COULD NOT PERSUADE HER MOTHER TO LEAVE Mrs. Murphy Was Determined to Stay in Collins House Husband and Daughter Tell of Their Efforts to Get the Woman Home and of Labor Finding Her Wounded.

In the police court this morning the preliminary hearing was commenced into the charge preferred against Charles Arthur Collins, arrested last evening on suspicion of having, with an instrument, wounded Mrs. John Murphy in his mother's house on White street. It happened through rum and would probably result in Collins being tried by a higher court.

THE DEFENDANT, the witness said that he did not know how his wife was injured, but Sergeant Campbell said that by the look of the shears with blood and hair on them, they were the weapon used. His wife was unable to speak, and was very weak from loss of blood. He did not see his wife fall down.

MISS NORA MURPHY, a daughter of the last witness, testified that she called at the Collins' home about 7:45 o'clock Saturday evening and tried to get her mother out, but she would not leave. About nine o'clock she found them all right. About half an hour later witness called at the house again and found her mother lying on the kitchen floor bleeding. She saw Collins leave the kitchen and go to the front room, and when she called out "What has happened," Collins returned to the kitchen. Witness got her hands all over blood. Witness called to Collins asking what had happened, and he came out of the front room and said that he didn't know. Witness thought that her mother was bleeding to death so took off her undershirt and wrapped it round her mother's head, and then sent for the doctor.

NEW YORK, May 11.—According to a despatch from Tacoma, Wn., Mrs. Edna Reed, divorced wife of R. T. Reed, a wealthy real estate man of Denver, created interest yesterday when she appeared in the street with her nine year old daughter handcuffed to her. Twice since the divorce was obtained Mrs. Reed says attempts have been made to kidnap the child. She believes that the mother handcuffs will guarantee the child's safety. Mrs. Reed is on her way to the home of her parents in Quebec.

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 11.—The Sunbury circuit court opened at Burton at 11 o'clock this morning. His Honor Justice McLeod presiding. There are two criminal cases on the docket. The King vs. Endini, and The King vs. Adams. The former case being one of murder and the latter horse stealing. There was a large attendance at the opening proceedings. The grand jury were all present and selected as their foreman Cecil McLean.

MRS. A. E. WILSON, AUTHOR, IS DEAD AND IN DEATH THEY WERE NOT DIVIDED. Joseph Anderson, of Amherst, and His Wife Died Within a Few Hours of Each Other—W. W. Bask Hurt

AMHERST, N. S., May 11.—Seldom is one called upon to report the death of a husband and wife within a few hours of each other. On Saturday Joseph Anderson, one of Cumberland's oldest and best known citizens, was in Amherst for medicine for his wife who was critically ill. On Sunday he was taken ill with pneumonia and rapidly became unconscious. Sunday evening Mrs. Anderson passed away, and arrangements were made for her burial today, but last evening Mr. Anderson died without regaining consciousness and she died.

RAILWAY CONDUCTORS HOLDING BIG MEETING Great Gathering in Boston Today—May Meet Next Year in Indianapolis.

BOSTON, May 11.—With an attendance of thousands of delegates, taxing the capacity of the Boston hotels, the Order of Railway Conductors of America opened its 2nd annual convention at "Grand Division," as it is called, in this city today. The railway men will be in session ten days and much important business will come before the Grand Division for consideration. While the railway conductors are holding their sessions there will also be held the 13th annual convention of the ladies' auxiliary of the conductors' organization.

ROME, May 11.—The large contributions from international charity that follow great disasters such as the Messina earthquake and the difficulty of dispersing these funds properly has brought forward the idea of creating a permanent international organization not only to gather funds, but to distribute them through trustworthy experts free from official red tape. Several schemes have been submitted to King Victor Emmanuel and the Duke of Aosta. One was worked out by Louis Kleopch, proprietor of the Christian Herald, of New York. Another American proposal is that this international organization be connected with the Hague tribunal. The Duke of Aosta was the head of the national commission that distributed the Messina relief.

AMHERST, N. S., May 11.—The death occurred this morning at his home, Amherst Point, of George W. Forrest, ex-M. P. P., after several months illness, at the age of 72. Mr. Forrest has been a prominent figure in the county. He served in the municipal council two terms, for one term of which he was elected by acclamation. In 1888 he was a nominee of the Conservative Party for the House of Assembly, but was defeated by 125 votes. In 1890 he and the late William Oxley defeated T. R. Black and R. L. Black. He was again nominated in 1893 but was defeated. He was superintendent of the Maritime Experimental Farm at Napan for three years, and was land arbitrator on the I. C. R. railway during its construction in the early seventies. For several years he was a captain in the Nova Scotia militia. Deceased was a son of Isaac Forrest and Lucy Cooke. He married Lucy, daughter of Jonathan Pipes, of Amherst Point, and sister of Hon. W. L. Pipes, Attorney General of Nova Scotia. There are two daughters, Carrie, at home, and Ella, a trained nurse in New York, and two sons, Charles W. and Edwin. He was a member of the Baptist church and had a large circle of friends by whom he was much esteemed for his many excellent qualities. Mr. Forrest was a man of exceptionally good natural abilities. He was a ready and forcible speaker, especially in debating political questions. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon, at 2 p. m.

FLORENCE KINRADE ON HER WEDDING TRIP? MONTREAL, May 11.—Florence Kinrade, her mother and Mr. Wright left Montreal at 8 o'clock this morning on the train that goes to Quebec or Portland. It is thought that the latter place is their destination as from what they let drop it is the intention of Florence Kinrade to sail for England to join Mrs. (Col.) Warburton, formerly Miss Elliott, with a view to going on the same ship to Europe. The name under which she is to appear is not known. Last night the party refused to say anything about the trip, and her mother later came down to the parlor of the hotel and Florence played the piano. This morning they were up early and had breakfast in the general dining room. Wright paid the bill for the three and they walked to the station, straight to the train. They did not buy tickets and the ticket seller does not know where they were bound. The train goes to Portland, but anyone going to Quebec can take the same train and change at Richmond. The baggage, it is said, was sent straight to the ship's side. Yesterday afternoon Wright and Florence went to see Applegate's, where he bought a hat. The manager, Mr. Tatro, is a former Hamiltonian, and recognized Florence and chatted with them. When he called her by her name she flushed and then went pale but did not deny that she was the Florence Kinrade. In case they went to Quebec they would stay for a week before they could get a ship to England, so it is almost positive that they went to Portland. It is not known whether Wright and Mrs. Kinrade go also. There is another theory which several of those who saw them have developed, that Wright and Florence are married, and that this is the wedding tour. Several of the people at the hotel thought that they were a newly wedded couple till they heard who they were. When they asked for a summer resort time table yesterday they did not get one as the supply was exhausted but they displayed no great anxiety and took a simple time table in place of it.

ARMY WANTS THE CASH, SO DOES THE CABINET Dispute About the Money Fozard in Abdul's Palace—War Office Holds It Now.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 11.—A difference of opinion has arisen between Scheffer Pasha, commander of the Constitutional army, that entered Constantinople April 24, and the present cabinet. Scheffer Pasha is of the opinion that the cash found in the imperial palace at Yildiz after the expulsion of Abdul Hamid should be used to pay the expenses of his army, while the ministers want the money turned into the national treasury. The funds in question now amount to almost $2,000,000 in cash and immediately marketable securities. Scheffer Pasha has one advantage in the controversy inasmuch as the money is in the possession of the military and has been deposited at the war office.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MEETING AT SYDNEY Will Visit the Steel Works Today and be Entertained at a Banquet This Evening.

SYDNEY, N. S., May 11.—The annual session of the State Council of the Knights of Columbus is in progress in this city today. There are over one hundred delegates from the principal towns in the province, including a very large representation from Halifax and St. John. The delegates attended a memorial service at Sacred Heart Church this morning when a eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. H. D. MacPherson, rector of St. Francis Xavier College, Antigonish. The delegates will visit the plant of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company this afternoon and afterwards will be entertained to a banquet at the Sydney Hotel. They leave for home tomorrow.

POLICE BELIEVE THERE IS NOTHING IN BOYLE'S STORY YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, May 11.—Unless stronger proof than the word of James Boyle is offered to show that there is a mystery connected with the death of Daniel Reebel, Jr., which occurred here fourteen years ago, there will be no official investigation of the case. Daniel Reebel, father of the dead man, and the police and county officials, are unanimous in expressing the opinion that Boyle's story is untrue, and the authorities believe that there is no official investigation of the case. Boyle's story was fruitless they could accomplish nothing by an inquiry.

TALK CLEAN STREETS IN POLICE COURT Delegation Appears to Support D. R. Jack And to Comment on Condition of St. John's Thoroughfare—Fine Against Kerrison Allowed to Stand.

ALBERT KERRISON was before the police magistrate this morning charged by Policeman McCollum with throwing banana peels on the street. D. Russell Jack was the witness in the case. Mr. Kerrison pleaded guilty but said that he did not know it was contrary to the law to throw peels on the street as he thought the law only meant the sidewalk. The magistrate said the by-law had been referred to time and again and had been mentioned in the press on several occasions. He again referred to it in consequence of the complaints made to him about the disgraceful state in which Charlotte, King and Union streets are found every Sunday. Halifax and other cities are kept much cleaner than St. John. He fined Kerrison $5 or four days jail, but allowed the fine to stand against him, but wanted the fine collected.

PORTUGAL'S CRISIS PROVES COMPLEX Delegated by the King, Senator Wenceslao de Lima Fails to Form a Ministry.

LISBON, May 11.—King Manuel now has definitely entrusted Senator Wenceslao de Lima with the task of forming a new Ministry. That politician has approached the chiefs of the various parliamentary groups with a view to obtaining their support, but up to the present his efforts have not been entirely successful. The negotiations are continuing.

THE SITUATION is very complex in view of the composition of the present Chamber of Deputies and the seeming impossibility of an understanding being arrived at between the various groups of which it is composed. It is possible that a dissolution will be decided upon though the King would only resort to this step as an extreme measure.

CANTEENS ABOLISHED.

The action of the Minister of Militia in abolishing the liquor canteens in the instruction camps is quite in accord with the prevailing sentiment in the country today. It is, moreover, a distinct tribute to the strength of temperance sentiment as according to tradition, a soldier and his best are supposed to be inseparable. The matter was discussed at a conference of the Dominion Alliance and the Moral and Social Reform Council with Sir Frederick Borden and the Militia Council recently. Every aspect of the question was carefully considered and after due deliberation it was decided to do away with the sale of intoxicants within the camps. The orders issued as a result of this decision leave no doubt but that the department will stringently enforce the new regulation. There is no discrimination in favor of the officers for it is stated clearly that the order shall apply to officers and other messes as well as to the soldiers' canteens. The department seems determined to carry out the new policy and the commanding officers will be held personally liable for any violations.

With this change an improvement in the efficiency of the forces is expected. Many of the old beliefs regarding military matters have been relegated to the scrap heap in the last few years and the idea that it is necessary for a soldier, even an amateur one, to be perpetually within reach of a mug of beer is one of the last to go. It has been contended in the past that it was better to have the liquor sold in the camps where the officers could keep their eyes on the men. It is now recognized that if the men do not have the opportunity to get drunk so handsy to them they are not so likely to take advantage of it. The fact is also recognized that every year more and more of the men do not want liquor and many who have not been in the habit of drinking have learned the habit at the camps. It is quite natural that the militia department should be unwilling to take the responsibility for forcing the canteens on such men and should decide to abolish them. Their decision will receive almost universal approval.

THE TILLEY MONUMENT.

St. John is not rich in monuments, although in its history and in the history of the province are many forgotten names which are deserving of whatever additional immortality may be conferred upon them by statues of stone and bronze. Nor has our experience been such as to encourage those in whose minds exists a desire to perpetuate the memories of our buried leaders. The warships waiting for the Champlain monument, the uncertainty which has attended the completion of this memorial, in spite of the enthusiasm under which it was first projected, act as a damper on the spirits of those who plan other monuments. The men who now are arranging for the monument to Sir Leonard Tilley must be possessed of unusual energy when they so actively undertake what in St. John appears to be a difficult task, yet there are a few names that are more deserving of honor, few men whose careers have brought greater distinction to their home province, than are to be recognized in the personality and life of Sir Leonard Tilley. It may be argued that St. John needs many things more than it does costly monuments. This is true enough. It is a pity to see thousands of dollars spent on such a project when little children are suffering from exposure and hunger. But the erection of this or any other monument will not lessen the reality of those suffer; no child will lose a crust because a monument is being erected, but on the contrary the lessons taught by his best efforts for his people will help in the development of that spirit of humanity through which alone can lasting good be accomplished.

Sir Robert Bond's party has apparently been defeated in the Newfoundland elections. The lead gained by Sir Edward Morris as shown by the early returns is too great to be overcome. After all, Newfoundland is notoriously to have the confusion ended than it is worried about the claims of either party. It has been in a state of turmoil for seven or eight months.

PARIS, May 8.—The labor and other revolutionary movements in France announced by noisy proclamations for fixed dates usually result in a fire military and police display and a peaceful holiday. There have been several such May days in recent years, following a week or more of public rejoicing. That of the present year was the quietest of all. There exists, however, in all the important divisions of labor, including the public services, a situation so serious that it would be difficult to exaggerate its gravity.

OTTAWA, May 10.—Two Ottawa boys, Napoleon and Daniel Valiquette, were drowned in the Ottawa river this afternoon, at the foot of King street, within a few hundred yards of the parliament buildings. They were standing on edge of the high embankment overlooking the river, when a large section of earth loosened by recent rains, gave way and slid into the river, carrying both lads, along with another boy named Oscar Major, into the swift flowing river beneath. The latter managed to grab hold of a tree at the bottom of the embankment, and saved himself. The other two were swept away by the current.

Accordingly, they announce that the American order will refuse to have any connection with this section until it becomes non-political and obedient to Catholic authority. "Happily," they added, "we succeeded in uniting 5,000 other Hibernians into one harmonious non-political body obedient to the Catholic church and suggest that a convention of this body be held not later than August.

TAFT REVIEWS CONDITIONS ON ISLAND OF PORTO RICO

Situation of Unusual Gravity—Islanders Have Forgotten Generosity of the U.S.—Latter Has Gone Too Fast in Granting Self Government.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—President Taft today sent to Congress a special message recommending legislation at the present extra session, amending the Foraker act which governs Porto Rico is governed. The President directs the attention of Congress to affairs on the island laying particular stress on what he terms "a situation of unusual gravity" developed through the failure of the legislative assembly of Porto Rico to pass the usual appropriation bills, leaving the island without support after June 30 next.

Porto Ricans have forgotten the generosity of the United States, the President says, in the desire of certain of the island's political leaders for power, and he adds that the present situation indicates that the United States has gone too fast in the extension of political power to the Porto Ricans. He concludes that the absolute power of appropriation should be taken away from "those who have shown themselves too irresponsible to enjoy it."

The President suggests to Congress the wisdom of submitting to the appropriation committee the question of qualifying some of the provisions of the fundamental act as to the respective jurisdictions of the executive council and the legislative assembly. But no action of this kind, the President says, should be begun until the Foraker act is amended so that when the legislative assembly shall adjourn without making the appropriation necessary to carry on the government, some equal to the appropriations made in the previous year for the respective purposes shall be available for the current revenues, and shall be drawn from the warrant of the auditor on the treasurer and countersigned by the governor. Such a provision applies to the legislatures of the Philippines and Hawaii and "it has prevented in those two countries any misuse of the power of appropriation."

The President reviews the establishment of the present government for Porto Rico by the Foraker act. He says the statute directing how the expenses of the government are to be provided leaves some doubt as to whether this function is not committed solely to the executive council but in practice the legislative assembly has appropriated for all the expenses other than for salaries fixed by Congress and the President adds "it is too late to reverse that construction."

The President says that ever since the institution of the present assembly the House of Delegates has uniformly held up the appropriation bills until the last minute of the regular session and has sought to use the power to do so as a means of obstructing legislation which the executive council in returning to pass bills led the House of Delegates to refuse to pass the necessary appropriation bills.

Mr. Taft discusses the acts of the legislature and of the council in detail and says the facts recited demonstrate the willingness of the representatives of the people in the House of Delegates to obstruct the government in order to secure the passage of certain legislation. The question whether the proposed legislation should be enacted into law was left by the fundamental act to the joint action of the executive council and the House of Delegates as the legislative assembly. The House of Delegates, the message presents an exhaustive economic review of conditions on the island, its trade and its wealth, by "paralyzing the arm of the existing government."

This growing spirit shows that too great power has been vested in the delegates. The message presents an exhaustive economic review of conditions on the island, its trade and its wealth, by "paralyzing the arm of the existing government."

It points out that "there never was a time in the history of the island when the average prosperity of the Porto Ricans has been higher, his opportunity greater, his liberty in thought and action more secure."

For the first time in its history, Porto Rico, he says, is living under laws enacted by its own legislature. The President points out that if the Porto Ricans desire a change in the form of the Foraker act this is a matter of congressional consideration, dependent on the effect of such a change on the real political progress on the island. Such a change, he says, should be sought, in an orderly way and not brought to the attention of Congress by "paralyzing the arm of the existing government."

The President says that the fact of the Porto Ricans forgetting the generosity of this government "should not be an occasion for surprise nor a little opportunity for education could not be expected safely for themselves to exercise the full power of self-government and the present development is only an indication that we have gone somewhat too fast in the extension of political power to them for their own good."

"The change recommended may not immediately convince those controlling the House of Delegates of the mistake they have made in the extremity to which they have been willing to resort for political purposes but in the long run it will secure more careful and responsible exercise of the power they have."

"There is not the slightest evidence that there has been on the part of the Governor or of any member of the executive council a disposition to withhold approval of such legislation as was for the best interests of the island or a lack of sympathy with the best aspirations of the Porto Rican people."

SPITTING IS TABOOED NOW

OTTAWA, May 10.—An order which is intended to bring about more sanitary conditions on passenger trains and in railway stations, has been issued by the railway commission in response to an application of the Montreal Board of Trade. The order prohibits spitting in stations or in trains, except in cuspidors, and makes it compulsory for all passenger cars and stations to be thoroughly ventilated and fumigated.

Reports from the employees charged with the care of stations and cars are to be submitted monthly to each railway company. The passenger cars must be kept clean and thoroughly ventilated and in cold weather are to be properly heated. On every passenger train there must be at least one employee whose duty it shall be to keep the cars clean and ventilated.

Spitting in stations or on passenger cars is prohibited. Cuspidors must be provided and there will be a serious penalty for an infraction of this rule. Notices are to be posted up at all station platforms and passenger cars, warning the travelling public against spitting. The cuspidors must be cleaned at least every 48 hours. Sleeping cars are to be thoroughly fumigated at least every 30 days.

For every breach of these rules a railway company is to be fined $50 and the employee from $2 to $15.

Murphy of Missouri has introduced a resolution in congress asking for an investigation of the conduct of Federal Judges McPherson and Phillips of the Missouri district in connection with the litigation over freight and passenger rate laws, in which the decisions of Judges McPherson and Phillips have been for the railroads. Murphy charges the judges with having friendly relations with the railroad attorneys. The resolution is preliminary to proposed impeachment proceedings.

NOVEL PHASE OF ANTI-TRUST LITIGATION

Sues Member of Combine for Excessive Price Charged by Another Member.

NEW YORK, May 10.—A novel phase of the anti-trust litigation against the Fibre and Manila Paper pool was developed today, when a large department store, acting in behalf of a number of such establishments, began suit in the United States District Court to recover the excessive amounts charged for wrapping paper because of the existence of the pool. The suit is brought against the Continental Paper Bag Company, which is alleged to have been a member of the so-called pool. The complaint does not charge that the wrapping paper was bought from the Continental Company but the suit against this company is based on that drastic feature of the Sherman anti-trust act which makes every member of a combination responsible for the excessive prices caused by the combine.

Eczema Salt Rheum.

Eczema or Salt Rheum, as it is often called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. It manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed. The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat, are almost unbearable. The pre-eminent success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in permanently curing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleaning and purifying properties. No other remedy has done, or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture, as our thousands of signed testimonials can testify to. Mrs. John O'Connor, Burlington, N.S., writes—"For years I suffered with Salt Rheum. I tried a dozen different medicines, but most of them only made it worse. I got a bottle and before I had taken half a dozen I could see a change in my condition. I cannot say too much for your wonderful medicine. It was sold by all druggists and dealers."
