

A Love Affair

CHAPTER XX.

"How beautifully you dance," he said. "You ought to have a better partner."

soon matched her step. She was content to enjoy herself for a few minutes, but her brain was at work all the time, and presently she said:

"This is your first visit to the Towers, Mr. Fenton?"

"Good morning, Miss Grahame," he said. "I could not lose the opportunity of asking you how you were after last night's dissipation," and he held out the hand.

Constance just touched it with her gloved fingers, and murmured a conventional response, looking straight before her.

"Is this Lord Lancebrook, of whom I have heard so much?" he said, smiling at Arol, whose large eyes took stock of him with frank seriousness.

"Yes," replied Constance, "this is Lord Lancebrook," and her face flushed with a resentment at his persistence.

HOW BANKS FIGURE INTEREST

(By Hollis W. Field.)

That ordinary man in ordinary business who occasionally has something to do with paying interest on bank loans, probably never in his business life has attempted to discover how the bank's process of figuring how much the interest is going to be.

At the best he recalls hazily those old wrestlings with high school arithmetic processes in interest computation, gives it up promptly, and accepts the bank's figures without a murmur.

Fact is, the modern banker has all the interest he can ever hope to collect figured out to fractions of a cent years into the future.

There is interest and there is interest, however, in banking. One kind of interest may be as little like another kind of interest as one grocery bill is unlike another.

So far, this table shows the number of days which a certain rate per cent has governed, multiplied by the interest rate, and the product set aside in parallel columns for addition.

Empire Day Sermons in City Pulpits Yesterday.

Rev. R. Whiting and Rev. J. Young on That Theme.

Rev. J. T. Heslop Says Farewell to His Congregation.

Centenary Church was filled to the utmost capacity last evening, when Rev. R. Whiting preached a sermon appropriate to Empire Day.

Mr. Whiting was of the opinion that the world of to-day was reaching the goal set by the Master, more so than at any other time in its history.

Mr. Whiting went on to point out that there was a national note contained in every phrase. It was to be found the germ for a political and social revolution.

Mr. Whiting said there were many who did not believe in militarism in any way, shape or form, and who opposed the principles and teachings of the military man with great strenuousness.

T. J. NELSON

The Man Who Refused Promotion From the G. T. R. Co.

Brantford, May 20.—The public seldom hears of instances where an employee of a railway has had the responsibility for the lives of a thousand passengers thrust upon him in an emergency when every vital force that a man possessed, every ounce of physical exertion, every brain tissue at his command had to work overtime to be equal to the occasion.

It is no exaggeration to say that Mr. Nelson as a train dispatcher in Hamilton made a record in that department which will always stand unbroken in Canadian railway history.

Thomas Nelson's promotion would have been very rapid after that but for his own wish.

He still remains in Paris, to which town he is as loyal a citizen as ever turned out.

KITCHENER'S HOBBY

Likes Gardening and is Particularly Interested in Orchids.

Calcutta, May 26.—Gen. Lord Kitchener, who leaves India next August for home, has lately been devoting a great amount of his spare time to gardening, which has been for many years a favorite recreation of his.

His official residence in the fort here possesses rather extensive grounds, and there he keeps under his personal supervision when he is staying there.

More Sleep in Open Air

City Dwellers Taking to the Outdoor Bedroom

(New York Sun.) Outdoor bedrooms are becoming more common in New York. They would be more popular were they easier to get.

Persons who never before had anything to say on the subject are beginning to compare notes. Not that the majority of outdoor sleepers have tuberculosis or ever expect to have it.

How many of these persons there are in New York nobody knows. It is agreed, however, that in the aggregate the number of outdoor sleepers is large and growing fast.

WAR SCARE.

Army of Soldiers Make Dash in Motor Cars.

Seven Hundred Troops Rushed From Leeds to Scarborough.

London, May 20.—Another experiment in automobilization in connection with the territorial army took the form of a dash by 700 troops to Scarborough from Leeds, a distance of 65 miles.

The idea was that the British navy having lost command of the sea, the invasion of England had begun. Foreign troops had landed at several points on the northeast coast, and raids were being made on different towns, including Scarborough. The Leeds Territorials resolve to go to the relief of the latter place, but as the Seventh Battalion, West Yorkshire Regiment (Leeds Rifles), are about to entrain at Leeds, intelligence is received that the invaders have cut the railway. A dash by Scarborough by motor car is then resorted to.

As the Leeds Rifles are nearly 1,000 strong, at least 200 motor cars were required to carry the full strength of the battalion. The Yorkshire Automobile Association made a great effort to secure the loan of sufficient cars, but without success. The result was that over 200 men were unable to make the journey.

The invading force, represented by 200 regular troops from the Second Battalion, Yorkshire Regiment, a few members of the local territorial force as scouts and 23 men with two guns from the North Riding field artillery, was encountered at Seamer, six miles from Scarborough. The majority of the cars had covered the distance in a little over three hours. After an engagement lasting forty minutes, the decision of the umpires was that the invaders had been vanquished.

OPENS TO-DAY.

Maple Leaf Park in Full Blast This Afternoon.

Maple Leaf Park is in readiness for the opening this afternoon and the trouble that was experienced in building the power line was overcome by a new line being constructed from Bartonville. All the amusement devices and the electrical display were tested last evening and they were found to be all in good condition. The opening will take place this afternoon at two o'clock and Mayor McLaren and J. Walter Gage, Warden of Wentworth county, will officiate. The city council and township councillors will attend in a body and a special car will leave the corner of York and James streets at 1.45. The exhibits were all placed in the big exhibition building Saturday afternoon and pleasant weather is all that is needed to make the opening of the Greater Hamilton Exposition of 1909 an unqualified success. The Hamilton Kennel Club's show will be in full swing in the theatre building and the Jones handicap bicycle race will start from the grounds at three o'clock, going to the canal and finishing in front of the stand.

After disposal of much important business, the following program was presented: Piano solos, Misses Jeanie Finch and Margaret Stove; Vocal solo, Miss Lettie Hardy; readings, Misses Nellie Larner, Maria Slyford, Marjorie Lyle and Master Ernie Lyle. A special feature was the rendering of several choruses in fine style by the International Juvenile choristers under the able leadership of Mrs. C. A. Hardy.

A SAD END.

Mrs. James Fellows, 147 Birge street died unexpectedly at noon yesterday. She had been suffering from internal complications for some months, but was not thought to be so near death. With her husband and family she came from Leven, Fifehire, Scotland, about two years ago. She was a member of Barton Street Baptist Church. Her husband and eight sons and daughters survive. They are Mrs. Donald Cormack, Misses Lucy, Christina, Jeannie and Bessie, and Messrs. John T., James P. and Alex. C., all of this city. The funeral will be private on Tuesday to Hamilton cemetery.

MEN'S MISSION.

Closed Last Night With Special Solemn Service.

The men's mission in St. Lawrence's Church last night was closed in a most solemn manner by Rev. Father Doyle, one of the Redemptorist Fathers. The Papal blessing was given, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Doyle in an impressive sermon admonished the men to keep the good resolutions they made, and to keep the grace of God they received. There were only two ways this could be done, by watching and praying. He exhorted them to live according to the teachings of the Church, to receive the Sacraments and pray. Prayer would overcome the tempter. The missionary congratulated the men on the edifying way they had attended the mission, turning out at 5 o'clock in the morning and receiving the Sacraments. As a special favor he asked them in return for the little he and Father O'Reilly had done to pray for them.

The shrine was beautifully illuminated and the new marble altar, which is almost completed, was much admired. Great preparations are being made for the consecration of the church a week from Sunday, when a number of prominent church dignitaries will be present.

CALL PASTOR.

Lutherans Invite Rev. J. A. Miller of Galt.

Following the regular service of the Trinity Lutheran Church in the Conservatory of Music Hall last night a business meeting was held last evening to call a new pastor. Without a dissenting vote, and on motion of Mr. J. A. Miller, of Galt, Rev. J. A. Miller, of Galt, to accept the pastorate of the church, which is steadily growing in numbers.

Rev. Mr. Bieber, the field missionary for the English speaking Lutheran Church, who has been conducting services here since its inception, will continue until Mr. Miller can see his way clear to come to Hamilton. Some time ago Mr. Miller stated that if it was the wish of the congregation here, he would be quite willing to come. It is likely that he will come in September. It is the intention of the congregation to build a church as soon as the necessary subscriptions are raised which will be quite soon.

FOUL PLAY.

Detective Greer's Methods Criticised by Crown Attorney.

St. Thomas, Ont., May 22.—At 3 o'clock this morning the Coroner's jury empaneled to investigate the case of William Tomlinson, found dead on the bank of Kettle Creek, below the M. C. R. bridge, on the 7th instant, returned a verdict that Tomlinson came to his death on the 7th of May, and that from the evidence adduced and the results of the post-mortem, they are of the opinion that foul play led up to the fatal result. Crown Attorney McCrimmon, in his summing up to the jury, severely criticised the methods of Provincial Detective Greer in the handling of the case.

EARL GREY UNVEILS MEMORIAL TABLET.

lency appeared, accompanied by the Lieutenant-Governor, Brigadier-General Cotton, Colonel Hanbury-Williams, Brigadier Logie, Mayor McLaren, in his uniform as Major of the Ninety-First Highlanders, and other citizens representing different civic boards, the marching bands played "Nearer, My God, Thee."

Three thousand voices then joined in singing the hymn:

"The son of God goes forth to war, A kingly crown to gain; His blood-red banner streams afar! Who follows in His train?"

This was followed by Scripture reading, the recital of the apostle's creed, prayer and another hymn before the unveiling. In front of the platform the Thirtieth and Ninety-First Regiments stood at attention. The pipers, the South African Veterans, in their khaki uniforms, and the veterans of '94 were stationed on the east side and the Field Battery and Army Service Corps on the west.

When the last hymn had been sung the mournful dirge of the pipers was heard, the peals of the pibroch sounding like a wall of anguish.

COL. HENDRIE SPEAKS.

As soon as the last echoes of the pipers' lament had died away Colonel Hendrie reviewed for His Excellency the events which led up to the establishment of the patriotic fund and the erection of the tablet. The movement had its inception in 1900. It was the custom of the officers of the various corps to visit each other's mess rooms on New Year's Day, and on the first day of that year the late Colonel McLaren invited many citizens to meet in the Thirtieth officers' quarters at Ottawa, but they most generously helped to swell the local fund. Touching reference was made by the speaker to the loved ones who fell. It was not the first time citizens of Hamilton had served Canada and the empire, he said. Reference was made to the war of 1812-14, the rebellion of '37, and the Fenian raid of '66. Colonel Hendrie spoke of the patriotic wave that swept over Canada when the call for assistance went forth during the South African war. He was one of the recruiting officers, and by the hundreds Canadians volunteered their services. The great majority had to be rejected because there was no need of so many.

"We thought that some fitting memorial should be erected, bearing the names of all the men from this city who volunteered and served," said Colonel Hendrie, "and the tablet Your Excellency is about to unveil, as far as we know, contains all the names. There is still considerable work to be done, and should the occasion ever arise when it will be required it is there."

The South African campaign, Colonel Hendrie considered, did more to emphasize the extent of the imperial idea than any event in recent years.

THE UNVEILING.

An intensely impressive silence pervaded the big assembly as His Excellency arose to officiate at the unveiling. He said in part: "Col. Logie, Col. Hendrie, and men of the Hamilton Garrison, I thank you for the pleasure you have given me in enabling me to take part in this most impressive ceremony, dignified as it is by the attendance of people and these magnificent armies. I am proud to have the honor of unveiling a tablet erected to the memory of the patriotic citizens of Hamilton, who have shown by their life that they have counted it their greatest privilege to live, and, if necessary, die for their country and the Empire."

"This tablet will also serve to remind all successive generations that in the days of the Empire's hour of need, when it became necessary for the Crown to call on the cooperation of all loyal and patriotic Britons in supporting the vital principle of equal rights in South Africa from the Zambesi to the Cape of Good Hope, the sons of Hamilton were among the foremost to respond. Those who took part in the war, and those who are no longer here, must find some satisfaction in knowing that the principle for which they went to war, the basis of equal rights, has been established, and South Africa to-day stands side by side with Canada, with New Zealand and Australia, in supporting the dignity and strength of the British Crown."

"The city of Hamilton enjoys a great reputation throughout Canada for its loyalty. I feel that if the day ever comes when your sovereign will have further need of your services, the recruiting officer will have an even greater flood of applicants than you experienced, Col. Hendrie, when in 1899 you had to reject the large majority of those who desired the honor of serving the Crown in South Africa."

Earl Grey then paid the Hamilton troops a glowing tribute. "I am delighted," he said, "to take this opportunity of referring to the impression made by these two splendid regiments assembled here to-day, when they marched east past the Prince of Wales on the Plains of Abraham, last year. They gave His Royal Highness and Lord Roberts a thrill of pleasure, and of consciousness of strength in Canada, which made them realize that, if the British Empire is ever again in need of help, Hamilton will be able to do its part."

"I now have the honor of unveiling this tablet to the memory of the men from Hamilton, who volunteered and served in the South African war," said His Excellency, as he grasped the cord and pulled aside the flag.

As the tablet was revealed to view the massed bands played the National Anthem and the impressive ceremony was over.

REVIEWED THE TROOPS.

His Excellency, after the unveiling, accompanied by his staff, inspected the troops, and repeated the compliment he paid them during his address. In an automobile he was taken to King street, and in front of the Bank of Commerce building reviewed the troops as they marched past the corner of King and James streets. Marching to the end of the Gore, they returned by way of King and James streets to the armories. The Governor-General and his party were taken in automobiles to the Hendrie farm, and His Excellency left at 5.30 for Toronto.

SHOT BURGLAR.

Surrounded by Young Men While Robbing a Store. Made Move to Shoot When Lad Shot Him Dead.

Hyde Park, Vermont, May 24.—An unknown burglar was killed here early to-day by a posse of young men who were summoned to the scene by Miss Hattie Foss, who discovered the man rifling the cash drawer in her father's store. Without disturbing the man Miss Foss summoned a number of young men and when the burglar dropped from the window of the store to the ground the place was completely surrounded and he was ordered to throw up his hands. Instead he made a motion as if to draw a weapon whereupon Archie Billings shot him.

The burglar died within two hours. He refused to give his name, but said that he belonged to a good family. The contents of the cash drawer and some burglars' tools were found in his pockets.

State Attorney Morris, of this district, investigated the affair this forenoon but accepted young Billings' version of the shooting and made no effort to take the young man into custody.

KILLED HIM.

Pulled 45 Feet Up in Air, Then Hurled to Death.

Carleton, Mich., May 22.—Entangled in the tackle rope, yanked 45 feet into the air, then hurled with a huge iron smokestack to the roof of a building and crushed to death, was the fearful fate of John Karl, a resident of Maybee.

Karl was assisting in lowering the big smokestack on the boiler house of the National Silica company at Sand Pit, about seven miles southwest of here, in Exeter township. In some manner he became entangled with the rope attached to a tackle block on the stack and was hauled nearly to the top.

Under his weight the huge stack toppled over and with its immense freight crashed down upon the roof of the building. The stack struck with such force that it broke through the roof. Karl's body bounded from the roof to the top of a freight car. His neck was broken and he died in a few minutes. His arms were also fractured.

Karl was about 50 years old and is survived by a widow, two sons and three daughters. It is probable the coroner will inquire into the cause of the tragedy.

STOCK MARKET.

Advance in Some Stocks—May Not Cut Wages.

New York, May 23.—Prices of stocks actuated quite widely last week with a tendency to return to a fixed level. In a few of the most conspicuous stocks there was a striking advance which served to preserve a semblance of general strength. That the high level to which prices have attained induces some caution in the financial authorities and even in the tone of advices from commission houses to their clients. The professional traders have been watchful for reaction.

Special significance was given to the decision of the independent steel manufacturers to restore wages. It was inferred from this that the reduction of wages by the U. S. Steel Corporation, would be averted. The incident was accepted also as proof that steel production was yielding good profits in spite of the drastic cut in prices. The growth in demand for all grades of product was reported unabated, and a quick restoration in prices of all products showed the effectiveness of the consumption going on.

THE KING'S DOCTOR.

A Former Hamiltonian Physician—Extraordinary to King Edward.

(Canadian Gazette.) The report published on Tuesday that Dr. H. S. Birkett, of Montreal, will be appointed Physician-Extraordinary to the King, in place of Sir Felix Semon, has been received with great interest by the many friends of the possible recipient of such an honor. Dr. Birkett, who is Professor of Laryngology and Otology at McGill University, Montreal, is still a young man. He was born in Hamilton, Ontario, in 1864. His name is well known throughout the Dominion in connection with the branch of the profession in which he is especially interested. For some years he was associated with the late Dr. Frank Buller, the well-known specialist. He is also connected with various medical societies, and has published some valuable additions to medical literature.

Dr. Birkett is exceedingly popular both professionally and socially, and if the rumor of the honor to be conferred upon him—and incidentally upon Canada—proves to be correct, his departure from Montreal will be much regretted. Mrs. Birkett, to whom Dr. Birkett was married about ten years ago, was a Miss MacNaughton, of Glenagray, Canada, and, as her name would imply, of Scotch descent.

WIRELESS MONOPOLY.

Havana, May 23.—President Gomez has issued a decree revoking the permission issued by President Palma in 1903 to Dr. Leo DeForest to operate a wireless telegraph station at Havana. The reason given for this action is that the government having expended large sums to establish wireless communication desires to maintain a monopoly.

SONG FESTIVAL.

Frankford-on-the-Maine, May 23.—The festival of song in which all the male choral societies in Germany have competed, was concluded yesterday. The Colonial Male Society won the prize of honor, the Emperor's chain, from the Berlin School Teachers' Society, holders of the prize, who were awarded the first ordinary prize. The Bonn Liedertafel took second prize. The Emperor and Empress, Prince Oscar and Princess Victoria Louise were present.

U. S. TROOPS AT KINGSTON.

Kingston, Ont., May 22.—"C" Company, First Regiment National Guards, New York (39th Separate Company, Watertown, N.Y.) under command of Capt. M. H. Rice, reached here at noon to-day on the steamer America. They take part in the Victoria Day celebration. There will be a military review on Barrieffield Common at 10 a. m., in which the U. S. soldiers will participate with many Canadian troops.
