THE EDITOR'S EXPERIENCE.A SUFFERER FOR SEVERAL YEARS FROM ACUTE DYSPYPSIA.Food Distressed Him and it Began to Have a Weakening Effect on the Heart —Many Remedies Failed Before a Cure Was Found.From the Cause, N. S. Breeze.
While newspaper men are called upon in their capacity as publishers to print from week to week words of praise spoken in favor of proprietary medicines, it is not often that the editor himself feels it his duty to say a good word on behalf of any of these preparations. And yet if a newspaper man has actually found benefit from the use of a proprietary medicine, why should he not make it known to his readers, and thus perhaps point out to some of them the road to renewed health. The editor of theBreeze believes it his duty to say a few words of praise in favor of a remedy that has proved an inestimable boon to him, and to say them without any solicitation on the part of the proprietors of the medicine, who, as a matter of fact, had no reason to know that he was ailing or was using their medicine. For several years the editor of the Breeze had been subject to that distressing complaint, dyspepsia, and only those who have been similarly troubled can know how much misery this trouble entails. He had lost his appetite, and what he did eat caused an unpleasant feeling of fullness, and made him feel languid and heavy, often causing intense pain in the stomach only relieved by vomiting up the food which he had taken. He was also troubled with palpitation of the heart, brought on no doubt by the dyspepsia. Numerous remedies alleged to cure dyspepsia were tried, but without success, and the trouble was approaching a chronic state.
At the suggestion of a friend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were tried and relief soon followed the use, and after a fewmonths had been taken the editor was able to assert positively that he had been cured of his dyspepsia by this remedy that has proved so great a blessing to mankind. To any one troubled with this complaint he would strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. To newspaper men particularly they will be found just the thing to impart health and vigor to the whole system and enable them to pursue their work free from that tired, despondent feeling so prevalent among the craft. The editor of the Breeze firmly believes that what they have done for him they will do for others, and he gives them his hearty and unqualified endorsement.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing cure for all troubles resulting from poverty of the blood or shattered nerves, and when given a trial they never fail in cases like that above related.

A DEEP LAID SCHEME

To Disrupt the Liberal-Conservative Party.

GRITS IN DISGUISE.

Mr. John A. McMillan Shows Up the Tactics of the Patrons—The Liberal-Conservative Farmers of the Country Should not be Hoodwinked into Furthering Grit Schemes—Mr. McMillan Hits Back.We clip the following from The Mail and Empire:

To the Editor of The Mail and Empire.

Sir—In my last letter my aim was to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that the one great desire of the leaders of the Patrons is to destroy the Government at Ottawa, and in doing so I summoned to my assistance only the use of kindly and gentle language, and for so doing I am treated through the columns of the press with a disparaging and nasty innuendo of personalities and nasty innuendoes in language and gross in their nature.Now, Mr. Editor, I don't like to trouble the press with matters personal to myself, and never have, yet I must crave your indulgence a little in that respect; but before doing so, permit me to give you some further facts in relation to the attitude of the Patrons in some of the other ridges of the province which have come under my notice during the last two weeks.The Patrons have recently met in North and South Perth, and in the former, which is represented in Parliament by a Liberal, they concluded to put a man in the field, but in South Perth, which is represented by a Conservative, they concluded to place a man in the field.In Mr. Cargill's constituency, which he has always carried by a Liberal Conservative majority, they nominate a Conservative against him.In Oxford the nominee of the Patrons attended the Reform Convention (a nice place for him), and publicly stated that he would run against Sir John Cartwright, the nominee of the Reform party.In East York the Secretary of the Patron Association for the riding actually attended the Clear Grit Convention, seconded the nomination of the Clear Grit nominee, Mr. Frankland, and has been doing all he can, ever since, to get the Patrons' support for Mr. Frankland, and against Mr. Maclellan, the present Conservative member for the riding.In West York, which is overwhelmingly Conservative, and where no Clear Grit could have a possible chance of success against the Hon. Clarke Wallace, a Patron put in the field in the hope of wresting the seat from the Government.In Lennox the Liberal party, in the hope of defeating Mr. Wilson, the present Conservative member, have withdrawn their candidate, Mr. Allison, from the field, and in East Hastings, which is overwhelmingly Conservative, the Liberals conclude to support the Patron candidate in the hope of defeating Mr.
Northrup, the present Conservative member for the riding.A short time ago we read of Mr.
Pardo, the Patron member for Kent, attending a convention of the Liberal party and thanking them for their support, and on many more occasions you will find this non-partisan Patron supporting Mr. Campbell, the nominee of the Liberal party for the Commons.In East Peterboro the other day the Liberal met and nominated—who do you think, Mr. Editor? Why, nothing less than the president of the Patrons for the riding, Mr. Lang, who, by the way, was a former Grit M.P., and doubtless they thought that, Patron or what not, they could trust him again.In one of the Waterloos (I think the south riding) we find the Patron retiring rather than do injury to the Liberal candidate in this old-time Reform riding.A few days ago a meeting of Liberals was held at Stirling, for the purpose of appointing 75 delegates to the Liberal Convention, and their instructions from the meeting were that they be at liberty to either support a Liberal candidate or support the Patron, as they might see fit.Surely no one will contend on reading the above, and seeing what is going on around about us on every hand, that there is not a contract of mutual support or an understanding very nearly approaching that between the leaders of these two parties.Mr. Gillespie, the nominee of the Liberal party for North Ontario, and the alleged agent at Severn Bridge that the Patron had taken their policy, and it is only a day or two since Mr. Henry Glendonning, the well-known Granger and Patron of Brock, said that he had not to make much of a success in influencing the Liberals and uniting his forces with the Patron movement; and really the statements of both these men in the light of recent events strikes one with a great deal of force as to their truthfulness.In addition to the above facts let me draw your attention, and that of your readers to the fact that the leader of the Patrons in the Local Legislature, Mr.
Haycock, and Mr. Currie, the whip of the party, are both old-time Radicals of the severest type.
Now, Mr. Editor, from the foregoing and my previous letter, I have tried to make it clear that my object is to point out to my fellow-Conservatives who are of the Patron persuasion that there is a deep laid scheme to get their assistance for the disruption of the Conservative party, which could only result in placing Mr. Laurier in power. I have been entirely candid, and I have made no charges whatever against any one of our Conservative friends or the rank and file of the Liberal party who have joined the movement in this riding. My only charge of unfair dealing has been against the party backs in the riding that have hitherto been identified with the Clear Grit party. I have never said nor have I ever thought that farmers should not combine together for promoting their best interests and in so far as the Patron movement will attain that object I would be the last one to take exception to the movement. Mr. Brandon, however, by some flight of imagination, endeavors to mislead my letter, or at least misconstrues it to the public. If his style of writing suits his friends I need not complain in any event.Mr. Editor, it would make this letter too long were I to deal with the whole letter just now; later on I may ask you for space in order to deal with the personal references contained in Mr.
Brandon's letter.Yours, etc., JOHN McMILLAN,
Uxbridge, March 6.

FREE TRADE BRITAIN'S DISTRESS

LONDON, Feb. 25.—James Keir Hardie, M.P., had another hearing today before the House of Commons in connection with the Free Trade Bill, and plans for the relief of the distressed and unemployed.He said that a state of £5,000,000 would be unemployed throughout the country for six weeks.In Oxford the nominee of the Patrons
he would run against Sir John Cartwright,

to their truthfulness.going ships entered and cleared at Canadian ports was 12,752,974 tons. In 1878, under free trade, the tonnage of vessels sailing between ports in one province and the ports of another or of the same province was 11,047,691. In 1892 the tonnage of the same class of vessels had grown to 25,109,925. In-terprovincial trade boomed under protection.And yet Sir Richard had the effrontery to tell the House that Canada had paid six hundred millions for the experiment of protection. If Canada had paid to pay this amount of money, she has been far better able to do it under protection than she was in that year when Sir Richard, at Finance Minister, had to go upon his knees to the English money lenders for loans drawing but 88c on the dollar of our securities, and when he was forced to concede that every dollar that had been borrowed by his predecessors had been applied with the most scrupulous regard to the public advantage. To Sir Richard's talent for exaggerating the evils that come upon the country and denying the good, is in great measure the undoing of the Grits.—London Free

THE MASK THROWN OFF.

CANDID CONFESSION MADE BY A LIBERAL ORGAN.How They Managed Matters in the Consistory of North-West and Grits Have Come to an "Understanding."

To the Editor of The Mail and Empire.

Sir,—I have read with not a little interest the letters which have been appearing from various correspondents upon Patrons of Industry and their conduct with electioneering and other letters. I beg to say to you, are making Conservative Patrons think as they never have thought before. The members of the Patrons who were Conservatives, and no doubt many who were Reformers, went into this organization consistently.There seems to be very little doubt in any of their minds now, however, that it is being used as a sort of show for the purpose of making a name for the farmer friend who had in the Government—and our own Mr. John Charlton, M.P. for this county.I noticed the other day in a letter in your columns a reference to this county, but as the Grit paper in North-West only mentioned and its exact words were not given, I felt it my duty to call the attention of Conservative Patrons to just what it says. It should be remembered that the editor of The North-West Reformer is Mr. H. B. Donly, the right-hand man of Brother John Charlton, and the secretary of the Reform Association. Here is what The Reformer says:"Evidence is accumulating that in Eastern Ontario the Reform Liberals have come to a very sensible arrangement not to get into one another's way. For instance, in the following ridings, now represented by Conservatives, the Patrons have candidates in the field: Carleton, Glengarry, South Lanark, North Leeds, Dundas, Storm-ont, Frontenac, East Hastings, North Hastings, and West York. In these ridings, now held by the Liberals, no Patrons are nominated: Russell, Addington, West Ontario, North York, and Peel. In Pontiac the Patrons have endorsed the Liberal candidate. In Lennox the Liberals are supporting a Patron. This is indeed gratifying. Patrons who have in view one object, viz., the defeat of the present Government at Ottawa.
How could they act more wisely than by working harmoniously to accomplish their purpose? Now the Liberals and Patrons of this county (Northwest) come to the same sensible understanding."The word here used is "understanding," and The North-West Reformer wants the Patrons here to come to the same understanding as the Patrons and Grits have come to elsewhere, namely, to unite to defeat the Conservative party.
Good, Bro. Donly! Conservative Patrons will be pleased at your candor, at least. What do Mr. Mallory and Mr. Wilson and Mr. Gifford think of this?Now, a word as to Grit Patron tactics in this old county. In the local the Patrons put up two cross candidates, one in the north and one in the south. The Grit Patrons deserted their candidates, and elected Grit candidates, Mr. Charlton and Mr. Carpenter. And to-day the Patron Grits are doing their best to help John Charlton in the North riding, but their wire-pullers are on deck to urge the Patrons to vote for a Patron candidate named Mr. Walker, and against Colonel Tisdale in the South riding. The reason for doing this is because a straight Grit has no chance against the Conservative candidate.Hoping I have given some light on the situation here, Yours, etc.,
PATRON CONSERVATIVE.

Chatham Banner (Grit).—In the pending contest Liberals and Patrons are striving for the same object, and a division of the forces in any constituency would be suicidal.
Peterborough Review.—The first division at first sight would seem to indicate that Grit Oliver and Mr. Haycock are not such bad friends, not even on the free system.
