WARM WELCOME AT SAINT PAUL FOR ROOSEVELT

Ex-President Will be One of the Principal Speakers at the Big National Conservation Congress on September 6

Saint Paul, Minn., Aug. 4.—Definite word from Col. Theodore Roosevelt that he will address the national conservation congress in Saint Paul on September 6, the second day, has been followed by a bustle of preparation for the reception of the rough rider chief. Delegations will be present in Saint Paul from all parts of the West and the original Roosevelt club, a Saint Paul organization, is preparing to meet the former president in a body and if he will consent, escort him through the city to the state fair grounds.

Those who are in touch with Col. Roosevelt anticipate that he will touch upon various phases of conservation in his address at other points, but will reserve his first important utterances upon the whole subject for his Saint Paul address. He will speak in the municipal auditorium, a building seating 10,000 people, addressing the largest assembly ever gathered under roof in the West before. The former president visits Fargo, N. D., before coming to Saint Paul, arriving here early in the morning of the second day of the congress and leaving that evening for Milwaukee where he speaks on the following day.

VILLAGE SOUNDS
Sweet was the sound, when oft at evening's close,
Up yonder hill the village murmur rose;
There as I passed with careless steps and slow,
The mingling notes came softening from below;
The swain responsive to the milkmaid's song,
The sober herd that loved to meet their young,
The noisy geese that gabbled o'er the pool;
The playful children just let loose from school;
The watch-dog's voice that bayed the whistling wind;
And the loud laugh that spoke the vacant mind.

CONSCRIPTION IN GREAT BRITAIN

It May be an Issue in the Next Election Campaign—Earl of Portsmouth Says Compulsory Service is Necessary

London, Aug. 4.—The agitation for compulsory military service in Britain, which started for the second time in the house of lords some days ago has been pushed so energetically that it is today certain that it will be an issue in the next national campaign which will be probably early in January.

It is a matter of months since Lord Roberts tried to start a "compulsory military service" boom with his speech in the house of lords, pointing to the danger of an invasion of England by a foreign power—Germany implied. A vigorous conscription campaign followed in the Con-

Fashion Hints for Times Readers

THE SUMMER HAT IS OFTEN VEILED WITH NET

A most practical fad is that of veiling the trimmings of native hats or of those with the back in the new fashion, is trimmed with big pale yellow roses, merging into the orange tones, and a veiling of dotted black net, caught in here and there by an invisible stitch, blends the roses in a charming color sympathy.

His three children had been playing together quite happily all the afternoon. He had not been in that house five minutes before there was an abrupt change in them.

It was not because of anything he said to them. Indeed, he scarcely spoke to them at all—merely passed through the room and out into the next room where he sat talking with his wife in the sharp tense voice that betrayed his state of mind.

In ten minutes those children who had been quite in harmony all the afternoon had begun to quarrel with each other, and in half an hour their mother, herself transformed from the tranquil, happy person she had been before her husband's arrival, had sent one of them to bed sobbing and left the other two sulking and at odds with each other.

All simply a result of the atmosphere of temper that that man brought home with him.

People who ride nervous, high-tailed horses say that it is unmanageable. Dogs reared in a kennel, springing before it even before you speak to them.

I met a teacher the other day who has taught fifty years in the primary schools of his native town. She is a wonderful successful teacher, having often offered large sums to teach and superintend in other parts of the country, and despite the nerve strain of teaching of which we are told so much, she is young and beautiful. Her serene smile and her calm, self-reliant confidence because of it do not instantly suggest the whole room and starts more mischief than I can stop in an hour. If I can't keep from feeling that way I leave the room for a few minutes until I can.

Sometimes when you have several times failed to get the correct number on the telephone and have rung again very impatiently, notice how quickly the telephone girl's "number" gives back your senseless even before you speak. When she has the number and nerves in the world I very truly believe are caused simply and solely by the presence of the other half.

Wouldn't it be splendid if people in a nervous, overworked state could be temporarily quarantined by law.

And since that's impossible, whenever you are the ailing one, why not decree the quarantine by law of yourself!

WESTERN GRAIN GROWERS TALK VERY PLAINLY

Tell the Premier That Protection is a Great Wrong—Thankful for What He Has Done But Want More

Weyburn, Sask., Aug. 3.—"Protection is a great wrong. It makes nations dishonest, one with the other, it makes individuals selfish and dishonest; it teaches a mischievous principle that we are to expect to receive value without giving value in return."

In one of the frankest addresses Sir Wilfrid has received during the tour, the grain growers of the district presented their memorials this morning, headed by President Sheppard. All wealth, Vice-President Smith, of Yellow Grass, pointed out, was the product of labor applied to nature. The manufacturer was entitled to the wealth the factory produces of the products of his own labor. "But," the address continued, "the manufacturer steps in and says 'I must have also as much as I can get from the other fellow.' The farmer says, 'if you appropriate my earnings you are a thief.' Now the manufacturer are all honorable men, and do not like the thought of being called thieves and robbers, so they went to Sir John Macdonald, and in opposition, and waited for chance that reinstated premier. Sir John said: 'I shall write out the words that I have said, and you may put protection in their place.'

"If it is wrong to rob, it is wrong to take robbery legal."

The address proceeded to congratulate and thank Sir Wilfrid for what he had done since attaining power, notably by preferential trade with Britain, and added: "We do not underestimate what you have done, nor are we ungrateful, but when we expect you to lay the axe to the root of the tree and cut down, you only cut off some of the branches, and the government of the government of Macdonald to pass this law, is it not wrong for your government to perpetuate it as a whole or in part."

"We are happy to know you admire the British free trade policy and regard Britain in this respect as the light of the world. We appeal to you for relief and redress."

"We admired you when you stepped back after earnest efforts and said the next proposal for reciprocity must come from the United States, and set about opening up other markets for us. President Taft now asks for closer trade relations, and we hope the government will like to secure for us the advantages of this valuable market."

"As free men we strongly object to pay tribute to our fellow citizens. We ask no favors. We urge our rights. We are willing to pay our share towards the revenue of the country. We are free men. Treat us as such. If we are slaves, we ask our freedom, if refused, we must demand it. Our resources are not exhausted. Our appeal is to you, Sir Wilfrid."

The premier, in replying, reiterated his personal adherence to free trade. All the progress he looked for had not yet been made, but the claims of the grain growers would be fully gone into. He stated the government's readiness to discuss reciprocity with the United States.

The Evening Chit-Chat
 By RUTH CAMERON

A PALPABLE ATMOSPHERE OF TEMPER.

Do you know I have recently come to believe that exists—not in the new thought sense, but actually as some kind of an ether wave or mist.

I was in a home the other day when the man of the house came in over-wrought, nervous and out of temper.

His three children had been playing together quite happily all the afternoon. He had not been in that house five minutes before there was an abrupt change in them.

It was not because of anything he said to them. Indeed, he scarcely spoke to them at all—merely passed through the room and out into the next room where he sat talking with his wife in the sharp tense voice that betrayed his state of mind.

People who ride nervous, high-tailed horses say that it is unmanageable. Dogs reared in a kennel, springing before it even before you speak to them.

I met a teacher the other day who has taught fifty years in the primary schools of his native town. She is a wonderful successful teacher, having often offered large sums to teach and superintend in other parts of the country, and despite the nerve strain of teaching of which we are told so much, she is young and beautiful. Her serene smile and her calm, self-reliant confidence because of it do not instantly suggest the whole room and starts more mischief than I can stop in an hour. If I can't keep from feeling that way I leave the room for a few minutes until I can.

Sometimes when you have several times failed to get the correct number on the telephone and have rung again very impatiently, notice how quickly the telephone girl's "number" gives back your senseless even before you speak. When she has the number and nerves in the world I very truly believe are caused simply and solely by the presence of the other half.

Wouldn't it be splendid if people in a nervous, overworked state could be temporarily quarantined by law.

And since that's impossible, whenever you are the ailing one, why not decree the quarantine by law of yourself!

Daily Hints for the Cook

BLUEBERRY PIE.
 Line a plate with rich pastry, nearly fill with ripe berries, adding sugar to sweeten, and a pinch of salt. Soften up. Cover with a top crust and bake.

ENGLISH MUFFINS.
 Sift together four cups of flour, one teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder.

Mix together four cups of flour, one cup of milk to a stiff griddle cake dough. Cook on both sides of a well greased griddle. When done, tear apart and toast lightly. Serve very hot.

VEGETABLE SANDWICHES.
 Delicious and unusual combinations in sandwich vegetable fillings are minced celery mixed with cream cheese and grated French beans; small pickles, green peas, chopped fine and mixed with grated American cheese and whipped cream; green peas mashed into a paste and seasoned with salt and pepper; minced green peppers and cucumbers chopped fine and moistened with mayonnaise; olives or pickles sliced thin and mixed with a French dressing; chopped onions that have stood an hour in lightly salted water, then mixed with mayonnaise; or a thin slice of tomato seasoned with salt and pepper and dusted with grated cheese.

RUSSIAN SALAD.
 Blend together two tablespoonfuls of grated horseradish and soft, fine bread-crumbs. Pour over a rich milk or cream dressing. Let stand an hour, then press through a pure sieve. Season with one-quarter teaspoonful each of salt and sugar and two tablespoonfuls of vinegar or lemon juice. Spread between buttered slices of whole wheat bread.

SMOKED SALMON.
 Smoked salmon, or the white meat of chicken or tongue; cold boiled beet root, cold boiled carrots; chopped celery; boiled French beans; small pickles, green peas; asparagus tips; cauliflower; these in quantities depending upon the size of the salad; garnish with anchovies, truffles and the herbs mentioned.

CANNED BLUEBERRIES.
 These will keep without sugar and taste more like the fresh fruit for use in pies, shortcakes and puddings. If preferred sweet, allow a half cup of sugar to a quart of berries, excepting in the case of swamp berries, when a cup of sugar is none too much. In putting up without sugar, pick over and wash the berries, drain, then pack in jars, filling as full as possible. Pass a silver knife down upon the sides to help them settle into place. Pour boiling water over the fruit, giving over and adding more boiling water when filled to running over, screw air tight and keep in a cool, dark place.

At a meeting of the A. E. Hamilton Co., Ltd., yesterday afternoon, the following directors were elected: Ald. J. V. Russell, A. E. Hamilton, John O'Regan, S. B. Bastin and Thomas Nagle. They will hold office for the balance of the year.

Miss Beatrice Gossell, a pupil in St. Vincent school made the highest marks in the recent matriculation examinations but there exists a doubt as to whether Miss Gossell is entitled to the Corporation Medal as it is not known whether St. Vincent is considered a high school or not.

FORGOT BRIDE'S NAME

Salem, Ore., Aug. 4.—When J. J. Stranburg, forty-eight years old, appeared at the county clerk's office to obtain a marriage license things went swimmingly until he forgot the prospective bride's name. It was several minutes before he could master his memory sufficiently to give a full answer to the deputy's query.

He finally remembered that she is Mrs. Lida M. Carter, thirty-five, a resident of Salem.

Stranburg came from Missouri to claim his bride. When they were young they were sweethearts, but were separated by some trivial quarrel, and each married. Not long ago Stranburg learned Mrs. Carter's whereabouts, and as they had lost wife and husband respectively by death, he came to Oregon to renew the old affection.

A telephone message to The Telegraph from St. Martins last night announced that at a meeting of the Baptist congregation it had been decided to call Rev. W. A. Snelling, of Albert county, to the pastorate.

CAMPBELLTON NOTES

Dominion Cabinet Likely to Grant Request for Aid—Delegation Well Satisfied—Relief Supplies Running Short

Ottawa, Aug. 3.—At a meeting of a sub-committee of the council, consisting of Hon. Messrs. Pugsley, King, Brodeur and Murphy, the request of the delegation for federal assistance to the stricken town of Campbellton (N. B.) was heard today on behalf of the town.

F. B. Carvell and James Reid, M. P.'s, Thos. Malcolm and Judge McLatchy asked for a federal grant of $5,000 for fifteen years. This with the proposed provincial grant of $5,000 per year for fifteen years will relieve the town of the task of meeting on present bonded debt.

The delegation pointed out that the whole of the town's property had been destroyed, and that the town was unable either to meet the interest of the existing debt or raise a further loan to re-establish civic works.

The ministers promised to recommend to their conferees at the next meeting of the cabinet council that the request of the delegation be granted.

Montreal, Aug. 3.—(Special)—Judge McLatchy, Thos. Malcolm and James Reid, M. P.'s, composing the Campbellton (N. B.) delegation to Ottawa, arrived in Montreal tonight, well satisfied with the result of their interview with the federal ministers at present in the capital.

Campbellton, N. B., Aug. 3.—To fully relieve the people of Campbellton from their dire situation, the sum of $100,000 is needed. This amount must be subscribed as soon as possible. It cannot come too soon, as winter is fast approaching, and any less amount means suffering and privation. The relief supplies are beginning to run short. The people are deeply appreciating the generosity of St. John in aiding them in their darkest hour.

Moncton, Aug. 3.—At a meeting of the civic finance committee tonight, bills composed by the city for supplies for the Campbellton fire sufferers were passed, amounting to $4,865.21. In addition to this, private contributions to the extent of $1,200 or so have been forwarded from Moncton.

The Typhoid Menace At Summer Resorts

McGill tests prove that "MONTERRAT" Lime Fruit Juice will destroy Typhoid Germs in water.

The greatest danger of summer in the summer vacation is contaminated water supply. Many persons, instead of improving their health in the country, enfeeble it by drinking water laden with typhoid germs.

The scientists at the Molson Laboratory at McGill University added two tablespoonfuls of "MONTERRAT" Lime Fruit Juice to a glass of water which was swarming with the germs of Typhoid. Within fifteen minutes, every germ had been destroyed. In order to be sure of this result, it is important to get "MONTERRAT," which is shown by the Inland Revenue Bulletin No. 197 to be "genuine Lime Fruit Juice."

When starting on your vacation, be sure to take a supply of "MONTERRAT" with you. You will not only guard against Typhoid, but also will be able to make many delicious, cooling summer drinks.

Your druggist or grocer has "MONTERRAT."

NOTE.—Drop a postcard to-day for our little recipe book showing how to make over sixty delightful drinks, from desserts, pin, cake, etc., with "MONTERRAT" Lime Fruit Juice. We will gladly send you a copy free.

Roosevelt resumed his work with three or four other young men, piling up cups, checking them and putting them away.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; AT HOME AND ABROAD

St. John's Defeated Clippers.

St. John's won the game on the Every Day Club grounds last evening, defeating the Clippers by a score of two to one. By winning this game the St. John's have taken one step nearer the championship having but two more games to give them the majority of the thirty arranged between the two teams. The Clippers will have to win five more to capture the championship, and the excellent ball that they are playing causes their supporters to hope that they may yet pull out on top, but the up-hill fight is a hard one. McGovern pitched for the Clippers last evening and was found for four hits, while he had four strikeouts to his credit. Gero pitched for the St. John's and was hit for a three-bagger, a two base hit and three singles. He struck out two men.

TOTAL ABSTAINERS TO MEET IN BOSTON

Electric Farm on Long Island

New York, Aug. 4.—Judge Williams' new electric farm will not be ready for operation before August 10, said Mr. Lonne, the judge's secretary, referring to the latest agricultural experiment to be made in America.

Thomas H. Williams was a judge for 10 years of the fourth municipal court in Brooklyn. Recently he retired, and as farming has always been a hobby of his, he bought two acres of land at Deloset, near Northport, L. I., on which he could raise vegetables and fruits.

"About two years ago the judge commenced corresponding with some German farmers," said Mr. Lonne, "who were experimenting with electricity in connection with the growth of vegetables and fruits. Their efforts were most successful, and they interested the judge to such an extent that he decided to make experiments of his own, and the present farm is a result."

It will be the first time that electric farming has ever been tried in America by any individual. The agricultural department at Washington experimented with it 1 1/2 and two years ago, with great success, but no farmers have since then attempted the new method.

"He is at work installing the apparatus now, and the farm should be ready to sow early in August. He will have to make his first experiments with quickly growing vegetables, like lettuce, onions or radishes, as it will be late in the season. Judge Williams is using the method introduced by his German friends. Plants are planted 12 feet apart and four or five run from pole to pole, not only straight but cross-rows, about 12 feet from the ground. The current is generated by a dynamo operated by a windmill.

"The current sent through is largely in amperage but small in voltage. The percentage of the electricity, partly by induction and partly on account of its low voltage, falls beneath and has its effect on the plants.

"There is a storage battery in connection with the dynamo, and a certain amount of the electricity generated is stored up in this. The dynamo works constantly and its effect upon the development of seeds and the growth of plants is said to be very great.

"The initial cost of the apparatus, the poles, the wires, the dynamo and the windmill, is considerable. But after that the expense is scarcely noticeable, with the exception of what wear there may be on the apparatus.

"The German experts whom Judge Williams has been consulting experimented near Dresden, but two market gardens near Berlin have used the results of their success. They say that fruits and vegetables mature three or four weeks earlier as a result of the system. These two farms furnish fruits and vegetables for two of the best shops in Berlin, and the produce grows much ahead of the regular season."

WAR ON TOOTH PICKS IN CHICAGO UNIVERSITY

Chicago, Aug. 4.—A battle of toothpicks is on at the University of Chicago. The regular students have been warring with the "picks" in public with too little delicacy. The anti-toothpick crusade is being waged by the following notice on the official bulletin board:

SUMMER STUDENTS' ATTENTION

Warning is hereby given that the public exhibition of toothpicks in action, warring, quill or otherwise is no longer regarded as good form at the University of Chicago. Persons who insist on using the same will kindly perform their dental excavations in private. The use of toothpicks on the sidewalks, on the lawn, in the class rooms or at social functions at the University is hereby declared an omission in the eyes of the student body and is forbidden. Violence will be used, if necessary.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed it inflames the lining of the middle ear, and when this is done the hearing is lost. Catarrh of the Eustachian Tube, if not taken out, will become permanent and will, in many cases, cause deafness. It is nothing but a local inflammation of the mucous membrane.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of Deafness cured by Catarrh Cure. Send for particulars, free.

Technical Education

When the royal commission on technical education meets here on Aug. 18, many local manufacturers will appear before it to present their views on the subject. At a meeting of the board of trade committee having charge of their reception, held yesterday afternoon, the following were present: The chairman, W. F. Hatheway; James Pender, school inspector; W. McLean, W. S. Fisher, Thomas White, Rev. W. H. Sampson, R. B. Emerson, John Hannah, Samuel Kerr, Major Gordon, Louis W. Simms, and Dr. T. D. Walker.

Several of these gentlemen spoke on the value of education to the boy, and expressed a willingness to appear before the commission. Mr. White said that in his opinion the present public school system introduced a lad to pursue any of the mechanical trades.

Miss Grace Leavitt, treasurer of the Local Council of Women, acknowledges receipt of the following sums for the relief of the Campbellton fire sufferers: Mrs. James Walker, South Bay, $10; Mrs. John E. No Third Degree

(Boston-Herald.)

It is noticeable that neither Scotland Yard representatives nor the Canadian police official has made an effort to secure a confession from Dr. Crippen. The British has does not approve the "third degree." It recognizes in fact as well as in theory the principle that a person cannot be compelled to incriminate himself. The British practice does not satisfy its law and conscience by warning a prisoner that what he says is voluntary and may be used against him, and then proceed to force him, by torture if necessary, to admit his guilt. In this particular at least the British police methods contrast favorably with those of the United States.

No Third Degree

(Boston-Herald.)

It is noticeable that neither Scotland Yard representatives nor the Canadian police official has made an effort to secure a confession from Dr. Crippen. The British has does not approve the "third degree." It recognizes in fact as well as in theory the principle that a person cannot be compelled to incriminate himself. The British practice does not satisfy its law and conscience by warning a prisoner that what he says is voluntary and may be used against him, and then proceed to force him, by torture if necessary, to admit his guilt. In this particular at least the British police methods contrast favorably with those of the United States.

ANDREW IRVINE GOT THREE MONTHS

An old offender—Leonard Cameron Fined $20 for Assault

The Dominion Act was resorted to this morning by Judge Ritchie in the police court when an old offender, Andrew Irvine, not long out of jail, appeared before him on the charge of drunkenness, and was sentenced to three months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. His honor reminded him of the awful consequences of his habits, and also of the many chances that had been given him. A fine of $30 was imposed upon Leonard Cameron, aged 21, on a charge of assaulting Frank Hearn in Main street last night. The young man was drunk at the time and his memory failed him this morning when the charge was read to him. Evidence was given that he had struck Hearn in the face at the same time swearing loudly, so the fine was imposed.

GRAND TIME FOR THE CHILDREN

Little Tots Given a Treat on Every Day Club Grounds by a Number of Ladies

Since the summer holidays began a large number of children have greatly enjoyed themselves every day on the Every Day Club grounds, with two teachers to supervise their play, and teach them in sewing, basketry and clay-modelling. They also march and sing and have physical exercises at times, to vary the proceedings.

Yesterday afternoon these children were treated to a surprise party. A group of kind-hearted ladies served refreshments for the two hundred and fifty or more children who were present. The young people were seated in groups of twenty to fifty, on the green sward, and then served with bread and biscuits, cake and milk to their heart's content. Four large cans of milk were consumed, besides more than forty large cakes and other food. The weather was delightful, and the children had a very happy afternoon. The ladies in charge were Mrs. Carl Schmidt, Mrs. D. Magee, Mrs. A. M. Belding, Mrs. Charles Dunmer, Mrs. Bartel, and Misses Gladys Magee and Gladys Day, with the teachers, Misses Kerwell and Maxwell. The ladies were assisted by a number of gentlemen.

Those in charge desire to extend their warmest thanks to the ladies who contributed to the stock of refreshments, all of which was consumed. It was the merriest picnic party of the season.
