Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. INTRODUCTION.

“THE Order of the SONS OF TEMPERANCE—of which the Division whose Constitution and By-laws are in the following pages presented, is but one organization of many hundreds of similar purport throughout our country,—is an institution founded in the year 1842, whose objects are moral and benevolent, whose peculiar design is to insure, by concentration of effort, success and strength to the great moral reform of Temperance. Organization—complete, thorough systematic organization,—is the principle of its power; and while the fullest confidence is manifested in the adequacy of the Order for the purpose contemplated by its institution, it is in no wise designed to supercede or diminish the highly useful operations of other Temperance associations, which cannot, from their peculiar organization, or from the conscientious views of their members, unite with us; but seeks by its own means, and its own way to further the common object.

Prominent among the results desired and objects contemplated by our organization, may be mentioned a universal temperance reformation—a brotherhood in Love, Purity, and Fidelity—the encouragement of morality—the pecuniary relief of sick brethren—and the diffusion of good will to all mankind. And our purposes, plans, and movements are based upon the PLEDGE, relying for its fulfilment upon the honor of each Brother as a man, not to make, buy, sell, or use as a beverage, any spirituous or malt liquor, wine or cider. This, simply, is our obligation. We have no oaths, no unmeaning rites, no secret modes of recognition. Our privacy is only such as prudence, manliness and kindness require, consisting principally of pass words, the bestowal of benefits without the publicity of the world, accompanied by the necessary injunction that the affairs of the Order be not spoken of in the presence of those who are not Brethren. The ceremonies in which we indulge are those that give dignity and impressiveness to the pledge which is taken, and are sensible in purport, and appropriate in conception.

While all subjects of political and religious controversy are excluded from our meetings, the great moral precepts of the Christian religion are fully recognized and inculcated, and a fraternal spirit continually exhibited, enforced and insisted upon, as essential to harmony, happiness and success. The Order demands that every Brother shall sustain a good moral character. Integrity, honor, truth, and virtue, are held up as standard moral principles, and an implicit obedience to the laws of the civil government as the duty of every good citizen.

The organized, controlling authority of our Order is simple, and consists of a National Division, Grand Divisions for States or Provinces, and Subordinate Divisions. Grand Divisions receive their charters from the National Division, and are under the constitutional jurisdiction of the same; Subordinate Divisions hold their charters from Grand Divisions, and are under their jurisdiction. Individuals are received into Subordinate Divisions, and are in general, immediately under their constitutional government. The Subordinate Divisions are popular and primary: the Grand Divisions and the National Division are representative. The former is composed of such acting and past superior officers of Subordinate Divisions as may be elected delegates, the latter of such acting and past superior officers of Grand Divisions as likewise may be elected delegates. The Subordinates have regular meetings weekly, the Grand Divisions quarterly, and the National Division yearly. The officers of the Subordinate Divisions serve quarterly, those of the Grand Division yearly, and those of the National Division bi-yearly terms.

As an Order, we hold that kindness, reason, argument, the pecuniary benefit conferred, the spirit of brotherhood enkindled, as well as persuasion, and a good and pure example, are our legitimate means of increase,—pursuing our course mildly, but firmly, and on all proper occasions raising our hands and voices to repress or prevent the terrible evils under which society labors from indulgence in strong drink, and which we are pledged and banded to eradicate as far as possible.

This, then, is our Order; this the simplicity of the organization under which we have prospered and strengthened, until from the pioneer brotherhood of sixteen individuals in an "upper room," we have extended and now number over five hundred thousand pledged and true men, and can tell of some six thousand independent Subordinate Divisions! As an organized association, we court investigation and scrutiny. We ask of the uninitiated to peruse the following pages in a spirit of candor, and with an unprejudiced eye; and if what is here presented seemeth to them "GOOD," that they will unite with us, that we may with increased energy and strength, hasten the glad consummation of our labors."

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

We, whose names are annexed, desirous of forming a society, to shield us from the evils of intemperance, afford mutual assistance in case of sickness, and elevate our characters as men—do pledge ourselves to be governed by the following Constitution and By-laws.

* The following resolution, explanatory of the Pledge of the Order, was unanimously adopted at the fourth annual session of the National Division.

Resolved, That the National Division hereby declare that the true intent and meaning of the Pledge is to prohibit the manufacture, purchase, sale, and use of all alcoholic or intoxicating liquors, as a beverage, whether enumerated by name in the Pledge or not.

"That Cider, as a beverage, from the time it is expressed from the apple, through all its stages of fermentation, is included in the pledge."

SEC. 3.—The name of a person offered for membership must be proposed by a member in writing, stating age, residence and business, which must be entered on the record, and the subject referred to three brothers for investigation, who shall report in writing at a succeeding meeting, when the candidate shall be balloted for with ball ballots, and if not more than four black balls appear against him, he shall be declared elected; but if five or more black balls appear, he shall be rejected, and so declared. SEC. 7.—Any brother applying for membership by deposit of card, shall be subject to the same ballot as a new applicant.

ARTICLE VI.—CONTRIBUTIONS AND BENEFITS.

SEC. 1.—The regular dues to this Division shall not be less than three-pence per week.

SEC. 2.—Every bona fide member, who shall be qualified as required by the Constitution and By-Laws of this Division, shall, in case of sickness or disability, be entitled to, and receive weekly, not less than one dollar, except it be shown that such sickness or disability be brought on by his own improper conduct; nevertheless this Division may suspend benefits by a two-third vote of the members present at a regular meeting, after two weeks notice of such action.

SEC. 3.—No brother residing within five miles of the Division of which he is a member, shall be entitled to benefits for more than one week previous to his case being reported to such Division. SEC. 3. When charges have been preferred against a brother in a proper manner, or any matters of grievance between brothers are brought before the Division, they shall be referred to a special committee of five members, who shall with as little delay as the case will admit, summon the parties, examine and determine the matter in question, and if their decision does not involve the suspension or expulsion of a member, and no appeal be taken from it to the Division, it shall be final, without other action. Should the committee be convinced of the necessity of suspending or expelling a member, they shall submit a motion, for the purpose to the Division, for action.

SEC. 4. When a motion for the expulsion or suspension of a member shall have been submitted in due form, it shall be announced at one regular meeting previous to action being taken; and the accused shall be summoned to be in attendance at the Division, at the time when it may have been determined to consider the question—at which time, whether the implicated member be present or not, the Division may proceed to consider and determine it. Two thirds of the members present voting in favor of the motion, it shall be carried; but the Division shall be fully competent, while such motion is under consideration, to vary the penalty from the original motion.*

SEC. 5. When the decision of a committee appointed under Section 3 of this Article, otherwise final, shall not be satisfactory to all parties, either of those interested, shall have the privilege of appeal to the Division—and the time appointed for trying the appeal, the committee shall present to the Division, in writing, the grounds on which their decision was founded; and the parties shall have the privilege of being heard before the Division—and the Division shall determine the correctness of the Officers elected previous to the expiration of half the Term, shall be entitled to the full honours of the Term; those elected after half the Term has expired, shall not count the honours, except where they be elected to fill vacancies occasioned by resignation, suspension, expulsion or death, in which case the brother who serves the residue of the Term shall be entitled to the full honours, and he who resigns or is suspended or expelled, shall forfeit his claim.

ARTICLE IX.—ELIGIBILITY FOR CHIEF OFFICES.

SEC. 1.—After a Division has been instituted three terms, no brother shall be eligible to the office of W. P. unless he has served a regular quarterly term as W. SEC. 2.—No brother shall be eligible to the offices of W. P., W. A., or T., who is under twenty-one years of age, except by dispensation from the Grand Division; provided, nevertheless, that no person elevated to the office of W. P., by such dispensation, shall be elected a Representative to the G. D., and that no G. D. shall have the right or authority to grant a dispensation under this act, except Divisions located in Villages or Institutions of Learning.

ARTICLE X.—VIOLATING ARTICLE II.

S., and requested to be present at the time appointed for considering the same, with a view of giving him an opportunity to make a defence.

SEC. 5.—If the Committee agree that the charge is not sustained, they shall report a resolution to that effect, and if the resolution be adopted, the charge shall be dismissed.

SEC. 6.—When the committee report the charge sustained, and a majority of the members present at a regular meeting, ballot in favour thereof, the offending person shall forfeit his membership, and the W. P. shall direct his name to be erased from the Constitution. If a majority of the Division vote in opposition to the resolution, all further proceedings shall be stayed, subject to appeal.*

SEC. 7.—If two thirds of those voting are in favour of re-instating a member who has been found guilty of violating Article II, he shall be restored to membership by resigning the Constitution, and paying for the first offence, one dollar, and for the second offence, two dollars, which shall be paid to the F.S. by the meeting succeeding the vote, or the member to stand suspended until the fine is paid. * Erasure of name for violation of Article II, as per Article X, Sec. 6, is not expulsion. An expelled member cannot be reinstated M.W.S.

SEC. 8.—When the Division vote in favour of re-instatement and the member neglects to come forward to sign the Constitution for one month thereafter he may be declared expelled by a two-third vote.

SEC. 9.—If a Division refuse to re-instate a member, he shall be declared expelled by the W.P., and the R.S. shall give the usual notice.

SEC. 10.—A member convicted of violation of the pledge after the second time, can be reinstated by a two third vote of the Division, the Division prescribing the penalty.

SEC. 11.—If a brother come forward and acknowledge that he has violated Article II, the Division, after erasure of name, &c., may at their option, re-instate him on the same evening if two-thirds of the members voting are in favour thereof.

SEC. 12.—An officer or representative to the Grand Division violating Article II, shall not be eligible to fill any official position for twelve months from the time he is reinstated.

SEC. 13.—A member expelled under this Article shall not be eligible for membership under six months thereafter.

Rule 1. It shall be the duty of the W. P. to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the Division, to a Speedy and proper result.

Rule 2. He shall state every question properly presented to the Division; and before putting it to vote, shall ask, "Is the Division ready for the question?" Should no member offer to speak, he shall rise to put it, and after he has risen, no member shall be permitted to speak upon it.

Rule 3. The W. P. shall have a casting vote in case of a tie, but in ordinary shall not vote. He shall announce all votes and decisions. His decisions on points of order shall not be debateable, unless entertaining doubts on the subject, he invite discussion.

Rule 4. He may speak to points of order, in preference to other members of the Division, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order subject to an appeal to the Division by any two members, which appeal shall always be in writing. On such an appeal no brother shall speak more than once.

Rule 5. When an appeal is made from the decision of the W. P., he shall put the question thus, "Shall the decision of the chair be sustained?"

No question shall be re-considered more than once; nor shall a vote to re-consider be re-considered. To re-consider any resolution, &c., the decision of which has officially passed out of the Division, shall not be in order.
