COMMUNICATION.

To the Reverend JEROME ALLEY, D. D.,
Rector of St. Andrews.

REVEREND SIR,

Having read your Address to the St. Andrews Local Committee of the Church-Society of New Brunswick, I was not a little astonished at some of the statements it contains—I say some of the statements, because there are others I consider as important, if directed to their proper end, and by which I hope to profit. The most objectional parts which have excited my surprise, I will, with a mind open to conviction, bring forward in order, and thus afford you an opportunity of defending what you conceive to be the truth.

The first thing that struck my attention in the address, is your application of the terms "holy Catholic (or Universal) Apostolic Church." Now if I have understood you aright as applying these terms to the visible Church, it is, in my humble opinion, dangerous and wrong; and there is calculated to produce pain rather than conviction in the minds of your unprejudiced readers. I have not long since read a work written by a Member of the Church of Rome, entitled "The share way to find the true religion." This was pointed out by referring to what was given as the first marks of the true Church, and which, if I mistake not, he brought forward in the following order—"UNITY, HOLINESS, CATHOLICITY, and APOSTOLICITY." These marks were applied by that author to the Church of Rome as a visible Church, of course that this is the only true Church of Christ on earth, which, by the by, I do not here intend to contradict; but simply to state, that what is there advanced, under the head Apostolicity against the claims of your Church for Apostolic Succession, is not easily invalidated. It is there asserted that your ordinations originated with one Peter Barrow, who, though not Episcopally ordained, ordained Arch-Bishop PARKER, and thus, by them through whom you trace your Succession, you are all unchurched, and put on a common level with all other dissenters. Now whether your views, as to the application of the terms under consideration, coincide with those of this holy Father, it is for you to say.

I perfectly agree with the following as found in the third paragraph of your address that "the members of your Church are called upon at the present time to participate with others those blessings which they enjoy," but how to reconcile this candid acknowledgment with that you have there included within parenthesis—"who with themselves, but with less spiritual advantages are travelling through time to eternity"—I know not. If these then have less advantages, I cannot see how they can enjoy more, than the highly favored of whom you speak, unless it should be by a right improvement of the scanty means which they possess, and which, as it does appear, to their profit, the Almighty has sanctified and blessed. Whatever the blessings may be to which reference is here made, must either come under the head temporal, or spiritual; but which, I leave you to decide.—With you I agree that there are many at the present time who, while they assume the form of godliness, are in place of being zealously affected in a good cause, industrious in misrepresenting, and vilifying, not only your Church, which, if true, is very wrong; but also that which alone can constitute any of our race members of the holy Catholic Church, viz. the inward kingdom which "is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and joy in the Holy Ghost." You speak of "their proselyting spirit"—a spirit I perfectly detest, and therefore, with you I fitly put my voice against it. For any to spend their time in place of seeking the salvation of souls, in attempts to draw individuals to their communion, or even to have them die in their faith, though it should be by a successful endeavour to administer the sacrament (with some the cure all) to them on the bed of death, spend, for naught, their wretched strength. "A word is enough for the wine, as poor Richard says." Again, with you I can join in earnest prayer "that God would send his Holy Ghost and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity," or love, "the very bond of peace, and all virtues, without which, whosoever liveth" (it being the privilege of all men to feel "the love of God shed abroad in the heart by the Holy Ghost given unto them") "is counted dead before him"—and that God would be pleased, "to create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of him perfect remission and forgiveness."

"The Church," you say, "detests any semblance of Pharisaical pride—no matter on what pretence such pride may rest." To an abhorrence of that which is so much condemned in the word of God, I have nothing to plead, provided, in manifesting that abhorrence, we do not "put darkness for light, and light for darkness," or harkness for pride, and sin for humility, or plead that a little sin is necessary to keep the soul humble. All, therefore, who detest Pharisaical pride should pray for that holiness which produces true humility. "Blessed," said Christ, "are they which hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled." Did such in this respect aspire after that which would tend to puff them up with pride—would Christ pronounce them blessed? You will doubtless exclaim—impossible! By the phrase "real Son of the Church" I suppose you mean a true Christian and permit me to say, by the term true Christian I mean one that is not only moral and that attends to the authorized forms of your Church; but one that has actually experienced an answer to the prayer with which your third paragraph concludes. Such while they attend "to the state of their own hearts, will not farther than actions proclaim, judge of the spiritual state of others." But how do they judge of the quality of actions? I take it for granted, that you will say, by the word of God, the only, and sufficient rule of faith and practice. In this we perfectly agree; and indeed we cannot well avoid it, as we cannot know anything, as we ought to know, of the quality of human actions without that which brings conscience to its highest state of perfection. In referring to this criterion there are two passages that bear upon the subject. The first is to be applied by the "real son of the Church" to himself.—"If any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his." The second relates to judging of others.—"By their fruits ye shall know them." Will not this, if "from the fulness of the heart the mouth speaketh," apply to their words as well as actions? Suppose then that a member of any communion were to speak against the knowledge of salvation, were he ever so moral, or apparently religious, is it not as clear as if written in a sun-beam, that such "have not the knowledge of God?" On the other hand, if his life is not in accordance with the precepts of the Gospel of Christ, (and it certainly is not if he attends the card-table, dance &c. &c.) whatever his profession may be, he is, in this respect "a lying epistle that is read of all men." With you I agree that, "on modest terms points" the true Christian "is modest in judgement." With him the doctrine of the Trinity—the union of the Divine and human natures in Christ, together with many Providential dispensations, are truly mysterious; but the doctrine of justification by faith—Adoption—the Spirit's witness &c., with him, as to the experimental knowledge of the heart, are not so.—"The eyes of his understanding being enlightened" he can rationally and scripturally say "the darkness is past and the true light now shineth." With you, therefore, I will grant that there are some who know not the truth experimentally, and indeed this I cannot avoid, even had I a disposition to do so, as the Apostle has, in other words, expressed the same sentiment.—"The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." And though he will not presumptuously bring before the bar of human reason the subjects that may be propounded to his faith; yet he is not willing to take any doctrine upon trust, though it should be propounded even by a "Master in Israel," without bringing it to the test of God's word.—He forgets not to make a distinction between what is contrary to, and that which is above reason, while, at the same time, he keeps a steadfast eye upon the directions given by the Philosophical Apostle Paul.—"Prove all things, hold fast what is good." We have already agreed to say that the rule of judgement is the word of God; but how is this rule to be applied? You will, doubtless, Sir, with me, reply—by the use of reason, which, as a great gift, comes from God, and must, therefore, be, by every true Protestant, admitted in matters of faith and religion. Let us hear, what, on this subject, the sixth article of your Church says—"Holy Scripture containeth all things necessary to salvation: so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any, that it should be believed as an article of faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to Salvation." The true son of the Church while he is teachable to receive what is in accordance with "The Book," is not willing to be a mere puppet just to move as he is moved by the ghostly agent they would put in motion, by his leading strings, the general mass.—He would not be so passive as to receive whatever absurdities may be taught by the expounder of the word, even though he should monopolize, within the limits of the Parish in which he resides, the sole right to expound the sacred text.

As a true son of the Church he will not give up the right of private judgement to any man. "The Church detests any semblance of Pharisaical Pride—no matter on what pretence such pride may rest." Should he then find the semblance, or even more than that semblance in the assumptions of the expounder in his claims upon the silly fable of Apostolic Succession, he is bound to "detest it," and though clothed with humility the result of that "anointing which teaches all things," he cannot submit himself to one so ignorant, and so manifestly devoid of that

"charity" which is "the very bond of peace and of all virtues."

"As amongst other means, designedly made use of, to draw members off from the Church of England, she is represented as holding and countenancing opinions in accordance with the Church of Rome, I feel it a duty, briefly to oppose such statements, not that the quarter from which such misrepresentations come, give them any importance, but because the unwary and unstable may be misled by the insinuations of art, or even by the ravings of ignorance and folly." In noticing this part of the address I would say that the person, or persons, included in the apparently fearful charge of so representing what is called the Church of England, have not, as far as I have heard the thing spoken of, given, by such a representation, a mere caricature of her present position, but, I would say, her true character. Having stated that you "feel it your duty briefly to oppose such statements," you next bring forward your reason for so doing.—"Because the unwary and unstable may be misled by the insinuations of art, or even by the ravings of ignorance and folly," and then, by a reference to what our noble Protestant Reformers did (to the most of which I subscribe with heart and hand) you seem to rebut what you call misrepresentations; but how this can be brought forward to prove the falsity of what I have frequently read respecting the popery of the Church of England—the Church as she now is—I cannot divine. What, avails all that the Reformers have done, while a majority of her Ministers are zealously propagating doctrines contrary to the fundamental principles of her Articles, Homilies, and Liturgy, as well as to the word of God? I feel, therefore, that it is my duty to maintain that Dr. PUSEY, HOOK, and other abettors of the "Oxford tracts" do, by their publications, countenance and support, to say the least, opinions in perfect accordance with those held by the Church of Rome. DR. McILVAINE, Bishop of Ohio, in speaking of the present state of things in England says, "It is precisely and avowedly the same struggle as that of the Reformation. The object of the one side is to be published to 'unprotestantize' the Church—to get back what the Reformers drove away." Permit me now to say, that the position of the man who would attempt, before the public, to assert the contrary, is not very enviable. In a christian spirit, Sir, I would ask, do not some of your Ministers maintain, in accordance with the Church of Rome, the doctrine of Apostolic Succession?

When what is thus written receives attention, and is answered by your own pen, and with your own signature, you may then expect to hear more on the subject, from
Rev. Sir,
Yours, with candour,
R. DOUGLAS.
St. Andrews, Jan 23, 1844.

AT AN ADJOURNED SITTING,
1st January 1844.

In the matter of Thomas Algar, a Bankrupt.

In this matter the Solicitor for Creditors, Alexander Campbell, Esquire, made two points of objections. First, that the Bankrupt had made an undue preference of creditors.—Secondly, that the Bankrupt did not owe at the time of his declaration of insolvency two hundred pounds as set forth in his Petition to the Master of Rolls. It appeared from the statement of the Bankrupt on oath, that he determined to take the benefit of the Bankrupt law only two or three days before his declaration of insolvency, which took place on the tenth day of August last, that he owed Thomas Turner about eighty pounds, the payment of which, on or about the ninth day of June last, he urged and threatened Bankruptcy with a prosecution unless secured, in consequence of which Bankrupt gave Turner a Bill of Sale by way of Mortgage of a certain proportion, he held of a Vessel called the Lord Seaton; and that the mortgage was dated the ninth day of June as before mentioned, payable in six months from date, the same being part and parcel of the two hundred pounds as set forth in the Petition, above alluded to. As to the first objection I think it is not competent for me to infer, as was urged by the Solicitor, an intention of preference in contemplation of Bankruptcy under the uncontradicted statement of Bankrupt who positively swears and I have no reason to doubt him, that he had no intention of taking the benefit of the Bankrupt act, until two or three days before his declaration, and moreover as the Bankrupt gave the Mortgage, to secure Turner's debt under the apprehension of legal process, tho' the apprehension may have been unfounded, yet it cannot be deemed fraudulent—and therefore, I am of opinion the first objection cannot be sustained.

With regard to the second objection.—It appears to me that the Bankrupt law requires that the two hundred pounds set forth in the Petition should be, at the time of the declaration of insolvency, due and payable, and the eighty pounds, part and parcel of the two hundred pounds, set forth as above mentioned, not being due and payable at the time, but in future, the Bankrupt has not conformed to the Laws relating to Bankrupts, and therefore, the certificate of conformity cannot be granted, tho' at the same time I impute no intentional unfairness in the transaction to the Bankrupt.

Commissioner of the Estate and Effects of Bankrupts for the County of Charlotte.

FROM AUX CAYES (St. Domingo).—By the arrival of the brig Sidney at New York from Aux Cayes, we learn that a large gathering of the disaffected took place on the 5th December, about 15 miles from that place. Col. Rota, the Commandant at Aux Cayes, sent his Aid to ascertain if possible the cause. He was taken by the Rebels, ill treated and wounded, so that he died in a short time. Col. R. immediately went in pursuit of them with his troops, dispersed the rebels and shot their Chief on the spot, when all was again quiet.

Steamboat Accident.—One of the most appalling occurrences which we have heard of in the shape of Steamboat accidents took place on the Mississippi. The Steamer Shepherdess, 8 days from Pittsburg, struck a snag on the 3d inst. at 11 p.m. most of the passengers had retired to their berths—among whom were a number of ladies, the cabin separated from the hull, and melancholy to state nearly half of the passengers and crew, amounting to nearly 100 perished.

Our Subscribers whose papers are forwarded by Mail, will please take notice, that in future their papers will be charged one half-penny each, payable when taken out of the several Post Offices. This is in accordance with an Act passed by the Home Government and lately published. The former tax of course, will not be exacted by us.

European Intelligence.

From Willmer & Smith's European Times, Jan. 4.

The President's Message, which came to hand on Wednesday week, by the Independence, Capt. Nye, has been very unsparingly analysed. It has given little satisfaction on this side of the water. Of the various points to which it has afforded employment, all, without exception, find fault either with the tone of its morality or its overreaching animus. The absence of a document, the free-booting style in which it recommends the erection of American military posts on the Oregon, while the territory itself is in dispute, has given much great offence; and the manner in which the President flirts his wishes for the annexation of Texas, and the hard words he bestows upon Mexico (from which it is evident that he desires to proceed to blows with that tottering Republic) has been held to indicate a very low standard of moral feeling. All these points have been sharply criticised.

The subject of the payment of the Roman Catholic clergy by the State, continues to be discussed by the English press. The Times is at the head of the party which advocates the imperative necessity of the measure. That paper quotes the evidence which was given before a Parliamentary Committee, in 1825, when the Roman Catholic prelates expressed themselves favourable to the payment of stipends by the nation. Mr. O'Connell expressed a similar opinion on the same occasion, although he, like the prelates, is now opposed to the measure, and, if offered, will battle against it tooth and nail. The payment of the clergy, there is little doubt, would detach them from the repeal agitation—a condemnation devoutly to be wished; but whether, if proposed by the government, it would be carried, and whether, if carried, it would be accepted at the present moment, are questions into the discussion of which we have neither time nor inclination to enter. The offer now by the government, would look very like a bribe, and the Roman Catholic hierarchy, in the face of their recent declaration, and still more, in the present excited state of Ireland, could not accept it without compromising themselves in the eyes of their own people, which would destroy the utility of the boon, and the object of the government in granting it.

The Great Western and Great Britain.—It will be seen from an advertisement in another column, that the proprietors of the Great Western intend to run that fine vessel from this port during the ensuing summer. The first outward passage will commence on the 25th of April. That Leviathan of the ocean, the Great Britain, which richly deserves to have the adjective "Great" preceding her name, her tonnage being 3,500, and her horse power 1000, will follow her on the 25th of May. sanguine hopes are entertained by the projectors that this magnificent ship will open a new era in ocean steam navigation, as she assuredly will, if her speed be at all equal to the amplitude and splendor of her accommodations. Under any circumstances, she will be an object of undoubted curiosity in the Western world. Lieutenant Hosken, the popular and gentlemanly commander of the Great Western, resigns that vessel to take charge of her new and gigantic ally. He is succeeded by Mr. R. B. Matthews, who has long been favourably known as the first officer of the ship which he will henceforth command—we doubt not, efficiently.

COMMANDER BEADON'S LIFE BUOY.

Which gained the Gold Medal, in June last, from the Royal Society.

It is a metal tube 8 feet long by twelve inches in its greatest diameter, and is tapered towards its after end so as to permit it to pass freely through the water. It is conical at each end, in which are "eyeballs," for the double purpose of attaching a rope to tow it by, and to steady it when suspended at the stern by passing over guide rods fixed there-in. The keel (a portion of which is seen) is 10 or 12 inches deep. The buoy is quite safe from filling with water, it being divided into cases; these cases of drums are water-tight, and distinct from each other as well as from the outer cylinder, but are made to fit it nicely, whereby it is much strengthened and supported on the inside against any external blow or pressure. A saddle is formed in it, in which the man sits, quite secure from being washed off, his feet resting on man-ropes. On each side is attached a framework or wing with stop hinges, secured by bolts passing into circular pieces of woods, fitting the cylinder. On the under side of these wings are fixed semicircular buoys, which terminate in semicircular extremities. These wings hang down when the buoy is suspended across the tailrail, but form outriggers when in the water, thus giving it stability.

A very daring and outrageous attempt was made on Monday morning last, to take the ship Harriet Scott, at sea, by a party of fourteen Malay convicts, who have been embarked and sailed on board of that vessel on the preceding Friday under sentence of transportation to Bombay, in which attempt the commander, Captain Beynon, was most cruelly murdered, and the chief mate, Mr. McCree, and three of the crew, were severely wounded. The villains have been secured.

Munificence of the Rev. Sydney Smith.—By the death of Mr. Canon Tate, the living of Edmonton fell to the disposal of the Rev. Sydney Smith. This gentleman possesses a not only a benefice but a small chancery living in Somersetshire, under 300 pound a year. Edmonton is upwards of £1500. He might have appropriated it to himself. Frankly, and without solicitation, he within a very few days of the death of his friend the father, bestowed the living on the son, Mr. Thomas Tate.

The most influential farmers and tradesmen of Merstham, Sussex, having formed a society to carry out a plan of employing the whole of the able-bodied labourers belonging to the parish throughout the winter.

We are given to understand that the privilege, of late years granted to soldiers of purchasing their discharges, has been suspended in the corps serving in Ireland, in consequence of the demand for the services of every available soldier in the country.

Fatal Accident to Lord Inverurie.—It is with considerable regret that we have to record the death of the above named nobleman. His Lordship was on a visit to his Grace the Duke of Montrose, at Salby Lodge, Northamptonshire. On Saturday last he accompanied the Noble Duke in a "meet" of the Pytchley Hunt. In the heat of the chase his Lordship's horse fell at a very dangerous leap, when his rider was thrown underneath it, and received such severe injuries, that after lingering till Sunday morning, he expired. His Lordship, who was the eldest son of the Earl of Kinmore, was not more than 23 years of age, and was one of the most popular members of the hunt, over whom a general gloom has been cast by the catastrophe.

Discovery of Roman Urns.—A correspondent writing from Ringston, Derbyshire, states that on Wednesday last, while the workmen employed in erecting a splendid mansion for E. Strutt, Esq., from the design of Mr. Blore, were making some excavations they found several Roman urns varying from six to ten inches in height; some of them are very beautifully wrought, and contained burnt ashes and fragments of bones.

The Watch Trade.—We understand the watch making trade has not been in such a state of briskness for many years as at present. An order has been received by one house in London alone, for 25,000 silver watches for China, and every hand in London is in active employment.

New Free Churches.—We understand Mr. Maule has lately heard from Sir William Drummond Stewart, in answer to his application for sites for three new churches upon his property in connection with the New Secession. The worthy Baronet writes from New Orleans, whether he had arrived from his sporting excursion among the Indians. He expects to reach this country in the course of the ensuing summer, but in the meantime has expressed his willingness to grant sites for churches—one, near Murthly, at Stairlam; another at Lagannalschie, in Strathbraan; and a third at Grandtully, in Strathsay.—Pertb Courier.

IRELAND.

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.—The weekly meeting of the Repeal Association was held on Tuesday last, in Conciliation-hall. Mr. John O'Connell laid before the meeting letters which had passed between himself and the Earl of Devon, chairman of the Landlord & Tenant Inquiry Commission. Mr. O'Connell's letter was an inquiry, professing, "on the part of many persons desirous of submitting evidence to the Commission," whether the evidence would be submitted with the report when the latter shall be published. Lord Devon, in reply, declined, at this early stage, to pledge himself or colleagues to the course which they should think it right to pursue with respect to the publication of the evidence, and stated, that the Commission should resume their sittings, in Dublin on the 8th instant, and that it is their intention to visit and take evidence in different parts of Ireland in the course of the next autumn. Mr. O'Connell said it was evident from this that the Commission intended to "bribe" the evidence, and denounced the whole proceedings as a mockery and insult. He begged the people of Ireland to send up evidence to the association, which they would tender to the Commission, and the association would, if it were refused, publish it themselves. After several speeches had been delivered, on this and other subjects, Mr. John O'Connell announced, that his father would be present at the meeting on that day fortnight, and that the rent was £474, 3s. 5d.

The resistance to the collection of poor-rates in Ireland; though unobserved for a time, continues in the Castlebar Union, the Guardians are in debt on account of the arrears; but there now deprecate making a new rate, which the poor-law Commissioners wish them to do. A new attempt at collection, under civil and military guard, is contemplated.

Another murder has been committed at Finoc. James Ardill, a Protestant, ploughman to Mr. Falkiner, of Rodden, near Borkanone, was slain by a party who inflicted blows on his head with weapons called "skull crackers." His shrieks for aid brought his wife and children, to find him a mangled corpse. There is no trace of the assassins.

At a meeting of the Cork town last week, the mayor's salary for the ensuing year was, after considerable discussion, reduced from £1200 to £400.

The Irish papers publish a correspondence between the attorneys for Mr. O'Connell and his fellow-defendants and Mr. Napier, the eminent counsel, whose retention is a subject of dispute between the opposing parties. The attorneys say that he was retained by them, as they left a retainer, at his house in town while he was in the country. On the other hand, he says that he personally received the application of the Crown Solicitor, before he heard of them, and therefore conceives himself bound to abide by the side from whom he first had notice.

On Friday week, Mr. Timothy O'Brien, a repealer, was proposed as Lord Mayor of Dublin, by Alderman O'Connell, and elected by the Town Council, with a majority of four over his opponent, Mr. Francis Brady.

Desperate Affray with Ribbonmen.—On Monday night last an armed party of about forty ruffians, attacked the dwellings of an industrious set of men of the name of Gibbons, at Fairmount, for the purpose of swearing them to reduce the rent of some conacre, which they had set a few days previously. Having heard some shots, and suspected that a visit would be paid them, the gallant little band (consisting of seven men) armed themselves with pitchforks, and met the marauders, who it appears had fire arms. A desperate conflict ensued, and the Gibbonses were obliged to shelter themselves in one of the houses, which they barricaded and defended, till every one of them were desperately wounded. They then betook themselves to the loft, where they also fought gallantly. The Ribbonmen demolished every article in the house after they obtained an entrance. Three or four of the leaders of the Ribbonmen were dangerously wounded with pitchforks whilst forcing the door. Upwards of fourteen have been arrested and fully identified. The brave little party were taken into this town, where the best surgical attendance is given to them. This portion of Fairmount is the locality where the celebrated "Billy Smith" domiciled himself for some time previous to his arrest.—[Roscommon Journal].

Letters from Madrid of the 26th ult., speak of a reconciliation having been effected between the Queen and the infant Don Francisco de Paula.

The Mark Lane Express says that the speech of Earl Spencer in favour of the total repeal of the corn-laws, has produced great excitement amongst the agricultural class, and that "the high estimation in which the Noble Earl is held in this country gives a more than ordinary weight to his opinion."

The papers of the Agricultural districts still record incendiary fires: Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex, Bedfordshire, Kent, Hampshire, Gloucestershire, and Hereford, have all witnessed such visitations. At one fire, at High Rooting, near Dunmow, while an engine was at work, two of the hose were cut by some persons in the crowd, and the engine rendered useless.

The great sugar refinery, belonging to Sir Thomas and James Brunckner, Esquire, at Liverpool, one of the most extensive in the kingdom, and employing many hands, was destroyed by fire on the morning of Thursday. The damage is estimated at seventy thousand pounds, a little more than half of which is insured. How the fire originated is a mystery.

NEW ZEALAND.

A very tragical event occurred, in June last, at New Zealand. Two native chiefs disputed the title of the New Zealand Company to a particular district, and insisted on arresting the progress of a survey until the title should be settled by the Commissioner of Land Claims: the surveyors would not wait, and hostilities began by the burning of a hut, by the chiefs, as a means of rejecting the white occupants. The disarmed surveyors called for assistance; a police magistrate went with a warrant and some fifty persons to seize the contumacious chiefs; apparently not to fight, but to carry every thing with the display of strength and authority. They paraded: the magistrate lost his temper; the undisciplined posse committatus began to fire guns, and ran away as soon as it came to a real battle, those who stood firm were left unsupported, surrounded, and obliged to surrender. The force chief who refused obedience to the warrant, had been further enraged by the accidental shooting of his wife, and he deliberately killed them all, one by one, unarmed and unarmoured as they were, with his own tomahawk.

Of those who have fallen the most remarkable in every way was Captain Arthur Wakefield, the Company's Agent, whose loss will be severely felt and deeply lamented in the colony and in this country.

THE LEGISLATURE meets to-morrow (Thursday), for the despatch of business.

COLD.—The weather for the last week has been intensely cold. We have heard some of the old inhabitants state that Monday last, was the coldest day they had felt, for many years.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—We are informed, that on Saturday afternoon last, a boat with a midshipman and four men, belonging to H. M. S. Columbia, Campbell, was upset in a squall, the men succeeded in laying hold of the keel of the boat, from which perilous situation they were rescued, in an exhausted state, by a boat from Eastport, but we regret to add, that Mr. Pullin, the midshipman, met with a watery grave.—We learn that he was a native of St. John river, and was highly esteemed and respected by all who were acquainted with him.

OUR HARBOR IS FROZEN OVER completely, and persons have been passing over to the Island for three days. Indeed we might also state that the greatest part of the bay is one solid mass of ice—a circumstance which has not occurred for many years.

THE TEMPERANCE TELEGRAPH is the title of a newspaper recently commenced in St. John for the dissemination of temperance principles and information.—We wish its enterprising proprietors every success.

PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION.—In our last number we published the resolutions of this Society, and now insert the names of the Officers and Committee. The Committee are using great diligence to promote the objects of the Association, at their meeting on Wednesday, they resolved to recommend to the Members, that they should use and wear the growth and produce of New Brunswick only! An excellent resolution and one which we sincerely wish will be responded to by every resident in the Province—as well as the Members. The following are the Officers:—

John Owens, Esq., President.
Robert Robertson, Esq., and) Vice Robert D. Wilmot,)
Moses H. Perley, Secretary.
Thomas Gilbert, Junior, Treasurer.

Committee.—Walker Tisdale, Farmer; Edward L. Jarvis, Merchant; Robert Keltie, Brewer, Wm. A. Robertson, Tailor; Thos. Allan, Founder; Wm. W. Emslie, Cordwainer; Barzillai Ainsley, Tanner, Andrew Scott, Tallow Chandler; Jacob Myers, Pail Maker; Joseph Lawrence, Cabinet Maker; John J. Munro, Carpenter; John McLardy, Baker; John Kinney, Fisherman; Wm. F. Smith, Mason; John Gillies, Farmer; John R. Marshall, Blacksmith; Robertson Bayard, Barrister; John B. Gaynor, Blockmaker; James Dunn, Farmer; Chas. Adams, Shipwright; John Berryman, Baker; James Moran, Tinsmith; Traffon Farmers, Michael Thompson, Painter, Wm. O. Smith Druggist, John W. McLeod, Flour Dealer.

We have received a Circular from the Secretary giving reports of the Proceedings of that Association and also showing from correct returns statements of the value of the imports of this Province in the years 1839, '40 and '41, by which it appears that the total amount of deficiencies in the three years may be put down at a million currency. We trust that strenuous endeavors will be made by our inhabitants to establish a branch of the Association in this Town—and that a meeting will be called for the purpose, as soon as possible.

The Rev. Dr. George Burns, late of Tweedsmuir, has been unanimously elected Minister of the Free Church of Corstorphine, and has received from a lady in Edinburgh a full service of communion plate for the use of the congregation. He has also to acknowledge the receipt of a splendid Bible and Psalms Books for pulpit and desk, the gift of a gentleman occasionally resident in the locality, together with a handsome Pulpit Gown from a member of the congregation.—Edinburgh Weekly Register, Dec. 27.

WESLEYAN ACADEMY.—We have received a printed Catalogue of the officers and students of the Wesleyan Academy, Mount Allison, Sackville, for the year commencing 19th January, 1843, which state the total number of pupils at 80; of these, 20 belong to the Classical Department, 27 to the Literary and Scientific, and 33 to the Primary Department. This Academy bids fair to become very useful and popular, and is situated in a most beautiful and healthy part of the Province, possessing every advantage necessary for a Collegiate Institution.—New Brunswick.

The Editor of the Halifax Herald has received Simmonds's Colonial Magazine, and speaks of it in the highest terms of commendation.—Mr. W. Till, St. John, is agent for this Province.

Bounty to American Fishermen.—About $33,000 have been paid out by the Collector of Gloucester to vessels engaged in the Cod-fishery for the past season.

The bounty paid to vessels in the Plymouth District, engaged in the Codfishery, for the past season amounts to $18,400. The amount paid in the district of Salem and Beverly is $15,230.

Trade of Yarmouth.—It appears from the Yarmouth Herald of the 12th inst., that there are belonging to that port 88 vessels measuring 11,407 tons, consisting of 8 barks, 20 brigs, 20 brigantines, and 40 schooners; and that during the past year 4 vessels have been sold, 6 lost, and 3 condemned.

Passengers, from St. John, in the ship Jane Walker, sailed on Friday, for Liverpool.—The Rev. Dr. McLean, of St. Andrews; Lieut. Colleys, 33d Regiment, and Daniel Ausley, Esq. of this city.

THE TOILET.—An additional pleasing appearance is rendered to the countenance by the well-arranged curl, the BRAIDED FLAT and the FLOWING TRESS. In dressing the Hair, nothing can equal the effect of "HOWLAND'S MALAGAISE OIL,"—either Natural or Artificial Hair—rendering it so admirably soft, that it will lie in any direction: it produces beautiful flowing curls, and, by the transcendent lustre it imparts, renders the head-dress truly enchanting! It preserves the coiffure in the heated atmosphere of the ball room, and neutralizes the effects of a damp atmosphere, or violent exercise. See Advertisement.

MARRIED.

In the Parish of Grand Manan, by Wilford Fisher Esq., on the 23d instant, William Kendrick, to Ruth Cole, both of that Parish.

DIED.

At St. John, on the 21st inst., after a protracted illness, which he bore with Christian resignation, Mr. George Sears, aged 48 years.
