HON. ROBT. MURRAY IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

Hon. Robert Murray, with Mrs. Murray, of Chatham; Mrs. Brast, of Bangor, and Alderman Johnston, of Chatham, motored to Bathurst recently, and in returning by the old Bathurst road the front axle broke a few miles from Bathurst. The car whirled around and plunged into the ditch. The escape of the party from serious injury or death was due to the fact that the car was running slowly at the time, a bad culvert having just been crossed. The break was an old one. The wheel dropped off when the piston broke and the forward end of the car dropped to the ground. A team was obtained from a farmer and the party drove back to Bathurst and proceeded home by train.

PETER FARREN AGAIN WINNER

Chatham, N. B. Aug. 4—All the events at the opening race day here today were won in straight heats. Bingen Worthy, a Halifax horse, won the 228 trot, Bill Sharon, a Blackville horse the 221 trot and pace, Lady G. at an, a Montreal horse the 216 trot and pace. In the first two heats of the latter race, Corwin Hall was only beaten by a neck. Little Peter pushed the Montreal horse hard in the third heat.

SERIOUS FIRE AT CHATHAM

CHATHAM, Aug. 9—Fire, which broke out shortly before 8 o'clock this morning, on the premises of the Northumberland garage, duke street, in one hour, immediately demolished that building, a two story blacksmith shop next door, occupied by A. K. Cole, the barn of the Kerr property on the other side, while the Kerr house is gutted and several barns and out-buildings in the centre of the block were more or less damaged. The fire started in an auto on the garage premises, about which it could be moved to safety had caught the building and almost in a minute the whole front was a mass of flames. In three minutes the flames had eaten their way into the Cole shop next door and all that Mr. Cole could save was his books.

Dange To Small Towns Are Revealed

It is true that the only young men with white in small towns always leave the latter as soon as they are able, to make their way in the big cities. "The Fortune Hunter," presents a dramatic assertion of that belief. The picture argues through its graphic scenes, that the small towns are often deserted by promising, marriageable young men, and are left full of pretty girls gone to waste. "The Fortune Hunter," which is an adaptation of the famous stage play by Winchell Smith, will be presented at the Happy Hour Wednesday. Edie Williams the star, and the leading woman is Joan Paige.

Mr. Williams appears in the role of Nathaniel Dunham, the hampered son of a millionaire, who is left fatherless at the end of his college days. Dunham proves incapable of earning his living, and soon finds himself penniless. His college chum stakes him to $500 and a unique campaign plan to make his fortune. The plan is for Dunham to go to a small town, become a church member and make love to the town's richest heiress. Dunham's friend argues that it will be easy to marry an heiress in a small town, since there is no real competition, the best youths having deserted. Dunham starts out to follow his plan, and succeeds beyond his hopes. The picture reaches an unexpected finale.

Luxury Taxes Help Increase The Revenue

Ottawa, Ont. Aug. 4—The effect of Canada's new luxury taxes are somewhat clearly shown in the excise tax returns available today. These returns include luxury sales and manufacturers' tax, and, while it is impossible to give exact figures on the actual amount of luxury tax, it is safe to say that already several millions have been added to the country's income as a result of Mr. Henry Dwyer's 1926 budget.

By June in June
With regard to June of this year there was also a big jump in the total of excise tax collections, the total being $2,229,274. This also serves to show that the excise tax is due even for bigger increases as the July returns were more than doubled that of the previous month.

In the 218 special trot Border Prince, also owned by Mr. Jewett, won in three straight heats. Victoria, owned by Dr. B. H. McAllister, of Sussex, second, 5 4. Dolly Durac, of Montreal third. Peter Farren will try for a record tomorrow.

Chatham, N. B. Aug. 6—Another record fell to Chatham's track, 9 1/2 afternoon when Fern Hal forced Peter Farren to do the second heat of the free-for-all in 2:08 1/2. Coming into the home stretch in this heat, Fern Hal drew up alongside of Peter Farren and was only beaten by a nose. In the first heat of the stretch Briskley came up on the inside, when almost under the wire John A. Hal broke and finished third. The final heat of this event went to Peter Farren in 2:09 flat, the fastest third heat paced in Canada on a half mile track.

Sixty Per Cent Apple Crop for This Season

Dry Weather Caused Heavy
"Drop" of Fruit
New Brunswick is not going to experience two big apple crops in succession. That was not expected last season when a late rain crop of almost all varieties was obtained, so two remarkable good years seldom follow one another, but it is now for another year that the crop is expected to be small. A very early frost in the latter part of the season, and a very early spring in the latter part of the season, are the main reasons for this.

The loss to the Northumberland garage included stock and equipment and the second hand cars amounted to between $8,000 and $10,000. The building belongs to G. W. Levesley of Moncton. In the garage at the time were several cars. Dr. McKenzie, of Loggieville, lost his runabout with no insurance on it. Martin W. Lanigan, a practical by New Ford car, with no insurance, while the car belonging to the Ontario Cigar Company also went up into the flames. The fireman made a splendid fight. The total damage will reach about $25,000, partly covered by insurance.

How to Pronounce "Meighen"

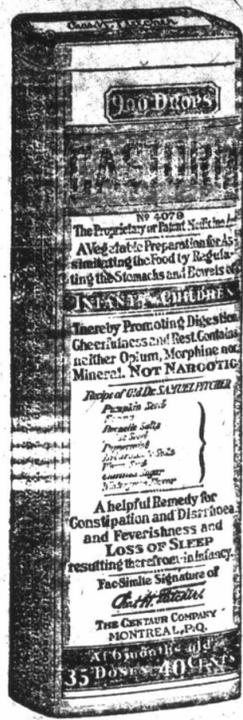

In a kindly and thoughtful spirit the Canadian Associated Press has sent out instructions from Ottawa as to how the name of the new Prime Minister is to be pronounced. While not preceded by the word "official," the information presumably comes from one "high in authority." It is to be used, as though it were written Meighen. "The 'i' in 'Meighen' is not aspirated," says this authority. It is aspirated, so to speak. Or to put it in another way, the "i" is silent, as in "Amplest" "Eth." The "g" also disappears, though no mention of this unfortunate letter, which many persons are inclined to ignore on most occasions, occurs in the dispatch. It also is silent, as in "grun" or "grat." No doubt the Scottish elements from which the new Prime Minister springs, will regard the instruction as superfluous; but it is not so well that there should be no stumbling over his name by persons of less fortunate lineage.

Heavy 'Drop' Young Fruit fell to the ground in huge quantities.

In 1919 the export of apples from the St. John Valley reached proportions which had not been reached before, Montreal taking the bulk of the fruit, superior to those obtained by any other apples. It is anticipated that Montreal again will take a large proportion of the crop. Prices are expected to be firm. Of the different varieties Alexander and Paradise will show the greatest reduction. Early apples will not show the reduction to the same degree as the later ones. Dufferin and similar varieties form the bulk of the early apples.

FIVE OBSERVATIONS

On July 29th at Banook, Northumberland County, N. B., was seen a bird which was very like a Kingbird. This bird had a black cap, the throat was the same color, the body greenish-brown, Mr. J. H. Dwyer, of Banook, is the owner of the bird. It was seen on the 29th and 30th of July, but he has not seen it since. It was very like a Kingbird, but it was not a Kingbird, as it was not as large as a Kingbird, and it was not as dark as a Kingbird. It was very like a Kingbird, but it was not a Kingbird, as it was not as large as a Kingbird, and it was not as dark as a Kingbird.

Want to Feel Just Right?

Take an NR Tonight

JUST TRY IT AND SEE how much better you feel in the morning. That "leary" headache, tired, don't-know-what's-the-matter feeling will be gone—you'll feel fine.

TROUBLE IS, your system is clogged with a lot of impurities that your over-worked digestive and eliminative organs can't get rid of. Pills, oil, salts, calomel and ordinary laxatives, cathartics and purges only force the bowels and prod the liver.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and even kidneys, not forcing, but toning and strengthening these organs. The result is prompt relief and real, lasting benefit. Make the test. Nature's Remedy will act promptly, thoroughly, yet so mildly, so gently, that you will think nature herself has come to the rescue and is doing the work.

And oh, what a relief! You'll be surprised to find how much better you feel—brighter, better every way. If habitually or stubbornly constipated, take one NR Tablet each night for a week. Then you'll not have to take medicine every day. Just an occasional NR Tablet after that will be sufficient to keep your system in good condition—keep you feeling your best.

With your finger! You can lift off any hard corn, callus, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from between the toes. "Freeze-off" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it starts hurting, then shortly you lift that troublesome corn, callus, or corn off, root and all, without any bit of pain or smart. Try it! It's amazing!

Raised Check From Six To 76 Dollars

Same Treatment to Three Other Checks Given in Change.

(Ottawa Citizen)

One day last week a bright young man walked into the Bank of Nova Scotia at Smith's Falls and deposited $10 in the savings department. A few minutes before the bank closed on the same day, the same individual returned to the bank and presented a check for $6 which he asked the teller to certify. This was done, and thereby hangs a tale.

The man went his way. Feeling the need of new billiments he walked over to the Canadian Clothing Company and asked to be fitted with a suit. Having secured one to meet his requirements he presented a check for $78, all nicely certified and looking as good as gold. He was given some small change, and the remainder of what was due to him was in the form of a check. This check was then presented in the store of Scott & Foster, where he bought some furnishings to go with his suit. He asked that the change due be paid with a check. This was done. Musing on the high street, he cast his eyes downwards and decided that he needed a pair of new shoes. Having secured the shoes from the Kerfoot Shoe House, he asked that a check be given in change. With this check the young man went to Ironberg & Company and bought a grip to put his purchases in. Then he took the train for North Bay, and ever since the police have been on the lookout for him.

It appears that the certified check he made out for $6 was altered to $76. The check he received as part change from the Canadian Clothing Company was treated in the same way, although the original and subsequent amounts are not known. This was done with the checks he received from Scott & Foster, and the Kerfoot Shoe House. The discovery was made the next day when the tradesmen went to deposit their day's receipts. The comparison of the checks revealed the fact that in each case the amounts had been altered. The story goes that he played the same game in North Bay to the tune of $400. No questions were asked when the checks were presented, because the first was certified and the others bore the names of local merchants. Smith's Falls people are now laughing over the new game of the visitor, although the tradesmen who were victimized do not consider it much of a joke.

No Trace Yet of Stolen Liquor

Every Precaution was taken to Safeguard Liquor in Transit to Fredericton

(Fredericton Gleaner, Wednesday)

Rev. W. D. Wilson, chief prohibition inspector, received a long distance telephone message this morning from Liquor Sub-inspector McLaughlin concerning the theft of alcohol from a car at St. Leonards on Monday night and learned that extraordinary precautions had been taken in connection with the shipment of the alcohol to this city to prevent any thefts.

The car, which contained 4 kegs of 75 gallons each, and 4 kegs of 45 gallons each, was not only locked, padlocked and heavily spiked and the keys mailed to the chief inspector, but despite all these precautions the car was broken into on Monday night and the lonely key cut to tell the tale.

The inspectors are working on the case and new developments are looked for, and Sub-inspector McLaughlin stated that the C. P. R. would be responsible for the theft.

Learn To Swim

Drowning accidents are reaching unprecedented figures this year. From one end of Canada to the other reports come pouring in each day that persons. Every weekend sees a whole list of drowning casualties recorded in the newspapers, more particularly in the vicinity of the larger cities.

There is very little excuse for the average drowning. In the great majority of cases the ability to swim, or at least to keep afloat for a few minutes, makes all the difference between life and death.

Parents should insist that their children learn to swim. There is scarcely a home in the country where in the summer-time sufficient water is not available in which the children can learn to swim. City parents are in ever better case with the big city baths open all the year round to children at stated periods.

Swimming is one of the healthy and delightful exercises imaginable. Very rarely indeed is a youngster so delicate or timid that he or she will not derive benefit from at least occasional swimming exercises.

Notable Gathering Of Press Men In Montreal

Montreal, Aug. 3.—Four hundred men from every English-speaking country in the world assembled in the banquet hall of the Ritz-Carlton here tonight as guests of Lord Atholstan, who greeted overseas delegates with lavish hospitality and invited to meet the delegates a score of prominent United States newspapermen and Canadian public men. Sir Henry Drayton, Federal Minister of Finance, and Sir Lomer Gouin, ex-Premier of Quebec, sat at the head table. The letter was acclaimed by Lord Atholstan as a distinguished addition to the ranks of newspapermen. Sir Lomer acknowledged in a brief speech.

Telegrams were read from His Majesty the King, David Lloyd George, Lord Milner, Colonial Secretary Lord Northcliffe and Lord Riddell. The keynote speech by Lord Atholstan was a warm welcome to the delegates to the second Imperial Press Conference, which he hoped would be as great a success as the first in London eleven years ago.

Sir John Willison, Toronto, made an eloquent speech on national aspirations of Canada. Stephen Leacock, Professor of Political Economy, of McGill University, made a brief and witty speech of welcome. Lord Furnham, chairman of the conference, acknowledged on behalf of the British delegates and E. Ward Jackson, chairman of the South African delegates, spoke for the overseas delegates.

The toast of the American newspapermen was acknowledged by G. H. K. Curtis, of the United Press, and John R. Rathon, of the Providence Journal. The keynote of their speech was the assurance that the English-speaking races of the world would work together for the good of humanity as they had done in the past. Mr. Rathon assumed the assembly that "not all the malcontents and miscreants in the world were worth one shot fired between the English speaking nations in the world of thinking people in the United States today."

Weekly Agricultural Report

Weather conditions during the past week have not been of the best for hay-making. Frequent showers have somewhat retarded operations. The clover has been practically all harvested; generally speaking, there seems to be less clover in the province than last year. Much of the hay crop still remains to be cut. Since starting to cut, farmers are reflecting the earlier reports that there is from 50% to 25% less hay than last year. Pastures are said to be poor in nearly all the reports, but recent rains will cause them to improve.

The grain crop is good. Some reports say "Never better." A splendid grain crop in the province seems assured. The turnip crop is growing well and should be well up to the average.

The potato crop has improved very much during the past few weeks; many fine fields of potatoes are to be seen. Late Blight is starting to develop in some fields and, if it continues to develop, may cause considerable loss. Those farmers who have sprayed well with Bordeaux Mixture will again find it the very cheapest form of insurance. There are quite a number of misses in fields in certain districts but, considering the province as a whole, the potato crop looks fairly promising and, if Late Blight does not develop to any extent, the potato yield of the province may yet be well up to the average.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Meat Supplies Shrinking

There are about 3 1/2 lbs. of meat for every person in the Dominion now ready in cold storage throughout Canada. That is less than ten days' normal consumption. Returns compiled by the Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa, for July, were: All meats $2,463,200 lbs. Less meat in cold storage $1,084,358 lbs. Meat ready for market $1,378,842 lbs.

The average consumption is 137 lbs. a year for each person. A year's requirements, therefore, total 1,233,000,000 lbs. The quantity of meat in storage all told is equal to 15 1/2 days' supply for the Dominion and the quantity actually ready is equal to 9 1/2 days' supply.

It is false to assume that there has been an increase because of competition with June returns only an increase has been shown in pork, mutton and lamb. The decrease in the quantity of beef more than outweighs these increases. In fact, the net drop in all meat supplies is 5.15 per cent compared with a month ago and the net increase compared with a year ago is less than one-sixth of one per cent.

There are now in store in all the warehouses in Canada exactly one-half the supplies of meats there were in January, 1919. The drop since January last even is one-third

Says People Of Canada Are Better Dressed

London, Aug. 3.—"Although I was only in five towns in Canada, I saw myself a contrast in the people's improved clothing and feeding compared with my last visit six years ago," declared General Booth on landing at Liverpool. There is no doubt," he continued, "that prohibition has come to stay in Canada and the United States. In the Dominions generally there are many signs that prohibition is a living question, but present public opinion is not strong enough to carry it." The General also spoke of the serious danger emerging in every country of antipathy to work which was different from the ambition merely to be well paid. Speaking particularly of Australia and New Zealand General Booth said that some means must be found of keeping those peoples better fed. "Prominent men had told me that they felt isolated. 'I am quite aware,' he said, 'that some will say 'what about the extreme parties.' It is true that there is a section of the labor and a section of anti-British sentiment in which the Roman Catholic church is mixed up in some way. These sections are so noisy that they give the impression of being much more influential than they really are. I am convinced that one way to meet them is by free open conference."

Dempsey Bout is Now Assured

Benton Harbor, Mich., Aug. 3.—The fight between Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion, and Billy Miske, of St. Paul, on Labor Day, is assured, according to an announcement by Phil Campbell, business manager for the Benton Harbor, Mich., Boxing Club today. Campbell said he had received word from Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons, in New York, to the effect that a conference with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, had resulted in Dempsey's signature to the articles of agreement.

Stumpage Rates For The Past Year

FREDERICTON, Aug. 4.—Announcement was made at the Department of Lands and Mines this morning that up to today about three-quarters of a million dollars in stumpage rates had been received at the department. All stumpage rates for the past year were due on Saturday and though on Monday a small amount of rates had been paid in, yesterday brought some large contributions. The total amount to be paid in by the lumbermen for the past year's operations is little short of a million dollars.

Music In Schools

From recent developments in Western Canadian educational circles, it would appear that the bonds of red tape will soon be cast aside. Saskatchewan provides that music shall be an optional study in the High Schools of that province. This provision states also that credit will be given for a musical education received elsewhere. The card dates presenting official evidence of having obtained a certificate in piano or theory may be exempted from examination in algebra or agriculture, Latin or Greek. This shows what the world is coming to. Imagine music being accepted in place of algebra as part of the training necessary for a second-class certificate in the old days.

Vancouver Island's Famous Gardens

A View of Part of the Famous Bouchard Gardens 12 Miles From Victoria, B.C.

Some few years ago at the head of Tod Inlet on Southern Vancouver Island there yawned an enormous excavation like a gigantic wound on the face of nature. The cement works nearby had removed from this spot thousands of tons of sand and shale for utilization in the manufacture of cement, and it would be hard to conceive of a more desolate spot than these dry, grey acres which looked dead beyond resurrection. Not a blade of grass grew there, not a trickle of water layed the gaping thirstiness of it, not a bird sent its note across its waste, even the unfastidious crows disdainfully ignored it. A hundred feet above it the woods were green enough, and forest flowers thrived in fragrant profusion, but no wind-wafted seeds could take root in the dry sand and clay of the monstrous grave; they withered and died for want of sustenance, and because of the charm of the wooded glades above, the excavation looked all the more incongruous and ugly.

Today that same incongruity has become one of the most lovely garden spots in the whole length and breadth of America, not excluding the famous gardens of southern California. It is the Mecca of thousands of tourists every year, and as there is no real winter weather on favored South Vancouver Island, the garden blooms practically the whole year round.

How was this miracle accomplished? Man's ingenuity aided by ever-ready Nature, is the answer. Black loam by tons was carried into the excavation, packed up against the clay-banks, and around the rocks, placed in thick layers all over the level, and in the very heart of the huge hole, water was led from a lake. Far above the banks in the woods themselves, a stream was diverted to toss down over the side of the thirty day in a clean, bright fall that splashed into the lake. A huge pinnacle of rock that stood in the centre of the barren acres was banked with rich soil, while the same soil was placed in all of its holes and crannies. Rock stairways were built from the rim of excavation down into the place itself, a hundred walks, and by-paths and stretches of lawn were mapped out, and grass beds made. Rustic bridges were built across the lake, and the stream itself, and then the seeding and planting began. Scores of men were employed in the first stages of the work, and expert landscape gardeners, for not only was the excavation to be made into a great sunken garden, but the ground above, which had been cleared, was to be laid out in lawns, a rose-garden, a tea-garden, and a combination of Japanese and fairy garden. More little streams from the woods were moved into this upper garden, and nourished from underground pipes, to send up rainbow fountains here and there. Avenues of hawthorns and other ornamental trees were planted and a thousand feet or more of pergolas were built. A large tea-house and a half dozen of other little summer-houses, all of the most artistically rustic design, were scattered throughout the different gardens, and every flower and shrub that grows found its home there. The pergolas were hung with climbing roses, the tea-house graced by clematis and wisteria, and each little summer-house had its own individual garment of colour.

This upper garden is the first one to be traversed by the visitor, and having seen all of its loveliness, the curious wanderer of the Japanese garden, with their dwarf trees and shrubs, their frog-crowned banks, their flower-bung pagodas, the elves, the dragons, the tiny fairy forests of the old, and the bewitching beauty of the rose-garden, one's senses seem almost satiated, until by a secret path one emerges suddenly upon the rim of the sunken garden. Then indeed, one marvels at one's own senseless resources for one's whole being is entranced to unimagined ecstasy at what lies before one! Colour!—Every colour and tint from the glowing gorgeousness of the poppy, rhododendron, and larkspur, to palest pastel shades of old-fashioned lavender, Japanese-iris and sweet peas are seen. Perfidious Lilies, lilies-of-the-valley, wall-flower, honey-suckle, and every known blossom, except those which thrive only in tropical climes, lend their quota to the splendid array which floats on the placid air! Music! Surely the little birds must think they have reached their heaven, for never are their songs sweeter than here. Fountains send their rainbow sprays among the towers, water-falls tinkle down the cliffsides where ferns and vines of every hue riot in gay profusion; and the great gaunt rock which once marked the place like a tombstone, is crowned with rock plants, shrubs, masses of delphinium, lupin, foxglove, and every sort of new and old-fashioned flower till it resembles nothing so much as a gigantic nosegay. The lake is stocked with trout that come in crowds for the crumbs you may drop them; velvet cat-tails rise out of the shallows, and water-lilies float on the bosom of the water, while butterflies of every size and variety weave a haze of colour from flower to flower. A Tonic For the Nerves

The Only Real Nerve Tonic is a Good Supply of Rich, Red Blood

"If people would only attend to their blood, instead of worrying themselves ill," said an eminent nerve specialist, "we doctors would not see our consulting rooms crowded with nervous wrecks. More people are free from worry than anything else."

The sort of thing which the specialist spoke of is the nervous rundown condition caused by overwork and the many anxieties of to-day. Sufferers find themselves tired, listless and unable to keep their minds on anything. Any sudden noise hurts like a blow. They are full of groundless fears, and do not sleep well at night. Headaches and other nerve pains are part of the misery, and it all comes from starved nerves.

Doctorsing the nerves with poisonous sedatives is a terrible mistake. The only real nerve tonic is a good supply of rich, red blood. Therefore to relieve nervousness and run-down health Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be taken. These pills make new rich blood, which strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite, gives new strength and spirits, and makes hitherto despondent people bright and cheerful. If you are at all "out of sorts" you should begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WILLIAM McEACHERN
The death occurred Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after an illness of four months with cancer, of William McEachern, aged 68 years. Deceased was a native of Prince Edward Island, but has been a resident of Newcastle for the past fifty years. He was a blacksmith by trade and was an employee of the late W. A. Hickson for many years. Mr. McEachern was widely known and highly respected by a large circle of friends, who sympathize with the bereaved family in their sad bereavement.

Deceased was twice married. By his first wife (nee Janet Drummond) he leaves one son, John C. N. R., Esq., of Moncton; two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Sars, Boston and Mrs. George Hanson, Alberton, P. E. I. His second wife (nee Mary Brennan of Burnaby River) survives him, also the following children: Mrs. Dennis Savoy and Mrs. John Street, Newcastle; Mrs. Daniel Kenny, Nelson; Mrs. A. J. Could You Play Piano Steadily For 100 Hours

Probably the queerest endurance test of modern times will be held at Croyden, England, beginning Sept. 1 next, when piano players from all parts of the world foregather to compete for a prize of $50,000 offered by a Chicago piano manufacturer to the person who plays the piano best and without a break for a hundred solid hours.

Somewhere in New York there is a man named Schroeder who holds the long distance piano playing record, he having once played for a stretch of eighty-two hours. Harry Kemp of London stuck it out recently for sixty-seven hours, but was forced to quit when he ran out of "pieces". New York friends of Kemp have received letters from him telling of his preparations for the forthcoming contest. Every day he puts in from ten to fifteen hours training for the world's long distance piano playing championship.

When Kemp practices his arms are tightly wrapped in bandages to stop the blood from bursting his fingers. During the day his wife sprays the keys of the piano at intervals with methylated spirit, so that his finger tips won't crack. She also bathes his face with eau de Cologne to keep his brain clear. As he tickles the ivories his thoughts are distracted by little dolls, flowers and teddy bear mascots with which he is surrounded. Kemp asserts that if it were not for these diversions he would go mad.

As regards the inner man, Kemp's wife feeds him upon victuals as he goes along. Between meals he chews tobacco. Kemp says the most difficult feature of his piano playing endurance tests has been to memorize enough pieces. He estimates that he will have to learn at least 100 before attempting the international competition as he expects all his rivals to be

Often Broke Down While At His Work

Was Forced to Lose Much Time Before Tonic Restored Him to Health.

Robert Kerr, 12 Bedford Row, a resident of Halifax for forty seven years and for twelve years a member of the Royal Artillery, called at Kinley's Drug Store, a few days ago and made a statement that will be read with interest throughout Nova Scotia.

"I believe in giving everything its due," said Mr. Kerr, "and I want to say right now I just can't praise Tonic too highly for what it has done for me. My stomach had bothered me so bad for the past four or five years that many a day I have had to quit work and go home, and sometimes I had to lay off two and three days at a time. I had the poorest kind of appetite and whenever I did eat anything it always hurt me. Why, after nearly every meal I had the worst sort of pains and cramps in my stomach. I would blot all up with gas and simply felt miserable all the time. I was always bothered with constipation and often had severe headaches. My sleep was always broken and restless and on mornings I had to drag myself off to work and sometimes I broke down in two or three hours and had to quit and go home before dinner.

"A few weeks ago I started taking Tonic and while I've taken only four bottles I feel like I have been made all over again, in fact I don't remember the time when I ever felt better in my life. My stomach is never in better shape and I can eat anything my good appetite calls for without being troubled with gas bloating or pains. I am no longer constipated and am rid of those terrible headaches. I sleep like a log and have been built up so I never miss a day from work. Tonic is the right medicine for people troubled like I was and I am always glad to speak a good word of it."

in the pink of condition for the battle.

During the last three hours of the hundred hours, if he goes that long, Kemp will play the "William Tell" overture, "Parsifal" and the "Poet and Peasant" overtures.

For recreation when not riding the piano Kemp rides a bicycle.

Sixth Anniversary Of Entrance Into The War

New York, Aug. 4.—Greetings to the sixth anniversary of Great Britain's entry into the war today were cabled to Field Marshal Earl Haig and Admiral Sir David Beatty by Fr. Akin d'Oiler, commander of the American Legion.

"Honor to the statesmen who had the courage to assume the responsibility of that decision," read the message.

"Honor to the British millions, who with valor unsurpassed and hearts of oak, executed that decision on Britain's many fronts. When we contemplate what would have been the state of affairs in the world today had not Britain acted as she did, and when she did, trials and difficulties of the present hour, however venacious they may seem now to be, sink into comparative insignificance.

"United States forces have had the privilege of seeing on land and sea under British high command.

"The memories of the associations of those great days will never perish. They will perpetuate themselves in our hearts and thus serve to perpetuate the indissoluble friendship of the British and American peoples."

Baby's Great Danger During Hot Weather

More little ones die during the hot weather than at any other time of the year. Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and stomach troubles come without warning, and when a medicine is not at hand to give promptly the child has passed beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in the house where there are young children. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Sir Edward Kemp Refuses Salary

Ottawa, Aug. 2.—Sir Edward Kemp, now Minister without portfolio, and formerly Minister of the Overseas Forces, of Canada, has written the Finance Department returning uncashed all cheques received by him for ministerial salary during the war period. In all the cheques amount to $52,000 covering the whole of the payments to him as Minister of Militia and later as Minister of Overseas Forces. Previous to being sworn in as Minister of Militia and subsequently as Minister of Overseas Forces, Sir Edward was without portfolio and acted, without remuneration as chairman of the War Purchasing Commission. In this capacity, and as Minister, he had of necessity to incur expenses from time to time and was entitled to be reimbursed by the Government, but he had refrained from drawing any of his seasonal indemnity for the last four sessions of parliament.

Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, has appropriately acknowledged Sir Edward's generosity on behalf of the Government.

"I suffered terribly from Constipation and Dyspepsia for many years. I felt pains after eating and had gas, constant headache, and was unable to sleep at night. I was getting so thin that I was frightened and saw several physicians who, however, did not seem able to help me.

At last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a short time, the Constipation was banished, I felt no more pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. Now I am well, strong and vigorous."

WITH THE FUNNY MEN

Assured of Solitude.
"What do you think of this rich man providing himself with a handsome tomb to sleep in after he's dead?"
"He might have put the money into a hospital, a public park or a library."
"Yes?"
"People would naturally visit those places. It's a cinch they'll never resort to his tomb in large numbers."

Family Matters.
"I shall complain to the floorwalker about you," said the irate shopper.
"I have no doubt he will agree with everything you say," answered the saleslady, wearily.
"Ah! Then he is acquainted with your shortcomings?"
"He thinks he is. He's my husband."

Might Be a Mote.
Youth (eager to gain a place on the sofa)—Permit me to remove the mote, won't you?
Maiden—Thank you, I would, only—only—
Youth—Only what?
Maiden—Only I see such a beam in your eye!—Cartoons.

The Result.
"Somebody played a joke on Jim. Sent him a barrel of what he thought were fine oysters."
"Where was the joke?"
"When he went to suck them, there weren't any oysters there."
"Then he must have been shell-shocked."

A Compliment.
"You used to pay me many pretty compliments before we were married," said Mrs. Dibbs, with a pout.
"You women are certainly hard to please," growled Mr. Dibbs. "Didn't I just now tell you those pork chops were done to a turn?"

A SMALL MATTER.
"Ouch! Didn't you take off a piece of my ear that time?"
"Don't be alarmed, sir; not enough to affect the hearing."

Unstability.
Ambition goes a fearless way.
As history doth prove.
What any gets where he would stay,
Fate still says, "It's your move!"

Hand Work Only.
The Magistrate—I should think you'd be ashamed to make your wife work over the wash tub to support you.
The Accused—But, Judge, I can't afford to buy laundry machinery for her.

Can't Be Solved.
"They can't live together and they can't live apart."
"Umph! What's the solution of a problem like that?"
"Chloroform, but, confound the luck, it's against the law."

Seeds and Berries.
"People have various names for money. One man will speak of 50 seeds, another of 50 berries."
"Yes, and some make money produce, while others merely consume it."

A Movie Star.
"Register indignation."
"I can't."
"Your salary is reduced a thousand a week. Now can you register indignation?"

Tit for Tat.
Mabel—Here comes Charlie. Dumb up the walk. That boy gives me the shivers.
Marie—Why don't you give him the shake?
So It Goes.
"Do you remember the old fashioned triangular shawls?"
"They'd look funny now."
"But the girls have 'em in a different shape, and they look nifty."

Catty Advice.
Belle—My hair is so long and thick I have the greatest difficulty in arranging it on my head.
Nell—Then why don't you take it off and fix it?

Nothing Left.
Judge—Have you anything to offer the court before sentence is passed on you?
Prisoner—No, your honor; my lawyer took my last dollar.

Oh, Judge.
"I see no objection to a sham fund."
"Yes?"
"It is used to clean up the streets."

Old-Time Wind Mill On The Miramichi Is Recalled

Oatmeal was Scarce on the North Shore in the Old Days —Enterprise of Millers in the Days Before Steam Power is Commended.

The following dated Miramichi, N. B., January 15, 1828, gives an idea of the primitiveness of the mill business before the days of steam and improved machinery. The letter is from the Recorder of the month of January of the above year.

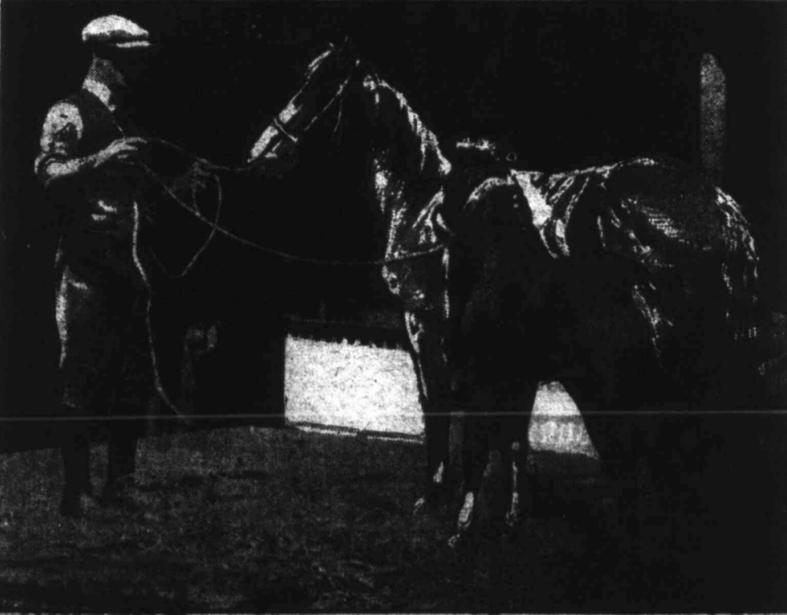

"We have lately had frequent opportunities of inspecting Mr. Manderson's Mill, near the Scotch Church, and while we congratulate the settlement on so valuable an acquisition we must confess that we have seldom, if ever seen a more gratifying proof of what industry and perseverance can accomplish, when combined with skill and a commendable spirit of enterprise. Our limits will not permit us to give a minute description of the principle upon which the mill is constructed and as a partial description would not satisfy the curious, we shall therefore merely observe that it is a horizontal wind-mill, but differing materially, as far as we are able to judge, from those which go by the same name in England. In New York, there are two, from one of which Mr. Manderson states he took the hint for his own. When completed it will have 24 sails, and its power will be equal to 14 horses, and sufficient to drive two pair stones and two saws. At present it has but one pair of stones. The principal advantages of this mill we take to be these: that it is free from the objections to which all water mills in this country are more or less subject, as it can be kept at work at all seasons, and does not require more than a light breeze of wind, and that it is accessible to all parts of the river to Napan, to both branches and to the numerous settlements about the bay, and we may add around the coast: for there is no other mill within the reach of these places that can be always depended on. But it is deserving of attention in a point of view distinct from the benefits which it promises to our own agriculturists. The scarcity of mills in Prince Edward Island causes a large export of grain annually to Miramichi principally oats. Yet cheap oatmeal is as an article of food, it is scarcely ever heard of in Miramichi, simply because we have not had the means of manufacturing it within ourselves. The facilities therefore which the mill will afford for the bringing into market a constant supply of this nutritious food will no doubt lead to its being extensively used, and consequently to an improvement of our intercourse with Prince Edward Island and other neighboring settlements. We had almost forgotten to say that the advantages of the sails of this mill over the vertical one are very great. The latter always require to be adjusted on every change of wind—the horizontal ones adjust themselves; the vertical sails are apt to endanger stopping them in a sudden gale of wind; with the horizontal sails there is no such risk to fear as by a contrivance as simple as it is effectual the sails are so acted upon by weights, that they subvert a smaller angle of the wind as the gale increases."

Bye-Elections Sep 20th

McCurdy, Minister of Public Works, who represent Colchester in the House of Commons.

Insurance or Assurance

There is how an eminent English insurance author draws a distinction between the two terms. On this subject the term "assurance" seems likely to be dropped altogether. In life assurance there are two elements—the accumulation of money and the carrying of a risk. In fire and in nearly all other forms of insurance there is only the risk element. This distinction is a very faintly recognized by limiting the word "assurance" to the majority of life policies, under which a claim must arise sooner or later, provided the payment of premiums is kept up, and applying the word "insurance" in connection with policies which may or may not become claims. A man may pay premiums for fire insurance for thirty years and have no occasion to make a claim, but he is insured against loss, and he is not insured against loss through a fire which might have occurred in any
