Many Supporters Favor This Plan SECOND CONVENTION Idea is to Proceed With Organization After Republican Convention--Yesterday's Proposal Practically Abandoned

Chicago, June 21.—If Col. Roosevelt eventually heads an independent ticket it seems certain tonight that the convention which will name him will be held at a time considerably after the adjournment of the Republican National Convention now in session in this city.

Some of Col. Roosevelt's more radical supporters still cling to the belief that it would be wise to carry out the original plan, which in effect was stoutly to maintain that the republication is irregular and illegal.

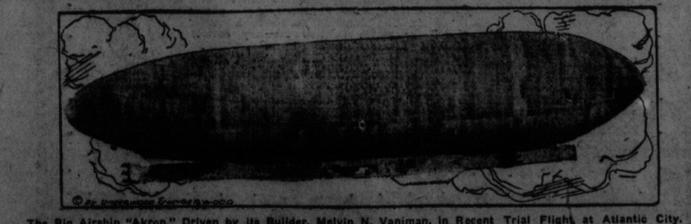

He let it be known today, however, that he did not regard such an idea as entirely practicable. Should the nomination be offered to him under any circumstances, it is not his intention to decline, but he believes the wisest course would be to defer final action along such lines for a few weeks.

TAFT FORCES OFFER FURTHER EVIDENCE OF THEIR STRENGTH

Leaders Now Set to Work in Earnest and Nomination Will Likely be Disposed of by Sunday Morning--Mrs. Roosevelt Witnesses Husband's Reverse, Then Leaves Hall

Chicago, June 21.—The Taft forces in the Republican national convention further demonstrated their control of the body today. The convention took up piecemeal the contests from many states, and in each instance the Taft delegates were declared entitled to their seats by majorities ranging from a high water Taft vote of 665 to 464 to a narrow margin of 542 to 529.

When adjournment was taken to eight o'clock, the delegates from Texas and Washington contest cases still remained to be dealt with and there was likelihood of more bitterness between the opposing forces.

Mrs. T. R. Thore. Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the colonel, watched today's proceedings from the galleries for several hours. She was seen to move to lay the motion on the table. The chairman ruled it out of order.

BAPTISTS MEET AT HAMPTON

Annual District Session of the Churches of St. John and Kings Counties—Annual Sermon Preached.

Special to The Standard. Hampton, June 21.—The annual district meeting of the United Baptist Churches of St. John and Kings Counties opened this morning in the Hampton Village Baptist church.

This afternoon the annual sermon was preached by Rev. F. H. Wentworth, the chairman of last year. During the morning on the report of a nominating committee, the following officers were elected for next year: Chairman, Rev. I. B. Colwell; vice chairman, Rev. M. F. McCutcheon; secretary, A. H. Patterson; treasurer, C. W. Weyman.

This evening the women's mission meeting is in public session. The evening session was largely devoted to educational work along the lines of missionary effort. The speakers were the Rev. F. S. Porter, Rev. W. Campbell and Professor Perry, of Acadia College, and much enthusiasm was developed by the clear presentation of the themes discussed.

Unanimous consent was given and Mr. McCormick took the platform. His report was one of dissent by the minority members of the credentials committee to the majority statement of law and facts in the ninth Alabama case.

Chicago, June 21.—The Idaho delegate advised Col. Roosevelt today that it would not follow his suggestion of remaining silent in the convention and refrain from voting.

A. R. Cruisen, chairman of the delegation, declared such action would be practically bolting. "We are not bolters," said Cruisen, "but republicans, and for us not to answer to our names when the roll is called would be simply bolting."

CANDIDATES OWE MUCH TO SUPPORTERS

Friends of Government in Restigouche Did Much to Swell Majorities.

Special to The Standard. Bathurst, June 21.—The glorious and magnificent victory achieved in the County of Restigouche, including the decisive defeat of C. H. LaBilliois, is admitted on all sides to have been largely due to the highly efficient organization effected by Richard O'Leary of Richibucto, and the campaign canvassing and public addresses of William S. Montgomery, mayor of Dalhousie, and others.

Peeling firmly convinced that Kent county was safe, Mr. O'Leary lost no time in introducing into the Restigouche campaign those successful business methods for which he is widely and justly noted. Through his persistent efforts opposition strongholds were taken by storm and converted into large government majorities.

Mr. Montgomery, as the prospective Conservative member for Restigouche in the Dominion Parliament, vigorously canvassed the constituency throughout its length and breadth. On the platform he proved to be a most effective speaker and, assisted by an able colleague, acquainted many electors with the facts of the unsuccessful administration of public works by Mr. LaBilliois during his term of office.

PRIEST RISKS LIFE FOR DYING WOMAN

He Climbs Pillar and Braves the Third Rail to Aid Victim Underneath an "L" Car in New York.

New York, N. Y., June 21.—Throwing her hands above her head as if about to dive, a woman in black, who was later identified as Miss Anna Orwig, 52 years old, a servant, living at No. 123 Lenox road, Flatbush, stepped quickly to the edge of the elevated railroad platform at Franklin avenue, Brooklyn yesterday morning.

Hearing the shrieks and cries of persons on the platform, those in the street below also were thrown in a panic. The Rev. William A. Cleary of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, at Willoughby and Kent avenues, Brooklyn, was one of the first to see the bundle of black clothes beneath the elevated train.

In an effort to administer the last rites of the church to the woman Father Cleary climbed an iron pillar and, disregarding the third rail, crawled beneath the train. He stayed there until a fire truck, summoned by the police and the firemen, removed the unconscious woman. She was taken to the Cumberland Street Hospital, where she died a few hours later.

The body was identified by George Kirkegaard, a brother-in-law of Miss Orwig. He said she was to leave today on board the Oscar II, for Norway, where she intended to make her home. Mr. Kirkegaard said she had probably been seized with dizziness and fallen in front of the train.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912.

NOT YET EXPLAINED.

There was a meeting of the Temperance Federation on Thursday evening and a resolution was passed expressing confidence in Mr. Kerstead. The report of this meeting as published in the Times does not mention that the question of obtaining the views of the Government candidates in Kings County was discussed. It is evident that the Temperance Federation failed to realize the position in which they stand before the people of this Province by ignoring this matter.

It has been proved to a satisfactory conclusion that the Opposition candidates in Kings County received a request from this body to define their position on the temperance question at least three days before a similar statement was received by the Government candidates. In the meantime meetings were held for the purpose of misrepresenting the attitude of Messrs. Murray, Jones and Dickson on temperance. These meetings were held on Sunday night, and notwithstanding the day, were quite as much political meetings as any others held during the campaign. Their evident intention was to influence the electors of Kings County against the Government candidates.

It has been openly charged that the action of the Temperance Federation was brought about by the organizer of the Opposition campaign in Kings with the hope of defeating the Government candidates. No explanation whatever has been made of this episode by anyone connected with the Temperance Federation, although such an explanation has been publicly invited. To clear itself from the charge of partisanship it is necessary for the Temperance Federation to explain everything connected with this somewhat questionable business and the sooner the explanation is forthcoming the better it will be for the gentlemen who have been prominent in its councils.

The temperance cause is far too important a one to get mixed up in party politics. It has been a moral rather than a political issue in this Province so far, and there are many prominent temperance men who feel that such episodes as occurred in Kings County are not good for the promotion of genuine temperance but rather operate against it.

THE CARLETON COUNTY ELECTION.

Greater interest centered in the Carleton election than in almost any other in the Province, largely due to the fact that Premier Fleming headed the ticket in that county and that his chief opponent was Mr. F. B. Carvell, the Federal representative. The Opposition candidates themselves were rather inconspicuous figures, Mr. Carvell apparently undertaking the direction of the entire campaign. It was through him that the principal representations of the policy of the Provincial Government regarding the Valley Railway were made.

For three years Mr. Carvell has been the forefront of the opposition to the Government policy upon this important question, and with Mr. Pugsley shares the responsibility for all the delays that have taken place in connection with the enterprise. It was he who entered the York County campaign of a little over a year ago and held meetings all over the county with the object of defeating Dr. Moorehouse. The severe rebuke he received by the election of Dr. Moorehouse was lost upon Mr. Carvell who continued his malicious attacks on the Provincial Administration and on Mr. Fleming, personally, during the late campaign.

There are various rumors why Mr. Carvell desired to prevent the Fleming Government from constructing the Valley Railway, none of them creditable to Mr. Carvell. This is not to be wondered at as his opposition to the enterprise was carried to such length that almost any rumor would be justified. If the majority that Dr. Moorehouse obtained in York and the smallness of his own majority, if he had any at all, in September last, failed to convince Mr. Carvell that the electors of Carleton had lost faith in him, the defeat of the Opposition candidates last Thursday should furnish convincing evidence to Mr. Carvell that he has lost whatever grip he had on the electors of his native county.

The character of the campaign which Mr. Carvell and his satellites waged in Carleton County was even more disgraceful than that put up by the opposition press in St. John. It was characterized not only by misrepresentation and falsehood but by a vindictiveness hitherto unknown in any constituency in this Province. One of the most contemptible episodes was the publication in an obscure newspaper, printed in Hartland, of a grossly untruthful article reflecting on Premier Fleming personally. The attack on the Premier was couched in language that no respectable newspaper would permit to appear in its columns. Yet it appeared duly credited in the Carleton Sentinel, which is generally supposed to be under the direct control of Mr. Carvell. This kind of campaigning is new to New Brunswick and its failure to find a responsive cord among the electors will in all probability prevent the recurrence of such disgraceful episodes in the future.

After the bitter and unworthy campaign that was waged against him and his colleagues, Premier Fleming has demonstrated his own strength and the weakness of his opponents in the magnificent majority cast for them last Thursday. The result shows that the efforts of the Premier to give honest and progressive government are appreciated in the constituency he has served so well in the Legislature of the Province. It shows also that the electors of Carleton are satisfied with his efforts to secure for them much needed railway transportation. It also shows that Mr. Carvell has ceased to be a political factor in Carleton County and will lose his position as a representative whenever the people have an opportunity of getting at him. It is certainly time for a change in the Dominion representative of this constituency.

THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE.

"Professed temperance men," says the Times, in commenting on the result of the St. John election, "united with the men representing the liquor interests yesterday to convince the Province at large that whatever else St. John may want it does not want prohibition." This is precisely one of the small-minded, mean and contemptible remarks which characterized the campaign carried on by the Times and which contributed in no small degree to its own utter defeat and the defeat of the small section of the temperance vote it professed to stand for.

employ and embraces every man in this city who believes in temperance. In accusing the great majority of the electorate of uniting with the liquor interests the Times once more demonstrates that as an organ of public opinion it is a lamentable failure. Professed temperance men of both political parties either voted against or ignored Mr. Kerstead, the nominee of a section of the Temperance Federation, because they felt as ratepayers of this city that they were entirely competent under the existing law to manage their own temperance affairs. If a section of this community desires prohibition it has only to vote in accordance with its desires and the saloons in that section are abolished. The policy adopted by the Times and its intemperate friends of making unreasonable demands on the Government in the matter of appointments, and when these demands were refused attempting to use the cause of temperance as a political club to attain their end, has met with its just deserts.

Temperance, as believed in by professed temperance men, has received no set back as the result of the election. The electors have demonstrated that they prefer furthering the cause to proceeding along sane and reasonable lines. The temperance party, notwithstanding the opinion of Mr. Kerstead and the Times, have not been defeated in this city. A small body of extremists have been taught that they cannot dictate to the majority. Professed temperance men by their votes in the election merely emphasized this lesson to the discomfiture of Mr. Kerstead and those who unwisely supported him.

MR. PUGSLEY'S PROPHETIC VISIONS.

As is now well known, Mr. Pugsley, at election times, is possessed of the spirit of prophecy. The forecasts of this spirit, it must be said, have not been such that many people would care to bank on them, but on more than one occasion they have added a pleasing touch of romance to an otherwise matter of fact campaign. In the stirring days of 1908, it will be recalled, Mr. Pugsley was moved to foretell wonderful developments in Courtenay Bay—almost in the immediate future. In the general election of 1911, three years later, these developments had advanced to the stereopticon stage and once more did duty in Mr. Pugsley's interest.

In this same campaign, there being nothing else in sight at the moment worthy of his powers of divination, Mr. Pugsley ventured a prophecy on the extent of his own individual majority in St. John in the coming election. It was to be somewhere in the thousands, a thousand or fifteen hundred, anyway. When the result appeared in cold type his majority stood at sixty-five. This should have been taken as a clear sign that Mr. Pugsley's familiar spirit was deceiving him.

But Mr. Pugsley was undismayed. All prophets are built that way. Early this week while in Montreal he again lifted the veil, this time for the benefit of the readers of the Herald, and saw in ecstatic vision the defeat of the Fleming Government in New Brunswick and the triumphant return of the Liberals to power. List and give ear to the words of the soothsayer:

"If I were a betting man—which, mind you, I am not," said the Hon. Dr. Pugsley, when seen at the Windsor Hotel this morning. "I would bet that the Liberals will win in New Brunswick on Thursday."

"I have just come from the Maritime Provinces, and if I judge the temper of the people in New Brunswick, they are disgusted with the record of the Fleming Government. All over the country the trend of popular opinion is reverting to Liberalism again. True, the Conservatives in New Brunswick have, at present, a majority of sixteen, but in spite of that they will be beaten."

Asked to prophesy by what majority the Liberals might expect to be returned, Dr. Pugsley answered: "I couldn't say what the majority will be, but it may be a surprise to even those who are optimistic about the result."

Mr. Pugsley and his optimistic friends were not disappointed about acting their surprise. Forty supporters of the Fleming Government and two independent Conservatives will make a fair working majority. The trend of popular opinion to Liberalism is represented by two lonely Liberals in Madawaska and the adherence of one of these gentlemen to the cause Mr. Pugsley supports is reported doubtful. The familiar spirit Mr. Pugsley has been employing in these prophetic seances in recent years gives evidence of being a lying jade.

Echoes of the great victory are reaching The Standard from all sections of the Province. "It was a great fight in the cause of good government. 'Make it a clean sweep,' was the battle cry, and the last of the old gang has bitten the dust. By returning the Government to power practically without an Opposition, the electors have passed a vote of confidence in Mr. Fleming and his colleagues which naturally adds to their responsibilities. Their record for honest and progressive government during the last four years gives assurance that the confidence of the people is not misplaced."

One of the gentlemen who took a prominent part in the Madawaska campaign against the Government was Hon. John Costigan who, although a Senator of New Brunswick, is a resident of the city of Ottawa. He maintains a nominal residence at Edmundston, but in recent years has only visited the county at election times or to enjoy a fishing trip. New Brunswick has two representatives in the Senate who can scarcely be termed residents of the Province, the Hon. Messrs. Costigan and Gilmore.

In summing up the result of the election in its report of the returns the Telegraph appears to have been so upset that it could not remember the number of seats held by the Liberals in the last Legislature. "The best the Opposition can hope for," it remarks, "is eight seats as compared with twelve when the House was dissolved." When the House was dissolved the voting strength of the Opposition was fourteen seats.

(Toronto News.)

A moderate tariff such as that maintained in Canada is the most effective form of insurance against unemployment yet devised. Especially is it serviceable in periods of international trade depression. At such times our customs system shelters our workers against an avalanche of surplus products from foreign factories. In this way the Canadian manufacturer and workman are assured of the domestic market when they most need it. This enables them to keep down the production cost per unit, and if industries abuse their privileges under the tariff they can be disciplined.

CURRENT COMMENT ON GENERAL ELECTION

FLEMING GOVERNMENT SWEEPS THE PROVINCE. (Haltax Herald.)
In the general elections in New Brunswick yesterday, Premier Fleming and his Conservative friends made an almost complete sweep of the province.

Of the 44 seats for which elections were held yesterday, it appears only two were carried by the Liberal opposition. In St. John city, where Hon. William Pugsley managed somehow to get elected to the House of Commons last September, the Conservatives have carried the whole four seats and it is also reported that three of the Liberal candidates were so badly beaten as to lose their deposits. The County of St. John has done almost equally well. The City of St. John and also the county, have thus provided for the Hon. William Pugsley a very interesting piece of political information which will make that versatile person think many things.

In Carleton also, another distinguished Laurier member of the House of Commons, Mr. F. B. Carvell, made himself exceedingly active during the recent campaign, and he, too, has met with crushing defeat. The result of these two counties alone will be enough to give Sir Wilfrid Laurier some new ideas about the strength of the Conservative party in the Maritime Provinces. The cheating of the Liberal organs during the campaign, makes a ludicrous contrast with the election results. These fearfully and wonderfully made sheets assured their readers that, not only would the Liberal opposition be greatly strengthened in the Liberal party, but they were going to win more than half of the seats and defeat the government, and not only that, but the Liberals were going to have a large majority in the new House, and Premier Fleming, if not even himself personally defeated, would be left with but a corporal's guard.

To this irresponsible and vicious conduct of the Liberal organs there was, however, one notable exception or contrast, namely, the St. John Globe. The Globe in the very beginning of the campaign, frankly declared that the Fleming Government was a good government, that it should be sustained, and that in all probability it would be. The Globe has nothing to take back or explain. It said what it knew and felt to be true. The other Liberal papers all pursued a directly opposite course, and unless they are utterly without regard for their own reputations or the opinions of their readers, they will have quite a task to explain "how it happened."

To more the details of the reported results of the elections are looked in to, the more complete is the government victory. Sir Robert Borden has the defeat of the Liberal opposition. The Opposition had ten members in the last House. Not one of them is returned to the new House. Mr. Copp, the leader of the opposition, Hon. Mr. LaBrosse and others, regarded as strong men, have all been swept down to defeat. The only Liberals elected are two new men from Madawaska. The so-called "independent" elected in Northumberland, are strong Conservatives.

The Liberal defeat is certainly most complete. Lord Massey, the presiding judge, and Sir Robert Findlay, associated themselves in the congratulations to Captain Rostrom who was loudly cheered.

THE TITANIC COURT EXPRESSES THANKS TO CAPTAIN ROSTROM
London, June 21.—Capt. Arthur H. Rostrom of the Carpathia received the united thanks of the British government and the court at today's sitting of the Board of Trade inquiry into the Titanic disaster. Sir Rufus Isaacs, the Attorney General, said he decided to take the earliest opportunity the government had been able to get of expressing to Capt. Rostrom "on behalf of His Majesty's government how deeply grateful we are to you for your conduct and for the large number of lives you were instrumental in saving."

A splendid programme of attractions for the Old Home Week has been arranged by the 1917 club of the Board of Trade, and the prospects look bright for the return of a great number of New Brunswickers, as well as an influx of tourists from all over Eastern Canada and New England. Arrangements have been made to have the famous Cambridge Band come here for the week, and it is expected the Frederickton band will be in the city for a few days. All the city bands have been given engagements in connection with the events of the week.

WOODSTOCK DEFEATED MARATHONS

The Woodstock team pounded in no less than 15 runs in a game against the Marathons on the latter's grounds yesterday afternoon, while on the other hand the Greeks could only find Delano, the Woodstock twirler, for seven hits, three of these being made by Fryer and the home team could tally but four runs. The visitors went after Tarbell from the first, and in one and three-quarter innings, made five runs with a total of eleven bases. Joe was then taken out and Woods put in the box. He lasted three innings and was found for eight hits with a total of eight bases. Winters was placed in the box the last of the fifth inning and finished the game, and he kept the visitors down to only two hits, which they made off him in the last inning. Despite all this heavy slugging and a large score, it was a good game of baseball, and the fans must remember that there are games played with heavy hitting and large score in the bigger leagues, as in the New York and Boston game in the National League played at Boston on Thursday afternoon last, when New York won by a score of 21 to 12, the winners having 19 hits, and the losers 15 safe ones.

Yesterday's game, however, was a great surprise, for the local fans who never expected that Tarbell or Woods would be pounded so hard. The Woodstock team opened the game, Black striking out. Then Corcoran followed with a three-base hit. Le-Perley followed with a single. Duff made a single. Belleveau struck out. Tyler planted a two-bagger to right field and the visitors scored four runs. Cooney struck out and retired the side. In the second inning the visitors kept up the slugging, and after making a single and a double off Tarbell, Woods was placed in the box. He filled the bases and then gave Duff a base on balls and forced in a run. Perley followed with a single which was responsible for two more runs. In the fourth inning an error by Woods, a passed ball and four singles off Wood presented the Woodstock players with four more runs.

In the fifth inning with two out, Black was hit by a pitched ball, and three singles gave the visitors two more runs, bringing their total up to 12. George Winters then left center field for the box and Woods was benefited. The first man to face Winters was struck out, and from this to the finish of the game, Woodstock did not make any runs, and only found Winters for two singles, these being made in the last inning.

The Marathons made two runs in the third inning, a base on balls, an error, a passed ball and a single being responsible. In the sixth inning a two-base hit by Fryer and another by Connolly, gave the Greeks another run. In the last inning a single, a stolen base, and a second single gave the home team their fourth and last run. The Marathons played a good fielding game throughout, but the heavy hitting of the Woodstock team was responsible for their success.

The Greeks will play them again this afternoon, when the Greeks with Sweet in the box, expect to turn the tables and win out. The following is the official score and summary of the game:

GREEKS AND WOODSTOCK PLAY TODAY

Baseball fans are looking forward with interest to today's game between Woodstock and the Marathons. The Colts from the Carleton county town put it over on the Greeks yesterday by heavy and timely hitting. With Al Sweet in the box there should be a different story to tell today. Despite the difference in the score yesterday's game was an interesting contest of clean baseball. Today's should be better, as it is doubtful if the visitors can locate Sweet's benders.

There will be another change in the Marathon lineup today. Dutton, the new first baseman from Saranac Lake, New York, arrived at noon yesterday and will hold down the first corner. Dutton succeeds Ganzel who has been recalled to the New York State League, much to the regret of the local management. While on the local team Ganzel played good ball and also made many friends. However, the New York State league has ever, the New York State league has a string on him, and when the order to report came to him he could not do so. As a matter of fact, he should have been in New York several days ago, but obligingly obtained permission to remain here until his successor arrived. Ganzel left last night for New York.

Today's game will start at 3 o'clock sharp and should prove a very fast contest.

JACK JOHNSON AND HIS WIFE ARE INDICTED

Chicago, June 21.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist and wife, Emma Johnson, were indicted by the Federal grand jury today for smuggling a diamond necklace bought abroad. Several unsuccessful attempts were made by the pugilist to settle the case by the payment of part of the duty and penalty. The necklace is valued at $2,000 and with the penalty the amount due the government reaches $6,000. The federal authorities announced that the indictment would not interfere with the Johnson-Plym fight, July 4.

The heavyweight pugilist will be allowed to give bonds at Las Vegas and after the fourth will be required to return to Chicago to plead to the indictment. The government will demand a bond of $5,000.

Black, Cooney, Stolen bases, Riley, Nelson, Duff, Passed balls, Tyler, McGovern. First base on errors, Mars Ervin, 3; Woodstock, 1. Hit by pitcher, Black, Umpire, O'Brien. Scorer, Harry Ervin. Time of game, one hour. 50 MINUTES. Attendance, 100.

SOCIALS DEFEAT STANDARDS

Halifax, June 21.—The Socials base ball team and the Standards played two baseball games today, the Socials winning both. The Garrison cricket eleven defeated the Wanderers.

WAS A GREAT SUFFERER FOR FIVE YEARS FROM DYSPEPSIA.

Dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent troubles of civilized life, and thousands of people suffer untold agony after every meal for nearly everything that enters a weak dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant.

The long train of distressing symptoms, which render life a burden to the victim of dyspepsia, may be promptly cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Mrs. Wm. J. Doyne, Lepreau, N.B., writes: "I thought I would write and tell you of the good Burdock Blood Bitters has done me and also tell you how thankful I am."

"For five years I had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and tried different doctors and proprietary medicines, but could get no relief. One day a friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have much faith in it, but I thought I would give it a trial. To-day I am completely cured, and I will always recommend it."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for about thirty-five years and is manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HARVARD DEFEATED YALE CREWS

New London, Conn., June 21.—For the fifth successive year Harvard demonstrated her rowing supremacy over Yale today by winning not only the varsity race with six lengths to spare but capturing the freshmen contest by ten lengths. A Yale victory in the freshmen substitute four-oared race yesterday afternoon, a contest that has not heretofore appeared on the programme, prevented a complete crimson sweep of the river for 1912. There was so much in Harvard's cup, however, with six out of seven victories in the races this year, that the crimson host returned to Cambridge victorious. There was never a doubt of the varsity race this afternoon, and there was 20½ seconds in time between the boats at the finish. The official time of the three races, four miles, Harvard, 21:43½; Yale, 22:04. Freshman race, two miles, Harvard 10:22, Yale 10:54½.

University fours, two miles, Harvard 11:24, Yale 11:55. There were many interesting incidents coming from Harvard's victories today. It brought the long series of aquatic contests with Yale to a tie for the first time since 1902, as both universities have now won 23 contests with the cars. Five successive Harvard victories over Yale have not been achieved by the crimson since 1870. Except perhaps, for the first few days after the start, that Harvard was not master of the situation. The freshman crew led after the first hundred yards, the four practically from the start, and the varsity from the first ten yards. The freshmen race was the best contest of the three, but there were times in the varsity race when it seemed as if Yale was overhauling the flying crimson shell and that hull dog tench encouraged by the cheers from two observation trains would bring the race to something better than the previous ones which have marked the great contest between the two universities during the past few years. But there was always a corresponding rebound by the crimson oarsmen and the half-length advantage at the half mile was steadily increased with the passing of each distance flag.

Psychology to Keep Round Pegs From Trying to Fill Square Holes

(By Hugo Muensterberg.) The waste of human material in the world today is appalling. Thousands go into vocations for which they are in no sense fitted by nature or education. It is going to be a problem for us to analyze the requirements of different vocations, from that of the lawyer, doctor and architect to the laborer in the factory of the motorman in the electric car. Our psychological laboratories to day are fitted for problems of education, but not yet, very largely, for problems of industry. Imagination and attention, most every company agrees, are necessary powers of a motorman, for instance.

But there are many kinds of attention, and in order to have a test of any value we must be able to specify it definitely.

Some individuals have what is called the attention of concentration. They can watch one thing well. Others have the attention of expansion, in which they can put their minds at the same time on many things.

It would be unwise to rush the interests of industry by taking up the tests already developed for education and medicine. The tests for industry are so different that we must take up that field by itself.

For the motorman, tests as to the rapidity of action, as to certain kinds of attention, memory, imagination, intelligence and ability to judge a complex situation will stand out prominently. These facts may be carried on with simple technical means.

The expert psychologist should add to this a similar study of the mind during which a man may be safely under mental stress. Fatigue is by no means the only factor entering into the rhythmic occurrence of accident. For example, in a Bessemer steel mill it was found that the peak of activity very nearly coincided with the peak of accident.

This suggests forcibly that the speed of action is the primary factor in the number of accidents. When activities slacken, accidents decrease.

The problem of the motorman is peculiar. With other workers the push period is more or less under their own control, but the motorman must decide often on the instant a course of action upon which hangs life and death.

This being true he must necessarily, if he is to be a safe operator, be subjected to careful preliminary tests. Other callings have their own problems and psychology will help solve them.

FINDS WOMEN CONSTANTLY FLIRTING WITH ATHLETES

Writer Declares that Worship of Baseball Players, Aviators, Bicycle Riders and Pugilists Seems to be One of the Weaknesses of the Gentle Sex.

Denver, Col., June 20.—A woman writer for the Denver Republican says that nobody has ever been able to solve the psychology of the curious fascination the professional athletes has for women. It is well to say it collectively, for the thing is almost a sex characteristic. Hero worship is as old as the race of man, but women have it in the form of mania.

Sometimes it takes the more virulent form, and when the girl or her parents are not wise enough to prevent it, there is a marriage and they live more or less unhappily ever afterward. This isn't saying that professional athletes make bad husbands; quite the contrary, but when the young girl marries her athletic hero she usually gets a stilted period when they are desperate over a youth who performs in the spanes of his athletic heroism.

Though the man is usually the victim of this mania, it outcrops in older women sometimes, and they make rather a poor object of themselves. But generally it takes the form of fascinated trailing after the athletic camp, as long as it is gilded with the glamour of the adoring young things and when the object of this strange love is gone the patient recovers.

Every kind of athlete has his peculiar following of feminine admirers. From the pugilist, regarded as the lowest form of mentality in professional athletics, to the aviators, perhaps the highest in every sense of the word—there is the love-lorn maiden prominently in the foreground of the adored.

Everybody knows how baseball players are worshipped by femininity at large. When the Grizzlies—the Denver base ball players—come home there is a perceptible wearing away in the sidewalk in front of their hotel, caused by the tapping of passing high heels, while the telephone operator is overworked taking messages for various men on the team. They are adored for what they do, and the adoration is not without its results.

If the love-lorn girls could see these same young men struggling along in the usual walks of life during the winter months, working without glamour in overalls, the glory would be dissipated.

Nothing less attractive could be imagined than young "Eddie" Hasha and "Silers" Boyd, two prominent motorcycle racers of Denver, when they climb stiffly their thrumming machines at Tuller's Park. They are grimed and dusty, tired and cross.

The intense strain of their profession shows in their over-mature faces, and "Eddie" Hasha is a black little Texan, whose wide, boyish smile is shy a few important incisors. Boyd is turned to leather by his profession, and neither of them suffers brain lag from over education, yet they are trailed lovingly by a troupe of white dressed, hair-bowled maidens when they appear on the track.

Last week when the Case company had its camp of professional automobile racers out at Overland Park several young women passed entire days sitting in the racing cars, absorbing black oil and admiring the young men who worked over the machines. Louis Diabrow is not one's ideal of a handsome man. He is diminutive as to stature and his bronze hair is lined with the tremendous strain under which he works. But he has nice hair trained by wind into a college pompadour, and a mustache adorns his upper lip. Bright eyes light up his face and he has the added advantage of education. Diabrow is the son of a wealthy New York man, and is a college graduate. He makes a salary of $500 a week, it is said, so an affair with him could be pardoned, as he is an advantageous matrimonial risk. Yet his principal adoring maiden was a pretty little girl, a young man who drove her car out to the track every day, and when the races were over hauled the driver back to his hotel. She is not a mechanic, a mechanic. A driver who could interest her.

Whenever aviators go they are pursued by letters from the girls they last visited. The hangers erected for an adoring girl of two watching their favorite preparing for a flight. Being placed upon a higher social plane by reason of a more liberal education, these men are really worshipped by more gently bred women, but whether they come in their own electric or upon the more humble street car, come they do to flutter like moths about the candle of his achievement.

Pugilists seldom attract as do the men of other professional classes. Theirs is necessarily a repulsive trade to gentle women and only the more hardy would wish to worship a pugilist. No less light than "Battling" Nelson once said that it was surprising how "the swell dames do run after us fighters."

And so it goes through all the lines of professionals. The constant adoration they are subjected to makes most of them calloused to feminine heart flattery, but they all enjoy it, for it is part of what makes the game worth while.

Political orators and other attractions that draw great crowds.

Detectives Trailing Them.

But while New York may be the summer Mecca for these criminals, it will not be their Golconda. Thieves are to have a short rope here. The New York police department has several detectives already in Chicago. They have reputations for knowing the migratory criminals who travel with the crowds. They are there to assist the Chicago detectives. When they see a person with a criminal record or who has been arrested before under strong suspicion, they point him out to the Chicago police and he is locked up until the convention is ended.

With these persons there is usually no charge. They are simply held "under suspicion" until the crowds leave, and then they are turned out. They hurry to the next place, where there is to be a crowd.

That will be Baltimore, the New York detectives who have been to Chicago will follow them there and will be joined by more men from the central office, because the work of the criminals is to become stricter as they get nearer to the Mecca.

The same process will be followed in Baltimore. To lock a man in a cell for four or five days it will not be necessary to prove a crime against him. On such an occasion the courts act in the police, and they are sure that it will do the prisoner no great harm and will save the visitors to the city much loss to keep him in a cell until the visitors have gone.

Commissioner Waldo has arranged an exchange of detectives with Chicago and Baltimore, in order to render the services of the New York detectives at Chicago and Baltimore, those cities will send their best detectives to New York to remain here most of the summer. The idea of this is that the Chicago and Baltimore police will know many of the criminals who are not known to the New York men, and they will cause their arrest here, as the New York detectives caused the arrest of criminals they knew in Chicago and Baltimore.

To Be Sent to Jail.

But the court procedure here is to be different than in those cities. Mr. Waldo has determined to discourage the activities of criminals as quickly as possible, and to that end he has held several conferences with police magistrates. Instead of being held for a few days and then discharged, known criminals against whom there is no particular charge of their will be arraigned on charges of vagrancy. They are not to be permitted to leave town, but will be committed to the workhouse for from thirty to sixty days.

There is one great drawback to this proposal, however, and a drawback which the commissioner fully appreciates. This is a presidential election on this year, and the political leaders will be in the market for protection on charges of vagrancy. Criminals who have been able to deliver votes in the past have enjoyed a certain degree of immunity from prosecution for their depredations. Mr. Waldo is determined to overcome this handicap this summer.

Special attention also is to be given to women of the underworld. This summer indications are that they are coming from all sections, and the police department has under way a scheme to discourage them. The chances are, therefore, that the laundry force on Blackwell's Island will be greatly increased this summer by women from the various cities of the country.

JINGLING JOHNSON LETS OUT A FEW LINES ON SPRING AND LEMONS

SPRING FLOWERS ARE HERE, SO LET US SEEK THE VIOLETS AND ROSES. THE COLORS WILL DELIGHT OUR EYES THE SCENT WILL PLEASE OUR NOSES.

THE ONION IS A NOBLE BIRD BUT CANNOT WARBLE SWEETLY. THOUGH WHEN YOU COOK HIM IN A STEW, HE FLAVORS IT COMPLETELY.

THE DAISY REARS ITS PETALS WHITE, UPON A FIELD OF YELLOW 'T WOULD LOOK WELL NEATH A MILKMAID'S CHIN - SO COMFORTING AND MELLOW.

THE DANDELION - LION'S TOOTH - SO TASTY IN A SALAD. OH, WEAR THIS, PRETTY MILKMAID, AND I'LL SING TO THEE A BALLAD.

INGRATITUDE, A POISON WEED - ITS GROWTH IS MOST CONTAGIOUS. IT FOSTERS IN A FEMALE'S MIND, IN MANNER MOST OUTRAGEOUS.

THE LEMON, ALTHOUGH AS A FLOWER IN BOTANY NOT BRANDED, IT IS A MARK OF DISRESPECT, WHEN TO A POET HANDED.

I GUESS WE MIGHT AS WELL GO, THE LANDLORD WILL BE ALONG SOON, FOR THE RENT!

HA! I SEE A MAID WITH A PAIL OF MILK!

GET OUT OF MY WAY, YOU LOON!

A WISE MAN ALWAYS CARRIES A HOSE!

THIEF! WOMEN ARE SO CAPRICIOUS!

TAKE THAT, YOU WRETCH!

HERE COMES THE KEEPERS!

I'M GETTING SO I DON'T LIKE THIS PLACE!

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

AROUND THE CITY

Blames it On Mr. Pugsley. "If Pugsley had kept out of the game the opposition in the city would not have been so hopelessly disrupted," said one of the liberal insurgents yesterday. "At the convention the machine leaders were told that if they were going to select the candidates they could go out and select them. Mr. Pugsley carried his point in the convention, but he was not able to return his candidates. The Pugsley machine is smashed, and there is no use trying to repair it. Mr. Pugsley has got to step out of the ring and give us a chance to re-organize the liberal party, and select leaders in whom the people will have some confidence."

Married in Winnipeg. An event of interest to many in this city took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Holy Trinity church, Winnipeg, when Kenneth Carleton Allen, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. Carleton Allen, Fredericton, was married to Miss Jean Watson Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Andrews, of Winnipeg. The ceremony was performed by Ven. Archbishop Martin. The bride was charmingly gowned in a beautiful imported costume of ivory satin, charmingly bordered above the hem with white marabout and hung with white chiffon, which was delicately embroidered with tiny rhinestones. She was attended by Misses Marjorie and Maude Andrews, and by Miss Ruth MacGachan, the maid of honor. The groom was supported by Marshall Baker. After the ceremony a brilliant reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Crescent Road, Fort Rouge. After the reception, the couple left for St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, where they will pass their honeymoon.

OPENING DATES OF THE PLAYGROUNDS

Centennial and Aberdeen School Grounds to Open Thursday—New One Ready July 9th

At a meeting of the executive of the Playgrounds Association yesterday afternoon, it was decided to open the Centennial and Aberdeen school playgrounds on Tuesday next. Although all the equipment is not in place, this important part of the work is going rapidly forward and the association expects to have both these grounds going at full swing in a very short time. The complete equipment for the model playground which has been ordered in Toronto, will be here in a few days, and the association hopes to have it ready to open by July 9th, the first day of Old Home Week. The executive also appointed Miss Peeters and George E. Day to look over the different grounds in the North End and determine which will be the most suitable for a neighborhood playground.

Employer's Liability Insurance. On account of the increased stress and strain in modern life accidents are becoming daily more numerous. Particularly, therefore, is it important for the manufacturer to protect himself against claims for damages through accidents in his factory. Under the Workmen's Compensation Act in New Brunswick a manufacturer is liable if through negligence of his anybody in his employ be injured. I have the agency for one of the best and strongest English companies and would be glad to quote rates and send circulars. Frank R. Fairweather, 12 Canterbury street, St. John, N. B. SUGAR REFINERY IS POSSIBLE AFTER ALL

Reported That Montreal Financiers Are Actively Interested in Proposed Big Industry for St. John

While little has been heard lately about the sugar refinery proposition, St. John men who have recently visited Montreal, say there is plenty of money behind the Atlantic Sugar Refinery Company now and that there is a good prospect of something being done in the near future, if a suitable site can be found here. Fred Taylor who has been acting as legal representative of the company, has been away on a trip to England, but he is expected home today or tomorrow and it is anticipated that he will have instructions to again take up the matter of securing a site with the city authorities. One St. John man who returned from Montreal the other day stated that he had been told on good authority that Lorne McDillon, one of the Montreal financiers who bought out Mr. Duran's rights in the Atlantic Sugar Refinery Company, had stated to a friend that the company meant business and would put up a refinery at St. John or some other place where they could get a good site. As the industry would be an important one for St. John it is said that the city authorities will be urged by some of the members of the Board of Trade to take up the question of fixing in the water front on either side of the ballast wharf and making room for the McAvity's proposed works as well as for a sugar refinery. Most of the land there is owned by the city and it is not thought there would be any difficulty getting control of the space owned by the government as the Department of Marine which is now building a wharf and marine depot on the west side. It is claimed that it would pay the city to have the whole space inside the railway tracks filled in and made available for industrial sites.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MEMBERS ELECT OF CENTRAL ROAD

Good Wishes for St. John's Solid Six—Particulars of Great Victory in St. John County

The successful candidates in the city and county were receiving the hearty congratulations of their friends yesterday over the great victory scored in the elections on Thursday. No seat in the province was watched with more interest than St. John, and the complete victory here was very gratifying to Premier Fleming, Hon. J. D. Hazen and all the members of the government. Hon. John R. Wilson, C. B. Lockhart, Philip Gramann and I. P. D. Tilley received many congratulatory messages yesterday including a joint one from the premier, which read as follows: "Prouder than ever of old St. John. Your overwhelming victory was a great delight, signed, 'J. K. Flemming.'" J. B. M. Baxter and T. B. Carson received even more messages, than the city members elect for their particularly fine showing in the county of St. John. To capture the county for the first time since 1892 was a notable triumph, and was recognized as such all over New Brunswick. Among the messages received by Mr. Baxter were the following: Hartland, N. B., June 21, J. B. M. Baxter and T. B. Carson, St. John. "The great majority rolled up for honest government in St. John county was a real delight." J. K. FLEMMING, Montreal, June 21. J. B. M. Baxter, St. John. "I heartily congratulate you and Carson on your great victory." HECTOR McINNIS, Halifax, June 21. "Please accept warmest congratulations on your victory." HECTOR McINNIS.

The members elect in the county last evening issued the following statement which is self-explanatory: To the Electors of the County of St. John: We desire to acknowledge the service which you have rendered to the cause of honest and efficient administration of the affairs of this province by your hearty endorsement of the government, and to thank you for your personal confidence in us as expressed by your work and by your votes. JOHN B. M. BAXTER, THOS. B. CARSON, St. John, June 21, 1912.

The corrected total of votes cast in the county for each candidate are: J. B. M. Baxter, 1218; T. B. Carson, 1185; A. F. Bentley, 345; A. Anderson, 316. Mr. Baxter's majority over Bentley was 372, and over Anderson 402. Mr. Carson's majority over Bentley was 340, and over Anderson 369.

The government candidates led in every poll with the exception of Mirford where Bentley led Baxter by 22, and Carson by 24. Anderson was 11 votes behind Bentley at this poll. Mr. Baxter only led his colleague by 33 votes, which shows that the electorate voted the ticket. Mr. Baxter beat Bentley in the latter's home parish by 15 votes, and Mr. Carson (trimmed Bentley by 4. This is the first time in over twenty years that St. Martins gave a majority for this party.

The Parish of Lancaster, which includes Beaconsfield, Fairville, Millford and Lorneville, gave Baxter 567, Carson 564, Bentley 375 and Anderson 375. The three districts in Simonds gave Baxter 921, Carson 323, Bentley 303 and Anderson 200. Miramouth gave Baxter 160, Carson 99, Bentley and Anderson 81 each.

IMPROVEMENT IN SEWERAGE SERVICE

The City Commissioners Held a Conference Yesterday and Authorized Considerable Expenditures for the Sewers

Several matters of importance were dealt with at the regular conference of the city commissioners yesterday, and it was decided to authorize sewerage construction to the extent of $18,000 or so. Commissioner Wigmore submitted plans for a new sewer, extending from Acadia street along Main street down to Paradise Row. This sewer will be about 2000 feet long and will be constructed of brick. The estimated cost is $12,500. It was decided to proceed with the work, and tenders will be called for in a few days. Plans for the construction of a new sewer to serve Clarendon street were also submitted and approved. The estimated cost of this sewer is $3,000. The Portland Rolling Mills asked the commissioners to extend the water mains to the line of their property as they wished to install a fire hydrant to protect the mill. The commissioners approved the application. The company will install the hydrant at its own expense. A report was received from the city engineer giving detailed specifications of the improvements necessary to put the silver Falls pumping station in first class working condition, and Commissioner Wigmore was authorized to proceed with the repair work at once. It was reported that a considerable improvement had been effected in the water pressure by a rearrangement of the valves and stopcocks, and that experiments were being made with a view to secure a better pressure all over the city. Another weak spot has been discovered in the concrete conduit, and a section 100 feet in length will need some repairs. No uneasiness in regard to the water service is felt, however, because with the silver Falls pumping station in working order, it will be possible to maintain a supply on the heights in event of a stoppage necessary to shut off the Loch Lomond water.
