Denies That Germany Has Renounced Occupied Land

Michaelis Also Says There Have Been No Communications With Allies

Copenhagen, Sept. 29.—Germany has not renounced Belgium and has not in communication with any of her enemies...

Moreover, I declare the statement that the imperial government has been renouncing occupied territories...

The interpretation does not mention the Vorwarts, the Tagblatt and other newspapers have resorted repeatedly to the superior in the schools and government departments...

Another interpretation, concerning the right of assembly, accuses the home authorities of manipulating the right of assembly one-sidedly in favor of pan-German propaganda.

The government ministers had a meeting late tonight to discuss the effect of the premier's appearance, but none of the ministers would talk.

The section of General Verkhovskiy's speech concerning the expense of Russia, provoked great applause.

"Our gallant ally," the war minister said, "has replied to the dastardly offer by unconditionally rejecting it, believing, as I believe, that the Russian army still will have its breast to free the fatherland."

The general said he would handle the army without gloves, although it had plenty of good intentions. He pointed out defects, saying: "The twelfth army before Riga did not refuse to fight and at the same time it murders its officers. We hear many worthy words about the army and fleet, but we have a great many deserters. The glorious victories on the southwest front in July terminated in a disgraceful revolt."

In the rear we have reinforcements, but the men at the front do not accept them because they bring discord and regiment with historic records cannot accept such men."

In a ringing voice, the war minister concluded: "The war must be continued until with certainty we have achieved the peace desired by all—peace with freedom."

Forecast: Upper and Lower St. Lawrence—Fair today, showers during the night and on Sunday. Gulf and North Shore—Fresh west to south winds, fair today, showers during the night and on Sunday.

All Germany Knew It Few Days Later

Ottawa Date on Despatch Announcing Senate Action on Military Service Bill

Toronto, Sept. 29.—A few days after the military service bill was given its third reading in Ottawa the news was known all over Germany.

On the night of August 8 the senate passed the bill, and in German papers on August 13 was a telegram dated "Ottawa, August 10," bearing the information.

An instance of this is shown in a German newspaper taken at Hill 70, after the Hun had been expelled.

Probable Bating Champion of the Older League

Petrograd, Sept. 29.—(Delayed)—Premier Kerensky took the initiative today and faced boldly what may be the supreme test of the power of his government.

At the very beginning of the democratic congress, called by the Maximalist and other delegates to question his power, and perhaps to demand a new government, the premier accepted the challenge.

He told the congress that his regime had saved Russia in its darkest hour.

The government also indicated its policy of a firm continuation of the war against the Hun, and the minister pledged the nation to a final victory over Germany.

From a bedlam of hisses and applause voices from the floor challenged the speaker to arise. A common soldier in the back gallery arose, and with folded arms across his brown blouse, stood calmly facing a torrent of hisses from the supporters of Premier Kerensky.

This was only one of the unusual scenes of the convention in which 800 delegates had seats on the main floor.

There was an air of tense excitement in the crowd of spectators in the gallery as a result of rumors that the agitator Lenin was in Petrograd and would appear at the convention.

This died down, however, when he failed to appear.

The speaker, which greeted Premier Kerensky indicated that he had a small minority with him. The Socialists supporting him contented that he has a majority of the convention.

The government ministers had a meeting late tonight to discuss the effect of the premier's appearance, but none of the ministers would talk.

The section of General Verkhovskiy's speech concerning the expense of Russia, provoked great applause.

Twenty Airships In Raid By Huns

Two of Them Lost and No Casualties to British Caused—Repeated Attempts to Attack London Fail

London, Sept. 29.—A telegram from Kent, referring to last night's air raid, says that three squadrons successfully crossed the coast, flying well below thick black clouds which obscured the nearly full moon.

The invaders met with a hot reception from the anti-aircraft guns. Nevertheless the first section managed to evade the shells and steered in the direction of London.

Another telegram describes a small squadron of raiders as going toward London and returning, apparently one by one.

A despatch from Essex says that two bombs were dropped in that district. From the first telegrams received from the coast the features of this raid seemed to be the intense volume of the defensive gunfire and the speediness of the repulse of the raiders.

Another despatch says several bombs were dropped in the Thames estuary. The numbers of batteries at work put up a regular curtain fire. British airplanes also went up after the raiders and there was considerable air fighting.

The firing gradually died away and the bulk of the enemy's engines grew less and less faint as the airships speeded to sea.

ROUSH LIKELY NATIONAL CHIEF

Probable Bating Champion of the Older League

Chicago, Sept. 29.—With the close of the league season less than a week away, Ed Roush, the Cincinnati outfielder, appears to be certain of the National League batting championship.

Unofficial averages released today give him 343, a 27 point lead over Hornsby of St. Louis, his nearest rival.

Batters of the New York club, who are getting ready for the world's series with Chicago, continued their effective hitting. Kauff is showing the way to his team-mates with 311 runs follows with 300, and Zimmermann is next with 297. Burns is firmly in possession of league scoring honors, having counted 104 times.

Carey of Pittsburgh, who is leading the base stealers, brought his margin up to forty-nine. Crawford of Philadelphia leads the league in home runs with twelve, and Deal of Chicago is topping the sacrifice hitters with twenty-eight. Cincinnati retained the lead in team batting with 264.

Leading batters include Roush, Cincinnati, 343; Hornsby, St. Louis, 316; Kauff, New York, 311; Groh, Cincinnati, 305; Burns, New York, 300.

There apparently is no chance for Drix Speaker, the 1916 batting champion, overcoming Ty Cobb's lead in the American hitting 375, with Speaker twenty points behind him.

There is a merry scramble for base-stealing honors with Cobb and Chapman of Cleveland pressing the latter's teammate, Roth, for the lead. Roth, with forty-nine, has a one point advantage over Cobb in scoring. Pipp of New York retains home-run honors with nine. Detroit leads in team batting with 267.

Leading batters are: Cobb, Detroit, 375; Speaker, Cleveland, 358; Slater, St. Louis, 347; Felsch, Chicago, 306; Harris, Cleveland, 298.

Good Things Coming to Theatres of St. John

ALL NEW, OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

The all new vaudeville programme at the Opera House tonight offers Lawrence Vance and Grace Andrews in a magical and illusion feature, titled "A Den of Mystery," something a little different from the ordinary magic. Other acts on the programme include Carberry Bros. in "A Bit of Dancing"; Brown and White, shiny singers and chatterers; Rosette Bergeron, in an unique musical novelty; Burns Bros., comedy acrobats, and the eighteenth chapter of "Clara's Romance," with Billie Burke. Two complete performances this evening at 7:30 and 9—every afternoon at 2:30. Same little prices.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR IMPERIAL PATRONS

Monday's programme is so unusually interesting and so extensive that patrons of the Imperial are requested to make note of the following information. The first reels will be started at 6:45 sharp and the first show in the evening is expected to be over not before nine o'clock. The bill includes the first two-reel statement of the fortnight's tri-weekly changes of war pictures, The German Retreat From Arras, which includes the Vimy Ridge engagement. Then there are Ethel Barrymore in the six-reel Metro de luxe "The White Raven" and a most engaging Moose Hunt in the Wilds of New Brunswick (our own province) by some American millionaire sportsman and our own intrepid guides. This is a corker and will make everybody sit right up with amazement. The Imperial stakes its reputation on this amazing bill of pictures.

GEMS NEW BILL

Glady's Brockwell in "Her Temptation," a five reel Fox production, will grip interest. A big story well told in pictures. A taking musical act and a sprightly soufrette will furnish the vaudeville. Tonight, Monday and Tuesday.

HEROIC DEEDS OF THE KILTIES AT HILL SEVENTY

The Toronto Highlanders' Work—Piper McGillivray Stopped Playing Occasionally To Shoot A Hun

(SPECIAL CABLE TO TIMES BY F. A. MCKENZIE.)

London, Sept. 29.—Recent messages from the front tell of the glorious conduct of the Toronto Highlanders during our advance. One high officer, describing the attack on Hill 70, writes me: "Our division fought another great action with the advance with the steady valor and discipline as on many past occasions. Our Canadian infantry is now so superior to the best infantry of the German army that they almost treat them with contempt. Advancing to the attack they took trench after trench with more regularity. In the last action our advance went truly according to plan. Everything went in the most orderly manner. Our dear grand old battalion carried themselves in the same steady, daring manner they've done in every action. We advanced wearing the kilt and the flap of the McKeen tartan struck terror into the Hun as it has done in many other actions. Our pipers led the way upholding the glorious tradition of the Toronto pipers. Unfortunately I am afraid one has gone, Piper McGillivray. Our following pipers were all volunteers. So many men, as usual, offered themselves that we had to choose them by lot. McGillivray led his company with a steady stride, only occasionally interrupting his playing while he used his pistol on the retreating Huns. His company penetrated some distance beyond the original objective. He apparently put down his pipes for a moment on the order to round up a party of Huns. During the first few months of the fiscal year the pipes got mislaid. After the company had retired to the original objective, McGillivray was ordered back to the battalion headquarters. Evidently he went forward by himself again in search of his pipes. He has never been heard of since, although his tent coat was afterwards recovered by Sgt. Major Frank McDonald. We have done everything possible for him. A soldier writing me about the east Toronto Highlanders says: "Were I to attempt to speak about the valorous deeds of this battalion, I would find it impossible."

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 29.—The matter of initiation at the U. N. B., which in past years frequently was a bone of contention, again has cropped up. In violation of the agreement made by the student body two new students were put through some form of initiation in Wilmot Park on last Thursday night. News of what was done came to the ears of the faculty, and the result was that the reception for new students to have been given at the Arts Building last night was cancelled.

It is reported that the lady students of the university had initiation ceremonies as well as the male students. Joint gatherings for initiation are forbidden, and a faculty meeting will be held to deal with the matter.

Customs returns for Fredericton for the first five months of the fiscal year show an increase of $51,228.45 in duty collected, as compared with the similar period of last year.

The first Rugby football match of the season took place yesterday afternoon, Fredericton High School defeating the Provincial Normal School 12 to 0. The Normal School team had little practice, and some of the players were new to the game. In the first period Walker scored a try, which was converted by Lounsbury. In the second period Lounsbury scored another try, which was not converted, and afterward dropped a goal.

SOME STORIES OF ENCOUNTERS WITH U-BOATS BY NAVY VESSELS

London, Sept. 29.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—Among the encounters of British vessels with submarines, the following will serve to illustrate the diversity of methods employed to deal with the scourge of the seas:—

"First instance—A torpedo gunboat noticed the periscope of a U-boat off its starboard bow about 600 yards away. The captain swung his ship around until the submarine was on his port bow and traveling slowly in the opposite direction.

"Second instance—A torpedo boat on patrol duty in the Atlantic observed a steamer torpedoed by a submarine. She immediately proceeded to her assistance. The steamer sank, and having picked up the survivors, the torpedo boat circled around searching for the submarine. A white patch was sighted on the water right ahead. The torpedo boat made for the spot. When within fifty yards of the spot a periscope suddenly disappeared and the gunboat, whose speed was then seventeen knots, altered her course so that she passed directly over the submarine. The impact of the collision was felt, and when the captain judged that the U-boat was directly beneath her, he dropped an explosive charge. When this was exploded another was dropped and a seaplane, which circled around the spot, reported large pools of oil on the surface. A group of mine sweepers, working in this vicinity later, reported an obstruction at the spot where the submarine was hit.

"Third instance—In this case there is no probability whatever that the U-boat having escaped. A British submarine on patrol duty sighted an enemy surface boat. Both vessels were on the surface and a heavy sea was running at the time. The British boat submerged and a quarter of an hour later succeeded in picking up the enemy in her periscope. She fired at an estimated range of 800 yards, and after a pause of a minute, fired again. The enemy was swimming in it. These were taken prisoners and the U-boat was reported to have struck them just below the conning tower."

THREE TIMES WAS WOUNDED BUT HE STUCK TO HIS POST

Tribute Paid to Lieut. P. A. Fulton by His Major—Was Killed by Sniper at Hill 70

Regarding the death of Lieut. P. A. Fulton, his mother, who resides in Halifax, has received a thoughtful letter from Major C. G. Porter, of the 26th Battalion. The letter in part is as follows:—

"His work here has been excellent—in fact the reliance and confidence which the colonel had in him. During the taking of Hill 70 one company had lost heavily in officers and the position of the company was bad, having the enemy on three sides of them. Your son was sent up to take charge of the company, with such good results that the position was able to be maintained. The fight was very heavy and your son before a sniper finally got him, had been wounded three times.

"Any officer or man who remains on duty after once having been wounded is considered courageous—you can well imagine the respect we have for you."

"The officers of the battalion feel that they have lost a true comrade. Once again I wish to express my sympathy to you on the loss of such a gallant gentleman."

Lieutenant Fulton crossed with a Nova Scotia infantry battalion and was transferred to the 26th. The letter has added interest because it establishes the fact that the 26th took part in the capture of Hill 70.

THE CAR FERRY SERVICE

The car ferry steamer arrived at Carleton Place yesterday afternoon and was successfully docked. After the steamer was in proper position the apron or landing platform was lowered and fitted into its place perfectly. Twelve cars of railway material for the terminal were promptly unloaded. It was quite a surprise to the large crowd assembled to see cars of different American railroads landed and drawn up on tracks at the station there. The slight hitch in the docking arrangements of Cape Tormentine will be remedied by removing the eight-inch lining of the deck and replacing it with three inch lining. The car ferry left for Tormentine after discharging, which occupied about one hour.—Charlottetown Patriot.

CONGRESSMEN PUT OFF VISIT TO EUROPE

President Advises Them That Contemplated Mission Would be Inopportune at This Time

Washington, Sept. 29.—Postponement of action on invitations to Congress from British and French officials for a delegation to visit Europe was agreed upon at a joint meeting of the senate foreign relations and house foreign affairs committees, following the receipt of word from President Wilson that he deemed the dispatch of a congressional commission abroad inopportune at this time.

Absence of so many congressional leaders from Washington and their exposure to submarine attack were among the reasons assigned by the president, who also was said to feel that this nation was not co-operation was advisable. Opposition to any entering wedges toward the formation of "entangling European alliances" also was said to be a factor.

THE PEOPLE'S DUTY

The stock in trade of the Conservative leaders in the election campaign will be the charge that the Liberals of Canada would sacrifice the soldiers at the front and practically withdraw the country from active participation in the war. That they should have the audacity to make such a charge almost passes belief. There are probably as many Liberals as Conservatives with sons or other relatives at the front, and ever since the war began the Liberals have been as active in all war work at home as the Conservatives have been—and everybody is aware of the fact. Moreover the Liberals continued to give the fullest support to all war measures, although it was perfectly clear that the Conservative government took the full advantage of every opportunity provided by the war to reward their party friends, and to enrich Conservative contractors and middlemen. In the province of New Brunswick the Liberals in the coming campaign will find opposed to them men who have enriched themselves while the leaders of their party were imploring young men to sacrifice their lives for the safety of the country. To them partisanship and personal advantage are of more importance than the great principles for which so many sons of Canada have given their lives.

There are those who protest against an election and party strife in war time. They should have protested in 1914, and called upon Sir Robert Borden to give this country a national government. It is because he and those associated with him have so mismanaged the country that an election is a necessity, and it will be the duty of Conservatives as well as Liberals who really believe in a national government to clean house at Ottawa, and let a parliament fresh from the people take up the task of mobilizing Canada for war and for the right solution of national problems after the war. That is the first essential. The mere fact that the Conservative press and leaders are trying to brand as traitors all who protest against the scandalous mismanagement of these three years past is enough to condemn them, and make the people resolve to place in power men who are prompted by higher motives and are more worthy of respect.

No citizen of Canada need fear that the Liberal party will fall in its duty to this country and to the Empire. It refused to make common cause with the Nationalists in 1912, and has nothing in common with them today. It stands for a united Canada as well as for a solid and victorious Empire. The people will presently have before them the platforms of the government and the Liberal party. A comparison will convince them that what Canada needs is a change at Ottawa. Indeed they are already convinced of that, but some people have been deceived by Tory falsehoods as to the real policy of the Liberal party.

The people are soon to be called upon to make a momentous decision. Not only imperial safety but Canadian unity will be involved in the coming contest. There are those among us who would rend Canada asunder and bequeath to the next generation a legacy of hate, if only they could hold the reins of power for another term. Let us beware of them, for they wrap the flag around them when they go out after votes. They are as insincere now as they were when they charged Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Quebec with being too British and in Ontario with being anti-British in his sentiments. They are as insincere now as they were when they waved the flag and then took Bourassa and Lavergne to their bosoms. They are as insincere now as they were when they shouted "no truck nor trade with the Yankees." What they want is another term of patronage and plunder, and the Big Interests behind them want another four or five years of profiteering.

The most hopeful fact in evidence today is the growing distrust in the minds of thoughtful Conservatives, who see whither we are drifting, and who resent the insincerity and the autocratic tendency of their leaders. The Borden franchise act is a blot on the statute books of Canada. It is a barefaced attempt to pack the jury. It is an open insult to the noble womanhood of Canada. It deprives loyal British subjects of the right of franchise, and gives notice to the world that a pledge given to immigrants by Canada is merely a "scraper of paper." This is not alone the view of Liberals, but of every Conservative who is not hand-in-glove with the authors of the iniquitous measure. The Borden government proposes to exploit the soldier. Having sent him to the front with the Ross rifle, and an army medical service the exposure of which shocked the country; and having kept under salary in England thousands who never saw the front, and who ought to have been sent home to hoe potatoes, it suddenly blossoms out as the only friend and champion of the fighting man. It is the duty of the people, Conservative and Liberal, to defeat this government and give a parliament fresh from the people, and representative of all the people—including the disfranchised—the opportunity to form a real national government.

Appeals are being made by the St. John Standard to the "loyalists" of St. John to vote for the Borden government in the coming elections. If the Borden government should happen to get what was handed out to the Murray government some of the directors of the Standard might not find the standard quite so good this winter. But like prudent folk they have laid by something for a rainy day.

The Standard's Ottawa correspondent announces that it is expected Hon. Messrs. Burrell, Roche, Crothers and Kemp will follow Rogers and Patenaude and resign from the Borden cabinet. Sir Robert Borden fears to face the people with the old crowd and is looking at the last moment for new timber.

The Kaiser has been suppressing some more newspapers. When a pious Sir Robert Borden did not get his pillbox in parliament to suppress the pestilent Grit newspapers after it had fixed up the voters' lists to suit itself.

The soldier who has looked death in the face in France or Flanders is not afraid to look Sir Robert Borden in the eye, and tell him that there should be one rule of sacrifice for all—with no favors for the partisan or the profiteer.

Sackville Tribune—"The conscription law is on the statute books of Canada. It applies to Liberals as well as Conservatives, and Liberals as well as Conservatives will abide by it and obey it."

All the recruiting offices are to be closed. Voluntary recruiting would have produced much better results but for the meddling and muddling of the militia department.

Last night's cables seemed to indicate the beginning of a general drive by the British and French on the western front. There should be stirring news by Monday.

It is now rumored that the 29th Battalion may spend several months in Montreal. Are men needed on the other side? The Killies would be glad to go.

TO FIGHT TYPHOID

New Maine Department to Devote Entire Year of 1918 to Campaign Against Destructive Diseases

So soon as the new state health department of Maine is thoroughly organized and in lighting trim it intends to wage a strenuous warfare against disease in the State of Maine. In this fight the health authorities intend to take on all comers in the "bug" line—human, animal or vegetable. Disease germs are ruthless destroyers of life. Like enemy submarines they attack without warning, and can be conquered only by well organized and concentrated effort.

Starting in January, the entire year of 1918 will be spent by the state department of health in a concentrated effort to rid Maine of the submarines of typhoid fever. These germs are typical submarines, for they operate in their destructive work chiefly under water.

Physicians and people in general will be asked to co-operate by sending information as to location where this disease exists. The department of health will send experts to such places to study causes and endeavor to learn the source of the disease. Vaccine to prevent typhoid fever will be made by the state department of health, and offered free of charge to the citizens of the state.

A GOOD PROPHECY
To the Editor of the Times-Star:
Sir,—In the sermon entitled "The Use of Money," the founder of Methodism, Rev. John Wesley, said:—"None can gain by swallowing up his neighbor's substance without gaining the damnation of Hell. This is dear-bought gain. And so is whatever is procured by hurting our neighbor in his soul, by ministering, directly or indirectly, to his uncharity or intemperance. Neither may we gain by hurting our neighbor in his body. Wherefore we may not sell anything which tends to impair health. Such is eminently all that liquid fire commonly called drams or spirituous liquors. It is true these may have a place in medicine; they may be of use in some bodily disorders, although there would rarely be occasion for them were it not for the unskillfulness of the practitioner. Therefore, such as prepare and sell them only for this end may keep their conscience clear. But who are they? Who prepare them only for this end? Do you know ten distillers in England?"
"Then excuse these. But all who sell them in the common way to any that will buy are poisoners general. They murder His Majesty's subjects wholesale, neither does their evil eye pity or spare. They drive them to Hell like sheep; and what is their gain? Is it not the blood of men? Would they envy their estates and sumptuous palaces? A curse is in the roof of the stores, the timber, the furniture of them. The curse of God is in their gardens, their walks, their groves, a fire that burns to the nethermost Hell. Blood, blood is there; the foundations, the walls, the floor, the roof are stained with blood! Though they are clothed in scarlet and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day, cannot thou hope to deliver down the fields of blood to the third generation?"
"Not so, for there is a God in Heaven; therefore thy name shall soon be rooted out. Like as those whom thou hast destroyed body and soul, thy memorial shall perish with thee."
H. ARNOTT, M.B., M.C.P.S., Social Service Board.

Many Children Die From Summer Complaint

When They Could Be Saved by Using DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

There is not a summer passes without thousands of people, especially infants, being attacked by summer complaint. The prostration, often verging on collapse, which sometimes accompanies this disease makes it one of the most serious and dangerous we have to contend with during the hot months.

A remedy which will quickly effect the vomiting, purging and the profuse diarrhoea is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Mrs. Thomas M. Theriault, Grand Anse, N.B., writes: "My three children were very sick with summer complaint during the hot days last summer. I thought one day that they would die and I didn't know what to do to cure them. I happened to have one of your siphonans in the house, and found by reading about Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry that it was a good remedy. I at once got two bottles, and they perfectly cured them. I recommend everybody to use this wonderful remedy."

When you ask for "Dr. Fowler's" see that you get it.
It has been on the market for the past 72 years.
You don't experiment when you buy it.

LIBERALS FOR NATIONAL UNITY

(From the London Advertiser.)
A big movement toward national unity has seized the Liberal party. Conception is on the statute books, and the bill will be introduced. With what followed its introduction in the shape of the most shameful election bill that could have been conceived in the mind of an arch-trickster, the country will be aroused regarding the danger to the future of Canada if the present government is allowed to continue its wallow in the mire of political fifth trumped over the halls of government since the war began. The country must clean up. If enforced service is to be the order, as it must be, there must be a clean country for the future military activities of the nation. There must be a party that will commence to legislate for the whole people, and not for the food barons and other profiteers. If food is to be controlled it must be controlled from within the country and for the people of the country, who are willing and ready to pull up the national belt if they are convinced that they are not being played with. The Liberal party must go into the present fight with strong hearts and a determination to give Canada a new measure of reform and a new kind of government. The rule of the people must be proclaimed and set into the very foundations of the new structure. The country must be held together and brought to a new unity. The chance of disaster within the nation must be prevented by a tremendous effort toward the new dawn for Canada. The country needs saving at the present time. Liberals will respond to the appeal.

LISTEN TO THIS!

SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison, are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called frezons, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky ether compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of frezons will cost little or nothing of the drug stores, but sufficient to rid one's feet of every or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that looting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

RECIPE FOR GOOD MUSTARD PICKLES

1 quart small cucumbers.
1 quart large cucumbers.
1 quart green tomatoes sliced.
1 quart small button onions.
1 large cauliflower divided into green peppers cut fine.
Make a brine of four quarts of water and 1 pint of salt, pour over the mixture of vegetables and let it stand twenty-four hours. Heat all the vegetables in the brine on the stove just enough to seal and then turn in a colander to drain. Next mix one cup wheat flour, six tablespoons ground mustard and one tablespoon turmeric with enough cold vinegar to make a paste. Then add two cups brown sugar and enough vinegar to make two quarts in all. Boil this on the stove till it thickens, stirring all the time, then add the vegetables and cook till heated through.

POLICEMAN WAS SHOT

Cork, Sept. 28.—A police sergeant was shot in the thigh at midnight last night while he was preparing a squad near the court house to charge a crowd, which had been making an attack with stones. He had given an order to fix bayonets, when five shots were fired. The sergeant dropped, seriously wounded.
The shooting was the culmination of a night of disorders fomented by Sinn Feiners, small groups of whom paraded the streets whistling the Sinn Fein anthems and cheering the Sinn Fein leader, Thomas Ashe, who died in jail. Windows were smashed and five youths received scalp wounds from police batons. The Irish convention delegates had left the city before the demonstrations broke out.

Jury Disagrees.

Red Oaks, Ia., Sept. 28.—The jury in the trial of Rev. Lyn George Kelly, charged with murder in connection with the Villisca axe slayings, was discharged by Judge Boles at 1:23 p.m. today for failure to agree on a verdict after deliberating since late Wednesday.

GERMANY RIPE FOR REVOLUTION

Belief of Arthur Henderson, Former Cabinet Member

Democratization Needed
He Would Rather Deal With German Minority Socialists Than With Government Representatives

London, Sept. 10.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Belief that Germany is ripe for revolution was expressed by Arthur Henderson, deposed labor representative in the British war cabinet, in an interview here in the Weekly Dispatch justifying his attitude in favor of the Stockholm conference. "Nothing is further from my mind," he said, "than concurrence in a peace settlement that would not be final, democratic and lasting. An inconclusive peace would be a dishonorable peace, and we have no desire to parley with unrepentant military despots. The final peace must be a people's peace, and one of the terms in which there can be no compromise must be the final and complete abolition of irresponsible autocratic government.

"I consider a democratized Germany an indispensable condition, and the most effective way of bringing this home to the German people would be through the representatives of the working-class organizations.

Political Propaganda
"In my opinion, a military victory of the Allies will not be sufficient. It might enable the Allies to secure a satisfactory and honorable peace, but it could not guarantee a lasting peace. This can only be secured by the good will of all the peoples concerned. I want to supplement military effort by a properly organized and wisely directed political propaganda.

"Both before the war and during actual hostilities the German people have been tricked and deceived, and even now they are by no means cognizant of the vital facts in Germany. They will continue to remain hoodwinked and ignorant until the war ends unless the Allies find means of placing in their possession a complete and undistorted statement of the facts.

"To my mind the only satisfactory channel of communication is through the German Socialists, and particularly the German minority Socialists. I would rather consult with the German minority Socialists than with the official government representatives after the war, even though Germany has been completely defeated in a military sense. For it is to the lasting credit of the German minority Socialists that, though they formed part of a nation built up on military victories and incited from birth with a worship of militarism, they have in the midst of the greatest war of history stood aloof from their own government and denounced in unequivocal language the aims and designs of conquest and domination.

Menace to All Peoples
"I do not accept the suggestion that the overthrow of absolutist government and the democratization of the machinery of government is an after-war problem, and I have reason to know that this also is the view of some of the best Socialists of Germany.

"I do not accept the view that the form of government in Germany is one for the German people to decide for themselves. So long as German imperialism stayed in Germany it remained a problem for the German people themselves to solve. But immediately it thrust its unwelcome and devastating feet across the frontiers of Belgium and France and Serbia, it became a menace to all peoples, and they are all now vitally concerned in its total extinction.

"We have it in our power to strengthen enormously the hands of the Socialists in Germany, who are anxious to break forever the power and authority of the Kaiser and his military chiefs. The German people are ripe for something. They are undergoing great privations and sacrifices out of all proportion to the small military satisfaction obtainable from the fact that their armies are still lodged in foreign soil. Hunger, death and reverses have now taken up a permanent judgment with them, and the phantom of starvation and disaster is already flapping his wings overhead.

"The soil is fertile in Germany, ready for the sowing; the sower is to hand. All that is lacking is the seed, which we can supply in abundance.
"So I am in favor of a conference in order that we may hand over to the German Socialists unlimited supplies of seed for the revolution for which I am convinced Germany is ripe."

Don't Waste, Don't Starve—there is plenty of food for all if you will only do your bit in preventing waste. Demand the whole wheat grain in breakfast foods and bread. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent. whole wheat—nothing wasted, every particle utilized. It contains more real nutriment than meat, and costs much less. For any meal with milk and fruits.

FOREIGN SHIPS MAY ENGAGE IN AMERICAN COASTWISE TRADE NOW

Washington, Sept. 28.—The administration bill to permit foreign merchant ships to engage in American coastwise trade was passed by the house today without a roll call. It now goes to the senate, where, prompt action is expected.

Admission of foreign vessels to the coastwise trade is an essential feature of the government's shipping programme, as all available American tonnage is to be put on overseas routes.

Allied Conference to Meet.
Paris, Sept. 29.—The Temps announces that there will be a meeting of the inter-allied conference at an early date.

Three hundred jars of jams in a Cabinet Member's cellar!

The first ladies of the land are doing their part in the country's sacrifice to win the war. The emblem of the Food Administration hangs in a White House Window. The wife of the Secretary of the Navy has a war garden in her front yard. The children of the Secretary of War play a game called "Clean Plate." State dinners are simple and unpretentious.

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING sent a special writer to Washington to go into the official households there and talk with their mistresses. And what she heard and saw is a mighty inspiration to the wives of private citizens everywhere.

And yet "Official Washington Enlists with Mr. Hoover" in the October number is only one of nine important timely articles of practical help in this food crisis. This phase of GOOD HOUSEKEEPING'S Service covers the situation out of its great fund of experience and first-hand knowledge.

Such helpfulness is just one side of this magazine's personality. Just as striking is its way of seeking out the best in fiction for your leisure hours. And so it gives you now the latest serial of William J. Locke—"The Rough Road." It gives you "The Ne'er-do-Much"—another serial, by Eleanor Hallowell Abbott. It gives you bright, intensely good short stories with such alluring titles as "Priscilla Goes to a Bonfire," "The Odd One," "Holy Fire" and "Mirandy on Romance," by such leading writers as Ellis Parker Butler, I. A. R. Wylie, Floy Tolbert Barnard and Dorothy Dix.

Always diverting, always full of inspiration and help, GOOD HOUSEKEEPING has been building through the years in such a way that now, in this great crisis of our country, it has come to fill a vital constant need in more than half a million homes. Does your home get its help?

"FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought the Joy of Health After Two Years' Suffering.

MADAM LAPLANTE.
86 St. Rose St., Montreal, April 4th.
"For over two years I was suffering miserably. I suffered from constant Headaches, and had Palpitation of the Heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the Constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease.
"I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Palpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease, and I feel like a new being—and it was 'Fruit-a-tives' that gave me back my health."
MADAM ARTHUR LAPLANTE, 806 & 810, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

PRODUCE PRICES

(Hartford Observer.)
Farmers report yields of forty to eighty bushels per acre, while 100 bushels is considered a big crop. The prevailing price of good potatoes in the country. They have been coming to market rather freely and around $2 has been the prevailing price. The total crop will total about as last year. Farmers will not name a selling price, and there are as yet no serious attempts to buy. It is believed that oats touched the top price last season. Butter is being hoarded for a winter profit by the prevailing price. Eggs reached the fancy price of 27c. As high as twelve cents has been paid for live pork and beef is correspondingly high. Lambs have been bringing $8 to $10 and more.

NEW DANGERS OF CONSTIPATION

A recent issue of 'The New York Times' says:
"Recent researches of Prof. Metchnikoff and others have led doctors to suppose that many conditions of chronic ill-health, nervous debility, rheumatism and other disorders are due to poisoning set up by unhealthy conditions in the Large Intestine, and it has been suggested that the lowering of the vitality resulting from such poisoning is favorable to the development of Cancer and Tuberculosis."
At Guy's Hospital Sir William Arbuthnot Lane decided on the heroic plan of removing the diseased organ. A child who appeared in the hospital with a tumor nine inches, was removed, and the portion left was joined to the Smaller Intestine.
The result was astonishing. In a week's time the internal organs resumed all their normal functions, and in a few weeks the patient was apparently in perfect health.
The Lower Intestine can never get into this condition if Intestines are used. The 'J. B. L. Cascode' cleanses the Lower Intestine its entire length thoroughly with pure warm water, and removes all this poisonous waste, which is such a menace to health.
This is a sample only of many hundreds of letters we have in our files. Dept. Public Works, Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 31st, 1916.
Dear Sir,
Words, I can assure you, quite fail me to express my satisfaction and gratefulness to you for inventing such a humane and common-sense remedy for stomach troubles as the 'J. B. L. Cascode'. For the past 15 years, I have suffered from such, and have never had the permanent relief from medicines as I have had from your 'Cascode'. I consider it the best investment I have ever made, and would not be without it for one hundred times its cost. I consider that those who are afflicted as I was are making the mistake of their lives to be without one of your 'Cascode's'.
Wishing you every success in your efforts for suffering humanity.
I am, Dear Sir, yours truly,
P.S.—Name and address will be furnished if requested.
It is Nature's own cure for Constipation, and is now being used by over 800,000 Canadians and Americans with great success.
The 'J. B. L. Cascode' is now being shown and explained at E. Clinton Brown, Druggist, Corner Union and Waterloo streets; also P. W. Munro, Dispensing Chemist, 887 Main street, St. John where a most interesting booklet, called 'Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient?' is given on request. If you prefer, write to-day for this booklet to Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., 168 College street, Toronto.

would materially effect the whole industrial prospect of Canada.
This whole situation was canvassed with Sir George Foster today. It is possible that steps will be taken under government supervision to conserve and coordinate iron and steel supplies and secure the limited supplies obtainable covering a programme for the next six months or so. A dominion controller of steel and iron may be appointed for this purpose with duties analogous to those of the fuel controller.
Meanwhile it was decided to secure an inventory of immediate dominion requirements with a view to making representations to Washington and also to ascertaining the need for co-operative action along drastic lines. The chairmen of various industries were appointed to circulate manufacturers in their respective branches and ascertain local conditions in detail as to immediate manufacturing necessities. After the inventory is completed a further conference will be held to devise ways and means of meeting needs. Manufacturers of necessities either for war purposes or domestic use will have the first call. Manufacturers of "luxuries" will probably find considerable difficulty in getting iron and steel supplies after existing stocks on hand are exhausted.
A committee representing the various industries effected was appointed to prepare and submit the circulars as follows: P. L. Miller, Canadian Vickers Co.; R. M. Davy, Dominion Bridge Co.; W. W. Fraser, Montreal Locomotive Co.; R. Harner, Sawyer Massey Co., Hamilton; T. McC. Hutchison, of Drummond Colliery & Co.; F. B. Harnage, of Wilkes Twist Drill Co., Walkerville; C. A. Watrous, of the Watrous Engine Co., Brantford. Additional representatives will be appointed representing the rail builders, railway and foundrymen.

TEMPERANCE SENTIMENT TO INCREASE

Relation To Causing of Mental And Other Diseases

Public Health Meeting

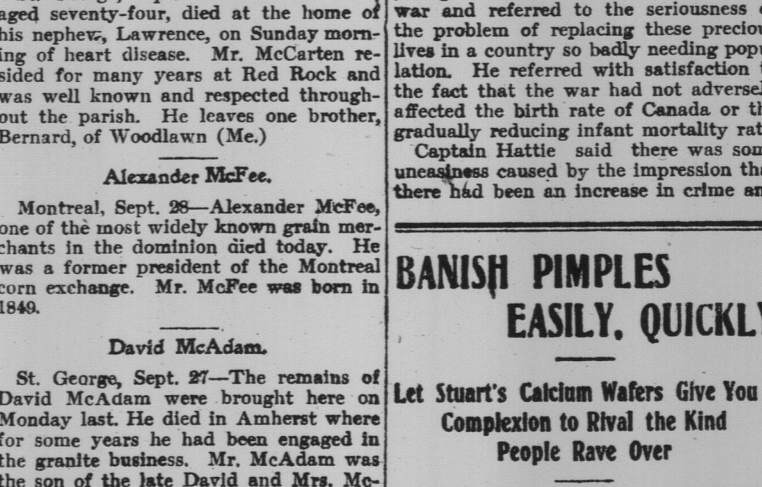

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—That it was time Canada woke up and put the ban on mental defectives entering the country to enjoy the full rights of citizenship was the main point of one of several admirable papers presented at the closing session of the annual congress of the Canadian Public Health Association yesterday afternoon.
Captain W. H. Hattie, M.D., of Halifax, provincial health officer of Nova Scotia, submitted one of the finest papers of the congress on "some medico-social problems arising out of the war." He called attention to the death or disablement in the war of the men best fitted to father a vigorous and virile generation and the serious effect this will have on the birth rate of Canada and the stock quality of the next generation.
He pointed out the terrible toll of young Canadian manhood taken by the war and referred to the seriousness of the problem of replacing these precious men in a country so badly needing population. He referred with satisfaction to the fact that the war had not adversely affected the birth rate of Canada or the gradually reducing infant mortality rate. Captain Hattie said there was some uneasiness caused by the impression that there had been an increase in crime and delinquency since the outbreak of the war. By quoting figures he showed that this was not true, except in a few instances.
One of the most potent factors in the causation of mental and other diseases, degeneracy, poverty and crime, he said, "has without doubt been the abuse of alcohol. It is impossible to believe otherwise than that the sentiment in favor of restricting the manufacture and sale of intoxicants, which has so greatly been strengthened by the war, will increase rather than lessen after peace is declared."
Capt. Hattie referred with satisfaction to the way France, England and the British dominions were dealing with the great white plague. One of his most interesting statements was that every tubercular man enlisted in the Canadian army was costing the country from $1,300 to $1,800 a year.

ONLY NINETEEN BUT HAS SEEN MUCH OF WAR
Gunner Kein, Home Wounded, Speaks of Princess Patricia Hospital, Ramsgate
But nineteen years old yet with a man's part well played in the great war, Gunner J. P. Kein, son of Henry Kein of Portland street, is home from the scenes of battle. In 1914, he was a school boy and the afternoon of the day he spent busily in the Times' printing room. Then came the war and the youth of seventeen enlisted. He got off as far as England, however, for the military authorities there sent him back because of his youth. Thus removed this barrier to his desire to serve in the forces, this time to get to the battle front. He has been through many of the big engagements and just before the Vimy fight was severely wounded while engaged in the dangerous trench mortar work. He was hit by shrapnel in the arm and side, hip and leg. Previous to this he had been several times buried by shells.

RECRUITING IN ST. JOHN
The city recruiting office in Prince William street is to be closed and that recruits from now on will be accepted at rooms 63 at 29 Princess street, the information received this morning. It is said the closing of the office in Prince William street is due to the fact that owners of the building who have been allowing the recruiting authorities to use the office free of charge, now wish to rent it.

A SOMEWHAT MIXED MATTER
Chief of Police Simpson received a letter a few days ago from Mrs. G. H. Farmer inquiring about her husband, George Henry Farmer. She says he went away four years ago while they were living in Vancouver and since that time she has received only three post-cards from him, one from Seattle, one from Boston and one from Toledo, Ohio. In a recent casualty list she read the name of her husband as being wounded and she immediately wrote to the chief of police of St. John, where his mother and some of his relations were supposed to live. Chief Simpson made inquiries and located Mr. Farmer's mother, Mrs. E. L. Jones, at 515 Main street. From information given by her it was learned that her two sons went west and returned at the end of five years. George Henry Farmer was twenty-four years of age and she had no knowledge of his marriage. He was working in the Royal Hotel here on his return but enlisted soon after in the 45th Battalion and has been overseas two years. It appears that he was not wounded at all, however, the announcement being a mistake. Mrs. Jones received word that he had been wounded on July 27, but since then has been informed that it was another Private Farmer who was injured, her son being still in good health at the front.

Allies Must Build More Ships To Equal Submarine Losses

Shortage of Shipping Is Most Vital Fact in the Present Situation and the Building of Merchant Ships Is of the Utmost Importance

London, Sept. 28.—The controller of shipping has authorized the Associated Press to make the following statement of the shipping situation and the urgent need for the United States to undertake the robust shipbuilding programme on a broad scale:

"IT IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD REALIZE THAT THE SHORTAGE OF SHIPPING IS THE MOST VITAL FACT IN THE PRESENT SITUATION AND THE BUILDING OF MERCHANT SHIPS IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE."

"The question the United States must face is whether, on the basis of the shipbuilding programme she is now making, it will be possible for her to send any substantial force to France next spring about such a drain on the world's shipping as will subtract just as much from the fighting strength of the other allies as her own forces will add."

"However large and powerful the army which the United States trains during the winter, it may be rendered absolutely useless as an addition to the fighting forces against Germany if there are no ships to transport it except at the cost of stopping the flow of vital necessities to the present armies."

NO VESSELS DESTROYED OVER BUILDING PROGRAMME

"The loss of shipping since the beginning of the ruthless U-boat war is now roughly equal to the total losses prior to that time. By next spring Germany may be expected to destroy 200 vessels in excess of what are built in the meantime."

"Next spring, this year's harvest will be largely exhausted and the need of supplying Italy, France and Great Britain will be largely increased. At the same moment, the United States will need a large increase in vessels to transport its army and to maintain it."

"What must be the programme of the United States? It must be large enough to outbuild submarine destruction. Even if this means the building of six million tons a year, which is three times the total British have done and five or six times what the United States has previously done. This is not possible if the United States put into it an effort comparable with the efforts the allies put into creating their armies, navies and munitions. To build six million tons of shipping would require about 3,000,000 tons of steel, or less than ten per cent. of her output. It would take not more than a half million men, the majority unskilled."

"The task thus outlined is small compared with the effort put forth by the principal belligerent in other directions."

"Great Britain, for example, increased her army from 250,000 men to more than 5,000,000 men. Great Britain added as well 2,500,000 men to her navy and trebled it in size, while in munitions the British effort whether measured in money, men or material has been greater than what is needed for an adequate American shipbuilding programme."

"Before the war all the shipping in the world was only worth about the same capital as the two big English railway companies. IT WOULD BE THE MOST INCONGRUOUS THING IN THE HISTORY OF WARFARE IF THE WAR, IN WHICH SUCH IMMENSELY GREATER STRENGTH HAS BEEN EXERTED IN OTHER DIRECTIONS, SHOULD HAVE THE ISSUE DECIDED BY FAILURE TO SOLVE THE PROBLEM OF BUILDING SIX MILLION TONS OF SHIPPING A YEAR IN A COUNTRY WITH SUCH VAST RESOURCES AS THE UNITED STATES."

"What is the present situation regarding U-boat losses? It is clear that the submarine war will fall in its main intention. It will not starve Great Britain and it will not interfere with the adequate supply of munitions. But British shipping strength still is being constantly reduced, and we have not yet reached the point where building equals the losses. Under the circumstances Great Britain's position as the supplier of the allies needs to be handicapped. But of main importance is what it means toward the efforts of the United States in the war and unless the situation is faced, the great military effort of the United States will be crippled from the start."

Ringworm on Child's Head

Caused Great Distress and Spread to Neck and Ears—Cure Was Speedily Effected When Right Treatment Was Recommended

Grand Bend, Ont., Sept. 28.—There is no doubt that the "little more obvious" ringworm and the mother who has this letter does so fully realizing it will mean to other anxious mothers to know about Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This remarkable cure was brought about two years ago and as there has been no return of the distressing disease there can be no doubt that the cure is permanent.

Mrs. D. Stebbins, Grand Bend (Ont.), writes: "I am going to tell you of my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment. My little girl had sores come out on her head which looked like ringworm. They were spreading fast, and I tried home treatment, but nothing helped her. I took her to the doctor, and he opened some of the sores, which were as big as the yoke of an egg. The sores he gave me to put on was very severe, and the poor child would cry for an hour or more after an application. For six weeks it continued to spread all over her head, and once down to her neck and ears. She suffered terribly. At last some kind doctor told me about Dr. Chase's Ointment, so I got a box, and the first time I put it on she was relieved of pain, and the second time the swelling was all gone. Before we had finished the first box the sores were nearly all gone. I have told all the people around here about your Ointment, and I cannot praise it too much. It is now two years since my little girl was troubled in this way, and it never came back, so you can see she is completely cured. You are at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of others who may be suffering in a similar manner."

Joseph Brenner, J.P., endorses this statement as follows: "I am pleased to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mrs. D. Stebbins of Grand Bend (Ont.), and believe her statement with reference to Dr. Chase's Ointment to be true and correct."

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If Feverish, Bilious, Constipated, Give Fruit Laxative At Once

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to give their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children all ages and grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Further, towards the head of King street, where there was supposed to be a concrete base it turned out, on examination, to be red clay. A solid foundation is being laid in and the work will cost $7,500 instead of $6,000 as expected while cars will not be running until next Wednesday. The weight of the old rails in this section was 14,000 pounds whereas the new rails will have a total weight of 21,800 pounds while the new girder rails will each be thirty-two pounds heavier than those formerly in use. The switches, frogs, etc. are of the latest construction with hard manganese centres, and are of special design.

Twelve Recruits

Twelve recruits were secured in the city yesterday. They were: Harold, Rupert Saban, Port Lorne, 62nd O. S. draft; John Hicks, England, 62nd O. S. draft; J. M. Pomeroy, St. Stephen, Canadian Engineers; H. J. Keenan, U.S.A., No. 8 Field Ambulance; C. C. Prescott, Sussex; D. Murphy, Waterford; B. Lloyd, Canteen counter of the Bathurst pulp mill; J. M. Meahan, H. V. White and T. H. Chalmers, Bathurst, No. 9 Siege Battery. Six other men applied but were found unfit for overseas service.

RENEWING CAR TRACKS

The New Brunswick Power Company's work at the head of King street has been delayed by the fact that when the covering had been removed it was found that the rails in and the work on the Victoria Hotel had originally been laid on solid rock and it was not expected that any change of ties would be necessary. Much to everyone's surprise it was found that the covering of the water had disintegrated the rock allowing the ties to move up and down. Nation-Wide Conspiracy To Hamper U. S. War Activities

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Formal return of a blanket indictment charging a nation-wide conspiracy to hamper the government during the war, was made today in the United States district court here against 166 leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World.

Arrests speedily followed the return. Almost before the court proceedings had reached the state of the discharge of the jury, Deputy Marshals were on their way to the local I. W. W. headquarters in expensive automobiles, detained and driven by patriotic wealthy women and quickly returned to the federal building bringing prisoners with them.

In the first hour, thirty-five men were thus haled into the marshals office and later were questioned by investigators for the department of justice. Among the first to be taken in custody was William D. Haywood, secretary of the national organization of the I. W. W. who was questioned September 5 when the headquarters of the I. W. W. in various cities were raided by the government.

"LEADERS IN CONSPIRACIES"

An explanatory statement issued by the government attorneys who have directed the investigation of the seditious conspiracy, the crime of which the men named in the indictments are accused, says: "The prosecutions are made to the detriment of the criminal code and under the espionage act. Only leaders in conspiracies or those personally culpable in connection with the perpetration of crime against the United States are included as defendants."

To permit the sure arrest of the indicted men, no hint of their names was permitted to escape during the court proceedings, which occupied only a few minutes and consisted of a statement from the foreman of the federal grand jury to the clerk of the court and a few brief words from Judge Evans, thanking the jurors for their sacrifice of time and effort and assuring them that they had done their duty as citizens, a duty which the courts said was "quite as important as any obligation which rests on a citizen."

ONLY I. W. W. AFFECTED.

None but members of the I. W. W. was named in the indictments, the government attorneys taking pains to specify that no others were touched. After he had been questioned by Hinton G. Cabaugh, of the department of justice, Haywood was held in default of $25,000 bail.

After the first automobile loads had reached the federal building, more persons were taken in custody until approximately 150 had been brought in to be questioned. Sixteen were taken in a second descent on the I. W. W. headquarters.

Haig Holds Positions Won

At last accounts Field Marshal Haig was holding and consolidating the salient positions won from the Germans in Wednesday's battle east of Ypres, the extension of which would give him a dominating point from which to operate against the Ostend-Lille railroad and also a position flanking both the northern and southern portions of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria's line.

All the commanding positions taken by the English, Scotch and Australian troops in the latest drive have been firmly held by them, despite numerous furious counter-attacks delivered with huge effectives, in which the Germans suffered terrible losses in men killed or wounded. The Berlin official communication reports that to the east of Ypres the British artillery again has assumed the proportions of a drumline, which is always an indication that Haig has in store for the enemy a still further relentless attack against his line.

Crown Prince Rupprecht, who probably intended with the idea that at some time he will be able to pierce General Petain's front along the southern part of the battle line in France, continues here and there to strike violently. His latest attempt has been in the Forest of Argonne, where three times he threw his troops against the French line. As on the Chemin-Des-Dames and before Verdun, where similar assaults recently have been made, the effort of the Germans was fruitless and brought to them only additional heavy casualties.

Comparative quiet prevails on all the other battlefronts, although there has been a resumption by the Russians of their activities in the Caucasus, where at several points Ottoman forces have been defeated.

NERVOUS TROUBLE

The nerve system is the governing system of the whole body, controlling the heart, lungs, digestion and brain; so it is not surprising that nervous disturbances should cause acute distress and discomfort. For even severe nervous disorders may be cured by improving the condition of the blood. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich blood that this medicine has cured extreme nervous disorders after all other treatment has failed. The nerves thrive on the new blood made by these pills; the appetite improves, digestion is better, sleeplessness no longer troubles the sufferer, nervous debility, and life generally takes on a cheerful aspect. Every sufferer from nerve troubles, no matter how long they have existed, may be cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. This is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your Druggist 1 ounce of Parmitin (Double strength). Take this home and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmitin used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a slight tonic action that facilitates obtaining the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial.

Brilliant Achievements Of The Canadian Corps

Captured Formidable Position Covering The Approach Northwest of Lens With Small Loss, To Depth of Five Hundred Yards

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—The militia department today gave out the following review of the brilliant achievements of the Canadian corps in the fighting around Lens, including the capture of Hill 70:

able position known as Hill 70, covering the approaches to Lens from the north-west, has been carried. Despite the enemy's assertions to the contrary, the casualties incurred by our troops were light, largely as a result of measures taken to induce the enemy to distribute the fire of his artillery over areas outside the limits of our attack.

On the night of August 8-9 a small party consisting of an officer and twenty men, surprised one of the enemy's outposts in Lens and, without loss to themselves, accounted for the whole garrison.

The somewhat elastic state of the front in this area during the period produced a situation of great interest in which the troops holding the line fully shared. They readily adapted themselves to the somewhat abnormal condition, and as a result of their individual skill and enterprise, gained important ground at small cost. Meanwhile preparation for the attack had been completed and at 4.25 a.

m. Aug. 15 two Canadian divisions attacked the enemy's trench system on a front of 4,000 yards from the Lens-Bethune road northwards to Bois Hugo. Our object consisted of a line of German trenches which ran east of Cite St. Elizabeth and Cite St. Emile, then just west of the defences of Cite St. August and east of Bois Rase. The greatest depth of our objects from the old German front line was 1,500 yards. The southern half of the ground attacked was covered with the ruins of a group of mining suburbs of Lens, Cite St. Elizabeth, Cite Edouard, Cite St. Emile and Cite St. Laurent. The northern half included the rising ground known as Hill 70, together with Bois Rase, and the western portion of Bois Hugo. The whole was defended by an elaborate network of trenches and barbed wire, and studded with strong points and machine gun emplacements.

Our infantry attacked, supported by our artillery, and was immediately successful. By 6.40 a. m. both divisions had captured the whole of the German front line system to a depth of some 500 yards, and were established on the line of their first objectives. After a short halt to enable the assaulting troops for the remainder of our objectives to pass through the enemy's trench line, by heavy machine gun fire from Cite St. August and the brick fields at this southern end. The attack on this position was delayed until the German machine gun emplacements should have been located and dealt with by our artillery.

Between 9 and 9 a. m. a series of counter-attacks were delivered by the enemy's local reserves east of Cite St. Emile. These were all driven off by rifle, machine gun and artillery fire. At midday a counter-attack developed north against the left flank of our attack. The enemy advanced across the open under intense fire, and less than an hour later the whole of our objectives were in our hands, except for a short length of trench at the apex of our attack opposite Cite St. August. Here our troops were held up within a short distance of the enemy's trench line, by heavy machine gun fire from Cite St. August and the brick fields at this southern end. The attack on this position was delayed until the German machine gun emplacements should have been located and dealt with by our artillery.

GETTING AFTER THE ROADS

Auto Trucks Sent in and Gangs Are At Work in Different Sections of Kings County

Two large auto trucks arrived here last week and are now engaged in gravelling the post road from the Rochville bridge to Apohaqui. On the completion of this job, the work will be extended as far as Norton, if the weather permits. The road is being widened to a standard of twenty feet. It is first being tarped and then treated with a coating of gravel. The material is being secured at Thomas Reardon's, Hanford McKnight's and Prescott's beach.

In this vicinity, too, at the foot of the Prescott hill, the clay approach is being treated to a dose of gravel. At the summit of the hill, the top has been removed and a filling made in a nasty, soft roadbed. This was first given drainage treatment, and fifteen feet of gravel was introduced. Further out on the road improvements are being made from Charles Sharp's to the forks of the Berwick road. This is being widened and gravelled. The gravel is being secured from Mr. Sharp's property. It was offered free of charge for the road by the owner, whose public spirited action is worthy of mention.

It is also proposed to open up the main road from being widened to the regulation twenty-one feet. It is being graded, by the time the bad weather sets in a large mileage in improved roads will be prepared. This work, when carried on, will eliminate the long drive around the Portage and over the Anagnance Hill, the left-hand side of which has always been rough. It is expected that by the time the bad weather sets in a

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER OLIVEINE EMULSION THE GREAT TONIC! COUGHS COLDS BRONCHITIS LA GRIPPE AND LUNG TROUBLE

The Silver Tongued Orator of Minnesota, Charles A. Towne, Former United States Senator

What Senator Towne Says: "As a member of Congress from New York, as a member of Congress and Senator from Minnesota, as participant in political campaigns and candidate for Vice-President, my nervous energy and reserve force were drawn upon. That I survived these trials and came into advanced middle life with the elasticity and strength of a boy is unquestionably due to the rigorous attention I have paid to the proper care of my body. Recently I have been taking Nuxated Iron and have found it of the greatest benefit as a tonic and restorative. Henceforth I shall not be without it. I am in a position to testify for the advantage of others, to the remarkable and immediate helpfulness of this remedy, and I unhesitatingly recommend Nuxated Iron to all who feel the need of renewed energy and the regularity of bodily functions."

GETTING AFTER THE ROADS Auto Trucks Sent in and Gangs Are At Work in Different Sections of Kings County

Dr. F. Sauer, a Boston Physician, who has studied both in this country and in the great European Medical Institutions, says: "Nuxated Iron is a wonderful remedy. Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of twenty, and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact, a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking Iron-Nuxated. Iron had filled him with renewed life. At 80 he was in bad health; at 40 he was careworn and nearly all in now at 20, after taking Nuxated Iron, a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. If people would only take Nuxated Iron when they feel weak and run-down instead of dosing themselves with habit-forming drugs, stimulants, and alcoholic beverages, I am convinced that in this way they could ward off disease, preventing it becoming organic in thousands of cases, and thereby saving the lives of thousands, and saving them from the sufferings of pneumonia, grippe, kidney, liver, heart trouble and other dangerous maladies. The real, true cause which started their disease was nothing more or less than a weakened condition brought on by a lack of iron in the blood. Thousands of people suffer from iron deficiency and do not know it."

SPECIAL TO PHYSICIANS: Doctor, when you wish to prescribe a true tonic and blood builder, one that puts the real "stay there" strength and youthful vigor into the blood and nerves, try Nuxated Iron. If you have been using the old forms of metallic iron, without success; if you have had patients complain of discolored teeth, upset stomachs, hardened, tied-up secretions, etc., from the use of metallic iron, again we suggest, try Nuxated Iron. It is highly endorsed by such physicians as Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City; Dr. Howard James, late of The Manhattan State Hospital of New York and formerly Assistant Physician Brooklyn State Hospital; Dr. A. J. Newman, late Police Surgeon of the City of Chicago, former House Surgeon Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago; Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, and others. In most cases physicians direct the use of two five-grain tablets three times per day after meals.

VOLUNTEERS NOT WANTED NOW?

Recruiting Offices To be Closed On October 1

No Opportunity to Enlist For Those Who Are Not Called Out—Members of Staff Are Discharged

With the enforcement of the Military Service Act will recruiting offices throughout New Brunswick become entirely done away with? In other words, following the advent of conscription, will there be any voluntary enlistments? When the Act was introduced assurance was given that recruiting would continue, but orders received yesterday would indicate the contrary.

Lieut.-Col. James L. McAvity, when approached on the subject last evening, said that with "the instructions I have received from Ottawa all the recruiting offices throughout my jurisdiction will be closed after October 1, which means that all the officials attached thereto will be discharged from further activity."

Colonel McAvity, who is the chief recruiting officer for New Brunswick, said that he had followed his instructions and that all those connected with recruiting offices in the city proper and throughout New Brunswick had been duly advised that their services are no longer required after October 1.

It is understood upon good authority that this order will not affect Captain J. R. Miller, who is officer in charge of the central recruiting office in Prince William street, and is also detention officer as the duties of the latter position will, it is understood, still retain the services of Captain Miller. The duties of the detention officer are important, dealing with the looking after of all ships which enter this port in war time to see if any necessary precautions must be taken in the matter of placing guards, etc.

It is also understood that the chief recruiting office in the Pugsley building will be kept open until the final business is wound up and some details attended to.

The passing of the recruiting offices in the city and throughout the province will mark the beginning of a new era as far as the enrollment of men for service in the cause of king and country is concerned. Good work has been accomplished at the local stations, and their passing will be accompanied by expressions of keen regret.

Officers Affected.
The recruiting officers who are paid and affected by the foregoing orders in ton, stationed at Moncton, who was chief recruiting officer for Gloucester, Northumberland, Kent and Westmorland. Colonel McAvity's duties will also cease as far as recruiting is concerned, with the execution of these orders. Major F. P. May besides being deputy recruiting officer under Colonel McAvity, has also charge of all the recruits passing through the city for the Canadian-British Aid Commission. His duties relative to local recruiting will also be at an end, but he will undoubtedly be retained in connection with the recruits passing through here coming from the States and going to Aldershot (N. S.). The recruits for the C.-B. A. C. are on the increase, and will demand continued attention. Sergt. Poplan, who is the local training depot under the M. S. A. Some military officials have been pointing out that although the M. S. A. is in force a man can still enlist voluntarily. But if the recruiting offices are closed and they will be, where is he to go and what unit will he be attached to?

All the recruiting sergeants who have been retained in this province were men who had seen active service overseas. They will now be compelled to look for positions elsewhere unless they apply for berths in the training depot. This phase of the work is not altogether sought after by returned men who have seen the shell, and it is generally known that they are not very keen in applying for positions as instructors.

Second Discouragement.
This is the second occasion apparently, that the government has officially checked recruiting. When the need was greatest, and Britain's public men were still asking for men as the greatest need of the empire, announcement was made that more men were applying in Canada than could be handled. This was in March, 1916, and after this the good work done by voluntary recruiting committees was largely lost and the monthly average dwindled from 80,000 to 6,000.

It is interesting to note that in the eight months from May, when conscription was first announced, to the end of the year, with even the low average of 6,000 a month, the discarded voluntary system would have produced 40,000 men while the first call under conscription at the end of this period is said to be for only 30,000—a striking commentary on the real anxiety of the Borden government to increase Canada's fighting efficiency abroad.

All Good Music Is a Joy

But the greatest joy comes from hearing the kind of music you like best just when you want it.

That's the kind of music-joy you can have when the Columbia Grafonola comes into your home.

The stirring music of great bands and orchestras, the wonderful voices of grand opera singers, the clever singing of popular song hits—and as for dance music—well no one can keep quiet when the Grafonola plays a dazzling "jazz" tune.

INDUCTION OF REV. H.C. FRASER

First Minister of Knox Presbyterian Church Since Its Organization by St. Stephen's and St. John's

The induction of Rev. H. C. Fraser, M. A., as pastor of Knox Presbyterian church took place last evening in the presence of a large congregation. Rev. J. A. MacKegan, moderator, and pastor of St. David's church, presided and performed the ceremony of induction. Rev. T. P. Drummond, of Moncton, read the charge to the new pastor. Rev. A. J. Langlois read the scriptures, lesson, and Rev. F. S. Dowling of St. Andrew's church delivered an address to the people. Miss Grant of Trinity church choir sang a pleasing solo during the evening.

In his induction address Rev. Mr. MacKegan referred to the amalgamation of the two churches into the present Knox and said that it marked a new epoch in the history of Presbyterianism in St. John. He congratulated Knox church on the strong bonds of unity and good fellowship that prevailed and paid warm tributes to the former pastors of St. Stephen's and St. John's, who had retired. The speaker also referred to the good record both as a student and pastor of Rev. Mr. Fraser.

Greetings to Knox congregation from Rev. J. H. A. Anderson and Rev. Gordon Dickie were read and Mr. MacKegan also extended congratulations on behalf of St. David's church. Charge to Pastor.

In delivering his charge to the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Drummond also traced the past history of the churches which went to make up Knox and told Mr. Fraser that in coming to St. John he was coming to no mean city, and in the church over which he would preside he would find a united people who would be loyal to their minister.

After dwelling as some length on the duties and responsibilities of the ministry, Mr. Drummond said that some ministers preached with one eye on the big headlines in the newspapers and warned the newly inducted pastor not to allow the newspapers to "smoke or unsmoke him in his duties." At the same time the speaker congratulated the people of St. John on having good newspapers which took the right attitude in regard to church affairs.

Rev. Mr. Dowling then addressed the congregation on the duties which it owed to its new pastor. After which some time was spent by those present in extending social greetings to Rev. Mr. Fraser.

Rev. Mr. Fraser is a former New Brunswick native of Prince William, York county. He is a graduate of Pine Hill Seminary at Halifax and has been for some years pastor of a church in British Columbia. He has the reputation of being an energetic worker and an eloquent speaker, and will be heartily welcomed in returning to his native province.

ALLIES CONTINUE CRUSADE UNTIL WORLD BETTER PLACE

London, Sept. 28—Viscount Milner, minister without portfolio in the British war council, speaking today at the American Luncheon Club declared against any peace with the "unrepentant German rulers."

Touching upon the entry of the United States into the war and the moral significance, Lord Milner evoked a tremendous outburst from those at the luncheon when he said: "I feel that your country and mine are united by something far stronger than any written pact or alliance, namely, by an absolute unity of motive and aim."

Viscount Milner's speech obviously was an answer to the peace talk which has been hitting from Germany in past weeks. He declared that it was the intention of the Entente Allies to pursue "unflinchingly and resolutely to the end" their crusade, so that the "world shall be a better place to live in than before—a world dominated by other than the law of the jungle."

Viscount Milner devoted the peroration of his address to the recent speech of Admiral Von Tirpitz. After calling attention to the fact that virtually three quarters of the inhabited world was now alienated from Germany and that "scarcely a week passes without adding to her enemies," Lord Milner said: "Germany's profound moral isolation is beginning to tell on her people. For your faith as much as you like to blood and iron, there are material as well as moral disadvantages for those who have fallen outside the pale of the civilized community and have forfeited the respect of civilized peoples. For a nation which has taken so large a part in human intercourse and held so high a place in human advancement, this is no light matter."

"There are signs that this aspect is beginning to weigh on the minds and depress the spirits of the German people. That is why a new party has been called into being in Germany to revive the waning spirit and preach anew the doctrine that might is right."

PROBING MOVEMENT FOR HINDENBURG PEACE.

Copenhagen, Sept. 28—Charges that certain government authorities are supporting the pan-German and Conservative forces in the agitation to reverse the Reichstag majority peace resolution and commit Germany to the so-called Hindenburg peace, may be made the subject of an interpellation at the present session of the Reichstag.

Berlin newspapers which arrived today after a three-day interruption, indicate that the interpellation was discussed at a meeting of the steering committee of the Reichstag on Wednesday.

It was decided to postpone action in order to give Chancellor Michaelis and his aides an opportunity to make certain explanations.

German Chancellor Defiant

Amsterdam, Sept. 28—Dr. Michaelis, the German imperial chancellor, in response to the main committee of the Reichstag, said he hoped that Benedict's peace proposals were inspired by moral seriousness, pure justice and neutrality.

which things were lacking in the reply made by President Wilson to the Pope. Justifying Germany's refusal to state her war aims, Dr. Michaelis said such action would only have a confusing effect and would injure German interests.

The chancellor said the announced American military exertions were awaited by Germany with calm confidence. Were Germany to state her war aims, the chancellor asserted, it would prejudice the complex questions to be discussed at the time of peace negotiations. The chancellor strongly attacked President Wilson's reply to the Pope, which, he asserted, merely bound the German people together more firmly.

Unrest In The Country

(Toronto Globe)

The spirit of unrest in the country must be apparent to the most unobservant and unreflecting Canadians. Even the contented classes must recognize that something is radically wrong. The people are in anything but good humor, and their irritation is growing and spreading. Their discontent is not in any degree war-weariness. It is not due to any sacrifices imposed by the war. Canadians would cheerfully bear any burden laid upon them, if they were convinced that it was necessary or helpful to the cause for which they are fighting. They do feel, however, that the burden is not fairly distributed, and that their sacrifices and exertions do not count as they should in the sum total of Canada's effort.

While the cost of the barest necessities of life in the average household takes an increasing proportion of its income, leaving little or no margin for people incensed by the spectacle of huge profits being drained into private pockets—profits created by the war conditions which press heavily upon themselves. They see mushroom fortunes grow out of the making of war material which they must pay for in the end. More exasperating still, they see millions being made out of the handling of foodstuffs, which have advanced in price beyond their reach. The anger at these inequalities is by no means restricted to wage-earners. The weight of the war has fallen as severely upon the salaried classes and all whose incomes have expanded little or not at all.

The public mind of Canada bears a heavy responsibility for the public dissatisfaction which they deplore as an obstacle to war effort. They must see the causes, if they are not blind, and they will try to find remedies, if they are patriotic. First and foremost has been the failure of the government to discourage profiteering and take adequate toll of wealth. It persistently refused to levy a national income tax when even in peace times other countries had adopted it as an instrument of democratic finance. When it finally yielded to public pressure it brought down a measure almost farcical in the tenderness with which it treated the large incomes. The collection of the business tax still left enormous profits in private hands. The government argued against "conscripting" excessive profits, on the ground that new industries created by the war, especially munition industries, were compelled to make high earnings to pay for plant which would be idle or useless after the war. This applied only to a certain class of enterprises. Profits have been enjoyed by businesses which existed before the war and will continue to exist. The finance department should have gone into the special circumstances of each concern, and taxed it according to its ability to pay. As a matter of fact, there should have been a system of national control over all undertakings directly related to the war, including the flour mills, the cold-storage plants, the packing houses, and the terminal elevators. The owners should have been instructed to consider themselves servants of the state, and should have been allowed a reasonable profit and no more. The angry mood of the country, which is in part responsible for the opposition to a just and necessary measure as the military service act, springs from this failure to properly organize Canada for war purposes, on principles which would exact services and sacrifices from rich and poor alike. The people believe they have been ill-served by their rulers, and they suspect that capitalistic and monopolistic influences have

DISGUSTED BY PATRONAGE EVIL

Kingston Whig Perceives the Cause of W. F. Nickle's Retirement

(Toronto Globe)

Kingston, Sept. 28—In commenting upon W. F. Nickle's decision not to be a candidate at the coming elections, The Whig says:—"The retirement of W. F. Nickle from political life is not so remarkable in view of his experience. It is not hard to imagine what his feelings must have been if he heard, as others did, the mutterings of the spoilsman when the patronage of the government did not go as they desired, the protest against his independence and even the threats of certain disappointed or disgruntled ones to the effect that they would even these accounts with him. That these spoilsman, who think of nothing but self, helped him in reaching his decision to retire goes without saying. No one can interpret the views of Mr. Nickle, but it is assumed that he is not willing to honor his political views at Ottawa or Kingston any further to suffer from their intrusions; that he is not on the best of terms with those who occupy the seats of the mighty; that he will not accept rebuke for his outspokenness; and that probably his retirement expresses as words cannot do his contempt for the whole outfit."

"What the local spoilsman think they have indicated by the choice some of them have made of a successor, not to win the war so much as to continue the gift of patronage. The average man will feel for Mr. Nickle in his anxieties and will sympathize with him in his desire to get away from the political wolves that have pursued him in their hunger for spoils."

stayed the government's hands in dealing with rank abuses. A time of war has always been a time of opportunity for selfish interests entrenched in the favor of the politicians.

To add to the government's impotent handling of economic problems, patronage, pull and favoritism have been rampant in military affairs. Admittedly the task has been too much for one party, but this was admitted by the party in power only when it found itself in a quagmire. The demand for more radical measures, for a programme of social justice, will inevitably be stamped on the next parliament. Candidates of all parties will be forced to bow to it.

You don't like the cheap tea you are using. Do you?

Before the war so increased the cost of living, many people used to drink better tea than they are now using.

Perhaps, this is true in your case?

Of course, you are not drinking poor tea because you like it, but because you think it necessary to save money.

But are you really saving anything? Cheap, common teas only make about 150 cups to the pound. You are lucky if you can stretch them out to 185 or 200.

On the other hand, Red Rose Tea easily makes 250 cups. It goes further because of its fine quality, consisting chiefly of Assam teas, the richest and strongest in the world.

You may almost doubt if so many cups of tea can be made from a pound of even such good tea as Red Rose, but you can readily prove the economy of Red Rose without waiting for a package to be used up. Just use a few leaves less of Red Rose for a brewing than you use of common tea—the result we are sure will please and surprise you.
