The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

NOTE.—Take this little work home, and carefully preserve it for future reference.

THE object of this little work is to introduce strangers to our fair city, and to direct them where whatever may be needed in the way of business or pleasure can be obtained. The stranger in a strange place necessarily feels awkward, and The Guide will, we hope, prove a friend; and no doubt a great deal of credit will be given us for our benevolence in providing this needed assistant, particularly when it is considered that it is gratuitous. We wish our readers to take it home for future reference, and they will acknowledge it to be a priceless treasure.

HOTELS.

The first object of the traveller is to find a comfortable hotel; and we cordially recommend the following as affording every accommodation requisite to make the guest "at home." Toronto is justly celebrated for its hotels; and the "best the market provides," is always on the table to appease the appetite:—

The "Queen's," on Front Street, and the "American," corner of Front and Yonge, have earned a continental celebrity. The "Metropolitan," Thomas Brown, proprietor, offers the advantage of a central location, being situated on the corner of Bay and King Streets. Elgie's Hotel, 40, King Street West, is a capital house, and the host is a capital fellow. The Commercial Hotel, 94, Nelson Street, Henry Lemon, proprietor, is a first-rate house, within a few minutes' walk of the market; and, as a farmers' inn, affords every accommodation. The stables are among the best in the city, and the terms as reasonable as can be expected. The Globe Hotel, James Page, proprietor, 163, Yonge Street, is an excellent house, and is favourably situated. Visitors will meet with the best accommodation at the most reasonable rates.

W. Lennox's Hotel is conveniently situated on the corner of West Market Square and Front Streets. The house is commodious, and the popular landlord will provide for the comfort of his guests in a way calculated to secure their future patronage.

Duck's Hotel, 81 Colborne Street, in the vicinity of the market, is a good and comfortable house, and the proprietor will spare no exertions to render the stay of his guests agreeable. The bar is supplied with the best. Charges moderate.

THE CITY BATHS, ADELAIDE STREET, WEST OF YONGE.

Luther C. Coddington, Richmond Street, corner of Victoria, is prepared to accommodate guests on very moderate terms. If you want a good house, good landlord, good table, good bar, and bagatelle board, call at the Richmond.

The following are also excellent houses :—Black Horse, 24 and 26, Palace; Blair's Hotel, 81 and 83, Nelson; British Hotel, corner King and Simcoe; City Arms, West Market Square; Coates' Hotel, 80, Colborne; Crocker's Hotel, Nelson; Doyle's Hotel, 78, Colborne; Eastern Hotel, corner King and George; Montreal House, 146 and 148, King west; Rochester House, Front, near Yonge.

It is often inconvenient to spare time to go "home" for meals, and we advise our friends to visit the City Larder, next to the Post Office; the Victoria Saloon, 44, King Street west; and the English Chop House, 30, King Street west, where, at all hours, every thing required may be found of the best quality. We refer our readers to advertisements. The Terrapin Restaurant is known "all over" as a fashionable resort, and its popularity is the best test of its excellence. The "Fountain" is also a favorite and deservedly so. F. Smith, No. 85, Yonge Street, is a quiet cosy nook, where the traveller in search of refreshments will find every thing necessary. John Cornell, West Market Square, near Front Street, is a well known long established saloon keeper, and as a caterer has few equals. James Smith, of the Union Station Restaurant; and F. Maguire, of the Great Western Station Restaurant, are so well known that we merely remind our readers that they are still alive and well.

BATHS.

To gain the envied distinction of enrolment as a Knight of the Bath, many a brave fellow has challenged death "i' the eminent deadly breach"; but without jeopardising life or limb, the honor may be obtained at the City Baths, Adelaide Street, which should be patronized by every one having a desire to "wash and be clean;" and as every body is determined to be so, we have great pleasure in recommending the 'City Baths,' where hot, cold, shower, swimming and medicinal baths can be obtained at a very small cost. The baths are private, and fitted up with every convenience, and the gentlemanly manager, Mr. Donald Grant, is always ready to attend to the requirements of visitors. The ladies' baths are first class, and managed by an experienced female attendant. A barber's shop is attached to the premises; and, if a gentleman is inclined to add the luxury of a "little drop," Mr. Mossop, next door, is always on hand.

Comfortable baths can also be had at James B. Marshall's Saloon, 54 King Street west.

BARBERS AND HAIRDRESSERS.

"It is a comfortable thing to shave, and I'll try it," says the youth in the play, when gazing in ecstasy on the rudimentary down which, by the aid of a microscope, he discovered on his chin. When the operation is required call on J. B. Marshall, 54 King Street west, and submit yourself to his scientific manipulation; then permit the Professor to show you a hot or cold bath; and when you leave the saloon, gratefully praise the good natured friend who advises you through this little book.

The celebrated Professor H. Nelson, 32 King Street west, still presides over the gorgeous Hair Cutting and Shaving Saloon so famous in the annals of fashion. The luxurious ease of the "Archard Patent Extension Chair," and the rapid and adroit manipulation of the talented Professor, must be experienced to be properly appreciated.

If you are in the neighbourhood of the market, Prof. De la Hunt, of Colborne St., will prove to your satisfaction that he is a real old English Neptune, and does not forget the art of hair dressing, which made his name so famous in the Strand, London, "a long time ago." John Wright, 6 Adelaide Street, west, ranks high as a professor of the tonsorial art. Also George H. Wright, No. 54 Adelaide Street east.

CLOTHING, DRY GOODS, AND MILLINERY.

The adornment of the person is one of the pardonable vanities we all indulge in, and there is a shade of truth in the saying that "the tailor makes the man." A great deal of respect is paid to an individual who enjoys the felicity of being well dressed; and the inability of publishers, poets, printers and politicians—hereditary victims of impecuniosity—to wear anything but seedy apparel, is, no doubt, the great reason why those unfortunates are regarded as suspicious characters. To the favorites of fortune, who possess the ready, we beg to state that for fancy, fashionable, good and useful clothing, our establishments may possibly be equalled in Paris or London, but we recommend the discerning public to call and see and purchase, and then decide.

The large and well know emporium, presided over by Messrs. R. WALKER AND SONS, and THE GOLDEN LION, 37

King Street east, will be found well worthy of patronage. The Clothing and Dry Goods departments are stocked with every variety of material, from a penny spool to the most elaborate manufactures of Lyons and Manchester, and a glance at their advertised prices will prove irresistible.

THE GOLDEN BONNET, 119 King Street, recently enlarged and embellished—the premises, we mean, not the bonnet—is one of the very best places in the city to get first-class clothing, millinery and dry goods. Adopting the system of cash payments and one price, the purchaser is satisfied that the goods he buys are really worth what is asked for them, and Messrs J. & G. W. Cox., the proprietors, are enabled to sell at electrifying rates. Here are countless quantities of lovely bonnets, exquisite mantles, and superb dresses; and the lucky individual who exchanges his cash for the treasures will never forget the “Golden Bonnet.”

Messrs R. Score & Son, sign of the Golden Elephant, 95 King Street west, hold a high rank as Merchant Tailors and Clothiers. The “Elephant” deserves patronage, for the materials for clothing are of the best quality, and the workmanship and business of the firm are governed by correct principles.

Mr. H. Matheson, 16 King Street east, imports and manufactures Ready-made Clothing of the best material and newest styles. In the short space of six hours garments are made to order, and a good fit warranted.

Messrs. W. A. Murray & Co., 21 and 23, King Street east, and Dundas Street, London, C.W., offer excellent inducements to country merchants. Their extensive stock of Silks, Shawls, Cloths, and general Dry Goods, will be found equal to those of any other house in the trade.

Those desirous of purchasing any article in this line will find it to their advantage to call. Messrs. Murray & Co. also manufacture Mantles, Millinery, and Gent.'s clothing.

At the Waterloo House, 176, Yonge Street, two doors south of Queen Street, an excellent assortment of first-class Dry Goods, Silks, Millinery, Shawls, &c., imported direct by the last steamer, can be procured. Messrs. Murray & Co. offer extra inducements to purchasers. Remember the address.

It is almost superfluous to mention Graham's "Temple of Fashion," for who has not heard of it? If well-deserved popularity is gained by an establishment, it is the best proof that fair trade, good material, and cheapness, characterise it; and we should like to see the man who has not heard of "The Temple." Here are the latest Paris, London, and New York Fashions—Four first-class Cutters—Piles of the best materials and goods for Cash. Read the Advertisement.

The famous Mammoth, directly opposite the Market, is one of the chief business places in the city. The passer-by must stop and admire the representation of the huge beast so significantly representing the mammoth piles of Clothing, Dry Goods, Millinery, and general goods. Here mammoth crowds of purchasers flock every day, and, in mystical contrast, find the prices only diminutive. Messrs. T. Thompson & Son deserve patronage, for they are not surpassed by any firm in Toronto for energy and a determination to give good value in return.

We recommend the Ladies to do themselves the pleasure of visiting the Millinery, Fancy Goods, and Dressmaking Establishment of Miss HODGINS, No. 1, Rossin House Block, where the newest and most fashionable goods are to be found.

Robert Wylie, 118 Yonge Street west, offers for sale a large and varied assortment of Dry Goods, Silks, Shawls, Mantles, Millinery, &c. The stock of Hosiery is complete, and intending purchasers will find the prices suitable.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

What is more effective in aiding our walks through life than a pair of good and neat boots? Where can the under-standings of our good men and true, and the delicate little pedestals of our best blessings be more tastefully and comfortably decorated than at the well-known establishments of S. M. SANDERSON, 133, Yonge Street; JAMES LESLIE, 113, King Street east; and DAVID WILSON, Old Globe Buildings, King Street west? Give them a call, and you will agree with us that "there's nothing like leather," when fashioned by those ingenuous upper crust souls.

CACKS.—"What's the meaning of this word?" Friend, it is the expressive abbreviation for juvenile shoes or booties for very juvenile olive branches, made, we believe, of kid or lamb skin. These Lilliputian specimens of St. Crispin's art are manufactured in Toronto only by Mr. H. Colbey, and are sold by the foot or bushel, we don't know which; but curiosity can be satisfied by calling at the manufactory, 46 King Street west.

Do you want a new hat? If so, when you next walk on King Street, drop in, and marvel at the choice selection of Messrs. Warner & Wiesner, 55, King Street east. Hats that are Hats, Caps that cap the CAPSTONE of perfection, and Furs—but call and judge.

McCrosson & Co., 111, King Street east, opposite St. St. James' Cathedral, are known all over Canada and the United States, and were their patrons all in favor of confederation the measure would be adopted by an overwhelming majority, even the plucky people of the little mite, Prince Edward's Island, would "cave." Get Hats, Caps, and Furs at 111, King Street east, if you admire style, quality, and finish.

The wholesale and retail establishment of D. Dineen, 80, Yonge Street, will repay a visit, if only to see his immense stock of Hats, Caps, Furs, and other goods in the same line. Here, for a small outlay, can be obtained a fashionable and durable article.

CARPETS.

PHOTOGRAPHERS.

“Secure the shadow ere the substance fades.”

One of the chief embellishments of our city is the numerous Photograph Galleries where samples of every variety of this beautiful art can be seen, and life-like portraits obtained at trifling cost. Every person ought to get pictures, as a better opportunity may not again occur for some time. The latest improvements, and the very best apparatus are at the command of our artists, and a visit to any one of them will “pay well.” We call particular attention to the following:—D. C. Butchart, 145, King Street east; Jas. R. Hay, 27 King Street east; P. & W. Hynes, 117 King Street east; W. O'Connor, Leader Buildings; H. S. Crewe, 146 King Street east; James Rawe, 64 King Street east.

GROCERIES, LIQUORS, &c.

Jno. C. Griffith & Co., 221, Yonge Street, corner of Shuter, are well known as extensive importers of general Groceries, Wines, and Liquors, of the best quality. The stock is complete: every article in the trade, and a call will satisfy the purchaser that no better and cheaper selection can be found in the city.

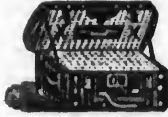

The well known establishment of Dodgson, Shields & Co., wholesale and retail Grocers and Provision Merchants, is well deserving of patronage. The goods are selected with a view to please; and for Biscuits and Confectionery, the corner of Yonge and Temperance Streets is the place.

The "Co-operative Store," 242 Yonge Street, is a new enterprise in Toronto, and is conducted on principles which cannot but insure its popularity. The stock of Groceries is complete, and we recommend intending purchasers to call and examine, and those who are undecided to step in and enquire.

PIANO FORTE MANUFACTURERS.

"Music hath charms," and that's a fact "which nobody can deny." The popularity of music is indicative of the civilization of a country; and it is gratifying to know that a very large number of our householders boast the possession of an elegant piece of furniture in the shape of a Piano, Melodeon, or some sweet sounding instrument. We recommend our readers to patiently read and weigh the advertisement of Messrs. Heintzman & Co., page 40, and, if thinking about the matter, decide at once, and look in at 105, King Street west, and buy a Piano guaranteed. The parents of young ladies, musically inclined, will gladden the hearts of their daughters, and escape a great deal of teasing and bother, by giving an order to Mr. H.

Messrs. A. & S. Nordheimer, 15, King Street east, have also an excellent assortment.

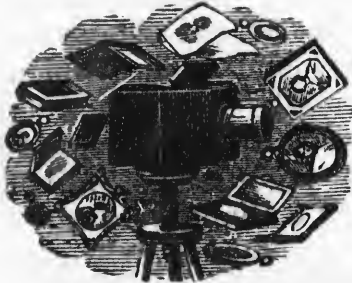

John C. Fox, the manufacturer of the Iron-clad Piano Fortes, which are at the present time enjoying so high a reputation, has his Warerooms at No. 6, Rossin House Block, King Street. We understand Mr. Fox possesses facilities which enable him to turn out very superior instruments at prices which defy competition. The iron-clad attachment, of which Mr. F. is the patentee and sole proprietor, is a decided improvement both to the tone and durability of the instrument, and will doubtless prove itself an important item in the history of the Piano Forte. We are glad to learn that the already extensive sale of these

The British American Commercial College, AND ACTUAL BUSINESS UNIVERSITY
TORONTO,

Is the only Institution in British America where the great system of Actual Business is thoroughly and systematically carried out. By this system the Student becomes an Actual Merchant, recording in the Day Book, Cash Book, and Bill Book the day's transactions, Journalizing and Posting the same, thus obtaining a clearer and more perfect knowledge of the science of Book-keeping, than mere theory can ever give.

A young man, graduating at this Commercial College, is examined and his Diploma signed by a Board of Examiners composed of Practical Business Men—a sufficient guarantee of efficiency and employment.

We would particularly call the attention of young men, acting as Salesmen, to the advantage of a sound knowledge of Book-keeping and Commercial Calculation. We have been almost daily applied to by the Proprietors of Retail Stores for Young Men having a thorough knowledge of Double-entry Book-keeping, and who would at the same time, when not employed with the Books, act as Salesmen. Persons thoroughly competent to act in both capacities, could command, not only the salary of a Salesman, but an additional allowance as Book-keeper. We have numerous Sets of Books particularly adapted to a Retail Business, which, if any young man masters thoroughly, he will find no difficulty in keeping the Books, by double-entry, of any establishment, however extensive.

PLACES OF AMUSEMENT.

The Royal Lyceum, on King Street west, between Bay and York, is a favorite resort for lovers of the drama, and the excellent troupe at present engaged by the popular manager, Mr. J. C. Myers, is composed of stars of various degrees of brilliancy, but all shiners.

The Golden City Billiard Parlor is the place for all who take an interest in this beautiful game. The establishment is well fitted up with tables of the most modern improved style.

The Revere House, Messrs. Riley & May, King Street, corner of York, is a first-class hotel. There is a billiard saloon attached to the premises.

The Queen's Hotel Billiard Saloon, Geo. Brown, proprietor, "an honorable man," no politician, connected only with petroleum-lighted "Globes." The best recommendation we can give this establishment is that WE go there to see our friends, and so does every body else.

THE OXFORD HALL.—This highly popular place of amusement is well deserving of patronage. All lovers of fun can enjoy an evening at the Oxford. Negro minstrelsy, comicalities, travesties, first-rate songs, side-rending conundrums, inimitable dances, and a big supply of the best wines, liquors and cigars. The terms are moderate enough to charm the heart of a professor of economy.
