Mother, Scrubbing the Floor, Shot Dead By Her Little Son

Tragic Accident at Garnett Settlement on Saturday When Mrs. Robert Moore Was Instantly Killed.

A shocking tragedy on Saturday morning startled the quiet hamlet of Garnett Town, near Loch Lomond, and resulted in the almost instantaneous death of one of its most respected inhabitants, Mrs. Robert Moore, wife of the lumberman, well known in that vicinity and also in this city. The accidental discharge of a small rifle in the hands of her young son was the cause of the sad occurrence.

The boys were so stricken by the death that for a moment they could do nothing, but in a minute they rushed across to the neighbors, who came over immediately to the house.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JAN. 17, 1906.

A LIBERAL VICTORY.

There is no longer a doubt that the Liberal government will be sustained in the British elections. The first day's polling proves this much and even indicates a clear Liberal majority over conservatives, Balfour unionists and nationalists combined.

The record of the first votes may be read in comparison with the first returns from the election of five years ago. On the second day of October, 1900, the Sun's press despatch stated that 132 elections had taken place. The result was the return of 98 conservatives and 18 Liberal unionists supporting Mr. Balfour, making 111 ministerialists.

It was claimed for Mr. Balfour that he had been rather clever in getting out of power before the dissolution, and thrusting upon his opponents the responsibility of formulating a policy. This boast must now be modified. The incoming government has dealt cleverly with the situation, managing in some way to satisfy the nationalist without alarming the English voters.

On the same day La Sollet of Quebec strongly censured La Patrie for casting the youth and insulting the habitant by its own comic cartoons. As George-Elliott remarks, "a difference of taste in jokes is a great strain on the affections."

It must be admitted that the sweeping Liberal gains in Manchester and other towns where polls have been held, are free food victories. It is not likely that Mr. Balfour gained a single free trade vote, by protesting that Mr. Chamberlain's policy was not an issue in the fight.

A SCANDAL REVIVED. It is now six years since the West Elgin provincial election, in which, as the successful candidate admitted, several persons sent from other counties appeared at the polls and acted as deputy returning officers under the names of local officers supposed to have been appointed.

One of the pioneer advocates of the national policy was Mr. T. R. Merritt, president of the Imperial Bank, who died on Thursday last at St. Catharines. Mr. Merritt belonged to a family which is represented in New Brunswick, whether his grandfather came in 1783 with other loyalists, removing to Ontario and settling on the Niagara peninsula, the loyalist Merritt became an influential citizen of Upper Canada.

It is understood that tenders will be asked within a fortnight for that portion of the eastern section of the Grand Trunk Pacific connecting Winnipeg with Lake Superior. This section of 275 miles extends from Winnipeg to the junction with the company's branch to Port Arthur.

Mr. Tarte in La Patrie complained of the caricature of Mgr. Sbarretti which has appeared in sundry Toronto papers. On the same day Le Soleil of Quebec strongly censured La Patrie for casting the youth and insulting the habitant by its own comic cartoons.

President Harper of the University of Chicago handled $17,000,000 of Mr. Rockefeller's endowments and contributions, and organized a great enterprise. President Schurman says that he was the greatest college president in America: Dr. Harper died poor, and his income was perhaps half that of the third vice-president of one of the larger insurance companies.

GROUP ABSOLUTELY CURED. There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face with choking. It gave him instant relief and cure.—Mr. Wm. McGee, 48 Wright Ave., Toronto, Ont.

FUNERAL OF REV. OSKAR GRONLUND.

Impressive Service at Queen Square Church.

Tributes to the Dead Clergyman from Rev. Dr. Hearz and Rev. C. W. Hamilton.

The funeral of the late Rev. Oskar Gronlund, whose death occurred some days ago in Calgary, was held on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. The casket was embedded in formal tributes, some of which had come from the west, while many others were from friends in St. John.

After a short service held at the residence of Dr. McAlpin, Princess Street, the body was taken to Queen Square Church, where the funeral service took place. Rev. G. W. Campbell conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Mr. Comben, Dr. Hearz and Dr. Sprague. The hymn selections were "Asleep in Jesus," and "Servant of God."

WOODSTOCK'S MAYOR Much Interest in Town Elections—Councilors Elected. (Special to the Sun.) WOODSTOCK, Jan. 15.—The town elections took place today, and as there was a contest both for the mayoralty and the council there was a good deal of interest shown. Donald Munro was elected mayor over his opponent, H. D. Stevens, by a vote of 483 to 198.

FIRE AT CHATHAM CHATHAM, N. B., Jan. 15.—An alarm was rung in from box 21 for a fire at the house of William Mathew, corner of Howard and King streets. At 8.15 the alarm struck and in eight minutes water was thrown on the flames. The fire originated around the ventilator which surrounded the chimney, and was blown up quite fiercely for a while, but was soon extinguished.

LOST EYESIGHT Through Coffee Drinking. Some people question the statements that coffee hurts the delicate nerves of the body. Personal experience with thousands prove the general statement true and physicians have records of great numbers of cases that add to the testimony.

Let it be remembered that the eyes may be attacked in one case and the stomach in another, while in others it may be kidneys, heart, bowels or general nervous prostration. The remedy is obvious and should be adopted before too late. Quit coffee, if you show incipient disease. It is easy if you know well-bellied Postum Food Coffee to serve for the best morning beverage. The withdrawal of the old kind of coffee that is doing the harm and the supply of the elements in the Postum which Nature uses to rebuild the broken down nerve cells, insures a quick return to the old joy of strength and health, and it's well worth while to be able again to "do things" and feel well. There's a reason for POSTUM

Suffered Ten Years—Lost 100 Pounds in Flesh.

Mr. J. X. Latrelle, the well known grocer and liquor dealer of Moncton, Can., has been one of the leading business men of that city for thirty years. He writes as follows: "I had catarrh of the head, throat and stomach for about ten years, and for the past two years had been growing worse. I felt exhausted and weak, and coughed continually. When in health my weight was 200 pounds, but I lost 100 pounds in a year. Catarrh had made me almost blind and deaf. I felt discouraged. 'Finally I tried Peruna, took three bottles, and now I must say that my health is much improved, and have gotten rid almost entirely of the effects of that dreaded disease.'"

The residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson has been recently broken into. Mrs. Anderson is spending the winter at Newell, Mass., and left the building locked. Entrance was made through a back window. Suspicion points strongly to some individuals belonging to this place. The marriage of Vernon McElroy of this place and Miss Grace Robinson took place recently at Eastport, Me. They are spending their honeymoon with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McElroy, parents of the groom. A number of teams are employed hauling pulp wood, which is being shipped from this station. Archibald of Montreal a communication asking the police force to be on the lookout for Robert Von Zoeder, flight, who has escaped from Verdun asylum. The man is described as about 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighing 135 pounds, aged 40, and complexion fair. As to his insanity, it was characterized by "delusions of grandeur" for instance, he was about to marry the King's daughter; he had ordered a table service of pure gold; he owned a vessel of fabulous value (he was a curiosity dealer); Emperor William was one of his closest friends, and so on, referring usually either to his illustrious connections or his own prospective greatness in other matters he seemed comparatively sane. WHAT ST. JOHN WOMEN WEAR AND ARE LIKELY TO WEAR.

OBSERVATIONS OF A WOMAN WHO FOLLOWS THE WORLD OF FASHION AT REASONABLY CLOSE RANGE. By POLLY GADABOUT.

ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR OF THE NOVELTY MATERIALS OF THE WINTER IS CHIFFON CLOTH. Evening gowns and waists are being made with this sheer fabric.

THE HISTORY OF THE WOMAN'S GARMENT TRADE IS ONE OF PROGRESS, not only because of increased number of manufacturers successfully engaged in these particular lines, but because of the rapidity with which the standard of quality, style and workmanship in ready-made lines has been elevated.

BEADED BAGS ARE BEING FEATURED BY A NOTICEABLE EXTENT by the large retailers and appear to be selling in great quantities.

A NEW INTRODUCTION FOR EVENING DRESSES IS THAT OF LONG STREAMERS starting from the décollete in the center of the back, and in front midway toward the shoulders.

THE LATEST MODELS SHOW WAIST CUT IN ONE, but in no way outlining the form. It is not the princess type of robe, as they are sometimes standing off from the figure in front, molds it over the hips, and fits accurately to it in the back.

IN THE USE OF SILK SKIRT MATERIALS IT HAS BEEN FOUND THAT CHANGEABLE OR SHOT EFFECTS in silks are coming into vogue.

DRESS GOODS BUYERS WHO FOLLOW REPORTS every week and who noted old robes as a coming favorite in the spring, are now interested to learn that these shades are again being brought out in such materials as henrietta, a fabric in which they appear to special advantage.

A GOOD THING. When It Comes Along Don't let it Get Away From You.

THOUGH ARTIFICIAL FLOWERS ARE BUT LITTLE WORN IN THE HAIR this season, they are employed in masses on the skirts and waists of ball dresses.

Solicitor General Jones arrived in the city on Saturday from Bathurst, where he was sitting as a commissioner for the local government to investigate the complaints made in a petition against the license commissioners and license inspector of Gloucester county.

THE TOWNS OF CAMPBELLTON AND MILLTOWN dispute the claims which the hospital have against them for the keep of patients, and it is probable that the solicitor general will take evidence under oath regarding the number of the cases about which there is contention.

JANUARY BRINGS THE SNOW.
MAKES OUR FEET AND FINGERS GLOW

A NEW ICE GAME

ALL this month skating will probably be good. Polly Evans has a game for the ice of which the Swiss children are very fond. Fix a certain goal or point toward which to skate, and appoint a starter as umpire.

How the Game Is Played

At a given signal the umpire waves his flag, and away they all start toward the goal, the first to reach it being the victor.

CRACK-THE-WHIP

ANOTHER jolly ice sport, though not new, is to play crack-the-whip. Lots of you girls and boys have probably played it, but some may not have, and they, I am sure, would like to try.

OVERHEARD IN THE CAR

ONE morning little Ross and his father were coming downtown. Ross, who was of rather an inquiring turn of mind, espied an advertisement for cold cream.

DIANA FLUFF & COO-EE

DID you ever see a cat and dog who were really friends? Most of us know how the naughty pussies and bowwows act toward one another.

TWIRL THE PLATTER

JOLLY games for a winter's day is this. All sit around a table or chairs, and if they prefer it, they may quickly make it easier to move.

NAME FOR JANUARY

WHAT do you think our old Saxon ancestors used to call the month of January? Wolf-month, or wolf month.

A Pretty Sight

FAMILY a little turtle-dove named Coe. Now, you know both dogs and cats generally will try to kill a bird.

HAMPTON, N. B., Jan. 14.—The trespass case Buchanan v. Armstrong was closed on Saturday evening by the jury returning a verdict for the plaintiff, assessing the damages at $20. The day was spent in hearing evidence for the defense and the address of counsel and Judge Landry's charge to the jury.

The case presented many interesting features. The suit was brought by James Buchanan against his sister, Mrs. Jane Armstrong, who wished to substitute a newly surveyed boundary line by Peter Campbell for an old one of Duncan M. Campbell, and also to establish his right to a narrow strip of land which had been held in possession by his father and himself for sixty or seventy years.

The Campbell line having been confirmed by a survey made by Gilbert Murdoch of St. John. The addresses of the Hon. A. S. White, K. C., and George W. Fowler, M. P., were eloquent.

Mr. Jonah for the defendant applied for and received a writ of potestas, and as the Albert circuit court opens on Tuesday and the lawyers have cases to prepare, Judge Landry decided to adjourn this court over until Thursday, the 25th inst., at 10 a. m., when the remaining case on the docket will be taken up.

MONCTON, Jan. 12.—William McGarry was tried this afternoon committed for trial on the charge of stealing a gold watch chain, gold lead pencil and $30 gold piece from Fiewelling Wilbur.

The complainant is the man who had his barn burned a few months ago and the young woman Grace Boehman. From the evidence it appears that Wilbur had been drinking and had been put to bed at a down town hotel, and though no person saw McGarry steal the articles he is alleged to have taken, the witness and the magistrate sent him up for trial.

George B. Willett, retiring manager of Humphrey's clothing store here, was entertained at an elegant supper at Margo's restaurant tonight. During the evening he was presented with an address and a chair from the employees of the clothing department, and accompanied by a beautiful walking stick from the millen staff.

Mr. Willett, who is very popular with all classes, resigns from the Humphrey company to engage in insurance and real estate business.

The January meeting of the Associated Alumni of the University of New Brunswick was held in the Pugsley building last evening. Francis Murray MacLaren was in the chair, and there were present Secretary H. V. E. Bridges, H. S. Bridges, Dr. McIntosh, Dr. J. D. Walker, C. McDonald, M. Maggs, J. H. A. L. Fairweather, W. D. Parkin, J. D. Hazen, A. E. G. McKenzie, J. McNaughton, J. A. Legere, M. D. Coll, O. L. Barbour.

The society decided to recommend to the Senate that at the next encounter the degree of LL. D. be conferred upon two of the university's most distinguished graduates, Charles G. D. Robb and Elias Garman. The society further recommended the honorary degree of M. A. be conferred upon S. W. Kane of this city. The matter of holding some function such as a dinner was discussed.

MILLSTREAM, N. B., Jan. 13.—The Epworth League of the Methodist Church at Berwick held "An evening of songs" in the hall at Mt. Middleton on Wednesday evening, Jan. 12. The weather and the roads were all that could be desired, and a large audience assembled. The programme was well rendered, and a new acquaintance with Tenyson was made by members of the audience. The topic of the evening was the different phases of Love as found in the writings of this great poet, and the mastery was in evidence. This subject was presented with a revelation to even those already versed in Tenyson's writings.

Miss Addie Gregg has been secured as teacher for the Snider School here.

The Berwick school has reopened under the efficient management of the former teacher, Miss Tillie MacLellan of St. John.

A little child of Thos. E. Kincaid of Sumnerfield is very ill. Drs. Ryan, Brundage and McAllister are in attendance, and all possible is being done for the little sufferer.

The parish Sunday school association of Springfield will hold a convention in Carletonville on Tuesday, Jan. 16th.

MILLSTREAM, Kings Co., Jan. 13.—The little daughter of Thomas Kincaid is seriously ill. Slight hopes are entertained for its recovery.

James Goggin is moving on the farm recently vacated by John Goggin.

Miss Edna Law, who spent the festive season with her parents, has returned to Normal School to resume her studies.

D. W. Belding left on Wednesday for New Hampshire to spend the remainder of the winter.

MONCTON, N. B., Jan. 15.—The effort to clear of the seven thousand dollar mortgage on St. John's Presbyterian church here, promises to be entirely successful. Over six thousand dollars in cash is already on hand and the balance is expected by Thursday night, when it is likely the mortgage will be burned in the presence of the congregation. In addition to paying of the mortgage, which was incurred in the building of the church after its destruction by fire a few years ago, several hundred dollars have been pledged toward paying of the floating debt, which amounts to a thousand dollars.

Growth of the Pulp and Paper Industry in Canada

A Review of This Branch of Manufacture Showing the Remarkable Increase During the Past Few Years.

(By E. B. Biggar.)

Three years ago Canada entered on the second century of its career as a pulp and paper manufacturing country. For the pioneer mill, as well as for the development of recent mills operating under the most modern conditions, this country is indebted to enterprising citizens of the United States. The industry had its birth in 1803 at St. Andrew's, in the Province of Quebec, named mill soon disappeared, but the St. Andrew's mill, which was a small one, found its market in Montreal and Quebec, and was operated until 1834, when a fresher carried away the dam, and the seigneur obliged to its reconstruction.

A newspaper proprietor, A. H. Hollander, of the Halifax Recorder, built the second mill near Bedford Basin, N. S. about 1819, and the first mill in Upper Canada came into existence in the following year at Ancaster. The mill named mill soon disappeared, but public attention was now directed to the subject, and as the result of a bonus offered in 1826 by the government of Upper Canada to the first paper mill to be started, two contests ran a race in building. The contest was so close that the winner was only able to secure his prize by starting his mill on a Sunday. By 1842 Upper Canada had 14 small paper mills. The census of 1851 showed that Upper and Lower Canada had five mills each, the returns of 1861 adding one mill to Lower Canada and two to Upper Canada, 12 mills to Ontario and 7 to Quebec, and one each to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, these 21 mills employing 760 hands. The census of 1871 recorded 36 paper mills in the province, and the census of 1881, 34 paper mills and 24 pulp mills. It was in the decade of 1880-90 that the era of pulp and paper manufacturing from wood may be said to have begun in Canada. In 1888 the writer took some samples of pulp and paper made by the Canada Paper Co. to the Colonial and Indian Exhibition in London, and though the suggestion that Canada could supply pulp to British mills was not then regarded seriously, actual shipments began shortly afterwards in quantity, and when wood pulp first figured separately in the trade and navigation returns in 1892 the value of shipments had reached $183,180.

The development of pulp and paper manufacturing from 1888 to 1905 is shown by the following figures condensed from the various editions of the Canadian Textile and Paper Trades Directory:

Table showing Pulp Mills and Paper Mills statistics from 1888 to 1905, including columns for No. Mills, Cap. in tons, and Tns. per 24 hours.

According to Canadian returns the exports of pulp wood for the year ending in 1905 were 322,455 cords valued at $2,600,514. These returns are considered by those who should know, to be much understated. The methods of measuring in some districts give from 140 to 170 cords per cord of 128 to the cord. On the borders of Maine and New Brunswick and other regions where streams cross and return without record accounts, while around the upper lakes quantities are taken from unfrequented streams and towed across the lakes without record. Some shippers are said to find his way ultimately to the States, or arriving in the United States. For these and other reasons it is probable that the actual present export of pulp wood to the United States amounts to 750,000 cords annually; some place it at nearly a million. The shipments over the Quebec Central Railway alone last year to the States were 235,476 tons, or 471 cubic feet to the ton, 132,455 cords over the Intercolonial 173,245 tons, or 97,550 cords, over the Great Northern 10,148 cords, over the Quebec and Lake St. John 15,000 cords. The figures for the two principal railway systems, the C. P. R. and the G. T. R., are not available, and there are the shipments by barge and tow up the St. Lawrence and across the Upper Lakes to be dealt with.

But taking the official returns as correct we find that the exports of pulp wood to the United States have increased from $90,000 in 1890 to $87,865 in 1896, and to $2,600,514 in 1905, or more than four-fold in the past few years. This rapidly increasing depletion of some of the best and most accessible pulp wood areas of Canada by manufacturers of the United States presents a problem that can be looked at from two standpoints—that of its effect on the Canadian pulp and paper trades, and that of its effect on the agricultural and other national interests, such as timber supplies and water powers, which are dependent upon the distribution of rainfall.

Looking at the pulp and paper manufacturing as a Canadian industry it will be evident that a country having an estimated area of 50,000,000 acres of spruce lands, not to speak of poplar, balsam and other pulp woods, and probably 50 per cent of the world's water power, is destined for a great career in the pulp and paper industry. But the immediate difficulties are that it is placed side by side with the same industry in a country of larger population and larger markets, whose manufacturers have the command of greater skill and capital, and more experience in the export trade; that these manufacturers have unrestricted access to some of the best pulp wood areas in Canada for their raw material; that they have pulp wood the lowest railway freight rate levied on any material, and in some instances this rate is made still more favorable to them than to Canadian mills drawing supplies from a like distance; that by reason of these advantages and that of getting the best raw material in the world from their productive lands and labor output to hold their home market and ship their surplus to compete with the Canadian manufacturer. As one manufacturer puts it the United States paper manufacturer exports his export trade by means of Canadian pulp and paper. In the raw material derived from Canada would produce all the U. S. mills export to all countries, and leave a surplus for their home trade; while if they were dependent on their own cost of their raw material would be increased by 25 to 35 per cent. It would then be more difficult for them to undersell British and Canadian manufacturers in their export trade. This change would give a great impetus to the Canadian pulp and paper trade, for if the 750,000 cords now exported to the United States were manufactured in Canada into pulp and paper in the proportions required, say for news print, it would mean an investment of about $21,700,000 for plant, and employ directly 6,400 men with a total wage bill of over $3,000,000 a year, not to speak of the commercial interest it would develop in association with the industry. The creation of this home industry yielding a factory wage bill greater than the whole value of the wood now exported would naturally give the timber limit owner, and the owner of the small wood lot a better market at home than the present one abroad for pulp wood. Even the U. S. manufacturer would not be a loser altogether, for many individual mill owners would transfer their plants to Canada and found a business which would ultimately bring a better return to their capital than now, because the natural conditions are here more favorable to the business, since Canada has not only the wood and water power, but men who understand wood craft better than any in the world.

Canada has the greatest area in the world of forests suitable for the manufacture of pulp—her spruce lands alone being estimated at 450,000 acres—while the great extent of her water powers and the enormous water power of the country have attracted the attention of the nations, especially the alert of those of the pulp and paper industry of the world, and the special rivalry of Canada to the whole pulp and paper industry of the world. THE INDIANS OF CANADA

(From January Canadian Magazine.) The present superintendent of Indian affairs is quite enthusiastic over the progress being made by his proteges. The Indian has not acquired a high spirit of citizenship, but "the country has little reason to congratulate itself upon a policy which has transformed its aboriginal population into a law-abiding, prosperous and contented section of the community, which, so far as being a menace or burden upon the commonwealth, contributes in many ways to its welfare. This is an encouraging verdict and must be to many people a surprising one. The evidence in support of this statement is not far to seek. In 1903, the number of births, exclusive of the number of deaths by 188, and in 1904 by 262. This means a gain in numbers in two years of only about one-half of one per cent; but it is nevertheless encouraging in comparison with the results elsewhere. The statistics show which the Indian has labored in transforming himself from a hunter into a farmer or a laborer, have been great. When the buffalo disappeared he became a great hunter and a great hunter, to become a self-supporting member in a system of white civilization was a long step, but he has made the stride.

The National Drug Company will take over control of the wholesale houses which have formed the combination, and between now and that date the managers will be appointed to take up the direction of the company's affairs at the different local centers. David Bole, M. P., president of the company, has been busy with the other directors in completing arrangements. He will go to Halifax at once to put the company's affairs in the maritime provinces into shape.

ADMINISTRATORS are wanted, not only in Quebec, but in all the provinces, which will by some means find revenue without devastating their native land and maiming that resource which is the parent of all progress—the forest.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—It was admitted at the Holland House, where he is a patient ill with pneumonia, this morning, that hope for the ultimate recovery of Marshall Field, the Chicago merchant, had been really abandoned. The physicians in attendance, however, refused to commit themselves beyond the statement that Mr. Field's condition was less favorable than yesterday.

UNCONSCIOUS POISONING. How it Often Happens From Coffee.

"I had no idea," writes a Duluth man, "that it was the coffee I had been drinking all my life that was responsible for the headaches which were growing upon me, for the dyspepsia that no medicines would relieve, and for the acute nervousness which untiringly and able to digest my food without the most ordinary social functions."

"But at last the truth dawned upon me. I forthwith made the harmful beverage a prompt farewell, ordered in some Postum and began to use it. The good effects of the new food drink were apparent within a few days. My headaches grew less frequent, and I was able to do my work with less distress of any kind, my nervousness had gone and I am able to enjoy life with my neighbors and sleep soundly at night. My physical strength and nerve power have increased so much that I can do double the work I used to do, and feel no undue fatigue afterwards."

"This improvement set in just as soon as the old coffee was abandoned. I am out of my system as to the food elements in the Postum to get a hold to build me up again. I cheerfully testify that it was Postum and Postum alone that did it all this, for when I began to drink it I threw physic to the dogs." Nave given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
