Feature of Yesterday at

THE BIG FAIR

Capital Races and Exciting Football and Lacrosse Matches -

It was a jolly good-natured crowd that watched the races at the Fair yesterday and they had lots of fun. In the 2.25 trot or pace there was a fat little Indian boy who drove a fast little bay mare. In the first heat the Indian youth had the hard luck to break his hobbles and this won the sympathy of the crowd, who regretted his misfortune. In the second heat he again had bad luck but made a game fight and the crowd were with him. In the third heat he won out in a hard drive, edged on by the applause of all and the crowd went wild. After that he was their idol! They cheered him on to victory every time. His appearance was the sigual for cheers and each time he wos everybody was glad and everybody showed it. On the race track is about the only place where the colored man, the Indian and the white min meet as equals and they all met min meet as equals and they all met of an equal social footing yesterday. But of them all, the Indian was the Starter Corey warned the drivers trimmed around neck, elastic ribbed, once about the use of their whips and after that there were no offend-ers. The track was very heavy ow-ing to the rain at noon and fast time was not expected. Mr. Spencer union cotton and wool, medium Stone officiated as track secretary and Will Hadley, G. W. Cowan and Jack McCoig were the Judges,

There were other attractions during the afternoor. Chief amongst these was the lacrosse game between the McKeough and Central School teams. The McKeough School team won by the score of 3 to 2, but the losers entered a strong protest on the ground that the McKeough school team had played two ex-pupils.

The football match between Darrell and Chatham was won by the former by the score of one to nothing. Capt. Flowers, of the Chatham team, hasn't got his team organized yet and as many of his men were not in condition he had to fill out his team from inners. Darrell ganized yet and as many of his men were not in condition he had to fill out his team from juniors. Darrell was also at a disadvantage, as two of their best players are away to the Northwest. The Darrell team was short a man so only ten men were played on each side. Peck for Darrell scored within half a minute after play began and after that there was no scoring. The following was the line-up: Goal, Parry French, Walter Hales and A. P. Peck, Jack Fisher, J. Jinks, E. Jinks, Walker Bennie and J. Peck, Art Martin and J. THE WEST KENT CAMPAIGN

The political campaign is now on. The Dominion elections are set for Thursday, Nov. 3rd, and from now till then the country will be plunged into the thraldom of political strife. Many Some Splendid Sports the issues are already clearly definedothers will be more fully ventilated during the intervening weeks.

We trust the people will earnestly and conscientiously give thought and effort to the consideration of their country and its Government at this time. Mr. R. L. Borden, on the oc casion of his visit to the Maple City, sounded the keynote of consecrated Canadian citizenship in calling upon young and old to make their country's good name a personal charge. to live worthily, to think worthily, to act worthily, and earnestly seek that which is best-morally and materially-in the government and councils of their parliament; to aim for cleanness, for uprightness, for progress and prosperity. It is not wholly inconceivable that any appeal from the press of either party at this time for a straightforward, clean and manly campaign, should be looked askence upon by many who have been accustomed to see the sanctimonious chanting of moral platitudes followed by all the bitter scurrility of the active arena. And yet all such efforts for clean campaigning should be encouraged and upheld-if they are honest they are in the right direction and will redown to the credit of those concerned. Why not such a campaign in West

Kent during the coming month? Speaking for itself and the Liberal-Conservative party of the riding The Planet would heartily welcome it.

The two candidates before the electorate, Herbert S. Clements, the Liberal-Conservative standard-bearer, and George Stephens, the late member, are gentlemen, worthy personally, and enjoying, we believe, the respect of the community. This is a desirable and happy condition. With their personalities and private affairs campaigners and politicians have no hing to do.

With their public pledges and performances, with their representative records, with the platform and policy for which they stand, the people have a right to deal fully but fairly. And if this is done thoroughly and conscientiously there will be no time for the hurling of abuse or the dabbling in personalities so disagreeable to the higher ethics and common sense of our community.

The Liberal-Conservatives hope and believe they can win, but they want to win honorably. It is the right spirit in which to enter the campaign. And for The Planet, while it expects to give and take many a hard blow, will always be found hitting fairly and above the belt.

It's not only the right way to give battle, but it's more - it's the ning way. Let us all adopt it.

SAD STATE OF ERRING PAIR

Love Affair of a Married Man and Married Woman aired in Court

Woman's Young Son and Husband Listen to her Admissions of Guilt -Alleged theft of money

A scene that would have been pitiful were it not for the disgust that it caused was enacted at the police court this morang. The wife and mother went into the box and before her ten-year-old son and her husband admitted her guilty relations with another married man. Then later the boy, a bright little chap of ten years, was called upon to give evidence as between his father and his mother. He corroborated his father. Wm. McCyeary was charged with taking $73 belonging to Sherman McRoberts last April when the parties were living near Florence. McCreary is a married man with three children. The McRoberts woman has two. She, it was alleged, left home last April. Mr. McRoberts testified that he had $73 nidden in the stable. He hadn't told his wife anything about this sum as he always wanted to make out poor to her. Witness ten-year-old son Wisner, a "oright little chap, was next called. He told about coming home from school one day and seeing McCreary and his mother taking the money from its hiding place in the stable. He hadn't known it was there and was afraid to say anything to his father because his mother had said if he did she would skin him alive. McCreary had put the money in his pocket. Later he saw his father looking for the money after his mother's departure and he had then told about what he had seen. The mother when called as a witness repudiated the statement of her son, so did the prisoner. Mrs. McRoberts proved an interesting witness. She scene that would have been piti pudiated the statement of her son, so did the prisoner, Mrs. McRoberts proved an interesting witness. She acknowledged going to Toledo after leaving home. There she was met by McCreary and they went to St. Louis. Fair as man and wife. Later they went, to Watford and afterwards ame to Chatham. She said that the reason she left home was because her husband had threatened to kill her with a butcher knife with a parted. husband had threatened to kill her with a butcher knife, with a pistol and with a razor. He had also abused her because she wouldn't swear to lies in a lawsuit he had. He had also tried to get his son to swear to lies. Judge Houston wanted to know how the woman could go away and leave her children in the hands of such an awful man. She had no answer to that, McCreary wanted the court to believe that he was playing the good Samaritan and tried to get the woman to go back. Crown Attorney H. D. Smith asked if that was why he lent her $10 as he said when she went away.

was why he lent her $10 as he said when she went away.
Judge Houston reserved judgment until next Monday. At the conclusion of the case and owing to the developments during the taking of evidence, both the woman and the man were arrested on the charge of unlawful conjugal union. McCreary got bail in $500 but the woman was not as fortunate.

NOT THEIR FAULT

Chas. Austin, President of the West

Chas, Austin, President of the West Kent Fair Board, objects to the Directors being blamed for the want of light at the Fair Grounds, Wednesday night.

"The 24th Regiment were given the use of the grounds," stated Mr. Austin, this morning, "and they were to make all arrangements in regard to light and everything else. All we agreed to do was to put in the papers whatever advertising matter they furnished. It was therefore manifestly unfair to blame the darkness on the fair and the directors."

THE ARGUMENT.

Supposing at the trial of an election petition, after the judges had decided there was sufficient evidence to woid the election, the counsel for the respondent should address the court to the following effect: "Your Lordships, we admit that our client de serves to lose his seat, but we submit that judgment should not be given declaring the seat vacant, for the following reasons: First, sa h a judgment would mean a new election, in which our client might be elected again, leaving the situation just as bad as ever; second, the other fellow might be elected, and he is just as bad"-supposing such an argument to be advanced, what would the court be likely to say? Yet that is the argument of the Liberal party press in favor of retaining the Liberal Government in power .- Woodstock Ex-

THE WAY OF THE GRAFTER.

The Toronto World makes this statement: "The only way to account for all the corrupt things that have disgraced Ontario, to account for the incomplete establishment of the Gamey charges, to account for the failure to get the big fish in the civic investigation into electoral frauds in connection with the munielections in Toronto last year, and to account for the many things hitherto unexplained, is the fact that there has been a ring of corruption grafters identified with both sides of politics, who have joined together in protecting the Ross Government from dismissal from office, which they long ago had earned, and which should have come to them in a speedy way, but for this conspiracy."

The World declares that there is more than a suspicion that men who profess to be Conservatives have been parties to the contributions by cor porations to the Ross Government's defence, and that men who profess to be Conservatives, but who were really in the employ of the corporation grafters, have been active in securing saw-offs, in side-tracking election petitions and protecting in other ways the Government and their agents. The grafter's attitude towards the parties is rational, though his motives may be low and his methods unworthy. The same attitude maintained by the electors for a worthy purp would soon put an end to political The grafter uses the parties as instruments for the accomplishments of his purpose. His purpose happens to be low and selfish. If the electors maintained the same attitude, with a higher motive. then the party system would be seen a tits best . The political parties should be regarded as instruments in the hands of the people, to be freely and intelligently used for the government of the country. The electors should exercise perfect freedom of choice. !! When one instrument is found defective it should be promptly discarded, as the mechanic lays aside a useless tool. Instead of that the people are the slaves and the victims of the parties. Instead of the people using the parties for the benefit of the country the people are used for the benefit of the politicians and grafters. The fault lies with the people, and they pay the penalty. They have the power in their hands, and it is their own loss when they fail, to use it or when they misuse it.

The member for Centre Bruce gave notice that he wanted no outsiders to go there to assist him in his bye-election, and no outsiders went. It is folly to say that a gang of outsiders is going to invade a constituency in a candidate's behalf without that candidate's open or tacit consent. If Smith did not want them at the Soo they would not have been there. If the government did not want them there they would not be there.

Referring to the naming of the corruptionists at the Soo, the Belleville Intelligencer said last week:

Honest people will watch with some degree of anxiety the action taken by the attorney-general of Ontario in these cases. Will he prosecute? If not will he be asked why? Our contemporary now has its answer. The attorney-general has refused or neglected to take action, and the Conservatives have had to take over his duties.

NOT CONCLUDED

Inquest on the Death of James Shuler Still in Progress-No Special Developments.

The inquest into the cause of the death of the late James Shuler, who was found dead on the Grand Trunk track last Sunday morning, was not concluded last evening. One of the jurors, Mr. Fleet, was absent and a couple of witnesses were also absent After hearing the evidence of a cou-ple of witnesses they adjourned un-til to-night at eight o'clock. J. M. Pike was present in the interests of the Grand Trunk and Wabash rail-

There was not much information obtained from the witnesses exam-James Doo was the first witness

He didn't know the deceased man, and found the body on Sunday morning lying on the south side of the Grand Trunk railway, back of Doo's west of Lacroix St. and just Grand Trunk railway, back of Doo's house, west of Lacroix St. and just about a block from the Lacroix St. crossing. He was lying partly on his face, and Doo thought at first that it was a drunk man. Witness told the operator about finding him. He did not notice any blood around where the man was lying. There was a little on deceased's face.

Geo. A. Young was the next witness.

Between half-past six and seven he was at the station when Doo told the operator. He went to the place and saw the man lying at Doo described. He did not know him. It looked as if deceased had been struck looked as it deceased had been struck in the face. There were no marks except on his face. By the look of the track it seemed that he had been struck about 10 feet farther up, nearer the station.

To Mr. Pike — By a scratch in the sand at the side of the track I thought he had been struck. I think he had been bleeding from the nose or a cut on the head.

or a cut on the head.
Joseph Lewis, 8th concession, Raleigh, sworn, said.—I have known the deceased for about 25 or 30 years. He lived in Haggersville. I saw him alive last Saturday night about 8 o'clock. He was then on King St. near the market. He and I were drinking a little. He boarded with me for about a month. We went together on Thursday to West Lorne and Rodney to look after a job of cutting wood. We accepted the job and came back. When we landed here we went to Paddy Miles' hotel "Made in Canada," and right here in Chather we went to Paddy Miles' hotel and met another fellow, named Oxendine, and had some beers, and then went to a liquor store and got some liquor just before seven o'clock, and it eight o'clock we parted and he went down to see his girl. Mina Wilson, who lives on Park St. East. I did not see him again until Monday. He was a brother-in-law of mine. He was not drunk when he left me Saturday night, although he had been drinking. I suppose he was going home when he was on the track. He often went home that way when it was muddy. He and I work for Mr. James Lowry, of Raleigh. We had been away. The bottle of liquor produced is, I think, the one that deceased bought. He was accustomed to drinking, but I never saw the man drunk in my life.

The inquest will be finished tonight.

 THE FORECASTS

FOR OCTOBER *******************

As indicated by the storm diagram illustrating these forecasts, the effects of the Earth's autumual equiillustrating these forecasts, the effects of the Earth's autumual equinox last up to the middle of October. Of course its disturbing influences will be in diminishing degrees, fading away entirely by the middle of the month.

The storm period in progress at the close of September will be felt the first two days of this month in the eastern parts of the country while the high barometer and change to fair and colder weather beyond the central valley of the Mississippi. On and touching the 4th and 5th look for return of higher temperature, falling barometer and more falling weather. All these October disturbances will wind up with rising barometer, change of winds to northwesterly and much cooler weather. The first regular storm period proper for October is central on the 11th and extends from the 8th to the 12th. The Moon being in perige on the 7th and on the celestial equator and new on the 8th, expect very prompt developments, in the form of falling barometer, change to quite warm, and followed by rain, wind and even thunder storms as early in the period these storms will spred to the east, and along with the rising barometer behind the storms, an early touch of boreal weather will come out of the northwest, attended by high, autumnal gales over the like touch of boreal weather will come out of the northwest, attended by high, autumnal gales over the like regions. It is possible also that delayed equinoctial storms may reach the southern coats at this period. The next storm period will be cen The next storm period will be central on the 16th, 17th and 18th. This is a Vulcan reactionary period and it will bring on a disturbed weather condition that will run, most probably, into the regular storm period following. The Mercury brace shows that a Mercury equinoctial disturbance is central on the 28th, reaching from the 18th to the close of October. This fact will tend to a prolonged from the 18th to the close of October. This fact will tend to a prolonged spell of unsettled, disturbed weather. During the regular Vulcan period, central on the 22nd, the already unsettled elements will return to very decided storm condition. From about the 21st to the 24th general and active autumnal storms may be expected. A very depressed barometer will advance from the west, attended by storms first of rain and eter will advance from the west, attended by storms first of rain and probable thunder, followed by early spurts of snow and sleet in northern extremes. Heavy northwesterly gales will visit the great lakes and the north Atlantic coasts at this time, and a general and decided change to colder will spread over most parts of the country with the anti-storm area that follows this period. The culminating crisis of this period will fall on and touching Monday, the 24th. On and about this date will also be another period when earthquake shivers will be reported from quarters of the globe.

storm movements for October, But those who have followed our forecasts for any length of time know that these forecasts imply that much pleasant and open weather will lie between the petrubed periods. Even in the opening stages of storm periods much of our finest autumn weather will occur, and immediately behind the actual area of cloudiness and precipitation, coller but fine weather conditions set in. So that instead of "storms all the time," fair to pleasant weather is to be expected in large neasure,

The wise and practical student of nature, in the light of these forecasts will turn the recurring storm periods to blessings, and be ready the better to improve the conditions and the open weather that naturally foilow. The reading public need scarcely be told that our forecasts of frost in the month of August were amply verified. All the northern tier of states, reaching from the northwest into New England, were visited by more or less trosts before the end of August. Four to six inches of snow was reported from several points. We did not predict that these frosts would prove very destructive to crops, but reports received just as we go to press with October Word and Words, show that serious losses have been sustained in several states.

As stated, our forecasts of these early frosts were not made so much early frosts were not made so much to warn the people of probable loss-es, but to call attention to import-ant and fundamental facts in nature— facts upon which we are basing and -facts upon which we are basing and working out investigations that lead more and more to the solution of vast scientific and commercial problems. This present instance of predicted frosts in August resulted in only thousands of dollars in losses, whereas next time it might run into millions. If there are laws underlying these preblems involving human weal and woe, in the name of reason.

lying these problems involving human weal and woe, in the name of reason, why not find them out and escape the penalty of their violation?

The same is true of our forecasts of earthquake phenomena in August and September, both of which were literally verified. Our earthquake predictions, for August were from the 24th to the 28th. On the 27th violent seismic shocks visited California and other parts of the globe. Our forecasts of earthquakes for September were on and about the 9th. On that very day many heavy shocks were reported from South America. A fact ported from South America. A fact to be noted is that these earthquakes in South America occurred just at the beginning of the total eclipse of the Sun visible in that region. Do not forget that earthquakes were reported on no other dates anywhere on the globe.

To date no disastrous hurricanes

the Rio Grande, and other streams far to the south, are working ruin and death—purely from equinoctial storms—as we close this last page of October Word and Works. — Irl R.

Western Community's Novel Plan to Increase Its Population.

A progressive western town has hit upon rather a novel advertising plan, and it might be adopted elsewhere to good advantage. On all trains stopping at this town a man passes through the cars and distributes to passengers neatly printed circulars, on which is the following:

"This stop is Selfred, a town with a population of 3,500 inhabitants.
"It has good schools and churches, fine public buildings, handsome resi-

"It has good schools and churches, fine public buildings, handsome residences, broad, shady streets, well paved and cared for.

"It is one of the cleanest and pretiest towns in the state.

"Its advantages as a manufacturing centre are unsurpassed.

"Its banks are as sound as you can find anywhere in the United States.

States.
"It has a good roads association and a town improvement society.

"It has an abundant supply of the purest water on earth.
"It is a progressive town inhabited by progressive people. "Perhaps you live in a dead town and want to get out of it. If so, spend a day or two in Selfred, and you'll soon be one of the chizens. Further particulars cheerfully fur-nished."

Sir Frederick Hodgson, K.C.M.G., Governor of Barbados, who has been appointed Governor of British Guiana, in succession to Sir James Alexander Swettenham, who has been appointed Governor of Jamaica, began his official career in 1868 in the humble capacity of a clerk in the Savings Bank Department of the General Postoffice. He was at one time a captain in the 24th Middle-sex Rifle Volunteers, and his amateur soldiering stood him in good stead on the Gold Coast, where he "rais-ed" the Gold Coast Volunteer force, and where, in the trouble of 1900, he commanded the plucky little expedition which got itself besieged in Kumasi. Horse races at Fairs and Agriculural Exhibitions will have to be a thing of the past. This is the resolve made by Hon. Mr. Dryden, Agricultural Minister of Ontario.

This year, before the annual Peninsular Fair the Directors of the West Kent Agricultural Society received a notice from Mr. Cowan, the reveal and the first and the first are the first and the first and the first that horse races will have to be abandoned. The advertising matter announcing the races was out, however, and the notice came too late but it is a matter of some speculation whether are of some speculation whether or not Chatham will have any races at next year's Peninsular Fair. Mr. Austin, President of the West

Kent Agricultural Society, when ining us to discontinue horse-racing but I don't think personally that the law will be enforced to the limit. It has always been against the law to hold horse races at our Fairs but the law has never been enforced. Directors are allowed to hold trials of speed, that is, showing off the fine speeding points of horses, by trotting them around in a ring but we are not allowed to offer purses for horseraces. The fine is $50 or 30 days in jail, but the attraction through the races would warrant us in paying the fine in jail, but the attraction through the races would warrant us in paying the fine.

"For the second offence, however, the Government may withdrawour grant, which amounts to over $300, and we could not stand that. Mr. Dryden has always been opposed to horse racing at Fairs and his new secretary is evidently taking the matter up. The most objectionable feature is the betting. Of course we cannot stop all of the betting but we have this year done all in our power by stopping anyone from making books on the races.

"I do not think that the practice will be stopped, however, and I am of the opinion that we will have races again next year. The people who manage fairs would certainly not who manage fairs would certainly not who manage fairs would certainly not be in favor of discontinuing them and I think they will make this plainly evident at their next conven-tion, which will be held before next fall, and the Government will see that horse racing at fairs is too popular a practice for them to work against."

Great Presperity-Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson Speaks Glowingly of Moeting of Grand Trunk Railway Share holders-Temperary Check of Last Winter Will Seen Be Overcome

London, Sept. 30.—(C.A.P.)—The semi-annual meeting of the share-holders of the Grand Trunk Railway yesterday was largely attended. Sir Rilvers-Wilson, presiding, said that the almost uninterrupted progress of the railway during the past eight years had during the past half year ended June 30, received a temporary check, but he expressed confidence that the check was only temperary. He blamed the severity of the weather for the falling off in freight traffic, and the enormous amount of snow blocking the country roads, and thus preventing the farmers bringing in freight. The removal of snow during the half year cost £80.346, a sum never before approached in the history of the company. The Chairman quoted the figures of the Canadian Pacific Railway and other railways, as showing that the G. T. R. was not alone in the increase of expenditure. The prospects, however, were bright, as a bumper corn harvest in the United States and a heavy wheat harvest in Canada prophesied a period of great commercial activity in these countries. London, Sept. 30.-(C.A.P.)-The

Not One of Hestility. Referring to Mr. R. L. Borden's opposition to the Grand Trunk Pacific, Sir Charles said it was not one of hostility, but of urging the adopof nostlity, but of urging the adoption of a system of Governmentowned railways. Mr. Borden's opposition was a great surprise, as other Conservative leaders, Sir Charles Tupper and Sir John A. Macdonald, had been against the system of State ownership. Mr. Borden's threat of exappropriation, though possible leading the system of the Borden's threat of exappropriation, though possibly legally right, and not breaking contract, is a declaration that does not tend to uphold the dignity of the Government. Mr. E. B. Osler, said Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, has launched out in considerable abuse, and had uttered threats against the Chairman, but Sir Charles claimed that the G. T. Rhad always held aloof from politics in Canada. though in Canada.

The resolution adopting the report and accounts was carried unanimously.

Purchase of Canada Atlantic.

On the resolution for the acquisi-tion of the Canada Atlantic Railway there was a somewhat heated discus-sion, A shareholder moved an amend-ment that it be postponed until the next meeting, but the amendment was lost. Sir Charles stated that the was lost. Sir Charles stated that the resolution for acquisition must be voted on at the present meeting as an answer was required within twenty days. He regretted that he was unable to take the shareholders into his confidence as he would like, but, if it was postponed it meant abandoning the idea altogether. Finally the resolution was put and carried.

the resolution was put and carried.

The resolution asking approval for the purchase of the Canada Atlantic Railway by the Grand Trunk was based upon a guarantee of $16,000.-000 of 4 per cent. 50-year gold bonds, a portion of which will remain in the treasury for development purposes.

Scores the Opposition.

The Finance News referring to the Grand Trunk Railway meeting, says that Mr. Seal, the spokesman of the opposition, was suffering acutely from diarrhoea verborum, and tied himself up in tangled and contradictory nonsense with years suggested. tory nonsense with vague sugges-tions that something was wrong in the system. He received support from the invariably few shareholders who will not take the trouble listen to explanations from the president. The News scores Colonel Stewart, who seconded the motion for delay for looking askance on competition between railways when rivalry means the opening up of a land of promise.

Trying to Rosebery.

London, Sept. 30.—(C.A.P.)—Referring to Lord Rosebery quoting the fourth resolution of the Colonial Premiers Conference of 1902 in proof that no offer was made Capt. G. Tryon, writing to The Times, refers Lord Rosebery to resolutions 3 and 5 of the conference.

Case of Cheese

London, Sept. 30.—(C.A.P.)—On the calling of the resummons against a Hastings firm of grocers for al-leged selling of marjorine instead of cheese, Counsel F. Beck, on behalf of the Grocers' Federation, asked that a third sample be sent to the Government laboratory. The Canadian Government desired the fullest enquiry and Canadian witnesses would give evidence that the cheese was purchased by the defendants from the largest importers of Canadian cheese in London and sold it in exactly the same state as when shipped. The magistrates granted the application made for the defence and the case was set for Nov. 24.

The Canadian Government sought guidance in fiscal matters from Canadian Boards of Trade. Sir Wilfrid Laurier the other day had not spoken in advance of public opinion, but in response to it.

Laurier and Rossbery.

London, Sept. 30.—(C. A. P.)—The Morning Post says Sir Wilfrid Laur-ier's reply to the latest of Lord Rosebery's occasional speeches has produced a great impression, not only in Britain but also in Europe. Distinguished German and French states-Mr. Chamberlain's scheme, which has enabled that statesman to achieve new greatness. In the United States, Germany and Japan, it is impossible to avoid sympathizing with British Cobdenites over Sir Wilfrid's defection, whose undue caution when he might have spoken out a year ago has been one of their chief assets. has been one of their chief assets. The Post declares that the Canadian Premier's utterance has released a volume of latent sympathy with Mr. Chambellain's policy remarkable among which is Mr. Belcourt's statement concerning the disinclination towards American reciprocity.

national colors, red, white and blue, there was displayed in show cases and on tables goods from many foreign lands. While some people admired the Japanese china, which is beautiful this year, others fixed their eyes on the fine china from France and England.

The greatest attraction of all was was the showing of the old dark blue English dinnerware, with landscape views of old England. This is a special line of Copeland's goods, which Mr. Gray is showing just now, and is having a great run.

The display of new American lamps, Doulton jardinieres, Japanese vases, cut glass flower tubes, was elegant, while the fancy German and Austrian china occupied no mean place in the exhibit. The showing of dinner sets with prices attached should convince anyone where to buy goods in this line.

The whole display was skilfully laid out and the richness of the scene was enhanced by the illumination of the lighted warlor lamps, which made the lighted warlor lamps, which made the lighted parlor lamps, which made everything sparkle.

It is needless to say that Mr. Gray got first prize for his excellent exhibit, besides many compliments on the interest taken in the Fair.

J. H. TYRELL.

J. H. TYRELL.

J. H. Tyrell's display at the fair ensisted of New Williams Sewing Machines, the Edison Phonograph and Dominion Organs and Pianos. This piano's chief feature is the strength of tone which is given forth, owing to its having the patent cupola iron arch plate frame. The Dominion is the only piano having the harp attachment, and this lends sweetness of tone which makes this piano stand out by itself. See the Dominion before buying. fore buying.

THE GYPSIES. Something of the History of the Bovin

Tribes.

The word gypsy, of curious and interesting origin, is at once illustrative of the tenacity of a corruption and suggestive that the propensity of children for acquiring bad language is a racial trait. The gypsies on their first appearance in England about the beginning of the sixteenth century were mistaken for sixteenth century were mistaken for Egyptains, and so called by men of education, but the common people, finding some difficulty in mastering the name, rendered it "gypsies," and so the wandering people have ever since been called so the wandering people have ever since been called.

During the reign of Henry VIII., in 1531, a statute was enacted expelling the gypsics from the country under penalty of imprisonment and forfeiture of property. According to The Grey Friars' Chronicle, the statute recited that 'many outlandish people calling themselves Every ish people, calling themselves Egyptians, using no craft nor faict (practice) of merchandise, have come intential realm and gone from shire to shire and place to be shire to shire to shire to the shire the shire to the shire the shire to the shire to the shire to the shire the shire the shire to the shire the shire the shire the shire the sh shire and place to place in great company, and used great subtle and crafty means to decive the people; bearing them in hand that they by palmistry could tell men's and women's fortunes, and so, many times, committed many and heinous felonies and robberies." Six years later Cromwell, in a letter to the president of the Marches of Wales, accuses "the Gipcians," as he calls

Col. M. T. Lukin, C.M.G., D.S.O.

A Reuter's telegram from Cape Town states that Colonel H. T. Lu-kin, C.M.G., D.S.O., will succeed Major-General Sir Edward Brabant as Commandant-General of the Cape Colonial Forces. The new Commandant-General has had a most distinguished career, and has achieved his success at an age when the merits of most military men are only beginning to be recog-nized. Born on May 24, 1860, he first saw service in the South African war of 1879. During the Zulu campaign of 1879. During the Zulu campaign he was attached to the Cavalry Brigade, took part in the advance on Ulundi, and was present at the subsequent battle there, where he was severely wounded. He received the medal and clasp for the Zulu campaign, and in 1880-1 assisted in the operations in Basutoland. He was Field Adjutant in the Bechuanaland Field Force in the Lamberg campaign of 1896-7, and was several times. Field Force in the Lanberg campaign of 1896-7, and was several times mentioned in despatches, being afterwards promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in the Cape Mounted Rifles. He became attached to the Imperial forces in 1900, and commanded the artillery in the siege of Wepener in the same year. For some time during the late war he commanded a column of mounted troops in Cape Colony, and was appointed to the command of the First Colonial Division in November, 1901. He was awarded the D.S.O. for his gallantry in leading a night athis gallantry in leading a night attack on a Bowr leager, and in 1902 was created a C.M.G. In January of last year he was appointed colonel in command of the Cape Mounted Rifles. Colonel Lukin is not only a gallant and capable soldler, but a most popular man in colonial sociemost popular man in colonial socie-ty, and his appointment will be heartly appreciated by the colony.

Student Stumped the Professor, The clever Dr. Ritchie of Edin-burgh met with his match while examining a student. He said: "And "And you attended the class for mathematics?' "Yes."

"How many sides has a circle?"

"Two," said the student. "What are they?" What a laugh in the class the stu-dent's answer produced when he said: "An iaside and an outside."

But this was nothing compared with what followed. The doctor said to the student: "And you attend the moral philosophy class also?"

"Well, you would hear lectures on various subjects. Did you ever hear one on cause and effect?"
"Yes."

"Does an effect ever go before "Yes."

"Give me an instance."
"A man wheeling a harrow."
The doctor then sat down and proposed no more questions.

Lord Edward Cecll. Of Lord Edward Cecil, who recently celebrated his 37th birthday, South Africa, says: The gallant soldier, who contributed so much to the success of the defence of Mafeking, conducted in such a "breezy" er by Baden-Powell, especially manner by Baden-Powell, especially by his foresight in regard to the provisioning of the township in view of the eventualities which actually occurred, is now a military secretary in Egypt. He is the fourth son of the late Lord Salisbury, and brother of the present Marquis. His wife was once Miss Violet Maxse, the dughter of the late Admiral Moxse. Lord Edward Cecil has had quite a romantic career since he joined the Grenadiers seventeen years ago. He served with the Dongola expeditionary force in 1896, accompanied the special mission to the Emperor Mene-lik of Abyssinia in 1897, and took part in the Egyptain campaign, in-cluding the battles on the Atbara and at Khartoum in 1898. Alto-gether he has crowded a good deal of fighting into his career since he left Eton.

Problem of Medical Etiquette.

WHITE WHITE

It is an ancient custom in Hungary that when a medical candidate has passed his examination with dis-tinction and the doctor's degree is conferred sub auspiciis regis he should receive from the Emperor of should receive from the Emperor of Austria (King of Hungary) a ring bearing the initials "F. J." set in brilliants. After a certain time he is admitted to present his thanks in person to the sovereign. In connecperson to the sovereign. In connection with this custom a curious problem recently exercised the mind of a young doctor who was serving his time in the army as a "one year volunteer." Being invited to present himself before the Emperor, he was greatly puzzled how to do so, for on the one hand as a private soldier he ought to wear his shako, while on the other as a doctor of medicine he sught to wear his snace, while on the other as a doctor of medicine he should carry his hat under his arm. In his perplexity he sought counsel of his colonel, who after careful con-sideration delivered himself of the following opinion:

'If the Emperor speaks to you in German, which is the language of the army, you must regard yourself as a plain one year volunteer, and you will therefore keep your shake on your head. But should His Imperial this means that he sees in you a doctor of medicine rather than a soldier, and you must therefore uncover your head."—London Globe.

Whips That Grow on Trees. In the Island of Jamaica there grows a tree with the botanic name of Daphne Lagetto, from the branch-es of which native workmen make peculiarly strong and excellent whips, which have the handle and lash all in one piece. The handle consists of a part of the stem retaining the bark. For the lash the stem is deprived of the bark and then spilt into strips, which are woven together in a flex-ible cord six or seven feet long. The proper taper is accorded by detachmore and more of the strips as the end of the lash is approached "Sorrewful Tree" of Goa.

A unique tree on the Island of Goa, near Bombay, is the "sorrowful tree," as the natives term it. That name is given to it because the tree has a drooping, sad appearance dur-ing the day time, but its aspect changes as the sun goes down; then its leaves open and no longer droop, and fragrant blossoms come into bloom upon it. The moment the sun shows itself in the east, the blooms close, the leaves begin to droop, and the petals of the recent sweet blossoms fall to the ground. This tree blooms thus all the year round.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work for you.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food themselves. They will rest the stomach and bring back it health. They cure and cure naturally all stomach ailments.

Ademard Coderre, of St. Jacques de L'Achigan, Que., says: "I am happy to say I have been completely cured of Dyspepsia by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. My Dyspepsia was brought on by Inflammation of the Stomach and I suffered with it for two years. I tried three medicines without getting relief before I began to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. Two boxes of them cured me completely."

As Its People Think So Is the Status

Thoughts are the mothers of deeds. A man's own lesires are the worst tempters he has to fear. Whatever is most inside him he will live out sooner or later. The only way to re-form him is to eradicate the evil from his heart. This can be done by supplanting the ignoble thoughts by higher ideal.

We are just beginning to realize that the ruling world is the interior world. The social filth we see is but an indication of the mental filth we do not see. The greed everywhere apparent is the result of the love of money inculcated in the minds of the children for generations.

The fear of the law does not permanently reform men. If a man has it in his heart to steal and is deterred by dread of punishment, he will usually scheme around to over-reach and cheat his neighbors in less hazardous ways. In other words, actions are ruled by internals, not externals.

Whatever the ideals of a people are will be shown in the national life. If they are greedy and covetous they will want conquest. If their chief aim is material wealth they will re-verence and enthrone the man who has most of it. If they have little regard for the rights and liberties of others they will be less liable to resist oppression themselves. If they are corrupt in their hearts they will wink at corruption in others. In fact, they are more lenient toward a wrong that they would commit if they had the opportunity.

The roots of governmental wrongs are in the people theniselves. The reform of the nation begins at the fireside. The man who would get society right must get right himself and teach others to get right. If we would have cleaner politics we must have cleaner hearts.

The world is just beginning to understand the power of thought and suggestion. Many a jailbird would do better if everybody did not regard and treat him as a thief. Many a woman who has gone wrong would get back into the right path if she had the help of a little love and confidence. Let everybody constantly suggest to a man that he is a rascal, and after awhile he may get to thinking so himself, and then he will become one

Find out what a man thinks of most and you will be able to tell what kind of a man he is. His actions are only the outward expres sions of his dreams. If his mind is full of carousing, of lewdness, of greed, of murder, and he does not get rid of these thoughts, his actions finally will get in line with his domires.

The need is not only to guard the The need is not only to guard the deeds and the words, but the thoughts. In them is the fountain head of evil. Set a warder on your mind. Quit thinking of the unworthy thing. Drive the unclean concept from you, for therein is the root of sin. You do not carry your exterior through the gates of death. The man is not sinless who keeps his mind on the plane of wrong fifth.

and uncharitableness. Do you say you cannot control your thoughts? Oh, but you can. Use your will. That is sovereign. You are master, not your appetite. Your body is only a machine to obey you. It will rule you, it is true, if you are weak rule you, it is true, if you are weak enough to let it. But, like a dog, it will be submissive if you assert and maintain your mastery.

Think of the good, the pure, the sweet, the beautiful. Every time you catch yourself thinking of some-thing unworthy turn to nobler things. After a time the higher thinking will become a habit.

The Christ explained all these things perfectly, and it has taken us nineteen hundred years to begin to realize them. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Selomon expressed it also, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." Some one else has put it "To the Some one else has put it, "To the pure all things are pure." And still another, "Evil to him who evil thinks."

Ideals are the dynamic force that rule the world. Keep your mind up-en the true, the lofty and the lov-ing, and your life will become as beautiful as the things you contemplate.

The Passing of the Home 'thoughtful students of the cur-redts and tendencies in American home life are having their attention home life are having their attention artested by the transformation which is taking place in domestic habits and surroundings in the larger cities. One notable feature is the almost startling change in the house-building business in New York. The change in the organization of domestic life is indicated in the change from separate dwellings to the "tenement" and the "hotel," which has transformed New York from a city of private homes to a city of "associated dwellings." That change took three centuries in Paris; in New York it has taken but three decades. Last year only filty-six dwellings, aggregating a cost of less than $3,000,000, were erected in New York, and the first, half of the present year shows the total number of plans for private houses thus far is only thirty, and the cost less than a million. Of these eighteen are to be in Washington Heights, a residential suburb, while lower Manhattan, with its teeming life, will have only twelve. arrested by the transformation which the teeming life, will have only twelve.

This change from the separateness and independence of home life to the more complex and more artificial "associated dwelling" is fraught with danger to family training and to public welfare, says The Toronto Globe in commenting on the above lasts which avery intelligent and refacts, which every intelligent and re facts, which every intelligent and re-flective citizen must guard against and seek to avert. The change in some circumstances may be inevi-table, but the supreme interests of the home and family must be pre-reved. The family is the unit of the Church and of the State, and inits well-being, its integrity and in-fluence, every great public interest is involved.

RELIGIONS OF INDIA

The eldest religion in India, it is stated in the general report on the last Indian Census, is the medley of uncomfortable superstitions known as uncomfortable superstitions known as Animism, which conceives of man as beset by shapeless phantasms, mostly impersonal, requiring diligent propitiation by rites and magical ceremonies. Those returned as Animists number 8,580,000, mostly found in Bengal. In the higher forms of Hinduism pantheism is found closely associated with a deeply ingrained belief in transmigration, and a still more universal belief in "karma." Between the extremes of practical magic and pantheistic metaphysics Hinduism includes a bewildering variety of pessimistic creeds. The number of Bramanic Hindus is 207,050,557, or seven in ten of the popula-557, or seven in ten of the popula

The Burmans, although nominally Buddhists, adhere at least to the ancient Nat, or demon worship, Buddhism being only the superficial polish. The Sikhs, who nearly all live in the Punjab, and the Jains, who live mainly in the Bombay Presidency, both tend to describe themselves as Mindus, so that their respective aumbers, 2,195,339 and 1,334,138, are probably understated. In this position, which he holds at present, Admiral Douglas will be succeeded by Vice-Admiral Bosanquet, who also followed him as Commander-in-Chief of the East Indies station. Few men are following the naval operations in connection with the Russo-Japanese war more eagerly than Admiral Douglas. He had a large share in training the Japanese navy. It is mearly thirty years since Admiral Douglas was selected by the Admiralty to proceed to Japan as commander of the Naval Mission, whose duty it was to instruct the Japanese navy. For two years he acted as director of the Imperial Japanese Naval College in Yedo, and, on relinquishing the appointment, received the special thanks of the Mikado. The brilliant success attained by the Japanese navy in the present war must bring special gratification to a man like Admiral Douglas, who was so honorably associated with its first beginnings." JSE OF PERSONAL PRONOUN

Why the Uncultivated Appear Always to Be Talking of Self.

All the uncultivated appear almost al-ways to be talking about themselves, but it is easy for a superficial observer to exaggerate the extent to which this is the case. For instance, if you discuss with a cultivated man a question of morals or the wisdom or rectitude of any particular line of conduct, he will tell you what he thinks right or what he thinks wrong or what strikes him as wise or foolish, with very little use of the personal pronoun. He can see the situation from the outside. But if you discuss it with an uneducated man he is incapable of this detached attitude of mind. The uneducated man can only picture the circumstances to himself by picturing himself in the midst of them. What he thinks right and wise is, no doubt, often a great deal better and wiser than what he would actually have done. "Such and such a thing was wrong; I should not have done it," he says, or: "Such and such was foolish. Now, had it been me, I should have done so and so." To the sophisticated listener he gives an impression of appalling self righteous-ness and even perhaps of hyprocrisy, but the impression is a mistaken one. He argues in the vocative case, because it is the one in which he can most easily express himself. Some people, it must be admitted, attract confidences from those who have no weakness for making them. We are not alluding to those persons who by a method of deft cross questioning manage to abstract information with which they have no business. Such information is not confided by its original owner, but stolen from him, or at least wormed out of him. The people we mean have that in their face and bearing which makes all the world at home with them. Whoever meets them may know that they are incapa-ble of giving a snub or a rebuff to ans one who claims their sympathy, be he never so silly. They go about the world unarmed and unafraid and, to give human nature its due, unhurt. Unconsciously, it is they who make the first confidence, telling those who see them, even for the first time, that they are sympathetic and detached, and as shrewd as they are harmless.-London Spectator.

Strange Fate of an English Eurl, "I came across a bit of treasure the other day," writes a Washington author who is down on Cape Cod. "It is the log book of the schooner Hera, which sailed from Boston on a day in the seventies. She sailed with a new first mate on board.

"He seemed an ambitious man, and he understood navigation. The captain suspected him of a desire to be master of a vessel himself some day, but there was little about him to suggest that he was anything but a sailor. The third day out he was caught by the down haul of the mizzen and went overboard. His body was never recovered. When the Hera came back from her voyage she was met by two Englishmen. They had crossed the water posthaste to find that first mate Somebody had died in England, andwell, the man who wus lost off that Yankee schooner was the Earl of Aberdeen."

Cabinet Meeting Held At Ottawa Decides Upon the Date.

Lord Minto Apprised of the Fact By Sir Wilfrid Laurier-Premier Went Immediately On His Beturn From Serel Into Cabinet Meeting-Sir Wilfrid Expected to Start At Once On Extensive Campaign Tour.

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—The Prime Minister, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, returned from Sorel yesterday morning, accompanied by Hon. Raymond Prefontaine and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, and immediately proceeded to the Central Chapter in the cast to the Council Chamber in the eastern block, where a Cabinet meeting was in progress.

In the afternoon the Premier called on the Governor-General, and expected that as a result dissolution will be announced officially this morning with nominations October 27, polling Nov. 3rd.

It is understood that the Premier will start at once on an extensive territory as possible.

Teld to Get Ready.

Meanwhile every preparation here and elsewhere is being made for the appeal to the country. Last night the word was sent broadcast to Lib-News was received here yesterday afterneon from Vancouver, B.C., that afterneon from Vancouver, B.C., that Joe Martin has announced his intention to run against Ralph Smith, M.P., in Nanaimo, B.C.

The date of polling, No. 3, is later than usual, though not as late as it was in 1900, when it was Nov 7. Previous elections for the House of Commons have been held on the following dates: 1867, Aug. 7—Sept. 20, 1872, July 20; 1874, Jan. 22; 1878, Sept. 17; 1882, June 20; 1887, Feb. 22: 1891, March 5: 1896, June 23.

La Patrie Learns It. Montreal, Sept. 30.—A special to La Patrie from Ottawa states that polling day will be Nov. 3.

MR. BORDEN CONFIRMS IT. Addresses First Political Meeting of the Campaign At Napance

Napanee, Sept. 30.—A large and representative crowd of the electors of Lennox and Addington greeted the first appearance of R. L. Borden, K. C., M.P., leader of the Conservative party in Canada, at the Opera House here last night. The distinguished visitor, who was accompanied by Mrs. Borden, arrived here at noon airs. Borden, arrived here at noon and was met at the depot by a large number of supporters. The Opera House was filled in the evening. An address to the visitor of the evening, Mr. Borden, was read.

First Political Meeting. Mr. Borden in his opening remarks said he had the honor of addressing the first political meeting of the campaign, as he had received a telegram since coming on the platform from a friend in Ottawa, which read: "Parliament dissolved; nominations Oct. 27, polling Nov. 3."

Oct. 27, polling Nov. 3."

In referring to the local member, he said that Mr. Uriah Wilson was not heard very often in the House, but when he did speak it was to the point, as your worthy representative is well informed and has given the Government some warm arguments on the question of immigration.

The speaker then referred to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, which Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, wanter Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been trying to "railroad" through Parliament. He did not think it was necessary for this country to burden itself in the manner proposed by the present Government. He also spoke of the Government. He also spoke policy of the Liberal Government as being unsound and unfair to the people of the country at large, Sir Wilfrid went to Great Britain and said this country wanted no preference in British markets and, in consequence thereof, we have, as yet, been unable to get any. Face to Face.

In closing, Mr. Borden said that the Conservative party were face to face with the great questions of the day. The issues he left to the care of the electors. He had done his duty and trusted that when the duty and trusted that when the returns came in on election day the good news of Mr. Wilson's return to Parliament would be heralded throughout the country.

Mr. Broder of Dundas, Mr. Pringle of Stormont and Mr. Avery of of Stormont and Mr. Avery of of Stormont and Mr. Avery of Addington also spoke. After giving three cheers for the King, Mr. Borden and Mr. Wilson the meeting, which will long be remembered in Napance, came to a close.

Hon. Mr. Davis Will Appeal,

Toronto, Sept. 30.—Hon. E. J. Davis has instructed his solicitor to appeal against the decision which has unseated him in North York. Mr. Dapis wants the appeal court to Mr. Dapis wants the appeal court to decide whether he had "personal" knowledge of the presence of W. J. Robinson in the riding, and if Mr. Robinson was really guilty of a corrupt act when he was reported in North Grey. He believes he was unseated on a legal technicality. "The issue never has arisen before, and it will be interesting to know what view a higher court will take upon it," he said yesterday.

Loss Will Be $150,000.

Woodstock, Sept. 30.—One of the officials of the G.T.R., viewing the wreck yesterday, placed the total loss approx mately at $150,000. This includes a new $25,000 locomotive, about 20 cars of packed meats, sev-eral export cattle, hides, general freight, the station building, and the rolling stock of the company, to-gether with the damage to the track.

Senator Cartwright.

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—Sir Richard Cartwright was called to the Senate yesterday to the seat vacated by the death of Senator Alkins. North Oxford is now free to choose a local candidate.

Mikado's Men Again Begin to Be Offensive to Russians.

Kuropatkin's Left Flank-Several Other Passes in the Da Range Also in the Hands of the Japanese Emergency Ordinance Increases Japan's Fighting Force By 200,000 Men

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—News has been received here from Mukden to the effect that the Japanese have at last begun the offensive. They have captured Da Pass and are pressing on General Kuropatkin's left idank. The War Office is unable to confirm this officially, because Kuropatkin's the confirmation officially, because Kuropatkin's the confirmation of the confir patkin's despatches are following the Emperor, but the Associated Press is informed by the general staff that all indications point to the news being correct.

It is believed the Russian abandon ed Da Pass without serious tance. Several other passes of the Da range, eastward of Bentsiaputze, twenty miles southeast of Mukden, are also in the hands of the Japan-

Kuropatkin is evidently drawing in his forces to the less mountainous country northwestward, where he may decide to give battle. In the meanwhile, sharp fighting is regarded as imminent southeast of Mukden, whence the Japanese are expected to whence the Japanese are expected to deliver their main attack, the flank movement from the west being of secondary importance.

Increased By 200,000.

Tokio, Sept. 30.-The emergency ordinance amending the army con-scription law was gazetted yester-day. It extends the service of the second reservists from five to ten years and abolishes the distinction between the first and second reserve conscripts. Reservists will be retired at the age of 37.

A contemplated increase in the army involves a new scheme of divisional organization, the plan of which has not yet been disclosed. At the Foreign Office last evening it was stated that the new conscription regulations will augment the available Japanese fighting force by about 200,000 men. Learn By Reference.

Mukden, Sept. 30.-Gen. Kuropat-Mukden, Sept. 30.—Gen. Kuropat-kin has issued an order of the day to the officers on the lessons of the ten days' fighting at Liaoyang, pointing out the shortcomings of both armies, as exposed by the bat-

London, Sept. 30.—Telegraphing from Newchwang, Sept. 20, The Daily Mail's correspondent says: The main force of the Russian army has retired to the north of Mukden. Strong bodies of troops have been thrown out to defend both flanks, and the southern approaches to the city have been carefully mined. The indications are that no serious attempt will be made to hold Muk-

London, Sept. 30.—There is again to-day a noteworthy absence of news from the Far East, accom-panied by the activity usual in such cases of rumors concerning the con-dition of Port Arthur. Reports from Chinese sources at Harbin fix Nov. 4 as the date for a Japanese attack on Mukden. The Daily Telegraph's Shanghai correspondent gives a vivid account of terrible ravages of beri-beri among the Japanese, and especially among those besieging Arthur, asserting that deaths disease exceed the number of killed in the fighting. The Telegraph's correspondent at Sinmin-tin learns that on an average 150 railroad trucks per month are reaching there laden with supplies for the Russians.

Japs Falling Before Disease Tie Pass, Sept. 30.—The Japanese armies around Liaoyang are reported to be decimated by epidemic due to decaying corpses. Official News Scarce.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—The absence of the Emperor, who has gone to Odessa, is causing an even great-er dearth of official news from the front than has been experienced here-

Communication with Mukden has been practically suspended and St. Petersburg is therefore suffering another period of anxiety and suspense, just when the intimation had been given that important developments were imminent between the armies were imminent between the armies of Kuropatkin and Oyama. Port Arthur is more isolated than ever and the only news from that place comes by way of Vladivostock. It contains, however, the hopeful intimation that the garrison is confident of being able to hold out until the first of the year.

Forgery Charge Dismissed Berlin, Sept. 30.—Michael Scharf of Baden appeared before Magistrate weir yesterday morning on a charge of forgery. It, was alleged that he had forged the name of A. Wagler to two notes, one for $186,50, and ano-ther for $80, made out in favor of Oliver Master of Berlin. The Crown did not appear to prosecute and he was accordingly dismissed.
