Mr. Benjamin P. Griffith, escaped a horrible death a few days ago in almost a miraculous manner. Fire from the woods had caught in a pile of cordwood, and while attempting to extinguish the flames, a large tree, burnt off at the roots, fell and struck him on the back of the head; he was thrown senseless in among the flames, but recovered so as to crawl a short distance from the fire, when he was seen and rescued by his father. He is iter ibly burned and bruised, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.—(Woodstock Sentinel.
