REBELLION IN IRELAND NOW "WELL IN HAND"

Dublin Postoffice is Recaptured From the Insurgents HEADQUARTERS OF IRISH REBELS SHELLED BY GUNBOAT

LIBERTY HALL WAS SHELLED BY GUNBOAT DURING RIOTING

Headquarters of Sinn Feiners in Belfast Occupied by Military Forces After Gunboat Had Driven Out the Occupants.

BELFAST, April 27, via London, April 28, 7:40 p.m.—Liberty Hall, the headquarters of the Sinn Fein Society in Dublin, was shelled by a gunboat during the rioting early this week in the Irish capital, according to official statements given out here. The first official intimation of the outbreak in Dublin was received yesterday. Telegraphic and telephone communication between Belfast and Dublin is still interrupted seriously.

The Belfast News Letter today says it understands the postoffice at Dublin has been retaken by the military forces. The newspaper also publishes the following statement:

Shelled Headquarters. "The police authorities desire the widest publicity in your district of the following: "During the night (Wednesday) a royal naval reserve gunboat shelled Liberty Hall, the headquarters of the Sinn Fein force and it was subsequently occupied. Meanwhile large reinforcements have arrived in Dublin. In other portions of the city the situation is well in hand and repairs to the railway line are being effected rapidly. News has been received here of the safe return to Dublin of Lord Basil Blackwood, secretary to the lord lieutenant, and Lieut. Murray Graham, who came to Belfast before the outbreak of the disorders in Dublin. "Causes Great Satisfaction. The news of the shelling and capture of Liberty Hall, a ramshackle building, the site of which is toward the Liffey River, caused the greatest satisfaction here.

An official statement from the headquarters of the Irish command in Dublin, received at the Victoria Barracks here Wednesday morning, said: "Reports from the provinces indicate that normal conditions prevail. The situation in Dublin has improved and adequate force is at the disposal of the military authorities to cope with it."

ALL ORANGEMEN ASKED TO SERVE GOVERNMENT Grand Master for Ireland Issues Order to All Loyalists.

BELFAST (via London), April 28, 8:07 p.m.—The grand master of the Orange Lodges of Ireland issued an order today to all Irish Orangemen, saying: "In a crisis like the present it is the duty of every loyal man to place his services at the absolute disposal of the government."

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

IN these days when official communiques are meagre and only half illuminative, and when all other sources of authentic information, except the British Parliament, are tightly sealed up, it has become a habit among the minor prophets, who have arisen in these times of belligerency, to indulge in speculation on what the Germans will do next. Speculation on what the allies will do are taboo when they become specific. Hence there have been cabled across the seas about ten definite predictions that the Germans were about to launch an offensive against Saloniki; about a dozen other predictions that the next German offensive would be against Riga, against Bessarabia, across the Swiss frontier to tackle the French by the back door, or against Belfort in the east and against Ypres and the pass of Calais on the western shore. That was before the blow fell on the French lines before Verdun.

But as it is almost as highly important to keep from the enemy the fact that you have a real inkling of his plans as it is to keep from him real knowledge of your own plans, the able military writers in the Paris press are exceedingly careful not to spoil the game of General Joffre and Sir Douglas Haig. So the speculations concerning the German designs indulged in by the Paris press before the battle of Verdun forecast enemy enterprises against Belfort or against Calais, altho the French general staff knew well enough that Verdun was the sugar stick that the kaiser wanted to give to his petulant heir. So, believing that his designs were undetected, the emperor cast his die. But instead of stealing a march on Joffre, the kaiser stole a march on himself. If he had known what Joffre knew he would probably have struck elsewhere.

When the foregoing considerations are thrown into the scale, it is seen that predictions from Paris and London that the Germans are going to launch a big offensive against the British army must be accepted with philosophic doubt. The only persons who know the truth about the prospects of such an offensive are the members of the British and French general staffs, and they never disclose their knowledge. The closing of the Swiss frontier for the supposed moving of German troops has only remote bearing on the British

The King Had Conference With Asquith and Kitchener His Majesty's Sudden Trip from Windsor to London Gives Rise to Much Surmise.

LONDON, April 28.—Considerable gossip was occasioned in local circles tonight over an official announcement that King George made a journey from Windsor to London this afternoon with the special purpose of a conference with Premier Asquith and Earl Kitchener, and immediately returned to Windsor. The war council of the cabinet sat for two hours this morning and assembled again this afternoon for another long session, after which it was understood to have adjourned until tomorrow morning. Whether another cabinet crisis has arisen is not known.

RAVAGES OF WAR WILL BE REPAIRED

Allies' Economic Conference Agrees on Broad Reconstruction Program.

TO PREVENT DUMPING MORE CASH GRANTS Fear Felt That German Goods Will Flood Markets After War.

PARIS, April 28.—The international parliamentary economic conference of the entente allies, today, passed resolutions recognizing the principle of a complete reparation of damage caused by the war in the different countries represented. The conference recognized that the allied governments study means of replacing the machines and merchandise taken by the enemy, thus preventing, in part, a state of industrial inferiority in the regions occupied by the enemy as compared with the enemy countries which have not suffered from military occupation. It suggests that enemy countries be obliged, in the treaty of peace, to replace all material and machines necessary for the resumption of industrial activity in the occupied regions.

AID TO RAILWAYS STRONGLY OPPOSED

Conservative Caucus at Ottawa Yesterday Did Not Reach Agreement.

COMMISSION MAY BE APPOINTED TO RUN TRANSCONTINENTAL LINES.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 28.—The government members held a caucus this morning on the railway situation, Sir Robt. Borden, Sir Thomas White, Hon. A. E. Kemp and Hon. J. D. Reid, were among the members of the cabinet present. Great secrecy is being maintained as to what took place but it is generally known that the proposal of the government met with strong opposition. Those proposals, as outlined by the prime minister, contemplate cash advances by way of loan to the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk Pacific, as already foreshadowed by The World. The amount needed for present urgent demands is fifteen million dollars for the Canadian Northern and ten million dollars for the Grand Trunk Pacific.

PRICE OF USES REDUCED UNDER BRITISH ORDERS

More Than Million Dollars Saved on One New York Contract.

SHELL BOARD'S STATUS Members Regarded as Contractors Merely by the British Government.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, April 28.—I. F. Hellmuth, K.C., at today's session of the Meredith-Duff Commission, apparently knocked from under the government the prop upon which it has leaned as a legal reason for refusing a wide open investigation into the transactions of the shell committee. In a carefully worded statement, Mr. Hellmuth declared that the members of the shell committee were never officials of the British Government. The war office, he said, regarded them as contractors. Legally, he thought they were merely contractors, but as they assumed to act officially, they were under a moral obligation to do the best they could for the government. In this connection he offered in evidence a contract made in July, 1915, between General Sir Sam Hughes, as the representative of the imperial government, and the manufacturers upon the shell committee's contractors, involving $147,000,000.

The affairs of the Russell Motor Car Company were again before the royal commission, and it developed that this concern now has an order for 500,000 gramme fuses at $4.50 per fuse and is in negotiation for the manufacture of time fuses. Cut in Prices Offered. Perhaps the most important item of the proceedings this afternoon was the disclosure that the American Ammunition Company had been compelled by the imperial government to reduce the price for gramme fuses (unloaded) from $3.72 to $2.35 per fuse. This means a saving of over one million dollars upon the order to be delivered. Another fact of rather peculiar interest was the announcement that altho the American Ammunition Company had recently received an order for 600,000 additional fuses. A touch of the romantic interest was lent to the proceedings this afternoon by the statement that the German spies were taking notes in the court room. As the testimony is all published in great length in the local papers, the alleged spies were not interrupted.

RUSSIANS GAIN GROUND ON FRONT NEAR DVINSK

Push Back German Lines in Renewal of Fighting in North.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. PETROGRAD, April 28.—The Russian general headquarters reported today that Russian troops have made a further advance in the Glinovka region, west of Dvinsk. This is the first official word that the infantry fighting has been reported on the section of the front. Near Tarnopol, in Galicia, the Russian captured some trenches on which the Austrians were working, and in a hand-to-hand fight bayoneted a number and took prisoner one officer and 82 men. Then they destroyed the works of the enemy. This action impelled the Austrians to assume the offensive. They were met by Russian fire and counter-attacks and put to flight, leaving behind wounded and unrounded men and considerable war material.

REDMOND DENOUNCES REBELS AS ENEMIES OF HOME RULE

Sinn Fein Faction, Acting as Catspaw of Germany, Rob Irish Patriots of Fruits of Long Endeavor.

LONDON, April 28.—John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists in the house of commons tonight gave the Associated Press a statement concerning the uprising in Dublin. "My first feeling, of course, on hearing of this insane movement was one of horror, discouragement and almost despair," said Mr. Redmond. "I asked myself whether Ireland, as so often before in her tragic history, was to dash the cup of liberty from her lips—was the insanity of a small section of her people once again to turn all her marvelous victories of the last few years into irreparable defeat and to send her back on the very eve of her final recognition as a free nation, into another long night of slavery, incalculable suffering and wearying and uncertain struggling."

Great Progress Made. Mr. Redmond pointed to the great progress made by Ireland during the past forty years, finally placing on the statute books the "greatest charter of freedom ever offered" per since the days of Grattan. "What has Ireland suffered in the past which Poland, Alsace, Belgium and Serbia may have not suffered at the hands of Germany? And I may add also that portion of the soil of France, her old friend and ally, which is in the hands of Germany?"

REBELS ARE BEING SURROUNDED BY TROOPS Situation in Dublin is Well in Hand, Says Sir John French, But Riots Spread to Galway and Ennisecorhy—Disturbances Are Local in Character.

LONDON, April 28, 1:27 a.m.—"The military operations for the suppression of the rebellion in Dublin are now being satisfactorily conducted," says the communication issued by Field Marshal Sir John French, commanding the home forces, late last night. "What may be described as the organized forces of the rebels," the communication adds, "are confined to a few localities, the principal one being the Sackville street district, in which the rebel headquarters appear to be the general postoffice.

Sinn Feiners, Combined With Followers of James Larkin, Prompted by Foreigners, Started Out To Seize City and Shoot at Sight.

BULLETINS

LONDON, April 28, 4:36 a.m.—The Dublin rebels have been driven out of their positions in St. Stephen's Green with bombs, after sustaining heavy losses, says The Daily News.

KINGSTON, Ireland, via London, April 28, 4:55 a.m.—Four hundred Irish rebels were made prisoner when the troops captured St. Stephen's Green and drove them out with bombs.

CORK, via London, April 28, 4:40 a.m.—A committee of Dublin Sinn Feiners arrived here by automobile Monday and held a secret conference with local leaders. Later the committee was arrested at Limerick by the military, before they had a chance to confer with the leaders there.

LONDON, April 28, 8:55 a.m.—A despatch to The Daily Mail from Dublin says that the rebel forces on Thursday numbered about 12,000, of which 2000 were Larkinites and 10,000 were Sinn Feiners. There were a large number of peaceful citizens who were the victims of stray bullets in the heavy casualty list, the despatch adds.

LONDON, April 28.—For all the British public is permitted to know, the flag of the Irish rebels is still flying over the Dublin general postoffice, which was captured Monday by the Sinn Feiners, out for what was innocently supposed by the Dublin population to be a mere Easter Monday route march.

No telegrams have been received from Dublin by any newspaper and, altho every condense is felt that the authorities have the situation in hand and have ample resources to deal with it, nothing appeared in the London newspapers today to add to what was known yesterday concerning the trouble in Dublin.

Postoffice Recaptured? It is reported from Belfast that the postoffice has been recaptured, but the report has not yet been confirmed by any other quarter. From Belfast also comes the official report issued at Dublin Castle Wednesday stating that Liberty Hall was captured after being shelled by a gunboat on the River Liffey, and that the situation was well in hand in other parts of the city.

DUBLIN, April 28, via London, April 28, 10:15 a.m.—Dublin has now been held up for 24 hours by a combination of members of the Sinn Fein Society and followers of James Larkin, head of the Transport Workers' Union, and well-known as a strike leader.

There has been the same violence in the city as marked the big street car strike in 1915, which was headed by Larkin, but supplemented by the use of an armed force with military pretensions and the seizure of strategic points designed to give the disturbance the aspect of a revolution.

The lord lieutenant of Ireland, in a proclamation today, calls the movement "insurrectionary" and declares that it is due to foreign prompting. It is, he says, "small." He adds that "stern measures are being taken to suppress it."

Situation Serious. The revolution thus far is considered an imitation, tho on a much extended scale, of "Port Charbon" in Paris, which was held by political rioters some 15 years ago and the riots in Sydney street in London. "While it is declared not to have the support of the people generally and even is not considered by some of the authorities as a rising, the situation certainly is very serious and far beyond the dimensions of a riot.

The trouble has gone on now for 24 hours and has completely dislocated the life of Dublin. No shops are open, and no business is being transacted. Street cars have ceased to run and the gas supply has been cut off. Use of the telephone between the city and the suburbs has been forbidden by the military, and the running of trains to and from the country is very irregular.

"Considerable damage was caused by fires on the 27th, and a large fire is still burning in Sackville street. "In the other parts of Ireland the principal centres of disturbance are County Galway and Ennisecorhy. Disturbances are also reported at Killarney, Clonmel and Gorey. "The other parts of Ireland appear normal. "The general trend of the reports received indicates that the disturbances are local in character."

CHARITY IN THE TENTH BEAT JOE BIRMINGHAM

Base on Balls Downfall of Leafs in Opener — Locals Hit Well.

Special to The Toronto World.
NEWARK, N.J., April 28.—Toronto and Newark figured here today in a delayed opening of the baseball season, the Indians winning out in the tenth inning to the tune of 4 runs to 3.

A crowd of about four thousand fans turned out to witness the ceremonies; the fact that many had arranged to view the opening yesterday when rain prevented the lid from being pried off and also that the weather was cold and threatening today probably served to keep the crowd down. Everything taken into consideration Fred Tenney and James Price, owners of the club, expressed themselves as being perfectly satisfied with the welcome the Indians received on their return to town.

The usual preliminaries were staged previous to the call of the game. Once the battle got under way both teams hustled every minute and completed the ten innings in one hour and fifty minutes. President Brown was on hand, as were Lawrence Solman and James J. McCaffery of the Toronto club. Mayor Raymond, who was slated to pitch the first ball, was delayed at the city hall and did not arrive until after Elmer Day, city treasurer, tossed the season going by tossing the ball from a box.

The Maple Leafs were compelled to play an uphill game from the start. Walker Manning went the route for the Leafs, while Johnny Benzmann hurried for the Redskins. Manning was strong after the first inning. A pass given to Hal Cable in Newark's half of the tenth was his undoing.

Heavy hitting honors went to the Leafs. Erickson, Manning and Blackburn each connected for doubles. Toronto grabbed off a pair of stolen bases, the only pilfers of the battle.

Hal Cable and Leo Witter figured prominently in Newark's victory and Toronto's downfall. Cable tallied three runs and two of these were sent over the plate by Witter. Cable brought the first tally over the plate and also scored the one that decided the battle.

Cable, the first man to face Manning, slugged a single to left and Move sacrificed him along. Milan walked and Witter sent Cable over the plate by slugging a single to right. Milan reached third on the rap and scored on Callahan's sacrifice fly.

Toronto got one back in the fourth when Brackett slugged a double up against the right field fence and scored on outs by Zimmerman and Blackburn.

In the fifth Cable singled, reached second on Move's free kick and tallied on Milan's rap.

In the sixth the Maple Leafs came to life with two down and sent two runners over the plate. Graham started with a single and Blackburn injected a double. Then Brock slammed one between Durgin and Cable that was too hot for Witter to handle.

With the score tied the teners fought hard for an advantage. With two down in the tenth Becker singled and stole second, but Philadelphia on his fifth trip to the plate without getting the sign of a single, walked to second.

Manning then took eight of the plate and popped Cable. Move again sacrificed and after Miller popped to Wright, Witter sending the first pitched ball to left, sending Cable over the plate.

COBURG, April 28.—In a game of baseball here the 1924th Battalion beat the seniors of the Methodist Church by a small margin, which was reversed by the seniors in another game. The Coburg heavy battery team is also in the line and will probably be some interesting ball during the next few weeks.

Hamilton Already Fixing Up the Rugby

HAMILTON, April 28.—An announcement has been made in connection with regard to next fall's athletic matters of no small proportions at the present time. It is, nevertheless, quite true, if the announcement is carried out, as undoubtedly it will be, that it will be in a very respect-worthy way associated with the progress of the war.

Montreal and Ottawa have already announced the formation of the Inter-provincial, the reason being that the province has been divided into three sections, and they in turn are making provision for the probability of a military season, which would once again take away from members of and representing the 1924th Battalion of Montreal, the 1924th Battalion of Ottawa, and the 2024th Battalion of Hamilton.

Since McEwen, a lieutenant of the Montreal unit; King (Clancy) who needs no introduction to the readers of this paper; Captain Rennie Laidlaw of the 160th Battalion; and Captain H. M. Pottier, captain of the local Sportsmen's Battalion, are at present negotiating regarding the proposed Inter-provincial, and a week or ten days a definite announcement will be made. It is intended to play football, hockey, and other sports, and the interest in military matters as a consequence will probably be some. All expenses will be easily taken care of by receipts from the games.

At the beginning of the night's play McCormick were 2 points in the lead and with the advantage of home games they appeared to get a double and win three out of eight games. The Moss Park players were: Walter Johnson, Harrington, Fitzgerald, Arthur, Rosen, Shaw and McLean. In the senior division, Dickson, Kinsey, White and Reeves, for McCormick, won one game, while Phillips, Nugent, Rumbold and Solman, for Moss Park won the other three. All the games were close, the progress of the battle veering with the announcement of each score, but in the end Moss Park had the title by only 28 points.

Cardinals and Reds ARE GREAT WARRIORS

Over Thirty Hunting for National League Bunting—Palmero Making Good.

Emilio Palmero is pitching good ball for the Giants, and they say he resembles George Wittke on the field.

All of which recalls Wittke's great work series last August against the Athletics in the 1915 series on Oct. 5. Plank and Matty stood 0 to 0, and it looked as tho the big master would register the third 5-0 victory in his career over the Gettysburg veteran.

Doyle's wild throw permitted Strunk and Barry to advance. With next man retired, Matty steadily showed his great pitching ability. Last year he pitched to Wittke at first, who caught Strunk at the plate. A right-handed first-sacker could not have been better than Wittke.

Instead of resorting to a pinch-hitter for Plank for which Matty was roundly criticized, Plank tried desperately to win his game. But he hit directly at Wittke, who smared it over the bag, threw to Miller and retired Barry. Wittke then made Eddie Murphy hit under a fast one. Matty won his own game with a sinicid. He hit to deep centre, Fletcher also singled, and Shaffer's triple brought the Giants their only game. It is just such things as Palmero's likeness to Wittke that brings out good yards.

As was the case last year, the Phillies are straining every nerve to jump ahead, and they are quite a success of it. History is making at least a faint attempt to repeat the feat of last year, and was also a member of the Scottish International team. Allan was reported in Saturday's list as killed in action.

WHEAT SEIZURE NOT A SUCCESS

Foster Says Scarcity of Ocean Tonnage Held Back Movement.

ITALY'S NEED GREAT

Urgent Appeal Made Swift Measures Necessary— "Despotic," Says Laurier.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Ont., April 28.—The house spent today discussing the far-reaching commandeering of wheat last November, the ever present ocean tonnage and the general grain situation in the west. Sir George Foster explained at length the action of the government, which he said, had been prompted by the urgent needs of Italy. The wheat had to be secured quickly, and he urged that commandeering was the best method that could have been resorted to.

The government, however, would not have adopted so drastic a measure had it realized at the time the scarcity of ocean tonnage. Italy had been unable to furnish the ships to transport the wheat, and therefore the last of the commandeered grain would not leave this country before the end of May.

"Despotic," Says Laurier.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier denounces the commandeering as despotic. No government, he said, had ever resorted to such a course unless in case of famine. Several western Liberal members also spoke in criticizing the government, claiming that the commandeering had been prompted by a desire to stem the overwhelming demand of the west for free wheat.

Hon. Frank Oliver and Mr. Buchanan, Medicine Hat, criticized the action of the government in erecting huge elevators at Calgary, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon, but Sir George Foster declared that if all the western wheat had been transported to the seaboard this winter and lodged in terminal elevators, no more would be on its way to Europe than was actually exported under present conditions.

When the house moved into committee to supply Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, (Continued From Page One.)
Laurier's explanation of the action of the government in commandeering the wheat, Italy's Need Great.

He said that when the Canadian Government was requested to purchase the grain the shortage in Italy was absolutely acute. She, herself, needed a greater amount than the thirteen million bushels commandeered by the government. The matter was urgent. After somewhat extended negotiations, he said, the government was finally on November 23, 1915, requested by the allied commission to procure forthwith a large quantity of wheat and oats. It was agreed quickly, therefore, for the government to think and act quickly. There were three methods open to the government. They might have sent buyers thru the country to purchase from the individual farmer. But this was precluded by the fact that the navigation was too close in a very few weeks, and such a method was necessarily slow.

Purchase Not Practicable.
They might have gone to the brokers of the country to buy up stores of wheat, but that method involved large distributions of commissions, and the allied commission, was in duty bound to supply the commodity at the lowest possible price. In both the methods, he said, the fact that the movement was in the market would have automatically boosted the prices and forced the government to buy on a rising market.

The third method was commiserate dealing, which was resorted to.
The government's action, he said, was the best advice, came to the conclusion that the fairest way all round was to take possession of the grain by commandeering, and at midnight on November 27 they issued an order to the government agents at Fort William and the public elevators in eastern Canada to retain all wheat in store at that hour of grade numbers one, two and three, and to reserve it all for the use of the government. Sir George said that 40,800,248 bushels were commandeered at the head of the lakes, and 321,451 in eastern Canada, a total of 10,621,799. The current price of wheat on that day was 104 3-4 for No. 1 Manitoba wheat.

Given Fair Price.
"I think that system, taking into consideration the state of the market, which was on the upward grade, was justified," Sir George said. "The men whose wheat was commandeered stood to lose nothing by the government's action. On that day they received a fair and equitable price for their grain." An additional argument in favor of the commandeering order, Sir George said, was the fact that the grain taken was principally in the hands of middlemen. "If we had gone about from day to day buying on a rising market they would have been the men to benefit, having bought it at lower prices. The replenishing of the reserve of wheat which naturally resulted, returned to the benefit of the producers, and whatever rise in price ensued, benefited the farmers," he declared.

Sir George believed that the action was the best for the allies' purposes. They got the grain at the current rate of that day and had to pay nothing for increase in price as a result of their buying, which would have resulted if wheat had been bought on the instalment plan.

Three difficulties presented themselves in the operation of commandeering order which had to be met by the government. When the government took possession of 10,000,000 bushels at the head of the lakes it immediately stopped the regular outflow of grain to eastern ports. So, to meet the situation, the government agreed to loan to commission men having vessels in readiness quantities of wheat on condition that it be replaced within ten days. Some seven and a half millions of bushels were thus taken. It resulted in a record ten days' output from the western elevators, namely 10,000,000 bushels.

The commandeering cut off the supply of the mills. To meet this the government released all grain in eastern elevators when shown a bona-fide certificate with millers on their guarantee that their wheat was to be ground, and on making the required deposit with the government. That released 1,000,000 bushels.

And so as not to tie up shipping, bona-fide contractors with the old country who had cargo space reserved for shipment were given release of grain which they agreed to return within reasonable time.

"All this grain has not gone out yet," Sir George said, "but there has always been more grain ready for loading than there have been ships provided by the allies. Probably the last of it will not leave our port until the end of May, when it will be taken out of the port of Montreal."

Laurier Not Convinced.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier asked for whose benefit the grain had been commandeered, to which the minister replied that it was for the allied commission thru whom most of the war purchases were made. The balance of the grain remaining in Canada was still subject to their order.

Sir Wilfrid's reply was short but critical of the government's action. "No government ever before," he said, "had commandeered supplies unless a famine threatened. The government should have secured the grain thru the ordinary trade channels of supply. Absolutely no purpose, he said, had been served by the government, and they had estranged the whole grain trade of the country. The despotic action resulted in serious complaints from all over Canada and he had not yet heard a single reason why the action was taken.

In reply to Mr. Martin, Regina, as to whether Italy received any Canadian wheat within four weeks after Nov. 27, Sir George said: "No. If we had known beforehand of the coming scarcity of tonnage and known that the Italian government could not supply ships then we should have taken our time and got the wheat in dribbles."

Turriff's Charge.
Mr. Turriff (Assiniboia) thought the minister made an absurd statement when he said the government in commandeering 13,000,000 bushels of wheat had helped the farmers to get a better price for the balance of a 200,000,000 bushels. He charged the government with engineering the wheat for political purposes. What usually went down at the close of navigation, and the government hoped to do something on which to claim the wheat curiously commenced to go up and the government was now hard put to get out of an awkward corner.

Mr. Martin (Regina) said that the first thing the government should have seen to before taking such drastic action was transportation facilities. He charged the western Conservatives with turning their coats so far as looking after the interest of the western farmer was concerned.

Mr. Buchanan (Medicine Hat) and Hon. Frank Oliver severely criticized the construction of elevators at Calgary, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw, what was needed was more terminal elevators, it was asserted.

CHARGE STILL STANDS AGAINST RAILWAY CO.
City Solicitor Prepares Report of Cases Before Railway Board.

A report showing the standing of all cases and applications before the Dominion Railway Board and the Ontario Railway Board, in which the city is affected, has been prepared by City Solicitor Johnston for Mayor Church.

Regarding the application for a better service by the Toronto Railway Board, the report states that the matter is in the hands of the railway board, who are collecting information regarding the services supplied by the company. At the request of the board of control, the indictment against the company for overcrowding still stands.

IS CLAIMING DAMAGES FOR EXPROPRIATION
Harry Robinson Asks Six Thousand Dollars From City.

Before Official Arbitrator P. H. Drayton, in the city hall yesterday afternoon, Harry Robinson claimed about $6000 for the expropriation of his two houses on Coxwell avenue at the time when the city laid a sewer in that district.

Several offers were made in the vicinity at the time of the expropriation, many of which were accepted by the property owners, but the claimant could not see his way clear to accept the one made for his property.

Many of these settlements were referred to by J. T. Simpson of the city assessment department, who gave evidence on the city's behalf. Cross-examining for Mr. Robinson, Norman Somerville asked the witness if certain parties had not been told that arbitration might take a year before settlement and he replied that it was quite likely, as it was not unusual for such a period to elapse before arbitration was concluded.

An adjournment was made until Friday, May 5.

BRITISH CRUISER VICTIM OF MINE

Great Majority of Officers and Crew of Russell Saved.

HUN SUBMARINE SUNK

Officer and Seventeen Men of Her Crew Were Taken Prisoners.

LONDON, April 28.—An admiralty report says that the British cruiser "H.M.S. Russell, Capt. William Rowden Smith, R.N., flying the flag of Rear-Admiral Fremantle, struck a mine in the Mediterranean yesterday and was sunk. The admiral, captain, 24 officers and 676 men were saved. There are about 124 officers and men missing. A German submarine was sunk off the east coast yesterday. One officer and 17 men of the crew surrendered and were made prisoners. Laid Down in 1899.

The Russell was laid down in 1899 and completed in 1903. She was 495 feet long, 75 feet beam, 26 feet deep, and displaced 14,000 tons. She was armed with four 12-inch, 12 six-inch, and four torpedo tubes. She cost about $5,000,000. She was recommissioned at the end of 1912 after being refitted. Under ordinary conditions the Russell carried between 750 and 800 men.

The German admiral announced today that on Wednesday night German naval forces destroyed a large British guard vessel on Dogger Bank, and brought in a British fishing steamer as a prize.

An official British statement says that the British steamship industry was sunk by an enemy submarine, and the crew was left in open boats in the Atlantic 120 miles from the nearest land. The boats, with the entire crew, were picked up by the American liner Finland. The industry was proceeding to a United States port and was unarmored. The industry, 4044 tons, was built in Belfast in 1888, and plied between French and United States ports.

FUNERAL OF REV. AMOS CAMPBELL

Every little part, even the interior of the engine, is quickly get-at-able. Just imagine getting 20 miles to the gallon with a big roomy six that can do the long grind up Avenue Road Hill on high gear with ease. That is an economical car for sure—many can even get 28 miles.

The Grant is just heavy enough to hold her down on the road at a fifty-mile clip, and light enough to save the tires, as compared with heavy sixes that give no more service. Besides, every bit of good engineering saves tires. Her performance shows you the Grant is right from radiator to tail lights.

More economical than any "four," with all the luxury and appointments of a big six—at a price that will open your eyes wide.

A SENSATIONAL RISE IN SILVER METAL

Each day it becomes more and more apparent that there is a keen contest for silver and one which can only be settled by much higher prices. Several of the European and some Asiatic countries are in the market for the white metal and sellers are scarce.

COBALT STOCKS RUN INTO BULL MARKET

Transactions Amounted to Almost Quarter of Million Shares.

Cobalt silver stocks were booming yesterday at the Standard Stock Exchange, and were among the most active of the day.

As predicted at various stages of the public came to some realization of what the advance in silver has done and is doing for the Cobalt stocks.

The buying from American sources was again a feature of trading. It began to look as though the market was beginning to accumulate stocks.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

THE ROBINS PLAYERS

"Under Cover" Rol Cooper Me-trio's melodramatic sensation of the season in New York, Boston and Chicago, will be the opening bill of the Robins Players, who with Edward H.
Robins, inaugurate their summer engagement at the Alexandra Theatre, Monday evening. Indications are that the coming season will be a banner one.

To give an outline of the story, for it would not be fair to go into detail.
"Under Cover" has to do with amusement and the secret service. A young woman is forced to aid the detectives in tracing a person suspected of smuggling valuable jewelry. Because she may have unsuspected with the person of social prominence, she is used as the medium thru which the secret service is conducted. In the entanglement which results both her sister and the man she loves become involved. She finds herself matching her wits against the detectives in an effort to protect those she loves while trying to keep faith in her agreement.

She wins a battle which is said to be filled with tense moments and situations which thrill. Among the old favorites who will be seen in the opening attraction are: Reina Carubera, Emma Campbell, Helen Travers, Vivian Laidlaw, Eugene Fraser, Jack Amory, Jerome Renner, Thomas Mc-
Knight, Frank Priestland, E. Webb, Chamberlain and Carl Sheahan. The only new members being Thomas

"A PAIR OF SIXES"

"A Pair of Sixes," the farce by Edward Peple, which ran for an entire year at the Longacre Theatre, New York, will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House, for the first time here at popular prices. There has been no dissenting opinion as to the ingenuity of the fantastic idea on which the plot is based and the swift movement and comic intensity of the details, make an endless entertainment of rarely enjoyable fun.

The story concerns George B. Nettleton and T. Boggs Johns, manufacturers of a digestive pill, who are continually quarrelling about their respective claims of being the brains of their prosperous business. With a burst of temper, each declares he wants to break the partnership. This is not easy to arrange, but when their lawyer comes they dispute as much about the details of the split as they had previously done about the details of the business. They finally accept their lawyer's suggestion to divide and dissolution by drawing a hand at poker. They agree that the one who wins shall be the master of the business and the other is to be his servant for a year.

SHEA'S THEATRE.

Featuring the presentations at Shea's Theatre next week is a great big scenic production, "The Forest Fire," which takes one in the heart of the west and thrills with all the possibilities of romance which the title would suggest. At the same time it is perfectly safe and a high tribute to electric skill, inasmuch as the whole effect is produced by electricity. Another special attraction on the bill is Miss Marie Bergere, in a new Japanese sketch, "The Cherry Blossom."
It is a delightful comedy in one act, in which Miss Bergere appears as sakura San, meaning cherry blossom, and is assisted by a company of Ralph Dunbar's salon singers have some fine vocal offerings and are a feature of the musical section of the bill. The quartet is made up of the Misses Caryall and Baxter and Messrs. Hookman and Bannister. Other attractive offerings on the bill are character songs, Harry Paynton and Frank Green in an automatic novelty and new pictures in the kinetograph.

THE HIPPODROME.

An unusually attractive bill has been provided for the Hippodrome next week, with McIntosh and his musical maids as the headline act. This is a breath straight from the theater, the troupe being famous as dancers, singers and instrumentalists and excellent in their rendering of the old-time Scottish favorites and excellent
Metro sensational feature photo-pla-

Malice," a distinctive photo drama in five big acts, abrim with unusual situations, thrilling incidents and sustaining incidents. The story is a premier romance. Featuring in this Hamilton Revelle, the gifted romantic star, and Barbara Tennant, the popular dramatic artist. The story is intensely gripping at a time like this, seeing it is a story of love, honor, diplomacy and the treachery which sometimes accompanies it. Further, and Harry Paynton, there is a comedy playlet, "Miss Thelma's

other entertainers.

LOEW'S THEATRE.

An elaborate and decidedly novel feature in Loew's Theatre next week, the coming week will be Ernest Evans and his Society Circus and Ballroom. Ernie Evans, the favorite of New York's "400," will present the most stupendous and pretentious collection of dance numbers that has yet been staged before the theatre public.
Surrounded by his 12 beautiful society dancers, he offers an exhibition of grace and a spectacle of scenic and costume grandeur. Another big feature on this program will be Douglas Vint Company's comedy playlet,
"The Merchant Prince." Ernie
will include the king of monologists, Dave Ferguson in new songs, comedy and parodies; Harry Tyler and Gladys Crotius in "The Dippyists"; Bert and Lottie in bits of musical comedy; Gormley and Gaffney's pantomime acrobats; Bauer and Saunders offering the latest New York song hits.

NOTHING TO EQUAL BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

Mrs. Lawrence M. Brown, Walton,
N.S., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past ten years and believe there is nothing to equal them for little ones. They instantly relieve constipation and teething troubles, and unlike any other medicine I have used they are pleasant to take and do not grip the baby." The tablets are sold by medicine dealers or out on a burlesque tour. To lead this wonderful bevy of girls, which has won admiration in every theatre in which they have been seen this season, the management have secured Millie Laveridge, the well-known prima donna.

Bessie White is a very dainty souvereign with plenty of life and shames the feminine honors with Lillian English.
The funny side of the show is capably looked after by the funny Howard, Low Golden.

BATTLE CRY OF PEACE.

Robert S. Marvin has arranged to present "The Battle Cry of Peace" at Massey Hall for the entire week of May 8. Seats can be reserved on Monday next, the 1st prox.
The evening prices will be as follows: entire lower floor, 25 cents; first balcony (centre section), 50 cents, and the remainder of first balcony, 25 cents; entire upper gallery, rush seats, 15 cents.

At matinees the following prices will rule: entire lower floor, 15 cents; first balcony (centre section), 25 cents, and the remainder of the seats in the house 10 cents.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" created quite a furore when previously in Toronto, and Mr. Marvin is presenting it in a manner that is in every way worthy of this superb spectacle.

"THE DISCARD," AT GRAND.

The headliner at the Grand Theatre for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next will be "The Discard," a thrilling international crime play by Charles Michelson. The presenting cast is an exceptional one, and includes Virginia Hammond in the part of the heroine, while the leading male role is taken by Ernest Massey, who was for years leading man for Sarah Bernhardt. Many of the scenes of the play are set in the operations of a pair of international syndicates, and are laid in the French capital. Miss Hammond literally lives the part she is playing, and in some of the scenes in which she is supposed to be grief-stricken, she seems to have great difficulty in stopping the flow of tears, so genuine is her emotion.

MRS. SWEET-AND-WHOLESAOME came and sat on the porch the other day and talked to me about what on earth to do with her daughter.

It was a comfortable porch, wide and roomy and airy, with striped awnings over it and great big, deep wicker chairs, a regular winter resort for the sun shone as if there was no such thing as cold anywhere on earth, and the scarlet poinsettias flamed against the white pillars of the porch and the blue sea fungus lace lounges upon the yellow sand, and all the world was summer, in California.

But Mrs. Sweet-and-Wholesome wasn't happy—she was worried and puzzled and baffled. "What do you think of them?" she said, "the new generation? I'm ready as my wit's end."

"Last night at dinner we had such a queer time. I had a little party for my daughter and her cousin, who's visiting her. My daughter is just out of college and her cousin graduated from a smart finishing school last June—they're both pretty things, not beauties, you know, but nice, sweet, pretty girls—as good as gold and as full of fun and play as a couple of kittens. I thought I was going to have such a good time with them down here. We've all been so busy at home, I really haven't had much of a chance to get acquainted with daughter since she graduated, and this little dinner was going to be the beginning of our good times. I planned it with a good deal of care, the decorations were those new pink roses and lilies of the valley, and the girls wore rose pink, but, goodness, my niece's frock!

"If a daring young widow had worn a frock like that in my time she'd have shocked the company and here was my dear little niece cut down to the waist in the back and bare arms, and the skirt up to the middle between her ankles and her knees; of course they danced afterwards. My girl's dress was all right, I saw that. But the talk! Is my face red this minute? I blush every time I think of it. There were four men and a young married woman, the two girls and I, and what do you think they did?

"First, my sweet things, joke each other a bit the way we used to?"

"Not in the least—they talked psychology, and the sex war and sex qualities and sex differentiations till I knew the water was shocked to his very heart. I was, anyhow. Why, I never heard anything like it! If there was a word left on earth ever written in a physician's text book that those sweet young things didn't know and speak, I'd like to hear it."

"They discussed every subject that I've always thought should never even be hinted at, any they didn't even lower their voices."

"I heard all about 'first love' and what it really meant, both psychically and physically. Last week I was analyzed, too, so searchingly that I saw that idiosyncrasy fairly tremble under the hammer of his analysis. Tell her about it when he went home, she discussed, too—oh, no, not under any such harmless general name as that—they went into it from start to finish and didn't leave a thing to the imagination."

"They were so eagerly interested that it wasn't the slightest use to try to stop them. After dinner they danced and I sat and chaperoned them. Chaperoned? Dear little niece, when I have been chaperoned at that dinner myself, I'm sure I needed it!"

"What are they coming to, what shall we do about it—Isn't anything to be left secret? Must we shout the very secrets of our hearts across a hall-room for all the world to hear, or isn't it done, having secrets, any longer?"

"I cried all night after I'd gone to bed. I don't know whether to telegraph my husband to come and take us home or what, I never missed him so much in my life. I do wonder what he would have done if he'd been there; why, I feel as if I'd been in one of those horrid dreams, where you come to in a crowded ballroom or on a public street, and find yourself, in your nightgown, barefooted and with your hair in curl papers. I can't wonder what I never shall be able to stand the new point of view, I know I shall."

"And I sympathize with Mrs. Sweet-and-Wholesome, I've felt a good deal like her myself for the last year or so."

"And then it came time for the bathing hour, and we went to the beach and there were Sweet-and-Twenty and her cousin, Sweet-and-Eighteen, in tight and low-cut bodices, no stockings, no skirts, so slim and beautiful as they could manage it, and into the surf

DIVIDED ATTENTION * By Will Nies

THERE seems to be a most malicious little imp who hovers around anything that's called "Duty." No matter how pleasant, how fine, how much to be desired the thing may be, just tag it with THAT name and up he bobs. And if, perchance, there's anything near we love, he'll put his weight on the strings of imagination and pull and pull away from Duty. He's the "twixt Love and Duty" Imp.

HAVE THEIR DRAWBACKS.

First Thinker—There's one way I have to get Washington. Sweet Sixteen—In your friend, so I'll listen to it. First Thinker—He couldn't tell a lie. I can.

GOOD GUESS.

Grave Sixteen—I believe that I can guess your thoughts. Sweet Sixteen—Can you? Well, then, you mustn't kiss me more than once, dear, because there is somebody coming.

Cooling Eggs While Hatching

A very common mistake in artificial incubation is made with regard to the daily cooling of the eggs. It is seldom that operators allow sufficient time for this, which can only be accounted for by the fact that it is usually believed to be harmful. It must be remembered that an egg takes a long time to lose its heat, and therefore if only allowed to cool for a few minutes it has very little effect. Again, the length of time given must depend on the temperature of the room, for the eggs lose their heat more rapidly in a cold room than in a warm one. Taking the average temperature of sixty degrees, the eggs should be cooled for twenty minutes in the morning and fifteen in the evening. The difference in length is suggested, for usually a longer time elapses between the night and morning cooling than between the morning and evening. If the temperature in the room is only fifty degrees, then fifteen minutes in the morning and twelve minutes in the evening is sufficient; if the room is only forty degrees, then twelve minutes and ten minutes is ample. If, on the contrary, the room is seventy degrees, twenty-five minutes should be allowed in the morning and twenty minutes at night, while if it be eighty degrees, then thirty-five minutes and thirty minutes respectively should be allowed.—Expert.

My Cooler and Mop Pail

When you live where ice is an impossibility it sometimes becomes a problem to keep milk and food sweet and fresh. This is the solution that I found: My husband took a good-sized dry-goods box and removed both back and front. For the back he substituted common wire screen such as screen doors are made of, and made a door the same material for the front, put in a convenient number of shelves and nailed the cupboard to the beams of the ceiling in the cool part of the cellar. The cupboard has had no difficulty in keeping my food fresh. A most convenient I appreciate a mop pail on casters. It is of galvanized iron about twice as long as it is wide and is divided into two parts by a galvanized partition. I use one section filled with water for mopping the floor, the other for rinsing and drying. The pail can be pushed about with the foot and saves a great deal of heavy lifting. Detachable mop wringer completes my outfit. P.W.F. In The Country Gentleman.

GARDEN NOTES

Asparagus is chief among the perennial vegetables. The largest investment necessary in its production is that of patience, for it is practically three years before one is at liberty to cut the stalks freely. But if there is anything in the garden that is worth waiting for it is the asparagus crop; hence the sooner this wonderful vegetable garden step you can take this season.

Where horse cultivation is not possible the wheel hoe is the best implement for keeping down the weeds between the asparagus rows while the rows are growing. Once the cutting season is over and the foliage develops do not let the seeds ripen and drop to the ground as this causes a growth of spinning seedlings that are a nuisance.

Especially other fine seeds do not require covering with earth, says The Minneapolis Journal. Simply sow them on top of the soil and place a pane of glass over the top of the box or pot.

BUT KICKED OUT.

Father (caressing his right eye)—You will get over it! It was only puppy love! She sobbed:—It's—It's—but he was such a nice puppy!

A package of medium-grained sandpaper will be found very useful in the kitchen. It will quickly clean spots and burns from pots, pans and dishes. If the breakfast-egg cups are put into cold water and allowed to soak until the left dish washing is done, they will rinse out quite easily; and, if the egg spoons are rubbed with a little salt, after being rinsed in warm water, the coloration will be removed without the use of silver polish.

The Amateur Gardener

TIME was, and that not so very long ago, when the dahlia was considered so difficult a plant to grow that it wasn't worth while to experiment with it. It came into bloom so late in the season that few flowers were developed before frosty weather came, and after a little the average gardener gave up trying to grow it. The treatment that was given it consisted in starting the roots with growth in pots or boxes in the house early in the season under the impression that because it came from a locality where summer is long our northern summers were too short for it, therefore we must give it several weeks to grow in.

RECIPES FOR THE CARD INDEX COOK BOOK

Recipe for 'Toad in the Hole' including ingredients and method: "Put the flour into a bowl and add the pepper and salt. Beat the egg and pour into the center of the flour; stir with a wooden spoon, adding gradually half the milk; then beat the batter well. When quite smooth add the rest of the milk. Skin the sausages and cut the mince halves. Place the meat in a well-greased dish, pour the batter over and bake 1/2 hour. Cold meat can be used instead of sausages, and in this case cut into inch squares."
