Police Overpowered By Duluth Mob; Three Negroes Are Hanged

Circus Hands Suspected of Attack Upon a Girl

Headquarters Stormed with Bricks and Fire Streams—Pleading Priests Are Hooted Down—Mock Trial Convicts Three and Holds Three Acquitted.

Duluth, Minn., June 16—Virtually normal conditions prevailed today in the Duluth business streets over which a mob of 8000 persons surged last night, sweeping the police from power and seizing and lynching the negroes held in connection with an attack on a 17 year old white girl.

When two companies of Minnesota National Guardsmen reached here early today from St. Paul, they found only a damaged police station and littered streets as evidences of the mob's activity. The 124 men and six officers went into temporary camp preparing to patrol the streets, if necessary. They are equipped for riot duty.

Last night's lynchings were accompanied by the city's police force had been overpowered by bricks and streams from fire hose in an attack on police headquarters. For at least two hours, the mob ruled, relinquishing its power only after the negroes had been lynched. Six negroes had been arrested in connection with the attack on the girl, at a circus grounds on Monday night.

The three "convicts" who had been hanged within a block and a half of the police station. Two priests who pleaded guilty and dropped their cases were hooted down. The negroes hanged were Isaac McGhie, Elmer Jackson and Nate Green, all about 22 years old. Twice McGhie was the first to feel the noose. He cried for mercy, declaring he was innocent.

One priest, Father F. J. Howard, climbed fifteen feet up an electric light pole and begged for mercy. McGhie was jerked into the air to the shouts of the mob, and each time the rope broke, dropping him to the ground. McGhie was with them, I am not the third man, was his last cry on the right.

A similar fate quickly was meted to Jackson and Green, who likewise protested their innocence and pleaded for mercy. After the mob had dispersed early today the police cut down the bodies of the negroes, which had been mutilated.

Injuries suffered by eight policemen were treated in a dining room and fire hose attack on the police station, were said to be trivial. An investigation of the action of the mob will be made.

OAK HALL MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT OF SPECIAL INTEREST

After months of careful study of existing market conditions, watching with interest the tremendous sacrifice of men's clothing going on all over the United States and hearing of many Canadian manufacturers receiving cancellations of large orders from merchants who have been panicky, Oak Hall are today announcing that these indications do not point to a permanent lowering in price of clothing, because both spinners and manufacturers of cloth are still over twelve months behind in deliveries, many of them refusing to accept any orders at all—the demand is still far in excess of the supply, and there are many other good reasons why the price of clothing at the present time cannot take a permanent drop.

The Oak Hall clothing buyer was in Montreal a few days ago, and understanding these conditions, decided to take advantage of the many cancellations that had been given to manufacturers and finally to make a special announcement. These have now been received in St. John, and the big selling prices, $28 to $35 values marked $24.95, and $40 to $45 values marked $34.95, so that the Oak Hall is making the biggest suit offering ever made in St. John.

Every one of these suits is backed by the Oak Hall guarantee, there is no luxury tax to be paid, the price represents a saving of $5 to $10. Regardless of present surface conditions prices are not going to be any lower next fall. If you are wise you'll take advantage of this sale now.—The Oak Hall windows will tell you a whole lot, look them over.

PROHIBITION ONLY CURE FOR BARS

In certain quarters it is stated that, in the event of the prohibitory law not being retained, there will be no return to bars. In answer to this might be said that, if the sale is legalized, liquor will be procurable some place or places that will take the place of bars. It is impossible to dodge the issue, and if the voting against the principle of prohibition means a setback of many years.

If one does not wish the temptation and misery of liquor to continue it is absolutely essential to vote on July 10 in favor of prohibition.

Looked Like Intended Suicide

The citizen who was brandishing a razor looking razor says it was a suicide, but says he is not thinking about it. He says his wife bought him Putnam's Corn Extractor and bid the razor—very wise, because Putnam's cures in 24 hours; try it, 25c. at all dealers.

The Case of Persia—Belgium and Japan Join with Britain in Trade Negotiations.
London, June 16.—Belgium and Japan, it is learned, have decided to join in the negotiations which the British government is carrying on with Gregory Krassin, Bolshieviki minister of trade and commerce.
London, June 16.—The Central News says it learns that as a result of direct negotiations between Persia and George Tchichchev, Russian Soviet foreign minister, the latter has announced the readiness of the Bolshieviki to evacuate Persia under certain conditions.
London, June 16.—Forecasts that the reply of the council of the League of Nations to Persia's request for intervention against Bolshieviki aggression would announce a postponement of any final decision were borne out by an official announcement made at a public meeting of the council this morning.
Constantinople, June 16.—(By the Associated Press)—The forces of General Wrangel, anti-Bolshieviki leader of the Crimean front, are moving northward from the Crimea and Sea of Azov in full against the Bolshieviki and have established a front along Kaskovka on the Dnieper eastward through Melitopol to Mariupol. Gen. Wrangel's troops have captured 4,000 prisoners and forty big guns of the 100 estimated to be in possession of the Bolshieviki. They have lost 800 men.
London, June 16.—(Russia)—The Bolshieviki forces in the Kiev region are still pressing back the Poles, following the capture of the city by the Soviet army, the official statement for Tuesday from Moscow announces. The statement says:
"In the Kiev region, having flung back the enemy across the River Irpen, our troops are continuing to advance. In the Galzin region (southwest of Kiev) our troops are crossing the River Bug and approaching Brusilov."

THE SALE OF THE STAMPS.

The sale of the stamps, which had been brought to my attention that a large number of merchants here—as well as several hotels—are furnishing their patrons with postage stamps without the necessary authority to do so. On the recommendation of the postmaster suitable provision is made to obtain license or a permit to deal in their necessities, so all are requested to recognize the reasonableness, as well as the necessity, of upholding what is required and govern themselves accordingly and abstain from dealing in stamps without such license or permit. Yours very truly, EDWARD SEARS, Postmaster.

COCONUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain refined coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and ceases the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rises out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. It leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get purified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

If He Died-- The Business Would Die

How often have you heard some such statement made about a particular business? It means—that one man, either through technical knowledge, or through his ability as an executive, controls, for the time being, the destiny of the firm. If he died, creditors would become anxious, inquisitive or even troublesome. Many contingencies might arise to threaten the stability of the business.

Unless—his life was insured in favor of the firm.

It is possible to so insure "The Firm" that the storm can easily be weathered and the business successfully carried on without him.

The matter is very clearly dealt with in a book we have published, entitled "Personality in Business." It would be well worth your while to send for a copy and read it. You may have one for the asking.

HAS NO PAIN NOW

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Peasey of London.

London, Ont.—"I suffered with periodic pains, was weak and run down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains so bad I sometimes thought I was going crazy and I seemed to be anything. I was in this condition two or three years and could not get any relief. I tried all kinds of remedies but failed. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received the best results from it, and now I keep house and go out to work and am like a new woman. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to my friends, and if these facts will help some poor woman use them as you help me, I will be glad to do so." Mrs. J. F. PEASEY, 200 Rectory Street, London, Ont.

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

DISASTER AT UNION DEPOT

Heavy Roof Structure Collapses and Tons of Metal Fall.

The roof structure of the train shed at the Union passenger station collapsed last evening at 8:18 o'clock, a little before time of departure of the Maritime express, Fredericton and suburban trains. Fortunately no one was killed as the passengers were on board the trains and the station at the time was almost empty. William Shea, a baggage-master on the Fredericton train, sustained a fractured leg when he was struck by a piece of plank and Dow Gay, brakeman on the Maritime express, had a narrow escape. A woman who was on the platform at the time was walking along and in order to save her he jumped and pushed her into the shed ahead of him.

The roofs of four cars of the Maritime train were damaged. Several expressmen were working in the shed at the time but as they were near the express rooms they could dodge in and none was injured. Several trucks were smashed and a few express packages destroyed. A crate containing a bulldog was broken and the little animal escaped. On account of the collapse of the roof the train last night and this morning arrived and left from the outside tracks. A gang of men was put on the work and this morning the twisted iron girders were removed so that during the day traffic in the station was resumed. Mrs. W. E. Raymond and Mrs. W. B. Tennant of the hospitality committee of the National Council of Women had narrow escapes. Mrs. Raymond assisted baggage-master Shea until he was taken to the hospital. Pictures were taken of the ruins by the Fox News and Canadian Pictorial.

L. R. Ross, terminal agent, said that the roof had been condemned and the railway were proceeding to remove it so that it was an accident and he could not see how any one could be blamed for the unfortunate occurrence. Commissioner Thornton and a large force of policemen were on the scene immediately to look after casualties and the fire department was called. Tons of metal fell.

EQUAL RIGHTS TO WOMEN OF WORLD

Suffrage Alliance Will Continue Efforts — Mrs. Daniels Speaks on Labor Legislation.

The International Woman Suffrage Alliance Congress at Geneva has decided that the alliance should be continued to secure suffrage and equal rights with men for the women of all nations. This decision was put in the form of an amendment to Article 11 of the constitution. The amendment says: "Resolved, that the object of the alliance shall be in the future to secure enfranchisement of the women of all nations by the promotion of woman suffrage and such other reforms as are necessary to establish real equality of liberties, status and opportunities between men and women."

Laws guaranteeing a living wage for all toilers, equal pay for equal work, abolition of sweatshops, and child labor legislation were outlined by Mrs. Joseph Daniels, delegate from the United States, as measures appealing to the women of the world. She conveyed to the delegates the felicitations of President Wilson and "his confident belief that enfranchisement will bring fresh and spiritual ideas to aid in the solution of present world problems."

"What women did in war hastened the conferring of the ballot," declared Mrs. Daniels. "In our country the day of agitation for enfranchisement has passed. The hour has come when we must prove by deeds that we accept our new duties with a sense of our obligation to measure up to our new and high mission."

"As we go into the political trenches let us endeavor to be as intrepid, aim as straight and keep our nerve as steady as our brothers in their grim battles. As voters we must make or find a way to carry help and comfort to those who live in want or in peril."

Problems yet to be solved, Mrs. Daniels said, included abolition of the double standard of the sexes, aid for mothers, education of all children, old age pensions and the guarantees of sanitation and of free hospitals.

WOMEN AND PLAYGROUNDS.

Among the subjects to be discussed by the National Council of Women will be that of supervised playgrounds. It is fitting that the subject should be discussed in the city where the movement got its first real start in Canada, under the direction of a committee from the local Council of Women. At many meetings of the National Council of Women, Miss Mabel Peters had pleaded for action, and the Council as a body, but without further result than the appointment of herself as chairman of a playgrounds committee which could not be got to function with any effect, because the matter was generally regarded as a mere fad. However, Miss Peters never lost heart. She knew what was being done in American cities, and here in her home city kept the subject steadily before the people. Then, in 1906, The Times and Telegraph raised a large fund for playground purposes. Miss Peters and her committee in the local Council of Women were asked to administer it. They gladly agreed, and made a member of the staff of this paper an honorary member of the committee. Supervised playgrounds were started that year, just fourteen years ago, and have been conducted ever since. The city council after the first year saw the value of the work and when a Playgrounds Association was formed with Miss Peters as its first president a civic grant was given, which has been continued ever since. During the last year the Playgrounds Association has been enlarged to include representatives of all associations having to do with athletics, as well as the Board of Trade, Commercial Club, Rotary Club, Yacht Club and Motor Boat Club. The whole play movement has been further advanced by the formation of four improvement leagues in different parts of the city, and by the beginning of a work by the city council to provide a great civic recreation field as a supplement to neighborhood playgrounds. All this had its beginning in 1906 when the first supervised playgrounds were opened. Six of these are conducted every year during the summer school holidays, and this year they will make an exhibit of baskets and other work probably also give daily illustrations of playground games and drills at the big exhibition in September. Each of these grounds has a supervisor and assistant, and though greatly handicapped through lack of space and equipment in some of them does splendid work among the little ones.

The greatest handicap in St. John and in Canada at large is the absence of any proper training centre for teachers. The National Council can induce normal schools and universities to add such a course of training they will make Canada independent of the United States in this regard, for now we must go there to get most of our playground experts. Other cities in Canada have far outstripped St. John in the matter of playgrounds, but it is well to remember that this city was a pioneer, and that to a devoted St. John woman who was an energetic member of the National Council of Women the movement all over Canada owes its inception. Had Miss Peters lived her enthusiasm would long ago have brought into being a National Playgrounds Association for Canada, which was the goal of her ambition in relation to this great work. If the National Council will now take up that project there is no other organization so well fitted to make it a success, and none others can be so vitally interested as women in all that pertains to the welfare of the children.

HELPING THE DISABLED

The United States congress has recognized in a very striking way the obligation of the state toward all citizens who are incapacitated for the task of earning a livelihood. It has been recognized that the state owed it to the disabled soldier to give him vocational training or other assistance, but an act passed by congress in the closing days of the session and approved by the president provides for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise, and for the return of such persons to some useful employment. Persons disabled are defined by the act to include "Any person who by reason of a physical defect, or infirmity, whether congenital or acquired by accident, injury, or disease, is, or may be expected to be, totally or partially incapacitated for remunerative occupation."

Thus the measure has a very wide range. The federal government does not assume the whole burden, but, as in the case of highway construction and some other matters, will co-operate with the different states to restore the incapacitated to some sort of occupational efficiency. It is said that more than a dozen states, anticipating this measure, have already enacted laws providing for the vocational rehabilitation of disabled men and women, and provided in some cases in advance for acceptance of the requirements of the federal act. Of the manner in which the plan will be worked out we are told:—

"The federal board for vocational education is the administrative federal agency. A federal appropriation of $750,000 is made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, and of $1,000,000 annually for three years following. These appropriations are to be allotted to the states in proportion to their population, and every federal dollar spent by the states in training disabled men and women must be matched by an equal amount of money provided in the states." There is thus opened for disabled persons a way to secure training for such work as they may be able to do, and the net result must be a notable gain in national efficiency, apart altogether from consideration of the humanitarian aspect of such a measure. It is a great forward step, showing that legislative bodies are giving more and more attention to subjects which relate to the welfare of the citizenship of the country. It is good business as well as a right course of conduct on the part of the elected representatives of the whole people.

FARMERS AND OTHERS.

It is understood that the co-operative organization in New York are forming the largest co-operative organization ever formed in the state, to fight the increasing cost of the necessities of life. The proposed organization will have a capital of $1,000,000. An Albany despatch says: "It is understood that the co-operative society, which is to have its headquarters in Syracuse, with branch offices throughout the state, will at first make a specialty of handling seeds, fertilizers and all kinds of farm implements. But the determination of the farmers to eliminate the 'middleman' and his profits go further. As soon as the organization is well under way it is contemplated to include all other commodities from food to furniture, from clothing to automobiles. It is also planned to open co-operative warehouses and grain elevators in all sections of the state to handle the farmers' products."

It is remarked that this project may work serious damage to business interests in towns whose chief revenue comes from farm trade. There is the more reason, then, from the town standpoint, that there be a working agreement between town and country, and that each be neglected by the people of the cities and towns. Rightly or wrongly the agriculturists demand a new deal, and their feelings are finding political expression as well as in the co-operative movement.

The public spirit of one citizen, Mr. W. B. Fawcett, has enabled the town of Sackville to go ahead with its plans for a cottage hospital. He had offered to build if the citizens would provide $10,000 for equipment and maintenance. At a meeting held last week it was announced that through private subscriptions and town and county grants this amount, less $1,200, was in sight. Mr. Fawcett promptly offered to provide the balance, and trustees were named to proceed with the work. Mr. Fawcett has set an example which men of wealth in any community should not hesitate to follow when such a cause as that of a cottage hospital or other genuine community welfare movement makes an appeal.

Of Calvin Coolidge an American Journal says: "The governor of Massachusetts is decidedly a plain New Englander. He is plain in his speech, manner, dress, habits and tastes. His natural gifts are somewhat obscured beneath a shy disposition. It is said that only the shrewd student of faces would pick him out in a crowd. Although his manner is one of quietness, the governor has an exceedingly forceful way of driving home the points he wishes to make."

In yesterday's Times-Star the editor was charged with having made "a witty speech." For some time he has entertained a gloomy suspicion that a member of the staff was plotting against his peace of mind, and looking for an opportunity to destroy his reputation as the mourner's friend. That suspicion is now confirmed. The charge, of course, is not sustained, and the case is dismissed.

The Moncton tax rate has been reduced from $2.30 to $2 on the hundred. The city council has also decided to submit to the people for their approval or rejection an agreement to take over the street railway and electric lighting plant, now controlled by the Moncton Tramways Co. It is a rare day when busy Moncton does not furnish an interesting item of news.

A flight in airplanes around the world is planned for next year, and a first prize of $100,000 has been offered. It is observed, however, that the attempt may be made by some daring aviator in advance of the proposed competition, and thus lessen interest in the latter event.

The American Federation of Labor will fight the One Big Union in Canada, and will open the campaign in Winnipeg. Public sympathy will be with the Federation in this movement.

ALL IN VAIN
I was weighing on the quiet, more than any gent should weigh; so I tried a rigid diet, and I ate but once a day. All the things I like were banished, so my system might grow thin; all the pies and doughnuts, vanished from the larder and the bin. I was victorious, I was brouder, than a mortal man should be; so I fed on bran and fodder and fresh pumpkins from the tree. Oh, I lived on saw and gherkins, till my form grew thin and spare, till I lost some seven firkins of the fat I used to wear. But I'm once again devouring grub that pleases every sense, and I tell him he may bring ribs of beef and brown potato, pie and cake, and the horse's feed is soaring, with the garbage, by the fence. For till deep beneath a hummock, in the honeyjar's solemn hush, ere I'll torture my stomachs with the fat-reducing mush. So I beckon to the waiter and I tell him he may bring ribs of beef and brown potato, pie and cake, and the horse's feed is soaring, with the garbage, by the fence. For till deep beneath a hummock, in the honeyjar's solemn hush, ere I'll torture my stomachs with the fat-reducing mush. So I beckon to the waiter and I tell him he may bring ribs of beef and brown potato, pie and cake, and the horse's feed is soaring, with the garbage, by the fence. SUCCESSFUL WOMEN
What is meant when a woman is said to "have arrived" at the goal of success was told by five women at the Central branch Y. W. C. A., New York last week.

One was Miss Adele H. Kirby, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer of the Plainfield Trust Company, the first woman bank officer in New Jersey.

Miss Lucy Goldsmith, head of the foreign department of the Aeolian Company spoke on the dominating factors which brought her to her present position in the business world.

Mrs. Alice Foote MacDougall told how she shouldered the double responsibility of her husband's business and a family of young children and succeeded in both.

Mrs. Mabel Potter Daggett, who wrote "Women Wanted," told how during the war she investigated every occupation and every profession open to women in England, France and America and found that every door of opportunity was open to women for the first time in the history of civilization.

Miss Mary Snow, a member of the faculty of New York University and vice-president of the League of Business and Professional Women, spoke of exceptional and unexpected things that women are doing in every part of the world.

A mental arithmetic contest was held in the Beaconsfield school room last evening between a team from City school and a team under Michael Kirby of St. David street. There were eleven contestants on each side. At the end of an hour and a half the score stood at 18 to 18.

Starting Tomorrow Morning

The two greatest Suit opportunities we have ever offered the men of St. John—and the reason we can do this is told below.

During the past few weeks many clothiers have poured in cancellations of orders to Montreal manufacturers, becoming panicky over the tremendous sacrifices of men's clothing going on in the United States—which indicate surface conditions only—below the surface conditions are entirely different.

ENGLISH WOOLLEN MILLS are so far behind in production that, according to present indications, no new business can be taken on for nearly a year to come. Spinners in England likewise have sold their entire output for more than twelve months in advance. In the face of these facts alone can clothing prices take a permanent drop? A study of world economic conditions says—no!

OUR BUYER while in Montreal a few days ago was told of these big cancellations, and seeing an opportunity to help his customers hold down their clothing expenses, made special offers for many of these lines. He was finally successful in procuring two lots comprising 765 suits at such special concessions that these suits were immediately shipped to St. John, and following our motto of "Large Volume at Minimum Profit," we are now able to offer these suits in two special lots for

BRITISH VETS IN UNITED STATES IN CONVENTION

First Annual Meeting to Take Place This Month

New York Alone Has 500 Members—Prince of Wales and Many Canadians Also Belong—The Aims of the Organization.

New York, June 11.—(By Canadian Press)—Canadian and British war veterans now residing in various parts of the United States will assemble at the Hotel Commodore, New York, during the last week in June for the first national convention of British Great War Veterans of America, Inc. This organization, launched in July, 1919, at a meeting held in Madison Square Garden, New York, has attained rapidly the numbers and importance. The New York command alone has a membership of more than 600, while many other cities in the United States have active and flourishing branches. The New York command ranks second to that of New York in numbers. Lynn, Mass., has the largest membership, with 1,000 members. Other cities with large memberships are Philadelphia, Pa., and Newark, N. J., each has a big enrolment, while new applications for charters are being filed constantly. The British Great War Veterans of America, Inc., enjoys the distinction of being officially recognized by the British Embassy at Washington. It is also proud of the fact that the Prince of Wales is an active member, who duly qualified and who keeps up his dues. The announced aims of the association are: To foster the spirit of pride in the achievements of the Allies in the Great War; to preserve their traditions; to bring together in close fellowship the ex-servicemen of the British armies; to aid and re-establish in civil life those who have fought and suffered, and are now endeavoring to secure a foothold in the business world; and to promote peace and unity between two great nations of English-speaking people. The membership is largely made up of British and Canadian residents in the United States who enlisted in the Canadian forces and served in the Canadian uniform during the war. There is no bar to color, race or creed; but to be

RAILWAY NEXT YEAR.

There are hopes that the dominion government will next year see its way clear to construct the twenty-two mile link connecting the St. John and Quebec Railway and the Eastern Maine Railway. The matter was brought to the attention of the house a few days ago by T. W. Caldwell, M. P. for Victoria-Carleton, N. B. The minister of railways, Hon. Dr. Reid, announced that the work could not be undertaken this year though the necessity for it was apparent. A deputation waited on the minister later and he promised that if he were minister of railways next year it would be one of the first items of government railway construction that he would submit to the cabinet.

COMMON COUNCIL

At a meeting of the common council held yesterday afternoon bond issues were put through for the purchase of equipment for the department of public safety and public works, thus ending a deadlock which has existed for some time.

Authority was given the commissioner of harbors, ferries and public lands to make needed repairs to number 1 wharf, west side, at an estimated cost of $8,000; and to call for tenders for lumber to be used in repairing the wharves, and wharf fenders, on the west side.

The commissioner of public safety was authorized to buy 400 yards of blue cloth from Manchester, Robertson & Allison, Limited, for the police, fire and ferry departments, at a cost of $8.85 a yard.

He was also authorized to buy a 25-foot aerial truck, with standard and extra equipment, from the Copley Gear Freight Wheel Company, at a cost of $18,720 (cash, St. John); and a 70-gallon triple combination chemical, hose and pumping engine, from the American Lancia Fire Engine Company, at a cost of $18,000 (cash, St. John). Both these purchases will be covered by bond issues.

The commissioner of water and sewerage was authorized to buy two one-ton Reo trucks at a price not to exceed $5,000.

Authority to buy one cord of canal coal for the fire department at the best possible price, was given to the commissioner of public safety.

Grain Rates Increased.

An amendment to the by-law relating to top-wharfage was approved, making the rate on grain five cents a bushel instead of the present five-cent rate.

A letter from T. G. Armour, secretary of a citizens' meeting held in Dufferin school, north end, on Monday night, was read, wherein the council was asked to buy the Armstrong & Bruce property in Portland Place as a playground area, and also requested to develop the Shamrock grounds by installing suitable drainage and sewerage facilities for the thirty families of the neighborhood.

Mayor Schofield was authorized to make personal negotiation for a playground area for the north end, and in reference to the other request, Mr. Jones said that the Newman brook would be deepened and the area in question drained, so soon as the report of the engineer, who is investigating the conditions is received.

A letter from the Trades and Labor Council, asking that a labor representative be appointed to the vacancy on the board of hospital commissioners, was read and received.

A warrant was ordered for George F. Coup, who has lately joined No. 2 salvage corps.

The St. John branch of the Association of Canadian Building and Constructing Industries protested in a letter to the council against the alleged discrimination against one of their members in the matter of the Prince William street paving contract. In reply, Mr. Frink said the man in question did not make the lowest bid, and that work in Prince William street had already been started by men in his department. A bill from the Northern Electric Company for repairs made to the local fire alarm system, amounting to $921.84 was ordered paid.

Norman F. McLeod addressed the commissioners, asking that reconsideration be given his tender for the paving of Douglas avenue. He offered to do the work on his original bid and asked that the council come to some decision in the matter, which has been long delayed.

Mayor Schofield pointed out that the change in the paving contracts effected by the street railway people, the renewal of the service pipes in Douglas avenue and other considerations had deferred this work, but promised further hearing to Mr. McLeod on Thursday's committee meeting.

SEAMEN'S CONFERENCE.

Genoa, June 15.—The International Seamen's Conference opened here yesterday with delegates from many countries present. Canada's representatives are G. J. Desbarrats, deputy minister of naval service; Thomas Robb, secretary of the Shipping Federation of Montreal, and C. J. Gauthier, of Montreal.

At the preliminary session yesterday a proposition submitted by the United States delegates which they declared was designed "to make seamen all the world over free men," was defeated. The British, French, the Belgian and Spanish delegates voted against it, and it was supported by Italy, Holland, Norway, Germany, Sweden and Japan.

An interesting and unusual gathering was held at Westmorland Point a few days ago at the home of Deacon W. Collins. The bride and groom, in celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage.

As a strange commentary upon the present anomalous conditions in the education realm we note the fact Prof. P. B. Perkins, Ph. D., who has been connected for some years with a college in the maritime provinces, has recently come to St. John as the local manager of the Standard Life Assurance Company. Many years were spent in study to perfect himself in his chosen subject, but the business realm offers to him a larger remuneration without any special training than all his years of preparation could secure for him in the teaching profession. However, there is no loss without some gain, and one of our two good workers in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Perkins. The latter, by the way, is a sister of Rev. E. E. Porter, and was a classmate of the editor's at the provincial normal school some years ago.

—we are not going to say just how many.

Pastor and Mrs. H. G. Mellick have begun their work at North River, P. E. They received a warm welcome from the people.

NEW TURN IN MATTER OF LEMON EXTRACT HERE

After a denunciation of lemon extract by Police Magistrate Ritchie Monday afternoon Liquor Inspector McAlush summoned seven wholesale grocers and two wholesale druggists to court this afternoon.

The nine firms visited were G. E. Barbour & Company, Limited; Jones & Schofield; Puddington, Wetmore, Morrison, Limited; Northrup & Company; Baird & Peters; Wilbren Chemical Company; Brayley Drug Company; Vanwart Brothers and F. E. Williams & Company, Limited.

Mayor Schofield left for Dalhousie last evening to attend a convention of the All-New Brunswick Game Resources and Tourist League. In his absence Commissioner L. H. Bullock will be acting mayor.

OPPOSITION TO HUDSON BAY ROUTE IN SENATE

(Canadian Press Dispatch.)

Ottawa, June 15.—Opposition to the report of the Senate committee which investigated the feasibility of the Hudson Bay route developed when that report was debated in the Senate today. Senator Fowler, chairman of the committee outlined the report and moved the adoption.

Senator Casgrain (Montreal) strongly opposed the whole scheme. He charged both parties with responsibility for it. While there was no possibility of the route being either possible or feasible it was kept alive by the political parties, catering to the prairie votes.

Senator Turfitt said that Senator Casgrain was suffering from chronic pessimism. The Hudson Bay company had navigated the straits for a hundred years and only lost two ships. Talk like this reminded him that the Jeremiah of the old days had declared that report was developed when that report was debated in the Senate today. Krumbles is made of whole wheat and Nature must have been thinking of hard-working, quick-acting men and their needs when she created wheat.

Wheat is Nature's well-rounded ration. We take the whole wheat grain, cook it, shred it and toast it, and give it a flavor that makes it doubly good to eat.

NEW ACTS AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Programme Bright and Varied and Affords Excellent Entertainment.

The Opera House, with its bright and varied programme was one of the chief amusement centres last evening. The acts were diversified and were concurred by the large throng of patrons, in attendance at both performances, to be one of the best presented so far this season.

Foster and Peggy made a popular hit and their act was evidently thoroughly enjoyed. Peggy is an educated and performed clever feats, which evoked hearty applause. Many contended that it is one of the most interesting dog acts ever presented on a local stage.

Carsonia, in her singing surprise, won rounds of applause. She possesses what is known on the stage as a double voice, being able to sing a rich contralto and clear high soprano. Her good looks, handsome and, combined with an attractive appearance and pleasing voice, she won instant favor.

Cats Bros. and Beatrice won prolonged applause. The two boys are brilliant clog dancers, and their partner is a pleasing singer. In addition they interspersed considerable comedy which added to the popularity of the act and they were forced to respond to repeated encores.

Baker and Parker appeared in a bright and well staged comedy act. Their chatter was very amusing and was greatly enjoyed. The numerous imitations of the lady member evoked hearty laughter and enthusiastic applause.

Top and Bottom in a sensational aerial and perch act made one of the hits of the evening. Their feats were novel and cleverly executed and their comedy pantomime won instant favor. They will undoubtedly be one of the most popular numbers on the programme during their stay in this city.

In addition to the vaudeville programme there was an interesting episode of "Daredevil Jack," featuring Jack Dempsey, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world. This programme will be repeated tonight and again tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Prominent Baptists

(Martine Baptist.)

A gracious revival is being enjoyed at Bear River East, where Rev. C. F. Wilson is engaged in special services.

We tender our congratulations to Hon. W. F. Roberts on his re-election without opposition in this city upon his acceptance of the salary attaching to the cabinet position which he had hitherto so been appointed as a trustee of the University of New Brunswick, succeeding Sir Ezekiel MacLeod, who resigned a short time before his death.

The church at New Glasgow will lose the services of Rev. A. J. Archibald after July 1. After July 1 he will assume the direction of the survey of our Baptist needs and opportunities.

The sudden passing of Sir Ezekiel MacLeod, formerly chief justice of the supreme court of New Brunswick, will bring surprise and regret to a wide circle. Always regular in his attendance upon the preaching of the Word he was church and denomination. Both in Hampton (where he had his summer home) and in St. John he was a generous supporter of the church which he attended.

The body was taken to the old tender.

The desired teacher has been secured for the High school at Sanguinapattam. We learn with great gladness that John Davis, son of our martyred missionary, whose life suffering was a good one since, has asked to be sent to India to take up the work at Sanguinapattam.

In the programme of the Northern Baptist Convention meeting at Buffalo on June 22 we notice the following Canadian and ex-Acadia men: President J. C. Schurman of Cornwall; Rev. E. L. Dakin of Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Rev. Arthur C. Archibald of Brookline, who will deliver two addresses on "Evangelism in a New World" and "Organizing a Church for Evangelism"; Rev. A. K. DeLish of Boston on "Baptists and Civil Liberty"; Prof. Allan Holten on "The Local Church in Community Life."

An interesting and unusual gathering was held at Westmorland Point a few days ago at the home of Deacon W. Collins. The bride and groom, in celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage.

OPPOSITION TO HUDSON BAY ROUTE IN SENATE

(Canadian Press Dispatch.)

Ottawa, June 15.—Opposition to the report of the Senate committee which investigated the feasibility of the Hudson Bay route developed when that report was debated in the Senate today. Senator Fowler, chairman of the committee outlined the report and moved the adoption.

Senator Casgrain (Montreal) strongly opposed the whole scheme. He charged both parties with responsibility for it. While there was no possibility of the route being either possible or feasible it was kept alive by the political parties, catering to the prairie votes.

Senator Turfitt said that Senator Casgrain was suffering from chronic pessimism. The Hudson Bay company had navigated the straits for a hundred years and only lost two ships. Talk like this reminded him that the Jeremiah of the old days had declared that report was developed when that report was debated in the Senate today.
