

"Come back as I have, in God's mercy, from the shadows of the dark valley, I am more than ever impressed with what I owe to the good people of the Province of Ontario. They have given me an opportunity to be of some service to the State, and they have given me their confidence in full measure, filled up, pressed down, shaken together and running over again, and I thank you, my friends, whatever are your political affiliations. And with a heart full to overflowing I say: May God bless you, every one."—Sir James Whitney

WONDERFUL DEMONSTRATION ACCORDED LAST NIGHT TO PREMIER SIR JAMES WHITNEY AT TORONTO CITY

An Hour's Speech in Which People of Ontario Were Taken Into Confidence of Their Servant—A Denunciation of Rowell Tactics—Sir James Gave the Lie to Many Liberal Misrepresentations as to His Health—Preachers Have No Moral Right to Use Pulpits For Politics.

TORONTO, Ont., June 24.—Jumping to their feet with a spontaneous roar of unrestrained welcome that seemed to shake the roof of the great auditorium, with faces aflame with enthusiasm, and handkerchiefs and hats a wildly waving mass, four thousand people crowded into Massey Hall last night, greeted Sir James Whitney's first appearance on the public platform since the long illness that so nearly robbed the province of its leader.

It was a remarkable demonstration a tribute to a personality such as no public man in Canada has received in many years. As Hon. I. B. Lucas remarked, it was no ordinary political meeting. It was a reception to Sir James. For months past the people of Ontario have been told from Opposition platforms that the Prime Minister's public life was at an end, that he remained in harness merely to tide the Conservative party over another election. Last night Sir James Whitney himself gave the lie to Grit prophecies when he stepped upon the platform, hale and hearty, his stride as determined as ever, his glance as dominating as of old. His appearance was the signal for an outburst that was continued until the people were weary of cheering. The Queen's Own band broke in with "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The great crowd raised up while the band played, and then started in again with fresh vigor.

Sir James in Fine Form

If any doubt remained in the mind of the audience as to the appearance that Sir James was not back into his old fighting form, the Prime Minister's opening words dispelled it. He spoke, following a splendid rousing address by Hon. I. B. Lucas. As he stepped forward the audience again applauded with a pandemonium of applause that lasted even longer than the first demonstration.

Sir James started slowly, as if trying his strength. He chose his words deliberately and did not overstrain his voice, but in a few minutes the great audience began to sit forward with eager interest. The Prime Minister was into his stride and was speaking with his old time fire and vigor. His sentences he flung out over the auditorium with a force and conviction that carried his audience with him and literally brought them to their feet.

Never perhaps did Sir James make a greater speech. His magnetism was irresistible. His statement of the Government's position on the two chief issues of the day—temperance and bilingualism—straight from the shoulder, unequivocal, was a lesson in frankness and courage to the Liberal leader. His oration, directed with evident more than his hearers' probably more than even his more militant periods.

Sir James did not attempt to deal in detail with the varied activities of the government or the issues before the people. He referred briefly to the temperance legislation of his administration, but of the motives that he behind the introduction of the temperance issue into politics he had nothing to say, and he did not utter words in saying it.

The clergymen who have allowed themselves to be tied to the chariot wheels of the Liberal machine felt the full force of his condemnation. Amid a tremendous outburst of approval that showed how serious had been the resentment roused by clergy and politicians in the last few weeks Sir James branded as "desecrating the pulpit" the action of some ministers in using their high office to help along Grit candidates. In equally scathing terms he nailed the falsehoods in a circular issued by the Dominion Alliance.

The Prime Minister has never been so bold in announcing before the people with so great question, and in the did not depart from his usual custom. But in emphatic manner he asked himself and his government to move forward in the future, having at heart the advancement of temperance and the minimizing of the evils of the liquor traffic. That great question had never been absent from the thoughts of the cabinet during the ten years they had been in office and it never would be.

Upon the bilingual question Sir James took a clear and uncompromising stand. The policy of the government was written in the statutes and the regulations based upon the resolution adopted unanimously by the Legislature in 1911 declaring that English shall be the language of instruction in the schools of Ontario. "Upon that we shall stand or fall," he said while the audience applauded.

Hon. Adam Beck followed in an enthusiastic tribute to Sir James by outlining the future extension of the Hydro Electric system.

Cheered to Echo.

The gifted Prime Minister of Ontario was cheered to the echo when he came forward to address the vast gathering last evening, his reception being a veritable ovation.

Sir James in opening stated humorously that he came to the meeting with some curiosity as to the "gate" he would attract after an absence of a year. "I just came here to say to you that my health and strength being practically fully restored (loud applause), I am ready and desirous of proceeding with the great work in which my colleagues and I have been engaged in the interests of the people of the province."

Sir James declared there was little necessity for him to go at length into the general issues of the day, since the people of the province fully understood them and the manner in which the Government had dealt with them in the past ten years. Hon. I. B. Lucas, he said, had fully covered some of the great issues, and Sir Adam Beck, with his new honors on his shoulders, would deal with the others.

Mr. Rowell Not Fair.

Sir James declared, however, that there were a few things he wanted to say. "Since I have been in public life I have never unfairly attacked my opponent, but I regret to say that Mr. Rowell has not been so fair."

"I find that Mr. Rowell is prepared to gamble with my health to get himself into power. Standing right where the Conservatives were well aware that Sir James Whitney would never be able to lead them in the future. The Globe and the Star did not report him as saying so, but he did it. And if he denies it I can prove it. I referred to that in a newspaper interview. Since I have never been denied To-day, although he has probably been taught by somebody not to repeat the silly language of which I have spoken, he has gone about and his henchmen have gone about in every constituency in Ontario saying publicly what he dares not repeat to me. And Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King at the present time does not hesitate to repeat the language on the platform, as Mr. Rowell did here."

The mention of the former Liberal Minister's name was greeted with a wild chorus of boos and hisses.

All Pledges Fulfilled

Sir James ten briefly reviewed the Government's general record. "We made certain pledges to the people, and we have fulfilled every one of these pledges. We have carried out and performed all we promised to do," said the Prime Minister. Sir James gave statistics showing what the government had done in building up the public services, in the direction of agriculture, education, Hydro extension, and good roads. The Government had increased the expenditure, but had no apologies to offer.

"Although we have been charged with having spent large sums of money, we are not only proud of it, we say we are proud of it. And if we are kept in a position where we will have the chance we will spend more, because every dollar we spend, and every dollar we will spend in the future will be in the best interests of the people of Ontario, and no individual will ever benefit from one dollar of what belongs to the people of Ontario."

"Men from every other province of Canada, from the British dominions across the seas, from the centre of the Empire, have said to me, looking into my eyes, that the other provinces, the other British dominions across the sea, were keeping their eyes fixed on the Province of Ontario, because they are watching what we have been doing for the last ten years, to get that inspiration which enables them to do the best possible in the interests of the people whom they represent.

"That is something to be proud of and you can rely upon it, we are proud of it."

The Temperance Issue.

Sir James then proceeded to deal with the temperance issue. "We promised to do certain things in regard to the liquor traffic," he declared, "and we kept our pledges. During the ten years that question has been mentioned one way or the other there has never been a time at which the attention of the Cabinet was distracted from it. If ever ten or eleven men in this world endeavored to do all that in them they lay in reference to carrying out these pledges the members of the Government of Ontario have done it."

"They will never make a petty party cry of it. They are interested in it because they know the gigantic evils which result from the drink traffic and the drink habit. They know that as we cannot in this province have prohibition on account of the decision of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, the question is for that reason a particularly difficult one to deal with. But we went to work and the result is that instead of 2,500 liquor licenses we have 1,600."

Sir James then went on to refer to the temperance legislation of the government, instancing the removal of obstacles from the Local Option act in the way of bringing on a vote, in protecting the by-laws, and in removing objections in the courts, and the giving of authority to the Provincial Secretary to refuse licenses where local option law by a few votes.

"We have kept our faith, and I promise as we have always promised, I promise now in the future, and I think that this question shall never be let out of our sight, that from time to time, as opportunity arises we will be watchful and seize those opportunities and go further in the direction of minimizing the evils of the liquor traffic."

"Our opponents do not talk about our record. In fact one of the Liberal candidates in this city said that he admitted the truth of everything the Government candidate said about the good work done by this Government. The only question about which they talk is the liquor question. They do not talk about me. It was not always so. I was attacked more or less bitterly right and left. Why do they not attack me now?"

"They can't do it," shouted an enthusiast.

"Well, whatever the reason," went on the Prime Minister, amid applause. "It is a great compliment to me. Because when it gives you a pleasant ticklish sensation to have friends compliment you, how much more satisfactory it is when praise comes from men who would like to see you buried ten miles underground. Probably if they have patience they will have me there some day."

"But now with a blare and flare of trumpets they are trying to get a snap verdict on 'Banish the bar', 'Banish the bar' and 'hold up the jug.'"

Meeting the Liberal leader's assertion that there were only a few municipalities in which there were shop licenses, Sir James declared that there were only a few municipalities now in which there were any licenses.

Bottle in the Pocket.

"But I want," he said, "to read you a letter I received a few days ago from a woman who has found from bitter experience what those evils are."

IS SILENT ON HIS $50,000 SOO GRAB

Rowell Makes No Mention of It in His Address at Stratford.

STRATFORD, June 24.—Newton Wesley Rowell addressed a meeting last night in the opera house. The Liberal leader followed exactly the lines of his campaign speeches elsewhere, maintaining a strict silence on the bilingual question and his $50,000 Soo fee.

The Liberal candidates for North and South Perth spoke briefly. Mr. D. K. Erb criticizing Sir James Whitney for not bringing in legislation to follow up his "abolish the treating" policy.

Mr. R. S. Robertson agreed with Mr. Rowell on the bilingual matter. He also claimed to have worked for hydro electric in Stratford.

E. J. Smith presided and a motion of thanks was carried to Mr. Rowell, fathered by Rev. Dr. Hughson and Mr. Wm. Preston.

SUNDAY SELLING VANCOUVER, B. C., June 24.—Twelve charges of selling goods on Sunday contrary to the Lord's Day Act, have been dismissed by Magistrate Shaw, acting on a recent decision of Justice McPhillips in the Court of Appeals where it was stated it was unlawful to sell bread, as it was necessary food "I cannot differentiate between bread and fruit," declared Mr. Shaw.

ENQUIRY AT QUEBEC IS NEARLY FINISHED

Statements of Divers Conflict--Witness Today Told of Exploit in Merely a Matter of Fact way--The Evidence

[By Special Wire to the Courier] QUEBEC, June 25.—An account of the present condition of the Empress of Ireland by Wilfred Whitehead, the diver from H. M. S. Essex, who examined her and was sent down to rescue the American diver, Edward Cossoon, who died after being brought up formed the most attractive part of the testimony submitted at this morning's session of the Dominion wreck enquiry. Whitehead, a man of most modest demeanor, did not describe the thrilling exploit when he brought up Cossoon and only referred to it casually in answer to a question. His evidence consisted for the most part of the result of his examination of the hull and surprise was created when he said that he saw no port holes open which contradicts the statement of the dead diver. The Essex diver also had no trouble with currents and tide waves as the American diver seems to have had. The hull he said was pointed northeast and the side lying on an angle of sixty degrees.

The evidence of those present on the Empress and Stordstad before and after the collision now appears to have been completed and only the technical testimony of naval experts will address the commission which expects to have completed the enquiry by Friday night.

A splendid tribute to the skill and courage of Gunner McDermott, a diver on H. M. S. Essex, who risked his life when he went down to get Edward Cossoon, the American diver who died from injuries received while walking on the hull of the Empress of Ireland after being brought to the top by the Gunner, was paid by Geo. Washington Weatherpoon, the sale of the Empress was called. He said that he had heard the Empress blow some fog signal before she reached Father Point.

"Did you hear her blow any after leaving Father Point?" "Yes." "What was the first one you heard then?" "Three short blasts."

"Do you remember you did hear some signal blown by the Empress before you heard the three short blasts?" "Yes."

Mr. Haight asked him if it was not true that in a statement signed shortly after the collision.

Mr. Weatherpoon said that McDermott's skill and courage were quite worthy of the splendid traditions of the British admiralty service to which he belonged.

Lord Mersey informed Edmund L. Newcombe, K. C., acting for the Dominion Government that the divers from the Essex who had been down to the wreck were at the disposal of the court.

Chief Justice McLeod asked whether independent evidence on the course the Empress took after leaving Father Point was not available and Mr. Newcombe promised to attempt to secure it.

George Harrison, a steward, testified to attempting to close a sliding watertight door on the upper deck, but being unable to do so, owing to the water in the passage-way. He said that all cabin portholes were closed at the time of the disaster, but some portholes in the cross passages were open. The cabin doors were not fastened.

Lord Mersey said that he himself always kept his cabin door fastened, and his stateroom porthole open, and he had presumed there were other passengers like him.

Cross-examined, Harrison said that he attempted to close the watertight door when he heard the Empress' siren. The port holes were always closed at night.

Leonard Powell, an assistant steward, said that he aroused the passengers after the crash and told them to put on their life belts and come up on deck. He was on duty on the upper and lower promenade decks.

Certified copies of the ship's papers, her passenger and immigration papers and the regulations governing life belts, boats and rafts were then filed.

Alex. Radley, the boatswain mate of the Empress was called. He said that he had heard the Empress blow some fog signal before she reached Father Point.

"Did you hear her blow any after leaving Father Point?" "Yes."

"What was the first one you heard then?" "Three short blasts."

"Do you remember you did hear some signal blown by the Empress before you heard the three short blasts?" "Yes."

Mr. Haight asked him if it was not true that in a statement signed shortly after the collision.

Mr. Weatherpoon said that McDermott's skill and courage were quite worthy of the splendid traditions of

SAVED LIVES ON BOARD WRECKAGE

But it Required a Super-human Effort to Reach the Gotthard on the Rocks

[By Special Wire to the Courier] HUGHTOWN, Scilly Islands, June 14.—The saving of the passengers of the wrecked Belgian Steamer Gotthard was attended by almost super-human efforts on the part of the officers and crew of the steamer and by the life saving boats' crews which came to the rescue when she went ashore on the Grim Rocks yesterday.

Members of the life saving crew from St. Mary's describe the scene as awful, when one of the Gotthard's small boats crammed with passengers and seamen, broke away from the debris and fell thirty feet into the sea. The bottom of the boat was smashed by its violent contact with the waves and all were thrown into the water. Most of the passengers who had occupied the boat were women and children and they struggled helplessly in the waves. A quartermaster of the Gotthard sprang from the steamer's deck and succeeded in saving three of the women.

Several of the life saving crew also jumped into the water and handed drowning children to their companions in the rescue boat until all had been saved.

Meanwhile a heavy sea rendered all salvage work perilous, but eventually all were got safely ashore.

The crew of the Gotthard, which was on the voyage from Montreal to Rotterdam again went on board today to jettison some of her cargo of grain in the hope of lightening her sufficiently to enable her to be refloated.

Women's Institute

The Terrace Hill and Grand View Woman's Institute held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. James Willis, St. George street on Monday. After the opening exercises, Mrs. Howard sang a solo, entitled, "Come Back to Erin." Mrs. Bayles the president, thanked the members for their help in making the past year a success both financially and socially. None had shirked but had done their part willingly and well.

Miss Smilie, B. A., Government delegate next gave an address on "Home Nursing," and it can be said that all present received a great deal of useful knowledge. She laid much stress on fresh air and sunshine as health tonic.

At the close of the lecture, Mrs. J. Laing gave a piano solo and Mrs. Joyce an impromptu address. This brought the programme to a close.

At the request of Mrs. Willis the ladies tarried for a social chat and refreshments.

Brant Ave. Mission Garden Party

The Brant Avenue Mission Circle held a very successful garden party at the residence of Dr. Britton on Dufferin Avenue last night. The lawn presented a gay and pretty scene with the festoons swinging mildly to the breeze. Bunting and flags served to give a national setting to the grounds upon which many visitors trod during the day. Music was provided by a splendid Victrola and a piano skilfully played by Miss Kitty O'Reilly and Mr. Lloyd Dymont, added to the joyousness of the affair. Miss Hilda Hurley sang in her usual fascinating manner, while Rev. Lavell once again shone as an entertainer. The girls of the circle looked very pretty with their flower hat scheme. Many good foodstuffs were served up and were artfully disposed of by the many merry-makers.

FOUND GUILTY AS A BIGAMIST

Robert Curley, Indian Who Married Brantford Girl, Tried Yesterday.

HAMILTON, June 24.—A case of more than a charge of bigamy against Robert Curley, 40 years of age, who went through a form of marriage with Emily Parsons, a twenty-year-old girl, of Winona, at the residence of the Rev. P. W. Philpott, 57 Mountain avenue, on April 27, 1913. The prisoner pleaded not guilty and was represented by C. W. Bell.

Lillian Curley, of Oakville, testified she was the prisoner's lawful wife she having married him at Brantford on August 14, 1896, at the parsonage of the Rev. Mr. Hutchinson. She charged that he never supported her regularly, and said she was forced to live with her parents a great part of her married life.

Mr. Bell, prisoner's counsel, interposed an objection at this juncture, and claimed that the exhibit submitted by the crown, was only an extract from the original marriage certificate and therefore could not be entered.

Emily Parsons, the girl in the case, is an attractive maid. She was dressed in a simple white frock of plain make, and looked becoming in a large Panama hat, trimmed with black velvet and roses. With tears dimming her eyes, she quietly told of how she had met the prisoner at a cafe in this city in February of 1913. They were married the following April.

The Rev. Mr. Philpott confirmed the marriage, and Judge Moneck then rendered his decision. He found prisoner guilty, but Mr. Bell made a motion for a remand, as he desires a stated case on the point he raised.

Recital at the Conservatory

A rare treat in musical entertainment was the undergraduates' recital given in the assembly hall of the Conservatory of Music last evening. This was the second of the three evenings of the year's training in music. The last will be given on Thursday evening of this week, when the senior recital will be put on.

The hall was well filled last evening by friends and admirers of the pupils who had come to witness the recital of the year's training in music. The work of the pupils last evening was certainly most admirable, not only as regards expression, but technique as well. The interpretation of many of the old German classic pieces by the artists was all that could be desired.

The program was all instrumental except vocal numbers by Miss E. Fish. Aid. Broadbent acted as chairman and introduced the program with a few remarks, in which he praised the high standards adopted by the Brantford Conservatory of Music and insisted on the high quality of the program.

NO PEACHES FROM NIAGARA DISTRICT

Dominion Government Packing Demonstrator Says Crop is Failure

INGERSOLL, June 24.—Housewives and others who have been in the habit of purchasing peaches grown in the Niagara District will receive with disappointment the statement of Mr. P. J. Carey, Dominion Government packing and orchard demonstrator, that the crop there is a failure.

"There will be no peaches, absolutely none," he said, in discussing the conditions in the peninsula. "This state of affairs, however was not general. Mr. Carey stated that he recently inspected orchards in that district and found that they had been robbed of fruit prospects by the cold weather during the winter. The particularly disastrous period in the month of February, when a mild spell was followed by cold weather. This state of affairs, however was not general. Mr. Carey said, for in Essex there was every indication of an average yield of peaches. In that district, however there were not so many orchards, consequently there will not be enough fruit to make up for the shortage elsewhere.

Other fruits Mr. Carey stated, would be fairly plentiful. The apple prospects were bright and there would be plenty of plums and cherries, he stated. Mr. Carey made a trip through nearby districts yesterday, where considerable spraying has been done for several seasons with every beneficial result.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept her locks youthful, dark, glossy and thick with common garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and tiresome. For 50 cents you can get at any drug store the real, permanent tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy." You just dip a sponge or soft brush with it and rub it through your hair, taking a small strand at a time. By doing another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened and luxuriant. You will also find dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though it may be a sign of old age, and may all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy. The choice of the younger years younger. Agent T. J. Nilsen, Brantford.

HON. S. H. BLAKE DEAD
 Eminent Counsel and Anglican Layman Passes.

Lawyer, Churchman and Educationist was Seventy-Nine Years Old and Had Been Ailing For Some Time—Known From Sea to Sea For Sterling Qualities and Vigor of Opinions.

TORONTO, June 24.—The Hon. Samuel Hume Blake, K.C., distinguished lawyer, churchman and educationist, passed away early yesterday at his residence, 46 Maple avenue. Deceased was 79 years old and had been in poor health for the past few months. Yesterday he took a turn for the worse, and owing to his advanced age, his physicians held out little hope for his recovery. His family were, therefore, notified and remained at the bedside until the end.

The late Mr. Blake was a brother of the late Hon. Edward Blake, M.P., and was senior member of the legal firm of Blake, Lash, Anglin & Cassels.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon, following service at St. Paul's Church at 3:30 o'clock. The interment will be private, and the family have made a request that no flowers be sent.

Born in Toronto in 1835, S. H. Blake was educated at Upper Canada College and Toronto University, grad-

Workers in the Lone Lands
 At some of the meetings to be held during the next fortnight there will be demonstrations of the way in which native music has been adapted to the Army's work. Negroes from the Southern States will sing old negro songs with their clear, melodious voices, such as "Good-by, old Pharaoh," the New Zealanders will sing Maori choruses with an accompaniment of gesture and facial play that suggests a war dance.

The work of the loneliest workers will be presented in officer who spends all his time with the natives nearly always within the Arctic circle. Almost as lonely are those working in the leper settlements in Java. Among them is Staff-Captain Hyde, formerly lecturer at Copenhagen University, a medical man and an eye specialist, who has come to London after seven years' work among the lepers.

Many interesting phases of work are represented by the American delegates. In one of the prisons there formed a Salvation Army corps. A well-conducted convict corps. A major, and the governor and chaplain are soldiers. A woman officer is deputy-sheriff of Walla Walla county, in the State of Washington, her special duty being the care of women and children. With the brass band from Flint (Michigan) comes the adjutant's wife, who is a police matron, and Colonel Gifford, a Boston detective, is a justice of the peace.

This Saturday there is to be a great march from the Embankment to Hyde Park, where meetings will be held around twelve platforms. Other congress arrangements include an all-day demonstration at the Crystal Palace on Tuesday, June 23, an all-night prayer at Clapton Congress Hall, beginning at 11 p.m. on Thursday, June 25, and the concluding meeting at the Albert Hall on Friday, June 26.

"I could find situations at £3 to £7 a month for 100 applicants in one week," said a woman delegate from one of the Far West cities, "but they were hard to find, and to know how to house-work really well, and to cook and do laundry work."

"Not with all those crowds of women we see every day and everywhere?" she exclaimed, in amazement, when told that maid-servants were needed at home, and that it was hard to find anyone who took a real interest in domestic duties.

Women under the red hats find that the work they are called to do for the Salvation Army differs not at all in the States and in England. They have to be ready to go down into the SETS HAY ALIGHT.

 Four-Year-Old Boy Perishes and Mother Is Burned.

TORONTO, June 24.—Four-year-old Tommy Taylor of 163 Shanley street, was burned to death and his mother badly injured in attempting a rescue, in a fire which destroyed the stables of R. G. Bainbridge of 165 Shanley street at five o'clock yesterday afternoon. According to the information in the hands of the police the unfortunate child, along with another, lighted some hay in a stable. The child was unable to climb back to safety and was almost instantly succumbed by the flames which immediately shot to the roof of the stable.

Mrs. Taylor saw the flames almost immediately and rushed to the stable to rescue her child, but her efforts were in vain.

Floods in China.
 LONDON, June 24.—Cablegrams from China report devastation by flood involving thousands of lives. The damage to property and crops is estimated at more than $5,000,000 around the West river.

The towns submerged include Sunshou, Dosing, Takhing, Shuhing, Samsuhl, Kumchuk, Kowloon, and Wushing. The railroad between Samsuhl and Canton is also under water.

GREAT SALVATION COUNCIL OF WAR

Over 2,000 Delegates From Ends of the Earth—Under the Red Hat.

General Bramwell Booth presides over one of the most remarkable gatherings in the history of the world. Salvation Army soldiers from the uttermost ends of the earth have come to the Congress in the Albert Hall. There will be 2,100 delegates from over the seas and over 3,000 from the United Kingdom.

During the week the curiosity of Londoners in the central thoroughfares has been piqued by the sight of beak-faces of men and women, white and coloured, in red hats—like a Turkish fez without the tassel. They are Salvationists from the West, seven hundred in number, recruited from the cities and wilds of the United States and even from remote Hawaii.

From other countries have come officers and workers in native costumes—cool white robes from the East, and the picturesque gala dresses of European peasantry. They have come from frozen North and tropic South, from lonely outposts of prayer and healing beyond the frontiers of law and trade, and it seems a far cry from the day when one man stood alone almost in East London and drummed the earliest recruits into the Army.

The army of overseas Salvationists will march into the Albert Hall with bands playing and banners flying in a body such as London has never seen before. They come from fifty-eight countries and speak thirty-four languages.

They include twelve natives of South Africa, among them being a Zulu warrior, a witch doctor, a rickshaw boy, and a Red Blanket Kaffir; twenty natives of India, including a devil dancer and members of a criminal tribe; Japanese, in native costumes, with an array of bamboo instruments; negroes from the United States; Salvation cowboys from Canada; South Americans in the costumes of Argentina, Uruguay, Chili, and Peru; the crew of the Salvation Army lifeboat Catherine; Booth, which was frozen in the Norwegian waters; Newfoundland delegates in blue jerseys with a white seal on the breast; delegates from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, etc. in picturesque peasant costumes; and Icelanders in native dress.

Land Values in Brantford Are Increasing Steadily

This is proven by reference to our record of sales, which is kept in a book for the purpose. Every deal we make, whether it be a small lot or valuable store, mill or factory, is entered in this book, giving date and amount.

On looking over our record we find that—

Eight years ago we sold vacant land on Lorne Crescent at $25 per foot. NOW WORTH $60 PER FT.

Eight years ago we sold lots in the Hunt Survey at $1 to $3 per ft. NOW WORTH $3 TO $7 PER FT.

Seven years ago we sold lots in Stevenson Survey at $2.50 per ft. NOW WORTH $5 PER FT.

Six years ago we sold lots on Dufferin Ave. at $20 per ft. NOW WORTH $60 PER FT.

Five years ago we sold lots in Parkdale at $3.50 per ft. NOW WORTH $10 PER FT.

Five years ago we sold lots in the Robinson Survey at $3 per ft. NOW WORTH FROM $5 TO $6 PER FT.

We have sold and are selling lots in Prospect Park at $3 and $5.50 per ft. We expect values to increase in Prospect Park, and that history will repeat itself. We shall be glad to furnish buyers with plans and price lists. Write or call. Terms—$10 down, $5 monthly.

CATARRH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION

Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption.

THE BARBER His customer in muslin garbing, the skilful barber does his barbering your hair, removes your walrus, or the palm and patient always he cuts your hair, removes your walrus, or trims your hair, the dandy! A man like that would come in handy when weddings are in style! Some say the barber man is chronic in his desire to sell his tonic or stuff for growing hair. But that is a fable old and ditty the modern barber's still and busy when you are in his chair, I've never had a barber here me, when he was busy he was shaving me, with razor and with shears; he simply mows the vegetation, and leaves the silver toned oration for siffs and auctioneers. The barber's hand is most caressing, his scented lotion is a blessing, his bay rum hits the spot; the barber's chair is good and restful, and he should have an oaken chest full of roubles and a yacht.

Strawberry Festival. The Girls' Chancel Guild were the promoters of a fine strawberry festival, held in the open, at St. James church last night. The grounds were handsomely decorated, and among those who were present at the festivities were Rev. H. A. Wright, Rev. Rural Dean Saunders and the Rev. Mr. Light, the new rector of St. Paul's church. The girls made a great success through their diligent efforts, and their ices, cooking and fruits were well praised. A very neat sum in the vicinity of twenty-five dollars was realized.

County Court. The County Court yesterday adjourned for two days and will resume sittings to-morrow morning before Judge Hardy. The action of the Brantford Exterior House Cleaning Company for excess of rent charged by The Wright, Hazard Company for the use of a machine, was heard. The defendant company admitted an overcharge, and claimed the Cleaning Co. asked excessive overcharge. Judgment was given for complainant to the amount of $350 in place of the $300 claimed.

Obituary. Late Mrs. Eliza Ellison. A venerable and well respected citizen of Brantford passed away yesterday in the person of Mrs. Eliza Ellison, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Fred Howarth, the fireman who had recently the misfortune to lose his son in a drowning fatality. It is eighty years ago since Mrs. Ellison was born in Ireland, and in spite of her great age she was active almost up to the time of her last illness. The unfortunate blow which descended upon the family seemed to have made a deep impression upon the old lady, for she never fully recovered from the shock of little John's death.

There is a large family left to mourn the sad loss of five sons and four daughters. They are, Jim, of Wayburn, Sask., Bert of Toronto, Fred of Port Oregon, Tom of Charlton, Sask., and John of Millland, Ont. The daughters are, Liza, of Todale, Sask., Mrs. Will McDaniel, of Winnipeg, Mrs. Howarth of Brantford and Mrs. Sam Leggett of Garden Hill, Ont.

The funeral has been arranged for to-morrow at two o'clock to Mount Hope cemetery, and the pall bearers will be the four sons, Mr. Howarth and Mr. Greiner.

A very large number of friends express their deep sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. Howarth in this their second sad bereavement.

A FINE GIFT

Altar Frontals Given to St. James Church by Miss Mary Petrie.

The Chancel of St. James' Church has been enriched by three handsome altar frontals, the splendid gift of Miss Mary Petrie president of the Girls Chancel Guild of the church. The frontals are elegantly worked in gold upon a background of green, the church colour for the Trinity season. They form a splendid addition to the interior of the edifice and the Rev. H. A. Wright has expressed his keen appreciation of the gift, which will be highly valued by all members of the congregation.

AN AUTO SMASH-UP

Two Cars Both Tried to Avoid Horse and Rig With Serious Results.

An auto smashup occurred last evening, shortly before 6 o'clock, at the corner of King and Dalhousie street, when a car driven by Mr. G. A. Elliott, coming up Dalhousie street, jammed into another car coming up King street and driven by Mrs. McEahan. Both drivers attempted to avoid a horse and rig that was crossing the corner, the result that both cars collided with considerable force. Quite a crowd gathered, but luckily none of the occupants were injured, though both cars were badly crippled.

A NASTY MISHAP

Mr. Thomas Raines Fell From Watrous Office Window Monday Evening.

Thomas Raines, the well known poultry fancier and employee of the Watrous Company was the victim of a nasty mishap on Monday evening in which he sustained a broken ankle.

Mr. Raines was engaged in one of the office windows on the second storey when his support gave way and he fell a distance of 25 feet to the ground. That his injury was not more serious was very fortunate. As it is he will be laid up for several weeks.

PERSONAL MARRIAGE LICENSES issued; no witnesses required. A. S. Pitcher, 43 Market St. P-1-C

after the accident he had said that he had heard the Empress blow one long blast. The witness said he had said so, the one blast meaning the ship was under way.

He saw the Stordstad before the accident both her mast head lights and the side lights. The red was the one he saw first, he thought. He recalled hearing two long blasts from the Empress indicating that she was stopped.

Lord Mersey took exception to the introduction of this evidence so late in the case. Mr. Haight said he had examined five per cent. possibly of the statements made by the boat's crew to the C.P.R. lawyers and that he had had no thought he should ask for a look at the rest of the evidence. He recognized that there would be much in it that was distinctly between the lawyers and their clients. Mr. Aspinall said that he regretted that he could not offer some of the statements to Mr. Haight.

A long discussion ensued as to whether there was in existence any other evidence which was relevant to the enquiry. Mr. Aspinall said that the only point not touched on already in the investigation was the suggestion by one of the Empress men that the lookout man on the liner's stem was in the proper position before the collision. This one man said he thought the man had been washing the decks. Another man said that he had ordered his crew to do so.

Mr. Haight said that he attached no importance to this point as with the night foggy and men in the Empress crew's nest on the bridge, the situation seemed to have been completely safeguarded.

Lord Mersey then asked both Mr. Aspinall and Mr. Haight if they were conscious of any other information that should be given to the court and both replied that they were not.

Lord Mersey said he did not want it to be suggested at a later date that anything had been kept back if it was the slightest importance. He made sure that the statements of the Empress crew in regard to the looking out man were read.

By Mr. Aspinall, Mr. Haight offered the Stordstad owners had on the wreck-look both Chief Justice McLeod and Lord Mersey agreed that the man was not required as it might prejudice the civil suit over the responsibility of the wreck.

As the assurance was again given by both Mr. Aspinall and Mr. Haight that any other witnesses available could submit nothing new or relevant to the investigation the matter was dropped.

Moustaches Must be Worn

(By Special Wire to The Courier) MONTREAL, June 24.—A Paris cable to the Daily Mail says:

The following order to his regiment has been posted by a colonel of Chasseurs on the eastern frontier:

"The colonel caught eight this morning of Trooper X—who had shaved off his moustache. This is unworthy of a Chasseur. One cannot have too much hair on one's face in cavalry. All leave will be refused to Trooper X—until his moustache has grown again."

The colonel requests his captains to take severe measures against the "effeminate fashion, which is utterly out of place in the army."

Rousing Rally at Bellview For Westbrook

The meeting held at the Bellview school house last night in the interests of John Westbrook, Conservative candidate in North Brant, was a great success. There was a large crowd present and stirring addresses were made by the candidate, W. F. Cocksbutt, M.P., James Scafe and Harvey Clement. It was one of the best meetings yet held by Mr. Westbrook, and was strongly indicative of a big vote for Westbrook and continued good government so far as Bellview electors are concerned. Mr. Cocksbutt, speaking on the stand taken by the ministers in the election and showed plainly that when the pulpit talks politics it is, open to criticism the same as the political stump. Harvey Clement made a great speech, his humorous remarks keeping the audience in roars of laughter and applause.

Important Changes On the Grand Trunk

A change has been made in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway between Chicago and Montreal, that will be very advantageous to those travelling to and from Brantford. The International Limited, westbound from Montreal, which leaves Montreal at 9 a.m., reaching Detroit at 9.55 the same day is to have a sister service in the opposite direction. It will be served between here and Toronto.

Chicago at 5.45 p.m. daily arriving in Detroit at 11 p.m., at Brantford 7.05 a.m., and Toronto at 8.35 a.m. This will give Brantford people a splendid service between this city and Toronto for this train will not stop at Hamilton, but will take the Junction Cut, and go straight through to Toronto. The train will pick up the dining coach here dropped off the 8.19 express the night before and breakfast will be served between here and Toronto.

Local News THE PROBS

TORONTO, June 24.—A shallow depression which developed during yesterday now comes to the upper lake region, while pressure is nowhere much above the normal. The weather has been for the most part everywhere fair, except that some scattered showers have been experienced in all the provinces.

Forecasts. Moderate southerly to westerly winds, thunderstorms in most places but partly fair and decidedly warm. Thursday—Fair and somewhat cooler.

Must Cut Weeds. The City Sanitary officials wish to warn all citizens that now that the weed season is at hand that noxious weeds must not be allowed to go to seed on any private or public property and that it is contrary to the statutes of Ontario to allow them to do so.

Valuable Bulldog Recovered. While at camp at Niagara, Lieut.-Colonel Nelles lost a valuable thoroughbred bulldog, and he had given up hopes of its recovery. He was pleased, however, to hear that the animal had been recovered at Niagara by Caretaker Matthews of the Burlington camp, and he has wired his thanks to the finder.

Alexandra Party. Many young people and not a few elders gathered last night at the residence of Mrs. Balfour on Northumberland St. last night on the occasion of a pretty garden party. Refreshments of all kinds were in evidence and the effort which was given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of Alexandra Church, was very successful. Music was provided by Victoria and piano while the military band playing in the Alexandra Park also contributed.

A Presentation. A very pleasing ceremony took place on Tuesday at the Brantford Starch Works when Mr. Roy Butler was presented with a very handsome clock by the employees on the occasion of his marriage with Miss A. Morrison. Mr. T. Paton read an address, after which Miss Rose Hughes made the presentation. Mr. Butler said he was no speech maker, but thanked them all heartily on behalf of his wife and himself. He afterwards received many good wishes for his future happiness.

Peace Centenary. Clerk Leonard has written the chairman and presidents of the different boards and organizations in the city asking them to appoint representatives to attend a meeting to be held in the Council Chamber on Thursday, July 2nd at 8 p.m., in connection with the Canadian Peace Centenary Association. The object of the meeting is to organize for the purpose of holding a demonstration in this city sometime during 1915, to celebrate the 100 years of peace between Canada and the United States. Brantford has been chosen by the Canadian Peace Centenary Association as one of the points in which celebrations will be held. The meeting will be addressed by E. H. Scammell, organizing secretary of the Canadian Peace Centenary Association.

If you endorse the Workington's Compensation Act, vote for Brewster or Westbrook.

CANDIDATE'S NOTICE

Brantford, June 22nd, 1914. To Thomas S. Wade, Returning Officer, South Brant: I hereby appoint Arthur Edward Watts, of the City of Brantford, Barrister-at-Law, as my official Agent for the Election to be held in South Brant on June 29th, 1914, pursuant to the statutes in that behalf.

WONDERFUL DEMONSTRATION ACCORDED TO PREMIER SIR JAMES WHITNEY AT TORONTO

Sir James then read the letter following... "The N. W. Rowell people are talking about abolishing the bar. I think if you, Sir James Whitney people, would bring out a law to abolish the bottle in the pocket and under the pillow, up the lanes, where men are allowed to buy bottles of liquor, carry it around in their pockets to be drunk always. They buy dollar bottles of whiskey and are drunk going to sleep and the first thing when they open their eyes. I think there should be a law to prohibit men from buying liquor that way..."

this homely testimony to the fallacy of Mr. Rowell's "abolish the bar" protestations by reading from a speech made by Sir George Ross in 1903 in moving an amendment on the Marter Bill, in which the then Prime Minister declared that, while the bar was bad enough, it was not as bad as "the canteen in the private home."

Open Falsehood. "A few days ago I found this circular in the entrance of my home. It is signed Ben. H. Spence, secretary, and Canon—yes, Canon—R. W. E. Greene, president of the Dominion Alliance—two clergymen. And I say here, having regard to my reputation, and inviting denial or contradiction, that there isn't a single statement in that paper with reference to the action of the Whitney Government on this great question that doesn't contain a suggestion of falsehood. There is open falsehood and suppression of the truth, and there is a suggestion of falsehood. A proper description to apply to every statement there in relation to the action of the Whitney Government is that there is a suggestion of falsehood—even though it is signed by two distinguished and eminent men whose occupation is the cure of the soul.

of traitors is a vote for the tyrant of Toronto. "Behind the tyrant" said Sir James, amid laughter. "Is not Mr. Rowell intensely elusive? When you put your thumb on him he is not there? Sir James had the suggestion of the French-Canadian Education Association. That body proposed that in schools where all or nearly all the pupils are of French origin, the French language shall be the language of communication and instruction, and besides the thorough teaching of French, English shall be taught; that in schools of two rooms French and English pupils be grouped in separate rooms; that in schools of one room, pupils of French origin shall form a separate section.

Government Firm. "They asked us to divide the Public and Separate school," said Sir James, "and our answer was: 'The proposed circular departs from the principles laid down by unanimous resolution of the Legislature that the English language be the language of communication and instruction for the pupils in the Public and Separate schools, except where, in the opinion of the chief inspector, that is impracticable because of the pupils' lack of knowledge of English. This circular, on the contrary, proposes that in schools where all or nearly all are of French origin, French shall be the language of communication and instruction. It also proposes that French pupils and English pupils be placed in separate rooms or sections. This would set up a third system of instruction in the province not permitted under the school law, and one, moreover, in opposition to the declared policy of the Legislature.'"

Softball The G. S. and M. Softball team went down to defeat last evening before the Ham and Nott team at Recreation Park, the latter team winning out 7 to 6. Symons and Sears formed the battery for the Ham and Nott team and McQuinn and Dowling for the G. S. and M. The game was never finished as the crowd rushed onto the field in the 9th innings and stopped the game, the Umpires getting completely balled up and not knowing even enough either to call the game or continue it. The players left the field and the game was finished with the final score 7 to 6 in favor of the Ham and Nott team.

UNION FIGHT ENDS FATALLY Dynamite Blasts and Revolver Shots Kept Up All Night. [By Special Wire to the Courier] BUTTE, Mont., June 24.—One man was shot and killed, one was fatally wounded, another seriously hurt and property valued at $700,000 was destroyed by dynamite, during the rioting which occurred last night at the Butte miners union hall by the factions of the union. Dozens of shots were fired and more than twenty blasts of dynamite were set off during the night. The city early to-day was quiet, but Governor Stewart at Helena, was preparing to issue a call for state troops to prevent further disorders here between the warring miners. Many armed deputies were at the hall last night to preserve order at a meeting called to discuss plans for bringing about a settlement of the differences between the factions in the union. Large numbers of the seceders from the Western Federation of Miners, who have planned to form a new union under the auspices of the Industrial Workers of the World were near the hall. The insurgents stormed the hall and Sheriff Driscoll's deputies fired several shots into the air to drive back the crowd, but the shots had no effect. The crowd pushed on and when the deputies fired a volley to kill, Ernest Noye, travelling inspector for the Montana Demurrage Bureau fell dead. Two others were wounded. The shooting caused the insurgents to retreat, but soon they returned with dynamite which they exploded under the union hall. The front of practically every building in the block, of which the Miners Hall was the centre, was wrecked by the continuous charges of explosives set off by the insurgent miners. Hundreds of persons were struck by showers of flying glass, which rained down upon the heads of people packed on the sidewalk in every time a blast was set off. Dynamite did not cease until after midnight, after more than a score of blasts had been exploded and the federation hall practically demolished, the walls in front and back having been blown out and the roof caved to the ground. Leaders of the new union with their lieutenants, spent most of the time urging their men to retire to their homes. The whereabouts of Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, who fled from the miners hall when the firing began last night, is a matter of conjecture. He got into an automobile and was rapidly driven away. There was a report that he had taken refuge in the county jail, but Sheriff Driscoll denied this, offering to conduct a searching party through the prison. The belief prevailed that Moyer and other federation officials have left town. President Michael McDonald of the new Butte Miners Union said: "I don't care to make an official statement which would in any way place the blame for last night's occurrence. It was not done with our knowledge or consent, and it was not in our power to prevent it. The first shot was fired by the Western Federationists. I do not know whether they intended to kill that poor fellow. I hope they did not, but they were responsible for what happened."

Sir James' Peroration. "I would like to express my thanks and my appreciation of the kindly sympathy of which I was the object during my recent illness. From political friends and political opponents alike. It says a good deal for the human nature of the people that they did not allow politics to influence their words in this distinctly human matter. My words were limited and not fitting to express the thoughts, which come and come back as I have, in God's mercy, from the shadows of the dark valley continued Sir James with evident emotion. "I am more than ever impressed with what I owe to the good people of the Province of Ontario. They have given me an opportunity to be of some service to the state, and they have given me their confidence in full measure, filled up, pressed down, shaken together and running over, and as long as my health and strength endure I shall endeavor to give them the same faithful service as in the past. I thank them again and I thank you, my friends, whatever are your political affiliations. And with a heart full of overflowing, I say: "May God bless you, every one."

GIRL'S PICTURE AGITATES DELHI

It Drops From Mayor Walker's Pocket as he Talks.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The Telegraph's dispatch from Delhi, Texas, this week follows: Mayor Cyrus Perkins Walker of this made an address before the Women's Betterment league last night and it brought him a world of trouble. The mayor was speaking on "Preserve the Home." The hall was rather warm and at one point he pulled out his handkerchief to mop his brow. A photograph came with it, and Mrs. Jeremiah Schultz, wife of the mayor's most active political enemy, picked it up. She glanced at it and handed it to Mrs. Elias Simpkin, who was presiding. The latter took a look at the picture and said: "I think we have heard enough of the mayor's ideas on preserving the home." "Why?" asked Mrs. Walker, wife of the executive. "Look at that," said Mrs. Simpkin. She handed the picture to Mrs. Walker and the mayor's wife took one look and swooned. Across it was written: "Your own Mac singing 'Hitchie Koo.'" The photograph bore the imprint of a New York gallery. Mayor Walker grabbed the picture. "Anemity put that in my pocket," he said angrily. "It is a plant. I shall find the guilty one." He left the hall accompanied by Constable Brown. The first man they met was Old Lige Woolley, an anti-Walker Democrat. The mayor ordered Constable Brown to arrest Woolley. A fight ensued in which Brown was knocked down four times. He succeeded in subduing Woolley however, by biting him on the feet. The mayor says he intends to prosecute Woolley to the limit. "I am certain he is the guilty party," he said later. "If not, why are he loitering near the hall?" Woolley says he never saw the photograph before in all his life. The anti-Walker Democrats are slyly pointing at the mayor and saying, "More results of his New York visit!" Mrs. Walker declares she must have a full explanation or she will go to her father's ranch and remain there all summer. The incident has set the whole town talking. There is much indignation. When the election is over the howl from the worldly-minded section of the Grit party against the divines section will be more shocking than ever. English or French as the language of instruction in Ontario's schools? A vote for Brewster or Westbrook means that you favor English.

With the City Police

A comedy was enacted at the court this morning when John Johnson charged her brother with assault. Both are colored people. Looking none the worse, alleged battering and present robust appearance, she exclaimed she and other women, such as woman will, had decreed that a poor mortal. There were people in the world, she said without cousins. As this referred to Herbert, he taxed it one night and becoming struck her, and of this she explained.

Herbie, as she affectionately called him, gave another version of the affair, and denied her tale in plainness, but admitted the spouse was his cousin. He said the controversy started with a white man and his wife. Here she defended herself, that she was 'no common' and that she had worked for him in a store before and after his wife. She was not ashamed to own her stance with the white man. "This is only a little family matter, can't you two settle it," asked the magistrate. She replied she wanted to do what was right. "Right you know," she added, "I can eat three square meals a day, can't you," she was asked, and admitted that this was so. Admitting herself to Herbert, she said, "Now, remember, that you're hitting your head in the air as you please but their jurisdiction ends where your sister's back begins. With that he allowed defendant to go. Tony Janetos and Harry... were fined $3.50 each for obstructing the streets on circus day. They were selling some novelties and refused to move when asked to do so. John Harrington did not comply with his contract, according to evidence given this morning when he asked for judgment for payment of three dollars, for fixing a lawn. Miss Jackson said the place was not to walk upon and that Harrington had not finished the job. The case was laid over until to-morrow. The unending of clerical copyists for the Grit machine is about done. So also is the Grit machine. Hon.
