PREMIER WARNS OF WAR DANGER

Lloyd George Speech Before Free Churchmen

Explosive Material All About and People Who Would Drop the Match—New Spirit is Wanted—Rests Hopes in the League of Nations.

(Canadian Press Cable.)
London, July 29.—"More terrible machines than in the late war are being constructed," said Premier Lloyd George at a luncheon given by 800 prominent Free Churchmen yesterday.

"What for? To attack cities and maim, destroy and burn helpless women and children. Keep your eyes on what is happening. If the churches of Europe and the U. S. allow that to fructify, they had better close their doors."
"We reduced our armaments, and if other nations follow the example there will be no serious menace to peace. But it is difficult for a nation to remain defenceless while others are preparing for war."
Lloyd George said that the next war, if it came, would be a war on civilization itself. Speaking of the suddenness in which war came, he said—
"The war germ, like any other germ, you do not know that you have it until it has got you. It is of no use arguing with an epileptic when the fit is on him. There is that atmosphere in the world now, and the explosive material is scattered over the face of Europe."
"When a match is dropped it is too late to save the coveting of the League of Nations. It is the new spirit that is wanted. Lock up the explosives, and especially lock up those given to dropping matches. The churches must promote the new spirit which is necessary."
The premier said that he attached high hopes to the League of Nations. He said that civilization would be safe if the league succeeded. If it failed he thought civilization was doomed.

U. S. HAS COAL ADMINISTRATOR

H. B. Spencer Appointed by the President

Commercial Fuel Outlook in Canada—Alberta Government May Intervene—The Boom Continues in Cardiff Fields.

(Canadian Press.)
Washington, July 29.—Henry B. Spencer, general purchasing agent for the war-time railroad administration, was appointed federal coal administrator for the duration of the coal strike emergency by President Harding.

President Harding, it was said, contemplates no new step in the coal strike situation, feeling confident that enough coal will be produced eventually to meet the country's needs.

The governors of twenty-three states have undertaken to erect machinery necessary to control profiteering and the distribution of coal within their borders.

Edmonton, July 29.—Provincial intervention in the Alberta coal strike is foreshadowed by Premier Greenfield today with a view to bringing about some sort of temporary working arrangement with the operators and miners.

Edmonton, July 29.—Provincial intervention in the Alberta coal strike was foreshadowed by Premier Greenfield today with a view to bringing about some sort of temporary working arrangement with the operators and miners, pending a permanent settlement of the coal dispute in the United States.

Manual Training is Now Considered to be One of Most Essential Subjects

Course Now Most Popular on School Curriculum and Although the Hours of Training Are Not Long the Boys Are Able to Make Very Satisfactory Progress—Every Pupil in Calgary Schools from Grades V. to VIII. Inclusive in the Public and Grades IX. and X. in the High Given This Special Class of Training.

(Calgary Herald.)
While manual training is not such a new educational subject, few persons have grasped the enormous possibilities arising from instruction along such lines. This work can be said, without fear of contradiction, to be the most popular subject on the school curriculum of today. The boys enjoy it and when that is the case no difficulty is experienced in getting them to apply themselves wholeheartedly to their task. The consequence is that the maximum results are attained although the hours of training are considered by many to be inadequate.

One day last week The Herald representative, in company with Major J. E. Hanning, supervisor of manual training in the city schools, made a tour of inspection of the centres in Calgary where this work is carried on. It proved a most interesting visit and revealed many facts in connection with this important branch of school work which the newspaper man was not previously familiar with.

WORK CARRIED ON IN TEN SCHOOLS

In Calgary at the present time there are nine public and one high school centre where the work is carried on. There is also a pre-vocational school in the city where the pupils put in half time at academic and remainder at practical work. Calgary boasts of having established the first school of this kind in Canada.

The public school centres are situated at the following schools, and the instructors are: Connaught, F. E. Graham and J. E. Hanning; Hillhurst, F. S. Maddock; King Edward, A. B. Parker; King George, F. E. Graham; Normal Practice, R. Swift; Ramsey, J. W. Bennett; Riverside, F. S. Maddock; Stanley Jones, F. Parker; Sunalta, R. Swift.

There is only one high school centre, which is situated on the Crescent Heights high school grounds. The instructors there are A. Tomlinson, W. M. Williams and H. Rayner.

Every pupil in the public schools gets from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 hours each week instruction in this work, the number of hours depending on the grade. Grade V. pupils get 1 1/2 hours; Grade VI., 1 1/2 hours; Grade VII., two hours; Grade VIII., 2 1/2 hours.

In the high schools manual training is taught to Grade IX. and X. only and each pupil in these classes gets from two to three hours instruction each week. It is felt by those closely connected with this branch of work in the schools that the time table does not allow sufficient time to such an important subject. Some regret is expressed that the new syllabus of training which the department proposes to put into effect next term tends to cut down, rather than increase the time.

RETURNS WITH LOT OF LIQUOR

Steamship at Halifax Takes Back 8,000 Cases to England.

Halifax, N. S., July 29.—With 8,000 cases of liquor, which she brought here from Liverpool, undisturbed in her hold, the British steamer Arrycroft, 852 tons net, sailed to return to that port last evening. Upon arrival here a week ago, the ship landed 650 sacks of salt. Her commander wished to clear for Nassau, British West Indies. The custom authorities offered him two alternatives, one to give a $60,000 bond, twice the value of the liquor, guaranteeing that the liquor would be landed at Nassau; the other to return to Liverpool, first guaranteeing that the port cargo would be landed there intact. The commander accepted the second alternative.

Edmonton, July 29.—Although the anthracite coal situation has so far occupied public attention, the commercial fuel outlook is now pressing for consideration. No scarcity of the bituminous product, used for manufacturing has yet been experienced, but with an announced shortage of 750,000 tons by the end of August, the prospect is far from reassuring.

As Hiram Does It

"Hiram" said the Times reporter to Mrs. Hiram Hornbeam, of Tex. "I've been reading that some bodies in the States condemn the making of apples. Can you believe it?"

"Yes, sir," said Hiram, "and so will apple pie. There's three times as many men as women in the States, and you've got to get some of 'em. I guess Hiram 'd put a pie or two in the oven."

"Well, you've been doing a biscuit about as big as a beechnut—with a thickish filling. When you've been working like a beaver for half a day an' 'kin finish off a meal with a quart of apple pie, one of Hiram's deep apple pies you'd a nno man—yes, sir."

"By the way," said the reporter, "is Mrs. Hornbeam serving blueberry pie this week?"

BENNY LEONARD MADE $121,755

Tender Got $62,500 and Tex Rickard $90,688 for Thursday Night's Bout.

New York, July 29.—Benny Leonard received $121,755 for defending his lightweight title in Jersey City, on Thursday night, and Lew Tender, Philadelphia challenger, received $62,500, according to official figures made public last night by The Associated Press.

The figures for the Leonard-Tender bout have exceeded but twice in ring history. The gate receipts for the Dempsey-Carpenter fight a year ago were $1,623,880 and the Dempsey-Willard match in Toledo in 1919 drew $452,222.

POLITICAL TALK

CAUGHT WHALE IN AVON RIVER

The Fish was Stranded and N. S. Farmer Killed it with a Pitch Fork.

Windsor, N. S., July 29.—The Avon River waters have been visited by all kinds of deep water fish of late. Last week a 600 pound shark was caught in a shed net, and on last Thursday morning, at low water, D. Rafuse killed a seventy-pound baby whale about a mile above Windsor. Mr. Rafuse had gone down to the Dyke to gather a load of hay when on reaching the edge of the bank spied something splashing in the water, which had undoubtedly been stranded when the tide dropped.

CURED AT STE. ANNE

Mitotawa, July 29.—Among the many miraculous cures reported to have been made at the famous shrine at Ste. Anne De Beauport is one of a young girl named Yvonne of Cap St. Ignace, who, having a left leg considerably shorter than the right, visited the shrine and came away apparently completely cured. Visitors to the shrine showered $200 upon her, in their eagerness to have her use their money to buy her boots.

YANKEES ARE AT THE TOP AGAIN

Both New York Clubs Now Showing Way.

More Circuit Clouts Mark the Games—Ty Cobb Well in Lead of American League Batsmen, and Brings His Team Along.

(Canadian Press.)
New York, July 29.—Both New York clubs are again showing the way in the major league pennant race today as a result of decisively beating their St. Louis rivals in the two "crucial" series.

The Yankees, on top for the first time since June 16, held a margin of 11 1/2 games over the Browns. They took their lead straight from Fohl's clan, 7 to 3, with leading the attack with two doublets in a ten inning battle from the Red Sox, 4 to 8.

Philadelphia had a field day at bat off Boston, 13 to 0. The Athletics had a 3 to 2 encounter. Terry's hitting and Jones' pitching featured Chicago's 9 to 0 win over the Boston Braves.

Chicago, July 29.—Ty Cobb, Tiger pilot, excelling his past performance at the bat, today is out in front of all American League contenders for a 1922 hitting honor. He is showing his men how to hit, and this has carried him past George Sisler, the St. Louis star, for the batting honors of the league, which he lost to Speaker and Sisler, in the last two seasons.

Cobb, in his last six games cracked out 18 hits, and boosted his mark from .405 a week ago to .418, while Sisler, who led the batters with an average of .416 a week ago dropped to second place with .394. He was able to acquire only six hits in as many games. The averages include games of Wednesday.

The Tigers are topping all the clubs in team batting with an average of .307. The St. Louis Browns are next with .301. Sisler continues to lead in total bases with 225. His 185 hits include twenty-seven doubles, eleven triples, and seven homers. He failed to increase his stolen base record, but is showing the way with thirty-four.

"Lille" Walker, slugging outfielder of the Athletics bagged another homer and is leading the home run clouters with 24. Ken Williams of the Browns is the runner-up with 23, with Babe Ruth tagging along with 17.

Some twenty-five apple growers, representative of the local fruit growing association in the Lake Ontario, Georgian Bay, Lake Erie, Lake Huron and eastern counties districts, unanimously accepted an offer from the Niagara Fruit Growers, by which that concern undertakes to find a market for the crop on a ten per cent. commission basis. Assurance was given by the officials of the two governments that assistance would be given in the discovery of new markets and in the grading of the products.

North Sydney, N. S., July 29.—Gordon S. Vincent, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, here, who graduated from Acadia University this year, was ordained into the ministry last night. His father, Rev. A. J. Vincent, of Sackville, N. B., preached the ordination sermon.

MORE GAINS BY FREE STATERS

Village Close to Kilmallock is Captured

Irregulars Had Strong Position There in Retreat from Limerick—Important Papers Found—Report as to de Valera.

(Canadian Press Cable.)
Dublin, July 29.—Today National Army communication announces that Free State troops captured the village of Brures, two miles from Kilmallock, at nine p. m. last night, together with the insurgent occupants of the village and their arms and ammunition. The irregulars had established a strong position there after their retreat from Limerick. Glenavoh Castle, which for some time has been the headquarters of irregulars in County Donegal, from which they have conducted constant raids by roving bands, was captured by National troops yesterday. Four separate contingents covered at the castle early in the morning and entered unopposed. The eight occupants of the garrison were taken prisoners, including D. J. Donovan, chief of the irregulars, intelligence department and conductor of the Republican "war bulletin" service. The capture included, besides arms and ammunition, important and dispatches containing information on the strength and movements of irregulars in that county besides a large quantity of merchandise that had been looted from trains.

The National troops also captured twenty-four irregulars nearby, who were believed to have escaped from the castle while the Free State troops were approaching.

London, July 29.—Reports received by the Marconi Company from Galway indicate that the damage done to the Clifden radio station on the coast of Galway which was set on fire by the Irish irregulars was not so serious as first supposed. The Marconi officials say that repairs to re-establish direct communication with Glace Bay soon. Meantime messages for Canada are being sent from the new station at Ongar, in Essex, at Kilmallock.

MOTHER'S QUICK ACT SAVES LIVES

Hurl's Children to Safety, and Then Jumps as a Train Smashes Her Automobile.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 29.—The presence of mind of Mrs. Anna Rodkin, 24 years old, in hurling her two little girls out of her car and leaping after them probably saved the lives of all three when her automobile stalled in the center of the railroad tracks at Illinois and Baltic avenues. An instant after she jumped it was struck by an eastbound electric train from Philadelphia. The car was carried 40 feet and thrown alongside the tracks a twisted wreck.

Mrs. Rodkin and several witnesses blame Charles Amduro, the flagman, for the accident. Both electric and steam trains pass at this crossing and there are no gates.

Mrs. Rodkin was driving up Baltic avenue with her two small daughters, Rebecca, 11 years old, and Dorothy, 9, when she stalled on the tracks. As she started across the tracks she saw the train rushing toward the crossing. At the same time, she said, the flagman came running out of the tower house waving a lantern and shouting for her to turn back.

Mrs. Rodkin stopped the car, but in her haste to shift gears and reverse the car stalled. Without even looking to see how near the train was, she picked up both children and threw them into the road way. She jumped a moment before the train struck the automobile.

Amduro was unable to jump entirely clear of the car as the train hit it and was painfully bruised in the leg. He scrambled to his feet and picked up the children.

The electric train stopped within seventy-five feet after striking the car. The motorman was C. W. Goodfellow of Glassboro.

Quebec, Que., July 29.—The Canadian Pacific 17,100 ton Empress of India, G. S. Webster, R. D. R. N., arrived at Quebec at 4.30 yesterday afternoon with 600 passengers, mail and 1,800 tons of cargo. Among the 250 saloon passengers were forty-four prominent Americans, on their return after a visit to Europe. The number of Americans patronizing the St. Lawrence route and the Canadian Pacific steamers is increasing in volume and the American customs and immigration department have been obliged to apply to Washington for an increase in staff at Quebec.

Another feature in regard to the Canadian steamers is the amount of German goods they are carrying on the Empress of Scotland and Empress of France from Germany in bond to the western United States.

Among the prominent English passengers was Sir Thomas Robinson of Grimby, extensively engaged in the fishery business of the North East Coast of England. He is on his way to visit his daughter in British Columbia, thence he will proceed to Seattle on business connected with frozen salmon. He will go to Prince Rupert to look over the fisheries there in which he is financially interested.

Edmonton, July 29.—(Canadian Press.)—Without a voice being raised in opposition, the Alberta wheat board bill was given second reading in the legislature last night.

ADVANCE TOWARDS FINAL SOLUTION

Lloyd George Makes Statement in Parliament on Result of Hague Conference.

(Special Cable to the N. Y. Times and Montreal Gazette.)
London, July 28.—Mr. Lloyd George made a statement in the House of Commons tonight during a debate on the Hague conference. He declared his belief that the conference represented a distinct advance towards a final solution of the Russian problem, but, of course, would not depend on any action of this country or its allies and associates, but on the action taken by the Russian government as a result of the two conferences. Although the Hague conference had not achieved all that was hoped for, he urged that the conference should not be discouraged and allowed things to drift and that means take risks which the world could not possibly face at the present moment.

In dealing with the troublesome situation in Europe they were not going to bring things to a head in one day or two, or perhaps even a dozen. He hoped that whoever succeeded this government would not be embarrassed by fears or criticisms of their policy, but they were going on to confer with other governments which were established in Europe and the world restored to order. It was impossible to expect step by step to achieve that end which all had in view.

“When Mr. Clynnes had said that we were partly responsible for the miseries of Russia as allies in the war,” he declared, “I thought, ‘I could not possibly have remembered the history of the war. Russia was the first and the first of the war. Russia fired the first shot, and the first declaration of war was by Russia and not by ourselves. We certainly had no responsibility for the disasters that befell Russia. On the contrary, we did our best to repair the deficiencies of the Russian organization.’”

The only question was how long was it to continue, he asked. Mr. Lloyd George was there anything that the governments could do to accelerate restoration. There were people in this country who imagined that an agreement with Britain and with the other powers was entirely to the advantage of Russia. There were people in this country who imagined that an agreement of that kind was entirely to the advantage of Russia. It was not true, it was to the advantage of both, if it could be done. What was the condition of Russia, a country of infinite resources? It had been visited during the last few years with every conceivable calamity, war, revolution, civil war, every form of government, pestilence, drought and famine. Were the things going to get better? Things would not get better in Russia until Russia called in the civilized world. That was her need. Her currency was a jokers there was no currency. Unless something was done and done soon Russia would be reduced to something like primitive conditions. Property owners would restore their property which could be restored. There would be nothing for factories and the railways would be useless. There was need in this country for orders for everything which Russia stood in the greatest need—engineering of all kinds and agricultural implements—so that the two needs made on opportunity that could be done.

Mr. Clynnes' argument.
Mr. Clynnes had said, why did they not give recognition to Russia first and the rest would follow. Send an ambassador to Moscow and he would be followed by bankers, merchants, manufacturers and traders. If they sent the best ambassador of whom they could think he would not be followed by a single banker or trader until the necessary conditions were established, and to say otherwise was really to mislead Russia. Therefore, he suggested that the Russians be thoroughly to appreciate and to understand fully that until these conditions were restored it was idle for her to seek any greater aid from the west. In his judgment the greatest advantage of these conferences, and in a very large measure the greatest achievement, was the process of educating Russia to an understanding of the facts.

The prime minister, continuing, said it was not a question of procedure, but it was a question of security. Men were not going to invest their capital and labor unless they felt that there was complete security both in that country. In regard to property Russia must either put the former owners back in possession under some workable plan, or give real compensation in some form or another. If they were prepared to do that, and he understood the Russian delegates were taking back this proposition to their government for consideration, and to carry out loyally their undertaking, then would be the time for diplomatic recognition.

Long Step Forward.
Sir Phillip Lloyd-George, head of the British delegation at the Hague conference, reporting on the work of that body to the house, expressed the opinion that it had made a long step forward on the path toward a Russian settlement. The next and final step, he added, rested with the Russian government. He denied that the procedure of the conference was in any way forced upon one party by the others and declared that the only hope of restoring Russia's industry lay in bringing back into it as many of those who built it up as possible.

In the last few days of the conference the Russian delegation had made a marked advance; its first proposals regarding compensation would have left the property in Russia of foreign owners in exactly the same position as before the conference.

It was perfectly clear, Sir Phillip said, that there was no basis in the Russian government's plan which would attract private investors or justify foreign governments in pledging credits, and the conference decided that it would be impossible to negotiate further if Russia maintained that attitude. If matters had rested there, that would have made plain the reasons why an agreement was impossible. But, happily, although the conference was unable to recommend any basis of immediate agreement, the final phrase did offer real hope of concrete results.

The further proposals of the Russians constituted a distinct and remarkable advance; in the words of Sir Phillip, “it was not a formal offer, but showed that the Russians were definitely prepared to have their government to consider a policy which included formal acknowledgment of Russia's debts and the obli-

BROTHERS MEET AFTER 26 YEARS.
Harry Warden of 99 Paradise Row and his brother, Frederick, met in the Union depot yesterday afternoon for the first time in twenty-six years. They are natives of Farnborough, Hampshire, England and Harry has been in this country since 1886 but he had not seen his brother since the latter was a sturdy little five year old chap. Frederick has been for some time a member of the Royal Irish Constabulary but under recent demobilization decided to come to Canada and look up his brother. He reached Moncton early this morning and inserted in the Transcript newspaper a paragraph inquiring about Harry. This paragraph was copied in the St. John Times and when news of the meeting was passed along to Frederick and Harry, they met at the depot yesterday afternoon and had a long talk over the life of the brother who had been in the service of the Marine Band on the British battleship Renown and was with the Prince of Wales on his visit to St. John. The brothers spent four happy hours together at that occasion. A sister is living in Farnborough. The family had an excellent war record, and one giving rise to the fighting and one giving rise to the fighting and one giving rise to the fighting.

PARIS TRIAL NEARS CLOSE

Judge Chandler Starts Address to Jury—Had Covered Only Crown Evidence at Press Time—Large Crowd Outside Court.

Mr. Justice Chandler, who is presiding over the trial which is carrying out the fourth trial of John Paris, charged with the murder of Sgt. McAuley, began his address to the jury at ten o'clock this morning, and at the time of going to press had just completed a review of the evidence adduced by the crown. He then proceeded to rehearse the evidence given for the defence.

In spite of the heavy rain there was a greater crowd about the court entrance than at any time during the trial. All except witnesses, and at ten o'clock his honor ordered the doors shut and instructed the constables to allow nobody to enter or leave the court until he had completed his address. Paris retained an unshaken attitude throughout the proceedings.

The afternoon session yesterday was taken up with the addresses of G. H. Vernon, K. C., counsel for the accused, and Hon. J. P. Byrne, attorney general, who conducted the prosecution.

In opening, Judge Chandler said that the law placed no obligation on the crown to make out the guilt of the accused beyond a reasonable doubt. No person had testified as to seeing Paris on the dates surrounding the date of the murder. The transcript which, while not amounting to a confession, was, in truth, damaging evidence.

The judge called the attention of the jury to the features of the

FOUR YEARS IN BATH, WOUNDED OFFICER DIES

Lt. Mackall Retained Courage to End, Though His Spine was Shattered.

Baltimore, Md., July 28—Lieutenant Milton B. Mackall, who had been in a bath almost continuously for the last four years as a necessary requirement of the novel treatment for a severe spinal wound which he received in battle in France, is dead at Fort McHenry.

Highest military honors will be rendered during the service, attended by the Fourth Regiment of the Maryland National Guard, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion. The body will then be sent to Port Republic, Calvert County, Md., to the home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Bowen, with whom he lived before coming to Baltimore. Burial will be in the Christ Church graveyard.

When President Harding was last in Baltimore and spoke at the unveiling of the Francis Scott Key Monument in the fort he visited Lieutenant Mackall. His case appealed to the President, and the two talked for several minutes. The President thanked Walter Curtis, the sergeant who had been a faithful attendant on Mackall during his illness, and

Mackall's death brings to the institution its severest loss. For all the pity he inspired, for all the sympathy that was bestowed upon him, he was himself the most efficient agent for cheering others.

While many regarded his as the saddest case, he never considered it such.

Lieutenant Mackall had been receiving flowers regularly each week from Mrs. Harding, wife of the President, who became interested in his case when she was last in Baltimore. Last week a box of flowers came by a special messenger, and only yesterday a personally written letter from Mrs. Harding was received, offering her regrets that his condition had not shown marked improvement.

Lieutenant Mackall's spine was shattered, but what is figuratively called backbone—pick—he had in abundance to the very end.

Lieutenant Mackall was a son of Richard J. Mackall of Baltimore, and a nephew of John N. Mackall, chairman of the State Roads Committee. The family is from Southern Maryland.

BETTER THAN HARD COAL

Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whiskers on stove covers or pipe and does not rust or cake when burning. Is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

CALGARY'S EXAMPLE

The Times gives up considerable space today to a description of the vocational system in Calgary schools. A very interesting fact in connection therewith is that the supervisor of vocational training in Calgary, Major J. E. Hanning, M. C., is a native of Fredericton. It will be time well spent by St. John readers to read the whole story.

pay its way. If it does its continuance will be more than justified, for a fair is undoubtedly good for business and for the city. To make it a success, however, there should be universal support. No citizen should stand aside and merely criticize when a community enterprise is being carried out.

THE PREVENTIVE DOCTOR.

Dr. George R. Vincent of the Rockefeller Foundation believes the physician of the future will be more a periodic examiner and health counsellor than an emergency man called in after disease has made serious progress.

MESSAGES WORTH WHILE.

Two noted Canadian authors and speakers who live in the United States gave pleasure and inspiration to St. John audiences at Chautauqua yesterday. Those who heard Rev. Dr. Norwood address the Canadian Clubs in Pythian Hall some months ago, and were able to present last evening, welcomed the opportunity to hear him again.

THE DRINK BILL ON PACIFIC COAST

The Retail Merchants' Association of British Columbia has declared against the policy of government control of liquor and issued an official statement that "the liquor vendors' store has been demoralizing in its influence on trade."

Concluded. Figuring that the government is making $2,500,000 on a turnover of $8,000,000, and the bootlegger is making as much money as the government on less than half the volume of business, it would appear that the people of British Columbia are paying $15,000,000 for their drinks per annum, an amount almost as great as the entire income of the provincial government.

BOOST THE EXHIBITION.

The St. John exhibition for 1922 is near enough to be a subject of universal interest to the citizens. This is the third consecutive exhibition, the Association having adopted the policy of an annual fair on the theory that if it could not be done every year it might as well be abandoned.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

THE FEDERAL LAW AS APPLIED TO THE AMATEUR.

Lesson No. 64. Compared to the vast number of receiving stations there are comparatively few amateur transmitting stations. Each of these transmitting stations if not properly adjusted and operated may cause interference with several hundred receiving stations.

Radio operator's licenses are usually issued for a period of two years but may be suspended for violations of the regulations. Amateur station licenses are issued through the various radio inspectors upon application and indication that the station has been adjusted to meet the requirements of the law.

Amateur receiving stations are not required to be licensed, but the operator of a receiving station is subject to the same penalty for violation of regulations covering secrecy of messages as the operator of a transmitting station.

For several months, musical programmes broadcasted by radio have done much to bring relief to the patients of many of our large hospitals, located within the transmitting range of any of the powerful broadcasting stations.

Many of our institutions, other than hospitals, house inmates whose mental condition is so weakened as to necessitate their being permanently confined. One of the famous New York specialists in diseases of the mind has for several years provided musical concerts in one of the Eastern hospitals for the insane and has clearly demonstrated that properly selected music is a valuable aid in improving the mental condition of those whose mind in temporarily or permanently unbalanced.

Recently, under his direction, a radiophone receiving set provided with a loud speaker was used to give a concert to approximately 3,000 inmates of an asylum. A complete opera was given and proved to be a remarkable success. It is proposed to give similar concerts in the near future to those confined in other asylums, additional hospitals and to institutions in which unfortunates are confined through conflict with the law.

POETS OF COURAGE.

If we could dare to write as ill As some whose voices haunt us still, Even we, perchance, might call our own Their deep enchanting undertone.

We are too diffident and nice, Too learned and too over-wise, Too much afraid of faults to be The fitters of bold sincerity.

Laying Off More. Mrs. Youngblood—How is it eggs are so much higher than they were? Grocer—The hens aren't laying so many, ma'am. You see there are quite a few holidays at this time of the year.

Curiosity. "I never should have known you from your photograph," said the candidate to her nephew's fiancée, when she saw her for the first time. Reggie told me you were so pretty.

Preparing. Caller—Is Miss Jones in? Servant—No, madam. Caller (surprised)—Where is she? Servant—Don't you know, ma'am? "No, Jones is going to be married, and she goes to the college every afternoon to take lessons in domestic science."

What, indeed? Mr. Cheerup—Look pleasant, my man. The fellows who succeed are those who can smile. Mr. Lowdown—Sure! That's what makes 'em smile. What have the other guys got to smile about?

In a Position to Know. "This fellow, Skinner, tried to tell me that he has had the same automobile for five years and has never paid a cent for repairs on it," said the Fat Man. "Do you believe that?" "I do," replied the Thin Man sadly. "I'm the man who did his repair work for him."

A Limit to His Patience. The play was of the most wildly melodramatic character, but the great scene was that in which the hero, oppressed but indomitable, confronts the meekly triumphant villain. "Sir Marmaduke," he exclaimed, "you have reduced me to beggary, broken the heart of my aged mother and doped with my wife. But beware! Don't go too far."

Forfeiting. "Well," said the lawyer, "what shall we ask for—trial by judge or by jury?" "Take the judge, Doc," said the plumber client. "I've done plumbing work for nearly everybody in this town and a jury would be twelve times as prejudiced as a judge."

LEFT FOR STROLL THREE WEEKS AGO. GIVEN UP AS LOST. Sydney, July 28—Searching parties have abandoned all hope of finding Miss Annie Martin, sixty-eight, who disappeared on July 1 from her home at Lewis Mountain. At that time she left the house for a walk in the woods. For three weeks a systematic search of the forest has been conducted.

N. B. TEMPERANCE

Executive Urges Strict Enforcement of the Prohibition Act in This Province.

The executive of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance was in session in this city yesterday. At the conclusion of the meeting the executive gave out the following statement:

The executive of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance, who have been in St. John having consultations and interviews with friends of the temperance cause are much concerned with the conditions as they prevail at present. They are of the opinion that if these conditions are allowed to continue many of the benefits and blessings that came to us through the Prohibition Act will be lost. There are several reasons why Christian and temperance people should be anxious:

First, on account of the inefficiency of many of the inspectors on the staff, who are either not in sympathy with the law and its enforcement or they are not doing the work they are both sworn and paid to do and they should be removed from office. And we are also of the opinion that there are some inspectors who are efficient and industrious, but who have too many obstacles to overcome.

Second—Another serious phase of the situation and one that there does not appear to be any justification for is the number and class of vendors receiving licenses. Many of the appointments made seem to increase those best qualified to know with the conviction that the sale of liquor, not its suppression, is the primary object of so many licenses being issued.

A grave and serious situation has arisen because of the wholesale export liquor warehouses being permitted to continue in business. This is a serious menace not only to the prohibition act, but to the morals and welfare of the province.

The executive would bring these conditions to the attention of the people as a first step toward co-operation and would suggest that every friend of temperance use his utmost influence to see that a remedy for this condition is found as early as possible.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold pendant set with pearls, to the bridesmaid a white prayer book and to the groomsmen a fountain pen. After a short stay in St. John Mr. and Mrs. McMackin will leave next week for their future home in Portland, Maine.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Lawrence McDuff and Horace Negus, the two continental barrel rollers who left Amherst on June 26, were in Fredericton yesterday, having returned there after being refused permission by the United States authorities at the border to make their way through Maine by selling cards, etc. They have decided to change their route to one by way of the north shore of New Brunswick and Quebec. This return has cost them exactly one month and will prevent their finishing their trip in scheduled time.

ST. JOHN WOMEN TELL OF WONDERS OF THE OLD WORLD

It was an experience never to be forgotten, the European tour made by the party of members of the Catholic Women's League, who went from Canada to the international Eucharistic congress in Rome this spring. The two St. John members who have returned from the trip, Miss Elizabeth McInerney and Miss Kate Lawlor, enjoyed that experience to the utmost. They made a short stay in Montreal, after their return to Canada, and arrived in St. John on Thursday night.

It was the great privilege of the two St. John members to be among the party of 200 Canadians who were granted an audience with the Pope. They reached Rome just before the close of the congress and saw the procession on the last Sunday when the small army of clerical and lay members of the congress visited the three churches, St. John Lateran, St. Mary Magdoli and St. Peter's.

Among other points touched by the St. John visitors were Lourdes, Marseilles, Nice, Genoa, Naples, Florence, Venice, Valzano, Innsbruck, Munich, Oberammergau, Frankfurt, Mueverer, Cologne, Brussels, Paris, London and Liverpool, from which latter place they embarked for home. While in Oberammergau they saw the Passion play, much of which was presented in a downpour of rain. It lasted eight in the morning until six in the evening, with an interval of about two hours at noon.

FIRE HOSE FORCES THIEF TO GIVE UP

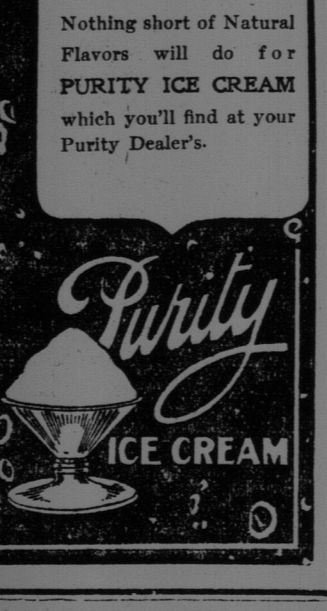

Flooded Out of Barricaded House After Three-Hour Battle.

Red Bank, N. J., July 29—Driven by floods from fire hose to the cellar of a frame house in Little Silver, where for three hours he had fought off the police and a party of armed neighbors, James Ayres, 40 years old, wanted on a charge of robbing the local post office last Monday night, was captured as he crawled half drowned from a five-foot pool of water. County Detective J. B. Rue was shot through the hand in the battle before dark James Corbett, a carpenter, entered the two-story wooden building, owned by a Mrs. Martinwood, to plan for some repairs to the place. He saw a revolver on the floor. He tried to push the door all the way open, but it was barricaded. With his mind on the post office robbery of the night before, Corbett told a neighbor

BURIED WITH CATHOLIC RITES

Takamine, Noted Japanese Chemist, Renounced Buddhism, Religion of His Birth, Only 6 Weeks Ago.

(New York Times)

Diplomats as well as chemists, merchants, writers and friends, joined yesterday in paying the last tribute of respect to Dr. Jōkichi Takamine, a noted chemist and holder of ties of friendship between Japan and America, whose funeral took place from St. Patrick's cathedral in the morning.

While deep sorrow was visible upon the faces of those who knew him, there was a sense of gratification in the hearts of church dignitaries, because only six weeks ago Dr. Takamine renounced Buddhism, the religion of his birth, and embraced Catholicism. And the priest said Takamine supplied this need the best, because it was a religion of authority and revelation. His wife had been converted several years ago and she was very much pleased with his decision. She immediately called for the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Kernan of the St. Nicholas' Church of Passaic, N. J. The priest was surprised at the knowledge Dr. Takamine possessed in the religion and he found it unnecessary to give him any further instruction before conversion, which is remarkable. The chemist soon received the sacraments of conversion.

Assisting Mr. Kernan were the Rev. Patrick Daly, as deacon, and the Rev. Bernard McQuade, as sub-deacon. The Rev. Martin received the coffin into the cathedral.

The honorary pall-bearers were Judge Elbert H. Gary, O. W. Smith, Dr. M. T. Whitaker, Y. Murak, S. Inamura, J. J. C. Clarke, Captain S. E. Darby, M. W. Williamson, Dr. T. Takami, E. Jimushi, Japanese Consul General K. Kumasaki and S. Saburi, Japanese Charge d'Affairs at Washington.

Ever since his death at the Lenox Hills Hospital last Saturday floral tributes had been received in such large numbers that ten touring cars were required to carry them. There were upwards of 300 floral pieces, many of them having inscriptions with Japanese inscriptions.

Besides his personal friends, there were at the services men and women who knew the scientist only through the association of his name with adrenalin. Several were heard to remark that their life blood, oozing out of a cut made by a surgeon's knife, would never have stopped were it not for Dr. Takamine's discovery twenty-one years ago. There were many butlers present, who took the morning off to attend their compatriot's funeral.

One of his closest friends at the service was Dr. Charles F. Chandler, who is eighty-five years old. Dr. Chandler was founder of Columbia's School of Mines and for many years head of the department of chemistry at the university. Others attending included Melville E. Stone of The Associated Press; Wildgen Graham, writer; Dr. Louis Livingstone Seaman, surgeon and writer; Dr. John H. Finley, first president of the Japan Society of New York and former State Commissioner of Education; Dr. Maximilian Toch; Herbert S. Houston, editor; Alexander Tison, Douglas Dunbar and Eugene C. Worden, representing the Japan Society. There were delegations present, also, from the many other clubs and societies with which he was affiliated.

His immediate family present were his wife, his two sons, Eben T. and Jōkichi, with their wives, and his sister, Mrs. J. Takekashi.

The body was taken to a receiving vault at Woodlawn Cemetery.

STOLE CITY'S $20,000 TO GET MEDICAL AID FOR BROTHERS

New York, July 29—Judge Johnston in General Sessions remanded James T. Harris, former clerk in Controller Craig's office, to the Tombs until today, when he will be sentenced on a plea of guilty to the theft of $600 from the city. Harris, who lived in Brooklyn, was twenty-three years in the finance department.

Chief Assistant District Attorney Pecora said Harris actually stole about $20,000, had made a full confession and would appear as a witness for the city in litigation growing out of the clerk's disposal of the bonds deposited by bidders on city work.

Harris fled to Pittsburgh in December, 1920, and was arrested on his return on May 18, 1921. He told Mr. Pecora he stole to provide medical care for his two brothers, one of whom, he said, died three weeks ago. The second brother, Harris added, now is a patient in the Kings County Hospital.

Much Depends on Your Choice

Much of the joy goes out of motoring when you have a cranky, ineffective battery. And such a battery is the most costly kind, no matter what its first price was.

In buying a new car, give a thought to the battery. If it is a long-life Exide, you know that the best has been provided for you.

When you have to replace your present battery, insist on an Exide. If you have any trouble in getting one, write us or our nearest district distributor.

"Wet" and "Dry" Spots AS SHOWN BY THE "Digest's" Poll of the United States

In this week's "Digest" (July 29th) there is a summary of 357,600 ballots in the poll of 10,000,000 men and women in every state of the United States which THE LITERARY DIGEST is conducting on the subjects of Prohibition and the Soldiers' Bonus. There is also a statement from Mr. Wheeler, General Counsel and Legislative Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and communications from representatives of organizations in favor of a modification of the present liquor law.

Never before outside of a general election has such an extensive poll been conducted. In addition to the thousands of ballots being received daily, letters are pouring in from all sections. By a secret process these ballots are proof against forgery and the most careful precautions have been taken against fraud of any kind, so that when the final tabulations are given they will reflect accurately public sentiment upon these two burning issues. These ballots have been sent, by mail, to more than 10,000,000 men and women, representing practically every profession and industry in the country. In addition, the poll will be extended so as to include large industrial concerns—the result of a poll in the Edison plant is shown this week.

The balloting will be continued throughout the summer and reported weekly in "The Digest." Don't fail to get this week's number and study the returns.

Other Big News-Features in This Week's "Digest" Are

Coal Mining as the Nation's Business—The Railroad Strike—Bleaching Out the Reds in the Labor Unions—Cutting Santo Domingo's Apron Strings—Nailing Down Peace With Canada—The Chemical Foundation's Fight—Settling the Upper Silesian Problem—Russian Communism Cleans House—Railroad Travel in Europe—Radio—Buoys With Brains—Interior Decoration—The Scandal in the British Press—The Christian Hall of Fame—Genoa, Gehenna and Geneva—The Sunny Side of Being One Hundred—Topics of the Day—Many Illustrations, Including the Best of the Humorous Cartoons.

BENEFITS FROM HYDRO POLICY

Speeches of Governor and Premier at Opening of the Stephen Brickyard.

That great benefit should be derived from the proposed hydro extension policy of the government to all parts of the province was a statement made yesterday by Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster at the opening of the Stephen Brick Company, Ltd., new brick industry in East St. John. Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley, Bishop LeBlanc and others also spoke.

The governor spoke of the need of new industries in St. John and in this connection dwelt upon the subject of hydro-electric development, the object of which was to attract new industries to the city and province, to furnish cheap light and power and to promote the material prosperity of New Brunswick.

Premier Foster.

In a highly practical address Premier Foster again declared his faith in the great possibilities lying before the city in regard to industrial expansion on account of the enlightened hydro policy of his government. He outlined the government policy in this regard and asserted that it was a wise policy, particularly insofar as St. John was concerned. With the decline of the ship-building industry here and also the manufacture of lumber nearer the source of supply, it behooved the city to look more and more to an industrial expansion. Hydro power at cost, he declared, made this possible. He reiterated his belief in the Masouah development could adequately supply the amount required by the city at a cost less than that prevailing in many of the Ontario plants. The success of hydro at St. John would strengthen his hands, he continued, when he went before the legislature and asked for a vote of money for an extension of the benefits of this policy to all parts of the province. Conditions obtaining at present fully justified the hydro policy. The contract from the electric power commission was now in the hands of the city in addition to an estimate of the cost of a civic distribution plant. It was now up to the citizens, he declared, to decide on the mode of distribution.

HUSBAND AND WIFE NEARLY DEAD WITH CHOLERA

The chief symptoms of cholera are vomiting, and purging, occur either simultaneously or alternately, and are usually sudden and very violent, and the matter ejected from the stomach has a bilious appearance and a nasty bitter taste.

On the first symptoms appearing, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be taken, and the trouble checked before it becomes serious.

Mrs. Isaac Smith, Campbellton, N. B., writes:—"We have been using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for cholera. My husband and I were pretty nearly dead with it until we started to use your medicine, and thanks to it, we have found great relief, and are recommending it to all our friends."

77 years' reputation stands behind "Dr. Fowler's," therefore you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy when you get it.

There are bequests of £20,000 each to Cheltenham General Hospital and Leeds General Hospital.

When Henry Lee entered the room in which the banquet was being held his appearance was signalled by an outburst of applause which betokened the esteem in which the retired brick manufacturer was held by the audience.

TO WIPE OUT ART COUNTERFEITING

Will Prosecute Those Selling Fakes and Forged Paintings of Masters—Warning Given to Public.

New York, July 29.—Counterfeiting of paintings, reported to be a flourishing industry just now in Paris, is being carried on quite extensively in this country, according to a statement by Julian Bowes, managing secretary of the League of American Artists, Inc., an organization designed to aid and protect American painters.

The only difference between the French and the American technique, Mr. Bowes says, is in the degree of boldness. In Paris, cable despatches have said, the "manufacturers" of the fakes have turned out only old masters. Less timorous, their American confreres have been turning out bogus examples of the work of living American artists, as well as dashing off an occasional "old master."

Three times within the last year George Wesley Bellows has found fakes being offered for sale as products of his genius. Emil Carlsen has been another victim, and the total output of the counterfeiters, in terms of money and thousands of dollars, according to Mr. Bowes, who said that as a result of an investigation by the league two small and unknown dealers in paintings have been marked for prosecution in the fall term of court. Evidence has been gathered, Mr. Bowes said, which the league considers justifies prosecution.

Warning to the Public.

"The recent exposure of the forged paintings of the late Eugene Carriere in Paris," said Mr. Bowes, "as well as forgeries of the celebrated painters of antiquity, has caused the league to make public the investigation it has been making in this country. The unscrupulous dealers in America have surpassed the European dealers in their brazenness by not only forging the names of the artists of antiquity, but by employing modern artists to copy the works of the great living artists of today.

"The investigation has been going on for more than a year. Among the celebrated artists of today the works of George Bellows and Emil Carlsen have been faked the most. Both these artists are members of the league, and recently

Soak the Dirt out. THERE is such a simple easy way of washing rompers, school gingham, play clothes, etc., that you won't mind how many there are—thanks to Rinso. First, make the wonderful Rinso liquid. Take half a packet of Rinso, thoroughly dissolve it in cool water, and add two quarts of boiling water. Then lay your clothes to soak in the tub of cool or lukewarm water. After one, two or three hours or in the morning give them a thorough rinsing and the dirt just runs away. No need to rub on the wash board so that holes come and colour goes. Rinso is a wonderful product, scientifically made to wash clothes by soaking—different from soaps, chips and washing powders, and used differently. Do not put Rinso into the tub from the package, but make the Rinso liquid first.

IF YOU USE A WASHING MACHINE Follow directions as above. After soaking the clothes wring them into machine, add enough fresh Rinso liquid, operate and rinse, and you will have the sweetest, cleanest clothes you ever saw.

WORLD'S TALLEST MAN. Kazanloff, 9 Feet, 31 Inches, a Specimen of Gland Activity. The Siberian giant, Kazanloff, recently exhibited in Hungary as the largest man alive, is described in the Journal of the American Medical Association. He is 34 years of age, his height is 9 feet 3 inches, and he is built in proportion to his height. Thus, his hand is 1 foot 1 inch from finger tip to wrist; his foot is 1 foot 9 inches long; his chest measurement is 56 inches; the circumference of his head is 25 inches and his weight is 488 pounds. To support this huge frame he eats an amount that would satisfy four others of good appetite. In four meals in the course of the day he consumes four or five pints of milk, fifteen to twenty eggs, three or four pounds of meat, five or six loaves of bread, large quantities of potatoes, beans and other vegetables, two or three liters of wine and five or six liters of beer. These quantities appear to be well tolerated, as do the measurements of his proportions; but the fact that arrests attention, particularly in the accounts of the giant's habits is the enormous amount of sleep that he needs. Normally he passes a large portion of the day in slumber, and he has been known to sleep for twenty-four hours on end. Even when awake his movements are slow and deliberate, and he is inclined to doze off when left alone, the only stimulus to exertion being the cravings of hunger, which are said to be acute. "It is impossible," says American Medicine, "in the light of recent researches on gigantism to regard this prodigious specimen of humanity as a mere freak." He must be the subject of pathologic change probably in the pituitary body. The condition of general symmetrical gigantism gradually developing is not in all points like true acromegaly, but is closely allied to it. The prognosis with regard to longevity cannot be said to be bright. Kazanloff has now left for his fatherland, Siberia, where he intends to help his parents in farm work.

were brought face to face with bogus paintings bearing their forged signatures, which were in the hands of so-called reputable dealers. Other members of the league have been victims. "We warn the public to beware of forged copies of modern masters and to get into communication with the artist whose name is signed to the picture. All league's office at 119 East Nineteenth street.

Legal Aid for Artists. The board of directors of the league includes Robert Van Idershteyn, George

Bellows, Leo Melziner, Harry Watrous, vice-president of the National Agency of Design; Robert Henri, Howard Giles, Robert I. Aitken, president of the National Sculpture Society, and W. Sherman Potts. Among the prominent members are John Sloan, president of the Independent Society; Charles Dana Gibson, president of the Illustrators, and Emily Nichols Hatch, president of the Women Painters and Sculptors Society. In order to assist artists, "who are not notorious for concern over the practical things" a legal committee has been formed for their protection. The committee will work for a copyright law and for legislation, both state and national, in favor of the rights of artists or their heirs to a percentage of the proceeds of public sales of works of art. When Thomas Gerrity, manager for M. Knoedler & Co., 556 Fifth Avenue, was informed of the league's plans, he expressed what seemed to be the general sentiment of the larger dealers. He said: "It will be hard to prevent bogus pictures from being distributed throughout the country as long as the public will not take the necessary precaution to look into the status of the persons with whom they are dealing. There are numerous reputable firms that guarantee the works they sell and take the
