THEIR BOMB A BOOMERANG

Charges of Liberals Fall Flat as a Pancake.

Dastardly Plot Revealed to Injure Secretary of State.

OTTAWA, March 16.—After the last two weeks of turmoil, a welcome calm prevails around the Commons to-day and the Navy question will not again be touched until after the Easter recess.

When the House meets this afternoon, supplementary estimates will be taken up and money voted to carry on the country's business for the remaining two weeks of the current fiscal year.

OTTAWA, March 18.—The mountain of rumor as to what the Opposition intended doing to Hon. Louis Cadore, Secretary of State, not to mention a couple of other Cabinet Ministers, over the conduct of the Hochelaga bye-election, brought both an attenuated and undersized House yesterday.

The charge made by Louis J. Gauthier, of St. Hyacinthe, was that an organized system of personation was carried on in the bye-election, ably by Emile Bonrassa, Ellis Horn and Elie Lalumiere, under the dictation and promise from Mr. Cadore and his agents that they would be rewarded with money and public positions; that after the election they threatened the Secretary of State with exposure unless the rewards were forthcoming; that Bonrassa and Lalumiere each got $100 from the Hon. Secretary of State.

Mr. Gauthier moved a resolution before the House that the Hon. Secretary of State should be asked to order an investigation into the charges made by him.

Mr. Gauthier moved a resolution before the House that the Hon. Secretary of State should be asked to order an investigation into the charges made by him.

Mr. Gauthier declined to withdraw his motion and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who placed emphasis upon the statement that Bonrassa had been given government employment, Premier Borden then stated that no such appointment had been made or ever could be made.

The debate ran on until 1.15. Mr. Gauthier concluding by declaring his willingness to go before the Privileges and Elections Committee, against the majority of his opponents and against his charges or take his punishment. The House then divided on a motion, which was declared lost by a vote of 87 to 54.

The Secretary of State then entered the Chamber and was given an enthusiastic reception by Conservative members.

Mr. Gauthier moved a resolution before the House that the Hon. Secretary of State should be asked to order an investigation into the charges made by him.

The seventeenth of Ireland evening which claimed Mr. and Mrs. J. Spence as hostesses last evening, was a most brilliant affair—further particulars of the event will appear in Saturday's issue of The Courier, in addition to other social affairs of the same date.

TAXIS COMING TO BRANTFORD

Local promoters are engaged in organizing an up-to-date taxicab service in this city to meet the growing demands for such service. It is planned to secure taxicabs from Toronto, three being put on at first and the number increased. It is proposed to meet all trains, at all hours of the night and day, the demand for which has been acute for some time, particularly in connection with the early morning arrivals on the Grand Trunk.

SUFFRAGETTES UNDER FIRE

Discussion in British House of Commons To-day

LONDON, March 18.—The methods of the British Home Office in dealing with militant suffragettes, which parliamentary critics have dubbed as so inept and inefficient as to have brought ridicule on the administration of the law and a disgrace to the country, were discussed in the House of Commons this afternoon during the debate on the estimates.

Harold Smith, a Unionist member, in introducing the subject of the anti-rages, committed by the militant women said that the country faced practically mob law. Rezinad McKenna, the Home Secretary, had, he declared, reduced the administration of the law to a farce and the natural consequences was that the mob was taking the law into its own hands. It was a disgrace to a civilized country that women were allowed to openly boast that they were criminally conspiring to break the law and that they would not be deterred by the consequences of their actions.

Mr. Smith called upon the Home Secretary to resign from the cabinet as he was a "hopeless failure" and the present serious state of affairs could be ended only by a strong man.

Lord Robert Cecil, another Unionist member, foresaw the possibility of lynch law if the fanatical women were allowed to continue their tactics. He advocated the deportation of militant suffragettes for an indefinite period.

Reginald McKenna, the Home Secretary, who defended himself with considerable warmth, characterized the criticisms as unfair and not frank.

Out of 62 women who had been sentenced to jail since January 1, eight had been released before the completion of their sentences. All of these women had been let go because they had refused to eat food. All of them were suffering from complaints which prevented attempts at forcible feeding, the Home Secretary said, and he added that many of the militants were actuated by a determination to make martyrs of themselves and were ready to starve to death for the cause.

Mr. McKenna said he had to face this fact daily and with bitter experience he knew these cases could only be dealt with individually and by exercising patience. Humanity, he concluded, would surely endeavor to breakdown the movement.

HENRY LOVE IS ON TRIAL

His Case Goes to Grand Jury This Afternoon

Prisoner Has Been a Model One in Owen Sound Jail

OWEN SOUND, Ont., March 18.—Not until this afternoon will the case of Henry Love, charged with the murder of his wife, Hannah Love at Ceylon, Ontario, on December 10th, go before the grand jury. The crown will call no less than 22 witnesses, many of whom have been here since the inquest was held and whose evidence, it is claimed, will go a long way towards fastening the crime on the accused. Chief amongst these is Arnel Love, the 14-year-old son of the prisoner, who since his father's arrest has been living in Owen Sound. Through the place at which he is staying is practically within a stone throw of the gray stone prison, in which his father is confined, not once has he been permitted to hold conversation with him.

As a matter of fact, the accused is allowed intercourse with none save his attorney, Mr. W. B. Wright and a minister. Proof of this was secured this morning when Jailer Miller showed an order to this effect, emanating from Crown Prosecutor Armstrong. According to Mr. Miller, Love is an exemplary prisoner. He reads a great deal principally the bible, smokes a little, but never smokes the crime for which he is being held. His chief cause of worry seems to lie in the fact that he is not allowed to see his son upon whose evidence the Crown has woven the case against the father. Frequently he gets news of him through the minister who visits the jail, and always expresses the keenest solicitude about his welfare.

Inspector Reburn of the provincial police who has had the handling of the case since the first discovery of the body of the murdered woman in the cellar of the Love home at Ceylon, arrived over night. Chief Coroner Arthur J. Johnson, of Toronto, is expected this afternoon to testify before the grand jury in regard to certain stains which are said to have been found on the prisoner's clothing. The case will be tried before Mr. Justice Lennox.

PROSPECTS NOT GOOD JUST YET

Money Will Be Tight For Some Time Says Toronto Bank

TORONTO, March 18.—One of Canada's foremost bankers in Toronto stated to-day that there was no prospect of easier money for speculative purposes.

"Trade is now at the high-water mark," he declared, "and all the funds must be directed to such business. It is an absolute fabrication to say that the banks are hoarding the money."

He stated that the European monetary situation would probably become easier after the war, when a great deal of gold hoarded in France and Germany would be available, but this would not materially affect the Canadian situation.

Other bankers express entire agreement with his views.

THE GREAT WHITE HOPE OF LIBERALS

MONTREAL, March 18.—Widener cables from London to the Star a follows:

"The London correspondent of the Yorkshire Post says that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has written a friend here that if he fails to force an election on the navy bill, he will abandon the leadership of the Opposition. He is said to feel the strain of the present campaign of obstruction very greatly, and is really anxious to retire."

FOUGHT NURSE AND ESCAPED

Suit in Montreal Over The Death of Typhoid Fever Patient

MONTREAL, March 18.—An account of a terrific fight which took place between Horace Chartier, while suffering from a typhoid delirium, in the Hotel Dieu, and the nurse and attendant of that institution, was given to Judge Beaudin yesterday in the course of the hearing of the arguments submitted by the lawyers of Chartier's widow, who asked the judge for a ruling as to the responsibility of the hospital for mortal and self-inflicted injuries sustained by a patient.

The evidence submitted showed that recently Chartier, who was a man of enormous strength, was brought to the hospital suffering from typhoid. He became violently delirious, and in order to prevent any untoward incidents, he was tied to his bed. He was frequently fastened to his arms and feet. Some of the other nurses managed to loosen his hands, and, gaining the floor, he succeeded in dragging his bed after him, and in this way reached a cupboard six or seven feet away from the bed. In the latter part of the night, he was seen to be in possession of a pair of trousers, a shirt and a pair of shoes. He managed to get out of the door with his list, he secured a jack-knife in one of his pockets, and quickly cut the leather bands about his feet. The whole proceeding was the work of a few seconds, and the hospital attendants reached the scene in time to see him from the terrified Sisters, he was brandishing the knife and daring all to approach. One of the orderlies grappled with him, but he quickly made for the window, and smashing the window pane, he jumped to the ground, almost dragging the orderly with him.

The Sisters say that he fell on his feet and broke one of his legs. He died three days later, death being directly caused by typhoid.

The plaintiff claims that death was consequent on the fall from the window, but the Sisters deny this. Judge Beaudin said the case was one for a jury to decide.

AN AMAZING STATEMENT

Brantford Men are Mixed up in a Queer Action.

Revolver is Alleged to Have Been Brought Into Use.

In defence of an action brought against him by Donald W. Cumming of Brantford, who claims $1,266 as the balance due him on two promissory notes, O. M. Mackie, also of that city, filed yesterday at Toronto, one of the most amazing statements which has come within the ken of the Ontario civil courts. He declares that the notes and the agreement which accompanied them for the sale of 295 shares in the Acme Electrical Appliance Company were obtained from him by means of personal violence, and that to obtain them the plaintiff actually produced a revolver as evidence of his evil intent. The affidavit submitted to the Master-in-Chambers reads as follows:

"I am not indebted to the plaintiff, but on the contrary, the plaintiff is indebted to me in the sum of $1,266 for borrowed money, and in other sums for damages to property sustained by me through the negligence of the plaintiff for which I claim $330.55.

The plaintiff procured the signing of the notes and agreement by threats of personal violence to me unless I signed the same. The plaintiff came to me at the office of the Acme Electric Appliances Company, Limited, at Brantford, and threatened to kill me unless I entered into the agreement and gave the notes mentioned, and, as evidence of his intention, and ability to carry out his threat, produced a revolver.

"I had been told previously by the plaintiff that he had killed a man in Oklahoma Territory, and had been tried for murder, but had succeeded in getting off at the trial, and I believed that his threats were genuine, and that he would carry them out if I did not comply with his demands. He insisted on my going with him then and signing the documents. He took me to the law office of Mr. Hollinrake in Brantford, he staying close by me all the way, and carried the revolver in his hand, concealed by his clothing, until after the documents were signed and until after I left the said office.

"I verily believe that the said plaintiff was either insane, rendered desperate by drink or drugs, and I never thought that the agreement or notes would be enforced if he recovered his reason.

"Owing to the gravity of the allegations thus made, the plaintiff's demand for summary judgment will not be heeded to, and the action will go to trial."

The Local Story. Mr. W. A. Hollinrake when seen this morning in regard to the story in the affidavit about Cumming having a gun concealed in his office stated that there was no foundation for it. "Some time ago," said Mr. Hollinrake, "on a Saturday afternoon, Mackie, Cumming and Ernie Moffat walked into my office and wanted an agreement drawn up for the transfer of stock in the Acme Company from Cumming to Mackie. A concerned talker in a very friendly manner. There was no money exchanged, simply notes were given. Cumming was secretary of the company and Mackie appeared anxious to take over the stock. I drew the agreement and was paid for it. There was no revolver or gun aspect to the situation as I saw it whatever, and everybody went away perfectly satisfied."

The Lawyer. Mr. H. Petrie of Hamilton is appearing for Mackie and Messrs. Hartley and Sweet for Cumming. The latter states there is absolutely nothing in the story.

Rush of Immigrants. MONTREAL, March 18.—The great rush of emigrants has begun, and between now and Monday the railway officials state, over ten thousand settlers will pass through here from Halifax and St. John on their way to Ontario and points further west.

Smallpox at Falls. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 18.—Dr. McCleishan, one of the provincial health officers, has taken charge of the smallpox situation here, which is now creating some alarm. The first thing he did was to quarantine the son of Health Inspector Webber. He found the boy was suffering from the disease. There are a large number of cases and a big epidemic is feared.

The service, it is expected, will be inaugurated in the course of a few weeks. The contracts will be for four years.

THIRTY-SEVEN YEARS SERVED

Man Paroled To-day After Spending Life in Prison

WAUPUN, Wis., March 18.—Edward Eckart of Pennsylvania, was to-day paroled from the Wisconsin penitentiary after 37 years of actual time served behind the bars. He was convicted of murder when 21 years old. Eckart's victim was Charles Peterson, also of Pennsylvania. The two were tramping in Wisconsin during the excessively cold winter of 1875. In a quarrel over a fire started beside the railroad track near Jefferson, Peterson was killed and Eckart was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder. He never admitted the crime, maintaining that Peterson was killed by a tramp.

In the thirty seven years of prison confinement never a mark of demerit has been placed against Eckart. He cannot leave Wisconsin and his conduct must be exemplary in every way. In the third of a century of imprisonment, his kin have deserted him, and he does not know the whereabouts of his wife and daughter. Prior to his imprisonment Eckart saw much of the world, sailing the seasons and working in the diamond fields of South Africa. The judge who sentenced him and the district attorney who prosecuted are dead, and only three of the jurymen are yet living.

Eckart never lost hope. Without money he managed to bring his case before the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, and the Circuit Court of Appeals, but at every turn he was thwarted. In a desperate last hope he appealed to a Milwaukee newspaper man, who was instrumental in obtaining his conditional release.

LIVINGSTONE CENTENARY

Very Pleasing Event Was Held at Colborne Street Church Last Evening

The Livingstone Centenary Celebration took place in the Colborne Street Methodist Church last night when the choir gave a Cantata entitled "Livingstone the Pilgrim". The choir which had been carefully trained for the occasion under the musical direction of Mr. George C. White rendered the various choruses in a finished style. Miss of the cantata sang the solo number, "Angels to the Eternal Hills" in excellent voice. Miss F. Leeming sang "The Cross" composed by Harriet Wier giving a fine interpretation of the piece.

The Misses Hutchinson rendered a duet "O Divine Redeemer" with very pleasing effect.

Mr. George C. White played a couple of selections on the organ one being "Chopin's Funeral March". The pastor, Rev. Mr. Holling, gave the readings which consisted of a poetic account of the great Missionary's life and work.

The cantata was preceded by a select miscellaneous programme during which Miss Cora Gould read an account of the carrying of Livingstone's body by faithful servants from the interior of Africa to the coast and the funeral scenes in Westminster Abbey.

King George of Greece Assassinated. SALONIKI, MARCH 18.—KING GEORGE OF GREECE WAS ASSASSINATED HERE THIS AFTERNOON.

COUNCIL WILL WAIT AWHILE

Before Sale of Old Watrous Property is Effected.

But Ald. McEwen Introduced Resolution as Announced.

The Expositor last evening contained a denial that there was any deal under way for the sale of the Watrous property on Darling street by the city. The Courier announced on Saturday that Ald. McEwen would have a motion to hold off the City Council meeting Monday. In a brazen-faced way the Expositor used, without warrant, Ald. McEwen's name in its denial. The Courier can only do one thing in the matter—that is, present exactly what happened at the City Council proceedings, and the following report is an accurate account of what took place:

Ald. McEwen moved a resolution that the buildings and grounds committee be authorized to receive offers for the sale of the whole or part of the old Watrous property on Darling street.

In connection with the report, Ald. McEwen said that there were two or three parties enquiring as to prospects for the purchase of the same. He thought the city would secure $100 per foot frontage for the property, and it would be sold under the same terms as the other Watrous property had been, viz, that buildings of a certain class be erected. It would mean a lot in taxes if the city made the sale whereas at present the city derived no taxes and lost even the interest on its money. It was true the property was increasing in value but not fast enough to warrant its being retained. At any rate, the committee wanted an expression of opinion in the matter from the Council.

Ald. Quinlan said it was only a matter of time before the city would need the property for civic purposes. He opposed selling it.

Ald. Spence said it was a matter for the Council to decide. Mayor Hartman thought it would be unwise to sell the property at the present time.

Ald. Ward wanted to know if the revenue derived from previous sales was intact.

Ald. McEwen said the money was immediately available.

Ald. Spence said it was quite possible the funds mentioned by Ald. Ward had been used to purchase the city's own debentures, but the city was gaining 1 1/2 per cent on the deal, and the debentures could find a ready sale in other quarters.

Ald. Ryerson said that at the present time about 40 feet was wanted. Ald. McEwen assented to Ald. Ryerson's statement. It was his opinion that the property would be improved by a good building.

Ald. McFarland did not believe the Council should stand in the way of the business section of Brantford. The property was wanted, not for speculators, but for men in business who would employ labor. A broader view should be taken of the matter.

Ald. Suddaby opposed any disposal of the property at the present time. It was increasing in value at a wonderful rate, and it would pay the city to hold it.

Ald. McEwen said it was costing $5 per foot to hold the property every year. He thought it would be well to dispose of the same.

Ald. Spence suggested leaving it over until next Council meeting. It would give the aldermen a chance to look over the ground and see what 40 feet or 180 feet would mean.

Ald. McEwen was satisfied with the suggestion and withdrew the resolution.

THE COAL SITUATION.

Next Three Months Coal Will Be Cheap.

Now is the time to order your next year's supply of coal. The price of coal is lowest during April and May than any other time in the year. At present Buffalo harbor is clear of ice and railway companies are busy loading their boats with coal. This is being done to rush the coal to the West as soon as navigation opens on account of the supply getting very low in that section of the country during the past winter. This state of affairs will have a tendency to make coal a scarce article in Ontario. It will pay you to order your coal from F. H. Walsh before May 1st, as after that date all mine-owners advance the prices monthly.

The Secretary of the Board of Health have written the City Council calling their attention to resolutions passed by that board in reference to the butchers on the marketplace made to wear clean aprons and that clean wrapping paper should be used in wrapping up the meat when sold to a buyer.

Women's Institute.

The regular monthly meeting of the Whiteman's Creek branch of the Woman's Institute met in the basement of Bethel Church on Thursday evening, March 13. The meeting was of a special interest, one important feature of the program being an address by Mr. R. Schuyler, district representative, on "Gardening." The girls of Perley school, under Miss Kines, went through a hoop drill,
which was both pretty and novel.
After the program refreshments were served by the ladies and the meeting closed with "The Maple Leaf."

Presentation.

The Junior League of Sydenham met church for the number of over forty were on yesterday morning and held a most interesting session under the leadership of Miss Margaret English. During the meeting, a presentation and address was given to Miss Emma Gowman, the retiring superintendent, and who is to be married this week. A most flattering address was read by Master Harold English and the presentation of a pretty silver spoon tray made by Miss Fern Scruton. Miss Gowman made an appropriate and feeling reply. The boys and girls are very sorry to see their former leader leave the city.

Indoor Ball.

E Company, champions of the 38th, defeated H Company of the 91st
of Hamilton in the local armories Saturday night by 18 to 10. The Brantford nine played fast ball the entire game, hitting the ball with a vengeance. The work of the 38th battery, Allan and Wright, was especially good. The former is certainly some catcher and should make good in the outdoor game if he gets a chance. The Hamilton line-up was:
Hilligan, c; Hillerow, p; Shepley, 1b;
Pray, 2b; Catton, r; England, lss;
Noble, 3b; Heath, Dudley, fielders;
38th line-up: Allan, c; Wright, p; Heatherington, 1b; Marlat, 2b; Stuart, 3b; Lane, lss; Colquhoun, r; ss;
McKay, Miller, fielders.

Men's Institute.

The re-opening of the Men's Institute at the Armories took place on Saturday night and the affair was marked by a good attendance of the officers and a very large representation of privates. There was fun galore and those who wandered up to the mess were amply repaid for their trouble. Capt. G. D. Watt acted as chairman and kept the pot boiling all the time. It can be truly said that the Paymaster is sure some chairman and where he secured all the talent was a mystery to the rest of the officers. The officer who cashes the cheques will likely be made a permanent chairman for future occasions. Everybody was in good nature and the best of good fellowship reigned supreme. There were songs, recitations, instrumental selections, duets, trios, quartets, and dear knows what all. The jolly affair broke sharp at eleven and it was the unanimous opinion that it was a glorious success.

Literary Club of Y.W.C.A.

The Literary Club held its weekly meeting in the Association Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent with Browning. Miss Hollinrake gave a splendid talk on the life of Browning. Miss Edith Sweet dealt with his style. Miss Gould read one of Browning's works, "Youth and Art," and Miss Evelyn Buck read a very fine paper on "Current Events." Follow-

BREEZY FOOTBALL NOTES FROM THE OLD LAND

English League
 What will be considered by all to be of more than passing interest is the bringing forward and jostling down of the rest of the fixtures of the five most serious contenders for the league championship which is as follows:

Manchester City are still scheduled to play Middlesboro, Sunderland, Everton and Blackburn Rovers away from home, while their home games comprise Middlesboro, West Bromwich, Sheffield United and Derby County.

Aston Villa are due at Chelsea, Manchester United, Bolton and Newcastle, their home games being Woolwich, Sunderland, Liverpool and Sheffield United.

The Sunderland club must travel to Sheffield United, Aston Villa, Liverpool and Bolton. At Roker Park they have still to receive visits from Sheffield United, Manchester City, West Bromwich A. and Everton.

Oldham Athletic will journey to Bolton, Tottenham, Notts County, and Blackburn Rovers, and at Oldham they will entertain Bolton, Derby County, Middlesboro and Manchester United.

Sheffield Wednesday will go to Blackburn, Derby, Woolwich, Manchester C. and Everton. On their own enclosure at Owlerton they will meet Chelsea, Bradford City and West Bromwich Albion.

After surveying the above fixtures it will be seen that Manchester City have just about the stiffest program of away games to fulfil, with the exception of Sheffield Wednesday who are down to play five matches away from home. So far as uphill tasks are concerned in the closing stages of the season it may be said that these are pretty evenly distributed. Taken on the whole however, the Athletics of Oldham appear to have just a shade the easiest future task, and although Sunderland and Aston Villa are still great favorites regarding the possibility of accomplishing the double event performance it cannot be denied that Oldham, by their doughty deeds of late, have earned an equal right to be considered on exactly the same footing. There is also the important fact to be considered that Oldham have not as yet this season been beaten on their own ground—conclusive proof enough that they'll fight every inch of the way to the bitter end.

Bolton Wanderers and Blackburn Rovers are by no means left out in the cold so far as league honors go. Why anything at all may happen yet to conclude one of the most exciting seasons on record.

Aston Villa just got home again by the odd goal at Villa Park at the expense of Notts County.

First and foremost of Saturday's results was the handsome victory of Sunderland over Manchester United at Old Trafford by a margin of three goals to one, which, considering what Come on. Bring on the Hanna parade quick. The robins are here.

Roy Brown, Bruce Gordon and Duff Adams, they are not dead ones but merely hockey stars of the past journeyed to Toronto yesterday to witness the London-Collingwood final game for Intermediate O.H.A. honors. Friends of this celebrated trio may expect for the next six months to hear how rotten O.H.A. hockey is these days to what it was 10 years ago. Well, we'll have to listen to it, that's all. Our only regret is that we can't have signed articles from the three of these ex-stars of the arena on the intermediate classic which took place last night.

Now just imagine what Roy Brown would write. He would probably say that there was one man on the London defence who was an easy mark to get by, providing one of the forwards went down and adroitly cracked him over the ankles a couple of times—at the same time remarking to such defence player that he should be pitching hay rather than playing hockey. Buzzer Gordon would probably write that certainly Collingwood players didn't like size and speed combined. "Just one rush down there with my frame and velocity would dazzle them." So much for Mr. Gordon. Then that great old-timer, Duff Adams would probably soliloquize as follows: "The London three-man rush would be easily broken up by a free use of hickory."

Well, after all, when these ex-stars get talking, what's the use? We'll have to put up with it for at least six weeks.

Jack Sloan writes the Courier sporting editor to-day as follows: "After hearing certain local wretches are sending in challenges to me, and offering to give me weight, in defence I say that I hold the 148 lb. championship of Brantford and am willing to defend it at any time on condition that the challenger is a registered amateur. A letter by any one to me will be able to arrange a match."

Sincerely yours,
 JACK SLOAN.
 Bring on the bout!

The Sporting Editor of the Hamilton Spectator does not like the making up of the Canadian schedule, and puts forth the argument that Ottawa, Hamilton and Brantford are not given enough Saturday games, and the smaller cities have been allotted

Collingwood Won Out From London Team

O. H. A. Intermediate Honors Won Last Night After Desperate Struggle on Toronto Ice.

Collingwood are intermediate champions of the Ontario Hockey Association for the season of 1912-13. After winning at home in the final game from London by 6 to 5 they were considered out of the running, but in the return game at London held the Cocksney's to a 2 to 1 score, thus tying the round. The deciding game was played last night at the Arena, and the northern town boys nosed a 3 to 2 victory after one of the most exciting games seen here in some time.

Plenty of Supporters
 Both clubs had a host of supporters. On the part of the Londoners called to win on account of their practice the last few days on artificial ice and also that the hard ice would aid their speed. Both crowds had plenty of chance to cheer, there being little to choose between the two benches. Collingwood had a margin of the play in the first half, but in the second period London forced the play and missed numerous easy chances to score. There was an exceptionally large crowd, there being 4,321 paid admissions.

The game was not a good exhibition. There was too much fouling on both sides, which should have been penalized more severely by the referee. Tripping, hooking, holding and slashing were the common methods adopted by both teams in their efforts to stop an opponent. The London defence, especially Borland, were very crude in their methods, and continually slashed the incoming man over the hands and arms. The Collingwood players were better in their methods, but used the body to better advantage than London, and thus slowed their opponents up.

Collingwood's Aggressiveness
 Collingwood's victory was due to their aggressiveness and hard back-checking. In the first half they had the London forwards nailed tight and seldom gave them a chance to break away for a clear shot. Their defence also used good judgment in breaking up the London rushes and went after the man every time. They attempted little combination, but held their positions better than the London forwards. Their interference also worked to a nicety, and Fryer was given plenty of chance to demonstrate his shooting ability. Time and again in the first half they passed back to him in centre ice and held the London men checked while he shot. Gramary and Borland, who are considered the stars in their usual team, did not perform in their usual style. They continually bunched in centre ice and backed in on the net, thus giving Wardrope little chance to see the puck. On the offensive both did some good work, but their work on the defensive was poor. The forwards stuck to their task, but the stiff checking slowed them up. In the second half they missed numerous easy chances to score by a desire to pass too much. They combined cleverly on several occasions, only to spoil what would have been the tying goal by passing one too often.

Fryer Starred for Winners
 For the winners Fryer, Hall, Lawrence and Burns were the best. Fryer who is the pivot of the team, was fed with passes by his team-mates in the first half, relying on his ability to shoot to conquer the Londoners. His rushes were also good, and he used excellent judgment in the latter stages of the game by, killing time, when London forced the play. Hall on the defence played a steady game all through and broke up the London rushes time and again by clean body-checking. He was also good on the offensive. Lawrence at centre, while not spectacular, held his position to a nicety and checked back hard at all times. Burns had it all over his check. He is very speedy and has the necessary weight to carry him along. Cook in goal had very few hard shots to handle.

Baseball Stories Of Interest

In 1909 Frank Isbell and Jack Holland were partners in a cigar store and pool hall at Wichita. Frank served as a clerk in the store during part of the time. One evening, late in the winter of 1909 Jay Andrews popped up in the cigar store presumably to fan a little with the "Bald Eagle," but it developed later that his real purpose was to procure a loan of $10, he having found that he did not have enough funds to take him to his home at Hutchinson, writes "Sec." Taylor.

Isbell took a ten dollar note from his cash register and as he handed it to Andrews the latter wrote out an I. O. U. and gave it to the famous player. Isbell promptly returned the I. O. U. and with his knowing smile and twinkling eyes declared: "Keep it; you will need it worse than I do."

Andrews was puzzled at first and Isbell kept grinning he caught the point.

"Why, you blenkey-blank-blank, you think I will run across that in my pockets some day and it will remind me that I owe you."

"That's just the point," replied the "Bald Eagle." "I know I won't forget it, but you might."

Then Andrew sent $10 in pennies by express along with the I. O. U. Andrews was strong for payment in one cent pieces. In an important series of games between Hutchinson which he managed, and Wichita, on the latter's grounds, he was expurgated from the grounds on two successive days, the last time four of his players being sent out of the park one after the other. This meant a $50.00 fine before one of them could participate in the game the next day.

The Hutchinson team appeared on the grounds for the third game, and Andrews had his usual "pepper" in the warmup. When it came time to start the game, the umpire demanded the fines. Jay walked back and forth in front of the grand stand, calling the umpire and the Wichita club about every name in his vocabulary, and Jay has a list of bad words delightfully long and just as strong as they are numerous.

He stormed until he saw it was getting dangerous to tarry longer. Then, turning to his bench he yelled to Pettigrew, then a Hutchinson fielder: "Ned, old boy, bring on the pocketbook."

Pettigrew and Aitchinson were awaiting their cue, and slowly and apparently with great effort, dragged a big bag sack from under the bench to the plate. There they dumped the contents, $50 in pennies, to the ground. The umpire called the ground keeper and a wheelbarrow and carted the coppers to the club house until the game was completed.

"How did you get that baseball fiver?" an interviewer asked W. F. Kavanaugh, Southern League president soon after he landed in Washington to take up his duties as United States Senator.

CLUB HOUSE ON THE BRINK

Heather Bowlers Having Difficulties in Getting Their House Moved.

What's going to happen the Club House of the Heather Bowling club? The house which has been in transit for a week or so, is on the river's brink and cannot be moved any further. In fact the house is liable, according to Ald. Suddaby's statement at the City Council last night to fall into the river and go crashing down stream into Lorne Bridge, and knock the bridge down. "If any of these dire things happen," said Ald. Suddaby, "there will be a suit for damages against the directors. It is up to the club directors to put timbers down there and move the house."

The club house at present is near the boat house, and its position is perilous. Ald. McEwen brought the matter before the Council and asked if the Board of Works could do anything to help the club out of its predicament.

Mr. E. C. Tench, one of the club directors, said this morning that the house had been taken down Scarfe avenue and left at the end of the thoroughfare. When the flood came up about ten feet of the embankment was washed away. If the Council fixed the roadway up the house would be moved, but if not, the club will be put to some extra expense.

The minister could scarcely believe it, having known her so long. But Donald says: "I know her better, and I'll say she's worse than the devil, and I'll prove it true Scripture." "Well," says the minister, "I should like to hear your proof." "Weel, disn't it say in the Bible, 'Resist the devil, and he'll flee frae ye?'" American Association. In winning we had to beat Guy Hecker, a great pitcher in those days.

"After the game they wanted us to jump right into professional ball, but we went back to school. I wrote baseball for the Louisville Courier-became president of the Southern

Miller Huggins tells a funny one on Kid Griner, the big Tennessee school boy, who busted into the big league last fall.
"Griner," said Huggins, "had a great trick of delivering the ball, and then charging forward almost up to the catcher. He'd run a mile in a game. He claimed he made his dash because it terrified the batter.

"One day Griner was pitching to a Pittsburg ball player named John Wagner—yes the justly revered Hans.
He threw a fast one and then began to dash. He had got two steps when the ball on the return, caught him in the diner. They didn't serve any meats in that diner for the rest of the week."

"In Kansas City one day last sum-excitement" mused Jack Lewis. "St.

Paul was playing there that day.
Flynn was on first, Reig on second and Ralston on third, all being walked by Bill Powell. Bill had a bad day but he was ahead of us, as we could not hit him, but he started to get wild. With the count at one and two, Ralston started, and sure enough Bill walked Hoffman, the batter. Instead of stopping at second, Ralston kept on to third, where Reig was. Flynn had not yet scored as he was walking
The Kansas City infielders got Doc Ralston, and he was by Flynn sliding home, drawing a throw. That play made everybody laugh, the idea of a man being compelled to slide in when he was entitled to the run. We never got through kidding Ralston.

Wild Bill Donovan, in his time one of the great pitchers of the day, and now manager of the Providence International League team, recalls one sunny afternoon in the season of 1897 while he was with the Detroit Tigers of a tall, awkward looking youth wearing out upon the mound.
When walking out upon the mound
"Who's that fellow?" inquired Bill from a spectator. "His name is Johnson," was the reply. "They say he struck out 22 men in Idaho."

"Well, this isn't Idaho, and that young fellow will find it out in a very few minutes," put in Bill as he sat down to watch the proceedings.

Three innings later Donovan went back to the spectator who had given him the information. "How many did you say he struck out in Idaho—22?
It's a wonder he didn't strike out 27.
That's the greatest kid I have ever seen."

"I have played baseball all over the map, from Dan to Berseba," said Dave Altizer to Red Owens. "I have been around a little myself," answered Red, "but you have something on me. I never played in either of those hot towns."

One summer day when the Detroit club was playing a series in the National Capital, with Tim Hurst in the role of umpire, Tom Hughes, boarding the ball park, boarded a car and sat down next to Tim who was busily engaged in reading the news and did not notice the tall pitcher. Tom, who had pitched with a sore arm the previous day, and lost, and to add to his troubles, had been a victim of some of Tim's alleged "wall-eyed" decisions, proceeded to make his presence known by the following observation:
"After some of the decisions you made yesterday, I am very much surprised to see you trying to read without glasses." "No more surprised than I was yesterday to see the Nationals trying to win without a pitcher," replied the doughty Timothy, and

REMAINS FO CHAUCER

ELLIOTT LAID AT REST
Large Number attended Funeral of Famous Coach.

KINGSTON, March 18.—The remains of one who held a well-merited place by himself in the sport of Canada for many years—the late "Chaucer" Elliott—were placed in the vault of Cataragui cemetery on Saturday afternoon. The funeral service was read in St. Paul's church at 3 o'clock by Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald, the vicar, a service for the family
preceding this at the deceased's late home in Division street. Many friends gathered in the church for the service, and among the many who attended the funeral were representatives of the athletic clubs which the dead athlete had been connected with.

The mourners were the deceased's for brothers—Robt. F. John and Matthew B. of this city; A. M. of Bothwell, and two cousins—J. J.
Elliott of Toronto; and W. R. Hodg-
son of Ottawa.

H. Lewis Scores Knockout
On English Middlelight

LONDON, Mar. 18.—Harry Lewis,
the America welterweight, last night
knocked out Jack Harrison, the middleweight champion of England, in the third round of a 20-round contest
the fight took place at the National Sporting Club. Harry Lewis last February obtained an award of $3,750 damages in a suit against a motor cab company on account of injuries
he had sustained in a taxicab accident, which, his counsel argued had impaired his nerve, vitality and ability to fight.

Council Jottings

Connaught caused the aldermen to give exclamations of surprise. Ald.
McEwen wanted to know what department this account would be charged to. The Mayor replied that it would come out of general funds.
Ald. Spence said he knew nothing about the account, and the finance committee all thought it was pretty well up in the air, and that the account was in keeping with the pictures, if not the frames.

An account for a new instrument for the City Engineer's department was ordered paid. The instrument was found necessary for the survey of the railway route. Ald. Spence said he hoped it would be of some service in measuring the new sidewalks
throughout the city, so that better levels could be secured.

Ald. McEwen moved, seconded by Ald. Gillingwater, a by-law to improve conditions in regard to dry earth closets throughout the city. The by-law was given the usual readings.

Ald. Suddaby introduced the by-law to go back to the assessment
method of charging for street water.
The Council did not even want to discuss Ald. Suddaby's by-law and voted against going into the committee of the whole to consider it. Ald.
Spence remarked that he was surprised to see that Ald. McEwen was in favor of closure, but Ald. McEwen replied that it was only the constitutional kind.

Messrs. Pitcher, Fry and Simons received $5 each for valuation services for the Hydro-Electric station site. Ald. Ward wanted to know if the Hydro-Electric by-law provided for all these incidentals, and was informed by Ald. McFarland that the
by-law certainly did cover incidentals,
and the original estimate would be over the actual outlay. Freight

FADING AT THIRTY

When Woman Should be in the Prime of Charm and Beauty.

At thirty to thirty-five a woman should be in the prime of charm and beauty, and yet many women begin to fade before then. Wrinkles appear and the complexion grows sallow.
Dark rings surround the eyes, and headaches follow, with backaches and low spirits. The cause of this is simply need of blood nourishment.
Good, pure blood is the life of a woman, and brings the glow of health to the cheek, brightens the eye, and elasticity to the step, and the general happiness of good health.
When woman feels jaded and worn out her blood supply needs attention, and the one unvalued and sure remedy is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which supply the rich, red blood that repairs the waste, dispels disease and restores the brightness and charm of womanly health.

Mrs. H. G. Hart, Winnipeg, Man., is one of the thousands of sufferers
who owes her present health to Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills. She says: "I had suffered for a long time, not knowing what the trouble was. I had doctored with several doctors, but only seemed to be growing worse.
The last doctor I had, told me the trouble was anaemia, that my blood was turned to water, and that my condition was serious. But his treatment, like the rest, did me no good.
I got so bad that if I excited myself,
or went upstairs, I was completely out of breath and felt as if I was going to suffocate. My heart would palpitate violently, and at times I would suffer with terrible pains from it. I had a yellow complexion, and my lips had lost their color, and I had no appetite and could hardly eat. I grew so weak I could hardly drag myself along, and my feet seemed to have weights on them. I was so completely run down that I thought I was going into consumption. At this time a friend urged me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking a few boxes I found my health improving, and after taking the Pills for a couple of months I was entirely well, and have never moved the best of health, and I feel that I can never see enough in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

CASCARETS CLEANSE
LIVER AND BOWELS

CASCARETS USERS NEVER HAVE HEADACHE, CON-STIPATION, BILIOUS-NESS OR SICK
STOMACH.

It is more necessary that you keep your bowels, liver and stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.
Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret at night will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.
Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing too.

Lady Marjorie's Love

Music and singing, of course, with drawing and water color painting, needle and fancy work, dancing and calisthenics. There were a few minor items but I don't of the languages. I should not venture to suggest a doubt as to whether you would be likely to find yourself quite equal to filling a similar post.

"Equal!" Marjorie echoed with her former bluntness. "Oh, it is absurd!" she cried warningly into indignation. "I could never do that or anything like it. Why I don't know a word of Italian, and as for German I always hated it—it is all gasp and choke! French I can speak, because my father was fond of the language and we often used to talk together in it but I don't believe I recollect half the rules. And I can't bear fancy work—I always made such a horrid cobble of it's shamed her hands with a helpless little gesture which looked at him quite impudently. "Oh Mr. Barrington, all people can't be as bad as that. They can't want so much, so many languages—do you think they can, now?"

"Oh, I dare say not. We will put it down that plenty of people will be content with French. But even then, and putting aside the fancy work I much doubt if your difficulties are over."

"What difficulties?" She started him a swift little look of surprise. "Really, you seem inclined to infer that I could teach children nothing because I know nothing."

"On the contrary I am ready to avow that you could teach them a great deal. I have heard you play and sing sometimes—I know you didn't know it, and I owe your pardon for having taken the liberty of listening outside the window. I was merely going to say that I can certify for your making a good many less mistakes than the average young lady in these days of almost universal music torture that is much. You gave me the other day a list of things that you wanted ordered at the stationer's and booksellers in Upton Walkers. It was written in a very pretty hand and so clearly that I read it at the first glance. In these days of hieroglyphics and park palings that is also much. Both could not fail to be reckoned as highly desirable accomplishments by sensible people."

Then as to teaching the young idea how to shoot in the right direction socially, in the way of a proper deportment towards their equals and a capacity for keeping their inferiors duly in their places—

He had been going on glibly and more than half jestingly, but now he stopped short. Marjorie had flashed him a startled look of wonder and reproach which was eloquent in itself. The memory of every snub that she had even given him, Barrington did not seem to have faded from his mind. "I should be such a particularly outrageous kind of cad if I had meant that," he said quietly. "If I thought you really believed it I should go out and ask the first able bodied man I met to kick me. Shall I go? She shook her head and smiled faintly. "A thousand thanks—you are kinder than my stupidity deserves! Shall we go on with the subject or are you tired of it?"

"Tired of it? It is a great deal too important to me for that. You are speaking of other difficulties, Mr. Barrington. What, if you please, are they?"

"The difficulties? Oh, to be sure, yes!" He seemed to bring himself back to the subject of the difficulties with some difficulty on his own score. "Why, if I am to speak quite frankly Lady Marjorie, your commandments of 'Of course you are' and 'Thanks! I'll obey. Well then, I take the liberty of fancying that languages or the lack of them may not prove your only stumbling block, if I hint—remember your commandments—that your geographical and historical knowledge may be just a trifle shaky?"

"Geography?" I'm sure that I don't know. Marjorie knitted her brows perplexedly. "I learnt a lot—Frauen Meyes was always bothering me about some stupid place or other. I dare say I may have forgotten a little of it. But what makes you think so?"

"Oh one or two things! To instance one—we were talking the other day about that book called Cleopatra; and you evinced a decided conviction that Egypt was somewhere on the borders of Persia."

"Well, isn't it? It is a mere detail of course, but it doesn't happen to be. And, although we are all liable to make mistakes—even the stupidist of us—still it is as well to hit upon the right continent, even if you don't go into minute particulars."

"Perhaps you know where it is?" Marjorie cried with some indignation, putting grimace of resentment to mention its whereabouts. But that need not give you any exalted idea of her natural intelligence. These are the days of education you know and I assure you that I have been to school."

"I never supposed you had not. How ridiculous!" She flung the answer at him sharply, for she thought he had deceived her. "I thought she had laughed at her. In fact, she was amused at herself as well as chagrined and she could not help feeling something of alarm and doubt as well—the governess project did not appear to grow more attractive and feasible for discussion. It was very well to hit upon Persia and say that she would do it, but if she couldn't? The blank appealing look came into her face again. He answered as if she had spoken. "I speak from the governess point of view, Lady Marjorie. Of course you understand that."

NERVOUS DESPONDENT WOMEN

Find Relief in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Statements—So Testify.

Plates, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with female weakness and backache, and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my nervousness is better. I will recommend your medicine to all suffering women."

Here is the report of another female case, which still further shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is well adapted for the relief of women's ailments. "I had inflammation which caused pain in my legs, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that it felt like crying if any one even spoke to me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I began to gain right away. I continued to use it until I was cured. I am now as well as I can be. My doctor says I am cured."

It is a sure quick cold cure—acts gently. Pape's Cold Compound cures colds and grippe in a few hours. The most severe cold will be broken, and all grippe misery ended after taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken. You will distinctly feel all the disagreeable symptoms leaving after the very first dose.

Music and Drama
Few plays on the boards to-day can parallel the record of success achieved by "In Old Kentucky," scheduled for an appearance at the Grand Opera House on the evening of Wednesday the 19th. Its popularity is widespread and its fame is spreading. The tendency of latter-day dramatists to treat upon themes of immediate current interest, does not always result in the sort of play that appeals through a decade of continuous presentation. "In Old Kentucky" seemingly was written for all time and to fit all changes in public taste. When its dramatic merit and generous supply of excellent features are considered, it is difficult to account for its continued prosperity. It tells a delightful story.

Twenty new members were added to the church.

Sunday was educational anniversary. The preacher for the day was Rev. W. Falls of Toronto. "Mr. Falls' sermons were of a very high order. In the morning discourse he showed the great advantages of a good education. His evening sermon was based on the "Brotherhood" and also addressed the whole Sunday school briefly at the close of the session. The choir rendered the usual excellent music. Miss Nina Carling of Exeter sang a solo in the morning, and Mr. Arthur Harp sang "The Palm Tree" at the evening service. Miss Mabel Limburg and Mr. Chas. Dixon assisted in the anthems. Miss Carson sang at the Sunday school.

City Votes $1,000 Bonus To Greater Brantford

But Ald. Spence Suggests Change in Commission-ship—Wants to See Some Results.

When Ald. Ryerson, chairman of the Manufacturers' committee of the City Council put through a report last night authorizing the expenditure of $1,000 of civic money to the Greater Brantford board, there were some caustic comments by Ald. Spence, relative to the "worth of Industrial Commissioner Emerson." Although Ald. Spence fully sympathized with the policy of the board, he believed a radical change in the methods of the office of the commissioner would be necessary to accomplish results.

Ald. Spence said he did not have any objections to assisting the city to the extent of $1,000 providing the fruit was a little different to that the city had been getting. He did not want to criticize the Greater Brantford board because the members were giving their services free. But if the city was to continue giving $1,000, the board should make a change in its industrial commissioner-ship. Results could not be expected during the first year. There was, however, too much vagueness and too much indefiniteness about the fruits of the industrial commissioner's work. Ald. Spence appreciated the fact that Ald. Ryerson was a good representative on the Greater Brantford Board, but better results were certainly desired if the city were to continue spending the money. He recommended to Ald. Ryerson that the fruit be sprayed a little more thoroughly so that it got a better chance to develop.

The item passed. It was after Ald. Ryerson had read the following report that Ald. Spence delivered his comment: "Greater Brantford" is an Association of citizens of Brantford organized for a period of three years, at a meeting held in the City Council Chamber on Tuesday, April the 9th, 1912, under the name of the "Greater Brantford" for the purpose of promoting the industrial development and the greater prosperity of the City of Brantford.

The membership of the association is all those persons, firms, partnerships, companies or corporations whose names appear in the list of subscribers to the "Greater Brantford Fund." Its "constitution" and the "rules and Regulations" for its government, were adopted at an adjourned general meeting held April 30th. In accordance therewith an election of a board of directors and other officers was proceeded with.

The board of directors is composed of four members elected by the subscribers, and one member appointed by the City Council. To enable the board to act, over three thousand dollars has been subscribed and paid to the board by private citizens of Brantford. Supplementing this is the amount of one thousand dollars granted by the City Council on April 1st, 1912.

The board having decided to appoint an Industrial Commissioner to devote his whole time to its service, advertised the position in the two local, and the two larger Toronto newspapers. About thirty applications were received. When it was found impossible, at that time, to procure a suitable man from the list of applicants it was decided to offer the position to a local man, Chas. H. Emerson, at that time one of the aldermen of the city. The board's offer was accepted as per agreement dated June 17th, and Mr. Emerson entered on his duties forthwith.

It has been the object of the board to further the expansion and development of existing industries, to secure new industries, and, in a general way, to assist factories, etc., through co-operation, to secure better railway, postal, etc. facilities. It was understood at the outset that it was not to be expected that the value of the Greater Brantford board to the community would be seen by what it accomplished during the first year's operations. The annual meeting of the association is to be held in the City Council Chamber on Tuesday March 18th, at 8 o'clock, when the board will submit its annual report and explain, in all necessary detail, the work that has been accomplished.

While the first fruits are somewhat few in number and small in value, your representative believes that the later harvests will be great and will amply justify the efforts that are being put forth and the money that is being expended. Your representative therefore urges the continued hearty co-operation and support of the City Council for "Greater Brantford" in its efforts for the Industrial Development and the Greater prosperity of the city of which we are all so justly proud.

ROUTINE WORK AT COUNCIL.

Board of Works and Fire and Light Report.

The routine end of the City Council proceedings last night was of the same variety. It consisted merely of reports by the Board of Works and Fire and Light Committee which follow.

Ald. Suddaby submitted the Board of Works report as follows: That the letter of Thos. Potts of March 13th, asking for permission to build on part of Niagara street at the subway, be filed, the committee being unable to recommend the granting of this request.

That the report of the City Engineer of Jan. 20th, be filed, which shows plants and tools of the streets department $3,200; of the sewer department $1,339.94, and the material on hand as $5,413.02. That the letter of the City Engineer to the City Clerk of Jan. 17th, and the letter of John Colter of August 1st, 1912 be filed with condole James Reid for the Holmdale sewer.

That the letter of S. Fox, 55 Colborne St. of Feb. 24th be referred to the City Solicitors.

That the following contracts for supplies be awarded in each case being the lowest tenderers:

Brick—To be divided between John Mann and Sons and Schultz Bros. Co. Limited.

Lumber—To be divided between Mickle-Dyment and Son and Schultz Bros. Co. Limited.

Rubber Boots—Neill Shoe Co., Limited.

Special Castings—Hartley Foundry Company.

That the Contract for Sewer Pipe be held over till the next meeting.

That the City Solicitors be instructed to prepare the necessary contracts and that the cheques of the unsuccessful bidders be returned.

In regard to the contracts, Ald. Suddaby said it was not entirely necessary. All the tenders had been accompanied by a cheque and the cheques were the order of the council to say whether contracts prepared by the Solicitors were necessary.

Ald. Minshall thought contracts would be dearer than ever this year.

Ald. Spence remarked that every night the financial committee met, there was an account for rubber boots. By this time, every mother son and child ought to be pretty well shod with rubber boots.

Ald. Ward remarked that Ald. Spence didn't know what he was talking about as no rubber boots had been ordered this year, but Ald. Spence came back and said that accounts for rubber boots had certainly been paid this year.

The report of the fire and light committee was as follows: That part of the street railway power house on Colborne street be rented at $20 per month for Hydro-Electric purposes.

That part of the Canada Steel Company's land at a rental of $10 per month and part of land adjacent to the Steel Company be secured from Geo. H. Wilkes at a rental of $100 per year for Hydro Electric purposes.

Ald. McFarland in submitting the committee's report said pole yards had been selected because they were convenient to railway sidings. There would be some 5000 or 6000 poles laid down here during the next year.

Ald. Minshall wanted to know if it was a case of putting up 5000 more poles.

Ald. Spence wanted to know if Ald. McFarland was keeping track of the rental expenditures for offices, pole yards, etc.

Ald. McFarland asked what else could be done.

Ald. Broadbent said the expense of teaming would be cut down by additional pole yards. It was a case of economy.

The report was carried.

A MESSAGE FOR THOSE WHO SUFFER

MRS. E. J. TALBOT TELLS THEM TO FIND A CURE IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

She Had Rheumatism, Lumbago and Neuralgia and Found the Remedy She Was Looking For in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

HAMILTON, Ont., Mar. 17 (Special).—"I know there are a lot of people who suffer and do not know what will cure them. Dodd's Kidney Pills will."

These are the words of Mrs. E. J. Talbot who resides at 298 Wellington street north in this city. And Mrs. Talbot speaks out of her own experience. "Last July I was very sick," Mrs. Talbot continues. "My heart bothered me, my limbs were heavy, and I had a dragging sensation across the loins. Rheumatism, lumbago, and neuralgia added to my sufferings, and the doctor I called in did not help me much."

"I finally decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have used seven boxes and I am so much stronger and better that I felt I must recommend them to others."

Mrs. Talbot's complication of troubles all came from sick kidneys. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure-all. They simply cure kidney disease of any kind. They never fail to do that.

A correspondent of the Montreal Witness says: "While perusing Robert Burns works I came across a poem he wrote just one hundred and twenty years ago in 1792, to be found in volume IV, pages 127 and 128, which I think would prove that Robert Burns had been alive now would have likely defended the cause of the British suffragettes. Strange to say, that in the following two short verses, mention should be made also of wars and revolutions, well applicable to the present Balkan and Mexican feuds."

While Europe's eye is fixed on mighty things, The fate of empires, and the fall of kings; While quacks of State must each produce his plan, And even children list the Rights of Man;

Amid this mighty fuss just let me mention, The Rights of Women merit some attention.

But truce with kings, and truce with constitutions, With bloody armaments and revolutions, Let Majesty thy first attention summon, Ah! ca' ira! the Majesty of Woman."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.

When this tube is inflated you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
