Their specialty is potatoes, of which they expect to get from 80 to 100 bags of Irish cobblers.

GLEN GROVE SCHOOL ORGANIZES FOR WORK
Yesterday was a busy day for the pupils of the proposed new school on Glen Grove avenue, the occasion being the beginning of the connection with the garden. The Home and School Association, under the presidency of Mrs. C. W. W. as far as small children are concerned, a 50-foot lot on Alexander boulevard in close proximity to the proposed school, was partitioned and the garden was laid out and put in readiness for planting. Yesterday the school was organized into a similar manner to their disposition in the sector of Arras, is strong historically, and has made hardly a single move for six weeks. It is, therefore, the more rested of the German army groups, and its stillness gives rise to suspicion of an enemy desire to achieve a surprise. The enemy has disposed his troops in a similar manner to their disposition before the opening of his first offensive. He holds his first line strongly and keeps his reserves far in the rear. He has also collected larger reserves than he had in March, but it is doubtful if these have the punch of the men who opened the campaign. Outside of the drafts which replaced casualties all these have gone thru the terrible experience of the allied barrage.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

The successful action of French troops in the Mount Kemmel region east of Loere, involving an advance on a front of 4000 yards, much strengthens their position. It is noted that the depth of the advance is not given, but is referred to as shallow. This is according to the usual care of the allies not to run into too sharp a salient as the Germans often do. The French are coming pretty close to outflanking Mount Kemmel and it is probable that General Foch has a desire of recapturing this dominating peak. Instead of wielding the German sledgehammer, or battle ax, the allies are proceeding by the using of a tack-hammer, or a delicate surgeon's knife. By cutting out small chunks at a time from the enemy system, the allies are progressing by the employment of a minimum of force. These local advances depend for their success more on surprise than on the employment of large numbers of men.

Before the British army the most suspected force at present is the force of General von Below. It confronts the third army of Sir Julian Byng in the sector of Arras, is strong historically, and has made hardly a single move for six weeks. It is, therefore, the more rested of the German army groups, and its stillness gives rise to suspicion of an enemy desire to achieve a surprise. The enemy has disposed his troops in a similar manner to their disposition before the opening of his first offensive. He holds his first line strongly and keeps his reserves far in the rear. He has also collected larger reserves than he had in March, but it is doubtful if these have the punch of the men who opened the campaign. Outside of the drafts which replaced casualties all these have gone thru the terrible experience of the allied barrage.

In Albania Franco-Italian troops carried out what appears to be an important operation near the western coast, reducing a large salient of over 12 miles deep from base to apex. This represents an advance on a front of probably 20 or 25 miles. The new allied positions now run along the Cerevoda-Ostrovica front. This advance had probably its motive in the desire of the Italians and French to improve their communications. A short distance ahead of their original line in this region there runs a sort of natural route for a light railway from the Adriatic coast, and they are probably aiming at securing control of this route. For any extensive campaign in the Balkans more railway facilities are useful.

Affairs in the far east are becoming increasingly chaotic. Balkan Cosack forces have joined the Chinese, in Manchuria and are marching on Chientsi. These are supporting the revolution against the Bolsheviki. The employees of the Manchuria railways have declared a strike. The Russian inhabitants, outside of the discharged soldiers, who are Bolsheviki, are awaiting their deliverance, not only in Siberia, but in Great Russia and the Ukraine. It has come out in an smuggled manifesto of oppressed Russian socialists, that the Bolsheviki owe their ascendancy to the adherence of Russian exiles to their own cause. Every man's hand is against the pro-German rascals and the German domination. The farmers are destroying their crops and the German food to keep them from the Germans.

Russia's helplessness has inspired compassion in the hearts of the allied peoples. India will probably furnish the Russian people with sufficient assistance to achieve their deliverance, and for this purpose the British and Indian Governments are organizing the Hindustan peninsula for war on a grand scale. If the British proceed with their undertaking in India they will be able to give almost direct military aid to southern Russia. A benefit accruing from the mobilization of India is that India can almost become self-supporting in war and will not require the shipping needed by the Japanese.

It may well be that the ultimate issue of the war will depend on what is going to happen in the east. Also the defeat of the Germans in the west would ultimately compel their retirement to their own frontier, it would not guarantee their expulsion from their eastern conquests, so to make any peace stable, the allied governments are giving their people warning of an impending attempt at restoring Russia and at freeing her from the German peril. It is reasonable to assume that the preparations undertaken will be adequate for achieving the desired result.

Continuing their aggressive action, the Italians have made a further advance in the mountains between the Adige and Asiago, where they have captured a part of the enemy trench system on Capo Sile. The air activity on this front has become much more intense, as seen from the dropping of 30 tons of bombs on the Austrians in the Val Sugana.

Earlscourt

REAL ESTATE BOOM JUST A MILD ONE

Earlscourt Families Are Having Difficulty in Renting Moderately-Priced Houses.

"Is real estate lively?" asked a reporter for The World of R. J. Law, one of Earlscourt's leading real estate agents. "It's just a mild boom," replied Mr. Law, "for here is but one alternative; people must buy as there are no houses for rent. A house rent a hundred right off if it had them."

Citizens with a couple of hundred dollars can find a small house to suit them; citizens without the money must remain where they are and they are lucky if their house is not sold over their heads. What shall we do for houses when the soldiers come home? is being asked. Families now broken up because of the war, will then be broken up to make another, will then be broken up to make another.

These before the war lived comfortably and happy in their little homes with garden patches, will want to get back again to former conditions, but unless the city takes this matter in hand, or some big capitalist will put up a thousand or more houses in this section, the situation will become more acute.

Earlscourt residents are asking for small houses at a rental of $25—all that a working man in this district can afford to pay.

Also the ground has only just been broken for two new areas with apartments above, equities are already being made by prospective owners for occupation.

Ten years ago houses and stores in this section were a drug on the market, and real estate was looked upon as a bad investment. In those days land could have been purchased on the main street for $20 a foot, and today $20 to $25 is asked.

In these ten years housing accommodation has not kept pace with the growth of the population, and therefore the need oversteps the supply. Twenty years ago land was offered for sale at two dollars a foot, and it was hard to find a buyer at this low price.

Soldiers and their families are said to be badly treated. It is a recurrent complaint that they are rejected by landlords because of their children, and although a large number of Earlscourt citizens own their own homes the soldier, who is not so fortunate as to own his home, who has fought and bled for his country, has a hard time in procuring a suitable place for his loved ones.

North Toronto

NORTH TORONTO GETS RESULTS IN POULTRY

The splendid results following the inauguration of the recently organized North Toronto Poultry Association are now becoming apparent in the large increase in the stocks of chickens in all parts of the northern section of the city. Men who never before evinced the slightest interest in the poultry business are deeply interested in it, and splendid success, both from nature and hatching and the incubators, is reported.

Everybody has not struck it rich, but a great many have, and will next year increase their capacity. The breed of poultry most generally favored is the White Leghorn, a great many are going strongly into the Plymouth Rocks and Rhode Island Reds.

Bolsheviki Telegraph Protest to German Government Against Atrocities in Caucasus. VIOLATION OF PEACE. Enemy Had Left Inhabitants of Armenia Right to Control Own Destiny. London, May 20.—The Russian commissioner for foreign affairs, it was made known today, sent the following wireless message on April 12 to the German foreign office: "In the Turkish advance on the Caucasus the peaceful population, including women and children, is being cut down ruthlessly by the thousands. The treaty we were forced to sign at Brest-Litovsk provided that the populations at Ardahan, Kara and Batum should have full freedom and the right to control their destiny in their own way. The events in these regions show that the policy of extermination which has been followed for the past ten years, is still being pursued. Responsibility for atrocities among the Armenian people in the regions at present occupied by Turkey devolves

LARGE SUM ASKED IN SUPPLEMENTARIES

Includes Thirty-Seven Million to Cover Government Railway Expenses. AID TO CIVIL SERVANTS. Three Million to Assist Government Employees in the Outside Service. Ottawa, May 20.—Hon. A. K. Maclean, acting minister of finance, in the commons this morning tabled supplementary estimates totaling $46,957,312. The total is an unusually large one, because it includes a vote of $27,000,000 to cover the working expenses of the Canadian Government Railways. This large item is almost invariably included in the main estimates brought down earlier in the session. Of the amount asked for only $5,170,312 is chargeable to capital expenditure. The vote of most general interest is one providing the sum of $3,000,000 to assist government employees in the outside service who are in receipt of small or comparatively small salaries. Provision is made for temporary assistance (except in the case of lighthouse keepers), for married men and for widows and widowers with children in the outside service, who are employed permanently, and are giving their entire time to the public service for an allowance on the following basis: (a) To each person in receipt of a salary at the rate of $1200 per annum or less, an allowance of $150, less any permanent increase in salary since January 1, 1917, provided, however, the total salary and allowance shall not in any case exceed $1500. (b) To each such person in receipt of a salary at the rate of more than $1200 but not more than $1550 per annum, an allowance of $100, less any permanent increase in salary since January 1, 1917, provided the total salary and allowance shall not exceed $1600. Railway estimates include the sum of $2,489,312, to acquire free and clear of all charges, incumbrances or claims at any public sale, the Quebec and Saguenay Railway, extending from its junction with the Quebec, Montmerency and Charlevoix Railway to Nain Falls, about 62.3 miles, at a price not exceeding the amount named. Provision is made for the acquisition of a number of short railways located in the maritime provinces at a total cost of $515,000. Twenty thousand dollars is provided to provide payment of the full seasonal indemnity for members of the commons, absent on account of illness or death or because they have been engaged in necessary farming operations. This sum includes full seasonal indemnity for Hon. H. S. Beland, recently released from Germany. There is a vote of $175,000 for the construction of a bridge on the Canadian Central Railway over the Peace River near Peace River Crossing. The sum of $100,000 is provided for Fraser River improvements. Harbor and river votes include $386,000 to St. Charles River improvements; $250,000 for St. John, N.B., harbor, and $152,000 for Toronto harbor. TWELVE-MILE ADVANCE BY ALLIES IN ALBANIA. Paris, May 20.—The war office reports in part as follows: "West of Korits, between the upper valleys of the Dravoi and Osam Rivers, French and Italian troops on May 15, 16 and 17 carried out with full success a series of operations for the purpose of reducing a very pronounced salient formed by positions occupied by the enemy in this region, and of establishing the allied line in more advantageous positions in the localities of Protopapa and Cereveda. They attained all their objectives. The advance of our troops in the centre reached 20 kilometres (12 1/2 miles). AMERICAN SHOT DOWN. Big German Triplane Kills Major Raoul Lufbery. With the American Army in France, May 20.—Major Raoul Lufbery, who had been regarded as the best aviator in the American Air Service, was shot down in flames and killed this morning by a big German triplane which he was attacking. Lufbery jumped from his flaming machine when 800 yards above the ground. He had seventeen victories to his credit. SINN FEIN DEMONSTRATION. PEOPLE MASSACRED AS TURKS ADVANCE. DELAY IS FEARED IN PLANTING CORN. Unsettled, Cooler Weather Has Bullish Effect on Chicago Market. Chicago, May 20.—Years of dangerous delays in planting did a good deal today to advance the value of corn. Prices closed strong at the same as Saturday's finish to 2 1/2c higher, with May $1.37 1/2 and $1.27 1/2, and July $1.43 1/2 and $1.45 1/2. Oats gained 1 1/2c and 1 1/2c to 3 1/2c net. In provisions the outcome varied from 1/2c decline to 3/4c advance. Unsettled, cooler weather, adverse to rapid planting, tended decidedly to discourage selling of corn. In this connection, it was said much seedling might be postponed several days, and there was talk that replanting was necessary in some important sections. Bullish sentiment was further augmented by the percentage of damaged corn in current arrivals and by doubt, therefore, as to whether a liberal amount of contract grade would be available for June and July delivery. A decrease in the visible supply total kept the market on the up-swing as the season came to an end. Growth of a revival of export inquiry helped to lift the oats market. Congestion of the May option was an additional lightening factor. Big exports of meats gave strength to provisions, and, too, did higher quotations on hogs. The consequent advance, however, brought out realising and led to a reaction.

PLAN OF ALTERNATIVE ROUTES OF TRAFFIC BETWEEN ROSEDALE SECTION OF VIADUCT AND THE CORNER OF BLOOR AND SHERBOURNE STREETS

Length of street car line and new roadway (part of the viaduct plan) from Parliament street (west end of Rosedale viaduct) to Sherbourne and Bloor... Length do, via Howard street... New roadway is shorter than Howard street by...

viaduct, at the head of Parliament, along the fill on the ravine, to the east end of Bloor street at Sherbourne. The roadway is 1560 feet long and 88 feet wide. It will be carried over Glen road by girders.

Commissioner Harris is recommending to the works committee not only that street car tracks be laid on the new viaduct roadway on the south side of the Rosedale ravine, but that a macadam driveway be laid immediately south of the street car tracks for vehicles as well. Someone has suggested that only the street car tracks be put down for the present and that vehicles be kept off the new roadway and made to go by Howard street. Howard street's asphalted roadway is only 24 feet wide, and would not be long enough to accommodate the traffic.

Commissioner Harris proposes to carry the new driveway and the street car tracks over Glen road by steel girders about 12 feet above the grade of Glen road. This would make a roadway of Glen road toward the south.

The commissioner's plan could be executed within six weeks or so and would put the whole of the Don viaduct in commission from Bloor to Danforth as originally planned, the wooden blocks on the new roadway from Parliament to Sherbourne would have to be deferred. But in the meantime roller macadam road would take its place. There is some more filling and grading and setting to take place north of the street car tracks, but fifty feet of the new roadway, including the rails, would remain for the Howard street. The new way would be straight and shorter and wider, and would practically complete the viaduct for general service.

SALARY OR FEES TO CROWN ATTORNEY?
Matter Was Subject of Lengthy Debate in City Council.
NO DECISION REACHED
It Was Referred Back to Board for Further Discussion.

The recommendation of the board of control to pay J. Seymour Corley, city crown attorney, a straight salary of $2,000 a year for conducting all the cases of those charged with contraventions of the Ontario Temperance Act occasioned most of the discussion at yesterday's meeting of the city council.

Could Not Amend Statutes.
Ald. Hiltz suggested that the recommendation be thrown out altogether. Ald. Blackburn moved that the recommendation read that the attorney be paid fees upon each case, the accumulated fees for the year not to exceed $2,000. Mayor Church pointed out that in his opinion it was impossible to amend the statutes which read that the crown attorney was both a crown and a judicial official, and that he could either receive fees of $3 a case or could consent to an agreement with the council. The board, he said, had made such an agreement as was read in the recommendations.

FALLS FROM BICYCLE.
When he fell from a bicycle he was riding yesterday John Jacobson, 231 Oakmount road, broke his right arm. He was removed to St. Michael's Hospital.

SUGGEST OLD HALL AS TAX PAY OFFICE
The city council at yesterday's session passed the recommendation of the board of control to request the finance commissioner to make arrangements to have the old town hall on Keele street used as a tax pay office for the convenience of the ratepayers of West Toronto.

McBride was a vigorous opponent of this recommendation, and expressed his opinion that it was an imaginary principle, which would soon be taken advantage of by other outlying districts. The champions of the recommendation pointed out that this privilege would save the ratepayers lots of money in car fares. The commissioner had pointed to the fears expressed by Controller McBride, and had expressed the opinion that a centralized office would meet the best needs of the people.

COMPLAIN OF RENTS.
The city council yesterday afternoon referred the petition of the tenants of the Riverdale Courts, Bay avenue, properties of the Toronto Housing Co., to the board of control, and this petition will likely be considered at the next session of the council. The petitioners claim that the company has been drawing rent of $55,000, or 12 per cent of the assessment on the properties, $311,000.

TWENTY-FIVE OF CORPS HAND IN RESIGNATIONS
Proof that the story published in The World a few days ago regarding discharges being available for members of the Royal Air Force was authentic is shown by the fact of 25 Strachan parade barracks, Toronto, and handing in their resignations. It was also learned by The World that the camp recently at the aviation grounds who applied recently for their discharges have already received them and are now again in civilian dress.

Military Authorities Definitely Decide on St. Andrew's College
Official announcement was made yesterday afternoon that the authorities had made up their minds definitely in regard to the utilization of the St. Andrew's College property for military hospital purposes in the treatment of wounded men returning from overseas service. The authorities state there is "not a chance in the world" of any change being made in the plan to use the St. Andrew's College grounds for military hospitals, and that no pressure brought to bear at Ottawa by those antagonistic to the scheme will be of any avail, no matter how influential the parties interested may be. The military authorities are certain that the property chosen is the most suitable one in the whole City of Toronto for the purpose, and are determined that there shall be no change in the arrangements.

Whether the Toronto Railway Company will fall in line with the suggestion made by Alderman Joseph Gibbons, business agent of the Toronto Railway Employees' Union, regarding the employment of women on the Toronto street railway remains to be seen. His suggestion is that the matter be submitted to a board of investigation and conciliation, but apparently the company has not yet decided if this will be done.

London, May 20.—Striking figures of the work done in the shipping repair yards were published today. From August 3, 1917, when the director got the organization to work, to April 25, 1918, the yards have repaired and restored 5307 vessels, representing a gross tonnage of 1,615,000. This gives a weekly average of 114,105 gross tons. But the weekly average for some weeks past has risen to over 500,000 gross tons, and is steadily rising. The amount repaired in one week reached 598,000 gross tons. Five ships, each over 20,000 tons, have left the yards ready for service in a single week.

FATHER IS ADVISED CHILD IS KIDNAPPED
Word was received yesterday by C. O. Sypher at 231 Ontario street that his little daughter, Viola, aged 10 years, whose home is in Pefferlaw, was kidnapped yesterday afternoon about two o'clock from the school about a quarter of a mile from her home. The father stated that for some time past the little girl had been receiving threatening letters in which it was stated that she was going to be taken away. He said he thought he had an idea as to the guilty party, but he could not say for certain. If what he surmised is correct, he said, it was a family affair. He has placed the matter in the hands of the Toronto police and also notified the police at the border. The little girl is described as being remarkably bright for her age, and the remarkable thing about the matter, also he would not mention any names, was that he was of the opinion that the party or parties intended to try and place the girl in an asylum.

SERIOUS CHARGES ABOUT FIRE DEPARTMENT
London, Ont., May 20.—Many serious charges in connection with matters pertaining to the conduct of the London Fire Department were presented to the city council at its meeting tonight by the Trades and Labor Council. Some days ago the labor men asked that an official investigation be made, stating that they would present charges in writing at the first meeting of the council. It is claimed that several of these have been placed; that discipline is not being maintained; that matters in connection with equipment are not being looked after. The affair is generally regarded as a showdown as to whether the Fire Chief, Aitken is to run the department, or the unions. The council referred the charges to a committee for a report.

Complications today show ninety-four persons in Pittsburg hospitals, and company officials say that 100 members of the working force of the plant are yet unaccounted for.

NO ACTION TAKEN; COUNCIL ADJOURNS
Replacing of Board of Health Estimates is Not Discussed.

The only action that the city council took at yesterday's session with regard to the estimates of $22,000 asked for by the board of health was to adjourn at the exact moment the estimates should have come up for discussion. The board of health is asking for an additional $22,000 for the purpose of reinstating the nurses and health department because the amount needed to maintain this staff was omitted in the estimates ratified by the council at a recent session. Four separate adjournments were made to have an adjournment until half-past eight. Confusion was the order of the day until the motion to adjourn altogether passed.

Veterans and Labor Men Have Reached No Agreement

No agreement has been reached by the two committees of the G. W. V. A. and labor regarding the alien and enemy problems. This is not because of any real disagreement, but because there are many members of the G. W. V. A. absent owing to the advent of a provincial convention at Hamilton. It was felt that the best time to consider the resolutions proposed by the labor representatives would be after the convention at Hamilton. During the session the two forces disagreed on only one or two minor points, and before the meeting was over these had been cleared up.

OLD FAVORITES SEEN AT GRAND THIS WEEK

That "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" has lost none of its attraction was made evident at the Grand Opera House last night when peals of laughter went up from the audience in the most spontaneous way as the mirth-provoking situations in which Miss Hazy figured as the bride, or Mr. Stubbins as the abducted bridegroom.

BIRDS ALWAYS BEST IN OPENING CLASH

Founded Warhop to All Corners, and Won by Wide Margin.

Toronto fans always like to see Jawn Dunn and his Baltimore Birds, but Jawn should remember that his kindly feelings were before abuse. Jawn turned loose his vultures yesterday, and what they did to our budding Leaflets was a shame. The Baltimore feathered tribe pecked away at Jack Warhop until the little under-hand pitcher had not a thing left. The pecking netted 10 runs on the Baltimore side of the score sheet. Our space was cluttered with five tallies. Eighteen times did the Duncans swing their clubs. The Howley hopes amassed eleven "blows."

It was a very hot battle, and a lot of final round. Worrell, the portlander, that Dunny pitches every other day, was sailing along in great fashion, but weakened sadly in the final bow. The Leafs staged their effort too late. It caused a little excitement for the fans that stayed and amounted to four hits and three runs. To add to the sorrowful tale, Dan's men were sadly when they took some fielding. They made a mess of several efforts and ran bases like a lot of dead men. Wagner was the only man who could be said to have any success with Worrell's war. He struck out one of them, one for two corners. Lear and Thrasher took two pokes each, the latter being the more severe.

Warhop had the blue Monday feeling. He tossed them up, but Baltimore belted them right back and the Toronto fielders, in and out, ran a few pounds off their shanks. Dunny's crew went right to work like union men and put up two tickets in the opening round. This kept the Leafs battling from the start to the end of the game. The Birds had a habit of breaking out in spells, and when they did, they were tall hustling to get them to stop.

It would be just as well to tell you the story of the run-getting, and you can form your own opinion. Lawry stroled up to start the game, and promptly slammed a hit into left field. Herbert laid down a bunt that Warhop just failed to get and made it a hit. Lawry and Walker were the second runners. Shanon banded to Wagner and Lawry scampered home. Herbert was caught between second and third and run down. Shanon moved up to second while all this was going on and ambled home on Griffin's hit back of third. Egan took one in the sixth, and the bases were crowded with Warhop. McAlpin obliged by fanning.

Our bats produced a run, and the fans thought the Leafs were in the running for a spell. Led was hit by the pitcher and they dumped down on the second. Walker was safe on Worrell's bad peg. Egan nipped Led off second while the Toronto runners were on base. The Birds' third run was over in the second. With one down Lawry supplied his second hit in the second. Herbert unwrapped the hit to score him. This edged the run here. Dan's men yined in the second. The Leafs' second run was here for a single counter. Wagner opened the innings with a clean hit, but Lear asked out. Wagner ambled on to second by the theft route and Thrasher cut to deep centre and hit. Thrasher raced for second on the throw home, but overvald the bag and was out. Bowman was an infatid out.

We had a royal chance in the fifth, but the old base hit was not forthcoming. With one out of the way Warhop got a runner on base. Herbert did the heavy lifting over Bailey hit for half the journey. Howley made gloom appear by grounding to second.

The sixth took all the joy out of life. Dunny gave the word and his hungry warblers simply rained on Griffin's head. Eight hits were dropped by the Birds. Egan opened with a clout. Bishop laid down a bunt. Fisher raced for it, got his hand over it, but could not lift the salary wing. On looking up he found a large hand pinning his heavy arm firmly to the green grass. A look further up revealed that Mr. Bowman was the owner of the retaining hand. Needless to say Mr. Bishop reached first. McAlpin thought he would also try the bunting stunt to see if the act could be repeated. There was no encore, but Fisher tossed badly to first and McAlpin was satisfied. Worrell dropped a hit in the seventh. Lawry's rap accounted for two more. Herbert did the same stunt and across came two more. Mulvey kindly nooted out, but Shanon bounced a hit off Bowman's shin for just another count. Egan, up on the second time, rolled to Warhop. The Leaf pitcher turned to toss him, but no body thought to cover first. Bishop ended a heart-breaking round by popping out. The Orioles added one to make their count ten in the ninth. Led tore off a pretty one-handed catch on Worrell's ball in this closing frame. They went after Worrell as if they meant business and three runs were the result. With two-down Warhop hit safely and stole second and third. Led beat out a hit to third, and the bases were full when third walked. Wagner's clean clout scored. Onslow's clean clout scored. Led's roller and the third tally was over. Thrasher ended the work by rapping sharply to first.

BISONS and INDIANS ARE MONDAY WINNERS

At Buffalo (International)—Buffalo won a 12-inning struggle with the leading Bisons yesterday by a score of 5 to 4, with one man down in the last frame. The game was a great pitching duel between Cooper and Higgins. Binghamton secured a lead of three runs early in the play, but Buffalo evaded this at the close of the eighth. Binghamton again went into the lead in their eleventh, only to have the Bisons come up on even terms in their half and win out in the twelfth. Binghamton drove in the winning tally after Martin Murphy had been passed and reached second on a wild pitch. The score: 000002010011—R.H.E. Buffalo, 001200000010—4 12 2; Binghamton, 001200000010—4 12 2.

ST. LOUIS IS ONLY HOME TEAM TO LOSE

At Chicago (National)—Timely hitting, which included Z. Whaas' double and Meyers' home run, following an error by the first baseman, and the visitors won the first game of the series 5 to 2. Myers, the first to face Carter, made his circuit drive when the ball bounded over the left field screen. Chicago scored two runs late in the contest. Tony's Batteries—Marquard and Krueger; Walker, Carter, Weaver and Killefer. At Cincinnati—Quinn pitched his clean hit off Bagin in the fifth inning and easily defeated Boston. Tony pitched all-right but until his team had the victory well in hand, when he let down a little, and the Bostoners scored two runs late in the contest. Tony's Batteries—Ragan, Canavan and Wilson; Toney and Wingo. At Philadelphia—The Philadelphia Nationals made their initial appearance of the season at Forbes Field and were defeated by Pittsburgh 1 to 1. Cooper, in the box for the home team, held the visitors safe, except in the sixth inning, when they bunched hits and scored their only run. Score: 000001000—R.H.E. Philadelphia, 000001000—1 1 1; Pittsburgh, 000030000—5 11 2.

DUNN AGAIN TODAY

The Leafs will take on the Baltimore Orioles again this afternoon for a single game, starting at 3:30. This is the first ladies' day of the season, and as the Leafs are sure to turn out in good numbers, the Leafs are improving daily now and are out to make up for lost time during their home stay. Crable likely to work today for the Leafs, but Dunny hasn't made his selection. A double-header tomorrow will close the series with Baltimore. Reserved seats are on sale Monday.

ONE-MAN UMPIRING SYSTEM ALL WRONG

Ida Advises International to Have Extra Officials and Make Class AA Noise.

By Ida L. Webster.
After being steadily under fire for 1 hour and 56 minutes, Howley's forces were compelled to retire, and Hanlan's Hill was captured by the Birds. There can be no alibi as to why the Howleyites gave way, because they did not have a look-in, and in one inning, which lasted 17 minutes, Dunny's beauties almost walloped them off the face of the earth. In fact, the only reason that the said invaders are not being played yet is because Ben Egan got tired slaying out his arms on the club had had a hit, and indeed, Egan had hit two, but the rest took uppercut at the foot plate and fled out. Egan may be old, but he certainly has young ideas, and he keeps coaching the younger fry continuously, which tends to keep life in their end of the game, which is, after all, the chief asset. The Baltimore boys made up of youngsters, who in appearance are like a flock of schoolboys; but mister, you may take it from Dunny, they all of them act mighty like ball players. They can man bases in King's Piste form, and every one of them knows how to stand up to the ball, and also how to take a crack at it. The latest rookie of the gang is young blonde called Mason, who hits like he is the fastest kid that the south ever produced, speaking from experience, we might say. This is certainly some, but the question is, How does Dunny get on the trail of these players? Does anyone know if Jack is managing director of a boys' orphanage? Catcher Birch had a most unfortunate accident at Niagara Falls on Sunday, while playing in an exhibition game. He broke his leg, but they expect him back in the game within a month.

MENNONITES FREE FROM SERVICE ACT

Judge Winchester Decides in Favor of the Conscientious Objector.

TAUGHT TO LOVE PEACE

Subject Also Taken Up in Parliament Last Week by Member.

Whether Mennonites resident in the Province of Ontario were under the terms of the Military Service Act exempt from being called to the colors was a question raised yesterday at the exemption tribunal presided over by Judge Winchester, who decided in favor of the Mennonites. W. R. Smyth, K.C., chief public representa- tive, took the stand that the exempt- ing clause in the act only referred to the colony of Mennonites from the south of Russia, who settled in Man- itoba in 1873, not to all the Mennon- ites throughout the Dominion. "I don't agree with you," said Judge Winchester. "It covers all Mennonites. I have great sympathy with them; they are true Christians who have been taught from childhood to love peace, and I hold that they, accord- ing to the order-in-council, are 'ex- empted,' not 'subject to exemption.'"

"Is it fair, your honor, that because of the tenets of their creed these peo- ple should be exempted right away, and people across the road from them working on the farms may have to fight for exemption, and when refused have to see their only sons go?" asked Mr. Smyth.

"These people are quite different from Christadelphians or other off- shoots of Christianity who, as con- scientious objectors, claim non-com- batancy on religious grounds," replied his honor.

The applicants, farmers' sons, Geo. W. Hoover and G. S. Wilhoit, both of Markham Township, who were able to prove themselves Mennonites, were ex- empted.

The exemption of Mennonites was taken up at Ottawa last week by W. F. Maclean, Joseph Wideman, of Markham, saw Hon. Mr. Meighen and other members. Hon. Mr. Doherty, minister of justice, has also looked in- to their claim. He said in substance that conscientious objectors like the Mennonites would have to be protect- ed, and he would issue some directions in a few days. Judge Winchester evi- dently takes the same view.

WILD FLOWERS

BY Rachael R. Todd, M.D.

THE SKUNK CABBAGE.

Symplocarpus Foetidus.

"Drawn by what peculiar smell. By what charm of sight or smell. Does the dim-eyed curious bee. Laboring for her waxen cells, Fondly settle upon thee?" —Wordsworth.

This strange wild flower, by a mis- chance, was left out of the first week's talk, and because it is one of the very first of all the "huskies" to brighten up the swamps some days ago. However, Skunk Cabbage has waited for our attention, and now offers low boggy piece of land, marshes, swamps and like situations have some of the plants very strongly in evidence.

Skunk Cabbage belongs to a queer and well-known family, the Arums. Our friend, Jack-in-the-Pulpit, his sister, the White Calla Lily, and the Water Arum, are all favorites and show the peculiar characteristics of the family.

This plant can be found in very wet and moist spots, but he is so large and easily discovered that the ordinary searcher need not concern himself to hunt too ardently. As a wild flower (for plucking) the plant is a failure, for obvious reasons, but as a quaint and mysterious study nothing in the woods can surpass it.

As a rule, the first twisted leaves of it come up in a close coiled spiral, of a dark reddish-brown color, and where the marsh happens to be dotted over with a number of the first spirals the appearance presented is not unlike a small low-burning fire, veiled in lurid smoke. Especially is this noticeable if the sun shines straight on the plants.

Hiding within this first twisted, mottled and striped leaf (which be- comes later a structure similar to the canopy of famous Jack's) rises the thick spike of tiny blossoms, which are of a dull green yellow. Later on in the season these wee blossoms be- come seed pods, tiny berries of a bright waxy scarlet.

After the first week or ten days the great rank coarse leaves come up from the base of the plant—huge things of deep veins—and are often from one to two feet high. Of a sickly yellowish green at first, the color deepens later, and the whole living clump looks exactly like a huge rough cabbage. Because of its foetid odor, which, however, is not so appar- ent unless the leaves are disturbed, the name, Skunk Cabbage, exactly suits the plant.

Looking at it, you will wonder at nature's mysteries, shown in more ways than one in this very plant, but listening to the busy hum of the bees, who are literally swarming about the nectar-bearing blossoms, you are prone to confess that mother nature has a use for everything.

It is a well-known fact that cattle eating the apparently succulent leaves in early spring become very sick, the juice being acrid and quite poison- ous. But here is an interesting fact about

Skunk Cabbage. It is used officially in medicine. The fluid extract from the roots is frequently made use of in liquid preparations for the relief of chronic asthma, and the medicine mix- ers tell me that it is a mighty ex- perience to down a mouthful of it, altho it is really most efficacious as an anti- spasmodic and sedative for the asth- matic seizures.

Also, the root is ground up into fine powder, and when mixed with other herbs a preparation is concocted, in- haling the smoke of which gives an almost immediate relief in the worst asthma seizures. Moral: Never judge a plant for its looks, its smell or its apparent ab- sence of blossoms.

FINE RECITAL PROGRAM.

Miss Marie C. Strong Arranges Splen- did Entertainment.

Last night a recital arranged by Miss Marie C. Strong was given at her studio when Miss Marie Nicoloff, Francis D. Bourguignon, and assisting artists gave one of the fine pro- grams for which this studio is noted.

Miss Nicoloff, the now well-known Russian contralto, sang with her usual distinction a number of operatic and other selections, among them "Eg- gie" and "Aux Echo des Bois," Massenet, and Schubert's Ave Maria with violin obligato, played by Rowland Palmer. "Allegro Appassionato," Saint Saens, and "Staccato Etude," Rubenstein, were brilliant offerings by Bourguignon.

The assisting artists were Meiba Melone, soprano; Rowland Palmer, violinist; E. Carl Newton, accom- panist. A collection was taken up in aid of Paderewski's regiment now training in Canada.
