They have decided to offer amendments to every bill in the cortes providing ways and means for carrying on the war, and to oppose every financial measure coming from the ministry. They will obstruct in all possible ways the passage of the bill of indemnity, as it is called, the bill to forgive the cabinet for violating the constitution by promulgating home rule for Cuba without the consent of the cortes. Their purpose in adopting this policy of obstruction is to prolong the debate in parliament, giving opportunity for the anarchists and the tarving to riot, and for other manifestations of popular discontent to create such an inflammable condition of affairs throughout the kingdom that news of the next Spanish reverse shall cause an explosion. DAMAGE TO THE HARBOR. Washington, May 13 .- The set-back received by the American blockading squadron in the engagement in Carlenas harbor, and the loss of five lives on board the torpedo boat Winslow, nad a sobering effect on the element in the navy which is crying out for rapid action and attempts at destroying bateries with unarmed ships. There probably will be some sort of inquiry instituted to ascertain the responsibillty for sending such unprotected ships as the Winslow against fortified ports. It is miraculous, in the opinion of the older officers at the department, that damage and loss of life were confined to the Winslow, for the three other boats with her were very little better off in the matter of protection, and scarcely any of them could resist the fire of a small rifle.

THE HARBOR BADLY INJURED. Kay West, Fla., May 13.-It is now anown that the American boats made havoe with Cardenas harbor and town. Mr. Wallace did not suppose Mr. Russell would openly charge for trips to Rome. He objected to any body of men in Canada asking that a papal delegate be sent to this country. The people of this country would resent this interference in Canadian affairs.

MR. WALLACE REBUKED. Sir Hibbert Tupper said he knew Mr. Russell well, and would never suspect him of a dishonorable act. He had rendered signal service to Canada in connection with the Bering Sea fisheries at Paris. If he went to Rome he did not think he would charge for his services indirectly. SIR WILFRID'S REPLY. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who was loudly applauded and whose speech evoked great enthusiasm, in replying to his critics made it plain that he had never sent any appeal to the holy see bearing upon the Manitoba school question, and that he had never appealed to any authority on that question other than that of the Canadian people. He acknowledged that, with several of his co-religionists and fellow-countrymen, he had signed a memorial to Pope Leo which had not the remotest reference to the school question. It was an appeal which he and right to make to the head of their church against clerical interference with the legitimate exercise of elecmitted that he had prepared a vindication of the course which the Liberal party had taken in regard to the Manitoba school question. MR. BERGERON TO THE RESCUE.

Mr. Bergeron resented the epithet of Judas. A Judas was one who betrayed his own friends. When the premier was in opposition he pretended to stand firmly in favor of the Cathelic minority of Manitoba, and had betrayed them. (Conservative cheers.) The first minister denied that he appealed to Rome on this question, but the country would not believe him.

M. LaRiviere said the school question would not be settled until separate schools were restored to the minority. The rest of the time was spent in ommittee of supply, the opposition attacking nearly every item of expenditure. The $5,000 grant for the Woodstock postoffice was adopted. IN THE SENATE.

SIR ADOLPHE HEARD FROM.

A. H. HARRIS. to their fellow countrymen in the far west. Sir Wilfrid had done his best to inflame that feeling. In this double policy he has sown the wind, and although it had wafted him into he would reap the whirlwind. He was not one of the extreme patriots who regarded it as a crime to have recourse to the holy see in certain matters. He really could not conceive how Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in his desire to escape criticism, could honestly say that his appeal had been framed and forwarded without his having been consulted.

Umpire-McNierney. Attendance-300. HAMILTON SHUT OUT. Saginaw, Mich., May 13 .- The first game of the season was played here yesterday between Hamilton and the local team. It was a pitchers' battle, and while the fielding was at times a little ragged there was many a good sharp play, and the result was that many a man died on bases in the midst of critical situations. It was anybody's game to the last, and the interest was intense. Not in a long while has such a game been played here. Score:

The Domestic Still Under Pro-

hibition. A correspondent writes to point out what he regards as a peculiar state of a prohibitory law. He says he is a prohibitionist in principle, but will be against a prohibitory law unless it can be shown that it could be effectively carried out without undue interference with the liberty of the subject. Here is our correspondent's point: At present, under the inland revenue and still, big or little, on his own premises, for the making of whisky, unless authorized and taxed. Were the inland revenue and license systems superseded by a prohibitory law, anyone could make in his own house whatever whisky and kindred liquor he deemed requisite for his own use, and for entertaining his friends, but, of course, could not sell. This he would do, argues our correspondent, because it is generally recognized that a man's house is his castle, and that an espionage that | for South Toronto, to give the union would prevent him so acting would be regarded as intolerable. You may ask, continues our correspondent, why can't he make whisky in his own house now? The answer is, the inland revenue law and the license act forbid it, and, besides, as the traffic is licensed, liquor can be bought at a moderate sum, it does not pay anyone to become his own distiller on a small scale, and run the risk of the heavy penalty inflicted.

Our correspondent raises a very interesting question, which will doubtless be thoroughly discussed before the plebiscite is taken. It is true, as he says, that were a prohibitory law put in force, it would be possible for a man ho desired his liquor to set to make in his home. But he would have no munity from prosecution under the pable penalty clauses of the meas-The question, however, would not he legality or illegality of the dotic still, and the secret purveying the alcohol, but whether or not the public opinion of the country was the espionage necessary to insure prohibition in the home, as well as out of it. There are many good temperance people who are doubtful if permanent beneficial effects would flow from a prohibitory law if there was not a large majority of the people in favor of its being carried out, and ready and anxious personally to aid in enforcing it. The very sentiment that our correspondent expresses-that "a man's house is his castle"-would be strengthened in the minds of many persons were it proposed to enact a measure placing every citizen under espionage, and liable to be swooped downonby detectives in search of intoxtcants, whether whisky, beer or cider. And if it were so strengthened, where would we get the public sentiment necessary to prevent the illicit production of intoxicants to which our correspondent refers? The customary reply to such a question, we all know, is that it is the duty of the public official to carry out the law. That is all. But do we find even in the administration of the license law that it is an easy task? The license inspector says that his chief difficulty in proceeding against offenders, and in securing convictions when he does proceed against them, is the indisposition of the general public to aid him in his work. Again and again, he has been unable to take proceedings because of the refusal of the citizens who privately asserted that dealers were guilty of infractions of the law, but positively refused to appear in court, and publicly swear what they alleged in secret. They were good United States as a neighbor in the east. citizens, earnest temperance advo- Her present neighbors are by no means cates, but their idea of maintaining the law was that the inspector alone should see to it. The cost of this fleet, exclusive of armament, is $272,500,000, of which the battleships cost about $115,000,000. This is an enormous sum to spend on one branch of the service; but everyone recognizes that a country like Great Britain, a maritime nation having possessions to defend in all parts of the world, and in case of war depending on the maintenance of outside connection for her food supply, must have a first-class line of defense superior to that of at least two firstclass European powers. With a cordial understanding between the mother country and the United States, however, the maintenance of the world's peace would be easier and the necessity for constantly increasing the British naval strength would be less pressing. Such a condition would also be advantageous to the United States, of which Britain is by far the best customer, because it would enable these two English-speaking nations to prevent warfare by continental powers guaranteed on an empty stomach. except when the cause was just.

Union Labels and Trade Marks. No more reasonable measure been submitted to Parliament than the bill introduced by Mr. Bertram, M.P. labels of labor organizations the same status in the eyes of the law as trade marks of manufacturers now enjoy. This bill passed the House of Commons, but it proved too much for the reactionary Conservative majority in the Senate, which, by a majority of 30 to 15, threw the proposed law out. The pretense made by the opponents of the measure was that if equality of conditions were extended to the working classes they might use their union labels to enforce a boycott against their employers. There was, of couse, no evidence to support this view. Besides, Hon. David Mills, the Government leader in the Senate, who indorsed the principle of the bill as one conceived in the interests of the workers, pointed out that to reject it was not treating its promoters with fairness. If it had defects, he said, these could be remedied by amendments, to be submitted, after the second reading, in committee. For example, it could be clearly laid down that the marks should not be placed on any goods of employers without their permission. One would have thought that the reasonable suggestion would have been adopted, especially in view of the fact that the chamber chosen by the people but the other day had indorsed the legislation.

The defeat of the measure by the reactionary majority in the Senate will not have the tendency to revive the proper manner to Uncle Sam. waning popularity of that body. It must be accepted as ample proof that the chamber, as now constituted, represents a Canada of the past, with its the Canada of today, with its progressive programme, and determination that there shall be no discrimination in favor of anyone. It must be clear that if trade marks of inventors and manufacturers are to have the protection of the law of the land, it is only justice that the union labels of the workers shall have the same treatment. The Senate says "No" to this proposition, and in doing so assumes a position directly opposite to the sentiments of the public and to the principle of equal justice.

It is true that in a sense the United States is neither a Christian nor an Anglo-Saxon nation. It is not officially Christian, if thereby is meant a nation which gives political or financial advantage to one religion over another. It is not Anglo-Saxon, if thereby is meant a nation which sets itself to confer political power upon one race over another. But though it is officialneither Christian nor Anglo-Saxon, is practically both. Its ethical standards are not those of Mohammedanism, or Confucianism, but those of Christianity. Its ruling force in the country, educational, political, and on the whole commercial, is not Celtic, nor Slavic, nor Semitic, nor African, nor Mongolian, but Anglo-Saxon. Thus in its religious spirit, though not altogether in its religious institutions, in its practical leadership, though not in the constituent elements of its population, and in its national history and the genesis of its political institutions, the United States is of kin to Great Britain. The two represent the same essential political ideals; they are both democratic; they both represent the same ethical ideals; they are Christian; parliamentary committee. Whereupon and they both represent the same race leadership; they are Anglo-Saxon. In so far as their conjoint influence dominates the world, it will carry with it a tendency toward liberty in the political institutions organized, a tendency toward Christianity in the ethical spirit of the society created, and a tendency toward that energy, that intelligence and that thrift which are the characteristics of the Anglo-Saxon race in the life promoted. It is from the combination of these three elements in society-political liberty, Christian ethics, Anglo-Saxon energy-that what we call civilization proceeds. And it is out of this civilization thus inspired by Anglo-Saxon energy, thus controlled by Christian ethics, and thus given opportunity for growth by political liberty that industrial prosperity, commercial wealth and human understanding between Great Britain and the United States as is here suggested, are more important than the commercial and political advantages, because the commercial and political advantages are dependent upon the moral. It is indeed impossible to separate them, except in statements and for the convenience of clear thinking. Great Britain and the United States cannot combine to promote the com-mercial prosperity of either nation, or the political protection of the citizens of either in communities less free than their own, except as they combine to promote that world civilization which is founded on political liberty, Christian ethics and Anglo-Saxon energy. Let Great Britain and the United States work together for the world's civilization, and, on the one hand, no reactionary forces can withstand their combined influence; and, on the other, no imagination can estimate the pecuniary and the political advantages, first to these two nations, and next to the whole world, which would come from such a combination. Whoever in either country sows discord between the two is, whether he knows it or not, the political and commercial enemy of both countries, and the enemy of the world's civilization.-From "The Basis of an Anglo-American Understanding,"

Three Fishermen Lose Their Lives-Man Drowned in a Flume.

FOUR DROWNED.

Halifax, N. S., May 13.-Wm. Conrad, Ingram Messiner and John Franks, of the Lunenburg, N. S., fishing schooner Torridon, were drowned at Queensport, near Guysboro, on Tuesday. The men left the vessel in a boat to go up the bay for herring for bait. Late in the evening the overturned boat and the bodies of Franks and Messiner were found on Leary's beach at the entrance to the harbor. It is supposed the dory was capsized by the surf on Leary's beach.

Morrisburg, Ont., May 13.-Asap Merkley, a respected resident of this town, was found drowned in the flume here yesterday morning. He was somewhat despondent, complaining of very severe pains in the head. Early in the morning a coat and hat were noticed on the bridge over the flume, and suspecting some one had fallen, the water was let out and the body of Mr. Merkey found. He intended going to California next week. He was 55 years of age and leaves a widow but no children. An inquest will be held.

USE FOR BITS OF SOAP. In many households when a tablet of soap is reduced to a very small piece it is thrown away. These scraps of soap should be saved. When enough are collected, put them into a mortar and pound them all together, if necessary using a little boiling water to make them into a soft paste. Roll the paste into balls and put them on a shelf in the kitchen or in any other dry place to harden. Ends of coarse soap should be collected in the same way and then boiled with a small quanformed, which is useful for washing laces and flannels.

"For the past two years I have been in constant torture from kidney complaint. I had painful and distressing backache and general weakening of the entire system, so much so that strong symptoms of Diabetes manifested themselves. I tried a great many remedies which promised relief, but without avail, and I continued to sink deeper and deeper under the ravages of this dreadful disease. At last a friend induced me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box produced a great change in my condition, freeing me from the pain in the back and the other symptoms of kidney trouble.

"Before taking Doan's Kidney Pills I felt that Diabetes was fast tightening its grip upon me. Now I know it has been met and defeated."

A Complimentary Resolution Tendered

Rev. A. L. Russell by the Quarterly Board of His Church.

At the fourth quarterly meeting of the Wellington Street Church, held on May 10, the following was carried unanimously: "Moved by W. H. McCutcheon, seconded by H. Wallett, and resolved: That we, the members of the quarterly official board of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, take this opportunity of placing on record our appre-ciation of the faithful and efficient services of Rev. A. L. Russell, M.A., B.D., during the years of his pastorate among us as pastor. He has brought sunshine and consolation to many of our homes, and in almost every case has been a welcome guest. As a preacher of the gospel we shall long remember his able presentation and scholarly exposition of the truth presented in a way calculated not only to convict and convince of sin and lead the unsaved to Christ, but also to edify, instruct and encourage the true believer and help all who were willing to be helped. Our prayers and good wishes will follow Bro. Russell, with his most estimable wife and family, to their new home wherever in the providence of God it may be cast; and we trust that he may long be spared to labor in the vineyard of the Mas-and the War Is Blamed For It. Winsted, Conn., May 13.-Frank A. Robbins' circus, which was advertised to give two exhibitions in Winsted yesterday, practically disbanded here last night. In Collinsville the musicians and some of the performers left because they were unable to collect salaries. The show is stranded here. The managers say that the war is the cause of it all, and that people are not spending their money now for pleasure. All that the circus employes had to eat yesterday was crackers.

LABORERS CRUSHED BY FALLING WALLS. New York, May 13.—The building, No. 20 and 22 East One Hundred and Sixteenth street, in course of construction, collapsed today, and a number of workmen were buried between the walls. Albert Kimensky, bricklayer, and a laborer named Salvaterrer are known to be dead. Three other laborers were injured fatally.

MR. WILLIS, WOODSTOCK

Escaped a Deadly Enemy by the Aid Of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Woodstock, May 9 .- This city is deeply agitated, with joyous excitement, because another popular resident has escaped from the fatal grip of Kidney Disease, by the aid of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Everyone knows Mr. H. A. Willis, the genial proprietor of the Buckingham Hotel. He tells his story thus: "For two years past I suffered intensely from Lame Back and Kidney Disease. Nothing I ever used helped me. 'My sufferings grew worse daily. I heard so much of Dodd's Kidney Pills that I decided to try them. I got relief from the first box. Three boxes cured me entirely

MEXICO'S SCENIC WONDER.

Waterfall of Juanacatlan a Little Known, but Picturesque Cataract.

[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.] The great waterfall of Juanacatlan is one of the grandest, though least known, scenic wonders of Mexico. The immediate approach to the falls is in itself an artist's dream of rural delights. Leaving the railroad at the little station of El Castillo, one is conveyed by a native tramear for a distance of five miles through a beautiful circular valley thousands of acres in area and resembling in the graceful curves of its surrounding hills and the delicate tints of its labyrinths of wild flowers a mammoth sea-shell. At frequent intervals above the tops of the long grasses and tropical shrubs glimpses are caught of the broad, winding

Rio de Santiago, its waters hastening onward to the main Having traversed perhaps two-thirds of this enchanting landscape, one's ear gradually becomes conscious of a low, distant murmur, which steadily in-creases to a deep rumble, and from that to a mighty roar, and presently the tramear comes to a standstill at the very brink of a high precipice, from which is viewed through clouds of vaporous mist the sight of thousands of tons of water plunging over a wall of gray granite in a steady, unbroken cataract 360 feet in width for a sheer distance of 60 feet in a seething, eddying vortex below. For a time the mind is apt to be held in rapt contemplation of the spectacle; then, by degrees, the senses are awakened to the various characteristics, the exquisite effects and weird vagaries of the foaming, falling waters. At the extreme further shore a portion of the rushing flood is turned aside by a spur of granite and hurled against the face of the confining wall, from which it rebounds in a fine, veil-like cascade, while from the top of the precipice on the nearer side long trailing vines droop down and reach out their tendrils as if in vain efforts to grasp the descending torrents.

Associated with these falls is a strange and beautiful phenomenon. It is the constant presence of myriads of gorgeous butterflies, which flit in and out of the rifts of the great cascade and to and fro through the clouds of drifting vapor, seemingly attracted and fascinated by the dazzling, buffeting avalanche of foam.

Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Haggart Examined.

[C. P. R. Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, May 13.-At the Drummond County investigation committee today Sir Charles Tupper was examined, and swore that he had never written the letter which Mr. Farewell said he had done to the effect that his government was to purchase the Drummond County Railway. He might have talked the matter over with Mr. Ives. Mr. Pope, M.P., was next examined, and said he never received such a letter, but he would not say that a political organizer for the district hight not have led Mr. Farewell to be-Lieve that he had such a letter. If it would have helped the Conservatives to have done so he would have done it. Hugh Ryan also said that he had met Mr. Farewell about the road, and afterwards talked it over with Mr. Haggart, but nothing definite was lone. Mr. Haggart, sworn, said that only difference between himself the and the present government about purchasing the Drummond County road was one of cost. He favored the extension of that road to Montreal.

HIS LAST WALK.

Sad Fate of a Young Telegraph Operator at Brantford.

Brantford, Ont., May 13.—John Doyle, aged about 20, for the past two years operator with the G. N. W. Telegraph Company, Hamilton, was killed by a G. T. R. train this morning. Deceased, who had been ill for some three months, is supposed to have been taking a walk, having left the hospital, and for a short cut was returning by the track, when in some way he got in front of the train. He was a great favorite with all who knew him.

WERE THEY FRENCH GUNNERS? New York, May 3 .- A special to the World from Washington says: The possibility of diplomatic complications between the United States and France tonight: "Did French experts man day?" The suspicion directed against France is due to two causes—the recent blockade running experience of the French steamship Lafayette, which was released after being held up by the blockading fleet, and the improvement of the gunners manning the guns on Spanish forts. Their improvement has been so noticeable, according to naval experts, that it indicates the introduction of new and more experienced hands. Navy officers in gunnery argue that the gunners who brought havoc to the little Winslow were not the same as those who have been operating the guns at Cardenas, Havana and Malanzas during the blockade. Up to the First Week of May-Wheat Area Increased - The Prospects.

Department of Agriculture

The following is the first estimate of the crops of Ontario for 1898 made by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, based on the reports of the regular correspondents of the Bureau of Industries. The returns are for the first week of May: Fall Wheat-Our November reports were to the effect that the area of fall wheat had been increased, especially in the western part of the province, and that there would have been still more but for the delay caused to seeding by the drought of September and the early part of August. Reports from correspondents just to hand are to the effect that in most cases the crop came out in the spring in about the same condition as it entered the winter There was some mention of a little heaving, of smothering and of slight injury from frost, but these were exceptional. Little harm appears to Ellef into this valley, intending to have been done by insects, wire-worm march thence upon Treves, laying that being reported in a few cases. The being reported in a few cases. first two weeks of April were far from over the surrounding country. His favorable for the crop, and although rains later helped the plant it is hardin as forward a condition as usual Where sown early on summer fallow whole family needed. The blacksmith files of the Elfel until the archbishop fall wheat has never been more promising, but many fields were hastily elief from Treves."

There was deep silence in the vast of wheat, and this, with the drought, the animal was yet afar, that one of hall after this startling announcement. prevailing at the time of seeding, gives the fields a patchy and weak look in many quarters. In several of the western and central counties some plowing up has been done, but not to any considerable extent. The present acreage of the crop, therefore, may be set down as quite up to the average and the average condition in the first week of May as "fair." The outcome ation from the manager of the London of the crop of course depends upon the weather of the next six weeks. Clover.-The prospects for clover, as correspondents wrote, were most favorable. Some heaving by frost-occurring chiefly in the early part of April-is reported in nearly every district, but not to so great an extent as to be considered serious; while, on the other hand, many reports describe clover as looking splendid, especially in the case of new fields. Reports from the St. Lawrence and Ottawa counties

Vegetation.—Correspondents differ greatly in their opinions as to the condition of vegetation, some considerumber for repairing town hall; Wm. the time of year, and fully as many rather backward in most sections there was a fair bite for cattle at the beginning of May, and early fruit trees were coming nicely into bloom. In the eastern part of the province the season was relatively more advanced than

Live Stock.—The majority of the re- year. ports concerning live stock are of a most satisfactory character. Horses though cases of distemper occurred here and there. Cattle are also reported to be in good health, but looking thinner than the abundance of fodder would warrant. Lumpy jaw was reported in one or two places, but not to a serious extent. Sheep came through the winter in capital shape, inspector; J. Wyatt, $3 50 for drawing and lambs are many and strong. A stone and gravel and fixing washout; few cases of hog cholera occurred in some western sections, but the disease was quickly stamped out. With this exception swine are described as being in fine condition. Hogs are now chiefly sold when weighing from 120 to 180 pounds. The supply of fodder was plentiful, and there is an abundance of straw.

Farm Supplies .- There appears to be a surplus of hay in nearly every section of the Province, but more especially in the west. Much of the crop is not of good quality, although, course, there is a fair amount of firstclass hav yet to be had. Owing to the large quantity available for sale, prices were low all winter. Reports regarding oats vary, for while many claim that there is a scarcity, others hold that there is still a good supply left. Oats were fed more freely than usual during the winter, and during the last mense quantity has changed hands. been disposed of in some quarters, although farmers are occasionally spoken of as having from 50 to 100 bushels of wheat ready for a further rise in price. Store cattle are said to be scarcer than usual, but in some places equal to the demand. Complaints are made of the low price for beef, especially when offered for fat animals, and many of this class of animals are being kept for a better figure in some of the western counties, and consequently there are rather more in the hands of farmers than are desired; but in the eastern counties fat cattle are scarce.

HONEST MEN, READ THIS

Most men are honest. Ninety-nine in a hundred can be trusted. We have learned this in 15 years' active practice among men who are weak in the parts that make true and vigorous manhood. We have successfully treated hundreds of thousands of cases, and, with rare exceptions, have always been paid for our remedies and appliances.

Our treatment is so sure to develop shrunken parts, to give bodily strength, to remove impediments to marriage, to stop unnatural losses, to restore to weak men the feelings and buoyancy of youth, that we gladly offer a

Free Trial for Ten Days

We will send our medicines and appliances free to any honest man, who may try them ten days. If he is pleased with the result, he is to keep and pay for them. If he is dissatisfied, he has simply to return the appliances and medicine to us, and that ends the transaction, without any expense whatever. There is no C.O.D. fraud, no deception If you want to know what our treatment consists of before trying it, send at once for our famous free book, "Complete Manhood." Sent sealed in plain envelope. Cut out this advertisement or mention this paper when writing.

No Tax For

Cinder Paths Will Not Be Provided For in That Way.

Bruce Street Residents Ought Not to be Assessed for the New Sewer-Other Matters Before the Board of

The board of works met in regular session last night. Ald. Douglass presided, and the other members present were Ald. Carrothers, Greenlees, Cooper and Dreaney, City Engineer Graydon and Secretary Bell.

The opinion of the city solicitor as to the power of the city to assess and charge properties on Bruce street between Edward street and the Wharncliffe road, was read. Having in regard the judgment of the supreme court in the case of Lewis vs. Alexander, Mr. Meredith held that it would not be safe for the city to assess the properties, as in the judgment the drain was held to be a sewer for all purposes, and as such accepted by the city. The city solicitor's communication also expressed his opinion that the city council had no power to impose a tax on each bicyclist in the city, in accordance with the petition to thus raise money for the construction of cinder paths.

The city engineer reported upon the claim of Mr. W. J. Tanner for damages arising out of an accident which befell him on the King street bridge early in January this year. Mr. Tanner was walking across the bridge, then under construction, and at the east end slipped on the sewer pipe, and fell, injuring his thigh so that he had been out of work since. Mr. Graydon said the bridge was not open to the public then, and Mr. Tanner had no right to use it.

Mr. P. Moore addressed the committee in Mr. Tanner's behalf, and argued that there were circumstances warrantthough the claim might not be legal. The committee recommended the pay-

The moving of Caretaker Burdick's and referred to the engineer, Ald. Douglass and Dreaney. Ald. Cooper's amendment that the cost do not exceed $100 was lost.

The engineer recommended that the macadamizing of Talbot street from Albert to Carling streets be advertised.
An account for $18 77 for gravel supplied on Central avenue by the street railway company was laid over, on motion of Ald. Carrothers, because of a contra account, and also on the ground that the gravel was not satisfactory. The contra account is for removing snow from the city streets at either side of the company's tracks in the spring-work which had to be undertaken by the city, which the company refused to pay them for. Ald. Dreaney spoke of the privilege held by the street railway company to supply gravel in different parts of the city, and asked what right had anyone to step in and supply gravel in a 6:25 p.m. ward when the contract for the entire ward had been let to someone else. It was stated the company supplied gravel for certain streets at about one-half the price the ward contractors could supply it, and that when the contract was let an exclusive right was 11:20. not given. James Crawford ,a corporation laborer, complained that Foreman Loveborer, complained that Foreman Loveless, in ward 3, was not giving him his share of work. He was told that he should have applied to the city engineer instead of to the aldermen. Mr. Graydon gave the man an order to start work. The usual batch of accounts were passed and the committee adjourned. The Twentieth Century Enters upon the heritage of a remedy that is sure, safe and painless. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor Passed a Bogus Check for $15 on Edwin Bourne, the Butcher -Deserted His Family.

George Henry Adams, about 45 years of age, was arrested by Detectives Nickle and Rider on a warrant issued by Henry Bourne, sen., butcher, Hamilton road. On Saturday last Adams purchased 65 cents' worth of meat from Mr. Bourne, and in payment tendered a Molsons Bank check, signed by Alice Adams, and payable to George "Henery" Adams. The 65 cents was taken, and Adams given the balance, $14 35 change. On Monday, when the check was presented at the bank, it was ascertained that Alice Adams had no funds there. The police were notified, night from blood poisoning. and located Adams. This morning he pleaded guilty before Magistrate Parke and asked to be sentenced at once. He was remanded for a week. Mrs. Adams, 29 Miles street, was seen last evening. She said Adams left his home and family on Nov. 3 last. A few days afterwards he went back to negotiate a ten-cent loan from his deserted wife. She refused to have anything to do with him, and to raise funds he went down town and sold the coal stove, which then contained a good fire, for $4. The first she knew of it was when the men came to take the stove away. Adams was next heard of through his little children, whom he coaxed to cry and beg their mother to ake him back again. For the last three months Adams has been boarding at Mrs. Marshall's, 581 Gray street. The latter said this morning that Adams had boarded with her ever since her husband died on Jan. 2. She then lived on Horton street. Adams, she said, sometimes gave her money and sometimes bought a few groceries, in pay-ment for his board. The police know Adams to be a worthless fellow and professional pan-handler. None of the
