Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Affembly, That the faid Supreme Court shall be hereafter held at Pictou, in the District of Pictou, on the last Tuesday of May ; and at Truro, in the Diffrict of Colchester, on the Thursday next, after the first Tuesday of June ; and at Amherst, in the County of Cumberland, on the third Tuesday of June ; at Windsor, in the County of Hants, on the second Tuesday of September ; at Horton, in King's County, on the third Tuefday of September ; and at Annapolis, in the County of Annapolis, on the fecond Thursday after the faid third Tuesday of September in each year.

II. And be it further enacled, That the faid Court shall not fit at any of the faid places longer than the period of eight days in any one Seffion.

III. And be it further enacled, That the faid Supreme Court shall be held in each of the Supreme Court faid Counties and Diffricts by two Affiftant Juffices of the faid Court, in the absence of the Chief Juffice, and in no other way or manner whatfoever.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, at any time, after the Affiftant Justices of the faid Court, shall have commenced any of the faid circuits, it shall happen that any one of the faid Juffices by reason of fickness or unavoidable accident, shall be prevented from attending at any of the faid Courts, on the days when the fame are herein directed to be held, it shall and may be lawful for the other Justice to hold the faid Court, and to proceed in hearing and determining all matters therein depending, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithflanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That all writs, process, recognizances and complaints, which are, or shall be made, returnable to the faid Court at its next fittings, in the faid Counties or Diffricts respectively, shall be returned on the days herein appointed for such respective fittings of the faid Court, and all parties and perfons who are bound or fummoned, or who ought to appear at the faid Courts, or any of them, at the next fittings thereof, in any of the faid Councies or Diffricts, shall be held and obliged to appear at fuch Court, at the days and times on which fuch fittings respectively are hereby directed to be held.

And whereas the extending the terms of fittings of the faid Court in feveral Counties and Districts will render it necessary to make provision for the appointment of one other Affistant Justice of the said Court ; and, whereas, their present Salary is inadequate to their honorable Support :

Anno quinquagefimo Georgii III.

VI. Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, to appoint one other Affistant Justice of the faid Court, in addition to those already appointed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no perfon shall hereafter be appointed an Affistant Justice of the faid Court, unlefs he shall have been regularly sworn and admitted an Attorney of the faid Court ten years prior to fuch appointment, and fhall have been in the practice of his profession, of an Attorney and Counsel in the faid Court, at least five years next before the faid -appointment.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Affistant Justice of the faid Court, to hold, possess or enjoy, any other Office, Post, Place, Appointment, or Situation, escept the Office of Mafter in Chancery, or that of a Member of His Majefty's Council of this situations Province, or accept, receive, or take any Salary, Fees or Emoluments, for, or in respect of any Office, Post, Place, Appointment, or Situation, other than the Salary provided by this Act, and fuch other Fees and Emoluments, as appertain to the faid Offices and Situations herein before. named.

Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall prevent either of the present appointed "Exception Justices of the faid Court from holding any Office they may have been in possession of before the paffing of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacled, That instead of the fum of Four hundred pounds heretofore Salary. allowed, that the fum of Five hundred pounds be granted, established and paid, as the yearly Salary of each of the three Affiliant Juffices of the faid Court, in addition to the allowance of travel already provided.

Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the appointment of the Affiftant Juffices, and the payment of their Salaries by the Payment of annual Grant of Parliament for Nova-Scotia, or otherwife by His Majesty's Special Warrant Salary, &c. or Authority.

CAP. XVI.

An ACT to authorife the fale of part of the Lands and Tenements of Samuel Hart, of Halifax, merchant, a lunatick, or infane perfon, for payment of his Debts, and for his maintenance and fupport.

WHEREAS, a Commission, in nature of a Writ De Lunatico Inquirendo, was issued out of His Majesty's Cours of Chancery, bearing teste the twelfth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and nine, directed to certain Preamble. Commissioners therein named, to enquire of the lunacy of Samuel Hart, of Halifax, merchant; and Whereas, the - said Commission was duly executed, on the twenty-eighth day of June, before the Commissioners therein named, and thereby it was found that the said Samuel Hart was then a lunatic, and not capable of the government of himself, his messuages, lands, tenements, goods and chattles, and so had been for three weeks then last past. And Whereas, on the petition of Rebecca Hart, the wife of the said Samuel Hart, and Foster Hutchinson, and George Grassie, of Halifax, Esquires ; His Excellency the Licutenant-Governor and Chancellor, of this Province, on the third day of july, was pleased to commit the custody of the person, and the care and management of the estate of the said Samuel Hart, un to the said Rebecca Hurt, Foster Hutchinson, and George Grassie, who have given security for the fuithful discharge of the trust reposed in them. And Whereas, the said Sumuel Hart, at and before the time of his said lunacy, was, and is still, indebted to divers persons in large sums of money, which his personal estate, and the rents of his real salate, are quite insufficient to discharge, and his said ereditors threaten to institute suits at Law, and in Chancery,

An ACT to encourage the Fisheries of the Province, by granting a Bounty on the importation of Salt, and also for regulating and impofing a Duty on the exportation of the fame article.

X7 HEREAS, thewant of a regular importation of Salt, frequently causes that article to become scarce and dcar, and occasions an interruption to the fisheries, and at other times the market being overstocked, the importers suffer a loss, and are discouraged from continuing their importations ; and it is expedient to regulate the exportation of Salt, and to impose a duty on such Salt as shall hereafter be sold or exported to Foreigners or to Foreign States :

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Affembly, That whenever any Salt shall be imported into this Province after the first day of June, in the present year, from Europe, Africa, or the Wes-Indies, and the price on the fale thereof, at Auction, from the Bounty on Salt. ship in manner herein after mentioned, shall not amount to the average sum of fisteen shillings, currency, per hoghead, of common fine falt, and twenty shillings, currency, per hogshead, of coarse grained fishery salt, the owner, importer or confignce, of such salt, shall be entitled to claim and receive fuch bounty thereon, as in addition to the average price for which fuch falt shall have been sold, shall amount to the aforefaid price per hogshead of fifteen shillings for fine and twenty shillings for coarse falt. Provided always, That no bounty fo to be paid to any fuch owner, importer or confignee thereof, shall in any cafe exceed the rate of two shillings and fix-pence per hogshead on common fine, or three shillings and fix-pence per hogshead on coarfe grained fishery falt.

II. And be it further enacled, That when any ship or veffel, laden wholly or in part with falt, shall arrive in any port or place or discharge in this Province, and the owner, importer or confignee, shall be defirous to make fale thereof, and shall not be able to procure the prices herein before mentioned, for the fame, and shall intend to claim the bounty granted by this Act, fuch owner, importer or confignee, shall forthwith advertife the whole of the faid falt to be fold at public auction out of the ship, and shall fell the fame in lots of not more than five hogsheads in a lot.

III. And be it further enacted, That no perfon shall be entitled to claim for any fult fold, or to be fold, pursuant to the directions of this Act, at any out port in this Province, any greater or higher bounty than if the faid falt had been fold at the port of Halifax ; and all claims for any greater or higher bounty shall be reduced and computed according to the average fales of falt at the same time by auction at the port of Halifax; and if no fuch fale shall have taken place there at that time, then according to the average price of falt fold by auction at Halifax last before the date of the fale for which fuch bounty shall be claimed.

IV. And be it further enacled, That before any bounty shall be paid on any falt so fold as aforesaid, the perfon entitled to claim fuch bounty, shall procure from the auctioneer by whom fuch falt shall have been fold, an account of fales, fpecifying the leveral lots and parcels, the names of the purchasers, the quality or kind, and the prices of falt of the respective quantities fo fold, to which account the auctioneer shall annex and fubfcribe a certificate, under oath, that fach fale was made by him, and was a true, and fair fale of the quantities of falt, and for the prices in fuch account specified, and that the fame were the highest prices which could be procured at fuch auction: and all falt fo fold shall be meafured out of the ship by a fworn

And be it further enacled, That all Lime fold or or offered for fale, from and after the first day of May aforefaid, shall be measured and inspected, by the officer or officers, or one of them appointed for that purpole, and all Lime not fufficiently burnt, or otherwife of good and merchantable quality, shall be feized by the faid infpector, and every perfon offering for fale, or felling by the hoghead, any Lime in hogheads, that shall not contain at the least eight Winchester buchels heaped, or ninety-fix gallons, shall forfeit for every bushel of which every and each hogshead shall be deficient, the sum of ten shillings, and so in proportion for every part of a bushel, together with the hogshead or cask in which fuch lime shall be contained, which shall be feized by the faid infpector and deflroyed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That for every Thousand of Bricks actually inspected, the perfon who shall inspect the same shall receive from the seller thereof Nine Pence, and so in proportion for any smaller number; and for every Hogshead of Lime actually inspected and meafured, the perfon who shall inspect and measure the same shall receive from the feller there of Six Pence, and fo in proportion for any lefs quantity. V. And be it further enacted, That if the faid Bricks and Lime, fo feized as aforefaid, shall not exceed Two Thousand Bricks, or Thirty-two Bushels of Lime respectively; and if the deficiency of Lime fold, or offered for fale, in Hogsheads as aforesaid, shall not exceed Twenty Bushels, then, upon conviction upon the oath of one or more witness or witness, before one Justice of the Peace of the County where the offence shall happen; and if the faid Bricks or Lime shall exceed Two Thousand Bricks, or Thirty-two Bushels of Lime respectively; and if the deficiency of Lime as aforefaid shall exceed Twenty Bushels, then, upon conviction as aforefaid in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in the County where the offence shall happen, the faid Bricks and Lime respectively, so feized as aforefaid, shall be adjudged forfeited ; and the perfon who fold, or offered the fame for fale as aforefaid, shall be adjudged to pay the costs of profecution, and the perfon or perfons who fold or offered for fale as aforefaid Lime in hogsheads deficient as aforefaid, shall be adjudged to pay the penalty herein before declared thereof, together with the costs of condemnation : of all which penalties and forfeitures, one half part shall go to the infpector or infpectors, in each cafe refpectively employed, for his and their trouble and expence of storage and profecution, the remainder to the use of the poor of the County where such conviction or convictions shall happen. VI. And be it further enacted, That every thing in the Act hereby amended contained, which of the Act here- relates to the fize of Bricks, and the price of the infpection of Lime and Bricks, be repealed
