PARLIAMENT TO SIT UNTIL EARLY JULY, IS LATEST OUTLOOK

Much Legislation Ahead at Ottawa—Discuss Plenary-potentiality Today.

EXPECT THORO DEBATE

Ottawa, May 16.—(By Canadian Press).—Members of the common are facing a busy week. The budget will be down on Tuesday and that means the beginning of a debate which usually proves of considerable duration. Indications are that it will last for three weeks to a month, as a formidable list of members will want to have their say on this subject. Whatever may be in the mind of the government and finance minister in the way of taxation proposals, the secret is being well guarded, and outside of the actual members of the cabinet nothing will be known until Sir Henry D'Alton has made his budget speech on Tuesday afternoon.

Discuss Washington Post. On Monday evening the house is to go into committee of supply. This was requested by Hon. W. S. Fielding last week. It has been intimated that the subject for discussion tomorrow evening will be the arrangements for the appointment of a Canadian minister plenipotentiary to Washington. There has been some complaints among the Liberals that this decision was reached without any consultation with parliament and they hold that the house should be asked for its opinion before any such important step is decided upon. The matter is being discussed and will be thrashed out before the house adjourns tomorrow night.

To Deal With Pensions. There is yet much legislation ahead. The franchise bill can hardly get out of the way before the budget debate intervenes, for there will only be three days tomorrow afternoon for the bill was taken up immediately the house met at three o'clock. Then, there are many of the estimates to be considered, and legislation dealing with pensions and re-establishment of returned soldiers is expected to follow the report of the special committee which is now at work. With the great number of bills still to come, the members have revised their ideas of returning home, and put the probable date of prorogation anywhere between Dominion Day (July 1) and July 15.

WILL EVACUATE FRANKFORT TODAY

Arrangements Made for Withdrawal of French and Belgians to Begin.

Coblenz, May 16.—The actual movement of French and Belgian troops out of Frankfort is scheduled to begin at eight o'clock Monday morning. It is reported here that orders for the withdrawal are said to have been received by the garrison from General Dogoutte, commander of the allied forces on the Rhine. Preparations for the evacuation have been completed and arrangements are now being made to return to the local police the arms confiscated during the disturbances. Allied commanders will watch the withdrawal with much interest, being of the belief it will afford an opportunity for observing the attitude of the Germans, although it is understood the population has not been informed of the plan to leave. The French forces will be the first to depart, and will be followed by the Belgians. No disturbances are expected, however.

50 YEARS AGO.

Fifty years is a long time to look back to. Fifty years ago The Dineen Company were selling good hats to the men of Toronto and are selling good hats today. Away back in 1870 The Dineen Company opened up on Yonge street at the corner of King street and there they remained for many years, until they built their present premises on the corner of Temperance and Yonge. Fifty years ago Toronto was a small place compared to over its half million population at the present time. Progress has been made in many lines of industry during those years, but none are more noticeable than the advance in men's hats. Fifty years ago you would have to be content with the choice of two or three styles, while today you have the world's market to choose from. The Dineen Company connections with the best makers of men's hats in London, Paris and Italy, and the United States enables them to show the very latest styles as soon as produced in other countries. The races open on Saturday next. The Queen's Plate race will be a gay event. The Dineen Company have imported specially for the races the very finest quality of high-grade hats from Henry Heath and Christy of London, England, and John B. Stetson fine American hats, which can be seen in the Dineen store 140 Yonge street, any day this week.

WED TIME IN LONDONDERRY; ROTOUS MOB HOLDS STREETS; SERGEANT KILLED, OTHERS HURT

First Police Murder in Ulster Since First of Last Year—Row Began Between Loyalists and Sinn Feiners and When Former Retired, Police Took Hand—Troops Restored Quiet.

Belfast, May 16.—Londonderry experienced a night of terror Saturday, part of the city being for hours at the mercy of riotous mobs. During the disturbances Sgt. Dennis Morrison, chief of the special criminal department of the city, was shot thru the right lung and died within half an hour. Londonderry thus gains the unenviable reputation of being the scene of the first police murder in Ulster since the opening of the campaign on January 1, 1919. The other casualties included James McCaffery, aged 35, shot in the chest; District Inspector McDonagh, wounded in the head with a stone while leading a police charge, and John McCallion, a former soldier, wounded in the head with a bayonet.

A few minor disturbances early in the night between the Sinn Feiners and their quarters, which was accomplished at ten o'clock the air was thick with bottles, stones and other missiles, while rioters were freely discharged. When hostilities were in full swing, a police force of 200 men, armed with carbines, arrived in command of Inspector McDonagh, who persuaded the loyalists to retire to their quarters, which was accomplished at midnight, and the riotous manifestations on the part of the rival factions.

The Sinn Feiners continued their disorderly demonstrations and the police charged and scattered them into the side streets. Many of them made for the quay near the Great Northern Station. It was here that Moroney met his end. He was shot in the chest by a revolver shot fired from a police car. He was struck, walked a few yards and collapsed, exclaiming: "Boys, I'm done." A few yards from this scene, McCaffery was found lying on a tramway line. He said he was on his way home from the theatre when shot. During these happenings a Unionist crowd literally took possession of the thoroughfare in the neighborhood of Queen's Square and stoned persons believed to be of different political persuasion. The audience at the Empire Theatre were stoned so furiously when leaving that they had to return, the doors being barred. Shortly before midnight troops were summoned and with their aid matters soon quieted down.

Rioting resumed. The rival factions exchanging fire frequently in various parts of the city. The police were withdrawn from 200 men after midnight, and Unionist soldiers, wearing masks, kept possession of Carlisle road, driving pedestrians off the street. A former soldier named Doherty was shot dead.

RIDDLED WITH PISTOL SHOTS. Limerick, Ireland, May 16.—James Dalton, a clerk, was waylaid last evening in a downtown street by a party of nine men. He was riddled with revolver shots.

King Outlines the Reasons For Strong Volunteer Army

London, May 16.—The King, at Buckingham Palace yesterday, received Lord lieutenant of counties, Lord mayors and lord provosts, to whom his majesty had issued his call for the reconstruction of the territorial volunteer army. The King said, in part: "The formation of a volunteer citizen army is indispensable to the safety and freedom of the empire. No more valuable proof of our peaceful strength and the soundness of our national life and character could be given to the world. It is the duty of every citizen to contribute to the reconstruction of the territorial volunteer army, and giving proof and confidence and goodwill to the whole world, we have abandoned the principle of compulsory military service to which we were forced to resort in the hard times of the war, and have returned to the purely voluntary system. The foundations of that voluntary principle must be a territorial army strong enough to enable the regular forces to move about the empire as circumstances require. It must be strong enough also if necessary to secure us a breathing space necessary to enable the full strength of all the peoples of the empire to be organized for its defence." It has been asserted recently that recruiting for the territorial army has been proceeding slowly throughout the country. Winston Churchill, the secretary of state for war, when questioned in the commons, gave a qualified assertion that the position was turning out satisfactorily.

PROPOSE TO TAKE LAND BY FORCE

CARRANZA FLEEING TO THE MOUNTAINS, AFTER HOT FIGHT

Rebels Capture 2,000 Prisoners and Rescue Wounded From Burning Trains.

SON-IN-LAW TAKEN

Mexico City, May 16.—Carranza is fleeing into the mountains of Vera Cruz by way of Petrote and the revolutionists have captured 2,000 prisoners, with 24 trains, four pieces of artillery, 200 machine guns, a great quantity of ammunition and silver bars, one airplane and many automobiles, according to a report from Gen. Guadalupe Sanchez, given out at Obregon headquarters. Fighting began after Carranza had fled into the mountains of Vera Cruz. He carried off from the trains numerous packages of coins.

Before their flight the Carranzistas set fire to the trains but the flames were extinguished by revolutionists, who rescued several wounded occupants of the coaches. These included Gen. Augustin Millan, who had been left, severely wounded, in a sleeping car. Gen. Jacinto Trevino arrived on the scene a few hours after Carranza had fled. General Carranza's son-in-law of Venustiano Carranza, has been captured at Jalapa, state of Vera Cruz, it was announced officially Saturday night.

Gen. Alvarez Obregon is the only remaining presidential candidate unless Ygnacio Bonillas should return to Mexico, which is considered improbable. Gonzalez's retirement is accepted as meaning the elimination of any chance of friction between himself and Obregon, the two chief military leaders of the liberal revolutionary party.

REPORT FIERCE FIGHTING ON THE POLISH FRONT

London, May 16.—A Russian government wireless communication from Moscow, dated May 16, the first dispatch received here in several days, was picked up today. It reported fighting on the Polish front of a fierce character, and said that entire villages were being destroyed by fire and large quantities of grain burned. The despatch also gave the text of an appeal made by Russian military and the proletariat of all countries, denouncing the Polish attack, and urging that nothing be done to aid shipping or the sending of arms and ammunition to the Poles, or the taking of any action that might assist the Polish attack.

TORONTO HONORS JUBILEE DAY OF SALVATION ARMY

Fifty Years of Work in All Climes, With All Classes, Fittingly Celebrated.

TRIBUTES FROM ALL

Representative Toronto gathered in her thousands on Sunday afternoon at Loew's Theatre to do honor to the great cause of the Salvation Army, and the occasion, which is the opening of the self-denial jubilee campaign, was remarkable for its sense of universality and breadth of scope. The theatre, which had been generously loaned to the campaign committee by the Loew's Theatres, Limited, was filled to capacity. A feature of the meeting, which will remain long in the memory of those who were fortunate enough to get a seat or any sort of place in the theatre, was the march-past of men and women, representatives of all nationalities, through the world within the jurisdiction of the army. There were other splendid touches, and the address of Captain Steele, a veteran of three years' service in the firing area in Flanders and France, was one of them. Other addresses given were those by Mayor Church, John G. King, Peter Le Rose, Inspector Denison of the police department, Staff-Captain Laits of India and Colonel McMillan.

Women of All Nations. Played in by the band to their own national anthems, the women and children of India, of Egypt, of Russia, of Britain, of the United States and other nations streamed their way past the dias, resplendent in the most beautiful and variegated costumes, and none of them but were at once recognizable by their costumes, this being especially the case with India and Egypt. Salutes were offered in every case as each representative made his position, to regain her financial autonomy by speedy fulfillment of her obligations.

The two governments are further of the opinion that in order to provide solution for the economic difficulties which are gravely weighing upon the situation of the world, and in order to mark a definite beginning of the era of peace, it is important to arrive at a settlement which shall embrace the whole body of the international liabilities which have been left as a legacy of the war, and which shall at the same time ensure a parallel liquidation of the inter-allied war debt, and of reparation of the debts of the central empires.

WATER IN SCARBORO WITHIN 3 MONTHS

Laying of Water Mains Along Kingston Road to Be Started Tomorrow.

NEGOTIATING WITH YORK

A start will be made tomorrow morning on the construction of a water works system for the southwestern section of the township of Scarborough, the contract having been awarded to the Central Foundation Co., Ltd., for the laying of six-inch service mains. The first mains will be laid on the Kingston road and on the streets running north and south of the Kingston road as far east as the Kennedy road. This is the most thickly settled part of the township.

E. A. James, the township engineer, announces that a service will be supplied to the district before the end of August. The building of the pumping station on the lake front about half-way between the city limits and the Kennedy road, and also the trunk mains will be started in a few days. It is understood that Scarborough is negotiating with York on the question of supplying water to the south-eastern part of York township, and the size of the Scarborough trunk mains and the pumping plant will depend upon the success or failure of these negotiations.

TO ALLOW IRISH TO FIGHT IT OUT

Lord Hugh Cecil Suggests That All Ireland Appear in Assembly to Draft Plan.

London, May 17.—Lord Hugh Cecil, in a letter to The London Times, suggests that the Government should set up a constituent assembly in Ireland for the purpose of devising and formulating a bill for the better government of Ireland. This assembly would be elected by the whole of Ireland on the principle of proportional representation. The assembly should be allowed to present any plan it pleased, including one for making Ireland an independent republic.

In the meantime, the writer suggests, the Irish government should not waste its time "in measures against secession or spoken or against any demonstration which fell short of violence."

Lord Hugh does not anticipate that the assembly would present a bill which parliament would be able to accept, but suggests that the assembly be kept in being until some acceptable plan to Great Britain is evolved.

Thirty-four Sinn Fein hunger strikers recently released from Wormwood Scrubs prison, who have since been undergoing treatment at the Marylebone infirmary in London, left the infirmary Sunday afternoon as a protest against an alleged shortage of rations, and have not returned.

According to The Mail, the ordinary rations failed, owing to the illness of the steward and the admission of several new patients, and the Sinn Feiners refused to partake of the improvised rations.

War on Grasshoppers Planned by Canada

Ottawa, May 16.—Federal agents of the department of agriculture are planning to wage war on mosquitoes this summer, particularly in the Fraser Valley fruit district of British Columbia. Last year this pest seriously hampered the work of berry-pickers during the best season. For its attack on the grasshopper plague the department has ordered 2,000 tons of bran, nearly 100,000 pounds of arsenic, and 50,000 gallons of syrup.

PREMIERS CONFER

Hythe, Eng., May 16.—Premier Lloyd George, Premier Millerand and their advisers conferred here this morning, the meeting lasting until nearly 1 o'clock. After the conference, Premier Millerand and his suite left for home.

An official statement, issued at the close of the conference, said: "The British and French governments recognize on the one hand that it is the general interest that reparation for losses and damages caused by the war should be secured as soon as possible, and with this object in view, it is necessary resources should be made effectively available without delay, and, on the other hand, that it is desirable Germany should be put in a position to regain her financial autonomy by speedy fulfillment of her obligations."

WIRES ARE CUT IN AN EFFORT TO TIE UP PORT STANLEY CARS

Twenty-Seven Passengers Were Aboard Car Which Ran Upon Broken Wire in Darkness—Manager Offers Reward of Five Hundred Dollars for Perpetrators of Outrage.

London, Ont., May 16.—Following the announcement last night by J. E. Richards, manager and treasurer of the London & Port Stanley Railway, of the offer of $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who on Saturday night maliciously damaged the equipment and property of the London & Port Stanley Railway, with the purpose of stopping the operation of trains, Mr. Richards, in an interview, recorded the events which have resulted in the issue of the reward offer.

The train due to leave here on Saturday night at 10:20 left 10 minutes late, and when at the top of the hill between Westminster and Stop 7, ran into a broken wire, located in such a position that it was shown by the headlights until too late to stop the car, which ran thru into the break.

27 Passengers Aboard. An investigation showed the trolley wire and the "messenger" or feed wire had been cut at the pole. The car running thru the contact wire dragged both of them down for about three pole lengths, effectively preventing any attempt to bring the car back to London. There were 27 passengers on the car, 25 for St. Thomas and two for Glenora. Attempts were made by the crew to get a message over the railway telephone line, but this was found impossible by a later investigation showing they had been cut, and one of the men had to run a wire about 100 feet to the station.

DEFER HYDRO STRIKE; EMPLOYES CALL UPON LEGISLATURE FOR AID

Labor Members of House Pre-empt Upon Workmen at Niagara Falls Meeting to Await Result of Resolution in Legislature Today, Calling for Special Arbitration Committee—Hydro Commission Issues Statement, Declaring Wage Demands Cannot Possibly Be Granted, and That Power Situation is Extremely Serious.

MUST BE FAIR TO PUBLIC, SAYS MCBRIDE

There will be no strike of Hydro workmen today, but it is by no means certain that the postponement decided upon at a mass meeting of employes at Niagara Falls, Ont., last night will mean the averting of ultimate action by the men. The fight will be transferred to the floor of the legislature today, when labor members will submit a resolution asking for the appointment of a special committee or board of arbitration composed of members of the house.

The Hydro-Electric Commission last night issued a statement, in which it is set forth in emphatic style that that body has no intention of receding from its stand in the wages controversy, declaring that no language is too strong to express the seriousness of the power situation in Ontario today, that the expansion of many industries is being held back by the lack of power, and that the Chippawa development must be completed at the earliest possible moment.

A Niagara Falls, Ont., despatch to The World last night said: A packed mass meeting of Hydro employes in the Queen's Theatre tonight decided to postpone the strike which was to have gone into effect tomorrow at 10 a.m. A resolution will be introduced on the floor of the legislature tomorrow to appoint a committee of arbitration, composed of members of the provincial house. There is no definite time stated in the motion. A motion to postpone action for a week was defeated.

The minister of labor was unable to be present at the meeting but Charles F. Swartz, P. Greenlaw and Mayor McBride, M.L.A., of Brantford, were present and spoke in favor of moderation. Mr. Swartz said there was a possibility that Sir Adam Beck and the commission would throw the whole Hydro project back on the provincial government, which could not handle the enterprise.

It was generally asserted by other speakers that Sir Adam Beck was determined to break up the local labor organization and blame labor for the non-completion of the job by August, 1921, and was in favor of a strike.

McBride's Argument. Mayor McBride made a point of the fact that an immediate strike would mean the loss of the power situation that there was a conspiracy among capitalists to starve labor into submission and to break all unions. The great trouble with the Hydro project was that the original project was based on 1912 figures and was not adequate for figures in 1920. He also used the argument that if Hydro was held up it would be a body blow to public ownership and that Montreal interests would grab the St. Lawrence water powers.

Questioned by one of the audience as whether they could force the Hydro commission to accept the findings of the board of arbitration, Mr. McBride asserted that without threatening the commission, if the province could give the commission power, it could make its findings compulsory on them.

The general sentiment of the meeting was in favor of a postponement of the strike.

"No language is too strong to express the seriousness of the power situation today. The world demand for power products of all kinds has brought Ontario into the sweep of industrial reconstruction. The apparently absurd demand for power caused by the war has been continuing and has even been increased. The power on the Niagara system now cannot be increased until new sources of power are secured."

Meanwhile the natural expansion of industrial plants is stopped. The displacement of many new industries in southwestern Ontario is being prevented by the shortage of power. The Chippawa development must be completed at the earliest possible moment, since it was deemed necessary by emergency, and in view of the seriousness of the coal situation.

DIVORCE IS SCORED BY BISHOP FALLON

Criticizes Legislation to Establish Special Courts in Ontario.

IN WOODSTOCK SERMON Declares That Outside Catholic Church, Marriage is "Scrap of Paper."

Woodstock, May 16.—(Special.)—Bishop Fallon of London conducted confirmation sacrament in St. Mary's Church here tonight. He preached a strongly worded sermon, in the course of which he referred in no uncertain terms to the attitude of the church toward divorce. "I abominate divorce," he said. "The sacred sacrament of marriage has today, outside of the Catholic church, become a scrap of paper. We are threatened here in Ontario with legislation to establish divorce courts within the province. One reason given for this is that divorce within the reach not only of the rich, as heretofore, but of the poor man also. They are becoming very considerate of the poor man, although they do not care if they place other things within his reach or not. But the Catholic church holds that a lawful, Christian marriage can never be broken. This is her glory. "It is almost too much to hope that the Christian people of the province will rise up against this iniquitous legislation which threatens to be enacted. Let a young couple start life knowing that they have divorced with their reach, and they will start looking for it, and at the first chance they will start thinking of obtaining it." The bishop's sermon was listened to by a large congregation.

TRADE IN EUROPE AWAITS CANADIANS

Lloyd Harris Says Percentage of Goods Should Be Reserved for Export.

Hamilton, May 16.—That the stage had been set for a great selling campaign in Europe after the signing of the armistice by Germany, but that the extravagance in Canada, which made the domestic demand for manufactured goods so great, was such that it was impossible to fill the orders which were available from foreign countries in Europe, was the statement made by Lloyd Harris, former Canadian trade commissioner in London, England, in addressing the Hamilton Travelers' Association at luncheon yesterday. Mr. Harris expressed the opinion that the government should have passed a law to provide for a certain percentage of goods being available for export. This export trade was made possible in Roumania and other European countries by the part Canada had played in the war.

Urges Reduced War Debt. The need of Canada at the present time, Mr. Harris said, was the realization of the responsibility of the citizens and a proper conception of the responsibility of the various governments. The citizens should figure out how the great debt incurred by the war was to be reduced and not object to paying fair taxes to that end. Robert Hobson then spoke briefly at the business meeting which followed. It was decided to change the name of the organization to the Hamilton Commercial and Industrial Association. The following officers were elected: Robert Hobson, honorary president; R. M. Monopry, president; F. S. Bryce, E. C. Zimmerman and C. G. Senye, vice-presidents; R. T. Hunter, secretary; H. A. Cusben, assistant secretary; James Daw, treasurer. An advisory board of twenty-five members was also appointed.

Relief of Freight Jam Within Forty-Eight Hours

Washington, May 16.—There were indications tonight that the government would act within 48 hours to break the country-wide freight jam which for nearly a month has been slowing up the grip on the throat of the industry. Sweeping orders by the interstate commerce commission, granting priority of shipping of coal, fuel and perishables, were confidently awaited by railroad officials, who yesterday appealed to the commission to use all the emergency powers vested in it by the transportation act.

Troops in Dusseldorf Region Transferred to Civilian Rule

Berlin, May 16.—A presidential decree issued last night transfers the military in the district of Dusseldorf and Muenster to the civilian authorities. At Arnsberg, 41 miles southeast of Muenster, military officials have been ordered to take no action without express orders from the civilian government commissioners. Drumhead courts-martial are abolished by the decree, but military tribunals will continue to function, their members being appointed by civilian commissions to whom the local authorities are also subordinated.

CHURCHES OBSERVE BROTHERHOOD DAY

William Ward, World Commissioner, Appeals for Destitute of Serbia.

Brotherhood Day was observed with special services in many churches and mission halls throughout the city yesterday. In the eastern section of the city, World Commissioner, William Ward, world brotherhood commissioner, addressed a crowded congregation in Woodgreen Tabernacle, East Queen street. At the evening service, Mr. Ward spoke about the destitute children of Serbia, in which work he was engaged, and visited that country on the 20th of the month. There are about 600,000 destitute children in Serbia, of whom 200,000 lost both parents during the war year. For their relief children homes, convalescent home and general relief stations have been established. The World's Brotherhood Federation is now co-operating with the Serbian government in the establishment of farm schools for the boys, and dairy farming for the girls. Mr. Ward pointed out that these farms were being supported. He also stated that $100 is sufficient to support one Serbian child, and that the Canadian Brotherhood Federation has already contributed $250,000.

Rev. E. B. Lancelotti, pastor, preached on the subject of self-glorification in the morning. Special preachers also addressed large audiences in connection with the brotherhood movement at Danforth Methodist, Simpson Avenue Methodist, Danforth Baptist and Kew Beach Presbyterian churches.

Pastor's Salary Raised By Woodgreen Tabernacle

At the recent quarterly official board meeting, held in connection with Woodgreen Tabernacle, in the church, East Queen street and Bolton avenue, it was decided to advance the pastor's salary $500 and furnish an assistant pastor at $600 per annum. Rev. E. B. Lancelotti was extended an invitation to remain another year. All reports of departments showed good progress.

Riverdale Presbyterians Hold Anniversary Service

Rev. R. B. Cochran, M.A., College Street Presbyterian Church, was the morning preacher at the anniversary services in Riverdale Presbyterian Church, corner of Pape and Harcourt avenues, yesterday, and Rev. James Little, B.A., of Westminster church, addressed the large congregation in the evening. Special music by the choir was rendered under the leadership of Arthur Bennett, musical director. A substantial collection was received in connection with the new church building fund. Yesterday marked the seventh anniversary of the church. Rev. L. I. Hunter is minister.

COLD HITS GARDENERS.

Riverdale Horticultural Society has secured a large tract of vacant land in the morning for vegetable production. According to A. J. Smith, president, potatoes will be first favorite among the members in their choice of vegetables. Wilbur Park plot of about 2 1/2 acres in the southeast corner, is now nearly all planted with all kinds of vegetables. The section comprises about 30 lots. Another man's son gives up opportunity and privilege to go to fight for the nation. He comes back to find his place has been filled. Is that fair play? I believe that the time has come now that the war is over, we should be looking fairly and frankly at the questions of today, as a Christian people, dominated by the spirit of brotherliness.

DWELLING CATCHES FIRE.

An outbreak of fire from some unknown cause at the residence of W. Dixon, 39 Leuty avenue about 4 p.m. yesterday caused damage to the extent of $85. Spreading to the adjoining dwelling, 37 Leuty avenue owned by J. Martin, damage to a slight extent was caused.

Calvary Baptist Seceders To Build Own Church

That portion of Calvary Baptist Church congregation which is at present holding services in St. Paul's Hall, Main street, East Toronto, since the division two years ago from Calvary Baptist Church, will shortly secure a building of their own. A building committee with Rev. C. Schutt of Century Church, is handling the matter and a site will be secured. The board needs $10,000 from the church forward movement, and a portion of this will be used in the building fund.

SHACKS REPLACING HOUSES

Owing to the shortage of houses in the east end and the influx of newcomers from the old country, which is appreciably noticeable in this section at the present time, a serious situation has developed. Shacks are springing up along the radial line on account of the lack of accommodation within the city limits. Within the last few days seven shacks have been erected between West Hill and Birch cliff, and others are in course of construction.

Earlscourt Salvationists Open Self-Denial Drive

The Salvation Army self-denial campaign, which began on Saturday in Toronto, had its counterpart in Earlscourt, where the interest in the Army's work is very keen. One large manufacturing concern started the list in this district with a donation of $250. Many of the Salvationists from local corps in this district attended the great spectacular display of social and missionary work at Loew's Theatre, where massed bands and a choir of 500 voices entertained the visitors. Entertainment was expected to contribute a large sum of money towards the work of the Army, the leading merchants and business men having already promised liberal support.

SAYS BROTHERHOOD SO MUCH PIFFLE

J. H. Buckley Claims Education and Agitation Labor's Best Friends.

James Simpson, T. G. Bond, J. H. Buckley and Joan McDonald were the speakers at Mavety Theatre, West Toronto, last night. Publication had been made that three or four members of the Ontario parliament, who were Labor men, would be on hand. T. G. Bond, who was also chairman, gave reasons for the absence of the men as bereavement in one case and strike trouble in the others. The four impromptu speakers were long and deliberate in their arguments, excepting the chairman, who spoke only of the working phase of labor interest.

"At the last elections we had no labor there would be many Labor men elected," said Mr. Buckley, referring to the U.F.O.-Labor coalition, he said, "it is a curious thing that we provided for that three years ago." The difficulty that was apparent to some in the enforcement of the eight-hour day would disappear with the establishment of the fair wage clause, Mr. Buckley contended. The workmen would not be receiving 75 per cent. today in the case of illness, he claimed, had the government been in power. Nor was 75 per cent. enough, for there should be provision for physician and such allied demands. Mr. Buckley described the Kerensky victory in Russia as a case where the middle classes had overthrown the working classes.

PROFITTEERING AN ABOMINABLE THING

Says Rev. T. A. Moore on "World Brotherhood" at Howard Park.

"I have been stirred about some things that have occurred in this Dominion under our laws," said Rev. T. Albert Moore, preaching yesterday morning at Howard Park Methodist church on "World Brotherhood." The preacher gave an instance of law in the east of Canada recently where a thief who stole five lambs from a flock of sheep was given six months in jail. "We need such laws that make it harder to do wrong and easier to do good."

"But nineteen days ago in the western part of this country on the prairie a man sent his beautiful daughter of eighteen on an errand. A man met her in the dark of the evening—the horrors of it. Eleven days ago that man was before the court under the laws of this land, and he was sent to jail for ten days. What do you think of that? I believe that the spirit of British fair play," said the speaker. "We must have laws that protect the weak."

"I do not like a profiteer. It seems to me in this day profiteering is one of the most abominable things," the speaker instanced a man who on August 4th, 1914, was worth $400,000, and on November 11th, 1918, possessed $4,000,000. "The war period increased his wealth to that."

REDEMPTORIST MISSION ENDS.

A week's mission to men given by the Redemptorist Fathers McLaughlin and Kearney was brought to a successful close last night in St. Clare's Catholic Church, West St. Clair avenue, with benediction of the blessed sacrament and reception of 40 new members into the Holy Society. The large building was well filled.

SHEEP AND GOATS ALIKE.

Sheep and goats in Ceylon are not very different in appearance to the ordinary vision, at least this was what Dr. Anne Young said yesterday afternoon to the students of the Young Women's Bible Class at Howard Park Methodist Church, in an address upon the possibility of forming a horticultural society in the district. C. Honeyman, member of Riverdale Horticultural society, executive, gave an interesting talk on the formation and growth of the Riverdale association.

A RECORD IN MARRIAGES.

St. John's Parish Church, Norway, is becoming famous for the number of marriages celebrated within its walls, since the close of the Lenten season. Yesterday the rector, Rev. W. L. Baynes-Reid, D.S.O., published ten sets of banns of couples about to be united in holy wedlock. A marriage day has been celebrated at St. John's on an average for some time past.

Woodbine Heights Would Form Horticultural Society

A meeting of Woodbine Heights ratepayers and lot-holders was held at the home of Mrs. M. J. McLaughlin, recently with C. Raven president, in the chair. A fine illustrated lecture by G. Baldwin, F.R.H.S., gave confidence as to the possibility of forming a horticultural society in the district. C. Honeyman, member of Riverdale Horticultural society, executive, gave an interesting talk on the formation and growth of the Riverdale association. The gathering was fully enlightened on the subject of gardening. J. Milne operated the lantern and in great measure the views made the lecture understandable. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Baldwin. It is intended to hold several similar meetings in the near future.

"Yes, there is over-production all along the line," said a prominent retailer to the World. "I know the shoe market in the United States, because a number of large firms there have closed shop because orders were not coming in."

Over-Production

The management of the Owens-Illness Company, Yonge street, near King street, agreed that there was truth in the opinion that the figures of the statistics for the month of May were over-estimated...

Over-Production

"I may say we pay $13 for a pair of shoes (New York), wholesale on the top of this we have to pay a 20 per cent. revenue tax besides the custom duty of 10 per cent. on the total. This totals at least 40 per cent. more than the cost of the shoe itself."

Over-Production

Sir John Willson was asked if he had investigated the retail prices of shoes in the Dominion or in Toronto. His reply was in the negative. He had only taken the statistical reports from the other side, and those were undoubtedly reliable as showing how the Dominion was being run on the dumping ground of the United States firms in this commodity.

Over-Production

It was all very well for people to say that American exporters were bound to account for every pair of boots sent over as a measure of enforcing the dumping clause of the tariff act. The facts were clear, and showed conclusively that dumping was being carried on, and naturally to the detriment of the Canadian manufacturer...

Three Structures and Lease of 100 Feet of Land Bought by Confectioner.

OTHER PROPERTY DEALS

The three business blocks on the north side of Adelaide street, between Yonge and Bay streets, taking in Nos. 16 to 24, inclusive, have been sold by Joseph J. Pollett, merchant tailor, to Charles A. The consideration is said to have been $125,000. The total frontage of the three buildings is 100 feet, two of the buildings being three stories and basement of brick, and the other of four stories and basement of brick, with stone front. TO FIGHT TRADE

Passage of Parliament of Canada

TO FIGHT TRADE

Ottawa, May 16.—The passage of the Narcotic Drug Act marks the beginning of a campaign against the traffic in opium, cocaine, morphine, and other narcotics. The bill, which is expected to pass in the next few days, will make it a crime to possess or sell these drugs. It also provides for the seizure of property used in the traffic and for the punishment of those who are found guilty of such offenses.

TO FIGHT TRADE

Smuggled opium worth $100,000 is understood to have been seized in the United States. The seizure was made by the United States Customs Service at a port in the Gulf of Mexico. The opium was found hidden in a large quantity of other goods. The United States government is determined to put a stop to the traffic in narcotics and to protect the health of its citizens.

TO FIGHT TRADE

The rigorous enforcement of the Narcotic Drug Act has led to a decline in the traffic in opium and other narcotics. The United States government is confident that the passage of the bill will result in a permanent reduction in the amount of narcotics entering the country. The government is also taking steps to improve the enforcement of the law and to increase the penalties for those who are found guilty of such offenses.

The passage of the Narcotic Drug Act is a significant step in the fight against the traffic in narcotics. The United States government is determined to put a stop to the traffic in narcotics and to protect the health of its citizens. TO FIGHT ILLICIT TRADE IN OPIUM Passage of Drug Act Thru Parliament Marks Start of Campaign.

Ottawa, May 16.—(By Canadian Press)—The passage of the Opium and Narcotic Drug Act thru parliament marks the beginning of a vigorous campaign in Canada against illicit trade in opium and its derivative, cocaine, morphine, heroin, etc., which form the basis of the drug habit on this continent. While the registered imports in these drugs have fallen off by several hundred per cent in the last ten months, during which time the activities of the Dominion health department have rendered traffic difficult, there remains much to be done to suppress the illicit trade.

Smuggled Opium to the Value of $100,000.

much of which was intended for United States consumption. The high prices of opium sold in illicit trade, frequently in adulterated form, makes the value of the quantities under seizure very much higher than this. It is estimated that illicit traders in the drug sometimes make two hundred per cent profit in their sale to drug addicts here and in the United States.

Traders Come to Canada.

The vigorous enforcement of the Harrison opium act in the United States has driven illicit traders in that country to wholesale smuggling from Canada and Mexico. Quantities of opium have been shipped from the United States to other countries, such as Japan, by companies formed for the purpose. Having been reported to Washington as exports, these shipments are available for illicit sale in the United States, after they have been "smuggled" somewhere in Canada en route to the Orient, and smuggled back across the border.

Addicts Come North.

Many addicts are coming to Canada from the United States in the hope of obtaining drugs, which the stringent laws of their own country denies to them. In Montreal there are many American addicts and reports of physicians in Winnipeg show that about eighty per cent of the addicts there are American citizens.

WESTMOUNT LOSES EX-MAYOR McKERGOW

Dies in Montreal of Pneumonia Following Return From Stay in Florida.

Montreal, May 16.—Early this morning John McKergow, ex-mayor of Westmount, died at his residence after a brief illness, from pneumonia. He had spent the winter in Florida and it is thought that the change in climate, when he returned here, brought on the attack of pneumonia, to which he succumbed. He was in his 74th year.

At the age of 19, Mr. McKergow joined the firm of J. A. Ayer and Company, a cutter and cheese business. A few years later he became a member of the firm and for many years was vice-president of the company during the time the home and export business of the company increased to such an extent as to become of national importance. He was elected mayor of Westmount in 1913 and held the position until his retirement in 1919. Always taking an interest in the militia, and having done the uniform during the Fenian Raid, when he won a medal, he was largely instrumental in the organization of the 88th Westmount Rifles, now the Royal Montreal Regiment.

Montreal Loses Train Service To Cote St. Paul, Thru Judgment

Ottawa, May 16.—(Canadian Press.)—In a lengthy judgment written by Commissioner A. C. Boyce, and concurred in by Chief Commissioner Carvell and the other commissioners, the application of the city of Montreal to compel the Grand Trunk Railway Company to operate six passenger trains and one freight train each way daily between Cote St. Paul and Bonaventure Station, Montreal, is dismissed, on the ground that it would not be reasonable or expedient to grant the order asked.

DUKE TO VISIT NEWFOUNDLAND.

St. Johns, N.F., May 16.—The Duke of Devonshire will visit Newfoundland for two weeks early in July, according to an announcement by the Governor's office. He will be accompanied by the Duchess and will spend three days in this city, two days inspecting paper mills at Grand Falls and the rest of his visit in fishing on the west coast.

MANITOBA FIRE LOSS.

Winnipeg, Man., May 16.—Manitoba's fire loss for the first four months of 1920 was $400,000, or $1.50 for every man, woman and child in the province, according to Charles Heath, provincial fire commissioner. This is slightly more than double the loss for the corresponding period in 1919.

CANADA'S STATUS IS EXCEPTIONAL

London Paper Comments on Appointment of Representative at Washington.

THOMAS PRATTE. THOS. PRATTE MISSING LEFT HOME FEBRUARY

London, May 16.—Lord Milner's call during the week for an imperial clearing house of ideas and information, forms the leading theme of the papers today. The Observer, which supports the plea for a standing consultative committee of home and dominion ministers, cites in relation to this the new development at Washington. It says:

"The exceptional relation in which Canada stands to a country outside the empire thus receives exceptional recognition. It is a step of the first importance, one of those significant enlargements of national powers to which Mr. Watt, the treasurer of the Australian commonwealth, looked forward the other day. It will demand from the ambassador and minister alike the utmost tact and judgment. It is not required for us to theorize on developments of this kind; it is

On February 11 last Thomas Pratte disappeared from his home and has since not been heard of. He left behind him a wife and five children, and a sixth child was born. This child shortly afterward died. Mrs. Pratte later was forced to dispose of her home and place four of her children in an institution, so that she might earn her own living, and that of the remaining child. This child was taken ill, recently and yesterday died, following measles and diphtheria. Pratte was a bricklayer by trade, and at the time of his disappearance had been working for a Toronto firm of contractors, for whom, he said, he was going to work in Thorold. Inquiries made at that place have not resulted in Pratte being found. Mrs. Pratte appealed to the Toronto police for help in finding her husband, but so far no success has attended their efforts.

Premier Lloyd George was not sufficiently well to accompany M. Miller and to Folkestone, but the utmost cordiality marked their good-by. M. Miller expressed his hearty thanks to Sir Philip Sassoon, at whose residence the conference was held, for his hospitality.

TO FIX THE INDEMNITY.

Boulogne, May 16.—Premier Miller and arrived here from Hythe at 4.45 o'clock this afternoon. He said France and Great Britain had agreed upon fundamental principles, and experts would meet in London to fix the amount of indemnity, details concerning execution of the payments, and present their report to the conference. The latter he added, after final examination, will adopt definitive conclusions which will be presented to the Germans at the Spa conference.

AGREED ON COAL QUESTION

London, May 16.—The Central News says that an agreement was reached on the coal question at the Franco-British conference in Hythe, by which France will receive 45 per cent. of the coal exported from England. The rate will remain unchanged, the Central News adds, by a scheme of rearrangement of freightage certain economies will be effected.

ARNSTEIN SPENDS DAY IN NEW YORK JAIL

New York, May 16.—Julius W. (Nicky) Arnstein, who surrendered yesterday in connection with New York's bond plot, involving millions, spent Sunday in Ludlow street jail. Arnstein is specifically charged in an indictment with criminally receiving $42,000 worth of Crucible Steel certificates that were stolen from Clark, Childs & Co. here last October.

Strike of Cooks and Stewards Delays Sailing of Steamer

Liverpool, May 16.—The steamer Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, managed by the Cunard line, had to postpone sailing Saturday because 250 stewards and cooks refused to sign articles for the voyage, expressing dissatisfaction with their accommodations. Three hundred cabin and 900 steerage passengers are booked to sail on the vessel.

PASSING OF KINGSTONIAN.

Kingston, May 16.—(Special.)—The death occurred of a former well-known Kingstonian at Montreal in the person of Charles Chatterton, brother of James Chatterton of the British Whig staff. He was 85 years old, a telegraph operator, and is survived by his wife and three children.

BRITAIN RESORTING TO BAMBOO NEWSPRINT

Big Production of Pulp in Burma, India, is Planned.

London, May 17.—The use of newsprint made from bamboo is one of the measures contemplated by the British newspaper publishers to meet the world's white paper shortage.

W. Raitt, cellulose expert of the government of India, who has had 25 years' experience in experimental work with bamboo pulp, states there is sufficient bamboo in eight in Burma, with the Savannah grasses of Assam, to produce 14,000,000 tons of dry pulp annually. The total cost of production will not exceed one-half of the present cost of wood pulp.

The Indian government has granted concessions to pioneer companies on favorable terms, and plans are being developed for an annual production of 700,000 tons of bamboo pulp.

"DRY" LAW SUPPORT LACKING IN HEART

New York Supervising Prohibition Agent Admits He is Disgusted With Conditions.

New York, May 16.—(Special.)—Prohibition is a thing without a heart—without anything upon which to work in the enforcement of the law in this federal jurisdiction, and unless the public co-operate with the authorities in making the law effective there might as well be no prohibition.

These are not the exact words of James S. Seavin, supervising prohibition enforcement agent here, but they express his views on why it is easy to buy a drink of hard liquor over scores of New York bars. "There is a lack of co-operation between the people and the authorities," Mr. Seavin says. "No one seems to re-lit the idea of prohibition, and the public seemingly acquiesces in the violation of the eighteenth amendment and Volstead act. My department is doing everything within its power to suppress the traffic, and we are mak-

MACKIE CRITICIZES LABOR EXTREMISTS

Hits at Menacing Combinations, Whether of Workers or Capitalists.

Montreal, May 16.—H. A. Mackie, M.P. for Edmonton, addressing the Progressive Club on Saturday, pointed out that while there was not enough labor in Canada to meet the demands of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Government Railways, which required, between them, 16,000 men, yet the Canadian Pacific Railway was at the same time carrying thru Canada, back to China, thousands of laborers who had served in France. Labor here would not permit these men to do the work which it cannot do itself, and the nation is obliged to submit to labor's dictum. For the nation to insist would mean a state of civil war.

Mr. Mackie classified all extremists in Canada as coming under the One Big Union. He admitted the right of combination, but not when it became a menace to the nation, whether a combination of labor or of capital.

"WAIT" POLICY ON WHEAT PROGRESSIVES' ATTITUDE

Ottawa, May 16.—(By Canadian Press.)—Members of the National Progressive Party are adopting the "wait-and-see" policy in regard to continuation of the Canadian Wheat Board. The subject has been discussed in caucus, but when asked what attitude is likely to be taken when the matter is discussed in the house of commons, leading members of the party replied that it is yet too early to make a prediction and that the next month or six weeks may make a vast difference in the whole situation in regard to handling the 1920 crop.

Twenty Million Idle Acres Urgent Need For Colonization

A Movement Afoot Which Will Affect All Canada

At last a vigorous movement is afoot, under the leadership of "The Western Canada Colonization Association," to cope with a problem vital to the whole Dominion—that of peopling 20,000,000 acres of vacant prairie land. Even the lay mind will grasp the significance of this national undertaking and the benefits that will accrue to all Canada. The financial burdens now taxing the reserves of rich and poor alike will be materially lightened.

Widespread Effects of Increased Food Production

The cultivation of these vast areas of now idle lands means a greatly enlarged food production and a rapid increase in the country's export trade. The effect on our national wealth will be far-reaching—to the country as a whole—to businesses and individuals. The resultant correction of the present adverse exchange rate cannot fail to be marked. There will be such an increase of population that the National Debt will be easier to carry and the per capita taxation will be lightened. The domestic market for Canadian manufactures will see a notable expansion.

Plan to People 20,000,000 More Acres

These twenty million acres of vacant land all lie within twenty miles of existing railways. As the Government is unable to undertake the settlement of private property, a group of public-spirited men has assumed this task. The object of the Association is patriotically constructive. Its aim is a greater and more progressive Canada. Its policies will be controlled by a joint executive committee, representative of both East and West. The officials appointed to carry on its work will be highly competent and practical men.

The speedier exploitation of the abounding resources of the West, still latent, promises to open an unprecedented era of progress for the whole Dominion.

The Evolution of the Project

The story of the evolution of this important project is typical of Canadian foresight and largeness of vision. The Industrial Development Association of Alberta realized that the further development of industry and agriculture in that Province demanded the establishment of greater inter-Provincial co-operation. To this end "The Western Canada Colonization Association" came into existence. The fullest sympathies of Saskatchewan and Manitoba were promptly elicited, and in the three Provinces, Executive Councils of eight members each were elected.

Leading Canadians Founding the Movement

At a joint meeting of these Executive Councils it was decided to raise the sum of $1,500,000 from business corporations throughout Canada to carry out the work. Before making a general appeal, a number of outstanding public-spirited men were invited to become founders of the Association. The following responded by lending their financial support and sympathetic patronage:

- These gentlemen have personally contributed a quarter of a million dollars, one-sixth of the total objective. Their identification with the project guarantees the feasibility and soundness of the undertaking. It is considered that no difficulty will be experienced in focusing the attention of Eastern interests on an undertaking which holds such mutual benefits for East and West alike.

A Suburban Railway Belt-Line Service About Toronto. What do the mayor and board of control intend to do in the way of getting a suburban belt line service about the city over the tracks of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific?

Lack of Municipal Street Cars. The board of control had their attention drawn to a need for more street cars on the municipal lines. They adjourned the issue. The works commissioner asked for some one-man cars as the quickest way out of the situation.

Price Control. One of the pressing needs of this country, and maybe for a year or more ahead, is a real court of price control. The act treating the bureau of commerce must be strengthened, a new chairman appointed. The present act has not been a success. Its chairman was a misfit: he had no confidence in the legislation creating it and defining its powers.

Getting Ready for Spa. We depend too largely for information of what is happening to our own affairs in Europe on correspondents whose country refuses its share of responsibility for what is helped to bring about. Writers for a public that is ill-disposed to what is being done by allied statesmen cannot interpret with full sympathy events as they ought to be interpreted to those who are well disposed to what is being done. Canadians are in the league of nations, having accepted the peace of Versailles. We do not see San Remo, and the Lloyd George-Millerand conference at Hythe, and we do not anticipate what will happen at Spa next month in quite the same way as our neighbors regard it.

The premiers of Britain and France conferred at Hythe on Saturday in view of a conference between the allies and Germany that was called for May 21 at Spa. Premier Nitti having resigned, Italy was unrepresented. The meeting with the Germans has been postponed till June 21.

The admission of the Germans to conference about peace treaty observance involves some recognitions of events for which the allied countries must be prepared. Two dominating factors in the relation of Germany to the rest of Europe have not been discarded by cables that make more of classified phases than of underlying facts. They are the significance of the Kapp revolution of last March, and the economic straggles of the big infant of a republic, which hasn't yet found its feet, and which must be helped by the allies as one means of helping themselves.

We have not yet become seized of the abjectness of the Kapp failure to restore militarism in Germany. Mr. Lloyd George's speech to the house of commons on his return from San Remo, told how ghastly a failure it was, and how sick the German people showed themselves to be of the old-style militarism. The civil war which Kapp precipitated was, in truth, a popular repudiation of militaristic revival and should be recognized as such by all members of the league of nations. The sending of French troops to Frankfurt was not as necessary as an overawing measure as it seemed. That they are to be withdrawn this week is confirmation of the view. But this sort of action must be carried through so that it will not unduly embarrass the Germans into thinking that the allies can be deflected from enforcing all the essentials of the Versailles treaty.

The German economic position is very bad. The mark is at a frightful discount. There is scarcity of food. Commerce is largely paralyzed—the proposals to set up great measures of international barter, noticed here on Saturday are evidence of this. Europe cannot be restored without co-operation between all peoples and governments. They are members one of another. What confronts them is not a question of condoning punishment of this or that delinquent, but of saving humanity by promoting commerce that depends on the exchange of confidence.

To develop this takes time. There must be a maximum of preparation of public opinion for the Spa conference if it is to lead to speedy economic reconstruction of central Europe without which there is no hope for the remainder of the continent.

Hoover's Good Sense. The sensible thing in the presidential scramble comes from Mr. Hoover, who, not having been a politician, can see some political values without the squint that afflicts his rivals. Oregon Democrats have been advised by President Wilson to vote only for candidates who will fight for the Wilson treaty, the whole Wilson treaty, and nothing but the Wilson treaty. Everywhere Senator Hiram Johnson is going strong in the primaries, and receiving many Democratic votes. He is against the Wilson treaty, look, stock and barrel, and will not look at American membership in the league of nations at any price.

Mr. Hoover intervenes with a letter which, in effect, calls both Wilson and Johnson fools, and shows he is alive both to the necessity for the United States not to subordinate its own constitution to the league of nations, and to the folly of staying away from responsibility for maintaining the victory for world democracy which it helped to win. It wouldn't be politic to say so in the States, but Mr. Hoover's view of his country's relation to the peace and the league is consonant with that which Viscount Grey expressed after several months' sejour in Washington.

There are countries more distressed than the United States as the result of their share in the great war. But there is none in so pitiful a case. She is not at peace with her late foes, and she is not in co-operation with her late allies in the high international policy which she originated.

In Asia Minor is a Christian state, the people of which have been oppressed for centuries by the Turk, and have been aided by a multitude of American missionaries, and streams of American money. In conformity with the policy of mandatorial control of ill-placed communities which the United States laid down, the allies have asked the United States to furnish administrators for Armenia, because no other power can do it. The United States is dead, preferring an unseemly squabble to an important duty. President Wilson, with the perversity of a pedant, demands the observance of every letter of the engagements he entered into, while ignoring the partnership of the senate in treaty-making. Hiram Johnson, with the virulence of a blind and sectional partisan, damns the moral claim of mankind on the nation which vaunted itself the chief mentor of mankind. By his friends the utmost ill-will towards Britain is engendered.

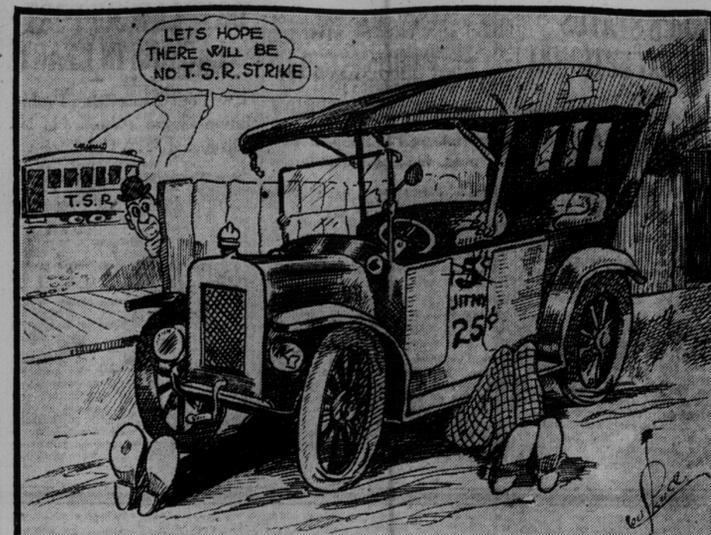

Mr. Hoover, the only contestant for the presidential candidature who has lived abroad, and has not been saturated with the virus of party politics, calls attention with dignity, restraint and understanding to what is at stake in international reputation and future self-respect. So far, the signs are not numerous that international size will win in the United States. Our excellent neighbors seem to be farther sunk in the old mire of the old notions of "politics" than we are. Until next November, at least, there appears to be little hope for anything better from either of the traditional parties than a continued emulation of the animal that returned to her wallowing.

The Coalition at Meat. Tonight the labor party dined the Drury government. It is said there is a little baulking at paying a dollar and a half for a meal which will only introduce a feast of reason. But the banquet will surely be a success; and if it does not show that the two lobes of Ontario's first coalition have but a single thought, and are even as two hearts that beat as one, it will prove that town and country are dwelling together in legislative and administrative unity.

Some people really believe that the tollers' alliance is like some other marriages of convenience—more irksome the longer it endures. But perhaps the wish for disruption is father to the thought. It is expressed by persons who were sure Mr. Doherty would not find a seat, who knew for certain that Mr. Ramey could never be elected, and were absolutely confident that three weeks in the legislature would bust up the works.

Against all contrary predictions the coalition has got along quite as well as could be expected. Political life is no flowery bed of ease, for even a singly-victorious party that has been established for many years. Coalitions are always exposed to double dangers of disintegration, once the occasion for their existence becomes merged in the daily round of reconciling varying tendencies.

It would be easy to speculate on the phenomena that will engage tonight's banquet—the rush of pleasure with which Chairman Simpson will propose the health of King George, and the warmth with which Mr. Morrison will avow his love for the eight-hour day, and his regard for the readiness with which Hart House can sacrifice its ease to the counselling of Premier Drury. But it is better to congratulate the farmers and labor men on having got along so well for over six months, and to be assured that they will cheer each other on in the good work of making

That "Panic-Stricken" Navy

Its Record of Calm and Efficient Service to the Allies Through Four Years and on Many Seas.

(From the New York Tribune, May 15.)

"To the Editor of The Tribune: "Sir—No act of humanity, whether to defend or foe, should lead to neglect of the proper precautions and disposition of war, and no measures can be taken to save life which prejudice the military situation."

The war has been won! Great Britain did all that could be done on the sea, and she did it calmly, silently, unobtrusively and well. In the few months during which America shouldered her responsibility she gave such assistance as an unprepared, inadequately manned and broadly scattered navy could render.

The public will look with interest on the developments that follow Sir John Willison's charge that American boots are being dumped into Canada at prices lower than in any other country. The public will ask if they've got any benefit, or if the dealers took it all. Also if the Americans find their factories in many lines in need of wider markets, and they have set out to get them? Also what does this mean to Canadian manufacturers and workmen?

However, it admits to include in reminiscences of what we know has taken place, particularly when the president of the United States sits in silence while his secret cables are being broadcast to the world, messages that can create only doubt as to the achievements of the silent watchers who kept from America's shores "the flame of a burning world."

In his lamentable message the president declared the British "were helpless to the point of panic." This he had the temerity to say less than ninety days after the United States had abandoned its policy of "strict neutrality" and had assumed the task of self-preservation. This he said after three years' bitter fighting by the men of Great Britain and her allies—for until then she had no "allies."

And the "panic-stricken" British admiralty was the guaranty of this stupendous traffic in the feet could be it was—even in the 4th of July, 1917 when a single regiment—the first of American soldiers—marched thru the streets of Paris.

From August, 1914, before the end of August Kitchener's "contemptible" army was rushed across the channel, and all the legions of its followers were likewise transported. The grand fleet and its thousands of auxiliaries were keeping the best of a difficult, but a steadily improving situation.

"Panic-stricken"? Whatever else the admiralty and its fleet could be it was—even in the 4th of July, 1917 when a single regiment—the first of American soldiers—marched thru the streets of Paris.

Brother and Christian, Too. Many churches in Toronto yesterday heard preachers who advanced the cause of brotherhood, as represented by Sunday men's meetings in churches of many denominations in many lands. Three English leaders of the movement were in the city—one an army chaplain and two laymen. The chaplain preached in a Methodist and an Anglican church, and one of the laymen preached in an Anglican pulpit.

As has been indicated, this is a time at which cordiality of Britons and Americans should be cemented rather than dissolved. And what greater factor could be employed to this end than the understanding that prevailed in these days on the North Sea in 1917 and 1918 when American

THE GIRL WHO SMILED THRU

By MARION RUBINCAM

MORE BEGINNINGS. SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

Alice Fairbanks has won her way thru her father's death, her mother's invalidism, their poverty, her necessity for working so hard. It attracts to her first David Thornes with whom she falls in love. They are engaged and Alice is wonderfully happy, when she suspects David to be attracted to her cousin, Lois. She breaks the engagement and hears later that Lois has married David.

In trying to piece together her life again, she adopts a baby, Berenice, and by wandering family, Thru this she comes to know Lawrence Marlowe, and eventually becomes engaged to him. She feels she must give up a desired college course before marrying him, so comes to the city. Here she meets David and finds that he is still in love with her, and unhappy.

Rather than risk a confession she leaves suddenly and goes home. Farmington and home. Alice climbed down from the train and looked about her. Everything was exactly the same. Even the floor of the station was as rough and uneven, as full of hot holes and uncomfortable to walk on, as it had ever been. Some of the old black crayon drawings, done so shyly by youngsters, were still on the brick walls; they had not been scrubbed off even.

After all, it was only half a year since she had left for the city. Certainly that was not long. But there was a new station man, she did not know this one. She saw him at the baggage car, pulling off the old gray-green trunk she recognized as her own. It is never lonely going on a trip, even when one goes alone, for there is always the excitement of getting off and the prospect of new places, new people and new experiences. But coming home is different—one should always be met at the homeward end of the journey. It is a coming back to familiar things and to a routine—perhaps a very dear routine, but one that is at least devoid of excitement.

Alice felt desperately lonely. If she had had the money, she would have gone no further, but would have turned back and taken the next train to town and to the college. Fortunately, her sense of humor saved her. She even smiled at the weak feminine mood that was on her. It was so unlike herself, she thought.

So she picked up her handbag and walked down the platform to claim her trunk. "Where's Jim?" she asked the new man. "Jim? Oh, the fellow that used to be here? He's got a job down the line at Newton. Got married and moved there." "Oh," Alice replied, uninterested at once. Why had she asked such a silly question? She went over to the jitney stand.

"There's my trunk on the platform," Dexter stated, No. 1023. "Yes'm," said the man, with a respectful glance at her clothes. Alice realized suddenly how well she looked in her smart fur coat and cap, and her new shoes and gloves.

She was home—and sorry to be home! Every new street displeased her. Dexter street brought no thrill of pleasure when the carriage turned into it. February is a dreary month, Alice thought. Yet the sight of fresh curtains in her own windows made her eyes light up, and when she ran to the front door, she was almost glad. Clara opened the door, and stopped, staring wide-eyed at the newcomer. "Why, Alice! Good Lord, it's Alice!" she cried, and held out her arms.

"Alice! What do you mean?" it was her mother's voice from the kitchen. Alice turned from one embrace to fall into another, and for a few minutes the three women clung to each other, and made the queer, incomprehensible sounds women do when under a sudden emotional stress. Alice and Clara kept their heads and told the driver where to take Alice's trunk.

"Awake, awake!" a small voice called. Alice turned, and gathered Berenice into her arms. Then she held her off to look at her, and after a bright, certain amount of calm returned to the room.

"We didn't expect you. Why didn't you write?" her mother asked. "You are a surprise, but was Clara could think of."

"Berenice, I would not have known you, Alice turned again to the baby, her eyes showing her astonishment. For Berenice had grown taller, and was filling out beautifully. She was losing some of the plumpness of babyhood, gained with the good food the Fairbanks had given her, and was becoming a slender, graceful little girl. Her dark eyes were round and bright, her dark hair had a soft curl to it.

"I cut it short all over her head, but long enough to show its waviness," Clara explained. "It makes such a fluffy mop over her head I didn't even want it to be bobbed."

And she was dressed in a yellow crepe smock, with touches of blue, and blue socks. She looked like the little French girls seen in fashion photographs.

Berenice returned soon to her toys, and Alice turned to her mother. "How well you look," she said, and in her tone was gratitude and great satisfaction. For the little old lady did indeed look well. She too was getting plump, and it was becoming to her. And her soft white hair had been gracefully arranged by Clara.

"And you?" Alice turned to give her a chum an affectionate hug. "Have you revolutionized my family?" "No, I've used them as models for my beautifying ideas," Clara laughed. "My land, I forgot dinner. You must be starved!" Mrs. Fairbanks jumped up.

"Let me help," Alice begged. "I feel like beginning all over, again—I'd like to get into the kitchen."

Tomorrow—Some Findings. The Overbearing Weather. From the first of last December up to today, the middle of May, one continuous run of overbearing weather; no rain, but a cold December, a continuous winter of frost, snow, cold, and bad roads in the country; a spring delayed and lacking in one general day, and every night of May bordering on frost; the farmers with their seed in but most of the fields white and dusty, only patches of green where fall wheat escaped winter killing; only now see the pasture fields and hayfields beginning to show green; very few cattle, sheep and horses turned out; dairy cattle still needing high-priced grain food in order to keep up their milk; gardens and orchards lingering in a lapsed spring. What every one looks in vain for is rain, the usual warm rains of April and May. Each day a disappointment in this respect.

Saturday was a little warmer, but still cold winds in many directions. No promise of rain yet in the probabilities. The farmer hasn't lost hope, but he still looks vainly for the showers and the sunshine.

The interior of the Basilica was decorated with ancient crimson tapestries and pictures of Joan of Arc were prominently displayed. A passage was kept open in the middle of the Basilica for the Papal procession to the high altar, behind which the Papal throne was erected, having a small tribune for the Papal family.

There was a tribune for the Roman aristocracy, the Knights of Malta, headed by Count Lambert-Enghe, the diplomat accredited to the Holy See and mission headed by Gabriel Hanoaux, sent by the French Republic. The hardest things of all to Wash

Small boys' suits—rompers—kitchen aprons—dish towels—
Try this wonderful new form of Soap on them.

Rinso

Fine granules of the purest Soap.
Different from any soap or powder,
cleanses without rubbing or boiling;
hot or cold water, either will do.

A new Soap product! Absolutely different from anything you have ever used before. Not a cake soap. Not a "washing powder." But fine granules of the pure soap heart. No harsh chemicals to eat fabric, destroy clothes or redden the hands. Pure granules so rich in cleansing power that they dissolve all the dirt—the hardest dirt—after soaking a few hours, without rubbing or boiling. Never again should you wash in the old exhausting way. Let your clothes say good-bye to the rub, rub, rub ordeal of the washboard.

Rinso is not a "washing powder"

The fine granules of Rinso look much like a "washing powder," but—make this test. Use a heaping teaspoonful to a glass of boiling water.

WASHING POWDER
—high in harsh chemicals
—low in soap

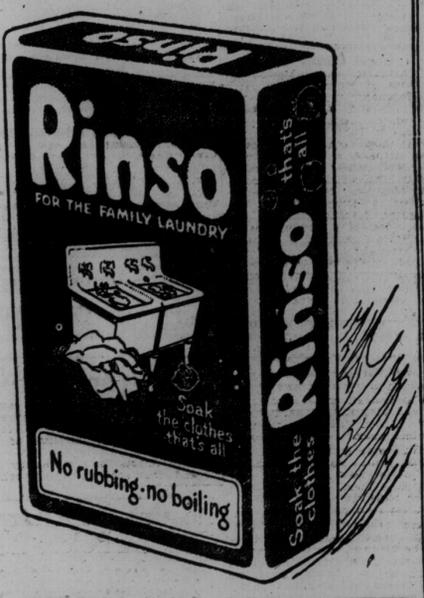

RINSO
—absolutely harmless
—so rich in soap it "jells"!

AT NIGHT—
Soak the clothes with Rinso.
MORNING—
Rinse them out—that's all.

GET A PACKAGE TO-DAY
You cannot believe how wonderful Rinso is until you have tried it. No rubbing at all! Cleans as perfectly in cold water as in warm.

AN INTERESTING TEST
To show how different Rinso is to the ordinary washing powder, dissolve a heaping teaspoonful to a glass of boiling water. Let it cool. Turn it out. So rich in soap that it JELLS!

WHEAT HAS WINTERED WELL Loss Not More Than Four Per Cent., Despite Severity of Weather.

Ottawa, May 15.—The first crop report of the season of 1920 was issued today by the Dominion bureau of statistics. It deals with the winter killing of fall sown wheat, the condition of fall wheat and of hay and clover meadows and the progress of spring seeding, the report being compiled from the returns of crop correspondents from all parts of Canada for April. Notwithstanding the severity of the winter, the proportion of fall sown wheat that has been killed is reported to be very small, amounting, in fact, to not more than four per cent. of the total sown. This is the smallest proportion on record, and compared with five per cent. last year, after an extraordinary mild winter with 82 per cent. in 1918, after the severe winter of 1917-18. The small proportion this year is due to the heavy snow and the late spring as usually fall sown wheat in Canada is damaged more by alternating frosts and thaws during March and April, than by the severity of the winter, when the ground is covered with snow.

Deducting the areas reported as having been killed, representing four per cent. or 28,700 acres in Ontario, one per cent. or 400 acres in Alberta, and four per cent. or 600 acres in British Columbia, the total reduction by winter killing is 29,700 acres, leaving 740,800 acres as the area of fall wheat to be harvested in 1920, as compared with 672,782 acres, the finally estimated harvest area for 1919.

The average condition of fall wheat on Apr. 30, 1920, representing four per cent. below the average of the ten years 1910-19. Last year at the same date it was 10 per cent. below the average of the ten years. The condition of April 30 is 48 per cent. for both Ontario and Alberta, and 85 per cent. for British Columbia.

About five per cent. of the area under hay and clover is reported as winter killed, as compared with six per cent. last year and 11 per cent. in 1918. The condition of hay and clover meadows on April 30 is reported as 95 per cent. of the area below the average of the ten years 1910-19. By provinces, the condition is as follows: Prince Edward Island, 90; New Brunswick, 91; Quebec, 88; Ontario, 92; Manitoba, 93; Saskatchewan, 88; Alberta, 88, and British Columbia 96.

GOIN PREDICTS BOOM IN CANADA RESOURCES London, May 16.—Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of Quebec, called on the Minnesota on Saturday. He said that on no previous visit had he realized so fully the breadth of vision of British statesmen and of the business community. He had good reason to anticipate, as a result of the visit, that the industrial revolution would be developed some of Canada's natural resources. The premier said: "I believe, on the eve of a great boom in the world, that more manufactured goods, and we have an inexhaustible raw material supply, which we want worked by British capital."

The agent-general's office in London, he added, was proving increasingly popular, and the Quebec government would extend its usefulness.
