Guelph Evening Mercury MONDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1872 SOUTH RIDING OF WELLINGTON. MEETING OF REFORMERS. A meeting of the members of the Reform Party of the South Riding of the County of Wellington, will be held at the TOWN HALL, GUELPH, On Tuesday, 9th day of July, at 8 o'clock, p. m., to take into consideration, in the interest of the Party, the question of the representation of the Riding in next Dominion Parliament. In consequence of the recent change in the bounds of the Riding by which Erin and Erasmoo, have been added to it, it is hoped that the Reformers in these Townships will see it to be their duty to take an active interest in the political affairs of the Riding as they did when formerly belonging to it. GEORGE ELLIOTT, President of the Reform Association of South Wellington. Guelph, June 26, 1872. Local and Other Items. A STRAWBERRY festival in connection with the Primitive Methodist church takes place on Thursday next. CRICKETERS are especially reminded of the meeting to-night at the Queen's Hotel at half-past eight, sharp. CANADIAN BUTTER.—An improving demand for Canadian butter in Liverpool, at 45c to 50c, is reported by the mails of the 15th of June. The annual Wesleyan Methodist Sabbath School Pic-nic will be held on Mr. Peterson's grounds, on Wednesday, the 17th inst. Particulars in a few days. FURTHER RISE IN THE PRICE OF IRON.—A further rise in the price of pig iron is reported by cable; Glengarnock is quoted at 130s., and other brands in proportion. BASE BALLERS vs. CRICKETERS.—The Secretary of the M. L. B. C.'s exceedingly anxious that an eleven of both clubs should contest for superiority in a friendly game at cricket. What say the cricketers? WOOLLEN MILLS BURNED.—The woollen mills of Mr. Logan McCann, of Milton, were consumed by fire on Saturday morning. Supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Loss, about $2,000; insurance, $1,000. THE OSTRANDER CASE.—The preliminary examination of Ostrander by the Magistrate at Arthur was concluded on Friday, when he was committed to stand his trial. Mr. J. P. McMillan appeared for the defence. MASONIC.—The Grand Lodge of Canada of A. F. & A. M., will meet in Hamilton at the Mechanics' Hall, on Wednesday next, the 10th inst., at two o'clock. Several foreign representatives are invited and will probably be present. The Board of General Purposes will meet on Monday. SUCCESSFUL SEASON.—The Monetary Times says: "A number of changes occurred in the personnel of different firms doing business in Ontario; no failures of any consequence have occurred for some time past, a circumstance which may be taken to indicate a generally prosperous state of business. The band of the Grenadier Guards took their departure from New York on Saturday. It will be subject of general regret that these celebrated musicians should have returned to England without paying a visit to the Dominion. The French band will proceed to Chicago this week. It is possible they might be engaged to perform in Canada. COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—The man Wood-ey, who was arrested some few days ago on suspicion of being the man who attempted to commit a rape upon Louisa Jane Wedge, near Copeston, was brought before the Hamilton Police Magistrate on Saturday morning and examined. At the conclusion of the evidence His Worship committed him for trial. THE LYCEUM TROUPE.—This troupe will appear in the popular play of "Castle" this evening, when the leading parts will be taken by Miss Halpine, Mr. Halford and other members of the Toronto Lyceum Company. After the play there will be a concert, and Kenny will give his wonderful performance on the musical glasses. SLENNED TOBACCO.—Mr. Myers on Saturday showed us a sample of leaf tobacco, Connecticut and Virginia, of which he has just received a large quantity for making into cigars. It is the finest leaf we ever saw, being large, delicate in texture, and as fine as silk. It is no wonder Myers' cigars are the best now in the market when he makes them of the very finest tobacco he can get. WILLIAM JOHNSON, Esq., M. P.—On Thursday night a large and influential meeting of the Orangemen of Montreal took place in the Orange Hall, St. James street. The object of the meeting was to receive William Johnson, Esq., M. P., of Ballykilbeg, Ireland, who is at present on a visit to this country. The chair was taken by the M. W. Grand Master George Smith, Esq., who briefly introduced Mr. Johnson to the meeting. Mr. Johnson in reply made a short and appropriate speech. COMMITTED RAPE.—A black scoundrel named George Williams, was committed for trial by the Hamilton Police Magistrate on Friday on charge of committing a rape upon a little girl seven years old, named Alice Buckley. The miscreant was also charged with attempting to commit a rape upon another little girl, named Dorcas Thomson, 8 years old. The prisoner enticed the little girls into the Catholic cemetery on Sunday evening, where he accomplished his infamous crime. FIRE IN ARTHUR.—The Mount Forest Examiner says that on Wednesday, the 8th inst., the dwelling house of Mr. Jas. McDonald, lot No. 14, 11th concession, Arthur Township, caught fire in the upper flat from some unknown cause, and was speedily consumed, together with almost its entire contents. Mr. McDonald was from home at the time, and only Mrs. McDonald and the younger members of the family were on the premises. Some of the children narrowly escaped with their lives. There was no insurance on the building or its contents. S. W. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The Special Building Committee of the Society met on Saturday afternoon, at Ellis' Hotel, for the purpose of opening tenders sent in for the construction of the additional buildings deemed requisite to meet the requirements of the Central Exhibition for 1872. The following are the tenders with the respective amounts of tender: Messrs. W. & G. Hall $603 50 Mr. W. Little $500 00 Mr. W. Cowan $367 00 Mr. Hamilton $331 00 The latter tender was accepted. Building material to be found by the Society. The wheat crop of the United States is likely to turn out better than was anticipated. It is true that estimates must still, to some extent, be received with doubt; but room is left for possible improvement as well as possible deterioration and figures made at this period are commonly pretty nearly verified by results. The June Report of the Washington Department of Agriculture is in the press, and confirms the hope of a fair crop, or at least better than was feared. One hundred being the standard of a medium prospect, the general average of condition for the entire crop is set down at ninety four. The gross yield is estimated at about 220,000,000 bushels as against 230,000,000 last year. CHANGES IN THE BANK OF MONTREAL.—The Cobourg Sentinel says:—Mr. J. Porteous, formerly manager of the Bank of Montreal here, having been lately promoted from the Branch at London to that of Quebec, other promotions and change have as a consequence followed; Mr. F. A. Despard, late manager here, takes the place of Mr. Porteous at London; Mr. C. Brough is transferred from Guelph to Cobourg, and Mr. J. Robertson is removed from Perth to Guelph. Mr. R. J. Drummond, formerly in the agency here, taking Mr. Robertson's place as agent at Perth. We are pleased to welcome Mr. Brough as a citizen of our town, as he comes highly recommended by the press and people of Guelph, where he was very popular. THE EDEN MILLS RAPE CASE.—We are sorry to learn that up to Monday morning Emmanuel Kemp, who committed the rape on the person of Mrs. A. Bardwell, near Eden Mills, on Friday evening last, has not yet been caught, although diligent search was made for him all day Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Bardwell offers a reward of $50 to any one who arrests Kemp. We understand there are a large number on his track, and we hope soon to hear that he has been taken. Kemp belonged to the Wellington Fire Battery. The latest information respecting him is that he went to his step-father's some time on Saturday, while they were absent and changed his clothes. He has now on dark striped pants, and a small cap. He wears a black moustache, and has a dark complexion. SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—The Hamilton Times says:—"On Monday night last a man named Robert Reid, a farmer residing near Ayr, got off the 11.50 train, and was seen about the Dundas station in a state of intoxication. Next morning, he was found by one of the trackmen in an insensible condition, lying at the side of the road bed, fully half a mile west of the station—his head and face cut and bruised in a very serious manner. He was at once removed to the station, and Dr. Hamilton having dressed his wounds, he gradually became conscious, when it was ascertained who he was, and his friends were telegraphed for. He could not account for the state he was found in, but it is surmised that he had started to walk up the track and been struck by a passing train. It is marvellous how he escaped with his life. The railway authorities were not to blame in any way for his mishap, which ought to be a lesson to him in future. ALMOST A VERY SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—All travellers on our town streets must have too frequently observed that large blocks of stone, which have tumbled off of the quarry-waggons, have inconveniently obstructed the passage of light driving vehicles, and it appears a gentleman and lady, when driving on Norfolk street, on Sunday last, and when opposite Mr. Raymond's residence, encountered one of these obstacles, and that the horse slipped at, and a little child, when the lady had in her arms, was in consequence, thrown out of the buggy, and miraculously escaped unhurt. Danger of a serious character, as well as inconvenience, therefore, is the evident result of these obstructions, which the regulations of the town surely cannot, and certainly ought not, to permit. While on this subject it may be as well to draw the attention of the proper authorities to another inconvenience, and that is in some streets the branches of the trees are allowed to hang so drooping over the footpaths that, on a rainy day, umbrellas are liable to be torn, &c., besides giving passers by, especially ladies, a perhaps, unwelcome bath.

BY TELEGRAPH. G. A. DREW, M. P. For the benefit of our many readers in the North Riding, we publish the following able exposure of some of Mr. Drew's votes by the Bethany correspondent of the Elora Observer.— "What think you, Electors of North Wellington, of your chosen political guardian?"—N. W. Times. The last session of the first Parliament of our Dominion, like all subsidiary things, has ended and with it the Parliament itself is numbered with the things of the past; and as a matter of course we are on the eve of a general election that may be sprung upon us at any moment to suit the convenience or caprice of our Ottawa rulers. It is therefore quite opportune to put in an answer to the very pertinent question put by the organ-grinder of the representative of North Wellington in the Commons of Canada, and to the opinion of the Electors of this Riding entertain of the votes and speeches (save the mark) of our chosen political guardian during the past five years. In 1867, misled by false issues and deceived by plausible but fallacious appeals, North Wellington unfortunately sent to Ottawa a political nondescript, without political faith, honor, belief, knowledge, or conscience, a dumb automaton voting machine, that grunted out Aye or Nay at every resolution of the Ottawa Coalition, or the nod of its drivers, Cartier and Macdonald; for all the scandals perpetrated by the Ottawa cabal during the past five years have been slavishly endorsed by the votes of G. A. We might go back to the earliest divisions in the House of Commons in support of our statement, but shall leave the Inter-colonial Jobbery, the Tupper-McNab bribery, the Nova-Scotia subsidy, and a score of other scandalous acts of bribery, corruption and public immorality for the present, and confine our remarks to a few of the flagitious acts which have taken place during the session that has just ended, and are still fresh in the memories of the electors of North Wellington. The first party division took place on the 6th of May, on certain resolutions condemnatory of the withdrawal of the Fenian Raid Claims from the Washington Treaty. For years our people and Province have been kept in a state of alarm and long-continued excitement by Fenian marauders from the United States, and Canada has been compelled to tax her people to the extent of several millions of dollars in organizing our militia and protecting our frontier; but worse than all, the best and ablest blood of our Province has been poured out and still calls for vengeance. Yet John A., pandering to Tanqueray's master, did not consider that the interests of the Dominion would be promoted by an expression of opinion on the subject! How did our fire-eating loyal representative, G. A. Drew, vote in this matter? Obeying the call or starting at the lash of his master, he voted thus down.—What think you, loyalists, of your chosen political guardian? On the 17th of May that notorious Comedy of Errors, the Washington Treaty, was read a second time. The great majority of the electors of this Riding are too well acquainted with its provisions to need any explanation of ours. It is sufficient to know, that to satisfy American claims for the Alabama depredations, transactions with which the Canadians had as little to do as the inhabitants of the Moon, for it is a well known fact that Canada had no share in the interests of the Dominion, nor in any act hostile to the Government of the United States; yet Sir John A. Macdonald, "Honeying at the whispering of a lord," puts his hand on behalf of our Dominion to a treaty that lacks the first essential of a public agreement—that of equity—surrendering to the Americans the most inexhaustible mine of wealth on the face of the globe, our Fisheries, and adding insult to injury, coolly informs us that an equivalent England is willing to endorse our note to the amount of $2,500,000. How did our precious natural born Statesman from North Wellington perform his duty to his country on the occasion? Glorying in having a country to sell, or like a Spanish dragoon, with the whip cracking over his head, he bolted the 2,000 miles of railway, money and land, and voted down these constitutional requirements. Electors of North Wellington, what think you of the political morality or conscience of G. A. Drew, your political guardian? On the 21st of May resolutions were submitted to Parliament providing that the route of the Pacific railway, and further providing that all contracts for this gigantic undertaking—an undertaking involving the immediate outlay of $30,000,000 and 50,000,000 acres of land—should, in accordance with our Ontario ideas of Responsible Government, be submitted for the approval of the people's representatives in Parliament assembled. How did that incarnation of political wisdom, G. A. Drew, perform his duty in this matter? Having the dread of losing the Inter-colonial advertising patronage at present extended to his sign board, and the whip cracking over his head, he bolted the 2,000 miles of railway, money and land, and voted down these constitutional requirements. Electors of North Wellington, what think you of the political morality or conscience of G. A. Drew, your political guardian? On the 22nd of May the bill providing that all the elections at a General Election should take place on the same day, as is done in the local elections of Ontario, where the system is adopted and approved by universal assent; and on the day the bill providing for the independence of the Senate were submitted to the Commons. Electors of Wellington, is there any justice in the case of a man in Minto assessed for $1,000, and another assessed for $800 but spread at the rate of $200 in four different Counties, the former having but one vote while the wandering speculator may have four votes? Electors, is it in keeping with Responsible Government, that members of the Senate should hold offices of emolument and receive bribes as wages? Sir J. A. Macdonald, as the grand-master of bribery and corruption, moved the six months' hiatus; and how did our immaculate G. A. Drew show his detestation of bribery and corruption? At the command of his master, being whipped into line, he voted Aye! Electors of North Wellington, what think you of your guardian angel, as a protector against bribery and corruption? On the 23rd of May, on the second reading of the controversial Elections Bill, framed for the purpose of having all controversial elections tried before our Judges, in whom Reformers and Tories alike have full confidence, as is the practice in England, and has been proven to work so admirably in Ontario, instead of a packed Parliamentary Committee. Eleators of Wellington, most of you can remember how the late Chas. Allan, when your member, was unseated by the single vote of one of Cartier's tall from Rimouski. But Sir John A. determined to keep open the flood-gates of corruption, moved the six months' hoist. How did the incorruptible G. A. Drew vote? Looking ahead and fearing he might have some little job on his own hook with such a Committee some day or other, he lent his aid to defeat this much needed measure of justice and voted.

Eleators of North Wellington, what think you of your honest political guardian? During the last days of the Session the Re-distribution Bill was introduced and forced through Parliament. Now if there were a measure conceived in sin and framed in iniquity it was this so-called Distribution Bill. Sir John A. set to work to manufacture a new map of our Province by cutting and carving up counties to suit the taste of his followers, doling out tit-bits as the palate of his political epicures demanded; the plan put forward in defence was that several constituencies were too small, while the happy little Government rotten pocket boroughs of Cornwall and Niagara were left intact, places containing from 3,000 to 7,000 each. No less than three different amendments were moved from the sides of the House, for the purpose of modifying this scandalous piece of legislation, but without effect—the slavish tools of a most corrupt minister, were like a pack of hungry curs gaping for a bone from their master's table.

How did that lover of fair play and political honesty, G. A. Drew, vote? Hoping to increase his majority, and receiving as an instalment for wages due the lopping off the Township of Peel from North Wellington, he voted down every effort made towards a fair and equitable distribution. Eleators of North Wellington, what think you of this simon pure as a political guardian?

Eleators of North Wellington, we flatter ourselves that we are too well acquainted with our inherent love of principle and good government, to believe that you will ever again allow yourself to be misrepresented in the Commons of our Dominion, by such a political character as G. A. Drew has proven himself, and who is already canvassing the Riding by distributing handfulls of half-dimes to our babies, and sums of a much larger amount to every gang of men he engages at their sly labor. But then you must bear in mind that his master has the keeping of $250,000 secret money unaccounted for.

Fellow electors, Colonel Higinbotham, the unanimous choice of the Reformers, is before you, an educated gentleman, a prosperous and successful merchant, well-versed in commercial and municipal law, and thoroughly conversant with the wants of the Riding; and no dummy, but the unflinching advocate of right and just principles. Then rally round him, and let us only checkmate G. A. Drew's game of corruption and his majority, as did his Ontario counterpart, will fall to pieces like a rope of sand, and place the gallant Colonel at the head of the poll. We commend the above bag of nuts to the admirers of that paragon of political wisdom and eloquence to crack at their leisure, and when properly digested, we think their stomachs can bear a little more, they shall not be disappointed in a second course, but shall hear from your BOTSWAY CORRESPONDENT.

Reform Meeting To-morrow.

We would remind our Reform friends in the Town of the meeting to be held in the Town Hall to-morrow at 2 p. m. We trust to see a good attendance of Reformers both from Town and County.

Only Half of the Information Furnished.

The Elora Times publishes a letter from Mr. McGowan, in which he states that he paid the duty on the double furrow plough which he imported from Scotland last fall, and with this little bit of information the Times piteously asks us to be satisfied. Not by any means friend Times, not till we are informed when and to whom Mr. McGowan paid the duty. We don't intend to let Mr. Drew out of the scrape by any such ingenious evasion of the main question at issue.

The Times in order to put its readers on a false scent, puts some very foolish queries respecting the quantity of whiskey Mr. Higinbotham paid duty for while doing business for a few months in Elora. We can confidently refer the Times to the office of Inland Revenue for every information on this point, as the officers belonging to that department are thoroughly efficient, and are well able to answer the question. At the same time we would also suggest to the Times to inquire at the same office how often his own political and personal friends have been in a tight place in connection with the manufacture of whiskey, and through whose instrumentalities and political influence they were relieved. We would advise the Times to see that the skirts of his own friends are clear before he seeks to bring the names of other innocent parties on the carpet. Such insinuations show what desperate straits the Times and the little clique who rules it have got into. Mr. Drew's chances must be getting hopeless indeed, when he resorts to such weapons, and when the Times in his interest employs them in his behalf.

An Infamous Slander.

The Elora Times of last week accuses Mr. McKim of hawking Mr. Higinbotham through the North Riding for some time back, and "lending his powerful influence to secure that gentleman's election," and this is how he is doing it according to the Times—A number of the settlers in the townships composing the North Riding being in arrears with the Government and not yet having taken out their patents, Mr. McKim has visited a number of such and told them if they voted for Mr. Higinbotham he would guarantee that the price of their land would be reduced." It goes on to say "we do not make this charge unduly, we have the names of men who were approached in this manner by Mr. McKim, and now make no bones about saying that such an offer was made to them by that unscrupulous person. One man in the South end of Maryboro' told the whole to a friend of ours, but the man is shrewd enough to have the deed before he sells himself. In Luther and Amaranth the same game is being played."

To the above we have to say on the very best authority, that there is not a word of truth in it from beginning to end, and we challenge the Times to name one single individual whom Mr. McKim visited and tried to influence in the manner above stated. We must not let the Times shuffle out of this charge. We dare him to give the names, times and places, and other information. We know well he cannot do it, and these charges are only trumped up and used as the basest kind of electioneering arguments. Up to the present time Mr. McKim has not been out a single day electioneering for or with Mr. Higinbotham. He never spoke to a single elector about his land in connection with the election, nor did he even try to gain any man's vote by making any promise whatever that the price of his land would be reduced.

The Times utters but one grain of truth in the above slanders. It speaks about Mr. McKim's powerful influence. We are glad to know that it has such a high opinion of his influence, and we have also pleasure in informing our contemporary that Mr. McKim's "powerful influence" will from this out be used for Mr. Higinbotham. It will be entirely too powerful for Mr. Drew, as he will find out before long. But Mr. McKim, while exerting every legitimate influence at his command, will never descend to such immoral work as the Times accuses him of, but will limit that to his opponents, who are not at all particular as to what kind of means they employ, if they only answer the purpose intended.

Election News.

The Orangeville Sun says that in Cardwell there may be a triangular contest for legislative honours. Mr. Harris the nominee of the Liberal Conservative Convention, is to be opposed, contrary to all expectation, by Mr. Coyne, a once pledged supporter, and Liberal Conservative; and the Reformers, imagining that a split in the Conservative ranks will be the result, talk of holding a convention and also nominating a candidate. Mr. Fleming, a lawyer of Brampton, is spoken of as their standard-bearer.

The same paper says that matters in South Simcoe seem somewhat muddled. It was generally understood that an arrangement had been effected between Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Little, whereby the former would run for the General and the latter for the Local Legislature; but if such arrangement ever existed, it has been abruptly terminated by Mr. Little offering himself for re-election to the General Legislature, leaving Mr. Ferguson to oppose him. What Mr. Ferguson will do in this dilemma it is difficult to understand; rumor one day has it that he will oppose Mr. Little, the next that he will seek re-election in Cardwell, and lastly that he will retire altogether from the General Legislature—a consummation devoutly to be wished.

At a convention of delegates representing the Reformers of the East Riding of Peterboro', Mr. Evan Ingram, late warden of the County, received the unanimous nomination. He is an able man, highly respected by all classes, and will achieve a victory over Graver, the Conservative candidate.

A Reform convention, to nominate a candidate for the Commons for South Perth was held at St. Marys on Saturday. All the municipalities were fully represented, over 40 delegates being present. Thomas Ballantyne, Reeve of Downie, was unanimously nominated, no other candidate being proposed. Mr. Ballantyne requested a few days to consider before giving the decision. Should he accept, his election is certain.

TERRIBLE AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—A terrible accident occurred in Hotchkiss & Co.'s sawmills, Collingwood, on Saturday evening, resulting in the instant death of a millwright, named Robert Reid. While engaged filing the three-edging circulars, the engine running at the time, the pole which held up the belt was accidentally knocked out, and the saw instantly set in motion. Reid's right leg and arm were cut off, and he was otherwise mutilated, presenting one of the most shocking sights ever witnessed. The deceased leaves a wife and two children, and was highly respected. He never spoke after the accident.

FAREWELL SERMON.—The Rev. Mr. Gregg, pastor of Cooke's Church, Toronto, having been lately appointed to the Professorship of Apologetics in Knox College, took leave of his congregation on Sunday by preaching a farewell sermon. Having been pastor of the church for fifteen years, during which time there has been the utmost harmony between him and his congregation, it was natural that both preacher and audience should appear considerably affected by the solemnity of the occasion.

BRILLIANTS.

I will throw off this dead and useless past, As a strong runner, straining for his life, Unclasps a mantle to the hungry wind,
Alexander Smith.
 LOVER'S SEPARATION.
 O, for a falconer's voice,
 To lure this tassel-gentle back again!
 Bondage is horrid, and may not speak aloud;
 Else would I tear the cave whose Echo lies,
 And make her airy tongue more hoarse than mine
 With repetition of my Romeo's name.
Shakespeare.
 BEAUTY.
 Who hath not proved how feebly words essay
 To fix one spark of beauty's heavenly ray?
 Who doth not feel, until his falling sight
 Faints into dizziness, with its own delight,
 His changing cheek, his sinking heart confess
 The might—the majesty of loveliness?
Byron.
 A PERFECT WOMAN.
 A being breathing thoughtful breath,
 A traveller between life and death;
 The reason firm, the temperance will,
 Endurance, foresight, strength and skill;
 A perfect woman, nobly planned,
 To warn, to comfort, and to command;
 And yet a spirit still, and bright,
 With something of angelic light.
Wordsworth.
 TIME.
 Yes, and the sailless worlds, which navigate
 The unutterable deep that hath no shore,
 Will lose their starry splendors, soon or late,
 Like tapers quenched by him whose will is fate!
 Yes, and the angel of eternity
 Who numbers worlds, and writes their names
 in light,
 One day, O earth! I will look in vain for thee,
 And start and stop in his uttering flight
 And with the wings of sorrow and affright
 Vell his impassion'd brow and heavenly tears.
Shelley Elliot.

The Foster Brother;

The Orphan of the Wreck.
CHAPTER IV.
THE TWO BROTHERS—THE FACTOR'S JOURNEY
—HOMEWARD BOUND.
 This little bit of soliloquising gives the reader an idea of the character of Matthew Greigson, the factor on the estate of Ardgowan. A simple, honest, upright man was Matthew—clear-headed and warm-hearted—a straight-forward man; a man of integrity and probity. He was the manager of the estate when George Morrar bought it; and the West Indian planter had sense enough to see his worth and retain his services. The principle on which he managed was those of justice and liberality—justice towards the landlord, and liberality towards the tenants, whose rights he respected, and whose reasonable requests he never failed to give effect to. Every one had confidence in him, and respected him; his advice was asked in all emergencies; and his opinion and judgment were deferred to in most agricultural matters. Matthew Greigson was the friend of all, and all were friendly disposed towards him.
 Such was the man, and such were his forebodings of the coming reign of Stephen Gibson at Ardgowan. The journey from Aberdeenshire to Ayrshire, so easily and speedily accomplished now-a-days, was a tedious undertaking at the time when the events of our story were in progress. Matthew Greigson required to perform it in a gig, and, as a horse had to accompany him, it was the afternoon of the second day when he drove up at the gate of the cottage in which Kenneth and Lucy had their temporary abode.
 The appearance of the factor, and the sable plumes of the hearse nodding along the road, did not give them any surprise. They had on that day, and even on the day before, expected some such an arrival, and it was with a grave composed air that Kenneth walked down the garden to meet Matthew, whom he knew quite well, and with whom he had always been on friendly terms.
 "Oh, Mr. Bruce, Mr. Bruce, this is a sad business," burst out Matthew, as he came forward and took Kenneth's outstretched hand.
 "Very sad indeed, Mr. Greigson. There have been great changes in Glenfask since we left in the spring."
 "Ay, sir, very great; but this is the worst of it." Mr. Morrar's time was run, but pair Master George to be cut off so sudden, and in such a cruel way. Yonder, I suppose, are the rocks where the wreck took place."
 "Yes—yonder. You could not fancy, looking at them now, that such a dire calamity could have happened; but when the sea is in storm they present a terrible sight. Come into the cottage. Yonder is Lucy waiting in the porch to meet you."
 The sight of Matthew brought tears to Lucy's eyes, and Matthew himself, when he saw her standing in the doorway with her baby in her arms and George at her side, required to cough down his emotion.
 On the latter he bent a sad pitiful look. "What a bonny barn," he exclaimed; "is this the little orphan you saved from the wreck, Mr. Bruce?"
 "How did you know that?" asked Kenneth; "I wrote nothing of the kind to Ardgowan."
 "I read the full account in a Glasgow paper."
 "Ah, yes; I forgot. A gentleman did comes and was supplied with all the particulars. But tell me, what instructions do you bring about the funeral?"

"No instructions at all, sir," answered Matthew, as he sorrowfully shook his head. "I have come to take the body to Aridgewan. His death makes Captain Stephen master there now, and he orders me to travel night and day. So, if you please, I shall call up the men, and we will carry the coffin to the hearse."

"Did my cousin send no message with you?" asked Lucy, in surprise.

"No, Mrs. Bruce, I am sorry to say he sent no message. I thought it might be an overlook on his part, and asked him if he had none to send, and he said—'No.'"

"Not even to say when the funeral was to take place?" persisted Lucy.

"No, mam, not even that."

"Cruel, oh, cruel and heartless!" she murmured. "Is this a time for showing the old pride? And in the circumstances, too, Kenneth should be at the funeral."

"And so I shall," said Kenneth, firmly.

"As representing you, I have as much right to attend the funeral as your cousin and they shall not hinder me," said Matthew. "I will go to-morrow," he added, addressing the factor, "and I shall take my rightful place by the side of George's grave."

Matthew, faithful to the instructions he had received, would scarcely wait to take the body to Aridgewan, and within an hour of his arrival the body was taken out and placed in the hearse under the eyes of the silent spectators who had come up from the village.

In silence, too, Matthew took his leave, and the hearse and the gig went away at a slow pace along the road.

BREAKFAST—EPP'S COCOA—GREATLY AND GAINFULLY. Each packet is labeled "James Epps & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

The cathartics used and approved by the physicians of all the various medical associations of this State are now compounded and sold under the name of Parson's Purgative Pills.

To persons employed in constant mental toil, study or anxiety, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites is especially adapted, namely to Teachers, Clergymen, Editors, Lawyers and importunate business men.

We copy the following from an exchange which is important, if true—Chronic diarrhoea of long standing, also dysentery and all similar complaints common at this season of the year can be cured by the use internally of John's Anodyne Liniment. We know whereof we affirm.

No intelligent mind can fail to observe how the various and ever varying wants of the community are attended to by the enterprising merchants of Guelph. Instancing Hardware, in Mr. Horsman's Establishment, so noted for many years as the Emporium of everything in his line of business, it is somewhat astonishing to take a comprehensive view of the variety of his stock: Guns, Pistols, Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, House Furnishings, Floor Oil Cloth, Mats, Ivory Table Cutlery, Plated Ware, Bird Cages, Flower Baskets, Smoking Irons, Tea Trays, Wringers, Mangles, Lamp Mechanics' tools. Besides the great assortment of Farming Implements, Seythes, Snaiths, Bakes, Forks, Hoes, Building and General Shell and Heavy Hardware, Oils, Paints, Colors, Varnishes. One gets from this a slight idea of what it is to carry on with enterprising spirit a large Wholesale & Retail Hardware Establishment. Every want for House, Farm, Trade or Manufactory can be supplied Wholesale and retail at Mr. Horsman's. See advertisement.
