OLYMPIC TO THE RESCUE

Splendid Work of the Liner's
Crew Saved Practically All
On Board.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Nov. 14.—Rumors of disaster to the British super-dreadnought Audacious, which have persisted ever since the White Star Line Olympic, diverted from her course, arrived at Lough Swilly on October 29, are confirmed in mail advices received by the Associated Press from a point in Ireland. After a career of less than two years, the Audacious, of the King George V. class—third in tonnage and armament of the British warships—was at the bottom of the ocean off the north coast of Ireland. She was hit by a torpedo or disabled by a mine just before 9 o'clock on the morning of October 27.

With the possible exception of one or two men, the whole crew of 800 officers and men were rescued by small boats from the Olympic. The rescue was made in a rough sea through brilliant and daring seamanship on the part of the White Star crew.

Olympic Saved Crew.
The battleship's cry for assistance was caught by the wireless operator of the Olympic, which was only about ten miles distant. The steamer rushed forward at full speed, while her crew made ready for their work. Volunteers were called for, and the number of men necessary to man the lifeboats responded. The crippled battleship was reached a few minutes after 9 o'clock, and before noon all but 100 of her men had been transferred.

Attempt to Save Ship.
By that time the battleship had decided that the stern, where just below the waterline she had received her wound. Two of her engines were unhurt, but the one aft was put out of commission. After taking off all the officers and crew, the Olympic, turned her attention to an attempt to save the warship. A cable was given her, but it snapped as she tightened. Meaning the bulkheads began to give way, and it was soon apparent that it would be impossible to tow the ship or keep her long enough to reach the coast.

Explosion—Plunge.
The flotilla of rescue ships continued to stand by, however, until 9 o'clock, when a terrific explosion occurred on board and the Audacious plunged stern first, and in a moment had disappeared.

The explosion is supposed to have been caused by shells set loose by the listing of the battleship. A bit of armorplate, torn from the sinking ship struck the deck of the Liverpool, cutting the legs from under a gunner. The man died in a short time.

The Audacious met her fate 25 miles off the Irish coast, where the Olympic was skirting. The liner sailed from New York for Glasgow on October 21. She had been warned that there were German mines off Tory Island, and fear of these mines was the official explanation of the disaster.

Then their ship turned her prow toward Lough Swilly. The Olympic's passengers saw the flash of the explosion and watched the mighty warrior sink. Then their ship turned her prow toward Lough Swilly. The Olympic's passengers saw the flash of the explosion and watched the mighty warrior sink.

Hunger-Maddened.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Nov. 14.—11:35 a.m.—Captain T. F. Lucey, who has been active in the distribution of American relief in Belgium, has sent a message to the headquarters of the relief committee in London saying that the supplies now available are entirely insufficient to meet the immediate and urgent needs of the Belgian people and requests further assistance.

ment Already Here.

Orders have been issued through militia headquarters for the assembling in London of the battery which was recruited in the first division last week. The men are to report, at the fair grounds on Wednesday of next week, when their pay starts, and when equipment will be issued to them. The Ordnance stores have sufficient supplies to equip all the men of the battery, as the number will not run over 141.

Pittsburg, Nov. 14.—The leading labor organizations in the American glass trade have completed arrangements for a collection of money for the relief of glass workers in Belgium, who have been deprived of employment because of the war.

TO GIVE 'VARSITY BATTALION CHANCE

Rumor Says Classes May Close Early
to Allow of Training.

Toronto, Nov. 14.—There is a rumor at Toronto University to the effect that students who are going to the front next spring may write their examinations earlier, or that the whole university will close the first of May, and so permit a university battalion to be put into training at Niagara Camp. President Falconer today would not confirm the rumor, though he admitted the question had been raised.

What's In a Name? But Look at These

JOFFRE FRENCH

There is a curious "harmony" about the names of Gen. Joffre, chief of staff and commander-in-chief of the French armies, and Field Marshal Sir John French, chief of the British general staff and commander-in-chief of the British land forces operating in France and Belgium. Above are the names of both commanders. The first half of "Joffre" and the first half of "French" spell "Joffre." Moreover, the second half of "Joffre" and the second half of "French" spell "French." Even to those who would indignantly deny any suggestion that they are superstitious, this coincidence about the names may appear as an augury of certain success. It will be remembered that the name of the British commander-in-chief was taken by the French people as a happy coincidence.

There are a number of other striking ways in which these two men are similar. Each is 62 years of age. Each became chief of staff of his respective army since 1911. They are strategists of the same school, men of calmness and firm resolve, who are at their best when the task is greatest and the odds against them are biggest.

NOTE OF WARNING BY GERMAN COUNT

Tells People Not To Exaggerate
Successes or Hold
British Fleet in Contempt.

[Canadian Press.]
Berlin, Nov. 14.—Via London, 11:15 a.m.—The Nord Deutsch Allgemeine Zeitung, referring to the situation in the eastern arena of the war, says: "For some days past the people generally have been discussing the dangerous situation on the frontier of the provinces of East Prussia, Posen and Silesia. Basing our information on official statements, it can be said that only a few of the border regions in East Prussia have been penetrated by solitary detachments of Russian troops. There is no reason to fear for East Prussia and the provinces of Posen and Silesia."

Count on Reventon, writing in the Tageszeitung, again sounds a note of warning against the popular exaggeration of Germany's military successes in the past, or of the results attained by the German fleet. At the same time he cautions his readers against contempt for the strength of the British fleet. This naval critic writes that the people should not be lulled by a momentary success. He believes that its lightning spirit and effectiveness are not of a high standing. It may be said that these best able to judge the situation in German naval circles have no such conception.

GERMAN ATTACK AGAINST NIEUPORT BRIDGE FAILURE

At Other Points On Long Front Allies Advance, While All
Enemy's Attacks End Unsuccessfully — French
Official Statement.

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, Nov. 14.—2:47 p.m.—The French official communication, given out in Paris this afternoon, says: "In Belgium a German attack against the head of the bridge at Nieuport resulted in failure, and various efforts at offensive movements on the part of the enemy in the region to the southeast of Ypres have been checked."
"In the environs of Blazebotte we have progressed one kilometre toward the east."
"Between the canal of Labassee and Arras our troops have made minor progress."
"In the region of Lessigny and in the vicinity of the Aisne, as far as Berry-au-Bac, the Germans have attacked, but without success."
"In the Argonne the fighting has recommenced with greater spirit. The enemy endeavored, but in vain, to recapture Souv. de Paris and St. Hubert. Particularly in the vicinity of Verdun several partial offensive movements on the part of the enemy were checked by the fire of our artillery before the forward movement of the enemy's infantry could be undertaken."

LOSE NOTHING; GAIN SOMETHING

French ex-Premier Satisfied With Situation—End To
Be Headlong Ruin
For Germany.

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, Nov. 14.—7 a.m.—The battle line of the Allies, extending 100 miles, from the sea to the River Somme, has been quiet today and night, during the three weeks past, to continuous slaughters of unprecedented ferocity.
"We have lost nothing since the great battle, which the Kaiser's hasty onslaught led to pieces," writes Georges Clemenceau, the ex-Premier. "We have lost nothing, and we have gained time and ground, the one as precious as the other."
General Bonnal declares that no army undergoes losses so out of all proportion to the effort expended, and the result so far obtained by the Germans, without finally becoming discouraged and exhausted, and that an attack in force, well planned and timed, will bring about the defeat of the enemy.

He quotes in support of his opinion a letter from an old friend now fighting in Flanders, which says: "It is always the same here. We stand firm. We even advance a little, and as a tangible result there is a slaughter of the Prussians, who are replaced by fresh reinforcements, which we smash at will. On our side there is considerable loss, but means for tomorrow, but when it will be, means what a headlong run it will be."

ENTRANCE TO TURKISH RIVER ABADAN CLEAR

[Canadian Press.]
London, Nov. 14.—2:25 p.m.—It was declared officially today that the western entrance of the Shat-el-Arab River, known as the Abadan Passage, was now clear, and that steamers were passing freely. British forces a week ago occupied the port of Fao, at the mouth of the Shat-el-Arab, a Turkish River, which empties into the head of the Gulf of Persia. Previous to the landing of the British forces the Turkish guns at Fao were silenced by the fire of the sloop Odin.

[Canadian Press.]
Havre, Nov. 14, via Paris, 2:10 p.m.—The military situation in Flanders is today described as quieter, owing to the fact that the innovations rendered King Albert's name day is being celebrated enthusiastically at Havre and in the Belgian territory still in possession of the Belgians.

CANADIANS NOW ARE FIGHTING IN FRANCE

Machine Gun Battery and Supporting Cavalry Definitely Reported Aiding in German Repulse Along the Coast

(Special to The Advertiser.)
Toronto, Nov. 14.—Units of first Canadian contingent are already in action in France.

The British system of censorship on the departure of troops is responsible for the fact that this has not been stated officially.

Today there arrived confirmation from two sources that Canadian corps are in the thick of it.

HOLDING BACK THE GERMANS.
The United Press, a generally reliable news agency from Paris, says that reports there declare that Canadian troops are now in France, participating in fighting to prevent the German drive to the coast.

In addition to this comes a letter today from a member of the Canadian automobile machine gun battery to his parents here, stating, without giving details, that his battery had been in action in the neighborhood of Lille, France.

ACCOMPANIED BY CAVALRY.
Previous letters intimated that his battery expected to go across the channel immediately, and it would naturally be accompanied by an escort of Canadian cavalry, probably the Strathcona Horse and the Royal Canadian Dragoons, which are regulars.

It is also likely that the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery regulars, and possibly the Princess Patricia's and other regiment, whose training warranted it, have also been sent to France before now.

BOATS UPSET WITH CREW OF STRANDED STEAMER "COLONIAL"

Rolled Over By Waves As They Near Shore—Londoner
Describes Graphic Scene As Shipwrecked Sailors Are Rescued.

A vivid picture of the rescue of the crew of the bulk freighter Colonial, which yesterday was beached near Erie Beach, just south of Cedar Springs, was painted for The Advertiser today by E. O. Baker, Johnston street, this city, who saw the sailors come ashore. Mr. Baker, who is a travellor for the Davis Acetylene Gas Company, was driving along the Lake Shore road after the steamer grounded, having been run on the shoals to prevent her foundering. He was struck by the waves, and only one of the suitcases was thrown into the lake, but he was pulled to safety by the hunters and farmers, who ran down into the water to help them. The boat rolled clear over, just as she struck the shoals, where the waves were breaking. The sailors were in the water, and the boat was in the water. The boat was in the water, and the sailors were in the water. The boat was in the water, and the sailors were in the water.

Crew Appeared Dazed.
The rescued men were hurried into a nearby shanty and warmed. They seemed dazed with their experiences, that they could not even tell their own names, nor where they were from. It was some time before we could learn anything about the ship, which struck the beach. A woman and a man were thrown into the lake, but were pulled to safety by the hunters and farmers.

Woman Thrown Out.
The Colonial went aground about half a mile from shore," said Mr. Baker. "The first boat—a yawl—to put off with the sailors, and the ship struck the beach. A woman and a man were thrown into the lake, but were pulled to safety by the hunters and farmers.

FINGERS STIFF; NOSES RED BUT THEY LABORED ON

Willing Women Workers Will Not Wilt When Wild Winds
Whistle—Courageously Continue Crating Clothes
Consigned to Belgian Babies.

Up at the C. P. R. freight sheds this morning, half a dozen or more women, members of the Women's Canadian Club of this city, were busily engaged in preparing the shipment of goods for the relief of the Belgian refugees. It was a new experience, these hours spent in the long freight sheds, where the November sun, and the chill winds, alike penetrated through the great, open doors on either side. Still were the fingers and red the noses of the workers, yet their enthusiasm never waned. All hearts throbbled in sympathy for the sufferers of Belgium.

Some of the clothing had been packed previously in the large wooden boxes sent to the sheds by local wholesalers, but there remained quite a number of bundles and bales yet to have their contents sorted and packed in separate boxes. Several piles were quickly made as the bales were opened. One contained children's wear; a second, some warm bedding; another, women's clothing; and yet another, garments for men. Some of these were the gift of country people, others from citizens, but it was noticeable that in practically all cases, the clothing was either new or in extremely good condition.

Nicely-Dressed Dolls.
In one bale was found a number of nicely-dressed dolls, and the workers were much touched to read on a neat wooden box the label: "For a little Belgian girl, not to be opened until it reaches its destination. Contains dress, hood and doll."

A number of the ladies commenced the task of packing the huge cases, and working with a will, the various piles of clothing were all cleared away by noon. As each case was filled, it was labeled and put in a pile. The relief ship never reaches the Belgians," one of the workers asked another.

The second woman rubbed her stiff fingers thoughtfully, then: "Well, I just have faith that it will reach them," she replied.

They Didn't Nail 'Em.
Perhaps the curious may ask if the ladies drove the nails in securing the lids on the top of the cases. The reply is no. They were fortunate enough to have the services of a kindly C. P. R. freight man, who took to it as naturally as if he had driven 'em all his life. But there is one thing must be admitted, after seeing the businesslike way in which the women performed the packing, if they had been obliged to nail up the cases themselves, they would have managed it somehow!

HEARING OF P. M. CASE SET FOR NOVEMBER 30

Interstate Commission to Inquire into Allegations Against Financial Management.

[Canadian Press.]
Washington, Nov. 14.—Public hearings in the interstate commerce commission's investigation of financial operations of the Pere Marquette Railroad Company will be begun at Detroit on November 30 by Commissioner Haul.

The inquiry, which has been in progress for several months, practically co-extensively with that into the Rock Island system, is being made by direction of the House of Representatives. The resolution calling for the investigation recites various allegations against the financial management of the Pere Marquette.

The purpose of the inquiry is to develop if possible, whether the railroad and its stockholders have suffered from what had been characterized as exploitations of the road to the benefit of favored financial interests and individuals.

RUSSIA ATTEMPTS DIFFICULT TASK

But Forces Austro-German
To Greatly Alter
Plans.

STILL PUSH ON AND ON
Occupation of Johannesburg
a Great Strategic Coup.

A TREACHEROUS SWAMP

Germans Had Anticipated
Delivering Crushing Blow
To Flank.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, Nov. 14.—2:30 a.m.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Telegraph in a dispatch dated Friday
outlines the preparations of the present
week in the eastern war theatre.
His dispatch follows:

"During Tuesday and Wednesday
there was uninterrupted fighting on the German side of the frontier of East Prussia. The German army (the 1st army (Wibullen) in Suwalki, Russian Poland,
almost on the East Prussia boundary line) with its base in a formidable series of fortified positions made strong efforts to turn the Russians out of their trenches, but all attempts were successfully repulsed.

"From Tuesday until Thursday the Russians, advancing from the Bakal-arzewo-Lyck line, slowly thrust the enemy back to the Christian Lake region (East Prussia) where the Germans have the advantage of enormous natural obstacles in the network of blues and swamps, and are aided by the intensive scheme of fortifications,
the central point of which is Loetzen.
Behind Loetzen, Fort Boyon blocks the narrow passage between Loetzen and Loewintz Lakes which, except for the low, form an impassable barrier extending twenty miles from north to south. The Germans have all the dry gaps in this region armed with heavy artillery against which they hope the Russians will dash themselves to pieces.

"Important Strategic Move.
The Russian occupation of Johannesburg (in East Prussia, about 10 miles south of Loetzen) is regarded as a coup of great strategic importance. It is assumed that those who occupied Johannesburg were the army operating from the south. If so, their feat was all the more meritorious as this route
passes through treacherous swamps
which are defended by wire entanglements and swept by a fire from black houses. Between Johannesburg and Hilla the Russians continued until yesterday their advance against East Prussia.

"Enemy Change Plans.
At the last Austro-German council
of war held at Gdov, Galicia, on November 5, new dispositions for the winter were decided on. It is stated. Under these plans the German army was to employ its full strength
to enter the Russians into the zone
of the fortresses at Posen, Glogau and Breslau, where they could reach them
with artillery fire, and endeavor to obtain a crushing victory against one of the flanks of the invaders by manoeuvring their free field army along the lines of their extensive network of railways.

"Meantime the Austrians were to concentrate around the Carpathians,
where they would attempt to inflict as many blows as possible upon the besiegers
and also menace the Carpathians.
"Yesterday the Russians were reported to have occupied the town of the Wislocka River, Galicia and had occupied Dombek at a point where the railway between Jaroslavl and Tarnob crosses the Wislocka. The Austrians who retreated southward after the last battles, have occupied an entrenched
position covering the bridge at Turka
where they evidently intend to accept battle."

TURK BOMB KILLS
FIVE GERMAN OFFICERS

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, Nov. 14.—3:55 a.m.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Petrograd says:
"A message received here from Bucharest states that there has been a revolt among the Constantinople
and Adrianople garrisons.
"Five German officers were killed
by the exploding of a bomb at the palace of Enver Bey. The Turkish war minister and leader of the Young Turk party, Enver Bey, was not injured. A letter found near the scene said the bomb was intended for the man who 'sold Turkey'."

FARMERS BEHIND NEW COMPANY

A new condition of affairs has been introduced in the sheet metal business
in Canada, by the erection of one of the most modern factories at Sar-
nia, by the Sarnia Metal Products Company, Limited, for the manufacture of the following lines of sheet metal building materials: Plain Galvanized Iron, Corrugated Iron, Plain Black Iron, Metal Sidings, Eave
Troughs, Conductor Pipe, Valleys,
Culverts, etc.

The above concern is the outcome
of an investigation as to the cost of manufacture of sheet metal building
materials, conducted by Lloyd Lott,
formerly connected with the Sarnia Fence Company, at the request of many leading farm organizations
throughout the Dominion of Canada.

The system of marketing used is rather unique in itself, for it is the first time that a company has been organized to manufacture commodities used by the farmers whose output, not only as to the quality of the materials used, but the price at which they are selling, is under the control
of the farm organizations themselves,
with which we will be under contract
to supply their entire requirements.

It is no surprise to us that this arrangement and idea of selling has caused much consternation among the other sheet metal manufacturers
in Canada, and it must be remembered that the success of this enterprise will depend largely upon the support that is given our company by the individual farmer himself. Every farmer, whether he belongs to a farm association or not, should take into consideration the fact that it will be folly for him to purchase his requirements from any other source,
except our company, unless he himself favors the ordinary methods such as are used, selling through dealers,
jobbers, etc.

We have in our possession and are sending to all interested persons,
copies of confidential letters that have been mailed by some of our competitors in the sheet metal business to dealers throughout Canada.

These letters prove very interesting
reading and give in a concise way
some idea of the methods that are being used to keep our company and the farmers from making a success of their direct policy. It is hoped that you, as a farmer, are sufficiently interested in the welfare of the co-operative spirit that is sweeping
from one coast of Canada to the other, and will be alive to the situation and do everything in your power
to assist in our business in your local-
ity. If you have not a local association to bring this matter before, we will gladly send you a number of circulars for distribution among your neighbors, who we feel, when they know the situation, will help us in the great fight it is necessary for us to put up in order to make our direct policy the success it should be. Might also say that we are working in line
with the views of the United Farmers' Co-operative Company, Limited,
whose head office is at Toronto, Ont.,
the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association, Winnipeg; the Saskatchewan
Grain Growers' Association, Moose Jaw and the United Farmers of Alberta, Calgary. Any of the above farm associations, who represent the majority of the organized farmers in Canada, will gladly outline in a general way the spirit with which they are co-operating with us.

Many unscrupulous statements have been made about our company and its products, and in justice to not only ourselves but to the farm associations
in Canada as well, we would ask you to let us send you immediately the circulars mentioned above that outline in a clear way both sides of the case, and shows in a general way
what opposition we have.

Thanking you in anticipation of
hearing from you at once, we remain,

Yours co-operatively,
THE SARNIA METAL PRODUCTS
COMPANY, LIMITED.
LLOYD LOTT,
President.

SURPLUS OFFICERS TO GET COMMANDS

Likely To Be Sent With the British Volunteers—Second
Force 15,272 Men.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, Nov. 13.—The muster roll
of the second Canadian contingent,
which is now being mobilized, will be 15,272 officers and men, with 4,765
horses, 55 field and heavy guns, and 15
machine guns.

The two infantry brigades will total 13,654 officers and men, while the nine field batteries of artillery and one heavy battery with ammunition, etc., will have 3,379 men, 3,117 horses, and 58
guns.

In the two field companies of engineers there will be 474 men and 160
horses, in the cyclist corps, 209 men,
and in the signal company, 171 men
and 80 horses.

The army service corps of four companies, will consist of 451 men and 478
horses.

The three field ambulances and the other medical units will total 726, with 173 horses.

These units are now all being mobilized at divisional centres.

In addition to these there will be mobilized with the contingent a little later 464 men for the divisional ammunition park, 266 for supply column,
239 men and 358 horses for reserve park,
92 men for field bakery, 20 men for field
butchery, 61 men for railway supply detachment, and 28 men for depot units of supply.

Only one of the surplus of several hundred officers who went with the first contingent to Salisbury Plain has so far been appointed to the second contingent being raised here. The rest are all remaining in England taking a hard training course. It is probable they will all find places with the British volunteer army now in training, which
like the Canadian force, is badly in need of qualified officers.

BRYAN TAKES NOTE OF ALLIES' CHARGE

Goes into Ecuador-Colombia Matter of Giving Information.

[Canadian Press.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.— Secretary Bryan said today he would examine closely the notes recently presented by the British and French ambassadors here to determine whether the United States would use its good offices with Ecuador and Colombia to smooth out the difficulties which have arisen between these countries and Great Britain and France over alleged violations of neutrality by the South American states.

The secretary remarked to callers
that he had not yet decided whether
the notes "called for the exercise of good offices" by the American Government in preventing friction between the European belligerents and Ecuador and Colombia.

CLEVER TRICK OF SAILORS

Keep Germans Engaged All
Night In An Ineffectual
Fire.

[Canadian Press.]

PARIS, Nov. 13.—11:21 p.m.—Battle rapidly succeeds battle in the great struggle in northeast France
and Belgium, but notwithstanding the heroic efforts of both the Allies
and the Germans, the military situation there apparently has not undergone any noteworthy change during the last 24 hours. Here, first one side gains ground slightly, and then the other side takes it back. All the attempts of the Germans to advance
beyond Dixmude, the capture of which was made after a severe effort by great masses of men seemingly have been in vain.

The constant artillery fire has transformed the surrounding country
into a furnace in which factories, churches and houses are burning. All the inhabitants have fled. The engagement around Ypres has been in progress for three weeks. Scarcely an inch of ground has been gained
by either army, although the opposing lines have been bent somewhat
one way or another.

Much Territory Recovered.

An eminent general on the retired
list of the army today summarized
the situation as follows:
"We have recaptured a large part of the French territory which had been captured by the Germans. We have relieved the British and the Belgian army which is now reorganizing. We have checked the Germans' double turning movement at St. Mihiel and in the Vosges."

Details of brilliant fighting are related by officers who have returned from the front. One of these officers said today that a brigade of French bluejackets, on the Belgian frontier, last night played a trick on the entrenched Germans, who had hung cans and bobs
on their wire entanglements in order to prevent a night surprise attack.

The sailors, according to this officer,
crept out and tied strings to the wires,
and then returned to their own trenches. They continued to pull these strings, which caused the Germans to keep up for many hours a constant fire on the British lines, against which the Germans ceased firing, the sailors attacked, and took a number of prisoners.

At another part of the line, Algerian Turcos and French riflemen are reported to have recaptured Ramcapelle
at the point of the bayonet, against overwhelming odds, after the town had been taken by the Germans from the Belgians. The combat in the street reports from the front tell of the good work that is being done in the Harles field hospital. On the left wing of the French army, owing to the close proximity to the firing line, and consequent immediate treatment of the wounded, many cases of tetanus and gangrene are prevented.

BEDROOM FURNITURE SPECIALLY PRICED---SALE MONDAY

IS "CHEAP" FURNITURE CHEAP? Remember, whenever you buy anything that is cheaply made, you pay too much for it. A cheaply-built house is never worth as much as he pays who buys it, and the same thing is true of everything that goes into the house. Nothing is more palpably
"cheap" than "cheap" Furniture, and it might as well be labelled "cheap," for its cheapness is always in evidence.
We are proud of the fact that the best makers of Furniture
on the continent—makers who are originators, not imitators—are anxious to have their products shown on our floor. Furniture that we take pride in exhibiting and which

PICKED TROOPS FAIL TO BREAK BRUSH.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The official press
bulletin issued the following statement
at 11 o'clock tonight:
"A serious attack was made against the position of the line held by the First Army Corps before Ypres was delivered
on the eleventh by a Prussian Guard Corps. The enemy made an especial effort on this occasion to break the line, which they hoped already had been weakened by attacks of infantry of the line. Our troops were subjected to the heaviest bombardment that we have yet experienced, from dawn for three hours, the attack was carried out by the First and Fourth Brigades of the Prussian Guard Corps. It is understood that the picked troops had been brought up specially to act against us,
in order to force their way through at points where previous efforts made by the infantry of the line had failed.
"The attack was pressed on by the greatest bravery and determination.
Owing to the gallantry of our troops
and their splendid resistance against great odds, the attempt to penetrate to Ypres was repulsed, but the weight of the enemy's advance enabled them to break through our lines at three points.
These were, however, held back and prevented from gaining further ground.
"An immense loss had been inflicted on the Germans, 700 of their dead having been found on the ground behind
our trenches alone. The casualties suffered by them in advancing up to our line under our fire must have been enormous. Our casualties also were heavy."

WILL COST FRANCE
$6,000,000 DAILY

Million Dollars Less Than First Three Months—War Becomes Cheaper.

BOULLEUX, France, Nov. 12.—Via Paris—4:31 p.m.—The cost of the war
to France for the month of November
probably would be somewhat less than
was the monthly average for August,
September and October.
A supplementary credit for extraordinary expenditures authorized today
for the month of November amounts to $10,772,520 francs ($17,154,500) being a little above a little above 300,000,000
francs $6,000,000. The daily average for the first three months of the war
was $5,000,000 ($7,000,000).
The navy receives an extraordinary
credit of 4,275,000 francs, ($68,500,000).
The Government will disburse
65,000,000 francs for repairs to the railroad system. These probably have been paralyzed by the wearing and
tear due to the transportation of troops.
The sum of $5,750,000 francs ($1,314,000)
has been set aside for the relief of the unemployed, while various smaller
sums will be used to relieve the suffering in the departments of France that at one time were invaded by the German troops, but which are now free of soldiers.

ONLY GERMANS OFF
THE COAST OF CHILE

VALPARAISO, Nov. 13.—The rumors that a Japanese fleet was seen off the Chilean coast appears now to have arisen through the German fleet
which is cruising near Valparaiso,
having been mistaken for a Japanese squadron. The report that a Japanese squadron had been seen near Punta Carranza was officially denied today.

German naval officers deny absolutely that any action besides the battle which occurred between German and British warships on Nov.
1, has taken place off the Chilean coast. It is expected here that at any moment the English and German fleets will meet in another engagement.

Thomas Collins, Clandeboye Centenarian Taken on Birthday With His Family

Thomas Collins, Clandeboye's centenarian, and his ten children, photographed together on Wednesday at the big birthday celebration, held at the Homestead, Clandeboye, on his hundredth birthday.

More than 30 of his descendants gathered together to honor the long expected event—the passing of his hundredth milestone.

In the picture are David Collins, Clandeboye (the old homestead), Mrs. C. Hicks, Fort William; Joseph Collins, Clandeboye; Asa Collins, (left); Ara Collins, Cosaling, Mich.; Ira Collins, London; Hiram Collins, London; Thomas Collins, London; Mrs. G. Lintott, Reynolds, Sask.; George Collins, Sterling, Mich.

The gathering of the whole family together, from such a distance, is an unusual event, but it was to observe an extraordinary occasion that they assembled. From far and near friends of the centenarian, too, paid him a visit. More than 30 sat down to the birthday banquet. The majority of them were descendants of the wonderful old man.

Given Purse of Gold.

During the banquet, an engrossed address of congratulation was read from the family by David Collins, 76 years, the oldest son, while a presentation of a purse of gold was made by Mrs. Hicks, the eldest daughter.

Dear father,—We your sons, daughters, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren, assembled with you on the one hundredth anniversary of your birthday, desire to congratulate you upon this happy occasion to which you have so long looked forward. To our Heavenly Father, who has so tenderly guided your footsteps, and so graciously spared you to us, we desire to express our deepest gratitude.

On behalf of the relatives assembled, we present to you this purse of gold, asking you to accept it as a slight token of our love and respect. May the spirit of the living God graciously bless you in the sunset of life, and in His good time may we all gather with you in our Father's Home on High.

(The address was signed by all present.)

An Eloquent Reply.

Mr. Collins' reply was both touching and eloquent. His emotion at the receipt of the unexpected gift, and his wonderful speech of thanks, in which he reviewed part of his life history, brought tears to many eyes.

He previously announced, Mr. Collins sang and played for his guests. He participated in the singing of old time hymns with his children, as he used to do 40 years ago. He enjoyed reading his immense birthday mail, which included congratulations from practically every resident of the township, from all his many friends and relatives throughout the country.

One of these letters that gave him the greatest pleasure was from his grandson, Jack Collins, now serving with the Canadian first contingent at Salisbury Plain, Eng. The letter started a discussion on the war, a struggle that Mr. Collins deeply deplored. He declared his patriotism for the Empire, and confidently expects the Allies to vanquish the Germans once and for all.

Rev. R. H. Barclay, pastor of Mr. Collins' Church, and Rev. G. J. Kerr, now pastor of the Dorchester Methodist Church, also furnished the Clandeboye circuit, were two of the most welcome visitors of the day. Both spoke during the banquet.

EXPLAINS REGULATIONS FOR BUTTER BRANDING

Dairymen's Secretary Cites Instances Where Dealers Can Label Dairy Products.

Clause number 13, of the Dairy Industry Act, which states that no person shall brand any cheese, or brand any package containing cheese or butter in any manner that shall give false information as to the country, or origin, or as to the character of the cheese or butter, in which it was manufactured, has been interpreted in the following manner by Frank Harris, secretary of the Western Ontario Dairymen's Association:

"Dealers who cut up creamy solids and wrap the prints in parchment paper, which is printed simply with a 'brand', and does not indicate that the butter was made in any particular country, are not committing any offence against the regulation. The same applies to wrappers sent out to dealers by a creamery. That is, a dealer may establish a brand, and use the name 'Empress Brand Finest Creamery Butter.' Any creamery butter can be put up under this brand without violation of the law, because there is no misrepresentation, but if the brand read 'Empress Creamery', and conveyed the impression that the butter was actually manufactured in a creamery known as the 'Empress Creamery', the case would be entirely different.

"A creamery may not use its wrappers on the make of another creamery. That is to say, if a creamery known as the 'Empress Creamery' branded its butter with the words 'Empress Creamery', and bought butter from another creamery and used this brand on it, there would be a violation of the regulation."

MAY ACCEPT IN SPRING

Dr. Silcox Expected to Take First Church Pastorate.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Silcox, of Kansas City, who was tendered a call to accept the pulpit of the First Congregational Church, and who was in London this week, has left the city, without leaving definite word regarding his acceptance of the London pulpit. A meeting of the congregation and church council will be held next Sunday evening after the service, when the matter will be discussed.

Dr. Silcox preached last Sunday in the First Congregational Church, and declared that he was given a most enthusiastic reception by the London church. If he accepts the London pulpit, it is unlikely that he will be able to come to this city before the spring.

Operation Decided On As Only Means of Relief

But the Writer of This Letter Resolved To Try Dr. Chase's Ointment First and Was Cured.

This is not an isolated case, for we frequently hear from people who have been cured of piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment.

After physicians had told them nothing short of an operation could bring relief and cure.

If you could read these letters, coming as they do, day after day and year after year, you would realize what a wonderful curative agent Dr. Chase's Ointment really is.

Few ailments are more annoying or more persistently torturing than piles, and when this suffering is promptly relieved by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment there can be no doubt as to where credit is due. Friends and neighbors are told of the results and so the good word spreads, and Dr. Chase's Ointment is becoming known and wide as the only actual cure for piles or hemorrhoids.

Mr. Charles Beauvais, a respected citizen of St. Johns, Que., writes: "For 14 years I suffered from piles or hemorrhoids and considered my case very serious. I was treated by a well-known physician who could not help me, and my doctor decided on an operation as the only means of relief. However, I resolved to try Dr. Chase's Ointment first. The first box brought me great relief, and by the time I had used three boxes I was completely cured. This is why I give me such great pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to everybody suffering from hemorrhoids as a pre-emptive of the greatest value."

HOME GUARD IDEA HAS ITS OBSTACLES

Prospective Members in Many Cases in the Militia Unit.

The organization of a home guard for London is meeting with unforeseen difficulties. Some of the societies which have undertaken this work have found that many of their members were already affiliated with military units in this city, and in order to have them all in a home guard they will have to withdraw from the units they are now in. This has been the case of the Loyal Orange Order, which meets Sunday afternoon to take up the home guard question. Many of the Orangemen are members of E Company of the Seventh Regiment, and if they cannot make that an Orangemen's company they will probably organize a home guard of Orangemen.

TO KEEP GUARD INTACT

Battalion Soldiers Cannot Take Place of Sentries.

The fact that the Eighteenth Battalion under organization here might be called out at any minute has created a condition whereby the guards at the Armories, the cow ranges and the ordnance stores buildings cannot be removed to give way to battalion soldiers. When the battalion first came to the city it was thought that local guards could be dismissed and the paid soldiers of the battalion made to do this sentry work. As the battalion will doubtless be called out in a hurry some day it has been deemed advisable not to change the guard. Incidentally a number of worthy married men will hold their jobs with the Government as such guards.

SERVICE FOR VOLUNTEERS

First Hussars Band Will Play at Devotional Gathering.

The soldiers of the barracks who make up the Sunday services at the fair grounds will be escorted by the First Hussars Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Roselle Pococke. The Sunday parade will start at 9:30 o'clock. The band will play a divine service at Queen's Park from 10 to 11 o'clock. Upon the conclusion of this service the band will give a concert from 11 to 12 in the square east of the administration building.

The band will turn out 40 strong, and the services will be the kind of kind ever held in this city for so many soldiers.

Why the Blunder?

Germany believed that directly war was declared the self-governing colonies would declare their independence, and that India and Egypt would rise as one man to throw off the yoke. Instead of that every part of the Empire had rallied spontaneously around the Mother Country: Louis Botha, who a few years ago had fought against Britain, was engaged in putting down a insignificant rebellion and in fighting Germany; an Australian battleship had sunk the Emperor's (German) and India had remained absolutely loyal.

In this connection the speaker referred to the case of an Indian, who was released after term in prison, meted out to him some years ago for preaching sedition just before the war broke out, and who in public called upon all his fellow-countrymen to be loyal, declaring that under no circumstances could India take the side of a country like Germany against one like England.

They Were Mistaken. The speaker declared that directly war was declared the self-governing colonies would declare their independence, and that India and Egypt would rise as one man to throw off the yoke. Instead of that every part of the Empire had rallied spontaneously around the Mother Country: Louis Botha, who a few years ago had fought against Britain, was engaged in putting down a insignificant rebellion and in fighting Germany; an Australian battleship had sunk the Emperor's (German) and India had remained absolutely loyal.

In this connection the speaker referred to the case of an Indian, who was released after term in prison, meted out to him some years ago for preaching sedition just before the war broke out, and who in public called upon all his fellow-countrymen to be loyal, declaring that under no circumstances could India take the side of a country like Germany against one like England.

Why did Germany make the mistake? asked Mr. Williams, and proceeded to say that the answer, in his opinion, lay in the fact that Germany did not and could not understand that there were two theories of Empire in the world at the present time. Germany's idea of Empire was dominion—suppression of everything which was not German. Our theory was freedom of all political institutions without regard to race, religion, or color. The present struggle was a struggle for political freedom on Britain's part. In place of the Germans' belief in Germany we had a broader belief in humanity.

The fact was that Prussia had conquered Germany. The reason there had been no revolution in Germany was a result of this internal oppression was that the Prussians had had an extraordinary reverence for anyone who wore a uniform. Politically, Germany never had grown up.

Mr. Williams spoke of the Monroe doctrine, and declared his belief that, in case Germany were allowed to beat the Allies, this would not prove to be of benefit to anybody. It would be one of the scariest of scariest "pieces of paper."

In conclusion the speaker declared that the Empire at the present time was like a rising city. The first line of defence was the army and navy and the second line consisted of those left at home to guard the plans of the city. Part of the latter duty devolved upon the school teachers who must not only "guard the plans" but also see to it that the next generation were "master builders."

Several of the teachers present spoke in terms of the highest praise of Mr. Williams' splendid address and a unanimous vote of thanks to him was passed.

During the afternoon Miss Nora Walden gave a vocal solo which earned well-merited applause.

ST. VITUS DANCE

Another Severe Case Cured Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

St. Vitus dance is a common form of nervous trouble, which affects not only young children but men and women as well. The only cure lies in plenty of pure blood, because good blood is the life food of the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure the most severe cases of St. Vitus dance, because they actually make the rich, red blood that feeds and restores the starving, shattered nerves. This has been proved in hundreds of cases, among them that of Mrs. John Duncan, of London, Ont., who says: "About a year ago I found myself becoming very nervous. At the outset I did not pay much attention to it, as I thought the trouble would pass away. In this I was disappointed, for I soon found myself rapidly growing worse. My right arm and leg began to jerk and twitch, all the time, even when I was in bed, and I found great difficulty in walking or doing any work. Finally the trouble affected my speech and it was with difficulty I made myself understood. Of course, I was doctoring for the trouble, but was not being helped, and finally the doctor wanted me to go to the hospital for treatment. This I did not care to do, and it was at this stage that I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. By the time I had used four boxes I felt much better, and in a short time longer I was quite well and strong. My neighbors look upon my cure as quite wonderful, and, indeed, I think it is, and shall always be grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me."

These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or can be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

WOMEN CAN HELP IN WAR

Against Drunkenness.

Mothers, wives and sisters owe it to those dear to them to help them stop drinking. Drunkenness is a disease, and the inflamed membranes of the stomach must be healed and the craving removed—the trembling nerves soothed and restored—before the victim can stop drinking.

IN TRYING TO BUILD UP A BALL TEAM THE NEW YORK CLUB WENT OUT AND NAILED EDDIE PLANK

Now All They Need Is a Few More Planks and They Might Have Enough Left Over To Build a Grandstand

A FEW LAST MOMENT CHANGES MADE IN WESTERN'S LINE-UP

"Dip" Little Taken From Scrimmage and Placed at Flying Wing—"Tiny" Sage Will Be Third Man in Scrimmage With Doupe and Fitzgerald.

BY BERT PERRY.

Some last moment changes have been decided upon in the make-up of the Western University team for its game with the Parkdale junior team at Tecumseh Park this afternoon. "Dip" Little, who has been playing a great game at centre since last season, will be shifted to flying wing. It was at first thought that Stanfield, who was transferred to Toronto a week ago, would be able to come up for the game and play flying wing, but he is unable to come, and as a result Coach Stephens has been forced to make the shifts. Little's place in the scrimmage will be taken by Bob Doupe, and "Tiny" Sage will be the other man in the scrimmage, playing Doupe's former position.

Will Not Weaken Team.

These changes will not weaken the team in any way. In fact, it is the opinion of Coach Stephens that they will strengthen the team, if anything. Little is fast, and he knows the game. He has not played flying wing to any extent, but knows how to play the position, and there is no doubt that he will give a good account of himself. "Tiny" Sage will add considerable weight to the line. "Tiny" has been practicing hard this week, and is in pretty fair shape. He played a great game at Petrolia last Saturday, and with the additional practice should be even better today.

Pierce in Ireland's Place.

The only other change on the team will be Pierce, in Ireland's place at outside wing. "Ireland" is still suffering from partial blindness as a result of ulcer of the cornea of the eye, and it is not likely he will play rugby again this season. He will be missed, but

Pierce is ready to play the game of his life.

Former Parkdale Players.

Coach Jimmy Bell and Gus Edwards, of the university squad, are both former Parkdale players, and it will seem kind of odd to them today to be opposing their old club. Bell, of course, will not play, but he has been helping coach the boys for the game. Edwards will be in the game as large as life, and he is going to show the Parkdale players what a real half-back looks like.

Held Indoor Practice.

The players practiced in the Jubilee rink last night and worked the signals for an hour or two. Every man on the team was out, and a few that are not regulars were also present. Some new plays have been worked out during the week, and they will be tried in today's game, if possible. All the players who were hurt in the Petrolia and Sarnia games have completely recovered. Roy Wright still walks a bit lame, as a result of his sprained ankle, but it does not affect his running to any extent. Tommy Chaito is all better, and the other players have no injuries that amount to anything. The team looks to be in better shape today than at any time this season.

Toronto Officials to Act.

Faulds, the former Toronto Varsity quarter-back, will handle the game, together with Duff Wood, the former London boy, and also a Toronto Varsity man. Duff has been in the city for the past week or two, and he attended a couple of the Western practices. Both officials have had much rugby experience, and there is no doubt that the game will be clean and fast.

Gilmore Says One More Year of War In Major Leagues

Fed. League President Says Peace Terms As Proposed Are Unreasonable.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Another season of baseball war was predicted today by President Gilmore, of the Federal League, discussing the report the failure of Charles E. Johnson and August Hermann to agree on terms for the sale of the Cubs to the former. According to Gilmore, the peace terms, which organized baseball would impose on the one side and the Federal League would demand on the other, were prepared for war. Gilmore declared the Federal League was anxious for peace and ready to make reasonable concessions, but declined to give up everything.

Montreal, Nov. 14.—There will be a meeting of the National Hockey Association at the Windsor Hotel today. This meeting has been called for the purpose of accepting the resignation of president T. J. Foster and to elect his successor. The date of the schedule meeting will also be named today. The annual meeting of the Interprovincial Amateur Hockey Association will be held at the Windsor Hotel this afternoon. At this meeting the plans for the season will be outlined, although the schedule will not be drawn up until a later meeting. Packey McFarland and Freddie Welsh Meet in January

Will Stage Ten-Round Bout For Lightweight Championship of the World.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—A ten-round match between Packey McFarland and Freddie Welsh for the lightweight championship of the world, to be held at New York, probably in January, was practically agreed upon here today. The weights mentioned were 135 pounds for McFarland and 135 pounds for the champion. Welsh thought the challenger ought to make 135, but it is believed he will not insist on the point. McFarland and Welsh have engaged in three bouts, resulting in two draws and one decision for McFarland.

BRITISH SOCIAL UNION LEADS CARPET BALL LEAGUE

Has Won Three Games and Lost One—Molders Up High This Season.

The second week of the league finds the British Socials, captained by E. Banner, still on the top, with the Molders' Union crowding them hard for the lead. The British Socials have won four games played this week, as most of the teams entered belong to lodges which only meet twice a month. Next week all will be playing again. The Molders of last year held the cellar position all season, but promise this year to be at the top. The Sons of Scotland, although playing good games, seem to be down on their luck. The Beavers, captained by Ed. Robinson, an old-time bowler, are expected to do better things. The others will no doubt show up better, as they have more practice, which seems to affect them all, as the scores indicate. The visiting public are cordially invited to attend any of the games at the lodge rooms of any of the teams and will be assured of a courteous reception. The schedule for the season is out, and can be obtained from any of the committee.

The Scores:
Following is a result of the games played this week: British Socials 23, Sons of England 23; Molders' Union 44, Chosen Friends 37; Independent Foresters 25, Sons of Scotland 44; Canadian Beavers 29, Sons of England 15.

ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE WINS THE INTERMEDIATE HONORS

For Second Time in Two Years St. Michael's II. Win Intercollegiate Title.

TORONTO, Nov. 13.—The intercollegiate intermediate football game today between St. Michael's College and McGill University II. was won by the former by a score of 24 to 13, and they are champions for the second year in succession.

The field was a regular quagmire. McGill had all the best of the play in the first half, and at the end of the period led by seven points. Things looked bad for the locals. However, for the remainder of the game they played with building determination. In the last half the locals scored 19 points, while the visitors notched but a single point on a kick to the dead line.

Just Like One Regular Actor

Gowdy and Rudolph and Stallings, too, must bow to little Walter Maranville. They had their chance in vaudeville, but the best they could do was to talk, and haltingly, at that. Maranville made his stage debut in Boston last week, and he sang "Come to Playland With Me," "You Broke My Heart to Pass the Time Away," "When You Were a Yellow Tulip" and "That Old Game of Baseball." And he danced.

BROWN AND HARVARD WILL BATTLE TODAY

New York, Nov. 14.—The annual meeting between Yale and Princeton in the New Palmer Stadium at Princeton overshadowed all other gridiron contests in the east today, although the Dartmouth-Pennsylvania game at Philadelphia, and the Brown-Harvard contest at Cambridge gave promise of keen sport and surprises were predicted that may serve to further complicate eastern football statistics for 1914.

MANUFACTURERS' HOCKEY LEAGUE MEETS NEXT WEEK

Will Endeavor To Form Strong Six-Team Organization Again This Season.

The Manufacturers' Hockey League will hold its annual meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building next Thursday evening for the purpose of electing officers and reorganizing the league for the coming winter. All the firms who wish to enter a team in this league this winter are requested to have representatives at this meeting.

So far, no definite plans have been arranged for the league this season. It has not even been decided in what rink the games will be played, although it is fully expected that the Westminster rink will be given the preference, as the league has played there for the past three or four seasons.

The Manufacturers' League was composed of six teams last winter, and an effort will be made to get at least this number this season. It is doubtful if there will be a City Hockey League this winter, and this should make the Manufacturers' the fastest organization in the city outside of the O. H. A. clubs.

ONLY ONE GAME WILL BE PLAYED IN AFTERNOON

Other City Basketball Contest Will Be Played This Evening Instead.

Only one basketball game will be played in the City Basketball League this afternoon. Dowlers and Cooks will meet in this game. The Pirates and High School teams will not meet until this evening, when a double bill will be staged. The High School girls will play the Normal School girls in a game preliminary to the City League match in the evening.

Making Thomas Captain Cause of Mack's Troubles

Appointment of Catcher Results in Friction Which Splits Team Into Factions.

Among the reports in circulation is one that there was friction between Capt. Ira Thomas and the Athletics. For some reason not understood there is said to have been a feeling of animosity towards Thomas by certain of the team from the time that Ira's appointment was announced at Jacksonville last March. One of the stars is reported to have gone through the entire season without speaking to Ira, except when absolutely compelled to do so during the game.

The veterans are said to have resented orders issued to them by Thomas, and also to have resented this feeling to spread to the young players. Such a condition was very unusual among the Athletics. A continuance of it was certain sooner or later to cause the players to split into different factions, just as prevailed among the Chicago Cubs during the past season, and which seriously handicapped Manager O'Leary in his efforts to develop a pennant winner.

That Connie Mack has full confidence in Thomas' ability as a lieutenant is shown by Ira being given charge of the team without speaking to the coach. Connie intended to take this journey himself, and it was not until the world's series that the announcement was made that there had been a shift in the plan, and that Ira would take Connie's place. It was while on a coast trip several years ago that Manager Mack sized up certain young players, and decided which ones to keep for his team. With Thomas is McAvoy, a young catcher, who is expected to be well coached in some of the fine points of backstop work for future use with the Athletics. McAvoy is the youngster who was drafted from the Berlin Canadian League club a year ago. He was with the Baltimore club in the International League for a greater part of the past season, and was then recalled by Connie Mack.

YALE A FAVORITE OVER PRINCETON

Thousands of People Gather For the Big Game at Princeton This Afternoon.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 14.—Fine autumn weather greeted the thousands of followers of football here today to see the annual contest between Yale and Princeton. The town was crowded last night with old graduates, and the added seating capacity afforded by the new stadium and the increased transportation facilities induced a greater crowd to come to Princeton than ever before. The town was simply packed.

It was the fortieth meeting of the representatives of Yale and Princeton to decide the outcome of the contest. The Yale team outwitted Princeton, but the latter team had more veterans in its lineup. Betting favored Yale. The Tiger adherents were unwilling to place any money without odds.

LONDON PLAYERS ANXIOUS TO KNOW HOW THEY STAND

Bobby Heck Writes President Stevelly About League's Intentions For Next Season.

President Stevelly received a letter from Bobby Heck, the star London southpaw, this morning, asking him whether the Canadian League was going to disband for next season or not. Bobby is anxious to know just what position it will place him in should the league decide to close its parks for a year. He says he can play with the Syracuse Club next season in the New York State League.

Letters from the other London players are expected also. Since the announcement was made that the Canadian League was asking the National Association for permission to close next season, the players who are on Canadian League reserve lists are somewhat anxious to know just how they are going to come out in the matter. All the clubs in the league are receiving letters from their players.

Of course, if the league does close up, the players will be protected, but present indications are that the league will be running as usual when the season of 1915 gets under way.

GERMANS DRIVEN OUT OF DIXMUDE WITH THE BAYONET

"Sprayed With Shrapnel and Shattered With High Explosive Shells," Says Correspondent—Made Slight Advance Against Ypres.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, Nov. 12.—5:45 p.m.—The correspondent of the Central News in the north of France telegraphs that the Germans have been driven out of Dixmude.

"The Germans," the correspondent says, "had not long in which to congratulate themselves on their seizure of the town of Dixmude, which was once the ill-fated town of Dixmude. They were sprayed with shrapnel and shattered with high explosive shells until extermination threatened them. The appearance of French marines with bayonets at charge rapidly convinced them that the death rate would be too high if they remained. Hence Dixmude is ours again."

"The Germans have made a slight advance against Ypres, but it is doubtful if they hold the village of St. Omer."

"At La Bassée the Germans are attempting to drive a wedge into the allied line by a concentrated heavy gun fire. There has been a considerable bulge in the line here for some time, but the Allies hold their positions on either flank."

A correspondent of the Daily Mail, in Northern France, telegraphing Friday, says:

"Our advance has been carried beyond the treacherous woods north of Ypres, and Dixmude was retaken in the afternoon. These two events mark a certain way of the coast battle in our favor, but a tremendous artillery fire has been proceeding even over the ruins of Neuport where previously the situation was calm."

"There is no daily gauge of success."

still intact and the weak points have been strengthened, he says.

"The German troops, after crossing the Yser to the right and to the left of Dixmude, were repulsed," continues the correspondent, "and their lines of communications with Dixmude were endangered. The Allies are now trying to prevent the Germans bringing heavy guns into the battle."

According to the Telegraph, the Germans took very few prisoners at Dixmude. Lomacortyle is still in the possession of the Allies, whose patrols have approached Ostend.

The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, a copy of which has been received here, estimates the Belgian losses in Wednesday's fighting at 6,000 killed and 8,000 wounded. The newspaper says the Belgians fought with the utmost desperation.

BRITISH HOLD MANY GERMAN SHIPS PRIZES

Empress of India Captain Has Had Exciting Time as Naval Transport.

[Canadian Press.]
VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 14.—The C. P. R. liner Empress of India, Captain Halley, has been having an exciting time as a naval transport, according to a letter received here today. It is dated Hongkong, October 14, and the correspondence describes the movements of the liner during September.

While at Singapore the Vancouver liner had the honor of becoming the flagship for the Straits Settlement Squadron and Admiral Jernam and staff took up their quarters on the liner. Other ships in the fleet were the Minotaur, Hampshire, Yarmouth and the two Japanese warships. The India was the flagship for ten days. There were three Japanese prizes at Singapore, when the India left.

On September 25 she left Batavia, where she found five German vessels interned at that Dutch port. On September 27 she joined her clipper bows into Macassar in the Celebes, and there she found three German vessels interned. On September 29 she arrived at Sandakan, British North Borneo, and found two German vessels captured and under the guard of H. M. S. Clio, Cadmus and two destroyers.

The captain, officers and crew of the two German vessels were placed aboard the Empress of India, and on October 1 she sailed for Hongkong with the two German steamers following with prize crews aboard. They were the Tannanfels, which had several thousand tons of coal and large quantities of provisions, and the Rio Passig, which had 4,700 tons of coal.

The German prisoners on the Empress of India were very partial to slinging, "To The Day," and the "Watch On The Rhine." The Empress of India with her prisoners and prizes reached Hongkong on October 8.

THE LOCAL MARKET

The local market this morning was almost three times as large as last Tuesday's and Thursday's market. There was a large supply of produce, which sold readily, a number of buyers being on hand early. There was an exceptionally large supply of potatoes on sale. There were no changes in prices at 9:30 o'clock.

Eggs, retail, took the largest jump they have taken in some time, going from 31 to 35 cents a dozen, to 38 to 40 cents. The demand was exceedingly brisk, the supply not being equal to the demand.

Butter was also in demand in the market house. All classes of butter except rolls sold from 30 to 32 cents a pound. Rolls did not bring more than 30 cents a pound.

One of the largest supplies of poultry seen in the daily hall in some time was on sale this morning. High prices were asked early in the morning, but sales were few and far between. The chances are that poultry will be cheap later in the day. There was some good fowl on sale.

It was rumored that live hogs would bring $7.25 per hundredweight. This rumor could not be verified.

Several loads of choice oats brought $1.50 per hundredweight.

Winnipeg, Nov. 13.—Wheat prices on the Winnipeg market opened unchanged at 1 1/2c lower, 1/2c higher, and flax 2 1/2c higher.

Heavy selling operations developed later causing sharp declines. Peace River wheat was again prominent, causing the break.

Trading was fairly heavy in options. Previous to noon wheat had declined 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c, and showed weak. Closing figures were 1 1/2c lower for wheat, and flax 2 1/2c to 3c higher.

A feature of today's trading was the excellent demand for all grades of cash wheat by millers and exporters, but prices went lower. Cash wheat and barley were in fair request, while cash flax was in keen demand, and a number of futures were put through at higher prices.

Inspections were 527 cars Thursday, as against 1,448 last year, and in sight were 425 cars.

Montreal, Nov. 14.—Wheat receipts, 28,117 bushels.

WHEAT.
Chicago, Nov. 14.—Prospects of a large increase of the visible supply today on Monday had a bearing on wheat prices. Favorable weather for the Argentine harvest, which will begin, counted also against the bulls, and so, too, did talk of high freight rates on the Atlantic. Commission houses indicated in free selling. After opening 1/4c off, the market underwent a moderate decline all around.

KAISER CALLED THE WAR DEVIL FOR BARBARITY

"Kulture" Stoops Below Wild

Mexicans For Atrocities.

TEXAS LADY VEHEMENT

Mrs. A. E. Connor Tells of

Horribly Mutilated Belgian

Children.

SIGHTS FIRE ENGLISHMEN

Visitor Fresh From Mexican

Rebellion Lands in Midst

of Europe's Strife.

That German "kulture" has stooped

to horrible atrocities that even the

"barbarous" Mexicans are not practicing

in their rebellious uprisings, was the statement last night of Mrs. A. E. Connor

of San Antonio, Texas, who is visiting her mother-in-law, 242 St. George street, this city.

Mrs. Connor has spent nearly four months in England, and declares that the terrible stories of German mistreatment

of helpless children and aged men and women are all too true.

Asked to Adopt Maimed Child.

An aunt with whom she was visiting

at Redruth, West Cornwall, was asked

by relief organizations to take one of the maimed Belgian children into her home. The child, which was a girl, only about 10 years, had both arms cut off

above the elbow. Only two stumps remained. Little ones with arms and feet cut off were being brought into

England by the hundreds, Mrs. Connor stated. The cause of the helpless Belgian children was the cause that was drawing many an Englishman from his home to shoulder arms and take part in the titanic struggle against the hosts of the Kaiser, who throughout

the land was known as "The Man

Devil." All England was fired with the desire to avenge the unthinkable cruelty

to the children of a neutral nation.

"People in this country that are

thousands of miles away from the scenes of barbarity, cannot realize the terrible calamity that has befallen Belgium," she said. "The country is

desolated and its people cast from their homes to die."

England Sympathetic.

From the first, she stated, England

opened its doors to the refugees, who are pouring into the country in endless streams. There were people

young and old. Many are children whose parents had been killed. They could not speak English, and for this reason the British authorities were at a tremendous disadvantage.

According to Mrs. Connor's statement to an advertiser reporter, the Canadian expeditionary force has been received with open arms by English

everywhere.

The suspected presence of innumerable German spies in the country caused

military authorities to keep the landing of the Canadian contingent dark,

and the volunteers were almost settled

in the common camp before German

land became aware of the fact that reinforcements from across the Atlantic

had arrived.

Canadians Welcomed.

When the news finally was given

out the troops from Canada were accorded a splendid welcome by town

and country people alike. Every effort was made to provide for their comfort.

Asked how the English people were treating the war situation, Mrs. Con-

APPEAL FOR AID FOR VOLUNTEERS

Daughters of Empire Asking

That Comforts Be

Donated.

CLIMATIC PROTECTION

Soldiers Need Cholera Belts,

Wristlets, Sleeping

Caps, etc.

The Daughters of the Empire are in receipt of urgent requests from

Miss Mary Plummer, member of the executive of the Canadian War Contingent Association, overseas headquarters, for the supply of what is known as comforts for the soldiers of Canada who are fighting in the trenches of Northern France and Belgium. These so-called comforts are really necessities.

The appeal has touched the hearts

of the women who have read them,

and they feel that the needs of the situation have but to be brought to the attention of the women of Western University without regard to any other

town or township, to bring from them

a response commensurate with the need.

With this in view, the London Daughters of the Empire present their case

to the various organizations of women

throughout the district. The appeal

is preliminary to any other appeal, the church societies, without regard to denominations, and all other societies, and to the women, who, not owning men-

bership in any organization, yet have been laid deeply upon them.

The call is for money with which to buy necessities, such as cholera

belts, wristlets, socks, or for those who will knit these articles. Money

or service alike will be acceptable.

The need is immediate. Eleven hundred soldiers are leaving London within a short time for that front. Others are at Salisbury. All these, probably nearly three hundred in all, for whom

the people of Western Ontario are preparing to receive, are in need of the necessities of life. These are the first most important needs: Blankets,

chiefs, colored, khaki preferred; sleep-
