THE RUSSIAN
OPERATIONSArsenal Captured and Some 200
Chinese Killed.Envoys Have Finally Agreed on a Joint Note—Battles in Southern China.

London, Nov. 13.—A special dispatch from Tien Tsin, dated Nov. 10, says a force of Russians has captured the arsenal northeast of Yang Tsun, with trifling loss, killing 200 Chinese and capturing a quantity of arms and treasure.

JOINT NOTE OF THE POWERS.

Dr. Morrison, writing to the Times from Peking on Sunday, says: "Pressed by the common desire for a speedy termination of present conditions, the foreign envoys have finally agreed to the following terms, which subject to the approval of governments, would be pressed upon China as the basis of a preliminary treaty:

"The indemnity shall be paid to the states, corporations and individuals. The Tsung Li Yamen shall be abolished and its functions vested in a foreign minister. Rational intercourse shall be permitted with the emperor as in civilized countries.

"The forts at Taku and other forts on the coast of China shall be razed and the importation of arms and war materials prohibited.

"Permanent legations guards shall be maintained and also guards of communication between Peking and the sea.

"Imperial proclamations shall be posted for two years throughout the empire, suppressing Boxers.

"The indemnity is to include compensation for Chinese who suffered through being employed by foreigners, but not compensation for native Christians. The words 'missionary' and 'Christians' do not occur in the note."

TROUBLE IN SOUTH CHINA.
Victoria, B. C., Nov. 13.—News has been received by the steamship Victoria concerning the rebellion in South China. The Triads have broken out in Kwang Si, and Marshal Su, commander-in-chief of the imperial forces, is asking for 20,000 men to suppress them. The British have dispatched infantry and artillery to guard the Kowloon frontier.

When the torpedo boat destroyer Hardy was landing men it encountered a force of rebels and threw shells among them, killing 40.

A strong force of Kwanshi rebels, marching to join the Kwanshi rebels, met and defeated the imperial troops near Kwanshi and captured 30.

Great preparations for the building, mine laying and the drilling of troops were going on in the affected provinces.

NINETY-THREE MISSIONARIES MURDERED.
Consul Goodnow, of Shanghai, has made a summary of Boxer outrages, showing that 93 American and British missionaries were murdered and 170 other missionaries in Shan Si and Chi Li are missing.

CHINESE SURPRISED.
Washington, Nov. 12.—It is understood that the Chinese authorities at Peking have been profoundly aroused by the news of the execution of the acting viceroy of Chi Li is looked upon as peculiarly reprehensible, and has been the main cause of the present feeling of the Chinese officials at Peking.

MISSING SHIP SAFE.
San Francisco, Nov. 13.—The overdue English ship Anglessea has arrived here 165 days from Swansea. She collided with the ship Bahama, but water-closet, a seaman, was lost overboard.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.
Arthur, Ont., Nov. 13.—While the 11:45 a.m. west-bound C. P. R. train was passing the crossing about two miles east of the station here, a man named John Dignam, age 35, who was hauling a tank of water with a team of horses, was struck by the train, throwing him about 70 feet and killing him instantly. The horses escaped unhurt, while the wagon was demolished.

Elegant, Shapely and Durable

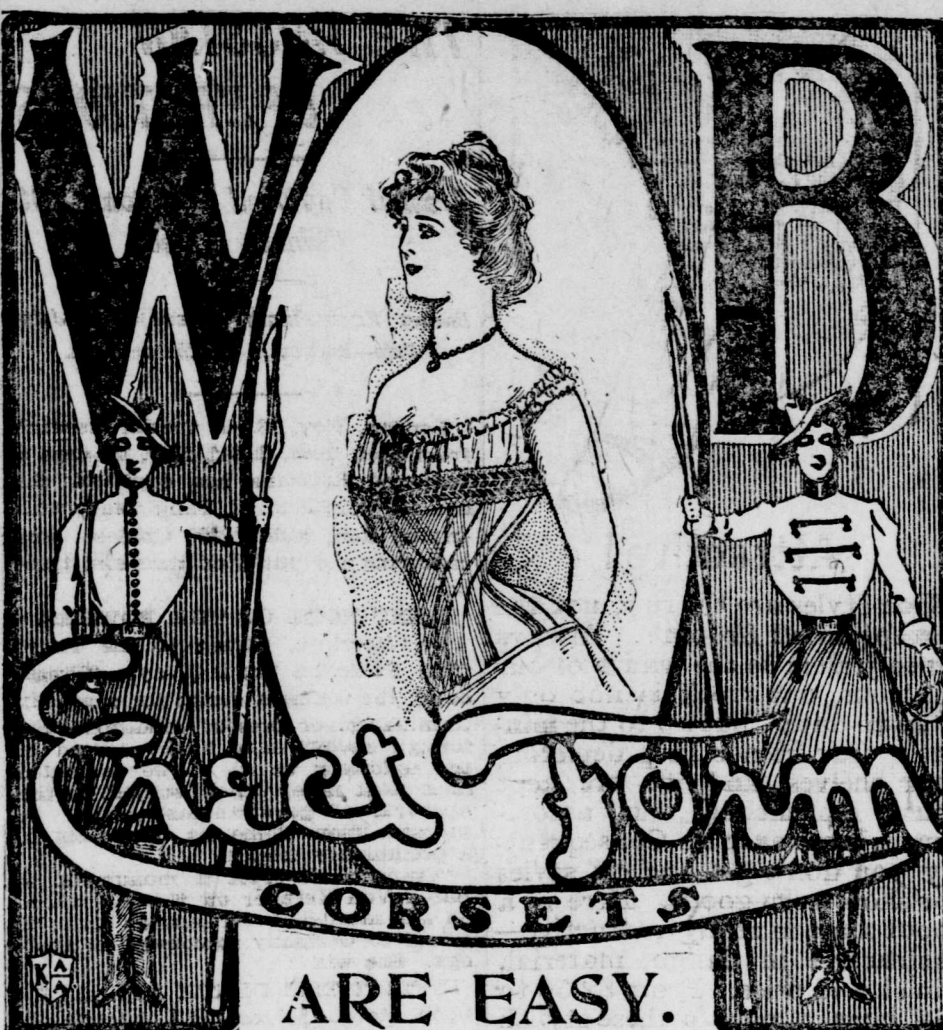

It is a handsome, shapely and durable Model. It is a straight front, and is built after the prevailing straight front fashion, yet possesses sufficient individualities to justify a special name. The Erect Form gives the figure a fine, straight military carriage; it throws the shoulders back; it does not bind the abdomen or bust, but places all strain on the hip and back muscles, which are most capable of sustaining it.

CURTAILING

Over $50,000 Spending Money Left for the Remainder of the Year 1900.

The Matter of Dangerous Railway Crossings Brought Up—Bylaw Re Vote on Abolishing Hospital Trust Gets a First Reading.

The city council passed judgment upon a number of minor matters at its meeting last night. It transpired that the city has the comfortable sum of nearly $60,000 with which to carry on the work of the corporation for the remaining portion of the year. All the committees are curtailing their expenditure as much as possible, and there was the reassuring probability that their exercise of prudence may save the council from a deficit, despite the gloomy forecasts made in the early days of January. Last night's session showed that the council are not as yet entirely disposed to relieve the asphalt company of all responsibility for further repairs, even upon the city engineer's and No. 2 committee's recommendation, and also, that the aldermen are anxious that something should be done to prevent the too-off recurrence of fatalities at railway crossings in the city. Ald. Pritchard presided in the mayor's absence.

COMMUNICATIONS.

No. 1 committee will consider Mr. W. A. Wilson's request for discount off taxes, J. A. Currie's request for remission of income taxes, a similar request from John Morozana, an account from the National Cycle and Automobile Company, Catherine Shea's request for the remission of street watering rates, and the request from the executors of property owned by P. and A. Swanwick for remission of taxes.

Arthur H. Smith's request for permission to connect his premises with the sewer was referred to No. 2 committee.

No. 3 committee will deal with Baldwin & Baldwin's request for remission of street watering fines and J. Campbell's application for a position as fireman.

Dr. Balfour's request to have the upper portion of the private patients' pavilion in Victoria Hospital furnished will be considered by the hospital building committee.

The mayor and relief inspector will consider the application of Mrs. Henry for admission to the Old People's Home.

The use of the city hall was granted to the Trades and Labor Council for an assembly on Nov. 30. Its use was also granted to the Dairy Association of Western Ontario for an exhibition between Jan. 15 and 18.

AUDITORS' REPORT.

The auditors' quarterly report showed a balance of $6,972.51 on hand and a balance for sewer purposes of $10,524.92. In the council was advised that the Hospital Trust had exceeded its allotment of $1,000 by $3,000, and its expenses probably amount to the estimated $17,000. The auditors also recommended the disposal of the $30,000 of debentures yet unsold.

NUMBER THREE COMMITTEE.

According to No. 3 committee's recommendation, the application for the erection of signs on the Market Square, for drawing purposes, was held. The resignation of Wesley O'Brien, as fireman, was accepted, and Chief Lee was given power to appoint his successor.

The urgent need of more light on Grand avenue was considered by the council to necessitate the establishment of an electric light there. This action was opposed by many of the aldermen, whose objections were silenced by Ald. Wray's announcement, that it would cost only $10, and there was no danger of No. 3 committee having a deficit.

NUMBER TWO COMMITTEE.

Considerable discussion was created by No. 2's recommendation that connection be permitted to be made to the sewer on Dundas street, east of Egerton, on payment of an annual rental of $6 per foot for ten years the roadway on the south side of the street to be allowed $3 when connections are made. After discussion, all the words after "cents" were withdrawn and a clause inserted to the effect that the city should make the connections up to the fence lines.

The committee recommended confirmation of the certificate given to the Barber Asphalt Company, relieving it from further liability in regard to the Dundas and Richmond street pavements. Several of the members of No. 2 committee had accompanied the engineer in his tour of inspection, and were satisfied that the pavements were now in a proper state of repair.

Ald. Douglass and Ald. Cooper both opposed the action suggested, and, according to amendment, the clause was referred back to committee.

NUMBER ONE COMMITTEE.

The finance committee's report recommended that the preparation of local improvement accounts, re frontage rates, be made in the assessment commissioner's office, as directed by the council. At present the work is being done by Mr. Jewell, who is thus accommodating Mr. Grant during his busy season. The recommendation was carried.

MOTIONS.

Ald. Cooper's motion to have a drain constructed on Horton street, between Hurward street and the Port Stanley road, was carried.

Ald. Stevens's motion that the engineer be empowered to carry out the provincial law in connection with the fire escape at the Opera House was carried. It was explained that this was a mere matter of form, as the city had been visited by the provincial inspector only a few days ago.

Ald. Gerry's motion to have the lack of attendance at railway crossings brought to the attention of the railway companies, occasioned considerable comment. The motion was made because of the many fatal accidents that had recently occurred. Ald. Ross spoke earnestly on the subject. He considered that the possibility of such accidents happening was disgraceful. He thought the motion was too weak.

Ald. Gerry therefore withdrew his motion, and Ald. Ross substituted a notice of motion that the council take action to compel the several railway companies whose roads enter or pass through the city, to immediately provide the utmost possible protection to life, by making gates with watchmen continually in attendance, and also to put sidewalks and highways in perfect repair between the roadway and sidewalks where such intersect their railroads, and further, that as soon as practicable, at all existing level crossings where such railroads impede traffic, subways or overhead bridges be constructed; also that the council see to the enforcement of the law regulating the speed of trains within the city limits.

The bylaw providing for the transference of power from the hospital trust to the council, was given its first reading.

Another bylaw providing for the construction of a cement walk on the east side of William street, between Hill and Grey, was given its final reading.

Dyspepsia is difficult digestion, due to the absence of natural digestive fluids. Hood's Sarsaparilla restores the digestive powers.

There are only about 180 living soldiers who are entitled to wear the British Victoria Cross.

NEXT TO MURDER

A doctor, who keeps his patient at home, when he ought to send him away—for money—ought to be held responsible.

So ought we, if we mislead. Our offense is greater than his, because we endanger thousands of lives by one advertisement—millions read it.

Some few must go for a change of climate, or die; but, to thousands, Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is cure at home.

MOUNT BRYDGES.

Mount Brydges, Nov. 13.—Death is at work in our community, showing that he is no respecter of persons. Only a week ago Mr. Wesley Wilkinson, aged 20 years, who was killed in London by a falling wall, was laid to rest in Cook's Cemetery. Last Thursday evening Mr. Orval Snelgrove, barber, passed away. The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place from his mother's residence, con. 2, Delaware, on Saturday afternoon, to the Methodist Church, Mount Brydges, of which deceased was a member. After the service the remains were interred in Mount Brydges Cemetery.

Mr. Dugald Leitch, ex-warden of Middlesex (whose death is referred to elsewhere) was 73 years of age.

On Saturday evening the famous Canadian Justice Singers gave one of their excellent concerts in the Methodist Church to a large audience, who were thoroughly delighted. They remained over Sunday, and gave a sacred song service Sunday evening, in the church, which was packed to the doors.

Pte. Redge, of London, late of South African contingent, has been on a visit to friends here for a few days.

Mr. J. K. Kidd has moved into the village, and is domiciled in the house lately occupied by Mr. F. F. Loudon.

PUTNAM.

Putnam, Nov. 7.—Mr. Alex. Hackett, of this place, entertained his friends Tuesday evening, with a card and dancing party. About 80 guests were present, and dancing was continued until after 4 o'clock, to the music of Carrie Brock, violinist, of Derwent.

STRATHROY.

Advertiser Agent, J. D. Meekison. Strathroy, Nov. 12.—The Strathroy Dramatic Club will present "The Mikado" in the Lyceum, the first week in January.

Mr. J. Thompson, Head street, has sold his farm in Ennisville to Mr. Ferguson, of Brooke.

The death took place, in Caradoc, on Tuesday morning, Nov. 6, of Alex. Cowan, aged 83 years. The interment took place the following Thursday, at the Hess burying ground.

The next meeting of the Strathroy Local Union will be held in the parish rooms of St. John's Church, in February.

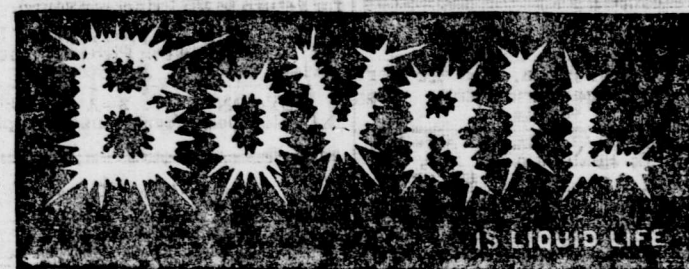

The Bible Society will hold its annual meeting in the Baptist Church, on Thursday evening next.

Dugald Leitch, a well-known resident of Caradoc, died at Mount Carmel on Saturday morning. Interment in Campbell burying ground.

The ladies' carnival and drill entertainment, under the auspices of the Lady Macabees and Collegiate Institute Cadet Corps, will be held in the Lyceum on Wednesday evening, Nov. 14. An excellent programme will be presented.

Mr. J. H. Alexander, organizer for the Canadian Order of Foresters in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, is home on a visit.

THE HORSE—nobler of the brute creation—when suffering from a cut, abrasion, or sore, derives as much benefit as its master in a like predicament, from the healing, soothing action of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Lameness, swelling of the neck, stiffness of the joints, throat and lungs, are relieved by it.

Why It Came

Scene: "Slate Shoe Store," prior to 1899:—

Customer: "Can't you give me a pair of Rubbers to fit my shoes? It seems impossible to get a Rubber that won't pinch or be loose on my foot. You know, I have a peculiar shaped foot, and have to wear one of the "Slate" special shapes. Now, why don't you people make special rubbers to fit these shapes?"

"Slate Shoe" agents had so many customers who wanted rubbers to fit "Slate Shoes" that the "Slate Shoe" makers decided to meet their wishes, and,

Last year "The Slate Shoe Rubber" made its appearance. It fits all shapes of "Slate" and other shoes.

MILLIONAIRE MARCUS DALY

How Montana's Mining King Got His Wealth.

His First Job in America Was Digging Potatoes on a California Ranch.

New York, Nov. 13.—Marcus Daly, of Montana, who died yesterday at the Hotel Netherlands, was born in Ireland and came to the United States at the age of 12. He landed at San Francisco, and secured a job digging potatoes on a neighboring ranch. He went to the mines before he was 15, grew up surrounded by gold and silver, was engaged by Mackay, Flood and O'Brien as foreman of the Comstock mine, and later removed to Montana, where he took the famous Anaconda copper deposit and became a millionaire. He owned immense farm lands, blooded horses and property which in Europe would be reckoned among princely estates. He was worth about $20,000,000 at the time of his death.

Montana's recent history has been largely the history of the Clark-Daly feud. The scars left by the strife are to be found in the state from Fort Assiniboine clear across to Fort Missoula. Yet these two giants of finance were at one time close personal friends and business associates.

It was in 1880 that Marcus Daly sold his interests in the Alice mine, and with Clark purchased a large tract of land on which is now located the Anaconda copper properties. Clark was even then a wealthy man, and while Daly stayed at home to plan great improvements and to manage the property, Clark went to Paris on pleasure bent.

He returned to Montana to find that Daly had gone far ahead with the work of improvement without consulting him. Clark was dissatisfied, and demanded that Daly either buy or sell. Daly was embarrassed somewhat financially, but having confidence in the Anaconda, he succeeded in raising the sum demanded by Clark and took over his interest. Since then he has taken $20,000,000 out of the Anaconda mine—a fact which has not made his old-time associate happy.

Out of this transaction has grown a feud which has attracted more than national interest. After his unsuccessful attempt to crush Daly, Clark found that no matter what he turned his hand to, he had to meet the opposition of Clark. Clark was in favor of a thing Daly was against it. Clark started a daily paper in Butte City; Daly put in a plant in Anaconda, and published a paper that would do credit to a metropolitan.

When Montana became a state, a dual legislature was organized. Clark and Martin Maginnis were sent to the United States Senate by the Democratic branch; T. C. Powers and W. F. Sanders by the Republicans. Daly had a part in having the latter two seated.

Again in 1893, when the coveted seat in the senate seemed within the grasp of Clark, the relentless figure of Marcus Daly loomed up, and the prize was once more snatched from the outstretched hand. Then came a battle for the state capital's location. The cities that coveted the prize were Helena, Butte City, Missoula, Bozeman and the despised Anaconda. It was supposed that Helena and Butte would fight it out. Clark lived in Butte and spent his cash liberally for his home town. When the votes were counted Helena led and Anaconda was second. Then Clark obtained revenge by throwing his strength to Helena, which finally won.

Then came the third fight for the senatorship. Clark won, but it was an empty victory. Daly carried the contest to Washington, and Clark was unseated after a sensational hearing.

In the recent elections in Montana it is said, Clark elected enough legislators to win the coveted senatorship—and now Daly is dead.

The Result in Ontario.

[Winnipeg Free Press.]

There were two prominent factors governing the result of the elections in Ontario on Wednesday—the gerrymander, and an appeal to racial and religious prejudice against the Liberal leader. Either one of these would account for the opposition majority of ten in that province. The province was shamefully gerrymandered by the Conservatives some years ago, and the result is to give the Conservatives seven or eight seats to which the Liberals are entitled by virtue of public opinion. The Liberals were "hived" in six or seven constituencies. With a proper redistribution bill these majorities would be spread over their natural areas, and the next election in Ontario for the House of Commons will undoubtedly give a Liberal majority and reflect the real sentiment of that great province. The gerrymander in Ontario and the unequal distribution of the population as between the eastern part of the province and the western, will account for fully a dozen seats. Sir Charles Tupper knew what he was doing, and so did Sir Mackenzie Bowell when they rejected a redistribution of seats in Ontario through a commission of judges.

Every city, town, village and hamlet in the Province of Ontario, as in Manitoba, was flooded with campaign literature, so written as to appeal to the Protestant and English-speaking electors to vote against the Liberal leader because their leader was Roman Catholic and of French origin. There were enough persons moved by these insidious appeals to change the result in several constituencies. One evidence that their cries took with a certain section of the population is seen in the defeat of nearly every Roman Catholic candidate on either side of politics who went to the polls. This shows that the Protestant cry raised by Sir Charles Tupper and his supporters in their campaign literature and in their public speeches had taken hold very generally throughout the province among certain classes.

The injury done to Canada, by the course of the Tupper campaign, based on sectional, racial and religious differences is very great. While Sir Wilfrid Laurier was making successful efforts to reconcile classes which had been divided by a religious cleavage in 1896, the Tupper party sought to reopen such questions for the pitiful purpose of a paltry party triumph. At the same time in the Province of Quebec the same Tupper party was appealing for the votes of the electors on the ground that Laurier was too English, too British and too eager to spring to the defense of the empire.

It was fitting that the man at the head of the organization which carried on such a criminal campaign had punishment meted out to him personally by the loss of his own seat, and a further punishment by the return of a following with diminished numbers, and by the complete loss of reputation and prestige.

We hope for better things from the public men who will in future lead the Conservative party. The country can stand a Conservative victory when the time comes, and that party shows itself entitled to the confidence of the country, but an Opposition victory on Wednesday would have been a blow at the confederation of these provinces, at the bright prospects of this young Canadian nation, and a setback to the onward course of our great empire, just as a Tupper victory in 1896 would have been an almost irretrievable disaster for the Dominion of Canada. From both these misfortunes the country has been saved by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his distinguished colleagues.

VICTIMS OF THE WRECK

The Nova Scotia Shore Strewn With Many Bodies

After the Disaster to the Steamer Monticello—A Missing Man Safe.

Yarmouth, N. S., Nov. 12.—The shore of this county for ten miles east and west is strewn with the wreckage of the hull and cargo of the steamer City of Monticello, which foundered Saturday morning, and 25 bodies of victims of the disaster have been recovered from the sea, which is still raging with terrific fury. Many people have assembled at Rockville, near where the first body came ashore, and numerous relatives of members of the crew, who nearly all belonged to points on this coast, have arrived to identify the dead.

The bodies were arranged in a room in the public hall and Coroner Fuller, who held an inquest, gave an opinion of accidental drowning. All the bodies are terribly battered.

THE BODIES PICKED UP.
The first body was found at daylight, when the zinc lifeboat, which was supposed by the survivors of the wreck to have been swamped, was discovered on the shore. The thole pins were broken. A few yards distant were the bodies of Mr. Eldridge, a passenger, and Engineer Eberle. Eberle, a traveler for McGee's Sons, of St. John, N. B., and the body of a seaman. All four had life belts around them. At short intervals along the beach eleven more bodies were found, making fifteen discovered up to noon today. They had all evidently come ashore in the lifeboat, and were killed on striking the beach, not one escaping.

IDENTIFIED REMAINS.
The remains so far identified, in addition to the four enumerated above, are:

Capt. T. M. Harding, the commander; Second Officer N. M. Murphy, of Yarmouth; Chief Steward M. C. Hopkins, Chief Engineer Charles Greig, Second Engineer Eberle, Fred Swenson, quartermaster; Stanley Ringer, deckhand; Winslow Ringer, oiler; Robert Nickerson, deckhand; Levi Nickerson, waiter; Wynne Vanenberg, cook; Walter Cunningham, waiter; Austin Wickens, waiter; David Benham, deckhand; Harold Copeland, deckhand; Elsie McDonald, passenger; Thomas C. Johnson, passenger; Philip passenger; O. W. Coltman, passenger; John Richmond, passenger; Rupert Olive, steward; A. E. S. Eldridge, passenger; Isaac H. Wilson, baggage-master; one man identified as a watchman in the pockets of two of the men stopped at 12:45 and 1:25 o'clock respectively.

SOME UNKNOWN.
The body of Capt. Harding, of the Monticello, has been found at Plenic Point, encircled with a lifebelt and fully dressed. An unknown body, supposed to be that of a traveler for a western boot and shoe firm, has been found at the same place with the bodies of Elsie McDonald and Second Officer Murphy, recovered yesterday. Of the members of the crew whose bodies were secured, Copeland and Benham were not known to be on board until their bodies were identified. They were not on the ship's articles, having joined for the trip only. Several bodies are still unidentified.

TWO COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.
One body was recognized last evening as John Richmond, of Essex, N. B., a traveler for a boot and shoe firm. He was not before known to have been a passenger. This swells the known death roll to 32. Benham took the place of Whitmore, previously reported lost. Copeland was also a substitute, but for whom it is not known.

The body of O. N. Coleman, another commercial traveler, who was not previously known to have been on board the Monticello, has been washed ashore and identified. He represented Levi Bros. & Co., jewelers, Hamilton, Ont., and carried samples in trunks worth $5,000. One trunk has been found.

Wreckage of all kinds litters the shore. Boxes, barrels, pieces of ship's boats and parts of the superstructure of the steamer.

MISSING MAN SAFE.
James Bam, a merchant, of Yarmouth, who was supposed to have been on board, is safe, having missed the steamer in St. John. Rupert Olive was crossing the bay from St. John to Yarmouth to rejoin his own steamer.

Chief Steward Hopkins, of the steamer Yarmouth, perished, having taken his brother's place for one trip.

Boston, Nov. 13.—The three-masted vessel, Myra C. Weaver, was wrecked in Vineyard Sound Saturday morning, and lives were lost. The names of those who perished are: Capt. E. S. Van Naman, of Philadelphia, aged about 35; Steward William Peterson, New Orleans; Chas. Magnusson, of Bergen, Norway; John Hejman, of Finland; Miss Mary Emerson, aged about 23, of Mobile, and Miss Ella De Boe, aged 15, also of Mobile. Miss Emerson was a sister-in-law of the captain, and Ella De Boe was her niece. These were the first names John Kearney, of Calais, Me., learned.

There were seven men appointed by the government to make the journey. In the number were included surveyors and geologists. After reaching Nipigon the party was joined by two Indian guides. The route to James' Bay is a difficult one, and is accompanied by many dangers, as the country is unexplored. The great bay was reached on Sept. 22, after traveling 70 miles. The men passed through Fort Albany and journeyed 110 miles further to Missanabie, a small station on the C. P. R. The total distance covered exceeded 2,200 miles.

Tierman says Ontario's richness is totally unknown. There are vast districts in the north which abound in minerals and timber for pulp. Spruce is found in great quantities. He says there is a great opportunity for establishing a fish industry at James' Bay. Speckled trout are found very plentifully in all the rivers flowing into the bay. He caught a few of the finny tribe himself, but was afraid to relate any experiences for fear of trespassing on the credibility of his friends. One of his catches was a seven-pounder measuring 27 inches.

Cries of Race and Creed.

The Globe says that "The Toronto Mail and the Toronto News, and all the other Little Canada journals are now threatening Hon. George W. Ross with defeat in Ontario, because he took part in the Federal elections on behalf of Sir Wilfrid Laurier." We presume the Little Canada journals are not objecting, per se, to Mr. Ross taking part in the Dominion contest, seeing that Mr. Whitney, Opposition leader in the Ontario Legislature, took the platform for Sir Charles Tupper. The objection is that the supported Sir Wilfrid Laurier. What did they expect? that he would support Sir Charles Tupper?

The point of the threatnings against the Premier of Ontario is this, that as the Conservatives obtained a majority of members of Ontario in the recent Dominion election, they think they can do the same against Mr. Ross.

There are several rifts in that lute. First, Premier Ross knows how to place Ontario in a state of efficient organization.

Second, Ontario, for the Provincial Legislature, has not been gerrymandered, so that Liberals are not "hived," and thereby robbed of the legitimate influence of their full voting strength.

Third, it is not easy to shoot off the same powder twice, and race and creed cries that may be viciously employed against the French-Canadian Premier of Canada may not be quite so successful against the Presbyterian Premier of Ontario.

There is no certainty that the next provincial campaign will be fought on sectarian lines. Some allowance must be made for the recently defeated. A little time, however, for reflection, may cause them to doubt the profitability of any campaign based on the principle of assailing and ostracizing any section of the population because of their race and creed. Once or twice in the United States it was tried and failed—noticeably in the case of what was known as the Know Nothing party. Once or twice Oliver Mowat was assailed with the sectarian cry, but the kick of the gun recoiled on those who fired the shot; so much so that the most brilliant leader of the Conservative Opposition in the province, finding himself, because of countenancing such tactics, a governmental impossibility, so far as the future was concerned, retired from political life.

In Ontario no sectarian cry against the Liberal party because of fair play to all nationalities and creeds can succeed if it is met with a courageous and manly front, and met in time. The danger of a sectarian cry is when it is an eleventh-hour cry, and there is not sufficient time to meet it with calm reasoning and an appeal to the spirit of tolerance and fair play. Perhaps the safest plan for the Liberal party is not to take for granted that the sectarian cry will not be raised by the Little Canadians against Mr. Ross, but to make the education in tolerance so continuously persistent and effective that the fire-brands will find themselves not only foiled but discredited in advance.

So far no Conservative M. P. has asked Dr. Montague to accept his seat. Why?

The Dr. Borden mentioned by some as Conservative leader is Sir Charles Tupper's son-in-law.

Sir Charles Tupper having gone out of the business as political prophet, his mantle seems to have fallen on the Toronto World editor. But William has prognosticated before, and has invariably had his prophecies falsified.

Why not syndicate the Conservative leadership for awhile? No one of the parliamentary contingent towers above his fellows as a natural leader. Even Hon. George E. Foster, good debater though he is, lacks the necessary elements of geniality and popularity, and repels rather than draws men to him.

The wisdom of Sir Charles Tupper must be known. He has retired because he knows that if he could not win with a dozen seats in Ontario stolen from the Liberals by the infamous gerrymander, he could not hope to succeed if the county boundaries were wiped out and county boundaries re-established, as will undoubtedly be the case before the next appeal to the people.

Conservative newspapers have been talking about finding seats for Hon. George E. Foster and Sir Charles Tupper in Ontario. But no one seems to be anxious to find a seat for Hon. Hugh John Macdonald. They used his name and that of his father to try to inspire enthusiasm among their friends in the first few weeks of the campaign, but now that he has been signally defeated they seem to desire to forget all about the man. Hugh John, no doubt, now deeply regrets that he did not take the advice of his best friends and refuse to become the cat's paw of leaders doomed to defeat.

The Anglo-German Agreement.

There has been considerable discussion over the Anglo-German agreement with respect to China. A certain section of the German press immediately hailed it as a diplomatic triumph for their Kaiser and their country. Some people then hastily rush to the conclusion that this means a diplomatic defeat for Britain; but this is not necessarily true. When two men have a business transaction, and one declares that he has made a good bargain, it does not necessarily mean that the other has made a poor bargain, or has been cheated. There could be no satisfactory bargaining if it was not possible to have mutual advantages.

The question for us in a matter of this kind is, does this international bargain preserve the legitimate interests of Britain, and does it make for peace? We do not believe in peace at any price. Very few sane men do. But peace is such a fundamental need, such a great blessing, that we believe in peace at any fair price. We are pleased, then, to find English journals of the Radical, anti-jingo type recognizing that in this matter Lord Salisbury seems to have made the best of the situation. That is one healthy feature of political criticism in Britain. There is, except in times of special heat, a readiness to take each question on its merits, and acknowledge good done whoever does it. This is the interpretation that a Radical journal puts on this treaty: "It simply says in effect, that England and Germany, being convinced that non-partition and the open door would be best, gives a friendly lead to the powers concerned by proclaiming that they at least will neither seek Chinese territory nor close the door. How can such a declaration be regarded as fettering England?"

The article by which these two powers in the event of complications reserve to themselves the right to come to an understanding as to the course to be taken, merely states what they would claim to do in any case. The union of the greatest sea power and the greatest land power in favor of the open door, and against the breaking up of the Chinese empire, is a check against aggressors. When we remember that the United States is in favor of the same policy, we must admit that the check is pretty strong. This makes for peace at present and lessens the cloud of danger from the jingoes of France, England or Germany. It gives the Chinese another chance. Everything, or almost everything, now depends upon China herself. If she can adjust herself to the new conditions, well and good. If China cannot rule herself, and co-operate with the rest of the world, then the break-up will come after all. In the meantime, this agreement is one of the means that gives time for fuller consideration, and insures that the partition of China shall not come unless it is really inevitable. England and Germany do not want more territory in China, but the maintenance of order there, and an open way for commerce. The United States has the same aim and policy.

Other powers may or may not be in the same position. We are not now discussing the other powers. It is an advantage for Germany to stand alongside a power like Britain that has such large interests and such long standing in China; and it is an advantage for Britain to offset the Franco-Russian alliance by an agreement with Germany. Without mutual advantage there would be no motive for such intentional bargaining.

As for the contention that Britain has given too much away, it is evident that you cannot give away that which you have not got. All that Britain has done is to the Yang Tse area, was an engagement from the Chinese Government that the valley would not be alienated to any other foreign power. That engagement still stands, and the Anglo-German agreement strengthens it. That valley runs about 3,000 miles up to Tibet, and Britain is not prepared to annex and administer it. She has sufficient on her hands without a tremendous problem of that size. As to trade, Britain is still prepared to submit to fair competition in an open market, and it is a part of the purpose of this agreement to keep the markets open to all.

No one mentions Hugh John Macdonald for leader. There never has been an administration in Canada that did, or would have dared to do, what Sir Wilfrid Laurier has done for the cause of Imperialism both in his fiscal policy and in contributing to the defense of the empire. Sir John Macdonald, when applied to by the Imperial Government to know what Canada could do for the expedition that went to the relief of Gordon, offered to allow recruiting, but pointedly refused any money aid. At the same time New South Wales sent a contingent at her own expense. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the one man who could bring a whole race into sympathy with the Empire, and this, as this election proves he has, in spite of the most malign appeals by the Conservatives to their anti-imperial sentiments, evidently done. The way in which the French-Canadians have ignored these persistent appeals, and elected the party which has been represented to them as incurring expenses in a foreign cause, is an example to our English-speaking friends who have succumbed in similar appeals against them. The result of the anti-French vote has been exactly the reverse of what was its purpose. It has given the French a far larger weight in the ruling party than they would have had if the English constituencies had not turned against them.—Montreal Witness.

The Liberals need not get hot. They used to growl around for several days after the elections themselves—Toronto Star.

We believe it can be safely asserted that up to the hour of going to press Sir Mackenzie Bowell has not sent a telegram to Dr. Montague expressing regret at his defeat.

Already there is brisk competition between Hon. Clarke Wallace and Hon. John Haggart as to which of them shall be Conservative leader from Ontario. Neither will consent to have Sir Mackenzie Bowell act as referee.

The Newfoundland Liberal Government also won in Thursday's elections. Mr. Morine, a former Canadian Conservative, who went over to the island to show them how to run things, had the mortification of seeing his party hopelessly defeated.

Never have the ties been so strong that bind us to the motherland as those that exist to day. The accusations of disloyalty that were made against various Liberal leaders in the late campaign were wholly unfounded, and the people have rebuked them most signally.

Well may the defeated and discomfited Hon. Mr. Foster now sing with Kipling's banjo:

"I am the prophet of the utterly absurd,
Of the patiently impossible and vain,
And when the thing that couldn't has occurred,
Give me time to change my leg and go again."

We observe that the Liberal vote in Chatham city was very much increased in the polling last Wednesday, thus adding to the handsome majority for Mr. Stephens, the enterprising business man who will in future be the representative of the constituency in Parliament. Chatham's progress towards complete emancipation is thus marked. Next time the city will join London in the Liberal column.

There is no doubt that the Conservative landslide in Ontario is largely due to the excellent work of Samuel Barker and A. W. Wright, the Conservative organizers for this Province.—Hamilton Herald.

We are not sure that the foregoing compliment is not deserved. It will not do for the Liberals to leave Ontario without effective organization. Organization and repeal of the gerrymander will make an immense difference next time.

The fate of the Dewey arch is sad and lamentable, but in its doom the disappearing monument teaches an impressive lesson of the vanity of unwise hero worship. It is no disparagement to the achievements or merits of Admiral Dewey to insist that if the magnificent conception had been popularly accepted as a monument to our soldiers and sailors, the money needed to perpetuate it would have been forthcoming. As it is, not only does New York lose one of its finest ornaments, but the cause of art suffers a setback by the very unpleasant experience of the sculptors and architects who gave their services to the design and construction of the splendidly beautiful temporary arch.—New York World.

HONORED BY
ST. ANDREW'S

Mrs. (Rev.) Murray Receives an Evidence of the Affection in Which She is Held.

Made the Recipient of a Valuable Coat and Appreciative Addresses—Enjoyable Congregational Reception.

A very pleasant time was spent last night by a majority of the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, the occasion being a reception to which all the adult members of the church had been invited. The reception took place in the lecture room, and the attendance was such as to tax the room to its utmost capacity. A most enjoyable programme was introduced by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Johnston, who acted as chairman. Among those taking part were Miss Harrison, Miss Constance Fraser and Mrs. Wheeler, in vocal solos; Mr. McIntosh and Mrs. Wheeler, duet; Miss Francis, instrumental solo, and a selection by the St. Andrew's quartet. Mr. Charles E. Wheeler acted as accompanist. At the close of the evening's proceedings supper was served in the Bible class and infant class rooms, which were artistically decorated. Thirty of the young ladies of the congregation acted as attendants. The reception was made the occasion of welcoming to the congregation a number of families and individuals who have recently connected themselves with the church.

The most pleasing feature of the evening, however, transpired about 9 o'clock, when the chairman requested Mrs. (Rev.) J. A. Murray, widow of the late pastor of the church, who is leaving the city to reside in Detroit, Mrs. (Rev.) Dr. Johnston and Mrs. Alex. Stuart, to come forward to the platform. They did so, and Mrs. Johnston, on behalf of the ladies of the congregation, presented Mrs. Murray with a handsome and valuable Persian lamb coat, assuring her at the same time of the love and esteem in which she has been and will always be held by the entire congregation, and hoping that the accompanying gift would be a reminder of the many friends she left behind her, and of the sorrow with which her departure from London was viewed.

Mrs. Murray, who appeared overcome by the expression of regard tendered her, made a feeling reply, in which she said that while she needed no reminder of the feelings entertained toward her by the people of St. Andrew's she would always prize her gift because of the associations and because of the love which had prompted it.

Mr. Alex. Purdon, chairman of the board of management, then read the following resolution, which had been passed by the board:

Moved by Mr. James M. McSweeney,
seconded by Mr. James A. Carracross, that this board do most earnestly and sincerely regret to hear of the death of our most valued member, Mrs. Murray, widow of our late esteemed pastor, the Rev. J. Allister Murray. They desire to put on record their appreciation of the services rendered by her, she having been for the past 25 years so closely connected with the congregation of St. Andrew's Church, and during all that time she has been a faithful and earnest worker of the various Christian activities of the church, and, in fact, some of them owe the high position they have attained to her individual efforts. She always used her influence for the promotion of everything pertaining to the welfare of the church, and was also one of the foremost in our city in looking after the poor of the congregation, and doing women's work generally. In losing her, St. Andrew's Church will lose a kind and firm friend. All the members of the board are personally acquainted with her, and most of them remember the first time she came to live in London. She has still the same cheerful face, the same bright and happy disposition she had then. So faithful has been her attendance at church that during the quarter of a century she has only been away four or five times to attend other churches. We think this a good omen that wherever Mrs.

Murray's future home may be, she will never forget old St. Andrew's, London, because her heart is there, and always will be, and we assure her that St.
Andrew's will never forget her. She will always be remembered for her good influence and the sunshine she has left behind. The majority of the members of the board were for a number of years in Mr. Murray's Bible class, and the good work done there and by him as pastor of this congregation will never be forgotten. The board trust that God's blessing will follow Mrs. Murray and her family in their new home, and that she may be spared for many years to enjoy the useful gift given to her tonight by the ladies of St. Andrew's congregation.

Mr. James Mills, on behalf of the congregation referred to the universal affection with which Mrs. Murray was held by the members of the church, and said that from the highest to the lowest home she was ever a welcome guest.

Mr. C. R. Somerville as clerk of the session, spoke of the energy and devoted spirit which Mrs. Murray had manifested in every department of church work, she having shown herself always ready to undertake any duty which was conducive to the advancement of any of the church or organizations or the congregation as a whole.

Mrs. Murray has been a member of the congregation of St. Andrew's for over 25 years, since the time her late husband was installed as its pastor.
Her departure from London will be greatly felt, not alone in her own church, and in Presbyterian circles generally, but also in the city at large, for she has always taken a leading and active part in general charitable work, and in doing so has endeared herself to all classes of London's citizens. Mrs. Murray is leaving to make her home with one of her sons in Detroit, where both occupy responsible positions with the Parke Davis Company.

The New York Journal has a Washington dispatch saying that Secretary of State Hay will return to the court of St. James as the ambassador from the United States.

A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM—The intrusion of uric acid into the blood vessels is a fruitful cause of rheumatic pains. This irregularity is owing to a deranged and unhealthy condition of the liver. Anyone subject to this painful affection will find a remedy in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. Their action upon the kidneys is pronounced and most beneficial, and by restoring healthy action, they arrest inflammations in the blood.

Consolation.

[Hamilton Spectator.]
While our good friends, the enemy, are lustily singing "There is sunshine in my soul today" because of Laurier's victory elsewhere, the Conservatives in Hamilton can take up the refrain, because it is as well with us as it is.

Laugh, and the world laughs with you;
Weep, and you weep alone.

There is a world of truth in the little couplet.

Catastrophe of a Personal Character.

[Events, Ottawa.]

Messrs. Tarte, Sifton and Blair have come off triumphantly. Sifton, I thought, was surely done for, and my advice from Brandon were to that effect, but within the last two weeks a catastrophe of a personal character paralyzed the Conservatives, and gave the victory to Sifton by a very small majority. It was a life and death struggle for him, and he lives, and comes back to Ottawa a stronger man than ever by reason of this victory. As for Tarte and Blair, there is not likely to be any more heard of their going out of the cabinet.

The Creed and Race Campaign.

[Toronto Globe.]

One of the Conservative workers in London made this appeal to a Liberal to vote against the Liberal candidate in these words:

"Help us as Englishmen to win our fight against the Church of Rome.
Hyman, as a man, has had my support before, and has never had my support need to stand shoulder to shoulder
as now."

This was the argument made by the Tory workers and canvassers all over the province. And we are bound to say the campaign was carried on with great secretness and with extraordinary effectiveness. The Tory method of attack was made doubly effective where Catholics were in the field as Liberal candidates. There the cry was, "Vote against the Catholic candidate of a Catholic premier." This conspiracy has been in progress for months, and this was the basis of the extraordinary confidence of the Conservative politicians that they would carry Ontario. No more wretched or discreditable campaign was ever carried on in this Province, and so far as the Globe is concerned it intends that all the truth shall be known and the odium and responsibility placed where they belong.

A Word to the Weary and Sickly Mother.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Will Make You Happy and Healthy.

It Has Given a New Life to Thousands of Ailing Women and Will Do the Same Good Work For You.

The medicine that has given new health and a fresh lease of life to thousands of women in Canada, is surely the kind you stand in need of, dear mother.

If you are weak, nervous, despondent, have headache, dizziness, backache, and cannot sleep well, Paine's Celery Compound will give you restful nights, good appetite, freedom from aches and pains, and restore lost strength and vitality. The most successful family physicians are now freely prescribing Paine's Celery Compound for sleepless, nervous and run-down women. Laura Garland, Crawford street, Toronto, says:

"Your Paine's Celery Compound has most wonderfully improved my health. Before using it my appetite was poor—almost gone. I was also weak and debilitated, and suffered severely from pains in the head. Paine's Celery Compound certainly does all that is claimed for it. I have recommended it to my friends, and they all speak highly of the results received from it. I wish Paine's Celery Compound the success it so richly deserves."

ANOTHER ONE FOR LAURIER

Liberal Candidate in Algoma Has a Big Majority.

Election in Nipissing Takes Place Dec. 5.—Corrected Returns—Some Candidates Who Lost Their Deposits.

ALGOMA, Nov. 12.—The heavy storm prevented a large vote being polled. There are over 14,000 voters, but only about 5,000 votes were polled. Mr. Dymont's majority is about 275, with Manitoulin Island and Michipicoten to hear from, which will probably increase the majority.

Winnipeg, Nov. 12.—Eleven places have been heard from in Algoma, where an election for the commons was held today. They give Mr. Dymont, Liberal, 231 majority over Mr. Boyce, Conservative. The re-election of Mr. Dymont is conceded.

Port Arthur, Nov. 13, 12:25 a.m.—Latest returns from 50 polls give Mr. Dymont 250 majority. Three polls on E. A. D. and W. Railway give Mr. Dymont a majority. Mr. Dymont's total so far is 300.

A RECOUNT IN OTTAWA. Ottawa, Nov. 12.—An evening paper announces that the Conservative Association has decided to ask for a recount in Ottawa. Mr. Belcourt was 23 votes ahead of Ald. Champagne.

NIPISSING ELECTION. Ottawa, Nov. 13.—The election in Nipissing will take place on Dec. 5. All the elections will be over by Dec. 6th.

McCREARY IN SELKIRK. The missing polls in Selkirk, Man., have been heard from, and insure Mr. F. W. McCreary's election as Liberal member by about 19 majority.

GREAT SEND-OFF FOR SIFTON. Winnipeg, Nov. 13.—Winnipeg never had a more enthusiastic meeting than that held last night under the auspices of the Winnipeg Liberals to celebrate the victory of Hon. Clifford Sifton, minister of the interior, at the polls at Brandon over Hon. Hugh John Macdonald. The Winnipeg Theater, the most spacious auditorium in the city, was crowded to the doors, stage included, with prominent Liberal citizens, many of them with their wives. In its representative character and in the enthusiasm which burst forth again and again during the evening the meeting was an immense tribute to Mr. Sifton and the other Liberal candidates who have fought the good fight of Liberalism in the west, and a worthy celebration of the victory won to Mr. Sifton, personally, emerging as he has emerged, vindicated and victorious, from the most formidable and malignant onslaught ever made upon any public man in the history of Canada; the meeting was a most remarkable tribute of confidence and admiration.

NORTH LANARK. Almonte, Nov. 12.—Corrected returns from North Lanark place the majority for Mr. Rosamond at four. The official count takes place on Wednesday, the 14th. A recount is likely to be asked for.

NO TRUTH IN THE STORY. Ottawa, Nov. 12.—There is no foundation for the rumor of changes in the cabinet by transferring Sir Richard Cartwright to the office of high commissioner and elevating Hon. Jas. Macdonald to the portfolio of trade and commerce, and Sir Strathearn to return to London as high commissioner and continue in that office.

NOTES. East Elgin official figures: A. B. Ingram, Conservative, elected by 151 majority.

West Elgin official figures: Robinson, Independent Conservative, 1,805; McGugan, Liberal, 1,766; Casey, Independent Liberal, 1,180.

South Perth—The official declaration gives Erb, Liberal, a majority of 10 in South Perth.

West York—Mr. Clarke Wallace's (Cons.) majority over Mr. Arch. Campbell (Lib.) is 820.

The official majority of Hon. William Patterson in Ventworth and North Brant is 1,098. David G. C. Bickerton over Ekers in St. Lawrence division of Montreal is 982.

The People's Party candidates in Toronto, Messrs. Hargrave and Stevenson, lost their deposits.

In West York Mr. Wallace's majority was 874.

Mr. George Smith, of Clarke township, who will be 100 years of age in May, next, voted at the recent election in West Durham.

Hon. Dr. Montague, says the Toronto Telegram, though deprived of his seat in parliament, has secured an office which carries with it a comfortable salary. He has been appointed Canadian organizer of the Independent Order of Foresters. He has a contract for three years at an annual salary of $4,000.

THE ESTATE OF S. ALCORN

A Will Case That Is of Considerable Local Interest.

Judgment by consent has been given by Mr. Justice Meredith, at Toronto, in the action brought by John Macdonald to establish the will of his grandfather, the late Samuel Alcorn. The estate was valued at $500,000, and the daughter, Mrs. Macdonald, of the whole estate, and under the law of Quebec where her father and mother had been married, she, her mother's heir, was entitled to one-half of the estate.

The old Upper Canada law recognized community of interest between husband and wife, and vesting one-half of the property of both in each party to the matrimonial contract. Mr. Alcorn's second wife was formerly his nurse, and the relations between her and Mrs. Macdonald were somewhat strained.

Several years before his death Mr. Alcorn made a will, leaving the bulk of his property to Mrs. Macdonald and her children, but this will he took from his solicitor's hands after his second marriage, and it has disappeared. The court holds that as no later will is found, the former one must stand good. It is also decided that the Quebec law holds good, and that Mrs. Macdonald is entitled to one-third of the balance under the Quebec statute. Mrs. Alcorn gets the family residence, $50,000 in cash and $5,000 in stocks.

ROMANTIC AFFAIR

In Which a Popular London Young Lady Figures.

Is Said to Have Left the City and Married a Young Englishman—Story of a Pretty Romance.

About five months ago a young Englishman came to Canada and went to a farm near Woodstock, where he was to engage in the learning of agricultural pursuits, after the fashion of so many young sons of English families. His name was David Howard. He was a pleasant-looking chap, of agreeable manner and apparently well educated. His appearance gave color to the story that he told, that of being the son of an exceedingly rich merchant in Liverpool. The climate of England did not agree with him, so he had been sent to Canada to recuperate. Howard was not content with farm life, so he moved to this city, and worked for a while in a bank here. Some months ago his name and that of a young musical student here were frequently mentioned together, and at one time there was a widespread rumor that there had been a clandestine marriage and elopement. Subsequent events proved that this was not so, and that Mr. Howard had gone away for a short time, but returned soon afterwards, and their intimacy became more marked than ever. They decided to marry, and at a late date was decided upon and preparations for the wedding hastened. They determined that they would seek their fortune in Detroit. When the first rumor gained credence, the young lady's father, who lives in the northern Huron district, was made aware of "the state" of affairs. He visited the city, and met his daughter's suitor. A stormy scene resulted. Subsequently, however, Mr. Howard is supposed to have met the father by arrangement, and proved to his satisfaction that he was really whom he claimed to be, the only son of a rich man, and that he desired to marry his daughter. As to his future outlook, he was already receiving a handsome allowance from home, and he expected to receive an immense sum from his father.

So it was settled, and Monday was set as the day for the departure from London. Yesterday morning young Howard was in jubilant spirits. He said that he had just received $5,000 from his father, and with permission to travel in the States, and orders to meet him next summer in New York.

Instead of carrying out the parental injunction, he decided to go to Detroit, where he intended to marry his girl he loved, and the future would be one rosy dream—if his father did not cut him off a possibility that he had not thought about. If business did not prosper, he would go on to the stage. In England he had often taken part in private theatricals, and so he said, had received an offer of a part in George Edwards' London production, "The Rake's Progress." His intended bride could sing also, so they wouldn't starve, anyway. His fair sweetheart would rather be married where her parents could be present. He didn't care where they were married. He mentioned incidentally that Monday evening's train to Detroit would suit him, and the young lady told a friend that she was going to Detroit last night.

Today they cannot be found at the boarding-house where they lived.

Belgian Traveler Tells of the Terrible Scenes

That Came Under His Own Observation in the Amur River.

London, Nov. 13.—The Globe this afternoon publishes a letter from a Belgian gentleman, who has been traveling to Pekin via the Trans-Siberian Railroad. He describes, under date of Sept. 5, what he saw in the Amur River. His account surpasses in horror those previously published.

"The scenes I have witnessed during the three days since the steamer left Blagovetchensk," he says, "are horrible beyond the powers of description. It is the closing tableaux of a fearful human tragedy.

"Two thousand were deliberately drowned at Moro, 2,000 at Kaba, and 3,000 around Blagovetchensk, a total of 12,000 corpses encumbering the river, among which were bodies of women and children. Navigation was all but impossible.

"Last week a boat had to plow her way through a tangle of and tangled mass of corpses, lashed together by their long hair. The banks were literally covered with corpses. In the curves of the stream were dark, putrid, smelly masses of human flesh and bone, surging and swaying in the steamer's wake and wash. The captain vainly ordered full speed ahead. The sight and smell will be ever with us.

"From Blagovetchensk to Aigun, 45 kilometers, numerous villages studied the banks, with a thriving industrial population of over 100,000. That of Aigun was 20,000. No one will ever know the number of those who perished by shot, sword and steam. Not a village is left. The silence of death was awful. The smoking walls of Aigun on the right, with broken down crumbling walls, and shattered, roofless houses."

LONDON'S FINEST SONGSTRESS

The Success That Has Been Attained by Miss Dora Taylor, Who Sings Here Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow evening those Londoners who are at all musically inclined will have the first opportunity of hearing Miss Dora Taylor sing—that is, of course, the new Dora Taylor, for she has returned from New York so completely changed in all except her own womanly soul, that only those who knew and admired her before she went to the metropolis, can appreciate how vastly she has improved.

"My voice is so much stronger," she said today to an Advertiser reporter. "I understand what is required of me. I have the finish, you know." He did know a few moments after, when Miss Taylor, with a graceful modesty that is altogether becoming to her, sang for the pleasure of the little group about her. They were truly delighted, and said they they be, for the singer is undoubtedly the finest artist who has ever claimed London as her home.

When asked of her experiences in New York, she said:

"Well, you know, I studied first with Signor Agmonetti, and then with Lewis Arthur Russell. They are great masters. I worked hard—very, very hard. There are so many there, and I had to work hard to succeed. It was worth it, though," she added, smilingly, "for the improvement has been absolutely wonderful."

Her success was such that she had the distinction several times of blending her glorious contralto with the voices of famous artists of the Metropolitan Opera Company, among them being Clementine de Vere. She sang also with J. H. McKinley, who is famed as a tenor throughout America. With many other well-known singers she has appeared, and she has sung with splendid success in many of the large cities of the Eastern States.

"I go on here to the Grand New York," she said, "on Friday, I sing there at a concert given by the Woman's Morning Music Club. Then on Saturday I go to New York to sing at the park, which is being given in the Park Church. Mrs. Van Rensselaer, one of New York's social leaders, is president of the club that is giving it."

Further conversation showed that Miss Taylor is not content with the success she has already gained. She is boundlessly ambitious. She has already attained a height so far beyond what she had dared to hope for, yet her remark, "I must study more and more," spoken so determinedly, made it apparent that she proposes to reach a still higher plane of artistic success; and who shall say, after hearing her magnificent voice, or enjoying the charm of her personality, that her desire will not be accomplished?

REV. MR. ASH'S CASE

His Claim Against the Methodist Church Dismissed by Court of Appeals.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, Nov. 13.—The court of appeal this morning dismissed the appeal of Rev. J. C. Ash in his suit against the Methodist Church.

The Bay of Quinte Conference had refused to give Mr. Ash a charge and this incidentally deprived him of his right to participate in the superannuation fund.

The case has gone through all of the church and lay courts, and the court of appeal now refuses to interfere with the discipline of the church.

PRESBYTERY OF LONDON

Meeting in First Presbyterian Church—Business Largely Routine.

The Presbytery of London met today in the First Presbyterian Church, there being a good attendance. Rev. A. Wilson, of Newbury, presided, and Rev. A. Henderson acted as clerk. The business transacted was mostly of a routine character, the examining of session records occupying a large portion of the morning session.

A petition was presented from the congregation, praying that the congregational session be granted the privilege of making their own arrangements as to time and place of holding service. The presbytery is in session this afternoon.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, president, and Mrs. S. M. D. Fry, corresponding secretary, have issued a call for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to meet in 27th annual convention at Washington, D. C., Nov. 30 to Dec. 7.

DEATH OF MRS. JESSE JAMES.

Kansas City, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Zerkla James, widow of Jesse James, the noted southwestern bandit, died at her home here today. She was a Miss Minna, born near Kansas City in 1844, and married James in 1874. Mrs. James was with her husband when he was shot and killed by Bob Ford, one of the bandit's former companions, near St. Joseph, in April, 1881.

Lola's Secret,

A Romance.

"What we want to discover," continued the Squire, "is the writer of the letter and the person that he went to see. I am afraid, Dolores, that we have a clue. Whether it will pain you or not, my child, I cannot tell; but I am afraid—may I say that I am quite sure that the person your husband went to see was Lola de Ferras?"

She sprang from her arms, and cried out; but her words were unintelligible. Her ghastly face frightened them. "I will not believe it!" she said, after awhile. "My husband would not go to meet Lola de Ferras, the woman who hates me, and who has sworn vengeance against me. Papa, why do you say that?"

"My dear, it is true. As I was driving home along the Deeping road last night with James Ashford, I saw a lady walking. Her eyes were cast down, and she seemed hurried in thought; but I recognized her in a moment as Lola de Ferras. Wishing to be sure, I said to James, 'Who is that?' He looked, and answered immediately, 'Miss de Ferras, sir.' But I noticed that the moment she saw my attention drawn toward her, she pulled down her veil and walked on swiftly. She evidently did not want me to see her. I drove past her and took no notice. I saw that she was going towards Scarsdale, and I wondered at that, because I knew that you had not parted on good terms. You had told me so. Now Lord Rhysworth will tell you what he saw."

"I do not know Miss de Ferras," said his lordship. "But last evening I went for a walk through the woods. You know where the Deeping Hurst woods join yours? A path branches off there, and leads to the paddings that skirt your portion of the woods. I followed it, and when I had reached the paddings I stood for some moments leaning against them. Looking toward the other end, I saw Sir Karl walking with a lady. She was crying, and seemed to be pleading to him. I could see that she was tall, with a graceful figure and a dark, beautiful face, over which she drew her veil. She presently said something to Sir Karl, and he turned and looked in her direction. Whether he saw me or not I cannot tell; but as he turned I walked away, as I had no wish to seem intrusive. That is all I have to tell you, Lady Allamorne."

"There is one person more who can give information," said the Squire; "and that is Ashford, the groom. He, I think, saw the last of Sir Karl."

He rang the bell, trying to hide from his sight his "august's" colored face. "I were I twenty years younger," he said to himself. "I would follow him to the end of the world, and thrash him! Send James Ashford here," he said, and a servant who answered the summons.

In a few minutes the groom stood before them. He looked pale and agitated. "Don't ask me, sir," he said, "to distress my lady. I cannot speak before her." Like every other servant in the house he almost worshipped his beautiful, gentle mistress, who never spoke sharply, and was so unexpecting. "I cannot distress my lady," he said again; but the Squire answered him sternly.

"You must speak the truth. When did you see Sir Karl last?" "My lady," cried the man, "I would rather be killed than pan you."

"Speak," she said, in a faint voice.

The Torture of ECZEMA Prevented Sleep.

Mr. Paul Lariviere, Meadowville Station, Pictou Co., N.S., writes as follows: "I shall always praise Burdock Blood Bitters as the best remedy for skin diseases. I had been suffering from Salt Rheum or Eczema for the past five years and could not get any rest from the terrible burning and itching, which was worse at night and prevented me sleeping."

"Hearing of B.B.B. I thought I would try it, and after using one bottle was so much relieved that I continued using it, taking six bottles in all, and am now completely cured."

It is a blessing that there is such a reliable remedy as B.B.B. for those tortured day and night with terrible skin diseases and who can get no relief from their misery.

Apply it externally and it takes out the fire and itch and aids in the healing process. Take it internally and it purifies the blood of all those poisons which are the source of skin eruptions.

B.B.B. Cures Eczema and all Burning, Itching Skin Diseases.

from her? Yet Dolores felt convinced that Karl had not ceased to love her. If ever any man had seemed devoted to a woman, he had appeared so to her on the very night of his disappearance. Who could have been more kind or more tender? It was impossible that he, so upright and honorable, should have gone away with Lola. She would never believe it. Lola had written to him, and he had not told her the contents of the letter. Lola had sent for him to meet her unknown to his wife, and he had gone. But, in spite of all that she knew that he would never leave her for Lola, why should he when he loved her with all his heart?

"And the children?" she cried aloud. "Do you think that, even if Karl could leave me, he would leave them? Never! There is some treachery, some mistake! He has not left me, my darling, my husband, my love! Oh, come back to me, Karl, or I shall die."

It was almost a relief to them when at length insensibility deprived her for a time of all knowledge of the trouble which had fallen upon her.

"I could almost pray that she might die in her unconsciousness," said the Squire, with a heavy sigh. "Great Heaven, how little did I ever think that such a fate would overtake my child."

"Do you really believe that Sir Karl has been foolish and wicked enough to elope with that girl?" asked Lord Rhysworth.

"Knowing what we do, I see little reason to doubt it," answered the Squire. "I would give my life to find that he was innocent, to see him back the upright, honorable man that I have hitherto believed him to be. I cannot help thinking him guilty. There is no doubt the girl loved him, and no one knows what a woman can persuade even the most sensible men to do."

But Dolores, who lay seriously ill, still retained her faith in her husband.

"I shall never believe it," she said, "until I hear it from his own lips or from hers."

In the meantime the news had spread that the baronet had disappeared. The whole neighborhood was in a commotion about it. No one would credit the story. It seemed utterly impossible that Sir Karl, whose marriage had been a perfect love match, who had been loved by his wife, should have left them deliberately.

Sporting

Jeffries Wants to Fight Fitzsimmons, Ruhl or Sharkey.

Has Posted a Forfeit—Mr. Balfour Praises Golf—Challenge for the Canada's Cup.

FISTIC.

SIX ROUNDS. Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 12.—Jack O'Brien, of this city, had the better of Jimmy Handier, of Newark, N. J., tonight in a six-round fight at the Pennsylvania Athletic Club.

BANTAM CHAMPIONSHIP. London, Nov. 12.—The National Sporting Club last evening a 20-round contest for the bantam championship between Pedler Palmer and Harry Ryan resulted in a victory for the latter, although Palmer showed himself a better man than his opponent, and held the fight on points until toward the end, when Ryan showed to advantage.

RYAN WON FROM THORNE. Chicago, Nov. 12.—Tommy Ryan easily disposed of Jeff Thorne, of England, at the Chicago Athletic Club, tonight in a six-round fight. The fight was to have been for six rounds, but early in the third Ryan landed a right cross-counter on the jaw that put the Englishman to sleep. The fight was Ryan's, and in the third round Thorne became ambitious, and made several leads at Ryan. The latter ducked the first of them, and shot a counter that ended the fight.

JEFFRIES WANTS TO FIGHT. New York, Nov. 12.—James J. Jeffries, the heavy-weight pugilist, is anxious to meet Bob Fitzsimmons, Gus Ruhl or Tom Sharkey in a glove contest, in order to show that he is prepared to defend his title.

As a result of the challenge issued on Saturday by James J. Jeffries, offering to fight Bob Fitzsimmons, Gus Ruhl or Tom Sharkey, and a telegram from Fitzsimmons declining a match on account of engagements lasting until May next, Jeffries last night made the following statement: "If Fitzsimmons does not come to terms by Wednesday I shall arrange to meet Ruhl or Sharkey on terms to be agreed upon. It is my intention to fight at least once a year. My choice of battleground would be Nevada, for there we could go to a finish, and in such a contest there would be no doubt as to who is the better man. The Madison, Ruhl's manager, telegraphed last night that Ruhl will at once post a forfeit to bind the match."

FOOTBALL. PLAYED IN SIX INCHES OF SNOW. Montreal, Nov. 12.—The football match between the Montreal and Britannia Saturday was a remarkable one. In the first place, it was played in six inches of wet, clammy, disagreeable snow. In the second place, it was over and finished by ten minutes past four—very short time. It was easily visible that the team which used the foot would be the winning one. Running was out of the question in the deep, clinging snow, and here was where Britannia was weakest. The final score was: Montreal 11, Britannia 1.

TURF. AT NEW YORK. New York, Nov. 12.—Bad starting and a marked racing at the Aqueduct today. In the third race the jockeys, with the exception of Thompson on Miss Mitchell, were in the act of pulling up when the flag was dropped. Cephalgia was left at the post, and by the time the field had gone half a mile Miss Mitchell and Come to Order were ten lengths before the field, which was strung out for a furlong. Miss Mitchell won by ten lengths, while the favorite, Leon Ferguson, was second, four lengths before Fatalist. Two favorites won, Sir Florian in the fourth and Barrette in the fifth. Sir Florian made all the running and won easily from Borough, and Barrette, off none too well, won by a rush and won cleverly from the pacemaker, Alzona. Prince Richard at 8 to 1 won the first race ridden out. Godfrey, on whom Williams rode a careless race, and Mid-latch, at 30 to 1, won the second a head before Gladerun and Roe Hampton. Roe Hampton and Military were off running, and made the pace, while Gladerun was all but left. Sharp persevered with him, however, and at the end was beaten only a short head. The Rhymers and Belle of Troy were equal favorites in the last race, but Rhymers was first home. Sharp kept him well up all the way, and coming away when The Rhymers stopped, he won cleverly from Belle of Troy. The weather was clear, track fast.

ACCUSED OF "PULLING." London, Nov. 12.—In view of the local stewards of Liverpool having recommended Wishard, the trainer, and Lester Reiff, the jockey, for an explanation of the Doncaster running of Mr. Richard Croker's horse, Scotchman II., it is regarded in racing circles as likely that Reiff's license will be canceled. Lord Durham today plainly accused Reiff of "pulling."

GOLF. MR. BALFOUR PRAISES GOLF. London, Nov. 12.—The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour has delighted his fellow-enthusiasts in golf by solemnly affirming that he would rather be a scratch player than a member of parliament. He said many more laudatory things about the game.

Among the merits of golf, to his mind, was that it taught a man how to win and how to lose. He was glad that it taught one how to lose, because he had had that experience that afternoon, and he frankly confessed that he would rather lose a game than not play at all. He believed that golf was destined to play a great part in the social life of the country, a much greater part than dreamed of at all at present. He said he had personal experience of the great pleasure it conferred, the rest it provided for overworked brains, and the help it had given unexercised muscles.

Another good point about golf, he said, is that it is essentially a game for every class. It is not expensive; at any rate, it need not and ought not to be.

YACHTING. FOR THE CANADA'S CUP. Toronto, Nov. 12.—The Royal Canadian Yacht Club decided Saturday night to issue a challenge for the Canada's Cup, now held by the Chicago Yacht Club, as a result of the Genesee summer regatta.

The race will be sailed next summer, and the terms, rules and conditions will be settled at a conference between representatives of the two clubs. As the cup is held by virtue of the victory of a Rochester yacht, Rochester men may want to say something as to the conditions of the race. But the general view here is that the American yachtmen will decide to have it sailed at Buffalo during the Pan-American Exhibition. There will be several designs from which the challenger may be built, and Mr. George H. Goddard is credited with the intention of sparring no expense to bring the Canada's cup back to the Dominion.

THE TRAVELERS Annual Meeting of Dominion Association in Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 13.—The annual general meeting for the Dominion Association of the Dominion Commercial Travelers' Association was held on Saturday evening. The president, Mr. Max Murdoch, in introducing the business of the evening, stated that at the last annual meeting the association numbered 3,475 members, and that during the year this had been increased by about 300. During the year they had lost by death 44 members, which was an unusually large number. Notwithstanding this fact, they carried forward a larger surplus than ever.

Nominations were then opened for officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, James G. Croft, and for vice-president, James Robertson; treasurer, R. O. Demers and J. S. N. Douglass; directors, John Hughes, A. R. Colvin, R. Booth, J. M. Tasse, W. J. Egan, A. M. Ramsay and W. E. Dixon.

THE GHOST Of our boyhood resolved itself to an old tree when we had courage to examine it. Manhood has its ghosts, which, to the man who has courage to confront them, prove to be as harmless as the ghosts of boyhood. One of the ghosts which scare a great many people is the ghost of lung disease. But experience shows this ghost to be very harmless. In cases almost innumerable "weak" lungs have been made strong, obstinate coughs have been stopped, and bronchial affections cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. And these cures have been wrought in many cases after the doctor had said: "There is no help for you."

Don't give in to the superstition of a past age. Give the "Golden Medical Discovery" a fair and faithful trial. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"When I commenced taking your medicine eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. C. A. Sunderland of Chandler, Calver Co., Mo. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pain in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicine. I bought a bottle of the Golden Medical Discovery, took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better; then you directed me to take the Golden Medical Discovery, and I have taken eighteen bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery, twelve of the Favorite Prescription, and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can walk with more ease than I could formerly walk."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FAIRBAIN

MERCHANT TAILOR, Opp. City Hall Upstairs

Middlesex.

Work has commenced on the new union passenger station at Glencoe. The new station will closely resemble the one recently erected by the G. T. R. at Point Claire, Que., which is in every respect a model of neatness and convenience. There will be a large general waiting-room, a ladies' private waiting-room, a baggage room, an express room, and agents' ticket and telegraph offices—all to be finished in oil, while the exterior will be shaped artistically with cottage roof and dome, and will present an imposing appearance. The work is already well under way, and with the large force of men engaged the station should be ready for occupation before the year is out.

About 2 o'clock a.m. on Friday last the residence of Mr. Geo. Carter, half a mile south of Clarendon, was destroyed by fire, together with the greater part of the contents. Scarcely a part of the family to save property than in this instance, the hair and clothing of each member having been several times on fire. Mrs. Carter is now confined to bed as a result of burns, while Mr. Levi Carter only escaped by jumping from the upstairs window. In addition to the furniture, several watches, as well as a considerable amount of currency, was lost. The origin of the fire is unknown. Small insurance in London Mutual.

is all it costs to have your bicycle taken apart, thoroughly cleaned and lubricated, stored in a warm, dry room until required next spring. It is also insured against loss by fire.

Let us send for it now and we will deliver it next spring in good running order. Phone 800.
