of the covenant which had difficulty in accepting that wise decision and not press for debate on the issues involved by Italy's attitude toward the document.

Motta declared that in his judgment the League had accomplished great things, but that it could not achieve all that was hoped for until the time arrived when the League had become universal.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and heat right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

FOR BRIDES-TO-BE.

Miss Clara Robinson was hostess last evening at a novelty shower given in honor of her sister, Miss Mona Robinson, who is to be one of the principals in an interesting event soon. About 20 friends gathered at the home of Miss Robinson, Horsfield street, and spent a very pleasant evening in games and music. A little before breaking up time little Eric Hoyt entered the room bringing a highly decorated cart laden with gifts for the bride to be, who expressed her thanks for the many remembrances.

Miss Helen Brown was the guest of the Y. P. S. of the Mission Church at their hall, Paradise Row, on Wednesday evening at a second shower given in her honor. A pleasant evening was spent in games and musical dances and refreshments were served. During the evening a basket of beautiful and useful gifts was presented to Miss Brown.

CAUSE TO CURE
A CAUSE MUST BE ADJUSTED, MADE RIGHT
Chiropractic
adjusts causes

CHIROPRACTIC is based on fundamental, natural laws. The organs of the body are the motors, the nerves are power lines which carry vital energy or life to all parts of the body. Impingement or pinching of the nerves interferes with their life-carrying power and disease is the result. The Chiropractor adjusts with his hands the misaligned vertebrae and the impinged nerves are freed. The flow of life enters the part diseased, normal functions are resumed and health restored. The Chiropractic way is Nature's way.

AN APPRECIATION.

To the Editor of The Times.
Sir—I wish to express my appreciation of the beautiful rendering of the Hebrew Invocation "Eli, Eli" rendered by the Imperial Orchestra last evening. This very impressive prayer-song which is so dramatic and appealing, is one of the gems of Jewish music and is being played and sung by leading artists in high-class programmes. It was very pleasing to the ears of all who like music. I am sure, but especially to those who cherish it for its spiritual meaning. Thanking you for this space and the Imperial Orchestra for its treat, I remain
Yours truly,
A. POYAS.

The Evening Times-Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 21, 1923

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the New Brunswick Publishing Co., Ltd., J. D. McKenna, President.

THE WISE OLD PIONEERS.

Superintendent M. A. MacLeod contributes to the Agricultural Gazette of Canada an interesting article on the Agricultural Societies of New Brunswick. He notes the fact that the first Society was formed in St. John in 1790 but the field of operations was small for quite a number of years.

CHOOSING IMMIGRANTS.

A recent Washington despatch to the Wall Street Journal says that there is a prospect of a revision of the American immigration laws at the next session of Congress. We quote: "A clear statement of immigration problems with proposed remedies is under consideration of Secretary of Labor Davis, who has returned from Europe, where he made a thorough study of the subject. Before this statement is made public, the Secretary will have ready for presentation to Congress proposed legislation to carry out his ideas. The secretary already has talked with President Coolidge about immigration. In a general way, Secretary Davis is understood to favor a system of highly selective immigration with the important provision that the selecting shall be done abroad so far as possible, which will do away with the turning back of prospective immigrants after they have reached this shore. That will require cooperation of American consuls, steamship lines and the foreign governments. Beyond that the basis for selection probably will remain some quota system, but not necessarily that in force at present. It is not likely the immigration doors will be opened any wider than at present, however. It is the belief here that it is the type and not the number of immigrants it lets in which is the main trouble with the present law."

Subsequent live-stock importations were made until, in 1860, these for this purpose totalled 25,000. These importations laid the foundations, from fifty to seventy-five years ago, of the best herds to be found here. The system of apportioning annual grants to agricultural societies was adopted in 1840, and £100 allotted to each county. In 1843 it was provided that the societies must submit a statement of their accounts before getting another grant. In 1846 the total grant was fixed at £2,000, with not more than 2,000 in any one county. Other changes came until 1869, when a Provincial Board of Agriculture was appointed. It consisted of a man from each county, three members of the Government and the professor of chemistry of King's College (now the University). This Board urged the importance of a model farm and agricultural school, so that what is now accomplished at Fredericton was in the minds of farmers sixty-four years ago. In 1874 a Secretary for Agriculture was appointed and the Board ceased to function, as its duties were brought under the immediate supervision of the Government. This experiment was not a success, and after six years a new Board was created, comprising one member of the Government and six men appointed by the Government from the nominees of the officers of the agricultural societies. This system continued until 1888, when the present act providing for a Minister and Deputy Minister or Secretary for Agriculture was adopted.

During the life of the Board a model farm was actually established, but it did not fulfil expectations. The policy was right, however, and Mr. MacLeod says: "Today experimental stations and demonstration farms are fulfilling the objects aimed at by these worthy men, and the Agricultural College at Truro, Nova Scotia, short courses, etc., are doing for our young men who wish to take advantage thereof, what the mooted schools of over sixty years ago claimed they would do. At the present time an agricultural school is being erected on the Experimental Farm at Fredericton, where it is hoped many of the sons of members of our agricultural societies may gain some of the advantages sought for them in the early sixties by the Board of Agriculture."

Mr. MacLeod points out that there are now 152 agricultural societies in this province, with upwards of nine thousand farmer members, who subscribe annually about $14,500. The Government appropriation of $24,000 gives every member The Maritime Farmer, and the balance is allotted to the societies. Since 1913 there has been an agricultural society division of the Department of Agriculture, with a superintendent in charge. The agricultural societies promote improved live stock, co-operative handling of fertilizers, feeds, seeds, spraying materials and other commodities, the sale of stock and crops, holding fairs and developing an active social life. Referring to fairs or exhibitions, it is noted that the first was held in Fredericton in 1822, the second in Sussex in 1861 and the third in Sackville in 1872. Today exhibitions are annual and numerous. In addition to the agricultural societies there are now the Farmers and Dairyman's Association, the Fruit Growers Association, the Agricultural Societies Union, which deals with the purchase of chemicals and mixing of fertilizer; and the Dairyman's Union, which conducts an annual cheese and butter show and a fortnightly cheese and butter board. All these activities have developed from the efforts of the far-seeing men of the early years of the province, of whom Mr. MacLeod says: "A perusal of the minutes of Agricultural Society meetings, held in the forties and later, reveals the fact that some of the deliberations of that time were on subjects that are considered quite up-to-date nowadays. They reveal men of vision, intelligence and energy who had the good of future generations at heart. They were laying the foundation strongly and well, with a view to leaving a noble heritage to their children and their children's children."

Fredericton is to be congratulated on the great success of its exhibition, whose varied and splendid features have proved so great an attraction to people from other parts of the province.

The following very interesting item appears in the Edmonton Bulletin: "A forestry official of the Dominion Government says the forest is invading the prairie and that during the last dozen years the timber line in the western provinces has moved out into the open country for a distance of from 60 to 100 miles. The main reason no doubt is that settlement has checked the prairie fire, and given free seeds a chance to grow wherever the wind may carry them and drop them in the favorable soil. The poplars of the older provinces destroyed the forests, in the prairie country they are creating forests without meaning to, by keeping down the enemy that swept the plains clear of trees in the long gone ages and kept them clear."

The tragedy near Welsford yesterday has shocked the community. It was a dreadful ending of what had been planned to be a delightful excursion. The danger of the level crossing is again tragically emphasized, and motorists should heed so terrible a warning of this one of the risks of the road.

CHILDREN SEE MAN KILL HIRSELF ON RIVERSIDE DRIVE

New York, Sept. 21.—Children playing on Riverside Drive, near Grant's Tomb saw a shiny revolver in a man's hand. They drew near the bench where he sat and nudged a spokesman to ask the man to show them the weapon.

He turned it upon himself, pulled the trigger and the bullet entered his brain. He was Louis Cohn, of 1061 Inverdale Avenue, the Bronx.

"Say, look here," finally exclaimed the exasperated farmer, "I often buy live but never dead stock."

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

How He Knew. During the performance at the local picture theatre the following notice was flashed on the screen during the interval:

"Lost, between Myrtle Grove and the theatre a gold ring. Finder will be rewarded."

In less than five minutes a man presented himself at the box office.

"The ring is found," he said. Immediately the clerk rushed off to fetch the manager, who at once came in and started to congratulate the man.

"Have you got it with you?" he asked.

"Oh, no," replied the man, "but I've only just come along that way and it wasn't there, so it's found."

Detained by Friends. A young man who had gone for a week's holiday long overstayed his time.

On his return to the city a friend who knew he was none too flush of money said to him:

"Why did you remain away so much longer, Jim?"

"My friends kept me there," replied Jim.

"Your friends? Why, I didn't know you had any friends at the seaside," said his companion.

"I haven't," answered "My friends are all in town, and they refused to send me any money."

Diana Sweets Re-Opens Tomorrow

New Dinner System For Sales People is Special Feature.

Saturday, September 22nd, brings with it the re-opening of the finest and most modern dining and luncheon department and up-to-date confectionery store in the city, by Stevenson Brothers, the general proprietors of Diana Sweets, at their present premises, 9 Charlotte street.

After a visit to leading Canadian and American cities in quest of new ideas, Mr. Christopher Stevenson has spared neither effort nor expense in refitting the firm's commodious premises with a special view to the requirements, comfort and convenience of sales people who have but little time at the noon hour when a tempting, toothsome, sustaining meal is of so much importance.

Handsome, new, mahogany settees, sanitary glass topped tables and a new tiled floor will completely transform Diana Sweets to which will be added a handsome white kitchen, spotlessly clean which will be in charge of a skilled chef of wide experience in the bigger cities of this continent.

The candy department has been and will be brought abreast of the times, nearly all candy being made on the premises with quality at its best. The ice cream, also the product of the Diana Sweets, is made of finest and choicest materials under strictly sanitary conditions and the big soda fountain leaves nothing to be desired.

Dainty uniformed sales girls will attend to the comfort and requirements of all visitors, who will be cordially welcomed on the opening day and at all times at Diana Sweets, 9 Charlotte street. See adv. page 10.

BORDER LADIES AT BAR HARBOR

Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Veazie at the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Bar Harbor, Me., Sept. 21.—Canadian and American women joined in extending best wishes for the work of the Federation of Women's Clubs at the opening season of the thirty-first annual meeting of the Maine Federation.

Guests of honor were Mrs. A. E. Veazie of St. Stephen, who brought greetings from the Canadian Federation and Mrs. William Todd also of St. Stephen, wife of the Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, who brought greetings from her husband in behalf of New Brunswick.

Both women spoke of the strong bond of friendship between the people of the two countries, and the people of St. Stephen and Calais, just across the line. "There is no line there," she said, "although each is loyal to his own country." She described the arch of peace between the two countries on the western coast and urged the erection of a similar one in the East.

BOB-HAIRED FRESHMAN BAFFLE COLLEGE HAZERS

Pittsburgh, Sept. 21.—Bobbed hair has halted the initiation of freshman girls at the Carnegie Institute of Technology here. In past years the chief hazing custom has been to compel first-year girls to wear their hair in plaits and in other quaint ways, with ribbons predominating. The custom is passed, sophomore girls declare, because of the popularity of "the bob" and they are in a quandary to find a substitute.

Croquet is a revival of the old game of Pall Mall, which gives its name to a well known London street.

The curfew was introduced by William the Conqueror, probably as a safeguard against fire.

Over 10 million bottles were bought in drug stores last year, the largest selling liquid laxative in the world! Go to your druggist and buy a bottle. The cost is less than a cent a dose. MOTHER ASKS COURT TO MAKE MAN OF HER "ROUSTABOUT" SON

New York, Sept. 20.—The courts having made two "roustabout" sons of Mrs. Julia Growskie of Yonkers industrious, model citizens, she brought a third son, Edward Growskie, eighteen years old.

The two brothers, well-dressed and respectable-looking, appeared in court to aid Judge Morris L. Rosenwasser to reform Edward. The defendant, technically charged with vagrancy, wore a soiled, ragged suit of clothes and was unkempt in appearance.

The Judge advised the mother to withdraw the complaint for a week, warning the defendant that unless he changed his ways and went to work, he would have him brought back to court and sent to an institution where he would be forced to labor.

CONVICT FLOGGING RENEWED. Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 21.—The whipping strap abolished two years ago by Governor Thomas E. Kilby, has been reintroduced in at least one coal mine camp in Alabama, where leased state convicts are worked.

This became known as a result of an inquiry into an outbreak at Banner mines last week. The leaders of the trouble were flogged with a strap, it was divulged in reports to the Governor. White convicts are said to have been among the number.

L. A. Boyd, president of the State Board of Convict Supervisors, in a report to the Governor, assumed responsibility for the floggings.

There are so many ways to serve Kellogg's Bran—the one great aid to humanity!

You will enjoy eating Kellogg's Bran because its nut-like flavor appeals to the taste. And, think what each mouthful is doing to drive constipation out of your system and to re-establish health! That's because it is scientifically made to relieve suffering humanity—IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Physicians recommend the regular use of Kellogg's Bran for mild or chronic cases and as a preventive. Bran, eaten each day and in proper quantity, sweeps, cleanses and purifies the alimentary tract.

Get away from pills and cathartics—Kellogg's Bran will give you permanent relief from constipation. Do not confuse Kellogg's Bran with common bran. Kellogg's is cooked, crumbled and ready to serve. It can be used in the most delightful baking products without in any way reducing its regulatory value. Try raisin bread or muffins or griddle-cakes made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each package.

Kellogg's Bran is nationally eaten for health's sake as a cereal—in winter time with hot milk. Others prefer it sprinkled over hot or cold cereals. Another way is to mix it with hot cereals just before serving. It can also be cooked with cereal. In each case add two tablespoonsful of Kellogg's Bran for each person, in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Kellogg's Bran is sold by all grocers and is supplied in individual packages at first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant!

Win American League Championship by Yesterday's Victory.

New York, Sept. 21.—The Yankees finally did it. Yesterday, after a desperate struggle with the Browns, the New York team won 6 to 5, and clinched the American League pennant for another year. The game yesterday was won when Sam Jones cut short a belated rally on the part of the St. Louis team.

THE NEW ELECTRIC LINE

Hartland Observer: The Carleton Electric Co., Ltd., is progressing rapidly with the work of building the line from Bridgewater to Woodstock. Nearly the whole line has been staked out and the work of digging post holes is going on rapidly. The people of Woodstock, who will be the largest users of the current, will not realize in particular any change from the old to the new except that their monthly bills will be lighter. The other towns and villages of the county, however, find it hard to realize that plenty of high tension current will be available for their use as early as November. There will be electricity for light, for heat, for power and the thousand and one household uses to which the current may be put.

J. L. SUGRUE IS THE NEW GRAND KNIGHT

Chosen as Head of Local Council, Knights of Columbus.

The election of officers for the ensuing term, at the annual meeting of the St. John Council, No. 997, Knights of Columbus, last night, resulted as follows: Grand Knight, James L. Sugrue; Deputy Grand Knight, F. J. McInerney; Chancellor, R. B. McDade; Warden, W. B. Hurley; Recorder, R. L. Grannan; Financial Secretary, J. K. Kennedy; Treasurer, Joseph D. Cortery; Advocate, T. Louis McGowan; Inside Guard, Edward McCann; Outside Guard, W. E. Mully and A. Murphy; Trustees, John McDonald, Jr., W. J. Fitzpatrick and Robert J. Murphy.

Mr. Sugrue, the newly elected Grand Knight, has been connected in an active capacity with the Knights of Columbus here for several years, filling the position of deputy Grand Knight during the past term, and prior to that was a member of the board of trustees.

Through the joint efforts of himself and others, the Inter-Society Debating League, which received considerable prominence, through the wealth of hitherto undisclosed talent it uncovered during the few years of its existence, was founded, and by his willingness to assist the young debaters, and to act as judge during the debates, he was largely responsible for the success it has attained.

Mr. Sugrue is also an active member of the Y. M. C. I.

Prior to his accepting the position he now holds as commissioner for the Workmen's Compensation Board, Mr. Sugrue was actively associated with the labor movement of the city, province and Dominion. On several occasions he has been a delegate to the Dominion Trades convention. He practically organized the Federation of Labor here, and became its first president in 1915, holding this position until 1919. During the same period, he was president of the St. John Trades and Labor council. Interested in civic affairs, he ran for commissioner in 1914, but was one of the unsuccessful candidates. Mr. Sugrue's friends are pleased to see him elected head of the local Knights, and will wish him a successful term of office. He succeeds Dr. J. B. Gosnell.

TELLS GRIPPING STORY OF FIGHT

James Power Says Dempsey is Undoubted King—Ringside Scenes.

BY JAMES POWER.

I have returned from the Dempsey-Firpo fight in New York much wiser regarding the fighting game. I have returned with far more respect for Jack Dempsey than when I left St. John.

Dempsey is the greatest fighter that ever lived and it will always be a marvel to me how Tommy Gibbons stood up to the champion in their mill at Shelby, Montana.

Firpo will never have a look-in with Dempsey. His wonderful ability to fake punishment will keep him among the top-notchers, but he is not in the same class with Dempsey. He may be able to stand up with Gibbons.

I had a wonderful experience in New York. I was one of the 85,000 fans who struggled to gain admission to the Polo grounds the evening of the great battle. I left the Commodore Hotel at 11:15 o'clock and the taxi I had hired soon landed me at the Polo grounds, or as near as we could get, owing to the immense crowds which were swarming around the various entrances of the home of the Giants.

Struggles for Seat.

After I entered the gate I struggled for fifteen minutes before I reached my seat, which was in the twelfth row of the ringside seats. It was a terrible jam even at this hour, fully three hours before the main bout was due to start. I was thrown one way, and then another, as the crowd, scrambling for their seats, swayed this way and then that.

Finally I reached my seat, which was on a bench. What a thrill to watch that great mass of humanity pour into that vast amphitheatre, and what a sight it was to see row after row of seats, almost as far as the eye could see, being packed with human beings. Policemen, firemen and ushers were powerless in that great bulging sea of humanity. They were thrown hither and thither in their efforts to pilot ticket-holders to their seats. Even when the preliminaries were called and were being fought the crowds swarmed in. To watch them was far more interest than the minors who were performing in the ring.

Crowd Storms Gates.

The vast crowd kept storming the entrances until five minutes before the main bout started. The ringside seats stretched 100 yards on the four sides of the ring—that is, those that were on the dead level. Back of these seats graduated in elevation to the height of four feet.

I had a feeling that my seat was not to hold me long. For a few minutes before the main bout started the crowd grew restless. The fans began to stand, first on the ground and then on the benches in the ringside seats. I was two seats from the aisle. I had a feeling that something was going to happen. I slipped out to the aisle and watched my chance to reach the ringside.

My hope was right. Soon all the fans were on their feet and standing on the benches. The police and firemen were helpless. The crowd remained standing. Cautiously I worked my way ringward until I could put my chin on the floor of the ring. In this cramped position I waited. Others did the same. Some were forced back—I was among those who stayed.

Firpo Enters First.

Firpo was the first to enter the ring. He was cheered and he was booed—more cheers by far, though, than boos. He wore a checkered bath robe, black and white. He immediately went to his corner. His face was grave. He gave a slight smile when the crowd gave him a cheer.

BURNS DUE SUNDAY FOR ARENA BOUT

The Montrealer Expects to Weigh 134 When He Meets McIntyre.

Word was received in St. John last night that Joe "Kid" Burns, the noted lightweight of Montreal, who will meet Johnnie McIntyre in the Arena here Monday night will arrive Sunday. He will be accompanied by his trainer.

According to the Montreal Star and those who have seen Burns box, he is one of the cleverest of his weight in Canada. He will weigh in for the match around 134 pounds. McIntyre will probably tip the scales at 140 pounds.

The match between these stellar boxers has caused more talk among boxing fans of the city than did the match between Gradwell and McIntyre, two weeks ago. Montreal expects Burns to get the decision in the early rounds, while friends of McIntyre expect to see the former welter champion waltz out of the arena.

McIntyre is looking for a stiff match and is training faithfully. At the Arena yesterday he boxed twelve rounds with three of the fastest men in St. John. He is also doing road work each day and says he is in even better shape than when he met Gradwell.

Groff and Young Dempsey are also said to be in great condition, and each realizes what a win Monday night will mean. This bout should bring out a section from the sound of the bell to the end of the eighth round.

Sullivan is determined to regain the laurels he lost when Young Shields beat the decision over him in their six two minute rounds match at the Arena two weeks ago. Shields has learned much since then, he says, and is confident of getting a decision over his more experienced opponent.

Firpo was down for the fifth time in the first round. He was sure another jab would end the fight. Firpo lay almost prostrate. His great recuperative power, however, surprised the champion and the 85,000 fight fans who were watching almost breathlessly.

Like a flash, in a still crouching position Firpo met the rush made by the champion and with a long right swing on the left jab he knocked Dempsey off his balance. Dempsey tried to clinch. The latter recovered and tried fast rights. His left hand seemed dead. Dempsey was forced to the ropes—he was leaning over them, swinging his head from left to right to avoid the rain of blows Firpo was delivering.

Then the unexpected happened. Firpo landed a mighty right high on the shoulder of Dempsey and the champion toppled over like a ten-pin, feet in the air, and into the arms of newspapermen who were huddled around the ring.

No Cheer, No Booh. There was not a cheer nor a booh from the vast audience. The crowd sat like stone images—amazed, paralyzed—they could not believe that their idol had been knocked off his feet. I rubbed my eyes to see if I were awake.

In seven seconds the champion again hopped into the ring. There was no waving of hands upon his second entry. He glared at Firpo. The latter himself seemed dazed at what had happened. Dempsey was out of the ring just seven seconds. It was long enough, however, for the champion to realize that he had the closest call in his career.

Crouching, he approached the challenger cautiously. Firpo made a wild leap at him. Dempsey clinched. He refused to again be off-guard. He eluded after every break, killing time until the gong sounded and the fiercest round in the history of the ring had ended.

Between Rounds. I was doing a lot of thinking between bells. Firpo was in his corner, in his corner under treatment. The fans were going—they use fans and not towels. Fight fans were discussing Dempsey being knocked out of the ring. Firpo supporters stated that Firpo could have claimed the fight there and then. Others did not agree. However the battle was to continue. By this time the immense gathering of the Fight Club had been worked up to fever heat.

TELLS GRIPPING STORY OF FIGHT

Dempsey sprang into the ring like a tiger. He waved his hands to the crowds as they wildly cheered him. Then he went and shook hands with Firpo. Neither man looked the other in the eye. It was a very formal greeting that each gave. Dempsey wore a white sweater when he entered the ring.

Both men went to the centre of the ring for their instructions. Then they retired to their corners ready for the greatest of all ring battles. No writer in the world can accurately describe what took place in that four minutes of fierce fighting. I will only try and tell it as I saw it.

The coldest-blooded man in the world could not control himself before such a throng of people. The air was permeated with excitement. There was an intense silence. You could hear your own heart beat. I have seen champions fight before without turning a hair.

There was something different so far as I was concerned in the atmosphere during the few minutes preceding this fight. The men glared at each other as they waited the sound of the gong that would throw them together. The gong rang.

Dempsey was the first out to the centre of the ring. Firpo was slower. Dempsey then and there showed himself to be one of the sportiest fighters that ever entered a ring. He could have boxed with Firpo for two or three rounds and played for another big fight with Firpo, but he did not. He sprang into the fight like a whirlwind.

The men swapped wicked punches from the start of the gong. Firpo was wide open. He had no science nor skill. Once, twice, three, four, five times he went to the floor beneath the sledgehammer blows of the champion. Dempsey knew—and we all knew that the crowd would stay on the head of the champion.

It was this confidence—over-confidence I would call it, that was almost the undoing of the great champion. In a moment of being off-guard the great batter and ring general almost dug his fingernails into his own forehead.

Down Five Times. Firpo was down for the fifth time in the first round. He was sure another jab would end the fight. Firpo lay almost prostrate. His great recuperative power, however, surprised the champion and the 85,000 fight fans who were watching almost breathlessly.

CUT NIGHT TRAIN SERVICE AGAIN

C.N.R. to Give Three Times Week St. John-Halifax Service.

According to word received this morning by the Board of Trade, the three times a week service between St. John and Halifax, for the night train, will be in force again this winter. The Board of Trade took up with the C. N. R. authorities at Moncton the complaints about the holding of the morning train at Hampton to do the suburban work from there in and thus losing the western connection, and also asked about the night train service between here and Halifax, voicing the hope that the full service would be maintained.

In answer to their communication Mr. L. S. Brown, wrote that the complaints in regard to the holding of the morning train would cease after September 30, when the new time table went into effect. In connection with the night service between St. John and Halifax he said the traffic would not warrant the full service and the best that could be done was three times a week, as last winter.

POLICE TAX CASE DISCUSSED TODAY

No Decision Yet on Protest of Lancaster Summer Residents.

The protest of the summer residents of the Parish of Lancaster against an assessment for police protection in district No. 2 was under consideration today by a committee of the municipal council appointed for that purpose. The meeting was held in the office of the county secretary, J. King Kelly, K. C., but no decision was arrived at. Those present were Warden Thomson, and Councilors O'Brien and Campbell.

It was brought out at the session that in 1922 there was an assessment of $800 on the district levied on all the residents and in addition to this the sum of $200 was borrowed making a total of $1,000 for that year, which was expended. There was collected from the tax payers the sum of $340, leaving a default of $660 and this default has been added this year to the $1,000 assessed, making a total of $1,660 for 1923, and the entire assessment placed on the summer residents. Their contention is that this default should not be levied on the summer residents and this view is upheld by the warden. Further information as to who defaulted last year will be obtained by the committee.

Japanese Relief Effort Discussed at Meeting of Ministers.

At a special meeting of the Methodist ministers of the city this morning in Centenary it was decided that the Methodist churches of St. John co-operate in response to the appeal from the Red Cross Society for Japanese relief and to have collections taken in the Methodist churches on Sunday, Sept. 23, or the following Sunday. The secretary submitted a plan for a regular monthly pulp exchange and also plans for services at the Home for Incurables and at Brookville. All these were accepted by the meeting. A great deal of routine was dealt with and adjournment was made to the call of the chair. Those present were Rev. J. M. Rice, presiding; Rev. E. E. Styles, secretary; Rev. Messrs. Neil MacLachlan, L. J. Wason, R. G. Fulton and F. T. Bertram.

POLICE COURT

William Murphy and Clifford McKinnon appeared in the Police Court this morning to answer a charge of being under the influence of liquor and impeding pedestrians. Both pleaded not guilty. Policeman Thomas testified that while going home at 6:55 o'clock this morning he saw these two and another man at the corner of Waterloo and Union streets, that Murphy was slugging about. He said he noticed girls en route to work having to walk in the street in order to get by the men. He saw one man get into an automobile and drive away. He placed Murphy and McKinnon under arrest. Policeman Laird testified that Murphy was drunk and that McKinnon was under the influence of liquor. He had not witnessed the defendants impeding pedestrians. Magistrate Henderson fined Murphy $8 or two months in jail on the drunkenness charge, but allowed the other to stand against him. He allowed McKinnon to go with the impeding charge standing against him. Two men appeared before Magistrate Henderson on charges of drunkenness. They were fined $8 or in default of payment were to be sent to jail for two months.

A SUGGESTION. Clifford Price, superintendent of streets, yesterday said that automobilists and owners of the streets could assist very materially in keeping the streets clean if they would co-operate to the extent of stopping their vehicles some little distance from the piles of dirt or driving around them instead of through and scattering them, after they had been swept up and were left waiting for the carts to remove them.

THE WARSHIPS VISIT. Mayor Fisher said this morning that he was arranging for some entertainment for the officers of the Capetown, but could not give out any particulars until he heard from Lieut.-Gov. Todd on the matter. A wire was received this morning by the harbor master that the ship was expected to arrive off the island on September 24 at 8 a.m. Mr. Alward has wired back suggesting that 11 a.m. would be a better hour.

A SAVING PROCESS. G. N. Hatfield, road engineer, has evolved a new scheme to save the city money and is taking the concrete which is being removed from the street car rails in Main street to the crusher and running it through that machine. He reports that the experiment has worked out well and the result is a better crushed stone, than if it had been taken from the quarry and at a much less expense. Some of this material is being used on Market Square for the paving there.
