ST. PATRICK'S DAY WELL OBSERVED IN THE CITY

A Fine Parade of Societies to Cathedral And Eloquent Sermon There

Bright Morning But a Keen Wind Blew As Marchers Took up Their Posts—The "Dear Little Shamrock" Everywhere To be Seen—Notes of The Day

With a clear blue sky, but the weather very cold, St. Patrick's Day was observed in under conditions fairly favorable. Everywhere was evidence of the sons and daughters of Erin's green land marking the day by wearing of "the dear little shamrock," to celebrate the day of their patron saint.

The annual parade of the Catholic organizations which is the feature of the day, was looked forward to eagerly and the participating wind did not prevent crowds gathering along the route of procession.

The parade was one of the best held in years, both in point of numbers and appearance, and with two bands playing Irish airs the crowds along the streets were aroused to keen interest.

After convening at their respective rooms, the societies massed in King street east, where a big crowd had gathered. St. Peter's M. A. of the North End marching to the city, headed by the Artillery Band, presented a neat appearance, and came in for much favorable comment.

Major Thomas Kicham of the Hibernian Knights was grand marshal of the procession, and he handled it well. The other marshals under him were Captain E. J. McLaughlin, Hibernian Knights; Fred. L. Barrett, president of Division No. 1, O. H. N. Ryan, marshal of Division No. 2, St. Peter's M. A.; Dennis A. McCarty, marshal of the Y. M. S. of St. Joseph; John J. Gallagher, marshal of the I. L. & E. Society; John J. Loney, marshal of the Father Mathew Association.

Proceeding the procession was a detachment of police consisting of Sgt. Thomas (Capes) and Patrolmen Thomas Sullivan, George Henry and James F. McNamee. The make-up of the parade was as follows: Police Detachment; St. Peter's M. A. City Cornet Band; A. O. H. Knights; I. L. & E. Society; Division No. 3, A. O. H.; St. Peter's M. A.; St. Joseph's Artillery Band; I. L. & E. Association; Father Mathew Association.

The route of march was from King street east to Sydney, to Waterloo, to the church, and returning by Richmond, Bruce, Union, Dock, Market Square, King, Charlotte to King Square where the parade culminated.

The marching, neatness and general appearance of those taking part, was most favorably commented upon on all sides. The appearance of the Hibernian Knights with their shabby uniforms and soldierly appearance and the Hibernian Cadets came in for especially favorable notice.

At the Cathedral His Lordship Bishop Casey and priests, from the steps of the Palace reviewed the procession as the societies filed into the cathedral. At 10 o'clock high mass, with the Lordship present, was begun with Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, C. C. G. celebrant; Rev. Wm. Duke, deacon; Rev. M. I. & H. Association.

And then commenced the struggle which has gone for years and years, with Ireland, on the one side, determined to keep intact in the faith, and a nation on the other ready to do any means to crush out the church of the people. Starvation, oppression, offers of riches were tried in vain. The Irish faith was too strongly instilled.

"You are the legitimate successors of those people and their faith, and there is nothing that you want to guard more carefully than the pearl of Patrick which she has shed." "We are loyal to the civil authorities, and we are loyal to the word of Patrick, shall some day stand before the throne of God, and in the presence of the millions of martyrs, saints, scholars and virgins of old Ireland, Patrick shall give back to God that pearl, and the Son of God shall place it in the crown that is being made up of the merits, grace and faith of the people of Ireland."

In other Churches In St. Peter's church, high mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Ryan, C.S.S.R., being the celebrant. Rev. Father Maloney was deacon and Rev. Father Duke sub-deacon. The church was crowded. The sermon was preached by Rev. Father Maloney, who took for his subject, "The Life of St. Patrick." He reviewed at some length the life of the great saint, and the sermon was listened to with marked interest. At the close of the mass there was benediction. Low masses were also celebrated at 6, 7, and 7:30 o'clock.

In Holy Trinity church Rev. J. J. Walsh solemnized mass and preached an appropriate sermon. Rev. E. J. Holland was the speaker at the high mass in St. John's the Baptist church and he dealt in an emphatic manner with the life of St. Patrick. Collections were taken in all the churches for the benefit of the orphans of old Ireland.

Halifax, March 17.—St. Patrick's Day was celebrated here by a procession of members of the A. O. H. It was one of the finest ever seen here. They attended service on St. Patrick's church, where a sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Niall, S. J., members of the Charitable Irish society directed their attention to the life of the great saint.

INCONSISTENCY AND EXTRAVAGANCE OF GOVERNMENT SHOWN UP

Mr. Burchill, in Calmly Critical Address, Makes Plain That the Matters With Which They Found Fault in Opposition Have Not Been Remedied When in Power

Fredericton, N. B., March 16.—There was some surprise and consternation in the government ranks today when John P. Burchill followed Mr. Murray, of Kings county, with one of the best and most critical speeches of the policy of the administration made this session.

Mr. Burchill is at all times a pleasing, convincing and powerful speaker and today he sustained his reputation in every respect. He compared the present government to the late member's obsequy given to the government and during his speech he pointed out the many matters which he said should be remedied when in power.

There is much uneasiness in the ranks of the government party tonight. They tried to get a map verdict. It is well known that the late member's obsequy were hardly ever before instructions were given to issue the writ and it is fresh in the minds of the members that the proclamation throughout the country carried the news of the Conservative convention.

Mr. Burden, the Liberal candidate, is easily the most popular man in the county and will get a tremendous vote. Assurance of his success are on many lips tonight and York county will see the shortest and most active political battle in its history.

A SIGNIFICANT SPEECH

The most significant speech delivered at the present session of the legislature was that of Hon. Mr. Burchill, of which a report is given in this issue of the Times. When Mr. Burchill was elected, the Hazen government claimed that he would support them. In the house, he stated that he would judge them by their acts. Now, after three years, he reviews their record and points out that they have not kept their pledges, that they have been extravagant, and that they have done while in opposition. Item by item Mr. Burchill went over the list, and pointed out where money had been wasted. Such keen and unparagoned criticism, from a member who at the outset was disposed to be friendly to the government if it kept its pledges, must make a deep impression on the minds of the people. The government press cannot brush it aside as the utterance of a violent partisan. Mr. Burchill's words carry the more weight because he has not been a strong party man. His judgment compels him to condemn the government for its failure to keep its pledges, and for its failure to give the province an adequate return for the greatly increased expenditure.

A CITY HALL TEMPEST

An article in this paper last evening, pointing out that over $2,100 in taxes due the city had been wiped out in the last three months by a generous appeals committee appears to have caused some excitement on Prince William street. The city chamberlain is reported to have rushed to the defence of the aldermen with much strong language directed against this newspaper. Stripped of picturesque and unnecessary verbiage the chamberlain simply states that each appeal for relief from taxes is carefully looked into and relief is granted only in cases where there is no prospect of payment in the future. The Times repeats that persons have been relieved who are in receipt of a good income, and are quite as able to pay as many who have pinched and struggled and paid their taxes in full. Their cases were referred to the appeals committee and they were relieved. It may fairly be asked why any city official should rush to the defence of the aldermen. Are they unable to speak for themselves? The Times stated quite clearly yesterday that there are deserving cases, where relief from too great a burden of taxes is right and proper. Careful investigation, however, would show that there are also cases where relief should not be granted, yet it is done. If any man is assessed too high the assessment should be changed. The people pay their taxes to have no sympathy with a system, or with such action by the appeals committee, as permits persons who are able to pay to be relieved of the obligation.

TO GET CHEAP POWER

The address of Mr. George Westinghouse on cheap electrical power developed from water power, which was printed in the Times on Wednesday, is of special interest in connection with projects to provide St. John with cheaper power. Mr. Westinghouse shows that power can easily be transmitted long distances. Thus he says: "As a result of the development of the alternating current and of years of experience in the manufacture of electric transformers and of insulators for supporting electric conductors, power is now successfully transmitted by alternating current over distances of two hundred miles or more. Thus water-power in almost inaccessible places awaits only the coming of engineers and of capital to be made available for industrial purposes." Again, he says: "Water-powers which otherwise would be unavailable are made useful for supplying power to distant cities, and even a mill located at a water-power will give better service when it uses the electric drive. Electricity affords a simpler, better way of doing many things with which we are familiar, and it also makes possible new methods and new developments which, without it, would be impossible. With electric power the mill can draw its energy from any stream within a radius of a hundred miles or more; it may be located on high and healthful ground, on the outskirts of an established town or city where labor is plentiful and transportation facilities are the best." Showing how a comprehensive system may be adopted, he says of the Southern Power Company: "This is the largest power-transmission system in the South and is among the most extensive and important in the country. It is not a simple transmission line from a single power house to a single mill or city, but an extensive system which receives power from many power plants on different streams in several states. Hence low-water or high-water, on one river, which might temporarily disable certain plants, has but a slight effect on the whole system. The lines of the Southern Power Company extend 150 miles north and south and 20 miles east and west, and connect into a single hydro-electric power system, plants aggregating 100,000 horse-power. It is a magnificent demonstration of what electricity can do to conserve and utilize water-power in developing the great and growing textile and other industries of the South. The Southern Power Company is furnishing light to forty-five cities and towns and supplying current to six street railway systems and to hundreds of motors for various uses." It will be seen that we in New Brunswick have not yet begun to utilize the sources of cheap power that are available in our streams.

St. John people who desire to vote at the civic elections should be sure that their taxes are paid on or before March 25. And we poor heart jumps with its gladness. Oh, there be the chimneys on the chapel. A single Saint Patrick's swate song. And we eye is all moist in a minute. But hark! sure, be that land? Now on with me new green bonnet. These shamrocks all fresh for me bosom. I must go for the bye are part. And sure it's a man I'll be choosing. A man with a heart like me own. That bates at the sound of Killarney. Ooh, home, me poor ears how they ache. For a bit of the ralls Irish thimble. And me poor heart jumps with its gladness.

St. Patrick's Day brings the news that in view of the near approach of home rule the Irish leaders bury the hatchet, and Mr. Redmond says: "The struggle between England and Ireland is ended. All bitterness has left our souls. We want our proper place in the British empire."

While England and the United States are agreeing to an arbitration treaty, Col. Sam Hughes of Ontario is whetting his sword for a descent on Washington.

Though the time is short, the Liberals of York county have nominated a strong candidate and will put up a great fight in the by-election. It would have been very poor tactics to allow the election to go by default. The Hazen government should be fought at every opportunity. The people of York should add another to the by-election triumphs of the opposition.

In Halifax a plebiscite will be taken on the board of control system. Evidently Halifax has not studied the working out of this system in Montreal, Ottawa and other cities. An alderman is quoted as saying: "Several of the aldermen are making a move towards a campaign of education among the citizens, and believe that if the case is fairly put to the people, the proposed change will be defeated." This is exactly what might be expected of "several of the aldermen."

KILLED BY BULL

Elderly Farmer in Ontario Gored by Maddened Animal Sarnia, Ont., Mar. 17.—(Canadian Press)—John Robbins, an elderly farmer living in Moore Township, was so badly gored by an infuriated bull yesterday afternoon that he died soon afterwards. The animal had broken loose from its stall in the barn and escaped into the yard. A small boy saw the encounter and called to the old man's son and the latter beat off the bull, but it was too late.

MURDER MYSTERY IS CLEARED

(Continued from page 1) "Dalton and Rice pulled their guns and Dalton shot the door. 'Now, he says to Dr. Post, 'I've got you right. I'm going to give it to you now.' "He and Rice jumped on Dr. Post, who was setting there looking frightened and they pulled his clothes off. May Mansell knelt on the floor begging them to let Dr. Post alone and swearing there was nothing wrong. "Begged for His Life "Dr. Post seemed to know what was coming. He kept looking at Dalton's revolver and saying: "Don't give it to me with that. Your fist are good enough." "When he and Rice got all the doctor's clothes off they backed him up against a wall and Dalton showed his revolver against Dr. Post's body and fired. Dr. Post screamed and Dalton fired again. Then he and Rice put their revolvers back in their pockets and walked out. May Mansell and I ran out and got Dr. Westing from Oliver street. By the time he got back with us Dr. Post was lying against the sofa trying to smoke a cigarette. He kept saying over and over again he didn't want to die." Dr. Post was taken to the New York Hospital and died there a few hours later. Some man who did not give his name telephoned to the hospital and found he was dead. Half an hour after this telephone message Dalton and Rice entered a status game in Elizabeth street and playing until there was $400 on the table, only a few dollars of which was their money. They drew their revolvers, held up the keeper of the game, grabbed the money and fled. The police don't know where they are now, but on the basis of John Smith's story, and some corroborating evidence they have received, they are looking for them on the charge of murder.

ALL DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION GOES IN FIVE MINUTES

A Little Diapepsin Now Will Make Your Disordered Stomach Feel Fine and Healthy

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 5-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let it rest in the minutes there is left in your stomach. The relief is Food Poisoning—food poisoning is the Digestive tract is inflamed, the food is not digested, and you become afflicted with loss of appetite, indigestion, flatulence, belching, vomiting, heartburn, griping in the bowels, and a general feeling of discomfort, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms. If your appetite is feeble and nothing is digested, or if you feel bloated after eating, or if you feel like a lump of lead in your stomach, you can get relief in five minutes. This relief is not a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

HOW LIVERPOOL SOLVED ITS DOCKING PROBLEM

In the Mersey, where the rise of the tide is so considerable, the total range between high and low water being as much as 38 feet on extreme spring tides, and about 11 feet on neap tides, some device by which vessels could discharge and receive passengers and goods at varying levels of the tides early became necessary, and the inclined slipways, which served the purpose in the first instance, were superseded in 1847 by the construction of the George's Landing Stage. This stage was found too small for the ever-growing requirements of the port, and the authorities added what is called the Prince's Stage, which at various times has been enlarged until now. The total length of the Liverpool Landing Stage is 2,478 feet, with a width of about 80 feet.

Eight bridges connect with the shore, besides a floating bridge 500 feet in length and 50 feet in width, by means of which an easy incline for goods traffic is maintained at all states of the tide. The largest transatlantic liners berth at the northern part of the stage to embark and disembark their passengers with luggage, mails, etc.

For the convenience of London passengers, the London and Northwestern Railway Company have erected their Riverside station immediately adjoining, and express trains are run from the metropolis in connection with the principal lines of transportation to watch the departure of the magnificent passenger steamers which ply to the Isle of Man, Llandudno, Bangor, Beaumaris, etc. The ferry traffic is enormous, more than 30,000,000 passengers per annum crossing by means of the services to Rock Ferry and New Ferry, Birkenhead, Seacombe, Egremont and New Brighton. The boats run at short intervals throughout the day and in the case of Birkenhead and Seacombe an all night service proves a great public convenience. In the summer months trips are run to Eastham, a pleasure resort four miles up stream.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"TO BE or not to be." "That is the question."

I wonder if I'll be considered absolutely hopeless if I "less up" to a feeling I have long cherished without ever daring to give utterance to it before. And that is that I have never been able to take any great patience with the gentleman who uttered the above sentiment and who took five acts to make up his mind about something which an ordinary person would have decided in five minutes, and decided just as he did, at that.

Nor have I patience with Hamlet's innumerable relatives in the world of today, to whom making up their minds on every little point seems to be nothing short of agony. Some of these people suffer so much in the effort that they are perpetually trying to persuade other people to perform that function for them.

"Do I really want to buy this coat or won't it be enough to pay?" "Will we be better satisfied to move now or to stay here until spring?"

With questions like these, which, being possessed of the fullest evidence in the case, they are better qualified to answer themselves than anyone else can possibly be, they are perfectly loathsome in answering yourself and you will have a very good reason for not doing so.

There is nothing more tiring than to be in the company of a person badly afflicted with this sort of decision weakness, and she says she can't do anything about it.

I know a girl who once spent a vacation with a victim of the weakness, and she says she can't do anything about it.

The last illustrates one of the queerest quirks about these folks. They don't simply allow themselves to be oppressed by a third person's judgment and view point is valuable, but they help in decisions where the doubtful quantity is their own mind and desires.

To be so plagued that you never take advice on any subject is a weakness, of course.

But to be so that you are always trying to make other people do your own legitimate work of making up their minds for you is as great a sin.

Of course few people do this to the extent I have described, but every one is acquainted with people who have milder cases of this kind of atrophy.

Look before you leap," is a good motto, but it doesn't mean to take a dozen looks and ask all your friends to look, too, before every little leap.

Learn to make all small decisions promptly and silently and not bother a busy man with questions which he is answering himself and you will have acquired a habit that will strengthen both your judgment and your will power.

THE COMMISSION PLAN AND ANONYMOUS WRITERS

To the Editor of the Times—

Sir—In view of the number of anti-commission letters and articles appearing in both the Standard and Globe, I thought I would point out certain facts for consideration to both the writers and readers of such articles.

First—If the opponents of commission plan are in the opposition, why do they not come out in the open and give such opposition the weight of their backing and their names?

Second—The opponents of commission plan are well known and famous in the press, for which the citizens committee are paying advertising rates, are all alleged Citizens Committee.

The executive of this committee is comprised of the following: H. A. Powell, G. E. Agar, W. H. Barnaby, H. Colby Smith, Dr. W. P. Roberts, F. H. Flewelling, W. A. Timothy, Hon. J. D. Schuchman, Hugh Beck, M. McGrath, H. B. Schofield, W. D. Giggay and Dr. Ward.

One of the main aims we have not yet found even one citizen ready to openly oppose the movement, or to give good reasons for such opposition over his own name.

The Citizens Committee have spent both time and money in acquiring all the available information on this question, and have made considerable progress in the formation in the hands of every voter in the city.

We have not yet found even one of the nine aldermen who launched the proposal for a revised council, who can say anything in opposition to the plan.

It is not even known where the opposition is, and the speakers have on every occasion offered to answer all questions asked from the audience, but we have not yet found one member of the council who has offered to answer any of the arguments advanced by the committee speakers.

To quote from the letter of "A Working Man" in this morning's Standard, "they had better come out and fight square and let it be known where they are at. They have never attempted to argue this question on its merits." It is even stated that at the meeting of the bills and by-laws committee of the common council Tuesday last, when the delegates of the Citizens' Committee were present, they made an effort to secure such legislation as would enable the people to vote intelligently on April 17, that not one member of the committee, except the mayor, spoke one word to the delegation, but that a certain member, namely, the recorder, undertook the entire discussion without the request of the chairman or any members of that committee.

Under the proposed commission plan the five commissioners would settle this question with any delegation of citizens while under the present system, we find in this case at least a one man power, and that man not even a member of the council.

Again I quote from "A Working Man": "Come on and fight square and let it be known where they are at. Let us know if it is a one man opposition or the opposition of many, and like the Citizens' Committee let it be known who the Citizens' committee fighters are."

Yours truly,
ONE OF THE EXECUTIVE OF THE CITIZENS COMMITTEE.

P. S.—In reference to the statement of "A Working Man" that the supervisors of the commission had promised a bridge at the Carlton meeting, I wish to put this matter in the proper category and to classify such a statement as an unmitigated falsehood. No such statement was made; what was said was that under commission government we should easily save $12,000, which would be the interest on the city's share of expenditure for a bridge, and hence we might in a few years have a bridge by such savings of a commission.

DISEASE WAS SPREADING

Till D. D. D. Cured It

This is a translation of a letter written in French, on April 16, 1910, by Mr. Dan Babinet, Cap Lamiré, N. B. "I had been suffering with eczema for about 6 months, and had consulted several doctors who did not do me any good. The disease was spreading and I was most uncomfortable. I thought I would go crazy. All my friends were telling me I would lose my mind unless I found the right treatment. One day I read in the Manager about your D. D. D. treatment and I ordered a bottle immediately and used large bottles. It took eight bottles altogether and cured me of all my disease. I never have been with a bottle of D. D. D. in my home. The records of the years of complete cures of thousands of the most severe cases show that D. D. D. stands today as the slightly reliable eczema cure. Write today for free trial bottle to the D. D. D. Laboratories, Dept. S. T., 40 Colborne St., Toronto. It will give you instant relief. Chas. R. Wasson and E. Clifton Brown, local agents."

"The Parents' Love," showing the feelings of the parents toward the prodigal son; 2. "Bobby's Sweetheart," in which the renowned child comedian shows his ability to advantage; 3. "The Ring of Love," depicting some highly amusing incidents that befell an old professor in the role of a young man; 4. "I'm Glad I'm Irish," a comedy sketch; 5. "Among the Cowboys," an extra week and Western feature. Irish music will be played during the showing of the films.

THE LYRIC. The Golden Gate Trio, One Big Hit at Lyric. The expedition, and The Golden Gate Trio made a tremendous hit at the Lyric Theatre yesterday. There is much that is new and novel in the act, the character impersonation of a Chinaman by one of the troupe proving most amusing and refreshing. The comedy between the Chinaman and the Negro is also entertaining, and the audience yesterday were simply made to laugh whether they felt like it or not. The lady of the act displayed some pretty costumes and sang pleasingly. Altogether this attraction is declared as good as any of its kind yet.

"PIMPLES" Broke Out All Over Her Face.

Pimples are caused, almost entirely, by bad blood, and there is only one way to get rid of them, and that is to get at the seat of the trouble by using a good reliable blood purifying medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for 35 years, and is one of the very best blood medicines produced. After using it you will find that pimples have disappeared and you will have a beautiful clear complexion. Mrs. Robert McNair, of London, Ontario, writes: "I am greatly pleased to report the benefit I have derived from the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. About a year ago I became so weak and run down I could scarcely walk, and pimples broke out all over my face. I tried one thing after another, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I was advised by a lady friend to try B.B.B., and before I had used one bottle I felt it was doing me good so I used three bottles, and I am now well and strong, and the pimples have all disappeared. Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Millers Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

JOHN SANSFIELD CASEY HAS TALK WITH SOME MORE POLITICIANS

(Richibucto Review). Fredericton, N. B., March 13, 1911. Dear Editor:—How many good men there are in Fredericton at the present time, I'll bet there are more great men here than in any other town in the province. I am writing from the Barker House, and although I haven't travelled much, the more I know of the more I think the great thing in running a hotel is to make a man think you are glad to see him. Most any kind of a room and bed will do, but a man who will look kind of pleased when you come in, and keep that smile on his face, that is what you want. I am writing from the Barker House, and although I haven't travelled much, the more I know of the more I think the great thing in running a hotel is to make a man think you are glad to see him.

Boys' New Spring Suits MAKE THEIR FIRST APPEARANCE. Today we invite you to see the first Comprehensive Showing of Boys' New Suits for Spring. Fashion still clings to gray and brown, and you will agree she could not have done better when you see these neat patterns. Worsteds are still the favorite for Suits—but there is also good choosing among the tweeds, neat plaid effects, also plaids, checks and stripe effects. Collars fit snug to the neck, the lapels are cut longer than usual and the shoulders set natural, which does away with that distasteful "padded-out" appearance. No mother who is particular as to her boy's appearance and the cost of it can well afford to stay away from our showing.
