FRANTIC EFFORTS MADE TO CONCEAL AN OLD LOSS

Losing Venture in Atlas Loan Debentures Resulted in Odd Agreement and Peculiar Transactions Afterward—Manager Woods Rebuked by Commissioner for Unsatisfactory Replies.

Manipulation to conceal the loss of $30,000 in Atlas Loan debentures sustained by the Continental Life Insurance Co., was a revelation reluctantly made by G. B. Woods, managing director, before the insurance commissioner. His manner of replying to the questions asked by counsel was such as to draw a strong reprimand from Commissioner Kent. It was found that directors had entered into a scheme by which the loss was to be shouldered by themselves. Mr. Woods said he was responsible for $1200 of the amount. Mr. Coatsworth afterwards admitted the existence of an agreement which he later admitted to exist.

Interesting evidence, directed by and for the Continental, was called at 10.30. He told concisely the story of the organization of the Continental Life, and of the sale of Atlas Loan Debentures in 1900 with the Farmers' and Traders Assurance Co. of St. Thomas, Ontario, and the Continental Life Insurance Co. of St. Thomas, Ontario. The president was John Dryden, vice-president, Emerson Coatsworth, G. T. Somers, G. B. Woods. The president was John Dryden, vice-president, Emerson Coatsworth, second vice-president, G. T. Somers. Mr. Coatsworth afterwards admitted the existence of an agreement which he later admitted to exist.

Criminal Prosecution Against "Standard Oil"

Attorney-General Moody Announces That U. S. Government Will Take Active Proceedings at Once For Its "Monopolistic Control of Inter State-Trade."

Washington, June 22.—Formal announcement of the purpose of the government to prosecute the Standard Oil Co., was made to-day by United States Attorney-General Moody.

It appears from his statement that the proceedings in the first instance will be had under the terms of the Elkins law, which prohibits rebates in interstate commerce. The attorney-general, however, gives notice that in all probability, should the investigation he still is making justify it, he will bring further action against the Standard Oil Co. under the terms of the Sherman anti-trust law, and also will take steps to ensure against the continuance of the part of the company of the discriminations in trade and transportation not now subject to prosecution under existing law, but especially provided against in the pending rate bill.

The attorney-general's statement follows: "After full consideration of all the information now available, including the report of the commissioner of corporations, and the evidence taken by the interstate commerce commission, I have reached the conclusion that criminal proceedings against the Standard Oil Co. should be begun in certain cases where there appears to have been a violation of the laws regulating interstate commerce and prohibiting rebates and other unlawful discriminations. Accordingly, such proceedings will be begun at once in the appropriate judicial district."

The World endeavored to substantiate the story this evening. In the lines of this regiment, it was found that a member of the 4th Regiment had heard of it, and nobody was missing from the roll. In the 37th they had the same thing to say, but a private in the 4th regiment, who was sent to the hospital, said that the tragedy had occurred and that the man was dead.

Seized It in His Hands While Making Repairs and Death Was Instantaneous.

Hamilton, June 22.—(Special.)—James Lorne, carpenter, 128 West Main-street, head linesman for the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville Railway, was electrocuted this afternoon. He was standing on top of a construction car about a half a mile west of Beamsville fixing a wire. He seized a naked live wire with his hands, and was instantly killed. Deny Irregularities.

Some of the county councillors are demanding an investigation into the accountants' report that some $50,000 of the county's funds had been paid out irregularly. No action has yet been taken. Ex-Warden Ironsides and ex-Roads Superintendent Schwendeman were at the court house to-day and denied that there was anything wrong with their accounts. The councillors are still struggling with the Hamilton, Caledonia and Lake Erie Railway bylaw. They oppose the charges the company a mileage of $50 a year. The auditors, J. H. McNeilly and W. E. Stock, each presented a bill for $75. The accounts have not yet been passed, and some of the councillors think their services were not worth that much in view of the discoveries of the chartered accountants.

PAID LICENSE THRU FINES GETS HIT HARD; APPEALS

Remarkable Agreement Alleged by Which Township Council Profited From Disorderly House.

According to statements presented before Chief Justice Meredith at Osogode Hall yesterday, it would seem that a tacit agreement existed between the council of Springer Township, Nipissing, and John Gagnon, whereby the latter was permitted to conduct a disorderly house on an understanding as to payment of fines.

Gagnon suffered a conviction on May 12, as he now alleges, thru a violation of an agreement entered into five days previously. On his behalf J. E. Jones yesterday moved for a writ of certiorari, that the material on which he was convicted be brought before the high court and the conviction quashed if the material is insufficient. The claim is that the man was not given a fair trial. He has been on previous occasions, and the fines had been paid to Sturgeon Falls. It is alleged that one of the township councillors threatened him with legal proceedings unless he paid something to the township. He agreed to pay $50, and a date was fixed on which he was to meet the council, and the transaction was formally put thru. This agreement was considered by the council May 7 last. On May 12 he was summoned before the justices of the peace, J. D. Cockburn and J. D. Vachon, the latter of the two also being reeve of the township. These fined him $100 and ordered that he be sent to jail for six months.

Affidavits by John Jessop and Thomas Galligher, councillors, and Benjamin Kinch, the constables, admitted the facts as to the agreement were as stated by Gagnon. The understanding was that some of money were to be paid four or five times a year.

"Extraordinary thing," is the term Chief Justice Meredith used to describe the transaction, which he declared was "a license to keep a house of ill-fame."

"I don't think I ought to help you," he told Mr. Jones.

"But he was not guilty. He had committed no offence on the day for which he was convicted," argued counsel.

"He pleaded guilty."

"Yes, because of the conditions of which I have told you."

The chief justice suggested that the harm was not in the township filling its coffers; the vice lay in the agreement.

"It will stand till Tuesday," he said "to give notice to the attorney-general. It should be brought to his attention that such a sort of thing is going on."

MR. MORTIMER B. DAVIS.

Mr. Davis is a resident and native of Montreal, being born and educated here. Throughout his business career he has been actively engaged in manufacturing. He is president of the American Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited, a company which has grown up, under his management, from a small beginning, to far outrank all other similar corporations in Canada. The exclusive agency, which he successfully established a business representing millions of capital, will most doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the executive of the Union Bank of Canada. Mr. Davis is identified with all financial interests of the Dominion.

The new director of the Union Bank is highly respected in business and social circles. Mr. Davis is a young man, being forty years of age, the youngest director, we believe, on the board; however, this is an age of young men. The essential qualifications for those filling positions of responsibility and trust are strength, vigor, capacity to seize opportunities, quickness and wisdom in decision, and freedom from ideas and practices that are out of harmony with modern mercantile life. Mr. Davis' achievements as a successful manufacturer stamp him as a man of this calibre. We congratulate Mr. Davis and the Union Bank on the appointment.

NEW SHOPS WERE GIVEN UP FOR A THREE DAYS' PLUNDER

One of Bialystok Murderers' Reply to Officer Who Sought to Restrain.

Berlin, June 22.—An inhabitant of Bialystok, Russia, who was present during the entire massacre there, and who has arrived in Berlin, has given the following account of the recent events there:

"June 14 was the 40th anniversary of the compulsory admission of many Catholics to the orthodox church and a celebration of the event was elaborately planned. The police and military were fully armed, apparently preparing for a conflict. There were no visible enemies, the Jews became alarmed and sought hiding places."

"On Thursday processions of orthodox Russians and Catholics to the churches began and were apparently passing without incident. Later an uproar began at one part of the procession and the rumor spread that the Jews had thrown a bomb into the crowd and were leaving a Russian priest to pieces. The crowd shouted 'Down with the Jews!' and thereupon roughs, armed with clubs, entered the nearest Jewish houses and brought the inmates out, destroying whatever they found there."

"The military in the meanwhile began firing upon the houses of the prominent Jewish townsmen and Jews were banished from their houses, beaten to death and their bodies mutilated beyond recognition."

"The streets were soon filled with dead and wounded, the latter groaning frightfully."

"The Jewish shops in the vicinity in the meanwhile were plundered, ruffians taking away all the portable valuables. Furniture, mirrors and pianos were demolished and the remnants thrown into the orthodox procession."

"The first bomb rumor was started among the members of the orthodox procession and almost simultaneously, as if by a concerted signal, the rumor reached the Catholic procession in another street that the Jews had thrown two bombs. Here there were the same terrible effects for the Jews as with the orthodox procession."

"Ruffians, under the protection of the police and military, who hurriedly arrived on the scene, rushed into the Jewish houses, killing all who fell in their way, the soldiers in the meanwhile firing into the Jewish houses on the opposite side of the street. After the Jews had finished plundering one side of the street they began on the other, the troops then turning their rifles against the side already plundered and brought the inmates out, destroying whatever they found there."

"Some of the officers encouraged the rioters and soldiers in their bloody work, while other officers ordered them to desist, but they were seldom obeyed. Governor Gave Leave."

"When one officer ordered a number of murderers to leave a place they answered that the governor had given up the Jews and their shops for three days' plunder. Gen. Bogalefsky, commander of the garrison, politely returned the rough cheers and shouts with a military salute, and another officer congratulated them upon their festival, the rioters answering with vigorous cheers."

"The leaders of the plunderers were not only policemen but included many officials of the Imperial Bank. Some of the Christian subjects, chiefly judges, expostulated with the rioters, police and soldiers on their unchristian-like work and exhorted them to desist, but they were not listened to."

"The excesses continued until a late hour at night. All the Jewish houses and shops in the suburbs of Bialystok were plundered and demolished."

"On Thursday night Bialystok presented a warlike scene. One heard incessant firing, lasting till five in the morning."

"At about 9 o'clock the next morning Dr. Reigrotzky received a telegram from M. Branson, a member of the lower house of parliament, saying that Interior Minister Stoylyn the previous night had directed the authorities to check the massacre immediately. Dr. Reigrotzky showed the de-

THE LIFE OF GEO. BROWN

"Makers of Canada—Series—George Brown" by John Lewis, Toronto, Morgan & Co., Limited—Confederation in the history of Canada does not mean an end to the struggle.

Among the fathers of Confederation, none occupied a more prominent place than George Brown, whose life and work form the subject of this latest addition to the series of biographical volumes edited by Duncan Campbell Scott, Dr. Leland Edgar and William Dawson Le Sueur.

Mr. Lewis holds that Brown was one of the greatest of the men of his time, a man of a high order of intellect, a man of a high order of character, a man of a high order of courage.

When You have a Bad Breath

Food does not tickle them enough to make them act. That's Constipation! Castor Oil, or "Physic" will help to slide out one load of trouble, but they can't help the Cause.

In fact, they weaken the Bowel-Muscles more than ever by slackening them, and by doing work for them which they should do for themselves.

When your Arm-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise, to strengthen them—not a sling to support them.

When your Bowel-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise to strengthen them—not "Physic" to pamper them.

Then carry the little ten-cent "Vest Pocket" box constantly with you, and take a Cascaret whenever you suspect you need it.

One Cascaret at a time will promptly cleanse a foul Breath, or Coated Tongue, thus proving clearly its ready, steady, sure, but mild and effective action.

A thousand dollars a year spent in amusements could not buy for you half so much hearty Happiness, solid Comfort, Cheerful Temper and Health Insurance as that little ten-cent "Vest Pocket" Box of Cascarets will bring you.

All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year, for six years past.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "COC."

A sample and the famous booklet, "Curse of Constipation," Free for the asking. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago or New York.

That's the time to take a Cascaret. —When your tongue is coated, —When you have Heartburn, Belching, Acid Ristings in throat, —When Pimples begin to peep out, —When your Stomach Gnaws or Burns, —That's the time to check coming Constipation, Indigestion and Dyspepsia. One single Candy Cascaret will do it if taken at the right minute, just when you first feel the need of it. "A Cascaret in time is worth nine" later on.

Cascarets don't Purge, nor Weaken, nor waste Digestive Juices in flooding out the Bowels, like Salts, Castor Oil, "Physics." HEAVY FINES ARE IMPOSED ON REBATING OFFENDERS

Packers and Railway Officials Get Cold Justice—Jail for One Man.

Kansas City, June 22.—In the U. S. district court here this morning Judge Smith McPherson of Red Oak, Iowa, passed sentence upon the seven defendants recently convicted in this court of making concessions and accepting and conspiring to accept rebates on shipments. Judgments in the nature of fines were assessed as follows: Swift & Co., $15,000; Cudahy Packing Company, $15,000; Armour Packing Company, $15,000; Nelson, Morris & Co., $15,000; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railway, $15,000.

The Armour Packing Company, Swift and Company, Cudahy and Company, and the Nelson, Morris Packing Company were tried jointly and convicted on the charge of accepting concessions from the Burlington Railroad on packing-house products for export.

The Burlington Railroad Company was convicted of granting concessions to the packing companies.

The cases of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and the Chicago and Alton Railroad Companies, charged with offering rebates, concessions, and D. H. Kresky, freight broker of Kansas City, charged with conspiring to secure concessions from these railways, were dismissed upon the suggestion of District Attorney Van Valkenburg, who stated that he believed the railways had in this case been imposed upon.

The cases of the Chicago and Alton Railway Company and several of its former officials charged with having given a concession to the Seward, Schell and Salsberger Packing Company, were continued until next fall.

George L. Thomas of New York was fined $6000 and sentenced to four months in the penitentiary.

L. B. Taggart of New York, freight broker, was fined $4000 and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary for securing rebates from railways on shipments from New York to St. Louis and Kansas City drygoods concerns.

At their trial several prominent merchants, who admitted having signed contracts with Thomas, testified to receiving at various times sums of money from mysterious sources. Many of these sums, the witnesses admitted the likelihood of its having come from Thomas.

Many of my friends have asked me what I give them, and when told Neave's Food, have tried it, and in every instance found it satisfactory."

REFORMING INEBRIATES.

Success of System Which Local Society Uses Demonstrated.

At the quarterly meeting of the Ontario Society for the Reformation of Inebriates yesterday afternoon the report presented by the secretary was most encouraging. The co-operation of the police authorities has been secured and the cases treated are doing remarkably well. The reformatory effort is a unique, economic system, devised by the secretary several years ago, and has the endorsement of the medical associations of Canada. No secret remedies are used, and the treatment is in strict accord with the tenets of legitimate medicine. The treatment extends over a period of three weeks, and may be carried out wholly or in part in hospital or wholly at the home of the inebriate.

In most cases the craving for strong drink is removed in less than a week after which body and will power is fortified by judicious tonic treatment, during treatment and for a prolonged period thereafter the probation officer acts in the capacity of a friendly visitor, helps to find employment when necessary and encourages the probationer into church relations.

Bodies of Men Trapped by Blowout in Tunnel Are Found.

New York, June 22.—After more than 24 hours of pumping and digging the bodies of the two men trapped by a blow-out in one of the Pennsylvania Company's East River tunnels, were recovered yesterday. Instead of being blown out into the river thru the break at the base of the shield, as had been supposed, they were caught by the rush of soft mud and water in the lower chamber of the shield, after the air pressure had found vent, and were there found in postures indicating that they had been slowly strangled.

Their feet were fast in the heavy mud, and there were indications that they had made desperate efforts to release themselves. Both bodies were found in standing positions.

ISN'T THIS CONVINCING?

When a man is so sleepless and nervous as his constitution breaks down, he is ailing. When he is ailing, he naturally feels grateful toward the remedy that worked his cure.
He will tell of his recovery, as does Mr. Nazaire Begin, who writes thus: "If anyone had told me any remedy could build up my nervous system so fast, I would not have believed it. Before using Ferrone's I was run down in nerve and vital energy, and in very weak health. I didn't get enough sleep at night, felt poorly all the day time. Ferrone's has built me with energy and vim, increased my weight and made a new man of me."
Hundreds tell the same story—weak and dispirited, everything going wrong, unable to catch up. They took Ferrone's and all was changed to health and serenity. Price 50c per box at all druggists, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

OPPOSITIONS WITHDRAWN REGULATION OF RATES

Decision of Justice Renders Decision Upsetting Mr. Chrysler's Contention That Parliament Has No Power to Regulate.

Ottawa, June 22.—(Special.)—The special committee to consider the telephone and express company amendments to the Railway Act made progress to-day respecting express companies, but no other subject was reached as this important matter occupied the entire attention of the committee.
F. H. Chrysler, K.C., appeared for the express companies and stated his clients would not further contest the jurisdiction of the Dominion government. This remarkable change of base was attributed to the intimation by W. F. Maclean (South York) at a former meeting of the committee, that if the express companies resisted control of the federal government, pressure would be brought on behalf of the people for an extension of the parcel post system.

The amendments to the Railway Act to be adopted in lieu of the Alcorn express bill were presented by Mr. Emerson and carefully canvassed in detail. There were numerous changes and amendments suggested, and the sections as agreed upon by the committee are as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section the expression, "express toll" means any toll, rate or charge to be charged by the company for any person or corporation other than the company, to any person, for hire or otherwise, for or in connection with the collecting, receiving, caring for or handling of any goods for the purpose of sending, carrying or transporting them by express; or for or in connection with the sending, carrying, transporting or delivery by express of any goods or for any service incidental thereto, or for or in connection with any or either of these objects where the whole or any portion of such goods is by rail upon the railway of the company, and the expression, "express toll," also means a toll or rate charge for transportation of goods partly by rail and partly by water, whether such water transportation be in vessel owned, chartered or otherwise used by the company.

Tolls subject to approval.
(2) All express tolls shall be subject to the approval of the board.

(3) Tariffs of express tolls shall be filed with the board and shall be in such form, size and style and give such information, particulars and details as the board may require by regulation or by order in any particular case prescribed.
(4) No express toll shall be charged in respect of which there is default in such filing or which is disallowed by the board, provided that any company, person or corporation now or immediately previous to the passing of this act charging express tolls without such filing or approval of a period of six months, not after the passing of this act, or for such further period as the board allows, charge such express tolls as such company, person or corporation may have charged previously to the passing of this act, might lawfully have charged.

(5) The board may disallow any express toll or any portion thereof which it considers unjust or unreasonable, and shall have and may exercise all the powers with respect to express tolls and such tariffs as it has or may exercise under the Railway Act of 1903, with respect to freight tolls and freight tariffs for the peace, order and good government of Canada in relation to matters not coming within the class and of subjects assigned exclusively to the legislature of the province; and no provincial legislation clearly could not give effect to the provisions of this bill.

Liability to Penalty.
(6) No company shall carry or transport any goods by express, unless and until the tariff of express tolls therefor or in connection therewith has been submitted to and filed with the board in the manner herein before provided, or in the case of competitive tariffs filed in accordance with the rules and regulations of the board, made in relation thereto, nor in any case where such express toll in any tariff has been disallowed by the board.

CURE FOR SPOTTED FEVER.

Long Island Physician Cures Eight Out of Ten Cases.

A cure for cerebro-spinal meningitis, or spotted fever, has been discovered, according to his own statement, by Dr. Joseph W. Goldsmith, of the Long Island College Hospital. A tentative announcement has been made by Dr. Goldsmith's superiors that the young surgeon has already successfully cured ten out of twelve cases of the most violent sort.

Prior to the experiments of Dr. Goldsmith the disease was considered practically incurable, and although various tentative treatments have been made by the board, no remedy has been discovered that could be applied with general good results.

The Goldsmith treatment is a model of systematic simplicity, said Dr. Goldsmith. "The patient is given two baths per day at a temperature of 110 degrees Fahrenheit. The physical condition of the sufferer is such that the excessive heat affords no sensation of pain because of the numbness characteristic of the malady.

"The patient while in the bath is given a strenuous massage in order to circulate the blood and bring the limbs back to normal condition. A liquid diet is given at short intervals. It consists of small quantities of whiskey and eggs. The effort brings about a successful treatment, no one remedy has been discovered that could be applied with general good results.

"The Goldsmith treatment is a model of systematic simplicity, said Dr. Goldsmith. "The patient is given two baths per day at a temperature of 110 degrees Fahrenheit. The physical condition of the sufferer is such that the excessive heat affords no sensation of pain because of the numbness characteristic of the malady.

Plenty More at Home.

and railway company which carries or transports, and every officer or employee thereof who directs or knowingly permits to be carried, transported, or any goods by express contrary to the provisions of this sub-section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100 for each violation.

The board may by regulation or in any particular case prescribe what its carriage or transportation of goods by express or whether goods are carried or transported by express, within the meaning of this section and the Railway Act, 1903.

Report on Unclaimed Goods.
Another important section proposed by W. F. Maclean (South York) was adopted by the committee and being redrafted by the law officers of the department to meet some verbal objections. It will be reported to the house of commons by the bill.

Mr. Maclean gave notice of his intention to move an amendment to the Railway Act so as to include the express companies and telephone companies.

The department of justice rendered a written opinion to the committee this morning which was read by Mr. Chrysler's contention that parliament had no power to place express companies under the jurisdiction of the railway act.

The power of parliament to enact the regulation of rates act, and consistently with anything which has been decided, be referred to the regulation of trade and commerce.

In Citizens company v. Parsons (1 Cartwright, page 276), the judicial committee said: "Constructing, therefore, the words 'regulation of trade and commerce' by the various aids to their interpretation above suggested, they would include political arrangements in relation to the regulation of trade in matters of inter-provincial concern, and it may be that they would include arrangements of trade affecting the whole Dominion."

Their lordships abstain on the present occasion from any attempt to define the limits of the authority of the Dominion parliament in this direction. It is enough for the decision of the present case to say that in their view, his authority to legislate for the regulation of trade and commerce does not comprehend the power to regulate by legislation the business of express companies or business or trade such as the business of fire insurance, in a single province, and, therefore, that its legislative authority does not in any way conflict or compete with the power over property and civil rights assigned to the legislature of Ontario by No. 13 of section 92.

And Lord Watson in the liquor prohibition appeal, 1885, referring to the opinion of the committee in Citizens v. Parsons, says: "In the absence of legislation upon the subject by the Canadian parliament the legislature of Ontario has authority to impose conditions as being matters of civil right upon the business of fire insurance, which was admitted to be a trade so long as they do not affect provincial trade."

No Need to Hasten.
"If this legislation cannot be supported as falling within the regulation of trade and commerce, it may be upheld as in the execution of powers which parliament has to pass laws for the peace, order and good government of Canada in relation to matters not coming within the class and of subjects assigned exclusively to the legislature of the province; and no provincial legislation clearly could not give effect to the provisions of this bill."

The tenth enumeration of section 92 of the British North America Act about local works and undertakings probably has been overlooked in this case. Certainly a declaration for the general advantage of Canada is quite inappropriate and ineffective. I see no objection to the board's jurisdiction in relation to the merits of this bill should hesitate to give effect to it on account of any constitutional difficulty."

were preparing to return to England, he asked the king if he might not stay longer. The empress suggested that his father and mother would be unable to spare him, but was rather taken aback by the reply. "You know, I do not think I should be missed. There are plenty more of us at home."

NORWAY RULERS CROWNED WITH ALL DUE CEREMONY

Not a Single Disconcerting Feature—Solemn Blessings and Prayers for Future.

Trondheim, June 22.—Coronation Day opened with a glowing but cold sun shining. A chill wind came off the fjord, making it necessary to wear overcoats and winter clothing. The normal temperature in the cathedral previous to the ceremony was under fifty degrees, and it was feared that many of those present would carry away a painful, lasting reminder of the coronation of King Haakon and Queen Maud, altho the Norwegian court wisely relaxed the rules governing dress.

The city was alive at an early hour, and by 8 o'clock the avenues reaching to the cathedral were filled with straggling lines of people making for the choicest points of vantage from which to see members of the royal family and the distinguished guests enter the cathedral. The doors were opened at 10 a.m., and soon afterwards three bishops, robed in black and white, drove up a phalanx of the crowd uncovered when the bishops entered the cathedral.

The cathedral filled rapidly. By 12.30 the majority of the spectators had arrived and were seated, the women in evening costumes and many of the men in bright uniforms and wearing swords. The effect was imposing in spite of the half light in the interior of the old cathedral. Long rows of seats extended along the entire length of the nave, and the floor upon tier. The centre of the nave was unoccupied, except by the throne seats and a few chairs back of the columns. A carpet of red and blue ran along the aisles and the centre of both transepts.

Arrival of Notables.
The arrival of the bishop was followed by the appearance of a number of priests, all robed in white. They entered the north sanctuary at 10.30 and formed a phalanx about the altar, and with bent heads offered up prayers for the king and queen. Their entrance silenced the crowd.

The king and queen, dressed in the morning, entered from a specially constructed landing place, past the palace to the cathedral entrance, formed a lane to the cathedral entrance.

The royal and special embassies soon afterwards began arriving. The visiting princes and princesses were hailed with cheers and the king and queen, with a band stationed opposite the canopy of the cathedral, respectively of each country represented by an arriving embassy, and at the same time the troops presented arms.

The Prince and Princess of Wales entered last at 10.55 a.m., and their party was still in the street, when peals of bells from the city churches announced that King Haakon was preparing to leave the palace.

Enthusiasm, But Not Noise.
By this time the dense crowds well behind the line of troops extended from below palace into the intersecting streets, and to the cathedral, where near the entrance stood the tribunes, which had been erected for the luckiest of the public.

The king and queen after a brief delay in arranging the carriages and, cavalry escort started for the cathedral, preceded by their suites.

A great cheer accompanied the departure of the royal party. Their majesties, who rode in a closed state coach, both wore ermine robes, and were bareheaded. The king smiled and saluted in reply to the salutations of the people.

When approaching the cathedral their majesties faced half a dozen photographic machines and a score of cameras. The procession moved slowly. Handkerchiefs and flags were waved, but the crowd seemingly was impressed by the coming religious ceremony, and the people generally were silent. Occasionally, however, there was an outbreak of cheers.

The royal coach, drawn by four handsome bays, led by footmen, reached the cathedral at 11.10 a.m., where their majesties were received by the clergy.

When the royal party entered all present in the cathedral arose and the ceremony began immediately.

The chief justice of the supreme court took the royal mantle from the altar and jointly with the Bishop of Trondheim placed it over the shoulders of the king, who then knelt on the devotional stool before the throne. The Bishop of Trondheim took the anointing horn and wrists, saying: "May the Almighty God anoint you with His spirit and grace and give unto you, O King, wisdom, power and mercy, that the name of God may be hallowed, right and truth may be confirmed to the benefit and happiness of the people and land."

The king having arisen and placed himself on the throne, the prime minister, Michelsen, proceeded to the altar and took the royal crown, which he, conjointly with the Bishop of Trondheim, placed on the head of the king, while the bishop said: "Lord of Lords and King of Kings, who has given you the crown of the kingdom, may He uphold and strengthen you in all royal and Christian virtues to the glory of His name and blessing of the Norwegian people. May His grace in this corruptible life prepare you for the inheritance of the righteous, incorruptible crown in heaven."

The minister of foreign affairs, Lovland, then proceeded to the altar and, took the sceptre, which he, conjointly with the Bishop of Trondheim, handed to the king, the bishop saying: "May the Almighty God, who placed the sceptre in thy hand, give thee grace to bear with wisdom, power and mercy, to defend truth and maintain righteousness."

The minister of the interior, Aarvanger, then proceeded to the altar, taking the orb, which he, conjointly with the Bishop of Trondheim, handed to the king, who then took the sceptre in his left hand and received the orb with his right hand, the bishop saying: "May God, who has made thee king of Norway, grant that the kingdom of the country under thy government may flourish in peace, power and prosperity, in praise and exaltation to Him, most glorious to you and benefit and blessing for the people."

Peace and War.
The minister of war, Olesen, then went to the altar, where he took the sword and, jointly with the Bishop of Trondheim, delivered it, uncovered, to the king, who gave the orb back to him, the bishop saying: "God chose thee for His servant and delivered this sword unto thee to reward the good, punish the wicked and protect the honor and happiness of Norway. May He bless it in thy hand to the defence of right and protection of the country."

NERVOUS DEBILITY CURED

No Names Used Without Written Consent

P. E. SUMMERS PAY WHEN CURED P. E. SUMMERS

Peter E. Summers relates his experience: "I was troubled with Nervous Debility one many years, I lay it to indigestion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I lived or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night wakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes were red, hair loose, memory poor, etc."

Before Treatment. Numbers in the fingers set in and the face pale. After Treatment. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months went to Dr. Clements for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Dr. Kennedy & Kergan. Though I had lost all faith in doctors, like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through my nerves. I was cured mentally, physically and vitally. I have sent them many patents and will continue to do so."

size since it was used by King Oscar, proved too large for King Haakon, and failed to confer dignity upon the monarch, but his majesty maintained his composure despite the fact that the crown threatened to fall over his ears, Queen Maud looked attractive in her royal robes and diamond collar. She bowed graciously on either side when she advanced to the throne to receive her crown. The queen and her ladies in waiting were simply gowned. There were no trains and they had no feathers in their hair. There were few elaborate toilets among the audience.

Congratulations.
On their return to the palace the king and queen received the congratulations of a deputation from the Storting and the members of the government.

The vast throng outside the palace broke out into hearty cheering in response to their majesties' appearance at the window, still wearing the coronation robes.

Lentil Cure for Baldness.
New remedies for falling hair are continually cropping up, and by the hopelessly bald these remedies are adopted with confidence. The lentil cure is the latest.
The lentil cure is applied internally. The lentils are eaten. Marvellous results are obtained, according to many specialists' reports, if the cure is followed for six months.
Lentils are rich in iron, and hence are not only good for the hair, but for the blood as well. Pale, thin-haired folk after a course of lentils, become rosy and robust, and their hair grows vigorously.
Specialists of religious bent point to the Biblical character of Esau, a young man notoriously fond of lentils and notoriously hairy.
Lentils look like split peas. They are admitted to be the most highly nourishing food in the world, their taste is gratifying to few people.

a way to discuss a miscarriage of justice.

Two recent decisions in elections in cases were to be considered this week by the commons. R. L. Borden said there could be no course of conduct more wrong than for a judge and clerk of the trial court to prevent a defendant from obtaining a review of a judgment against him in a criminal case.

He did not shrink from criticizing a judge whose conduct was improper. Neither was he forbidden from commenting upon his rulings. There was an idea in this country that judges were above criticism. In England the press and people freely commented upon the courts and without any serious injury. The premier promised attention.

Power of Suggestion. Hon. Geo. E. Foster made merry again respecting the "contract" which Hatfield, the American rainmaker, it appears as a matter of fact that it commenced to rain as soon as this genius appeared, but before he had gotten his apparatus into shape. Whether this was a mere coincidence or whether the clouds gave their assent at the reappearance of Hatfield has not been determined.

Subsidies. The usual batch of belated railway subsidies was brought down by the minister of railways to-night. BLAMING REGULAR HOUSES FOR RAID ON THE "BUCKETS"

What Defence of Brokers Charged Will Be—"Handbook" Men in Court.

The aftermath of the big raid made by the police day before yesterday on the alleged "hand-book" men and keepers of "tickers" is liable to result in one of the keenest legal battles that Toronto has seen in some time.

Yesterday Crown Attorneys Drayton and Corley, Provincial Detective Greer, Inspectors Black and Gregory and some detectives were busy going thru the books, cheques and records of transactions which they seized in these alleged bucket shops. It was rumored that it is the intention of the police to subpoena many of those whose names appear on the books.

In police court yesterday nine of the alleged hand-book men were arraigned and remanded until Tuesday. Richard Jakes, being called, pleaded not guilty to the charge of keeping a bucket shop, and the others entered one by one their names were read and they were admitted to bail.

The defendants were represented by T. C. Robinette, K. C. It is a safe proposition that they will plead guilty and avoid having the 200 clients who have been subpoenaed from having to appear in court. This was the tactics in the Junction poolroom cases.

About $7000 covered the required bond for the appearance of the army of sports. Some of the youthful offenders are already suffering from the feelings that overtake a man who has been subpoenaed from having to appear in court. In some cases being known to their employers, with sad results to the discipline of Pittsburgh.

A group of bookmakers were consulting each other at a King-street hotel yesterday afternoon and washing down their hard luck with an occasional highball.

"It's a deplorable thing," said one, "if a man cannot bet or take bets in a city like this." "The trouble," remarked another, "is that the police are too nosy."

These remarks seem to spell credit for Toronto. "Well we've had a grand season as far as it went, boys," added another, as he turned the beer into a man.

Great Northern Railway, from Groulx Junction to the Quebec bridge, 70 miles.

GIRL CATCHES A BURGLAR. Takes $150 Worth of Stolen Jewels From His Pockets.

A servant girl told an unusually interesting story at Windsor, England, police court of how she caught and succeeded a burglar.

Her name is Kathleen Elizabeth Bartlett, and she is employed by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benyon. On Saturday she was left in charge of the house, but in the afternoon she went out for a few hours by permission.

Indignation is expressed by most of the alleged "at being classed with pool room gamblers, and protest is also made that the raids did not extend to the "respectable" brokers, known as "regular houses."

The court will hardly make fish of one and fowl of another," said one broker. "And if speculation in stocks and grain is to be prohibited entirely as far as marginal transactions are concerned, the houses who accept ten point margins should be dealt with equally as decisively as we who accept from two points up. Their business is a business of 'price differences,' as much as ours."

There are some small brokers who contend that the present campaign against alleged "bucket shops" is due to the energies of "regular houses," whose business has fallen to the starvation point because of the reluctance of the public to come into the market.

A PRIVATE ELECTRIC PLANT

On a small scale will not reduce the lighting bills, if you have to use steam to generate your electricity. The cost for maintenance is too large. WE KNOW IT.

You can save money by installing SICHE GAS, because there is practically no cost for labor, as only a few minutes once or twice a week is required to recharge the machine, be it a 10 light or a 1,000 light plant.

Ethinite will soon be down to $50 per ton, and one ton furnishes 8,000 cubic ft. of high candle-power gas. To produce a 32 candle-power jet of white light, one-half a cubic ft. per hour is used. This costs about one-third of a cent per hour. One jet will light a space 10 x 10 feet, with a 14-ft. ceiling, and light it well.

Ponder over this, Mr. Citizen, and ask some of our business men who are using Siche Gas how they like the change. We will give you the names.

at the main telegraph office by direct wire from the New York Exchange. This wire is devoted exclusively to this purpose during the market session. An electrical machine with a keyboard in appearance similar to that of the typewriter is connected to the office, and the record of sales is sent out on this and recorded on tape by the court courier and broker.

The alleged "bucket shop" men are confident no case will be found against them of illegitimate trading. One of the correspondents who made trades at several offices and who is said to have signed contracts stating that he was a "regular house" and taking commissions on the exchange, with whom the local agent has private telegraphic communication. Obviously all orders are not filled, as on these it is wired back and reported to the client, who makes a deposit on his contract.

During the Northern Pacific boom a few years ago, a certain woman held 100 shares of that stock. The market price was about $400 a share at the time, and she wished to sell. She placed the order with a local "regular house," and a few days later the stock rose to $1000 a share, and when she enquired as to the price the broker got for her stock was requested to wait a few days till they could tell definitely. She waited and waited and was put off from time to time till the market declined several hundred points, and was then informed that her stock was not sold at all. She finally was compelled to take a loss of ten points after having several hundred points profit. And this was a "regular house" transaction.

RICH MILLMEN FAVORED?

Senator Poirier Detects Violation of Sawdust Restriction Act. Ottawa, June 22.—(Special.)—In the senate to-day Senator Poirier called the government's attention to the fact that some Ottawa mill owners continue to dump sawdust into the river. He stated that there was apparently a discrimination in favor of the rich Ottawa millmen, who were allowed to break the Sawdust Restriction Act without interference and against the small millowners, who had to burn sawdust and waste. The government favored the plutocrat.

WHAT CAUSED THE FIRE?

Sparks or a Hot Pipe Blamed for $500,000 Blaze. Montreal, June 22.—(Special.)—The fire damage at Nicolet last night is estimated at over half a million dollars. No lives were lost.

Situated eighty-one miles from Montreal, at the foot of Lake St. Peter on the south shore of the St. Lawrence, and at the mouth of the Nicolet River, the Town of Nicolet is one of the most picturesque spots in the province. It has several flourishing local industries, but its main feature has always been the number and extent of its Roman Catholic religious, educational and charitable institutions, and it so happens that those were the buildings affected by the fire.

There is as yet no certainty as to how the fire originated. Two versions were given. One is that sparks must have been blown from a plumb line furnace, used on the roof of the new cathedral, and set fire to the old parish church nearby, where repairs were being made, while others think that some imprudent workman must have left a hot pipe in the old church when leaving work at 6 o'clock.

The Convention of the Nuns of the Precious Blood is insured as follows: Royal Insurance Company, $30,000; Scottish Union & National, $35,000; London & Lancashire, $50,000; Charity Mutual, $10,000. Total, $125,000. Cathedral insurance amounts to a total of $80,000, divided among the outside companies, as follows: Fabrique Cathedral, $16,000; Guardian Insurance Company, $20,000; Mount Royal Insurance, $10,000; North British & Mercantile, $10,000; Western, $15,000; Sun, $4,000. of the Continental Life until the "rush up" that struck the Atlas Loan in 1902. Some of those who took stock in the Continental in 1902 when the company was launched were: Hon. John Deven, $100,000; $300 paid; A. Cargill $100,000; $100 paid; R. S. Williams $100,000; $100 paid; H. VanDusen $100,000; $100 paid; Angus MacKay $100,000; $100 paid; Dr. Atkins $12,000; $1200 paid; Emerson Coatsworth $5000; $500 paid; A. F. MacLaren, $2500; $250 paid; J. W. Scott $5000; $500 paid; G. T. Somers $10,000; $1000 paid; John B. Reid $100,000; $100 paid; J. A. Jackson $10,000; $1000 paid.

As to Rebating. Assistant Dominion Counsel Tilley asked the witness first about the rebating feature of the Continental Life. "Why, if a man wanted to insure and wanted a rebate, I would jump at it," said the witness delightedly. "You'd telephone for the doctor?" asked Mr. Tilley. "Do you consider that good business?" "No." "Then why do you do it?" "All other companies do it." "Have you tried to prevent it?" "How?" "I have told our agents not to do it." "Not to rebate unless it is necessary?" "Yes."

Mr. Woods admitted, however, that directors and office staff were allowed a rebate equal to an agent's commission. Rebates were wrong, but competition laid down the law. Older companies did more rebating than newer companies. The Continental allowed up to 65 per cent. commission, of which the agent only received in the neighborhood of 25 per cent. The insured reaped the benefit.

That is not fair?" queried Mr. Tilley. "Wise ones get the rebates," answered Mr. Wood. "You mean," said Commissioner Kent, "that if a man is ignorant of the rebate custom he doesn't get it. A man may be wise, and yet know little of insurance rebates." "That's a better way to put it," agreed Mr. Woods.

Three Were Cautious. The Traders' Bank were amply secured by a note given by the directors to Mr. Somers for the whole amount, which was signed by all save two directors. "What two directors refused to go on the note?" asked Mr. Tilley. "Mr. Williams," said Mr. Woods, hesitatingly. "O.K., come, take us into your confidence and tell us all about it," said Mr. Tilley.

Mr. Williams said that the directors were all in favor of accepting the loss at the time, but he had been assured that the Atlas was not going to be such a bad failure, so he proposed to the directors to carry the stock a little longer. The shrinkage and loss on these debentures have not been shown in the annual statements from that day to this," said Mr. Tilley.

Who Pays. "And to that extent the company are really paying the $1200?" Mr. Woods thought that he would have had a raise of salary anyway. "Was this reason urged on directors for fixing the salary?" "It was spoken of." "Are you getting any commissions?" "No." "Are any other persons on the note receiving any remuneration?" "None whatever."

ment. He could give no reason for this. Commissioner Kent Dismissed. The Traders' Bank account was shown as per the ledger of the Continental Life. Mr. Tilley went over each item carefully. There were deposits and withdrawals, juggling accounts between the Traders' Bank at Beeton and the Union at Toronto to keep the statement looking right was indicated. At this point Commissioner Kent seized up the situation and put the whole matter in a nutshell.

What do you get? "Three per cent." "That is, the bank were charging a certain amount of interest without giving any value at all," said the commissioner. The agreement bringing this transaction to a close was made between Somers and the company on Dec. 15, 1905. The commissions allowed Mr. Somers were put in as commission on new business.

The Salary List. "Well, there was a large increase in salaries at this time, was there not?" asked Mr. Tilley, who then took up the salary list. Mr. Woods had a contract. In 1901 he received $2000, in 1902 $2250, in 1904 $2500, in 1905 $2750, in 1906 $3000, and he has also a contract for next five years at an average of $5000 per year. Mr. Fuller received $1500 in 1901, $1800 in 1902, $1800 in 1903 and 1904, and $2000 in 1905. He had no contract. Dr. Atkins received $1000 per year. Hon. John Dryden received $500 per year.

Returning to the document closing the Atlas deal, Mr. Woods said that all the directors on the note had agreed to the deal being closed, and that the company would be freed from the liability, which was shouldered by the directors. The account still stood the same in the books. "How is the loss divided?" "I don't know." "Surely you know when you suggested the procedure?" "I can't tell, exactly what the loss will be. It may be $12,000. My share is $1200."

At this juncture Commissioner Kent became greatly annoyed at the replies of the witness. "I don't like the way the witness replies. I am bound to say that he has been playing with the commission since the start. I don't know," I suppose and I don't remember are not proper answers. "Who arranged this deal?" continued Mr. Tilley. "Messrs. Somers, Atkins, Jackson and myself," answered the witness in a manner improved by the rebuke. "How much of the loss have each agreed to pay?" again asked the counsel.

Three Alternatives for Scholars in Senior Fourth Classes. Chief Inspector Hughes has drafted a letter for circulating among the parents of public school pupils in the senior fourth book classes, advising them that the following courses are open to their children should they receive promotion:

(1) They may continue in the public schools and take, without any fees, a business course, including shorthand, and typewriting, business arithmetic, penmanship, and a course in literature and composition. (2) They may attend a collegiate institute. If you wish them to do so for the purpose of preparing for admission to any university or to the School of Practical Science, or for teaching or any other profession, or to take a general culture course, including literature, mathematics and languages, ancient and modern, they should write at the high school entrance examination on the 27th, 28th and 29th of June.

Sold everywhere in large 25c bottles.

At this juncture Judge McTavish asked the witness if there was not another document still existing for which the directors were to do in the case. After thrice denying to Mr. Tilley that there was no further document on agreement, witness answered the Judge's question in the affirmative. Mr. Tilley told the witness that he had asked him if there was any other agreement and he had said there was not.

"I thought you meant with the Continental," explained the witness. "Any way, it has nothing to do with the investigation." "We will see just how much it has to do," said Mr. Tilley, hotly. "Get me the agreement." Mr. Fuller left for the document. "Is Mr. Somers in town?" asked counsel, and witness said he was. "I told him to be here," said Mr. Tilley.

Mr. Tilley took up the organization of the Ontario Securities Limited, and the Sterling Bank, two off-shoots of the Continental, in the interval. The Securities Limited was organized in 1902 to sell stocks, with G. T. Somers, president; E. B. Woods, vice-president; Geo. Lewis, W. Atkins, Sydney Jones, directors, and C. H. Fuller, secretary. The capital was put at $100,000.

Mr. Holden announced that Mr. Somers was coming with the documents. Mr. Somers was the centre of all eyes when he came in. Three spectators gazed at him indefinitely. He handed Mr. Tilley the agreement, which was as follows: "I should release the Continental Life from the agreement made in October, 1905 in regard to certain commissions on new business."

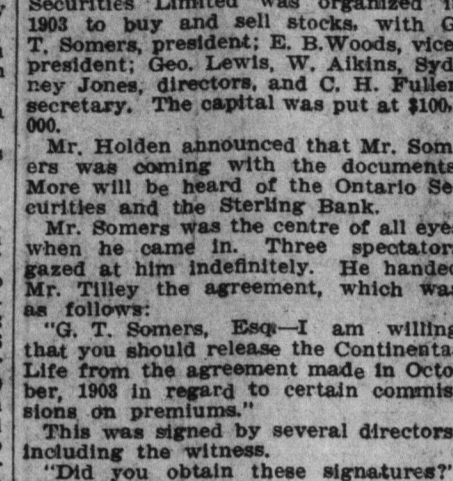

Did you obtain these signatures?" asked Mr. Tilley. "I did not." "When did you sign it?" "When I returned from Manitoba." "When was that?" "In a hurry." "Last night," said Mr. Woods, and there was a ripple in the courtroom. "Did you see the rest of the names on the document?" "Yes."

Where did you get it? "Mr. Fuller gave it to me." Mr. Fuller took the stand. "When did you get it?" "Mr. Fuller started out like Mr. Woods." "Some little time ago. A few days ago, Tuesday of this week," he answered after Mr. Tilley had persisted. "Did you see it signed?" "No." "When did you last see it?" "Last December." "Was it yours?" "Mr. Somers."

Did you discuss it with Mr. Woods? "No." "Any other parties?" "No." "Why was this agreement gone into?" "Just to prevent the company being under the liability." "It seems funny for these men to pay it out of their own pockets." "Owing to the fact that the commission to adjourn early, Mr. Tilley will probe the Continental Life dealings again on Monday at 10.30."

CANADA LOAN & SAVINGS COY.

26 KING ST. E., TORONTO

Notice is hereby given that a Quarterly Dividend for the three (3) months ending 31st March, 1906, at the rate of eight (8) per cent. (8%) per annum has been declared upon the Capital Stock of this institution and the same will be payable at the Office of the Company in this city on and after July 1st, 1906.

World Office, Friday Evening, June 22. The transactions on the Toronto stock market today were very insignificant. The whole day's business could easily have been concentrated in one issue, without making any particular claim to activity. Traders are nonplussed at the stagnation, and are awaiting signs of a movement among the market leaders before taking a position. Attempts at buoyancy in the specialties have met with a poor reception, and time is being allowed to see if this will build up a larger market following. Manipulation in Dominion Coal, which was started a few days ago, has petered out. With the initial movement floor traders quickly responded, but when outside buying orders failed to develop the whole thing was thrown up in disgust, and trades were evened up without delay. Three issues were firm today, viz., Winipeg Railway and Northern and St. Lawrence Navigation shares. The former found a strong market at the selling price, and the new power plant of the Winipeg Company is expected to work big changes in the cost of the operation. Acceptance of the plan, shares of this concern are concentrated, and the idea is gaining ground that the stock will be put in a more official form when a real rotation is desired. Of St. Lawrence, an increase in capital was mentioned today, but this and no official basis. Northern Navigation is in light supply, and difficulty is experienced in getting stock, except by bidding up the price. Regular market specialties were dead, and there was only a light business in bank stocks.

Ennis & Stoppell, McKinnon Building, report the close on: Grandy, 11 to 12; Laid Super, 10 to 11; Nipissing, 5% to 6. The Ontario Bank will open a branch office at North Toronto on Monday, June 25. Mr. D. A. Radcliffe, recently in charge of the Aurora office, will be the manager of this branch. Further action is expected under Sherman anti-trust law expected. Reported New Haven road will quit N. Y. C. terminal, entering New York by way of new Pennsylvania depot. London fortnightly settlement begins next Tuesday. No steel authorities' firm adverse trade reports recently circulated. Strong demand for B. & O. in the loan crowd.

Principal short interest in B. & O. due to sales against new stocks and being a good delivery for three months. Present selling price of Interboro 4 1/2% represents a 60-point decline in Interboro old stock. Western roads show a noticeable decline in general business since June 1, and especially since June 10. Twenty-three roads for second week of June show average gross increase of 12.26 per cent. Pennsylvania loan in Paris principal source of weakness in exchange, but no necessity exists for gold imports. Sub-treasury gain of $288,000 from the banks yesterday, but since Friday it has lost $597,000 to the banks. It is rumored that S. P. common stockholders will have privilege of subscribing for an allotment of unissued S. P. preferred stock at par.

The report that two directors of the American Locomotive Company had resigned from the board as a consequence of the declaration of an initial dividend on the common stock is denied. It is also stated that the vote of the directors in favor of the dividend declaration was unanimous. The known movements of money for the week ending with the close of business yesterday indicate a gain in cash by the banks of $1,282,100. Last week the banks gained on the known movements $900,000. Last Saturday's cash surplus actually showed only an increase of $170,000 in cash.

New York.—For the first time in many weeks a change was shown in copper, all grades of which were reduced from 46 to 44. The export business, however, continues good. Tin was strong at nearly 40 advance in spot and nearby deliveries. Other commodities were unchanged. Some persons in close touch with the Southern Iron situation still declare that developments are under way designed to facilitate the purchase of the St. Lawrence and Company the Republic Iron Mines Company. It is conceded that no negotiations with that object in view have been undertaken since the deal was declared off last year. It is strongly intimated, however, that certain forces are at work of a nature to make easier an successful conclusion of such negotiations when they are resumed.—Town Topics.

Joseph says: It is reiterated that the U. S. Steel Company contemplates no issue of bonds this year, and that the balance sheet indicates it is absent that makes for the continuous activity of the steel and iron manufacturing and consuming interests. This is definite. B. & O. is cheap. As a 6 per cent. dividend-payer it would rarely sell below 117 1/2 in a good market. A good borrowing demand for St. Paul, and there will be something done in this stock during the next few days. You had better take on some. Erie are good for a long pull. New York, June 22.—We would buy standard stocks near the opening this morning, with a small stop, unless the first price is higher than Thursday's close. The limits in most leading issues were not impaired by the raid of yesterday. They will be in case of further pressure of manipulation, in which case lower prices are likely. A. C. we believe that purchases on recessions will continue to prove profitable. Charles Head, 29, St. George St. The stock market was again subjected to bearish pressure in the early dealings, and this, combined with a continued liquidation of weekly margined stocks and aggressive selling by room traders, was responsible for declines of from 1/2 to 2 points in the active issues, with Amalgamated Copper, the Steels and Pennsylvania the principal targets. It developed after the first hour, however, that the short selling had overbalanced the actual liquidation, and that there had been some good buying on the recovery, with intermittent attacks by the bear element, which did not accomplish anything beyond causing fractions to recede. It is reported that the Great Northern ore deal had been closed, and that the terms would be announced next month. It stimulated some buying of the United States Steel issues, and the recovery in these had a good effect. In addition, there was aggressive buying in Southern Pacific, on positive assertions that the stock would be placed on a 4 per cent. dividend basis within a month. A good recovery in Interboro-Metropolitan securities also helped sentiment. The trading continued entirely professional, however, and the recovery was due much to the improvement in technical conditions thru the creation of a large short interest in any other one factor, also reports that congress would adjourn next Thursday were essential to some extent. In the afternoon there were further recoveries, and the closing, though irregular, was generally firm.

On Wall Street.
Marshall, Spader & Co. wired J. G. Beatty, King Edward Hotel, at the close of the market: "In early weakness the market gathered strength gradually, the waves of depression visited certain issues during the forenoon, but the market displayed a very irregular tone."
Further consideration of the supposed cut in southern pig-iron prices gave that matter less importance, and the suspension of hearings before the interstate commerce commission until fall acted in relief of the market.
The gain of the bank by the currency movement, purchases of government bonds, and excellent crop reports discounted for further pressure.
The announced possibility of the iron ore deal with the Steel Corporation was again put in use as a market influence. The strength of the market shown in the northwest specialties, the Erie issues and what looked like good buying of the coals.
The U. S. Steel shares and Copper gave evidence of less pressure, and the early afternoon trading appeared to be on much stronger lines.
The market is gradually shaping itself for a better exhibition of strength, but there is as yet no evidence that an upward movement would be encouraged by the banking interests.
Ennis & Stoppell wired to J. L. Mitchell, McKinnon Building:
The market today, after some early attacks by the bear contingent, has developed strength of impressive character, and under the leadership of Southern Pacific and Steel issues, the market has shown a good recovery. Opinions of high authorities in the iron and steel trades were available in re-statement of purchases reports caused by a small sale of Southern Foundry iron at slightly below regular prices, the quotation for the same having for some time been nominally above the real selling basis. It is now understood that congress will adjourn late in the week, and that the market following this the Great Northern ore deal with the Steel Corporation will be announced, it being stated that it is to consummation of the deal have all been eliminated.
The banking accumulation of Southern Pacific is based upon the intention to place the stock on a dividend basis in August, which will make the stock worth 92. There will be in case of further pressure of manipulation, in which case lower prices are likely. A. C. P. is supported around 103; Locomotive Smelting, 137; B. & O. T. YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Toronto Junction, June 22.—A special meeting of the town council was held to-night. Committees were received from Gunn Company, Limited, calling the attention of the council to the condition of St. Clair-avenue, in the vicinity of Albany-road. There were three requests for water services, which were referred to the superintendent for report.

Mr. Oeler asked to have a light placed on the corner of Jane and Annetto-avenue. Councillor Bull called attention to the unsafe condition of the Weston-road bridge. Councillor Irwin drew attention to the fact that Ball & Co. were erecting a two-story building contrary to the fire bylaw. F. J. Davidson of the Giant Manufacturing Company asked permission to erect a varnish factory on the Weston-road. This was referred to the executive committee. The contract for the removal of ashes and garbage was given to Jarvis Digby at $195 for the year. There being only one tender for the removal of night soil, it was referred back to the work committee.

The general committee in charge of the Twelfth of July celebration met to-night and received the reports of the various sub-committees. A number of ladies of Annetto-street, Methodist Church offered to serve dinner to the visiting brethren in the basement of the church. The offer was accepted. They will meet 200 at a time.

The Canadian Order of Chosen Friends held their regular meeting in the Thompson Hall to-night. Street Foreman Moon has moved the sidewalk and telegraph poles back to the C.P.R. fence on West Toronto-street, adding 8 feet to the width of that roadway.

Sheriff of York.

Newmarket, June 22.—A good deal of interest is being manifested as to who will be the sheriff for York County. It is said in places that the appointment will go to some one in North York. This may not be true. T. Herbert Lennox, M.L.A., who has been at Niagara, Canada, is expected home this week. In the course of a few days a selection will be made.

Among the many applicants for the position is Mr. J. H. Brunton, resident of the county for more than a score of years, and an ardent worker in public affairs.

Major Allan, who was in active service in the Northwest in 1885, and one of North York's "Old Boys."

Danford Roche, a promising merchant and the father of the "cash system."

Mayor Daville of Aurora has a large number of friends who would like to see him secure the coveted plum.

Mr. James Anderson, an old standard-bearer and veteran in the ranks.

J. D. McGe, editor The Express-Herald, who, thru the press and by personal effort, has contributed very materially to the social and public welfare of the community, is also an applicant, and has a host of the rank and file to whom his appointment would be most popular.

And many others. Of course, East York has claims also, and they have yet to be heard in public.

North Toronto.

Herbert Darling's butcher shop, on the corner of Yonge-street and Edgemoor-avenue, was broken into Thursday night and eight pork pigs abstracted. The vandals forced open one of the front windows and also the door, which was small yet the robbery is so much more daring as the butcher shop stands within in the full glare of an electric arc light. Twice last week Mr. Darling was robbed of cash in broad daylight, but the second time he caught the thief, who was red-handed. As Mr. Darling likes police court proceedings, he hushed up the matter, but complains bitterly of a large gang of bad characters congregating around the corner every night.

Herbert Maxwell of Elora is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. M. Letache, Sherwood-avenue.

St. John's Church, York Mills, will hold their annual picnic in Whittier's Grove today.

The annexation committee of Deer Park, consisting of Messrs. Sinclair, Torrett, Clarke, Dundas and Coates, met on Thursday evening and laid their campaign plans for the annexation of Deer Park to Toronto. They decided that the committee in a body will wait on the board of control next Tuesday.

Balmly Beach.

At Balmly Beach Pavilion Church Rev. Canon O'Seara, D.D. will preach at the 11 a.m. service and Rev. Canon Dixon at 7 p.m. on Sunday.

Wychwood.

Those profiting annexation of this district with Toronto have made another change in the limits originally defined to become city property. Instead now of having the limit extend to the Northern Railway it is cut down to Dufferin-street. This is understood to have occurred owing to strong opposition from the Canada Foundry Company and the Toronto & Suburban Railway. The latter company are buying up most of the property on either side of their tracks.

York County News.

LAST OF THE CAMP REVIEW AT THE SPECTACLE

Full Force Paraded on Commons Before a Big Crowd of Visitors.

Niagara Camp, June 22.—(Special.)—Nothing nicer has ever happened on Niagara camp grounds than the review to-day and his honor the Lieutenant-governor was mightily pleased with it, altho he was only one of the visitors. About 5500 men and 12000 horses participated in the affare and the way it looked made one proud to be a Canadian. The men were at their best and the officers to-night are almost wildly enthusiastic over the evening.

The camp is practically over now and some of the regiments will move away to-night, the trains being already read. Some of the Body Guards and a section of the 31st Regiment went away to-night.

Such a march past as that of to-day would fill any company or citizen with joy. The World spoke to the general just as it was all over. The brigadier smilingly said: "You saw it, sir, and say what you think of it. I was quite proud of the camp. Their work was very thorough and the officers and their company, I have no improvements to recommend just at the present." Then the general subsided.

There was an immense crowd watching it all as the rain drops hesitated. It was a crowd effervescent with lusty cheers, some of which were wasted upon the city cops. Steadiness was the fine feature of the parade and a businesslike front which was put on was highly and thoughtfully appreciated by visitors from across the river. It was a grand and splendid occasion in a tickled lot of officers and a satisfied set of men.

The Case of Mackenzie. Easy picking, generosity and friendship, as well as a lack of desire for international complications, helped that man Mackenzie of the 4th, who deserted and came back in a foreign uniform. He only got 25 days sentence, and tho it is at hard labor, it will cease his worry, for he knows where he is at now. The court martial this morning was presided over by Major Knowles, 7th Regiment. There was no evidence that he had joined the army of the country whose uniform he was wearing when he was taken in.

The liberal treatment of the prisoner has met with general approval of the officers and men and the camp, as well as our friendly neighbors. The man's story that he had got drunk and traded clothes with a soldier of the American army was met with some belief.

Counting Up the Crooks. To-night Albert McEwen was arrested. He has got to answer a charge of highway robbery. It happened a year ago in Uxbridge. McEwen is now in the town jail.

Trooper Chadwick of the G.R.B.G. is in the city hospital. The sham-fight caused it. His horse ran into a stone wall and broke his neck. His last living move was to fall on Chadwick.

Major Henderson of the 48th was in camp to-day. He has a wonderful new sight for the riflemen and it will be adopted by the 48th. It is a sight for a soldier with a soldier of the American army was met with some belief.

Nice Place for Prizes. There is every reason to congratulate the regimental police upon the splendid order which has been maintained, sometimes under most vicious conditions, in the town and thru the camp.

LOCAL TOPICS.

The Holy Blossom Toronto Hebrew Congregation Sabbath school will have a public distribution of prizes to-morrow at 4 p.m. Members, parents and others interested are cordially invited.

BROUGHT BACK TO LIFE.

Squeezing Heart Like Sponge Will Restore Animation.

Dr. B. Merrill Ricketts of Cincinnati, whose paper on the restoration of life by compression of the heart after it has ceased beating, read at the meeting of the American Medical Association in Boston on June 6, created a sensation, says a person who had been dead 20 minutes and was brought back to life by manipulation of the heart.

"The heart has actually been stimulated to action one or two days after death," said the doctor, "yet one or two minutes after the cessation of the heart is time enough to justify a physician in opening the chest and squeezing the heart, much as one would a sponge, to renew its action."

"The cause of cases in which this manipulation of the heart to renew life is especially applicable is where either or chloroform has been administered, where there has been an inhalation of illuminating gas, in cases of shock from fright, injury or surgical operation, drowning, electrocution, strangulation, loss of blood or probably in many cases of disease or the administration of drugs."

"The results in all cases are influenced by prompt and skilled attention, the quantity of blood lost, time and the cause of the suspended heart action, mutilation of the body and general care."

"We have taken 25 dogs and chloroformed them until the heart ceased to beat. Then the chest was opened and the heart taken in the hand and squeezed about 50 times to the minute. In about 75 per cent. of the animals the heart was made to beat again."

Dr. Ricketts will probably find himself the object of much discussion for his urgent plea that criminal condemnation to death or to ten years or more imprisonment be offered the choice of commutation if they announce themselves willing subjects for experiments of this sort. He says:

"We now know of 60 prisoners in the penitentiaries who are life prisoners; who are willing to be electrocuted and so experimented with, provided that if resuscitated their freedom be given them."

Summing up, Dr. Ricketts says that the total number of men operated upon for cardiac stimulation is 29, and of these 12 recovered permanently, and in 19 of the cases the heart beat from one minute to 24 hours after death finally came. The heart has been made to beat as long as two and one-half hours after the cessation of its pulsations. The longest time on record of cessation of the heart after which it was restored or re-established permanently is 20 minutes.
