ST. JOHN'S MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

THE following Sections of the amended Municipal Act, passed March 22nd, 1910, are published for the information of those interested and the General Public:—

31. From and after the passing of this Act the construction of houses or buildings of any sort shall not be commenced within the city limits without the permission of the Council, who shall have power to make and prescribe terms and conditions to be observed and performed by the owner of the land or the lessee in respect of the payment by the said owner or lessee of the whole or a portion of the cost of the laying or introduction of the water or water pipes, the opening or construction of sewers or sewerage, or the making, opening, widening or improvement of the road or street along or near to which the said house or building is to be constructed.

32. Whenever after the passing of this Act the Council shall decide upon the opening or construction of a main sewer along or through a street abutting upon or in the vicinity of land which is suitable for building purposes, but upon which no buildings have been erected, and it shall appear that the said main sewer about to be constructed is or will be available for connection with buildings hereafter to be erected upon said land so that the value of the said land will be thereby improved, the Council shall have power to levy and impose upon the said land or any portion thereof, from time to time, a tax or assessment at such a rate either per foot or frontage upon the said road or street or otherwise as the Council shall determine, and to apply the money raised by and under the said tax or assessment to or towards the cost of the opening or construction of the said proposed sewer of sewerage. The said tax or assessment shall be a charge upon the said land or such portion thereof as shall be defined by the Council, as subject thereto, and shall be recovered from the owner or lessee, as the case may be, in the same manner as provided in and by the principal Act in respect of the recovery of taxes, rates and assessments.

33. Whenever it shall be found necessary for the purpose of widening or improving any road or street for the Council to take and appropriate private property and to pay compensation therefor to be determined by arbitration under the provisions of the principal Act, the Arbitrators, in computing or assessing the amount of such compensation, shall consider and determine whether or not the said widening or improvement has affected the value of the land or property adjoining to the land so taken, belonging to the same owner, and in case it shall be found that such widening or improvement has improved or increased the value of the said adjoining land, the amount of compensation to be awarded for the taking of the said land shall be reduced or abated accordingly.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Two or three months ago I wrote an article saying that men did not like forward girls, that the forward girl by her forwardness loses a lot of respect, but also the very thing for which she is trying to trade it—the admiration and love of the opposite sex.

Since then I have received so many letters from girls who say that their attempts to be self-respecting and nice and their consequent unpopularity disprove my statement that I am going to take up the cudgels again in defense of my belief.

For it is still my belief.

But, girls, I did not say that the nice girls would be very popular. I did not say that she would be the girl who would have to split up her dances and fill out a dozen extras to satisfy the admirers who crowd around her at a dance.

What I said, and still affirm, is that the self-respecting girl, other things being equal, has the better chance of winning the average man's admiration and love.

Now please do not translate my terms "self-respect" and "niceness" into prudery.

That is most emphatically what I do not mean.

Nobody, man or woman, loves a prude.

Just be a nice girl, thinking no evil and expecting none. When anything with a possible double meaning is said to you, it is far better to appear not to see the allusion than to pick it up and resent it.

Be jolly. Enter into all healthy funmaking with your men friends as much as you can.

A man likes a girl who is not forward, but that does not mean he likes her to be stiff.

Be friendly, be hearty. Be lively and alert and enthusiastic. You can be all that without being in the least forward or bold or improper, but I think that many times the girls who are trying hard not to be improper overshoot the mark and are stiff and formal.

But as to its being necessary for a girl to allow her casual men friends to take liberties with her in order to win their love—absolutely NO.

The girls who do that sort of thing are often popular, of course, but do you want that sort of popularity?

Do you want to be spoken lightly of when your men friends are speaking of the women they know, or do you want to be one of whom they will say, "She is the right sort. There is nothing easy about her?"

Do you want to be characterized as I overheard a man in the street characterize a girl he was talking about a good deal at the time, as "a good sofa pillow?"

Will the compliments and the chance to go about make up for things like that?

And as for the marrying part of it—men sometimes approach girls in this way, and then afterwards find the girls have admirable qualities beneath the boldness, and marry them for these qualities, but never for love or admiration of the failure to be self-respecting.

One girl who says she has tried very hard to be a nice girl and stigmatizes niceness as a failure with men, ends her letter:

"I realize that youth is passing quickly by with very little pleasure. I am wondering, does it pay?"

Please, please don't feel that way, girls.

Self-respect does pay every time. Not only good men but all men admire it. I know of a rake, a man about town, almost what we call slyly "a degenerate," who said, "I shall never marry. The right kind of girl won't have me and I won't marry the other kind."

Don't be too formal, too chip-on-the-shoulder.

If you aren't a masculine success maybe it's a tendency in that direction that's to blame. Try to overcome it without going too far in the other direction.

Don't be a prude, but be a nice, jolly, self-respecting girl, and I believe with all my heart your own shall come unto you and that it will be worth waiting for.

Ruth Cameron

Beauty of Form a Splendid Endowment.

Beauty is health; health contains prime elements of beauty. Without health these golden elements are absent and beauty fades, power of personality lessens. No one can be fine-looking if skin is pasty-looking, if there is absence of color, depression of spirits, restlessness and weakness. These are signs of impure and vitiated blood. They indicate sluggishness of the entire system, and what is equally fatal to beauty, derangements of the bodily functions. Make your beauty vital. Make your strength glorious. You can establish firmly beauty and strength by Ferrozone (Blood Food). This mighty tonic and blood renewer will revitalize and renew your entire constitution—makes you strong. No danger of lack of color. No possibility of lustreless eye. No failure of spirit and vivacious when you take Ferrozone (Blood Food). Equally Ferrozone confers strength and endurance. You are made able to do things, to enjoy doing them, and to give enjoyment to others. Take Ferrozone (Blood Food). Watch your strength grow, your vim and courage increase. No man or woman who would always feel, should fall to take an occasional box of Ferrozone. It is a very fountain of strength, a source of energy and assurance of fine feeling.

es are allowed to stand in cold water for several hours.

If a loaf of bread has become stale, hold it under the water for one second; then place in a brisk oven for a quarter of an hour. It will taste like new bread.

An excellent way of keeping a black leather handbag or travelling bag in condition is to rub it well occasionally with milk. Wipe with chamois until perfectly dry.

To mend an umbrella, take a small piece of black sticking plaster and soak it in water until quite soft. Place this carefully under the hole inside and let dry.

To dry parsley, wash the parsley and shake it well. Then set in a warm oven and when it becomes crisp let it cool. Put into tins or bottles and exclude the air from it.

When you are ironing any dark material do not put a linen cloth underneath, as the lint will come off on the stuff, and you will have great difficulty in brushing it off again.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which stem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

Given Away.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Save your pound powder tins to steam brown-bread tin, to hold your pressed veal or beef, and corn-meal mush to fry.

If a garment is faded and one wishes to bleach it white boil it in water to which a goodly amount of cream of tartar is added.

Baskets of raffia are most attractive receptacles for holding flowers. Those of birch bark, too, are used extensively this year.

To prevent potatoes from becoming discolored when boiled, peel them and let them lie in cold water at least an hour before boiling.

When cutting cookies, have a dish of flour at hand into which the cutter may be frequently dipped; then the dough will not stick.

Sometimes dishes become badly stained from tea; a vigorous rubbing with salt will probably remove every vestige of discoloration.

A good remedy for cold in the chest is vaseline and turpentine well rubbed into the chest and between the shoulders in the back.

If one has the opportunity to get red cedar chips, do not fail to obtain a supply. They are excellent for keeping moths from clothing.

Before putting skates away for the summer soak them in sour milk whey. Then give them a coat of kerosene and wrap them in tissue paper.

Try stuffing squabs with very tender celery cut fine and seasoned highly with pepper, salt and butter. The stuffing will be found delicious.

By sprinkling a goodly amount of salt over a carpet five or ten minutes before sweeping, there will be little dust raised when the sweeping is done.

When boiling cabbage cut the cabbage in quarters and slip each quarter into a separate cheesecloth bag. Then, when it is cooked, it comes out intact.

If there are stains from machine oil on a white garment, rub the spots well with a cloth wet in ammonia before washing with soap, and they will disappear.

Few people seem to know when preparing dried peaches the skins can be easily peeled off, if the peach-

Re-installed the Telephone.

A well-known Anglican clergyman in a western Ontario town not long ago had his name and number left out of the telephone book, for the reason that he objected to answering a number of more or less unnecessary calls. Unfortunately, however, here is a lumber merchant of the same name in his town, and as a result a number of calls intended for the clergyman came over the lumberman's phone. He remonstrated with the churchman, who replied that he was sorry for the condition of affairs, but couldn't help it. Somewhat nettled, the lumberman adopted radical measures. The next time a parishioner called up and enquired if that was the Rev. Mr. Blank speaking, the merchant answered, "Yes, go to H—; I'm busy with my sermon." It is related that the clergyman's number soon afterward appeared again in the telephone book.

MAKES HAIR GROW.

Your dealer has an invigorator that will grow hair or money back. The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of.

If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it can't be long before the spot appears.

The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is SALVIA, the Great American Hair Grower, first discovered in England. SALVIA furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed.

And remember, it destroys the Dandruff germ, the little pest that saps the life that should go to the hair from the roots.

SALVIA is sold by all dealers under a positive guarantee to cure Dandruff, stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp in ten days, or money back. A large bottle costs 50 cents. The word "SALVIA" (Latin for sage) is on every bottle.

The Coronation Oath.

The fundamental principle which governs the King's title to the throne, the oaths he may be called upon to take, his prerogatives, powers and their limitations is the supremacy of English law. To that law the King is subordinate, the House of Lords is subordinate, the House of Commons, and every principality and power, ecclesiastical or lay, whether Anglican, Papal, or other is also subordinate within the realm.

This principle, though contested, has long been established, and its establishment was anterior by many centuries to the times of William of Orange by even those of Henry VIII. Kemble in his "Saxons in England," sets forth among the powers exercised by the Witanageboth:

- (a) The Witan had power of electing the King;
- (b) The Witan had the power to depose the King, if his governing was not conducted for the benefit of his people;
- (c) The King and the Witan had power to appoint to vacant sees;
- (d) They had also power to regulate ecclesiastical matters, approved feasts and festivals, and decide upon the levy and expenditure of ecclesiastical revenue.

Before the Norman Conquest the English Church enjoyed much independence. The Conquest brought it into closer communion with Rome, but the ancient supremacy of the State was maintained.

Pope Hildebrand called upon William I. in 1076 to do fealty for the Crown of England. William answered: I do not desire to do fealty, nor do I will it; because I neither promised to do it, nor do I find that my predecessors on the Throne ever did fealty to thy predecessors."

William laid down three famous Canons of Royal Supremacy, two of which were:

1. That the Pope should be acknowledged, or papal letters received, in England, without the King's consent.

Seed!

PETER O'MARA,

Mail orders promptly attended to.

2. That the King's barons and officers should not be excommunicated, or constrained by any penalty of ecclesiastical rigour, without his permission.

In 1164 it was laid down in the Constitution of Clarendon, that there should be no ecclesiastical appeals to Rome without the King's consent.

John defied the Pope, then submitted, and went so far as to do homage to the Pope for his Kingdom.

The Pope declared Magna Charta void, but the barons made war on John in support of the Charter and renounced their allegiance to him. The death of the King and the confirmation of the Charter six times, by the next King, put an end to the contest.

From the reign of Edward I. there is a regular series of Statutes passed to check Papal aggression. Foreign ecclesiastical taxation was forbidden, as were nominations by the Pope to English benefices. Citations to Rome were also made illegal. Pope Boniface IX. declared the Statutes passed by the English Parliament void, and granted a prebendal stall at Wells to an Italian Cardinal. The Bishops decided to stand by the Crown, so did the temporal lords and the Commons. This led to the Statutes of Praemunire which provided outlawry, seizure of land and movables and imprisonment for any persons pursuing process in the Papal Court against the Crown or the realm.

The King in Parliament was victorious and Boniface was defeated.

We have mentioned these struggles to show occasions on which the ancient supremacy of the law was maintained long before the time of the Reformation Parliament of Henry VIII, or the Bill of Rights of William and Mary, and to illustrate the fundamental doctrine of the subordination of every ecclesiastical authority within the realm to the law.

We now pass on to the Bill of Rights to set forth the operating rule of English law as to the Protestant succession of the Crown. This is set forth in Section IX, and reads as follows:—

IX. And whereas it hath been found by experience, that it is inconsistent with the safety and welfare of this Protestant Kingdom, to be governed by a Popish Prince, or by any King or Queen marrying a Papist, the said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons, do further pray that it may be enacted, that all and every person and persons that is, are, or shall marry a Papist, SHALL BE EXCLUDED, and be for ever UNCAPABLE TO INHERIT, POSSESS, OR ENJOY THE CROWNE AND GOVERNMENT of this realm and Ireland and the dominions therunto belonging, or any part of the same, or to have, use, or to exercise any regal power, authority, or jurisdiction within the same; and in all and every such case or cases the people of these realms shall be and are hereby ABSOLVED OF THEIR ALLEGIANCE, AND THE SAID CROWNE AND GOVERNMENT SHALL from time to time DESCEND TO, and be enjoyed by, such person or persons, being PROTESTANTS, as should have inherited and enjoyed the same, in case the said person or persons be reconciled, holding communion, or professing or marrying as aforesaid, were naturally dead."

This is the active operative principle for the maintenance of a Protestant King on the Throne.

The Coronation Oath is the test whether a King is a Protestant or not. Under the Act Settlement which is Supplementary to the Bill of Rights the Oath must be taken at the Coronation.

Not only is this the rule, but a Statute of Anne, the Sovereign who succeeded William of Orange, enacts that the following be a treasonable offence:

"Maliciously, advisedly, and directly, by writing or printing, maintaining that any other person has any right or title to the Crown otherwise than according to the Act of Settlement, or that the Sovereign with the authority of Parliament may not make laws and statutes to bind the Crown and descent thereof."

With the King in Parliament the supreme law maker. With the King protestant, the House of Lords protestant, with the House of Commons dominantly protestant, with the electorate overwhelmingly protestant, is there not a reasonable and practical assurance that this operative principle of protestantism will be maintained?

If that is so, and we maintain it is, why is it not sufficient to insist on an oath of adherence to Protestantism without subjecting the King to terms which are as derogatory to his honor as if he were a Tammany perjurer whom no ordinary oath could bind, and without using terms which in themselves outrage the feelings of Roman Catholics. The situation is delicate and difficult at the best. Why not make it as inoffensive as possible, while maintaining firmly and unflinchingly the Protestant succession?

It is said that Queen Victoria of Spain was called upon to take an oath highly offensive to Protestants. Even if it is a fact, should England go to Spain for constitutional guidance? England has long led the world in liberty and freedom of constitutional rule. Why then look to backward Spain for an offensive rule of conduct?

Rev. W. T. D. Dunn in this morning's Daily News quotes what is said to be an oath taken by the Roman Catholic Bishops in the Province of Quebec, which, it is alleged, accepts the doctrine that the Pope "hath power to depose heretical kings, princes, states, commonwealths and governments, all being illegal, without his sacred affirmation, and that they may be safely destroyed."

We confess we are absolutely sceptical about the allegation. Such an oath in writing is treasonable. We cannot therefore accept the allegation without the strongest proof and corroboration. Further, we find in the Bill of Rights the following oath of Supremacy:—

"I, A. B. doe, swear, That I doe from my heart abhor, detest, and abjure as impious and heretical, this damnable doctrine and position, that Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any authority of the See of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their subjects, or any other whatsoever. And I doe declare, That no forreigne prince, person, prelate, state, or potentate hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction, power, superiority, pre-eminence, or authority, ecclesiastical or spirituall, within this realme:

Soe helpe me God."

In conclusion, we reaffirm our attitude. The British people are overwhelmingly Protestant. The political masters are dominantly Protestant. The King in Parliament, the supreme law maker is Protestant. The law upholds a Protestant succession. The law is supreme in England. While maintaining these potencies in their full strength, why not use the gigantic strength of Protestantism with as little offence to Roman Catholics as possible. Let the King take an oath of Protestantism without singling out doctrines of Roman Catholicism for opprobrium. This is the twentieth century. The realm is enlightened in England. It is not benighted Spain. If the supremacy of the law is maintained, and also the subordination of princes, principalities and powers to it within the realm, the rest is of minor importance.

We repeat that Protestantism in the British Isles has a giant's strength. Let Protestants, while maintaining what they have won, remember Shakespeare's admonition:—

"Oh, it is excellent
To have a giant's strength;
But it is tyrannous
To use it like a giant."

Two Newfoundlanders Involved.

With reference to the report which the Telegram exclusively gave yesterday about the Newfoundland fisherman Batt English, drowned from the N. S. schr. Maggie & May, we find that another man, Walter Flander, of Codroy, is also mentioned. Consul Benedict is helping out the U. S. Consul-General of Halifax to get the names of the men's relatives and to establish their identity. Strange to say English is referred to as a "Canadian" of Conception Bay, Nfld., and he is called Patrick English, whereas his christian name was Bartholemew, abbreviated generally as Batt. The German cruiser Freya ran the ship down 60 miles off Halifax, in 1908.

He Caused Trouble.

Last night a spare winch man working on the Regulus caused considerable trouble on the ship for a while and impeded the discharging of the cargo. Trimmers are not supposed to be Union men and the man working in that capacity was beaten by him because he was a non Union man while the winch man alone struck for 20 cents per hour, although the Union schedule only calls for 15 cents per hour. The man was dismissed and Delegate F. Woods of the Fireman's Union put another man in the infractory persons place. He will likely get into trouble with the union which will take up the matter at the Monday night's meeting.

Cold Relieved in Ten Minutes.

There's a new remedy that is very pleasant—fills the nose, throat and lungs with healing balsam equal to the pine woods—that utilizes that marvelous antiseptic of the blue gum tree of Australia. The remedy is "Catarrhazone" and you can't find its equal on earth for colds, coughs and catarrh. Composed of medicinal pine essences—a cure of nature, that's what Catarrhazone is, and you will find it mighty quick to act, mighty sure to remedy your trouble, the most delightful of all Catarrh remedies. Don't dope your stomach with cough mixtures. Use Catarrhazone, which is scientific and certain, and sure to relieve quickly. Two months' treatment guaranteed, costs $1.00; small trial size 25 cents.

Union Firemen Were Accepted.

The Susu to-day took on two firemen of the local union. An Irish chap who came out as fireman in her was also retained for the summer, he having joined the union immediately he was given the job. The ship sails north in charge of Capt. Baxter Barbour at 4 p.m.

Marine Notes.

Yesterday evening about 5 o'clock a three-topmast schooner, deeply laden, passed the Narrows going north. She had coal evidently for Carbonara or Harbor Grace.

Trinity Bay Fishery.

At Trinity boats and traps have been doing excellent work the past week with the codfish. And Saturday last one man named Wiseman had 40 qtls. in a haul, and another had 25 qtls. Wiseman is a good fish-killer and last season before many had 20 qtls he had 300 qtls. under salt. They are doing well with jigger at English fir. and neighbourhood. There is an abundance of herring around the shore.

Wireless From the Rosalind.

The Rosalind left Sydney at 6 this morning and at 10.30 Harvey & Co. had a wireless message from her reporting her to be then 260 miles west of Cape Race. This much have been transmitted through another vessel, as the apparatus on the Rosalind cannot carry any further than 200 miles. The ship is expected at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

Insensible from Drink.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

In the police court to-day 3 drunks and a drunk and disorderly were discharged.

A seaman who deserted from the schr. Isabella and who was found on Waterford Bridge by officer Lee at 8 o'clock last night was put on board the ship just before she sailed.

Ravages of Steam Trawlers.

Special to Evening Telegram. ST. PIERRE, May 25. Damage by steam trawlers to the gear of the hand trawl fishing vessels which last year resulted in the firing upon a steam trawler by a Gloucester skipper, has again occurred on the Banks. This time a St. Pierre schooner is the victim. The schooner lost all her lines and gear when one of the steam trawlers set in a great beam trawl over the waters in which the schooner's gear was set. The owner of the schooner is to proceed against the trawler for payment of damages. The French warship Surcouf has arrived here to stay for the summer.

Floods in Norway.

Special to Evening Telegram. CHRISTIANIA, May 25. The extraordinary heat during the spring months has melted the snow on the mountains in the interior, causing a flooding of the lakes and rivers far beyond the record established in 1860. The situation at several points is critical. Lissstrommen, near Skedsme, where the streets are submerged to the first floors of the buildings, floating timbers endanger the bridges over many rivers. At Fetund about 340,000 pieces of timber are afloat, and it is feared that the railway bridge will be damaged.

A Lunatic at Large.

Special to Evening Telegram. NEW YORK, N.Y., May 25. John R. De Guelph, of Brooklyn, who claims to be a son of the late King Edward the Seventh of England, sent a message to-day to the Upper and Lower Houses of Parliament and the people of the United Kingdom and Ireland, demanding the British Crown. After expressing sorrow at the death of the King, the writer says that he, John George Edward Rex of Great Britain and Ireland, the legitimate and lawful issue of the marriage of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh and the former Princess Consort, has unjustly and unlawfully deprived him of his rights as the first born son of the rightful sovereign.

CORPUS CHRISTI.—Masses were celebrated at the Cathedral and St. Patrick's to-day, the same hours as on Sundays. The children's annual procession of the Blessed Sacrament took place at St. Patrick's at 10.30 a. m. There was a large attendance.

Cretan Question.

Special to Evening Telegram. PARIS, May 25. Great Britain and France to-day submitted to the Governments of Russia and Italy, the other two protecting Powers, a proposition to invite Crete to admit Musselman Deputies to the Cretan Assembly, and thus restore the status quo prior to 1908. According to this plan, which it is believed Russia and Italy will accept, Crete would retain its autonomy under the suzerainty of Turkey. The proposal was the result of a conference held between Sir Edward Grey and M. Pichon during the latter's stay in London as the representative of France to attend the funeral of King Edward VII.

Bartlett for South Pole

Special to Evening Telegram. NEWHAVEN, Conn., May 25. In speaking of his coming hunting trip to the Far North, Harry Whitney of this city, who spent a year hunting in the Polar regions, said to-night that Capt. Robert Bartlett, who commanded Peary's ship, the Roosevelt, and who will be in command of the Beothic, the vessel which Whitney will use on his return from the trip, will make an expedition to the South Pole. Mr. Whitney would give no details further than Captain Bartlett will himself try to reach the Pole.

Cotton Cargo Destroyed

Special to Evening Telegram. NEW YORK, N.Y., May 25. Three hundred and twenty bales of cotton, consigned to spinners abroad, were burned to-night in the hold of the North German Lloyd liner Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm at the pier in Hoboken. The vessel was only slightly damaged. The loss is about $24,000.

Fast German Cruiser.

Special to Evening Telegram. KIEL, May 25. The German navy's newest 19,000 ton cruiser Von Der Tann developed a speed of 28 knots an hour in a trial run on the mouth of the Elbe yesterday. The Von Der Tann was launched at Hamburg March 19th, 1909.

The quarterly meeting of the Alexandra Workers will be held in the British Hall, on Saturday, the 28th inst, at 8.30 a.m., instead of June 11. A full attendance is requested as matters of importance are to be transacted.—m26.11.

Dirty Streets and Predatory Goats.

Editor Evening Telegram: Dear Mr. Editor.—Allow me space in your daily paper to note a word or two concerning the condition of the streets on the higher levels. This, Mr. Editor, should be looked into by the Health Authorities. Is it right to have animals such as "goats" running the streets, upsetting ash buckets before people's doors. Is it proper to stable these animals under inhabited houses.

Now thanking you for your space, and hoping this will in future be looked to.

I remain, yours sincerely,

A CITIZEN.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited, Yarmouth, N.S.

Gentlemen.—In January last, Francis Leclaire, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work.

A New Power House.

Some of the men who were at work on the new Power House on the N. S. S. Co's. pier, at Bell Island, came to the city for a short while yesterday. The building is 36 feet high with 12 inch walls, and is 60 by 90 feet. A double set of boilers are going up in it for the purposes of generating electricity and hoisting material. A new wing, 150 feet in length, will be added later, and other improvements will be made at the pier later.

Fishery News.

At Harbor Main and Holyrood there is a good sign of fish, and yesterday traps had 2 to 3 qts each, and some were taken with the hook.

Yesterday there was excellent fishing at Cape Spear for line men, and boats averaged 1 qt. each.

Captin should soon be making its appearance.

Alfred Pretty Gone.

His many friends are deeply grieved over the news of the death of Mr. Alfred Pretty, lately chief telegraph despatcher with the Reid Nfld. Co. He passed away yesterday at Amherst, N.S., while travelling out of the city on a train. His wife, who was with him, was prostrated by the shock. About ten months ago Mr. Pretty left here for a health resort in the Laurentian Mountains, near Montreal. He had the best medical aid but it was impossible to stay the ravages of consumption. He had been working with the Reid Nfld. Co. since 1899, and was a well liked and trusted official and most obliging withal. He leaves a widow and one child to whom we extend our sympathies. The remains will be sent on from Truro.

McMurdo's Store News

THURSDAY, May 26, '10. The old-fashioned plan of putting a handful of rusty nails in a bucket of water, and drinking the rust water as a tonic in spring, had not perhaps much to recommend it, but the principle was right. For Iron Oxide (rust) is one sort of iron—though drinking rust water is by no means the most convenient or pleasant way to take iron. Citrate of Iron is probably the most easily assimilated of the Iron Salts, and in combination with Quinine it forms an unequalled tonic. Our Quinine and Iron Tonic contains these drugs in an elegant form, and will be found of great value as spring medicine.—adv't.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Const. F. Churchill who has been heretofore stationed at Port aux Basques, and who has been in hospital practically since December last, came out of the institution yesterday cured. He suffered from rheumatism and lumbago, and for a while his friends were very anxious as he was in a bad state.

At Myrtle Club Meeting

Jim, who formerly worked at Ellis' store, is very popular amongst the members of the Myrtle Club, and all wish him the greatest success.

Father Roe in Town.

Rev. J. Roe, the beloved Parish Priest of Harbor Main, who has been very ill all the spring, was brought to town in Hon. J. C. Crosbie's automobile last night and taken to the General Hospital, Dr. Chisholm accompanied him. His many friends sincerely hope that he will soon recover.

Viewed the Comet.

The sky being clear last night quite a number of people had a good view of the comet. On LeMarchant Road, Golf Avenue and other parts of the higher levels many people viewed it, those having glasses getting a good look at the celestial visitor.

A CURIOSITY.—The live seal on board the schr. Lady A. P., at Baird's wharf, is quite a curiosity. It is of the species known as a "jar." The crew feed it every day and it is now quite tame.

THE REMINISCENCES OF NOBODY!

(By Himself.)

Introducing Smith and Myself.

These are the reminiscences of a Nobody. This is not, by any means, the first time that the reminiscences of a Nobody has been written; but it is the first time, I fancy, that a simple fact has been so clearly stated in the title.

It does not matter who I am; and I have done nothing worth preserving in print. But, by good, or ill, luck, I have wandered all over the face of the globe; and my friend Smith (of whom you are sentenced to hear much) and I have met all sorts and conditions of men and women, who seem to us to have said and done strange things.

I promise you faithfully you shall not be instructed by anything that you read in these reminiscences. They are not even written because the author "felt it incumbent on him to supply a long-felt want." For that reason only are they original, perhaps.

They shall, I pass my word, be without law, order, sequence, rhyme, or reason; and they shall also lack prelude or preface.

On His Dignity.

By way of immediate fulfillment of that promise, I will set down what happened to Smith one day when he had the toothache. He sought an eminent firm of dentists—Messrs. Billington, Horton & Judd. He was in great pain; and, even if he had not been, he would not have let the fact that all three partners were eminent Territorials deprive them of his custom.

Smith is a broad-minded fellow. "Mr. Judd at home?" he asked. "Captain Judd," said the footman, with conscious importance, "is undergoing a course of musketry at Hythe."

"Mr. Horton?" "Major Horton is at Aldershot, and is not yet—"

"Can I see Mr. Billington, then?" "Colonel Billington is on battalion parade, and cannot possibly be disturbed."

Then it was that Smith spoke wildly.

"Look here, my man: Have you got a General on the premises who can take my tooth out?"

A Dreadful Mistake. Smith has been most things, and he was for some years a real, live soldier himself. But he tells me that he never really understood military dignity, and that his wife did not either. That was how she once came to make a dreadful mistake.

Army doctors had just blossomed into captains, majors, and colonels when Mrs. Smith's infant fell ill.

Dear Doctor Jones (she wrote)—Will you kindly come over and see my little one? She seems very queer. Yours sincerely,

CLARA SMITH.

She got a reply in the third person: Colonel Jones will duly attend to his official duties when correctly addressed by his official title.

Mrs. Smith did her best to put things right, but Smith tells me that there was no pleasing Jones. Anyhow, it seemed that there was excess of purely military appreciation in the next letter the lady wrote:

Dear Colonel Jones—Would 2.30 be convenient? And please bring your sword, as I think baby's gums want lancing.

The General, the Sentry, and the Gun.

On the other hand, Smith says that some of our real soldiers do not stand on their dignity at all. Sir Evelyn Wood, for instance, never did. When he commanded at Aldershot he liked to stroll about in a suit of dittoes and see things as they were, in preference to seeing what was specially prepared for him to see.

Increase of comfort for the soldier was usually the outcome of these "incog." visits by the general in command.

One blazing August afternoon, when 40,000 Volunteers were in camp, Sir

When Sleep Fails You

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD will bring rest, comfort and vitality by building up the nerves.

Mr. Jas. Wesley Weaver, a veteran of the Fenian Raid, Fort Dalhousie, Ont., writes:—"For years I was afflicted with nervousness and drowsy insomnia, so that I never knew for three years what a full hour's sleep was, never more than dozing for a few minutes at a time. Heart pains and headaches almost drove me wild. I had spells of weakness and cramps in stomach and limbs."

"Though I tried several doctors, it was money uselessly spent. Finally Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was brought to me and eight boxes cured me. It is simply wonderful what benefit I have obtained from this treatment."

Sleeplessness, and headaches, are warnings of approaching nervous collapse. ## What Fools These Mortals Be!

Recently I read in the papers that the medical men have found out the correct weight of the soul is an ounce. I laughed in my sleeve. "What fools these mortals be, and how they can be fooled." The human being when alive, moves, walks and works. What makes these motions? Nobody knows, and they will never know. But, every body knows that B. Friedman is selling Clothing, Dry Goods and Furniture for cash and credit. B. FRIEDMAN, 301 Water St. (Water Side). Mall orders promptly attended to. Phone 146. P. O. Box 5.

An Unexpected Answer

Dr. Pereira, the Bishop of Croydon, whose remarks on Sunday observance have been so widely quoted, was, until his present appointment, vicar of Croydon. Like a great many Anglican clergymen, his lordship is an Irishman, and a Trinity College, Dublin, graduate.

Dr. Pereira is one of the most outspoken, as well as the most unconventional, of clergymen. His sermons were once described by Dr. Creighton as models of what a "priest of the world should deliver."

He is a strong advocate of temperance reform, and in this connection he relates an amusing story of an occasion when he was asked to examine the children belonging to a Band of Hope in South London.

In putting them questions, Dr. Pereira asked "Please look upon me as a total stranger without any knowledge of what temperance reform means. If I asked you what drink you recommend best. What would you say?"

Immediately a forest of hands went up.

"Well," he asked one. "Beer," was the prompt reply.

"I should have liked," says the Bishop in telling the story, "to have seen the face of the superintendent of the Band of Hope had he heard that answer given."

MORE DESERTERS.—Two of the crew of the Bella Rosa attempted to desert last evening. They were captured and put on board by Constables Stamp and Savage after a good deal of trouble. The vessel sailed this morning.

GROWING CHILDREN

The Period when the Nervous Activity is at its Greatest.

"Against the practice of giving tea and coffee to children, we cannot speak too strongly. Childhood is the period when the nervous activity is at its greatest. The brain is ever busy receiving new impressions. Reflex action, co-ordination of muscles, and the special senses are all under a special course of training."

"The nervous system is pushed to its utmost capacity, and long is the list of victims that follow its overstimulation. In these little people nothing but harm can come from the use of such cerebral stimulants as tea or coffee. Bad, then, as this practice is, let us as physicians be aggressive in its prohibition."

"Do not be satisfied by answering 'No' when asked as to their use, but let us teach the families with whom we come in contact that such practice is evil. We speak emphatically, because not only among the poor and uneducated, but among the rich, who should know better, this practice is marvellously prevalent."—The Home Doctor.

Children like a warm beverage for breakfast and it is well for them to have it if the drink is a food and not a drug.

Postum is made to supply a rich nourishing liquid food with a crisp coffee taste for those who cannot and should not use coffee. Analysis shows it to contain about fourteen per cent of muscle-forming elements and 66.1 per cent of energy and fat-producing elements, which go to nourish and sustain the delicate nerve centres throughout the body and from which the vital energy proceeds.

The success of child or adult depends largely upon proper sustenance for the body. Children who depend upon the intelligence of their elders to furnish them with good food deserve our most careful attention and thought.

Shannahan on Torphy's House.

I wish Ruth Cameron lived around here, she'd have a chance to make a name for herself. Certainly she'd want to have plenty money, so as she'd be independent enough to say what she meant and mean what she'd say.

Shannahan got no money, expects none, and therefore is richer than the dissatisfied man that's got a good bank account, and like Oliver Twist is "looking for more," and staking his independence to get it. What I'm driving at is the queer people we are, we never seem satisfied 'till we are kicking up some row or other. Things are going along first rate and smooth, when the next thing we know a woman up in the West End tears down her house and starts in re-building it.

It stood on the site for as long as I can remember, and we never heard of anyone running into it. People going to Petty Harbor took the lower road, and people going to Topsail took the high road; they never to my knowledge made a mistake and took one for the other. Half the people in town hardly know there's such a place as Torphy's, and twenty-five per cent of the remainder of the population don't care. The next thing we know is that there are big headlines in the papers, long letters demanding that the house be removed, and suggestions of the City paying Twenty Thousand Dollars to the owners are heard in the distance. Go in some quiet spot, sit down on something soft and laugh, laugh to your heart's content. I wonder are we getting mad or anything like that. Our town is so up to date, so perfect that that is all that is needed. Men in town talk about it seriously and shake their heads at one another. But I suppose 'tis just as well to be talking about Torphy's house, and be looking sad about Torphy's house, as to be talking and looking sad about anything else. When this topic gets played out look out for another starter. We are a wonderful people and 'tis a pity we're not living in a bigger city, we'd make things hum. Oh, shades of Pickwick. Dickens died too soon.

Empire Day at Heart's Content.

To-day being Empire Day all the shops are closed, flags are flying and it is regarded as a public holiday. The children of the C. of E. High School (both departments) as well as the children of the C. of E. School, at Southern Cove, all met in St. Mary's School and went through the following programme:—

1. All assembled, and we Salute the Flag.

2. The patriotic song, "The Flag of Britain," recited by the children.

3. Address by the Principal, W. E. Bradbury, on the objects of the Empire movement, extend and magnitude of the British Empire, and the necessary qualifications in order to be a true and worthy member of the Great Empire.

4. "Rule Britannia," sung by the children.

5. Address by the Chairman, Rev. F. Smart, on Empire Day, which was both interesting and instructive.

6. Rev. W. H. Bailey also spoke to the children for a short while. He was followed by Dr. Anderson who compared the observing of Empire Day now with the holiday they would receive on May 24th, when he was going to school. He thought children 15 or 20 years ago knew very little about the British Empire.

7. "Newfoundland Ode," sung by the children.

8. "Recessional Hymn," by Rudyard Kipling, recited by the children.

9. "National Anthem" sung by the school.

10. Final Salute of Flag.

Cheers were then given for the King, Empire, Newfoundland, Governor, School, etc., etc.

There were present in addition to those mentioned, Mr. G. E. Charlton, the teachers of Southern Cove, and the Primary Departments.

Although the parents had been invited, few attended. The children and all present fully enjoyed themselves and had their aspirations aroused as to privilege and honour of being a member of an Empire, the Greatest the world has ever seen.

The Principal with some of the older boys and girls then went to the woods, about twenty minutes walk. After the different kinds of trees had been pointed out and explained by the teacher, about 15 or 20 young trees—mostly spruce—were taken up, brought out and planted in the school playground. The children were very much interested in the lesson on tree planting.

We hope that before another Empire Day the parents will have learned to become sufficiently interested in the children to join with them in the celebrations.

Placentia Notes.

During the past week men are daily leaving for different parts of the country to secure employment. Some have gone to Grand Falls, others to Hawke's Bay to work at the whale factory there. They left here in charge of Mr. E. V. Greene, time-keeper. They were to meet Mr. Buckingham, manager, at Whitbourne.

Mr. John Collins, manager of Hawke's Harbor whale factory, also went out by Friday's train, taking with him a number of men to work at the factory. They left St. John's on the Cachelot Sunday morning for Trinity, where he will ship more men and then proceed to Labrador. Since Mr. Collins went on that factory he never had a bad year, and we hope that this will be a record year for Hawke's Harbor. "May all success crown your efforts during the summer months, John!"

Messrs. Peter Griffin and T. J. Powers reports for 45 quintals for their last baiting. Others have also done well, while some have only secured from a quintal to ten. If it still continues to be plentiful some of the boats will certainly have record catches.

Mr. Ed. Whalen of this town, who for the past few years has been in Sydney, arrived home on Thursday's train. While in the foreign land he made hosts of friends, and when he left to come to the birthland his many friends were sorry that they should part. He only remained here a few days and proceeded to town by Monday's train to add one more man to the able police force of St. John's. Men from "Ye Ancient Capital" have met with great success wherever they went to. In St. John's there are Head Constable Collins, one of the best men in the force; and then comes Constable Keefe, whose equals can scarcely be found in the island; and then Constables Whalen and Morrissey, who are A1 men and a great addition to the crowd.

Rev. Mons. Reardon, who for some time had been confined to the Presbytery, is again gaining strength. He was out walking on the lawn Monday, the first time for some weeks. His many parishioners will be glad to know that their P. P. will soon be as well as ever to attend to his duties. While he was ill Rev. Fr. Gough has been attending to the wants of the parish, and gave entire satisfaction to all.

Fr. Gough has now been stationed Parish Priest of Cape Shore in place of Rev. Fr. McGuire. Fr. G. has been out there the past week and came back on Tuesday by carriage.

Two men shipped for the fishery by Mr. M. Prescoe for the summer months deserted on Monday morning but were finally captured by the police. Both were sentenced to 30 days imprisonment.

Yesterday being Empire Day the different schools were closed and the children received a holiday, much to the delight of all.

The eclipse of the moon was plainly seen by all who watched it on Monday night. The moon was in the shadow from 12 until 2.30. It was a grand sight, the night being so calm and fine.

Placentia, May 25th, '10.

Sports Meeting.

Last evening a meeting of the Star of the Sea and C. C. Sports Committee was held to prepare a programme for Sports Day. A large number attended and much enthusiasm prevailed.

It was decided to have the event on Wednesday the 8th prox., and to make the admission fee for entries 20 cents. The entries for football, five, tug-of-war and relay races will be free.

The preliminaries will be run off on the Monday and Tuesday before the Sports Day.

Keen competition is expected to be in evidence in the cup contest. The school relay race will also be an attractive feature. The dance committee also held a meeting and arranged all details about that part of the programme which will take place later in the evening in the Prince's Rink. Tickets are already selling well.

Banking Schooner Lost

Yesterday afternoon a message was received in the city stating that the banker Ruby, owned by S. Harris, of Grand Bank, had gone ashore going into Lousburg harbor for bait and was a total wreck, with 900 qtls. of fish on board—all her spring's voyage. The vessel's hull was insured for $4,000, but the fish cargo is a total loss to the owner. The fish would be value for about $4,000. The Ruby was a fine vessel of 90 tons and was insured in the Grand Bank Mutual. She carried 10 dories and 18 men of a crew.

So That You May Compare

Before taking up shingle, tin, tar and other roofings, we will explain what Ruberoid is, so that you may be better able to compare it.

Ruberoid was the original prepared finished surface roofing, and for several years the only roofing of this character. It consists of a wool fabric which is impregnated and coated with flexible Ruberoid gum.

There is no secret about this fabric. It is the best grade of wool felt. It is as rich in wool fibres as the felt which is used in Derby hats. Wool costs twice as much as cotton, but it lasts three times as long.

RUBEROID GUM

The secret of Ruberoid lies in the process of making Ruberoid gum.

This gum is as waterproof as new rubber. It is as flexible as new rubber. Yet, unlike rubber, it remains waterproof and flexible when exposed to the sun, the rain, the heat, the cold, the air.

Rubber rots after slight exposure. Ruberoid retains its life and flexibility under the severest weather conditions. Rubber decomposes rapidly under the action of fumes and gases and acids. Ruberoid is gas-proof and resists the attacks of gases and acids in a higher degree than any other roof covering. RUBEROID ROOFING has, in fact, been used to line vats in which acids are kept.

CONTAINS NO RUBBER

RUBEROID contains no rubber. It contains no tar. It contains no asbestos. It is not an asphalt roofing.

RUBEROID is tasteless. It is odorless. It can be used on roofs from which drinking water is gathered.

RUBEROID is fire resisting. Hot coals thrown on a Ruberoid roof do not set fire to the roofing or to the sheathing underneath.

RUBEROID is a non-conductor of heat. In winter it keeps the heat in, and in summer it keeps the heat out.
