SENATE REFORM

The question of first importance to the people of Canada is Senate Reform. For no matter what progressive measure the Canadian electors desire, as voiced by their representatives in the house of commons, the irresponsible senate may block them all.

Montreal Star: An academic discussion on senate reform always strikes out in the house of commons whenever any action touching that body is proposed.

This was printed on Friday last, but before the senate had wrecked the government's bill dealing with increases for that body.

The Toronto Telegram got nearer the meat when it said on Saturday that the Borden government showed poor strategy in withholding important measures till the dying hours of the session.

The whole story goes to show that the Conservatives were leading up to a point when they'd have the majority and then, as the Montreal Star is forced to admit, good-bye to senate reform.

Now he's got to deal with senate reform, after an altogether unnecessary delay! The man who'd lead the house of commons can't afford to wait upon strategy, or to delay, or to be undecided, or to be undecided, or to be undecided.

Toronto News: It is ridiculous that a party which was defeated three years ago should still have the power to block the senate.

Another article The News calls upon the Borden government to go to the imperial parliament and demand relief in these words:

The Liberal government of Great Britain has destroyed the power of the house of lords to override the judgment of the constituencies. It has made the upper chamber subordinate to the popular chamber, and the servant, instead of the master, of the people.

That was Mr. Maclean's argument, and he put it in his amendment in the so-called "academic" debate! Sir John Wilson must now see that the greatest issue in England is this same question of "senate reform," greater even than "home rule."

Hamilton Herald: W. F. Maclean's resolution for the reform of the senate, debated yesterday, may have been inopportune, but we are confident of its substance.

The Herald's views on the subject of senate reform have recently been expressed. We favor an elective senate, as a responsible second chamber that is needed in this country.

The telegraph wires misreported one of Mr. Maclean's phrases. He spoke of "responsible parliamentary government," and he was transmitted as saying "responsible party government."

There is no reason, either, why the senate should be made up of the upper house should be made before the country has had an opportunity of choosing the government empowered to fill the newly created seats—at a general election.

There is a suggestion here to make the senate more responsible to the people! But we differ from the Herald at the time when the proposal was made to increase the number was inopportune to discuss the character of the senate.

BOMB EXPLODED DOUGLAS ADMITS CAUSING HAVOC IN CHURCH

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, June 14.—A bomb was exploded in St. George's Church, Hanover square tonight. There is evidence to show that the explosion was the work of suffragettes, and coming so close upon the bomb outrage in Westminster Abbey, the desecration of this famous edifice has increased alarm as to how far the militant women intend to go.

The caretaker of St. George's had locked the church after a careful inspection on the conclusion of the evening services. A few minutes after 10 o'clock a passerby heard an explosion and summoned the fire brigade.

Another "Protest." The firemen found a square tin box and several pieces of candle in the overturned pew, and a member of the congregation said that the pew was occupied at the evening service by a woman in a checked dress. An envelope

LORD MERSEY TO SCENE OF WRECK

Accompanied by Hon. Mr. Hazen and Judge McLeod, He Embarks on the Government Steamer.

Ottawa, June 14.—Lord Mersey, who will preside at the inquiry into the wreck of the Empress of Ireland, arrived in Ottawa on Saturday and was met by Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries, and Alexander Johnston, deputy minister.

The Ottawa Free Press gives a reason for the senate's throw-out of the Borden senate increase bill.

There is no reason, either, why the senate should be made up of the upper house should be made before the country has had an opportunity of choosing the government empowered to fill the newly created seats—at a general election.

Was Married and Divorced Twice Before Meeting His Third Wife, Convicted for Several Bad Cheque Deals, and Sentenced to Four Years in Sing Sing.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Kenneth D. Douglas, newspaper man and social worker, who was arrested in Boston, charged with deserting his bride of six weeks, in Newark, was brought back to the latter city last night.

Douglas, the police say, has made a full confession, making the history of two previous marriages and of several convictions of irregularities in bank cheques.

When Douglas married Miss Margery Steteman, a Wellesley graduate in Newark, he swore, in obtaining the license that he had never been married.

He said his real name is Kenneth A. Hood. That he was born in Ireland, and then he went to England, enlisted first in the Royal Marines and afterward in other regiments, and saw service in the Boer war, in the Sudan campaign and elsewhere.

He confessed to having served as six months in Sing Sing for a "cheque deal" in 1912, for "another cheque deal" in 1911, for "still another cheque deal" in 1910.

John V. Ladday was retained to defend Douglas by the prisoner's wife and his friends. While Mrs. Douglas has not yet visited him in jail, it is understood she intends to stand by him.

RALLY OF THE HOLY NAME SOCIETY

Right Rev. Mgr. McEgan carrying the Blessed Sacrament around the grounds of Loretto Abbey, where 12,000 young men met yesterday afternoon.

FIREMEN CAUGHT IN A DELUGE OF DEBRIS

Three Were Injured in One of Three Esplanade Fires—Constable Roughly Handled by Gang of Roughs—Young Man Drowned—Woman Badly Injured—Gasoline Launch Burned.

Three firemen were caught in a deluge of debris in a fire that destroyed the junk sheds of M. C. Fink at 126 Esplanade, Saturday evening, and caused $5000 damage.

The three men, Capt. Dave Gordon, of the high-pressure wagon, Adelaide Hall, Fireman Britton, of Adelaide, and Fireman Villiers, of Bay street, were on the roof of the building when the whole upper portion collapsed, taking the men with it into a mass of smoldering rags in the interior of the building.

Following the blaze in Fink's junk shop came two more in quick succession at "Colon's" iron works, which gutted the blacksmith shop, did considerable damage to the store room, and caused a total loss of more than $10,000, which fortunately is covered by insurance.

On the run to the first fire at 239 a.m. the fire trucks were held up by a long G. T. R. freight train at the Frederick street crossing, and this delay was responsible, in a large measure, for the heavy damage done by the fire.

Disregard of "safety first" rules was responsible for the drowning at Hanlan's Point Saturday night of James Mooney, 20 years old, of 27 Brock avenue. The accident occurred on the "Joy Ride" an amusement device.

Constable Wornwald (498) was roughly handled by a gang of hoodlums in the Trinity College grounds, Saturday evening, while attempting to arrest two of them for disorderly conduct.

Of a gang of fourteen, six were intoxicated, and Wornwald cautioned them twice about their conduct and offensive remarks to women and children in the grounds. On both occasions the gang laughed at him, and finally, when two of them jostled two young girls, Wornwald attempted to make the arrest. Four of them injured.

FIFTY CLASSES IN THE HOLIDAY'S HORSE PARADE

Everything This Year Promises to Be Bigger and Better Than Ever Before - Largest on Continent.

ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN ALL COMPLETED

The City of Toronto and Boston, Mass., boast of the largest work-horse parades held in America. This is the 12th Annual Open Air Horse Parade and Show held in Toronto. Last year nearly six hundred entries were received, and the show consisted of nearly 1000 horses taking part and were shown in fifty-two classes, all of which were judged between 8.30 and 10 o'clock, at which hour the exhibitors left the park in a parade returning to the reviewing stand in an hour later.

This year many prominent judges from out-of-town have accepted invitations, and everything promises to be larger and greater than ever. A. C. Marshall, the president, who has occupied the position for twelve years, reports that a very liberal response has been made to the appeal for subscriptions from the merchants and citizens. The association has no reputation, and therefore the officers and members are indebted to the subscribers and advertisers for their support.

For years the association has given gold, silver and bronze medals to the first, second and third horses. The executive this year have selected gold and silver scarf pins in horsemanship design which they believe will serve as a better reward to drivers and owners for the care and cleanliness shown in their turnout. In addition to this, the association gives $1 to each driver in the commercial class, and this year, brass medallions suitably mounted on leather to be attached to the back strap or collar strap of the horses, is another feature that is being introduced as an award for the exceptional cleanliness of the exhibitors' equipment.

Two of the city military bands have been engaged to play in the parade during the judging, and the public are cordially invited, as everything is free. Subscriptions will be received by any of the following members of the executive:

"This congregation respectfully petitions that in future no such charters be granted without careful inquiry as to the bona fide nature of the application, and that those already granted be revoked where it appears that the same are being used to operate a business under the pretence and in the name of a club."

THE GARDEN

CONDUCTED BY R. T. TODD

Everyone declares that this season of all other seasons for many years, the hundreds of shrubs of bush honeysuckle have surpassed themselves in perfection of coloring and profusion of bloom.

Many old old bushes whose owners have been seriously considering the advisability of cutting down apparently useless trees and putting in new stock, are now thanking the lucky infusor who told them to leave the bush alone, just one year more, and just look at those bushes.

I am sure everyone will recognize them all over the country. And the thick clusters of small rose-pink blossoms are so very beautiful that they all perfectly against the dark glistening green of the small oval leaves.

Since the snowball the bush honeysuckle requires time to become beautiful and to gain strength to send out the luxuriant bloom of today.

The young trees require judicious care for the first few years, many of them being so tender that they are destroyed by various pests.

These shrubs are best trained in as compact bush form as possible. Sometimes a group of three or more shrubs will do better than single shrubs. Often a hedge composed entirely of carefully selected young stock will give the owner satisfaction for many a long year.

Since these shrubs, once well rooted, are productive like the lilacs of many sturdy root shoots, it is a fairly easy matter for the gardener to increase his stock by removing these young slips.

Care must be taken however, to plant only those suckers that have a thread or two of their own roots as well as a bit of the mother root. There is not much difficulty in persuading these young shoots to grow rapidly; but because of the tender and peculiarly insidious nature of the young stock, shrubs are unusually susceptible as I have pointed out above, to the inroads of various pests.

So that constant spraying is advised, especially where the garden is filled with other varieties of shrubs.

Gems to Match the Gown, Society's Latest Jewel Fad

By MADGE MARVEL

Some of the newest have a pivot setting which has sentimental possibilities. For example, in one of the shops noted for its hand-made jewelry and its originality of design, I was shown a ring with a gold scarab for a setting. It was in that pale tint of gold known as "rough gold," and was set on a pivot, having the reverse side in the form of a monogram seal. But the real charm of this ring lay in its secret, a tiny spring, known only to the maker and the owner, which being pressed allowed the scarab to fly open and revealed—a place for a very special Some One's picture.

Odd Pendants. There is still great liking for the pendant. The favored style shows one of single semi-precious gem in some wonderful setting. A topaz, quite the size of an English walnut and slightly oval, with the lower portion showing a pointed tendency, is set in a heavy rim of green gold with bunches of grapes formed of little pearls.

A rarely beautiful pendant in red gold and Etruscan work is in the form of a larger bunch of grapes made of various colored pearls, pink, white, yellow and black.

Circle brooches are well liked. One of faceted onyx and pearls is adapted for mourning wear. Of course the circle is open, and the brooch gains more delicacy than one might suppose.

The ribbon bracelet is used to hold the watch when the costume makes the leather strap seem heavy, and the gold bracelet is deemed too elaborate. Any color of ribbon is permissible, to match the costume. There are little clasps in gold which allow the ribbon to be adjusted to the size of the wrist.

The best liked watch for use on the bracelet is one of the very tiny models with a gold face and a simple gold rim. Earrings are still worn, and the long, slender pendant dangle favor with ones which fit closely to the lobe of the ear. In the latter style, white or black round beads or baroque pearls are most desirable. In the pendants there are some attractive combinations of colored stones swinging on pearl chains.

The plain gold hoops, the gypsy earring and jet hoops are becoming to only a certain piquant type of woman.

Why Anger Kills Beauty; How It Affects the Body

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

ANGER is like a tempest that from cloud to cloud the rending lightnings rage, till, in the furious elemental war dissolved, the whole precipitated mass unbroken floods and solid torrents pour.

When there is war in the body, the black-winged hosts of anger arise and dash here and there through the coursing blood stream. The sun is then indeed down upon your wrath.

Prof. George W. Crite, of Cleveland, not only experimentally by means of rabbits, rats, cats and dogs, but by thorough, painstaking examination upon men, has proved conclusively that the fine texture of the brain, as well as other delicate structures, is definitely damaged every time you burst into anger.

Moreover, Prof. William Canon, of Harvard University, the noted physiologist and experimental psychologist, has disclosed the fact that you are sweetest when you are angry. That is to say, when rage, when the arteries and the general health, but it is the Chinese pirate of beauty.

Answers to Health Questions

Anger is a self-consuming fire. To grow wrathful is really to make an auto-ambulance of yourself. You sup upon yourself, and even starve as you feed.

Briefly, then, rage is self-destruction. It is worse than slow poisoning; it is progress toward insanity.

On the other hand, to be so cool, apathetic and icy-blooded as never to allow the passions to rise, will, in the view of Prof. Sigmund Freud, of Vienna, Henri Bergson, of Paris, and Ernest Jones, of London, result in perversion of thoughts which may turn out to be the equivalent of near-insanity.

Mere superficial control of your violent emotion is not enough. Yet absolute lute annihilation causes the distortions, which break out in fits, irritabilities, furors, hysterics, manias, vices, crusades and militant morality.

Mere control or down-stamping of anger is not enough. Your physiological mechanism must generate a control of such a nature that it will prevent anger instead of treating it. Euphrosia is the watchword; it is worth pounds of cure.

If you carry anger as the flint bears fire, which, much used, flashes up and is cold again, your reservoirs of fuel sugar and oxygen, your brain and nerve units are injured, your blood pressure is raised almost to the apoplectic point.

Not only is this raging emotion a violent assault upon the blood serum, the

I. M.—I feel swollen up, with ringing in the ears, and I suffer from intestinal indigestion. I eat three meals regularly, and never eat between meals. Drink plenty of water. I have had treatment, but am no better.

Take out-of-door exercise; walk three miles every day. Go to bed early, so as to have nine or ten hours' rest in bed.

A READER—I used to have frequent attacks of sore throat, usually developing into quinsy. Have not had an attack for 15 years until recently, when I had two severe attacks. I am afraid I shall be subject to quinsy again. What can I do to prevent it, and, in case it develops, what is the best treatment?

You should never bundle up your neck, wear no collars, or very low ones, and have your tonsils cut. This is safe and painless.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. PETER'S ADVENTURES IN MATRIMONY

By Leona Dalrymple

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $1000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

And Mr. Rankin says his wife is so much like me. He said she's really a very pretty woman—not that I mean that I'm pretty. Peter, dear me, you know I'm not conceited—but Mr. Rankin is a very good-looking man, too. Really you can't deny it.

"Help!" said I weakly. "Mary, take a little rest, begin all over again." Mary looked thoughtful and began again a wild eulogium on Mr. Rankin. "What brazen flatterer women do swallow!" Here were these two landlords subtly playing upon my wife's foolish susceptibilities—such to win an advantage over the other. Day by day Mary's sympathies fluctuated from one to the other. A score of times she would have said the rent if it had not critically held the purse strings and refused to commit myself.

"What one do you want to pay to-night?" I would inquire, and after a while Mary would answer: "Well, Peter, after all, I do believe Mr. Vance is honest. He couldn't talk the way he does and be otherwise."

Women, as a class, are a great deal more pliable than men. In grateful hands a woman is as plastic as wax. You can make her believe almost anything. Her inherent trustfulness, her charity—which is the very essence of her being—her sentimental sympathies combine to make her fertile ground for plausible arguments.

Only the woman accoutered by temperament and a sharp nose to slam the door in the face of anything like an advance toward matrimony, which is the very essence of her being—her sentimental sympathies combine to make her fertile ground for plausible arguments.

EVEN the loveliest country, however soft-fragrant, however sparkling with flowers, however conducive to contentment, cannot supply EVERYTHING.

Even the loveliest girl, who most wishes to be content, is likely to want one sign not furnished by either the sky or the landscape.

The thing she wants, and wants again, will come up over the rise of the yellow road in a creaky wagon, that never seems to hurry at all. It is a LETTER.

So that if it is mail time the loveliest girl has SOME excuse for just a little impatience. She will try not to show the country postman how she feels. But he will guess. Girls don't haunt a mail box without reason. Anyway, so long as the man, miles and miles away, doesn't see that eagerness, all is well. To let HIM see would spoil him.

The Fallacy of Face Peeling Treatment

By LUCREZIA BORI

Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York

Special arrangements have been made with Senorita Lucrezia Bori, the famous prima donna soprano, who has created a wonderful impression in Europe and New York on account of her remarkable beauty and artistic attainment, to write for this paper a series of articles on beauty. There is probably no authority her equal in giving the newest and most approved methods of attaining and preserving "the divine right of woman."

And once more, why should he be any more disenchanted by her wrinkles than she is by his immaturity of mind and viewpoint? Just think what a wonderful mental start she has of him in those fifteen years! Why, he should respect her for all that superiority of wisdom and experience. But that isn't the way of the world and the poor lady is going to submit to torture in order to keep his love.

Face peeling is one of the beautifying means employed by some expert beauty culturists. It is exactly described in its name. The face is literally and painfully peeled and underneath is a fresh, pink and tender skin which would be quite beautiful on a new-born babe, but which is never anything but absurd on a mature and somewhat aged woman.

It is not always a dangerous operation. It is always painful. Patients moan and sob, clenching their fists in their agony till the nails cut into the palms. These are facts. They can be substantiated. I have heard more than one woman who has submitted to the process confess it.

Then, there is a chance that the peeling will not accomplish that which it set out to. The skin may be fair and "babyish" or it may be roughened and unsightly.

Perhaps the peeling agent most often employed is the iodine treatment. Then there are various preparations applied in the form of compresses that do just what the word "peel" would infer—they make off the skin. They leave the surface raw. There is a week or more of healing. The suffering is far from slight. Every breath of air has the same effect as if blown on a fresh burn.

When the new skin has formed, if the treatment has been success, the face is smooth, pink, uplined and frequently entirely lacking in the expression that once made it beautiful.

Where there are no wise men there can be no ignorance.

It is much easier to be forcible when telling a lie than when expounding the truth.

Men who rob Peter to pay Paul do not always liquidate the account with the last named gentleman.

The man who looks for trouble never has any trouble finding it.

Small wonder that Truth is crushed to earth these days of automobiles when she goes around blindfolded.

The man who looks for trouble always finds it if he does not find it that fact is trouble.

Three Minute Journeys

Cannibals That Feared a Mirror By TEMPLE MANNING

T)he east and north of the vast island-continent of Australia you will find in your atlas a splatter of dots. These dots represent that group of islands known as the New Hebrides.

Picture to yourself your own pleasure in the surrounding landscape, telephone, motion pictures, newspapers, society and law and order—all that go to make up weapons of a civilized country, with men, black men in a state of barbarous life, using bows and arrows as their only weapons, and you would have a vivid panorama of life in one of these islands.

A few days' journey in a tiny schooner brought us from all the pleasant modern civilization of Australia to the strange and debased barbarism of the New Hebrides. It seemed to me amazing that only a few miles of blue water separated the two extremes of civilization and barbarism in the year 1914.

Hardly had we dropped anchor in a tiny palm fringed harbor when canoes full of dangerous animals, big and little paddles, drew up alongside our ship. In these canoes were some of the most repulsive specimens of the human race that I have ever seen in my lifetime.

At the sight of the bronze Apollo, so well proportioned, lithe and beautiful they were. But, on close view, I forgot the beauty of the body in the horrible decoration of the face.

Under long, curly hair rolled up inside eyes above a broad nose, made broader still by a bamboo or some cylinder stuck through it. The thick lips shrank back so that they did not cover the teeth which, strong and perfect, gave these grotesque faces the appearance of continually grinning, gargoyle like. A long and fairly well kept beard framed the face in black. The whole body, face included, was covered with a thick layer of greasy soot.

These men, who climbed to the spotless decks of our schooner, were cannibals. Nearly all of them wore plumes of black and white feathers. These plumes advertised to the world that the wearer was a great man; he had killed a man. One of the largest was pointed out to me as the professional murderer and provider of human flesh to his chiefs.

They stared at everything on the ship with wide eyes and open mouths. They forgot whatever timidity they had in the delight of looking at everything on the ship. A sauceman proved a joy; the boards and planks of the deck were touched and admired amid much unaccustomed lip and then, one of the sojourners brought up a mirror and handed it to one of the visitors.

This man stared into the mirror and let out a wild "Whan!" All his companions gathered around and stared into it. They were frightened at first, but at last they roared with laughter, put out their tongues and admired their sooty faces with intense egotism.

And if there's a spot where the sun shines not, There's always a lamp to light it. And if there's a wrong we know ere long That Heaven above will right it.

So it's not for us to make a fuss Because of life's sad mischances, Nor to wear ourselves out to bring about A change in our circumstances. For 'tis world's a pretty good sort of world.

And He to whom we are debtor Appoints our place, and supplies the grace To help us make it better.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie: I have a very nice young gentleman friend who sometimes provokes me very much. For instance, he will tell me if you look at him, and another thing, he is very flirtatious. He likes to go about with one girl and then another. When he gets tired of them he comes back to me. I have known this young man for years, and he is a very fond of him.

What can I do with him? MABEL.

NOW, Mabel, what earthly use is a man to you or to any one else who gets mad "if you look at him?" What sort of a gentleman does such a man make—to say nothing of a husband? He gets mad if you look at him? Now, when you are not in his power, what would he do if he had you tied to a chair with a nice gold ring and the minister's blessing?

A bad temper is the very worst kind of company. Why don't you try getting

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 15.

MR. WILSON ON THE JOB.

Woodrow Wilson, with no previous political experience, except as governor of a small state for a short time, seems to have succeeded wonderfully well as the leader of a great party and the chief ruler of a great nation.

Not every president has been able to have his way with congress. Many have been content to confine themselves to their executive duties; others have bullied or cajoled congress; Mr. Wilson has endeavored to lead congress.

That he has succeeded so well is in part due to the fact that he has lost no time in getting to work, and has remained steadily on the job. Inaugurated in March, 1913, the president brought both houses of congress to Washington in the following April, and has kept them there working six days a week, and sometimes seven, ever since.

Then again, Mr. Wilson brought forward one big measure at a time, focused public attention upon it, and kept it steadily to the front until it was crystallized into legislation.

Much of the same driving force and untiring persistence have characterized the Asquith government, although the prime minister and his brilliant colleagues, Lloyd George and Winston Churchill, have had the advantage of sitting in the house and taking part in the debates.

Yes, Mr. Wilson has succeeded. The way to get measures through any legislature, be it for the leader, whether president or prime minister, to bring his bills down early in the session, and hammer them thru, one at a time, trusting for success to the loyalty of his followers and the justice of his cause, rather than to negotiation and finesse.

BRITISH CAPITAL FOR COAL DEVELOPMENT.

In an article regarding the return of Mr. D. A. Thomas, the Welsh coal magnate, from his recent visit to this continent, The Financial Times of London, England, refers to the important projects he has had under negotiation for coal mining undertakings on this side of the Atlantic.

The Canadian territory is stated to be very sparsely populated and part of the project is to interest expert coal miners from Great Britain in the Dominion, thus adding to the skilled labor of the country. From Mr. Thomas' experience and his prominent position in the coal trade, he may be expected to prove these prospects thoroughly and no doubt has good grounds for his evident confidence that paying deposits will be located.

Also primarily in the coal business, he is reported to be fully alive to the value of oil, and on some of the properties it is not improbable that the new fuel will be found. If

Many members of the association are business men, whose names are inseparably connected with many commodities. Their aim is to promote scientific and legitimate advertising and to stamp out fraudulent advertising and fakes of every kind.

THE CENTRAL RESERVE AND THE GOLD MOVEMENT.

In the current number of Moody's Magazine, Mr. H. M. P. Eckhardt has an interesting article on the prospective increase of the gold movement from the United States to Canada.

During the second half of November, 1913, New York exported to Montreal and Toronto nearly $14,000,000 gold, but practically all of it was returned to New York in the first four months of this year.

Mr. Eckhardt then proceeds to trace the extent of its influence last fall and to discuss its possible effect in succeeding years, when unaided by such special circumstances as were then present.

The special aim of the executive will be to bind the membership into a mass of municipal and trade enthusiasts, spurred on by the enterprise and enthusiasm of the younger members, and yet restrained from vast schemes by the wisdom and sanity of older men.

LUCAS ARRAYS LIBERAL LEADER

A SPLENDID MEETING Provincial Treasurer Gets Rousing Reception in Woodstock Town Hall.

By a Staff Reporter.
WOODSTOCK, June 14.—The excitement of election time has taken hold on Woodstock, and prospects of a great turn-out at the provincial polls are becoming more evident daily.

The feature of the evening was the vigorous arraignment of the Liberal leader on two matters of vital interest to the province today.

It was in discussing the temperance situation, however, that Hon. Mr. Lucas brought out his strongest artillery.

Mr. Rowell's appeal is for temperance Tories to turn out the White government because temperance Liberals turned out the Ross government," he declared.

The speaker went on to say that temperance people to do what he as a Liberal had refused to do. He would have them do as he now advised, and not as he had done.

On the bilingual situation he called for a frank position from Mr. Rowell, Major Hunter, a Liberal resident in Toronto, had said evocative words to him by the bi-chope.

He also outlined the Workmen's Compensation Law and what it meant to the province at large.

DROP GRIEVANCES AGAINST ENGLAND

Home Rule Should Heal Old Sores, Declares Irish Speaker.

"If parliament is set up in Dublin, all grievances against England should be dropped," said Clive A. Thomson in speaking about home rule before the United Irish League, at Harry's Hall last night.

"The minority in Ulster," he said, "are determined that they shall bully the rest of Ireland in defeating the home rule bill."

"If home rule goes thru what has Ulster to fear?" he asked. "There is a clause in the bill which prevents the curtailing of British liberty," he stated.

Irishland, he said, has been taxed on the same basis as other portions of the British Empire, and has paid $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 more than she should.

Irish League, which presided in that behalf the speaker, said that England would have been defeated in many battles if it had not been for the Irish.

Continuing he expressed a few opinions on Kilpin's writings on the question. "He is not the strong man that he was, because he has lost his grip on the men," he said.

BRITISH POLO TEAM SPRING SURPRISE

Show Superior Speed and Combination and Easily Rout the Yankees.

MEADOWBROOK POLO CLUB, Westbury, L.I., June 13.—Completely demoralized by the speed and teamwork of the English, the American team went down to defeat here this afternoon in the first game of the match for the international polo cup by a score of 8 1/2 to 3.

The defeat came as a great surprise to the majority of the thousands of spectators who had expected an American victory and made the cup defenders ten to seven favorites in the closing minutes of the game.

The English players excelled, however, for their stotwork was a revelation. At other forehand or backhand driving they outclassed the defenders, and the length and direction of their strokes showed the benefits gained by the long preliminary practice season begun in Madrid in the winter.

The American four, however, was the case last year, and in addition which surpassed in skill and speed the combination which failed to lift the cup in 1913.

The play in general was fast and clean, and, aside from a cropper experienced early in the game by Larry Waterbury, was without the suggestion of an accident.

The score was the largest run up in recent years by either United States or English teams in a cup match. Not since the 1909 series, when the cup was regained, have today's figures been exceeded.

VICTORIOUS TEAM—FIRST GAME

ROSEDALE DOUBLED SCORE ON MONTREAL

Peasoupers Aviated in Second Half and Locals Came Thru—Fitzgerald, Star.

The Rosedale team made their debut before the Queen City fans, and also incidentally swamped Montreal in the initial N.L.U. game by the score of 13 to 6.

The confusion was communicated to the other players, who were further handicapped by the fact that in turning and sprints up and down the field the English points were faster on their feet and better handled.

The English team seldom sacrificed teamwork for individual brilliant plays. Cheape and Tomkinson, however, started in the attack because of their forward position, and the veteran at No. 2 never gave a better example of fine riding and driving than he did today.

The play in general was fast and clean, and, aside from a cropper experienced early in the game by Larry Waterbury, was without the suggestion of an accident.

NATIONALS PILE UP SCORE ON TORONTOS

Blue Shirts Succumbed to an Overwhelming Score—Gibbons Failed.

MONTREAL, June 14.—Between five and six thousand people saw Nationals defeat Toronto at the National Lacrosse Grounds yesterday. The weather was favorable, although there was a breeze blowing from the east.

Roddy Finlayson, the referee, insisted, at the request of Toronto, that everyone except the teams and spares and one coach for each team be sent off the field.

The game was lively from the start. Neway Lalonde scored the first goal for Montreal in less than a minute, and in a fraction over a minute Toronto's first goal was obtained by Longwell.

The game was a close one, but the Nationals, with their superior play, eventually won by a score of 13 to 6.

INDIANS TROUNCED QUEBECKITES AGAIN

Tecumseh Show Way to Visitors With Strengthened Line Up—Good Game.

ALTHOUGH CHARLIE QUERRIE'S Indians secured eight goals and doubled the score on Quebec at the Stadium Saturday afternoon, the Easterners were not by any means outclassed to the extent the score would indicate.

To the splendid defence work of the Indians in passing and shooting, but the visitors' attack displayed lots of speed, shot at every opportunity to use it, and kept the White Shirts shooting from far out all through the game.

The line-up for the Indians was: Torrey, (Goal); Whitehead, (Point); Graydon, (Centre); White, (Defence); Mackerel, (Defence); Barry, (Centre); McKerron, (Home); Carmichael, (Outsides); George, (Outsides); McDougall, (Inside); Roberts, (Outsides); Tom Humphries, (Judge of play).

Our Boys Start Out Great On Their Long Trip Abroad Two More Wins Make It 13 Straight for Orioles Athletics and Giants Take Longer Leads in the Big Show

LEAFS LAND BOTH ENDS SUNDAY DOUBLE-HEADER AT JERSEY CITY

Herbert and Gilbert are the winning pitchers — Toronto gets to Frill in ninth for first game — Put Bruck away in early stages to land the second game — Our boys made only one error in double-header.

JERSEY CITY, June 14.—(Special).—By annexing both ends of today's double-header, the Toronto Maple Leafs got off to a flying start in their initial line-up of another series in the camp of the Jersey Skeeters and rushed home six victories by a score of 2 to 0 in the breakaway, and 5 to 3 in the concluding part of the program. Jersey City today had in the curtain raiser, but had to account to the superior all-around work of the men behind the Toronto bat.

On the other hand Jersey City put up a miserable game behind their pitchers, four errors being charged in the first session and six in the second. Today's defeats made the Jersey City losses total eleven straight games. In order to check this President Tom Barry has instituted a shake-up that will no doubt result in several releases and the introduction of new blood. As a starter pitcher Carl Thompson was let out. Leo Stritz was sent to Scranton, and Ben Kohler, second baseman, was released to South Bend, Ind. Club, where he will assume the management. Infielder Lehr has been secured from Buffalo, and Wright, purchased from the Canadian League, made his first appearance in a Skeeter uniform today.

LEAFS SPLIT UP DOUBLE-HEADER SATURDAY WITH MONTREAL ROYALS

Home team win first game after change of managers, Kitty Bransfield quitting in disgust — Second easy for Toronto, Fitzpatrick hitting for four bags with bases full.

MONTREAL, June 13.—The Royals, minus Kitty Bransfield, went out to the field today to rock home with the Leafs in the final double-header of the present series. Catcher Dan Rowley is leaving manager of the team in place of Bransfield, who has finally given up the ghost, and will leave Montreal tonight for his home in Worcester, Mass. Tom Madden is field captain and a shaker of the Royals. He attempted to make the team a winner. They started out all right, beating Toronto in the first game of today's double-header, hitting Johnson opportunely, while on base in the second inning, when two singles, a sacrifice and a base on balls secured two runs.

DIVISION LEADERS HAVE GOOD START

T. and D. Series Show Single Teams in Front — Second Place Keenly Contested.

The leaders in all the divisions of the T. & D. League asserted themselves Saturday and broke away from any tie positions. At the finish of Saturday's games only one team occupied first place in each series, although the second places were well crowded. Overseas slipped again after their brief sojourn in first place and Old Country are now tied with them for third place. Sunderland were consistent and still retain the lead with the fast coming Barracks in second place. Wychwood beat Hearts and sent them down, while the Wychwoodians forced their way into first place. Lancashire continues to lead in division three, but Toronto St. Railway and Centre are making the running hard. The race has now become a three-cornered affair with one point separating all three. West Toronto United came thru Saturday with another win and now are the holders of the top of the fourth division heap with Russell Motor and Hartcourt trailing hard. Stanley Barracks look to have struck the going and are gradually dropping away. Overseas are still three points ahead of Riverside Flyers in the junior, but the Riverside seemed to be laying off late.

At the Sunderland athletic grounds on Saturday Sunderland defeated Overseas by 3 goals to 0. Prior to the game both teams were tied for the premier position in the first division of the T. and D. and unless a tie resulted one team was bound to lose the leadership as a result of this game.

The teams: Sunderland (3)—R. Brown, Polley, Stewart, S. Brown, Dobing, Archer, Church, Roxborough, Hammett, May, Moffitt. Overseas (3)—Gray, Robinson, Harrison, Leslie, Croucher, Korman, Winter, Rutherford, Pratt, Aitken, Holland. Referee—H. Baker.

Hartcourt defeated Stanley Barracks in the Fourth Division T. and D. soccer game at Stanley Barracks on Saturday afternoon by 2 to 1. The game was clean and fast through and the refereeing of J. Clarke was excellent. Both and Atkins each scored for Hartcourt.

Parkviews and Thistles played a no-score tie game in the First Division at Lappin avenue on Saturday. The line-up: Thistles (4)—Duncan, Buchan, Townley, Small, Adams, Forbes, Calver, Hunter, Ferguson and Peden. Parkviews (4)—Forsyth, McKelvie, Brown, Dierden, Scott, Johnston, T. Turner, Blunty, Whiffen, Cameron and T. Turner. Referee—L. Jowett.

Barracks sprang a big surprise on the Don Valley supporters in their T. and D. fixture on the latter's ground at Todmorden on Saturday afternoon. They 3 to 0 victory was no more than they merited on the day's play, and had it not been for the extra special defence put up by Laycock and the men in front of him in the second half the Dons would assuredly have had to mourn an even score reverse than they suffered.

At Lambton Athletic Grounds, before a good crowd of spectators, Devonians defeated Devonports by the score of 3 to 2 after a real hard battle. The teams: Devonports (2)—Enfield, Mead, Norman, Tiley, Warde, Miles, Randall, Fidler, Worrall, Apps and Dunmore. Devonians (2)—Hunt, McLennan, Mc-Kenzie, Burns, Leonard, Swift, Bruce, Hopper, Reynolds, Allan, Tapsen. Referee: J. Hewitt.

Lancashire defeated Ulster in a good game at Lappin avenue by 2 to 0. St. Outberns had to take the field short of three or four of their regular eleven against North Riverdale in their 3rd Division T. and D. game at Todmorden on Saturday, the cause being the early commencement.

The line-up: North Riverdale (2): Goal, Rycroft; backs, Law, Robinson; halves, F. Bramhall, Robertson, W. Bramhall; forwards, Johnson, Hughes, Hutchinson, Smith, Armstrong. St. Outberns (2): Goal, Tapp; backs, Green, Simpson; halves, Mawson, Brassay, Sadler; forwards, Forest, Henderson, White, Gill, McIlroy. Referee—Debnay.

Wychwood defeated Hearts by 2 to 1 in a second division game at Bracondale on Saturday.

The game was most strenuous and exciting. Both teams were tied for first place in the league and neither had lost a game. In consequence the rivals faced each other with a bountiful supply of confidence. The line-up: Wychwood (2): Finley, Turner, Scott, Mundy, Allen, Chirran, McColl, Sid George, Walker, Saunders. Hearts (1): McAlpine, Reid, Lauder, Hunter, Dickson, Speers, Hamilton, Atwood, Rankin, Duncan, Winton. Referee—Imlach.

Queen's Park beat Fraserburg at Varsity Stadium by 3-0. The game was very one-sided owing to Fraserburg losing a player in the first half. The teams: Queen's Park (3): Gildert, Mawson, Higlet, Accout, W. Finn, Thompson, Owens, G. Finn, McIntosh, Swale, Tooke. Fraserburg (0): Jennings, Campbell, Buchan, Morgan, Martin, Turiff, Mair, Hollingworth, Dowell, Young, Young. Referee—W. Marchal.

CHATHAM BOY DROWNED.

Special to The Toronto World. CHATHAM, June 14.—A drowning accident happened in the river Thames near the Todmohr Park dock yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, when Francis Salisbury, the eight-year old step son of Frank Oldershaw of this city lost his life. The boy had gone in bathing and got out beyond his depth and his companion could do nothing to save him.

BELLEVILLE BOY BURNED.

Special to The Toronto World. BELLEVILLE, June 14.—While Gordon Webster, aged five years, of this city was playing with matches, he set fire to his clothing, frightfully burning his body. Mrs. George Dickson, a neighbor who rushed to the child's assistance had her hands severely burned. The boy, who is at the hospital, may survive.

mother to marry her seven daughters in proper sequence, according to the Hindu custom. Four of these girls are ready for the matrimonial market, but the youngest of these, who is by far the most charming, is sent away to a convent. She is expelled for some mischievous prank, and arrives home before her elder sisters have found husbands. She is in borrowed garb suitable to her position, but her mother puts her into childish frocks. She is recognized by a young lieutenant whom she has met at a ball, and he agrees for the reward of three kisses to marry off her three sisters and so leave the field open for himself. Miss Haswell will appear in the role of the fourth sister, one which is just suited to her delightful personality. Mr. Gillen will also have a good part in this play as the young lieutenant, while the smallest sister of the seven will be played by Miss Violet Dunn, aged nine years, who was discovered by Miss Haswell at a public school performance in Massey Hall last month. The little girl is remarkably clever, and won the gold medal for elocution on Empire Day.

TRAVEL SERIES WITH LYMAN MOWE AT THE GRAND

The Great Divide When William Vaughan Moody wrote that stirring play, "The Great Divide," he had an abject in view and a theory to expound. These were that a man, no matter how vile he may be, can be regenerated thru the love of a woman. To prove his theory he gave the stage a strong, forceful story, and in order to drive it home to the hearts of the public he created some exceedingly daring dramatic situations. "The Great Divide" will be the offering of the Bonstelle Players at the Alexandra Theatre this week. As the principal scenes of the drama are laid in the mountains of Southern Africa, there is ample opportunity for picturesque scenery and lighting effects.

The Seven Sisters Miss Percy Haswell will present at the Princess Theatre tonight "The Seven Sisters," a domestic farce. The story deals with the efforts of a widowed

Press Night at Shea's

Saturday night was Press Club night at Shea's Theatre, when the newspapermen and their friends enjoyed one of the best musical farces that have ever been produced in this city. Adele Blood, in the title role of "Glittering Gloria," was at her best, and was forced, in nearly every number, to reply to repeated encores. In honor of the newspapermen Miss Blood's company introduced a number of special features, including singing, dancing and female impersonations by that clever artist, Edithman Pinto. This young man added in a great measure to the evening's enjoyment, and was called upon repeatedly for encores. Marion Dentler, the charming little ingenue, acquitted herself wonderfully well. Her rendition of two songs, "An Old-Fashioned Kid" and "The Lonesome Girl in Town," was excellent. A feature of the performance was the particularly graceful dancing of Reg and Winnifred Stuart, a young Toronto couple, who danced the mazurka, tango and one-step in a fashion that rivaled the professionals. The dancing of Mr. Pinto in the last act with Miss Blood in the bacchanale, and with other members of the company in the modern dances, was admirably done, and new much applause. William P. Carleton is a talented actor, with a remarkably good voice. His work was well received. Owing to the repeated requests, Miss Blood will extend the show for another week, introducing new songs, new features and new dances.

Loew's Winter Garden Roof

Svenagli, the master of mysteries, with a stage novelty that seems utterly inexplicable by scientists, will be the big extraordinary feature at Loew's Winter Garden Roof that week. Svenagli is an exponent of mental telepathy. In his act, a pretty lady assistant, Miss Elsie Terry, is seated on a stage blindfolded in front of a grand piano. Svenagli steps down into the audience, first inviting anyone in the house to whisper to him the name of any melody, song, or tune, either modern or forgotten. On the instant that his fingers touch the keys, the piano plays it mentally to his assistant, and in the same instant telepathy. In his act, called for. This act is likely to prove a dramatic sensation in Toronto. Besides Svenagli, the evening will be a long and interesting one, featuring Cleve Caswell, the well-known Toronto boy who was formerly xylophone soloist with the famous Klitties Band; Elsie Bergere, a pretty French girl with her posing done in the Cyclone; McNutt, Jim Reynolds, "The Happy Chap," "Between Trains," a comedy playlet; Norris and Doyle, Rockwell and Wood, and others.

The Hippodrome

"The Girl in the Moon," which is one of the headliners at the Hippodrome this week, is said to be one of the prettiest acts of its kind ever staged in vanderbilt. The piece is a spectacularly staged offering, consisting of beautiful electrical effects, impressive stage properties and tuneful melodies. The act has met with excellent receptions wherever it has been produced. Louis Harz, who is billed as vanderbilt's strongest man, does almost incredible stunts. It is said, with cannon balls and heavy weights, that he can carry a heavy tray is said to be that offering which is produced by Bert Wheeler and company. It is entitled "On the Boulevard," and Harz will offer a pleasing singing and dancing specialty, while Mott and Maxfield have an amusing comedietta entitled "The Man and the Manicure." The Three Rianos are superb of rare cleverness, and with the latest photo plays and the Invincible Symphony Orchestra complete an exceptionally strong bill.

Howe's Travel Festival

Those who contemplate a trip to the Grand Canyon of Arizona and who expect to undertake the adventurous descent into the depths of the Canyon should wisely witness Lyman H. Howe's reproduction of it at the Grand this week. They will not only see exactly what the trip implies but also what it involves. Thrilling rescues of survivors from an oceanic wreck during a terrible gale; a conflagration of several hundred thousand barrels of oil; an airplane ride over Paris; the wondrous forms of marine life; a study in palaeontology; racking scenes off Monte Carlo; and a motor ride thru the French Alps are some of the other big features to be presented.

Hanlan's Point

The fine weather has renewed the throngs to Hanlan's, where every afternoon and evening Master Vitale and his band give daily concerts. Thursday's program is arranged with all popular melodies, and it is well worth a trip across the bay to hear. The Flea Circus of Prof. Hecker is causing no end of comment and is becoming very popular.

CHURCH-GOERS WITH WINE CELLARS

Rev. J. D. Morrow, in Dale Presbyterian Church, urged the members of the Independent Order of Good Templars who visited the church yesterday for their annual service, to greater effort in the cause of temperance. He deplored the fact that so many church members living in Rosedale had large wine cellars and prophesied that out of all the church members of this city all the church members of this city would be small in comparison to their numbers. There were about 150 Templars present.

TOMATO SAUSAGES.

Put a pound of sliced tomatoes into a saucepan, add a small piece of butter and a sprinkle of celery salt, and simmer over a very gentle heat until soft enough to be pressed through a fine sieve. Season the pulp with salt, pepper, and a little piece of butter. Bring it to a boil. Leave until quite cold. Mix with a pound and a half of sausage meat. Press into skins or form into cakes. Tomato sausages must be used as soon as they are made, as they do not keep.

NEW YORK STOCKS DECLINED SLOWLY

Trading on Saturday Was Reduced to Absurdly Small Volume.

GOLD ENGAGEMENTS

NEW YORK, June 13.—The week's trading in stocks came to an end today as quietly as it began. Seldom has Wall street seen six successive days in which speculative interest was at lower ebb or the movement narrower.

Less than 40,000 shares were dealt in today, and in a large number of prominent issues there were no transactions. At the opening prices eased off. Board room traders were more optimistic than the market and the apparent reason for the decline was the lower range of quotations cabled from London.

More Gold Engaged. The week's record total of gold engagements for export was increased today by the booking of $4,000,000. It became known also that arrangements had been made tentatively for engagement of $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 on Monday.

Period is Duplication of That Existing Year Ago. The weekly trade reviews were in keeping with the more optimistic sentiment which has been evident of late. In some line of trade, it was said the improvement is more than a sentimental one, having crystallized into a broader demand.

MONTREAL, June 13.—There exists today the most extensive short interest that Canadian stock markets have ever witnessed.

Curiously enough the stock market slump experienced in the passing week had a duplicate in Canadian markets of exactly one year ago. The second week in June, 1913, and in June, 1914, will go down to stock exchange history as the week of the greatest liquidation which Montreal and Toronto markets experienced.

Among those interested in the Canadian-American corporation are D. A. White, president, and Gordon, who will be president, and whose process for the making of white sugar will be used; Denis P. Burgess, R. M. Lacombe, R. E. Gordon, J. A. Pharr, M. H. Hazelden and Samuel Gibbs.

VERDICT GOES AGAINST RAILWAY. BOSTON, June 13.—Beckman Winthrop of New York, doing business under the firm of Robert Winthrop & Co., today obtained a verdict of $31,000 in the sixth session of the superior court.

NO DIVIDEND ACTION. At the regular meeting of the directors of the Toronto Paper Manufacturing Company no action was taken on the quarterly dividend, which is due July 15.

ADVANCES SCORED BY STEEL STOCKS

Montreal Market Was Generally Stronger, But Not Without Weak Spots.

FOREMOST FINANCIAL FACTS

An order for 25,000 tons of rail has been placed by the Canadian Northern with the Dominion Steel Corporation.

The total wealth of the United States is estimated at $139,000,000,000. The total population is 100,000,000.

SAYS STATEMENT IS ALL RUBBISH

SASKATON, Sask., June 13.—W. Laidlaw, local manager of the Canadian Agency, characterized as rubbish a despatch from Regina, which alleged that the failure of Chapin, Minn., and Grenfell was absolutely due, in a measure, to the decrease in value of certain Saskatchewan property on the south side.

For some time the city officials have been expecting the announcement that all was not well with the Canadian Agency, Limited, and in consequence arrangements were entered into with financial houses on this side of the water, with the result that negotiations are on for the sale of the unsold balance of debentures, amounting to $1,250,000, through the Canadian Agency for some years fiscal agent of this city.

RAIN DESCENDS WHEAT GOES UP

Overplentiful Moisture in Nebraska Gives Rise to Anxiety.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Too much rain in Nebraska and the spring crop states turned the wheat market today in favor of the bulls. The outcome was 1-8c to 3/8c net advance.

It was evident from the start that the Lorimer Bank troubles and the Sidney Long & Co. grain failure had no effect on the wheat market.

NET PROFITS OF CANNERS LOWER

Net profits amounting to $466,415 are shown in the annual statement of the Dominion Canners. This has just been made public in view of the interest which developed concerning it.

EUROPEAN BOURSES.

PARIS, June 13.—Prices were weak on the bourse today. Three per cent. account, 35 francs 45 centimes for the account, Exchange was reported at 25 francs 50 centimes for cheques.

PUBLIC EXPECTS A GOOD DECISION

To dilate on today's stock market is superfluous. It continues steady and heretofore probably impressing looked for a few minutes as if prices would slide off sharply but no stock to speak of came out and prices rallied.

HEAVY SALES CAUSED THRU CHICAGO FAILURE

CHICAGO, June 13.—Posting of notice that Messrs. FARMING, LIVE STOCK AND EVERYTHING OF FARM INTEREST

WISE DAIRY MEN SHOULD PLAN TO OVERCOME LACK OF RAIN

Provision Should Be Made in Case of Drought by Sowing Soiling Crops to Supplement Pasture, Unless a Good Supply of Last Year's Corn Silage is Available.

(By Professor H. M. Dean, Agricultural College, Ontario.)

Last year the writer was in the Ontario district early in July, and met a number of farmers whose universal complaint was "no rain, no grass, no milk." The winter drought of 1914 will be carrying out plans to overcome similar conditions, if they prevail this year. We cannot tell—there may be plenty of rain, lots of grass and good milk flow, but again there may not, hence provision should be made in case of drought by sowing soiling crops to supplement pasture, unless a summer silo full, or partly filled with last year's corn silage is available. A silo of good corn silage is the best insurance policy any dairy farmer can take out. If one has not already been planned for 1915, now is the time to provide the extra three to five acres of corn to fill the summer silo—this in addition to the regular winter corn silage. The silo can be built at odd times during the summer—any time from September 15 to October 1st, or even later in most parts of Ontario and Quebec, as we are not nearly so much afraid of making silage out of frozen corn as we used to be.

As dairying and hog raising usually go together it is well to take into the calculation the forage crops that will be suitable for the growing pigs as well as for the cows. Experiments have shown conclusively that the greatest profits from hogs are obtained by using such crops as clover instead of a heavy grain ration. At the Central Experimental Farm—green cut clover was found to have a food value of over $8 per ton for pork production.

Alfalfa is Risky.
For the coming season one of the clearest, peas and green corn may be provided. If alfalfa is available, it makes an excellent green or cutting crop for milk cows, also many Ontario farmers are growing alfalfa in their attempts to grow alfalfa. It is safe to say that no one crop which Ontario farmers have tried to grow in recent years has been the cause of so much loss and disappointment as has this much lauded crop. We are now getting down to brass tacks on the question, if alfalfa seed will produce plants which survive more than one or two years, it is not worth the trouble of sowing it. The ordinary seed will not produce plants which survive more than one or two years, it is not worth the trouble of sowing it. The ordinary seed will not produce plants which survive more than one or two years, it is not worth the trouble of sowing it.

Corn and More Corn.
After the clovers and mixed crop comes the corn, which is the great stand-by for soiling and silage. It is good practice to have some early corn near the stable for green feeding, and this, too, should be cut or shredded, if at all possible, before feeding. In all cases we should prefer to feed in the stable, and not over the fence, as "over found in 1912 that the highest yield per acre was obtained from those plots in which the rows were left at a distance of three inches apart, the yield being 28.8 tons per acre on the average. The average yield per acre from thinning eight inches apart were 24.8; 10 inches apart, 22.5, and 14 inches apart, 17.4 tons.

Whether or not cow cabbage and rape will taint milk is a disputed point. Some claim that it does and others that it does not. The writer hopes to make some tests on his own farm regarding the question during the coming season. As a rule, dairy authorities have warned cow owners against feeding rape, cabbage, turnips, etc., to cows giving milk. However, we remember that in the island of Jersey we saw farmers feeding Jersey Kale in large quantities to their cows, apparently with no bad effects upon the milk or butter. This Jersey Kale or cabbage is a wonderful plant. The leaves are stripped and fed to the cows, beginning at one side of the field, and by the time the last of the leaves are removed the farther side of the field, a new crop has grown on that first cut, and the field is gone over again—three or four times in a year. At the end of the season, the straight stalks are cut for walking sticks, and sold to tourists. Everybody who visits Jersey returns with one or more cabbage walking sticks. Ordinarily the plants grow four or five feet high, but we have seen stalks which were 10 to 12 feet high. In fact, we remember seeing one in a store window in St. Helier, that if we are not mistaken, measured 17 feet in height.

Full turnips are another crop that dairy farmers may grow with profit, and so far as known, they do not taint milk. These may be grown the same as ordinary or Swede turnips, preferably in drills, and cultivated, but some of the crops can be sown after the regular seeding, and on land too wet for grain, mangels or corn. Perhaps the best of these is rape, in the county of Wellington, Ont., where it is situated the Ontario Agricultural College, large areas of rape are grown, chiefly for sheep and cattle, and not for sowing. Most excellent results are obtained by sowing this crop, and there is no reason why a small area of rape should not be sown on a dairy farm close to young stock, and more particularly steers.

Some sow rape broadcast, some drill with an ordinary grain drill, and some, but the best plan is to manure the soil, and heavily, cultivate thoroughly, then sow with a hand or horse drill, sowing from 1-2 to 2 lbs. seed per acre. The ground between the rows should be frequently cultivated to keep down weeds, conserve moisture, and give the about plants a good start. When with an ordinary grain drill, sowing green feed taken to the stable or pig-sty, some turn the pigs and other animals into the crop and allow them to eat if from the crop and allow some ways more waste by this plan and if not cut too close, there will be young shoots in a short time from the cut later, and a second crop may be a fair crop to start the year with.

Artificial Manure.
In a paper read before the society of arts a short time ago Prof. Bottomley of King's College, London, described a new type of artificial manure. It has long been known that the nitrogen required by plants cannot be obtained by them from the air, but must be presented to them in a fixed form before it can be assimilated. In 1888 it was noted that certain leguminous plants developed on their root nodules containing bacteria, which bacteria had the power of fixing the atmospheric nitrogen. High hopes were entertained that inoculating soils with these nodular bacteria would give a great increase in fertility, but these hopes were almost wholly frustrated. Similarly when Azotobacter was discovered in 1901, and was proved to have greater nitrogen fixing power than any other species it was hoped that the inoculation of the soil with liquid cultures of this bacterium would increase fertility. Here again the net result was failure.

The matter has, however, been pursued further at the botanical laboratory of King's College, and Prof. Bottomley claimed that these researches had been attended with complete success. It was found that suitably treated peat formed an excellent medium for the growth of this bacterium, and soils which have been treated with this peat have shown a great increase in fertility. Before inoculating the peat with the bacteria in question it has first to be treated with another bacterium which was found to have the power of converting the peat into a neutral substance.

EXPERIMENTS AT THE CENTRAL FARM

The report of the director of the experimental farms for 1914 contains the following description of the work of the horticultural division.

The work of the horticultural division at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, is ninety-nine acres. Fruits and vegetables take up 46 acres, forest belts 21 acres, ornamental grounds, 30 acres, and nursery and rose garden, two acres.

On this land are grown tree fruits, small fruits, vegetables, forest trees and ornamental trees, shrubs and herbaceous plants in more or less permanent plantations and in nursery rows. The lawns are extensive and receive much care to keep them in good condition. Owing to the large number of experiments in progress, the work involved in giving the necessary attention to them on this ninety-nine acres is very heavy compared to what it would be on the same area under commercial crops, where the labor involved would be reduced to the minimum.

The division of horticulture may be divided into five parts or heads under which most of the work falls.

Under pomology is included the study of varieties of fruits for the purpose of learning their respective merits in regard to yield, quality and profit. It also includes the identification, classification and description as well as the propagation, planting and care of fruits, with experiments in cultural methods, including spraying. During the last year this part of the work has received much attention. Many varieties have been described in detail on cards, which are filed for future reference. Varieties sent in for identification have been named and the respondents informed. Many new varieties were propagated for test on the farm, and a number of new ones have been planted out at Ottawa.

The vegetable gardening part of the work includes the testing of varieties of vegetables for comparison of their respective merits as regards season, yield, quality, etc., cultural methods, both in the field and under glass. In 1912 special attention was given to potatoes, and the identification of varieties was under experiment.

The improvement of fruit, vegetable and ornamental plants by cross-breeding and selection, and the study of the laws of inheritance in the different kinds of horticultural plants, is a part of the work of the division. Up to comparatively recent years Canada has depended almost entirely on the importation of her new varieties of fruits, vegetables and ornamental plants, and while many of these succeed admirably in this country, it is felt that if originated in a climate more nearly like that in which they are to be grown, those that show special merit are likely to prove more useful than those introduced from other countries. Many varieties of hardy hybrids have already been introduced into the prairie provinces and have proved hardier than any previously tested there. Varieties of apples of handsome appearance and good quality have originated at the horticultural division, and these have been sent out for test to the different parts of Canada to compare with the varieties already on the market. More than 1000 of these new sorts have been propagated and eighty-two of the best named.

A large number of strawberry seedlings have been raised and some of the best are being propagated for introduction into the prairie provinces. The development of early strains of vegetables which will be of great value in the colder districts of Canada, as well as in the more temperate parts.

RECORD OF TEST PERFORMANCES

Three Hundred Applications Have Been Received for Loan of Stallions.

Owing to the fact that the policy of the distribution of pure bred stallions rather late last year, a very few stallions were loaned to the associations. The writer, however, this particular branch of the work has grown very rapidly. In round numbers over three hundred applications from associations for the loan of stallions for this season have been received.

A goodly number have been asked for from Maritime and Quebec associations, Ontario and British Columbia on the other hand have sent in the most numerous requests. From the prairie provinces have come requests for at least a half of the number applied for. The newly settled districts which otherwise have little or no stock have hastened to the offer of the branch to supply them with good breeding stallions which otherwise they could not obtain. Special attention has been given to grading up of the horse stock.

Only Canadian bred stallions are purchased by the branch, and these in addition to those that have been registered in one of the stud books affiliated within the Canadian national record must pass a rigid veterinary examination as to soundness and suitability for breeding purposes.

This distribution in addition to aiding newly settled districts and districts unable to procure pure bred stallions is also providing a market which should eventually make not only the production of more, but also of an even higher class of horses than heretofore.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE.

The last report received from the British authorities states that no outbreaks of the foot and mouth disease have been detected for some weeks. It is to be hoped therefore that the disease has been eradicated. It will, however, be necessary to wait a reasonable time before the issuing of permits for the importation of stock from the United Kingdom can be considered.

SUCCESSFUL BREEDING

Mr. James Tait of Jordan Mt., N.B., reports that he has this summer twenty-one lambs from ten ewes, and at the present time all of them are living. This is certainly a record to be proud of, and many of our Ontario breeders would be very glad to have the same success.

AREAS OF GRAIN CROPS IN CANADA

Bulletin Issued at Ottawa—Local Conditions Satisfactory.

OTTAWA, June 13.—In a bulletin issued today by the census and statistics office, preliminary estimates are given of the areas of the principal grain crops in Canada, as well as reports on their condition, according to returns made by the correspondents on June 1.

The reports show that throughout the Maritime Provinces seeding was delayed by the late date of the spring. In Ontario and Quebec the condition of grain is generally satisfactory, notwithstanding a long spell of dry weather.

In many places, however, the meadows were beginning to suffer from the effects of drought. Conditions throughout the west were reported as generally favorable, the rains would be welcome, especially in Manitoba and southern Alberta.

On June 1 the condition of field crops, as measured by a standard in which 100 represents the promise of a full crop, was very favorable. The points are as follows: Fall wheat, 79; spring wheat, 93; all wheat, 91; oats and barley, 82; rye, 83; peas, 82; mixed grains, 83; hay and clover, 90; alfalfa, 88; and pasture, 90.

Assuming that the conditions between now and harvest will be equal to the average of the past four years, 1910-1913, the above percentages represent the promise of yields equal to the four-year average in the case of spring wheat, rye and barley, and inferior in the case of oats by one per cent, and in the case of fall wheat by two per cent.

CARLOAD OF BEES SENT TO CLOVER BAR

Trainmen Were Somewhat Scared While Handling the Lively Insects.

A whole carload of live bees has recently arrived at Clover Bar Station, on the G. T. P. R., a few miles east of Edmonton, the shipment coming from Senr. Michran, P. H. Orth of Clover Bar, who imported the bees, is evidently going into the industry of beekeeping on a large scale, and the vegetable gardeners of the district are to be congratulated on the success. The name of Clover Bar itself seems to be an incentive to the cultivation of bees, and Clover Bar honey, when it comes to the market, should appeal to the imagination of the westerner.

The Grand Trunk Pacific handled the bees quite safely, although it was somewhat gingerly that the trainmen approached the car. While en route the bees remained quiet in their hives.

UNSATISFACTORY

F. Nash and Co. state that last week was unsatisfactory in every way on the Montreal exchange. A great deal of the selling has been caused by the stocks being forced to a point where holders could not retain them. They believe a great deal of short selling has been taking place in such stocks as Nova Scotia, Richelieu and Steamships.

LARGER PROFITS BY CO-OPERATION

Striking Figures Were Given at Durham Fruit Growers' Association Banquet.

At a banquet of the Durham Co-operative Fruit Growers' Association recently, Mr. R. S. Duncan, district representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture for Durham county, gave some striking figures as to the value of co-operation. He gave a table showing the business handled during the past three years, as follows: In 1911 some 4,877 barrels of apples were handled by the association and sold on an average of $2.32 per barrel for 1 1/2, 2's and 3's. In 1912 the association sold 6,000 barrels for an average price of $2.05 for the three grades and in 1913 the output amounted to $21,310.45, and the price was $2.89 per barrel. This is an average price to the grower. L.O.B. Fruit of $2.60. Deducting an item of $1 for expenses of barrel, picking and packing, management commission and sundry expenses in connection with the association it leaves an average net profit to the grower for 1 1/2, 2's and 3's for three years of $1.60. The average net price to the grower had there not been an association would have been about a dollar, and in fact it was about a dollar to the growers who were not in the association. This is a net gain of sixty cents per barrel to the growers in the association or taking the total yield of 18,223 barrels at 60 cents per barrel, there is a net gain during the past three years of $10,933.80.

RHUBARB IS SOLD IN CARLOAD LOTS

In Hatzic District It is Grown in Larger Quantities Than Any Other District.

Just as some countries are better adapted to certain fruits than others, so small districts a few miles in extent are sometimes pre-eminently fitted because of soil and climatic conditions to the culture of certain crops. This is true of the Hatzic district, near Mission, B.C., in the Fraser Valley of British Columbia, where rhubarb is grown to a larger extent than in any other district in Canada. It retails at the coast stores at very low prices, from 5 to 11 pounds being sold for a quarter, but even at that price the growers realize a good profit.

The growers have organized a co-operative association, and the rhubarb is sold in carload lots. Before shipping it is all graded and repacked by experienced packers, who are employed by the association. That going but a short distance, to Vancouver for instance, is washed, which gives it a very bright and attractive appearance. The growers, realizing that only through the association could they build up a quality that all the shipments are up to a standard, and as the grading is all done by the association, this is more easily controlled than where the product is graded by the growers themselves. About four cars of rhubarb are being shipped at the present time. The demand increases every year, and so far the market has remained very firm.
