LABOR CONVENTION FAVORS FIRMER ACTION IN IRELAND

Rev. Ben Spence Reaffirms Government Has Shifted Ground on Temperance Issue

WOMEN PICKETING BRITISH EMBASSY IRELAND'S CAUSE

NO SIGN OF EASTER RISING; SITUATION IN DUBLIN QUIET; MAY BE TROUBLE IN CORK

LABOR CONVENTION URGES A LOWERING OF DUTIES ON FOOD

Declares Members of Cabinet Were Ready to Stop Sale of Native Wines Through Medium of a Private Member's Resolution—Referendum Committee's Defense of Attorney-General Gets Attention.

Rev. Ben H. Spence, secretary of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, spent a considerable part of the day today in his attack on another broadside of the Referendum Committee and all others who think that the O.T.A. should not be amended to stop the sale of native wines for beverage purposes. Most of his statements followed. It is also signed by Charles E. Steele, president of the Ontario branch of the alliance.

Mr. Spence traces the history of the O.T.A. amended, and persists in the view that the government has shifted its ground on the temperance issue, notwithstanding declarations from the premier and the attorney-general that such is not the case. He repeats that in view of the doubt that recent federal legislation regarding importation of liquor for beverage purposes applies to Ontario, the Ontario lawmakers should settle the question of native wine selling itself by repealing clause 44 of the O.T.A.

According to the statement, members of the cabinet had proposed to carry out the alliance program through the medium of a private member's resolution.

Alliance Statement.
Following is the statement in part: The undersigned join in this plain statement of facts in the earnest hope that it will lead to a better understanding between those who are one in a common purpose.

On Dec. 17, 1919, the executive committee of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance considered the use of this province of the recent Dominion legislation regarding the prohibition of the importation of liquor for beverage purposes, commonly known as "bill 26". It was decided that in that in the meantime a special committee be appointed to inquire into the workers and secure legal opinion. The committee engaged Mr. John S. Ewart, K. C., and submitted to him stated questions which, with his opinion thereon, have been published.

On Jan. 20, Ontario referendum committee decided to take a vote on the Dominion government to take a vote as provided by said legislation. (Continued on Page 10, Column 2).

ARMED MEN ROB TRAIN IN IRELAND

Dublin, April 2.—Fifty armed men today held up a train at Killman, near Limerick, and escaped with $2000. The money was to have been used to pay off workmen.

Washington Police Powerless, But State Authorities Will Stop Nuisance.

MATTER OF COURTESY

Washington, April 2.—Efforts of the state department today to have the Washington police authorities break up the picketing of the British embassy by women favorable to an Irish republic failed. The police said that in the light of the decision of the federal courts in the case of the suffragists who picketed the House two years ago they were powerless, unless there was disorder.

The women in the picketing this morning, a dozen of them, marched up and down the sidewalk in front of the embassy on Connecticut avenue, displaying banners criticizing the British government. This fact was brought to the attention of the state department, and officials immediately conferred with the District of Columbia commissioners and police authorities. It was said that the British embassy had made no complaint.

The women undertook a demonstration at the capitol yesterday, but were turned away by the capitol police. Before going there they staged an impromptu demonstration at Pennsylvania avenue, opposite the White House.

Secretary of State Colby, in a statement issued late in the day, said that as soon as full information regarding the nature of the demonstration had been received, the government would "without delay take effective means to perform its duty of hospitable courtesy to the British embassy and to preserve its own dignity against conduct which tends in the least degree to a breach of the peace."

FAIL TO SETTLE HARBOR STRIKES

Conference at Washington Between Shipping Interests and Workers Abortive.

Washington, April 2.—A conference of coastwise shipping interests and laborers, which convened at the department of labor today to attempt a settlement of the strikes at Atlantic and Gulf ports, dissolved late today without having reached an agreement. Assistant Secretary Post of the labor department, said he saw no hope of bringing the two sides together and could "see no other conclusion than to declare the conference dissolved."

Mr. Post said employees were unwilling to concede their demand for an immediate increase in wages and employers refused to grant the increase, because they are already losing money and cannot afford to their deficit.

Representatives of a dozen coastwise shipping companies and of organizations representing the 20,000 men who are out on strike attended the conference. Neither side had points to recommend to make at its conclusion, beyond a recital of their intention to stand firm.

Reports that employees of railways serving the docks, affected by the strike have threatened to refuse to handle freight consigned to these docks, and the labor department today, Director Kerwin of the labor department, said his office did not contemplate any step toward ending off sympathetic action on the part of other employees until some definite incident had occurred.

The tie-up at important ports has excited the interest of government officials, it was explained at the department, principally because of the effect upon food supplies in New York and New England. Much of the early produce of southern farms is moved by steamer at this season, as well as important quantities of cotton and naval stores, it was said.

Strike is Settled.
Rochester, N.Y., April 2.—A conference here tonight between officials of the Norfolk and Western Railroad and local and international representatives of organized crafts on the system, which have struck, with the clerks who walked out last night, resulted in a settlement by which all employees of the company will resume work immediately.

Broke up the Meeting.
Chicago, April 2.—A meeting of "loyal" members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, called today by A. P. Whitney, vice-president of the organization, was broken up by police, who were on the scene last night, who were on the scene of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul strike. Whitney, chairman of the meeting, said the strike was unauthorized and urged the men to return to work. Demands for $1 an hour, 35 cents for overtime, time and a half for overtime, and double time after eight hours' overtime, made by the 600 striking workmen.

The strike has not affected passenger service, railroad officials said.

RUSH TO CANADIAN SUMMER RESORTS

Americans Look to Northern Neighbor as Affording "Wet" Possibilities.

Special to The Toronto World.
New York, April 2.—"It looks as if there was going to be a slump in summer cottages on this side of the line in spite of the scarcity of housing accommodation," a local real estate man said recently. "Why should a man spend a totally 'dry' vacation in some American summer resort when he can go up to Canada at practically the same expense and enjoy cooling summer beverages of the good old-fashioned kind which are queried by way of explaining his previous statement."

This real estate man reports a rush of inquiries regarding the Canadian summer resorts. He declares that many wealthy New Yorkers have already obtained options on cottages at Canadian resorts and will send their families to them and run up themselves as often during the summer as their business permits and thirst or inclination impels.

Representatives of Canadian railways here also report an unusually active demand for information regarding summer resorts in Canada, and they look for a greatly increased exodus of Americans to summer resorts this summer for temporary residence. While they hesitate to attribute this to a general desire to escape the drought, they report that they had met New Yorkers who frankly admitted that they wished to spend their holidays where they could obtain stimulating refreshment without taking a chance on wood alcohol.

Evidently many Canadians are alive to the possibilities of the situation. Recent Sunday editions of New York newspapers contained an advertisement of a summer cottage near Toronto for rent. It was not in the heart of the scenery, the nearby golf course, the pleasant neighborhood, or the advantage of all modern conveniences that were emphasized in the advertising. "No prohibition restrictions" was the inducement offered to prospective tenants. And if the local railway men and real estate agents are correct, that ad must likely brought a lot of applications to the owner of the cottage.

EMPOWER MEDICINE HAT TO TAX RENTAL VALUES

Edmonton, Alta., April 2.—Medicine Hat was given the right to institute a tax on rental value of all properties by the municipal law committee of the legislature, which considered amendments to the Medicine Hat charter. The tax will be 10 per cent of the rental value of property and will be assessed from all occupiers of property, whether owners or tenants. The city was also given the right to institute a poll tax of $10 per person, which, however, is offered against any other tax which so that it will catch only those who pay no other.

POSTAL AND WIRE STRIKE IN PORTUGAL ENDED

Lisbon, April 2.—The postal and telegraph activities were resumed Wednesday with the end of the strike of the workers in these branches of the government service, but it will require strenuous labor night and day to bring to normal the situation that has existed for three weeks. There is an accumulation of 20,000 foreign mail bags to be gone thru and sorted. Public order prevails throughout Portugal.

Parliament was assembled Wednesday for the restitution of the peace treaty.

NO WORK ON SATURDAY, SAY THE AUSTRALIANS

Sydney, N.W.S., April 2.—There is a very definite movement among the trade unions of Australia generally, in favor of calling Saturday work a five-day week. Some of the extreme and irresponsible unions demand 40 and even 36 hours a week. Among the unions which have the five days week are some of the better class of artisans. The Amalgamated Society of Engineers, Sydney, has voted solidly for the five-day week Saturday work, and is now considering how it is going to bring about the reform.

PROPOSAL TO BLOCK RETIRING OF POLICE

Until Benefit Fund Has Gathered in Share of Their Increased Salaries.

The younger members of the police force who try to have the constitution of the benefit fund amended, so that the fund will be able to gather a share of some of the increased salaries granted to certain officers before they retire on pension.

Men of all ranks have had their salaries increased several hundred dollars since the first of the year, and the fact that the amount has arisen from a higher rate of pension has not been allowed to retire and receive pensions. There are a number of men who have put in the required term of 30 years' service, and according to rumors, will shortly retire.

Fund is Strong.

The fund is at present stronger than any fund of its kind in America, but compelled to pay seven per cent of his total earnings into the fund, the younger members are of the opinion that the officer should be compelled to serve three years at the present scale of wages before being granted a pension. This would give the fund at least a small benefit of the increased salary.

When the benefit fund meets Thursday, a motion will be put before the committee that no pension be paid or struck on increases of service without the increase having been in force for a period of three years dating from Dec. 31, 1919.

Another motion calls for the abolition from the fund pension of the words, "with the consent of the board of police commissioners," contained in clause B, section 21, which deals with the retirement of men after 25 years of service. Under this section a member after 25 years' service may retire, with the consent of the board of police commissioners, and shall receive a half pay pension for the remainder of his life. It should be allowed to resign without securing the consent of the commissioners, and the consent of these motions will have to be approved by the police board before becoming effective.

Leaders Are Satisfied There Will Be No Difficulty in Executing Agreement.

W. A. Hoop, one of the speakers, declared that labor would be solid in the next provincial elections and would make a determined attempt to elect eight out of ten of the members to the legislature, as a means to secure the release of the convicted men. Resolutions condemning the attitude of the government toward the total of the seven accused of seditious conspiracy and pledging support to any legitimate effort to secure the release of those convicted were passed unanimously.

People Not Interested in Resignation of Chief Secretary Letter to Lord Mayor From Lloyd George Forecasts Dislocation of Normal Life of the Community—Cannot Secure Evidence.

Dublin, April 2.—The situation in Dublin today was normal. There was not the slightest sign of any Easter rising, rumors concerning the possibility of which were recently become so general as to provoke questions on the subject in parliament.

The resignation of James Ian MacPherson as chief secretary for Ireland did not cause a ripple of excitement here. Irishmen regard Field Marshal Viscount French, the viceroy, as solely responsible for the direction of affairs, and seem not to be interested in Mr. MacPherson's successor.

Some fears are entertained that there may be trouble in Cork when the result of the inquiry into the death of Lord Mayor MacCurtain, who was murdered last week, is announced. The inquiry is still proceeding.

The new field marshal, Sir William Robertson, who, it has been rumored, is likely to succeed General Sir Frederick Slesby as commander of the troops in Ireland, is on a visit to Belfast with Lord Devonport. They are expected to return to London on Friday.

The lord mayor of Dublin has received a letter from Premier Lloyd George, dated March 23, alluding to the impossibility of securing evidence in the ordinary way calculated to lead to the arrest and conviction of murderers in the formidable campaign of terror now menacing Ireland. The letter says this fact is a great difficulty under great difficulties, because they do not desire to arrest the guilty. On the other hand, it adds, the first duty of the executive is to leave no stone unturned to lay hands on those terrorizing society and it may, therefore, be necessary to dislocate in some degree the normal life of the community.

Government Will Stand Firm.
The premier expresses the belief that the terrorists' campaign is promoted largely by a desire to prevent a settlement of the Irish question by reason and good will, which he believes the only means of restoring unity and conciliation. He declares that the government will not be deflected from what it believes to be the only consistent and reasonable and common sense by any reason and cruel campaign of assassination, but says he is anxious to make as easy as possible the task of those engaged to carry on the administration of the country, and if there are any means by which the release of the convicted men can be helped or encouraged, he will be glad to co-operate in any campaign of intimidation so as to bring to a settlement of the Irish question, "I will gladly co-operate in bringing them into effect."

Tariff Motion by Independent Party—Favor Winnipeg Leaders.

Special to The Toronto World.
London, Ont., April 2.—(Special).—Largely a redeclaration of policies previously enunciated in the lean and inconspicuous years of the party's growth were the bulk of the resolutions passed at the afternoon session of the Independent Labor Party, which opened in the Masonic Temple Friday morning. Nothing sensational, nothing violent, but a mass of resolutions, passed in many resolutions, without a single note of criticism, whereas, at conventions in different years, clashes between different schools of labor politics and economic doctrine would have been prominent. The resolutions passed were clear and forceful as might be expected of a convention representing a party, which, thru its alliance with the United Farmers, now controls the destinies of the premier province of the Dominion, but there was nothing authoritarian, nothing vindictive or suggestive of a desire for class vengeance on the part of a class or party. the farmer, workman and manufacturer was voted down.

By Canadian Press. London, Ont., April 3.—Without a dissenting vote, and with considerable enthusiasm, the delegates assembled in the Masonic Temple today for the annual convention of the Ontario Independent Labor party, passed a resolution of sympathy with the Winnipeg labor men who are at present in their connection with the incidents arising out of the Winnipeg strike of last year. The resolution, which follows, was moved by James McArthur Connors and seconded by Peter Heenan, M.L.A. for Kenora.

"Resolved, that this convention of the Independent Labor party, after hearing G. Caspadden address us on the Winnipeg strike, go on record as expressing sympathy with the convicted men in their fight for constitutional liberty, and in view of the appeal about to be made, we urge minister of justice to release these men on bail in the meantime, without restricting their personal liberty, and that a copy of this be sent to the minister of justice at Ottawa, and to the defence committee at Winnipeg."

Alleges a Spy System. Prior to the adoption of this resolution, Gordon Caspadden, who comes at this time to make a statement concerning the trial to the convention. He stated that during the last few years a spy system has been inaugurated in Canada.

"Inaccurate reports have been made, and innocent remarks have been construed into seditious utterances," said Mr. Caspadden. "Detective spies have been operating to send innocent men to prison. If there are any spies present here, they can come forward and show a copy of this address in which they will find the truth of the situation."

Blames Hon. A. Meighen. The speaker referred to the "Hon. Artless Meighen" as the one responsible for having inaugurated the espionage system. Testimony he had heard at the trial in Winnipeg, he stated, was unfair and biased in many cases, even when given by members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Continuing, Mr. Caspadden stated that there are thousands of men lying in American prisons today as the result of the "terrible war which is being waged against labor in the United States." He said that he had been at the trial of the "Wichita victims" in Kansas some time before the Winnipeg trial was held, and he alleged that he had been set upon by two strange men on his return to his hotel after a session of the Kansas trial. His ankle was broken in the melee. He still uses a cane.

"This occurred because I was trying to give the truths of the trial out to the public as I found them," said he.

Says Wall St. Took Action. Mr. Caspadden further stated that R. A. Bonner, E.C., counsel for the defence in the Winnipeg trial, said that Wall Street interests were responsible for the attempt to deport the labor men. Quoting Mr. Bonner, he said that the Borden government was attempting to borrow $100,000,000 at the time of the strike. Wall Street, however, put its hands down and refused to make the loan until the strike could be settled. The deportation attempt was a result of this.

Later it was understood that J. P. Morgan was in Ottawa in conference with Canadian officials. In concluding his address the speaker asserted that labor men in prison will contest every riding in Winnipeg at the next election in that province if necessary. In fact one of those at present incarcerated has been nominated by the Dominion Labor party and the Socialist Labor party, he stated.

Tribute to Ivens. Tribute was paid to Rev. William Ivens whose church is growing rapidly that there are now eleven branches in Winnipeg. During his address Mr. Caspadden stated that the Canadian Pacific railroad, the banking trust, and the Canadian grain exchange did not want the men freed, rather the officials of these companies laugh with glee at the imprisonment of the labor men.

his vote against the first resolution. Following is the resolution that was carried:

"Resolved, that whereas the tariff issue is being forced to the front as one of the most important issues to be dealt with at the approaching federal elections and whereas irrespective of the fact that it is a strictly federal issue, the convention of the Ontario Labor Party must deal with it owing to the necessity of placing candidates in the field at the federal elections.

Make it Party Plank. "Therefore be it resolved, that this convention favor the following plank in the party platform: 'The gradual elimination of import duties on all necessities of life, such as food, clothing (including boots and shoes) and the tools and machinery used in production, the revenue derived from these sources to be raised by direct taxation of land values and luxuries.'"

Heated Discussion. A well attended meeting of the Riverdale branch, G.W.V.A., was held on Thursday evening in Broadway Hall, Broadway avenue. A. W. Marshall, president, occupied the chair. Reports were read from the Peterboro and Montreal conventions, and some discussion followed. The chairman pointed out that the organization would presently have a new constitution.

Heated Discussion. A heated discussion ensued regarding the appointment of Mr. Woodson as picture censor, and it was decided to send a letter of censure to the police commissioner, strongly condemning that body for appointing a man—not a soldier—who is already in receipt of a comfortable salary and who intends to hold down the two positions.

Charles H. Stock pointed out that Sergt.-Major McNamara brought the matter to the attention of Premier Drury. "This is the kind of treatment returned soldiers may look forward to from now onward," declared Mr. Stock. J. Joyce, A. Penny, J. Davidson and other comrades also expressed their dissatisfaction in the appointment.

The question of a juvenile auxiliary was discussed for the sons of soldier members and a committee appointed to arrange details. The following were elected to vacancies on the executive committee: J. Perkins, 2nd vice president; R. J. Roberts and A. Swaby.

Regarding the big four drive and the local club house for Riverdale, the following were appointed a committee: C. H. Stock, A. Penny, J. MacLean, J. Davidson and J. Joyce. Plans will be prepared and a suitable site located.

It was also decided to write the management of the Canadian National Exhibition, requesting that a day be set apart for the soldiers, to be called "Veterans' Day." The following resolution was unanimously adopted: "That the Riverdale branch of G. W. V. A. express their sincere appreciation for their member in the local house, Sergt.-Major J. McNamara, for his heroic stand in defence of the returned soldiers."

Many of the churches in this district held St. Good Friday services and there were large congregations. Special musical programs were rendered.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

M'NAMARA HOLDS EARLSCOURT BRANCH CONFIDENCE OF VETS G.W.V.A. GROWING

Censorship Appointment is Criticized at Meeting of Riverdale G.W.V.A. Present Premises Will Be Abandoned and New Quarters Secured.

A well attended meeting of the Riverdale branch, G.W.V.A., was held on Thursday evening in Broadway Hall, Broadway avenue. A. W. Marshall, president, occupied the chair. Reports were read from the Peterboro and Montreal conventions, and some discussion followed. The chairman pointed out that the organization would presently have a new constitution.

Heated Discussion. A heated discussion ensued regarding the appointment of Mr. Woodson as picture censor, and it was decided to send a letter of censure to the police commissioner, strongly condemning that body for appointing a man—not a soldier—who is already in receipt of a comfortable salary and who intends to hold down the two positions.

Charles H. Stock pointed out that Sergt.-Major McNamara brought the matter to the attention of Premier Drury. "This is the kind of treatment returned soldiers may look forward to from now onward," declared Mr. Stock. J. Joyce, A. Penny, J. Davidson and other comrades also expressed their dissatisfaction in the appointment.

The question of a juvenile auxiliary was discussed for the sons of soldier members and a committee appointed to arrange details. The following were elected to vacancies on the executive committee: J. Perkins, 2nd vice president; R. J. Roberts and A. Swaby.

Regarding the big four drive and the local club house for Riverdale, the following were appointed a committee: C. H. Stock, A. Penny, J. MacLean, J. Davidson and J. Joyce. Plans will be prepared and a suitable site located.

It was also decided to write the management of the Canadian National Exhibition, requesting that a day be set apart for the soldiers, to be called "Veterans' Day." The following resolution was unanimously adopted: "That the Riverdale branch of G. W. V. A. express their sincere appreciation for their member in the local house, Sergt.-Major J. McNamara, for his heroic stand in defence of the returned soldiers."

Many of the churches in this district held St. Good Friday services and there were large congregations. Special musical programs were rendered.

Henry Noel Dymond, 218 Broadway avenue, the eight-year-old boy who was recently killed in his own back yard, is a member of the choir in St. Matthew's Church, First avenue, and special service was held in his memory. Rev. Dr. Seager, rector, officiated. Many beautiful floral tributes were received, and four members of the choir acted as pallbearers.

Under the auspices of St. Margaret's Anglican Church, G.A.C., was held last evening at the home of H. McLeod, Pembroke street, when the election of officers for the ensuing year took place. All the retiring officers were re-elected, with the exception of Mrs. Grey, secretary. The following are the officers: Mrs. E. Roworth, president; Mrs. Walter Tuttle, first vice-president; Mrs. Hewlett, secretary; Mrs. G. H. Gain, treasurer, and a strong executive committee. It was decided to hold a concert and dance at Armstrong Hall, Pope avenue, on April 15. A vote of thanks was tendered to the boys of the Navy League for their valuable assistance at the recent Spicer concert held in Allen Danforth Theatre. The financial report read by the secretary was declared satisfactory. Mrs. E. Roworth, president, presided.

John Delinsky, aged 45, of 227 Caroline street, collapsed at the corner of King and York streets last night and died in the General Hospital. When he fell he was carried into 104 York street and the police ambulance summoned. Death is believed to have been from natural causes.

Men's Hats

Easter

There is a greater variety of Men's Hats at Dineen's than is to be found in any hat store in America.

Men's hatters in the United States sell largely the different styles of made-in-America hats, and it is only in the ultra-fashionable men's furnishing stores on Fifth Avenue, New York, where any lines of imported British or foreign-made hats for men are sold. Every reputable maker in the United States is represented with a selection of his best product at Dineen's—so are all the better known English, French and Italian makers of hats. Also the best selections of made-in-Canada hats.

Extra fine quality of Stetson American Hats, $10.00 and $12.00. Special quality Canadian-made Hats direct from the factory, soft or stiff, $5.00. Also Dineen's hats de luxe; the Borsalino soft felts; the exquisite Mossant; the Henry Heath, the English hat that is patronized by Royalty, and the Dunlap, the hat of the American gentleman. These hats are a little above the ordinary run of prices, but for two of the makes, the Heath and Hillgate, Dineen's are the exclusive agents in Toronto. Henry Heath's, $10.00; Christy, London, $8.00 and $10.00; Hillgate, London, $10.00 and $12.00; Borsalino (Italian), $10.00. PREDICTS CONFLICT BETWEEN CLASSES
Secretary of Paris Railway Congress Exhorts Workers to Prepare for May 1.

Paris, France, April 2.—Serious statements were made at the Congress of Railwaymen by Mr. Bidegaray, the secretary of the union. A serious conflict between classes, he said, is only just beginning, and he proceeded to exhort the workers to be ready for May 1. A general revolution was coming, which will be directed for the profit of the proletariat and not of the bourgeoisie, as in previous revolutions. These extremists are certainly few in number, but they are becoming very bold, and the government is taking serious notice of the revolutionary agitation.

Jules Steeg, minister of the interior, intends to pronounce a grave warning in the senate. This evening many big rallies are being held in Paris to start up enthusiasm for May 1. The Confederation Generale du Travail is in session considering the precise steps to be taken for monster demonstrations. The industrial situation in the troubled north has grown worse by the vote for a general strike in the textile trade, which affects 150,000 workers. The Pas-de-Calais miners are making further claims, but have been informed by the government that they must stick to their agreement with the employers unless they can come to an amicable understanding.

Have Curling in Winnipeg On Coldest Good Friday
Winnipeg, April 2.—While the coldness of Winnipeg shivered in the coldest Good Friday for many years, the local curlers made the most of the wintry weather and several rinks had games on excellent ice. There was also considerable skating, but the majority of the people made it an indoor holiday by reason of the severe cold snap.

REV. G. SCOVILL PREACHES UNDER MISAPPREHENSION

That the Boyce property, recently purchased, should be called Prince Edward Park will also be discussed. A. H. Gain, president, will preside.

G.A.C. AUXILIARY
A well-attended meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary connected with Riverdale Branch, G.A.C., was held last evening at the home of H. McLeod, Pembroke street, when the election of officers for the ensuing year took place. All the retiring officers were re-elected, with the exception of Mrs. Grey, secretary. The following are the officers: Mrs. E. Roworth, president; Mrs. Walter Tuttle, first vice-president; Mrs. Hewlett, secretary; Mrs. G. H. Gain, treasurer, and a strong executive committee. The financial report read by the secretary was declared satisfactory. Mrs. E. Roworth, president, presided.

CONSERVATIVES WILL MEET
North Toronto Conservative Association will hold their annual "Ladies' Night" next Monday in the Masonic Hall, North Yonge street. W. F. MacLeod, Mayor, Hon. Charles Henry, and aldermen of Ward Two will address the meeting, after which dancing and a social entertainment will be staged.

MONUMENT PROPOSED.

FOUR-YEAR TERMS FOR LEGISLATURE FIXED BY BILL 103

But Prerogative of Lieutenant-Governor to Dissolve is Preserved.

EXPENSIVE MACHINERY

To consider first things first, an examination of the text of bill No. 103 (the election act) now before the legislative assembly, printed copies of which were available yesterday, the most important of its 124 sections is section 24, which would fix the duration of the present legislature until August 1, 1923, and a general election every fourth year thereafter.

Sub-section 4 saves the prerogative of the lieutenant-governor to dissolve the assembly at any time.

Reading the text of the bill more closely: On August 1, 1923, the present assembly shall be deemed to be dissolved.

And every assembly elected thereafter shall continue for a period of four years from the first day of August next preceding the general election to the assembly.

This means that a general election shall be held in 1923 and every fourth year thereafter, nominations on the second Thursday of October and polling on the second Monday thereafter.

The prerogative of the lieutenant-governor is dealt with in the following words:

Nothing in this section contained shall affect the right of the lieutenant-governor to dissolve the assembly at any time.

Adopt American Plan.

Hardly less significant as evidence of the adoption of American methods in this bill is the plan proposed of registration of voters in cities as against preparation of voters lists in towns, villages and townships by the municipal machinery. The American plan of registration is adopted substantially for the cities; but the rural vote is entrusted to the municipal assessors, who, in addition to the particulars required by the assessment act, shall enter upon the roll the name of every person 21 years of age, a British subject resident in Ontario for a period of nine months prior to the making of the roll, resident in the municipality and qualified in other respects as the assessor believes to vote at elections to the assembly.

The registration system involves the creation of new and expensive election machinery set forth upon 20 pages of the bill.

The outstanding innovation in this machinery and for the operation of the act generally is the creation of an "election board" in every county and provincial judicial district. The members of these boards, registrars, revising officers and members of a board of appeals shall not be eligible as candidates at elections.

In York county the election board shall consist of the four judges of the county court, the master in ordinary, the master in chancery, the master of the court, the justice of the peace and the inspector of legal officers, nine members in all.

The adoption of this further American idea of interlocking public officialdom with the political energy of the party in power is certain to excite the jealousy by members of every group who cling to the British idea of keeping permanent officials separate from the political assembly.

In counties and judicial districts the election board shall be composed of five members, the judges of the county or district court, the local registrar of the supreme court, the sheriff of the county or district, and the clerk of the peace. Where there is but one judge the local master of the supreme court, a registrar of deeds, a deputy registrar or clerk of the court, or a clerk of the crown, may be designated to serve by the other members of the board. The county judge, or in the event of his inability, the junior or acting judge, shall be chairman of the board. One member of the board shall be appointed to act as clerk and three members shall form a quorum.

Provision is made for the appointment of clerk of the crown in chancery by the lieutenant-governor-in-council. A barrister of at least ten years' standing at the bar of Ontario shall be appointed a permanent officer of the legislature (assembly) to be chief election officer.

Adviser to Board.

This chief election officer is to have considerable and somewhat indefinite powers, viz.: to consult with and advise the boards through the province and to supervise and instruct the returning officers, deputy returning officers and poll clerks, and where necessary to personally visit and consult with the chairman of the board or the returning officer in connection with the preparation of the lists and the carrying out of the election law.

The clerk of the crown in chancery and the chief election officer apparently shall have an election bureau in connection with the public service with all clerical and other necessary staffs, to be prepared by accountable warrants as may be directed.

Necessarily the enumeration system of making up the voters' lists is adhered to in territory without municipal organization. The election board shall appoint a chief enumerator for the electoral district and one or more assistant enumerators to assist him in the preparation of the lists.

HOVER CANDIDACY AROUSES LEADERS

Both Party Chiefs Try to Laugh It Down, But Are, Nevertheless, Perturbed.

Washington, April 2.—The announcement of Herbert C. Hoover, former administrator, that he would accept the nomination for the presidency of the United States on the Republican ticket, has been the principal topic of discussion on Capitol Hill. Old machine politicians and standpatters and stalwarts in both Republican and Democratic councils, made a gallant effort to laugh the Hoover possibilities down, but the announcement proved a factor of considerable potentialities on the political horizon.

Official comment was entirely unfavorable to Mr. Hoover. Democratic leaders, with few exceptions, secretly gratulated themselves on his definition of the Hoover possibilities, but felt relieved of a growing apprehension that Mr. Hoover's availability would wreck the plans of strict party men at the Democratic convention in St. Louis.

Have Never Forgotten Him

Republican senators who have never forgotten Mr. Hoover for inducing the signing of Wilson's letter calling for the election of a Democratic congress in 1912, while not admitting alarm, are disturbed over the new factor introduced into party councils by the announcement. They plainly indicated that from their point of view the field against the former food administrator. The conclusion was invariable that only an overwhelming and from the people can overcome the sympathy of the Republican majority to availing itself of Mr. Hoover's candidacy.

much of his platform as Mr. Hoover announced in his telegram about at San Francisco on Tuesday was not open to attack. He stands the league of nations, with such conditions as will protect American interests, he has signed the new factory law, rather than with Wilson's letter on the one hand, or the Board-Johnson irreconcilables on the other. The treaty issue, at least, is the support of the large mass of the party of the Republican party. He stands with "independent electors" of the party, thus making a coalition of the large mass of the party who are said to be chafing under the domination of organized majorities.

CONDITIONS BETTER IN THE WAR AREA

France and Belgium Prepare for Influx of Tourists This Season.

London, Eng., April 2.—Tourists from all over the world will doubtless be visiting the western war area this year, and many, when there, will depend upon the motor as their means of traveling. Nothing that may be written about present conditions will deter those who feel it their duty to visit these scenes. In undertaking a tour of inspection in Belgium, therefore, the Automobile Association of Great Britain has rendered thoughtful service for motorists.

Briefly his report, as might well be expected, reveals road surfaces generally bad, hotel accommodations generally good, hampered by lack of furniture and utensils, repair garages intermittent and uncertain, and, of course, high prices everywhere. By the report, however, is qualified by the statement that in all respects except prices the conditions show evidence of rapid improvement. Although, in the battle area, shell holes, and even bridges, road repairs are everywhere in progress, and in many cases the highways will be in good condition by the beginning of the touring season.

Hotel proprietors also are making a determined effort to put their houses in order in the rush of visitors, and large wooden huts are being erected where the permanent hotels have been demolished.

Light Cars Unsuitable.

Light or badly sprung cars are quite unsuitable in present conditions in these areas. Petrol is dear and very scarce, and benolite (auto gasoline) when available, is about 3s 6d per gallon. Owing to the railway strike in that country the supply of petrol in Italy, formerly restricted and controlled, has now been completely suspended. Motoring for foreign tourists will therefore be impossible for some time to come.

The British petrol profiteering committee has prepared an interim report, but up to the time of writing it has not appeared in print. Reliable forecasts would indicate that the committee will recommend joint action by Britain, France, and Italy to determine the price at which they will buy imported petrol. Thus, if the report prove true, will a wasterful petrol war be launched. Motor fuel is now the vital country, not of three, but of all. Why not, therefore, take complete international action once and for all to secure the maximum supply with a minimum of waste to all concerned?

REAL ESTATE NEWS

A four-story rectangular brick building, which, when completed, will cost in the neighborhood of two or three hundred thousand dollars, is to be erected in the near future for the Canadian General Electric Company. This building will be of mill construction and will be situated at the corner of Wallace and Ward avenues. It is to be used as a factory for the manufacture of electrical appliances and other articles handled by the C. G. E. The work will commence as soon as tenders are received and accepted. Mr. Eustace G. Bird, the Toronto architect, has drawn up the plans.

DISORDERS BY REDS INCREASE AT BATOUM

Batoum, April 2.—Radical elements at Batoum have been showing greater energy since the fall of Novorossisk, and disorders are increasing daily, according to reports received here. Risa Bey, who pillaged Batoum in 1918, is leading armed bands recruited in Anatolia, and is receiving munitions from Odessa regularly. The Georgian government is taking steps to protect its northern frontier.

Mexican Whiskey Smugglers Shot by U. S. Inspectors

Laredo, Texas, April 2.—In a battle yesterday between four American customs inspectors and seven alleged Mexican liquor smugglers, 40 miles from Laredo, three of the smugglers were shot to death, and the others escaped, presumably crossing the Rio Grande into Mexico. None of the Americans were injured. News of the fight was received here today.

NEW YORK GETTING ITS FOOD SUPPLIES

Railroad-Owned Ferries Are Running Despite the Strike.

New York, April 2.—Railroad-owned ferry boats, upon which New York city depends for the transportation of its food supplies, are operating "practically normally," despite the marine workers' strike, J. J. Mantell, railroad managers' representative, announced tonight. The tugboat situation "looks very good," and normal conditions are expected to prevail by Monday, he added.

Officials of the Marine Workers' affiliation claim that 6000 employees on lighters, tugs and ferries had struck, and that the vessels now running were being operated by strike-breakers. Unless the strikers' demand for an eight-hour day is granted, union officials threatened to spread the walkout to the longshoremen and other harbor workers' organizations and "completely tie up the port."

Mr. Mantell admitted tonight that 2000 of the 3000 men engaged on ferries had answered the strike call. Thirteen hundred men employed on barges, he said, had been automatically thrown out of work by the walk-out.

The railroads are prepared to fight the union "to a finish." Mr. Mantell asserted, adding that the marine workers will find out that "they are not dealing with the railroad administration." Efforts are being concentrated on the running of the ferry boats in order to care for the traveling public and the necessary food supply for New York.

Other than causing a few hours' delay in the receipt of today's deliveries, the strike failed to affect the city's milk supply. Officials of the two large distributing companies announced that there was no danger of an immediate milk famine because of the walk-out.

Freight handlers on two Lackawanna Railroad piers in Jersey City went out this afternoon in sympathy with the harbor men. These are the first workmen of this company to quit. There has been no disorder.

Marine workers held a meeting tonight, to which only men with union cards were admitted. At the close of the meeting Thomas B. Healey, head of the marine engineers, who presided, said the men had been informed that some of the managers had offered strike-breakers $10 a month more than union men had received before the strike. He said that they work for a year at eight hours a day.

CAROLINA NEGRO LYNCHED.

Spartanburg, S. C., April 2.—George Robertson, negro, was taken from the city jail at Laurens, S. C., last midnight by a mob and hanged. Robertson was charged with having cut three white boys with a knife after interfering in behalf of another negro in a dispute with the boys.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyetth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

DOMESTICS MEET WITH EMPLOYERS

British Movement to Better Relations Between Maids and Mistresses.

London, April 2.—Miss Julia Varley of the Workers' Union, addressed a meeting of mistresses and domestic employers held under the auspices of the Women's Industrial Council, at the Central Hall, Westminster, when it was proposed that a domestic employers' union should be formed. Miss Varley was of the opinion that a body somewhat on the lines of an industrial council should be formed for domestic workers. Unless, she said, the maids and mistresses came together, the misunderstandings which at present existed could not be removed.

Personally, Miss Varley said, she was out to raise the status of domestic service so that it should be equal to that of any other calling that girls followed. She hoped that it would soon be impossible for little drudges to be taken from the charity schools and employed at miserable and insufficient wages. Although she had advocated the formation of a union for the girls she was not in favor of strikes, for her experience was that if employers and employees came together most difficulties could be removed.

The advisability of forming an association of mistresses and employers was discussed, and it was eventually decided to form such an organization with the idea of working with the Maids' Association, in order to bring about a better understanding between mistress and maid.

OPEN NAVIGATION ON LAKE SUPERIOR

Warm Rains and Strong Gales to Clear Passages in One Week.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., April 2.—From present indications navigation on the St. Mary's River and Lake Superior will be possible by April 10, according to advices from Whitefish Point. This is the most difficult part of Lake Superior to navigate, owing to the heavy icefield which jams into the gap.

Despite the severe frosts, warm rains and easterly winds have practically melted the heavy ice and a week ago strong winds drove the ice in small pieces onto the Canadian shore in Whitefish Bay. It drifted back again, but is now safe. From Ironquits Point to the Soo there is open water. Below the canal the river is open almost to Mud Lake, but from there to Detroit ice is compact, the rotten. Open water extends from Lake Huron to above the dock at Detroit. Unless the present cold spell is prolonged it is not likely to affect the opening prospects.

RAILWAY WAGE DISPUTE IS NOW UP TO WILSON

Washington, April 2.—The whole railroad wage controversy was placed before President Wilson today for the third time since railroad labor filed its demands for a general increase in wages in August.

In a letter to the president, E. M. Jewell, chairman of the railway conference, which constitutes the Labor party on the railroad wage board, said he regretted very much "to advise you of our failure to obtain any beneficial results from these conferences."

The employees, Mr. Jewell said, were keenly disappointed at the position taken by the railway executives' committee, which announced last night a deadlock, and the withdrawal of the railroad members from the conference.

DR. REID'S EASTER EGG

No Peter and Paul Here,
 Your promissory note is requested to make up these adverse balances on your railway accounts for the year ending Dec. 31, 1919:

Operating loss on former Canadian Northern lines	$6,500,000
Operating loss on Intercolonial lines and old National Transcontinental lines	7,500,000
Operating loss on Grand Trunk Pacific	5,500,000
Fixed charges on C.N.R. and N.T.R.	19,000,000
Fixed charges on G.T.P.	8,500,000
Total	$47,000,000

What will you do about it? Unless there is a phenomenal crop in all provinces this year, the prospect of 1920 doing very much better than 1919 is pretty small. Hope tells a flattering tale; but flattery writes no cheques and hope cannot create traffic.

You must get down to the rock bottom facts. The Ottawa three hundred and thirty of the (presumably) wisest men in Canada are responsible for dealing with this tremendous burden, they will only do what they think you will allow them to do. In the end the only way out of the mess is by the ticket and bill of lading route, unless the bankruptcy of national credit is declared, and Canada practically assigns. Assignment is never a charming experience for anybody concerned. You are married to this situation. The economic church in which the knot was tied does not permit honorable divorce. When lusty, hungry triplets arrive, they have to be taken care of, however salutary the task of bringing up father proves to be for father.

The National Railway deficits are primarily the result of great increases in wages, and cost of materials. If the archangel Gabriel were president, with the Financial Post as adviser-in-chief, the accounts would have been in no different shape. In 1907 the average wage of Canadian railway employees from section man to president was less than $500. At the break of war it was $90. Last year it was $1,447. A locomotive which cost $24,000 when Belgium was invaded, now costs $62,000. A first-class coach could be got then for $16,000, and now can't be got for less than $37,000. A sleeping car costs at least $65,000, or nearly three times its value six years ago.

Wages and Costs Not Likely to Drop.
 Will wages go down? Not much. Even if there is a great drop, due to a break in prices all the world over, the so-called lower grades of employment will never go back to where they were; for labor is king, and will hold on to the crown.

Men with red blood in their veins, and fortified by their experience of fighting to the death to obtain their objectives, will not accept what they seemed to be contented with six years ago. The dock laborers in England, who were regarded by many people as revolutionaries when, thirty-four years ago, they demanded twelve cents an hour—they each carried sixty tons a day ashore in sacks of wheat—are now justified by a government board for demanding four dollars for eight hours' work.

It is vain to expect any considerable reduction in railway labor costs. At present, on the Canadian National Railways they use seventy-eight cents of every dollar that is paid for passenger and freight conveyance. The position on the C. P. R. is little better, if any. Neither will the labor costs for railway equipment and supplies appreciably diminish. Timber is becoming as valuable as rubies. Relatively, gold is gross compared with steel. Ties that cost forty cents a piece before the war can scarcely be got for a dollar now. Rails that were fifteen dollars a ton are over sixty dollars today.

More business at present rates would put your railways further into the hole. When you are losing money on mere operation, the more you operate the more you lose, without reducing interest charges. Passenger and freight rates have been raised during the war period, but they have not kept pace with wages and materials. President Hanna has steadily been preaching further increases in rates. As he is not the kind of man who says one thing today and another tomorrow, he may confidently be expected to go on with this faithful gospel.

Repentance Must Join With Payment.
 The situation calls for repentance by the public for authorizing, through the politicians, the pledging of its credits for railways that should never have been built as they were. But, like marriage, this business cannot be carried by repenting at leisure what was done in thoughtlessness. We went into it for better or worse. Near Ullswater, in the exquisite English Lake district, there is an inn called The Gate, whose sign bears this counsel:

This gate hangs well
 And hinders none.
 Refresh and pay,
 And travel on.
 The Hanna gospel for the day can be expressed like this:
 These roads were built
 By everyone
 Repent and pay,
 And travel on.

When drastic increases in rates are proposed, the public, and especially the business shippers, go up in the air at home and in sore deputations to Ottawa. The explanation of this present-day futility is simple. Railways used to be regarded as gold mines that a few men had opened with picks lent or given by the public. If you were a magnate and knew the "open sesame" that worked great marvels at Ottawa, you could become rich for ever after and enjoy the commercial, social and political power that formerly belonged to autocracy enthroned.

It was always possible to cite instances in which railway rates were extortionately high for some sections of the country and absurdly low for favorites in others, who had "pull" with the gentry who fixed the schedules. Anomalies undoubtedly exist, but we are face to face with a condition that must be dealt with in the large, with such adjustments as business justice and moral fair play will dictate on the merits of each grievance. There is no sense in quarrelling with the design of a truck ladder when fire is consuming your home.

Other Countries' Rates Are Very Much Higher.
 The Canadian railway situation cannot be regarded independently of what obtains in other countries. Wages have been increased in harmony with the war policy of the United States. Our men are getting the same as the Americans because the Canadian railway board was ordered by the government, as a war measure, to follow the McAdoo award. When the first McAdoo award was made it was hoped that it would be stable. But instead of being a single-chapter book, it turned out to be a thirty-volume novel.

Railway administration during the last eighteen months of the war seemed finally to prove that Canada can have no fiscal independence of the United States. The American railways have gone back to private ownership and control. It is not fair to hold the McAdoo administration of them up to ridicule, as the last proof of the craziness of national management of railways, any more than it would be sane to mention the cost of the war in life and treasure as the last proof of the desirability of letting war out to contractors and company promoters.

It is true that reversion to private control in the United States began by letting out 140,000 men and women from the co-ordinated services. It is also true that in the United States there must be a further increase in rates up to say twenty-six per cent. At present Canadian rates are slightly lower than American rates, also the number of people in the country per mile of railway is not very much more than half of the Republican proportion. Whatever the case for increased rates in the United States may be, after necessity makes it stronger in Canada—and an increase is one of the bitter fruits met for repentance that must inevitably be brought forth.

What is the position in other countries? British railway rates have been more than doubled since the war began. Over there, the railways have never published their charges per ton mile. The cost of construction was very high, owing largely to precautions that have been treated as superfluous on this continent. The difference between spiking rails into ties, as we do, and resting the rails on steel chairs that are bolted into the ties is a fair sample of the difference in construction. Owing to the short hauls—you cannot get 80 miles from salt water in the United Kingdom—rates are extraordinarily high.

Must C.P.R. Wallow In Unnecessary Wealth?
 In Australia the state roads charge for freight works out at more than three times what it is in Canada, where the charge per ton mile averages somewhere around four-fifths of a cent. If the Canadian National Railways charged as much as the Australian railways do, on their present traffic basis they could not only pay their operating expenses and fixed charges, but also the interest on the entire national debt, bloated as it is by the war.

If the Canadian National Railways rates were equal to those of France before the war, they would pay handsomely. If the German state model were adopted, the surplus would be many millions greater. If we emulated Brazil, the income handled by the C.N.R. would be beyond the dreams of avarice.

It looks as the increased rates is the only way of salvation. Unless we achieve unexampled eminence as reprobators, the money must come through the railway office or thru the tax collector. The sound policy is to make both ends meet by paying for what you get, and not by charging to one account what properly belongs to another. There is no sanity in robbing Peter to pay Paul.

But what about the C.P.R.? Is it to be enabled to wallow in superfluous wealth and make the disparity between itself and the National Railways more ruinous to the National than it already is? There, of course, is a great problem, which seems to be worrying Dr. Reid: It also must be tackled with meritorious courage and capacity. It will be considered tomorrow.

Rural Posties' Cry

Ought the cost of postage stamps to go up if that is the only way to do justice to a grossly underpaid branch of the public service? On the principle of paying for work done, there can be only one answer to the question. The two-cent stamp became a three-cent stamp during the war, not because of the high cost of postage, but because of the high cost of the war. But postage becomes more expensive, like everything else. In the cities, by organization, he has bettered his lot. But the country postie is compelled to raise a bitter cry, to which heed must be paid if the rest of us are to save our faces. The rural mail carriers are organizing in economic self-defense. They want more money, and the contract system, abolished.

The rural mailman, whose work is done in all weathers, is getting now an average of two dollars a day. For that he has to furnish, as a rule, two horses, vehicles, and himself. The government makes him contract for four years. He works for three months before getting a cent.

Lots of good Ontario citizens are eking out existence on contracts that were made when the war was young. Oats have gone up from fifty cents to a dollar a bushel. Horseshoeing has risen till good footwear costs four dollars a set. Harness and repairs are also dearer.

The rural carrier has to pay, on an average, more than double what he did a few years ago for everything he buys. But nowhere have contract prices climbed with the cost of living. When his contract is expiring, an inspector comes along to tell him how essential it is to keep his tender down. He is frightened by the prospect of competition from fellows who do not know what they will be up against. Tho, in the city, when he starts on his daily round, he sees sorting and other clerks falling over one another and drawing pay for a fourth of his work, at far more than he gets for himself and his horses, he sometimes goes on, tho it is deep in debt.

He reads of teamsters on provincial roads who get thirty-five cents an hour for themselves and eighty cents per hour for their teams. He sees everybody organizing, and he organizes, too. Soon his case will be before the government. It should be before the commonsense also. He will ask for sixty dollars per mile of route per annum. That will raise the question of the balance between revenue and expense. The only honest way to deal with the situation is on the basis of the state paying fairly for what it exacts in service. The rural mail carrier deserves a fair deal. He is not getting it now.

Not Property First

There is a good deal of confused thinking by legislators who oppose the government's proposal to cancel the property qualification for elective municipal office in Ontario. The plea that only property owners are fitted to administer property overlooks facts that should be patent to all who look clearly at them.

Elections are the responsibility of the electors. To insist that the essential qualification for office must be the possession of property and not public spirit and capacity, is to deny the accountability of the whole electorate.

It does not follow that because a man has not acquired or inherited

LABOR NEWS

LESS UNEMPLOYMENT SAYS GOVERNMENT

But Old Hy. Costa Still Sojourns in Our Midst.

Trades and labor bureau figures issued by the Dominion government show a decrease in unemployment. During January the percentage of unemployed was 1.8; during February it was only 1.25%. On the other hand, the increase in employment was marked. Figures from 700 firms showing an upward tendency. There were 24 strikes in February, a decrease from 24 in January, but more than for February, 1919; but more than 2150 people were involved.

The monthly report presents interesting figures in regard to the increasing cost of living. The average family food budget for February, 1914, was $7.75, that for February, 1919, being $13.41, and for February, 1920, $15.70.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES SIGN AGREEMENT

Local 123, Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, of which organization W. D. MacPherson is the chief organizer, has signed an agreement with the Superintendent of the Union Station for an increase in wages, according to position of the employee of from 10 per cent to 15 per cent. The agreement also calls for an eight-hour day and a six-day week.

A prominent official of the brotherhood stated last night that by the new agreement the employees had gained privileges and increases for which they had fought for two years without avail. The union was organized in 1917, he said. Among the improvements inaugurated was the new system of motor trucks for trailing the baggage across the depot. These trucks saved the men a great deal, and each truck hauled approximately the capacity of about thirty large pieces a trip.

The union was organized the middle of last November, and has succeeded in both increasing its numbers materially and maintaining the best possible relations with the officials of the depot.

PEMBROKE BRANCH OF ONE BIG UNION

Twenty-Five Lumberjacks Join Up—Joe Knight Says O.B.U. Sweeps Country.

Pembroke, Ont., April 2.—Activities of the one big union among the lumberjacks in this district this winter culminated in a mass meeting last evening when Joe Knight, an organizer of the O.B.U., presided, and addressed 500 men, outlined O.B.U. principles and stated the capitalistic class must go. After the address 25 men joined up.

Mr. Knight admitted that the Calgary convention had sent messages of greeting to the Soviets of Russia and to the German government, and would do it again.

Captain J. A. F. Hayden, editor of the Canadian Labor Press of Ottawa, spoke for half an hour, defending the trade unions as against the one big union, and stated that the one big union and I.W.W. were one and the same. He declared that during the war it had been proven by the United States justice department that the I.W.W. received funds from Bolshevik Russia and from German agents. The trade unions stood for law and order.

Frank O'Brien, O.B.U. organizer, stated that he was to set up community control and to train this by direct action. He said the O.B.U. was sweeping the country

Scottish Couple, Who Recently Made Forty Million Dollars, Traveling Thru the West.

Edmonton, Alta., April 2.—Trying to find a place in which to establish a home worthy of a fortune of some $40,000,000 is the bothersome task which has kept Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell in Scotland on the move ever since the war ended. They have been spending a few days in Edmonton. But this city offered no attractions for this $40,000,000 couple and they have left for Prince Rupert. Then they jump to California. The tale of the Campbells reads like fiction. Leaving their Scottish homes years ago they went out to Java. Here they acquired large plantations and other holdings. Then during the war, opportunity came their way and they sold out all their interests in Java for a sum that was stated to be close to $50,000,000.

New York, April 2.—Charged with cruel and inhuman treatment of his 17-year-old daughter, Minnie John Gallander, known on the stage as Galanda, a clay sculptor, was arraigned in a Brooklyn court today, and fined $2500 a bail for a hearing later. Nearly 100 scars were found on the girl's body, District Attorney Lewis said. After being filed with the court she had been branded with hot irons, scalded, stuck with ice picks, had pins and darning needles, and that some of her teeth had been broken and then pulled out with pliers.

SENATE TO ADOPT PEACE RESOLUTION

Republican Leaders Expect That It Will Fall in With House Resolution.

Washington, April 2.—Prompt adoption by the senate of the house resolution, declaring the state of war with Germany at an end, is expected by Republican leaders. They had a conference today to discuss future legislation at this session, and Senator Lodge of Massachusetts said later that he did not anticipate any great delay in the senate.

Mr. Lodge, who returned today from a brief vacation, said the whole controversy had been thrashed out pretty thoroughly, and that he believed the house resolution would be adopted, probably with the united Republican support and general opposition by the Democrats.

The leaders declared at the conference that army reorganization legislation would be the next measure taken up by the senate. They expect to dispose of it by the time the house has acted on the peace resolution.

Mr. Lodge said early action on the Anglo-American-French treaty was not expected, and that until the treaty of Versailles had been disposed of, its consideration was impossible.

A recess of congress over the convention period, Mr. Lodge said, was probable. Congress hardly can complete its work by June 1, he added, and must have considerable work to do after the conventions.

Carpenters Reject Scale—All Building Trades Men May Walk Out.

Ottawa, April 2.—The prospect of a general strike of the different trades comprising the Building Trades Council to occur May 1, unless meantime an amicable settlement is made with all the trades by the employers, drew near last night when it became known that the district carpenters had positively decided to reject a scale of wages and that the asbestos workers had decided to remain firm in their demand for seventy-five cents per hour.

In addition to the announcement of the decision of the two above mentioned trades, it was further announced that a general meeting of the Building Trades Council had been called for Monday night at which it is expected the entire question of the new agreements offered the employers will be fully discussed and a definite line of action framed.

The carpenters have decided to remain firm on their demand for $10 an hour. The demands of the bricklayers, stone masons, tile setters and marble setters, who in their new agreement asked for one dollar per hour as against 75c per hour which they received under the old wage scale, have it was stated, been practically conceded by the employing builders. Asbestos workers, however, of these workers are affected by the new wage schedule.

THE GIRL WHO SMILED THRU
 By MARION RUBINCAM

A DEAR FRIEND

CHAPTER 48.

That June evening a friendship was formed which made her really very happy and which went far to soothe the ache that was always in her heart for David.

The mere excitement of driving in such a luxurious car was enough to please her for days. She hated to confess that she had never been in such a car before but she gave an audible sigh of pleasure as she settled back in the cushioned seat.

"Tired?" Lawrence asked, mistaking the sigh.

"Here's a wrap of mother's—put it on, you'll be chilly when we drive near the river," Lawrence said.

And Alice smiled with pleasure as she slipped her arms in a loose wrap of the softest blue wool, lined with silver color satin.

Lawrence drove slowly, the powerful lamps on the car cutting a golden pathway for them. The night was clear, as clear and lovely as that other one a year before when David had told her—

Alice deliberately refused to think of it. She gave herself up steadily to the present pleasure of the drive. The wind blew her hair loose—she had not worn a hat over to the settlement house—and Lawrence pulled out a large white silk handkerchief which she held, arched her head, binding it low on her forehead, with the ends knotted in back.

"Now you look like a gypsy," Lawrence said. "You perfectly frank, I'm around you that way is awfully becoming. It outlines the shape of your head, and you're really a very nicely shaped head and a splendid profile."

Alice laughed in amusement. "I never thought to hear compliments from you," she said. "Your conversation to me has mostly been so mixed with letters and symbols and descriptions of chemical phenomena that to hear this!" she broke off and turned to laugh at him again.

"It's perfectly frank, I never thought whether you were pretty or not," Lawrence answered. "Thank heaven, you're the sort of girl I can talk to without having to say pretty things every minute. I've always admired you, more than any other woman I know. I've admired your efficiency and energy, qualities which I am not endowed with. I've admired your determination to master a lot of studies in the face of what seemed like superhuman difficulties."

"Difficulties?" Alice questioned.

"Yes—you told me yourself you were not a millionaire," said Lawrence the ever-tactful. "And then, you've taken on this extra work at the settlement house; you didn't have to do that."

and that the international trade unions and the American federation of labor had ceased to exist. He stated that the O.B.U. was the government because it was the master power. He especially condemned Samuel Gompers, Tom Moore and P. M. Draper and the printing conductors for their continual interference with O.B.U. propaganda.

If the archangel Gabriel were president, with the Financial Post as adviser-in-chief, the accounts would have been in no different shape. In 1907 the average wage of Canadian railway employees from section man to president was less than $500. At the break of war it was $90. Last year it was $1,447. A locomotive which cost $24,000 when Belgium was invaded, now costs $62,000. A first-class coach could be got then for $16,000, and now can't be got for less than $37,000. A sleeping car costs at least $65,000, or nearly three times its value six years ago.

Wages and Costs Not Likely to Drop.
 Will wages go down? Not much. Even if there is a great drop, due to a break in prices all the world over, the so-called lower grades of employment will never go back to where they were; for labor is king, and will hold on to the crown.

Men with red blood in their veins, and fortified by their experience of fighting to the death to obtain their objectives, will not accept what they seemed to be contented with six years ago. The dock laborers in England, who were regarded by many people as revolutionaries when, thirty-four years ago, they demanded twelve cents an hour—they each carried sixty tons a day ashore in sacks of wheat—are now justified by a government board for demanding four dollars for eight hours' work.

It is vain to expect any considerable reduction in railway labor costs. At present, on the Canadian National Railways they use seventy-eight cents of every dollar that is paid for passenger and freight conveyance. The position on the C. P. R. is little better, if any. Neither will the labor costs for railway equipment and supplies appreciably diminish. Timber is becoming as valuable as rubies. Relatively, gold is gross compared with steel. Ties that cost forty cents a piece before the war can scarcely be got for a dollar now. Rails that were fifteen dollars a ton are over sixty dollars today.

More business at present rates would put your railways further into the hole. When you are losing money on mere operation, the more you operate the more you lose, without reducing interest charges. Passenger and freight rates have been raised during the war period, but they have not kept pace with wages and materials. President Hanna has steadily been preaching further increases in rates. As he is not the kind of man who says one thing today and another tomorrow, he may confidently be expected to go on with this faithful gospel.

Repentance Must Join With Payment.
 The situation calls for repentance by the public for authorizing, through the politicians, the pledging of its credits for railways that should never have been built as they were. But, like marriage, this business cannot be carried by repenting at leisure what

NATE TO ADOPT
PEACE RESOLUTION

ublican Leaders Expect hat It Will Fall in With House Resolution.

ashington, April 2.—Prompt adop-y the senate of the house resoludeclaring the state of war with any and an end, is expected by Republican leaders. They had a confer-today to discuss future legisla-at this session, and Senator Lodge Massachusetts said later that he did anticipate any great delay in the process.

Lodge, who returned today from vacation, said the whole conference had been "thrashed out pretty ly" and that he believed the resolution would be adopted ably with the united Republican port and general opposition by the senate.

Leaders decided at the confer-that army reorganization legislawould be the next measure taken by the senate. They expect to discuss it by the time the house has acted on the peace resolution.

Lodge said early action on the American-French treaty was expected, and that until the treaty was passed, his position on the resolution was impracticable.
cess of congress over the convention period, Mr. Lodge said, was
ble. Congress hardly can com-its work by June 1, he added, and have considerable work to do the conventions.

Canadian Golfers Win
And Lose at Pinehurst

Pinehurst, N.C., April 2.—Canadian golfers figured in two 20-hole matches in the second sixteen. George M. Howard of Halifax won from J. Ernest Smith of Wilmington at the second extra hole of their match after Howard had failed to get out of a trap on his third shot.
His opponent traveled nearly 800 yards to the green and left him a putt of a few inches only for the match. Charles King of Walkerville, Ont., lost his match in the same division early a highly unusual exchange of courtesies with Capt.
A. T. Roberts of Detroit. The captain lost a ball and a hole on the way to the seventh and King reciprocated by losing a ball and a hole and the match on the same division section. Ralph King of Toronto, playing in the same sixteen defeated C. P. Morrison of the Royal Montreal Club, F. P. Beckett of the London Hunt won his match in the twelfth sixteen.

MURDERER ESCAPES; DUMMY IN HIS BED

Fort Fairfield, Maine, April 2.—Newman Clark, who was under arrest at a hospital at Grand Falls, N. B., charged with the murder of Miss Phoebe Bell, escaped during the night and today was sought at Maine border points. Clark had been under treatment for wounds self-inflicted after the shooting of Miss Bell a week ago.

The escape was discovered when a dummy was found in Clark's bed. The authorities said that his condition was such that he must have been assisted by someone. After an investigation they said that apparently Clark had been helped thru a window and driven off in a sleigh which was seen later three miles south of Grand Falls, heading for the Maine border in the vicinity of Limestone.

It is better to be born lucky than rich, but it is better to be born rich than not at all.

BOOM FOR CANADA'S NATIONAL GAME IS AN ASSURED FACT

Delegates to Annual Convention Tell of Spirit Throughout Province—Refuse to Change Width of Net and Substitute Rule—Good Officers Elected for Year.

(Canada's national game, lacrosse, is to come into its own this year. That was the keynote of the annual convention of the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association, held in the Labor Temple yesterday.

The largest gathering of years turned out and all told of the revival taking place all over the province. It is not hot air blown in the ears of the players. Teams are organizing and the players are helping the thing along by offering to turn out in nearly every town that fosters the game in the years before the war.

It was a critical crowd of delegates that debated the proposed amendments yesterday. They wanted no foolish legislation that would reduce the width of the game and every item on the debating bill was sifted carefully before the delegates would allow it to go to the vote. The result was that the changes made will better the game and all parts of the province, big and little, will benefit.

Live Officers. An executive of the lacrosse boosters, an excellent president in Bert Booth of Orangeville, and Ernie Doyle, secretary of the Ontario Lacrosse Association, were elected. The first vice president was J. E. Dundas, Toronto, and the second vice president was J. E. Dundas, Toronto.

The double referee system was a huge success. It will be used more extensively this year. The double referee system will be used in all district games where clubs agree they may play under the double referee system. This was the decision on Bert Booth's amendment for the two official referees.

Field Captains Again. Field captains will be allowed for juvenile and mid-age teams this year. They have a steady influence on the young players, but the juniors and the higher ranks are able to look after themselves and the men in white will not be allowed for them.

Clause 3—The league to meet once a month, Hamilton and Toronto alternating the meetings to be held the last week of each month.

The three clauses were unanimously adopted by the delegates present and will be put forward to the bodies interested for endorsement early next week.

APPROVE OF BONUS FOR U. S. VETERANS

Ways and Means Committee of Congress Favors Measure and Will Work Out Plan.

Washington, April 2.—Soldier relief legislation, with a provision for a cash bonus, was approved by a vote of 15 to 8. Details of the bill to be recommended will be worked out by sub-committees to be appointed Monday.

Members of the committee hope to obtain final action by the house before the contemplated recess for the national political convention, but they express doubt whether action in the senate could be had at this session.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, after a conference today with other senate Republicans as to future legislation in the senate, said he would not introduce a bill to give money bonus to former service men, with provisions for a special tax to raise the necessary funds.

Spokesmen for the committee said it was planned to have the final draft of the legislation ready for submission to the house within a fortnight. As no decision was made as to the amount of the bonus or the cost of other plans that might be adopted, it was said today that no estimates of the funds needed could be made at this time.

RURAL MAIL DELIVERY DEMAND INCREASES

Are Asking Government for Sixty Dollars Per Mile Per Year

The rural mail route contractors are asking for better compensation for carrying the mail.

One of them, Garfield Mackinnon, says the cost of the carriers is following the cost of the mail.

"We think that the time is long overdue when the government at Ottawa should consider the very unsatisfactory conditions under which we have to work."

It is no secret that for the last four years the rural contractors have suffered great hardships and privations due to the contract system under which they are working.

"We think that the time is long overdue when the government at Ottawa should consider the very unsatisfactory conditions under which we have to work."

"No. 1.—That all rural mail contracts be cancelled, and that the contractors be engaged on a straight yearly salary basis of sixty dollars per mile per year, the same to date from Jan. 1, 1917, until the present time, and to continue at that rate in the future."

"No. 2.—That the rural mail contractors be given all statutory holidays, with full salary."

"No. 3.—That they be given or receive payment at the end of every month, instead of quarterly, the way they now receive it."

NEW TRAFFIC RULES SUIT MOTOR LEAGUE

Much More Generous to the Motorists Than Prevail in the States.

The Ontario Motor League has nothing alarming in the new traffic regulations, and the indications are that the rules will come into force on the 15th of the month without a murmur, the murmurs from those who fail to study them carefully may be heard in the police court later.

"Without doubt, Toronto has the most liberal and convenient motor traffic regulations of any city on the American continent," declared one prominent official of the league.

"Of course, the new regulations do not go into effect until the 15th of the month," stated a police inspector at headquarters.

MINTS OF MONEY IN SILVER FOX FARMING A fox-rancher from New Brunswick tells us that a great effort is being made by United States business men to take over the fox ranching industry in Canada, which was started originally in Prince Edward Island. Canadians, he says, have never taken the hint and reports in Australia that fox ranching is being taken over by a man who wants a divorce leaves him in anger and does not return for several days. HENRY IV. OF FRANCE'S "LOVING CUP" "The Loving Cup" is first attributed to Henry IV. of France. While hunting he strayed from his companions, and feeling thirsty, called at a wayside inn for a cup of wine. The serving-maid, on handing it to him as he sat on horseback, neglected to present the handle. Some wine was spilled, and the attendant, white gaiters were soiled. As he was riding home the thought came to him that a two-handled cup would prevent a recurrence of this accident. The idea was his, and the attendant, the maid, having received instructions from her mistress to be very careful of the king's cup—presented it to him by holding it herself by each of the handles. At once the idea struck the king that a cup with three handles was the thing needed. The idea was promptly acted upon, for as his majesty quaffed: "Surely, out of three handles, I shall be able to get one!"

CONCRETE BLOCKS IN HOUSE BUILDING Thermos Flask Capacities of Retaining Heat and Cold Demonstrated.

There is a revival in the west of the old idea of bringing rainfall to drought-stricken areas by explosions or cannonading. The scheme finds most of its support from more or less authentic reports of clouds being formed and rain actually produced in France and Australia. About 20 years ago strong claims were made by a few men in the southwestern states that they could direct or turn the nature's forces in such a way as to bring needed moisture to any particular district. They operated for some time under the direction of the United States government, the results being noted by official observers. As no convincing evidence was given of ability to modify weather conditions to any appreciable extent, the results were given another chance. They are invited by the Alberta Municipalities Union to conduct operations in the southern part of the province next summer. It may look like a vain hope to expect that success can be attained after so many failures. There has, however, been a great advance in the knowledge of atmospheric changes and especially of the part played by electricity in the clouds. It is not beyond the range of possibilities that rain can be induced at times and places that would not in the ordinary course of events be favored.

One of the most interesting features of the Glasgow housing exhibition is the concrete outfit which was responsible for the building of the "Mystery Fort" during the war. There are in actual operation several machines used in the construction of concrete houses. The machine makes sufficient blocks and slabs in three and a half days for a two-story cottage covering an area of 400 square feet. The machine is made for various features of the work, such as a pressure machine specially designed for light labor and small housing schemes, a chain speed concrete mixer with two and a half horsepower paraffin engine, a stone breaker which crushes the hardest rock down almost to graded sand, and a roofing tile machine ensuring tight, waterproof roofs.

The Scottish local government board, in its official report published in July, 1918, states that the following methods of construction have been adopted: (1) 11-in. cavity walls formed of two 4 1/2-in. brick with a 2-in. cavity, the walls being bound together with galvanized iron wire.

(2) 8-in. cavity walls built similarly to 1-in. concrete slabs with 9-in. brick piers at intervals. (3) 2 1/2-in. concrete slabs with 9-in. concrete piers at intervals.

Regarding this special type of house construction, as demonstrated at the exhibition, it is claimed that it is absolutely bone dry, the cavity wall, like a thermos flask, retaining the interior heat, excluding that from outside, with the result that a house so built will not only be healthier and more permanent than that erected with any other material, but will be cooler in summer and warmer in winter.—Commission of Conservation Bulletin.

THE FEMALE OF THE SPECIES. A French scientist holds that there is no doubt that woman is biologically superior to man. It is known that among certain insects eggs insufficiently nourished produce male species, while normal eggs produce females. Again, among certain animals the male species, despite its physical beauty, is generally smaller and less resistant. There is something in his nature and attributes that makes him more fragile and less robust than the female.

Therefore, according to the general law of embryology, it must be concluded that the female represents the more stable element of our race.

DIVERSE DIVORCE LAWS Will there ever be one common code of law for divorces? It would be a daring man who would attempt the prophecy, with such diversity of divorce law and custom as prevails today throughout the world. If the wife of a Turkoman asks her husband's permission to go out and he says "Go," without adding "Come back again," they are divorced. In the Arctic region a man who wants a divorce leaves home in anger and does not return for several days. The wife takes the hint and reports in Australia that fox ranching is being taken over by a man who wants a divorce leaves him in anger and does not return for several days.

RAINMAKERS GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE Canadians Not Awake to the Value of This Business.

There is a revival in the west of the old idea of bringing rainfall to drought-stricken areas by explosions or cannonading. The scheme finds most of its support from more or less authentic reports of clouds being formed and rain actually produced in France and Australia. About 20 years ago strong claims were made by a few men in the southwestern states that they could direct or turn the nature's forces in such a way as to bring needed moisture to any particular district. They operated for some time under the direction of the United States government, the results being noted by official observers. As no convincing evidence was given of ability to modify weather conditions to any appreciable extent, the results were given another chance. They are invited by the Alberta Municipalities Union to conduct operations in the southern part of the province next summer. It may look like a vain hope to expect that success can be attained after so many failures. There has, however, been a great advance in the knowledge of atmospheric changes and especially of the part played by electricity in the clouds. It is not beyond the range of possibilities that rain can be induced at times and places that would not in the ordinary course of events be favored.

One of the most interesting features of the Glasgow housing exhibition is the concrete outfit which was responsible for the building of the "Mystery Fort" during the war. There are in actual operation several machines used in the construction of concrete houses. The machine makes sufficient blocks and slabs in three and a half days for a two-story cottage covering an area of 400 square feet. The machine is made for various features of the work, such as a pressure machine specially designed for light labor and small housing schemes, a chain speed concrete mixer with two and a half horsepower paraffin engine, a stone breaker which crushes the hardest rock down almost to graded sand, and a roofing tile machine ensuring tight, waterproof roofs.

The Scottish local government board, in its official report published in July, 1918, states that the following methods of construction have been adopted: (1) 11-in. cavity walls formed of two 4 1/2-in. brick with a 2-in. cavity, the walls being bound together with galvanized iron wire.

(2) 8-in. cavity walls built similarly to 1-in. concrete slabs with 9-in. brick piers at intervals. (3) 2 1/2-in. concrete slabs with 9-in. concrete piers at intervals.

Regarding this special type of house construction, as demonstrated at the exhibition, it is claimed that it is absolutely bone dry, the cavity wall, like a thermos flask, retaining the interior heat, excluding that from outside, with the result that a house so built will not only be healthier and more permanent than that erected with any other material, but will be cooler in summer and warmer in winter.—Commission of Conservation Bulletin.

THE FEMALE OF THE SPECIES. A French scientist holds that there is no doubt that woman is biologically superior to man. It is known that among certain insects eggs insufficiently nourished produce male species, while normal eggs produce females. Again, among certain animals the male species, despite its physical beauty, is generally smaller and less resistant. There is something in his nature and attributes that makes him more fragile and less robust than the female.

Therefore, according to the general law of embryology, it must be concluded that the female represents the more stable element of our race.

DIVERSE DIVORCE LAWS Will there ever be one common code of law for divorces? It would be a daring man who would attempt the prophecy, with such diversity of divorce law and custom as prevails today throughout the world. If the wife of a Turkoman asks her husband's permission to go out and he says "Go," without adding "Come back again," they are divorced. In the Arctic region a man who wants a divorce leaves home in anger and does not return for several days. The wife takes the hint and reports in Australia that fox ranching is being taken over by a man who wants a divorce leaves him in anger and does not return for several days.

INDUSTRIES IN CANADA ON SATISFACTORY BASIS

Apprehension Shown in United States is Not Reflected Here. The April commercial letter issued by the Royal Bank says: "The general impression of Canadian company reports have been made public in the course of the last few months and the general property which exists in the United States is reflected in our country. The main avenue for loss to industrial companies lies of course in their inventories of raw materials, which would be badly affected by reductions in the price of the raw materials in this country where a cautious disposition has in most cases been made of production of a generally conservative policy pursued, the future can be looked forward to without great apprehension."

My engineer advises that the downward extension of the vein is of the highest grade, now being developed by Crown Reserve, has been opened up to the point of the vein, and shows a width of about 10 inches of high-grade ore. It also understands that vein is given on the Crown Reserve, and reliable judges believe it is very likely to extend downward to around 1,000 feet."

A Suit for the Boy

With the opening of Spring, the Boy also looks forward to a new suit of clothes. It is the season when wise mothers find it best to supply the apparel needs of young Johnny for the long warm days ahead.

This year, it is even more than usual the best time for the far-seeing mother to make her boy's purchases, for clothing prices are on the climb. Simpson's Boys' Clothing Department on the Second Floor has accumulated for the Easter season a collection of styles and models that make the double appeal of durability and cut. They are smartly-tailored and they have "stuff" in them. A Simpson-attired boy is a satisfied boy.
