Why art thou alone, anticllowed? Is it weak, or an it woot?

Like a corpse the gristly warrior looks from out his he in of steel;
But no word he speaks in answer, only with his armed heel.
Chaides in weary steed, and onward up the city streets chaides in weary steed, and onward up the city streets. Fathers, silvers, mothers, children, shricking, praying by his side.

By the God that made thee, Randolph! tell us what mischance both come;
Then he liths his riven banner, and the asker's voice is dumb."
