A. B. C. MEDIATORS TRY TO FIND OUT MEXICANS' IDEAS

Follow Same Plan as With Americans in Informal Talks.

WILSON IS KEPT POSTED

Rebel Successes Force Them Into Consideration More and More—Other Difficulties.

[Canadian Press.]
Niagara Falls, Ont., May 21.—The three South American mediators, in an informal conference today with the representatives of General Huerta, sought to learn in a general way the viewpoint of the Mexican representatives on various tentative plans for a solution of the Mexican problem.

The mediators pursued the same course with the Mexican delegates today as they did with the American peace commission-ers last night. No formal expressions of views were required, but the mediators suggested hypothetical steps looking to a settlement of the Mexican imbroglio, and learned the trend of thought of the delegates. No proposals of a definite character had been made to the Americans, and it was understood that none were contemplated today with the Mexicans. In fact one of the principals to the conference expressed the opinion that it might be several days before a definite and comprehensive plan would be submitted for formal consideration to either side.

Minister Naon of Argentina described the informal sessions with each side as "talks" or "conversations," indicating that what was being done was chiefly for the "guidance" of all parties in shaping the course of the mediation. In the talk of the mediators with the American delegates, no points were mentioned as having been authorized by the Mexican delegates, but the substance of the talk was, nevertheless, communicated today by the American delegates to Washington in line with the policy they have adopted of keeping President Wilson and Secretary Wilson and Secretary Bryan closely advised of developments here.

End of First Step.
Today's conference between the South American mediators and the Mexican delegates marked the conclusion of the first step in the attempt being made to compose differences between the United States and Mexico.

Error Explained.
Niagara Falls, Ont., May 21.—Much interest is displayed here in an explanation circulated today respecting the erroneous dispatch of yesterday saying Huerta would retire. As received here the dispatch read: "Huerta gave out statement saying he authorized peace delegates to offer resignation. If necessary, to arrange peace." Correspondents of the Associated Press in Mexico, however, explained yesterday that the word "saying" had been written "denying" and that the sense of the dispatch had been reversed by an error in transmission. An investigation is proceeding to fix responsibility for the error.

[Canadian Press.]
Niagara Falls, Ont., May 21.—There is feeling on the part of principals to the mediation conference here that the advance of the Constitutional army under Gen. Villa must inevitably have a bearing upon the settlement of the difficulties between the United States and Huerta party. Official reports coming yesterday from Constitutional sources reciting the victories of Villa and his army in the Saltillo campaign have convinced the Mexican representatives here that Huerta's Continued on Page Eleven.

OLD SYSTEM IS BEING RESTORED

Hospital Trust Reverting to the Idea of Medical Superintendent.

THROWN OUT BY BECK

Made His First Bid for Popularity in Dismissal of Dr.
Balfour.

A reader of The Advertiser this morning asked for information regarding the salary paid to the new resident chief at Victoria Hospital, and also for the salary paid to the late Dr. J. B. Balfour, who was dismissed many years ago from the position of medical superintendent at the institution of Hon. Adam Beck.

The facts in the case are that Dr. N. A. Morrison, the new medical chief at the hospital, who has charge of the medical work, receives a salary of $800 a year to start. His appointment was made this year, the position being created because of the demand of years that a medical head be appointed for the institution. Previous to that time the chief surgeon was given $300 a year.

At the time of his dismissal from the position by Mr. Beck, Balfour was receiving $1,600 a year, or $700 more than Dr. Morrison receives, and had complete charge of the hospital.

Those who opposed Mr. Beck in his attack upon Dr. Balfour, maintained that a medical head was required at the hospital. This contention has been kept up for many years, and many irregularities have been caused through the lack of such a physician. The trust recently decided that it was necessary to appoint a medical head, and it is understood that the salary will be advanced until it becomes large enough to reimburse a good physician, and that the position will be made permanent.

The Hon. Adam Beck made his first bid to popularity by the usual methods, through the dismissal of Dr. Balfour. The appointment of a medical head at Victoria Hospital is the first of his chickens to come home to roost.

Wars Horrors Are Nothing Compared to Hat Cleaners

Ralph Benenati is the voucher for this story, which is a good one any way.

Ralph says that one of the Greek hat cleaners, who recently returned from the Balkan war, and is now in a local parlor, was working on a hat-cleaning machine when the machine came apart. One of the parts struck the warrior in the forehead.

"I go to the war and no getta shot," he yelled, "I come home and get shot by the—hatta-clean!"

TRY TO CLIMB WATER WAGON WITH DISASTROUS RESULTS

Farmer's Team Pulls Off Spectacular Runaway Effect at York and William Streets This Morning.

A city watering cart, a farmer's wagon, an iron fence and two teams of frightened horses staged a drama, that threatened to have serious results at the corner of William and York streets about 10:45 this morning, for the excited attention of about 500 people.

Watering cart No. 7, driven by Jack Stinchcombe, was standing at the hydrant at the corner of William and York streets taking water, when a frightened team, belonging to L. Smith, a dairyman of Dorchester, and driven by F. R. Clarke, swung out of the lane behind the premises of the London Pure Milk Company. On the wagon swung a disc harrow and a plow. Down William street the frenzied horses rushed. Ere danger could even be thought of, the heavy team had collided with the city cart, bursting in the rear end.

ROWELL'S SOCIAL REFORM PROGRAM DRAWS BOTH SIDES

Prominent Men, Not Hitherto Active in Politics, on Progressive Committee.

IN NORTHEAST. TORONTO

Young Men Show Interest and Other Similar Organizations Are Probable.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, May 21.—One of the most significant features up to date in the provincial election campaign is the announcement of a non-partisan Progressive committee to arrange for the organization of the riding of Northeast Toronto in the interests of the social reform program submitted by Mr. Rowell and his colleagues in the Legislature.

The committee list is quite unusual for several reasons. It contains the names of well-known Conservatives, such as ex-Ald. James Hales, law partner of Hon. I. B. Lucas; A. R. Williams, a prominent wholesale machinist; T. W. Self, a contractor and an industrial Orangeman; and Harry Goodman, vice-president of the Langmuir Company. There are also the names of several independents.

The list is notable, too, for the number of prominent business, financial and professional men, many of whom, up to the present, have not taken an active interest in practical politics, but who are frankly attracted now by the program of social reform presented by Mr. Rowell.

Contained in the list are the names of Liberals who, on the reciprocity issue, are said to have voted against their party. Another significant feature is the inclusion in the list of a number of young men, which is another indication of that movement of young men to the side of the progressive and social reform party, which is reported to be general throughout the province.

Several speakers at the recent Conservative meeting in North Toronto warned their colleagues that they were face to face with the "young men" movement, and that the announcement of this committee explains at least part of the Conservatives' nervousness.

It is expected that similar committees will be announced within a few days for some of the other Toronto constituencies.

HEALTH BOARDS TO CONFER WITH BUTCHERS

City and County Officials Will Go Into Meat Inspection Question.

City and county boards of health will meet the wholesale and retail butchers of the city at a meeting in the county buildings tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, when the matter of meat inspection will be thoroughly gone into.

Nearly all the butchers are in favor of a municipal abattoir and it is likely that the petition now being circulated by J. A. Ashplant and others asking for the establishing of such an abattoir will be almost generally signed by the butchers, but there are several who take different views of the matter, among them George F. Morris and C. Newcomb. They favor meat inspection but think the inspectors should visit all the individual abattoirs in the country and contend that it would be a hardship for every butcher to have to drive his stock to one central abattoir which might be a considerable distance from his shop, yards and place of residence.

G. T. R. COBALT EXPRESS DERAILED; NO ONE HURT

[Canadian Press.]
North Bay, Ont., May 21.—The Cobalt special Grand Trunk express, which left Toronto eight-thirty last night, was derailed near Trout Creek at four o'clock this morning. The passengers were shaken up, but no one was injured. Some of the cars turned partly over, but no great damage was done.

GOING TO SCHOOL IN A TENT

London youngsters getting full benefit of open-air class work in tent school at the corner of Florence and Egerton streets. Going to school in a tent has a wonderful attraction, if the statements of the kiddies who attend are any criterion. Open-air classes have been considered in London for some time but the "movable side" tent that gives the youngsters a chance to see the trees, the grass and the flowers while studying their lessons is an innovation in London education that is proving an interesting experiment in showing just what can be done with the proper environment.

Chinese Laundries Jolted by Piper

Building Inspector Prevents "Chink"
From Carrying Laundry Business
To Dufferin Avenue.

The growth of Chinese laundries in London has received a rude setback by Building Inspector Piper, who recommends to the board of control that no permit be issued to Charlie Frank, who wants to open a laundry at the southeast corner of Maitland street and Dufferin avenue. The chief objection is that it comes within the restricted district, while neighbors protested against that kind of business going on that particular corner.

There are other laundries that ought to come within the restricted district," said Building Inspector Piper, referring to the new Chinese laundries recently opened in the city.

The board of control upholds the building inspector.

TO LAY THE DUST IN CITY SUNDAY

Engineering Department to Fight Dirt Nuisance With Oil and Water.

WEATHER NOT RIGHT

Could Not Oil Last Week Because It Ran "Like Molasses in January."

It's dusty on the highway.
It's dusty on the street.
It's dusty on the byway.
It's dusty on the feet.
It's dusty everywhere in fact.
Where Asphalt's oiler ain't:
So let's rejoice it's just plain dust
And not buckets of red paint.
—The City Hall Poet.

City Engineer Ashplant will recommend to the board of control tomorrow that all the paved area of London be sprinkled Sunday, so as to prevent a repetition of the dust clouds which filled the city last Sunday. The city engineer has been busy all week trying to appease the rate payers who have lodged complaint against the dusty roads in the city, while hundreds of auto owners and drivers claim that five minutes in their cars will make them look like flour mill workers.

"We are doing all we can to meet the situation," declared Mr. Ashplant this afternoon, "but we only have two oiling machines, and they are working as fast as possible in the north and south end of the city."

The department has never started in as early as this before to oil the streets, and it has only been within the last few days that the temperature became right for proper oiling. Last week the oil ran out on the streets like "molasses in January."

This is London's first experience with oil on such a large scale, but the engineering department hopes to reduce the number of complaints as soon as all the outlying streets are oiled.

The sprinkling on Sunday will be an experiment, and if it works successfully it will be adopted for the remainder of the summer.

APPOINTED TO QUEEN'S

[Canadian Press.]

Kingston, Ont., May 21.—Dr. A. P. Lothrop, assistant professor of physiological chemistry in Columbia University, New York, has been appointed professor of physiological chemistry in Queen's University. Dr. Lothrop will take full control of the teaching of chemistry in Queen's.

MRS. GORDON WRIGHT IS AGAIN ELECTED AS PRESIDENT OF W.M.S.

Unanimously Chosen as Head of London Conference Branch —Sessions to Conclude This Afternoon — Resolutions of Sympathy.

Mrs. Gordon Wright, of this city, was unanimously re-elected president of the London Conference Branch Women's Missionary Society at the morning session of the annual convention today. Other officers elected were: First vice-president, Mrs. Marlatt, St. Thomas; second vice-president, Mrs. F. E. Harrison, London; third vice-president, Mrs. Leary; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Tennant, London. Balloting for the remaining offices will be resumed this afternoon after the lunch hour.

District organizers appointed for the coming year are: London, Mrs. (Rev.) Harvey; Stratford, Mrs. Harry White; St. Mary's, associate, Mrs. Marshall; St. Mary's, Godrich, Mrs. S. E. Hicks; Godrich, Wingham, Mrs. T. O. Johnston; Gorrie, Exeter, Mrs. Wilson; Greenway, Stratford, Mrs. W. B. Smith; Petrolia, Windsor, Mrs. Tillman, Walker; Sarnia, Mrs. Donaldson; Forest, Chatham, Mrs. (Rev.) Vance; Merlin; associate, Mrs. Austen; Ridgeway, Mrs. Alex. Douglas; Wardsville, St. Thomas, Mrs. Rossiter, associate, Miss Rumball. Mrs. Gordon Wright was appointed delegate to conference next year.

A number of resolutions of sympathy were passed at this morning's session, including one to Miss Morgan, returned missionary from China, who was prevented from attending the convention through illness. A resolution was also passed in sympathy with Mrs. McMechan, London, who has illness in her home, and to Mrs. (Rev.) Kirkwood, Watford, who recently sustained an accident. An expression of regret was also sent to the husband and mother of the late Mrs. Sutton, of Smoky Lake.

The reports of Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Tennant, Treasurer Mrs. Beal and Secretary of Circles and Bands Mrs. Graham (Sarnia), were all adopted. The tellers for the election of officers were: Mrs. Cosens, London; Mrs. Austen, Chatham; Mrs. Vance, Merlin; Mrs. Martin, Kingsville; Mrs. Heard, St. Thomas; Mrs. Rivers, Gorrie; Mrs. Diehl, Varna; and Mrs. (Rev.) Hazen, London.

At noon the quiet half-day service was conducted by Rev. A. J. Johnston, of the Centre Church. Luncheon was served today, and on the two previous days by the ladies of the convention church.

At the afternoon session will conclude with this afternoon's session.

PORT COTTAGERS ARE WAITING FOR HYDRO

Many Cancel Wiring Contracts
When They Hear Rates Are to Advance.

Several Londoners, who have cottages at Port Stanley, are wondering when hydro power is going to be turned on. The announcement that rates were going to be raised has caused 20 out of 22 cottagers to cancel their wiring contracts with John Collins, the electrician at the Port.

Some merchants are complaining because hydro has not been turned on since the 1st of May. They believe it if it was turned on that there would be larger business for them.

Hydro showed a handsome gain last year, and the salary of the manager was nearly doubled. For this reason merchants cannot understand why the cottager should pay higher rates, as they are dependent on the cottager for business during the summer months.

FIREMAN INJURED BY FALLING HOSE

Lieutenant Puthurbough Has Arm Fractured at Small Fire at McClary Plant.

Working at a fire this morning, which broke out on the roof of the McClary plant, in the tinning department, on York street, Lieutenant James Puthurbough, of the central station, had his arm fractured, from a falling hose.

The hose slipped away from the man holding it, and fell on Puthurbough. He was attended by Dr. F. P. Drake, who reset the bone, after an X-ray examination.

The roof of the building caught fire from grease and oil at the furnaces. About $100 damage was done.

BECKER MAY KNOW FATE ON SATURDAY; EVIDENCE NOW IN

Defence Counsel Believe They Have Established Necessary Alibi.

PRISONER NOT ON STAND

Former Aides Testify He Was
With Them on Raids at Conference Times.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, May 21.—The announcement of counsel for the defence that Charles E. Becker would not take the stand in his own defence to deny the testimony of Jack Rose, Harry Valon and Bridgie Webber led to the prediction today that the trial would be concluded in short order and that a verdict in the case might be expected by Saturday.

Only two or three witnesses for the defence remained to be heard today, and it was not thought that District Attorney Whitman would call more than three or four in rebuttal. Unless the unexpected happens, Martin T. Manton, chief counsel for the defence, is expected to be well started on his closing argument before adjournment today.

Becker, it is stated, was persuaded not to testify only after much argument of the part of his lawyers, who called to their aid Mr. Manton's partner, Bourke Cockran. Becker had insisted that it was necessary that he should personally deny the charge, but was finally won over to his lawyer's way of thinking.

Counsel for Becker said they believed their witnesses had so far proved an alibi for the ex-police lieutenant that it would not be necessary for him to personally deny that he attended the so-called murder conference.

Among the twenty witnesses heard yesterday were three former aides of Becker on the "strong arm" squad, who testified that he was with them on raids when the alleged conference was held.

The defence in the case of Charles Becker, on trial for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, rested shortly after 11 o'clock today.

The prosecution called one witness in rebuttal, then rested. Court was adjourned until 2 o'clock, when the defence will begin summing up.

At the opening of proceedings, Martin T. Manton announced that the two remaining witnesses for the defence had not arrived, but that he would like permission to read the record of the testimony of a man named Victor before the grand jury that indicted Becker. The motion was denied.

Harford T. Marshall, of Becker's counsel, placed on the stand, said he was retained by Becker about two months ago. He denied "Bridgie" Webber's statement that he was counsel for Becker at the time he was representing Webber. Webber had said he discharged Marshall when he found this out.

William Shapiro, driver of the murder car, had testified that Marshall asked him to testify that Harry Valon and Webber were in the car when it left the Hotel Metropole.

On the stand today, Marshall denied this. The defence then rested.

The single witness in rebuttal was Matthew Ryan, principal keeper in the West Side prison. Ryan explained the arrangements of cells in the prison in which Rose, Webber, Valon, Schepps and Jack Sullivan were locked. He said at no time had he received instructions from the grand jury about the treatment of the prisoners. He denied any of them had ever had any whiskey in the prison.

SUPT. WHITTENBERGER IS SERIOUSLY ILL

G. T. R. Official in Precarious Condition in Toronto Hospital.

H. E. Whittenberger, general superintendent of the Ontario lines of the Grand Trunk, was taken to Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, last night to undergo an operation. Physicians say he is in a critical condition, as the result of postponing the operation. He was advised to undergo the operation some time ago.

Superintendent Whittenberger had charge of the royal train on the Duke of Connaught's Western Ontario tour, accompanying it over the G. T. R. lines. It was on the last day of the tour that he was taken ill.

SENATOR COFFEY RALLIES AFTER SINKING SPELL

Precarious Condition Wednesday Night Followed by Improvement Today.

Senator Coffey's condition, if anything, is improved, according to Dr. Hugh A. McCallum, one of the attending physicians. Senator Coffey has rallied wonderfully from a sinking spell which occurred yesterday afternoon.

"Late last night Senator Coffey was in a very critical condition," stated Dr. Tillmann to The Advertiser this afternoon. "He has rallied again, though, and is now resting much easier."

Thirty-three degrees were conferred at the convocation of the Western

University held yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. The large auditorium was crowded to capacity by ex-graduates, friends and relatives of the graduates and students.

Two of the graduates received the degree of arts degree, and eight students received the degree of bachelor of arts, the remaining 23 having the degree of medicine conferred on them. It was the first time in the history of the university that a joint convocation of the faculties was held.

Chancellor Meredith.

Chief Justice R. M. Meredith, president in his address he expressed pleasure

at the progress made by the university of late years. He believed it a hopeful sign that citizens were taking more interest in it and were beginning to realize the advantages of having such an institution in their midst.

With him on the platform were Dr.

H. A. McCullum, dean of the medical college; Dr. Ferguson, Dr. Waugh, registrar, and Dr. Hill, of the medical college; President N. C. James, of the arts faculty; Registrar W. F. Tamblin,

Principal C. C. Walker, of Huron College, and Dr. E. B. Sage, H. B. Archer,

V. A. Buchner and Rev. Henry Bingham, the baccalaureate speaker.

The degree of M. A. was conferred by

Chancellor Meredith on the candidates,

Miss Rachael L. L. Jones, and Rev. Edwin Hawkins, presented by President

James.

The degree of B. A. was similarly conferred upon Misses Georgina I. Davidson, Lucy Saunders, George I. H. Garrett, H. C. Light, G. W. Little, H.

C. Metcalf, and P. E. R. Pococke.

Dr. James, president of the University, paid a tribute to the graduating class in arts, they were worthy candidates whose presence would be felt elsewhere as their absence would be felt in college.

Valedictory Address.

Miss Hazel G. Tanner read the valedictory address, recalling many pleasant

memories of college days and expressing high hopes for future years.

Dr. Robert Ferguson administered the oath to the graduates of the medical faculty. Dean McCullum presented the candidates and Chancellor Meredith conferred the M. D. degree upon the fol-

Aitken, Bert Allison, A. A. Anderson, Samuel

Bean, M. D. Campbell, C. C. Cornish,

W. F. Freeman, F. A. Guest, Thomas

Guilfoyle, J. S. Hudson, Alf. Jones, Fred

Loney, J. E. Mason, Ed. McBain, John

McPherson, A. C. Nixon, Albert Phelps,

A. Poisson, W. Sorenson, E. Steele, Ivan

Wilson, Harold Wismer (in absentia), and Wilfrid Wright.

The valedictory address of the medical graduates was read by Dr. C. C. Cornish and he expressed the appreciation of himself and fellow graduates for the manner in which they had been treated

by the old faculty, during the three years

they attended under their regime; nothing but the best of relationship had existed between the students and members of the faculty.

In referring to the new executive, he said: "Every student sincerely appreciates his efforts and recognized the great strides of progress they had made during their short term of office.

Withal, Criticism.

Continuing, he said: "Through the energy, ability, and willingness of the new Dean and his associates, our college has been raised to the level of the best medical college in America. We are now proud to say that our college is able to withstand the most severe criticism of the American Medical Association or the Carnegie Fund Association.

I urged his fellow graduates to realize that the days preparing for their graduation was merely the frame work of their lives, and said: "The success of life depended upon themselves. He referred to the untiring efforts of the sachars to make the graduates fit for their future lives.

Dr. Hill responded to the address of the valedictorian as follows:

"It is with great pleasure that I speak of the reorganized faculty of medicine

of Western University in response to the aledictorian. We are always glad to hear valedictorians, not because they are getting rid of the students for the summer, but because they mark one of our outputs, one more set of an delivered complete to the public, to meet the demand of the ages for the

after the course in five years.

Must Hustle.
We wish them the highest success
but warn them to strike a fast golf for clamoring after them come the new men, fresh and fresh every year. You graduates have a fine start; make the most of it. Never let there be one year so by you in which you have not added a full year's worth of study and progress. Remember the hoofs of your pursuers, running after you, the new men they will overtake and pass you if you don't hustle. Therefore, may Pace go with you. Pace is not peace; it is useless to offer you peace; for medicine, like religion, brings not peace, but a sword.
Pace go with you and by skillful and well trained effort, may you ever keep well in the forefront of the galloping army of medicine, racing on to new victories.

Rev. H. H. Bingham Speaks.
Rev. Henry H. Bingham delivered the baccalaureate address. His subject was
"The Quest For and Stewardship of Truth."

"It is the aim of all education, whether we think of mathematics or psychology, philosophy, theology, medicine or religion," he said. He impressed upon the graduates that the quest for truth and stewardship of truth should be their aim.
"At the present time," said Mr. Bingham, "the quest is being carried on with great zeal, and although it always involves great sacrifice, the satisfaction obtained is great reward."

"The marrow of brain and bone, mingled with the midnight oil, has been responsible for your receiving your sheepskins today. The portals of the palace of truth are not open to the faithless, but like the gold-rimmed mountain, the wealth to the earnest seeker, and such sacrifices afford great satisfaction when we obtain our reward."

"The privilege of search increases the responsibility of the stewardship. In the last four years you have been administered unto; now it is your privilege to administer unto others, and on the highest authority it is more blessed to give than to receive. You are to be stewards of truth, social, political and religious ideals, Canada from a loyal Canadian university conceived by Canadian hearts and sustained by Canadian money."

He spoke encouraging words to the students of the graduating class, and impressed upon the medical graduates that the two highest professions open to the young men of today were the ministry and medicine, and in the latter there was better chance for making personal count. "Canada needs you. Pay your debt to her," he said. "Help make her the nation she should be; inculcate greater social purity into the nation, make statesmen into civic affairs, and more righteousness into parliamentary life. Let not the lust of lucre interfere with the solving of the great problems, economic, social and religious, which you will have to face."

Following Rev. Mr. Bingham's address, the graduates who had won medals and honour certificates during the course, were presented with their prizes.

Dr. C. C. Cornish, and Dr. McPherson were presented with the gold and silver medals, respectively, for the highest and second highest standing during the last three years of the M. D. degree course.
The Governor-General's medal for the highest standing taken by a graduate in arts was not presented. Miss Davidson and Miss Saunders were tied for the honour. With an exceptional high mark for students in the fourth year arts course. The matter was left to His Excellency the Duke of Connaught to decide.

Miss Davidson was presented with public recognition by Dr. James of her great success on behalf of the faculty.
The Buchner gold medal for general proficiency in the second year was won by Katherine Wardmore, U. A. Buchner, the donor, presented the student with the medal, accompanied by a brief speech.

Miss Dorothy Turville was presented by Dr. James with the prize for the highest standing in the first year.
Two prizes given in connection with the Western University Literary Society to the winners of the annual oratorical contest were won, first by William Moulton,
15, and second by Bert Hannah, 16.
Henry Light, R. A., president of the society, presented the prizes.

Tender Reception.
At the reception which was tendered the graduates, faculty and alumni of the Art Department by the undergraduates, in the Manor Tea Room immediately after the convocation ceremonies, Dr. W. F.
Tamblin, registrar, presided. Speeches were given by the President, C. C. Walker, P.
Walker, of Huron College, Principal C. C.
Walker, B. A., and E. C. Jacques, B. A.,
and all members of graduating class present. Bert Hannah, 16, gave several excellent readings during the reception.

DENIES THAT CITY SCHEDULE IS WRONG

West Londoner Declares Street Railway Is Responsible for Poor Service.

"It may be all right to blame the city's schedule for ordinary delays on the West London line," said a resident of that section today, "but the street railway and the street railway alone are to blame for the conditions existing at the ball park when the crowds are coming out, and that is the chief complaint."

"I saw in The Advertiser the other night that the superintendent was blaming the city schedule for it. He cannot make us wait that. The way cars are piled up at the switch makes it impossible to maintain a service, and the street railway piles those cars in because it thinks it can get our nickels anyway, and more from the crowds that are coming from the ball park. The street railway depends on those cars the year around. When they get a chance to make a few extra dollars they give us the worst of it."

"We are not unreasoning, but we think that a line of track ought to be run right into the ball park. That would solve the difficulty, and we will be satisfied so long as we can get home without being delayed for a half hour or more. No wonder the people get sore on the street railway."

Victim of Toadstools

[Special to The Advertiser.]
INGERSOLL, May 20.—Word was received here today of the death early this morning at Courtland, of Postville, of the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirby-son, formerly of Ingersoll, which it was said, was due to eating toadstools. Three other members of the family, it was stated, had been seriously ill since Monday, and one of them at the time the message was received was not out of danger. Mr. Kirbyson, up to two years ago, conducted the Ingersoll steam laundry, and was well known as a trap shooter.

RIDOUT SUBWAY CAUSES A SPLIT

Members of Special Committee Divided on Getting Estimate of Cost From the City Engineer.

The special committee named by the council to get the opinion of the city engineer on how to proceed for subways in London was busy today preparing a report in which Ridout street will be recommended for the first subway.

The committee, consisting of Alderman
W. A. Wilson, Controller Percy Moore and Alderman Mitchell, McDonald, Tan-cock, Haney and Merryfield, will not however be agreed upon this report, as some are against the Ridout subway. It is said that when recommendations are made which involve the expenditure of money then the board of control steps in. Certain of the aldermen feel that the board of control has been lax in bringing about subways and they want the council to take action.

The important part of the committee's report is the Ridout street subway, although primarily the committee was named to get an opinion of the city engineer. The report will recommend that the city engineer prepare an estimate of the cost of raising the tracks and establishing a subway at Ridout street. When the estimate is made then the board of control will get the entire matter, as it involves spending money, and some of the controllers say that when they get the Ridout street subway proposed it will be quietly laid away in a nameless grave. The controllers will do this, it is said, to show their resentment of the near fight in the city engineer's office Wednesday when the matter passed between Alderman Wilson and Controller Moore.

The controllers' version of this Wilson-Moore battle is that Controller Moore called Wilson a liar when the latter stated that Mayor Graham said subways would cost London 80 per cent, whereas Alderman Wilson declared that "no man can call me that and live."

Songs We Used to Whistle and Sing

SAILING.

"Thee ho! my lads, the wind blows free,
A pleasant gale on our well
And soon across the ocean clear,
Our gallant barque shall bravely steer;
But ere we part from England's shores
Tonight,
A song we'll sing for home and beauty
Bright."

Chorus—

Then here's to the sailor, and here's to
The hearts so true,
Who'll think of him upon the waters
Blue,
Sailing, sailing, over the bounding main,
For many a stormy wind shall blow ere
Jack comes home again.
Sailing, sailing, over the bounding main,
For many a stormy wind shall blow ere
Jack comes home again.

The tide is flowing with the gale;
"Thee ho! my lads, set every sail;
This harbor bay we soon shall clear,
And soon across the ocean clear,
For when the tempest rages loud and Long,
That home shall be our guiding star
Among."

Save the lead covering from your next packet of "SALADA" Tea, then when you can get one of the new aluminum packets they are commencing to use. Weight the lead against the aluminum covering. You will be surprised to find the lead eight times the heavier. The weight in the two packets will, of course, be identical.

On Gardening.

With the coming of the spring, amateur agitators of the soil, armed with spade and seed catalogue, prepare for a siege of the soil. There is a fascination in the turning up of the rich, brown soil and in anticipation of the appearance of the beautiful things that are depicted in entrancing colors in the seed almanac—and which seldom materialize.

Over the back fence we optimistically joke with our pessimistic neighbors and sympathize with him when the chickens take upon themselves to scratch for worms in the sweet pea bed. For ourselves we watch diligently for such marauders and lie in wait for the French poodle up the street who insists upon burying his surplus supply of bones in the lettuce patch.

We resolutely forget the hard labor we spent on the garden last year and the meagre results that followed. We laugh over the mistake of planting onion seeds about the trellis at the back door thinking them morning glories.

Yes, notwithstanding all the handicaps and obstacles the city folks are up against in a small plot of ground, who is there is not eager to try once more? Hope springs eternal in the human breast, and with visions of supplying ourselves and neighbors with vegetables and flowers we plan and dream of our garden.

WOES OF MRS. NEWLYWED

"What can I use to take out grease spots in a carpet?" inquired Mrs. Newlywed.

"An excellent paste for extracting grease from carpets," said Mrs. Neighbor, "is made by mixing fuller's earth with a little ammonia. The mixture should be quite thick and should be applied with a brush. Let it remain on the carpet over night, then brush it off with a stiff brush. Sometimes it is necessary to put on a second supply."

Maybelle Mortimer Describes Novel Lwo Neck Tunic.

One of the new printed cotton tunics is made up into this costume. It is of tan and copper kettle yellow. The skirt is peg top and very narrow at the bottom.

The tunic is fitted at the waist, but is cut so that it is quite full at the bottom and the under-fitted tunic is fuller than the upper one.

The blouse has two new touches: The wide tuck across the back, which effect is carried out across the sleeves and the round Victorian neck with its brown velvet collar.

A brown velvet girdle comes around to the middle back, and the round neck is filled in with a shadow lace gumpie, which gives a V-shaped opening, front and back.

The hat is the new high-crowned sailor of brown hemp trimmed with copper kettle yellow moire ribbon.

Care Of The Baby

A baby's mouth should be washed regularly. This is very important as neglect will cause a very sore mouth known as "thrush," which is extremely difficult to cure.

Use a weak solution of boric acid. Boric acid can be obtained in five-cent packages, which will last a long while. Use one-half teaspoon to a small teacup of water that has been well boiled. Wrap a small piece of cheese-cloth or absorbent cotton around the little finger and very gently wipe outside and inside the gums, also inside the lips. Watch the mouth carefully, and if you discover little white patches, baby has "thrush," and if not checked at once will spread rapidly over the entire mouth and sometimes stomach. "Thrush" is always caused by neglect in properly caring for the mouth.

Always wash after feeding baby or at least three times a day.

Care Of The Eyes.

Baby's eyes are very, very important, and weak eyes in adults are often caused by being neglected in infancy. Every morning after the bath carefully wash each eye using two small perfectly clean pieces of cheese-cloth. Make a solution of boric acid, one-half teaspoon to one-half cup of water. Be sure the water has been boiled and then allowed to cool in a covered vessel. Dip the cheese-cloth into solution and drop in the eye. Then gently wipe well in the corners and around edge of lids. Never use the same piece for both eyes.

Always have your own hands and nails scrupulously clean as the eyes are easily infected.

If baby's eyes appear to be inflamed and sore despite the washing it is always best to consult the doctor, as serious trouble, and even blindness, is often the result of delay.

Care Of The Nose.

Cleanse each little nostril each day with a long twist of linen or cheese-cloth well smeared with white vaseline. This may be done frequently if baby has a cold in the head.

To the young, inexperienced mother, I wish to say a few words: do not be dismayed at the thought of the numerous things you must do for baby, for they really are not nearly as formidable as they seem. Caring for mouth, eyes and nose only takes a very few minutes, fifteen minutes at the outside. When I tell you that I've bathed and thoroughly attended to eight and ten babies I realize the task is not really difficult. I love caring for the little dears and I'm sure a mother will enjoy every minute she spends on the "little man" or "woman" as the case may be, and the reward is great: a healthy child.

Dear Madam,—Having read your article on baby's first outfit, I would like to ask you the number of teeth a child 1 year old should have. Also the best kind of food to give while teething? Yours truly, ANXIOUS MOTHER.

1. The number of teeth at a year old will not always be the same. Usually you will find from six to eight. In some families the children get their teeth later than in others.

2. I think the barley purchased at the druggist's is a splendid food at all times. If you send a stamped, addressed envelope to this office, in care of Katherine McFarland, I will send you the name of the brand I prefer.

Escalloped Onions.

Select small, even-sized onions. Cook until tender, but not boiled to pieces. Drain and arrange in baking dish and add a little minced parsley. Cover with sauce made with two cups of milk put into double boiler to boil. Rub to cream two tablespoons of butter with one of flour. When milk is boiling add the butter and flour mixture. Boil until smooth. When this sauce has been added to the onions and parsley put thin layer of bread crumbs on top and bake in oven until crumbs are brown.

The Bridal Veil

If the bride-elect has not inherited a veil of old point or other rare lace, she need not despair and seek to shield her face on the important day beneath a cloud of misty, inexpensive tulle.

Three sorts of moderately expensive veils are temporarily considered rather smarter than are the ones in rose point, Duchess or Brussels. They are of point applique, point l'Aiguille and finest plain mullinet bordered with princess. Just a trifle yellowed with coffee grounds these veils are prettier than in their pure white newness, not because the old ivory tone lends them the appearance of antiquity, but because it usually becomes the bride's complexion better than does the chalk white shade.

With the going-away costume, a white veil is smarter than one in black or a dark color, and these in shadow lace or plain net are narrowly bordered with a rather heavy design which gives them distinction. Such a veil should be a yard and a quarter long and wide enough to fall straight to the shoulder when draped about the brim of a small-sized traveling hat.

Fancy a face veiled with just the lightest of bluish mesh veillings—and against one cheek a little butterfly outlined in heavy black lace. Doesn't it sound really charming. This is the "butterfly" veil—mesh so light it barely shows, and one single butterfly done in lace, and displayed at the cheek.

Sometimes the butterfly is replaced by an autumn leaf—sometimes by a cluster of chenille dots. However, the idea of a single motif is preserved throughout, whatever the actual design.

This is so much more effective than an elaborate design—so much simpler and prettier that it promises to take the place of the all-over pattern.

Speaking of veils, though, another novelty is the "Sultana." This has a crescent-shaped piece of plain mesh woven into the intricate design at just the place where the eyes appear.

CAROLINE COE'S TESTED RECIPES

Now the little spring carrots are most appetizing.

When selecting carrots choose those of small size, for they are sweeter.

Carrots are very nutritious and supposed to act directly on the liver. Therefore, they are much recommended by the beauty specialists as a help to a clear complexion. For this they are eaten raw, either in a salad or with a little salt.

Carrots With Canned Peas. Scrape and slice the carrots and boil until tender. Add two cups of canned peas to each cup of carrots used. Salt to taste. Mix two tablespoons of cornstarch or flour with a little cold water. Beat until perfectly smooth and add one tablespoon of butter, three tablespoons of sugar, one tablespoon of chopped parsley, one cup of milk and stir into the pan containing peas and carrots. Cook until all are slightly thickened. Serve very hot.

Rhubarb Dumplings. Children will enjoy these for lunch or supper, even though they do not like rhubarb. Many children very much dislike it. In fact, the rhubarb is stewed in half its weight of sugar and a little water. While it is cooking mix a biscuit batter, using a pint of flour, a half teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and a cup of milk. Drop this in the rhubarb by spoonfuls and cook for from eight to ten minutes. A pinch of ground ginger or a few raisins can be added if the flavor is liked.

Skirts are getting shorter. Some are worn as much as seven inches from the ground.

There is a tendency toward simpler styles for out-of-door wear.

All sorts and shapes of sailors trimmed in every conceivable fashion are in high favor.

Green still holds sway as a popular color.

LOCAL ITEMS

CHESLEY AVENUE MOTHERS' CLUB. The Chesley Avenue Mothers' Club will meet tonight, when the subject of the evening's address, "Can Environment Overcome Poor Heredity?" will be spoken on by Rev. H. A. Graham, Father of the district, as well as the mothers, are cordially invited to be present.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB.

Doubtless many old Londoners will remember the successful mission services conducted some years ago by Dr. Rainsford, in St. Paul's Cathedral, during the incumbency of the late Dean Innes. For many years Dr. Rainsford has been head of St. George's Church, New York, and his name has been synonymous with the most practical branches of social service endeavor. Two years ago his health broke down seriously that he was forced to resign his charge. He has since recuperated, having spent a large part of the intervening period in the wilds of South Africa. On Friday afternoon Dr. Rainsford speaks to members of the Women's Canadian Club on "The Part Struggle Plays in Life Today."

Any members wishing to join may do so at once and have their membership tickets dated till October, 1915.

Bride's Kitchenware.

Out of a number of lists of necessary kitchen utensils submitted the following was made up as being a good working basis for a beginning:

Woodenware—One bread board, one rolling pin, one small spoon for stirring sauces, one large spoon, one square bowl to be used for preparing meats and vegetables. In a house, washbuds, scrubbing board and a wooden pail or two must be added.

Earthen or Stoneware—One crock for mixing, one quart bowl, one pint bowl, the baking dishes of different sizes, which can be used for puddings, casseroles, etc.

It is better to get the new aluminum ware instead of granite or tin ware for cooking utensils, for though it is more expensive in the beginning, its durability more than compensates, and there is not the constant chipping which makes granite unsafe. So in this ware the housewife selects her tea kettle, one large stew pot, one small stew pot, one double boiler.

In iron ware she will need one deep frying pan, one small frying pan, one large roasting pan. The covered self-roasters are splendid for every kind of meat and save much trouble.

In tin ware she will want a clothes boiler, which should have a copper bottom, two bread pans, two or three cake pans, two or three pie pans, one colander, one wire sieve.

THAT TIRED FEELING IN THE SPRING

That tired feeling that comes to you in the spring, year after year, is a sign that your blood lacks vitality, just as pimples, boils and other eruptions are signs that it is impure; and it is also a sign that your system is in a low or run-down condition in which it will be easy for you to contract disease if exposed to it.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old standard tried and true blood medicine relieves that tired feeling. Get Hood's today.

NOW COMES THE OLD-FASHIONED BASQUE

The old-fashioned basque, that our grandmothers wore, with its tight armholes and form-fitting sleeves, is going to be the style most worn this fall.

One made of brown charmeuse, knit pleated, both the skirt and tunic, and a low tied sash shows all the new ideas in the modern adaptation of the ancient style.

Beet Relish.

Six large beets put into boiling water, cooked until tender, taking great care not to break the skin. When cooked put into cold water and the skin will slip off. Set aside and when cold chop not too fine. Add three cups of cabbage cut in strings or on slow cutter. Over these put one even tablespoon of salt and allow to stand one hour. Drain. Heat one quart of mild vinegar with one cup of sugar and add one teaspoon of whole spice and one-half cup of chopped sweet green pepper. Turn over beet and cabbage mixture. Ready for use in two days.

To improve the flavor of currants and sultanas which are to be used for cakes, place them in a bowl, pour boiling water over them, and leave to soak all night. The fruit swells to twice its former size, but should be drained from the water and dried in the oven before being added to the other ingredients.

A. B. C. MEDIATORS

Ties cannot be stopped. Moreover the execution of a Federal general and his entire staff by Villa has impressed upon them the fact that leaders of the Federal army cannot hope for mercy if they fall into the hands of the Constitutionalists.

A Change Now.
The Federal forces by Villa's successes. The Federal forces by Villa's successes. The Federal forces by Villa's successes.

Chilean Arrives.
With the arrival at midnight of Eduardo Suarez, the Chilean minister, who had delayed in his journey from Washington, the mediation conference was ready to proceed with the day's work.

Constitutionalists Repulsed.
Mexico City, May 21.—Gen. Blanquet, minister of war, announced last night that a band of Constitutionalists, which approached the suburbs of San Luis Potosi Tuesday night, was repulsed by the garrison. The Constitutionalists fled to the mountains.

Silliman Still Missing.
Washington, May 21.—The continued absence of news of the movements of John R. Silliman, United States vice-consul held by the Federalists at Saltillo and later reported to be on his way to Mexico City, caused some apprehension among officials here today. In some quarters belief was expressed that lack of transportation facilities between Saltillo and Mexico City had delayed Silliman, and prevented him from making his whereabouts known. Huerta had not yet reported the fate of Samuel Parks, the American soldier, who was reported to have been executed after wandering from Mexico City.

PLANTS AT ELK LAKE
DESTROYED BY FIRE

In Haileybury and Gowganda.
Blazes Have Been Subdued.

[Canadian Press.]
Haileybury, Ont., May 21.—No further damage by bush fires was reported from any point in the district last night. The Lisk and fire department was called out yesterday afternoon to save Grant and Kennedy's mill, the largest in the district, about six miles from the town. The engine and ten men spent the night at the mill and succeeded in keeping the flames from the building and several thousand feet of lumber in the yard. The fire at South Lorraine has burned itself out. At Elk Lake it is now certain that the Regal plant, as well as the Big Six plant, has been destroyed in the fires. Neither property was working. At Gowganda, where on Tuesday it was feared the entire town would be wiped out, the fires have been practically subdued. No rain has fallen to date and unless it comes early many other fires will break out.

NEWSPAPER MAN HELD UP IN CHATHAM YARDS

Two Negroes and White Accost
Kim But He Escapes—Woman Molested.

[Canadian Press.]
Chatham, Ont., May 21.—At the point of a revolver W. J. Buchanan, a representative of a Toronto paper, was held up in Chatham last night near the Grand Trunk tracks in Queen street. While out for a walk he was accosted by two colored and one white man in a dark spot. One of the negroes drew a revolver and one of his companions threw dust in Buchanan's face. Buchanan took to his heels and managed to escape. Late last night, in the same part of the city, a revolver shot was heard, followed closely by a scream from a woman's voice. The police are investigating.

STABS CLERK AFTER BEING REFUSED DOPE

Drug Fiend Attempts to Wreak Vengeance on Man Who Declined to Sell Heroin.

Half-drugged, and desperate for more cocaine, a man who the police have not yet been able to find, pulled out a knife and slashed William Soper, a drug clerk, over the heart yesterday. The stabbing took place in Taylor's drug store at the corner of Horis and Wellington streets. Soper says that about half-past ten in the morning, a big, burly man walked into the store and asked for heroin. "He seemed to be under the influence of some drug," said Mr. Soper. "It was probably cocaine, as heroin partly kills the effects of it." "After refusing several times to give him any morphine, or cocaine, which he pleaded for, he told him to get out. Suddenly he pulled out a knife, and struck me on the chest. I saw it flash, jumped back, and the blade of the knife turned, and probably saved my life." "There is a long wound just over Soper's heart. He was at work today. Although Mr. Soper knows many of the dope fiends on account of their rounds of the drug stores, he never saw this one before. The police were notified immediately after the occurrence, but have not yet located the man.

THREE PROBATIONERS
PASS EXAMINATIONS

Applicants for Methodist Ministry Accepted at District Meeting.

London district meeting of the Methodist Church opened this morning in Centennial Church schoolroom. About thirty ministers were present, today's meeting consisting of a ministerial session only. Laymen and ministers will meet together tomorrow.

Rev. G. N. Hazen, of Wellington Street Church, chairman of the district, presided. The meeting was opened by devotional exercises led by Rev. R. H. Barnby, financial secretary; Rev. John S. Fisher and Rev. A. G. Harris. Rev. W. L. Hiles, of Delaware, was elected secretary.

The chief business of the morning was the annual examination of probationers for the ministry. Three young men being passed, Stanley R. Hunt, Alvin E. Millson and R. I. Hoskin, all three in the phraseology of the church discipline being "found blameless in life, conversation and doctrine."

Among the ministers present today were: Revs. Dr. C. E. Flanders, James Kennedy, First Church; A. J. Johnston, Dundas Centre; George N. Hazen, Wellington Street; W. H. Harvey, Asklin Street; D. N. McCamus, Colborne street; H. A. Graham, L. W. Wickett, Centennial Church; J. E. J. Millard, Hyatt avenue; T. W. Cosens, Empire Avenue; Selbourne Anderson, Memorial Church; A. [Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. MARYS, May 20.—Giumio Ceccoli, 30 years of age, an Italian laborer in the Horsehoe quarries here, was fatally injured this afternoon while at work. A large stone on the edge of the embankment fell a distance of 30 feet upon Ceccoli, who was at work immediately beneath it. He died an hour after the accident. Two cousins of the same name were at work in the quarry at the time.

STRONG INDICATION OF EARLY ELECTION

Hon. Frank Cochrane in Conference With Ontario Cabinet
—Sir James Laughs and Denies Knowledge of It.

Toronto, May 21.—Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways and canals in the Dominion Government, was in conference with the Ontario cabinet this morning. The members were in session for nearly two hours and a persistent rumor spread that something definite had been done in the way of an election. All the members refused to discuss the question, but the visit of Hon. Frank Cochrane was significant. He is the man who organized Ontario's forces for the struggle against responsible government in 1911, and it was hinted that his visit had much to do with the deciding of a date for the election.

Treat It as a Joke.
But those in the cabinet consent to say that there will be an election. The Premier and the other members of the cabinet regard the subject as a good joke on all newspapermen, and the matter is being broached they laugh and confess complete ignorance of an immediate election.

Hasn't Heard of It.
"An election?" ejaculated Sir James Whitney, when interviewed this morning. "An election, did you say? Who said there was going to be an election? I haven't heard of it."

"Have you any information for the public at all, either one way or the other?" "If there was anything to be said about an election, then I would be quite willing to talk," replied the Premier, "but I don't know anything about the matter and haven't heard about it." Sir James passed on, chuckling to himself.

SHOOT MURDERER IS DETECTIVES' MISSION

Greer Goes After Ruttan in Bush, Heavily Armed and Ready to Kill.

Toronto, May 21.—Chief of Provincial Detectives Joseph Rogers received notice over the phone last night of the terrible crime committed yesterday in a bush country 15 miles from Brimley bridge. This morning Inspector of Provincial Detectives Greer left Toronto for the scene of the double murder. The case and the responsibility for the capture of Ruttan, the murderer, have been left in the hands of Detective Greer, and the officer will shoot Ruttan on sight, should the former not be captured before his arrival.

It was feared by the officers at Toronto that the desperado would end his life in the bush sooner than be captured. Inspector Greer is heavily armed. After landing at Muskoka he will drive about twelve miles until reaching Ryde country. He will organize a posse and personally take charge of the hunt. The question of the right to shoot Ruttan is not being discussed just now.

DOCTORS TO DECIDE
LEVITT'S SANITY

Youth Charged With Shooting at Brother Will Be Examined by Physicians.

"WRONG IN THE HEAD"
Tells Court That He Was Discharged From U. S. Army as Result of Horse's Kick.

Pending a doctor's examination of his mental faculties, Joseph E. Levitt, charged with the attempted shooting of his brother George, on Sunday morning, was remanded by Magistrate Judd to police court this morning, until Tuesday.

In his evidence this morning, the prisoner admitted that he had been discharged from the United States army several years ago, because he had been kicked by a horse, and was considered "wrong in the head, but harmless." On the stand, George Levitt, his brother, told what happened at their home, 383 1/2 Ridout street, on Sunday morning.

"About eleven o'clock," he said, "I went upstairs to shave, and yelled down to mother, for some towels. Just then you came in and said I thought I'd you to cut out swearing. I had not been swearing at all."

"He told me to get out. I said I won't. You can't put me out. I ran into a side room. A few minutes I saw him at the head of the stairs. I ducked out of the door, and the gun was fired. Then we both went out of the front doors at the same time, and he said 'I'll get you.'"

The prisoner said that after coming in from a walk, his mother complained to him, that George had been swearing. "We had some words, and I told him he would have to get out. He had been rambling around the country, and had only been home two weeks."

Levitt said that he was in the habit of going into the woods shooting Sundays, and he went upstairs and got the revolver, which he used in the U. S. army.

"Coming down the stairs, I tripped over some loose carpet, and the gun went off. I suppose George thought I was shooting at him. It nearly hit mother, also at the foot of the stairs. She said George has gone for the police, you had better get out of town."

Got Cartridge Belt.
Levitt then went upstairs and got a cartridge belt, which he said he had gotten, and went to a relatives. He was arrested on Mount Pleasant avenue about ten o'clock that night.

T. J. Murphy, acting in place of Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop, asked Levitt what he meant when he said "I'll get you." "He left the house after the shooting."

"Doesn't it mean in the States 'I'll kill you'?" asked the acting prosecutor. "No, I don't think so," said Levitt. It just means that you will give him a beating up."

He will appear for judgment on next Tuesday.

HOME RULE BILL
IN THIRD READING

Asquith Refuses to State Terms of Amending Bill, But Says Commons Will Have Determining Voice in It.

[Canadian Press.]
London, May 21.—The Irish home rule bill entered on its last stage in the House of Commons today. The vote on the third reading of the measure is to be taken on May 26, after which if it passes it will become law under the provisions of the parliament act, as it will have been passed three times by the House of Commons in three separate sessions.

Premier Asquith today declined to state the terms of the proposed amending bill at this stage and reiterated that the Government was prepared to consider sympathetically any suggestions which might render its proposals in regard to Ulster more acceptable.

As there was no precedent, however, the Government insisted that it must have the firm judgment of the House of Commons on the main principles of the bill. The Government, he concluded, would never recede an inch from the position that the bill was wise and statesmanlike.

The Premier announced that the amending bill would be introduced in the House of Lords and that the Commons would have the last and determining voice in the matter.

A Rowdy Scene.
Immediately after the vote had been taken, the Unionists started the refrain, "Adjourn." The uproar was long and loud. The speaker finally rose and asked A. Bonar Law, the leader of the Opposition, whether he assented in the demonstration. Amid shouts from his supporters of "Don't answer," Law rose to reply and the Speaker declared the sitting suspended, saying there was nothing else he could do, as Mr. Law declined to assist him in maintaining order.

Very Abusive.
Premier Asquith and his colleagues in the cabinet, who remained in their seats, were fiercely assailed with abusive epithets by the Opposition. The Unionists replied with cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs.

TWO WOMEN APPOINTED ON NEW COLORADO MINIMUM WAGE COMMISSION

Special Correspondence.
Denver, Col., May 21.—Mrs. Katherine Williamson and Mrs. Hattie Slothower have been appointed members of the new Woman's Minimum Wage Commission of Colorado by Gov. E. M. Ammons.

Mrs. Williamson, widow, is a member of the Typographical Union, and actively engaged in her profession. She was formerly a state factory inspector, and hopes some day to be a congresswoman from Colorado.

Mrs. Slothower, housewife, was a defeated candidate in the last primary race for representative from Denver. She has never held a public office.

The third member of the commission is a man—a Denver printer.

OFFER TO SELL TO
CITY OF CHATHAM

Council Considers $410,000
Offer of Gas Company.

MAKE DECISION LATER
If Deal Is Not Closed Citizens
Will Be Asked to Get Hydro Plant.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
CHATHAM, May 20.—At a special meeting of the city council tonight the Chatham Gas and Electric Light Company renewed their offer to sell their plant to the city for $410,000, with the addition of the amount they have spent on capital account since the value of their plant was made by the hydro-electric commission. It is the intention for the city to use the plant as a distributing station for Niagara Power and to operate the gas end of the business as a public utility.

The hydro-electric commission recommended this deal to the city as the best business proposition in installing Niagara power. Later it was reported to the city that the company had withdrawn their offer to this effect.

The company made another proposition. The manager, P. S. Coate, stated, that if the city would purchase the plant for $300,000 and assume the assets and liabilities of the company, the plant would pay for itself in ten years. In support of this statement they offered to enter into an agreement with the city whereby the city would have a representative on the company's directors and their books would be audited by the city auditor.

The company would run the plant for ten years, paying the interest on the bonded indebtedness, and seven per cent dividend on the stock, and at the end of the ten years they would hand the plant over to the city for nothing, the corporation merely taking over the assets and liabilities of the company. The company figured it could manage the plant in that way and provide a dividend of $300,000 above expense in ten years. In this way they would prevent competition with the hydro-electric for ten years. The company agrees, in this proposition, to reduce the price of electricity to the rate which would be charged by the hydro, provided the city deals immediately with the commission.

This offer will be considered at a future meeting of the council. It was explained at the meeting that if the offer is accepted and the city wish to contract for hydro power at any time during the ten years the city could terminate the agreement by paying over to the company the $300,000, less the amount that would have accumulated in the sinking fund at that time.

The matter will be finally settled in a couple of weeks. If the Chatham Gas Company plant is not purchased the city will present a bylaw to the ratepayers authorizing the return of the independent hydro-electric plant to enter into competition with the Gas Company.

At the meeting, also, it was decided to erect all sidewalks and pavements by day labor under the direction of the city engineer.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY WIPES OUT TWO IN THE NORTH COUNTRY

Hyde County Farmer Kills Daughter and Her Brother-in-Law and Wounds Latter's Wife—Had Serious Charge Against Him.

[Canadian Press.]
GRAVENHURST, May 20.—William Rutan, a farmer living in the bush country in the Township of Hyde, near here, this morning shot and killed his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Coutermanche, George Coutermanche, her brother-in-law, and severely wounded the wife of the latter. He fired four shots at his son-in-law, Alfred Coutermanche, but all went wide of the mark.

After the shooting Rutan fled to the bush, taking his rifle with him, and is still at large.

George Coutermanche was shot through the heart in the yard of the house which he occupied with his brother Alfred. Rutan fired from ambush behind a stump. The victim fell at the feet of his wife, whom he was helping to clean fish. The woman, pursued by Rutan, ran into the house and attempted to hold the door against the murderer. When the door was broken down she dashed into the bedroom, where the other two members of the Coutermanche family had taken refuge.

Fired Through Door.

Unable to force the door, Rutan fired a shot through the panels, wounding his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Coutermanche, in the finger. Immediately he fired again and the bullet struck the young woman in the neck, causing almost instant death.

Mrs. George Coutermanche crawled out through the window into the yard. Rutan saw her and fired at her, one bullet striking her on the knee.

The murderer then returned to the house and fired another shot through the bedroom door, but Alfred, who was still in the room, had lain down on the floor and escaped. The latter then dashed out of the window and ran into a neighboring ravine. Rutan fired three shots after him, but without effect.

Fired the Stable.

Rutan did not pursue his son-in-law, but going to the stable he set it on fire and, seated on a stump, coolly watched it being destroyed. Then he disappeared into the bush.

In the meantime Alfred Coutermanche had aroused the neighbors, and a large crowd gathered, but Rutan had fled. He took with him his weapon, a combination rifle and shotgun.

The double murder discloses a terrible condition of affairs. Alfred Coutermanche, who married Rutan's daughter a month ago, had laid a charge of incest against his father-in-law. This action is supposed to have led to Rutan's attempt to wipe out the entire family.

PRESENT MEMBER LOST HIS CHANCE IN SOUTH HURON

Did Not Read the Signs of the Times, Says Mr. Zeller.

LIBERAL NOMINEE SPEAKS

Publisher of Zurich Herald Unanimously Chosen as Candidate.

(By Staff Reporter.)
HENSALL, May 20.—At one of the best-attended and most enthusiastic conventions ever held in the south riding of Huron, Edmund Zeller, proprietor of the Zurich Herald, was this afternoon unanimously chosen as the Liberal standard-bearer in the coming election.

Mr. Zeller pledged himself to do everything possible to banish the bar. As a result he will receive the united support of Liberals and a strong force of temperance Conservatives through the riding.

Signs of the Times.
Mr. Zeller declared that if the present member had read the signs of the time aught he would have supported Mr. Rowell.

"If he had done this he would not have had any opposition in South Huron now," he said. "The supreme issue in the coming election is, 'Are we or are we not going to keep the bar-room open in Ontario?' The whole province is going 'dry' soon."

Eloquent tributes were paid by various speakers to Leader Rowell, one of the highest coming from Rev. E. G. Powell, of Exeter, the field secretary for the temperance forces of Huron.

A High Tribute.
"In Mr. Rowell," said Mr. Powell, "the Liberals have a leader of whom

Heart and Nerves Were Bad.

Could Not Sleep.

To the thousands of people who toss on a sleepless pillow night after night, or who pace the bedroom floor with nerves on the jump, the heart action all wrong, and to whose eyes sleep will not come, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer the blessing of sound refreshing slumber, as they restore the equilibrium of the deranged nerve centres and correct the wrong action of the heart.

Mrs. Charles Teel, Horncastle, Ont., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. My heart and nerves were so bad I could not sleep, and the least noise or excitement would make me feel as if I was going to die. I was going to die, and I would tremble until I could hardly stand. I took doctor's medicine, but it did not do me much good. At last I tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and can certainly say they did me a great amount of good. I can recommend them to anyone who is suffering as I was."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been on the market for the past twenty years, and have done more to steady shaky nerves and strengthen weak hearts, than any other known preparation.

Price, 50 cents per box, or three boxes for $1.50, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In Toronto was gone into in detail in this connection.

The cost of revising the statutes, $270,000, was given as another instance of wastefulness.

"The Government's conduct has been most high handed and reckless in every way," he said.

The civil service is swarming with men unfitted for their positions and it is time the whole business was turned upside down. Party hacks are repeatedly given "jobs" at big salaries and the people's money thrown away.

It is costing us just twice as much now to administer justice as it did in 1904 and it is not so well done."

The cutting of the rural school grants was dealt with at some length and its injurious effects enlarged upon.

Touching upon agricultural matters, he said Hon. Jas. Duff knows nothing about his department.

"He is nothing but a politician," he said, "and to farmers and others who know what should be done, he is nothing but a joke."

Despicable Tactics.
He scored Mr. Hanna's action in sending Mr. Snider into Huron in an effort to get Conservatives to vote against the C. T. and read a statement from Ex-President Buchanan, of Wingham, as to what was actually asked by Mr. Snider.

"There is no doubt about it," he said, "in spite of all denials, Mr. Hanna, I am convinced engineered the whole thing."

C. R. Sanagan, of London, in a brief speech, urged the formation of Liberal clubs, and especially the importance of getting the young men interested in the work to be done.

The gathering closed with hearty cheers for Leader Rowell and the candidate.

SEPARATE HUERTA'S PARTY FROM POWER

[Canadian Press.]
El Paso, Texas, May 21.—Constitutionalist leaders here reiterated last night the statement that the elimination of Huerta alone would not suffice to pacify the country. They declared that the absolute separation from power of the party supporting Huerta would be necessary to bring about peace.

In the event of Huerta's resignation," said Roberto V. Piquera, confidential representative of the Constitutionalist Government, "someone undoubtedly would be left in charge of the Government in Mexico City, as was the case in Chihuahua, when Federico Moya was left in charge after Gen. Velasco had evacuated that town before the approach of Gen. Villa.

"Such a condition of affairs, I believe, would automatically bring into power those forces which we represent, forces which would carry into effect those reforms we deem indispensable to the pacification of Mexico. That is to say, the separation of the Huerta element from power would automatically pacify the country."

How I Rubbed Away About 14 Pounds of Fat From My Hips and Abdomen In Two Weeks' Time

For year I strained my corsets trying to hide the rolls of fat on my hips and abdomen; it seemed as if it had accumulated on just the two places that I most wanted to be thin. Everything that I tried failed to take off the horrible fat where it showed. But thanks to a lady friend who had studied herberterie, I learned the secret of a harmless plan which enabled me to rub away with ease about fourteen pounds of useless fat in only two weeks.

This plan is so simple, and some of my friends seem so glad to know it, that I think there may be many readers of The Advertiser who have perhaps been longing for this very advice. First get from any drug dealer a 1-ounce bottle of Na-Dru-Co chips, and a 3-ounce bottle of Armonia. Take them home and after putting the quassa chips in a pot over a fire, add three small cups of boiling water. When it has stood for about half a minute, strain through a cloth and add the Armonia. Then pour the mixture into a bottle and apply it every night and morning with your hands for about ten minutes, using a circular movement. Each time you can almost see some of the fat melt away. At first I thought it was a dream, but when I measured, there was no longer any doubt, I soon grew too slender for my clothes, and had to have them taken in, but it was a pleasure to do it, and I shall feel eternally grateful to the lady who showed me how easy it was to gain my youthful figure. E. L. A.

NOTE.—The above prescription is not a new one by any means, though not so widely known as it should be. Geo. A. Melachlin, 390 Richmond street, E. L. Guillemont, corner Dundas and Richmond streets, Bruce Wallace, 419 Richmond street, all state that they fill this prescription very frequently. Some remarkable reductions in weight have been reported from its use, and the mixture is entirely harmless.—Advt. May 12, 1914.

Body of One Victim Recovered But Other Is in Norwalk River.

[Canadian Press.]
Norwalk, Conn., May 21.—The body of Robert C. Dewar, civil engineer, of East Orange, N. J., who was killed last night by the collapse of a huge caisson in the Norwalk River, while he and several others were in it, was removed today.

That of Joseph Culp, of Hoboken, N. J., the head carpenter, is still buried beneath tons of steel and broken timbers, 27 feet under the surface of the river, but the wreckers were hopeful of taking it out today. Three others were in the caisson at the time, but they escaped with comparatively minor injuries.

The caisson had been emptied of water yesterday and under the pressure of the incoming tide the huge cavern, 316 feet long and 60 feet wide, with noise like a dynamite explosion, gave way.

Garibaldi—ITALIA'S GREAT PATRIOT

In the cause of Personal and National Liberty this modern Rienzi of sunny Italy would have gladly laid down his life. It inspired him to deeds of immortal grandeur, of superb valor and of boundless suffering. Garibaldi would not have legislative tyranny of any kind enter into his own private life any more than will our millions of liberty-loving Italian citizens. His flaming soul scorned any legislation which would prohibit ALL because ONE man out of thousands imbibes in gluttonous quantities. He knew that the light wines of Italy and the barley brews of Germany are beneficial to humanity.

Upon an old Germanic basis 57 years ago Anheuser-Busch, brewers of Budweiser, established their brand. WOULD ABOLISH ALL HEREDITARY TITLES

A. A. W. H. Ponsonby Gets Unanimous Leave to Introduce Bill in British House.

[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, May 21.—In the House of Commons yesterday, A. A. W. H. Ponsonby, Liberal M. P. for Stirling, secured unanimous leave to introduce a bill to abolish hereditary titles, says a London cable. He said that all were agreed that the hereditary principle for legislators should lapse. It was a relief of the past, and the main cause of the unfavourable snobishness and flunkeyism in British social life. (Laughter and cries of "Hear, hear.")

He conducted with the eldest sons who had no outlook in life but to become peers. While the bill would not prevent the giving of honors to distinguished men, it would enable the present holders of titles to free themselves from the spurious prominence and the disadvantages and disabilities forced upon them.

RAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

GIANT NEW LINER, WITH MANY PASSENGERS, DRIFTS IN HUDSON

Vaterland Breaks Loose From Tugs on Maiden Voyage and Is Carried by the Tide—The Largest Steamer. in Service—Is Later Caught Again.

New York, N. Y., May 21.—The giant new liner, Vaterland, broke away from tugs conveying her to her dock today, and began drifting down the Hudson, carried by the tide. At times she swung broadside across the river.

When the Vaterland was headed in for her pier, more than 50 tugs had her in charge. As her bow neared the pier, the strong ebb tide caught the vessel at the stern and began to swing her around, heading her straight for a wooden pier nearby. There was a shouting of orders, the big whistle on the liner boomed, and the hawsers on the tugs were let go.

The vessel began to back under her own power and was soon out in the stream again, almost in the direct path of the Lackawanna ferry boats. The tugs began to manoeuvre about her again, but the big liner slowly drifted southward.

In the grip of the strong ebb tide, the big steamship was seemingly almost helpless. She was carried steadily down stream toward the battery.

Caught Again.
After the vessel had drifted more than a mile the tugs succeeded in getting her in tow again, and she was headed upstream under control.

The steamer Vaterland of the Hamburg-American Line, the biggest steamer in service, arrived in New York harbor today on her maiden voyage from Hamburg. Her run yesterday was 594 miles, and her average speed an hour was 23.9 knots.

The Vaterland is 950 feet long, 100 feet beam and has a tonnage of 58,000. She carries one commodore and four captains, and a total crew of 1,234.

The new giant of the seas received a noisy welcome as she pulled into the harbor to her pier in Hoboken, N. J., including her crew and passengers the Vaterland carried 3,000 persons. The Vaterland's first cargo was 2,066 barrels of beer and 250 barrels of salt.

UNKNOWN COMET HAS MADE ITS APPEARANCE

Viewed Through Telescopes, It Has No Tail and Is Travelling at Great Speed.

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, May 21.—A new comet has appeared in the northwestern skies, is of the tailless variety, travelling at a stupendous speed, and has been visible for the last two nights through the great Yerkes telescope at Williams Bay, Wis. According to Professor Edward Barnard, of the Yerkes Observatory, the newly-discovered comet is burning up millions of miles of space at a terrific rate of speed that is likely to shock even celestial wonders with pretty fair records of locomotion. The worst of it is that the comet has neither a name nor a tail, nor is its orbit known to astronomers. It was sighted on Sunday night in Russia, and for the last two nights the big telescopes of the Yerkes Observatory have been trained on the fugitive.

It was reported in Europe that the comet was visible to the naked eye," said Professor Barnard, "but we have not been able to see it without the telescope. It is moving easterly towards the star Capella, in the northwestern part of the heavens." Confirmed at Ottawa.
Ottawa, May 21.—Dr. King, chief astronomer at the Royal Observatory here, confirms the Yerkes discovery of a new comet in the northwestern sky. It was first discovered here on Monday. Dr. King says amateurs with a field telescope should be able to pick up the comet on a clear night. Another shall comet has been seen in the southern sky.

IN POLICE COURT

Mary Dennis' Hope For Bail Rudely Shattered By Magistrate.

"Back again!" the magistrate asked Thomas Robertson, in court this morning for being drunk.

"I just came in from the country after six months there," said Robertson. He was discharged.

David Armstrong, on the publicity list, was arrested for drunkenness. He was fined $10 and costs of 21 days.

Mary Dennis was charged this morning by Nathaniel Roselle with fraudulently getting $13 under false pretences. She pleaded not guilty to the unwholesome charge, and was told to get bail, or be remanded until tomorrow.

"There's Mr. Chisholm, who will probably get me bail," she said.

Magistrate Judd handed out a double-charged shock when he explained to her that the information in the case had been sworn out by Mr. Chisholm.

In case she is unable to get bail, she will be remanded and appear tomorrow.

A "GET-YOU" SESSION
Gentlemen Alleged To Be Promising "Gettings" Are "Got."

"I'll get you," shouted Roy Johnston, at Norman Jones.

"I'll get you," countered Jones.

Johnston and his father Robert, and Jones and his mother, Mrs. Isabella Jones, all colored, were arraigned before Magistrate Judd, this morning, to answer for and give evidence about the counter threats, made in a quarrel some days ago.

"Now I've got you all," said the magistrate. "What does 'I'll get you' mean, Chief?"

Chief Williams thought it could be construed as "I'll give you a dickens of a thrashing, or something like that."

So the magistrate bound over the four, for $100 each to make Johnston and Jones, who are young men, keep the peace.

"If you start fighting, we will get $400," said the magistrate.

FINE ART EXPERT

Magistrate Judd Has Still Another Role—Decides On Painting.

Arthur C. Sullivan, whom the magistrate said was "two-thirds a painter" since he worked for 20 cents per hour, when the regulation wages for painters are 30 cents, charged Walter Wigmore with non-payment of wages in court this morning.

Wigmore hired Sullivan with the understanding that if Sullivan was worth more than 20 cents he would get it.

Sullivan figures that he worked twelve hours.

Wigmore said "maybe about nine hours."

Wigmore told the magistrate that Sullivan was positively no good as a painter, and thought that when he paid Sullivan 30 cents for the work, he was getting well paid.

Wigmore consented at last to hand over a dollar more to Sullivan, and the court discharged the case without costs.

HUMAN CLEAN UP NEEDED SAYS MOTHER

Suggests That Chief of Police Wake Up Force to Check Hoodlums.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:
If the chief of police would give his men a day off and keep them wide awake enough to check some of the hoodlums on the public street, he and his minions would be earning their salaries.

I wish to call public attention to a disgraceful state of affairs that exists in the downtown streets. The other night I was walking with my daughter past a pool parlor, around which usually congregate a class of young men who look like pickpockets, and never appear to have any work to do.

One of these roughs ogled my daughter, who is a sensitive girl, and then leering, said to his evil-visaged mates: "There's a pretty swell chicken." I did not know the meaning of the term until later on. I was too shocked at the time to think of anything but hurrying on. Now I do not know that I will pass this place again without feeling that there is a class of degenerates hanging around and insulting every woman who passes. I have often read in your paper of cocaine fiends in the city, and it strikes me that these roughs must be of that class. They have a distinctive appearance, being marked by their lustful natures.

If we need any kind of a clean-up campaign in London, it is a human clean-up campaign.

Realizing that The Advertiser will be glad to bring such a matter of close concern to many homes to the notice of the public, I am,

A MOTHER.

GREEK SOLDIER RETURNS TO LONDON AFTER WAR

Fought For Seventeen Months With the Colors During Which Time He Was Wounded.

After spending seventeen months in arms, during which he was wounded at Ghina in the Byzantine, in the war with Turkey, and participating in the big battles around Salonica in the war with Bulgaria, Frank Copsias, a former London Greek, returned to this city yesterday.

Mr. Copsias in 1909 and 1910 was proprietor of the London Cafe on Dundas street, where Beltz' hat store now is. Going out of the cafe business here he went to Jackson, Michigan, and when the war broke out he was called to the front. He stopped over in London to say good-bye to friends here, November 15, 1912, and after spending five days at home with his relatives in Greece he went to Athens and donned the uniform of his country.

After four months' fighting in the state of Empirius in the Byzantine, he was badly wounded in the leg and was some time in the hospital. Given leave of absence, he had spent only a month at home when the war with Bulgaria broke out and he went back to active service until March 20, 1914, having spent seventeen months in all under arms.

Mr. Copsias is staying in London with P. Mandas, 146 Dundas street. It is his intention to remain in London and he will probably re-enter business here.

FIVE-MINUTE CURE IF STOMACH IS BAD

"Pape's Diapiesin" Is Quickest Surest Indigestion Cure Known.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad or uncertain, one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief. Its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large 50-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lies like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

PASTOR'S PROPERTY LAID WASTE BY FIRE

Rev. H. H. Bingham Loses Thirty Acres of Timber in Magnetawan Blaze.

Fire in the Magnetawan district in Parry Sound destroyed nearly all of thirty acres of fine woodland owned by Rev. H. H. Bingham, of Talbot Street Baptist Church. Back-firing by the rangers and volunteer firefighters saved two cottages on the property, one of them belonging to Mr. Bingham's brother, Rev. A. C. Bingham, of Petrolia.

Wednesday Rev. Mr. Bingham received word from Manager Albert Collins of the Magnetawan Navigation Company that his property was in danger and his father, Rev. Thomas Bingham, of Arnprior, who has been visiting his son in this city, went north to see if it could not be saved. He wired back last night that the fire had entered the property and was destroying the cottages and that the cottages would be saved, protection by back-firing having already been resorted to. Rev. Mr. Bingham's property is eleven miles from Bush Falls and situated on Lake Opechee, one of the most beautiful summer places in Northern Ontario. The fire, according to Mr. Collins, is the worst on record for this season of the year.

KONG TELL STORY OF BRUTAL MURDER

Says Mrs. Millard Threatened to Cut His Ears Off—Trouble Over Breakfast.

VANCOUVER, May 20.—Jack Kong told, on the witness stand this afternoon, how he had come to kill Mrs. Charles Millard. He was called immediately after the luncheon adjournment, and his story was listened to with great attention by an overcrowded courtroom.

He said that on the morning of April 1 Mrs. Millard complained to him that the porridge had been badly cooked. He had replied that he did not have time to make any more.

"I will be obeyed," she declared, according to Kong, and added: "If you don't I shall cut off your ears with this knife."

Kong went on to say that she came toward him with the knife and that he picked up a chair to defend himself. They struggled and Mrs. Millard dropped the knife and a little later she slipped and caught the corner of the chair against her temple.

Kong said she then fell. He dashed water in her face to revive her, but could do nothing. He also felt her pulse, but could detect no signs of life.

Kong went on to give the horrible details of the cutting up and burning of the body. He said that on March

CAR JUMPS THE TRACK UNDER SUDDEN BRAKING

Others Pile Up and Are Badly Smashed in St. Thomas.

[Special to The Advertiser.] St. Thomas, Ont., May 21.—A wreck occurred on the M. C. R. between Hincks and Elgin streets about five o'clock this morning. The air brake was applied to an eastbound so suddenly that an empty car jumped the track and piled up several others, which were badly smashed. The debris was strewn across the double track and traffic was delayed for several hours.

CANADA IS TO HAVE HER NAVAL RESERVE

Niobe and Rainbow To Be Used for Training on Coasts—New Boat for Lakes.

[Special to The Advertiser.] OTTAWA, May 20.—The Government has decided to organize a naval reserve. It proposes to invite Canadians to train for water defence as they are now trained for the land militia.

An order in council has been passed under the Laurier naval law, under which the young men of Canada will be enlisted in a naval militia. There are to be three divisions. One for the Atlantic, one for the Pacific, and one for the Great Lakes. On the Atlantic the Niobe will be used as a training ship, on the Pacific the Rainbow will be the training ship, and there will be a training ship purchased for the Great Lakes.

It is understood that while there will be but one vessel for training on the Great Lakes in the first instance, others will be purchased. The admiralty will be asked to send out instructors for the naval militia men.

The Niobe and the Rainbow which have been tied up to wharves for the last three years, are being overhauled. It is understood that contracts will shortly be invited for painting and freshening them up.

The business of training Canadians to be man-o-war-men will be commenced as soon as possible.

FINANCE MINISTER SEEMS PUGILISTIC

Invites E. M. McDonald to "Come Out" When Worried by Questions.

[Special to The Advertiser.] OTTAWA, May 20.—Although beaten on the division yesterday, the Opposition is fighting hard against the $45,000,000 gift to Mackenzie & Mann. All day the Government struggled to get its resolution through the committee stage and all day the Liberals demanded information and explanations from the Government, and frequently showed that the information was inaccurate and the explanations were unsound and unsatisfactory.

Hon. Mr. White lost his temper under cross-examination by E. M. MacDonald. The member for Pictou wanted to learn some things about the agreement from the Finance Minister and insisted upon having answers. Apparently Hon. Mr. White did not have the information to give. Finally losing his head completely, he said that the rules of the House prevented him giving his opinion of Mr. MacDonald in the chamber, but he would like to express himself outside. The outburst was so childish and petulant that the Liberals did not honor it by showing annoyance. They merely laughed.

Thereafter the Finance Minister faded away, and the burden of the defence fell upon Hon. Mr. Meighan.

BLYTH.

[Special to The Advertiser.] BLYTH, ONT., May 20.—Margaret J. Baillie, beloved wife of Mr. John Parrott, died at her home, ninth concession of Morris, on Wednesday morning, May 20, after an illness of six weeks. The late Mrs. Parrott was a person of amiable disposition and was esteemed by all who knew her. From the results of a fall seven years ago she had not once enjoyed good health but was able to be about most of the time until April 1, when she became worse and finally succumbed. The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Baillie of West Wawanosh and was born in that township 55 years and six months ago. She was married twenty-one years ago and the following year moved to lot 8, concession 5, Morris, from whence the funeral will take place on Friday afternoon, service being held at the house at two o'clock. The late Mrs. Parrott was a member of St. Andrew's Church, Blyth, and when health would permit took a deep interest in the work of the church. Beside her husband she leaves a family of three children, Thomas, Minerva and Margaret, all at home. Four sisters and five brothers also survive. They are Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Franklin, Messrs. John, Charles, Samuel and Norman of California, Mrs. A. Kirk and Mr. William Baillie, West Wawanosh, Mrs. R. Munroe, Buffalo, and James Baillie in Alberta.

HUGE NEW INDUSTRY COMING TO AMHERSTBURG CAUSES BOOM

Solvay Process Company, Manufacturing Soda Ash and Kindred Commodities, Securing Options on Land at High Valuations.

[Special to The Advertiser.] AMHERSTBURG, May 20.—An immense industry is coming to Amherstburg, and this announcement partly solves the real estate boom that has for the past few months been agitating the farm-owners just outside the boundary of the town and along the Detroit River for seven miles north.

The Solvay Process Company, a world-wide concern, is coming in here with a plant for the manufacture of soda ash and kindred commodities. It is for this company that options have been taken on farms aggregating hundreds of acres, and on account of the operations of their agents, land values have soared.

It has come to such a pass that it is impossible to get a foot of land between here and Windsor, twenty miles, for less than $200 an acre.

The latest transaction reported is that of a 70-acre farm, seven miles north of here, optioned by the company for $40,000; that is $570 an acre.

It is the splendid quality of limestone rock and the prospect of securing a plentiful supply of salt that has brought the concern into this district. Salt is essential to the manufacture of soda ash. Three Plants in States.

The company is largely comprised of English capitalists and has large plants in Syracuse, Detroit and Kansas City in the United States, in Belgium and England, in Europe, and in Australia and Africa. Soda ash and the 40 or so bye-products are used for innumerable purposes in the manufacture of soap, in softening water for railway locomotives, in making bleaching powders, washing soda, caustic soda, in the manufacture of glass.

Part of the great areas of land leased has been for storing salt, part for the limestone and part for a site for the manufacturing plant.

Those representing the company are very reticent and have been pursuing their operations secretly.

The company had English experts here last fall looking over the district and making tests, and it has been on the strength of their reports that the countryside along the river has been blanketed with options.

The Detroit plant cost $4,000,000 and employs over 200 hands, and it is probable that the Amherstburg plant will attain to equal or larger proportions.

CLINTON HYDRO STATION NOW READY FOR BUSINESS

CLINTON, May 20.—Today marks the completion of the local hydro-electric station after many months of planning and toil, and in the opinion of Mr. J. H. Castor, district hydro-engineer, Clinton has one of the best equipped systems.

Your correspondent was shown through the power house, which now includes both the waterworks and hydro under the same roof, and is managed by the public utilities commission, under the capable superintendence of H. E. Chant. The hydro equipment consists of two high tension three phase 12,000 volt circuits, which are connected with the line from Stratford. They are fed in by choke coils through a 45,000 volt automatic oil switch, the function of which is to protect the station from short circuits on the 13,000 volt line. There are also lightning arresters of 26,000 volt capacity, which protect the station from lightning discharge from the main volt line.

From the automatic volt switch the line goes through three 150 k.w. transformers, which reduce the voltage from 13,000 to 2,300 volts on the switch board. From which power, incandescent and street lighting is taken.

The switch board is fitted up with an automatic oil switch to protect the equipment in case of short circuits on local lines. Also with recording instruments, which records the total number of watts used in the station, and it is from this record that the cost of the power is estimated.

EXETER.—Eleanor Williams, aged 85, one of the pioneers of the district, is critically ill at his home in Usborne Township.

Distress of Mind From Nervous Exhaustion

Fear of Insanity—Dread of the Future—Depressed Spirits Disappear When Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Is Used.

You may be accustomed to think of physical suffering as the greatest to which man is subjected. This is not so. Compare the sufferings of a man with a broken leg, for example, with the mental anguish of the nerve-racked patient who lives in constant dread of some terrible calamity or of losing his mind. Nothing can be more horrible to contemplate. It is not right, therefore, to consider that no suffering is comparable to the anguish experienced by the victim of diseases of the nerves.

You will read here the experience of a nurse who feared for the loss of her mind, so greatly were her nerves exhausted. She is now enthusiastic in praising Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to her patients.

Mrs. R. J. Billings, nurse, North Bay, Ont., writes:—"I am happy to be able to say that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is fully worth all the praise given it. I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for some time, and would not be without it in the house. I know that if it had not been for Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I would have been out of my mind. My nerves were so far gone that I had gloomy forebodings of the future, and feared the loss of reason. I feel fine now, and do not lose an opportunity of recommending this treatment to my patients."

There can be no mistake about such evidence as this, for the better you know Mr. Billings the more certain you will be of the value of her statement. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

A. Gordon Murray, The "Old Chief," Is Dead at Toledo

Had International Reputation for Forming Scottish Societies and Was Widely Known in Ontario.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
INGERSOLL, Ont., May 20.—The death of A. Gordon Murray, a former resident, who enjoyed an international reputation because of his activity on behalf of Scottish societies, occurred at Toledo, Ohio, on Tuesday, following an illness from abscess on the brain. He was about 65 years of age and a man of keen business ideas, having held responsible positions with large firms in several American cities. Here he was almost universally known as the "Old Chief," a name applied because of his efforts on behalf of the Caledonia Society, with which he was prominently connected for many years. During his residence in the States he was instrumental in forming several Scottish societies. He was a brother of Mr. W. J. Murray and Mrs. Donald Guthrie, of West Oxford, who left tonight to attend the funeral.

FALL WHEAT FAILS; BARLEY SOWN INSTEAD

Round Brucefield Many Have Plowed Whole Crop Under—Apples and Cherries Promise Well.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRUCEFIELD, May 20.—The severe frosts of this spring have done much damage to this fall wheat crop in this locality, inasmuch as many farmers have been compelled to sow a quantity of barley on the same soil, while others have found it necessary to plough under the entire crop.

Many fields of wheat, which presented a lovely green appearance last fall and early this spring, now look very bare and barren. The light frosts of the past few nights did no damage to blossoms in local-ity and there is every prospect for bumper crop, especially of the apple and cherry variety.

Although the spring grain crops and meadow crops are doing as nicely as can be expected, yet a shower of rain would be very welcome.

Some of the farmers are becoming anxious as to the likely results of the timely and clover crops, because of the dry weather of late, and it is hoped that the situation in this respect will be relieved shortly.

Those who intend sowing a quantity of beans this season are now busy cultivating the soil and getting all in readiness for the crop. Those interested in corn culture are also busy preparing the soil.

The tomato plants and garden vegetables are now being set out, and are doing nicely. Many bushels of the earlier variety of potatoes have been planted in this district this year.

The Eureka Club, in connection with the Union Presbyterian Church, held its first meeting for the season Tuesday night, when many were in attendance.

REID'S RELATIVES MAY SUE THE GOVERNMENT

Winnipeg ex-Constable Fell to Death
From Faulty Scaffold.

WINNIPEG, May 20.—It is stated that relatives of R. J. Reid, at Auburn, Ont., former Winnipeg policeman, killed at Stony Mountain Penitentiary, intend taking action against the Dominion Government, based on the jury's finding that the scaffold on which Reid and another prisoner were working fell and carried them to death because of its faulty construction.

HENSALL'S NEW TOWN HALL

[Special to The Advertiser.]
HENSALL, May 20.—The plans are all complete for Hensall's handsome new town hall, and it is expected that the work will commence shortly. When the building is completed Hensall will have one of the handsomest town halls in the district, one that will be far better in every way than those in many of the larger places. It will be erected on a site donated by the late George McEwen. His brother John, of Minneapolis, is at present in Hensall in connection with the settling up of the estate. It is unlikely that the new hall may be named after the late Mr. McEwen.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
HENSALL, May 20.—The council has decided to put down another well, and the water will be used for sprinkling the streets and general purposes. Work will start shortly.

NEW VICTROLA RECORDS.
An attraction of the Victrola is found in the fact that each month new selections can be added to your list. Besides the very large choice to be found in the Victrola Parlors of Ye Olde Firme Heintzman & Co. Ltd., 224 Dundas street, London, at all times, entirely new records in generous number are being added every month. May 15, 21.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALLEYS ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea.

FARMERS ARE MAKING EVERY SECOND COUNT

[Special to The Advertiser.]
HENSALL, May 20.—Farmers have been making every second count this week, and a vast amount of work has been accomplished all through the district. The outlook is for one of the best years in the history of the county. The crops, with the exception of a small quantity of wheat, which was killed out, are in splendid shape, and the growth of late has been very rapid. In places where the wheat was killed, the farmers are re-sowing barley, and thus will not lose. A good shower is much needed in many districts, although the crops are not in any way suffering.

The fruit prospects were never better, and cherries, plums and apples will be a bumper crop. Comparatively little flax is being sown around here this year, possibly not more than 300 acres. The unusual large quantity of "dutch sets" are in, and the onion growers are busily at work with them. Many people all through this section make handsome returns from this industry.

Mr. Would-Be Home-Owner

To be frank with you, this is a real estate advertisement. So far it resembles all others, but the resemblance goes no further.

We are going to sell a limited number of choice lots in McCormick Park, the new and growing home section in East London. No wildcat methods will be used to dispose of them—it will not be necessary.

You do not speculate in buying these lots. Instead, you make a good, sound, paying investment, and on that basis we place the facts before you.

McCormick Park East London's Growing Home Section

is owned by the McCormick Manufacturing Company, Limited, which is now erecting a great modern plant there.

Model Homes Planned

The idea of the Company is to provide congenial surroundings and good model homes for their workmen and other employees, much along the lines so successfully followed in England, notably by Lever Bros., at their model village, Port Sunlight.

Building Starts Without Delay

The property will be built up without delay, as the McCormick Company will erect many new homes for their employees within the next few months. To this end they have had a number of attractive plans prepared and, by varying the designs, will avoid monotonous "builders' rows" on any street of the property.

Beneficial Regulations

No factory will be permitted anywhere on this property without substantial guarantees against objectionable smoke or odors. The Company will also put reasonable building restrictions in force to insure that

Early Improvements

All the lots are of ample size to allow of a nice lawn in front of each house. The site chosen is high and dry, besides being convenient to car lines. It is expected that Dundas street will be paved out past the property in the very near future. Street grading, sidewalks, sewers, gas and water connections will also be made within a reasonable time.

Wide Streets and Ornamental Boulevards

A noticeable feature about this community will be the fine streets, each seventy feet wide. On most streets a boulevard from twelve to fifteen feet wide will run right down the centre. Trees and shrubs will also be planted by the Company, and no pains or expense spared to make this one of London's beauty spots.

The Tax Rate Will Be Especially Low, Being Fixed at Only 15 Mills on the Dollar for the Next 15 Years

Call at the address below, any time and see the plans of the property, designs and plans of houses and prices. The undersigned will be at the property Saturday afternoon, and all day Monday, the 25th inst.

When you select a private individual as your executor, you make the appointment yourself. Your judgment may be excellent in the matter. Yet suppose your appointee lives but a short time after assuming the trust? Who appoints his successor? In this you have no voice and upon this very point all your carefully laid plans for the welfare of your family may come to naught.
How much better to appoint a reliable, capable, faithful administrator like

Your Choice May Be Short-Lived
