smokes a good deal, being supplied with cigars by compassionate men cutside the jail. Yesterday he finished putting up a number of souvenirs for friends, to be delivered atter his death. Bouquets of flowers were received by him, and he received a number of letters, telegrams and the finally at 10 minutes before 2 he roceived a number of letters, telegrams and the ravings of persons who appealed to the man's corduroy coat. He discussed to their hero's life become hysterical and extravagantly threatening, or they were protected to the man's corduroy coat. He discussed to the man' examination to Lincoln College, Oxford, where his riotous career is still fresh in the memories of his contemporary students and teachers. During his vacation of 1887 his love for theatricals led to his appointment as acting manager for Mr. Edward Colona, a popular tragedian. His first association with this country commenced in the following year, when he left England for Woodstock on Nov. 21 in order to experience farm life, and it was there that he and his wife figured as the sensational Lord and Lady Somerset. Birchall left Woodstock in May, 1889, returning to England where he rosided with his father-in-law, Mr. David Stevenson, general traffic superintendent of the London and Northwestern Railway Company. He subsequently became the advertising agent of a fashionable firm of photographers in London—Mayell & Co.—his contract ending in November of the same year. After the severance of his connection with that firm he entered upon the fraudulent speculating scheme by which Benwell was induced to come to Canada in his company in Pahrayer. 1890.

VOICES OF THE PEOPLE.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

I see by your columns that another fine young man has fallen a victim to drink. Hardly a week passes without some such evidence of the ravages of the destroyer in our midst, and yet people who would be shocked by any other form of death seem perfectly indifferent to it in this form. Is it that people have become callous to the perfectly indifferent to it in this form. Is it that people have become callous to the sufferings of their fellow-creatures, or is it that drink has got the mastery of so many that so little effort is made to put an end to it? We are truly a wonderful people; one part are authorized by law to manufacture poverty and distress, whilst another portion are zealously trying to relieve it.

BLUNT.

The secret of success in life is for a mar to be ready for his opportunity when it comes.—[Disraeli.

Imperial Federation Will present an opportunity to extend teh fame of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, the unfailing remedy for cholera, cholera morbus, colic, cramps, diarrhea, dysentery, and all summer complaints, to every part of the Empire. Wild Strawberry never falls.

A Household Remedy.—No family should be without some remedy for the cure of affections so universally prevalent as coughs, colds, sere throat, whooping-cough and croup—some remedy, too, which can be relied on as safe and certain. Dr. Wis-TAR'S BLASAM OF WILD CHERRY is the article required

Every time a cow moves her tail to switch a fly she exerts a force of three pounds. In the course of the summer a single cow wastes 5,000,000 pounds of energy. The cows of America throw away power enough to move every piece of machinery in the world. This is exclusive of kicking milkmaids of the stools.

Equal Rights.

All have equal rights in life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness, but many are handicapped in the "ace by dyspepsia, billiousness, lack of energy, nervous debility, weakness, constipation, etc. By completely removing these complaints Burdock Blood Bitters confers untold benefits on all sufferers.

A Bad Case.—Dailey—Our village constable was somewhat intoxicated last evening, I'm sorry to say. Banks—Dear me! Was he very drunk? Dailey—I should say so! The last I saw of him he was raising a terrible disturbance by trying to arrest himself on the charge of being drunk and disorderly.

Timely Wisdom. Great and timely wisdom is shown by keeping Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry on hand. It has no equal for cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhea, dysentery, colic, cramps and all summer complaints or looseness of the bowels.

Suicide of a School Boy Whose Latin Lessons Worried Him.

A Schoolbey Suicides.

Vienna, Nov. 14.—The suicide of a schoolbey, a member of a family of good social position, has caused a sensation here. The boy found great difficulty in mastering the third declension in the Latin grammar and the fact so worked upon his mind that he took his cwn life.

The New oundland Trouble.

LONDON, New 14.—The Standard, it is said, is authorized to deny the St. James' Gazette statement that negotiations are proceeding for a settlement of the Newfoundland fishery question on the basis of a surrender of the French shore to Great Britain, the cession of African territory to France and the repeal of the Newfoundland Bait Law.

The Loss of the Terpsichere.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The vessel with which the Norwegian ship Terpsichere cellided was the British steamer Cassia. They came together stem to stem. The bows of the Terpsichere were completely smashed and she was dismasted. A number of the Cassia's plates were broken and bent, and she was damaged otherwise. She is not leaking. She attempted to tow the Terpsichere, but a gale prevented. The Terpsichere was then abandoned. She drifted on the Goodwin Sands, where she sank.

The chairman after fruitlessly warning the member was compelled to order his expulsion from the Chamber and he was removed, but in a short time he reappeared. He was then forcibly put out, and the Assembly passed a resolution declaring the seat vacant.

The O'Shea Case.

London, Nov. 14.—In the Divorce Court yesterday Mr. Lockwood, on behalf of Mrs. O'Shea, applied for a postponement of the Parnell suit pending the proceedings in the case of Mrs. Stele, sister of Mrs. O'Shea, against whom there is a counter accusation of adultery with Capt. O'Shea Solicitor-General Clarke, for Capt. O'Shea opposed a postponement. He said Capt. O'Shea's case had been ready since May 12, and the plaintiff was anxious to proceed. The delay was solely due to Mrs. O'Shea. The obtaining of numerous successive postponements in order to discover alleged documents had been an obvious attempt to delay the trial. Justice Butt refused to grant any further postponement.

Bickering About a Book.

Berlin, Nov. 15.—The brief references made by the newspapers to the quarrel be-tween the Emperor William and Bismarck tween the Emperor William and Bismarck afford no adequate idea of the extent of the breach which has existed for two whole weeks, and has caused the most painful excitement in official and literary circles. Prince Bismarck declares that he will not be dictated to by the young Emperor as to the publication of his life of William I., nor will he submit the proof sheets to the Emperor. The latter, in the exercise of his just right, as he considers the matter, requires to see the book before publication, as it contains matters of importance to the State. Bismarck threatens to remove the publication to England if necessary to evade the power of the Emperor. If he should do so the book will be confiscated throughout all Germany.

The Wreck of the Serpent.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—An official statement has just been made by the Admiralty in connection with the loss of the Serpent. The statement sets forth that there were 176 persons on board the cruiser at the time of her loss, and that but three persons were saved. It also says that the Spanish Government has been requested to render a maved. It also says that the Spanish Government has been requested to render all possible assistance in the work of removing the bodies of the drowned, for each of which the British Government will offer a reward. The British Vice-Consul at Corunna has gone to Camarina to interview the survivors of the wreck. H. M. S. Lapwing has left Vigo for the scene of the wreck of the Serpent. An Admiralty officer who has knowledge of the locality of the wreck thinks it probable that the Serpent's compasses were dis-ordered by the contiguity of the vast masses of iron along the coast. The enormous masses of ore in the Galician Mountains have been ascribed as the cause of several wreeks in the same locafity. Spanish Admiralty officers think the Serpent became disabled in the gale on Monday, and tried to make the harbor of Camerinas when she struck a reef, locally known as dangerous to navigation, extending a quarter of a mile south of the harbor, and covered by only four feet of water at low tide.

and covered by only four feet of water at low tide.

Loxbox, Nov. 14.—The serpeat was built after the ideas of Admiral Cooper Key, who insisted upon an immense horse-power, which, according to previous notions, was out of all proportion to her displacement. She could maintain a speed of seventoen knots an hour. Lord Brassey, in his naval annual, adversely criticizes the vessel. He said that economy of weight had been carried to excess in the construction of the ship, that her plating was too thin, and that her armanent was overdone. In a seaway, he said, her heavy topweight would be a detriment to her speed. The vessel was 225 feet long, while she had a draught of only 14½ feet.

The relatives of the crew of the Serpent at Plymouth and the dockyard people are full of gessip about the lost cruiser. It is claimed that she was unseaworthy and that she broke down on all her trial trips. Commander Ross is said to have been in the habit of treating his men with undue severity. H. M. S. Lapwing has left Vigo for the scene of the wreck.

The Shock Killed Him. The Shock Killed Him.

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—Patrick Shea, Fisher street, 25 years old, single, laborer, was handling an old musket last evening, and in, applying a match to the touch-hole an explosion resulted. The shot did not touch him, but the shock caused him to fall dead. Coroner Lynd decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

STRATHROY, Nov. 14.—The postoffice authorities have removed to the new and mandsome building erected by the Governtreets, for their accommodation. The new uilding is of red brick with cut stone ressing and rubble foundation, two stories igh, with an attic, and with a one stor house.

Tippoo and the chiefs ordered the girl to be taken to the native huts. Jameson, himself, Selim, Mascudie and Farhani, Jameson's servant, presented to him by Tippoo, and many others followed. The men who had brought the girl said to the cannibals: "This is a prosent from a white man, who desires to see her eaten. The girl was tied to at tree, the natives sharpening their knives the while. London, Nov. 14.—The serpent was built after the ideas of Admiral Cooper Key, who insisted upon an immense horse-power, which, according to previous notions, was out of all proportion to her displacement. She could maintain a speed of seventeen knots an hour. Lord Brassey, in his naval annual, adversely criticizes the vessel. He said that economy of weight had been carried to excess in the construction of the ship, that her plating was too thin, and that her armanent was overdone. In a seaway, he said, her heavy topweight would be a detriment to her speed. The vessel was 225 feet long, while she had a draught of only 14½ feet.

The relatives of the crew of the Serpent at Plymouth and the dockyard people are full of gessip about the lost cruiser. It is claimed that she was unseaworthy and that she broke down on all her trial trips. Commander Ross is said to have been in the habit of treating his men with undue severity. H. M. S. Lapwing has left Vigo for the Seene of the wreck.

But the best thing in the book must be given in Mr. Childs own words: "If asked what, as the result of my experience, is the greatest pleasure in life, I should say, doing good to others. Not a strikingly original remark, perhaps, but it is seemingly the most difficult thing in the world to be prosperous and generous at the same to be prosperous and generous at the same time." Mr. Childs' career is a triumphant solution of this most difficult thing.

The World's Desire. By H. Rider Hagquestions will come up that of an immediate and general organization to secure as Bryce.) This is a tale of old Egypt, full of largely as possible the benefits of the recent locally-prohibitive legislation passed by the Ontario Legislature. "The work of the Ontario Ministers has recently been rearranged. Hen. Mr. Gibson has now charge of the asylums for the vision of a girl. "She was more than mortal tail, and although still in the first flower of youth, and almost a child in years, she seemed fair as a goddess, and so beautiful that Aphrodite herself may perchance have envied this loveliness. She was slim and gracious as a young shoot of a palm tree, and her eyes were fearless and innocent as a child's." The man who devotes his life to the sole purpose of winning her "was of no great stature, but broad-breasted and very wide-shouldered, with many signs of strength. He had blue eyes, and dark, curled locks, falling beneath a red cap, and over a purple cloak, fastened with a brooch of gold." For a history of the incredible dangers overcome in his pursuit, the reader must be referred to the volume. But it seems a pity on casual glance that the hero should face such fearful odds for the sake of a woman so much tailer than himself.

The Great Blood Purifier.

A Word to the People.

"Truth is Mighty, and will

THE remarkable effects and most satisfactory results, in every variety of disease arising from IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, which are experienced and made manifest from day to day, by those who have taken NORTHHOP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, for complaints which were pronounced incurable, are surprising to all. In many of these cases, the persons may their pain and sufferings cannot be expressed, as in cases of Scroula, where apparently the whole body was one mass of corruption.

This celebrated medicine will relieve pain, cleanse and purify the blood, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying many remedies, and having suffered for years. Is it not conclusive proof that if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the ELOOD, the Circulating Fluid. It can truly be called the

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

The great source of disease originates in the BLOOD, and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention. When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY will renew the Blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

The conviction is, in the public mind as well as the medical profession, that the remedics supplied by the VEGETABLE KINODOM are more safe and more effectual in the cure of disease than mineral medicines. The Vegetable Discovery is composed of the juice of most remarkable roots, barks and herbs. It is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe to give an infant. Allow us to ask you a candid question:—Do you need it? Do not hesitate to try it. You will never regret it. All druggists have it for sale.

Mr. John C. Fox, Olinda, writes:—"Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is giving good satisfaction. Those who have used it say it has done them more good than anything they have ever taken."

IN ITS WORST FORM.—Miss Julia A. Pilsworth, Toronto, writes:—"I had Dyspepsia in its worst form for over a year, but after taking three bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, a perfect cure followed. I take great pleasure in recommending it to anyone suffering from Dyspepsia."

Mr. W. Thayer, Wright, P.Q., had Dyspepsia For Twenty Years. Tyled many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of and immediately commenced taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left, and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent beath; in fact he is quite a new man.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarssparilia tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestios, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a fainness or tirod, all-gone feeling, as though I had not caten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilia did me an immense amount of good. Baseball Magnates Alter the Rules for Playing.

BASEBALL

At the annual meeting of the baseball magnates at New York on Wednesday the Joint Committee on Playing Rules altered sections 1, 2 and 3 of article 28, and section of of article 49. The former section gives a club the privilege of having one or all the surplus men on the players' bench in uniform and allow the substitution of any or all of them at any time during the game. The change in rule 48 does not call for the retirement of a player in running from the home plate to first base on a hit if he goes outside of the three foot limit line while the ball is being fielded to first base as heretofore.

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer exeruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vege table Pills are wonder ful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion or Dyspepsia.

The children had discovered that their ives would be unendurable without pistol-practice. After much forethought and self-denial, Dick had saved seven shillings and sixpence, the price of a badly-constructed Beigian revolver. Maiste could only contribute half a crown to the syndicate for the purchase of 100 cartridges. "You can save better than I can Dick," she explained; "I like nice things to eat, and it doesn't matter to you. Besides, boys ought to do these things."

Dick grumbled a little at the arrangement, but went out and made the purchases, which the children were on their way to test. Revolvers did not lie in the scheme of their daily life as decreed for them by the guardian who was incorrectly supposed to stand in the place of a mother to these two orphans. Dick had been under her care for six years, during which time she had made her profit of the allown.
