THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lack of space in our last number prevented us from referring to the Christmas festival gatherings of the Sunday school, which took place at the usual dates and in the usual manner. The Sunday School has greatly increased in number, there being now about 250 on the roll.

The following are the officers and teachers:

Superintendent—Rev. Canon Macnab.

Librarians—Frank Hamilton, Thomas Clark, William Robinson.

Teachers—M. E. Matthews, John Wood, Misses Lewis, Florence Hamilton, Annie Long, Edith Sweatman, Elsie Gray, Gladys Godfrey, Kathleen Cross, Eva Patterson, Klingner, Alice Turner, Edith Tocque, Chown, Madge Holt, Caroline Hamilton, Katherine Robertson, Lilian Benson, Eva Bliss.

Infant Class—Miss Playter.

The Treasurer will be glad to receipt reports from those who were calling upon members of the congregation for subscriptions to the recent improvements; and also to receive the amounts subscribed, as soon as may be convenient to contributors. We will require to pay about $200 before the end of the present month. Towards this there is nothing at present in the Treasurer's hands, as the amounts received by him have been already paid out. A full statement will be printed in a later number of the MONTHLY NOTES.

THE SCHOOL.

The school re-assembled after the Christmas vacation with an increased number of pupils, shewing a steady growth which promises well for the future.

A chemical laboratory has been added to the equipment of the school, and a large chemistry class formed. As this is something beyond the regular curriculum the class meets after hours, the boys taking up the subject voluntarily.

The very useful and practical subject of book-keeping has also been added to the work of the fourth form, with, so far, gratifying results.

On 8th January Mr. Matthews, in accordance with a now well-established annual custom, entertained the boys of the school at Wychwood, when skating on the pond and various winter sports were the order of the day. The boys spend much of their leisure time on the Wychwood Pond, skating, playing hockey, and in similar amusements.

The drill class is now under the instruction of Sergeant White, Royal Canadian Regiment. The boys are looking forward to the formation of a cadet corps.
