The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Library Canadian History Department

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Library Canadian History Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un soul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

From the Rev. Dr. Hill,

Professor of Divinity in the University of Glasgow.

Mr. John McIlraith, Preacher of the Gospel, prosecuted his Theological studies under me, and very much to my satisfaction. He was always regular, attentive and diligent; so that, judging from his behaviour as a Student, and from what I know of his general character, I consider him likely to prove a conscientious and faithful M.n.ster of Christ. His laborious application obtained for him various rewards while a Student, and I believe that few young men have gone from this Hall, better turnished with Theological knowledge, or more deeply impressed with the importance of Divine truth.

ALEXANDER HILL, D. D., Professor of Divinity.

Glasgow College, Nov. 16th, 1848.

From the Rev. Dr. Gray,

Late Professor of Oriental Languages in the University of Glasgow.

Mr. John McIlraith, Preacher of the Gospel, has been favorably known to me for some years past. As a Student in my classes he was uniformly distinguished by the ability and industry with which he applied himself to his studies, of which acknowledgment was made by several prizes being awarded to him. His conduct was, in an especial manner, marked as most exemplary. I believe him to be evangelical in his views of Divine truth, sincerely pious, and auxious to be useful. I have not heard him preach; but I think him possessed in no ordinary degree of those qualifications, moral and literary, which will render him, under the Divine blessing, an excellent and acceptable Minister of the Gospel.

GEORGE GRAY, D. D.

Glasgow College, 16th Nov., 1848.

From Dr. Reid.

Late Professor of Ecclesiastical History in the University of Glasgow.

I hereby certify that Mr. John McIlraith was enrolled a Student of Ecclesiastical History in this University, on the 7th November, 1845; that he attended to the date hereof without having been absent from a single Lecture; that he performed the business of the Class with remarkable d'ligence, and obtained a prize for a critical essay; and that his conduct was in all respects satisfactory and becoming.

From Dr. Reid .--- No. 2.

I hereby certify that Mr. John McIlraith was enrolled a Student in the Class of Ecclesiastical History in this University, on the 9th of November, 1846; that he attended to the date hereof, without having been absent from a single lecture; that he performed the business with such exemplary diligence, that he obtained a class prize for general eminence during the session; and that his conduct was, in all respects, becoming and satisfactory.

J. SEATON REID,

Prof. Eccle. History.

Glasgow College, April 21st, 1847.

From Dr. Couper.

Professor of Natural History in the University of Glasgow.

I hereby certify that Mr. John McIlraith was a very distinguished Student of Natural History during the Session 1846-'47, both in regard to the knowledge he displayed in the examinations on the general business of the Class, but more especially in so far as he obtained the prizes, for the two most important essays prescribed during the Session.

From the Rev. John Johnston, M. A.,

Minister of the Parish of Old Monkland.

OLD MONKLAND, MANSE, Nov. 20th, 1849.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the excellent charrager and distinguished attainments of Mr. John McIlraith, Preacher of the Goages. He possesses talents of a superior order, and has cultivated these with greet and unremitting industry. He has obtained many honors during his course at College. His annual examinations, since he came before the Presbytery, have elicited the approbation of all who have been present at them; and the warmest commendation was bestowed on the discourses which he delivered to the Presbytery before receiving licence. I feel confident that he will prove a valuable workman in the vineyard of the Lord; that he will preach the truth faithfully; that he will set it forth acceptably; and discharge all the duties which may devolve on him laboriously.

JOHN JOHNSTON, Min.

From the Rev. Robert Archibald, Minister of the Parish of New Monkland.

NEW MONKLAND MANSE, 20th Nov., 1848.

I have much pleasure in bearing my humble testimony in favor of Mr. John Mcliraith, Preacher of the Gospel, and a native of this Parish. From his youth he has conducted himself with the strictest propriety, and has been in defastigable in the prosecution of his studies for the office of the Holy Ministry. He applied some time ago to the Presbytery of Hamilton, with the character of having been a very diligent and successful Student at College, a character which he fully sustained in all his Presbyterial trials. The questions which were put to him in Literature, Philosophy, Church History, and Theology, were answered in such a manner as to prove that he was possessed of a large

Since Mr. McIlraith's appearance in public, I have not had the pleasure of hearing him; but, from my own personal know-ledge of his character, talents and attainments, I have not the least doubt but he will prove an able, faithful and acceptable Minister of the Gospel, wherever God, in his Providence, may cast his lot.

> ROBERT ARCHIBALD. Min. of New Monkland.

From the Rev. William M. Watt. Minister of the Parish of Shotte.

MANSE OF SHOTTS, 18th Nov., 1848.

Mr. John McIlraith, Preacher of the Gospel, has been intimately known to me for many years, and I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to his excelent character as a man, and a Christinn. He is possessed of very high natural talents and abilities, which he has been careful to cultivate and improve. He distinguished himself as a Student at the University of Glasgow, as those who knew him had every reason to expect he would, but especially in the Theological knew him had every reason to expect he would, but especially in the Theological course did he carry off a very large number of the highest honours. I have not yet had an opportunity of hearing him preach in public, as he has been but recently licenced, but having heard him deliver the whole of his trial discourses before the Preabytery, all of which elicited high approbation. I have no doubt he will prove a sound, able and popular preacher. It is, therefore, with the utmost confidence, that he may be recommended as likely to become, under the blessing of God, a zealous and efficient Minister of the Word of Truth, in any Parish to which he, in Providence, may be called.

WILLIAM M. WATT, Min.

From the Rev. James S. Johnston,

Minister of the Parish of Cambuslana.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the character and qualifica-tions of Mr. John McIlraith, Preacher of the Gospel. He is a young man of whom I formed a very favorable opinion from the first time of his appearance before the Presbytery, for examination, previous to his entering the Divinity Hall. During his Theological Curriculum, I have had frequent opportunities of marking his character and dispositions, as well as his zeal and success in the prosecution of his studies. His disposition is amiable and obliging, his character, in every way, such as becomes his profession, and the position which he holds in the estimation of his Professors, and all who have known markly in the contraction of his Professors, and all who have known that the contraction of his professors, and all who have known that the contraction of his professors, and all who have known that the contraction of his professors are the contraction of his professors. anything of his talents, and past devotedness to study, is such as to afford the best prospect of future success.

He has frequently carried high honours at the University, where he was well known as a distinguished Student. After undergoing the trials in languages and literature, prescribed by the forms of our Church, in all of which he acquitted himself to the satisfaction of the Presbytery, he obtained licence on Tussay last, and I am persuaded that he enters on the work now before him, resolved to consecrate his talents and acquirements to the highest interests of man, in preaching fully and faithfully, the Gospel of salvation.

JAMES S. JOHNSTON, Minister of Cambuslang.

From the Rev. J. S. Memes, L. L. D.

Minister of Hamilton.

MANSE OF HAMILTON, NOV. 21, 1848.

I feel much satisfaction in expressing my high opinion of the character and elerical attainments of Mr. John McItratth. Though very recently licenced to preach the Gospel, Mr McIlraith in every trial and appearance before the Presbytery, has evinced such powers of mind and so ripe a scholarship as war. rant the auticipation of a distinguished and successful career in the service of his blessed Master.

My particular impressions, from examinations in which I have seen few equal, and none surpass, Mr. McIlraith, were that he possesses power of illustration and fertility of resource in reasoning, well adapted to form the popular preach er, and which, noder grace, cannot fail to render him acceptable as a faithful teacher, strikingly and impressively setting forth the truth. I marked, at the same time, in all his compositions, a correctness of taste, carefully matured by study, and well calculated to restrain a vigorous imagination within the chaste limits of a just and christian oratory.

In short, from the attai ments which he displayed as already acquired, no less than from his native talents, and the studious habits which I learn have characterised his past life, I feel warranted in expressing well grounded, though high, expectations of Mr. McIlraith's future eminence and usefulness.

> J. S. MEMES, L. L. D., Minister of Hamilton.

From the Rev. James McCulloch, D. D.,

Minister of Greenock.

GREENOCK, APRIL 19th, 1854.

I consider the Rev. John McIlraith to be eminently qualified both by personal character and by professional gifts for the office of a parochial Minister.

To sincere piety and great curistian worth, Mr. McIlraith adds an ardent and enlightened zeal for the cause of the Gospel, and the best interests of men; and his acquirements, both literary and theological, are varied and extensive. He is also an able, instructive and acceptable Preacher; while there are few who surpass him in the earnest and untiring performance of the duties connected with pastoral visitation.

Wherever he has hitherte laboured, Mr. McIlraith has recommended himself to the affectionate respect of the people committed to his charge, by his able and faithful discharge of his professional duties. And from what I know of his character, temper, habits, talents, and attainments, I feel consident that he has only to be placed in a parochial charge, in order speedily to prove himself one of the most active and efficient Ministers of the Church of Scotland.

J. McCULLOCH.

Minister.

From the Rev. Mathew Cochrane, Minister of St. Peter's Parish, Glasgow.

GLASGOW, 12th APRIL, 1854.

The Rev. John McIlraith has been known to me for many years. I have had frequent opportunities of hearing him preach; and I am able to say that in my opinion, he professes pulpit gits of no mean order. His views of Christian doctrine are sound and practical, while his felicitous mode of illustration, and his earnest manner of delivery, seldom fail both to interest and instruct the people.

REVD J. McIlbath:

MY DEAR FRIEND:

WITH THIS YOUR M. S.

I have read your treatise on Hebrew Syntax, which, if in some parts more enlarged, would prove a benefit to the Student.

You ought to overcome your diffidence, and boldly give it to the printer, bearing in mind, that your knowledge of the Hebrew language belongs to the Church.

Most truly yours,
