LABOR IS AT LAURIER HIS REPLY DOESN'T SUIT

Delegates at Winnipeg Conference Declare That They Will Even Up at Elections Over Jap Question.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reply to the Trades and Labor Congress precipitated a red-hot debate at the closing session of the convention Saturday afternoon, in which the members rode roughshod over the premier.

In no uncertain language they expressed their dissatisfaction at the non-committal reply and resolved, amid great enthusiasm, to give their answer to Sir Wilfrid at the polls next election.

A sensation was created at the convention when it was discovered, in the course of a discussion of a resolution to have principles of trade unionism introduced into all Dominion and provincial parliaments, and to take steps to have open shops abolished, that E. M. Draper, paid secretary of the congress, forsook the government printing office at Ottawa, which is not an organized union shop.

Secretary Draper's long explanation created an uneasy feeling in minds of spectators.

The resolution against unionists becoming members of the Canadian militia was overwhelmingly defeated, after considerable debate.

"Suppose that the treaty with Japan was abrogated and Japanese forces should attempt to enforce the entry of Japanese coolies into British Columbia, what would be the position of union men be if that entry should have to be opposed by force?" asked E. M. Draper.

James Simpson, vice-president of the congress, will accompany Dr. Trotter of Winnipeg to the convention of the American Federation of Labor in Norfolk, Virginia, Nov. 13. He will ask the Trades and Labor Council of Toronto to hold their 1908 convention in Toronto.

DRANK POISON IN ERROR.

Doctor and Friend Thought Strychnine Was Liqueur.

HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Dr. J. L. Peppard and Samuel L. Lindsay, well-known citizens of Great Village, N.S., are dead, as the result of accidental poisoning late Friday afternoon.

Dr. Peppard and Lindsay were working on the farm near the village. Becoming thirsty, both men repaired to the doctor's surgery for a refreshing drink.

There were two bottles lying in every respect, with contents the same, on the surgery shelf. One was harmless, the other contained strychnine. Both men drank freely of the solution made from the strychnine.

The doctor died shortly after they drank the mixture, and Lindsay died yesterday morning.

Bel Line car (westbound) along Queen-street, from Sherbourne-street to York-street to King-street to Spadina-avenue. Eastbound cars vice versa.

King-street cars (eastbound) down Bathurst-street to Front-street to York-street to King-street to Church-street, to Queen-street. Westbound cars vice versa.

DEBATE FAIRLY SIZZLED

IN WESTMOUNT COUNCIL

Language of the Curbstone Vogue

When Bylaw Was Under Discussion.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—"Lari!" "Impertinent meddling cur!" "Dash blanked thing!" were some of the choice compliments that passed at the Westmount Council Chamber on Saturday evening at the close of one of the hottest meetings ever held, even in Westmount, whose council is famed for its vehement language.

In fact, the discussion became so superheated that one of the councillors threatened that he would throw his opponent out of the window, but that he was not worth bothering with. The opponent, ex-councillor Stevens, who is a very small man, retorted with a threat to have the councillor put in the cells, and the mayor lost no time in getting between the belligerents.

The trouble arose over the passing of a bylaw authorizing the council to borrow $250,000 for a scheme of civic improvements. This was met with hot opposition by Councillor McGoun, and ex-Councillor Stevens.

BISHOP INGRAM STR. PICTON BURNS AT HER WHARF LOSS TO VESSEL AND CARGO IS VERY HEAVY MAN AND WOMAN PERISH ON BOARD

AYLMER, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The sun was shining brightly, with just a hint of autumn in the bracing air, when the Bishop of London came from his brother's farm on the lake shore to preach in Aylmer at the morning service at Trinity Church. For hours the town had worn an air of hushed expectancy.

Every seat was occupied, and every inch of standing room was taken up. The main aisle filled with people as soon as the procession concluded, and even the vestibule of the church was crowded.

Among the clergy in the chancel with the lord was Rev. E. E. Davis, dean of the Diocese of Huron; Archdeacon Arundel C. Hill, St. Thomas; Rev. Canon Cody, Toronto; Rev. E. E. Perkins, Exeter; Rev. W. T. G. Wright, Tillsonburg; Rev. T. Morton Shore, Warwick, and Rev. A. B. Farney, rector of Aylmer. In the congregation were several clergymen of other denominations.

Rev. Canon Cody read the second lesson at the morning service and preached to a crowded church. On the night from the text, "Whoever comes to me, I will give him life, and I will give him life in abundance." "Whoever comes to me, I will give him life, and I will give him life in abundance."

"Where Your Heart Is." Bishop Ingram spoke for a little more than half an hour. He preached from the text, Matt. 6, 21, "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." A plain man, simple in manner and speech, he addresses his congregation in terms simple and direct, that leave a deep impression in the hearts of his hearers.

"Where your heart is," he began, "there is your treasure. You should have no trouble in knowing what it is you like, what it is you prize, and whatever that may be, its possession should give you delight. Yet in going about my work I am constantly puzzled and distressed to find so many people who undoubtedly are Christians, who really love Jesus Christ, but who have no joy in their lives, no spring, no enthusiasm. Now God intended our lives full of joy, and that joy should come from religion. One reason for this is that your lives are to be found in the notion that you know the exact hour and the exact day of your conversion."

"I find no warren in the Scriptures for this contention. There may be individual cases. St. Paul was converted in one moment, and he devoted himself to Christ. But you are not called upon to fix the moment of your conversion. As for the important question, not when did it occur."

"When I arose this morning dawn was struggling into light. What moment did the actual day begin? It is not important. It is day now, the sun is shining, I know that perfectly. Then again some people are unhappy because they have not at all times the conscious nearness of Christ, because they do not, at all times, feel their love for him. These seasons of spiritual dryness and depression must come, they are trials sent by God. Do they indicate that we are lost? Must I remind you that they even visited Jesus Christ Himself, who we know cried out, 'My God, why hast thou forsaken me? The test of our devotion must be found in our reliance upon the intercession of Christ.'"

"I am struck," he said, "by the feeling of how religious a country this is. Unconsciously, perhaps, many of you are aiming at that high ideal, and it is admitted even by unbelievers, to be the highest. People must be asked would Christ do it if he were running my farm, my store, my office, just as he, the priest, is bound to ask would Christ do it if he were Bishop of London. Prayer, too, was insisted upon. A Christian could not live without this connection with heaven."

Build Up Great Nation. "You have to build up the great Canadian nation by your own efforts, and on the farm. Do that work, so well, let your example be so good, that a Christian may be known by his honesty, his kindness, his good works, and then you will build a nation truly great, a Christian nation."

Bishop Ingram will be the guest to-night of David Marshall, M.P. He leaves to-morrow morning for Niagara Falls, and thence to Washington, where he will be the guest of President Roosevelt.

Watchman's Escape. The night watchman, W. Taylor, who had been asleep in the fore-cabin, had plunged overboard. He would have been drowned had not employees of the Electric Light Company luckily noticed him. He was then face down in the water. A plank was shoved to him through a hole in the wall, and this he grasped. He did not say a word when rescued.

Were about forty passengers booked for the Picton, which, after calling at Hamilton, was scheduled to go east down the lake on the morning of the 23rd. The vessel was carrying a full cargo of lumber and other goods.

Capt. Redfern saved two women from death, finding them lying in a faint in their cabins. His own face is badly scratched and his eyebrows and hair singed. The steward, P. Oswald, found a boy huddled on the floor in the hold and carried him to safety.

Fire Spread Rapidly. No one knows what caused the fire, but all remark on its rapid spread. A quantity of paint and oil was in the hold. It looked just like a lantern in the hold.

Firemen Worked Well. The fire department received an alarm by telephone, and the Bay and Lombard-street sections responded, an alarm from box 121, at the Toronto Electric Light Company's wharf, being turned in almost directly afterwards.

The firemen were on the spot and at work in very quick time, but they were badly hampered as they could only reach the blaze to advantage from the one side. Ladders were run to the upper decks and hoses carried on board and used in the heart of the blaze. In 30 minutes the fire was well under control.

The fireboat was also soon to arrive, and three or four light but effective streams from astern. Employees of the Electric Light Company were first to throw water on the burning vessel from the small 1-2-inch hose used in the boiler-rooms, the pumps being run up to 130 lbs. pressure. Only for their prompt measures are the fire now completely under control.

The window frames are badly charred, and as is the packing around some of the doors. The smoke filled the rooms and the men had a hard task.

Loss is Heavy. The fire completely gutted the steam engine, which was resting on the bottom and tilted to one side, presenting an appearance of almost complete ruin. Although the forward exterior shows signs of fire, the interior is gone. The fire was evidently fiercest around the engine and boiler rooms.

The Picton, or the Corsican, as it was known until two years ago, when it was renamed, was built in 1885.

PACKED GRAND STAND FALLS

Four Will Die as Result of Collapse at County Fair—Hundred in the Debris.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 21.—A windstorm of cyclonic force, accompanied by sharp lightning, visited part of Schuylkill County late yesterday with the result that four persons were fatally injured, seven were seriously hurt, and a half hundred others were wounded by the falling of a grand stand at Heggins, near here. The fatally injured are:

Howard Yoder of Heggins, aged 16 years.

Gordon Miller of Gordon, 18 years.

Chas. Ney, Valleyview.

Andrew Koppenhaver, Sacramento.

The accident happened at the county fair of the Heggins Grange during a baseball game. The grandstand was packed to its capacity.

During the game rain started to fall, and many of the spectators sought shelter under the stand. Soon a rumbling cloud was seen coming from the west, traveling with great velocity.

The whirling wind struck the stand and crushed it.

More than a hundred persons were beneath the stand, and when rescuers reached them, it was found that more than half of them had been injured.

A dozen physicians were summoned, and they attended the injured at farmhouses nearby. The grandstand was completely wrecked.

"WORLD" REUNITES SISTERS

Item Telling of Younger One's Arrival Was Soon Read.

As a result of the publicity given of her arrival in The Sunday World, Jennie White, a 15-year-old Scotch lassie, who made the journey from Glasgow to Toronto alone, has found her sister, Martha, whom she came to join.

Having seen that Jennie was at the British Welcome League Hostel, Martha hurried there and was delighted to meet Jennie, whom she had not seen since she was a mere girl of five.

The two sisters were a very happy one, and the two sisters went off to Martha's home, in Parkdale, after thanking Mrs. Robert McNeil, who had been instrumental in drawing attention to them and The World for having given the sisters the opportunity of meeting once again.

Greater Quebec, Says Gouin
He Would Annex Ungava

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Premier Gouin of this province announced at a political meeting at Longueuil this afternoon that his new program included a demand for the annexation to Quebec Province of the whole immense territory of Ungava, which would make this by far the largest territory of Ungava was entirely separated from all the other provinces by great inland seas, and offered no adequate harbours to any of them except Quebec, so there could be no objection to its annexation. This province, he contended, was in a better position than the Ottawa Government to administer the district of Ungava.

He intimated that Mr. Bourassa had been jockeying for a provincial portfolio, and when he found he could not get it he had started his campaign against the provincial government.

The meeting was a very large one, fully six thousand people attending it, and the Ungava announcement was loudly cheered.

Sudden Outbreak of Fire Destroys Lake Liner and Results in the Death of Passenger and One of the Crew—Several Others Have Close Calls for Their Lives—Flames Spread so Quickly That Vessel's Own Fire Appliances Could Not Be Used.

Coroner Wilson will this morning open an inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of George Kleiskie, who, with Miss Winnie Hatch, perished in the fire which destroyed the steamer Picton at the foot of Scott-street on Saturday afternoon.

The full details of which were given in The Sunday World.

According to one of the deck hands, Kleiskie probably sacrificed his life for others. Kleiskie had been at the foot of the stairs, dead from suffocation, when the fire broke out.

When the alarm was given of fire, it is believed he ran forward and down into the hold to warn the others.

He was also a good supply of fire hose on board, but when it was run out for use the machinery could not be reached to set the pumps going.

TERRIFIC GALE SWEEPS NEWFOUNDLAND COAST

Vessels Wrecked in Bonaventure Bay—Two Lives Gone and Great Property Loss.

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Fourteen hours late, the steamer Bruce arrived last night, bringing meagre details of an awful storm on the Newfoundland coast last week.

At Conception Bay a terrific sea swept the track, threatening destruction and holding the train 14 hours.

When the storm subsided the train crossed, reaching Port Aux Basques at 12.30. For miles along the track from Port Aux Basques to St. John's the telegraph wires are down. It is impossible to ascertain anything but meagre details.

Several vessels were wrecked in Bonaventure Bay. Two were lost. A vessel, Capt. Parsons' owner, was lost, with a cargo of fish valued at $20,000. Many fishermen lost the total season's catch.

Anxiety is felt here for the safety of the ship Atlantic, owned and commanded by Capt. Olsen, which left Bonaventure Bay eighty days ago for this port in ballast. The run is generally made in sixty days.

IS CHATHAM CITY AT MERCY OF A FIRE FEND?

CHATHAM, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The sawmill of W. M. Drader, Brooke and Catherine-streets, caught fire from some unknown cause at 11 o'clock this morning and burned to the ground.

On Friday Drader's planing mill, located in another section of the city, burned down, and thru all this damage to Mr. Drader's local interests he cannot be communicated with, being away on a business trip.

The fire this morning was of the spectacular sort, the flames reaching as high as 70 feet above the ground. The heat and smoke were intense. The fire brigade responded promptly, but owing to a bridge close by being blocked on account of the approaches being paved, a long detour had to be made in reaching the scene of the conflagration, entailing a loss of ten minutes or more. By the time the firemen arrived, every inch of the big mill was in flames and the neighborhood was in danger. It required two hours of strenuous activity to control the flames and two additional hours before the last spark was out.

A large lumber yard adjoining the mill was saved after a portion of it had been burned. A scarcity of hose was apparent, as only four lines could be played on the flames from the nearest hydrants some blocks distant.

A number of firemen sustained more or less slight injuries. James Keely being knocked out by a flying timber, George Deline falling thru a drydock and getting his leg hurt. Walter Keely getting a finger pulled out of place and Fire Chief Pritchard getting his hand burned. The most seriously injured was a little girl, daughter of Pete Touleuse, who, while looking on, fell and received an awful gash on her foot, the sharp teeth of a big saw cutting to the bone.

While the firemen were fighting the big blaze a second alarm from another portion of the city rang in, but happily it proved only a slight affair.

PRIEST PLANNED CONTROL OF OIL FIELDS

With Money Borrowed From Parishioners He Hoped to Exploit Tilbury District.

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—An ambition to control the Tilbury oil fields is said to have been the cause of the financial adventures of Father Gruenewald, the former Detroit priest who confessed to losing large sums borrowed from the members of St. Mary's parish.

The formation of the Clinton Petroleum Company was undertaken as an enterprise in furtherance of his plans, according to Dr. Karl Rheinhardt, a promoter with whom the priest was seen yesterday, and who claims that their intentions were honest.

Told of Geology. Dr. Rheinhardt said:

"I was told of the remarkable geological formations underlying Tilbury, and we—Father Gruenewald, myself and certain others—formed a syndicate for their exploitation. Contrary to all the rules and laws of business, I allowed sentiment to creep into the deal. The father was anxious to found a parish school, and I gave my word that I would help him realize that ambition. We had no land at Tilbury, nor so much as the scratch of a paper on which to start with, so first we had to secure leases and then incorporate, which we did. Father Gruenewald and I agreed to so manipulate the transactions that we could retain 51 per cent. of the company's stock and thus control the entire deal. We began drilling operations, and I went to Cleveland to get enough money to buy and combine all the oil wells in the Tilbury field. That was our scheme. Our wealthy parishioners had to contribute to the scheme, and I am sure that I was responsible for the fact that there was no oil in the hole."

I knew nothing about where he got his money. He had two brothers in Pennsylvania whom he wished in the company, and I supposed they put up part of the money. I don't know anything about any borrowing on the father's part, until I read of it in the papers a day or two ago. I did not know that he had borrowed so much money. I was going into a speculation and not an investment, because he had no money. He was investing their money they could have held him. But in a speculation, of course, it's different; everyone takes his own part. I was a speculation such as our venture at Tilbury."

Not Out for Crook. When asked from what point he came to Detroit, Dr. Rheinhardt said with a shrug: "I am a promoter. I came from New Orleans, Boston, New York and South Africa. Like other promoters, I am here to-day and gone to-morrow. I have been in Detroit nearly a year, which is longer than I have stayed in the States for some time past. I've lost millions of dollars, but that is no one's business but mine. Had I not been pledged to help Father Gruenewald I could have made money, but I have been his friend and he has been my enemy. To some of them I owe money, but they will stay with me until I am on my feet again. All would have been well had I not been so foolish as to enter into my business dealings. I may have been cut out for a fool, but I was not cut out for a crook."

Wanted Control of Interest. "Both Father Gruenewald and myself were anxious to secure for ourselves the controlling interest in the Tilbury field, as I saw before me so it was thought best to have the father interest his people himself, as they had confidence in him and did not know me. One of my people from the east put up $200 for the drilling work and I allowed all my commissions for promotion to go in as a part of the cost. I was to have a 5 per cent. interest in the company. Subsequently my wife needed medical treatment and the father advanced me sums of money from time to time to help me out personally. For these loans, I transferred to him as security portions of my stock interests in the Clinton Petroleum Company, and just as I think where he would have had a big pile of money in return for the small amounts he loaned me, and I—well, I would have probably been in about the same position I am now—financially. A man is a fool to mix sentiment and business."

MILK "UP" AT GUELPH.

GUELPH, Sept. 22.—Milk in future will be a dear commodity in Guelph. Saturday morning a number of the farmers of Guelph Township, who supply the milk for the city, decided to form an association and to raise the price of milk to the milkmen to $1.60 per 100 lbs., or 4 cents a quart. The price formerly was 3 cents a quart.

It is understood that 3 cents a quart will be charged by a majority of the retail dealers.

$100,000 Fire.

ELMIRA, N.Y., Sept. 22.—The immense coal pockets of the Erie Railroad at Hornell, were destroyed by fire to-night, causing a loss of $100,000.

Never before in Canada's history has there been such an opportunity for man to think profitably of the autumn hat. The weather man has been mighty good and does not threaten to break up or away. The premier hat store of America is Dimeen's, corner Yonge and Temperance streets.

THREE HAPPY BRIDES.

Triple Wedding Discloses Interesting Romance.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—At a triple ceremony at Union Hill, N.J., yesterday, three brothers were married to three young women who came all the way from England to be their brides. The brides were William Johnson and Miss Amy Mugg, Herbert Johnson and Miss Ann Day, and Reuben Johnson and Miss Lillian Burdett. The Johnson brothers came to America from England three years ago, each leaving a sweetheart in the old home. They promised to send for the sweethearts when they could make homes for them, and the girls promised to respond to the call. The bridegrooms have prospered in America and recently sent for the still faithful sweethearts.

They arrived on the Lusitania when that ship came in after her first trip.

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND OUT
Shoe Factory Workers Demand Nine Hour Day.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 22.—A conservative estimate places the number of strikers who are on strike as a result of the general strike instituted yesterday by the shoe factory workers at 25,000. The demands comprise a nine-hour working day and the rate of pay to remain on the basis of the ten-hour workday.

The employers, at a meeting yesterday, decided not to accede to any demands made by the strikers.

ENGLISH RAILWAY STRIKE.
Would Starve Out Interior Cities in Few Days.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The question whether the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants will strike to secure recognition of their organization and a new scale of wages and hours, which is exciting great apprehension on the part of the public, will be decided by ballot.

The seriousness of a railway tie-up in the United Kingdom cannot be overestimated. If successful, it would not only paralyze the industries, but would even starve out the inhabitants of all the interior cities of England, where there are only a few days' food supplies on hand.

DYNAMITE ENOUGH TO BLOW UP HALF HAMILTON

Arrests Made of Men Who Had in Their Possession Forty Sticks—General News.

HAMILTON, Sept. 22.—(Special). There was enough dynamite in the cells at No. 3 Police Station to-night to blow up half the city. It was found in the possession of John Dale, Cathcart and Kelly-streets, a teamster, 43 years of age, and Fred Taylor, 122 1-2 King William-street, a laborer. They were both locked up at noon to-day, and the charge against them is having explosives in their possession, the maximum penalty for which is 14 years. Other charges may also be laid.

It is thought that the dynamite belongs to the contractor on the Brantford & Hamilton Railway. The story the police tell is that the prisoners were seen with the stuff on the mountain by some youths. When the youths remonstrated with the pair, it is charged that one of them threatened to throw a stick of dynamite and blow the whole gang up. The youths telephoned for the police and kept the pair surrounded. Constable Brannon made the arrests without much trouble.

The dynamite was in a bag and there were 40 sticks of it fitted up with nitroglycerine. The cartridges were removed before the dynamite was taken to the cells.

Mrs. Philip, wife of David Philip, 205 East Hunter-street, died this afternoon at the age of 65 years.

John Dickenson, ex-M.L.A., has been dropped from the directorate of the Dominion Power & Transmission Company because his son has some of the concern's contracts.

The price of flour has been advanced from $4.50 to $4.56 a barrel, and it is said that the price of bread will be increased also.

Killed by Street Car.
William McBride, 243 West Hunter-street, caretaker of the Central School, was run down Saturday evening by a street car on the Locke-street Bridge and instantly killed. He had been riding along beside the car, and in some way got in front of it. He was terribly mangled, his legs being almost severed.

William Bonner, 22 New-street, had the lower part of his ear bitten off at Victoria Park this afternoon. He was there to separate two men who were fighting, and, as usual, the peace-maker got the worst of it. Robert Robinson has been locked up on the charge of doing the biting.

CURRY OPENS CAMPAIGN WANTS VOTES FOR ALL

Get Every Name on List, He Says—For Civil Service Reform.

J. W. Curry, ex-crown attorney, Liberal candidate in East York for the local legislature, fired the opening shot of the forthcoming campaign in the new Anglican Mission on Ashdale-avenue on Saturday night.

The gathering was, numerically, not a big one, some forty of the free and independent electors straggling in, but what it lacked in numbers was amply atoned for in enthusiasm.

President John Ross of the East York Liberal Association was in the chair. A. J. Reynolds of Scarborough Junction, Fred Lyonde of Balmby Beach, Mayor Ross, East Toronto, and W. P. Summerhayes, spoke briefly, eulogizing the candidate and prophesying Mr. Curry's return by an old-time Liberal majority.

The candidate was well and heartily received, and in the course of an address of more than half an hour, he dealt trenchantly with a number of so-called reforms which he declared he would surely introduce.

"I am in favor of civil service reform," said Mr. Curry, "and I do not think that a man should secure a position through graft or because he is a member of the dominant party, but through merit."

Referring to the enrollment of new names on the York list, Mr. Curry said, "I have given explicit instructions to my men to place every name on the list, be it Liberal or Conservative. If you know a man is opposed to me, put him on."

Will Follow Leader.
Referring to the selection of Hon. A. G. MacKay as leader of the opposition, Mr. Curry declared he would follow him only where his opinion agreed with his leader. He declared that he had no personal opportunities to enter political life, but refused, "now, however," said Mr. Curry, "I want to get in."

Mr. Curry gave a few vigorous thrusts at the trusts and combines, and declared himself as ready to fight them.

"I had been accused of opposing unions, but this was only in official capacity. Personally, he favored them. He paid a tribute to Alex. Ross, M.L.A., and referring to the matter of expense Mr. Curry said: 'Any honest expense that is incurred in this contest I will pay or get money to pay, but I want no outside fund, nor will I tolerate it.'"

At the close of the meeting a strong local committee was formed.

Queen Ena Going Home.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Sept. 21.—King Alfonso, accompanied by his staff, left this city today for Galicia, where his majesty will attend the Spanish army manoeuvres. Queen Victoria, in the meantime remaining at La Granja Palace.

Later the Spanish sovereigns will visit Emperor Francis Joseph and King Edward, stopping for a week in Paris, en route, while on their way from Vienna to England.

Ancient and Modern (Eternal F.)

The heroine of the historical novel and the model girl came face to face with each other unexpectedly the other day. It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and the heroine, otherwise known as Alys Isobyl, was reclining in a hammock on the porch of the paternal residence. The story she was reading had proved "real slow," all about a girl with an outlandish name, Amelotte, or "Lyoness" or something, and the book fell from her listless hand while she gazed at a picture of a girl in the middle of her somewhat mingled dream, in which "Jinks," her steady, the horse she had her money up on, and a supper party for "dinner only" divided the stage a timid little vision roused her, and she sat up in the hammock to behold a slender and transparent vision in grey standing uncertainly on the top step.

"Come right in," she said hospitably. "Don't you mind my socks. I kicked off my shoes to be cool. You're Braggadocio, aren't you?" "Oh dear no!" exclaimed the vision with a faint flush of embarrassment. "Oh no! That's the name of the hero. The heroine is Alys Isobyl. I mean, that's enough. You needn't tell me your pedigree, you know. Just call me Alys and I'll call you anything that comes easy. But I want to ask you a lot of things. Why didn't you marry the villain, the nice one with the whiskers and the temper?" "I couldn't see anything in that hero. He was sort of—well—a bit of a Willy—don't you see?"

The gentle grey wrath coughed deprecatingly. "Really," she began— "Oh, yes, I know," said Alys Isobyl. "Of course you've got stick up for him. But he strikes me the kind of fellow that'd find around for your father's consent, and then turn down, if you just look another fellow to a dance."

"I," gasped Alys Isobyl, etc. "Took a few to a dance?" "Why, yes, sure, didn't you ever do that?"

"Lord Ursolino made me dance with him in chapter two," said the heroine mildly. "But I didn't like it, you know."

"Then why do you do it? Oh, well, never mind, he was a husky fellow. But I tell you I wish I'd been there. Now there's 'Jinks,' he plays scrimmage on 'Varsity L,' but I guess I'd make him up and put him in a game like that on me. Poor Jinks, I told him last night that if he didn't get a raise and marry me, I'd turn him down for paper's sake. Felt pretty sore, I guess, but he'll be round again to-day. Poor old Jinks!"

"But what?" cried the grey lady in distress. "You couldn't speak like that to a man? Why I'd die of shame."

"Don't be woolly! Of course I could! Please, you, I have all the coin, and he'd never have come to the point if I hadn't rushed it thru. One fine day, I remember, I was doing the stunt while Jinks lay in the bottom of the dinghy. I watched him for awhile, and thought how slow he was, and how funny a man at sea's said. Well—I thought, why not here and now? Sure thing, we can't get down for paper's sake, but I'm not going to take any risks on my steady. So I says, 'Wake up, Jinks, I want to talk to you.'"

"And you told him about the partner and how he proposed?" enquired the grey heroine; she was leaning forward now her pale face flashed with a sudden light.

Alys Isobyl looked at her with good-natured pity.

"Gracious no! Why he'd have funked, and I was so sure of it, I told him to go."

"You were so sure of it, I told him to go."

BUD

Published in England Under the Title "THE DAFT DAYS" By NEIL MUNRO

This little heroine made her first appearance three or four months ago without any fuss, and in the same quiet way she has been winning the heart of the public ever since. "Have you read BUD?" is a question always put with a mysterious, reminiscent smile that will puzzle you until you have taken up the book for yourself. It recounts the experience of a little Chicago girl in a Scotch village—a charming story from cover to cover and absolutely new.

The critics, too, have only affection and kind words for BUD.

"It deserves to be a little classic, this story so full of good writing, and smiles, and right feeling."—A. T. Quiller-Couch. "Bud is a little girl that every reader will desire to hug."—Cleveland Plain Dealer. "To read is to chuckle merrily, yet with an undercurrent of irrepressible tenderness from first to last."—Chicago Record-Herald. "One of the most lovable, quaint and amusing little heroines to be imagined."—Portland Advertiser.

First Carnegie Organ.

Simpson-Avenue Methodist Church Dedicates the Laird's Gift.

Yesterday was a red-letter day in the annals of the new Simpson-Avenue Methodist Church, for the morning and evening services marked the dedication of the new Carnegie organ.

This splendid instrument of 600 pipes and two manuals, costing $2200, was half-subscribed for by the "Laird of Skibo," erected by E. Lye & Sons of this city, and is the first Carnegie organ used for divine worship in this city.

The balance due on the organ has been fully subscribed for. Rev. Wesley Dean of the Fred Victor Mission, a former pastor of the church, preached in the morning on "The Use by the Jews of Old Instruments in the Temple." Rev. W. E. Baker, pastor of the church, officiated at the evening service.

The church at both services was crowded, and the organ gave general satisfaction. Mr. Lye & Sons, who are the firm of the church, presided at the instrument. The musical portion of both services was very impressive. In the morning Mrs. Ayer, tenor, and Miss A. Breiz rendered effectively "Tarry With Me," by Nicolai, and in the evening the number from Attilla, "Praise Ye," was well sung by the choir.

Mrs. Coggins sang well the contralto numbers at both services. The anthem, "Oh, Be Joyful" (Dudley Buck), and "Gloria in Excelsis," from Mozart's "Requiem," were also rendered at the evening service. Ernest Grey of the Conservatory of Music will be the regular organist.

Chicago Damaged.

The Chicago was so badly damaged on her Friday afternoon trip to Lewiston that she remained there. The accident occurred while she was being berthed, the strong wind and current dashing the boat against the pier, tearing away the wheel guards and badly damaging the paddles on the starboard side.

The Corona is now making two trips across the lake daily, and will complete the service alone for the season.

TRINITY CONFERS DEGREE ON THE BISHOP OF OREGON

Rev. C. Scadding Created a D.D., Honoris Causa, at Brilliant Function.

Trinity University was the scene of a brilliant function Saturday afternoon, the occasion and the conferring of the degree of doctor of divinity, honours causa, on His Lordship Rev. C. Scadding, Bishop of Oregon.

Another interesting feature of the proceedings was the introduction of Dr. Falconer, principal of Toronto University, to the faculty and trustees of Trinity College, this being the occasion of his first official visit.

Prof. W. Clark, vice-chancellor of Trinity, presided over the ceremony, introducing Bishop Scadding, he said that the occasion was a specially pleasant one for him. He thought that he knew the Bishop of Oregon better than anyone else, having been rural dean of the district in England from which his parents had come. He had also come into specially close relationship with him during his student days at Trinity, and had followed his career closely up to the present.

He had seen most diligent student, and had shown special literary ability in the authorship of a book on Christian Doctrine. He thought that if any student of Trinity had been more successful in his life work, and had afforded sufficient reason for the honor conferred upon him by his alma mater.

Review of Ministry.

Provost Maclean presented Dr. Scadding to the vice-chancellor, and took occasion to make a brief review of his ministerial career. The faculty, said the speaker, had followed the course of Dr. Scadding's life work with great interest and gratification, because it had been so phenomenally successful.

His first large sphere of work had been in New York City, where he had been in the poorest and most crowded section. "His work there," said the provost, "was one of self-education and entire self-forgetfulness, setting an example of practical Christianity."

His work after this took him successively to Toledo and Chicago, and he spent two years in the latter city as rector of La Grange Church. His record here as a parish priest brought him to the notice of the general convention of the church of the United States at Boston in 1906, which selected him as first bishop of the Mississippi Diocese of the United States.

Dr. Scadding, a Canadian, had been selected for this high honor, despite the intense national feeling that prevails in the United States, and is emphatic proof of the general esteem in which he was held by the church authorities.

After Provost Maclean's address, the formal introduction of Bishop Scadding to the vice-chancellor was made by Dean Duckworth, and a Latin oration, and Prof. Clark pronounced the degree of doctor of divinity.

Dr. Scadding spoke of his great affection for Trinity College, and asserted that he valued the honor conferred upon him more than any other that was made to him by any other institution to bestow. He was proud of Trinity, and of her far-reaching influence.

Canada, but through the world. Her graduates were in Japan, in China, in Alaska, and in the United States, and none had brought discredit upon their alma mater. As he spoke, he thought of Bishop Brent, the statesman bishop of the Philippines; of Bishop Rensselaer, the statesman bishop of Alaska; and of the late Anderson of Chicago, so well known to Torontonians.

He thought that the federation was a good thing for the college, but round about old Trinity there would always linger the sentiment of old associations that would be preserved.

Bishop Scadding spoke also of the needs of his diocese, and the opening of the new cathedral, and the work for consecrated persons in the diocese. He concluded with a prayer for the faculty of divinity.

Right Rev. Dr. Sweatman, primate of Canada, presided at the ceremony, and he made the fourth graduate of Trinity he made the fourth graduate of Trinity he made the fourth graduate of Trinity.

He had ordained him in 1885. In 1885 he had gone to the United States, and following their usual course, the ceremony was held at their usual place, only prominent Canadian who had been accepted annexation at their usual place.

SPRUCE TIMBER COMBINE?

Organization That Controls Entire Available Supply of Pulp.

O. E. Elsemore writes regarding an alleged combine of papermakers, and an appeal of the publishers to President Roosevelt to investigate. He says he does not know of any paper trust, but it is well-known that wood pulp has advanced $4 per ton within the past few months.

"I have often wondered if there was not a spruce timber limit combine that affects the entire available supply of pulp wood. I have heard that there is already such an organization in course of formation. The purchasers of white pine of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota thought that there was an inexhaustible supply of white pine timber, till they wakened up one morning to find it all gone, and so it will be with the newspaper publishers in a very few years regarding paper supply."

"We see to-day large cargoes of spruce pulp wood in transit from points far

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. A vertical crease is visible near the right edge, suggesting it was once part of a bound volume. The page is set against a dark background.

LAURIER'S REPLY APPLAUDED

Assured that Dominion Government Has Acted Wisely.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—(C.A.P. Despatch.)
On Sir Wilfrid Laurier's letter to the labor congress on the Asiatic question, published fully, The News comments that it is a loyal, careful document, which once more assures us the Dominion Government will do everything in its power to prevent a recurrence of the outrages which lately disgraced the Pacific coast.

The News, at the same time, sounds a grave note: "Unless we are prepared to surrender the Pacific coast, it is obvious emigration must be restricted and the duty of avoiding the growth of an appalling race feud points the same direction."
The News adds if the white races cannot spare the men to people the Pacific slope, the future of the Pacific coast, the time may come when no alliance in the world will avail to avert a struggle for possession of tempting undeveloped territory.

friends here were wired that he was coming down to the hospital. He had collapsed in the stateroom. Dr. Murray was called, but could only attest to death. The body will be sent to

QUEBEC, Sept. 21.—(Special.)—Saturday's evidence before the royal commission investigating the Quebec bridge collapse is important as indicating that some bridge experts at all events attribute the disaster to the defect in the chord No. 9 of the anchor arm.

Mr. Hoare, the chief engineer of the Quebec Bridge Company, gave it as his opinion, when pressed by the commission, that the disaster was due to this defect, although he hesitated at first to hazard the opinion, because his investigation of the bridge had not enabled him to definitely ascertain the cause.

The vertical pillars might either have given way, though it was his opinion that the worst treatment in the fall, for there was evidence of almost complete destruction of the main post and bottom chords.

On the other hand there was nothing in the tension braces or general connections to indicate the cause of the disaster, and the riveting, with a few exceptions, was still good.

Mr. Hoare was instructed to prepare plans of the present condition of the chief members of the bridge for the commission.

APPEAL IS DROPPED.

Hotelkeeper at Falls Decides to Pay the Fine.

Not long since a number of the hotel-keepers at Niagara Falls were prosecuted for infractions of the license laws. Several of them, in which the hotel and bar-keepers were made defendants, were entered, and in every case save one the defendants pleaded guilty and were fined. The 14th case the defendant, R. Pitton, was convicted, but entered an appeal, which was to have been heard to-morrow before the county judge. His counsel,
Mr. Griffiths, has, however, just notified the crown counsel, F. W. Casey, Thorold, that he withdraws the appeal, and consequently the fine levied with costs, will shortly be paid, increasing the amount received from these convictions to something over $85.

The result is regarded in the license department as a striking vindication of the detective and crown officers, who were strongly in evidence in the case, newspapers in connection with these prosecutions.

It is explained by the department officers that only a few cases in which special requests are made for their services, either by the inspectors of the department or by some influential body of citizens, are brought before the court.

The result given for withdrawal of the appeal is that, having already obtained an adjournment and being unable to proceed on Tuesday next, the department is preferred to an attempt to secure another adjournment of the proceedings.

KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE.

Gladstone on Village Street Struck
by Machine.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—An automobile accident at Longueuil this evening resulted in the almost instan-taneous death of Miss Racicot of Bou-cheville, while several others were considerably bruised and shaken up. The automobile was being driven by Dr. Las-nier, with his brother, Ald. Lasnier, of Longueuil. It was coming down a dark street in the village at an easy pace when it collided head on with a glider, in which there were four people—Mr. and Miss Racicot, Miss Conway and the driver. The glider was turned upside-down, and the occupants thrown out. Miss Racicot sustained a concussion of the brain and died in a few minutes without regaining consciousness, while Miss Conway was badly hurt. The others escaped with few bruises, while the occupants of the auto were not much hurt at all.
It was claimed that there were no lights on the front of the machine, although it was after night when the accident happened.

300 IN ANNUAL MATCH

A Co. Makes Fine Record—Wind

Affected the Scoring—Wind

The Result.

The sixteenth annual rifle match of the 48th Highlanders was held Saturday morning and afternoon at the rifle ranges, Long Branch. The matches were the most successful in years, three hundred men shooting. Of these fifty shot in the morning, the remaining 250 going out in the afternoon.

On account of a variable wind, high scoring was impossible, but in the General Match Staff-Sergeant Graham made a very good score.

A Company made a fine record.

The officers of the 48th were greatly indebted to officers of other regiments, who rendered their services as range officers. There were twelve events shot of altogether, but the last, the Special Season's Aggregate prizes have not been decided yet on account of the fact that the scores for the whole year of the various claimants have to be carefully examined, and this will take some time.
It is expected that the winners will be known to-night.

INQUEST WILL FOLLOW YOUNG SMITH'S DEATH

Great Day for Sports in Junction
—Death of Markham Lady—County Items.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Sept. 22.—Saturday was the field day of the public schools, and it is safe to say that a happier event of its kind never took place in the history of Toronto Junction. Nature seemed to be in accord with the desire of the youngsters for a pleasant afternoon's fun, and the weather conditions were ideal. Even the grown-up men and women, of whom there were upwards of 300 present, seemed to be "one for all, all for one." The members of the little girls and boys who swarmed everywhere like bees, motto on Saturday afternoon seemed to be "One for All, All for One." The members of the little girls and boys who swarmed everywhere like bees, motto on Saturday afternoon seemed to be "One for All, All for One." Where to Put Up

Some people think that Local Option will interfere with good accommodation. On the contrary, it will eventually improve it. Can any farmer point out a hotel in the City of Toronto where he can obtain the attention he is entitled to for himself and horses? There is money to be made in giving good accommodation, but there is more money to be made out of the bar, and so the traveling public suffer. When Local Option comes, catering to the needs of travelers will be a clean, honorable business by itself, and farmers will have the conveniences they deserve.

VOTE LOCAL OPTION.

An interesting feature of the program will be a practical demonstration of the growth of plants from the time the seed is sown till maturity is reached, showing the different stages of their development.

Miss Deedie Smith and her mother, Mrs. Smith of Maria-street, will leave early this coming week on a visit to British Columbia and other points on the Pacific Coast. A menace to the public safety exists on the sidewalk on Dundas-street in front of the Bank of Hamilton, where the contractors have left two iron tie-rods standing in the sidewalk about three feet from the curb. The tie-rods are right in the line of pedestrian traffic, and the town may be liable for damages should anyone get hurt by running into the posts. House for sale, 10 rooms, bath and closet separate, hardwood finish, slate roof, hot-air heating, corner lot; would suit doctor, beautiful situation, large territory; no other doctor near. WESTON. Weston Fair Will Be a Good One—Harvest Home Services.

WESTON, Sept. 22.—A jolly load of Weston, some in number, in charge of George V. Verral, and one or two others, went up to Brantford Fair, and for the unseasonable and unexpected shower, experienced a delightful day. They report the fair as first-class, and the attendance at the "harvest home" services held in connection with St. James' church, was very large. The church of the Redeemer, officiated, and the sacred edifice was beautifully decorated with grain, fruit and flowers. The services were continued over to-day, large congregations being present at the "evening" services, when Rev. Canon Ingles, M.A., spoke. Evangelist Skinner conducted special Gospel services to-day, morning and evening. The list of donors to the Weston Fair, to be held on Saturday, Oct. 5, shows a gratifying increase over other years, and assures, with good weather, the very best ever held. The directors are working like Trojans, and their enthusiasm is contagious.

NEWMARKET. Good Chance for Live Detective—Town Rate is Pretty Steep.

NEWMARKET, Sept. 22.—Newmarket tax rate this year will be 27 mills on the dollar, or $2 on the $100 assessment over last year. Several causes are given for the high rate, among others, the deficit from last year, increase in county rate, great increase in cost of high school, about 35 per cent., and the Queen-street bridge. Last year the rate was 24 mills. The pupils of the Presbyterian Church were occupied to-day by Mr. Whitlaw of Fairbank. Matthew Brown has bought a new house on Elm-street, near Mrs. Scott, who will shortly erect three more. Principal Clemenson of the model school will address the Epworth League to-morrow night. Isaac Hong has a ripe tomato that weighs 1 lb. 9 oz. Saturday's market was one of the best for some time, and trade was brisk. Tomatoes sold as low as 25¢ a basket. It turns out there was a veritable harvest.

RICHMOND HILL. Old Markham Resident Passes Away—Market Opens Up Well.

RICHMOND HILL, Sept. 22.—Jonah Leek of Headford, after a brief illness, resulting from paralysis, passed away on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Funeral will be on Monday at 2 p.m. Great crowds passed up on the Metropolitan to Newmarket Fair. All who went from this place report an excellent time and a good fair.

Messrs. Thomas A. Cousins and Dugald McDonald have been appointed tax collectors for Vaughan Township for this year. Rev. F. Elliott is recovering from his recent severe attack of the grippe. J. T. Salgeon, the versatile auctioneer, has taken to himself a new business partner in the person of W. E. Stoddart. If he talks as fast as J. T. he will have to hustle.

Prices: Wheat, 80¢ to 81¢; barley, 80¢ to 81¢; oats, 45¢ to 46¢; goose wheat, 75¢ to 76¢. The elevator equipment is working in a very satisfactory manner. Rev. A. P. Brice lectured at Claremont on Friday evening to a crowded house, on "Mortals, Travelers and the Cross." A full delegation is appointed to attend the County W. C. T. U. Convention to be held in Mimico next week.

DOVERCOURT. New Pastor of Dovercourt Baptist Church is Fine Speaker.

DOVERCOURT, Sept. 22.—Both services were well attended at the Dovercourt Baptist Church, it being the inaugural services of Rev. J. J. Ross, the new pastor. In the morning the pastor took up his text "The First Shall be Last and the Last First," and preached a splendid sermon on these words. At night his text was: "What Think Ye of Christ?" He treated the subject from the political, sociological and theological standpoint and had an interested audience until the last word had been spoken.

Mr. Ross is a fluent, facile speaker. He does not use the "high-falootin' flamboyant" language which is intelligible to a few only, but he speaks quietly, directly and simply, and consequently, is appreciated by his whole audience. Mr. Ross makes no oratorical display and apparently uses no notes. He stands quietly to the left and beside his pulpit and maintains an easy mode of address. His voice, tho' not loud, is easily heard in every part of the edifice, and this tends greatly to keep the people interested.

A reception is being tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Ross on Tuesday (Sept. 24) in the church to enable the new pastor and his wife to become acquainted.

NORTH TORONTO. Mayor Fisher Will Call Meeting—Brethren Had Good Time.

NORTH TORONTO, Sept. 22.—After initiation of candidates on Friday evening, the members of York Lodge, A. F. and A. M., entertained the members of Acaia Lodge of East Toronto, which was the Right Wor. Bro. Hull was presented with the grand lodge regalia. After concluding the business, the visiting brethren were entertained to a banquet held in the assembly room of the town hall, where a musical program was rendered. The floral decorations were provided by Wor. P. M. Maston, W. M. Ferguson of York Lodge presided. His Worship Mayor Fisher had decided to call the meeting public for which he was petitioned, on Saturday evening. The question of electric light and better street car facilities will be discussed.

James Terry of King Township was kicked by a horse on Thursday last, which caused a broken jaw. He was brought to Toronto yesterday by the Metropolitan Railway. Mr. and Mrs. Le Cras of Kensington-avenue, who spent a week at Cleveland, Ohio, have returned home. The Women's Auxiliary of St. Clement's Church, after the summer recess, will resume their regular meetings. The first meeting will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock. The officers, teachers and scholars of St. Clement's Sunday School held a most enjoyable picnic to Bond's Lake Saturday, going by the Metropolitan.

EAST TORONTO. Great Services in Hope Church—Council Meets To-morrow Night.

EAST TORONTO, Sept. 22.—The annual Thanksgiving services, held in Hope Methodist Church to-day, were even more than ordinarily successful, and to the managers and adherents most gratifying. In the morning the pulpit was occupied by Rev. Mr. Rankin, Carlton-street Methodist Church, and in the evening Rev. Dr. Courtice officiated. At both services the sacred edifice was thronged to the doors, and the whole proceedings throut the day were of a most interesting character.

The voluntary offerings exceeded $300, and the excellent choir of the church furnished the music at both the services. The funeral of the young man, Louis V. G. J. Smith, whose death occurred at the General Hospital on Friday night, will take place from Mr. Coburn's undertaking rooms at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, to St. John's Cemetery, Norway. Young Smith was employed as a hostler at the "Crescent Hotel," and it was while engaged in feeding a bull that he met with the injuries which caused his death.

It is said that the unfortunate young man, who was without friends in this country, was well connected.

Indigestion Ruins Complexion. The Sallow, Pale, Tired Woman Usually Has Stomach Trouble.

The good looks of every woman depend largely upon the proper working of her stomach and other internal organs.

If your stomach is strong and digestion is good, the cheeks flush with color, eyes dance and sparkle, pimples will be pure and your hair smooth and glossy.

Let indigestion creep in, and the skin becomes sallow and rough, pimples break out, eyes get dark-circled, ill breath is all too apparent.

Get the stomach toned up with Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they increase the secretion of the gastric juices, promote vigorous digestion, increase the supply of blood and thereby invigorate the entire system.

The system is quickly won back to a normal healthy condition by Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and every girl or woman who uses this remedy will show it in a clear, wholesome complexion, and a sound, healthy body. Sold in 25¢ boxes by all dealers.
