Stockholm, via Paris, Wednesday—Telegrams which passed between Tsar Nicholas of Russia and Kaiser Wilhelm in 1905 reveal that after a meeting of the emperors of Bjoerke the Kaiser in agreement with Nicholas undertook the realization of his scheme to declare the Baltic Sea closed. But encountering resistance from Denmark and because of the threatening attitude of England the Kaiser decided in 1905 in the event of war with England, to do to Denmark what he did later to Belgium.

He resolved to occupy neutral Denmark with his armies, to gain advantages which Denmark had refused by declining to join the secret Russo-German combination.

The Kaiser telegraphed about the plot to Tsar Nicholas, who consented to the violation of Denmark. On July 29, 1905, the Kaiser sent this telegram to the Tsar: "Reuter telegrams this morning announce cruise of British Channel fleet to Baltic and looking in at our ports without paying calls of ceremony. Either England is anxious on account of our meeting or they want to frighten me. This will lend more weight to my conversation at Copenhagen."

Meeting of Monarchs.

(On the night of July 23, 1905, the Kaiser and the Tsar met at ten o'clock at night off the island of Bjorko, on the Swedish coast. The Kaiser approached the rendezvous on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, the Tsar on board the Russian imperial yacht Polar Star. Deep political significance was attached to the meeting throughout Europe, but both Russia and Germany officially denied that a Russo-German alliance was in the making.)

The Tsar's reply to the Kaiser sent almost immediately, stated:

"Have also heard about British Channel fleet's projected appearance in Baltic. Your trip to Copenhagen comes in very good time. Shall impatiently await short notice from you about your trip. Best love, Victoria. Wish you success."

This telegram was signed "Nicky."

The Copenhagen Trip.

The Kaiser reported his trip to Copenhagen in a telegram sent at one o'clock in the morning of August 3, 1905. This telegram is as follows:

"Trip passed off well under extreme kindness shown me by whole family, especially by your dear old grandfather. After my arrival I soon found out through reading press reports, Danish and foreign, that very strong current of mistrust and misapprehension was engendered against my call, especially from England. King had been so intimidated and public opinion so worked upon that I was unable to tackle question which we agreed I was to mention to him.

Called Kaiser Names.

"British minister, dining with one of my gentlemen, used very violent language against me, accusing me of vilest plans and intrigues, declaring that every Englishman was working for war and destruction of England.

"You may imagine what stuff a man like this may have been putting into the minds of the Danish family, the court and the people. I did all in my power to dispel cloud of distrust by behaving, quite unconsciously and making no allusion to serious politics at all.

ARREST FOR WILLIAMS MURDER MAY BE MADE WITHIN FEW DAYS; POLICE STRIKE A NEW TRAIL

Three Witnesses Bound Over to Appear at Next Session of Circuit Court—Leads to Belief that Authorities Have Clue That May Solve Mystery of Harry Williams' Death.

One Month Today Since Williams Was Killed—All Phases of Case Have Been Carefully Worked by Police and an Indictment May Be Presented to Next Circuit Jury—Most Important Development Now Believed to Be at Hand.

The case of the death of Harry L. Williams took a new turn last evening, when three witnesses, whose testimony is material, were bound over by the coroner to appear at the September sitting of the circuit court in this city.

That the police have a clue, which will lead to the detection of the party or parties considered responsible for the death of the North End merchant is reported on what is judged to be reliable authority.

There was no evidence given before Coroner F. L. Kenney's court of inquiry into the death of the late Mr. Williams at the court house last evening. Quite a number of spectators assembled, but the announcement was made that no evidence would be taken. Shortly after eight o'clock the coroner opened his court. He then proceeded to bind over Silas B. Gregg, Stanley Hawkhurst, and Miss Lingley to give evidence, if called upon, at the next sitting of the circuit court. No reason was given for this course, but the conclusion is that their evidence is considered material in connection with the clue that the police are working on.

Police headquarters remain reticent in regard to the new turn of events in the case, but there is no reason to doubt the fact that the police officials have new evidence and an early arrest is not improbable.

Following the binding over of the three witnesses, Coroner Kenney adjourned his court for one week. Whether further testimony will be presented remains to be seen, indications now pointing to the belief that other material testimony will be presented.

MUCH FIGHTING IN THE AIR BY THE BRITISH

London, Sept. 6.—The official report from British headquarters in France tonight reads:

"On Wednesday there was again great activity in the air. The enemy on several occasions interrupted the work of our artillery machines, and attacked our airplanes employed on long distance bombing raids. A few bombs were dropped behind our lines by hostile machines during the night. Little damage was done.

"During the day our machines dropped eight bombs on railway sidings near Ghent, five on large sheds at Mauthouze, fifty-four on billets around Douai, 38 on airfields east north-east of Cambrai, and sixty-one on various other targets.

Smash Enemy.

"During the night ten bombs were dropped by our airplanes on air domes near Courtrai, eight on an airfield east of Lille and twenty-eight on other targets.

"In the air fighting yesterday five enemy machines were brought down and five others were driven down out of control. Three of our machines are missing.

"A heavy rain fell during the night and again this afternoon.

"As the result of successful minor

Hon. Arthur Meighen, Secretary of State, Introduces Franchise Bill.

MANY WOMEN TO GET FRANCHISE

All Soldiers in Canadian Forces Overseas Will Be Entitled to Vote.

ALSO THE WOMEN RELATIVES HERE

All Nure's and Other Women Connected with Overseas Forces Included.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—The all important franchise bill was introduced in the Commons today by Hon. Arthur Meighen, secretary of state, the first bill to be introduced by the distinguished young minister since his appointment to a portfolio. This duty fell to him in absence of the Prime Minister who is compelled to rest for some days after his arduous labors of the past few months. It is considered a war time measure, and is officially known as the "war time election act." It takes care that enemies of the cause of the Allies will not be allowed to cast their votes against the interests of Canada or her defenders, so far as any legislation can accomplish this.

House Crowded.

There was a crowded house when Mr. Meighen rose to explain the provisions of the bill, and his every word was followed with the closest attention. In the most lucid language—this was referred to in a complimentary way by Sir Wilfrid Laurier—he set forth the aims of the government. "War service should be the basis of war franchise," he laid down as the basic principle, and those exempt from war service should not be in a position to exercise any measure of control over those who are bearing the burden of the war. Therefore conscientious objectors and those citizens of alien enemy origin who have only been naturalized during the last fifteen years will not have the privilege of voting in the war elections. Those also who, born in other countries, speak as their mother tongue an alien enemy language will also be disfranchised.

Women Will Vote.

Women for the first time in federal elections will be given the right to vote, but the extension of the franchise to women will only be partial. Only the relatives of the soldiers overseas will be allowed to vote, their wives or widows, their mothers, daughters and sisters. This, judging from the applause, proved to be one of the most popular conditions of the bill. An unlimited admission of women to the franchise, Mr. Meighen explained, would at the present time be unfair and unreasonable. It was merely made evident that the government intends to allow no undue waste of time over the measure.

Mr. Meighen wanted to go on with the second reading today, but this could only be done with the consent of the opposition. It was refused. The secretary of state announced that the second reading would be proceeded with tomorrow. This also met with objections on the part of the opposition, but it is unlikely that the wishes of Hon. William Pugsley and other professional obstructors will be acceded to.

Those Who Control.

Those who will be allowed to vote at the next federal election in Canada are:

All Canadian citizen males over 21.

ITALIANS IN DESPERATE STRUGGLE

Heavy Fighting Prevails for Possession of Monte San Gabriele.

ENEMY REPULSED ON THE CARSO

Austrians Gather Flower of Their Army to Protect City of Trieste.

SEVERAL HEAVY ATTACKS AT SELO

Several Fortified Positions Change Hands and Austrians Lose Prisoners.

London, Sept. 6.—Italian troops, fighting stubbornly for Monte San Gabriele, on the Isonzo front, have several times captured the summit only to be thrown back again, according to telegrams from Austrian headquarters, says the Central News Amsterdam correspondent. The Italians are continuing their attack upon the mountain.

Italian Statement.

The Italian statement reads: "The struggle continues northeast of Gorizia. Yesterday we captured 26 officers and more than 500 men. On the Carso repeated attacks by the enemy south of the Brestovizza Valley were broken up by our firm resistance and prompt counter-attacks. We made about 200 prisoners. Enemy batteries and troops in the Basso Valley, at Tolmino in the east of the Chiaprono Valley, in the Voicizza region and on the reverse of the Hermanda were very effectively bombarded by our aviators.

"On the Trentino front parties of our Arditi destroyed one of the enemy's posts near Bass-Chies and emplacements in the Zures region east of Lake Gardi.

Italy, Sept. 5.—In the Hermanda the Austrians have gathered the flower of their force, considering it the advance guard of Trieste. Thus their counter-attack around the village Selo was most desperate. The Italians offered a strenuous defence along the Brestovizza Valley. Attacks and counter-attacks followed in close succession, the troops being engaged in a stubborn battle throughout the day. Several fortified positions frequently changed hands, but the Italians finally remained masters of the situation and wrested from the enemy a few additional positions which they already have strongly fortified.

GERMANS MAY ATTACK REVAL

London, Sept. 6.—It is reported from Helsinki, Finland, that a German fleet has been observed at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland, says a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen.

It is supposed, adds the despatch, that the fleet is preparing for an attack on Reval and Kronstadt, the Russian naval bases.

Berlin, Sept. 6.—More than 7,500 prisoners have so far been taken by the Germans in the Riga offensive, army headquarters announced today. Guess to the number of 150 have been captured.

MANITOBA FREE PRESS, LEADING LIBERAL NEWSPAPER OF THE WEST, BOLTS OWN PARTY

Winnipeg, Sept. 6.—The Manitoba Free Press, the leading Liberal newspaper of the west, today says:

"In order to prevent any possible misunderstanding the Free Press asserts that it will not take the responsibility of assisting in the election of any Liberal candidate, however high his position in the party, however emphatic his protestations as to war policy, if he seeks the suffrage of the people solely as a party candidate without the endorsement of a union convention.

"The Free Press will take no chances of being trapped, unwillingly helping forward this huge game of political flim-flam, which was played with such open contempt for public sentiment at the recent Western Liberal convention and still being played secretly and with greater skill. For the duration of the war the Free Press is out of party politics. It knows only Canada and her peril, and it recognizes only one duty—that of serving the country with wholehearted devotion."

CANADIANS WIN AGAIN NEAR LENS

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Sept. 6.—(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—Another of the small surprise attacks which almost nightly reduce the area within Lens still remaining in the enemy's hands took place at three thirty this (Thursday) morning, and resulted in the capture of a row of houses occupied by four companies of the first regiment, first guard reserve division. Men from British Columbia, accustomed in civil life to finding their way about, did the work and did it well, sustaining few casualties while inflicting a considerable number on the enemy.

Without any preliminary bombardment the British Columbians scrambled

FRANCE NOT TO COMPROMISE

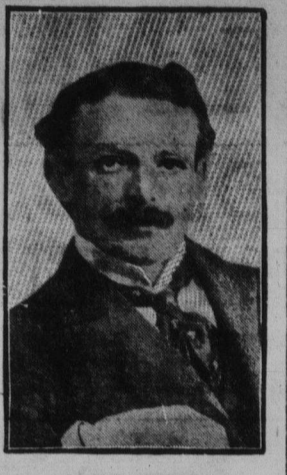

Paris, Sept. 6.—France will not compromise on the question of recovery of Alsace and Lorraine, Premier Ribot declared today in an address delivered in connection with the celebration of the battle of the Marne. He said France would not consent to diplomacy discussion as to whether the provinces should be restored.

"GERMANY HAS NOT YET FELT FINAL STRAIN OF WAR"

AFFECTION OF DOOMERS FOR MOTHER COUNTRY GROWING

Premier David Lloyd George Declares Present the Great Day of the Empire — "Germany Has Not Yet Felt Final Strain of War."

Winnipeg, Ont., Sept. 6.—"Germany has not yet felt the final strain of the war," said Premier Lloyd George, speaking at the royal banquet at Elstestoff here today. "When she did, he continued, she would feel the binding value of real freedom. "If Russia had enjoyed more freedom in peace time," declared the premier, "she would have been more united for war, for unity of action was not a suppression of freedom, but its highest expression. Speaking of the affection of the dominions for the mother country, the premier said this would continue to grow and become deeper, more intense, more compelling as the years rolled by.

LOYD GEORGE.

This was the great day of the empire, the premier declared. "What would have happened to the liberty of the nations" he went on, "if it had not been for the British Empire? When the war is over, humanity will know how much human liberty owes to the fact that the British Empire is no sham but a reality. "Great empires are necessary for protection and security and for strength, but small nations are necessary for concentration and intensive effort. The British Empire is made up of four nations, but they today are one in purpose, one in action, one in sacrifice and, please God, soon will be one in triumph."

"The considerations which I have referred to, will, I think, make it plain to the minds of all that if a contest at the polls must come, parliament must address itself to the task of bringing about such electoral conditions as will repair as fully as parliament can the injustices that would under ordinary franchise fall upon our soldiers overseas. To do this is the primary purpose of the bill which is now introduced. The task has not been an easy one. "It is proposed that by a measure of women's enfranchisement, added strength shall be given to the voice of the soldiers of Canada. Those of their nearest kin at home may be presumed to be most likely to re-echo the sentiments of their sons overseas and by this bill, the nearest female relatives of the men of our expeditionary forces, who have left the shores of Canada, are given the right to vote.

WAR TIME ACT ONLY

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—(Canadian Press)—Arthur Meighen, solicitor general, this afternoon introduced the war-time election act. "This bill, which I now present," he said, "effects an election in time of war or during mobilization, and goes out of existence entirely when such is over. The necessity of a war-time election act arises solely from the fact that there is a war-time election and the purpose of the bill now introduced is solely to meet the extraordinary conditions encountered, in the necessity of deciding at such a time by an election contest, a vital issue as now confronts the Canadian people. "We find ourselves compelled to submit what is really the destiny of our country to the arbitrament of the ballot at a time when the best part of our manhood is struggling in the throes of a death combat overseas. Upwards of 300,000 of the sons of Canada are absent from our shores and of the 300,000 it is a most certain certainty that a large percentage will not be physically able to exercise the franchise.

Election An Injustice

"We have passed a military vote bill which to the best of our power places the franchise within the reason of our fighting men, but no effort of this parliament can do the impossible and enable all, or nearly all of those fighting men to vote. It may indeed transpire that a relatively large proportion are in effect, though not by statute, disfranchised. An election, therefore, in war time and particularly at this stage of the war, is an injustice, and a great injustice to the overseas soldiers of Canada, and of all classes to whom a country should never be unjust, first is that country's defenders.

The Personal Equation

"Those at home who should be at home, and those at home who should be overseas are in the full enjoyment not only of their ballot, but of the exertion of all their faculties in whatever direction they desire to exert them in the contest, but a penalty falls on those who have been true enough and brave enough to fight our battles, in that they are deprived in part of the ballot and wholly of their electorate influence. Nor can it be forgotten that some 50,000 have already fallen in the struggle. Their voices are still, while the voices of those who remained behind can be heard, and will be heard. Some thousands more are prisoners of war and are suffering hardships unspicable for the sake of those at home."

Justice to Soldiers

"These men can have no voice."

"The considerations which I have referred to, will, I think, make it plain to the minds of all that if a contest at the polls must come, parliament must address itself to the task of bringing about such electoral conditions as will repair as fully as parliament can the injustices that would under ordinary franchise fall upon our soldiers overseas. To do this is the primary purpose of the bill which is now introduced. The task has not been an easy one. "It is proposed that by a measure of women's enfranchisement, added strength shall be given to the voice of the soldiers of Canada. Those of their nearest kin at home may be presumed to be most likely to re-echo the sentiments of their sons overseas and by this bill, the nearest female relatives of the men of our expeditionary forces, who have left the shores of Canada, are given the right to vote.

Votes For Women

"The wife or widows, the mothers, the daughters and the sisters of overseas soldiers are by this bill enfranchised. "It will be remembered that earlier in the session the prime minister introduced a bill to amend the franchise act. In his judgment it would be proper to extend the franchise to the women of Canada, subject to such conditions and limitations as might be provided. Under the abnormal circumstances precipitated by the present war, the measure of women's suffrage, which I have just outlined, is deemed fitting and does indeed constitute, in my judgment, a reasonable general extension of the franchise to women. It will be obvious to all that regard to the fact that as all of the female immigrants to this country from Europe, or from elsewhere, have become naturalized by marriage or by the naturalization of a parent and without entailing upon themselves any special oath or obligation, an unlimited admission of women to the franchise at this time would be unfair and unreasonable. A line of limitation must therefore be found. The principle reason for adopting the line laid down by this bill is that it is the only means of extending to the soldiers' wives, dear to them as an adequate vote in the decision of a great electoral contest fraught with consequences peculiarly vital to themselves. War service abroad is the basis of war franchise. It has been our purpose to make this as far as possible, the central principle of the bill now introduced.

Hand-in-Hand

"So far as legislation can attain the end the obligation toward service and the right to war franchise should go hand-in-hand. On the principle, which underlies this act, it is proposed that those who for reasons special to themselves, are unavailable for the highest of war service, should not white exempted from such war service be in the position to exercise a measure of control over those who bear the burden. We have in Canada, broadly speaking, two classes, so exempt. The one class is now exempt by law and the other has been exempt by statute and is by this act made exempt by law. "The first class referred to consists of those entitled under the Military Service Act to be relieved on conscientious grounds from combat service and the second class is constituted by that portion of our foreign population who have recently come to Canada and are of alien enemy birth or near extraction.

Conscientious Objectors

"As to the conscientious objectors, it is not considered right that those who are on conscientious grounds to bear arms should be enabled in

ARREST FOR WILLIAMS MURDER MAY BE MADE WITHIN FEW DAYS; POLICE STRIKE A NEW TRAIL

(Continued from page 1) It is just a month today since Harry L. Williams was found dead with a bullet through his head at his store at the corner of Main street and Elm street. The police were immediately on the scene and since the death of Mr. Williams have been working continually on the case. Various theories of murder and suicide were put forward, but the latest clue points in the direction of a cold-blooded murder. No revolver was found on the premises, but both the shot and shell were located by the police. One feature of the case brought out in the testimony before the coroner that a man and woman in black were seen endeavoring to effect an entrance into the Williams' store about the time of the tragedy, is considered to have an important bearing. The most exhaustive investigation made by the police failed to lead to any substantial clue, and until the new turn of events last evening, the case was considered as most mysterious. The absence of a motive for either murder or suicide was a hard circumstance to confront the police, both the family of the late Mr. Williams and the detectives informing the coroner at sessions of his court that they were at a loss to find a motive which would point in the direction of either theory. Various occurrences on the evening of the tragedy, which seemed at first sight to have some possible connection with the event, were thoroughly investigated, only to find that they were entirely irrelevant to the death of Mr. Williams. At one time it was considered probable the deceased met his death from a revolver in the hands of an escaped lunatic. The actions of a man running down Lansdowne Avenue about the time of the tragedy were also supposed to have some connection with the death of Mr. Williams, but this occurrence was fully investigated, and as well as cases of other parties seen in the vicinity of the store, with the result that the instances were not regarded as having any bearing on the case. The tragic death of the North End grocer stirred the people of the city. Hundreds gathered at the scene of the tragedy on the day following its occurrence, and the deepest public interest has followed the sessions of the coroner's court of inquiry. The new developments in the case last evening are considered as only the preliminary of important steps to follow. Certain it is that the authorities have secured some new circumstances which may help to solve the tragic end of the popular North End merchant. In binding over the witnesses last evening, Governor Kennedy did not mention the name of any particular person against whom an indictment would be presented, neither was any description given, but the carrying out of these legal formalities is considered as having a significant and far reaching meaning by those who have followed the case since the evening the deceased met his death.

In the midst of a war either to compel others to fight for them or to deny to those who do battle, the right to reinforcements. If it is their belief that a nation should not defend itself by arms and if on that belief they refuse to fight for the existence of their country then they should not be in a position to exercise control over their country while it is in arms and while it has to fight to live.

A Free Country. "This, I believe, to be the views shared in the main by themselves. We find no fault with them for their own lives. This is a free country and they have been welcomed to our shores, but they will, I am sure, deem it not unfair, though they who are in battle and to make all the sacrifices of the war, should constitute the democracy which controls the destiny of the country. Great Britain has recognized the clause respecting aliens. It has been the intention of the government that absolute fairness should characterize the making of the lists and all machinery for the making of the lists and it is believed that this bill so provides."

MONCTON SOLDIER KILLED IN ACTION

Moncton, Sept. 6.—David D. Cormier, Moncton, today received word that his son, Marcell D. Cormier, who was killed in action. Pte. Cormier, who was formerly a C. G. R. employee, went overseas with Col. Fowler's battalion.

Fighting Against Us

"Many of them, however, have sons or brothers, their very nearest of kin, fighting against us on the soil of Europe. It would seem unnatural, even were Australia exempted, to do battle against their kin and against the country from which they can scarcely wholly as yet, be divorced in sympathy. Great Britain has recognized this principle since the outbreak of war and with very few exceptions has declined to admit to her arms, and to admit to the franchise, all of its citizens of alien enemy birth, no matter how long they had been in the country. By this bill only such as have been naturalized since 31st Mar. 1902, are affected. All others are left untouched. In Australia an exception was made of Armenians and Assyrians and of those who had sons or brothers enlisted. In Canada we make the same exception and we except all those whose grandsons have joined the forces.

Disqualified Exemptionists

Furthermore, the bill specifically states, that wherever there is disfranchisement for this war election there goes with it exemption from combat service. Under the Military Service Act no man will be forced to fight, who is not under this act allowed to vote. "Beyond the two features I have mentioned, namely the addition of women and disqualification of a certain limited class of aliens, the provincial franchise and qualification for voters are adopted throughout every province. These are the main features of this act. The alteration of the machinery of the preparation of lists. Hitherto provincial lists have been adopted in seven of the provinces and the Dominion has made its own lists in Alberta, Saskatchewan and the Yukon. By this bill, provincial lists are still adopted wherever they exist, and so far as it is possible to adopt them, in the four western provinces where the provincial lists contain the names of all women as well as men, they cannot of course be adopted and provision is made for the preparation of the lists in these four provinces in like manner to the method obtaining for the past 12 years in the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and in the Yu-

KAISER DECIDED TO OCCUPY DENMARK

(Continued from page 1) "Considering great number of channels leading from Copenhagen to London and proverbial want of discretion of the Danish court I was afraid to let anything be known about our alliance as it would immediately have been communicated to London, a most possible thing so long as treaty is to remain secret for the present. Danes Helpless. "By long conversation with Ivolaky, however, I was able to gather that actual minister of foreign affairs, Count Raben, and number of persons of conviction have already come to the conclusion that in case of war and impending attack on Baltic from foreign power Danes express their inability and helplessness to uphold even a shadow of neutrality against the invasion, it being evident that Russia and Germany will immediately take steps to safeguard their interest by acting hand on Denmark and occupying it during the war. "As this would at the same time guarantee territory and the future existence of the dynasty and country the Danes are slowly resigning themselves to this alternative, and making up their minds accordingly. This being exactly what you wished and hoped for, I thought it better not to touch on the subject with Danes and refrained from making any allusions. "It is better to let the idea develop and ripen in their heads and let them draw final conclusions themselves, so that they will not on their own accord be moved to lean upon us and fall in line with our two countries. "Tout vient a qui salue attendre.

Norway Arrangement

"The question about Charles going to Norway has been arranged up to the smallest detail, England having consented to everything and there is nothing to be done any more. I talked with Charles about his prospects and found him very sober and without any illusions about his task. What do you say to the programme of festivities for your allies at Cowes? "The whole of the Crimean veterans have been invited to meet former brothers in arms who fought with them against Russia. Very delicate indeed. It shows right when I warned you two years ago to reform the old Crimean combination. They are fast arming up again with a vengeance. Weather was fine. Best love to Alice." This telegram was signed "Willy."

RUSSIANS CONTINUE BUT TWO GENE PETROGRAD

German Fleet in Gulf of the Baltic with Russian Ships. Russian Front Regarded as Safe. RUSSIANS RETREAT WITH THE GERMANS. Berlin in Gala Attire Because of Near Approach of R. Teutons from Reaching the Baltic.

Petrograd, Sept. 6.—It is semi-officially announced that a German fleet has appeared in the Gulf of Riga. During the last two days the Riga front has been broken on a width of sixty versts. Throughout Tuesday the Germans energetically pursued their offensive, particularly north of Uxkull in order to cut the Riga-Dundun railway.

Russian Fleet in Danger.

New York, Sept. 6.—A special cable to the World from London says grave fears are expressed there regarding the possible fate of the Russian fleet. For its safety depends on the stand being made by the Russian army. "Germany has her eyes on the Russian fleet," the cable says, "and its early capture is viewed in London as even a more immediate consequence than the Petrograd campaign. Naval experts hope the fleet will be destroyed by the Russians themselves in the event its capture seems imminent."

Expect Fight.

Washington, Sept. 6.—When Riga was cleared of its civilian population three weeks ago, according to officials at the Russian embassy, preparations were made for its final evacuation. Supplies were taken to other points, and whatever would be of value to the Germans was destroyed or otherwise disposed of. It is reported that the Baltic fleet is preparing for a battle with the enemy near Kronstadt. At this point the Russians will have the assistance of the shore fortifications and a number of submarines.

MADE IN CANADA The Flavour Lasts

Richmond, Ind.—For two years I was so sick and weak from female troubles that when going up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the steps, then sit down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into our new home. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had taken it with good results. I did so, my weakness disappeared, I gained in strength, moved into our new home, do all kinds of garden work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—Mrs. M. O. Jones, Route 2, Box 190, Richmond, Ind.

CONSERVATION OF FOOD.
Dr. J. W. Robertson, chairman of the Canadian advisory committee, to the food controller, delivered an important address in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon in which he placed the subject of food conservation fairly and squarely before those who heard him. So important is his message that The Standard believes it should be carefully perused by thousands of New Brunswickers who did not enjoy the privilege of hearing it delivered. For that reason we publish this morning the full text of the address.

CITY HAS ORGANIZED FOR CONTROL OF FOOD, DR. ROBERTSON'S ADDRESS

Lieut. Gov. Ganong Presides at Interesting Meeting—Forceful Address to Citizens—Causes for the World Shortage—A Strong Food Control Committee Appointed.

St. John city has organized for food control. Following a forceful address by Dr. James W. Robertson, chairman of the advisory committee to the food controller, a strong local committee was organized yesterday afternoon at the public meeting at the Seaman's Institute.

Lieut. Governor Ganong made a most capable presiding officer, and while the attendance was not large it was representative. With His Honor on the platform were Mayor Hayes, E. A. Schofield, chairman of the provincial committee, Hon. J. G. Forbes and Dr. James W. Robertson.

Dr. Robertson was well received by the meeting. After some introductory remarks he said that every time he visited New Brunswick he was impressed by the intelligence and progress of the people, and now by the abounding prosperity of the province as a whole.

Another kind of war service now claimed the co-operation of men and women generally. A world shortage of food has arisen, and the responsibility for those who are responsible for the carrying on of the war by the allied nations.

To help you to understand what has been called the world crisis, I remind you of some of the causes contributing to the present real danger of a world famine in 1918. The harvest of 1915 having been abundant, the food situation during the first two years of the war caused no very serious anxiety.

While there is no occasion for the alarm of panic, there are very small reserves of food in the event of such a failure of crops in 1918 as there was in 1916, the world might be faced with actual famine conditions, and the inevitable starvation and death of millions of human beings.

quantity of food which is available. It is now necessary to be just as diligent in conserving what has been produced in preventing all waste, and in shifting our own consumption from flour, beef and bacon, which the armies and civilian populations need from us, to other foods which cannot be sent overseas.

Appointment of Food Controller. To direct and help all the people to do this necessary work the government has appointed a food controller. The Hon. W. J. Hayes, one of the very able and public-spirited citizens of Canada, accepted the office without salary. It is also his duty to make regulations "providing for the conservation of food and the prevention of waste thereof and governing the consumption of food in hotels, restaurants, cafes, private houses, clubs and other places."

Recognizing the gravity of the situation the food controller sends the following messages: "The armies and civilian populations of the allied nations overseas need all the wheat, flour, beef and bacon that Canada can supply. Three things we must do to help them: (a) Increase in the production of food; (b) Elimination of waste in the handling and use of food; (c) Shifting of the consumption, in part, from foods needed by the armies and civilian populations of Great Britain and the Allies, chiefly wheat and flour, beef and bacon, to other foods."

Substantial Results Are Expected. As has been already stated, what the armies and civilian population of Great Britain and the Allies require most is wheat, flour, beef and bacon. They also require and take a very large quantity of cheese and butter. It is the immediate object of this meeting is to help the people of St. John and New Brunswick to do their share in permitting the saving of these foods to be available for export.

"I was a great sufferer from salt rheum in my hands. It came smelly blisters between my thumb and finger and it itched terribly and kept spreading. I could not use my hands at all and the skin would crack and bleed so that I could not bend my fingers. I cannot describe what I have suffered and the sleepless nights I had."

"Then I got the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I only used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment when my hands were healed." (Signed) Mrs. M. Allen, Highways, Que. Keep your skin clear by daily use of Cuticura Soap, with touches of Ointment now and then.

Two methods have been adopted by the food controller—he has issued regulations having the force of law to restrict the consumption of beef, bacon and white bread at public eating places. At such places— (a) Beef shall not be served at more than one meal on any day, and on Tuesdays and Fridays none shall be served. (b) Bacon shall not be served at more than one meal on any day, and on Tuesdays and Fridays none shall be served. (c) At every meal at which white bread is served there shall also be served some substitute or substitutes, such as corn bread, oat cakes, potatoes, etc. (d) There shall be prominently displayed a printed notice to the effect that all persons in ordering their food ought to consider the needs of Great Britain and her Allies and their armies for wheat, beef and bacon, and that the food controller requires the public to do everything in their power to make these commodities available for export by eating as little as possible of them, and by making use of substitutes and avoiding waste.

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

IMPROVEMENT IN MARKET AT MONTREAL

Dominion Iron Most Active of List and Closed Slightly Higher—Bond Business Improves.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Sept. 6.—Further improvement of a moderate sort was shown in the tone of the Canadian security market today, the better tendency again being traceable to the more reassuring action of New York stocks.

In the balance of the list former features were Detroit, higher at 107, with 107 1/2 bid at close; Cement 15 1/2 higher at 61 1/4; Lyall 2 higher at 5 1/4; and Civic Power a fraction up at 74 1/4 bid at close.

Bond business relatively was more active, with a brisk demand for war loans the feature. The third loan was in steady demand at 95 1/2, an advance of 1/2, bonds to par value about 95 1/2, bid for more at the close.

NEW HAVEN RAILROAD AT 29 3/4

Stock Hits New Low Mark as Does New York Central at 74 3/4—St. Paul Lowest in Many Years at 62 1/4.

New York, Sept. 6.—Stocks pursued a contrary course during the active periods of today's market, industrials availing a stronger tone, while rails, a few representative issues excepted, dropped to lower levels.

Improvement in the industrial division was commonly ascribed to the senate's rejection of the dramatic war measure. The further weakness of secondary rails was again traceable to recognized conditions, chiefly of a financial character.

Central at 74 3/4. New York Central registered the new minimum of 74 3/4, and New Haven fell gradually to the low record of 29 3/4, while St. Paul made its minimum price of many years at 62 1/4.

INDUSTRIALS VIGOROUSLY RECOVER RATE

Improvement is Followed by Concerted Attack on Motor Stocks and Rails—U. S. Steel Weak.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS) New York, Sept. 6.—In the early afternoon there was a fairly vigorous recovery in the industrial list, but it was followed by what had the appearance of a concerted attack upon the motor stocks and the rails.

way in "win the war" service. In its final analysis the situation will be saved by the growing of single plants, the regulation of single bins and the prevention of any bit of waste.

Provincial Committee to Supervise.
The food controller desires the formation in every province of a provincial body which will act as a supervising body, a central directing and coordinating body which will help the many other organizations of men and women in the province who could render invaluable services in food control. Already the departments of agriculture, the national service leagues and other bodies have done excellent work in the campaign for increased production. A provincial committee with representatives of the departments of agriculture and education, women's organizations, organized labor, etc., could be a means for enlarging and improving the work which has been well begun. A provincial organizer is needed and will be appointed. His time will be devoted to the organization of local food control committees, who will seek to secure the co-operation of every organization and every housekeeper in the locality in carrying out the recommendations of the food controller and in adopting others which will doubtless occur to their own members.

Pledge Cards to Be Signed.
The local food control committee in every place will be the body by which information will be passed on to the individual householders. As a first step, the women of the local food control committee will undertake to personally distribute the food service pledge cards. The intention is to have every home "pledged" by some woman who will interest the housekeeper in food control and ask her to sign the following pledge:
"Realizing the gravity of the food situation and knowing that Great Britain and her Allies look to Canada to help to abate Germany's threat of starvation, I pledge myself and my household to carry out conscientiously the advice and directions of the food controller that requisite foodstuffs may be released for export to Canadian divisions, the British forces and people and the Allied armies and nations."
One copy will be retained in the house and one sent on to the provincial headquarters. Together with the pledge card, a card for display in the window of the house will be left. At Mr. Frink's suggestion the names of the ladies present were added to the committee.

On motion of R. E. Armstrong the ladies on the food control committee have constituted a committee to prepare the cards of the fuel controller. Impressing the need of food control among the householders of the city, Governor Ganong said that he desired to make the statement that St. John was the banner city for women's war work. This city was the great clearing house of eastern Canada. The women of this city had arisen to the occasion and had performed the necessary war work in a manner creditable to the women of the Dominion.

Mr. Armstrong at this stage read a telegram from Fredericton, dated Sept. 6, in which he expressed his inability to attend, owing to an executive meeting held at Fredericton. The premier expressed his regret and wished to be present at the meeting and the campaign in this city. His Honor Judge Armstrong asked that the meeting be postponed until the 10th or 11th of September. The meeting was postponed for two days of the week.

Dr. Robertson said that just at present the food controller wanted to stop the unnecessary consumption of beef. The matter of prohibiting the use of beef had been discussed and while farmers were advised not to sell or kill young cattle, it was not deemed necessary to prohibit the use of veal at this stage.

Professor Robertson expressed his gratitude to Governor Ganong for his attendance and the able manner in which he discharged the duties of presiding officer. He also expressed appreciation of the messages from the premier.
Mr. J. W. Lawlor, president of the Housewives League, discussed local problems which she thought might well be taken up by the committee.
The meeting closed at 4:30 o'clock with the singing of the National Anthem.

WAYS TO USE PUMPKINS

Canned Pumpkin—Cut the pumpkin in halves, remove coarse threads and seeds. Cut the halves in slices, pare and cut in small pieces. Place the pieces of pumpkin in a cheesecloth bag or dipping basket and immerse in hot water for a few minutes. Remove and quickly plunge in cold water. Pack tightly in hot jars and place in rack in boiler. Fill jars to overflowing with boiling water, adding one teaspoonful of salt to each quart. Adjust rubbers and covers, but do not fasten securely. Add sufficient warm water to come to tops of jars and sterilize for two hours, timing from when water reaches boiling point. Remove jars, tighten covers and invert to cool. Covering jars with paper will prevent bleaching. Pumpkin preserves—Remove rind and seeds from small, sweet variety of pumpkin. Cut in small pieces and cook until tender. Drain and weigh. Allow equal amount of sugar to that of pumpkin, and two ounces of green ginger root, and two lemons of each pound of pumpkin. Cut lemon in thin slices and crush ginger root. Cover both with cold water and let stand over night. In the morning cook until lemon rind is tender. Add the sugar and more water, if required, and boil five to ten minutes. Then add pumpkin and let simmer until cubes of pumpkin look transparent. Skim the pumpkin to jars, reduce syrup and pour over the pumpkin. Seal.

MARGUERITE'S WEEKLY TALK

The Old Home Town. Sometimes it seems to me that people do not realize that what is nothing to them may be a great deal to someone else. To explain, it may be a few shabby rooms but they are home to someone. It may be a small town or village, but it is the place of one's birth, the home of childhood's friends and memories, and as such has that which the largest and finest city in the world could not offer. This is the thought which has come to me many times when I have heard strangers criticizing our city. It may be not the cleanest place in the world and we can all help to remedy that state of affairs, but if St. John is your home it has that which no London, Paris or New York can give you. You may, in the bosom of your own family, criticize the city, but you do not enjoy hearing strangers tell you what they think of it, when they are not favorably impressed with some of our institutions. This was brought to my notice by an incident which I will relate. A member of a travelling company (please do not jump at conclusions—you may misjudge someone) here was heard to speak, in a public place of her delight in leaving "this town." Hearing these remarks regarding the limitations of the town, a St. John man standing near by spoke up saying very politely but convincingly:—"Madam, you will pardon me but as a citizen of this town may I say that you came here strangers and were well treated. You and your company have made money from the city of St. John, and I feel it is hardly fair that you should talk of the place in that way." The rebuke was well taken, and with "I beg your pardon, I am very sorry," an instant apology was made. Speeches like the above can be traced as easily as many other things, to mere thoughtlessness. Would you dream of going into a person's house and mentioning of the state of their rooms (if not of the tidest), or of remarking of the furnishings as they are, or of remarking of the furniture? Perhaps they are not to the taste of the owner either, but may be the very best they can afford at present. And one's city is but home in a larger sense. The more feeling of love and pride its citizens have the better for that city. Quite often it happens that a bride comes to a strange place, and either by her own fault or that of circumstances does not make friends in her new home. When a caller appears, perhaps the visitor is entertained with the story of how much nicer the bride's former home was, the people there were more cordial, the surroundings so much more congenial. Does it ever occur to the complaining bride that in the town she remembers with such rosy recollections there may have been lonely strangers who in their turn bewailed the home they had left? Perhaps however, they keep that fact to themselves, and with tact and courage tried to make the best of perhaps adverse circumstances and customs which were new and strange. It is no way of making friends to criticize the place you are living in. Keep that to yourself, if you are kind or polite. I think many will agree with me.

FILL A STOCKING FOR A SOLDIER

Red Cross Wants a Thousand for Christmas. The St. John Local Red Cross wants to send one thousand Christmas stockings overseas. Will you fill one? Stockings can be obtained at the local Red Cross rooms on Chipman Hill. It is suggested that each stocking might contain some of the following articles: Pocket mirror, pocket pencil, pocket knife, pipe and match box, writing pad, envelopes, fancy post cards, cigarettes, tobacco, candies, gum, handkerchiefs, necktie, socks, gum, book, puzzle, mouth organ, soap, pin cushion, and pins, packets of raisins, nuts, toy and anything you would like to give a soldier in hospital. It is not intended that the foregoing list should be other than suggestive. Do not put in sticky candy or loose candies! Do not put in matches or packets of insect powder or anything that will sift over the rest of the things in the stockings. All stockings must be ready and returned to the local Red Cross by the first week in October positively, otherwise they will not reach the hospitals by Christmas.

NEW VAUDEVILLE BILL AT THE OPERA HOUSE

One of the prominent features of the new Opera House vaudeville programme, which opens tomorrow afternoon, will be a unique musical offering by Pipe-Major MacKenzie Bailey, late of the 17th overseas battalion, C. E. F. Major Bailey is a returned wounded soldier, in fact, has been wounded three times during the present war, has record of long service in the Imperial forces, and is the proud possessor of 40 medals of various kinds that have been awarded him during his army career. His musical offering consists of selections on the Scottish bag-pipes, the Irish union pipe and the violin. The other acts on the programme include Chas. B. Lawlor and daughter, a petite musical company in character songs and changes; William Cahill, Irish comedian; the Aiken Trio, novelty entertainers fancy skating and contortion work; John and Frances in a bright, sparkling frappe, "Over the Counter," and the fifteenth chapter of Gloria's Romance, with Billie Burke. This afternoon and tonight will be the last opportunity St. John music lovers will have to enjoy the silver voice tenor, John O'Malley, and the other good acts on this week's programme.

PROJECTION EXPERT TO ATTEND CONVENTION

F. H. Richardson the famous expert on projection and one of the editorial staff of The Moving Picture World arrived today to attend the Greater Vitagraph as a mod Miss Tapley promised the public be and clearer pictures, and said she when the industry, as a whole, comes to realize what Vitagraph knows and practices, there will be no need of film centers. Miss Tapley will be in St. John on Saturday. Vivian Martin, who fits back and forth between the Morocco and Lasky studios for her respective Paramount Pictures, is obliged to keep a completely equipped dressing room in both Los Angeles and Hollywood. She was, up to a very few moments before going to press, at the Morocco studio but all signs fall in the case of Miss Martin, and she may be at Lasky's as we greet your eye.

ROYAL STANDARD CHAPTER

A meeting of the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E., was held yesterday at the summer residence of Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Rothsay. It was decided to take one hundred Christmas stockings from the Red Cross to fill for the sick and wounded soldiers. It was also decided to give the sum of $125 to the Soldiers' Comfort Association to buy Christmas gifts for the boys in the trenches. A committee was formed to arrange for a public sale and tea evening this is the first opportunity to Nothing makes a woman so mad as to have something to say and no one to listen. Green Tomato Soy—One gallon green tomatoes, six large onions, one quart vinegar, one pint sugar, one tablespoonful salt, one and one-half tablespoonfuls ground mustard, one tablespoonful of oil, one and one-half cloves. Slice tomatoes and onions mix all ingredients together and cook until tender, stirring frequently to prevent scorching.

THOUGHT CHILD WAS DYING

"CHOLERA INFANTUM" DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry Cured Her. Mothers should look well after their children during the hot summer months, as this is the time of the year this trouble is most prevalent. It begins with a profuse diarrhoea, the stomach becomes irritated, vomiting and purging set in, and the child rapidly loses flesh, and becomes weak, prostrated and languid. Mrs. B. A. Cirwell, Rosaway, N. S., writes: "I can recommend, most highly, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. A friend of mine whose little daughter was ill with cholera infantum was given up by the doctors. The little one's mother asked me to come in and see the child. I told her I had a bottle of 'Dr. Fowler's' and asked her if she would try it. When the bottle was half used the child was well. This cure was a miraculous one, for I thought the child was dying at the time." There is nothing can take the place of Dr. Fowler's. There is nothing just as good. Do not accept a substitute, and thus endanger your life. The original is 35c per bottle, and put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE GERMAN NAMES OF CERTAIN CITY STREETS

Agitation for Change--The Name of the Province--How About the Christian Names of German Origin and the Lutherans?

To the Editor of The Standard. Sir--I observe that writers in the Globe and Telegraph advocate changing the names of some of the streets of St. John because the names are of German origin. Several sensible remarks have been made, but a number are decidedly beside the mark. For instance a learned writer in the Telegraph would change the name of Germain street. In so doing he would be really insulting France, where the name of Germain is a very common one. It was the name of the French sovereign, including that of "Le Grand Monarch," who for 72 years was king of France and owner for a time of the very land on which Germain street stands. If I mistake not it was to the court of St. Germain that more than one British monarch fled for hospitality from the wrath of his own people. Then we have in history the names of some of the great French statesmen, well and good, but one suggestion arises. Why not carry out this agitation for wiping Teutonic names off the map of the city by extending it to the province and inducing the powers that be to give us a substitute for "New Brunswick"?

But the John streets mentioned are not the only ones bearing Christian names of German origin. Here are a few of them: Adolphus, Albert, Alfred, Alonzo, Alvin, Archibald, Bernard, Bertrand, Charles, Conrad, Eugene, Ernest, George, Frederick, Herman, Henry, Leonard, Leopold, Lewis, Luther, Ralph, Roger, Walter, William, Adelaide, Alice, Amelia, Charlotte, Emily, Ethel, Frances, Fanny, Henriette, Ida, Harriet, Louisa, Matilda, Mildred, Rhoda, etc. If we decide to change the name of New Brunswick (Braunschweig) we might well make or select "New Windsor."

Very truly yours, ONE WITH A GERMAN NAME. St. John, Sept. 5, 1917.

HELEN MONTAGUE SOLD. The three-masted schooner Helen Montague, 344 net tons, built at Rockland in 1881, and owned by the Marine Transportation Co., has just been sold to Messrs. Levey Freres, of Paris, France, for about $13,500. The schooner has been laid up for a long time at Queenstown, her owners evidently not being willing to have her take the risk of coming home through the war zone.

U. S. SHIPPING BOARD. It is understood that the United States Shipping Board will not give out any further contracts for wooden ships, but will henceforth limit their shipbuilding operations entirely to steel-built vessels, thus justifying General Goethals in the decided stand he took against wooden craft. It is understood, however, that contracts have already been made with more than 60 firms for wooden ships. Contracts for these were made with the understanding that timber would be furnished by southern lumbermen, but the government is experiencing difficulty in placing its lumber orders both in the south and on the Pacific coast, and the launching of a majority of the ships will not take place until well into the coming year.

Struck by Street Car. About eight o'clock last evening an elderly lady named Hughes was knocked down by a street car on Main street and had one of her limbs severely injured. She stepped in front of the car in an attempt to cross the street and was struck before the motorman could bring his car to a stop. With assistance of a citizen she was able to walk to her home on Metcalf street.

Owing to the fact that two of the members of the Board of Health were out of town the regular monthly meeting, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon had to be postponed. Not the Same Person. It is the intention to hold the meeting on Thursday of next week. Returned to College. Good Attendance at Fair. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the fair in St. Andrew's rink was well patronized last night by fully 1,000 people. The door prize, a rocker, was won by ticket 6001. Mrs. J. T. McCormick won the ladies' bean toss by a very slight margin, and Harry A. Malley, of Pitt street, won the gentlemen's. The slides shown by Serg. Puddy of scenes on the Somme, attracted large crowds to the rear of the rink. The slides were well worth seeing as they cover over 110 different views of this important battle field.

Courtesy Bay Fishing. Down the bay a number of who are in the harbour looking for sardines having found the fish rather scarce during the first part of the week, but now they claim that there is a good run again and they are making money. One fisherman informed The Standard that with four companions they hauled their seine in Courtney Bay and in a few days cleared up $1,700. In just two hours one morning they caught enough fish to net them nearly three hundred dollars. The visiting fishermen are not the only ones benefiting, as local men who are well equipped are reaping a harvest.

ST. JOHN COUNTY PROVIDES TWENTY TIMES AS MANY RECRUITS AS MADAWASKA

Records for Twenty-Two Months Show Madawaska County as Contributing but 194 Men—Total for the Period, 13,672. Since it has been announced that the Military Service Act is soon to be put into force, it will be of interest to know just the number of men each county in the province has contributed to the army and navy. An outstanding feature of the official report is the small contribution by Madawaska. The first official records were not tabulated until November, 1915, and since that time this county has only enlisted 194 men. Albert county contributed 220 men, and Kent 236. St. John county heads the list, which is only natural owing to the large population and the many men who arrived in the city with the intention of enlisting; 3,896 men signed on in the county during the above period. York is second with 3,141; Westmorland is next with 1,728. The other counties contributed to the total as follows: Kings, 801; Queens and Sunbury, 271; Charlotte, 634; Carleton, 832; Victoria, 481; Restigouche, 590; Gloucester, 452 and Northumberland 876. This makes a grand total for this period of 13,672.

Harvey and Ernest Richards, all of Montana, and who were enlisted by the British recruiting commission, arrived in the city last night en route to Aldershot, N. S. They were met at the depot by Sergeant Popham, who will see them off on the Digby boat this morning. There are about two hundred and fifty British recruits at Aldershot in training, according to Lieut. J. Cameron who passed through the city last night on his way to Sussex, where he will spend a few days vacation.

Captain Thomas, it is reported, will take complete charge of the hospital, devoting his whole time to the work of the institution. Up to the present the hospital has been in charge of Major Curren. The latter officer will retire to take a position on the standing medical board. It has been reported for some time that changes were imminent in the staff at the hospital, and the appointment of Captain Thomas is likely to be promulgated within the course of a few days.

JAMES McINTYRE, FORMER ST. JOHN CITIZEN, DIED IN BOSTON YESTERDAY

Nephew of Deceased Left Last Night to Attend Funeral—Was Well Known in North End Where He Resided While Here. James McIntyre of 159 Victoria St., North End, received word yesterday from Boston, notifying him of the death of his uncle, James McIntyre, who passed peacefully away at his residence, in East Boston yesterday morning. Mr. McIntyre formerly resided in St. John and while in the city in his younger days was very active in sports, especially baseball. His brother, the only member of the family, predeceased him several years ago. For a number of years the deceased has been ill, and although everything possible was done to sustain life, the end came yesterday. He was in the 69th year of his age and is survived by his wife. James McIntyre left last night on the Boston train to attend the funeral. The telegram reached Mr. McIntyre yesterday morning about 10 o'clock and owing to the requirements necessary before one can cross the border, since the new regulations came into force, Mr. McIntyre had very little time to spare in making the train.

AUGUST, 1917, POOREST MONTH IN RECRUITING HISTORY OF PROVINCE

Records Show That But 169 Men Enlisted in N. B. for August—Complete Returns Since September, 1915—November, 1915, Banner Month. The Standard has been able, through the kindness of the chief recruiting officer for New Brunswick, to obtain a complete and accurate list of the recruits enlisting monthly in this province since September 1915. By glancing over the records it is noticeable to a marked degree that the month just past is the poorest on record. The month of June shows that 1,074 men signed on, compared with only 427 for the same month in 1916. This is due to the fact that during the month of June, only 626 men enlisted for New Brunswick units in the United States. The premier month for enlistments was November 1915, when no less than 1,526 men were secured. Although the list shows considerable fluctuation, nevertheless there has been a steady decrease in the matter of recruiting in New Brunswick. The monthly records follow:

Table with columns: Year, Month, No. Recruited. Rows: 1915 September (667), October (756), November (1526), December (937); 1916 January (891), February (863), March (1141), April (589), May (427), June (427), July (527), August (421), September (403), October (427), November (281), December (270); 1917 January (307), February (502), March (509), April (374), May (374), June (1076), July (343), August (169).

Munro, a popular North End druggist, by Rev. Dr. David Hutchison. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Elkin of Douglas avenue. The wedding was quiet and the bride and groom were unattended. UNITED STATES RESIDENT OBLIGED TO PAY HEAD TAX WILL ASK FOR A REFUND

Here from Waltham, Mass., on Vacation—John Woodforde Says U. S. Official Would Not Recognize Identification Letters—Another Case in Question. John W. M. Woodforde, a former resident of St. John, but now residing in Waltham, Mass., where he has lived for the past three years, stated yesterday to The Standard that he would be obliged to pay the sum of eight dollars before he could return to the States. Mr. Woodforde says that he explained to the official that he read the following article in a paper regarding vacationists passing to and from the United States, as explained by United States Immigration Commissioner Henry J. Skeffington: "No man or woman who is a real resident or citizen of the United States or Canada, and who wishes to visit either country for a vacation, or on a business trip, need pay any tax." Mr. Woodforde stated that he had a letter of identification issued by such official, and that he had also a letter of identification to be shown to the inspectors. It was also explained that this letter could be used by a clerk of any court or from any city, town or state official who knows the one desiring to cross the border. "A letter of identification issued by such official costs nothing," said Commissioner Skeffington, "and with it there will be no trouble with any official or inspector."

Mr. Woodforde produced a letter of identification from his employer in Waltham, also one from the clerk of the court in Waltham. He said that he further explained that he paid taxes in Waltham, and his wife and family resided there. That he only came to St. John for a few days vacation, and intended to return this morning on the Boston boat. Mr. Woodforde said that the U. S. immigration official was most polite during the interview, but firmly stated that the letters of identification from both the employer and clerk of the Waltham court were of no use, and the only way that Mr. Woodforde could return to the States was to pay the eight dollars head tax. Mr. Woodforde stated that he was obliged to get back to his employment, and would accordingly have to pay the tax, and on his return to his home in Waltham, he would seek out the proper official and see if he could not get the eight dollars refunded to him.

Another complaint was also made yesterday relative to the payment of this tax. Talking with The Standard, a lady, the wife of a western Canadian, the clerk of the court, said she had paid the tax but was refused a receipt by the local officer on the ground that she was not entitled to it. Mr. Woodforde stated in view of the fact that she had previously been in England. The lady in question said she had gone to the old country to visit her husband and was in the act of returning when she had paid the tax but was refused a receipt by the local officer on the ground that she was not entitled to it.

LOWE AT FIRST SIGHT IN MERRY ENGLAND

Gunner Anderson of West St. John Wins Fair Maiden While on Furlough in London—Wedding Announced for December. At least one West St. John young man who has been fighting the Huns in France, has won a very important victory when he captured the heart of a pretty English lady. The soldier is Renwick M. Anderson, son of R. J. Anderson, general foreman of the C. P. E. elevators, West St. John. The soldier went overseas with Col. Harrison in the Ammunition Column and has been fighting in France for the past two years. It was while on furlough in London that he became acquainted with Miss Edith A. Frost, whose home is in Battersea, England. An excellent family, the St. John Canadian hero from the battlefields captured the heart of the English maiden, and being a winsome dandy of an excellent family, the St. John boy quickly fell in love. Gunner Anderson's furlough was indeed too brief in England and he was obliged to return to his comrades in France, but he has announced in a letter home that he expects to get another furlough in December, and the announcement of his engagement is given out that on his next trip to England Miss Edith A. Frost is to become Mrs. Renwick M. Anderson.

The Milk Question. From what was learned yesterday the milk famine is at an end and the supply they receive all the supply they need. The only new feature is that the Kings county producers Association has won out, the dealers have agreed to pay the 6 cents as eight quart can, and the consumers will have to pay twelve cents per quart, and advances of two cents over the previous rate. One dealer who returned from Kings county yesterday afternoon after making arrangements with the producer to supply the milk stated that if the farmers had not lusted a couple of more days, and certain dealers had not agreed to pay the price asked by the producers, the latter would have come promised and sold the milk for five cents cheaper an eight quart can, and then the consumers would get milk at eleven cents per quart. The fact that some dealers gave the price asked by the producer forced the others to follow suit, with the result that it now means twelve cent milk delivered.
