STRIKERS AND WORKMEN MEET IN SERIOUS CLASH

First Blood Drawn Today in The Cape Breton Mining Trouble

Strikers Assembled at Entrance of Pit and Attempted to Prevent Miners From Entering—Free Fight Followed and Police Charged Mob—Eight Men Arrested—Two Thousand Angry Men Surround Jail and Threaten to Release Prisoners—Troops May Be Ordered From Halifax to Preserve Order as Further Trouble is Feared.

Sydney, N. S., July 7.—(Special)—The nearest figures available as to the number of men at work and those on strike show that 1875 men are working out of a normal force of 5,280.

Things are going here about steady and the strike took its first violent turn this morning at No. 2 and No. 3. The roughness was commenced at No. 2 at six o'clock just as soon as the first man appeared for work.

God, man nor the Devil. With the rum demon turned loose the outlook for peace is by no means bright.

Eight men were placed under arrest charged with a breach of the peace and were immediately brought to the police court, where they were first fed and then tried before Stipendiary McGillivray.

Conditions were even more serious at No. 3 where at the time of writing the strikers are still in charge. There the strikers, assisted by women and children attacked the men who reported for work and by the use of sticks, stones and eggs, prevented all but a few from entering the mine.

The coal company advise that although the same number of men are working today as yesterday, and about the same amount of work is being done. The U. M. W. leaders say that collieries 2, 6, 7 and 9 are totally crippled, and that 3 and 4 are completely out of working attitude that the police were forced to draw their revolvers to defend themselves. Two thousand strikers have surrounded the jail, in which the prisoners are confined, and an attempt will be made to get the men out before night.

General Manager Duggan and a posse of police charged the crowd to open a way for the workmen to escape. Mr. Duggan was struck and slightly wounded on the side of the head and several women and children were knocked under foot and a number injured.

Business men of Sydney express the opinion that the U. M. W. leaders should be tarred and feathered and ridden out of town on a rail. These Americans should not be allowed to come over to Canada and disorganize the largest laboring class in Nova Scotia.

SHARP INTERCHANGES MARKED THIS MORNING'S SESSION OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION

Manager of the St. John Lumber Company Was the Only Witness Examined This Morning—He Told at Length of the Company's Operations at Van Buren—Mr. Fellows Claims Commission Has No Power to Inquire Into Disputes Between Lumber Companies.

The International Commission appointed to settle disputes along the St. John River resumed this morning in the Equity Court rooms. The session was marked by clashes between counsel.

During Mr. Gregory's cross-examination of manager Brown of the St. John Lumber Company, Hon. O. A. Fellows, the counsel for the American Commissioners, objected to his further probing into the matter of the sorting and saving of logs at the Van Buren boom, asking the ground that it was a matter of dispute as between the mills or company, and was out of the province of the commission.

Between Crook Island and the American shore is occupied by the St. John Lumber Company, along the entire length of the island that would leave only 400 feet between the island and the Canadian shore that this company did not use. The water was shoal running from the island, from nothing to six feet. The navigable water was about 50 feet wide. The average depth would not exceed three feet. The water rises in the spring to about thirty feet.

Manager Arthur W. Brown, of the St. John Lumber Company, was the first witness. The company was organized, he said, in 1902 for the purpose of manufacturing lumber at Van Buren, Me. The members of the company, as individuals, did not own property there, but property was acquired by the company after incorporation. Shore rights had also been acquired. These deeds were acquired from the Van Buren Lumber Company. The Van Buren company were the owners of the property thus acquired. The privileges included the use of the shore from low to high water mark. These shore rights extended to Grand Isle, about four miles. The lower extremity was just below the mill, and extended along the shore from high and low water mark. They secured an island opposite the mill. The shore rights to the island were secured about three years ago. They had since secured Joseph Sear Island, last year, and the year before. The company owned a farm of about thirty rods, setting back from the mill a mile and a half. The farm was acquired two years ago. This comprised the real estate owned by his company.

Prior to 1902 neither the corporation or any individual members of this company had any of the property. The corporation were aware of the existence of the Ashburton treaty at that time. The works began at the shear booms, above the mill four miles. They acquired a perpetual right on the Canadian side to attach their booms. The booms are hung as soon as the river is open and they maintain them all the year round. Other booms are mentioned for the same purpose to divert logs to the sorting gap. There is no open passage for logs for two miles from the head of the first sheer boom to sorting gap. Any logs that travel two miles below the sorting gap must come to the sorting gap. The distance from the American shore to Crook Island is 500 feet and from the island to the Canadian shore, 400 feet.

Between Crook Island and the American shore is occupied by the St. John Lumber Company, along the entire length of the island that would leave only 400 feet between the island and the Canadian shore that this company did not use. The water was shoal running from the island, from nothing to six feet. The navigable water was about 50 feet wide. The average depth would not exceed three feet. He says he hasn't seen anything like it since the head man of the Knights of Pythias took his lessons in the saddle last year.

QUEEN SQUARE CHOSEN FOR CHAMPLAIN MONUMENT SITE

This Was Decided at a Meeting of the Monument Committee This Morning—Other Sites Suggested

At a meeting of the Champlain monument committee held in the mayor's office this morning, it was decided to recommend to the common council that the monument should be placed in the centre of Queen Square. A special meeting of the council will probably be called in a few days, when the aldermen will be asked to sanction the use of the Queen Square as a site, and the sculptor will then be notified.

The members of the committee were practically unanimous in their choice of a site, though several were discussed. One suggestion was that the fountain at the head of King street should be removed to Queen Square and the Champlain memorial erected in its place. Other sites proposed were the Market Square and the "Three Lamps," at Reed's Point.

PRINCESS ZARA
BY ROSS-BECKMAN.

It was just breaking day as I approached the house, and I could see that a light was burning in the room where I had left her. I decided at once that she had determined to remain in that room, and had probably not thought of retiring. I could not criticize her conduct, under the circumstances, and while I was congratulating myself upon the fact that she would not have to pass such another night as this one, I saw the front door suddenly open, and the form of a woman in whom I instantly recognized Zara, was down the steps and leaped into a waiting droak, which had hitherto escaped my notice. Instantly the horses started away at a gallop. I was two hundred feet distant. There was not a person in sight, for Coyle, believing, doubtless, that all danger was past, had withdrawn his guard.

There are times in our lives when peril is threatening a loved one, brings out the best there is in a man, and renders him suddenly capable of coping with any emergency. I knew of but one way to stop those horses, and I used it. I reined the nearest horse, and pulled, aimed it at the nearest horse, and pulled the trigger. Then, before the sound of the first shot, I fired again. One of the horses pitched forward, struck through the brain. I knew the other fell upon the first, and I was, at that moment, all speed, towards the wrecked and overturned droak.

CHAPTER XXII.
The Combat in the Snow.

As I ran, I saw an officer in uniform leap from the interior of the droak, and draw his sword in preparation for my attack, while his yemshick, whip in hand, scrambled from the snow, and assumed a place beside him. I was evidently surprised at the character that it really was. The wounded horse was struggling and kicking, and I found time to think of the grave danger that its hoofs might injure Zara, whom I judged to be unconscious from fright, or because of the attempt to escape. My own necessities in undertaking an assault upon the two men who now faced me, I fired a third bullet into the neck of the animal. Then, as I sprang to the attack, I saw and recognized the man who confronted me, and my heart bounded with the knowledge that I had taken the route to the palace. I recognized Alexis Durniel.

The report of his arrest had been false, or he had managed in some way to escape; and even then, in that instant of rushing onward upon the two men, I could not help wondering what means he had managed to entice Zara from the house in which she had taken refuge, and the bullets remaining in my revolver; at least I thought so, and I raised it, and pulled the trigger a fourth time, thus placing the yemshick effectively out of the combat, and rendering it impossible for him ever to engage in others; and then, when barely ten feet away from the soundless combat, I leveled the weapon at him and ordered him to throw down his sword. He laughed derisively, for he was not a coward, and he knew that death would be far preferable to the fate that would be his, if he were captured alive.

"So! It is my brother-in-law, is it?" he said, insolently, but in a tone as cool as though he were greeting me in a ball-room. "You have killed my horses, and my yemshick; why not do the same for me?"

I hesitated.

To shoot a man like that, was against every impulse of my soul; and yet he was armed with a weapon as deadly as mine, if once I should get within reach of his point. I possessed none with which to meet him on even ground. But, inside the droak, was unquestionably the unconscious form of the woman I loved. The occasion was a crisis. There could be no temporizing. Zara must be rescued.

"Throw down your sword, or I will certainly kill you!" I commanded him, again. "Kill," he replied, laconically. "There was no other way, and I pulled the trigger.

There was no report. Durniel did not fall, as the horses, and his yemshick and droak were bad, or the chamber of my revolver was unloaded. Instantly I understood that he had me at his mercy, and with a deadly smile upon his face he leaped forward to run me through.

As he sprang towards me, I hurled the pistol with all my strength towards him. It struck him squarely in the breast, staggering him, and forcing him off his guard. Then, before he could recover, I sprang past the point of his weapon. I seized his sword arm, by the wrist, with my left hand, and threw my other arm around his body. We were as evenly matched as though we had trained at weights and measurements for the combat, and for a moment we struggled madly together, while I exerted all my strength to bend back his wrist, so that he would be compelled to drop his sword.

It seems strange that such a struggle, taking place in the streets of a great city immediately following upon the four reports of my pistol, had not attracted attention and drawn somebody to the scene, but the passing night had been one of error; policemen had been called away from their posts, and at that hour, just after dawn, when everything was quiet, nobody heard, or if they heard, feared to come. In using all my effort to compel him to drop his sword I neglected the other necessary points of the struggle, and although I succeeded in my design, he forced me backwards at the same instant as that I fell beneath him, but still my right arm tightly clasped around him, and I hugged him to me with all the strength that I could muster. With Durniel, it was a struggle for life, and everything that he possessed, and he fought with all the desperation of a madman. He struck me a savage blow on the head with his fist, but I threw the other arm around him then, and hugged him all the tighter, so that he was unable to repeat the blow.

It was a strange combat. A person ten feet away would have seen us as a pair, there was no sound save our heavy breathing. The snow descended every noise that might have been made otherwise. The air was bitterly cold.

Presently I became conscious of the fact that my opponent was striving with all his might to get his hands on my neck, and I correctly conjectured that he had been able to discover the location of the sword, and was making an attempt to reach it. So I bent my energies to avoiding his effort. My life had been largely one of adventure, and I had taken part in many combats, but never before in one like this where it was simply a matter of endurance, where neither party to the combat was suffering where the hope of success was so evenly divided. Odd as it may seem, while pinning him to the ground, I confessed to a certain degree of nervousness, and I began to wonder how long I might hold out, and the probability of assistance arriving to me; and I began to wonder what means he had managed to entice Zara from the house in which she had taken refuge, and the bullets remaining in my revolver; at least I thought so, and I raised it, and pulled the trigger a fourth time, thus placing the yemshick effectively out of the combat, and rendering it impossible for him ever to engage in others; and then, when barely ten feet away from the soundless combat, I leveled the weapon at him and ordered him to throw down his sword. He laughed derisively, for he was not a coward, and he knew that death would be far preferable to the fate that would be his, if he were captured alive.

"So! It is my brother-in-law, is it?" he said, insolently, but in a tone as cool as though he were greeting me in a ball-room. "You have killed my horses, and my yemshick; why not do the same for me?"

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

DOES NOT THINK THE COAL STRIKE WILL AFFECT US

Yesterday was the day announced as the first day of the strike at the Dominion Coal Company's mines at Glace Bay. The agents of the Dominion Coal Company here are R. P. & W. F. Starr. Asked if he thought that the strike would have any effect upon their business, R. P. Starr replied that he did not think it would. It was understood that the Dominion Coal Company has a large amount of coal in reserve at Sydney and he said that he did not believe that the prices or supply would be affected at all.

In a morning paper yesterday it was reported that the Longshoremen's Association here would probably join the striking miners. A prominent member of the association said yesterday that there was no truth in the report whatever and that the report had been made without any foundation.

A. B. Copp, M. P. P., and E. H. McAlpine will address a Liberal Rally at Ben Lomond, tomorrow night. Everybody welcome. It's going to be a big time for the Liberal cause in the county.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THREE NATIONS AT CHAMPLAIN FETE

They Discussed Peace Yesterday at the Champlain Tercentenary Celebration—Visited Scene of Bloody Battles Fought Centuries Ago.

Bluff Point, N. Y., July 6.—With the arrival of President Taft, Ambassador Jusserand, of France; Ambassador Bryce, of Great Britain; Secretary of War Dickinson, and Vice-Admiral Uru, of Japan, the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the discovery of Lake Champlain, which had been confined during the past two days to the states of New York and Vermont, took on an international scope and really a world-wide importance.

For Ambassadors Jusserand and Bryce and President Taft all committed their respective countries to policies of peace, and in the shadow of an old fortress, which had witnessed some of the bloodiest battles in all history, they expressed the hope that never again would the peace among the great nations of the world be interrupted by a war.

The president and the other distinguished guests had an afternoon of interest from the moment of their arrival at 2.30 p. m. by special train from Albany. The president and the ambassadors and the members of their staffs were shown through the historic ruins of "Old Fort," the native call Fort Ticonderoga, which is now in course of restoration. There was historic interest in the old place, alike for the representatives of Great Britain, France and the United States for the rocky promontory was held in turn by the French, the English and the American revolutionaries.

A heavy rain fell during the morning over the Lake Champlain country, threatening a postponement of some of the outdoor features and left the steep roads leading up to Fort Ticonderoga for the water level dangerously slippery. After the president had inspected the fort and had enjoyed the view of the lake from a commanding position, he proceeded to the grandstand, which stood half way down the hill and which was surrounded by several thousand people. The cheering of the people as the president's automobile was being driven to the top of the hill was suddenly changed to a tense silence when the big machine, its wheels locked by the brakes, but slipping over the treacherous surface began to slide toward the edge of the roadway. The chauffeur quickly got the car under control, however, and the danger was over in an instant. The president was the least concerned of any person in the large throng.

An afternoon shower came up following the ceremonies at the stand and the president and his party were driven to a mile or more in the rain to the boat, which, after a 20-mile sail up the lake, landed its distinguished passengers at Fort Henry, where the special train again was boarded for the trip to Bluff Point and Hotel Champlain.

PROVES NERVILINE CURES CHRONIC SCIATICA

Solemn Statement of a Well Known Newark Merchant Establishes That Sciatica Can Be Cured Quickly.

It was four years ago I first was attacked by sciatica. The pains came and went, and at first were not severe. I looked on as a precaution against relapse and the conditions grew permanent. Severe grinding pains like points of steel being forced through my flesh, affected my left side. I became almost a cripple, and on a damp or stormy day was afraid to leave the house.

"NERVILINE" was recommended and I rubbed on lots of it. In a week I improved, and by persevering with the Nerviline rubbing and taking it every night, twenty drops in hot sweetened water, I finally got the disease under control. In eight weeks I was cured. I have never felt a twinge or an ache, and for those affected with Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, or any other muscular ailment, I can conscientiously recommend "NERVILINE."

For fifty years Nerviline has been used in their own families because it is the best, strongest, most penetrating liniment made.

Beware of the unscrupulous dealer that endorses, because of the extra profit on an inferior article, to induce you to take anything in place of NERVILINE. Large 50c bottles at all dealers.

LONGER HOLIDAYS FOR RURAL SCHOOLS

Will Have Eight Weeks Vacation But City Schools Will Not Make Increase

Fredericton, July 6.—Governor Tweedie presided at a meeting of the board of education this afternoon and all the members were present except Chancellor Jones.

The matter of extending the summer vacations of the city schools was discussed and the board decided that it would be inadvisable to make any change at the present time. They decided, however, to extend the summer holidays of rural schools from six to eight weeks.

A temporary board of trustees for King's Consolidated school was appointed as follows: E. A. Flewelling, chairman; R. C. Williams, John W. Chaloner, Leonard Crowfoot, Jas. Marshall and G. W. Westmore.

A delegation from the provincial board of health composed of Judge Barry, Frederickson, and Secretary Fisher, had an interview with the local government this evening in regard to smallpox matters. The opinion prevails among members of the executive that the expenses in connection with the smallpox outbreak in this province have been greater than was necessary and they are now looking for means to curtail them. The matter was gone into this evening and the board of health is to receive the regulations applicable to smallpox outbreaks and report to the government tomorrow.

Application for incorporation from the Bathurst and St. Peter's Water & Sewerage Company, the Advocate Company, C. E. McCullough, Ltd., The People's Store and Plumbing Company, The Farmers' Telephone Company and two new agricultural societies were referred to the attorney general.

A committee composed of Messrs. Hazen, Maxwell and Morony was appointed to consult with the St. John Street Railway Company in regard to running cars over the Suspension Bridge.

Members of the executive will probably go to St. John tomorrow night.

The public meeting this evening was largely attended. The chairman was Archdeacon Newnam. A most interesting account of The Bible and Recent Discoveries was given by Rev. D. S. There is a good attendance of delegates from St. John, Fredericton, Woodstock and other points in the province. The sessions will be continued in the morning and close at noon.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY IN THE COAL MINERS STRIKE

Dominion Coal Company Says Half of the Miners Stuck to Their Posts Yesterday—U. M. W. Men Dispute This and Claim They Will Bring More Men Out Today

Glace Bay, N. S., July 6.—At 6 o'clock this evening the strike situation was a little better defined, but any attempt at reaching exact figures is attended with embarrassment. The Dominion Coal Company claims to have 50 per cent of its regular force at work, a statement which is strenuously denied by the officials of the U. M. W.

At Dominion No. 1 the coal company says that no more men are absent from work than is customary after a pay day. This mine employs about 750 and the U. M. W. claim that 250 men are still without the mark of the number that turned out today and of those 150 are Italian laborers and not coal miners, and there is practically no skilled labor at this mine.

At Reserve the U. M. W. hold that not more than half the hands are working. They also say that today's output of coal will prove nothing, because all the boxes were loaded yesterday, and were at the landing and on the main haulage road to be hoisted this morning to make a show of output.

Dominion No. 2, the recognized stronghold of the U. M. W., proved, as predicted, to be the storm center of the strike. From early morning hundreds of men began gathering about the fence which surrounds this mine and by evening upwards of 3,000 miners had congregated here.

The men, except in one or two instances, were remarkably orderly and only on one occasion was an attempt at violence noted. From three to six o'clock they kept lined up at the main entrance of the colliery and the workmen as they left the plant were compelled to pass through a long line of strike sympathizers, three and four deep, who launched taunting cries of "Scab, Scab" at the outgoing men. On one occasion a workman who returned was rather badly jostled and restrained.

A section of the main gate had not been fitted with electric wires and the mob climbing to this place of vantage called the workmen inside to "come out, come out, we won't hurt you." Once, however, the men were clear of the plant a hue and cry was raised and the strikers chased the miners along the street.

General Manager Duggan, Mr. Lovett, counsel for the coal company, and Mayor J. C. Douglas, of Glace Bay, mingled for a time with the men and one section of the crowd sent up a hearty cheer for Mr. Duggan. Mayor Douglas addressed the men and complimented them on their good behavior. He was glad to see they had not offered to do injury to the coal company's property and appealed to them to abstain from all acts of violence. From the evidence at hand he did not think it necessary for Glace Bay to appoint special police, but if they were required he had no doubt the town would appoint as many as were necessary.

Practically all the men at work today are married and have all day and night at the Hub and six deputies over the company's property and appealed to them to abstain from all acts of violence. From the evidence at hand he did not think it necessary for Glace Bay to appoint special police, but if they were required he had no doubt the town would appoint as many as were necessary.

An exodus of workmen began today, those who feared a continuation of hostilities deeming it wise to get out. James Garey, a railroad contractor from Moncton, is in town looking for 500 men to take back with him to New Brunswick. He offered $1.75 a day and he says he can easily obtain the required complement.

The Dominion Iron & Steel Company have sufficient coal on hand to tide them over a month, before which time it is expected the trouble will be over.

The Dominion Coal Company state that 6,000 tons of coal were raised today, or roughly speaking about half an average day's work. This, considering the derangement of business and the drawback of sending men to new places, is a good showing and according to the statement of the U. M. W. is beaten at the end of the first day.

On the other hand, the U. M. W. leaders claim that a very considerable part of the 6,000 tons alleged to be raised was not loaded yesterday. They also claim that more men will go out tomorrow than went out today. They report initiating a large number of men tonight, including 176 at the Hub and six deputies over men who worked in the Phalen area.

The coal company and U. M. W. were both in error concerning No. 4 Caledonia. The company claim 250 men working and the U. M. W. claim 103. The fact is 173 men were at the pits.

E. M. Sipprell and W. H. Warwick have been appointed by delegates from the Main street Baptist church to attend the association meetings in Gibson. Mrs. David Hutchinson and Mrs. Sipprell will attend the sessions as representatives of the ladies.

MR. BENTLEY EXPRESSES HIS CONFIDENCE IN THE RESULT

Liberal Candidate in County is Gaining Strength Every Day

Every Section Extends Hearty Welcome to Him—St. Martins Organizes for the Campaign—Big Welcome in Lancaster

A. F. Bentley, Liberal candidate in St. John county, was in St. John last night, at the Royal Hotel, after a busy day among the electors of the county. He was cheerful, confident and enthusiastic over the outlook of the battle of ballots which will be fought on July 20 when choice of a representative at Fredericton in succession to Hon. H. A. McKeown will be made.

Mr. Bentley has been through St. Martins and part of Simonds and yesterday Lancaster was visited and in every section the prediction made on the night of his nomination is being borne out—he is growing in strength with every day. Of appearance and address, excellent in character, a business man of ability, a good speaker—he is exhibiting all the qualifications which the people like to see in the man whom they are asked to select as their representative in the legislature and old campaigners say they do not recollect any one who has gained such a strong place in the good wishes of the people in so short a time as has Mr. Bentley.

Besides his personality, the unpopularity of the Hazen government, the incompetency shown where there were so many opportunities to make a good record as an administration, the notorious highway act and the treachery under which Liberals have been made to suffer, are strengthening the Liberals in the fight all through the county and not only is it felt that the constituency will remain true to its Liberal principles but will read the Hazen administration a lesson that will duplicate others taught since the reins of power were assumed—and abused.

When asked last evening as to the progress of the campaign at the close of his first week, Mr. Bentley spoke with the utmost confidence of the result, judging by the warm welcomes accorded him in all sections of the county he had visited.

In St. Martins on Monday evening, he said, the Liberal electors of the parish met to organize. There was a big gathering and great enthusiasm was shown, the keenest interest being manifested in the fight.

The party there, he said, was a unit in working for his election. At the meeting committees were struck for the different sections of the parish to look after details and every one appointed showed great spirit and vigor. There was not a man but was doing all he could for the election of the Liberal candidate.

On leaving St. Martins yesterday morning he drove to the city, talking en route to many of the electors. At Black River and through Simonds he was warmly welcomed. While he had been through St. Martins, Mr. Bentley continued, he had not yet had an opportunity to devote much time to the parish of Simonds. He was confident of a good strong majority in St. Martins and had been assured that Simonds would not fall behind and that he would have no difficulty in coming into the western section of the constituency with a substantial lead over the Conservative candidate.

He spent the remainder of yesterday in Lancaster and he and Mr. Lowell attended the picnic of St. Rose's church. He was introduced to a great number and received many warm assurances of support. Bentley expressed himself as greatly pleased and not a little surprised to find such cordiality in a section of the constituency in which he was not so well known. The outlook as far as the campaign had progressed inspired him with every confidence both as to the result in the eastern section and the western part of the county.

In passing, Mr. Bentley was asked about a statement of the Standard charging Mr. Lowell and himself with being responsible for the present condition of the roads and said it was plainly utterly ridiculous. As a matter of fact the present highway act of the Hazen government was wholly unworkable in St. John county and there lay the responsibility for the present bad condition of the highways.

"If Mr. Hazen," continued Mr. Bentley, "had lain awake nights thinking of schemes to discredit himself with the Liberals of the province he could not have succeeded more admirably than he has done."

The county, the Liberal candidate said in conclusion, had been represented by a Liberal at Fredericton for seventeen years and there was nothing in the record of Mr. Hazen and his party to warrant or anticipate any change.

Two big rallies in the interests of the Liberal candidate for St. John county have been arranged for this week. Tomorrow, Thursday, evening, A. B. Copp, M. P. P. of Sackville, and E. H. McAlpine, of St. John, will be the speakers at a rally at Ben Lomond. Mr. Copp is a speaker of great force and eloquence and the occasions when he has been heard in St. John are remembered with pleasure by all who listened to him. Mr. McAlpine, too, is noted as a stirring campaign orator and it is anticipated that there will be a large gathering to hear these speakers tomorrow evening.

On Friday evening a big rally of the party will be held in the Orange hall, Fairville. In addition to Messrs. Copp and McAlpine, the candidate, Mr. Bentley, will speak. There will also be an address by Hon. C. W. Robinson, of Moncton, leader of the provincial opposition. It's going to be a big meeting and there will be some things well worth hearing.

The Liberal electors of Randolph and Milford will meet this evening at 8 o'clock for organization purposes, in the temperance hall, Milford. A good attendance is looked for.

WM. M. McLEAN IS NEW INSPECTOR

He Was Appointed in Place of W. S. Carter, Now Chief Superintendent of Education.

Fredericton, July 6—At a meeting of the board of education today William McLean, principal of Aberdeen school, St. John, was appointed inspector for district No. 6, to succeed W. S. Carter, appointed chief superintendent of education.

William Miller McLean, B. A., is a school teacher of forty years experience. With the exception of two years, he has always been connected with the St. John board of school trustees and during the whole forty years he has not been absent from his duties forty days. With the possible exception of Thomas Strothart, principal of the Winter street school, Mr. McLean was the oldest teacher in the service of the school board here.

Inspector McLean was born in Glasgow (Scot.) in 1846. When five years old he was brought by his parents to this city where, with the exception of a few years in Marysville and two years when he was teaching at other points, he has spent his whole life. His early education was secured in the common schools of this city, the collegiate school at Marysville and the Grammar school here. From the last named institution he went to the U. N. B., graduating B. A. in 1868. In November of the same year he taught his first school in Moncton and in 1870 he received the appointment of third master in the St. John Grammar school. In 1871 he was chosen head master of the Kent Grammar school in Richibucto, after holding which position for a year he accepted the head mastership of the city of Portland High school on the inauguration of the free school system.

In 1875, on the union of the cities of Portland and St. John, Inspector McLean entered the service of the St. John board of school trustees. Four years later he was appointed second master of the Grammar school and in 1882 when Dr. Bridges was elected principal of the U. N. B., he succeeded to the important position of head master. He continued to hold this position till some years later the board decided to school trustees. In 1891 he was appointed principal of the High school and the Grammar school, with Dr. Bridges as the first principal. In 1893 Inspector McLean was made principal of the Aberdeen school, then recently opened, and his executive ability and talent as a teacher have been well known there.

He has been president of the St. John County Teachers' Association since the inauguration of the free school system. In 1898 he was chosen president of the New Brunswick Teachers' Association and last year he was elected to the New Brunswick Educational Institute as their representative on the senate of the U. N. B. Inspector McLean has shown that everyone has a teaching ability who has always retained the respect and confidence of his assistants and pupils. He has always been a prominent part in movements calculated to elevate the efficiency of the members of his chosen profession and was particularly active in promoting the scheme for pensions for aged and disabled teachers.

Fairville will be the Liberal rallying ground Friday night. Hon. C. W. Robinson, Messrs. Copp and McAlpine, and the candidate, Mr. Bentley, will speak at big gathering in Orange Hall.

Runaway at Digby
Anning Nichols, of Deep Brook, Wife and Son Badly Injured

Digby, N. S., July 6—(Special)—A driving accident with almost fatal results occurred late this afternoon at the foot of town hill, Warwick street. Anning Nichols, a highly respected and prosperous farmer at Deep Brook, was entering town with a load of country produce and was accompanied by his wife and son. In some way his horse became frightened, the trace broke and the high-spirited animal ran away. The carriage was completely demolished and its occupants seriously injured. They have since been removed to their home in Deep Brook. It is thought they will recover.

London Bankers Buy Dominion Steel Bonds

Halifax, July 6—The sale of $5,000,000 of the consolidated mortgage bonds of the Dominion Iron & Steel Company to Speyer Brothers, London, is commented on favorably in financial circles in Halifax. The entrance of Speyer Brothers into the domain of industrial undertakings in the Dominion means much to Canadian development. The board of directors have reason for congratulating themselves that a premier financial house in London has acquired such a large holding of their securities and that they are able to carry out the extensions of the plant.

Outlook Splendid, But Keep Up Fight

Mr. A. F. Bentley, though but a week in the field, already is assured of a big majority in the eastern parishes of the county. Yesterday he made his initial visit to Lancaster as the Liberal candidate and his cordial reception there means that west will join east and he will be the county's choice for M. P. P.

It will not do, however, to slacken effort in face of favorable reports. Fight to the last minute is the watch word.

HE HAD TO HAUL HIS FLAG DOWN

Capt. Merriam, of the Nova Scotia Schooner King Joseph, Had an Experience in Stamford.

Stamford, Conn., July 6—Because he flew the British flag on his vessel here yesterday, Captain Merriam, of the British schooner King Joseph, aroused the ire of some patriotic Americans, and they made complaint to the police. Chief of Police Brennan went down and had a talk with Captain Merriam, and the captain hauled down the British flag.

"It is ridiculous," he said, "to find fault with the display of my flag, I ran it up as a mark of respect to the United States. I have done the same thing many times in Boston, New York and other American ports, and no complaint was made. In fact, it would be disrespectful to the United States if I didn't run up my flag on this holiday."

Captain Merriam is a Nova Scotian. The schooner is a two-master, and the owner is Josiah Saley, of Nova Scotia.

A BOWEL MEDICINE

Prevents Constipation, Appendicitis, Keeps Complexion Clear, Assures Sound Health.

Two Remarkable Cases Described By Mr. Hugh Cameron of Folger Station, Ont., Proving the Merit of DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS

"I am now quite an old man," writes Mr. Cameron, "it being sixty-six years since I left my native town in Scotland. In that time I have witnessed much sickness and suffering. One case I recall occurred with a neighbor who I heard was about ready to die with appendicitis. I went to see him and found he had been ordered to the hospital weeks ago for an operation. But he put it off and I found him in bed suffering agonies for three days had he not been cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I have used Dr. Hamilton's Pills regularly for 28 years and I know they would help him and I gave him three pills. In two days he was around, and I know that ever since, this man has enjoyed perfect health and simply because he used Dr. Hamilton's Pills three times a week. No case of constipation can possibly go uncured if treated with Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

"In my own family we use practically no other medicine but Dr. Hamilton's Pills. To keep the digestion good, to regulate the bowels and maintain healthy action of the liver and kidneys no remedy I ever heard of is so dependable and so certain to do good as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. For a poor old fellow—just what everyone in need of a doctor requires—$6. per box, or five boxes for $30. at all dealers, or The Carrhazone Company, Kingston, Ont.

A Miller's Plan to Ship Flour Down the Mississippi River in Barges to That Port.

Saint Paul, Minn., July 5—The first serious steps in many years towards restoring to the upper Mississippi river the volume of traffic experts believe it should carry, are embodied in conferences now in progress between leading Minnesota millers and river men, which it is believed will result in barging an immense amount of flour hereafter from the head of navigation at Saint Paul through to salt water at New Orleans.

From Saint Paul to Atlantic tidewater the flour rate is 23 cents. Little excepting slight differential can be saved by forwarding via the head of the great lakes and Buffalo.

"From Saint Paul we believe we can barge flour to New Orleans or upper Ohio river points alike for 15 cents," said a representative of the millers. "This is a clear saving of eight cents a hundred, and in addition we are confident that traffic can be maintained on a schedule of 20 days for the down river trip to New Orleans, 10 days to St. Louis, and 20 days or possibly slightly less to the upper Ohio. From present indications I think we will send down the first string of barges before the close of the present navigation season."

Suitable barges for flour traffic can be built for $500 each and will last in the opinion of rivermen from 10 to 15 years. Each will carry ten carloads of freight at average stage, and even more in high water. Captain Williams, of the towboat Pathfinder, who has been engaged in the towing and rafting business on the upper river for years, has given the millers his opinion that the plan is thoroughly practical and can be made to pay. Advice recently received indicate that barges are now under construction for various purposes at Stillwater, La Crosse, Dubuque, Keokuk and other ports and that the construction of flour barges can be readily expedited even for this season's business.

The millers point out that an especial advantage of exporting via New Orleans will be that on cargoes destined to South American or Mexican points or for the isthmus, the cost of trans-shipment at New Orleans will be less than from the all rail or lake and rail lines at eastern seaboard points.

The 62nd Fusiliers will have a march out this evening. They will parade at the Barrack square at 8 o'clock. Both the brass band and the drum and bugle band will parade at the same time and place. Refreshments will be served at the drill shed on the return.

THE EVENING TIMES

NEWS AND VIEWS OF SPORT

Referee Billy Roach, after the Ketchel-Papke go, made the following statement: "Ketchel was the aggressor at all times..."

As to the fight itself, the "Assassin," Giant Killer, and "Lion," as Ketchel has been christened by ring followers, had far literally to live up to his names. He forced the lighting from the tap of the initial gong, and with the exception of the third, enjoyed a clear lead in the first half of the battle.

The feature of the fight was the extreme viciousness with which both men fought and the apparent hatred that lurked behind every punch.

When seen in the dressing room Ketchel gave out this statement: "I broke my right hand in the sixth round and later on, in the eighth round I dislocated my left thumb. I will be only too glad to give Papke another chance."

Willie Britz said that unless Ketchel's hand improved, the champion would not be able to fight Jim Flynn, of Pueblo, Col., in Los Angeles, July 14.

During races at the Manchester, N. H., Driving Park, on Monday, five started in the grand stand. There was a small panic but officials soon restored order.

Peter Isaac, a full blooded Indian, did a Longboat stunt at the sporting mania held at Woodstock, Ont., on Monday. Isaac worked all day digging a hole for the farmer by whom he is employed.

Numerous horse followers commented on the recent death at Racine, Wis., of the horse Jay Eye See, a great animal in his day.

Richmond F. Robbins, of St. Catharines, Ont., with 70, won the gold medal in the qualifying round of the western New York golf championship at the Buffalo Country Club on Monday.

Henri Renaud, winner of the 1909 Boston marathon, was easily beaten in a 15 mile race at the Driving Park in Nashua, N. H., on Monday.

President O'Brien, of the American Association of Baseball Clubs, has given out the standing of the teams, including games of July 1:

Table with columns: Team, Won, Lost, P.C. Milwaukee, 29, 33, 542; Minnesota, 30, 34, 534; Indianapolis, 30, 35, 527; Columbus, 31, 37, 509; Louisville, 30, 38, 500; Kansas City, 33, 35, 485; St. Paul, 31, 35, 470; Toledo, 31, 40, 437.

The standing shows that the Minneapolis combination is a close second and that almost every team in the league has a chance for the pennant.

Elmer Collins, of Lynn, defeated Jimmy Moran in a one hour motor race at the Revere, Mass., track by 134 miles. Patsy Logan started in the race, but dropped out in the 25th mile.

At the Columbus Club games in Providence on Monday Joe Ballard of the Boston A. A. won the mile-run in 4m 24s.

Second place appears to be a hoodoo position in the Eastern League. No club stays there long, and after being ousted they get on the toboggan.

Shrub defeated Frank Neblich, at Buffalo on Monday in a handicap race. Shrub gave Neblich a quarter of a mile in a 10-mile race and won by 300 yards, in 52m 10s.

One Hundred Birds Participated in Bloody Sunday Fight on Green Lawn—No One Interfered.

Ottawa, July 6.—On a farm just without the limits of the city of Hull, and within eight of the parliament buildings, on Sunday, there was a cocking main in the presence, it is said, of about 700 people. A great number of birds took part, it being said that no fewer than fifty rounds were fought. Naturally considerable money changed hands.

WESTON THE WALKER

When Brian Boru was king of Ireland, it is told, he demonstrated that he had established peace and order by sending a young man, dressed all in white, from one end of the realm to the other, carrying a level of great price, without guards, a level of great price, without guards, she made the journey, and no man was so hardy as to molest her.

Edward Payson Weston the pedestrian, is no young maid, and the United States of America is not to be compared for law-abiding customs, with parts of Europe in ancient times.

People of rural communities are, in general, good citizens, but there is every section some undesirable. No one has called this aged teacher of the value of clean living and wholesome exercise to stand and deliver, and some have treated him as a "suspicious person" and stopped him on his way.

Many things that are remarkable pass without remark. This phase of Weston's long journey should be taken as a remarkable proof of the good sense and industry that prevails throughout our country.

To be sure, Indiana and Tennessee first on balloons that pass over their isolated districts, but especially in the latter state, there are folk who suspect spies in the very birds of the air.

That the good old game of cricket is not dead in this city was evidenced last night by the enthusiasm attending the reorganization meeting of the Fredericton club last night.

ENTRIES CLOSE TODAY The entries for the Every Day Club handicap sports on Monday evening will close today with A. W. Covey, the secretary. There is already a good field of entries, including Les, Price, Ferguson and another good athlete from Moncton.

ST. JOSEPH WON EIGHT TO THREE

St. John the Baptists Defeated Last Evening in a Good Game of Ball.

The St. Joseph's had little difficulty in defeating the St. John the Baptists on the Shamrock grounds last evening. At the end of six and a half innings the score stood 8 to 3 in their favor.

The St. Joseph's were much stronger at the bat, making nine hits of McQuiggin. Callahan pitched a fair game for the St. Joseph's but seemed to lack control.

McQuiggin was effective at times but was inclined to be wild at critical moments. The support from his catcher and the rest of the team was none too good.

Score by innings: St. Joseph's 8, St. John the Baptists 3.

MACAULAY BROS. WON

The fourth game of the Commercial base ball league was played on the Barrack square last evening, when the M. R. A. team were defeated by the nine from Macaulay Bros. & Co. by the score of 9 to 7.

There was a good crowd present and there was much interest shown in the game. The batteries were: For Macaulay Bros.' team, Latham and McCann; for M. R. A., Sterling and McCann.

A "Pastry" Flour, Too Don't think of BEAVER Flour solely as a "Bread" flour. It is true that BEAVER Flour is rich in gluten. It takes up a large amount of water—the dough "stands up" in the oven, and bakes a "big" loaf that is deliciously white and tasty. But BEAVER Flour is equally good for Pastry. Because the wheat blend from which it is milled contains the wheat from which the best pastry flour probably in the world is made—Ontario fall wheat. In other words "Beaver" Flour Is a BLEND OF ONTARIO and MANITOBA Wheat Ontario wheat supplies the qualities which make the lightest, most delicious Bread, Cake, Pies and Fancy Pastry. Manitoba wheat supplies the gluten and nitrogenous substances, which give food value to Bread and Rolls. BEAVER FLOUR is as good for Pastry as it is for Bread—and is BEST for BOTH. If you have been using one kind of flour for bread and a special brand for pastry—don't go to this extra expense any longer. Use Beaver Flour for both. JACK TWIN LOSES TWENTY ROUNDS GO

Frank Mantell fied all the Better of Their Contest in Sacramento

Sacramento, Cal. July 5.—Frank Mantell had all the better of the milling here today in his bout with Jack (Twin) Sullivan, and received the verdict after twenty rounds of boxing.

There was a fair crowd on hand, expecting to see a fast scrap, but the bout was spoiled at some stages by the fashion in which both men "stalled" and slipped into clinches.

Sullivan was considered a certain winner over Mantell and his showing did not come up to the expectation of his friends. In the early rounds he was clever enough, but his opponent's wiles seemed to bother him and he was refusing to stop at the end.

The liquor license commissioners last evening made a tour of another portion of the city, visiting all the saloons. MORE THAN A THIRD ALREADY IN HAND

Playground Fund is Growing—Miss Fowles Will Teach—May Have Ground Hockey

While the response to the appeal for $100 to provide a supervised playground on the grounds of the Every Day Club has been most gratifying—$390 in two days—it has not yet been general, as $30 of this amount was in only four contributions. The following is the statement, to date:—

Acknowledged yesterday . . . $21.00
W. C. T. Union 10.00
Inspector W. S. Carter 5.00
E. H. Macburn 2.00
A friend 1.00

At the meeting of the W. C. T. Union yesterday afternoon, the efforts of the Every Day Club to provide a teacher and equipment were commended and $10 was voted. Inspector Carter wrote from Fredericton expressing sympathy and enclosing five dollars. A lady who wished to be known simply as "a friend" sent in one dollar. Those who desire to aid in this good work should do so at once, that the club may be assured of enough funds to carry out the work.

Miss Fowles, who has taught the past three years taught clay-modelling and painting on the supervised playgrounds and is familiar with all the work, will assume charge at the grounds tomorrow morning. The little girls will be taught sewing and crocheting, and Miss Fowles will have general supervision of the swings, slide, teeters, sand bin and other features. It is hoped that arrangements may be made to have the game of ground hockey for girls introduced, and there is a fairly good basket ball outfit.

Members of the Every Day Club grounds committee are urged to be on the grounds this evening, as considerable work is necessary to be done in connection with the playgrounds and next Sunday's mass meeting.

Howie-Hatheway.

Fredericton, N. B., July 7.—(Special)—St. Peter's church at Springhill was the scene of a happy event this afternoon, when Miss Muriel Louise Hatheway, only daughter of Fred W. Hatheway, was joined in matrimony to George E. Howie, C. S., of this city. Rev. M. C. Shewen performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by Miss Elsie Jardine, Springhill, and Helen Pickup, of Annapolis, N. S. Stephen Whitehead, of this city, was best man. The ushers were S. Hatheway and J. F. McLean. Little Dorothy Mills, of Granville Ferry, N. S., acted as flower girl. The bride wore a white satin empire gown, with Duchesse lace trimmings and the veil and wreath used by her mother on her wedding day. The bridesmaids were attired in Nile green satin, with sequin trimmings. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests repaired to Berry Hill, the home of the bride's father, where luncheon was served. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents, including a diamond ring from the groom and a silver tea service from Mr. and Mrs. William Kitcher. The happy couple will leave this evening for Grand Falls, where the groom is employed as a resident engineer on the Transcontinental.

FUNERALS

The funeral of John H. Snider, who was killed on Monday while working at the new west side wharf, was held this morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence, King street, west. Rev. G. F. Scovil, rector of St. Jude's church, conducted the services at the house and grave. No. 2 Battery, 3rd Regiment, C. A., of which Mr. Snider was a member, marched in the cortege as far as Tildon's corner. Major S. B. Smith was in command of the company. The pallbearers were selected from the lodge of P. A. P. B. of which Mr. Snider was a member. Many beautiful floral tributes were laid on the casket. Interment was made at Loreville.

BASEBALL TONIGHT

The Clippers and Marathons meet again tonight on the Every Day Club grounds in their series of games for the baseball championship of the city. Both teams have been improving in their playing and good game should result tonight.

Arrangements are being perfected for the great impromptu mass meeting on the Every Day Club grounds next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It promises to be the most interesting demonstration of the kind ever held in the city.

MONDAY EVENING'S SPORTS

The entries for the Every Day Club handicap sports on Monday evening close today. There is a fine field of competitors. Nearly a score of local runners were on the club's track last evening, getting in some practice, and Stirling had his last run before starting for Winnipeg this evening. Moncton will send four men down on Monday, and the various events will be keenly contested.

MICHAEL HARNEY IN THE POLICE COURT

He is Charged With Refusing to Allow the Police to Enter His Saloon on Price William Street—A Kidnapping Case.

Instances are rare wherein a saloon-keeper is prosecuted in this city for alleged refusal to permit the entrance of policemen into his saloon, but this morning Michael Harney, of the Vendome Hotel, at the corner of Prince William and Duke streets, was the defendant of such an allegation, and in addition to this morning drawing the blinds of his store on Saturday and Sunday nights. Night Detective Fred Lucas, who accompanied by Patrolmen Linton and Ross, who visited the hotel on Sunday night, instituted the proceedings against Mr. Harney.

It was arranged that the hearings of both charges would be separate, and to the charge of refusing to permit the officers to enter his bar the defendant pleaded not guilty, and was represented by E. S. Ritchie. He will also offer a plea of not guilty to having the blinds so arranged that it was impossible to obtain an unrestricted view of the interior of the saloon.

Patrolman James Ross, the opening witness for the prosecution, stated that he accompanied Lucas and Linton to the hotel on Sunday night. Lucas accompanied Mr. Harney in the office and stationing Ross at the door leading, presumably, into the bar from the office, inquired for the key in order to inspect the bar. The defendant replied that he would be pleased to allow the plain clothes man to enter the bar, but as his bartender, who was not on the premises, possessed the key, he was unable to accede to the demand of the officer. Harney asserted that the bar was closed from 2 p. m. on Saturday until 7 a. m. on Monday. The policeman stated that the blinds were drawn on Sunday night, and for at least four weeks past. On Saturday night the blinds on the door were drawn from the top to a space within six inches of the bottom. However, at midnight on Saturday he peered through the available space but saw nobody inside. He added that the blinds on the defendant's hotel differ from the blinds on the Grand Union Hotel, and Hotel Edward, where new blinds had been secured at all times. The policeman said he did not overhear Harney in conversation with Lucas and Linton, but if assistance to the bar was imperative he could demolish the door.

The general conception of the charge was that the officers demanded the key of the street door, but it transpired in the latter portion of the testimony of the patrolman that his impression was erroneous. Ross stated that Lucas requested the key of a door that the prosecution contends leads from the office into the bar. The law permits only one door to a bar, and it is probable that Mr. Harney will confront a third allegation based on the existence of this door.

At the conclusion of the officers' evidence adjournment was ordered until Friday morning at ten o'clock when Night Detective Lucas will testify.

Thomas Marsh, his wife and a retinue of adherents of both sexes but of one color, invaded the court with the avowed object of prosecuting Abraham Fredericks, their son-in-law, who kidnapped five-year-old Clifford Marsh, from the Marsh domicile in Union Alley last evening. After a conference with the police clerk, they held themselves away in a disgruntled mood, as they were advised to consult a lawyer before preferring information against Fredericks.

Fredericks wedded a daughter of Marsh prior to serving a term at Dorchester for a serious offense, and claims that the boy is his son. However, Marsh, senior, who adopted the boy, asserts that he can prove that Fredericks is not the boy's father. At any rate the lad did not betray the affection that exists between father and son, when the alleged pater carried him out of the Marsh home at 7 o'clock last evening.

The boy kicked, scratched, punched, sobbed, shouted and otherwise strove to free himself from his "father's" embrace. Nevertheless Fredericks did not tarry in reaching his destination.

Morris Furlong, who was reported for furious driving at the corner of Mill and Pond streets, stated that he urged the horse in order to connect with a train at the depot. His honor remarked that offences of this nature are much too numerous, and if there was no discrimination a violation of the governing by-law would be summoned to court everyday. A fine of $8 was suspended.

Thomas Davis, a north end inebriate, was summarily fined $8 or two months.
