GERMANY REFUSES JAPAN'S ULTIMATUM

BRUSSELS CALMLY AWAITS GERMAN ENTRY

PARTIES STAND TOGETHER FOR DEFENCE OF EMPIRE MEASURES ARE APPROVED

BELGIANS GIVING WAY SLOWLY DECOYING GERMANS FROM BASE AND USING BRUSSELS AS TRAP

Sir Robert Borden Paid Tribute to Laurier, Who Declared That All Canadians Must Stand by the Empire to Death—Premier's Earnest Appeal That Peril Must Be Met Unflinchingly Was Applauded Tumultuously.

OTTAWA, August 19.—The galleries of the house were crowded this afternoon almost to suffocation with the great throng anxious to hear the opening debate of the session. Nearly every member was in his seat, and all seemed conscious that they were taking an historic part in the most momentous chapter of Canadian history. Donald Sutherland, of South Oxford, who moved, and D. O. Laperriere, of Montserrat, who seconded the address delivered speeches, carefully prepared and as no time was wasted for a moment from their text. Both dwell upon the duty of the country to care for the families of the men who were about to risk their lives in battle for Canada and the empire, and upon the wonderful unanimity of sentiment which had united all the states of the empire and for the time had obliterated factional and political differences in Ireland, in Great Britain, in Canada and in every nation under the Union Jack.

Non-Partisan Applause
When Sir Wilfrid Laurier rose in his place as leader of the opposition he was greeted with tumultuous applause by his party followers, in which many members of the government and a number of legislative members joined heartily. He at once declared that in the presence of a great national peril and danger to the empire, all party differences must be forgotten. "I say now what I have often said before," he asserted, "that when England is in danger—not in danger but when her strength is tested—Canada must stand by her to the death. We are British subjects and we must accept the responsibility and even the perils of that citizenship, as we have for so many years accepted its benefits."

Canada's Ports Menaced

Sir Wilfrid warned the house that the issue of war was always uncertain and that while Canada was in no danger of invasion, yet her maritime ports were subject to the raids of audacious corsairs. Very delicately, but unmistakably, he suggested that some provision should have been made before now for the more adequate defence of our coasts and harbours. The was, perhaps, by way of answer to a passing reference by Mr. Sutherland to the poor showing Canada had made in the past toward contributing to imperial defence. Except for these references, nothing was said on either side during the entire debate to recall the stormy party strife which for years past has cluttered about the navy questions and Canada's duty in the way of imperial defence.

Indicted Kaiser Strongly

Sir Wilfrid's speech was largely devoted to an indictment of the German Kaiser and his lust for conquest and power. The war now in progress, he declared, was the struggle of liberty against oppression, of democracy against autocracy, and of civilization against that return to barbarous times when the mad ambition of one man could drive a great nation of intelligent people into a cruel and unjust war. The opposition would not quarrel with the methods of the government, but would give these measures most hearty acquiescence and support. The answer of united Canada to the appeal of the mother country was, "Ready, aye, ready."

Premier Deeply Moved

A whirlwind of applause welcomed the prime minister when he rose to reply. He spoke with deep feeling and earnestness, pleading the justice of Britain's cause in the present contest, which he characterized as "the first general European war in a century, and the most appalling war in the history of the world." No government, he declared, had ever labored more

HONOR OF CANADA IS AT STAKE SOLEMN PLEDGE WILL BE KEPT

In closing a notable speech Premier Borden said: "As to our duty, all are agreed; we stand shoulder to shoulder with Britain and the other British dominions in this quarrel. And that duty we shall not fail to fulfil as the honor of Canada demands, not for love of battle, not for lust of conquest, nor for greed of possessions, but for the cause of honor, to maintain solemn pledges to uphold principles of liberty, to withstand forces that would convert the world into an armed camp, yea, in the very name that we sought peace at any cost, save that of dishonor, we have entered into this war, and while gravely conscious of the tremendous issues involved, and of all the sacrifices that may entail, we do not shrink from them, but with firm hearts we abide the event."

WILL INCREASE ISSUE OF NOTES

Additional Twenty Millions to Be Raised on Twenty-Five Per Cent. Gold Reserve.

OTTAWA, Aug. 19.—The minister of finance has given notice of an important resolution authorizing an increased issue of Dominion notes on the gold security now held in the treasury. This will enable the government to a considerable extent to finance the $50,000,000 appropriation for war purposes. The resolution provides that Dominion notes may be issued up to $50,000,000 with only 25 per cent of the amount held in gold in the treasury. At present the act provides that a total issue of thirty millions only shall be against a treasury holding of 25 per cent of this amount in gold. Above an issue of $50,000,000 of Dominion notes the amount held in gold must be equal to all such excess over the amounting bill. If parliament passes the bill the Dominion will be able to issue $20,000,000 in Dominion notes by placing $5,000,000 in gold in the treasury and this will mean an extension of the Dominion credit by $15,000,000.

SEEKING TO PREVENT INDUSTRIAL PARALYSIS

French Ministers of War and Agriculture Exert Strong Efforts.

Canadian Press Despatch.
PARIS, August 19, 3 p.m.—The French minister of war and agriculture have adopted measures for the protection of blooded cattle and horses to be used for breeding purposes. An effort in this direction will be the opening of certain industrial establishments which have shut their doors, and the prevention of the closing of others. The director of foreign commerce has been instructed to see if he cannot take some steps toward the conquest of German markets and in the interest of French manufacturers.

CABINET IS DEBATING ON WAYS AND MEANS TO AID RELIEF OF WAR DISTRESS

Dominion and Provincial Parliaments to Arrange Continuance of Factory Business—Back to the Farm Movement Will Be Organized in Ontario, by Hon. James Duff.

A plan of tremendous significance in the present condition of social and industrial unrest, and involving if carried out the successful solution of a host of the domestic difficulties about to face breadwinners in Canada during the fall and winter months, is at the present time obtaining the consideration of the Ontario and Dominion cabinets. In a few days it will be laid before every province in the Dominion, and the hope is that it will culminate in the formation of a great organization designed to provide temporary work for the unemployed and to grant a means of livelihood to the hundreds who are today on the streets. Already a small committee of prominent Ontario men has been arranged, and last evening led by W. K. McNaught, ex-M.L.A., they left for Ottawa to confer with Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues as to the best means of organization. The venture has not been entered upon without serious deliberation. It has been understood for several weeks that certain men have been studying the probable effect of the European war on Canadian conditions, and this move is the outcome. Already tangible suggestions are forthcoming, and it is learned that following the exposition of the idea of the Provincial Cabinet in Queen's Park yesterday, unanimous endorsement followed. Keep Factories Open. One of the things that will be urged is the continuance of factory business.

REPORT DISHONEST MERCHANTS

There are some merchants in Toronto who are so dead to any sense of decency or patriotic feeling that they are trying to make money out of the war by increasing the cost of the necessities of life, for which there is no justification. The quickest cure for this evil is publicity. While The World has received many letters on the subject we have not had anything definite as to who the guilty people really are. If you find you are being overcharged by any provision dealer write to The World at once, giving the instance, stating the dealer's full name and address, tell what article you were overcharged for and what the overcharge amounted to. A published list of dealers who are robbing the public will soon put an end to the practice. Details of any other cases where the writers think an injustice has been done them, also will be published.

VALCARTIER CAMP STAFF

OTTAWA, Aug. 19.—The camp staff at Valcartier was announced tonight as follows: Camp commandant, Col. Victor A. S. Williams, adjutant-general, general staff officer, Lieut.-Col. H. E. Burnett, Lieut.-Col. R. A. Helmer, Major H. Korman, deputy administrative staff, Col. E. W. Turner, Major G. E. Hughes, Major T. F. Homer Dixon, Capt. G. T. Hamilton, camp engineer, Major A. P. Derouche, supply officer, Lieut.-Col. J. N. R. Guay, transport officer, Lieut.-Col. W. Cowan, director medical services, Lieut.-Col. H. H. Duff, chief ordnance officer, Major W. Halliday, paymaster, Major C. N. Sharley, chief veterinary officer, Lieut.-Col. W. J. Neill.

Germany Refuses Japan's Demands

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—It was authoritatively announced this evening that the German Government has decided to reject the ultimatum delivered by Japan that Germany restore to China Kiaochow and Tsingtau before next Sunday or suffer the consequences of such steps as Japan may deem necessary to take in the event of a refusal.

POPE PIUS X.

Head of the Roman Catholic Church, who died this morning, aged 79.

Object is to Gain Time for British and French Troops to Reach the Battle Line—Big Battle is on Along the Fifty Miles Between Diest and Dinant—German Success Would Mean the Opening of a Road Toward Paris—Official Statement Says French Army, After Slow Progress, Has Reached Morhange and is Making Rapid Advance into Alsace-Lorraine—French Cavalry Defeated Germans at Florenville—Russian Force Defeated in East Prussia and 1000 Men and Six Guns Captured.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Advices from Brussels now indicate that a general battle between the Germans and the allied armies of France, Great Britain and Belgium is taking place along the fifty-mile line extending from Diest to Dinant. The heaviest fighting is reported to be at Gembloux, Jodoigne and Tirlemont. Unusually rigid censorship of despatches at this time adds to the probability of a general engagement. It is safe to assume that the Belgians are giving way slowly before the German onslaught, but in so doing they are evidently gaining the necessary time for the British to come up and for the French to extend their lines around Namur.

FRENCH STRATEGICAL PLAN.

It is believed here that part of the strategical plan of the French is to withdraw gradually before the German offensive, and in this way decoy the German columns into France toward the Rheims-La Fere-Lacon barrier forts, and all the time farther from their base, while, in the meantime, the French columns are advancing on the Rhine. The likelihood that the Belgians will not make so much resistance at Brussels, the late capital, as the Germans have been reporting, is growing into a firm belief here, the idea being that the Belgians are using the city as a trap for the Kaiser's men, and that while the Germans are rejoicing over the seizing of the Belgian City, the allies will be enabled to strike a blow which would mean the practical annihilation of all the German soldiery in and about Brussels. German success in the present general fighting would mean that the Kaiser will open a road toward Paris and into northern France. France is opening a way into south Germany and leading to Berlin. If the German offensive should fail, French armies would be nearer than the German forces in Belgium and northern France, both to the Rhine and Berlin.

CHANGES IN THE MAP.

Whichever side wins in the war, the map of Europe doubtless will undergo considerable change. It is generally conceded that territorial conditions in Europe cannot fully measure a victory either for the triple entente or for the Kaiser. The main changes, regarded from the viewpoint of vastness, would take place outside of Europe—especially in Africa. France has a colonial empire of four and three-quarter million square miles, with a native population of more than forty millions, more than nine-tenths of it in Africa. Germany's colonies are more than a million square miles, with a population of fourteen millions, nine-tenths of it in Africa. Belgium has the Congo, a solid empire of 900,000 square miles, rich in natural resources, with a population of 15,000,000. Should the Netherlands be drawn into the fray, they have their rich East Indian colonies at stake, 736,000 square miles, with a population of 38,000,000. Even Portugal, whose announcement of fidelity to the British alliance has now been made, has thrown into the ring nearly 800,000 square miles of African territory, with a population of nearly 10,000,000.

FRENCH OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—(10:55 p.m.)—The following official statement was given out tonight: "Latest advices are to the effect that the French army has reached Morhange, in Alsace-Lorraine, 19 miles southeast of Metz. Our advance was very rapid in the afternoon beyond the River Seille, especially the central part of our line. At the end of the day we reached Delme, on one side, and Morhange on the other. "There is little change in the situation in upper Alsace. We continue to advance in Vosges. The Germans have retaken the Village of Ville, where we had an outpost. Our troops, debouching on the Seille, have occupied Chateau Salins and Dieuse, but face well fortified and strongly held positions. Our progress at first was necessarily slow. "Our cavalry has had a successful encounter with the Germans at Florenville, Belgium. Very large German forces, it is announced, are crossing the Meuse between Liège and Namur. "One of the French brigadiers has asked the commander-in-chief to make public the following fact: The French Hussar made prisoner was dragged by German soldiers into an Alsatian village and his throat was cut before the villagers, who testify to the deed."

UNITED CANADA IS PLEDGED TO FIGHT FOR CAUSE OF HONOR

Cool Courage Displayed By the Amphion's Crew

When British Cruiser Struck German Mine Bridge Instantly Enveloped in Sheet of Flame—Captain on Recovering Consciousness Calmly Issued Orders Which Were Quietly Obeyed.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Aug. 19, 4:08 p.m.—The official bureau has issued an interesting account of the sinking of the British cruiser Amphion by a mine in the North Sea, which was first reported last week.

After describing how the Amphion and the third destroyer, which proceeded to carry out a prearranged plan of search, the report continues as follows:

"A trawler informed them that she had seen a suspicious ship throwing things overboard. Shortly afterwards the German mine layer Koenigin Luise was sighted steering east.

"Four destroyers gave chase and in about an hour's time she was rounded up and sunk.

"After picking up the survivors of the German ship the plan of search was carried out without incident until 3:30 in the morning. At this hour, as the Amphion, on her return course, was near the scene of the operations of the Koenigin Luise her course was altered to avoid the danger zone. This was successful until 6:30 a.m. at which hour the Amphion struck a mine.

Sheet of Flame.

"A sheet of flame instantly engulfed the bridge. The captain was rendered insensible, and he fell to the deck and off the bridge. As soon as the captain recovered consciousness he gave the engine room to stop the engines, which were still going at revolutions of 20 knots. As all the forward part of the Amphion was on fire it was hand impossible to reach the bridge or flood the fore magazine.

"Three minutes after the captain was broken and she was already settling down by the bows. All efforts, therefore, were directed to placing the wounded in places of safety in case of an explosion and in getting the cruiser in tow by the stern.

"By the time the destroyers had closed in it was clearly time to abandon the ship. The men fell in for this purpose with the same composure that had marked their behavior throughout. All was done without hurry or confusion, and 20 minutes after the cruiser struck the mine the men, the officers and lastly, the captain, had left the ship.

A Second Mine.

"Three minutes after the captain had left another explosion occurred. This enveloped and blew up the entire fore part of the vessel. The effect of this showed the Amphion must have struck a second mine, which exploded from the fore magazine. Debris falling from a great height struck the rescue boats and the destroyers, and one of the Amphion's shells burst on the deck of one of the destroyers, killing two Englishmen and one German prisoner.

"The after part of the Amphion then began to settle quickly, until its foremost section was on the bottom, and the whole after part was inclined to an angle of 45 degrees. In another quarter of an hour this also had disappeared.

"Capt. Cecil Fox of the Amphion, speaks in high terms of the behavior of his officers and men throughout. Every order was promptly obeyed without confusion or perturbation.

200 Wounded Soldiers Brought to Aberdeen Aug. 5th, Says Letter

A clergyman in the Earlscourt district has just received a letter from a friend in Aberdeen, Scotland, dated Aug. 5, in which he states that the day previous to writing, two hundred wounded men were brought into Aberdeen harbor and carried ashore.

They were placed in a girls' school house, which was hastily converted into a hospital.

The military authorities took possession of the city, cutting it off from the rest of the country, allowing no communication of any kind for two days. The lights of the city were turned off at night as also were the harbor lights and the light house.

The reverend gentleman received a cable message on Friday last, stating that the soldiers are moving everywhere. There is no music, and all is very quiet and serious.

NO NEED TO LEAVE BRUSSELS SO SOON

Minister Whitlock Reports to Washington Germans Are Not Close. ALL ELSE KEPT SECRET

U.S. Officials Are in Complete Ignorance of War Movements.

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Officials of the United States Government are in complete ignorance of what is happening on the battlefield of Europe as the general public. Not a single message—and American diplomats are in hourly communication from all European capitals—has come in the last five days giving the slightest hint of the developments of military operations. In fact, the only one of the American diplomatic officials who has any information is Minister Whitlock at Belgium reported that, although the seat of government had been moved to Antwerp, he saw no need of leaving Brussels for the present. From this it was inferred that the German forces were not yet close to the Belgian capital.

Diplomats in Dark.

The absence of information about the movement of the big armies is accounted for by officials as due to the fact that American diplomatic officials are so thoroughly absorbed in caring for stranded Americans that they are unable to make any calls at the different embassies or legations where news might be obtained. Ambassador Herick, in one of his messages, however, spoke of the fact that even diplomats were unable to learn of what was happening in the war zone beyond what was given out by the official press bureau, so strict was the censorship everywhere. From the far east the American Government had no despatches today, and the three messages from Ambassador Gerard telling of the war in the east, nothing was said by him as to the probable attitude of Germany toward the Japanese ultimatum commanding her to withdraw from Kiaochow.

SENTRY'S BULLET HIT WATCHMAN

Guardian of Fort William Elevator Fired at Two Foreigners.

Canadian Press Despatch. FORT WILLIAM, Aug. 19.—As a result of a shooting affray at 3 o'clock this morning, William Sleep, a Grand Trunk Pacific watchman, lies in McKellar Hospital in a serious condition with a bullet wound in his stomach. According to the story of an eyewitness, two foreigners were walking down the G.T.P. elevator towards the lake. They were challenged by the sentry at the elevator, and paying no heed to the warning, went on. The man who did not hit, and rowing away from the sentry were soon lost in the darkness. According to the sentry he fired two shots, one of which evidently went about twenty feet above the boat struck William Sleep while he was patrolling the G.T.P. freight dock about two hundred yards from the elevator.

At 6 o'clock the sergeant of the 96th Regiment detachment and a number of men effected the capture of the two men who had caused the sentry to shoot just as they were getting into their boat. "Thru an interpreter they stated they had been on their way to the mouth of the Mission River, where they had a net, when fired upon by the sentry.

Another Sentry Attacked.

At 11 o'clock this morning, Private Charles Vouture of the 96th Regiment was taken to the McKellar Hospital suffering from a blow on the head. The blow was inflicted when he received while doing sentry duty at the Consolidated elevator. He had noticed two suspicious characters waiting along with the elevator, and when they immediately turned and ran, and the sentry following was struck down by a blow from behind.

CANNOT GAUGE WAR BY OUTPOST FIGHTS

French Ex-Minister Warns Nation Against Undue Confidence.

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, Aug. 19.—"Outpost combats, however interesting and characteristic, do not justify us in counting upon the certainty of a prompt and definite victory," writes a former minister of foreign affairs, Stephen Pichon in the Petit Journal.

"I find too much said about the German being demoralized. Their original over-confidence may give place to doubt, but that is all. The war now beginning is a war to the death. It hangs the existence of Germany as well as that of France. It will be waged furiously on both sides. It will probably be long and the losses enormous.

"Let us make up our minds to the fact that we have to count with the most redoubtable army in Europe and have need for all our material and moral forces."

VARSAVIANS TO ACT WITH Q. O. R.

Two Companies Will Be Recruited From Graduates and Undergrads. FIRST DRILL MONDAY

Officers' Training Corps to Be Organized When College Term Starts.

Toronto Varsity men will organize a corps, which will be attached to the Queen's University, when the first drill was definitely decided on at a meeting of graduates and members of the faculty held in the senate chamber of the university. They decided to give their utmost to have a branch of the University Officers' Training Corps organized by the time that the college session starts at the end of September. The immediate action which will be taken will be the recruiting of two companies from graduates and undergraduates, which will be sent out by the Queen's Own.

Already the names of 80 graduates anxious to join this force have been received by the executive appointed to look after the matter, and more applications will be received at the armories on Monday next, when the first drill will be held. Dr. Potheringham of the faculty of medicine is one of the most active promoters of the scheme, and he is confident that the Officers' Training Corps will be started early in the fall. The militia department will be communicated with at once to insure them. Attention would be confined first to infantry drill and later to engineer corps and artillery instruction. The companies to be organized are intended to be the nucleus of what will be known as the University Rifles.

Much Enthusiasm.

While Laval University has six companies organized and McGill has three and New Brunswick, Toronto has little or no military organization. They are determined to overcome the handicap as soon as possible. Besides Dr. Potheringham, Prof. Alfred Baker, Prof. Lash Miller, Prof. W. R. Neidler, Prof. E. J. Farley and H. W. Nickle are interested in the movement. A large number of students are enthusiastic over the matter and they say there is no doubt that the 150 men necessary to form the two companies will be easily secured. The first course is intended to further augment the force which the university will contribute to the empire's defence, and the second course will be a more advanced training. Those who have already enlisted and those who desire to enlist will commence drilling on Monday at the armories.

MONTREAL SHIPMENTS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Work of Loading Grain Was Carried on Briskly Yesterday.

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—Shipping conditions in Montreal show a great improvement this week. The elevators are telling of the work in loading grain into ocean bottoms, and the number of lake boats waiting to discharge their cargoes was steadily increasing. Last week less than 100 boats were waiting at the elevators here than during any previous week since navigation opened. The total amount received was 1,641,000 bushels, or half a million bushels less than usual.

SAYS WAR CANNOT LAST MORE THAN THREE MONTHS

Count Witte Interviewed En Route From Biarritz to Russia.

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, August 19, 3:45 a.m.—A news despatch from Paris quotes Count Witte, the Russian statesman, who is on his way from Biarritz to Russia, as declaring that the European war would not last more than two or three months.

It was bound to end, he said, in the downfall of Germany. The moment had come when the world should have seen a general mobilization had been carried out slowly but surely, and her army was certain to vanquish Germany, whatever might happen.

LIFE OF BABY LOST IN WRECK OF STEAMER

Child Slipped From Father's Arms When Boat Was Upset.

Canadian Press Despatch. VANCOUVER, Aug. 19.—One life was lost last night in the wreck of the Prince Albert. The baby, a 15-month-old child of a Graham Island settler named J. Rerard. The first boat to put off capsized close to the shore, and while the adults waded to safety the baby slipped out of its father's arms and drowned.

After the first message was received the wireless went dead. The operator had trouble sending his message as the vessel was jarred by the heavy sea.

The Prince Albert was formerly the Bruno, 800 tons, plying between Hull and Antwerp, and was built in Hull, England, in 1898.

FATALITY AT PEMBROKE

PEMBROKE, Ont., August 18.—Thomas King, a young man of Ottawa, was killed instantly here this afternoon. He was employed by the Pembroke Electric Light Company, and while working up a pole came in contact with a live wire.

$1,000,000 IN FOODSTUFFS ONTARIO'S GIFT TO BRITAIN?

Following continued sessions of the Ontario Cabinet in Queen's Park, at which the subject of a gift to the mother country is under consideration, the impression is steadily growing that something of a general character is being planned. The ministers are very reticent as to the nature of the proposals submitted, but it was learned last evening that the latest and most favored suggestion was that of sending one million dollars' worth of foodstuffs.

Several of the council members have declared themselves against sending anything which could not be turned to good account under the present circumstances. The proposal of placing a million in money at the service of the imperial government has been criticized because of the unreliable nature of international credit at the present time, but those advocating a food supply point to the immense resources of the province as a sufficient reason. It is likely that an announcement will be made within a day or so.

RUSSIANS STAND TOGETHER THE CHANGE IS REMARKABLE

Feeling Herself to be Morally in the Right, All Functional Differences Have Melted Away and People Are Animated by Stern Purpose to Resist German Aggression.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Aug. 19.—It is impossible to relate a title of the amazing things that have happened in Russia during the last ten days," says a letter to The Daily Chronicle written in St. Petersburg on Aug. 12. It continues: "Russia is not recognizable, or rather, that haunting beauty of Russia which those of us who live here group-ingly and often sadly feel and love, has suddenly shown forth radiantly from out of the heavy clouds of failure and defeat that have hidden it for so many years.

"Russia is full of moral energy. She has never displayed it with the same vigor as now at any period of her history. Russia feels herself for once to be morally in the right.

"Russia's internal condition was deplorable," says the correspondent. "The Poles, Finns and Jews were embittered by the government's policy of oppression. The duma was divided and helpless. Strikes were spreading. There were serious riots in St. Petersburg."

The writer adds: "Few Russians wanted to fight for the sake of Serbia, but when it became clear that the Austrian attack was only the prelude to a German attack on an apparently helpless and demoralized Russia, the feeling changed in an instant.

A United Russia.

"The general mobilization made all first to infantry drill and later to engineer corps and artillery instruction. The companies to be organized are intended to be the nucleus of what will be known as the University Rifles.

Much Enthusiasm.

While Laval University has six companies organized and McGill has three and New Brunswick, Toronto has little or no military organization. They are determined to overcome the handicap as soon as possible. Besides Dr. Potheringham, Prof. Alfred Baker, Prof. Lash Miller, Prof. W. R. Neidler, Prof. E. J. Farley and H. W. Nickle are interested in the movement. A large number of students are enthusiastic over the matter and they say there is no doubt that the 150 men necessary to form the two companies will be easily secured. The first course is intended to further augment the force which the university will contribute to the empire's defence, and the second course will be a more advanced training. Those who have already enlisted and those who desire to enlist will commence drilling on Monday at the armories.

Plan of Wilhelmshaven, the Great German War Port in the North Sea.

Great interest centres at the present moment around the German naval stations in the North Sea. Wilhelmshaven, the biggest and most important, is here shown in plan. The approaches to it are in very shallow waters. The low-lying country surrounding it affords it no natural protection as did the hilly country round Port Arthur.

MANY FOREIGNERS IN SWITZERLAND

Country Crowded With Refugees—Food is Plentiful, But Expensive.

FOUR RUSSIANS SHOT

Alleged to Be Army Officers—German Frontier the Danger Zone.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, August 19.—A despatch to The Daily Chronicle from Geneva says:

"It is estimated that there are nearly a million foreigners at present in Switzerland. Food, which is entering Switzerland over every frontier except that of Germany, is plentiful but very expensive.

The German Consul-General has issued a warning to foreigners that any person found on Germany's southern frontier, especially in Baden or in Alsace-Lorraine, without passports, is likely to be arrested as a spy and shot.

Russian Officers Shot. "Four Russians, alleged to have been officers, were shot today at Friedrichshafen, on the east shore of Lake Constance, in Wurtemberg, Germany. This indicates that many who are stranded in border towns of Germany are likely to find themselves in grave danger.

"Switzerland is taking the most elaborate precautions against any violation of her neutrality. The maintenance of the present armed force in Switzerland is costing over half a million dollars a day."

SAILINGS ARE RESUMED IMPORT TRADE EASIER

Marked Improvement in Chemicals, Oils, Rubber, Pig Tin, and Spices.

Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The announcement from London that English steamship service has been ordered to resume has resulted in an easier feeling in importing circles.

Lines that responded to this feeling included drugs, chemicals, olive oil, coconut and other oils, rubber and pig-tin.

The spice market has also easier under the belief that many cargoes now held up in the far east will proceed to their destination in America.

ST. JOHN'S CONTRIBUTION

Canadian Press Despatch. ST. JOHN, N.B., Aug. 19.—The city council today voted $2000 as a preliminary contribution for local volunteers for the front, either to increase their pay by 50 cents a day or to help provide for their families, whichever the citizens' meeting should decide. The citizens' committee decided to insure the lives of all the men who have enlisted for foreign service in St. John City and County.

JAIL SENTENCES FOR FOOD TRUST

Attorney-General McReynolds Preparing Plan for Prosecution.

SEARCHING STATUTES

If Act is Defective, the President Will Have It Amended.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Attorney-General McReynolds tonight informed the president that within forty-eight hours he would be prepared to submit a plan for the immediate and vigorous prosecution of the conspirators who are advancing the prices of food and commodities. It was not denied that the preliminary investigations thus far made by the special agent of the department in charge of the search for violations of law. The combinations of unscrupulous men engaged in an attempt to reap unfair profits are said to extend into nearly every branch of trade.

Jail Sentences. At the direction of the president, the attorney-general is now searching the statutes to discover whether they provide for jail sentences for those convicted of this species of crime. If the existing laws make no such provision, President Wilson, it is understood, will urge on congress the immediate amendment of the Clayton anti-trust bill, so that the penalties may be thrown open for such conspirators as are convicted.

Commenting on this report, it is officially explained that, even were it true, it would be neither a grave symptom nor unexpected. The defensive organization of Belgium, as conceived by General Brilmont, and presented in technical words, provides that Antwerp be considered as a last defense. It has been fortified with care, and is today a vast entrenched camp upon the flank of the enemy.

BELGIANS MOVING TOWARD ANTWERP?

French War Office Not Disturbed by Rumor of Retirement.

Canadian Press Despatch. BRUSSELS, Aug. 19.—From Paris comes an official announcement this morning saying the retirement of Belgian troops towards Antwerp is rumored, but not confirmed.

Commenting on this report, it is officially explained that, even were it true, it would be neither a grave symptom nor unexpected. The defensive organization of Belgium, as conceived by General Brilmont, and presented in technical words, provides that Antwerp be considered as a last defense. It has been fortified with care, and is today a vast entrenched camp upon the flank of the enemy.

An official communication from Brussels, made public today, gives the seat of the Belgian government from Brussels to Antwerp.

This transfer is not an immediate necessity, it is explained, but it is preferred to effect it now in a normal manner, rather than risk interruption to governmental business.

While Belgian officials have gone to Antwerp, the German army is marching on Brussels from Jodeligne, and that it is being gradually pushed back at Jodeligne.

Her majesty the queen and the prince are at the Antwerp Palace, while the king is with the army.

MAKE "HOUSEWIVES" FOR VOLUNTEERS

North Toronto Women Start Movement in Aid of Red Cross.

North Toronto women want to contribute in some manner to the needs of the Canadian soldiers who have volunteered for active service in the present European war, and a meeting was held yesterday in the old town hall to decide how they could best help the volunteers.

Arrangements were completed for a meeting of the women of the district on Friday afternoon, when they will be addressed by Col. Ryerson, who will give a description of what actual warfare is and the hardships that are endured by the soldiers. A collection will be made at the meeting, and the sum contributed will be handed over to the Red Cross Society. It was also decided to present about 1000 of the volunteers with "housewives," and a large number of ladies are busily engaged at the present time in making up these very serviceable articles. Those in charge of the movement include Miss Oiler, Mrs. Hassard, Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. Erford.

BUREAU WILL HANDLE WAR RISK INSURANCE

Administration Bill Was Referred to Committees of Senate and Congress.

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The administration bill, which authorizes the government bureau of war risk insurance in the treasury department for American ships was introduced in both houses today and referred to committees. This bill would authorize the insurance of American cargoes or vessels which are shipped to Europe, and to secure adequate protection equal to the insurance granted foreign ships by countries dealing in war insurance.

The measure appropriates $50,000,000 to pay insurance losses and $100,000 for administration expenses. It was agreed on at a White House conference attended by Representatives Underwood and Alexander and Senators Simmons and Clarke, and approved by the committee of business men summoned to Washington last week to confer as to emergencies arising out of the European war.

Daniel O'Connell—'The Liberator'

LD ERIN has given the world many a genius and many a lover of liberty, but none greater than the eloquent O'Connell. This noble Irishman unselfishly devoted every moment of his life to gain the freedom of his Fatherland. His oratory, because of its flaming earnestness, exercised a powerful influence over the House of Commons and hastened many reforms for Ireland. Daniel O'Connell was the first to realize the irresistible strength of a union of millions of Irishmen, and to this end he labored night and day. Huge mass meetings were everywhere organized throughout Ireland and addressed by the masterful O'Connell. When confident of success and with victory in sight he was arrested and condemned to prison. When liberated his splendid constitution was shattered, but he continued until his dying hour to work and pray for Irish Liberty. It is needless to say that Daniel O'Connell was opposed to any Prohibitory legislation which invaded the Natural Rights of Man. He would no more vote for such tyrannous enactments as the Corn Laws than will our millions of Irish-American citizens. They know that there is no evil in the barley brews and light wines than will our fathers—EVIL ONLY IS IN THE MAN WHO MISUSES THEM. For 57 years Anheuser-Busch have honestly brewed honest beer, and they are proud of the popularity their great brand Budweiser enjoys with those of Irish blood. Our Irish citizens have helped to make our nation great among the nations of the world. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to keep pace with the natural demand for Budweiser.

U.S.-GERMANY WIRELESS QUESTION NOT SETTLED

Final Determination is Promised German Embassy Within Two Days.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—"No progress" was the only report which Secretary of State Bryan could make tonight on the wireless situation in regard to Germany. It is known that the administration is considerably embarrassed by the insistence of Germany that some final decision be made about the use of commercial radios in diplomatic messages in cipher.

The matter was fully discussed at the cabinet meeting today, but no one of the president's advisors would make any statement at the conclusion of the meeting.

Charge D'Affaires Hainhausen, of the German Embassy here, is, at the instance of his government making daily calls at the state department to hasten the government decision. It was assumed today that a final determination would be made within 48 hours.

GERMAN SOLDIERS ATE ONLY ROOTS AND CARROTS

Times Prints Statement of German Hardships—French Commissariat Working Well.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Aug. 19.—"There appears to be very little exaggeration in the accounts of the bad commissariat arrangements in the German army," says the Brussels correspondent of The Times. "Prisoners brought in by the French yesterday had beet root and carrots in their knapsacks. They had been living on these for several days. On defence of our country, the French commissariat is working splendidly."

Soft Taffeta Newest Fad for Luxurious Lingerie

By MADGE MARVEL

DISPLAYS of new taffeta underwear are just beginning to make their appearance in the shops, and they surely are quite the most novel garments that have appeared among lingerie displays for some seasons past.

When one considers the term "taffeta underwear," it sounds highly impractical, for ordinary taffeta used for such a purpose might break, would wash badly and iron to uncomfortable stiffness, to say nothing of not wearing at all. However, Puss Willow taffeta is the material used in the new lingerie, and it is very soft and pliable, washes as well as crepe de chine and wears better. Chemises and combinations of this new taffeta cost more than those of any other material, but the investment is a good one, for they will outwear lawn and lace a hundred times.

Smart Trimmings.
The style in which this new taffeta lingerie has been manufactured also tends to preserve it for some time. No loose embroideries, nets or tulle are used in these garments, for they are quite smartly tailored. Pique details are the smart finish used on the sleeves and bands of some of them, while others have a very narrow, real Cluny heading about the neck. Under arms are bands of tulle and a plain ribbon band serves as a shoulder strap. In a few of the models three folds are caught at the center of the neck, and hold by a tailored bow of ribbon. The folds give a fullness of material over the bust.

Puss Willow taffeta garments are made in all the light colors. Some of the straight hanging chemises have a buttoning flap which joins the back hem of the garment to the front. In others drawers and corset-cover combinations in one are fitted quite snugly at the waistline.

The popularity of the new basque bodices which completely cover shoulders, neck and arms with material, may not make it quite so necessary to provide a large store of lace camisoles or corset covers for fall wear. When all bodices were mere wisps of this tulle underwear, bills and problems swelled to enormous size. Just now, as summer is passing, we may not need so many of these, but a few to wear under mainly afternoon costumes are an all-year-round necessity.

Easily Made.
One especially good feature of the shoulder-lace camisoles is that if you have one handsome net waist and four lace corset covers, you can give the effect of owning four different waists by finishing each corset cover with different ribbons and silks. One might be lined with lavender and a fourth with orange. Very wide, fine cotton net, doubled and buttonholed top and bottom, makes a corset cover at reasonable cost. Embroidered Japanese crepe is a good underwear material. A yard and a half or a yard and a quarter of fine shadow lace with heading at either edge is very easily made into pretty underwear.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am 15 years old and live with my aunt. She is very strict, and objects to my having boy friends. I am popular with boys and girls of my age. Although all my friends are of good families, my aunt will not allow me to go out very much with them, and, consequently, I have little pleasure, and am very lonesome.

JESSICA.
I am thinking of leaving my aunt in spite of the fact that I have good home with her, and go to a good school. Do you think I would be doing wrong?
I do not know of any one else that I could ask for advice.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I have read a great deal of your advice to other girls, and I would like a little bit of advice also. I am a young girl of only 14 years of age, and I am a very good singer. I would like very much to go on the stage, and my parents think I am too young and, besides, I am very nervous. What would you advise me to do, and what is good for nervousness, especially when I go before a great crowd?

ISABELLA—Queen of Spain—no, of course, aren't you?—you are too young to sing in public. It is bad for you, and it is bad for your voice.
Advice is the most fragile thing in the world. Don't think of running the risk of losing it by singing in public too early without the proper training.
Nervous, of course you're nervous. I should think you would be—a little girl like you trying to act like a woman—you won't be nervous when you are a few years older. Or at least not nervous enough to do any harm—all artists are nervous to some extent. It is only the stupid who are never excited over anything.
Don't go before great crowds—you're entirely young. Study practice, work, rejoice in the splendid gifts of a voice, and take care of it. Your time will come.

Miss Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. They should be addressed to her, care of this office.

Three Minute Journeys

By TEMPLE MANNING

IN the interior of Africa, where only a black spot on the maps of yesterday testified to the world's ignorance of that vast country, I came upon

A Forest Museum.

We had been travelling through the country with all the speed of the scent food and a myriad of stinging insects lent to us, when we came out of the forests into the clearing of a Nupe town. A single thatched covering that sheltered a raised stand attracted my attention, and I stopped to examine it.

At first I thought that it was a shrine of some sort, an African counterpart of the little wayside shrines of southern Europe, but I soon discovered my mistake. Upon the raised platform was a pile of horns and tusks, and the mammoth bones of animals. They were trophies of the chase.

STARTLING FOOTWEAR FROM PARIS

Your Choice of Slippers if You Shy at Sandals

WILL France go stockings next winter? That is the question fashionable Paris is asking since the dainty young actress, Mlle. Provost, adopted Greek sandals.

It was she who first publicly introduced the barem shirt. Then, when she married M. Firpo, she instigated a new jewelry vogue by using a wedding ring of durable platinum instead of gold.

And now her fancy turns to footwear, for lately she appeared at dress rehearsal at the Rejane Theatre with bare pink toes and ankles encased in jewel-strapped sandals.

What Dreams Have the Gulls?

By Winifred Black

THE sea is gray today, gray with silver running molten through it, and the great space of the sky is blue, but it is belaced with clouds, great soft, lacy clouds, that drive before the wind as sheep are driven by the shepherd.

The very face of the sun himself and make him hazy, while I screamed out my joyous thanks that I was not a human being, so high, so high you float. O gulls! Is it so fine and free up there among the clouds, or do you take them with you, as we do when we go to church or even when we hear sweet music, or when the springing flowers of the green meadows try to help us to forget our little worries, our petty hates and our ignoble fears.

Whenever it is going to storm, some one sends word to the seagulls down there on the bay, and they all start screaming for the great sea. Do they go for love of the storm. I wonder—do they love to ride the wild waves and dip into the raging sea, or is it because something happens to the fish in the storms and the gulls can reach them easier so?

Little Miss White Wings—you who lit this morning on the tall mast of the great ship new-come from eastern seas—did you notice the gorgeous colors of the bird the Chinamen had there in the gilt cage on the lower deck, and did you wish that you, too, could dress in scarlet and green and azure, and wear a silver band about your ankle, even if you had to live in a cage to do it?

And have you chosen your mate yet, according to your own heart and your own mind and your own will, as a gull should, or are you going to marry you off to that old fellow with the stripe of black across his wings—the one I saw roosting near you on the gilt time ball of the ferry the other day?

What Must They Think?

What do they think of us and our foolish doings down here below them, I wonder?
What silly lives we lead, according to their notion—what useless creatures we are, and so busied all the time about nothing.

Always running to and fro, up and down the little runlets we call streets; always ringing bells and pounding with great hammers and hurrying and scurrying, as if some great bird of the skies was after us and might pounce upon us at any minute. Never for one minute do we rest upon the cradle of the deep, and never do we feel beneath our swaying bodies the soft hammock of the ever-swinging waters, and never, oh never, do we fly at all.

Little Miss White Wings—you who lit this morning on the tall mast of the great ship new-come from eastern seas—did you notice the gorgeous colors of the bird the Chinamen had there in the gilt cage on the lower deck, and did you wish that you, too, could dress in scarlet and green and azure, and wear a silver band about your ankle, even if you had to live in a cage to do it?

There's Faith on Earth.

Little Miss White Wings—you who lit this morning on the tall mast of the great ship new-come from eastern seas—did you notice the gorgeous colors of the bird the Chinamen had there in the gilt cage on the lower deck, and did you wish that you, too, could dress in scarlet and green and azure, and wear a silver band about your ankle, even if you had to live in a cage to do it?

Strange Animal Superstitions of Yesterday

In the country districts, both of England and Germany, there is an idea that the black cat is a bad omen. Several allusions are made in English literature to the further notion that in the head of toads may be found an antidote for the poison of its spittle.

In almost all countries having a sea-coast there is a common idea that neither man nor animal dies except during ebb tide. In the fishing ports of England this superstition is devoutly believed, and is made use of in a literary way by Dickens and other authors.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why a Good, Sound Back is Like an "S" Reversed

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins)

THE 400th anniversary of the adoption of chairs by man is still far in the future. To look back upon the day when Sir Walter Raleigh gallantly spread his beautiful cape upon the mire to save Queen Elizabeth's daintily shod feet from mud means to recall a time when chairs, benches, foot stools, rockers and other comely devices were a mystery to the masses.

Your Highness" and "His Mightiness" are today testimonials to the fact that the throne was the only sort of a chair known in ancient days. On his date the lord, chieftain, king or emperor was literally placed above his subjects. The seat was might, luxury and comfort.

Man and monkeys are said by Darwin to have descended from a common ancestor, rather an ancestor in their tails. The 13 human tribes may have worn their down from sitting.

Sooth to say, occasionally infants are actually born with little tails, and the coccyx—as the little tail-like bone at the end of the spine is called—is a replica of a short or abbreviated tail. This is present in everybody.

The Japanese, and many oriental as well as western peoples, still sit cross-legged, or upon fashion upon the ground. Indians and sachem chiefs have always done this. Instinctively they regard chairs as pests.

Chairs and Laziness.
The human spine, and the sacrum and coccyx at its lower end, were never created to sit upon chairs or lean against wooden backs.

Ineeds, the most comfortable rockers, Morris chairs, hammock backs and deck chairs neutralize the dignity and equilibrium from man's back.

The shape of a sound back—of which there are many among civilized persons who sit upon chairs—is like an inverted question mark or a capital S reversed. At the neck it curves in, at the thorax it humps a bit outward, and in the small of the back, where practically all the strain falls, it saddles in like the trough between the humps of a camel.

Modern chairs and school superintendents think they have solved this problem. Chairs with movable, Pullman-like backs are supplied to school children. Yet even if each child was measured and fitted with an individual chair as his mother is fitted with a modish dress, he would be no more comfortable.

Chairs Cause Curvature.
Man was made for reclining, running, moving and sleeping; never for sitting erect. The reason most persons do not pursue piano instruction, schooling and the like, or lose their appetites at the dinner table, is traceable to the fact that their spine and coccyx are tortured worse than the spirits Dante met in the ninth circles of hell.

If chairs are irritants to the soul, what must benches, book-keepers' stools, piano seats and other sitting devices be? Obviously they cause spinal curvature, weak backs, lumbago, stoop

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN MATRIMONY

By LEONA DALRYMPLE

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

"Peter," he called, "come look at this infernal tire. By George I do believe it's losing again. Funny, isn't it, I seem to have more trouble with this tire than any other. Can't make out whether it's a leaky valve or not. Whatever it is it's a slow leak. Seems to me I put a dry patch on that tire the last time I changed, instead of having it vulcanized. A fellow lent me a gasoline patch and I'd forgotten. He rambled on for some time, thumping the shoe and looking at me. By this time enough air had escaped to make his stratagem entirely feasible.

"Well, Mary," he said, "I'm sorry, my dear (it's only in moments of stress that he calls his wife Mary), but we've a flat tire. There's no use of your sitting out here in the cold while it's changed. I'll just run up to the garage and get one of the helpers up there to change the tire, and we'll all go up and wait in the oculist's office."

Mrs. Penfield looked distinctly annoyed. "It's just as I said the other day," she said, "a little pettishly as she climbed heavily out of the car. 'This car keeps giving us more and more trouble, and we ought to have a new one.' 'We'd have the trouble on a new one,' ventured Mr. Penfield.

"We might have the trouble," said Mrs. Penfield, "but we'd save on other things. Something's breaking all the time. A spring last week and a windshield the week before."

"That wasouncing over rotten roads," said Mr. Penfield. "You couldn't blame the car." But Mrs. Penfield rustled haughtily on, insisting upon the need of a brand new motor.

"It cost the repair of a puncture, Peter," whispered Mr. Penfield jubilantly in my ear, "but, by George, it's worth it!"

Very Apt.

He—I swear I never loved before. I swear it by yonder tree. She—You always say such appropriate things. That's a chestnut tree.

Toronto's Healthy Finances

It will be a source of considerable satisfaction to the citizens of Toronto, and perhaps to many others in the province, who look to Toronto for a lead...

At the present time the city has no bonds for sale. It has no temporary loans. It has no balance against it at any of the banks.

Toronto will be able to carry out all the ordinary undertakings of the city departments, and continue over the turn of the year without assistance from anyone.

"What Are You Going to Do, Brother?" Ontario has been rather a disappointment to her friends since the declaration of war.

The Dominion has given four. British Columbia has given apples. Alberta has given oats.

What the public would like to hear is that the government really has some appreciation of the crisis, and is looking forward to doing something worthy of the big banner province of Canada.

In common with the citizens generally we should like to have seen Ontario becoming responsible for one of the battalions now being completed in England.

ECLIPSE OF SUN OVER WAR AREA

Black Band Will Be Cast in Fighting Zone Tomorrow. PHENOMENON RECURS Comes at End of Every Eighteen Years and Eleven Days.

A total eclipse of the sun, which will black band over a strip of Russia from Riga to the Baltic to the Crimea, and will plunge into partial shadow all the region in which the present war-making place, will be in progress on Friday, Aug. 21.

It is easy for those who have forced their way upwards to sneer at or condemn the less fortunate, but to do so indicates but a slight knowledge of human affairs.

Where the eclipse is but partial, the disc of the moon will creep across the face of the sun little by little, but will never completely obscure the orb.

Great waves of incandescent gas, hundreds of thousands of miles long, will be perceptible. The countryside will take on a sinister, night-gloam color, and tints of nature will pale and deepen as twilight falls.

Recurring Phenomenon. This eclipse is a recurring phenomenon. At the end of every period of eighteen years and eleven days the moon comes between the sun and the sun at just such an angle that the sun's light is completely shut off from a portion of the world and partially shut off from the rest.

In France, Belgium and Germany, in the sections where the war is at its height, the partial eclipse will last from about 11 o'clock till 12.30 midday.

The eclipse will be visible to Toronto, people between 11 o'clock on Friday morning. The dark band will appear in the sun's disk at noon after five o'clock, but will not be seen in this part of Ontario until a much larger rise at 5.38. A trifle over one-tenth of the sun's surface will be covered.

GREATEST YEAR ON RECORD PROMISED FOR EXHIBITION

Everybody Busy—Many New Features—Roads All Paved—New Poultry Building—Exhibits From Everywhere—Special Attractions for Farmers—Opening August 31

Everybody is busy at the Exhibition grounds. Far from laying down the hammer or closing the tool chest because of the war in Europe, the reverse is the case and mechanics on all sides are hammering away, joining, planning, sawing and in various other ways preparing for the big international event.

The architecture men are proceeding with the preparations under way as the pains being taken with each detail. Each little item is receiving the proper attention.

For the visitor who has not attended the "fair" in some years, there is a revelation awaiting him. He will perhaps notice first the paved boulevards. No need now to carry one's rubbers along in case of rain.

The Ontario Government is also reconstructing the agricultural wing. At previous exhibitions there has been an abundance of room, allowing also for a display of Canadian grain.

There is being put into position at the present time a set of exhibits from the British West Indies. From all parts of the islands various articles have been sent.

Few there are who have churned to music. The latest farming improvements have not included an orchestra. In the dairy building, however, this out-of-the-ordinary procedure will be witnessed.

There are many other changes and improvements and installations which will be seen to be appreciated. The new sheep pens which have been built to replace those burned last year are double the size of the former ones.

LINEMAN'S FALL FATAL. FICTON, Ont., August 19.—An employee of the Bell Telephone Company here, E. S. Coulson, while at work on a telephone pole this morning came in contact with an electric wire and fell to the ground, striking on his head. He was instantly killed.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS. A large food menu and a quick service is supplied and is much appreciated by business men generally. Located as it is in the heart of a busy district, it is good policy to devote their best attention to this branch of the business.

Lamb's Hotel Has Good Grille

The downtown hotelmen of the city have awakened to a realization of their duty not only to the traveling public but to the local people as well, and are paying special attention to their dining-room equipments.

Lamb's Hotel, corner Yonge and Adelaide streets, were among the first to improve their property along the above lines, and have provided a grill room with a place about twice the size of the former one.

Ontario farmers have little to fear from war-time depression, according to the annual report of the agricultural societies which will appear within a few days.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Is This Why English Beauties Are So Fair?

(From London Herald.) Ever since the discovery that mercurochrome was used to remove a discolored complexion, its use by ladies as a substitute for bleaching creams has grown rapidly.

A perfect complexion can be maintained indefinitely if this remarkable substance is used. Its beneficial, cleansing, clearing and preservative action is quickly apparent, and ladies who have been paying as high as a dollar a jar for special facial beauty specialists, soon recognize that mercurochrome outshines them all.

It can be obtained at all chemist shops in the British Isles. American druggists also have great demand for it. It is sold in one-ounce packages, or the favorite way of using it is to apply it, like cold cream, before retiring, washing it off in the morning.

The axolotl cream has also become extremely popular. One ounce powdered axolotl dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this has a splendid effect in erasing wrinkles and improving contour.

Big Meeting Will Be Held at Newmarket Tomorrow Night.

The committee of the Toronto Northeastern Hydro-Electric Railway met yesterday afternoon to complete organization and arrange for a series of meetings. Owing to the fact that it has been somewhat difficult to secure the attendance of some of the principal speakers promised during the present month, the committee has finally decided to hold the voting on the agreement on Monday, Oct. 19, instead of Sept. 21, as it had been intended. Meantime the organization is working and the campaign of education is being kept up. Sir Adam Beck has promised to be present at a number of meetings, at the request of the committee. A large meeting will be held at Newmarket on Friday evening.

ness. Altho the means of accomplishing this are not yet decided upon the co-operation of large owners will be secured and the hosts of workmen at the bench and in the shop will be allowed to continue on a living wage. There are on the committee already appointed proprietors of large industries who are bending their energies toward this end, and who will seek to use their influence to make the practice universal. This course has been determined upon not only thru the advanced sociological endeavors of the moving spirits, but because of the appeal which has already been heard from hundreds who have lost employment in the last few days and who see privation immediately ahead. Whether the government will find it necessary to take measures to enforce activities is a probability which the committee does not wish to discuss.

"Back to the Farm." Ontario and the government of Sir James Whitney are looked upon as prime movers and investigations are under way to find out the exact extent of any offers of employment which could come indirectly thru administrative departments. Hon. James Duff has been nominated for the committee and will take up the matter of placing unemployed men on Ontario farms.

SATURDAY'S BIG GAME WILL BE A FAST ONE

Toronto Men Will Stay on the Field Against Frenchmen, No Matter What Happens.

It is the firm belief of every man on the Toronto lacrosse team that if their players had stayed on the field when they played the Nationals at the Beach a couple of weeks ago they would have won. Some of them are inclined to believe that Finlandson was too lenient with the Frenchmen; but all agree that at one time they had the Nationals beaten, and that they only lost the advantage when they were playing a man or two men short. For the great game on Saturday they have been drilled with the idea of staying on the field no matter what happens. More over, they say that their defence has by this time had plenty of opportunity of inspecting all the tricks of that great National home, and that this time Stagg, Cameron and Somerville will be able to hold Pittre, Lamoreaux and Lalonde. If any of them shows any sign of the weakening he popular crack new man from the Shamrocks will be played.

MONEY RETURNING TO USUAL CHANNELS

Funds Withdrawn From New York Banks Are Being Re-deposited.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—An interesting development in the financial situation today was the evidence that a considerable portion of the money taken from local banks during the early alarm engendered by the foreign crisis, is flowing back into normal channels.

Much of this money was withdrawn by merchants and manufacturers who feared a possible scarcity of cash to meet pressing obligations.

This return flow is largely offset, however, by the increasing demands of interior banks. The west is calling on this centre for money to meet the crop moving requirements, and the south above mentioned instances in its demands for cash to harvest cotton.

Planters of cotton recently received material assistance from local institutions, but this money will be redeposited until the latter part of the year, if then.

Spring chickens are selling at from 22c to 30c per lb. retail.

Ducklings are not in much demand; they sell at 18c to 20c per lb. retail.

WHEAT CORN DECLINED

Report of Export Sales Had Effect—Moisture in Corn Belt.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—All board of trade markets except corn, which was bearishly influenced by rains in the southwest, scored further advances today.

Wheat gained 1 1/2-2c to 3c; oats 1/2-3/4c; and provisions 7/8c to 1c; higher corn declined 3/8c to 1/2c.

Yesterday's report of export sales following the lead of the larger independent in advancing prices, while others engaged in special lines are working on shorter time and otherwise curtailing.

Wheat—Sept. 22.75, 23.75, 24.00, 23.87, 22.37. Oct. 23.12, 23.12, 23.12, 23.12, 23.12.

Chicago Corn Declined. Corn reached its best price under the wheat, but report of rain in the southwest started profit-taking, under which the gain was lost.

Higher hogs and falling off in the western movement sent provisions up despite liberal profit-taking.
