LONDON.

Interesting Items of Social and Political Import.
LONDON, July 20.—London is fast emptying, the recent heat wave having given a final kick to the flying season.
Great expectations, socially, are entertained for Cowes, where the presence of the King and Queen will give the necessary flip which has been wanting to every fixture this year. King Edward has chartered his old yacht, the Britannia, for the Cowes regatta and most of the habitues of Cowes will be there.
One Londoner hears that the American yachts which will be at Cowes are expected to beat anything ever seen before in the Roads for luxury and splendor.
The London theatrical world is making haste to close their theatres. Sir Henry Irving's season at the Lyceum ends tonight. Sir Henry and Ellen Terry will make a tour of the provinces, and will open in New York October 21.

THE STEEL STRIKE.

It Has Reached a Critical Stage and Developments Are Anxiously Awaited.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 20.—The steel strike has reached the critical stage, and developments of the next 72 hours are expected to have an important bearing on the great struggle. By Monday night the results of the attempts of the combine officials to resume operations at Wellsville and McKeesport should be known, and upon the success or failure of this outcome of the struggle will greatly depend.
So far the contending forces appear to have been watching each other, but the statement from J. P. Morgan has changed the complexion of the situation. Everybody is talking about this now, and at Amalgamated headquarters all is bustle and activity. It is now realized that the combine will not include in any further temporizing, and a long struggle may be looked for.
At Wellsville the company is straining every point to get the plant into operation and the latest despatches from there say that they claim they will have a full force at all furnaces by Monday morning. It is said that they have the men imported from Pittsburgh and will bring them to the works by that time. The strikers at Wellsville are watching all incoming trains. The strikers are said to be restive, and what may happen when they see the new men come in to take their places is difficult to predict. The company is taking every precaution to obviate trouble. A high fence surrounds the mill property and carloads of lumber have been taken into the mill, presumably for the purpose of housing the new men within the mill.
A secret meeting of the strikers has been called for this afternoon.
NEW ORLEANS, La., July 20.—Two men have come here from Pittsburgh to get negro labor to take the places of the strikers in the steel mills of the United States Steel corporation. They acquired 20 men here, and have received reports from agents in Anniston and Bessemer, Ala., that 40 men have been secured there.
PEORIA, Ill., July 20.—The machinists who have been on strike at three agricultural implement factories have declared the strike off.

AT ST. HELENA.

Capt. Fishley Tells About the Boer Prisoners on the Island.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The British steamer Reading, now lying at Jersey city, has just arrived from St. Helena and Ascension. Captain Fishley of the vessel, speaking of the Boer prisoners on the island, says:
"There are about 4,000 there. Of these 11 per cent are Transvaalers and Orange Free Staters. The remaining 89 per cent is made up of other nationalities in this order: Scandinavians, Germans, Italians, a few Russians, Irishmen and even Englishmen, a handful of Scotchmen, a few Americans, a few Greeks, and scatterings from other nationalities. The number of Scandinavians is surprising. I found that many of the Scandinavians held master and mate certificates. There were many desertions from Scandinavian ships in South African ports.
"At the St. Helena club, Jamestown, where the Boer officers write, play billiards, drink and smoke and lounge, a handful of Scotchmen, a few Americans, a few Greeks, and scatterings from other nationalities. The number of Scandinavians is surprising. I found that many of the Scandinavians held master and mate certificates. There were many desertions from Scandinavian ships in South African ports.
"At the St. Helena club, Jamestown, where the Boer officers write, play billiards, drink and smoke and lounge, I talked with Colonel Schiele, the German artillery expert. It is difficult to judge of his age. His hair and moustache are snow white and his countenance ruddy and healthy. Colonel Schiele is disgusted with his long imprisonment and has offered his services to the British. He told me that in his opinion the Boers should have surrendered after the capture of Pretoria.
"General Cronje is also weary of his detention, but says little. I was told that the proportion of native Boers are representative of their entire army."

UNITED STATES FOREIGN TRADE.

(Dun's Review.)
Foreign trade during the year ending June 30, 1901, was by far the most satisfactory in the history of the United States. While the aggregate of business transacted with other countries reached the unprecedented amount of $2,319,413,977; it was by no means the best feature. It is in the excess of sales over purchases that the year's record is most noteworthy. Imports of $1,942,332 in gold and making the customary allowance for freights, interest and tourist expenses, it is probable that more than $250,000,000 of American securities were purchased from foreign holders.

THE GRAIN SITUATION.

Says Dun's Review:—"In some agricultural districts where there is fear that little corn will be harvested, preceding bumper crops at good prices have put farmers in such prosperous condition that their purchases will not fall off materially, while the greatest crop of wheat on record has not brought a return to the low prices of previous heavy yields. Anxiety regarding unfavorable crop possibilities in the future rather than actual present misfortune, depressed securities and caused cancellation of some orders for merchandise by western dealers during the last week."

CROSSED OCEAN IN SLOOP.

LISBON, July 20.—The 35 foot sloop Great Republic, in which Captain Howard Blackburn sailed from Gloucester last month, has arrived here, the passage having occupied 35 days.

THE COAL STRIKE.

The Outlook is More Favorable for Resumption of Work.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 20.—More mines were in operation and more coal was hoisted in the Wyoming Valley yesterday than on any day since the stationary firemen's strike began. Despite any action that may be taken by the officers of the United Mine Workers association it cannot be denied that the united workers as a body are anxious to get back to work. In an official statement issued yesterday afternoon, it is declared that in the upper anthracite region the situation remains the same, with strong indications of increased favor for the firemen and that there is a greater number of mines idle than yesterday.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 20.—Operations were resumed today at the Avondale mine of the Lackawanna Coal Company, the striking firemen who were members of the United Mine Workers having returned to work. The strike situation in this district has improved materially today; reports received at headquarters indicate a desire that the miners want to return to work.

HAZLETON, Pa., July 20.—The executive officers of the United Mine Workers organization who come here to participate in a conference with the officials of the stationary firemen's association, have returned to their homes and a truce has been declared pending a joint convention of miners and firemen in Wilkesbarre tomorrow. There is a feeling among the officers of the Anthracite Miners' organization in the three districts that the strike of the firemen should not be allowed to interfere with the work in the mines. The miners want the firemen to return to work and defer the enforcement of their grievances until next spring, when the miners' one year agreement with their employers terminates. This sentiment may end the firemen's strike for the present and send everybody back to work. The mine owners feel that they have the best of the situation at present.

MAHANNOY, Pa., July 20.—As a result of missionary work among the stationary firemen in this region by representatives of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen, the men are fast retiring from the United Mine Workers of America to become affiliated with the former organization. This is done that the men may come out for the eight hour day without violating the agreement entered into by President Mitchell and the coal corporations in April last. Today the firemen, employed by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company at Lost Creek withdrew from the United Mine Workers and became identified with the International Brotherhood.

CLERGY DRIVEN OUT.

SARAGOSSA, Spain, July 19.—As a result of the fatal encounters here during the past two days, between Catholics and Free Thinkers, the majority of the clergy have fled from the city, some to neighboring villages, while others have left the province. The convents and most of the churches of Saragozza are closed and barricaded.

AN INTERNATIONAL UNION.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 20.—An international convention of delegates from the various metal trades unions of the United States and Canada will convene here Sunday to organize an association to be known as National Metal Trades Council. The movement to unite in a national council, was first made in the convention of the American Federation of Labor, held Dec. 6, 1900, at Louisville, Ky., and had for its purpose the affiliation of all the metal trades unions. It is intended to affect the complete organization of the convention which will be in session for a week.

TOURIST BUREAU.

The information bureau of the Tourist Association is being patronized more largely than ever. The past two days have been record ones in regard to the number of visitors who have sought information and if the present rate of increase continues Mrs. Olive will be kept busy. Most of the enquirers are Americans, although some hail from different parts of the province and even a few from the city. All kinds of information are sought, from the rent of a small flat in Lower Cove, to the best shooting grounds in New Brunswick. The promoters of the bureau are wondering how the city bureau got along before it was started, as it now seems indispensable.

James Fawcett, the Winter street gardener, is a happy man. He has a crop of roses which he considers equal to any in the city. Mr. Fawcett is sending quite a number of these flowers to the states.

ECONOMY? A story comes down river today which illustrates the old proverb that the cleverest is not the one who earns much money, but he who saves it. A well-to-do citizen of Hampton had a carriage coming down river by the Star line and wished to have it taken from Indian town to Hampton. He enquired what the freight would be on the carriage and was told that it was a dollar and a half. Then he asked the cost of bringing his horse from Hampton to the city, and found it was one dollar. He decided to bring the horse in and haul the carriage to Hampton, thus wasting the greater part of a day in order to save the difference between the freight on the horse with his own fare added and the freight on the carriage.

A few tickets may be got at the hotels.

The Lake woman told the police that Roberts was at her house at 7 o'clock last night, and when he left yesterday morning the money could not be found. Roberts was this morning remanded until Monday.

Michael Guthro was reported for keeping a disorderly house, but as Michael only plays second fiddle to his wife, Catherine, she appeared in court this morning to answer to the charge. George E. DeLong stated that he lives in the next house to Guthro's and has seen enough to warrant him in calling the house one of ill-fame. "Almost every night there is a racket in the place, people talking loudly and shouting. On the windows facing the alleyway between the two houses there were no blinds, and through these windows he has seen disgraceful sights. Women of loose character frequent the place.

Alois Warner also gave evidence, chiefly in regard to the noise, which is a nuisance to the neighbors.

Mrs. Guthro was greatly shocked to hear such statements made concerning her house, and repeatedly called upon earth and heaven to prove her innocence. Nor was she any less surprised to find on the conclusion of the examination that she would have to remain in jail. She pleaded and entreated, and finally as a last resort dropped on her knees before the magistrate and begged for mercy. She was some of the police officers as witnesses, and was remanded to jail until Monday.

LIEUT.-COL. DENT

Coming to New Brunswick Next Month to Buy Horses.

The following letter speaks for itself:—CALGARY, N. W. T., 13 July, 1901, Hon. L. P. Farris, Commissioner for Agriculture, Fredericton:

Sir,—I purpose going to New Brunswick the latter part of August, dates to be hereafter fixed, to buy horses for the government as remounts for the army. I should be greatly obliged if you would inform me of the most likely places in New Brunswick to find horses and the names of men who would collect them for inspection. My time will be limited, and I can only visit two or three principal towns. The classes of horses I am buying are:—

Artillery horses, 15.1 to 15.2-1 hds., stout, blocky, active horses, quiet in harness.

Cavalry horses—15.1 to 15.2 hds., quiet to ride.

Infantry Cobs, 14.2-1-2 hds., quiet to ride.

Agcs 4 to 9 years old. No grey or collar marked horses will be accepted.

I will esteem it a favor if you will make my visit as widely known as you can, so that horses can be collected quickly when my dates are fixed. I am, sir,

Your obedient servant, H. S. DENT, Lieut.-Col. Remount Officer, Canada.

If parties having for sale horses answering the above description will notify the Department of Agriculture, Fredericton, at once, they will be put in communication with agents at the different points, which will likely be Woodstock, Fredericton, St. John, Moncton and Chatham.

L. P. FARRIS, Commissioner for Agriculture.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT. The crowd which gathered at the foot of Garden street last night augurs well for the future success of the band concerts to be given at that place. In many respects the situation of the new band stand is more suitable than Hazell avenue. There is plenty of space for the promenaders, and those who wish to sit in a comparatively quiet corner have many opportunities for so doing. Nor need the city officials fear the destruction of half a dozen blades of grass, although its absence is felt by those who were in the habit of sitting down instead of keeping on the move. The only drawback to the place is the constant passing and repassing of teams, and when this is necessary drivers should exercise the greatest care in forcing their way through the crowd.

The music last evening was much enjoyed.

TRADE NOTES. American boot and shoe factories are running full time with orders booked for months ahead. The leather market is very firm.

Woolen mills in the States are more active than at any time before this year.

The cotton trade is quiet, with prices of raw cotton 1-1/2c. below last year's quotation.

Dun's Review reports that failures for the week number 133 in the United States against 231 last year and 32 in Canada, against 27 last year.

AT THE INSTITUTE. On Monday evening, what promises to be one of the best vaudeville entertainments seen in St. John for some time, will be given in the Mechanics' Institute by members of the Grove Dramatic Company, assisted by several members of the St. John Harmony Club and other local talent.

It will be remembered that when the Grove Company played an engagement at the Institute this week the specialties formed the most enjoyable part of the show, and with the assistance of the local talent, including many local favorites, a bumper house should be in attendance on Monday evening.

HE WAS WITH "G" CO. John A. Macdonald of Charlottetown, barrister-at-law, who has since the resignation of Magistrate Hassard been acting as judge of the city court of the city of Charlottetown, has been appointed to that position. Mr. Macdonald served with distinction in Africa as lieutenant in G company, R. C. R., and was one of the most popular officers. He is at present in command of the squadron of mounted infantry recently organized in Charlottetown.

DR. TROTTER'S MISSION. (Wolfville Acadian.) Dr. Trotter, after a week in Wolfville, left yesterday for New Brunswick where he will be engaged for about a fortnight in college business. He will next visit the N. B. Eastern Baptist Association at Havelock, after that, taking in the central counties and stopping for a few days in St. John.

DEATH OF ALEX. BALLOCH. The death of Alex. Balloch at Washington, D. C., at the age of 74 years, is announced. Mr. Balloch will be remembered as at one time being a prominent dentist of Woodstock. Deceased married for his first wife Miss Simpson, sister of Mrs. Archdeacon Nesles. He was uncle of R. W. Balloch, Centreville.
