HOCKEN BECOMES MAYOR MAGUIRE IS CONTROLLER FOR REMAINDER OF YEAR

Controller Church Got No
Second and Withdrew in Order to Run in January—
Mayor Hocken Hopes to
Maguire's Choice Was on a Vote of 16 to 3.

Controller H. C. Hocken was chosen mayor of Toronto yesterday to succeed G. R. Geary, who formally resigned to accept the position of corporation counsel. Ald. Alf. Maguire was appointed to the board of control to fill Controller Hocken's position.

Mr. Mayor Geary did not attend the council meeting, and after reading the letter containing the mayor's resignation, City Clerk Litchfield pointed out that it was necessary to elect a chairman for the purpose of opening the proceedings. It was upon Controller Church's assuming the duties of president that nominations for the election of a new mayor were received. In accordance with Controller McCarthy's motion.

There were three names put forward by the aldermen, that of Controller Hocken by Ald. Wanless and Austin, Ald. Dunn's name by Ald. McBride and Sanderson, and Controller Church's by Ald. Dunn, but the latter had no second.

Church Withdrew.
Controller Church spoke at length upon his period of office, especially during the past year. He considered that he was responsible for the despatch of business during the summer months when almost all were on their holidays, thus keeping the city's business up-to-date. But considering that his name was not given the unanimous support of the council he would withdraw it, and, as the real fight for the mayoral position did not commence until January first next, he was content to wait until then.

Ald. Sam McBride waxed eloquent when speaking of Ald. Dunn's right to the mayoral position. He stated that he had been a member of the council since 1894, and had now the utmost confidence of the civic body, that he had been chairman of committees, a successful business man, and in all properly fitted to fill the vacant position.

"Besides," declared the alderman, "Controllers Hocken and Church should start the race next January on an equal footing, and let the aldermen finish out the year. He also wanted the personnel of the board of control left as it is for the rest of the year."

Ald. Dunn stated that the position had been entirely unsolicited by him, as he had never canvassed for it, and he severely criticized an evening paper for the statement that he was going to infringe upon the dignity of the council by going to the electorate next January for alderman for Ward 5, after being elected mayor for two months. It was a source of gratification to him to know that so many members of the council who had such confidence in him, but with the permission of the mover of his name, he would be pleased to withdraw it.

"I brought forward Controller Hocken's name with a great deal of confidence," declared Alderman Wanless, "because I believe he is the man who will do a great deal of good for the City of Toronto, as he possesses the necessary qualifications. He has shown that he possesses initiative and energy, which he demonstrated by the manner in which he tackled the street railway problems. He was a disciplinarian."

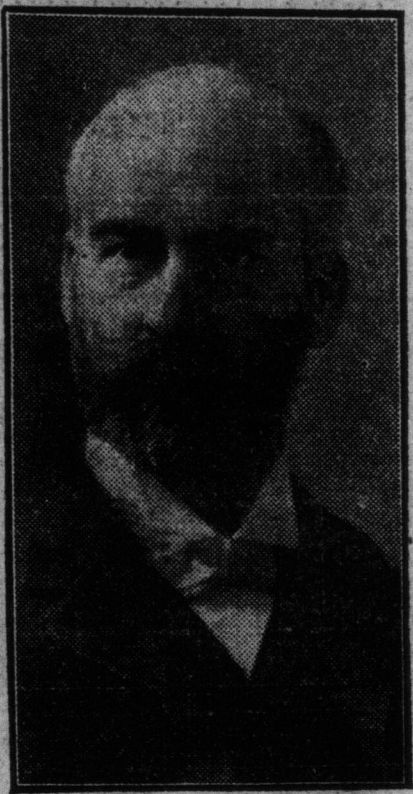

Many were the adjectives used by the aldermen, who stated that the new mayor was "honest in the truest sense of the term. He was courageous, which he demonstrated by the manner in which he tackled the street railway problems. He was a disciplinarian."

HYDRO-ELECTRIC RAILWAYS

ALL THRU RURAL ONTARIO

Controller Foster Would Have Government Build, Equip, Maintain and Operate Suburban Lines Between Municipalities Where Hydro Power is Used.

Controller Foster moved in the city council yesterday that a memorial be presented to the Ontario Government, requesting that it consider legislation enabling the government to build, equip, maintain and operate hydro-electric railways between all localities in the province where that source of power exists and is under contemplation, and to provide for extensions which would be necessary from time to time. Also to consider the advisability of withholding the granting of charters to companies to establish and operate suburban lines until the matter has been fully discussed by the government. The board of control will deal with the matter.

CIVIC CAR LINES ARE AGAIN DELAYED

Special Committee Will Meet
Toronto Railway Company
Before Action is Taken on Commissioner Harris' Request to Be Given a Free Hand.

On a question of policy Commissioner Harris' aim to facilitate the running of cars on the General street section of the civic car line has been delayed again.

The commissioner, in a communication to the council, which was read at the meeting yesterday, requested that he be given the authority to purchase the equipment. He stated the authority already given him was not sufficient if they desired that the car lines should be equipped at the earliest possible date. On the contrary, it will be necessary for him to have full authority to purchase on his own initiative the land for car barn purposes, with power to erect the buildings and acquire the necessary rolling stock, generating equipment, etc., all on the credit of the city independent of a civic bylaw.

Ald. Dunn at once moved the adoption of the plan laid out by the commissioner, but by the expression of a year test a dangerous precedent be created, Ald. McBride was successful in sidetracking the question, and another nine days at least will elapse before anything more can be done by the commissioner. Controller McCarthy's motion that the letter be referred back until a special committee had conferred with the Toronto Street Railway authorities, was carried by 13 to 6. He stated that this move might be the means of procuring a better service.

HON. MR. MONK WILL RESIGN TODAY

No Announcement Followed Yesterday's Cabinet Session, But it is Definitely Understood Resignation Will Today Be in Governor-General's Hands.

OTTAWA, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—There was no announcement of any kind following this afternoon's session of the cabinet which would serve to throw additional light on the political situation. The Duke of Connaught arrived home tonight. Premier Borden and Hon. F. D. Monk drove down together to meet his royal highness.

Tomorrow Mr. Monk's resignation will be handed to the governor-general and it would not be surprising if his successor is named immediately.

NO LIBERAL IN EITHER CONTEST

Line-Up in North Waterloo of Miscellaneous Order—
Neely and Sutherland in E. Middlesex.

BERLIN, Ont., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Today was nomination day in North Waterloo to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Lackner. There were four nominations, viz., Allan Huber, Independent; Chas. H. Mills, Conservative; Jas. T. Uttley, suffrage reform; Matthew Wayman, Socialist. Huber is out as a supporter of Allan Sutherland. Mills declares himself to be a Whitney Tory. Wayman represents the Socialist democratic party, and Uttley is the suffrage reform candidate.

Uttley's main plank is a larger franchise for manhood suffrage voters. He contends that the act should be so amended as to do away with the registration, leaving it to the assessors to put on the names from year to year. The collection of the poll tax would be the same as usual, and the young men of cities, towns and villages would be permitted to vote at municipal elections for municipal officers.

TWO IN MIDDLESEX.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 21.—Returning Officer Rose of East Middlesex held two nominations before him at 2 o'clock.

The name of Mr. George W. Neely of Dorchester was presented by William Boler and Andrew McRae, and that of William Sutherland by John H. Elliott and James K. Little, well-known Liberals.

Hon. W. J. Hanna had been announced to attend the meeting, but did not care to do so unless Mr. Neely spoke. As a result only the candidates were heard from.

"SHOE TRUST" IS FOUND ILLEGAL

Refusal to Sell Machinery to Manufacturers Held to Constitute Unlawful Combination.

OTTAWA, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—That the United Shoe Machinery Co. is a combination in restraint of trade is the decision arrived at by the board appointed deal with the first case of the kind brought under the Combines Act.

The matter has been under consideration for a long time, the preliminary stages being delayed by the company challenging the jurisdiction of the board. Action was taken under the provisions of the act when Hon. Mackenzie King was minister of labor, and the inquiry was then steadily pressed since Hon. T. W. Crothers assumed charge of the department. The decision that the company constituted a combine with the meaning of the act was made by a number of Quebec shoe manufacturers, who complained that the company, which holds the patents on modern shoe machinery, created an unlawful combination by refusing to sell its machinery, its policy being to lease it.

Police Mutiny Subsiding

LETHBRIDGE, Oct. 21.—(Can. Press.)—The Lethbridge police force are in good working shape again this afternoon. Several of the strikers have reconsidered their position and are back on duty today. Reinforcements arrived from Calgary this afternoon. Sergts. Brown and Geoghegan have been discharged.

MONK'S COURSE DUE TO PLEDGE

Favors No Vote of Any Sort,
Asserts Nationalist Organ—
Coderre's Claims Advanced.

MONTREAL, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The Nationalist are preparing the public for a denial on the part of the Hon. F. D. Monk that the ex-minister ever stated that he is favorable to an urgency vote and that his retirement is simply because of his pledge to the Province of Quebec.

Mr. Monk will be here tomorrow night, and this evening Le Devoir declares that the retiring minister does not favor an urgency vote or any other sort. It is understood that Mr. Monk will go south for a while.

This evening a group of St. Henri people left for Ottawa with the intention of urging the prime minister to take Louis Coderre, M.P., into the cabinet. Mayor Lavellé also has his friends, who are pushing his claims.

PREMIER SPEAKS THURSDAY NIGHT

Sir James Whitney Will Take Part in East Middlesex By-Election, Accompanied by W. J. Hanna.

Sir James Whitney and Hon. W. J. Hanna will go on the stump in support of Geo. W. Neely, the Conservative candidate, for East Middlesex. The premier and Mr. Hanna will speak to a mass meeting in Thorncliffe on Thursday night. The election takes place next Monday. Whether they will attend more than one meeting is indefinite.

N. W. Rowell, K.C., leader of the opposition, will also campaign in East Middlesex, and will hold his first meeting in the evening. Whether or not Sir James Whitney will reply to some of the remarks of the leader of the opposition on his attitude toward temperance reform is uncertain.

Contestants in The World's Proverb Contest are cautioned not to pay any attention to unscrupulous persons who are advertising and otherwise offering to sell answers to the proverb pictures. Mothers, fathers, school teachers, don't fail to encourage the children in The Toronto World's wholesome and healthful proverb contest. The proverb illustrations, which are so plainly and humorously depicted, will prove amusing and beneficial to the young mind. Think of the fun the youngsters can have in this great game of proverbs.

THREAT TO KILL ELLIS UTTERED BY LEW PORTER ON NIGHT OF SHOOTING?

T. C. Robinette, K. C., Counsel for Man Accused of Porter's Murder, Will Seek Thru Daughter of Ellis' Dead Wife, To Show That Deed Was in Self-Defence.

(By a Staff Reporter.)

LINDSAY, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Inspector John Miller of the provincial police, and Edith Porter, natural child of the deceased wife of Arthur A. Ellis, accused of the murder of Lew Porter near the Village of Minden on the night of April 25 last, will be the chief witnesses in the Ellis trial, which opens at the court house here tomorrow.

T. C. Robinette, K.C., of Toronto, counsel for the defence, expects these two to corroborate Ellis' story of self-defence by showing that Porter had threatened his life on the very night of the shooting and had threatened to burn his barn a year before. Mr. Robinette told The World today that he was making every effort to have a subpoena served upon the inspector calling on him to attend at the trial and to produce a letter written by the girl to Ellis a year ago in which she warned him that Porter had threatened to burn his buildings the first chance he got and also told of hearing him admit other outrages which he said he had already committed.

Porter's Last Threat.
Mr. Robinette expects to prove by this girl that on the very night of the murder she heard Porter say, as he took his gun to leave his father's house, that he would stop Ellis talking to her if he had to shoot him, and that he expected to get him that night, as it was the third night he had been looking for him, and he would "have luck" that night.

This conversation is alleged to have taken place between Porter and his mother at his father's house just before he went upon his trip to visit his traps, from which he never returned. This mother gave him his gun, and tried hard to persuade him not to go out that night.

The letter which Mr. Robinette expects will play so important a part in corroborating his client's story, was left by the girl upon the path leading to Ellis' house about a year ago. It was written to Wesley Housnel, his neighbor, to whom he first confessed to the Porter killing. A copy was made of it, and it was sent to Dr. White at Kilmont and sent on to the attorney-general's department at Toronto.

Admitted Writing Letter.
Inspector Miller visited the Porter farm and saw the girl at the school house nearby, where she admitted having written the letter. Mr. Robinette has a copy of the letter, which reads as follows:

His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught was the guest of the Canadian Club yesterday at luncheon in the American room of the King Edward Hotel. The Duke was seated at the table between Sir James Whitney and Sir Henry Pellatt.

The menu was a compromise between ordinary club fare and ordinary Windsor Castle fare, and there were forks enough on the table to embarrass the majority. The guest table was exquisitely covered with roses.

The duke was punctual enough to set the clock by, and the 490 gilt-backed chairs were all emptied as he entered the room, and there was great applause as he marched round the head table, where Sir George Ross sat awaiting him. The delicate strains of the National Anthem were barely heard over the bustle, but there was loyalty to burn. Everybody wanted to cheer, but was not sure whether it would be decent. Col. Denison subsequently led off with a "Hi! Hi!" and everybody relieved himself with cordial noise. Dr.—or is it Col.—A. H. V. Goddard did the honors of the club as president, and the duke sat on his right hand with Lord Milner on the other side. Sir James Whitney and Sir Henry Pellatt were on the east side, for Sir Henry was the duke's chariot for the occasion. Sir Edmund Walker, Capt. Long, A.D.C., Col. Lowther, Hon. Dr. Fyvie, Mayor Geary (on his last majority appearance), Sir Thomas Lipton, R. S. Gourlay, N. W. Rowell, Senator Kerr and Major Caldwell were among those at the guest table. Past presidents of the club were peppered over the room. C. R. McCullough, the original Canadian Clubber, and Hon. Adam Brown, were present from Hamilton.

"This is in one sense an ordinary meeting of the Canadian Club," said Dr. Colquhoun, "but it will always be most notable in our annals."

"We appreciate highly the kindness of his royal highness in consenting to waive ceremony and to join us at this simple function, to which we are accustomed to invite our guests."

J. S. Williamson proposed the health of the duke.

Standing Reception.
His excellency was given a standing reception, with cheers, when he arose to reply to Mr. Morrison and the club.

"I am no longer a stranger in Toronto," he said, "as I have had the pleasure of being among you on several occasions. The sincere feeling shown towards me has touched me deeply." He spoke of his long tour thru the length and breadth of the Dominion, in which he had traveled for some three months. It had given him an insight into the life of the Dominion, and had enabled him to hear the opinions of different men.

"I feel glad that no more loyal people than Canadians exist in the British Empire," was a sentence which evoked applause.

A Democratic Age.
"Of course, Canada is a democratic country," said Dr. Colquhoun.

HEAVY FIGHTING IMMINENT AT ADRIANOPLE

Bulgarian Army Prepare to Besiege Important Town, and Governor Issues Warning to Residents—Successes of Allies Thus Far Not of Great Moment.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 1.—(Can. Press.)—It is admitted here tonight that Bulgarians are established about 12 miles from Adrianople and that a big battle is imminent. The governor of Adrianople has issued a proclamation warning the residents to husband their food owing to the possibility of an investment of the town. He recommends those able to leave to do so. It is announced that an important concentration of the Bulgarian forces has taken place at Kostendil, in the southeast of Bulgaria, the objective of which is doubtless the Struma Valley, which is the easiest road to the heart of Macedonia.

The Turkish Government tomorrow will issue a proclamation to the people of the European provinces in the shape of a reply to King Ferdinand's manifesto, enjoining the Muslims to good behavior and assuring the Christians that they have nothing to fear provided they remain loyal.

It is asserted that in the fighting around Elazova the Greeks lost 1500 killed.

WILY TURKS LURING THEM ON

LONDON, Oct. 21.—(Can. Press.)—The war news is still the story of comparatively uninteresting small engagements involved in maneuvering for position while the Turkish and Balkan forces are assembling and preparing for big events.

When the allied states declared war it may be assumed that Turkey had by no means concentrated her troops. Moreover, Turkey was still hoping to detach Greece from the confederation. Her failure to do this undoubtedly necessitated some change in the strategic plans and she felt needed time to the required positions, hence the failure of the small Turkish garrisons from numerous frontier posts is of no great significance. The Serbian army is steadily advancing and now has its headquarters at Vranja, in the movement against Uskup. The Greeks have captured Dislikta, from which position the Turks retired to the Town of Servia, where a big battle is expected shortly.

Big Engagement Near.
According to a Constantinople report an important battle is imminent at Adrianople, meanwhile the rival fleets are both active, the Greeks blockading the island of Lemnos and the Turks bombarding Kavarna and Varna. The report of the sinking of a Bulgarian torpedo boat is discredited at Constantinople, where it is stated that the Turkish warships in the Black Sea fired at torpedo boats, but the latter took refuge in port, the warships not venturing to follow for fear of mines.

The Greek consul at Cardiff, acting under instructions from his government, is laying claim to all the Greek tonnage entering the Irish coast, and so commanded becomes the property of the Greek Government, and the captain, an officer of the Greek navy. Ship owners have requested the British foreign office to protest against this procedure.

TURKS BOMBARD VILLAGES.
SOFIA, Oct. 21.—(Can. Press.)—After the bombardment of Kavarna one of the Bulgarian warships left in the direction of Balchik. Four others cruised along the coast between Kavarna and Kasloka bombarding the villages. According to advices received late this evening Turkish warships also bombarded the barracks and monastery of Euxinograd, near Varna, which they bombarded several days ago.

Nature's Colors at This Time of the Year are Wonderful

NATURE, in her autumn garb, has man's best efforts at color making beaten to a frazzle, although man has become a splendid imitator—as evidenced in our excellent showing of new autumn tones in Suits and Overcoats. The soft shade of the maple is blended with the rich dark brown of the oak into a fantasy of color effect that is very pleasing to the eye.

We start our range of prices for Men's Overcoats at ten dollars and by easy stages we go right up the scale to thirty, forty and fifty dollars; and at every price we have planted the stakes of WORTH, MERIT and VALUE. Our fabrics have all been selected from the best mills, and our patterns with an eye to every good taste. The same applies to our Suits, with a price range there starting at eight-fifty up to twenty-five, thirty and thirty-eight dollars.

Toronto is a big, growing, prosperous city and we have grown with it to meet the needs of her citizens, who must be clothed with the best garments obtainable. We feel sure that for an all-clothing store, catering exclusively to the needs of men and boys, you will find us hard to beat.

YORK COUNTY TOWNSHIP COUNCIL FAVORS DOUBLE-DECKED BRIDGES

Solicitor Instructed to Negotiate at Once With C.P.R. and C.N.R. to Make Arrangements for the Adoption of Mr. Maclean's Suggestion.

York Township Council, at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, discussed the suggestion contained in a letter from W. P. Maclean, M.P., for double-decked railway bridges over the Belt Line and West Don entrances into the city, and by a unanimous vote instructed the township solicitor, J. R. L. Stuart, to negotiate at once with the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern in regard to the matter.

The councilmen all expressed themselves as intensely interested in the scheme and willing to support a fair proposal that will not incur too much expenditure on the part of the municipality. The residents of the eastern part of the township have not now a suitable highway into Toronto, on account of the descent into the valley of the Don and the difficulty of getting over the ravines, and the council took the view that this problem would be solved if the double-decked bridges were constructed.

In his letter to the council Mr. Maclean drew attention to the fact that the C.P.R. and C.N.R. are anticipating the laying of a joint track from the Union Station on Yonge street, near Cottingham street, to a point across the West Don at the present right of way of the Canadian Pacific, and that in consequence new bridges are to be built over the Belt Line ravine, the east side of which is in York Township, and also over the West Don, all of which is within the municipality.

"These new bridges are to be at least double-tracked and perhaps have four tracks," the letter read, "and it seems to me that the township could arrange to have underdecks on these bridges devoted to vehicular traffic, thus giving a high level entrance into the city and avoiding the present descent."

"I believe the railroads are willing to co-operate with the township, or rather, are willing to provide for such a public deck if negotiations are entered into in time and the additional, or portion thereof, is assumed by the township. A new diagonal street is now being constructed thru the Canadian Northern's Landside proposition from the end of Merton street on Bayview across their property northeastwardly by Sandan to the western end of the West Don bridge. This new road is to be immediately concreted for the greater portion of it, and the rest is to be macadamized by the C.N.R. real estate interests, thereby giving a paved road from the city to the western end of the West Don bridge of the railway companies."

"With the exception of a small piece thru the property of Mr. Duffy, it would give a right of way alongside the north side of the railway tracks to the Don Mills road, which is now established as a 'good' road under the highways commission. Most likely the commission would assume the new piece of road from the Don road to the western end of the railway bridge, provided a public deck were secured on it. In this way all the east side of Township of York would have a first-class high level road into Toronto, much shorter in distance and avoiding the Don Valley descent."

Mr. Maclean concluded with a suggestion for the municipality to get into touch with the railway companies at once, which was considered with favor by the council and will be acted upon.

North Toronto

Recently a very desirable organization sprang into existence in North Toronto which assumed the name of the North Toronto Musical and Dramatic Association. The object of this association is the culture of musical and dramatic expression. The musical branch is under the direction of E. P. Thorneley, and the aim of this particular branch is the development of musical comedy and classical works. The dramatic branch is under the direction of Mr. Appleton and Miss M. Doherty.

Bi-monthly meetings are being held, at which rehearsals are given, and the various works under consideration, and monthly meetings will be held of a public character, at which all the citizens of North Toronto are invited. The foremost aim of this association is the raising of funds for the support of a concert hall in town with a seating capacity of about 1200, which the town is in need, and a further aspiration of the musical end is to enter in the Earl Grey competition, which takes place in Toronto in 1913.

The officers of the organization are: President, E. P. Thorneley; Vice-President, R. W. Parkinson; Secretary, R. M. Blythe; Treasurer, R. M. Blythe; and the following are the members of the executive committee: Mr. R. W. Parkinson, Mr. R. M. Blythe, Mr. R. W. Parkinson, Mr. R. M. Blythe, Mr. R. W. Parkinson, Mr. R. M. Blythe.

That this association is strictly cosmopolitan can be seen by the fact that at the initial meeting, which was held on Monday night last, the members of the different denominations were present.

Last night the first public entertainment was given in the town hall, at which a splendid program was rendered, when the following took part: The Daviessville Concert Orchestra, under management of Mr. E. Llewellyn, with Mr. W. J. Turk as leader, and Miss M. R. Cook, pianist; they rendered the following selections: "Consecration," by Felix Mendelssohn; "Sobre las Olas," by Juventino Rosas; "The New Colonial," by R. E. Hall; "The Queen's Guard," by Messrs. Douglas, Butt, Dixon and Thorneley sang "If I But Knew," Mr. H. P. Thorneley, who is always a favorite tenor soloist, sang "Jean" and "Love's Goal," Miss Blong, an eloquent and superior actress, rendered several selections. It goes without saying that all the artists were heartily encouraged. Mr. A. M. Boulton was the accompanist.

The large audience present were much surprised by the excellent orchestral music rendered, which comprised the piano, two first violins, three second violins, one viola, one bass, one flute, one clarinet, two cornets, two trombones and traps and drums.

The musical program was interspersed with an illustrated lecture on "Civic Art" by Mr. J. P. Hest, which was quite in keeping with the evening's program.

Richmond Hill

Local interest centres today on the opening in the library building here of the York District Library Conference, which is announced to last until tomorrow night. It is being held under the direction of the Ontario Library Association and the different sessions will be open to the public. Today talks will be given by the president, Dr. A. Dales, of Stouffville, and Miss Patricia Spelman, of the department of education at Toronto. In the evening Reeve Pugsley will deliver an address of welcome, and in addition Library Inspector W. R. Nurey will speak on "Sane Possibilities," A. L. Campbell.

ASK THAT NUMBER PLANT BE CLOSED

Deputation of Ratepayers From Ward Seven Will Ask Board of Control to Discontinue Present Pumping Station—Water Supply in That District Fully Discussed.

The health problems of the western ward were the chief topics of discussion at the annual meeting and election of officers of the Ward Seven Ratepayers' and Property-Owners' Association last night.

The meeting was held in the new Annette Street School, and was attended by two hundred citizens. The election of officers occupied the first part of the evening, and resulted as follows: Honorary president, Peter Ewing; treasurer, E. Walsfield; executive committee, Messrs. Chas. Henderson, R. Home Smith, A. J. Gillies, H. Fisher, Ed. Henderson, Trustees F. H. Hamner, Dr. R. R. Hopkins, R. H. Glass, A. M. Wilson, J. C. Welland, R. Stretton and A. B. Rice, in the absence of the president, Mr. Hall presided.

The principal speaker of the evening was Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., whom the association had invited to discuss the water problem with them, and incidentally to explain why ward seven was not receiving pure drinking water.

In his address the doctor admitted proof of this theory, the fact that the old Toronto Junction pumping station is still in use, and the water is brought from the best residential section, followed by an increased number of bacteria in the water, seem to afford sufficient proof of this theory.

He also submitted a few comparisons between ward seven and city wards showing the much larger percentage of bacteria, not necessarily noxious, however, in the water at present in use. On Sept. 14 the city water contained 170 bacteria, while the West Toronto water contained 60,000; on Sept. 24 the proportions were 78 to 30,000. This water is chlorinated, and is not harmful to drink, but Dr. Hastings repeated his advice to boil it whenever it appeared in the least murky.

Mr. Wilson asked why the plant at the Humber could not be closed altogether and the city water be used, but see no reason why this cannot be done," replied the doctor. "It is, however, a matter for the commissioners to decide, and I would advise you to consult with him."

In accordance with the resolution passed at the meeting, the board of control in the immediate future and day, Mr. Hastings will be asked to see the commissioners of works and to see the water question be received. Transportation and the question of motor buses will also come up for discussion.

PROVERBS ARE FUN FOR THE CHILDREN

and it will be interesting to note the various and clever solutions many of these young heads will be able to figure out and submit. In fact, they may be able to give "brother and sister" and "pa" and "ma" some pointers.

They also have an equal chance at the $5000 in magnificent prizes. For in this great mental test, when thought is pitted against thought, there is just as much opportunity for the young mind as there is for the one of more mature years.

Yes, by all means encourage the young folks to join in this fascinating proverb contest. It will prove, for the time being, equally as amusing and entertaining as charades, cards or authors; while at the same time the proverbs will teach many useful and valuable examples.

Parents will find it an easy matter to interest their children in puzzling out the pictures, and school teachers cannot acquire any better method of acquainting their pupils with both secular and sacred literature.

Altho the contest has been running twenty days, entry may be made at any time by simply securing the back numbers of the proverbs. All of the back numbers, from the opening date of the contest, will be sent to any address in Canada, by return mail, upon receipt of 25 cents, stamps, coin or money order.

After you once have the back numbers you only need to buy a Toronto Daily and Sunday World every day to follow up the competition. Place an order with your newsdealer to serve you with a copy of the paper daily, in order that your children may compete with equal opportunities.

LUSCIOUS MUSIC IN THE MERRY WIDOW

An Enthusiastic Reception by Capacity Audience at Alexandra Theatre Last Night, When Miss Mabel Wilber and Charles Meakin Starred in Revival of Famous Opera.

Those supposedly metropolitan critics who were sceptical about the result of reviving "The Merry Widow" had an unanswerable argument to the contrary at the Royal Alexandra last night. Not only was the house full to overflowing, but hundreds were denied admission, entirely from lack of space. Popularity that has so survived has something more behind it than public caprice. The composer may have failed to please the public, but the written music that stands the test of repetition, even with a more modern, attractive environment.

It is unnecessary to descend to the minutiae of the production of "The Merry Widow," as was fully shown by the enthusiastic reception accorded "The Merry Widow." It might have been the first performance, so far as appreciation was concerned, Miss Mabel Wilber at once made herself a favorite in the role of Sonia, and was admirably supported by Charles Meakin as Prince Danilo. Natalie and Canille had attractive interpretations in Misses Olga Roloff and Vernon Dalhart, and the numerous other characters were all splendidly filled. The musical comedy was indeed thoroughly well staged and proved a veritable phantasmagoria of beautiful color. This revival may, indeed, be a record in the completeness of its display and excellence of its interpretation. It was the week with the usual Thursday and Saturday matinees.

Every woman. Particular interest attaches to the performance to be given at the Alexandra next night by Henry W. Savage's company of the morality play, "Everywoman," on account of the conquest it has made since it was presented in Toronto last May. It is reported that the strange dramatic novelty is quite the topic of the hour in the world's metropolis, and that the Drama Theatre has never held larger nor more enthusiastic audiences than "Everywoman" has attracted. Mr. Savage is sending here this year his original production, containing practically all of the original New York company. The ensemble consists of over one hundred and fifty people and includes H. Cooper Cliffe, the creator of the role of Nobody, now being played in London by E. Irving, son of the late Sir Henry Irving.

STOPPING DRAMA OF SOUTHERN PEOPLE

"The Littlest Rebel," as Presented at the Princess by William Farnum and Strong Company, Has a Battle Scene Which is Realistic to a Degree.

TEN EXCELLENT ACTS AT SHEA'S

Bill is Long and Varied—Best This Season—Julius Steger's Playlet Intensely Interesting.

Ten acts, including the pictures, constitute a bill that for length is a record at Shea's, and for goodness is the best this season. The big feature is rather melodramatic and distinctly of the robbly sort, but its appeal is widespread and gripping. The story of the innocent life-term prisoner has been told many times, but Julius Steger's way of telling it is intensely interesting. "Justice" is the name of the little play, and around him Mr. Steger has gathered a capable group of associates. Humor is defined as human nature and truth. That is why Frank North's "Back to Wallington" is such a popular annual. This little skit contains a deal of homely humor of a rural tinge. Yesterday it got more applause than ever.

An eccentric comedian, and a heap of ludicrous mechanical effect, cause a chuckle of the continuous kind all the time. "A Lesson in Temperance" is being taught. Billy Reeves and Company are presenting this skit for the first time in America. It is bound to make a hit on the vaudeville track. Edwin Ford and William F. Rogers and Company present one of the most elaborate sets of dancing acts in vaudeville. "The company is small, only six, but four fine scenes are shown. The dancing efforts are not spectacular, but consistently clever."

DAVID BELL ENDORSED.

Toronto retail grocers held a meeting last evening and endorsed David Bell, 102 Yonge street, as alderman candidate in Ward 3.

Ontario Sunday School Association

The Canadian Pacific Railway is the official route to Hamilton for above convention, and in order to accommodate delegates returning to Toronto, a special train will leave Hamilton 10.15 p.m., Oct. 23.

There are several features in "The Littlest Rebel" which was put on at the Princess last night which should commend it to the keen appreciation of the playgoer in search of a stimulating and interesting drama. As a rule the "enfant terrible" is not popular with the sophisticated public, but there have been few children on the stage with such marvelous control, such natural methods, such simple and direct and unadorned action, as Little Boots Wooster, who takes the part of Virgie, the "Littlest Rebel." Ed. Peple has made the most of the sentiments and emotions that surround a child in the arena of war. The action of the play occurs in 1864, during the crisis in which the federal troops are surrounding Richmond. The southern mansion in the first act forms the background for a scene in which southern sentiment is contrasted with northern courtesy. Virgie's mother (Frances Newhall) has a passage with Col. Morrison of the Yankee forces, which helps to lay the plot of the piece, inasmuch as a former overseer who had a grudge against the Carrys sets fire to the mansion and is shot dead by the colonel. This is ingeniously worked into the story afterwards when General Grant himself proves to be "another mighty good damsel" Herbert.

Herbert is a southern scout and his capture and release by Morrison form the most natural and unforced. The stratagem of the play is a simple one. It is a "Secret Service," when the question is whether "Carry" is a scout or a spy. The second act in which Virgie conceals her father's display of "Boots" is a truly remarkable piece of child characterization, and one might expect the child lovers of the city to crowd the theatre to see a sweet and wholly charming little girl. It is a solid and satisfying picture, this second act, real and dramatic, and yet natural and unforced. The third act of war are not new, and they are not numerous, but they grip the heart, in their unforced. The third act is a real battle scene, realistic to a degree. The white of the shells, the patter of bullets as they fall, the dust from the ground, the leaves dropping from the trees under the rain of lead, the branches falling as the shells sing thru, the rattle of musketry, the fall in the grotesque horror that swells the casualty lists, all these details are so vividly and so realistically portrayed that the audience is brought into the midst of the battle. The last act is of intense interest also, with its vivid picture of the grim human war machine, Grant himself, well portrayed by Jack Rayold. David Landau was thoroughly successful as Herbert, and Ben Bontek took the part of Uncle Billy with much realism. The tone of the play is heroic and healthy, and the possibilities of humanity supply nothing for the imagination. There are sentiments and emotions which some people do not like to cultivate, perhaps not even to discover, and "The Littlest Rebel" is not for such people, but fortunately there is a new generation of playgoers every season, and if it is only to enjoy the play something has gone wrong with the new humanity. It is a charming and inspiring piece of American history.

"The International Ben Hur." "Ben-Hur," with its stupendous stage pictures, its stirring action and its deeply impressive story will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre the evening of Monday, October 22. Since its first representation fourteen years ago, "Ben-Hur" has been the greatest triumph of the American stage. A long list of splendid actors have enacted the hero of this remarkable drama. This season Thomas H. Hall was engaged for the role because of his special fitness to impersonate the handsome young Judean, and by reason of his graceful and noble characters of a like nature. Mr. Holding comes from England. He had his early training in the continental theatre, being first brought out in London by Sir Henry Irving's Lyceum Theatre. In addition to the holiday matinee the regular matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

PERKINS GIVES STRONG DENIAL

Statements That "Big Business" Backed Roosevelt's Pre-Convention Fight Hotly Refuted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. (Can. Press).—Emphatic denials that "big business" had been underwritten for the Roosevelt pre-convention campaign, or that any money had been contributed to the funds by the national Harvester Co. or the U. S. Steel Corporation, were entered today by George W. Perkins, on the stand before the congressional committee. The testimony of Mr. Perkins, bristled with such remarks as "Unmitigated lies," "Absolutely false," "Totally unfair," and "More hot air." He denounced the charges made by Senator Boies Penrose and Charles D. Hillis, Republican national chairman, demanding that Senator Penrose be made to prove his assertion that $3,000,000 was underwritten for the Roosevelt campaign or "like a gentleman take it back," and declaring that Mr. Hillis should prove his charge "or be dismissed from office."

The banker uses an adding machine more than any other line of business—some of the machines are a bank like the Corn Exchange, New York, are used all over the world. Under such consistent treatment Burroughs' last six to nine years. On the average they do not wear out in 20 years, as machines in use since 1922 will demonstrate.

LOTS OF HUMOR AT THE GAYETY

"Casey, the Porter," With Roger Imhof in the Title Role, a Laugh From Start to Finish.

"Casey the Porter" is the funny show at the Gayety Theatre this week. Roger Imhof gets out of the Irish part all that the name ever stood for. His important bearing as the porter and the manner in which he bosses the hotel proprietors and his domineering attitude at all times provides enough merriment to satisfy the most exacting theatregoers. Max Fehrmann, Jr., Joe Kirby, Cecil Summers, Jack West, and Goff. Phillips assume the male roles efficiently. Doris Thayer, Gertrude Lynch, Kitty Delhardt, and Marcelle Corene are worth of special mention in the opposite parts. The scenery for the production is excellent and the costumes gorgeous.

The Coming Nordica Concert

Madame Lillian Nordica, greatest of American singers, has returned to her native shores after three months abroad. She comes back crowned with fresh laurels as a result of her visit to London, where she gave two concerts in the space of three weeks, and on each occasion the historic Queen's Hall was packed to the doors by an audience whose enthusiasm knew no bounds. Last week she sang at the musical festival in Portland, where she had to sing thirteen tunes to satisfy the demand for encores. On October 2 she gave a concert in Montreal, where hundreds were unable to gain admission. It may be taken for granted that her appearance in Toronto at Massey Hall on Monday week will be equally successful.

THE STAR SHOW IS "DIFFERENT"

"Queens of the Follies Bergere" Have a Burlesque Which is Hard to Beat.

There are several classes of burlesque. That may be an unnecessary statement to make to the patrons of the Toronto houses, but it is quoted with regard to the show at the Star Theatre this week. "Queens of the Follies Bergere" is the name under which the production travels, and the play is worthy of the French title. This show is different from the ordinary burlesque production. The characters are different; the scenery is different; and the effects are quite different; and "different" means better and possessing features never shown here before. In the elios Clark and Turner are superb; the Four Armstrongs, comedy cyclists, can be specially commended; and Adams and Schaffer are good. There is also another olio, in which a woman with a marvellous voice brings down the house. Joe Sullivan as Judge Reilly is a wonder; J. K. Hawk as Moses Levi is good; E. H. Clark is fine.

In the comedienne roles Pearl Turner, Helen Armstrong and Cella Armstrong are star. But don't overlook Lew Adams.

WILL REBUILD BRIDGE

G. T. R. to Spend $40,000 on Structure at Brantford.

Announcement is made by the Grand Trunk Railway that they are to undertake the practical reconstruction of the G.T.R. bridge over the Grand River at Brantford. This will entail a cost of $40,000. A new span of 76 feet 6 inches will be added to the western end of the present structure, while the eastern end will be lengthened by 15 feet. The western abutment will be converted into a river pier by being encased in two and a half feet of concrete. This work, together with the raising of the dyke at West Brantford, and the construction of a concrete abutment by the township council on the river road, will greatly lessen the risk of floods after the spring break-up. The work will probably occupy the entire winter, but an effort will be made to complete it before the river breaks up in the spring.

ONTARIO'S GOOD ROADS

Farmers Are Enthusiastic Over These Now Completed.

Great progress has been made through the province in the laying of good roads. A. K. McLean, chief engineer of highways for the Ontario Government, stated yesterday that about 400 miles of good roads will be constructed by the end of the present year. Mr. McLean, who has just returned after a tour of inspection, states that farmers are greatly enthusiastic over the county roads improvement scheme. More miles of good, solid roadway have been laid in the province this year than ever before.

Four times as much in first cost--and five times as much in after cost--you are asked to pay for cars no more comfortable, sure or speedy than the Vanadium-built Ford. A rather expensive tribute to false pride, isn't it?

Dufferin Driving Club Will Open Matinee Season at the Park With Three Events — Entries.

The Dufferin Club will open the matinee season on Wednesday at Dufferin Park, when three good races will be put on, including a class for trotters with some of the best of horses that have been campaigned all summer. HORSE NOTES
Maher's Horse Exchange.
A first-class consignment of draughts, workers and city horses was offered for sale here yesterday, but the demand seemed to have fallen off slightly, the trade being chiefly local and mostly confined to medium workers, a few second-hand drivers and light delivery horses. Prices fetched were about the average.

Buyers were: City of Toronto, J. Denby, Milne Coal Co., P. Mead, J. J. Walsh, R. Bennington, C. R. Matthews, F. Duncan, J. McKay, T. Barry, R. Goddard, L. Darbes, T. Lavigne, R. Goddard, L. Darbes, T. Lavigne.

Dancing Automobile — Thanksgiving Day.
Can an automobile dance? This question Herb Morrison, who can do almost anything with a car, has solved, and, providing that the space on the large cement block in the enclosure can be kept clear, this will be demonstrated at the big auto gymkhana to be held at Exhibition track Thanksgiving Day. In addition to a number of novelties to amuse, there will be a number of half-raising races, in which the fastest auto drivers and cars in Canada will compete. The whippet races will be a big attraction to themselves.

JOHN CATTO & SON
55 to 61 King St. E., TorontoCIVIC CAR LINES
ARE AGAIN DELAYED

Clair avenue fill was delayed upon again. Ald. Graham moved that as the broken culvert had been replaced by a new one, and that it was now able to properly withstand exceptional pressure, that the idea of erecting an $80,000 bridge across the fill should be dispensed with, and that the car tracks be rushed across the fill with all possible speed.

The residents at the northern limits of the city should have a service before Christmas," he declared, "but if you wait until the bridge is erected, the people there will have become disgusted. The culvert is of sufficient dimensions to carry away all ice, etc., at the spring freshet, and no damage will accrue.

Controller Macgure was surprised at such statements, and said that Sir Henry Pollard and R. J. Fleming would claim damages that would exceed the cost of constructing a bridge.

Wants An Estimate.

Ald. Spence wanted an estimate of the probable damages obtained, before the matter was further dealt with, which is the course which will be taken.

The council granted Commissioner Harris permission to employ a purchasing agent for the department of works at a salary of $2500.

That portion on the west side of Avenue road extending from McPherson avenue to Cottingham street had its residential restrictions removed yesterday in response to petitions received to that effect.

The Humber valley reclamation bill will be revived again next time the council meets when a bylaw to that effect will be submitted.

Riverside Athletic Club.

Riverside Athletic Club have added another department in their variety of sports on Thanksgiving Day. They are sending Hamilton and Brook to Guelph to compete in the ten-mile race. They have about twenty good boys in training for the city amateur boxing tournament under the coaching of Bill Turley, and they expect to clean up some silverware at menages.

MAJ. STEPHENS
ALSO RESIGNS

JOINS COLLEAGUES OF MONTREAL
HARBOR BOARD IN SUR-RENDERING JOYS OF OFFICE.

MONTREAL, Oct. 21.—(Can. Press.)—It was learned today on positive authority that Major George Washington Stephens, chairman of the harbor commissioners, has tendered his resignation to the minister of marine and fisheries, Hon. J. D. Hassen.

Interviewed, Major Stephens refused to make any statement whatever. "I have nothing to say for publication," he said.

The announcement of Major Stephens' resignation from the Montreal Harbor Board comes as a surprise to all who are interested in the port of Montreal.

Should the resignation which Major Stephens is understood to have made be accepted, it is probable that it will take effect at practically the same time as those of Messrs. C. B. Bally and L. E. Geofroy.

HOCKEN MAYOR
MAGURE CONTROLLER

Major Hocken's Thanks.

Major Hocken then took the oath of office and was installed amidst the applause of the assembly, and in returning his thanks he said:

"Gentlemen of the council: I appreciate very greatly the honor which you have done me in placing me in the position of mayor of this great city. It is an expression of your confidence, which is most gratifying. If my own opinions had prevailed, there would not have been a vacancy to fill today. However, I recognize and cheerfully admit that those members of the council who have been elected to my position are entitled to a sincere desire for the welfare of the municipality. There must always be differences of opinion in a body of this kind, but when a majority has reached a decision in proper and legal form it is the duty of each of us to see to it that it is carried out with energy and efficiency.

"During the brief tenure to which I have been elected, I have been able to form personal opinions as to the proper course of action. I will accept the decision of the council in the spirit of one who understands his position as a servant of the municipality, and with your co-operation hope to make the two remaining months of the year fruitful in things accomplished."

Nominations for the newly vacated position on the board of control were then in order, and Aldermen Yeomans and St. Aubert were elected.

Rowland's, and Aldermen Ryding and Anderson mentioned that of Alderman McGillivray, and the latter was elected by a vote of 16 to 2.

PEOPLE IN EMPIRE

country, and none the worse for that, for this is a democratic age, but, when attached to the old-established monarchy, while moving with modern times, she has solved one of the greatest problems of modern times." He felt that, with the spirit of industry which seemed to distinguish Canada, the country would go on increasing in wealth, importance and prosperity.

One thing that struck him was the education of the young. In that lay the future of the country. Whenever he saw a fur building in the west he was told it was a school. He was sure they would all sympathize with him and he would urge it in the strongest manner.

While taking the best means to ensure education. The liberty and respect given to the individual was a part of the system of government, but there were moments when politics must give way. He had been told that there was a desire in the west to separate from the east, but he did not find it a viable issue.

National Spirit.

He spoke of their strong sense of national spirit, and predicted the country would be the greatest country in the world to see it. He was happy to see sitting next him a distinguished Canadian statesman. He believed he was expressing the general feeling in saying they were only too pleased to see among them those who had done great service to the state. One and all in the Dominion were gradually being welded into the true Canadianism and they should strenuously get themselves to harmonize the different races to make one Canadian people. He was glad to see a number of old soldiers of the empire of good character and who had learned discipline, settling in Canada and doing well. There were almost more in Canada than in any other country. He personally and others knew him better than he knew them (laughter), but they were all ideas of the idea of doing well. He commended the boy scout movement, which he did not think was controversial. It was a great educational movement and would improve the physique and the good conduct of the boys. He had given the boys a great deal of boys who had sacrificed their lives to save their fellow soldiers came to Canada. He took interest in the boys as chief scout for Canada.

He concluded by speaking of the good influence of the Canadian clubs and his pleasure in coming among them to meet many of all professions of all shades of politics and of all religions.

Mrs. Emily V. Campbell Was

Successful in Her Suit to

Upset Her Father's

Will.

Mrs. Emily V. Campbell, who filed a caveat in an effort to have the will of her father, Charles Bugg, declared invalid, has won her case.

Charles Bugg left an estate of $472,000. One daughter survived him—Mrs. Campbell. In his will he left her nothing, the testator stating that she had provided for her during his lifetime.

The estate was divided between Mary Cooper Jarrett, Isabella M. Boys, and Elizabeth Joyce. Mrs. Campbell protested that her father was of unsound mind when the will was signed by him.

As a result of the caveat the following settlement has been reached:

Mrs. Campbell $200,000
