BRITON ARE ALIKE EQUAL PRIVILEGES FOR ALL

Winston Churchill Announces Principal Provisions of Constitution to be Granted to Transvaal Colony.

London, July 31.—Winston Spencer Churchill, parliamentary secretary of the colonial office, today outlined in the house of commons the government's proposal regarding the constitution to be granted to the Transvaal.

All males over 21 resident over six months to have vote.

Chinese labor ordinance to be abrogated after reasonable time.

Provision made for elective second chamber.

Members of parliament will be elected for five years and will be paid for their services.

For the first parliament there will be a second chamber of fifteen members nominated by the crown.

During the first session arrangements will be made for an elective second chamber.

The constitution will contain a clause abrogating the Chinese labor ordinance after a reasonable time.

The recruiting of Chinese labor will cease entirely Nov. 15.

Mr. Lyttelton, former colonial secretary, said he thought the proposal premature, coming as it did only four years after the war.

He argued that it was too near the war to expect the Dutch to forget what they had suffered, and more than human nature would grant to expect them to be loyal to Great Britain.

He declared an explanation of this hurried procedure was the government's burning desire to get rid of all its racial distinctions in South Africa, which its rash pledges of a general election had brought upon it.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the premier, answered that never in the course of his parliamentary career had he listened to a more unworthy, mischievous and unparliamentary speech.

The Unionists shouting "Shame, gag," "apologize," "withdraw" etc., but the speaker promptly silenced them by a display of the colonial secretary's salary, which was carried by 316 to 83.

Seen in the streets. In the morning, Lord Elgin, secretary of state for the colonies, was making a statement in the house of commons denouncing it in the upper house.

Lord Lansdowne said there was a dread in the minds of most men that the Boers would not accept the British supremacy.

The Daily Mail says the great colonies of Australia and Canada, whose sons fought in the British cause, may justly complain that they have not been consulted in the Transvaal settlement, while their interests have also been betrayed.

SAYS BERNHARDT'S RIGHT QUEBECKERS "ARE" INDIANS

Verville, M.P., Meets With Warm Reception When Addressing Labor Meeting.

Montreal, July 31.—(Special.)—Mr. Verville, the labor M. P. for Maisonneuve, went to Quebec and received such a warm reception that he is as mad as his skin can hold.

"When Sarah Bernhardt was in Quebec," remarked Mr. Verville, "she said that there was a lot of Indian blood in the people. Mme. Bernhardt was quite right. I am convinced of that, after my experience at Quebec last night. It was nothing but an Indian trick; that is the only way in which I can account for it."

"Of course there were some respectable and worthy citizens who were able to enjoy the rioting and fighting in which nine cruisers, destroyers and torpedo boats participated."

"I did not go to Quebec to discuss the international or the national labor movement, but the labor movement at that meeting to have heard his views on the subject of the Transvaal. It would have been to the very best interests of the laborers at that meeting to have heard his views on the subject of the Transvaal."

Mutineers Hold Sveaborg Fortress is Loyal to "Little Father"

PARALYZED.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—This despatch has just been received direct from Helsinki, Finland, dated July 31, 2 p.m.: "A hundred revolutionists, armed and half uniformed, have just marched to the Socialist Club. They demanded that the Socialist Red Guard mobilize and help relieve the thousand marines who are held in Skatudden barracks. The chiefs of the Red Guard are undecided whether to commence an armed uprising, as many of the population are out of sympathy with such a movement."

"The authorities apparently are paralyzed by the suddenness of the revolt. They are quite in ignorance as to which troops could be depended upon."

"Two officers were killed at Skatudden by marines to-day before a large crowd of civilian sympathizers."

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—(1 a.m.)—No report of the suppression of the great revolt of the garrison at Sveaborg fortress, "The Gibraltar of the North," has been received in St. Petersburg up to this hour.

The secondary uprising among the marines and troops stationed at Skatudden barracks, on the peninsula communicating with the mainland was crushed out at a late hour yesterday evening by loyal troops after heavy fighting in which nine cruisers, destroyers and torpedo boats participated.

FALLS 30 FEET TO DEATH TRAGEDY AT GAS WORKS

Henry Brown, aged 35, fell from the top of a 30-foot ladder while working on the frame of the new producing building of the Consumers Gas Company, Eastern-avenue, early yesterday afternoon. He was killed. His distraught widow and two young children live at 12 Ivy-avenue.

Whether proper safeguards were employed for the workmen or not is a question. Brown was painting on the skeleton of the big building. He reached out for a beam and apparently miscalculating the distance, fell forward and his head struck an iron beam in the fall. His body turned over and the head again struck, this time on the side of a large concrete pier which covers the area of the whole building. He was almost dead when he was picked up and expired in 2 minutes. Governor McConnell was notified, but will probably not hold an inquest. The body was taken to Ross's undertaking parlors.

Boy Who Suffered as Result of Injury to His Hand, Died This Morning in St. Michael's.

James Grogan, the 15-year-old boy, who has been three days suffering from lockjaw or tetanus poisoning, died at 1 o'clock this morning. Several doctors have attended young Grogan, but were unable to render him material benefit, although every device was used to save the young life.

The boy suffered repeated spasmodic contractions and took little or no nourishment. The history of tetanus poisoning shows that such affections following the receipt of a wound or local injury usually prove fatal. The widow mother was at the bedside when the boy passed away.

The term tetanus is defined professionally as a disease which is caused by a bacillus, and the application of rapidly repeated shocks to the muscles, which is called "tetanic contraction" of the muscle, may be called the "tetanization of a nerve."

The coroner has been notified, and owing to the circumstances surrounding the case the enquiry will likely be of considerable interest. The mother of the boy stated a couple of days ago that the boy had not received proper consideration from medical men at the hospital, and that she had been given him before the lockjaw symptoms developed. Dr. Boyd, who had been attending the boy, said he had given him the best of care.

The nurses at the hospital this morning said that everything possible had been done for young Grogan, but no hope was held out for his recovery. They regard the case as a particularly sad one. He was the only son, and his bereaved mother was deeply affected when the end came.

THE DRIVER THIS TIME. Edward G. Pringle, 327 Clinton-street, was thrown from his automobile in an accident which occurred on the morning of July 29. He sustained injuries to his back, and suffered a fracture of three ribs. He was taken to St. Michael's hospital, and his recovery is being watched with interest.

ENGINEER KILLED. Montreal, July 31.—A fast freight, westbound on the C. P. R., ran into a siding at St. Rose last night, striking a number of loaded cars standing there, as the result of which James Broom, the engineer, was killed, and the fireman, Dixie, was injured. Eight cars were demolished by the force of the crash.

The track laying gang of the Guelph and Goderich Railway, were reached 24 miles out from Guelph, three miles beyond the Conestogo.

Blake dropped dead at Goderich yesterday morning. He had been sawing wood and after completing the job had started up town.

Mr. G. W. Rossy, an expert on the subject of the Transvaal, was asked to give a public man, had fair play and a fair hearing, but he made no attempt to do anything of the kind.

What you think of a man who lectures like that? I did not go to Quebec to discuss the international or the national labor movement, but the labor movement at that meeting to have heard his views on the subject of the Transvaal.

BETTER BATHING FACILITIES.

Editor World: Your mention of the excessive charges at the Sunnyside free(?) bathing place was timely. Is it any wonder considering the present aquatic accommodation provided? Our board of control talk about spending nearly a million dollars on a sea wall that will be inaccessible to the great majority of citizens who do not own an automobile or a horse, but why not spend a few thousand dollars for proper facilities for bathing? At present the cribwork of the old Parkdale waterworks, which is in a rotten condition, keeps the water stagnant, while the accommodation is worse. Bathing is a pastime that everybody can indulge in, and when you accommodate one you benefit all, if they want to avail themselves of the opportunity. Can you tell me what becomes of the receipts of the "free" bathing places? The charges at Sunnyside are: Lockers, 5c; bathing costume, 10c; towel, 5c. Hoping something will be done to improve, and encourage bathing. Toronto, July 31.

LET US HAVE LIGHT.

Editor World: There is a little matter in which I think there could be a decided improvement made without expending an excessive expenditure on the part of those in charge. I refer to the lighting of the park band stands during the public concerts given by the city bands. Toronto's down town stands are dazzling every night, with almost every form of electric light, and yet when thousands of citizens gather in one of our beautiful parks to listen to the concerts provided, they are treated to the strange spectacle of a party of musicians seated beneath a maze of primitive smoky torches. The indistinct flashes of light as reflected from the instruments suggest to the beholder the midnight meeting of a group of bandits rather than the peaceful gathering of a modern city band. Locally, we may have grown used to this anomaly, but it must make a strange impression on visitors to our city. Would it not be possible to have electric lights provided? Personally I enjoy the concerts and trust this suggestion may have results. Toronto, July 31. A Music Lover.

FROM A BICYCLE RIDER.

Editor World: From time to time we have sung to us the praises of our uniform and another of pavement for our city streets, but can any one inform me who it was that advocated the putting down of the brick bats which cover Victoria-street, just above Queen's? Bricks make fairly good pavements, but to insure best results it seems to me they should be placed in position whole. Toronto, July 30. A GENTLEMAN'S COMPLAINT.

Editor World: We hear much about the end-seat bug in street cars, but there is another species represented by the man who puts his feet on the seats. A clean dress is no longer clean when one gets off a car, because some rowdy has persisted in putting up his feet. Why will men not be gentlemen? Toronto, July 30. Gentlewoman.

ARISTOCRATIC HORSES.

New York, July 31.—Ten aristocratic horses landed here from the direct country estates of King Edward VII. and Lord Rothschild. They came on the steamer Mametonia, and are Shire horses, one of the great horse of the armored knights at the wars and tournaments, and now the leading breed for draught purposes in England. Nine of the lot have long records as winners at English shows of Shire or Clydesdale stock, the odd one being a weanling, filly only once shown at Peterboro and a second prize winner.

The consignment stayed in New York only long enough to cross the dock from the steamer to an express car on a float, setting out for Canada by way of Jersey City this evening. They will be exhibited, but not entered for competition, at a horse show at Toronto, Aug. 27 to Sept. 6; Ottawa, Sept. 7 to 15; London, Sept. 17 to 22, and at the Kansas City live stock show, beginning Oct. 1.

The express car had a registered weight-carrying capacity of 22,000 pounds and the horses made the four-day journey in good time. The consignment is valued at $50,000 by the head groom, but none can be sold, as they are bonded to be returned to England. They are insured in England in excess of the approximate valuation.

That the Canadian Horse Show is not a paying venture from a money view is the gist of a communication forwarded to the city by Secretary-Treasurer Wade at yesterday's council meeting.

The statement of receipts, which totaled $1,261.60, exhibited the revenue of $458.20 from badges, tickets and railway coupons as the chief item. The revenue from boxes was $485, and entry fees $2863. The expenditures, which came to $14,869.75, included $7415.00 in prizes, $1224.15 in salaries and wages, $181.98 in fitting up the armories, the Horse Breeders' Association and Hunt Club, who each contributed $1500, each for a total of $3000, and a deficit of $13,941.55, leaving a deficit from the former's grant of $804.27, and $564.28 from that of the Hunt Club.

CRACK BANDS GIVE TATTOO SIX THOUSAND HEAR MUSIC

Creditors of Good Roads Machinery Co. Meet—Merchants and Civic Holiday.

Hamilton, July 31.—The military tattoo given under the auspices of the 51st Regiment Band and Sergeants' Mess, at the Cricket Club grounds this evening was a complete success. There was a crowd of about 6000 in attendance. The following bands took part: 15th, Hamilton; 15th, St. Catharines; 45th, Brantford; 44th, Galt; 77th, Dundas; 91st, Hamilton; and the new Kettle Band from Galt. Bands were run from both Galt and Brantford. In addition to the band a musical drill squad, chosen from the 51st Regiment, gave an exhibition and the Kettle Band from Galt. SPECIAL ADVERTISING SECTION LIVE STOCK EDITION

FEEDING STOCK FOR MARKET. Many feeders make failures in their feeding operations on account of the poor quality of the animals fattened for market.

Old animals should be discarded when feeders are selected. After stock reaches three years of age the food they consume is largely used in maintenance.

When growth in the process of maturity is arrested it permanently depreciates the feeding qualities of the animal, and such stock should be rejected when feeders are purchased.

WHAT TRADE STATISTICS SHOW. The yearly statistics of the department of commerce at Washington show that the exports of canned meats for the year ending June, 1906, were $3,223,410, against $9,577,045 for the previous year.

Home Cheese Manufacture. Prof. C. P. Doane of the United States department of agriculture, gives the following directions for making cheese at the farm home.

Antoniovich Vigor. The British Grocer comments on these facts in a recent issue as follows: "As an exclusive trade the Canadian bacon trade still falls a long way behind that of the United States."

TORONTO HORSE MARKET. LITTLE DOING, PRICES WEAK.

Principal Marts Endeavoring to Boom Business, But With Little Success.

The horse market should be taking a holiday. Demands are light for all classes, and the only real transactions are what people come along who think they can see a turnover in horses.

Mr. Burns of the Repository says: "Offerings have been light and sales are mainly local." S. Allen, Norwich, purchased a number of nice drivers on Tuesday, and the Grenadier Ice Co. bought a team of bays well worth the money paid for them.

Monday's sale of this week at the Canadian Horse Exchange was reasonably well attended. Although the class of horses offered was not quite up to the standard of this firm, still they brought prices which were considered good for their class.

Chicago advices are to the effect that general receipts for July show a decline over the corresponding month. The demand for well-finished offerings of all commercial classes is broader than any midsummer market.

CATTLE MARKET RECEIPTS. -City and Junction- Cattle, Hogs, Sheep. Week ending July 28, 1906. 1906 1927 2633

HEAVES IN HORSES. Disease Incurable, But May Be Modified, Says a Veterinarian.

Broken wind or "windy" horses are becoming very numerous, chiefly from heredity and breeding so many unselected mares. Pately Bridge, the veterinary editor of London Farm and Home, thus presents the conditions:

The following is Burns & Sheppard's weekly report of prevailing prices. Single roadsters, 15 to 18 hands, $125 to $160; single cobs and carries, $125 to $161 hands, $125 to $160; matched pairs carriage horses, 15 to 16.1 hands, $300 to $550; delivery horses, 12 to 12.9 hands, $175 to $175; general purpose and express horses, 12 to 15.0 hands, $140 to $190; draught horses, 12 to 17.0 hands, $120 to $200; servicable second-hand workers, $50 to $90; servicable second-hand drivers, $60 to $90.

While Mr. Rennie's own personal observations were confined largely to Scarborough Township, the views he has given in reference to the county as a whole are of a general nature.

Exports of live stock from Ireland to Great Britain in the first half of 1906 were $9,555,000, against $9,477,000 in the same period of 1904.

Is Looking an Injury? A York County correspondent writes asserting that the docking of stallions and the docking of bulls has a material influence on their breeding capabilities.

Seasonable Farm Notes. Watch the sanitary conditions around the swine pens these days. Filth and stagnant water lead to disease and an experience with a siege of hog cholera is too expensive to go thru with.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW.

Poor Cattle in Slow Demand—Sheep and Hogs Are Firm. The market for the past week has been very uneven. Fat cattle of good weight and quality have sold at about steady prices.

It appears that there is more truth in the claim that each plant has its own particular bacteria than may be supposed. A farmer in New Jersey, who could not grow clover on his land, the following year, after the use of fertilizers, procured soil from a field in Pennsylvania, upon which a magnificent growth of clover was secured.

Yield Will Be Disappointing. Says Well-Known Farmer of York County. Simpson Rennie, the well-known farmer and expert on the culture of sugar beets, is not enamored of the outlook in regard to York County.

Dust for the Fowls. While dust is to be avoided in the swine pen and barns where animals are stabled, in keeping the poultry in the right kind of dust, some of the best results are obtained.

Foreign News Notes. The New Zealand pig is being offered at London at 3d per stone, out let for such is unusually limited.

Parlans evidently have acquired a great taste for horse flesh. Last year 42,000 horses, mules and asses were slaughtered in Paris for food purposes, against 22,000 the previous year.

Judging from the annual report of proceedings under the diseases of animals act for 1905, swine fever was reduced for the first time in years to less than 1000 outbreaks, and there were fewer glander cases among horses than for 1898 to 1896 to 918 in 1905.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW.

Poor Cattle in Slow Demand—Sheep and Hogs Are Firm. The market for the past week has been very uneven. Fat cattle of good weight and quality have sold at about steady prices.

It appears that there is more truth in the claim that each plant has its own particular bacteria than may be supposed. A farmer in New Jersey, who could not grow clover on his land, the following year, after the use of fertilizers, procured soil from a field in Pennsylvania, upon which a magnificent growth of clover was secured.

Yield Will Be Disappointing. Says Well-Known Farmer of York County. Simpson Rennie, the well-known farmer and expert on the culture of sugar beets, is not enamored of the outlook in regard to York County.

Dust for the Fowls. While dust is to be avoided in the swine pen and barns where animals are stabled, in keeping the poultry in the right kind of dust, some of the best results are obtained.

When the team comes in from work at noon and nights have plenty of cool water for them. Do not make them drink warm water. It has been found that the horse which has been kept in the barn during the winter months will be likely to suffer.

If you have a number of old posts to pull an arrangement made as follows will be found useful: Make an oak lever three inches in diameter and seven feet long. To the end of the lever fasten a chain about three feet long. Also fasten on a ring with a hook. To lift out the post place the chain twice around it near the ground.

Instead of taking your produce to the purchaser, why not have the purchaser come to you? A plan that has worked very successfully in some sections of the province has been tried in a blackboard at the farm gate along the highway, and has inscribed on it what the farmer has to sell and what price may be desired.

On how many farms do we see weeds growing up in the fence corners and along the roadsides? There may be some excuse for this in some few cases, but as a rule, there is none. The weeds should be cut just as religiously in the fence corners and along the roadsides as on any other part of the farm.

Carrots are a crop it would pay farmers to give more attention to. They are especially well adapted to the farm. Good corn land will produce heavy yields of carrots and that at small expense.

A good rotation for mixed farming is wheat, clover meadow one year, pasture one year, corn and oats one year. There are permanent pastures on the farm one year can be cut out by not seeding in the clover the second year.

Fruit trees which have decayed trunks can often be repaired and preserved.

leaders declare, accepted the result of the war, and are satisfied that the Transvaal is and must remain an integral part of the empire much can be said for the immediate concession of complete autonomy. It may be a Quixotic policy, but its very generosity may prove the assurance of its success.
 A safeguard against hasty and ill-considered legislation is provided by the creation for the first parliament of a second chamber of fifteen members, nominated by the crown. This will hold until arrangements are made for an elective second chamber. No indication is given as to the mode of election, which will be a matter for after consideration, and which may to some extent counterbalance the probable Boer control of the popular house. In this way the government may hope to conciliate adverse opinion while depriving the Boers of any opportunity of complaint that they have been treated unfairly from a constitutional point of view.
 A very debatable provision of the proposed constitution is that which abrogates the Chinese labor ordinance after a reasonable time. This matter is thus removed from the consideration of the Transvaal parliament, which apparently would have power to import Chinese or other coolie labor, even if deemed expedient in the interest of the state. It is thus a limitation of jurisdiction, and in effect an attempt to impose upon the people of the Transvaal the views of the present imperial government. Whether Chinese labor be expedient or inexpedient is a local affair, which ought not to be the subject of constitutional limitation, and the provision may be a source of trouble in the future. As the imperial government intends to bring the proposed constitution into effect by order-in-council the debates in parliament will be of an academic character, and as the house of commons will stand by the government the house of lords is reduced to a position of protest only should the plan as outlined fail to command the assent of the opposition majority.

SHARP PRACTICE SCENTED REGARDING CITY CONTRACT
Another Special Meeting of Council Necessary—Other Matters at Yesterday's Gathering.
 It will be necessary for the city council to hold another special meeting before adjourning till September, the need arising out of the middle over tenders for mains for the high pressure system.
 The circumstances as reviewed by the mayor at yesterday's council meeting in defence of the board's recommendation that the Toronto Contracting Co.'s terms be accepted, were that after the tenders had been opened, the company wrote explaining that in one set of specifications, the figures should have been $1.75 instead of $1.37, making a difference of $14,500. This was understood by the tenderers to be higher than that of J. H. McKnight, to whom the contract was given. The company then claimed that the figures of the amended tender were below Mr. McKnight's. Investigation showed this to be so, but as the amendment was made after the expiry of the time allowed, it was thrown out. The company then agreed to stand by its original tender of $2,986-34. The mayor had consulted the city solicitor, who had told him that it was permissible to accept this as a tender, at a saving of about $11,000.
Sharp Game Being Played?
 The smooth course of Controller Hubbard's explanation of how the board had acted was broken by Aid. Oliver, who demanded with heat if Mr. McKnight had not actually been awarded the tender. The controller admitted the truth of this, but pointed out that a miscalculation by the city engineer had been responsible. Aid. Stewart demanded to know whether the company had not withdrawn its tender, and this was also admitted. Aid. Oliver announced he would move that the tender be referred back and that the full correspondence in the matter be produced, and Controller Jones sided with him.
 "It looks as if a sharp game was being played," contributed Aid. Keeler astutely, referring to the amendment tender calling so closely below that of Mr. McKnight. He admitted himself a prey to uneasy suspicions, and said he would like to see the amended tender. He would like to save the city $11,000, but principles should not be sacrificed. Aid. Dunn concurred in the sentiment.
 Not only the mayor, and Controllers Hubbard, Ward and Shaw dissenting, it was voted to consider the matter at a further meeting.
Lease to James Bay Railway.
 The leasing to the James Bay Railway of a 14-foot strip, containing 1 1/2-100 acres, at an annual rental of $500, and taxes, was approved, but not before objection had been taken by several aldermen to a policy of making a compact with the railway which its being set forth who should pay the cost of a high level bridge and other improvements, and safe-guarding the property of the city. Chisholm also urged the need of protection at Winchester-street crossing.
New for Civic Gas Lightings.
 The board of aldermen, who have the city conduct its own gas-lighting plant after the expiration of the present contract, was carried, conditional upon a satisfactory being made with the Consumers' Gas Company for the supplying of gas. It was argued that the price per 100 feet, the figure quoted by the company, was too high, and the mayor, as a director, will try to secure an arrangement, whereby not more than $600 per 100 feet be paid.
For a Dupont Street Park.
 Mr. Moran will report on a proposition of Aid. Harrison, to purchase vacant land on the corner of Dupont street, south of the railway tracks, from Albany-avenue east, for 700 x 100 feet, for park purposes.
The Leuty Ave. Park Space.
 The board of control will on Aid. Oliver's motion, reconsider a proposition to purchase the vacant space at the corner of Queen-street and Leuty-avenue for park purposes.
The erection of a seawall from Bathurst-street to the Humber appears to be a popular move. Controller Jones submitted a petition signed by 475 people, and other largely signed petitions were presented by Controller Ward, Aid. Harrison and Aid. Keeler. The works committee report on Aid. Harrison's motion to extend Leuty-street eastward from Major-street to Robert-street.
 Bill providing for the straightening of Manning-avenue above Queen-street was introduced by Aid. Graham.
 Permission to P. H. Humeist to remove his slaughterhouse to Paton-road, opposite Paddy Bros. abattoir, was refused. Aid. Hay's motion to allow suspension of the rules for consideration of the matter being voted down.
REFRESHMENTS AT RECEPTION.
 The city will expend $600 in dining the visiting members of the British Medical Association.
 Aid. Graham at yesterday's council meeting moved that funds be reported for the purpose, and the mayor, in support, pointed out that otherwise the reception would have to be dropped. The sum was accordingly voted.
Civic Holiday Outing.
 The one rate of single fare will apply from Toronto to all points, including Muskoka Lakes and Lake of Bays, good going all trains Saturday, Aug. 4; Sunday, Aug. 5; and Monday, Aug. 6, returning on Tuesday, Aug. 7. The holiday for pleasure outing. Secure tickets at Grand Trunk offices.

COMMISSIONER THOMPSON INDUSTRIES AND PUBLICITY
New Officer at Last Appointed by Council—Vote Was 11 to 7 and Opposition Was Not Active.
 Joseph E. Thompson is commissioner of industries. The city council yesterday invested him with the office upon whose duties he will enter on Aug. 15, at a stipend of $2500 per annum.
 For once the unexpected did not happen. Mr. Thompson was thought to have a clear field and so it proved. No other man was mentioned, and while there was some opposition on the principle that the office itself was not a necessary one, the obstruction tactics were of a mild order. No one appeared to question the nominee's fitness.
 "It's a roundabout way of trying to defeat the board of control," protested the mayor on Aid. Harrison moving that it be required that Mr. Thompson receive the support of a majority of council should other nominees be put forward. The motion was ruled out of order.
Ward Wanted It Laid Over.
 Controller Ward had no better luck with his motion to have the recommendation laid over for six months. Aid. Stewart, in support of the motion, displayed of exact knowledge of council procedure, which the motion offered would violate. Chairman Aid. Oliver supported Mr. Stewart's interpretation of the rules, whereupon Controller Ward moved that the recommendation be struck out.
 Aid. McMurrich opened a rather dragging debate by giving the opinion that the office was an unnecessary one, the assessment and property commissioners being both first-class men, who could look after the city's interests.
 Aid. Stewart opined that these officials had their hands full already, and pointed out that council had decided to create the office.
 Aid. Dunn pessimistic.
 Aid. Dunn's views as to the future of the proposed new department were tinged with gloom. He predicted that a year would see its passing. The aldermen, however, were not so pessimistic. Controller Jones by hinting that the post had been made for the benefit of a particular individual.
 The fact that Mr. Thompson was the nominee, was in the nature of a fluke, considered Aid. Vaughan, who referred efforts to land the office for other gentlemen. However, he favored the appointment.
 "Toronto is well known enough not to require a special booster," asserted Aid. Harrison, who made the point that a commissioner could only point out the city's advantages, without being able to offer special inducements. It would be better for the city to go to the legislature and get restrictions taken off so that the city could offer free sites to other industries.
 Aid. Church's travels abroad had impressed him with the value of a civic publicity department, so he informed the council.
Thompson Has Energy.
 Controller Jones, replying to Aid. Graham's objection, said that Mr. Thompson, while lacking experience in the work, had energy that would soon ensure the necessary knowledge. The fact that he had been given twenty leaves with a rawhide for attempting to get away after having been run down with bloodhounds, and an additional twenty because he would not plead for mercy.
LOCAL FRUIT MARKET.
 Tuesday was one of the big days of the year on the wholesale market. Receipts from all sources were very large, tomatoes actually being the big item on the list. Raspberries are still fairly plentiful, but the demand is so high that they would find a steady market. Prices yesterday ran from 8c to 9c a box and a few old lots brought as high as 10c. Tomatoes took a slight dip, selling down as low as 50c a basket, the same sold as high as 60c. The quality of the tomatoes offering on the wholesale market this year is almost uniformly good. Blackberries, or what is known as the "black" variety, have been scarce all through the season. Lawsons were yesterday offered for sale in fairly large quantities, but the market was not so good as for the most part of the season. The supply promises to be good. The Canadian peaches now coming on the market are of the best part of the Triumph, Hale's Early and Early Purple varieties, and certainly are of high grade. The demand is fairly good at from 30c to 50c a basket.
 Note: White's auction rooms yesterday California peaches sold at $2.50 to $3.25. Alberta peaches from $2 to $2.50, and watermelons from 25c to 30c each.
 Harry Dawson of the Dawson Commission Co. leaves this morning to attend the American apple-blossom convention, which meets for three days in Niagara Falls, N. Y. W. H. Dempsey of Trenton was also in the city on his way to the convention. We give to-day's revised quotations:

ANNUAL SHIRT SALE
 The most gigantic sale of Shirts, Toronto—perhaps Canada—will ever have witnessed.

20,000 HIGH-GRADE SHIRTS AT 50c. EACH.

An annual event with us—yet, while never before so large as this year, if we're to judge by the great crowds that have always responded, it would seem that every man in Toronto deemed it profitable to attend.

From the best Canadian, American and Austrian makers we've chosen these twenty thousand shirts.

They represent nearly every material that high-grade shirts are made from—and the very latest patterns and colors. All styles—all sizes.

And most of these shirts are the kind that you'd pay fancy prices for in the best stores of the city.

We've provided additional counters to serve you quickly, and arranged the different sizes in separate piles; we've added many sales-people to our force; there'll be a cashier on the spot, too—you'll not have to wait for change.

To be brief, we'll be ready Thursday morning to accommodate the biggest 8 o'clock crowd the store ever had, and to hand out these 20,000 brand new, high-grade shirts at

CANADA'S FUTURE.
 Those who see at some more or less remote date the absorption of Canada into the United States underrate the strength of Canadian nationalism. By the constitution of the United States, as it now exists, Canada could not enter as a federation, but only by provinces, which would then become states of the Union, and the federal name would become a mere geographical expression. Canada, a nation, would then cease to have a meaning; her history would cease and her flag be furled forever.
 Canadian patriotism is the great barrier against annexation to the republic, which does not regard independent nationhood with favor. But it is this development within the British empire which affords the best hope of an ultimate federation of the nations of the world. By the persistence of the sentiment of individual nationality within the United Kingdom itself, the way was paved for the rise of great self-governing states within the empire. That process is capable of indefinite expansion in even more elastic forms, and can be adapted to meet any and every condition. The constitution of the United States does not permit of free adaptation, and the inclusion of Canada must be preceded by an alteration in that constitution itself unless Canadians are prepared to erase the Dominion from the roll of nations.

THE TRANSVAAL CONSTITUTION.
 If the cable report correctly summarizes the British government's decision regarding the constitution to be granted to the Transvaal, it is evident that the scheme attempts a compromise between the contending sections of public opinion on the question. But as the government refuses the demand to ensure a preponderance of British representatives, the temporary safeguards which appear in the proposals are not likely to dull the edge of opposition criticism.
 The main difficulty with the constitution makers was the fact that during the period which has elapsed since the end of the war, little progress has been made by Briton and Boer towards a more intimate knowledge and appreciation of each other. This is not surprising since few of the British population are found beyond the precincts of the Rand, and even fewer Boers within them. There has been no interchange between the mining and agricultural portions of the country, nor while the present situation lasts, was there much likelihood that these conditions would be materially improved.
 Undoubtedly the British government, by conceding equality of political rights to both Boer and Briton at this stage, has accepted a very onerous responsibility which nothing but a successful issue will justify. The government has, indeed, essayed a bold experiment, and it cannot be denied, has placed in jeopardy the principles which it was the object of the war to establish on a firm basis. Yet it must be recognized that weighty arguments can be found to support the course the cabinet has taken.
 In some way or other the two parts of the white population must be taught to work together for common good under the British flag, and to take part in the sentiment of solidarity which is growing throughout the British states of South Africa. No better plan can be conceived for accomplishing this desirable end than that of parliamentary self-government. And it should not be forgotten that this has always been the declared goal, and that the controversy is one of time, not of essential difference in aim. If the Boers have, as their

THE COMING BATTLE AND THE LIBERALS.
 The first great battle in Canada for public ownership is about to begin in the Province of Ontario. The people are overwhelmingly in favor of it, but they are hampered in many ways. In no way so much as in regard to the newspaper press. The electric combination own or control at least three of the daily newspapers of Toronto; yet one of the three papers in Hamilton has ever made a fight against the Cataract Power Company in that city, and much the same condition prevails at other points. The local press in a western town where public ownership is up have confessed that they have been chloroformed by job work, and therefore they are maintaining a discreet silence. The Whitney government are friendly to the principle, and so are most of their followers, the bulk of the Liberals are for public ownership, but they are handicapped by the record of their leaders. A clear, straight call for public ownership from a reorganized Liberal party in Ontario would be a godsend to a good cause—these days, and when the Liberal party finds itself in such a position it will have to find a newspaper press sincerely committed to the same cause.

OUR NEW COMMISSIONER.
 Yesterday the city council confirmed the nomination of Mr. Joseph E. Thompson to the new commissionership of industries. The appointment is a good one, and Mr. Thompson, who has won his spurs already in the city service, enters upon his onerous and novel post under favorable circumstances. The council has refrained from specifying in detail the duties pertaining to the office, and has made no specific regulations for his guidance. Mr. Thompson is, therefore, the master of his destiny, as commissioner of industries, and can make the office a success or a failure, as he chooses.
 That there is ample room for a civic department of this kind is undeniable. It has proved invaluable in other communities, and similar officers are steadily being appointed, both in Canada and the United States. In the race of expansion no progressive municipality can afford to be left behind, and Mr. Thompson will have the advantage of the experience of other cities by which to shape his course. One of his first endeavors should be to become personally acquainted with the organizations and methods which have stood the test of practice, and to embody them with such modifications and developments as are needed in the special situation of Toronto.
 With the exhibition so near at hand, and the openings it will afford, the commissioner should lose no time in getting into harness and arranging for his first campaign. From the interest displayed in the movement by many leading citizens when The World first broached the subject, there is no doubt the new department will be cordially welcomed and supported by all interested in the progress of the city. In this connection, it may be recalled that Mr. William Mckenzie made a generous offer towards the expenses of the bureau, a sufficient indication of the public's attitude attaching to it. Given a fair field and the hearty co-operation of the citizens, the department, if conducted with energy and capacity, will at no distant date justify its creation. Mr. Thompson can make good if he rises to the measure of his opportunity.

WOMEN OF WEIGHT.
 A women's club has been organized at Hazelton, Pa., eighteen of its members having an aggregate weight of 4760 lbs.

THE TWO NEW CHURCHES.
 Permits were yesterday issued for an edifice for Centennial Methodist Church, to cost $40,000, and another for a $33,000 structure to be erected by Simpson-avenue Methodist. The Consumers' Gas Co. will expend $70,000 on a coal shed on Eastern-avenue.

Great Closing Out Sale.
 The immense book stocks of the Library Supply Company and George Kelly, 247 Yonge-street, corner Elm, must be sold no matter at what sacrifice. Prices have reached the low-water mark, a mark so low that the crowds visiting the store constantly express their inability to understand how books can be sold at such figures. Do not miss this opportunity to procure at mere fractions of its value the best that can be found in books.

New York, July 31.—The Times says: From a source seemingly reliable came the announcement yesterday that Mrs. Margaret Olivia Sage, the widow of Russell Sage, intends to distribute $10,000,000 to charity as soon as her friend, Miss Gould, gets back from Europe.

THE WONDERFUL POPULARITY of Coca-Cola has brought upon this delicious beverage that inevitable criticism which is always a part of every great and worthy success.

However, all detractions and criticisms can be, and are, completely and perfectly dismissed as untrue by the opinions and examinations made by Chemists of national reputation.

After an independent investigation, Dr. J. C. Mims, Chemist of the New Orleans Board of Health, submitted the following report to that body: "This is to certify that I have purchased in open market a quantity of Coca-Cola syrup and submitted same to analysis. After a careful examination I find that it falls to show the presence of alcohol, cocaine or other injurious alkaloids. The syrup contains the alkaloid caffeine in the proportion of one and sixty-four hundredths (1/64 Grs.) grains per fluid ounce. Caffeine is the alkaloid found in tea, coffee, and the quantity present in one bottle of Coca-Cola is less than that contained in a cup of strong coffee."

Dr. A. L. Metzger, the well known Chemist of Tulane University, tendered an exhaustive analysis in which he says: "There is absolutely nothing in Coca-Cola any more injurious than is found in ordinary tea or coffee."

Dr. McCandless, State Chemist for Georgia, in making his analysis wrote as follows: "I have purchased in the open market a sample of Coca-Cola syrup and subjected same to chemical analysis. I find therein no trace of the alkaloid cocaine, for which I have made special search, and nothing of a nature any more injurious than would be derived from drinking an ordinary cup of coffee or tea."

In view of these unqualified endorsements from such authoritative sources, all criticisms of this delicious, harmless temperance beverage should be given the immediate dismissal they deserve.

TO HEAR FROM RAILWAYS FRONT ST. LEASE STANDS

Some Aldermen Impatient Over Long Delay, But Majority Are Patient in Williams' Matter.

The conference of Hon. C. S. Hyman, minister of public works, with the mayor, has proved to be successful in delaying the granting of a lease of property on the south side of Front-street to the A. H. Williams Co. since the city council yesterday agreed to allow matters to stand, pending an announcement of the plans of the railway for a new Union Station.

The mayor pointed out that to allow a lease might mean an additional $20,000 or $40,000 to be spent by the government in expropriating new buildings that might be erected. Ald. Church, Dunn and Chisholm alone voted against deferring the granting of the lease. Ald. Church later moved in council to strike out the recommendation, the amendment being voted down.

ANTI-U.S. FEELING. Winnipeg, July 31.—Dr. Goldwin Smith of Toronto writes the Tribune: "The question of annexation, or, as I prefer to call it, Continental Union, is not before us, nor is it likely to assume a practical form within the short remainder of my lifetime. Had there been no other question between Canada and the United States in view I should hardly have cared to set myself right upon the subject."

Only Cultivated in Certain Social Set, Says Dr. Smith.

"But the question of reciprocity with the United States is before us, and is likely, my American friends tell me presently to assume a practical form. With this in view, 'doubling annexation' would hardly have been opportune on my part."

Anti-American feeling here has always seemed to me to be strongest in a certain social circle. Cultivation of kindly relations with interchange of products is surely a practical form, and by the broad and substantial interests of the body of our people.

"Anyone who has mingled much with our neighbors must know that there is not among them the slightest ill-feeling towards Canada, and that an attack upon us from that quarter is about as likely as an attack of Manitoba upon Ontario."

The Queen's Own Band, under the direction of Bandmaster G. J. Timpon, will play the following program in Riverdale Park this evening: Two Step—Silver Heels; Nell More; Overture—Tavernier; Rossini Cornet Solo—Selected; Band-Serf; Charles Savage; Scotch Selection—Roberts; Brucato; American Selection—Tone Pictures of the North and South; Bendix (a) Medley March—Happy Fields; (b) Bunch of Junk—Dixie Rube; Piccolo Solo—Selected; Thos. Allen Band-Serf; J. Pratt; Irish Selection—On Songs and Dances of Ireland; C. Volt; Medley—Ramick's Hiss.
