STARTLING DISCLOSURES MAY BE MADE AT INQUEST INTO JAMES LEARNE'S DEATH

Prisoner Will Be Given a Hearing Next Friday—Has Only Been Married a Few Months—Alleged Motive Is Disagreement Over Farm.

[By Staff Reporter.]

SIMCOE, Ont., July 30.—Lorne Helmer, 20-year-old Norfolk farmer, is incarcerated in the county jail here charged with the murder of James A. Learne, whose body was found on the Helmer Farm in North Walsingham Township, early Thursday morning by a search party composed of district farmers. Helmer, who was married nine months ago, was arrested by County Constable Roy Marshall in company with Provincial Detective John Miller this morning. He was taken into custody at the farm of a relative a few miles south of the scene of the alleged murder.

The accused youth, who is an overseas veteran, having enlisted at an early age in the 133rd Norfolk Battalion, was brought before J. S. Abel, justice of the peace, at Silver Hill, and was remanded one week on a charge of wilfully murdering James A. Learne. He will appear at the inquest to be held at Silver Hill on Friday morning, when startling disclosures will likely be made, and new evidence introduced by the crown.

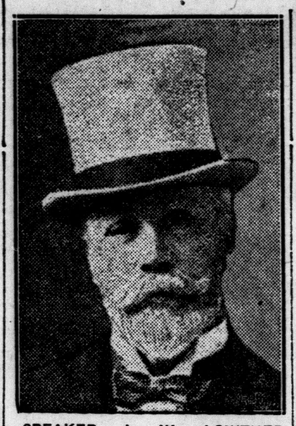

The prisoner was brought to the office of Crown Attorney T. R. Slaght about noon today, and after a conference there was taken to a local cafe for luncheon. A further conference was then held in the attorney's office, after which Helmer was locked up in the county jail here. He calmly submitted to his arrest, making no attempt to escape, and has observed a cool demeanor ever since. Counsel has not yet been retained in his interests, but this matter will be attended to before the inquest is resumed next Friday.

Motive For Murder.

Learn is believed by the authorities to have been murdered about July 13 last, and the motive, according to Crown Attorney T. R. Slaght, is the fact that he was preventing Helmer from retaining possession of certain lands in the township. The victim disappeared about this date, on the day that Lorne Helmer was served with a writ issued by Learne to evict the accused youth from the Helmer farm, which was leased for a term of years by the victim from the mother of the prisoner.

The body was discovered cleverly concealed in a trench dug some time ago by hunters in search of a skunk. The trench is about twenty feet long and two feet wide, and is situated on the side of a ravine in a secluded spot. The remains were covered with earth and dead leaves, and in addition the

LOCAL BUILDING FIGURES PASS THE MILLION MARK

Big Advance Shown Over Same Period a Year Ago—Permits For Residences Continue To Be Issued Steadily.

Official building figures have passed the million-dollar mark. Permits issued yesterday brought the total for the month to $188,195. This added to the total of the previous six months, which was $825,105, made the aggregate figures for the year $1,013,309. This compared well with a total of $719,230 attained by this time in 1919. The figures for the month also exceeded those of July last year, when the total was only $171,200.

This gives an encouraging lead in the race to beat last year's figures, but it is expected that it will be needed next month. Last year in August building figures reached the enormous total of $867,420, owing to the building of two theatres and other large construction work.

Permits issued Friday were: W. E. Saunders, 2-story brick dwelling, Central avenue, $8,400; W. Hallowell, 1-story brick dwelling, 58 High street, $3,000; Dr. Huffman, remodel brick dwelling, 746 Waterloo street, $3,000; P. Eckert, 2-story brick, kitchen, veranda and general repairs, 296 Wolfe street, $9,000.

SAILORS ON LINER BALTIC MAY PREVENT DEPARTURE OF SHIP IF ARCHBISHOP MANNIX IS ABOARD

One Faction On Steamer Declares Strike Will Follow If the Australian Prelate Is Passenger — Irish Members of Crew Declare Church Official Should Be Carried To England As an Honored Guest—The Ship Officials Attempt Reconciliation.

New York, July 31.—Dissension among the crew of the steamship Baltic, occasioned by the name of Archbishop Daniel J. Mannix of Australia, among the list of passengers, today gave rise to uncertainty as to whether the ship would sail for Queenstown and Liverpool at noon as scheduled.

Promiscuous arguments among the crew concerning the Australian prelate's prospective voyage crystallized into formal meetings early today of the National Cooks' and Stewards' Union and the Seamen's and Firemen's Union, which were to decide what action, if any, would be taken.

Among the crew are many who are either Irish or of Irish descent, who claim that Archbishop Mannix should make the voyage as an honored guest of the Baltic. There is said to be, however, an equal number who expressed the opinion that he should not be allowed to sail on a ship flying the British flag. The former gave desultory threats that if he were not among the passengers they would go on strike, and the latter were equally determined individually to prevent a sailing if he were numbered among the voyagers.

Officers of the ship, however, early today expressed hope of reconciling the two factions. They said they would attempt to persuade the men to see that the archbishop's sailing was a matter for the British Government to decide, and that it should not concern the Baltic's crew.

BIG DELEGATION TO BID GOOD-BYE TO ARCHBISHOP MANNIX

New York, July 31.—(By the Canadian Press).—Mgr. John A. Sheppard, vicar-general of the Roman Catholic diocese of Newark, who will head a large delegation to see Archbishop Mannix off when the Baltic sails at 1 o'clock today, issued the following statement last night. That Archbishop Mannix should be prevented from landing on English soil is not easily understood. He has done nothing but voice the doctrine of the declaration of independence and emphasize the language of President Wilson on the self-determination of small nations, which all liberty-loving Americans heartily indorse.

"Were the president of the United States to give out that he was to sail tomorrow for England, it would be just as logical for the English Government to say that he could not land as to forbid the great archbishop to set foot on the soil of England."

If Eamonn De Valera, "president of the Irish republic," is the "distinguished compatriot" who dispatches from London announced would sail today with Archbishop Mannix, he apparently planned to board the Baltic baggageless. At noon all his belongings were in his suite at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, where he arrived last night.

LUCAS REMOVED IRON BARS TO MAKE ESCAPE

British General Gained Liberty From the Sinn Feiners.

Dublin, July 31.—Brig.-Gen. O. H. T. Lucas, commander of the Fermoy military area, who has just reached the Tipperary military barracks after having been held prisoner by the Sinn Feiners, since he was kidnapped late in June, made his escape Thursday night by removing bars guarding the window of the room which served as his prison. The location of the building is not divulged.

Neither is it known how Gen. Lucas spent the night. He encountered the lorry which brought him to the Tipperary barracks at 9 o'clock the next morning, near Oola, between Limerick and Tipperary. He was wearing civilian clothes, but was able to convince the soldiers of his identity. Shortly after he was taken into the lorry it was held up by a party of Sinn Feiners and two soldiers were killed and three others wounded. The holdup seems to have been merely a customary attempt to capture arms, the raiders not suspecting the presence of Gen. Lucas.

There are several versions of the details connected with the incident. According to one of them, the lorry was stopped by a felled tree and fifty men opened fire from both sides of the road. The soldiers alighted and maintained a fight for half an hour until a second lorry appeared, when the assailants fled across the fields, continuing the fire until they made their escape. Outside of a slight bullet scratch over his eye, received in the holdup, the health of Gen. Lucas is good, and he had no complaint of the treatment accorded him while he was held prisoner by the Sinn Feiners.

"CIVIC HOLIDAY" IN MANY ONT. CITIES ON MONDAY NEXT

Custom Originally Came From England.

Toronto, July 31.—By the Canadian Press.—Next Monday is Civic Holiday in Toronto, and most of the other cities of Ontario, Winnipeg, Man., is also taking the day off as the result of the mayor's proclamation. Outside of the provinces of Ontario and Manitoba, however, cities of Canada have not yet contracted the habit of regularly making the first Monday in August a municipal mid-summer holiday.

In Ontario some exceptions in the matter of dates are Kingston and Belleville, who had their Civic holidays on July 26 and 27, respectively. Chatham will make it a holiday on August 5, and Galt on August 9. Edmonton, Alta., has also chosen August 9 for "the day." Montreal and the east never think of a Civic Holiday, neither does Vancouver, although some other western cities are said to be considering the matter.

The custom in some cities of Canada of proclaiming a Civic Holiday came from England, where in many towns the merchants and the town council decide on a day in mid-summer to cease work.

IMPORTERS OBJECT TO PREPAYMENT OF FREIGHT FROM U. S.

American Firms Taking No Chances On Losing Money.

Washington, July 31.—Canadian manufacturers and importers are objecting to the requirement of railroads that they prepay freight charges on goods shipped them from the United States, the department of commerce was advised today by Felix Johnson, consul at Kingston, Ont.

The Canadians complained, according to Consul Jackson, that United States railroad companies are disregarding the recommendation of the interstate commerce commission, that prepayment of freight charges be required only where it was customary in the past.

To secure goods from the United States, Canadian buyers say they must forward funds for freight payment, and that usually it is a month before shipments arrive, Consul Johnson reported.

United States railroads have been insisting on prepayment of freight charges to protect themselves from loss as a result of the depreciated value of Canadian currency. Efforts are being made by the interstate commerce commission and the Dominion railway board to remedy the difficulty.

Wheat Cutting Begins Today Near Calgary

Yield Is Expected To Be From 25 to 35 Bushels Per Acre.

Calgary, July 31.—Cutting of spring wheat will commence at Empress today, according to advices received here. The yield is expected to run from 25 to 35 bushels to the acre in this district.

W. G. Hunt, former manager for the Massey-Harris Company here, who returned to Calgary yesterday from a tour of parts of the south country and Goose Lake line, reports that the grain is well advanced almost everywhere, and estimates the probable yield in many districts will be from 35 to 40 bushels.

CHECK ARTIST WAS BUSY IN GUELPH

Secured $300 in Cash by Use of Forged Checks.

Guelph, July 30.—Claiming that he was a representative of the Hyatt Manufacturing Company of London, a well-dressed young man about 25 years of age visited Guelph last Saturday and after passing worthless checks for $90 on three local merchants, made his exit from the city and has not been heard of since.

It was not discovered until today that the stranger, who went by the name of George B. Shea, was a bogus check artist, when the Bank of Toronto at London notified the local Royal Bank that one of the checks forwarded to them for payment was a forgery. In each case the man had presented checks on a different bank, and used the Hyatt Company's name on all three. The checks were false certifications, but were so cleverly camouflaged that the artist experienced little difficulty in defrauding the merchants.

Notices with a description of the man have been sent to all the nearby police, and every effort is being made to round up the offender, who secured in all about $300 in cash and merchandise.

BOLSHEVIK FORCES ADVANCE TO EAST PRUSSIAN BORDER

Line Extends To Point Sixty Miles North of Warsaw.

FRENCH TROOPS HELD

Reds and Germans Negotiating At Suwalki.

London, July 31.—Continued successes for the Bolsheviki are announced in an official statement issued Friday by the Russian Soviet Government at Moscow and received here today by wireless.

Paris, July 31.—(By the Associated Press).—Bolshevik cavalry forces have advanced to the East Prussian frontier, according to a report from the French military mission in Warsaw to the French foreign office. The Bolshevik line extends from Suwalki, fifty miles northwest of Grodno more than sixty miles to a point almost directly north of Warsaw. The Bolsheviki have not actually crossed the borders of Allenstein and Marienwerder, but are fraternizing with the Germans.

The mission says it understands the Germans and Bolsheviki are negotiating at Suwalki. The northern wing of the Bolshevik army now is menacing Warsaw directly from the north, as well as from the east. The Bolsheviki are now 25 miles southwest of Bialystok.

The Allied troops in Allenstein and Marienwerder, which are mostly French, will be held there until the situation clears, though the plebiscite duties have been completed. Gen. Romer, commander of the first Polish army, which suffered most severely in the vital region northeast of Warsaw, has been relieved, and Gen. Joseph Haller has been given supreme command of the northern group of armies. The advancement of Gen. Haller, who commanded the Polish divisions in France, and is French trained, is the first step in the reorganization of the Polish army, which was begun by the Anglo-French mission yesterday. All the important technical services are being taken over by French officers and advisers, and large authority has been placed with the staffs.

PRESS DELEGATE HAS DIFFERENT VIEWS ON IMPERIAL QUESTIONS

Naylor Says Colleagues Speak Only From Own Standpoint.

St. John, N. B., July 30.—(By Canadian Press).—The status of the overseas dominions and the link between Canada and Great Britain will suffer no change with the increasing power of the Labor party in England, Mr. T. E. Naylor informed the imperial press conference delegates and their hosts at a civic luncheon in St. John today. Mr. Naylor is representative in the conference of the printing trades of Great Britain and is chairman of the London Labor Party.

"I am not prepared to apologize for the fact that I look on most imperial questions from a slightly different angle than that assumed by my colleagues, who are speaking only from their own point of view," he said. "Reference has been made to two great political parties in Canada, but in Great Britain we speak of three. The democracy of the old country is gradually assuming a higher place in the councils of the nation and we are looking forward to the time when the extreme Left of those parties may be permitted to enter into that state of authority which, once assumed, will not make the slightest difference to the attitude of the prospective new government toward those dominions which go to make up what we call the British Empire.

"The English-speaking nations of the world are the guardians of the world's peace. They have always been in the van of the world's progress, and nothing we who represent labor will do will ever affect the desire or the efforts of men who lead all parties—we desire to make the prosperity of the Empire as great as we can make it and to restrain those forces which would make for disintegration and revolution."

Monday being Civic Holiday, only the morning edition of the London Advertiser will be issued.

JILTED LOVER KILLS WOMAN

Chelsea Man Attempts Suicide After Committing Murder.

Cambridge, Mass., July 31.—Harry W. Douglass of Chelsea shot and killed Mrs. Grace Rowan Cummings while she lay in bed in her apartment on Mount Auburn street last night, and, turning his pistol upon himself, inflicted a probably fatal wound in the head.

Friends of Mrs. Cummings said that the two had been planning to be married in September, but that a few days ago Mrs. Cummings told Douglass that she had changed her mind and had decided not to marry him. He called on her last night, and while he was talking with a young woman visitor Mrs. Cummings retired. Shortly afterwards he entered her room and the shooting followed.

MANAGERS SAY DEMANDS UNFAIR

Object To Being Forced To Employ Stated Number of Musicians.

Definite assurances that all local theatres will continue "pleasure as usual" were given by the managers today, although they are facing the prospect of a walkout on the part of their orches as at midnight tonight unless same unexpected settlement is reached.

Peculiar circumstances surround the situation as the matter of wages is not involved in the dispute and the clause over which the dispute has occurred is not supported as warmly by the orchestra men as by the bandsmen and other members of the musicians' union, it is said.

Expires Tonight.

The twelve months' agreement under which the musicians have been employed expires at midnight tonight and unless the new agreement is signed with the managers it is altogether probable that the theatres will be without orchestras.

The managers believe they have acted in good faith and have agreed to pay the men the increased wage scale as demanded in their new agreement and believe the men unfair in causing a rupture in signing the new agreement.

The whole stumbling block in the way of settlement, however, was the insertion of a clause in the agreement under which the theatres were to employ not less than nine men in their orchestras.

Says It's Unfair.

The managers contend that this is an unfair demand, contending that they at all times would employ extra men, if it would improve the entertainment, but they feel that they will not be forced into signing an agreement whereby they shall be obliged to employ a stated number of men.

The orchestra members themselves are said to have admitted that there was some weight to this argument on the part of the employers. It is claimed, however, that the negotiating committee is composed largely of members of the union who are bandsmen and not orchestra players, and it is these who insist on the adoption of the disputed clause.

Remaining Away.

Meanwhile the musicians are insisting that they do not intend to go on strike, but are remaining away from work simply because they cannot get the agreement signed. The theatre managers have proceeded with plans to keep the playhouses in full swing, and have definite arrangements for providing music for their patrons in the event of the musicians not putting in an appearance.

SAYS HE HAD 17 CASES STOLEN

Richard Gray Reports Loss of Whiskey to the Police.

Richard Gray, 15 Rosewood avenue, has reported to the local police that on July 22, while attending a picnic at Springbank his house was entered and seventeen cases of whiskey were stolen. Gray was fined $200 and costs in police court on July 16 as a result of being taken into custody on a city street with a bottle of liquor in his possession.

During his trial he admitted having a large quantity of liquor on his premises, and following his conviction a search warrant was issued to verify his statement, and to see if any had been disposed of by him. The police found the whiskey at Gray's house as stated, and the matter was dropped, to be revived by the reported theft.

Recently a Windsor citizen, reporting a similar theft, was heavily fined, the court holding that the liquor was not stolen but sold by the accused.

THREE INJURED IN STREET CAR WRECK

Halifax, N. S., July 31.—While coming down Jacob street this morning one of the new one-man safety tram cars left the track and after crashing on through two telegraph poles, turned over on its side on the sidewalk. Three persons were injured.

WILL PROTEST APPOINTMENT

L. R. C. Committee Claim Architect's Assistant Should Come From City.

The labor representation committee, at its meeting Friday night, passed a resolution to enter a protest against the appointment of Capt. Robinson, now in Sarnia, as assistant to board of education architect Carrothers. The protest was made on the ground that a London man ought to have been appointed, and a statement was further made by the labor delegates that Capt. Robinson is a nephew of Trustee Edwin Smith.

Trustee Smith is out of town, as is Chairman of the Board of Education Harry Hayman. Trustee Thomas Rowe said today that he understands that Capt. Robinson did not seek the position, but was asked to accept the appointment at the suggestion of Chairman Hayman, who, as a practical builder, the other members of the board thought, would know best what type of architect should be appointed.

Capt. Robinson, although at present in Sarnia, looks upon London as his home, and has a child living in this city with its grandparents since the death of his wife.

As a constructional engineer, with both civil and military experience, the building committee of the board of education decided that he was just the man required to assist Architect Carrothers.

"Surely efficient and qualified men are not to be debarred from public appointments merely because they are relatives of board members," said Trustee Rowe.

STORK HAS HAD A BUSY MONTH

Seventy-Three Baby Boys and Fifty-One Girls Were Brought.

All records for long-distance flying have been broken by the humble stork, official figures at the city hall this month indicate that he made enough trips between Babyland and the Forest City to tire the wings of an eagle, but he is still going strong.

To be precise, he made exactly 142 journeys during July. In 73 trips he brought with him a smiling baby boy, and in the remaining 51 a dimpled baby girl. This kept him nearly twice as busy as in July, 1919, when he brought only 95 babies.

The vital statistics for the month show a slight increase in the death rate. Seventy-two deaths occurred, 34 males and 38 females, compared to 71 last year, 35 males and 36 females. There were 71 marriages during the month, compared to 84 to July, 1919.

MILLERAND GETS CHAMBER TO O.K. SPA AGREEMENT

Puts Issue Boldly To Deputies and Wins Support For Pact.

Paris, July 30.—By the Associated Press.—Premier Millerand again won the support of the Chamber of Deputies for his government today in its Spa coal arrangement, in the face of an adverse report by the commission on finances. He obtained a favorable vote of 365 to 169 for adoption of the 200,000,000 francs monthly advances to Germany.

"If you refuse to vote this bill," M. Millerand said, "then our obligation to make advances ceases, but at the same time there disappears the coal protocol for 2,000,000 tons monthly to the Allies, the control commission vanishes, and finally there vanishes the provision for occupation of the Ruhr if Germany does not deliver 6,000,000 tons at the date fixed. You take also from our Belgian and Italian friends the coal Germany promised to deliver.

"Let me confront you with your responsibilities," the premier added. "There will be not only responsibility for a coal shortage just before winter, but a higher and more serious one."

M. Millerand referred to the present closeness of the Allies. It was not only necessary in facing Germany, but also, he said, in looking to the East. "There is needed the close, intimate, confident union of all the Allies, and of the Allies alone," he declared.

The government needed the close and lasting support of parliament, M. Millerand declared, and created a stir by adding that some day, when other great difficulties were met and solved, and with the experiences of these last few years, he and they would try to "make indispensable changes in our constitutional organism."

DIED AT STRATHROY.

Strathroy, July 31.—Archibald McLellan, aged 88, is dead at his home here. Besides his widow he is survived by four sons, Alex. of Glencoe; Duncan, Williams, Arizona; James of Victoria, B. C., and William of Strathroy; also three daughters, Mrs. A. McVicar, Glencoe; Mrs. R. P. Elliott and Miss Margaret, Strathroy. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon to Strathroy Cemetery.

BOLSHEVISM AND GERMAN REVENGE BEHIND SINN FEIN MOVEMENT

So Declares Sir Edward Carson and Duke of Northumberland.

LLOYD GEORGE'S VIEWS

Premier Is Disappointed Because No Remedy Is Suggested.

London, July 31.—(By the Associated Press).—An official report concerning the reception Thursday by Premier Lloyd George of a deputation of Unionist peers and members of the House of Commons for a discussion of the subject of Ireland, shows that the chief spokesmen of the deputation were the Duke of Northumberland and Sir Edward Carson, Unionist leader, both of whom emphasized that the Sinn Fein was part of a great world-wide conspiracy in which bolshevism and German revenge were playing an active part, aiming at the destruction of Great Britain. The Duke of Northumberland alluded to an alliance alleged to have been formed at the beginning of 1918 between the Sinn Fein and the Bolsheviki through Dr. Patrick McCartain, the so-called Sinn Fein "ambassador" to the United States, and declared that the Sinn Fein was represented at all the conferences in Russia leading up to the third internationale and that the Sinn Fein program was virtually identical with the program propounded by the third internationale. He argued that it was from the time that Frank P. Walsh of the "propaganda bureau in the United States" came to Ireland last year, that the Sinn Fein became unmanageable in a conspiracy which he said would eventually beat the British Government.

Lloyd George Disappointed.

Mr. Lloyd George, in replying, expressed disappointment that the deputation had failed to suggest possible remedies for the situation in Ireland. He agreed there was Bolshevist support behind anti-British activities in Ireland, and said he would not be surprised if there also were Bolshevik money.

"But," he added, "we should make a mistake if we came to the conclusion that the Sinn Fein is purely a Bolshevist conspiracy against Great Britain."

The premier touched at length upon the difficulty of finding the necessary troops and officers for the carrying out of a military policy in Ireland "under conditions worse and more trying to men's nerves than the late war."

"We are doing ours," the premier continued, "but we want recruits. We want officers to lead and to guide. We want a thousand to put down this conspiracy."

Mr. Lloyd George concluded by contending that there was need for a decided policy for enforcing the law and for a policy of granting Ireland any measure of liberty and self-government consistent with the supremacy and security of the United Kingdom. He especially emphasized the necessity of getting the vast mass of British opinion, especially the working class opinion, behind the Government's policy, declaring "I do not believe you can govern Ireland under any other conditions."

BRITISH TAXATION MAY FORCE HUDSON BAY TO TRANSFER ITS HOLDINGS

Sir Robert Kindersley Outlines Proposition at Annual Meeting.

London, July 31.—By the Canadian Associated Press.—Sir Robert Kindersley, chairman of the board of the Hudson Bay Company, at its annual meeting today, said that British taxation was compelling the directors to consider the possibility of transferring part of their business to purely Canadian companies. Sir Robert referred to the advantage which Canadian people had over them in not being subjected to the excess profits duty. He said that probably the most important matter, as far as the Hudson Bay Company was concerned, was that under the English law they were not allowed to depreciate their holdings before paying taxes. In an old established country this might be reasonable, but it was unreasonable in a young country like Canada, where so many buildings were of a temporary character. It would be impossible to develop their town sites while they were an English company. Sir Robert also hinted at the near prospect of further capital being required in view of the considerable expansion before them. If, however, there was a material fall in prices, fresh capital might not be required. The chairman alluded to another year's prosperity in their fur trade, despite the more severe competition in the last few years. The prospect of their farm lands was encouraging, except in certain portions of Alberta. There seemed to be slight signs of the revival of better class real estate.

THREE KILLED WHEN LIGHTNING STRIKES DYNAMITE SHED

Quebec, July 31.—(Canadian Press).—Last night three men were killed as the result of lightning striking a shed containing dynamite.

The three men, who were standing nearby, were instantly killed, one of them having his head completely torn

HYDRO AGREEMENT WITH GUELPH IS VALID AND BINDING

Toronto Lawyers Declare in Opinions Given To the City Council.

Guelph, July 30.—Legal opinions given by George H. Kilmer, K.C., and C. S. MacInnes, K.C., of Toronto, on behalf of the Hydro-Electric Commission as to the legal authority for the agreement entered into between the city of Guelph and the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission respecting the acquiring of the Guelph Radial Railway system by the hydro commission, were made public today by Mayor Westoby of this city, and are to the effect that the agreement in question is a legal, valid and binding one.

Mr. Kilmer, in his opinion, refers to a statement credited to Premier Drury, to the effect that the Guelph city solicitor, prior to the agreement having been entered into, had advised that there was no legal authority for making such an agreement, and states that "Mr. Drury has been misinformed."

Section 3 of the hydro-electric railway act, 1916, is cited by Mr. Kilmer as expressly authorizing the acquisition by the hydro commission of the whole or part of the railway.

MYSTERY OF BURNING OIL SHIP IS SOLVED

Fishing Schooner Relates How Impression Was Gained.

Atlantic City, July 31. — Arrival here yesterday of the fishing schooner MacIntosh solved the mystery of the "burning tanker," supposed to have gone down with all hands off Avalon Wednesday. Capt. George Painter of the MacIntosh explained that fishing off Avalon was seriously hampered by masses of oil on the surface, the oil having been discharged from the tanker Cabrille, which had gone aground. The engineer of the MacIntosh, hearing the complaints of the fishermen, oiled up a large bundle of waste, set it afire and tossed it into the floating oil.

The fire ran from pool to pool of the floating oil, giving the appearance of a series of explosions. The MacIntosh, which carries an engine for calm weather, was obliged to flee from the fire, and when the oil had burned itself out there was no trace of anything on the sea for the searchers.

GERMANS DECIDE TO RELEASE BELA KUN

Hungarian Government Unable To Secure Former Communist Dictator.

Berlin July 31.—Bela Kun, former Communist dictator of Hungary, and his Communist companions, who recently were detained at Stettin while en route to Russia, are to be allowed to depart to "a destination abroad to be chosen by themselves," according to an official statement issued Friday. The Government refers to the fact that Hungary has asked to have Bela Kun handed over to it, but without result, and says the German Government does not feel justified in "further withholding freedom from the arrested persons without legal grounds.

SCORES KENLON FOR CAUSING TROUBLE

Fire Chief John Aitken has returned from the international convention of fire chiefs at Toronto and will attend the Dominion convention at St. Thomas on August 3, 4, 5 and 6.

"We were treated well at the Dominion convention," he said. "It was only marred by the trouble instigated by Fire Chief Kenlon of New York, which in the end amounted to nothing. There should have been no friction, because when I attended the executive meeting in March at Toronto I distinctly remember the selection of a minister for the opening ceremonies of the convention was left in the hands of Fire Chief Russell of Toronto. At the closing of the executive meeting all the members apparently were well pleased with the arrangement."

Fire Chief R. R. McLeod of Port Arthur is in the city. He will attend the Dominion convention in St. Thomas.

VILLAGE INDUSTRIES ARE THING OF PAST, DECLARES REYNOLDS

President of O. A. C. Tells of Decadence in Past Few Years.

REGRETS THE CHANGES

Country Life Robbed of Many of Its Former Pleasures.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Guelph, July 31.—Last night, "The Deserted Village" was the subject of Professor Reynolds' address at the Rural Leadership School.

"The rapid development of our industrial system which has contributed so much to the abnormal growth of the cities has resulted in the decadence of the village industries of Canada. The claim made for this development of our industrial system is that by it we have made progress and developed, and that it has made for the prosperity of the rural parts themselves. But this claim is open to serious challenge.

"Through the decadence of the village industries we have suffered a serious social and economic loss," declared the president, who gave a vivid description of two villages of his boyhood days, comparing them as they were when he was a boy with what they are today. "Where are the successors of the old village merchant today? Who are they? What are they doing?" he asked, and answering his own questions, said: "They are found largely in the city, working in the factories. Their passing is an economic loss to the rural district, and to the nation at large. During the war much was made of the idea of people going from the town and city to help the farmer during harvest; that custom was a common thing years ago.

Shifting of Labor.

The powers of graphic description possessed by President Reynolds were fully displayed in a description he gave of a harvest scene years ago; most vivid was the mental picture. One could see the hands at work in the field, but now instead of many we have one or two. In the change from the cradle to the binder, the speaker maintained there has been no saving of labor or of cost of production, only a shifting of labor. Instead of working in the field the work his done in the factory, and the products cannot be produced as cheaply as 40 years ago.

The social life, he said, has been greatly impoverished by these changes. If the departure had made the social life happier and more serviceable progress would have been made, but that is not so.

PARIS PRESS IS PLEASED WITH VOTE UPHOLDING MILLERAND'S ATTITUDE

Paris, July 31.—The newspapers this morning express satisfaction over the vote in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday supporting Premier Millerand's Spa agreement. They say the government's victory was due to the clear, frank declarations of the premier.

The newspapers declared the premier realized the seriousness of the question, but lay emphasis on the fact that all the speakers pointed out that France had reached the extreme limit of concessions.

L'Eclair says that the chamber, even against its will, submitted rather than break an engagement entered into in its name.

NOTHING LIKE BI-NESIA TO RELIEVE INDIGESTION

Prove it yourself to your own satisfaction. Just eat a hearty meal of the good things that usually make your stomach kick up a fuss. Then take three little Bi-nesia tablets with a sip of hot water. Note the entire absence of the usual pain and discomfort. That's because indigestion simply can't exist in the same stomach with Bi-nesia. Don't suffer any longer with indigestion, gas, acidity or food fermentation. Go today to your druggist and get a package of Bi-nesia tablets and use as directed. Then you will soon be telling your dyspeptic friends that they can eat what they like if they take Bi-nesia.

To Keep Skin Fresh and Fine These Heated Days

It would be much better for the skin if little cream, powder or rouge were used during the heated term. Mixed with perspiration, dust and grime, these things are anything but beautifying. Ordinary mercolized wax will do more for the complexion, and without giving an oily, streaked, spotted or pasty appearance. It is the ideal application for the season, as it not only keeps the pores clean, but daily removes particles of scarf skin which have been soiled by dirt or weather. By constantly keeping the complexion clear, white, satiny, it does more toward perpetuating a youthful countenance than any of the arts or artifices commonly employed. One ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, will completely renovate the worst complexion. It is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning. There's nothing better for tanned, freckled or reddened skins.—Advt.

PASSENGERS HURT WHEN ENGINE HITS RICHMOND ST. CAR

Miss Mary Webb, Nurse At St. Joseph's Hospital, Has Leg Broken—Other Persons Cut, Bruised — Gates Raised—Slow Speed Prevents Fatalities.

Miss Mary Webb, 98 Horton street, sustained a fractured leg when C. P. R. engine No. 2205 struck street car No. 66 of the Richmond line at the Richmond street crossing at 7:15 o'clock on Friday evening. Several other passengers on the car were slightly injured.

Carrying a fairly large number of passengers, the street car was proceeding south in charge of Motorman William Patton. When the crossing was reached the car was held up by the gates, which at that time were down, the westbound train having arrived from the east and having stopped on the north track. "I waited about two minutes before the gates went up and the derail closed," said the motorman.

According to residents of the vicinity, it is the custom for the gates to be lowered when the train first pulls in, and then to be raised to let traffic cross during the time in which the engine is being detached from the string of cars. After this duty is completed the gates are lowered again and the engine crosses Richmond street.

Last night, it was said, the first part of the procedure was adopted, but before the street car could clear the north train track the engine was upon it, striking it half way between the front and rear wheels. One of the car's axles was broken.

Miss Webb, seeing the engine coming, jumped and broke her leg, according to witnesses. She is a nurse of St. Joseph's Hospital, and was removed to that institution in the police ambulance.

Others injured were: Capt. W. W. Mino, Royal Bank, Toronto, cut and bruised; C. Durkin, 25 Christie street, city, slightly cut; C. Foster, 26 Grosvenor street, slightly bruised; Motorman William Patton, 352 William street, arm hurt.

Harry Howell of Horton street was the conductor on the car. The engine crew was composed of Engineer W. Kerr and Fireman Banghart.

One lady who was a passenger on the car fainted, while two returned soldiers who had been shell-shocked while overseas were somewhat shocked. A lady passenger lost her wrist watch during the excitement, but recovered it half an hour later.

The street railway wrecker was called to the scene and removed the wrecked car to the barns.

Persons living near the scene of the accident declared that until lately the north track of the C. P. R. was used as a switch, but recently has served as a westbound track.

Only the slow rate of speed at which the engine was traveling prevented more serious results.

CHOLERA INFANTUM

Cholera infantum is one of the fatal ailments of childhood. It is a trouble that comes on suddenly, especially during the summer months and unless prompt action is taken the little one may soon be beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets are an ideal medicine in warding off this trouble. They regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus prevent the dreaded summer complaints. They are an absolute safe medicine, being guaranteed to contain neither opiates nor narcotics or other harmful drugs. They cannot possibly do harm—they always do good. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

GILBERT HARRIS SENT FOR TRIAL; SAID TO HAVE KICKED WOMAN

Mrs. Mamie Ray Alleges That On Two Occasions Assault Committed.

On the evidence given by the complainant and a witness, Gilbert Harris of this city was committed for trial by Squire Chittick at the county court house Friday afternoon on a charge of doing bodily harm and assaulting Mrs. Mamie Ray of Manor Park on Saturday, July 24. The assault is alleged to have been committed in Mrs. Louise Russell's home in Manor Park.

"On Saturday, July 24, I went with him to Mrs. Russell's home, where I had left the baby a few days before," said the complainant. "While there he accused me of being out the following evening with other people in a car. We had words over the baby the day previous, and more on Saturday. We had more words at the house, and he made an effort to strike me with his open palm. It missed he, and I struck him on the head with an umbrella. He then kicked me on the upper part of the right thigh. The kick was so severe that it caused me pain, and a bad bruise resulted. Mrs Russell and her daughter were present at the time he kicked me.

"I saw him again on the same evening at 347 Dundas street and he kicked me on the left leg near the ankle. The result of that kick caused me severe pain and it does at times now. The kick broke the skin. This was after 10 o'clock at night.

"The following Thursday I saw him in a lane in Westminster township and on that occasion he held me by the throat and accused me with being out with other men."

Mrs. Louise Russell said: "Mrs. Ray left her baby with me on Saturday, July 17. Harris and her came to my home on Saturday, July 24. At my home Harris accused Mrs. Ray of being out with other men. He then made an effort to hit her with his open hand. After this she procured an umbrella and hit him on the head with it. He kicked her on the right thigh and I think it hurt her, because she showed me the bruise the next evening and it was then black and blue. The size of the bruise might be represented by the size of my two fists put together."

RESIGNATIONS ARE REFUSED BY ASS'N

E. Heard, W. Smith, of Game Society, Say Interest Lacks.

At the regular meeting of the local branch of the Ontario Forest, Fish and Game Protective Association, held in the court house last evening the resignations of President William Smith and Secretary Ernie Heard were refused. Both men gave very concrete reasons for their action. Mr. Smith, in making a statement to the members as to his reasons, said: "There are only two of us who are doing any work. A certain amount of it is left for us to do, but we cannot do it all, especially that which others are asked to do. This is not my sole reason. I am going away for the remainder of the summer and part of the winter. In many cases men have been appointed to fill certain positions and have found it necessary to be out of the city for some time. They do not notify us, and when we call an executive meeting they are not there. Who can they blame but themselves? I have been president of this association for 20 years, and it is just lately that any of this trouble has been coming to me. I do not know why it is happening now, when I am putting my heart and soul right into the work and am trying to make the association a bigger success this year than ever."

Mr. Heard, secretary of the association, who also tendered his resignation, was asked to make a statement why he did so. "A few weeks ago at a regular meeting, I suggested something that I think, to this day, was for the benefit of the association. One of the members upon hearing the motion, left the room. I was called a 'clique' by that man, and it is pretty hard for anybody to stand that, when he is doing his level best to please his fellow-members. There is lack of interest in this association. I cannot explain, only, that some members do not appreciate what others are trying to do for them. What we want is harmony and if that is received I will withdraw my resignation."

Both men were unanimously asked to retain their positions and were promised better support.

PRODUCES VENDOR'S RECEIPT.

WINDSOR, July 30.—Dolphice Rocheleau, of Petite Cote, former member of the Essex County Council, appeared in police court again today, and submitted a receipt for 60 cases of wine purchased from a Montreal vendor early in the year, and which he is now charged with having disposed of illegally. Rocheleau claims immunity from the Ontario temperance act in that the charge was not preferred until three months after the offence, which he admits was committed. An adjournment, the second in the case, was declared until the validity of the receipts can be established.

LABOR PREPARES FOR FEDERAL ELECTIONS; TO MEET FARMERS

I. L. P. Requests Representation Committee To Take This Action.

GAS RATES DISCUSSED

"Those Who Pay the Service Charge Foolish," Says H. B. Ashplant.

Upon request from the Independent Labor party, the Labor representation committee last night decided to make preparations for the next federal election, which, in the opinion of many, is not far distant. The executive committee of the L. R. C. will arrange with the U. F. O. of East Middlesex for a meeting, when definite plans can be made for the selection and support of the candidates. East Middlesex includes the suburbs of London, such as Ealing and Chelsea Green. It is most probable, it was said, that the L. R. C. will work hand in hand with the U. F. O. members from East Elgin in support of the Farmer-Labor movement.

Investigating.

E. A. Pocock gave a resume of the short sitting of the investigating committee of the attorney-general's department held yesterday at Toronto. The investigating committee attended upon invitation the annual meeting of the Crown Attorneys' Association of the Province of Ontario, where the question of crown attorneys doing private practice was discussed. The members at the meeting, according to Mr. Pocock, were about divided in their opinion regarding crown attorneys making a regular practice of handling cases outside their jurisdiction.

Mr. Pocock stated that they will investigate the conditions in London. It is a traveling commission, and will probably go into the North Bay district upon finishing the investigation in the Queen City.

The local unions who were affiliated with the L. R. C. prior to April 1 are required to pay the per capita tax from January 1. Those unions which were not affiliated until after that date are only required to pay the tax from April 1, it was decided.

"The citizens who use gas and pay service charge recently levied by the City Gas Company are foolish," stated H. B. Ashplant at the Labor reppresentation committee meeting held last night in the Labor Temple, 288 Dundas street. "The service charge is illegal, and the gas company, I do not believe, can force payment. I have not paid my service charge, and I do not intend to. In my opinion the gas company will not force payment in cases where their customers will not pay it voluntarily. They will make surplus enough through those that pay voluntarily to overlook the other discrepancies in payment," concluded Mr. Ashplant.

It was moved and seconded that the members who were present were to notify all their fellow-workmen and citizens not to pay the service charge. It is unlikely that L. R. C. will take any action to fight the service charge unless some citizen is forced to pay the charge either by having his meter removed or through legal channels.

Port Stanley Attractions For Monday Include High Wire Performer, Baseball, Baby Show and Other Sports.

Extraordinary attractions at Port Stanley will be the magnet to draw thousands from London, St. Thomas and all parts of Western Ontario to the popular resort for the celebration of Civic Holiday on Monday. The London and Port Stanley Railway has arranged another big program of feature events. Topping the big bill of attractions is Prince Nelson, heralded as the world's greatest live wire performer. His free exhibitions will be given on the L. & P. S. beach afternoon and evening. Prince Nelson is to reproduce his amazing feats and weird comedy stunts at 4 p.m. and 7:45 p.m. Two baseball matches, championship games on the official schedule of London Inter-Club League, will be played, the Orients meeting the Alerts in the first and the Manhattans the Army and Navy in the second. The Manhattans are to spend Sunday in Cleveland, where they will engage in a return match with the Cleveland police, who lost to the gamey little London squad on Dominion Day. The same team will come back from Cleveland in time for the second holiday match on the Port Stanley program. The sports program is one of the most unusual of the season. The prizes donated by the London and Port Stanley Railway are all well worth winning. Boy babies, girl babies, twin babies and handsome mothers are to compete in a big baby show on Invererle Heights at 3:15. The prizes donated by the L. & P. S. R. are the finest of the season. Every baby will receive a valuable prize. A crowded evening program includes the free movie show on the L. & P. S. beach. Scores of entrants for the fancy dress carnival on the board walk are looked for. Judging will take place at 9 o'clock. The tickler and confetti celebrators will be out to sustain the celebration until the grand finale—a brilliant display of dazzling fireworks.

W. O. R. PIPERS HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC MEET

Kilts To Be Ordered in Time For September Parades.

A highly "Scotchy" and enthusiastic meeting of the Western Ontario Regiment Pipe Band was held last night in the armories, 20 of the city's pipers and drummers being present. A discussion on the style of uniform to be worn ended in the battalion commander and the adjutant deciding that the highland element could wear their native dress if they wished. This, the bandsmen decided to do, and kilts will be ordered as soon as the tartan is decided on.

A practice will be held next Wednesday night for the men who are already signed on, and those who wish to join. The tartan which is to be worn by the regiment will also be picked, so that the band will be fully equipped when parades start next September.

It is thought that the introduction of a pipe band will have an attraction which will cause a number of the Scots of the city to join the ranks of the unit. Practically all the pipers and drummers who made their appearance at the armories were full-fledged Scotchmen who had not lost their accent.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE.

The committee in charge of the Labor Day celebration met in Labor Temple last night. Arrangements for the parade and also the grand finale at Queen's Park was made. There will be two drawing contests, one for the soldiers and the other for the Labor Temple fund.

MILLS TO ACT IF FIRM TRIES TO CUT OFF GAS

Minister of Mines Says People Must Have Gas No Matter What Happens.

TORONTO, July 30.—Any attempt by the Union Natural Gas Company to cut off the supply of gas will be met with prompt action by the Ontario Government, according to an announcement made today by Hon. Harry Mills, minister of mines.

The minister, however, has not given up hope of getting the company and the municipalities together, and is calling a meeting of municipal representatives next week to discuss the situation. The minister, even if he should be convinced that the company has a fair claim to an increase to meet the greatly increased cost of operation, could not give any relief, since the legislation introduced last session giving him power to fix rates, despite franchise agreements, was not pressed.

But whether the company has a grievance or not, it will not be allowed to get rid of its responsibilities by shutting down and refusing to deliver gas. If matters come to that point, Hon. Mr. Mills intimated, it might be necessary for the Government to step in and operate.

"The people must have gas," he said, "and they can rest assured that there will be no shut-down."

BIRD NOTES

(Contributed by McIlwraith Ornithological Club.)

Contributed by the McIlwraith Ornithological Club.

It seems but a few days since we were reporting the last of the spring migrants going north and already the vanguard of the returning hosts is with us as usual the last half of July.

Three least sandpipers on the return journey to the sunny south were the first to be noted by the writer, July 24. These and the semi-palmated sandpiper, often seen with them, are the smallest members of the family, and are easily passed unnoticed as they run along the muddy edges of the river or pond in search of food. The solitary sandpiper noted July 28 is about the size of the common spotted that summers

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO STRENGTHEN EYESIGHT 50 PER CENT IN ONE WEEK'S TIME IN MANY INSTANCES

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing, say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted said: "Bon Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist, and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in this city by all good druggists, including Standard Drug Stores and Strong's Drug Store.

RESTORER OF YOUTH ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

Dr. Voronoff, "Monkey Gland" Surgeon, To Explain Operations.

TO AID DOCTORS

Asserts Experiments Thus Far Are Proving To Be Successful.

New York, July 30.—Dr. Serge Voronoff, the distinguished European surgeon who recently startled the world by announcing the restoration through gland grafting of youth and vigor to the aged or sickly, reached this country yesterday on the French liner France.

The surgeon, who is director of the laboratory of experimental surgery of the College de France and a naturalized French citizen for the last twenty-five years, is a vigorous upright man of 52 years, standing six feet four inches and weighing close to 200 pounds. His head is covered with a growth of brown hair neither thinned nor frayed by age and his moustache is likewise dark.

Although reports of remarkable returns of youthful vitality to his patients have reached this country already, Dr. Voronoff is inclined to be cautious about admitting too much concerning his results. Speaking deliberate, though correct English, he said in answer to a question concerning his progress:

"The operations on human beings have recently been begun. It is impossible at this moment to state definitely that they will prove a complete success, but every symptom observed up to the present time points in that direction."

Dr. Voronoff said he came to this country on his first visit to rejoin his wife, the daughter of the late Jabez A. Bostwick, a large holder of Standard Oil stock. Mrs. Voronoff came to her home, at 800 Fifth avenue, to settle the estate of her mother, who died recently. Dr. and Mrs. Voronoff will return to France in about a month.

Asked whether he intended to perform any operations here, Dr. Voronoff said:

"I would be glad to show to American surgeons just how I perform an operation. The glands of a chimpanzee are necessary for this purpose. Anything I can do toward revealing my methods in an actual operation and in other ways I will do gladly. I have with me two films showing actual operations. I will be glad to show these before medical bodies and to explain them."

Dr. Voronoff said he had recently published a book, "Vivre," in Paris explaining his work in the field of restoring youthful vigor through the transplantation of interstitial glands of young monkeys to aged men.

Although born in Russia, Dr. Voronoff became a naturalized French citizen and is more at home in French than in any other language. For twelve years, until 1910, he was chief surgeon to the Khedive of Egypt, and established during that time the Hospital Choubrah in Egypt. Later he became a professor in the Ecole de Medicin in Paris. At the outbreak of the war he was the chief surgeon in the hospital at Bordeaux.

During the war Dr. Voronoff performed many remarkable operations in Paris hospitals on wounded soldiers. His success in grafting skin and later in grafting bone led him further into the field of the transplantation of living material, and finally to the transplantation of glands. For the past three years he has been working toward the point where experiments on human beings were carried out, with remarkable results.

SHOOTS AT CAT AND KILLS WIFE

Denver, Col., July 30.—There will be no inquest in connection with the death by shooting of Mrs. Bertha F. Wood, Coroner W. Woods of Jefferson County, said. Investigation showed, he said, that the shooting was entirely accidental.

The fatality occurred when James R. Wood, the husband of Mrs. Wood, went into the backyard to shoot a house cat which had been killing their chickens.

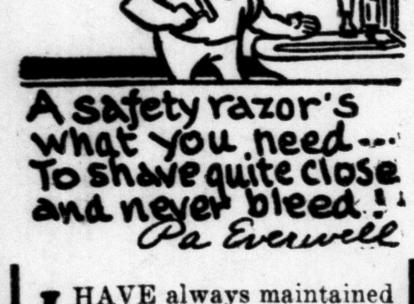

"I'm going out to kill that cat before it gets more of the poultry," Wood said, as he started into the backyard with a .22-calibre rifle.

Mrs. Wood followed him. It was then nearly dark. After searching about the premises for several minutes, in which he had walked some distance from his wife, Wood saw what he believed to be the cat, and fired. The moving object was his wife. The bullet struck her upper arm and passed into her heart. Mrs. Wood died instantly.

THE WESTERN CROP.

It is estimated that about 30,000 men will be required to work as farm laborers to assist in harvesting the crops in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. DENY THEY DROVE WHILE INTOXICATED

Local Youths' Car Crashed Into the City Street Flusher.

Charged in police court today with having driven an auto while intoxicated, Bruce Boyd and William McDowell of this city were bailed at $50 each to appear for trial on Tuesday. The accused youths were in a car last night, which crashed into the city street flusher at Burwell and Dundas streets, the former machine being totally wrecked. Both pleaded not guilty to the charge today.

Edward Joseph Price, who stole from a local woman who befriended him while out of work, and who was out on his own bail for four weeks, was allowed his freedom on suspended sentence today, restitution having been made in the interim, and the culprit is working steadily with a promise of reformation.

Charged by Roxie Smith with failure to provide necessities of life, George Smith was bailed to appear for trial on August 28. Abusive language to young women cost a West London young man $5 and costs.

"Such expressions are quite too common, I am sorry to say," said the court.

Albert Edward Hunt, charged with abusive language in court today, failed to appear on the scene. The case was adjourned until Tuesday and if he does not show up then a warrant will be issued for his arrest.

THE REMODELLED DOWLER STORE ONE OF THE FINEST IN CANADA.

The remodelled Dowler store is beyond any question of doubt, one of the finest men's stores to be found in any city in the Dominion. Essentially modern in every detail, it adds materially to the shopping facilities of London and the surrounding territory.

The lighting in the new display windows is most efficient and designed after considerable experimenting by the Dowler firm in their various men's shops in Western Ontario. The unique arrangement of these windows gives a maximum display frontage and at the same time a very convenient and attractive entrance to the newly remodelled store. Specially designed fixtures of plate glass and solid oak give the interior an air of substantial dignity; their convenient arrangement and the new rapid railway cash system greatly facilities the speed with which your wants can be filled.

To those interested in the progress and growth of the city such enterprise and improvements auger well for a greater and bigger London.

MONTMARTRE HAS REVERSED STATUE

Mock Mayor Installed in Bizarre Ceremonial Joke.

Paris, July 30.—Paris, despite tax worries and the failure to obtain satisfaction from Germany, is rapidly losing its spirit of sadness and is returning to its former light-hearted gayety. An amusing evidence of this tendency was furnished in the elections of Montmartre when a popular character was selected as a mock mayor, followed by the inauguration of a monument to the "Chief of Montmartre's Intellectuals."

The cafes and cabarets provided a procession of 5,000 persons who marched to the Place du Tertre, on top of the "Holy Hill," back of the Sacre Cour, where M. Jules de Paquit, humorist, wearing felt slippers and a woolen scarf, unveiled a statue to "Elsevir Mederic Stenophrase du Tertre," who was glorified as having spent 96 years in Montmartre as a philosopher, philanthropist and explorer. Du Tertre never existed, but in the hearts of the Montmartrois Paquit proclaimed "he will live forever, as well as his 36 volumes, which, owing to the hard-hearted publisher and to the fact that they were never written, failed to reach the French public."

The climax of the bizarre ceremony was reached when the veil dropped and an abnormal sculpture of an hypothetical savant was revealed, head downward and feet in the air, with plaster hands outstretched to receive the friendly grasp of hundreds of pedestrians who pass it daily.

"NEW POOR" RETAIN TASTE FOR LUXURIES

Now Rent Fine Clothes To Put On Good Appearance.

London, July 30.The class of people who are usually referred to as "the new poor," may have lost their money or the source of their income, but they have not lost the taste for luxuries. Many of those who cannot afford to buy fineries, as they were wont to do before the war, now go to a "costumier" and rent fine clothes and expensive jewels for special occasions.

Some of the well-known theatrical costumiers in London declare that their business is improving, for besides the actors and actresses they always have served, they now have quite a large clientele among the new poor, who go to them to be fitted for parties and receptions of different kinds.

One of the costumiers looks upon this new fashion as a very sensible one. "The cost of hiring a frock is about two guineas," he stated; "a cloak comes to another guinea, and a tiara and jewels amount to another couple of guineas. So the woman who does not go out much, but who wants to look very nice on some special occasion can wear pretty things without the heavy cost of buying them."

OFF THE RAILS

MAKING NEW RECORDS.

It is expected that all July records for passenger traffic in this district will be broken, according to local officials Never before have so many people traveled day in and day out as this month. Excursion crowds have been exceptionally heavy, despite the fact cheap rates are no longer to be had.

"It is only with the greatest difficulty the traffic is handled," said an official of the G. T. R. "We have put extra cars on all trains, both local and through, and every car is crowded to the roof. Every person in America seems to be traveling."

Not only are the day coaches crowded, but the dining service and the sleeping cars are overtaxed. According to some of the officials it is quite a common thing for people to stand in line for an hour at a time to gain admittance to a dining car.

The heavy traffic is confined not only to local points, but more people than usual are taking long trips.

No one seemingly can account for the increases. Some of the officials put it down to general prosperity, while others thought that it was in keeping with the general wave of extravagance which is sweeping over the country. The theory that the high price of gasoline had made it cheaper to travel by train than by auto is also advanced.

WALL STREET.

New York, July 31—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Selling pressure which characterized yesterday's trading in stocks was not renewed when the market opened today. The list was steady at the opening, and changes for the most part were limited to small fractions. United States Steel opened off ¼ at 87⅞, but quickly rose to last night's close. Reading made the best showing among the dividend-paying rail shares, opening with a gain of ⅜. Offerings were small and the market became lifeless soon after the opening.

GRAIN.

Chicago, July 31.—Opening: Wheat—December, $2 19; March, $2 21½.

Corn—September, $1 36¼; December, $1 22.

Oats—September, 68½c; December, 68¾c.

Chicago, July 31.—Wheat broke almost 10c shortly after the opening today, owing to reported rains in parts of Missouri, Nebraska and Indiana, with prospects of more wet weather, which had a depressing influence on all grains. There was sufficient buying, however, to check the break, and a moderate rally followed. Opening quotations of wheat ranged from 2½c to 4c lower, with December at $2 19@2 20, and March at $2 21½@2 23.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES.

Toronto, July 31.—Lewis Everist reports the following wholesale fruit quotations today:

Raspberries—28@30c.

Cherries—Sour, 6 quarts, 60@70c; 11 quarts, $1@1 25.

Black Currants—6 quarts, $1 50@1 75; 11 quarts, $2 50@3.

Gooseberries—6 quarts, 90c@$1 10.

Peaches—6 quarts, 85c@$1 25.

Potatoes—11 quarts, 80c.

Red Currants—11 quarts, $1 50@1 75.

Tomatoes—No. 1 Canadian, 11 quarts, $2@2 50.

Peas—11 quarts, 75c.

Beans—11 quarts, 30@50c.

The market will be closed all day Monday.

OUTDOOR DANCING IS REVIVED IN BRITAIN

Folk Lore Society Stirs Much Interest in Neglected Amusement.

London, July 30.—"'Twas surely the devil that taught women to dance and asses to bray" is a point of view that still can be met with among the people of Britain.

The Folk Lore Society and its kindred institutions made an attempt to bring about a revival of the old English country dances, and to that end Morris dancers gave demonstrations of the art in many of the London and provincial parks, creating a large amount of interest thereby.

This summer season many of the parks have provided a railed-off space on the grass around the band stand, where, on payment of a small fee, the people can indulge in dancing on the green to their hearts' content. The plots have been inclosed all the winter and the gardeners have turfed them and rolled the grass until the ground would almost serve for bowls or first-class tennis courts, and the revival of outdoor dancing as a form of evening amusement has caught on.

The innovation has not met with approval of that section of the community who really ought to have been included in the final termination of the proverb, and like the other "kill joys" they are already on the warpath to try to prevent the amusement they do not wish to take part in themselves.

The Little Souls of Blackheath have asked for a summons against the London County Council for permitting dancing on the green at Blackheath without having asked permission and obtaining a license under the council's own regulations and a minister at Hull has written to the city fathers a letter quivering with moral indignation at the proposal to introduce municipal dancing.

In Middlesex the county council refused to allow the Alexandra Palace authorities to hold either concerts or dances in the grounds of the palace, but raised no objection to the holding of race meetings on the same grounds. Fortunately the palace trustees, who are appointed by the surrounding municipalities, are men of common sense. They treated the refusal with contempt and dancing on the green and concerts are taking place nearly every night in defiance of the refusal.

SUES FOR STEAMING CURLS OUT OF WIGS

London Maker Prosecutes the Proprietors of Restaurant.

London, July 30.—That Willie Clarkson, widely known to theatrical men and women, prizes every little curl in his wigs, was shown in an action heard by Justice Salter in the king's bench division. Mr. Clarkson, who is a maker of theatrical wigs, asked for an injunction to restrain the proprietors of the "J. P." restaurant in Shaftesbury avenue, W., from creating a nuisance in that steam from a boiler in their restaurant penetrated the wall of his wig shop and took the curl out of his wigs. It was the second time the case had been before the court, at the first hearing a decision having been reached to name a surveyor to investigate the complaint and to abide by his report.

The surveyor reported that Mr. Clarkson should have judgment for £27, which he claimed as nominal damages for the curls having been taken out of his wigs, and that the defendant concern should end the trouble about which Mr. Clarkson complained.

MAORI GIRL TRIES TO KISS THE PRINCE

Auckland, New Zealand, July 30.—(By the Associated Press).—While en route by train from Auckland to New Plymouth early in May the Prince of Wales stopped at a small town called To Kuiti. Here a Maori (native) girl made a determined effort to kiss him. But the burly mayor of the town pushed the girl away. This made the second attempt by a Maori girl to kiss the prince, the first incident of the kind having been a few weeks earlier at Rotorua.

ARKONA

ARKONA, July 30.—The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church held a very successful garden party last Wednesday evening on the church lawns. The program given by the Empress Orchestra, Miss Metcalf, reader, and A. D. Rossiter, soloist, of London was much enjoyed by the large audience. The proceeds were $140.

The Methodist Sunday school has organized its adult members into the Busy People's Bible class, with the following officers: President, Frank Lamb; vice-president, Herb. Hall; secretary, Miss Mabel Jackson; treasurer, Miss Sarah Lampman; membership committee, chairman, Phil Austin; William Woolvelt, Willard Eastman, Mrs. T. Lampman and Richard Wilson, teacher; Rev. C. L. Couzens.

The new crop of clover is being threshed with good results. Muxlow Bros. threshed 36 acres with a yield of 140 bushels. This is selling at $22.50 a bushel. The wheat is a splendid crop. Threshing has begun, and the returns are splendid. Oats and barley are coming fine. Raspberies are also a splendid crop.

BROUGHAM

BROUGHAM, July 30.—A hotly-contested and well-played girl's baseball game was played Wednesday evening between the Claremont High School girls' team and a picked team from the Brougham and Green River girls, the score being five to four in favor of the latter. Clifford Trueman of Claremont umpired the game, which was handicapped owing to the delay in starting and the oncoming twilight. The occasion was an open air concert on the Brougham ball grounds. There was a fair attendance, but an unfortunate rain shower which handicapped the piano and violin artists in an otherwise excellent program.

Whitevale Baptist Church garden party on the grounds of Oliver Pugh, near here Tuesday, was held under a clear sky, with a splendid attendance and a fine program.

The recent rains have put the fall wheat in number one shape. Crops are fine and binders are in full swing. Other grains are doing well, but the hay crop is very light in this district, and some of it was caught and darkened in the last rains. There is a bumper crop of raspberries and a famine of boxes. Prices are good for the berryman.

LIVES SIX DAYS IN SEALED GLASS CASE

British Scientist Makes Daring Experiment in Interest of Aviation.

London, July 30.—Six days sealed up in a glass case is a daring experiment bearing on aviation which has just been carried out by a middle-aged British university professor, Joseph Barcroft, F. R. S., reader in physiology at Cambridge University. The question involved was whether it would be possible to calculate the quantity of oxygen necessary to an airman at high altitudes.

The case in which Mr. Barcroft was shut up for six days was specially erected in a quiet room in the physiological laboratory. It was about seven feet high and about ten feet broad. The floor, walls and roof were made of glass, hermetically sealed, and divided into two compartments—one fitted with a lounge, chair and table and the other with a simple bed.

At the foot of the bed was a pedaling apparatus consisting of the frame of a bicycle, from which the front wheel had been removed, and a small black wheel with a frame attached, to enable Mr. Barcroft to get some exercise and cause a certain amount of work to be done.

During his six days in this case Mr. Barcroft spent his time in work relating to the experiments, in taking exercise on the bicycle and in sleeping. He was kept under observation day and night to insure his personal safety, college students and others taking it in turn to keep watch.

Nitrogen was continually introduced into the chamber and the air became gradually rarer in oxygen until it approximated that at an altitude of 16,000 feet, when Mr. Barcroft, who has had experience of mountaineering, experienced considerable inconvenience from sickness and sleeplessness, and also an indisposition to take any food.

At the close of the experiment some blood was taken from Mr. Barcroft's arm. The oxygen the blood contained was separated and it was found to agree with the expectations of the experiment.

Mr. Barcroft confesses to having felt rather shaken up after his release from the glass case, but did not look much the worse for the experience.

The experiment is regarded here as thoroughly successful and a scientific report of it will be laid before the next meeting of the British association, where Mr. Barcroft will be president of the physiological section.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

CAME FROM WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, July 31.—Word has been received of the death at Port Washington, Long Island, N. Y., of W. F. Wilson of Chicago, formerly of Woodstock. He married Miss Aggie Gordon, daughter of Adam Gordon. Two sons, Gordon and Allan, survive. Interment will be made in this city.

CAPTAIN BURTON TO SAIL FOR HOME ON STEAMER BALTIC

New York, July 31.—Capt. William P. Burton, skipper of the Shamrock IV during the international cup races, accompanied by Mrs. Burton, the green sloop's timer, and Claude Hickman, its navigator, were booked for their homeward voyage today on the steamship Baltic.

The crews of Shamrock IV and the 23-metre Shamrock planned to return within a few days.

WEDDING BELLS

CLARK—WRAY.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the parsonage of Rev. George Dewey today, when Lily, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wray, became the bride of William Henry Clark, of this city. The bride looked charming in a gown of ivory silk and georgette, with bead trimming, and picture hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. Mr. Leslie and Miss Elsie Lucas supported the groom and bride. The happy couple left for Toronto and points east. On their return they will reside in this city.

TO ENTERTAIN PRESS DELEGATES.

Sarnia, July 30.—The Chamber of Commerce was advised by wire that the speakers at the luncheon to the delegates to the imperial press conference, who will visit the city for a few hours on Thursday, August 12, will be Sir Charles Starmer of England, and Augusto Bartolo of Malta. A meeting of the directors of the chamber was held at noon today to discuss plans for the reception of the visitors. Sir Charles Starmer is the proprietor of the Northern Echo, Darlington and other papers, and Augusto Bartolo of the Daily Chronicle.

SATISFACTION AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, July 30—(By Canadian Press). —News that the judicial committee of the privy council has granted leave to appeal from the decision of the Canadian supreme court in the matter of the jurisdiction of the Dominion board of commerce was received with satisfaction in official circles here tonight. The supreme court divided equally on the question of the powers of the board under the act constituting it to deal with combines and the fixing of prices. This left matters somewhat in the air and it is regarded as most important that a decisive judgment should be secured from the highest court in the Empire.

The challenge to the jurisdiction of the board came from the newsprint manufacturing firm of Price Bros., Quebec, which declined to be governed by the orders of the board. Subsequent to the finding of the supreme court, there was little activity on the part of the board, but this was due almost wholly to the resignations of all its members. It is understood that the reconstituted board, while assuming that its jurisdiction in regard to combines and price fixing is not gone, at least until there is a definite judgment by the privy council, does not propose to institute any new inquiries under this section of the act, but complaints will nevertheless be looked into by officials of the board.

SAYS HE CAN CHANGE ROOSTER TO A HEN

Scientist Can't Promise Egg From Chanticleer, Though.

Paris, July 30.—Although he has not succeeded thus far in obtaining eggs from roosters, Professor Pezard, who is taking part in the congress of psychologists at the Sarbonne, says that after fifteen years of experiments with fowls he has obtained miraculous results, which prove that it is not impossible to change at will the sex of barnyard fowl.

Professor Pezard's revelations soon will be presented before the French Academy of Sciences Meanwhile he refuses to divulge details of his experiments, and has warned his confreres against fantastic hypotheses, as there is nothing available yet to prove that the inversion of the human sex is logical

CRISIS IN ALANDS LIKENED TO FIUME

For Two Hundred Years Islands Have Been Bone of Contention.

Washington, July 30.—Caught in the swirl of the minor war flurries that disturb Europe are the remote Aland Islands, where Swedes and Finns are clashing in a manner suggestive of the erstwhile dispute between Jugo-Slavs and the Italians along the Adriatic. The National Geographic Society has issued from its Washington headquarters the following bulletin on the Aland Islands:

"For more than 200 years the Aland Islands, which are situated like a cork in the wide mouth of the Gulf of Bothnia, have been a sort of Alsace-Lorraine question between the Swedes and the Russians. After having passed back and forth several times, they were finally ceded to Russia in 1909.

"During the reign of Nicholas I. they were strongly fortified, a move most distasteful to Sweden, because the islands occupy a strong strategic position with respect to Stockholm, the Swedish capital, which is less than 100 miles to the southwest from Bomarsund, the chief fortification of the islands.

"These fortifications were short-lived. In 1854, during the Crimean War, a Franco-British fleet, under Sir Charles Napier and Baraguay de Hilliers, destroyed the works, and after that time the islands were left unfortified, in accordance with an international agreement.

"The Aland group, which is separated from the Swedish mainland by Aland Bay (Aland Haf), and from the Finnish mainland by Skiftet Sound, is composed of some 300 islands and rocky islets, the total area of which is not more than 550 square miles. The largest island, Aland, a name signifying 'land of streams,' is almost as large as all the others combined, having an area of 247 miles, about twice the size of Martha's Vineyard.

"Cattle-raising and fishing are the chief occupations of the 25,000 people who live on the islands. Some cereals (barley and oats) are grown on the thin soil, and there are a few forests of birch, spruce and fir.

"Finnish troops are reported to be marching through the streets of Mariehamm. This attractive little bathing resort is the chief town of the islands, having a population of 1,400. In times of peace a daily steamer service is maintained between this port and Abo, the oldest and, historically, the most interesting city in Finland. The voyage from Abo to Mariehamm takes about ten hours.

"It was in the waters adjacent to the Aland Islands that Peter the Great's navy won its first important victory, defeating the Swedes in 1717.

"Only about 90 of the 300 islands are inhabited, and the fisher folk in the main are of Swedish descent.

"Sweden's desire to hold the islands arises in part from the fact that they control the entrance to the Gulf of Bothnia, through which most of that kingdom's internal trade is carried on."

J. W. CUNLIFFE IS AGAIN SECRETARY

J. W. Cunliffe was re-elected secretary of the local branch of the G. W. V. A. by the executive committee at a meeting held last evening. Mr. Cunliffe has held this office for three years, and according to his reports, the association is in a very flourishing condition.

An investigation committee of three was formed to investigate both the local and the outside affairs of the association. Those who were elected for this committee are as follows: G. N. Weekes, F. H. Greenlees and H. D. Dunnett.

The committee from the association to represent it at the Central Veterans' Council, will only hold office till the next general meeting. It was decided that there be no more meetings till after September unless something of unusual importance comes up. If the officers find it necessary to have a general meeting before that time they will let the members know in advance.

The following were chosen for the Central Veterans' Council: President Dr. J. C. Wilson, Dr. C. H. Reason, E. Akien and H. D. Dunnett.

POLACK SHOWS OPEN HERE NEXT MONDAY

What promises to be the biggest event in the amusement line of the season will open on Monday, as everything is in readiness for the opening of the Polack Brothers' World at Home shows which are to exhibit here all week under the auspices of the Central Labor Council. The show will arrive in town on Sunday evening on a special train of 32 cars from Ottawa.

The work of erecting the various attractions and the big riding devices, the Whip, Submarine, Ferris Wheel and Merry-Go-Round, will begin early on Monday morning in order to have everything in readiness for the grand opening on Monday evening.

The Polack shows are somewhat different from the majority of carnival companies, as I. J. Polack, the owner, has combined circus, hippodrome and wild west features with the usual carnival attractions.

Polack's military band, under direction of Edward Falte, will entertain with popular melodies.

Admission to the show grounds at the fair grounds is free to see the Polack Bros.' World at Home Greater Shows. Everything will open on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

PLAN WHIPPET RACE

Novelty oT Be Presented at the Western Fair.

Through the co-operation of the Canadian Whippet Association, a whippet race for running dogs will be presented before the grand stand during Western Fair week. The event will be a considerable novelty in the fair program. A very large number of entries are being received for the dog show, including many from Detroit, Port Huron and other American points.

American manufacturers are also taking much interest in the tractor and machinery part of the exhibition, and already practically all the available space both in and outside of the machinery hall has been taken.

INVESTIGATING COLLISION.

Superintendent R. McKillop of the local division of the C. P. R. is investigating the accident which occurred at the Richmond street crossing Friday evening, when an engine crashed into a street car. Mr. McKillop would make no announcements until the investigations had been completed.

I've been away for the past few years, but I'm coming back now to bring prices down to a normal level.

GIRL SUES PRINCE FOR GOLD BATH TUB

Actress Wants Russian To Pay His Debts.

Paris, July 30. — Prince Elissieff, a Russian, and his golden bathtub have been figuring in the Parisian courts this week following the application of Mlle. Bresil, a theatrical artiste, that the prince be restrained from selling the tub until he has paid his debts accrued during a long period of friendship.

The prince decided recently to break off his past and married a rich widow. Mlle. Bresil says that the prince's ideas of Parisian life were more extravagant than his income justified, his casual expenses exceeding $20,000, with yearly rent and food bills reaching another $12,000.

Since his marriage the prince has decided that a morning dip in a certain gold-lined tub which adorned his former menage was unnecessary, and he placed it with certain furniture in the hands of auctioneers. Mlle. Bresil asked the court to hand over the tub in part payment of her account, but the judges decided that the question of the priority of her claims, against which the prince is objecting, would be decided first.

In the meantime the tub will remain unsold, although there are said to be scores of nouveau riche bidders willing to pay as much as 50,000 francs for it.

'MY OLD DUTCH' SONG REVIVED IN LONDON

Chevalier Again Amuses With His Coster Comedy.

London, July 30.—"My Old Dutch," a song which many playgoers of today learned in the nursery, has been made into a play, with Chevalier, who sprung into fame as a coster comedian with this song a generation ago, playing the leading part. It was produced this week at the Lyceum, once the habitat of Irving and Ellen Terry, but now the home of the most lurid melodramas.

Even such "highbrows" as the theatrical critics of the six-cent morning newspapers grin reminiscently and admit that the play is filled with Chevalier's real comic pathos of the London East End millions. The plot is a faithful development of the "Old Dutch" theme, with the introduction of other songs, such as the immortal ballad of the legacy, involving "The Donkey Shay" to "Knock 'Em in the Old Kent Road." It is a straight comedy, however, Chevalier confining "himself" to singing "Old Dutch" at the end of the second act.

SUNLIGHT IN EVERY CELL OF NEW PRISON

Rays Distributed by Curved Skylight in Roof.

Joliet, Ill., July 31—Sunlight for every cell and individual washbowls with hot and cold water are conveniences to be found within the new cylindrical state prison at Statesville, Ill.

The prison house, the first of its kind in the world, gives one the impression upon entrance of being in an aviary. Every cell has been provided with 90 minutes of sunlight, coming through a skylight. This universal distribution of sunlight accomplished by a slight curve in the skylight, was figured by Forest Ray Moulton, professor of astronomy at the University of Chicago.

A cafeteria system, another new idea for prison life, has been installed. Most of the eatables are supplied from the 2,200-acre honor farm upon which the prison is located.

The 248 cells, which are all alike, are built of concrete, with cork insulation in the walls. The doors of the cells are doubly locked. They can be automatically locked by a hydraulic oil control, and then the guard comes around and locks each cell separately. They can be opened individually.

In the centre of the prison is a tower, from where the guards can watch the movements of all prisoners.

At night the outside of the prison is lighted up with electric lights by which the guard in the centre of the round prison house can see everything that is going on in front of the windows.

The prison is surrounded with a circular concrete wall 33½ feet high, 14 inches thick at the top and 24 inches thick at the bottom. The New York State building commission has adopted this idea, and expects to inclose Sing Sing with a similar wall.

MARCUS LOEW HAS HIS OWN PRIVATE MOVIE THEATRE.

It was quite an event at Far Rockaway a few nights ago, when Marcus Loew had a formal "opening" (his second) of his own theatre at his country place there. The "Theatre," if it can be called that, seats 57 people. Needless to say every seat was occupied for the "opening night." The feature production was "The Best of Luck," Metro's big special feature production soon to be released.

Loew uses his tiny theatre every night for the purpose of looking over the latest photoplays, whether his own Metro productions or other pictures he plays in his theatres. He also has a private projection room in his New York theatre, where he views pictures during the day.

2:04 CIRCUIT PACE GOES TO PRINCESS MARY IN FAST TIME

Pop Greers Drove For Another Win Behind Lecco Grattan in the 2:14 Pace.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 30.—Interest in the midsummer race meet here was maintained up to the very last day another excellent crowd being present and one that broke all records for a get-away day program. More than six thousand person were entertained by the four events of which the feature was the 2:04 pace. Princess Mary won it easily by speed in the home stretch, when Fleming called on her to pass Baroness Edgewood, who was a pace-make each mile until the seven-eighths pole was reached. The second mile in 2:03½ was a new record for the Canadian mare.

Geers drove another winning race today, when he put over Lecco Grattan in the second division of the 2:14 pace. Bonique won the third heat, and General Wilson was the chief contender against Lecco Grattan in the first two heats.

In the 2:15 trot Dottie Day won a straight heat victory over a field of ten. Alicola, the original favorite, could get no closer than second in the first heat and then showed ordinary form the other miles.

The last event was a split heat affair, finally won by Eliza Dillon.

MANUFACTURERS' BALL

Hank Downs on the mound for the Civil Service was given one of his first beatings of the year, when the Grand Trunk took his team into camp last night in a Manufacturers' League fixture by the score of 5—1. Downs pitched a good game, having eight strikeouts and allowing only seven hits. Four errors behind him were the cause of a great deal of the trouble.

The government employees only got to Cline of the railroaders for five hits and his support was much better than that of his opposition. The score:

Civil Service	000 000 1—1	5	4
Grand Trunk	021 002 x—5	7	2

Batteries: Downs and Burgess; Cline and Males.

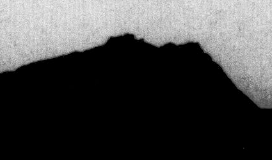

Round the Kitty

A very interesting game of bowls was played on the greens of the London Rowing Club, between rinks from the London Printing and Lithographing Company and the D. S. Federal Government Postpones Voting On Imports Until April

On Account of Protests of Liberty League, Great War Veterans' Association and Dominion Alliance That Revision of Voters' Lists Is Needed, Ottawa Sets Ontario Date April 18, 1921—Other Provinces Vote October 25.

OTTAWA, July 30.—(Canadian Press.)—On account of representations made through various organizations in Ontario, the Government has decided to postpone the date for holding the referendum vote in the province of Ontario until Monday, April 18, 1921. The date originally set for taking the vote in Ontario was October 25 next. The present postponement has become necessary in order that the Ontario voters' lists may be thoroughly revised and brought to date before the vote is taken.

By the legislation passed by the House of Commons on June 28 last, special provision was made for taking the referendum vote in Ontario, as there were in that province existing provincial voters' lists, which had been prepared and used in the provincial election of October, 1919. It was therefore provided in the franchise act that the provincial voters' lists of 1919 in the province of Ontario should be used without revision for any vote in that province taken before the 31st of December, 1920. The provision applied solely to Ontario, because Parliament felt that the lists in Ontario were so recent that it would be both unnecessary and unwise to go to the expense of revision. However, it has now been pointed out that the provincial lists of Ontario are by no means satisfactory, and that if they are used for the purpose of the referendum vote the result may be the disquilfication of a very large number of electors, and particularly of returned soldiers. Various organization in Ontario have objected to the use of the lists for the referendum vote without revision.

Resolution of Protest.

Immediately after the passage of the act in June last the Dominion Alliance passed a formal resolution of protest against the use of the Ontario provincial voters' lists without revision and accompanied the same with a letter from the Rev. Ben H. Spence, secretary of the alliance, to Hon. Hugh Guthrie as follows:

Toronto, June 28, 1920.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Ottawa.

Dear Sir,—Inclosed is copy of resolution unanimously adopted by the managing committee of the Dominion Alliance and which I am requested to forward to you. May I say that this was not adopted without very serious and careful consideration of the whole situation, and while we appreciate the point you raised in discussion of the matter as to the expense involved, we would submit that if it is worth while to vote upon this question, it is worth while to get an honest expression of the minds of the whole electorate.

It may be said that the temperance forces were able to win on the old lists and could, therefore, win upon it again, but the alliance is entirely opposed to any action, or the consenting to any proposal that might have the appearance of trying to secure a snap verdict.

The vote, in the judgment of our committee, should be a fair one, upon fair lists. . . . .

We would, therefore, urge upon you the desirability of providing an adequate and up-to-date list. . . . . I do not think there would be any objection to making last year's lists the basis of the new lists, but certainly the provisions of the election act regarding the revision of lists should apply to the coming vote in this province upon this very important issue.

With much respect I am, yours sincerely, (Sgd) BEN SPENCE, Secretary."

Liberty League Protest.

The Citizens' Liberty League has also forwarded a strong letter of protest in respect of the present Ontario lists. The league's letter in part follows: "Toronto, Ont., July 27, 1920.

"The Hon. Arthur Meighen, Parliament Buildings, Ottawa.

Dear Sir—Under the provisions of sub-section 3, section 101 of the Dominion elections act, passed at the last session of the House of Commons, and being bill 12 of that session, the list of voters to be used in the event of a vote being taken under the Canada temperance act, as provided in the Province of Ontario, is to be the voters' list used in the provincial elections held in this province in the month of October, 1919. The section further provides that this list is to be used without any revision. The fact is that at the time this list was compiled for the provincial elections there were in the city of Toronto, in different hospitals, a large number of soldiers whose real place of residence was in various parts of the province and who were placed on the voters' lists in Toronto, under special provisions made for them. Great numbers of these soldiers have since been discharged from the different hospitals and are now at their different places of residence in Ontario, and these soldiers would all lose their rights to vote in the different places to which they have gone since their discharge from the hospital.

At the time the voters' lists for the provincial election were compiled there were in the different parts of the province of Ontario many thousands of returned soldiers who were transient and only temporarily located in the various cities, towns and villages. Many thousands of them have since gone to their proper places of residence, and all of these will lose their rights to vote on this question if the vote were taken under the terms of sub-section 3, section 101.

We desire furtner to urge the advisability of having the vote taken after January 1, 1921, as at least 30,000, or possibly 40,000 Ontario men will be absent in the fall harvesting the crops in the western provinces, and large numbers of people are absent from the urban centres until late on in the year. Yours very truly,

(Signed)
THE CITIZENS' LIBERTY LEAGUE,
C. L. Carruthers, general secretary.

G. W. V. A. Objections

The secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association has also intimated this association's objection by the following letter:

Ottawa, July 19, 1920.

The Hon. Arthur Meighen,
Prime Minister of Canada,
Ottawa, Ont.

Sir,—On behalf of this association I beg to request that Government make provision for the revision of the voters' lists in the Province of Ontario prior to the referendum on the prohibition question.

This request is advanced for the reason that, if the existing list is employed, a large number of returned soldiers will be denied the opportunity of asserting their views on the question.

I trust that it may be possible for the Government to favorably consider this request.

I am yours, sir,

Faithfully,
(Signed) C. G. McNEIL,
General Secretary-Treasurer, G. W. V. A., of Canada.

Soldiers Returned.

It has also been asserted from the Militia Department that approximately 26,000 soldiers were returned to Canada from overseas in the year 1919, after the Ontario provincial voters' lists of that year had been completed; and in addition to these returned soldiers it is estimated that there were between 6,000 and 7,000 soldiers in the hospitals of Ontario, in the autumn of 1919, whose names may, or may not have been placed on the voters' lists. These soldiers have now in nearly all cases been discharged from the hospitals and ar to be found at their homes at various points throughout the province of Ontario, where their names will not appear on the voters' lists of 1919.

Would Be Unsatisfactory.

Under all the circumstances the Government has decided that it would be unsatisfactory to proceed with the referendum vote in Ontario upon the unrevised provincial lists of 1919, and postponement of the vote in that province will become necessary to enable Parliament to pass the necessary amendment to the act of last session to provide for revision of the lists in Ontario. The necessary proclamation for the taking of the vote was issued today in all provinces where the vote is to be taken; but the date of voting in the province of Ontario will be changed from 25th October next to 18th April, 1921. It is only in the province of Ontario that a change of date will take place. In all other provinces affected polling will take place on October 25, as originally fixed. The franchise act that provision for revision of the lists in all provinces save Ontario. In Ontario alone it was considered that a considerable amount of money would be saved if the 1919 provincial voters' lists were adopted without revision.

UPSETS PLANS, SAYS CHOWN, DISAPPOINTED

TORONTO, July 30.—Disappointment at the postponement of the date on which the referendum on the importation of liquor is to be taken in Ontario was expressed tonight by Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada, and Rev. Dr. T. Albert Moore, of the social service department of the Methodist Church.

"It's not a very promising beginning for a new government in respect to advanced legislation," Dr. Chown said. "It will occasion a great deal of disappointment. Everything in the campaign was going forward nicely, and now the plans will be all upset."

"It is such a surprise to me I do not know what to say," was Dr. Moore's reply to an interrogation from an interviewer. "It is a great disappointment. We had no intimation that such a delay was thought of."

DYNAMITE RIVER IN EFFORT TO FIND BODY OF 5-YEAR-OLD BOY

Wallaceburg Citizens Spend Whole Day in Aiding Father's Search.

LOST SINCE WEDNESDAY

Clairvoyant Proves of Little Aid in Locating Lost Child.

WALLACEBURG, July 30. — Practically the whole town assisted today in the search for five-year-old Alvin Askin, son of Lynn Askin, night constable, who suddenly disappeared on Wednesday evening and who is believed to have fallen into the river from the town dock.

In addition to bringing into operation all the boats and grappling hooks available the searchers today dynamited the river in the hope that the explosion would cause the body if it is in the water to rise to the surface, but without any result.

Following the hint given by a clairvoyant yesterday to the father of the missing boy that he was at the bottom of a hole from which he could not climb, but the location of which the clairvoyant could not supply every effort was bent to the finding of some forgotten well or gravel pit into which the little fellow might have fallen, but without success.

Tonight the father announced his intention of seeking further clairvoyant aid in the effort to find his child.

HARD TO FIND HOME OF LEAGUE IN GENEVA

Fund Inadequate and City Unwilling To Spend Money.

Paris, July 30. — President Wilson's failure to name a meeting place for the November session of the mendicant League of Nations was said here to have been due to inability to find a suitable home for it in Geneva despite the Swiss Government's assurance that it did not want the honor to go elsewhere.

The international Labor Bureau has succeeded, after many difficulties, in finding suitable quarters there, but the elaborate organization planned to direct the terrestrial heaven requires a hundred separate offices and would necessitate the remodelling of a dozen hotels. Naturally the people of Geneva are not willing to spend money on this work, and the purse of the league is inadequate.

Persons in favor of the league hesitate to suggest The Hague for the meeting, because it might open the way for revision of the league covenant.

APPEALED, NOT IN VAIN.

WINDSOR, July 30.—With eight convictions in his record and two terms in Kingston penitentiary, Vincent Griffin of Toronto, pleaded so fervently with Magistrate Miers in Windsor police court today for "a chance to make good," that his appeal touched the court, and he was told to "go and sin no more." Griffin arrived here with $20 in his pocket, and the second day after his arrival committed theft, stealing $4. He was apprehended and appeared today, when he cast a spell of eloquence and oratory over the court such as parliamentarians long to attain.

COAL OPERATORS IN ILLINOIS REFUSE TO CONFER WITH MINERS

CHICAGO, July 30.—The coal operators of Illinois today telegraphed John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, refusing his request for a joint meeting of the operators and miners' scale committee in an effort to settle the present strike of day men in the Illinois mines. The operators said they could enter into no negotiations unless Washington authorities, who were responsible for the existing contract, authorized the meeting.

They also said they would not meet the miners' officials so long as the miners remained on strike. Decision of the Illinois operators not to grant Mr. Lewis' request for a conference closes the case so far as the operators are concerned for the present. The Indiana operators took similar action, and the mine owners of Ohio and Pennsylvania are understood here to concur in the decision.

The next moce, E. C. Searles, president of the Illinois Coal Operators' Association, said tonight, must come from the United States Government.

WESTERN PIONEER DIES.

Calgary, Alta., July 30.—Dr. J. D. Lafferty, one of the pioneers of Western Canada, died here suddenly yesterday. He had been a resident of Calgary since 1884, and an ex-mayor of the city. For several years he was registrar of the medical council for the Northwest, and later of the Alberta medical council, and framed the medical profession act for the province.

FIGHTING HOOKWORM IN JAMAICA.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 30.—Efforts of the campaign against the hookworm conducted by the Government and an expert for the Rockefeller Foundation already are felt. In Vere, one of the largest sugar centres of the colony, the laborers now work six days a week, whereas formerly they were able to work but three. On account of their improved physical condition large numbers of these workers are leaving Jamaica to work in the cane fields of Cuba.

NEW SCHOOL AGE ACT WILL CREATE PROBLEM FOR STRATFORD BOARD

STRATFORD, July 30.—Should the new school act which places the attendance at 16 years go into effect in the near future, Stratford will face a big problem in providing accommodation for the pupils. Local schools, already crowded, are in no shape to handle the additional pupils. At the collegiate there are already prospects of 60 or 70 more students this fall.

U. F. O. PICNIC.

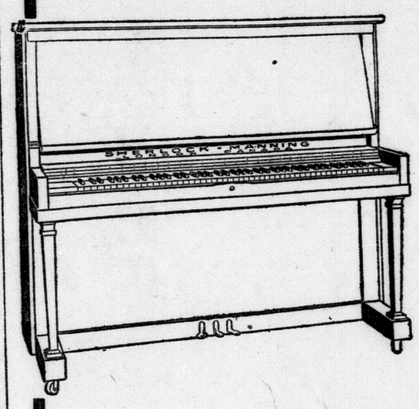

A monster picnic under the auspices of the North Perth United Farmers' Association will be held at Milverton on Thursday, August 5. Addresses will be given by J. J. Morrison, W. A. Amos and others.

CLAREMONT PRINCIPAL WEDDED.

CLAREMONT, July 30. — Principal Wilker, who returned with his bride from his honeymoon, was given a rousing welcome by a jovial jazz band. Grateful acknowledgments were made by the principal, and an end was brought to the musical part of the program by his donation to the band of a "V" for the ice cream and eats, to which the band proceeded forthwith.

The recent washout here, when the thunder cloud got spilled opposite the postoffice, has been repaired by the roadmen, who with their grader and steam roller have been macadamizing the half mile to the station.

WHEN you open the Thermokept container notice the "sizz." That is the air rushing into the vacuum.

Think of it—a process and method of packing—that takes away the air from the container, makes it impossible for harmful germ-life to exist, and insures the perfect preservation of food products with all their original flavor, under all conditions of climate, and for any length of time!

Delicate products like butter, kept sweet, products like nuts, kept crisp and tasty, condensed milk, fish, dehydrated fruits and coffee—widely different—yet all kept fresh when Thermokept processed and packed!

In no one product is the superiority of this wonderful Thermokept process more marked, more noticeable, than in Thermokept Coffee, which is now offered to the people of London.

It insures you, what never before has been possible, that wonderful satisfying flavor of the fresh-roasted, fresh-ground coffee—than which nothing can be more delicious.

The flavor of coffee starts losing itself into the air the minute it leaves the roaster. To preserve it all—to your table—the Thermokept process takes away the air, and prevents loss!

You have something to look forward to—your first trial of Thermokept Coffee. It's a blend of finest coffee berries—and you get all the wonderful flavor.

THERMOKEPT COFFEE IS ALWAYS FRESH

Look for this Trade Mark and guarantee on every container.

THERMOKEPT COFFEE

is sealed under vacuum and is guaranteed to indefinitely retain all flavor and strength while in the original sealed container. Might have saved $18,500

A LADY desired to transfer the proceeds of a policy of life insurance from one bank to another in the city of New York. The Insurance amounted to $18,500—and was probably the product of many years of self-denial on the part of both husband and wife.

This money was lost "somewhere" between the two banks. It is a great pity that the amount was not transferred by cheque, but the beneficiary preferred the cash, and it was lost.

Had the Insurance been paid to her in monthly instalments in place of a lump sum there would have been no possibility of disaster, and the unfortunate lady would have saved $18,500. We issue policies payable by monthly instalments throughout life, 240 being absolutely guaranteed.

The same loss might have been incurred in the case of an ill-advised investment. Many fraudulent schemes are offered to life insurance beneficiaries. Why risk the money when our system of payment by monthly cheques guarantees the enjoyment of every dollar of the benefit.

LEAGUE TO TAKE UP QUESTION OF COSTS IN SAARE

Opening Session of Nations' Council Also To Deal With Passports.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, July 30.—(Associated Press.)—The opening session of the council of the League of Nations began at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The conference will take up minor but practical questions, such as making traveling easier in Europe.

The council probably will empower the International Transit Commission in Paris to settle, direcly and promptly, the difficulties arising from new passport and customs regulations, which now delay international trains at all frontiers, causing annoyance to the passengers.

The council also will consider whether in view of the heavy expense and slow work of the Sarre commission, the total cost should be borne by the Sarre population as heretofore. The feeling has been evidenced that France and Germany are most directly interested in this work and should share the expense between them.

The remainder of the session, which will be private, probably will be devoted to questions referred to the league by the Red Cross.

The first public session of the council will be held Tuesday.

VETERAN RECOGNIZED AS MAN REPORTED KILLED IN ACTION

Boyhood Friend Finds Chum Alive, Though Lame, in Windsor.

WINDSOR, July 30.—Reported killed early in the war and considered dead by his relatives for over four years, Joel Davison, son of Mrs. Thomas L. Whaley of Holly, Ont., is alive and well, with the exception of a wounded leg which has made him lame.

Discovery of the missing man, who has been unable to communicate with his relatives, because of the marriage and removal of his mother, and the changed addresses of his two brothers, who reside in Hamilton, was made here by James Hudson of Simcoe, Ont., a boyhood friend of the veteran, while Hudson was on a visit to the border.

Listed as "Killed."

The two friends met some days ago, but it was not until today that Mrs. Whaley was informed that her son was living. Davis enlisted in Hamilton, and went overseas with the first contingent of Canadian soldiers to cross the Atlantic. He was wounded in one of the early engagements of the war and was reported "killed in action" in the casualty lists published at that time. His two brothers from Hamilton were in the city Thursday, attempting to find him, but returned home unsuccessful.

TRADE OF CANADA WITH UNITED STATES SHOWS BIG INCREASE

OTTAWA, July 30. — During the twelve months concluding with the end of June, imports into Canada from the United States increased from $696,370,469 to $861,103,465. Exports of Canadian produce to the United States increased during the same period from $439,983,496 to $488,974,311. Total Canadian imports (merchandise) increased from $869,503,416 to $1,210,204,323; total exports (merchandise) from $1,259,568,977 to $1,276,411,542.

NASTY THROAT DROPPINGS CATARRHAL DISCHARGES QUICKLY CURED

Doctors recommend Catarrhozone; it is nature's own cure. It drives out the germs, heals sore spots, cleans away every vestige of Catarrhal taint.

You send the soothing vapors of the pine woods, the richest balsams and healing essentials, right to the cause of your cold by inhaling Catarrhozone. Little drops of wonderful curative power are distributed through the whole breathing apparatus by the air you breathe. Like a miracle, that's how Catarrhozone cures bronchitis, catarrh, colds, and irritable throat. You simply breathe its healing fumes, and every trace of disease flees as before fire.

So safe, infants can use it, so sure to relieve, doctors prescribe it, so beneficial in preventing winter ills that no persons can afford to do without Catarrhozone. Used in thousands of cases without failure. Complete outfit $1, lasts three months, and is guaranteed to cure; smaller size, 50c, all dealers or the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

REPORT ON TIMBER BARES METHODS IN USE UNDER HEARST

Interim Report of Riddell and Latchford Show Russell Obtained Very Large Quantities of Timber Wrongfully and Accuse Him of Trespassing.

TORONTO, July 30.—An interim report was made today to the Ontario Government by Justices Riddell and Latchford on their investigation of the timber operations of concessionaires in Northern Ontario, and it reflects severely upon Walter H. Russell of Port Arthur, and the methods by which he secured patent rights. It is understood that the Government will take steps toward the cancellation of the patents and the recovery of money representing the value of the pulpwood.

Following is a copy of the report:

"We, the commissioners appointed by commission of date the 9th day of March, 1920, have the honor to make the following interim report in respect of certain operations of Walter H. Russell of the city of Port Arthur, either individually or by and through companies of which he was the principal and almost the only stockholder or the manager.

Exploitation of Resources.

"1—The business of Mr. Russell and his companies has been since 1907 the exploitation of the pulpwood resources of the province of Ontario in district of Thunder Bay.

"2—The pulpwood which they there obtained has been for the most part exported to the United States.

"3—In order to secure certain valuable areas of pulpwood, Russell conceived and carried into operation a scheme for taking advantage of what he supposed to be the legal effect of the mining acts of the province.

Took Mining Licenses.

"He caused a number of persons closely connected with him or in his employ to take out mining licenses, nominally for themselves, but in reality for him and his companies (the fees being paid by him). As he himself says, the licenses were taken out and the locations selected and obtained solely for the purpose of stripping the properties of the pulpwood thereon, and it never was intended that any of the slightest development should follow the alleged discoveries of mineral.

"4—This was admitted by Mr. Russell to have been done malefide.

Wrongfully Obtained.

"5—Very large quantities of pulpwood were wrongully obtajned in this way. The books of the Russell Timber Company show that in 1913-1919 there were so procured at least 79,350 cords.

"6—In addition to the above, Mr. Russell and his companies have trespassed for many years upon Government lands without shadow of right; and they have removed therefrom much pulpwood of great value, which they have dealt with as though it had been cut upon their mining locations.

"7—In our opinion, upon the admitted facts, proceedings should be taken to cancel the patents improperly obtained and also to recover the value of the pulpwood and for damages generally."

The report was accompanied by evidence dealing with matters set forth.

WILL EXTEND STORM SEWERS BY SECTIONS TO ALL PARTS OF CITY

City Council and No. 1 Committee Postpone Next Week Meetings.

TEXAN VISITORS

Much Interest in Party of Southern Youths Coming To City.

ST. THOMAS, July 30.—The board of works has decided to add to its system of storm sewers, and will build by sections until the entire city is relieved of the pressure on the general sewers and the surface water taken care of. The outlay will reach between $4,000 and $5,000. Tenders for the materials provided and work to be done on Eagle street, Inkerman street, Locust street, William and Wellington streets were received from Webster Construction Company, London; Scott, Maddock & Mitchell, Mansfield, Ont.; W. Wilson, St. Thomas.

Before recommending any particular tender to the council Engineer Miller will analyze the figures and report.

The account of W. C. Forbes for $272, the cost of damages to his auto, which struck a water pipe on Talbot street, was received.

COUNCIL POSTPONED.

The regular meetings of the council and finance committee, which were down for Monday and Tuesday, have been postponed for a week to allow the members to get acquainted with the fire chiefs and join with them in the festivities to be provided for the visiting firemen starting on Tuesday next.

A meeting of No. 4 committee was held this afternoon and the chairman on resolution directed Inspector Shaw not to insist upon collecting the municipal license of $100 from the war veterans for the holding of the carnival of shows at the armory grounds the second week in August.

THE TEXAN VISITORS.

The council was advised today that the party of young Texans would arrive in St. Thomas next week and the director of the visitors asked that before they be taken about the city and treated to a jaunt in the countryside the boys be given a "wholesome meal," as they were all young, healthy and full-blooded. Chairman Taylor, of the municipal reception committee, was ordered to provide the safety first end of the program, and to arrange for the care of the lads while guests of the city.

POLICE COMPLAINT RECTIFIED.

The objectionable features were removed from the men's lavatory, adjoining the police headquarters, in the city hall basement today, and the place made as sanitary as conditions would permit.

A special meeting of the board of health will be held next week to look into the complaint of the police and investigate the objections made by residents in some parts of the city to the dumping of refuse in the ravines.

INSPECTOR MATTIS ACQUITTED.

The charge of creating a nuisance made by Health Inspector Shaw against Inspector Mattis of the Humane Society, was dismissed today by Judge Colter. The Humane Society inspector had killed a horse in the yards of the Palace Livery and left the animal there from Tuesday until Thursday. The failure to remove the remains, which had become a food for flies, was deemed a nuisance by Inspector Shaw, and a complaint was made by the inspector.

RIFLE RANGES READY.

The St. Thomas Rifle Association has received a partial supply of equipment from the ordnance department of Military District No. 1. Capt. R. J. Miller is in receipt of 13 service Lee-Enfield rifles and 5,500 rounds of ball ammunition.

Arrangements are being made for the first practice next week. The ranges are being put in shape and much improved for the initial matches.

PETTY THIEVING.

The community gardens on the armory grounds are being visited nightly, and in stealing products the thieves also destroy considerable property. The vegetable and corn beds have had much work and attention from their several owners, and they are a bit disappointed that in some cases their labor has been in vain and that their investment, which cost something, has gone for nothing. The police are being asked to place special constables near the extensive patch and an example made of the stealers.

MRS. W. SWITZER INJURED.

The auto striking a culvert and rolling into the ditch near Brigden, Mrs. W. Switzer, who was driving with her family, was the only occupant seriously injured. One of her arms was broken, and the other badly sprained and bruised, besides she suffered from shock and internal injuries. The remainder of the family were shaken up and got away with a few bruises.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Clinton Snell, working with the construction gang near Dutton, was struck by a handcar and his leg badly injured.

Though not a statutory holiday, all the banks have arranged to close on Civic Holiday. The posties will also lay off for the day.

Dr. F. M. Johnson, M.C., of the Memorial Hospital, New York, is visiting his parents, ex-Mayor M. B. Johnson, and Mrs. Johnson, Gladstone avenue.

G. W. Smith, formerly G. A. Boynton, a former resident of St. Thomas, who played at a local theatre last February in "Seven Days Leave," will return to Canada after his marriage in England, and settle near St. Thomas.

SARNIA LEADS SMALL CITIES IN BUILDING

Government Records For May Place Imperial City At Top.

SARNIA, July 30.—Evidence that Sarnia practically leads all other cities of similar size in Western Ontario in the matter of building is revealed in a comparison of the statistics of building permits issued by the Dominion Government. In the latest issue the statistics for the month of May, 1920, are given, showing Sarnia far in the lead. Some of the figures follow: Sarnia, $92,450; Peterboro, $6,505; Port Arthur, $18,055; Owen Sound, $20,000; St. Thomas, $26,340; St. Catharines, $46,467; Kitchener, $58,345; Stratford, $59,388; Guelph, $62,295; Woodstock, $75,363.

The local May record was exceeded in June, when the total reported was $93,851, and the total to date for this month is reported as $63,030, slightly more than the April record, which was $62,027.

GRANTS LEAVE TO APPEAL ON COMMERCE BD.

Privy Council Approves Right To Go Beyond Supreme Court.

LONDON, July 30.—(By Canadian Associated Press).—Before the judicial committee of the privy council today application was made for leave to appeal in the matter of the Board of Commerce of Canada and the combines and fair prices act of 1919. Deputy Minister of Justice Newcombe said the application concerned the validity of certain Canadian statutes in which the Board of Commerce was interested. Their lordships granted the leave to appeal and also intimated that all provinces should be allowed to intervene.

A CRISIS AT OTTAWA.

The Government's habit of ignoring Parliament is shown by its course in deferring the ministerial changes until the session was over and there was no opportunity for Parliament to consider the new situation. Even during the session the Government ranks had begun to break and some former supporters had gone over to the opposition or the cross benches. What would have happened if during the session the Liberal Unionists had been told that they must follow Meighen instead of Borden? What would have been the effect upon the Ontario Liberal Unionists of the withdrawal of their leader, Mr. Rowell, from the Government? Mr. Rowell's conclusion, as stated in his letter of resignation is "That when a decision should be reached that the work of the Unionist Government as such was finished, and that a new departure should be made by the creation of a new party and the formation of an administration to represent that party, he might fairly ask an honorable discharge.

This means that those Liberal Unionists in Ontario who regarded Mr. Rowell as their leader are also released from their obligation to support the Government and free to take any course they please.

It cannot be said that Mr. Rowell showed any undue haste in making the break. He has, in fact, been criticized for staying in the Government too long. Be that as it may, now that he has gone, there is no reason for any Liberal Unionist to remain in the ranks of Unionism. In fact Unionism is dead. Mr. Calder is one of those who remain. But a little more than a year ago, Mr. Calder made a statement in the House which logically bound him to resign today. He was talking about Mr. Crerar's resignation, and explaining why he did not follow Mr. Crerar's example. He said:

> "Let me ask the hon. members of this House what would be the consequences if we all followed the course taken by the hon. member for Marquette (Mr. Crerar)? Suppose the minister of public works (Mr. Carvell), resigned and the president of the privy council (Mr. Rowell), and the acting minister of trade and commerce (Mr. Maclean), and myself and others should resign?"

When Mr. Calder mentioned himself the House expressed skepticism. Hansard says that some honorable members exclaimed "Oh, oh!" But Mr. Calder replied:

> "Do not be too sure, my friends. The task of carrying on government in this country and the responsibilities that are thrown upon public men"—before the increase of ministers' salaries—"are not so alluring as some hon. gentlemen opposite seem to think.
> "I say that if these resignations did take place there would immediately be a political crisis in this country, and one thing, and one thing only could happen—either the prime minister would have to appeal to the country or he would have to advise the governor-general to call upon my friend who leads the Opposition to form a Government."

Now all the ministers mentioned by Mr. Calder, except himself have resigned. Sir Robert Borden has resigned, and Sir Thomas White, the minister of finance, has resigned, and General Mewburn, the minister of militia, and Mr. Burrell, the secretary of state. So, according to Mr. Calder's own statement, there is a political crisis and there ought to be a general election or the leader of the Opposition ought to be sent for to form a new Government.

"THE CANADIANS IN FRANCE."

Of the making of books about the war there appears to be no end and much reading of them has become to many of us a weariness of the flesh. It is said that of all the belligerent nations the Germans alone have still an insatiable craving for war books. Perhaps they alone look forward with eager expectation to another war in which they hope to retrieve their fallen fortunes and wreak a savage revenge upon their foes. But when a new book comes along that is absolutely Canadian from cover to cover our appetite is whetted afresh and we read it with genuine delight. Such a book is "The Canadians in France" by Captain Harwood Steele, M. C., late Headquarters Staff, 2nd Canadian Division. This book will appeal specially to Londoners for the personal reason that the youthful author (now only twenty-two) is a cousin of Mrs. (Rev.) D. C. Macgregor, who is so well and favorably known to the reading public as Marian Keith.

Captain Steele makes no attempt at literary embellishment, and yet his recital is thrilling at intervals, because of the heroic actions described. The author tells in his prefatory note that most of the events narrated were enacted under his own personal observation, and he gives evidence on every page of being a keen and critical observer. The chapters read like a well-kept journal or the familiar letters to friends at home of a soldier in action who understood fully the significance of what was happening before his eyes. Here is his account of that glorious encounter of the Princess Pats at St. Eloi, in March, 1915, in which a gallant London officer distinguished himself:

> "Our casualties were terrible. By 7 o'clock that morning a subaltern, Lieut. Niven, was commanding the battalion.
> "Another attack, soon after Niven took command, was thrust upon the Canadian position. Once more it was flung back, shattered and dismayed by the Patricias, who were by this time in desperate straits. Immediately afterwards the shelling recommenced, and, without any help available, they were assaulted by an awful bombardment. Whole trenches disappeared in smoke. Every machine gun they possessed was smashed up or buried. With magnificent tenacity the crews kept the guns in action as long as their condition would allow it. And, battered, exhausted, surrounded by heaps of corpses and hideous fragments of human bodies, in the roaring fury of German guns, the regiment clung grimly to every foot of ground, clung with a determination beyond all praise and would not retire.
> "This was the terrible situation the Patricias were in when, in the early afternoon, reinforcements, consisting of some of the Fourth Battalion, the Rifle Brigade, arrived and were pushed into a position on their right flank.
> "In a charge of immense vigor the Kaiser's battalion swept down upon a feeble but indomitable force of Canadian and Imperial soldiers, a force which stood almost isolated since its weaker neighbors on either hand had slightly given ground, and could only muster a fire which must have caused the enemy's staff much amusement. The Germans counted upon only numbers. Morale did not enter into his calculations. In this case it was a bitter mistake, for the Princess Patricias and their comrades, worn, weak and hard hit though they were, threw back this third assault with a fury incalculable.
> "This was the turning point. From there on the violence of the offensive slackened and the casualties did not mount rapidly. By midnight the battalion was well on its way to reserve. With two officers in command, Lieut. Niven and Lieut. Papineau, 150 men, of all those who the night before had entered, withdrew from that man-made inferno of Death. One hundred and fifty men came forth. The glory of the Princess Patricia's Battalion was assured, its name immortal."

And thus the narrative runs on through 338 pages, a plain, unvarnished tale of heroism of absorbing and compelling interest until that wonderful Armistice Day at Mons, when "the wheel of fate had turned full circle" and "God brought back to Mons, as avengers of the Old Army, the Crusaders from beyond the Atlantic Seas."

> "Contrary to the expectations of many there was little or no demonstration among the fighters. The emotion felt by officers and men was too deep for outward expression. Their thoughts did not turn to flag-wagging, but to Home and Peace and those at home whom they had been spared to see again. And their minds went back over the dreary years to 50,000 comrades who were not so fortunate, from a worldly point of view, and who would never see Home or loved ones any more, but who had died, God bless them! for the freedom of the whole world and for the Canadian Army Corps and its place in history.
> "And then, for the hundredth time,—scarcely daring to believe it—they told each other that the menace of death or slavery had gone forever; they had heard the last rifleshot of anger, and had seen the last glare of shellfire along the midnight sky.
> "This was victory. At last!"

We can recommend this book very heartily to all who wish a full, accurate and interesting account of the "Canadians in France."

FOR UNIFORM RATES.

July 27th, 1920.

Hon. E. C. Drury, Prime Minister and President of the Council of the Province of Ontario:

Dear Sir,—The Toronto Hydro-Electric Commission, in its ninth annual report, has made a notable reference to the subject of a uniform rate for power delivered and sold to the Association of Municipalities of Ontario. This reference is not only seasoned with severity of opposition, but is unfair in that it is essentially lacking in the principle of truth. It states that "it is improbable that this proposal will be seriously entertained in responsible quarters," and that it "resolves the proposal into a plan to subsidize consumers in certain districts," and "to treat these contracts as scraps of paper would provoke serious litigations, would destroy all faith in, and ultimately wreck the movement beyond hope of repair."

Now, Sir, we beg to submit that such wildly speculative and untrue statements are unworthy and unbecoming of an important commission that has the responsibility of acting for and on behalf of a great city in a democratic age and in a country such as Canada is at the present time. To resort to the making of such malicious statements is not only an exhibition of weakness on their part, but shows a sad fearfulness on the face of them that indicates that under and beneath these statements they have a consciousness that they are attempting to defend a principle that is wrong. That the Toronto Hydro-Electric Commission are permitted to carry on their affairs on a dual principle is shown by the fact that they are obtaining power from or through the operations of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario at a price that is less than the average rate charged to all the other members of the Hydro-Electric Municipal Association.

But again this same commission is now and has been from the very beginning of its operations, distributing this same power throughout the length and breadth of a large city at a uniform rate, forgetting the distance and cost of wires and other necessary equipment, and making no distinction whatever between those customers that are in close proximity to the receiving station and those that are located miles away from it. This is exactly what the idea of a uniform rate (within the bounds of the Hydro-Electric Municipal Association) stands for; and moreover, it is precisely the principle upon which the second phase of general distribution is being carried on within the bounds of all the municipalities whose affairs are directed and controlled by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario. Now, Sir, wherein does the wrecking principle of uniform rate apply in real and practical application? If it is right for Toronto and all the other municipalities through the entire hydro-electric system to adopt a uniform rate, and it works well after a thorough trial for ten years or more, and its simplicity is so valuable and apparent and practical that it cannot well be dispensed with, we aver that it should be adopted and applied to both phases of the hydro-electric distribution system.

The fundamental resource of the hydro-electric system in the common waters of the province, which is the heritage of the people, and by their guarantee and assuming of responsibility it was made possible, and has been permitted to be carried out, and a uniform rate is designed and advocated for the larger purpose of a more general use of it in order to give fair treatment to all parts of the province, the rural operations extended, and the farmers brought to enjoy their share of the progress of the country, the adoption of a uniform rate will greatly assist to bring about these results.

The present plan of charging for power distributed by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, whereby Toronto and a few other municipalities receive power at less than one-half that paid on an average by all the others, is wrong in the extreme; but the principle and the application of a uniform rate is simplicity itself. It is feasible, as we have shown, and practical in every sense. Let no one say that it is designated, intended or capable of wrecking the system. Yours very truly,
ONTARIO HYDRO POWER UNIFORM RATE ASSOCIATION.
W. S. Bowden, Secretary-Treasurer.

ISN'T IT ABOUT TIME?

[Saskatoon Phoenix.]

Why was it necessary for Mr. Meighen to go outside the Parliament of Canada for two of his new ministers? Wasn't there a single man in the great Union party capable of undertaking the work of a department of state for a month or two? If so, isn't it about time we had a new parliament and a new party to select from?

THE MIDDLE TEMPLE MURDER

A Detective Story by J. S. Fletcher.

Copyright 1920, Fred A. Knopf.
Copyright, 1920, by the Public Ledger Company.

Through the door by which Spargo had entered a few minutes previously, came a man who stood for a moment blinking at the smoke and the lights. He was a tall, elderly man, with a figure and bearing of a soldier; a big, sweeping moustache stood well out against a square-cut jaw and beneath a prominent nose; a pair of keen blue eyes looked out from beneath a tousled mass of crinkled hair. He wore neither hat nor cap; his attire was a carelessly put on Norfolk suit of brown tweed; he looked half-unkempt, half-groomed. But knotted at the collar of his flannel shirt were the colors of one of the most famous and exclusive cricket clubs in the world, and everybody knew that in his day their wearer had been a mighty figure in the public eye.

"Hi, Crowfoot!" shouted Starkey above the din and babel. "Crowfoot, Crowfoot! Come over here! There's a chap dying to see you!"

"Yes, that's the way to get him, isn't it?" said Spargo. "Here, I'll get him myself."

He went across the room and accosted the old sporting journalist.

"I want a quiet word with you," he said. "This place is like a pandemonium."

Crowfoot led the way into a side alcove and ordered a drink.

"Always is, this time," he said, yawning. "But it's companionable. What is it, Spargo?"

Spargo took a pull at the glass which he had carried with him. "I should say," he said, "that you know as much about sporting matters as any man writing about 'em?"

"Well, I think you might say it with truth," answered Crowfoot.

"And old sporting matters?" said Spargo.

"Yes, and old sporting matters," replied the other, with a sudden flash of the eye. "Not that they greatly interest the modern generation, you know."

"Well, there's something that's interesting me greatly just now, anyway," said Spargo. "And I believe it's got to do with old sporting affairs. And I came to you for information about it, believing you to be the only man I know of that could tell anything."

"Yes—what is it?" asked Crowfoot.

Spargo drew out an envelope, and took from it the carefully wrapped up silver ticket.

He took off the wrappings and laid the ticket on Crowfoot's outstretched palm.

"Can you tell me what this is?" he asked.

Another sudden flash came into the old sportsman's eye—he eagerly turned the silver ticket over.

"God bless my soul!" he exclaimed. "Where did you get this?"

"Never mind just now," replied Spargo. "You know what it is?"

"Certainly I know what it is! But—Gad! I've not seen one of these things for Lord know how many years. It makes me feel something like a young 'un again!" said Crowfoot. "Quite a young 'un!"

"But what is it?" asked Spargo.

Crowfoot turned the ticket over, showing the side an which the heraldic device was almost worn away.

"It's one of the original silver stand tickets of the old racecourse at Market Milcaster," answered Crowfoot. "That's what it is. One of the original silver stand tickets. There are the arms of Market Milcaster, you see, nearly worn away by much rubbing. There, on the obverse, is the figure of a running horse. Oh, yes, that's what it is! Bless me—most interesting!"

"Where's Market Milcaster?" inquired Spargo. "Don't know it."

"Market Milcaster," replied Crowfoot, still turning the silver ticket over and over, "is what the topographers call a decayed town in Elmshire. It has steadily decayed since the river that led to it got gradually silted up. There used to be a famous race meeting there in June every year. It's nearly forty years since that meeting fell through. I went to it often when I was a lad—often."

"And you say that's a ticket for the stand?" asked Spargo.

"This is one of fifty silver tickets, or passes, or whatever you like to call 'em, which were given by the race committee to fifty burgesses of the town," answered Crowfoot. "It was, I remember, considered a great privilege to possess a silver ticket. It admitted its possessor—for life, mind you—to the stand, the paddocks, the ring, anywhere. It also gave him a place at the annual race dinner. Where on earth did you get this, Spargo?"

Spargo took the ticket and carefully rewrapped it, this time putting it in his purse."

"I'm awfully obliged to you, Crowfoot," he said. "The fact is, I can't tell you where I got it just now, but I'll promise you that I will tell you, and all about it, too, as soon as my tongue's free to do so."

"Some mystery, eh?" suggested Crowfoot.

"Considerable," answered Spargo. "Don't mention to anyone that I showed it to you. You shall know everything eventually."

"Oh, all right, my boy, all right!" said Crowfoot. "Odd how things turn up, isn't it? Now, I'll wager anything that there aren't half a dozen of these old things outside Market Milcaster itself. As I said, there were only fifty, and they were all in possession of burgesses. They were so much thought of that they were taken great care of. I've been in Market Milcaster myself since the races were given up, and I've seen these tickets carefully framed and hung over mantelpieces—oh, yes!"

Spargo caught at a notion.

"How do you get to Market Milcaster?" he asked.

"Paddington," replied Crowfoot. "It's a goodish way."

"I wonder," said Spargo, "if there's any old sporting man there who could remember things—anything about this ticket, for instance?"

"Old sporting man!" exclaimed Crowfoot. "Egad!—but no, he must be dead—anyhow, if he isn't dead he must be a veritable patriarch. Old Ben Quarterpage, he was an auctioneer in the town, and a rare sportsman."

"I may go down there," said Spargo. "I'll see if he's alive."

"Then, if you do go down," suggested Crowfoot, "go to the old Yellow Dragon in the High street, a fine old place. Quarterpage's place of business and his private house were exactly opposite the Dragon. But I'm afraid you'll find him dead—it's five and twenty years since I was in Market Milcaster, and he was an old bird then. Let's see, now. If old Ben Quarterpage is alive, Spargo, he'll be ninety years of age."

"Well, I've known men of ninety who were spry enough even in my bit of experience," said Spargo. "I know one now—my own grandfather. "Well, the best of thanks, Crowfoot, and I'll tell you all about it some day."

"Have another drink," suggested Crowfoot.

But Spargo excused himself. He was going back to the office, he said; he still had something to do.

But next morning, bright and early, he was on the departure platform at Paddington, suitcase in hand and ticket in pocket for Market Milcaster, and in the course of that afternoon he found himself in an old-fashioned bedroom looking out on Market Milcaster's High street. And there, right opposite him, he saw an ancient house, old brick, ivy-covered, with an office at its side, over the door of which was the name Benjamin Quarterpage.

To Be Continued.

THE FARMER.

[The World Spectator, Moosomin.]

The farmer has the most sane and natural occupation, and ought to find life sweeter, if less highly seasoned, than any other. He alone, strictly speaking, has a home. How can a man take root and thrive without land?

He writes his history upon his land, says John Burroughs.

How many ties, how many resources, he has—his friendship with his cattle, his team, his dogs, his trees, the satisfaction in his growing crop, in his improved fields, his intimacy with nature, with birds and beast, and with the quickening elemental forces; his co-operation with the cloud, the sun, the seasons, heat, wind, rain and frost.

Nothing will take the various disiempers which the city and artificial life breed out of man like farming—like direct and loving contact with the soil. It draws out the poison. It humbles him, teaches him patience and reverence, and restores the proper tone to the system. Blessed is he whose youth was passed upon a farm.

Cling to the farm, make much of it, put yourself into it, bestow your heart and your brain upon it, so that it shall savor of you—radiate your virtues after your day's work is done.

Poetry and Jest

A NOON SONG.

[Henry Van Dyke.]

There are songs for the morning and songs for the night,
For sunrise and sunset, the stars and the moon;
But who will give praise to the fullness of light,
And sing us a song of the glory of noon?
Oh, the high noon, and the clear noon,
The noon with golden crest;
When the sky burns and the sun turns
With his face to the way of the west.

How swiftly he rose in the dawn of his strength,
How slowly he crept as the morning wore by;
Ah, sleep was the climbing that led him at length
To the heights of his throne in the blue summer sky.
Oh, the long toil, and the slow toil,
The toil that may not rest
Till the sun looks down from his journey's crown,
To the wonderful way of the west.

Then a quietness falls over meadow and hill,
The wings of the wind in the forest are furled;
The river runs softly, the birds are all still,
And the workers are resting all over the world.
Oh, the good hour, and the kind hour,
The hours that calm the breast!
Little inn half way on the road of the day,
Where it follows the turn to the west.

There's a plentiful feast in the maple tree shade,
The lilt of a song to an old-fashioned tune;
The talk of a friend, and the kiss of a maid,
To sweeten the cup that we drink to the noon.
Oh, the deep noon, and the full noon,
Of all the day the best!
When the sky burns, and the sun turns
To his home by the way of the west!

ADMONITION.

Always select a wife at the seashore where you can see what you are getting.

BY THE LAKE.

[Ethel Clifford.]

My son, my little son,
We two will rest
Beside the water red in sunset light,
And watch the evening, fade.
The lake grow grey.
Until the moon's enchantment fills the night,
Who knows what sombre fate stands near us now,
What rich-robed destiny no eye can scan,
What scented sandalled Love?
Ah, son of mine, play not
With love when you are grown a man,
Feign nothing and love greatly when you love,
And having chosen till the end be true,
So shall one woman out of all the world
Keep faith in man by keeping faith in you.

The world says, "Promise little and no thought of faith unfaithful
Holds you from your sleep—
So rots the world!
Nay, rather be it yours to promise greatly and your promise keep.

Night comes the moon is full,
The quiet lake lies listening to the laughter of its dreams.
Lean close against my heart,
Above your head my brooding thoughts shall weave a web of dreams.

SCOTCH, OF COURSE.

"An enterprising drummer," says a New York businessman, "once attempted to bribe an old Scotch merchant by offering him a box of cigars."

"Na, na," said the old chap, shaking his head gravely. "I canna' tak' 'em."

"Nonsense," said the drummer, "if you have any conscientious scruples you may pay me a quarter for the box."

"Weel, weel," said the old Scot, "I'll tak' two boxes."

A PLEA.

[Esther M. Clark.]

Give me one friend, just one, who meets
The needs of all my varying moods,
Be we in noisy city streets,
Or in dear Nature's solitudes.

One who can let the work go by,
And suffer not a minute's pang;
Who'd dare to shock propriety
With me, and never care a hang.

Who, in my rarely righteous streaks,
Should love me—love me not the less
When I am given to outbreaks
Of purse besotted selfishness.

One who, when I am sick and glum,
Can lay conventions on the shelf,
And just for my dear sake become
A blooming heathen, like myself.

One who can share my grief or mirth,
And knows my days to praise or curse;
And rate me for just what I'm worth,
And find me still—Oh, not so worse.

Give me one friend for peace or war,
And I shall hold myself well-blest,
And richly compensated for
The cussedness of all the rest.

THE USHER'S JOB.

Little Bobby—"What's an usher."

Uncle George—"He's the man who shows people where they mustn't sit in church."

"YOU MUST MEAN MORE."

[By Richard Le Gallienne.]

You must mean more than just this hour,
You perfect thing so subtly fair,
Simple and complex as a flower,
Wrought with such planetary care:
That wove the marvel of your hair.

How long the sunlight and the sea
Wove and rewove this rippling gold
To rhythms of eternity;
And many a flashing thing grew old
Waiting this miracle to be;
And painted marvels manifold.

Still with his work unsatisfied,
Eager each new effect to try,
The solemn artist cast aside,
Rainbow and shell and butterfly—
As some stern blacksmith scatters wide
The sparks that from his anvil fly.

How many shells, whorl within whorl,
Litter the marges of the spheres,
With wrack of unregarded pearl,
To shape that little thing your ear;
Creation, just to make one girl,
Hath travailed with exceeding fear.

The moonlight of forgotten seas
Dwells in your eyes, and on your tongue
The honey of a million bees,
And all the sorrow of all song:
You are the ending of all these,
The world grew old to make you young.

All times have traveled to this rose—
To the strange making of this face
Came agonies of fires and snows;
And death and April, night and days
Unnumbered, unimagined throes,
Find in this flower their meeting place.

Strange artist, to my aching thought
Give answer; all the patient power
That to this perfect ending wrought—
Shall it mean nothing but this hour?

Say not that it is all for nought
Time brings eternity a flower.

GIVING BILL THE LAUGH.

[Detroit Free Press.]

David Belasco, at a dinner in New York, found himself seated opposite a brother play producer.

"Well, Bill," he said, genially, "how's the new show going?"

"Only so-so, Dave; only so-so."

"Sorry to hear, that Bill."

"Oh, there's a reason for it. You see, we produced on Friday—an unlucky day, you know. Then there was the car strike; that hit us where we lived. An' we'd hardly recovered from the blow when Lent came on. Of course, Dave, business always falls off in Lent."

Mr. Belasco gave a laugh.

"Bill," he said, "I'll tell you what's the trouble with that show of yours. You brought it out too soon after the San Francisco earthquake."

COOL AND HEARTLESS.

"Woman! You have ruined me with your extravagance. I am penniless. There is only one place for me now. Good-bye. I'm going!"

"Where?"

"To the river!"

"Well, you'll be passing the post-office. Do you mind posting this letter?"

PRACTICE VS. PRECEPT.

[The Educationalist.]

In a recently published book on "The Philosophy of Speech," an amusing illustration of an English schoolboy's objection to "bookish" language and his preference for his own vernacular even if it is ungrammatical, is given.

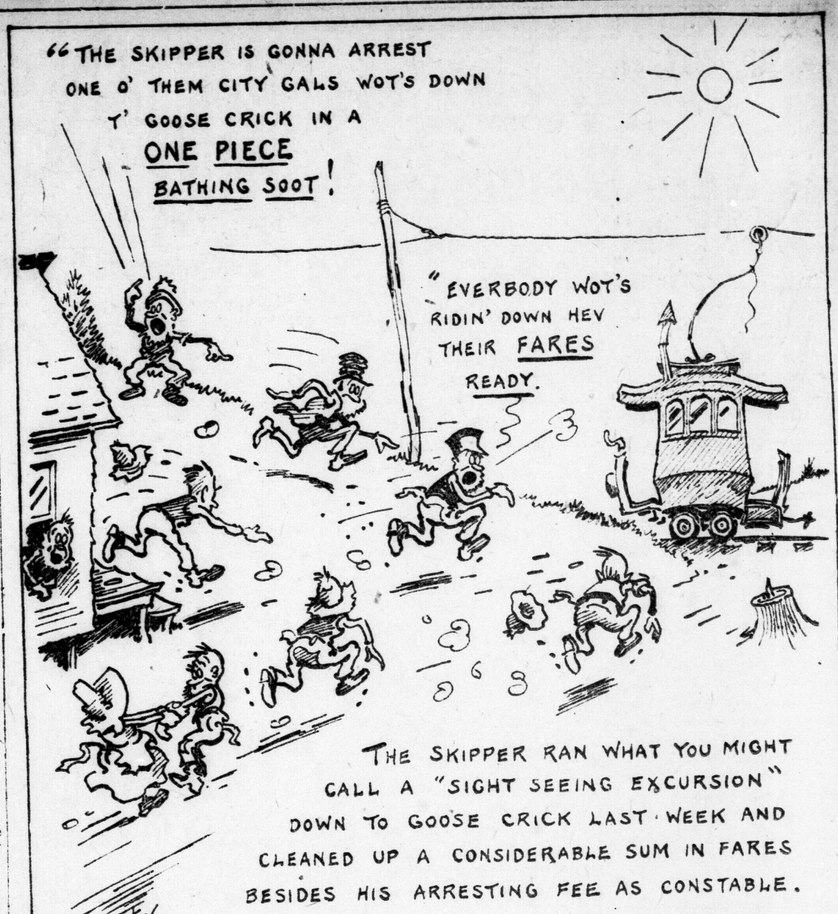

"Him and me is next," cries the London schoolboy, claiming his turn at the wicket.

"What should you have said instead of that?" exclaims the schoolmaster, standing near.

"He and I are next," replies the boy promptly.

"Why did you not say it, then?"

"Because they'd all laugh at me if I talked like that, sir."

Are You Sinking Into the Rut of Ill-Health Because Your Blood Is Starving For Iron

Physician Explains Why Modern Methods of Living Sap the Iron From the Blood, and Why So Many Men and Women Are Benefited by the Strength-Giving, Up-Building Effect of Organic Iron Like

NUXATED IRON

Many a man or woman is wearily trudging along the road of life steadily becoming more weakened and run-down, simply because their blood is getting thin, pale and watery—starving for a want of strength-giving iron. At any moment they run the risk of sinking into the Rut of Ill-Health, and by not building up their physical condition in time they often sentence themselves to a lifetime of misery and regrets.

"Without iron there can be no strong, sturdy men or healthy, beautiful women," says Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, in commenting upon how the strain of modern methods of living sap the iron from the blood and break down the health and strength.

"Seldom do you find a weakling in a place of real power. The men who reach the top in business are those who do not neglect their physical or mental development. The women who come to the front in commercial or social life, and the ones who are most successful in the home are those who realize the value of health.

"You can look around and see any number of such people, and you can tell that every one of them is possessed of rich, red blood—the kind with plenty of iron in it to build strength and energy. Yet, there are thousands of people who are weak nervous and run-down for the lack of iron, and do not know what to take. In cases of this kind I always prescribe organic iron like Nuxated Iron, for I find that by enriching the blood and creating new red blood cells, it helps strengthen the nerves, rebuild the weakened tissues, and gives renewed energy to the whole body. Through my own tests of Nuxated Iron I am convinced it is one of the best strength and blood builders any physician can prescribe."

Among other physicians to comment on the need of rich, red blood to increase the power and endurance of weakened, run-down men and women is Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), N. Y., and the Westchester County Hospital, who says: "There is little doubt, in my opinion, that many men and women would be stronger, more energetic and vigorous in body and mind, and therefore more successful in life, if they would only enrich their blood with organic iron, and thus fortify and invigorate their whole system.

"There can be no success or happiness without the rich, red blood—full of iron—that always goes with health. Wherever you go you can tell the fellows with iron in their blood; they are the strong, vigorous, dominant, successful ones, brimming over with Life and Energy. In my opinion, the best way to build up the strength and endurance is to take organic iron—Nuxated Iron. I have prescribed it with remarkable results, and in many instances it has increased the strength and endurance in two weeks' time. I cannot recommend it too highly for men or women who are weak, nervous and run-down."

If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks, then test your strength again and see how much you have gained.

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron, which is recommended above, is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, and does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. Each tablet of genuine Nuxated Iron is stamped, and the words Nuxated Iron are stamped into each bottle, so that the public may not be led into accepting inferior substitutes. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in tablet form only by all druggists.

The many friends of the Rev. and Mrs. Marshal Hawkins, will be glad to learn that their small son, Edwin, who was the victim of a serious accident some days ago, is progressing favorably at St. Joseph's Hospital, and is considered out of danger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Campbell of Rutherford, Ont., announce the engagement of their third daughter, Mary Mildred, to William Ernest Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott of Campbellville, Ont., the marriage to take place quietly the latter part of August.

Mrs. H. A. Brazier and her two children left Thursday evening for New York, and they will sail on the Aquitania for England, where Mrs. Brazier will spend a few months with her people in Bournemouth. Mr. Brazier accompanied them as far as New York.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Le Sueur, Belle Vue," Tecumseh avenue, left on Saturday evening last on an extended trip to Los Angeles, California, where they will visit the former's mother, Mrs. B. Le Sueur, and Miss Anna Le Sueur. They will return home by way of the Canadian Rockies, accompanied by Mrs. B. Le Sueur, who has spent the last year in Los Angeles.

MARTIN—CUTHBERT.

Miss Margaret Cuthbert and Mr. John J. Martin of London were quietly married at the residence of the Rev. A. C. Bingham, 89 Anderson avenue, on Wednesday, July 28. The bride's mother arrived from Scotland in time to witness the wedding. The happy couple will reside in London.

BUCHANAN—ZUEFLE.

A quiet wedding was solemnized July 28, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zuefle of Hensall, when their eldest daughter, Nellie was united in marriage to Mr. Peter B. Buchanan by the Rev. G. W. Rivers, B.A. B.D., pastor of the Methodist Church. After the wedding breakfast the happy couple left for Toronto, where they intend making their future home, the bride traveling in a suit of navy serge with hat to match.

SINDEN—YELLAND.

"Ossean Terrace," Ingersoll, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Yelland, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, July 28, when their third daughter, Audrey, became the bride of Mr. William Sinden of Belmont. The Rev. Mr. Kellum of Belmont officiated in the presence of about 60 guests. The bride, charming in white georgette and veil caught with orange blossoms, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of roses and snapdragon, was given away by her father. Miss Ruby Barons of Belmont, in pink organdy, with tulle hat to match, and carrying pink carnations and roses, was bridesmaid, while Mr. Norman Taylor of Belmont was groomsman. Miss Ada Campbell played the wedding march. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a pearl barpin, and to the pianist a sapphire brooch.

Following the ceremony and wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Sinden left for their honeymoon, the bride traveling in a grey taffeta gown, with black hat.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

ABIGAIL.

Quaint and simple and old-fashioned as Abigail is considered in this country, the name has an interesting history in England. It signifies "father of joy," and was used by the Eastern nations to represent the abstract quality of joyfulness. The Biblical Abigail, in her courtesy to David, so recommended herself to early readers of the Holy Book that her name appeared frequently in church registers.

In the reign of Queen Anne, Abigail Masham exerted such a back-stair influence upon the worthy sovereign, that the name became a sobriquet for lady's maid. Other etymologists explain, however, that it owes its reputation for belonging to a waiting-woman to Beaumont's comedy, "The Scornful Ladie," played in 1616, where the waiting gentlewoman was called Abigail.

In a play of Killigrew's, some thirty years later, the term Abigail was used for a maid servant, and its sudden failure was attributed to its reference to the influence of the famous Abigail Masham. After that time the name was considered a cant term for lady's maid, but with the coming of the Puritans to America, it sprang again into favor among the higher classes, and is today much used in old-fashioned families, especially in New England.

The amethyst is Abigail's talismanic stone. It is believed to protect her from evil of every kind, and to be particularly potent in guarding her from deceitful acquaintances. Sunday is her lucky day and 6 her lucky number.

Age (if child's or misses' pattern).....

Measurement: Bust..... Waist.....

CAUTION: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 38, 44, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of application.

HOME ECONOMICS

MRS. ELIZABETH KENT, MacDONALD COLLEGE.

An omelet is made of eggs, with or without other ingredients. Eggs are rich in protein, fat and mineral matter, especially sulphur and iron, and are, therefore, very nourishing food. In the preparation of omelets, eggs are beaten, to enfold air and make them light. The amount of beating depends on the sort of omelet desired. If it is desired to beat eggs especially stiff, the yolks may be beaten separately with a Dover egg beater, and the whites on a platter with a wire whisk. We say that eggs are stiff, when the beater comes out clean from them, and dry when the shine is gone and the egg comes off the beater easily.

Ingredients may be added to beaten eggs by stirring, beating, folding, or cutting. We stir with a circular motion when there is no need to incorporate more air. We beat to introduce air by lifting the mixture up and over on a spoon rapidly. We fold when we desire to add beaten whites to batter, or any beaten mixture to another without breaking the air bubbles already inclosed. Folding is accomplished by carefully turning the mixture over with a wire beater, constantly bringing the material at the bottom of the bowl to the top. Cutting is done with a knife, as we cut shortening into flour to make pastry.

Foamy omelet requires one egg, one tablespoonful of water, one teaspoonful of butter and salt and pepper to taste. Beat the white of the egg stiff; beat the yolk until thick; fold the white into the yolk, add water and seasoning. Melt the butter in a small granite pan, turn in the egg and cook slowly until light and evenly cooked on the bottom to a light brown. Slip it into the oven to brown on the top, and when it is firm to the touch, turn on a hot plate and serve at once. Convalescents like a foamy omelet.

For cheese omelet use the same ingredients in the same way, except that before turning out the omelet, add a little grated cheese and a dash of cayenne. Let the cheese melt in the oven, and then turn out the omelet.

Hot minced ham, chopped parsley, finely-chopped cooked meat, oysters or vegetables may be used instead of cheese in the same way.

TALKS ON HEALTH

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., Noted Physician and Author.

A Safe Vacation (Conclusion)—What To Eat on Vacation.

Although we have passed through the antiseptic era of surgery and travelled far in the aseptic era—the era of absolute surgical cleanliness as opposed to the older use of germ-killing and tissue-cell-killing chemicals — there are still people so benighted as to imagine that "blood poisoning" is caused by such things as iron rust, verdigris, dyes in clothing, and, most deplorable of all, by "taking cold" in a wound. While such false notions prevail there are bound to occur many wound infections which should have been preventable. If an individual with a trifling scratch, puncture or abrasion of the skin surface doesn't know how such little wounds lead to serious septicemia ("blood poisoning") he is not likely to apply intelligent prevention in the way of first aid.

When we started out on this vacation journey I have a list of the essentials of the emergency kit and if you saved the list you will find that it contains two drams of tincture of iodine —enough to prevent at least forty cases of wound infection or blood poisoning. Iodine is useful as well as ornamental. Daub or swab it upon every scratch, cut or abrasion early—but not often. Once is plenty. Do it immediately. Then let nothing touch the wound unless sterile. A sterile dressing, which is excellent for small wounds which are not bleeding, is a coat of flexible collodion, two drams of which you will find in the kit. Or if the edges of the cut or wound tend to gape, following the iodine swabbing, they may be drawn together with strips of adhesive plaster, a one-inch spool of which we included in the kit. Before either collodion or adhesive is applied, the wound and skin must be perfectly dry. Take care that neither fingers nor anything else not sterile shall come in contact with the surface of the adhesive or with any other surface which is to be placed upon the wound.

A larger wound may be swabbed with the iodine and then immediately covered with a pad of sterile gauze, two sealed envelopes of which you will find in the kit. In order to prevent sticking of the gauze to the wound, squeeze out upon the surface of the gauze which is to touch the wound a generous lampmat of sterile petrolatum (vaseline) from the collapsible tube in the kit. Then cover the gauze with a piece of waxed paper off the loaf of bread we bought at the last station, to prevent the vaseline from permeating the dressing, and hold the dressing in place either with strips of adhesive plaster or with one of the bandages.

No wound infection or blood poisoning occurs unless the germs are deliberately or unknowingly implanted in the wound. Germs never travel on their own effort. They go only where they are put. Of course, they may be present on the implement or object which wounds the skin; or on the unbroken skin. Iodine takes care of the latter.

Once a wound is dressed, let it severely alone for a week unless it becomes uncomfortable, and in that case, see a doctor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

The Sun and the Hair.

I am very fond of swimming, but people tell me the sun will spoil my hair and make me grow bald in time unless I wear a big bonnet over it. I have some hairs on my arms, and they say the sun makes the hair grow on the arms. Is that so? NINA.

Answer.—Nah, nah, Nina. It would be a very illogical or inconsistent sun that would impair the growth of hair where the hair ought to grow and stimulate the growth where it ought not to grow—but you know how cordial people are about handling of hygienic imaginations. Look at the Indians, who wore nothing but a few feathers, and they had no hair on the body.

Myocarditis.

Please tell me what myocarditis is. R. H. C.

Answer.—Heart muscle inflammation or degeneration.

Puppy Stories (by Vincent G. Perry)

TOODLES' MUSICAL CAREER.

Toodles was a clever little dog. He had learned to do ever so many tricks, and his master was quite proud of him. Why he had played "dead dog" and rolled over to beg for his supper long before he was six months old. Now that he was a year old he could do wonderful things, such as jumping through a hoop, standing on his head and rocking little Rosemary's doll's cradle.

Yet Toodles was not satisfied. He wanted to be educated. Once he had followed Rosemary to school, but the teacher had sent him home, so he had given up all hope of being educated in the regular way.

There was another way, however. Every Saturday morning Rosemary went to take her music lesson. Toodles had followed her often and had sat out in front of the music teacher's house and waited until Rosemary was ready to return from her lesson, but one day he resolved that he would like to take a lesson too.

Of course Toodles knew that it would never do to go into the house, for that would just mean he would be turned out again. So he walked up to the window, stood on his hind paws and peeked in. There sat Rosemary on the piano stool running her fingers up and down the keys. So that accounted for the strange noise that came from the parlor so often, thought Toodles. (The parlor was the one room at home he was not allowed to enter.) Well, it looked easy enough. He watched Rosemary right up to the end of her lesson, and then he had made up his mind he knew how to play the piano. He would just wait his opportunity to try out what he had learned.

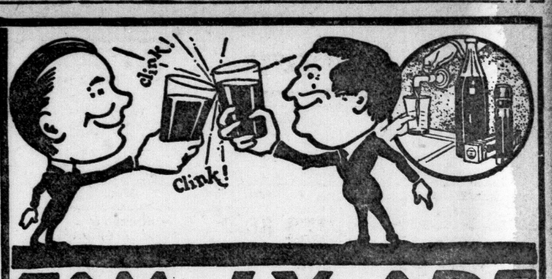

Toodles opportunity came sooner than he expected. That very night someone left the parlor door open, so the little dog waited until the whole family was in bed and all was still. He felt a trifle ashamed stealing into the parlor like a thief, but he believed his offence would be excused when the family learned how clever he had become.

It took three jumps before Toodles got a firm place on the piano stool, for it was very slippy and he fell off twice, but the third time he dug his nails in firmly. The piano stool was too low, though, and he had to jump up onto the the shiny keys of the piano. What a loud bang of music there was then. It came so unexpectedly it startled Toodles. But he remembered what it was, and sat down to figure on what to do next. Rosemary had run her fingers up and down the piano. Well, she had had only two hands, but he had four, he thought, so he walked up and down the piano keys. Faster and faster he walked, turning each time as he came to the end of the keys. What a noisy mixture of sound came from that piano, and how it delighted Toodles! He had really become an accomplished player, he thought. But just as he was thinking this, the lights flashed on and there stood his master in the doorway. Of course the strange notes of the piano at that late hour had roused him from his sleep, and he had come down to investigate. When he spied Toodles he began to smile, but then he spied the deep scratches on the piano stool, and some smaller scratches on the piano itself, and he became very angry.

Poor Toodles! He was given a good spanking and locked up in the kitchen. What a disastrous ending to his musical career! Needless to say he never tried to play the piano again, and contented himself with doing the tricks his master taught him.

The End.

HAMS HAMMER OUT 18 HITS FOR 16 RUNS AGAINST CUSTERS

Joe Reddy Hurled and Led Tiger Attack in Hitting.

WOLVES FIGHT HARD

Duel Between Buckley and Summers Goes To Sox 2--0.

HAMILTON, July 30.—Today's excuse for a ball game was a horrible affair to wish on the unsuspecting public. Hamilton's exhibition of long-distance hitting was the only redeeming feature to it. The Shagmen made 18 hits for a total of 28 bases, and piled up 16 runs. "Dec" Bullard, the Custers' southpaw, had nothing at all on the ball.

Joe Reddy pitched for Hamilton, and for four innings not an opponent reached first base. He eased up in the fifth, however, and the visitors got five runs from then to the finish. Reddy, with four hits in five times at bat, led the Tigers' attack.

BEAVERS BEAT ACES AND REDUCE FLINT LEAD TO HALF GAME

Sharp Let Saginaw Down With Four Hits, While Freeman Was Touched At Right Time.

KITCHENER, July 30.—The Beavers kept up their winning streak here this evening by defeating the Saginaw Aces by 3 to 1 in a fast and snappy game. Sharp held the Aces down to four hits and was given gilt-edged support in the field. "Buck" Freeman allowed eight hits, three of which were triples, and each figured in the run-getting for the Beavers. After the score had been tied by Saginaw in the third inning the Beavers forged ahead when Phillips hit for three bases and made a sensational steal to the home plate. Owing to a train wreck near St. Marys, Umpire O'Hearne was unable to reach the city, and Bornhaeft and Shriver officiated satisfactorily.

Tecs Improve On Job the Hams Make of Beating Flint

10--1 Victory Made Monotonous Game of First of Series With Vehics—Delotelle Allows But Six Hits.

Fresh from Tigerville the Vehics appeared over at the west-end ball yard yesterday and 10 to 1 was the verdict. No need to say which way the verdict went. Flint hoped to win a game, and had even been urged by the Hams to go up there and beat the heads off the Tecumsehs, but they only hoped for about one inning, and then the Tribe started out with their little rakes to gather them in until the sizeable total of 10 had been reached and a similar number of hits. Delotelle allowed the Flinters six hits, the two they achieved in the second inning accounting for their one tally.

The Vehics were a bit disappointing. They certainly didn't look like the team that had thrown several scares into the Shagmen. Either they were horribly off form yesterday or the Hams are easily frightened, despite the steady dribble of reinforcements to Tigerville. They used three hurlers for the afternoon, just by way of showing they had nothing up their sleeves. Landry started and the Tecs had gained two runs off him in the first when he batted out of his turn and had to retire. Then Fisher came in and he remained until the sixth, the remainder of the score going against him. After a conference before the eighth, Tengen, who has been sold to the St. Louis Americans, but who is still with the Flint Club, was sent in. Tom Halligan, who initiated the little talk, apparently being all in favor of showing the fans what a real about-to-be major leaguer looks like.

The fact didn't appear to bother the local bush leaguers a bit, as two long outs to right field with designs on the fence sort of left a sneaking suspicion that they might welcome a chance at Tengen for several more cantos.

Delotelle had a very calm passage throughout. Outside the second inning he wasn't bothered, except in the fifth, when a walk, an error and a hit populated the bags. Ted Anderson, who usually lines out something hard to handle, could not get one through Bill Dowling, however, and the little old opportunity winged away.

Corker Legg's appearance here for the first time this year as an M.-O. umpire, was more interesting than the game. The local boy turned in a good job before the home folks, and he didn't have any too easy a day of it, several decisions being close enough to start arguments. "Corker" had them sorted about right on the bases, and while he was off on a few called balls, the light was very bad after the third inning with soiled balls.

And From There On.

Kennedy opened the scoring in the first. Speck took a walk, Shay fouled out to left, Neitzke singled and Kuhn shot a sacrifice fly to centre, scoring Kennedy. Neitzke came in on Witry's hit to left, but Crichlow made the third out.

The Vehics got their lonesome counter in the second on Anderson's single, Trefry's sacrifice and a hit by Johnson.

Two more were poked over in the locals' half of the spasm with two down. Honeck paved the way, when he messed up Delotelle's roller. The slim heaver stole second. Kennedy put him on third with a single, and then he took a run down the pathway for a stolen bag. Delotelle scored on Johnson's error and Kennedy took third, where he scored from on Shay's hit.

Three were added in the third. Kuhn and Witry drew bases on balls. Crichlow singled, scoring Kuhn. Pitt decided on a hit and poled out a two-bagger to left, bringing in Witry and Crichlow. Dowling sacrificed Pitt to third, but he was stranded there when the next two went out in order.

The grand finale was staged in the sixth, when another trio of counters were added to the list. Kennedy started it away by getting in front of a pitched ball and stealing second. "The Rabbit" singled him to third, from where he scored on Neitzke's infield out. Kuhn brought Shay across on a single to right, but he was thrown out trying to make it into a double. Witry drew his third base on balls and immediately stole second. At this period the Tribe was running wild on the bases. Crichlow singled him in with the third counter and then he took a jaunt down the paths for a pilfered sack. Pittenger made the third out on a hit to centre, ending the scoring of the game.

SOCCER KICK-OFFS

(By Secretary.)

The last game of the league series takes place Saturday at Springbank Park between Grand Army Vets and Grand Trunk. Kick-off 3:30 p.m. Referee, Sergeant McCready.

A box of cigars will be given the winners by the energetic playing manager of the Grand Army Vets., Billy Friend. Come, let's all sing together, "What a 'Friend' we have in Billy."

All the "Wasps" intend being smokers on Saturday, so do the Grand Army Vets. So there you've got it all in a nutshell.

Public Utilities, who have four of their players due to play for London Monday against Sarnia, in order to get those particular players in shape for the big game, engage their old-time friends, Princess Patricias, in a friendly encounter on Carling Heights Saturday. Kick-off, 3:30 p.m.

Public Utilities will pick their eleven from the following players: Whitworth, Hunt, Dennis Whitworth, Smith (captain), Hodkinson (manager), [illegible] Turner, [illegible] Dickson, [illegible] and Leigh.

Public [illegible] manager and player, Tommy Hodkinson, intends playing his team right through August so as to have them in good trim for the forthcoming cup ties. Here's hoping, Tommy.

A great little big player is Wee Red Barrett, London's Own; the chap who "made a bolt" down the field every time he played for the once famous Bolt Works team.

We append a delayed but rather interesting account (reported by "Spect-Potato") of the Has Beens versus Is Nows game staged by the Wasps at Port Stanley last Saturday.

The football game on Saturday was a decided success. The numerous spectators were favored with a grand exhibition, far exceeding their expectations.

The start was delayed as the moving picture apparatus got switched at St. Thomas. Both teams had players unable to take part in the game through unforeseen circumstances. Some had partaken too much of the good things from the various baskets; rheumatism and other causes.

The Has Been were very fortunate to get two lads who filled the vacant positions. They were very useful, at least their clothes helped considerably to represent the goalposts.

After the game got started the sphere was kept in motion from one end of the field to the other, both aggregations showing fine play. From a splendid centre from the outside right one of the Has Beens' centre forwards headed the ball through the "Is Nows'" goal.

The "Is Nows" rallied splendidly after this reverse and the sphere traveled fast down towards the "Has Beens'" goal. One of their forwards, with a fine burst of speed, cut through the backs, and with a fast shot, beat the Has Beens' custodian, who, although standing on his "bean," had not the least chance of stopping the ball.

After this the game was evenly contested, with both teams trying strenuously to get the lead. With darkness coming on the touch flags and goal posts became almost invisible, likewise the umpire. The game was called, leaving the score one goal each.

The prize, a choice box of cigars, was then ditributed.

Their outside left was very fast in getting the ball out of the lake and off the railway track.

The Has Beens' trainer, when interviewed after the game, expressed himself as very pleased with the showing of his team.

He wishes to thank the persons responsible for starting the game at such a late hour, as it was the means of keeping a few out later than usual, and therefore gave a legitimate excuse to see the free show, etc.

NOTES.

The London players have been hard at practice during the week, getting all limbered up and ready for the fray.

Watch "Yorkie" Richardon speed Monday. There will be little chance of grass growing under that speedy player's feet during the 80 or 90 minutes of play.

The Princess Pats' rooters will be out in full force to help root for London and their playing comrades, Lieut. James and Bandsman Haber, in particular.

The Sarnians are to be congratulated for their true sportsmanship shown in coming to London for the benefit of an injured comrade at their own expense.

The league will no doubt return the compliment in the coming fall by journeying to Sarnia and engaging Sarnia City on their own grounds in a return fixture.

The Sarniaites have so far this season played six games, winning them all, scoring nineteen goals to three against. They are also due to meet Stratford in the final of the senior W. F. A. group.

As several old No. 2 Field Ambulance men, of which Mr. J. W. Boswell, Sarnia City's secretary was a member, are accompanying the team to London. They wish to renew old acquaintances with any London men who were with that unit.

A special Springbank car will leave Richmond and King streets on Monday at 2 p.m., taking the players of both elevens to the playing field.

The league wishes to thank the general public for the hearty support given the association in the sale of benefit tickets.

Remember Monday and the tid bit soccer match of the season. Also remember it's for a very laudable object.

STERLINGS DEFEAT BAINS

WOODSTOCK, July 30.—With the score a tie of 6 to 6 and two out in the last frame, Frank McNab won an exciting ball game for Sterlings over Bains, when he drilled the ball between first and second, scoring a runner from second. The game meant the championship of the second series for the Sterlings, and the play-off for the championship will be between Bains and Sterlings. Spike Arnott pitched ball for the winners and started the rally in the final frame with a hit to centre. McNab was handy with the willow with three safeties, including a three bagger. Thompson was hit freely throughout. Hagerman's homer was a feature.

The summary: R.H.E.
Bains 6 6 2
Sterlings 7 14 5
Batteries — Thompson and Bloor; Arnott and O'Bright.

Canadians Take All of Yesterday's Henley Races

Argonauts and Dons of Toronto Are Main Winners With Ottawa and Brockville Taking Race Each — The American Crews Were All Outclassed.

ST. CATHARINES, July 30.—The opening day at the Royal Canadian Henley Regatta and 38th meet of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen was signalized by the biggest card, favorable weather and the largest attendance for any first day since the regatta has been held on the local course.

Out of the fourteen events, five of which were rowed in the morning and noon hour, six were finals. Of this number, Argonauts and Dons of Toronto divided four between them, Ottawa and Brockville each taking one.

The American competitors, while strong contenders and pace-setters in some instances, were obliged to take secondary places in the final events. Rechers of Chicago, after winning his heat handily this morning in the fastest preliminary of the 140-pound singles (10:35), was looked upon as a likely choice for the final. It was a disappointing surprise to his clubmates that he was in fourth place in the final test, which Stevenson was able to win in 11:19. The Windy City club bunch are still favorites for the senior eights tomorrow.

St. Catharines, July 30.—With so many contesting crews in the various events that the usual procedure of afternoon rowing only could not be followed, the Royal Canadian Henley regatta opened at 10 o'clock this morning, when Stevenson of the Argonaut Rowing Club, Toronto; Joseph Laing of the Grand Trunk Boat Club of Montreal, and F. Walters of the Don Rowing Club, Toronto, met in the first heat of the 140-pound singles. The day opened bright, clear and intensely hot, and although a fair breeze was blowing there was scarcely a ripple on the course as the first crews broke water.

The officials are:

Referee—P. J. Mulqueen, Toronto.

Substitute referees—Francis Nelson and Ed. Mack.

Starter—Orlando Heron, Toronto.

Senior judge—Ivan McSloy, St. Catharines, Ont.

Associate judges—Mayor Lovelace, R. W. Leonard, J. A. McSloy, St. Catharines; B. O. Hooper, J. McAllister, Hamilton; Reeve Sutton, Port Dalhousie; W. D. Birchall, Montreal; P. S. Roberts, Ottawa; V. F. Kinard, Brockville; W. J. Saunderson, J. D. Chaplin, J. E. Russell, Toronto.

Timekeepers—Louis Fournier, Ottawa; D. B. Duffield, Detroit; R. K. Barker, J. D. Bailey, T. A. Murphy, James Murphy, J. Ingham, W. R. Morson, Toronto.

Clerk of the course—Wilfred Murphy, Port Dalhousie.

Assistant clerk of the course—R. L. Schram, St. Catharines.

First heat, 140-pound singles—First, Walters, Don R. C., Toronto; second, Stevenson, Argonauts, Toronto; third, Laing Grand Trunk B. C., Montreal.

Stevenson broke water first and drew away to a slight lead. Walters drew ahead, turning the buoy first as Stevenson reached it. Making his turn, he tried to increase his lead, but Stevenson held on. Walters won by a length and a quarter. The time was slow. Time, 10:43.

Second heat 140-pound singles—First, Reichers, Lincoln Park B. C., Chicago; second, Levis, West Side R. C., Buffalo; third, Middleton, Hamilton R. C. Time, 10:35. Middleton broke away to a beautiful start, gaining a length. Reichers drew up and took the lead, with the Buffalo entry second, Middleton falling back. Reichers won easily by five lengths.

First heat junior eights—First, Argonaut R. C., Toronto; second, Ottawa R. C., Ottawa. Time, 6:50.

The Argonaut Varsity crew took the water first, gaining about three feet. Despite the efforts of the Ottawa eight, they stretched the lead to three-quarters of a length at the quarter. Ottawa's time was bad. At the half the U. of T. crew had increased their lead to two lengths and won by an easy two lengths of open water.

Second heat junior eights—First, Brockville R. C.; second, Hamilton R. C. Time, 7:22.

Brockville crew picked up its stroke and led away from the starting buoy by nearly a length. The Brockville cox steered all over the course, but his boat steadily drew away from the outclassed Hamilton eight. At the half two lengths of clear water separated the boats. Brockville finished easily with four lengths' lead.

Third heat junior eights—First, Argonaut R. C., Toronto; second, Detroit R. C. Time, 6:50.

Detroit drew slightly ahead on the start, but the Argos drew up on them, taking a lead of a length before they had reached he quarter-mile mark. The Argonaut eight showed their class by steadily increasing their lead, notwithstanding quickened stroke of the Detroit crew. At the half-way buoy the Argonauts had opened up a stretch of four lengths, which they held to the finish mark.

The grandstand was half filled at 2 o'clock, when Senator Herron sent the first boats off in the tack weight final. Perfect weather overhead, with the water slightly choppy from a stiff breeze blowing down the course, provided a fine day for the preliminary program.

100-pound singles, final—First, S. Stevenson, Argos; second, F. Walters, Dons; third, Levy, West Side, Buffalo; fourth, Reichers, Lincoln Park, Chicago. Time 11:19.

Walters led away from the start, with a powerful stroke, opening up a three-length lead half way to the buoy, with Stevenson, the Argo hope, in second place. Walters and Stevenson turned the flag together. Half way down the return course, the Argos were bow to bow, with West Side entry battling for third place. Walters cracked under the strain, and Stevenson went half a length ahead, winning by that amount.

Junior singles, first heat — First, Steacy, Brockville; second, Torrance, Ottawa; third, Moran Dons. Time 11:17.

Second heat—First, A'Arcy Hilton, Detroit; second, Carroll, West Side, Buffalo; third, P. C. McNally, Dons, Toronto. Time 11:21.

McNally broke water first, but D'Arcy Hilton, Detroit's sculler, forged to the front, closely followed by Carroll of the West Side Buffalo club. Carroll and Hilton reached their flags together, but Hilton straightened away two lengths in the lead. Half way back Carroll commenced to close down Hilton's lead, but the Detroit man's steady stroke maintained his advantage, winning by two lengths of open water.

Paisley did not turn his buoy.

Laing, the Grand Trunk R. C. entry, withdrew from the heat, leaving three starters. Moran, last year's runner-up, broke water first, taking a half length lead, which was speedily eaten up by the long, even stroke of Steacy, the Brockville Rowing Club. Steacy drew even and away to a three-quarter length lead. Steadily forging ahead, the easterner turned the buoy before Moran reached his flag. Steacy straightened away with a lead of four lengths clear water, and won easily.

140-pound eights—First, Don R. C., Toronto; second, Detroit R. C.; third, Ottawa R. C. Time 6:46.

Detroit won a slight advantage on the start, but the Argo and Don crews followed the terrific pace set by the Americans. Dons forged a little ahead. Ottawa fell back steadily. Detroit held second place, a half length behind, with the Argos' third two lengths behind. Detroit showed the stroke up. The two crews passed the grandstand almost bow to bow, Dons winning by a quarter length, beating the former course record by ten seconds.

Junior singles, final—First, Steacy, Brockville R. C.; second, D'Arcy Hilton, Detroit R. C.; third, Stevenson, Argonauts, R. C.; fourth, McGuire, Mutual R. C., Buffalo. Time 10:25 2-5.

McGuire of Buffalo took the lead from the gun, pushed close by Steacy of Brockville, with D'Arcy Hilton, the Detroiter, in third place. As they reached the buoy. Hilton closed up, but Steacy rounded the flag first with a lead of three lengths. Stevenson caught McGuire half way home for third place. Steacy continued to open up the gap between his shell and Hilton's winning by three open lengths.

Glints From the Mint Diamonds

Almost two days have passed and Shag is still struggling along on his weak pitching staff. Something must have gone wrong with the telegraph service.

Johnson, the Flint backstop, couldn't discover any of the bags yesterday, no less than seven pilfered sacks being registered against him. This doesn't usually happen with him. It's probably the hang over from hitting that ball over the fence at Hamilton.

* * *

The Tecs stopped early trying to lift them where the Flint outfield weren't. Trefry and Wetzel are sure a pair of robbers. The former leaned against the signs in left field when Crichlow put one right at him, and then in the second went after Dowling's long one, which dropped into his bare hand. Wetzel was right on Dowling's tail, too, and dove after one in the seventh Bill was sure he had hit chalked on.

Dollie Gray also made a ladies' day effort on Neitzke's fly in the second frame, turning his back to the crowd to stab it.

Kuhn and Dowling about played the game themselves, Bill taking ten chances with one slip-up and nearly pardonable, and Kuhn knocking down nineteen without one miscue. The game may have been monotonous at times to watch, but this sort of fielding makes real baseball.

Neitzke's bounder at Wetzel, which slipped over the gardener's shoulder and allowed the Londoner to third, would have brought him home if he had not hesitated going to first. He lost easily 20 feet looking to see what Wetzel was going to do with the ball, and he was only caught by about half that length at the plate.

* * *

Tengen may pitch today. Flint is depending on him to leave them within good striking distance when he takes the train south for the big show.

Johnson and Corker Legg had a little verbal tilt. At that Corker was a lot closer on the balls at his worst than Johnson was to any of the bases on his pegs.

There's one man always on his toes in the Flint Club. Honeck could do nicely without his heels. He never uses his.

London might just be able to do a good turn for the Beavers today. A Beaver win and a London win will give the former half a game lead on the Flint Club.

* * *

When the four Ontario clubs comprise the first division about the right thing would be to break the Michigan combination and let each play for the pennant of their division.

SARNIA HERE FOR BENEFIT SOCCER ON CIVIC HOLIDAY

Have Record of 19 Goals To 3 in Three Games and Locals Have Job On Hands.

A picked team from the London City League meets Sarnia City team on Monday afternoon at Springbank in a benefit game for Charles Green, the Vets player, injured on Dominion Day in the game between London City and Toronto Scottish. Referee S. Evans of Strathroy will have charge of the game, whilst M. B. Morgan, league committee man, and Mr. Lewis, the league's vice-president, will take the line for London. Both aggregations will be strongly represented, and in all probability the players as picked will take their places on the field for their respective elevens, very few changes being anticipated.

London City—Goal, Whitworth (Public Utilities); right back, Herring (Grand Army Vets); left back, Green (G.T.R.); right half, Whitworth (Public Utilities); centre half, Captain Smith (Public Utilities); left half, Marshall (Great War Vets); outside right, Lieut. James (Princess Pats); inside right, Haber (Princess Pats); centre forward, Bell (G.T.R.); inside left, Cook (Public Utilities; outside left, "Yorkie" Richardson (Great War Vets), reserves, Capt. Y. N. Edgar, M.C. (Princess Pats); Askew (Wasps); Lownie (Wasps).

What the Press Agents Say About the Shows

AT THE ALLEN

ALLEN'S GIVES SPECIAL HOLIDAY PROGRAM—BEAUTIFUL NORMA TALMADGE HEADS DOUBLE PROGRAM AT ALLEN MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

The beautiful exquisite and most charming star of the screen, Norma Talmadge, heads the double program at the Allen on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in her sensational dramatic production, "The Law of Compensation," with Will Rogers in his new comedy feature, "Water, Water Everywhere," as the added attraction.

Norma's picture, "The Law of Compensation," is a production of superb beauty, in settings, and the clothes which this popular star wears. The story is of modern society life, of a young daughter of wealth, and her romances in quest of love. The scenario gives Miss Talmadge full opportunity to display to the fullest those lovely charms which has placed her at the pinnacle of screen popularity.

"Water, Water Everywhere" is Will Rogers' picturization of how the prohibition laws affect the cowboy of the west, and the wiles and tricks he uses in fighting the female vote.

Special music, Christie Comedies, and the Allen News will complete the holiday program.

HENRY B. WALTHALL SETS NEW PHOTOPLAY STANDARD, IN "LONG ARM OF MANNISTER," AT ALLEN.

"The Long Arm of Mannister," which is to play a special engagement at the Allen next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, comes direct from the New York Theatres with a highly successful indorsement.

In theme and construction this picture makes several novel departures from the ordinary cut-and-dried photoplay. A most unusual experiment was tried when its producers with almost the very last scene in the play, and then go back and build up to the denouement.

Through a multitude of swift-moving scenes, the spectator in the unfolding of the story is carried from a sandstorm on the desert; through the palaces of the rich, to a sinking vessel in a great storm in mid-ocean. The acting is superb, as it undoubtedly would be with the exceptional cast which includes Henry B. Walthall, the star, and that well-known young golden blonde, Helen Chadwick. The settings are on a scale of unparalleled magnificence, and the story is one which has seldom been equalled.

A big Sunshine comedy, two reels of hearty, wholesome laughter, and many other interesting pictures, will also be shown.

AT LOEW'S

DORIS KEANE, FAMOUS DRAMATIC STAR, WILL GRACE THE SCREEN AT LOEW'S FIRST PART OF THE WEEK.

One of the most striking personalities on stage and screen is Miss Doris Keane, who is to be seen at the Loew's Theatre the first of next week in the wonderful drama, "Romance," written by Edward Sheldon, author of "The Boss," "Salvation Nell" and a host of other successes.

It was some few years ago that this striking personality come to the ardent attention of dramatic critics, and in short she was climbing rapidly to the top of the ladder until today she is recognized as America's greatest emotional actress. This personality was forcibly given to the lovers of the stage when she portrayed the role of Sonia Kritchnofe, in "Arsene Lupin," and in that character it was so in evidence that it swayed her audience long before she spoke a single word. This is undoubtedly the greatest natural gift any actress can possess, for it appeals to all audiences and at once arouses that sympathetic bond which places the audience in accord. No matter what sort of a role such a person acts, it universally gains heart-sympathy. Miss Keane, equipped as she is with this wonderful unknown quality known as magnetism, has won multitudes of admirers.

Miss Keane is a young star in every sense of the word. She made her debut in the company that supported Fay Davis in "The Whitewashing of Julia," a Pinero play that had a great Broadway run. In this she had but three lines to speak, but it may safely be said that these were spoken in the correct way. The next season she was playing the leading feminine role of Catherine Fulton with Lionel Barrymore in "The Other Girl." Following that she was acting the part of Irene Milward with John Drew in "Delancey," and then came an entirely different part in "The Hypocrites," the Henry Arthur Jones play. This was a really serious role, and she made a hit not only here, but in London as well. Her rapid rise at that time was particularly noted because it was her inimitable talents that were recognized.

A corking comic and the Loew's Screen Pictorial of world events in pictures, with Loew's extraordinary vaudeville, will complete the holiday attraction at London's theatre beautiful.

The celebrated dramatic star, who will grace the screen at Loew's Monday (the holiday), Tuesday and Wednesday, in Edward Sheldon's greatest play. Miss Keane plays the role made famous by herself on the legitimate stage. This is undoubtedly one of the sweetest love stories ever told.

The one and only Douglas Fairbanks in the greatest picture of his entire career, "The Mollycoddle," a United Artists' production, and his first since "When the Clouds Roll By." The picture event of the season.

Dainty and demure Blanche Sweet, who will grace the screen at Port Stanley for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next, in "Fighting Cressy," a sweetheart romance of rugged California.

is a kindly-hearted, honest old knight of the road. He hadn't always been a tramp—once he possessed a wife and a baby, but they disappeared. Then one day, Fate gave him the power to smooth the path to happiness for his son now grown to young manhood. The story then revolves around the son, and his love for a cobbler's pretty daughter. This tidy little romance provides a real heart appeal that should more than meet with response from picture lovers. The popular Pathe News with current events and a special comedy completes the program for the last three days. A special augmented orchestra will offer a splendid program of music.

AT THE PATRICIA

NEW TOM MIX PICTURE IN GOLD RUSH CENTRE.

William Fox will present Tom Mix, his noted daredevil star, at the Patricia Theatre beginning Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, in his latest production, "The Terror." This is described as a live wire tale of the land of gold, with typical scenes of the California town of Sonora forming the background.

Way up in the Sierra Mountains, at Sonora, Tom Mix and his director, Jacques Jaccard, made the exteriors of "The Terror," in order that the atmosphere of the picture might be accurate. Sonora is in a country that was entered by the Mexicans in 1847, and it was in this town that the great gold rush of 1849 started. The invading Americans drove the Mexicans out of the country. On what is known as "Brown's Flats," the white men fought for the right to dig the precious mineral out of the earth.

ONE-REELERS

REGARDING OUR OWN BESSIE LOVE.

In all probability Bessie Love will not return to California before going to England to film "Old Curiosity Shop." Bessie, who has been seeing the sights of New York for the past two weeks, seems to be quite content to remain in "foreign parts" for some time longer.

HELEN FERGUSON TO STAR.

Helen Ferguson will appear in the leading feminine role in support of Earle Williams in his forthcoming Vitagraph production, "The Romance Promoters," which is now being filmed at the Hollywood studio. Chester Bennett is directing it.

Corinne Griffith, noted for her grace in wearing beautiful and striking gowns, has ample opportunities to display this accomplishment in her new Vitagraph production, "The Whisper Market." W. E. Scutt, the author, cleverly provided the way by making the heroine the silent partner of a modiste as well as the wife of the American consul at Rio de Janeiro, where the action takes place.

LARRY SEMON DIRECTS "THE STAGE HAND."

Larry Semon, the Vitagraph comedian, was well qualified to write, direct and star in his latest comedy, "The Stage Hand." As a boy he spent several years with a traveling vaudeville troupe, of which his father was the owner and manager.

WILLIAM DUNCAN IN NEW SERIAL.

William Duncan is assembling the cast which will support him in his next Vitagraph serial, written for him by Albert E. Smith and Cleveland Moffett. Edith Johnson again will be his leading woman, and as usual the star will himself direct the fifteen chapters. Since completing "The Silent Avenger," his last serial, Mr. Duncan has made an extended automobile trip to the Yosemite Park, and passed a few days in Denver, Colorado.

"THE VEILED MYSTERY" SOON COMPLETED.

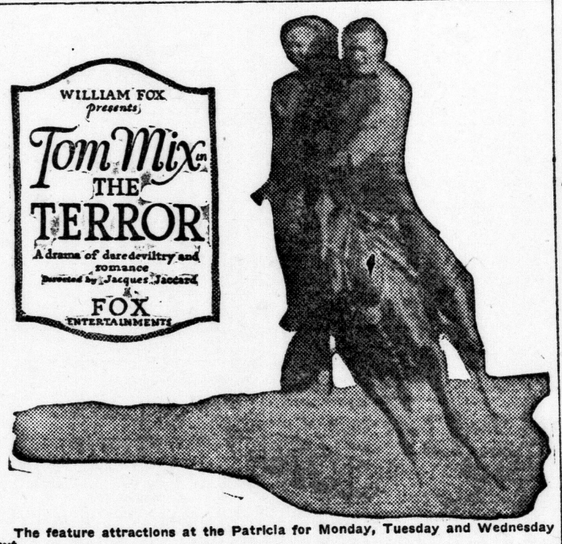

Antonio Moreno has completed more than half the episodes of his newest Vitagraph serial, "The Veiled Mystery," and is now on location on the beautiful Catalina Island about thirty miles off the Pacific Coast. Several exciting scenes have been taken in waters adjacent to the island. Pauline Curley again is Moreno's leading woman.

CHORUS GIRLS IN NEW VITAGRAPH COMIC.

Jimmy Aubrey will have the support of more than a hundred chorus girls in his forthcoming Vitagraph comedy which is nearing completion at the West coast studio at Hollywood. A musical comedy and a light opera company happened to be playing in Los Angeles during the same week and Aubrey's directing staff took advantage of the circumstance to engage the choruses of both for the mornings they were in the vicinity of Hollywood.

NAVY DEPARTMENT AIDS LOEW THEATRE DRIVE.

The entire recruiting division of the United States navy in New York is cooperating with the Loew theatres in aiding the advertising campaign for the Herbert Bosworth production, "Under the Surface," while the Loew theatres are helping the navy on a recruiting campaign. Deep sea-diving outfits and other naval paraphernalia in the theatre lobbies attract considerable attention, while two sailors are stationed as guard and to enlist recruits.

The feature attractions at the Patricia for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next.

Exquisite Norma Talmadge, who heads the big double holiday program at Allen's Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, in "The Law of Compensation."

PORT STANLEY BEACH MOVIES

BLANCHE SWEET, IN "FIGHTING CRESSY," WILL GRACE THE SCREEN AT PORT STANLEY FOR MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY NEXT.

Picnickers to Western Ontario's greatest resort, Port Stanley, on Monday, the holiday, will enjoy one of the best movie bills, that has featured the screen on the beach since the innovation of movies. The ever-lovable Blanche Sweet will feature the program in a picturization of Bret Harte's story of California. Bret Harte stands supreme as the best story teller of the west that ever lived. The picturizing of his stories has done a great deal for pictures, for he has brought the present into intimate contact with people who have passed, but who will never fade from our memories—a people who lived and loved and fought in the days when that wondrous land of California was young and rugged. As Cressy, the high-spirited daughter of the most turbulent man in Tuolumne County, California, Blanche Sweet is the central figure of a vivid and vital tale. Every character figuring in the story is a delightful and distinctive study. The plot is woven around the romance of Cressy and a cousin of the clan opposing her father. The dispute is over a boundary line, and Cressy very neatly settles the matter and culminates her love affair by buying the land in her own right.

A corking comic, "How Dry I Am," and the British-Canadian Pathe News of world events in pictures, Prince Nelson, the great, in death-defying feats via the high wire, a special augmented orchestra dispensing a most pleasing program of music, should more than pack the seats on the beach for the big free show at Port holiday night. The movie bill will be presented again Tuesday and Wednesday evenings with an entire change in the program for Thursday night.

FRANK KEENAN, AMERICA'S GREATEST CHARACTER ACTOR, IN "SMOULDERING EMBERS," AT PORT STANLEY FOR THE LAST HALF OF NEXT WEEK.

Beacherites will also have another program of exceptional merit for the last three days of next week, that should more than fill every available seat for the entire three nights. Kate Corbaley has provided Frank Keenan with another splendid story. She will be remembered as the author of "Gates of Brass" and "The False Code." Her newest play is "Smouldering Embers" and Keenan fans, and they are a legion, are promised their favorite in an entirely new role in this human little tale. He has a human little tale. He has a

ONLY TRUE ASPIRIN

If you don't see the "Bayer Cross" you are not getting Aspirin at all

BAYER

The name "Bayer" is the thumbprint of genuine Aspirin. It positively identifies the only genuine Aspirin,—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over twenty years and now made in Canada.

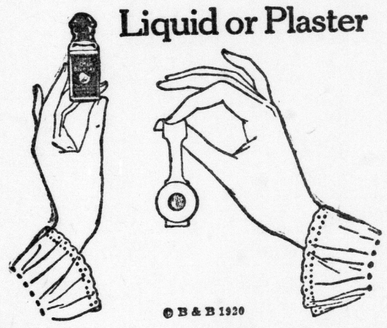

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

They end corns

now in this scientific way

People who know—millions of them—now end all corns in this way.

They apply Blue-jay, either in liquid or in plaster form. It means but a touch and takes but a jiffy.

The corn pain stops. Then the Blue-jay gently undermines the corn so it loosens and comes out.

The modern way

Blue-jay was invented by a chemist who studied corns.

Old-time treatments were harsh and inefficient. Blue-jay is gentle, quick and sure.

Now all corns are needless. All these pains can be avoided. To let corns remain while you pare and pad them is folly.

You can stop a corn ache the moment it appears. You can end a corn completely before it can develop.

Blue-jay has proved these facts to millions. It will prove them to you—and tonight—if you let it.

Quit the old methods of dealing with corns and see what this new way means. Your druggist sells Blue-jay.

IN MEMORIAM.

DUST—In loving memory of my dear husband, Pte. A. F. Dust, who fell in action 4 years ago today.

I often think of days gone by,
When we were all together,
A shadow o're our life is cast,
Our dear one's gone forever;
His King and country called him,
The call was not in vain,
On England's roll of honor
You will find my husband's name.
—From his sorrowing wife and little son Arthur.

CHARITY BENEFITS BY LOST ARTICLES.

Many articles of value are frequently found in Loew's New York theatre which are not claimed by their owners. These are kept for a reasonable length of time and then sold, with the proceeds sent to a certain Brooklyn orphan asylum.

EARLE WILLIAMS HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

During the filming of a scene in "The Purple Cipher," Earle Williams' latest Vitagraph picture, in San Francisco Bay, the "H-4," a submarine loaned by the navy department, came to the surface close to an open boat in which the star was alone. The small boat was so close as to be out of periscope range and the submarine bore down on it, cutting it completely in two. Mr. Williams saved his life by clinging to a chain on the bow of the submarine until he was rescued.

NEW LOEW BUILDING CALLED "HEART OF THE WORLD."

"The Heart of the World" is the name given the new Loew building and theatre now in process of construction at Broadway and 45th Street. It is estimated that a million people a week pass that corner, the most valuable in the world. It will be ready in January.

With the signing of a new contract with Pathe, Harold Lloyd has guaranteed his fans a long lease of mirthful life. And to the adorers of Mildred Davis, the news that she will remain with Lloyd will be mightily welcome. Under his new contract Lloyd will receive $250,000 for each picture. He has just returned from Gotham, but is already hard at work on his comedy.

HUNTING GAZELLES FROM AUTOMOBILES

Fast Driving Over Stony Moroccan Desert To Get Within Range.

LONDON, July 30.—The Morocco correspondent of the Times sends a thrilling description of hunting gazelles by automobile. He writes:

There are four of us: Hadjo Thami Glawi, the Basha of Marrakeshi; Kaid Hammou, of the Atlas; Sid Ayadi, Kaid of Rahamma, and your correspondent.

Time to start. There is a car for each of us four sportsmen, and, at the invitation of my hosts, I take my seat beside the chauffeur, with two beautifully dressed black slaves in the back seat in attendance. The kaids enter their cars, and we start out.

The cultivated lands are quickly left behind, and the great plain of Rahamma lies stretching away before us, with the snow-peaks of the Atlas bounding its southern horizon.

Kaid Ayadi gives the signal, and the four cars spread out—a few hundred yards apart—and proceed at a slower pace, about fifteen miles an hour. The ground is stone-strewn and rough and careful steering is necessary. There are boulders of every shape and size loosely strewn over the plain, and little channels worn by water, insignificant enough in themselves, but highly damaging to motor cars if not skilfully manoeuvred. Our chauffeurs, three Frenchmen and an Algerian are skilful drivers and accustomed to this sport of the "Great Kaids."

Sighting the Game.

Suddenly one of the slaves in my car cries out, and away ahead of me I see a heard of gazelle bounding over the plain. My car is on the extreme left of the line, and our object is to head off the herd from the more stoney ground and turn them to the right, where the plain is more level. Edging away always to the left, our car quickens its pace, rolling from side to side and bumping. Seizing every opportunity of a few yards of good ground, we spurt forward, only to have to slow down again to manipulate some awkward spot. The gazelle are out of range, for it is only with a shotgun loaded with solid bullet or buckshot that they can be got. To shoot with a rifle out of a car going at from 40 to 50 miles an hour over rough ground is too much to ask or to expect. There are less stones now, and we are making headway.

The three cars on my right keep a little in the rear, in order to facilitate my turning movement, but they too are making good pace. At times, for a few minutes, we are travelling at over forty miles an hour, and once or twice the gazelle are almost within range; then some little watercourse or some extra stony patch gives them their chance and they increase the distance again. At length our course seems clear, and the car bounds forward. The race is splendid but rather terrifying. Half standing, half kneeling on the seat, I wait to get my chance of a shot, then suddenly the car swerves in a way that nearly throws me out—and stops. A yard or two ahead is a dry watercourse, a meter wide perhaps, and half a mete. deep and full of boulders, an impassable barrier—or rather a barrier the passing of which necessitates a search for a practical passage, and allows the escape of the gazelle, whose course toward the stony ground is now easy. A few minutes later we see them appear on the outline of a low hill, bounding over the rocks.

It was not long before fresh herds were put up, but always breaking away to the left they succeeded in reaching the low stony slopes that form the northern boundary of the Rahamna plain. At a signal from Kaid Ayadi we turn southward to seek more advantageous ground, and emerging from the stones our cars roll across the level plain at a pace of thirty miles an hour. Game, however, is scarcer here—though a great bustard falls to my gun, brought down by a charge of buckshot. At length, however, a herd of a dozen gazelle is spied in the open, and at an increased speed the cars rush forward. The speedometer of my car marks forty miles an hour, but we are not gaining on the gazelle, who appear easily to keep their distance of four or five hundred yards ahead of us. At another signal we increase the pace to fifty miles an hour. The plain is level, but there are stones and little undulations and many small watercourses, merely little declivities in the surface, but none the less exciting to pass over, and the exhilaration is intense.

Four Killed, One Taken Alive.

It is wonderful driving on the part of the chauffeurs, and the cars sway from side to side, and rise and fall, like boats in a rough sea. We are closing upon the herd now, and it looks as though it will be my car that will be the first to come up with them, but suddenly they turn aside to the right, and pass down the line of advancing cars.

The Basha of Marrakesh's lithe figure is clearly visible as he stands in his swaying car. The gazelle pass him, and with right and left he brings down two—beautiful shooting. Kaid Hammou's car is the next, and he too shoots his two gazelle. Once more the herd swerves, and passing between the cars, breaks back to the rear and is allowed to escape without further molestation—all but one, a young doe, who, paralyzed with fear, stands motionless, and is easily captured alive and unhurt, to be carefully conveyed back to Marrakesh to become a pet in the Basha's house.

It may be argued that this class of hunting is not sport, that the gazelle have no chance of escape, but it is not so. The risk is great, an accident may occur at any moment, and the stony surface of the ground gives the gazelle a good chance. Of the many herds we saw the four gazelle shot and the one taken alive were our whole bag, though we covered over one hundred miles of distance on the plain alone, without counting our ride to and from Marrakesh. The handling of the cars requires the greatest skill, and the shooting is by no means easy. To hit a running gazelle from a motor car travelling at the rate of fifty miles an hour over rough ground needs no little skill.

WARDSVILLE

WARDSVILLE, July 30.—Mrs. J. K. Reid, living on the Longwoods road, had the misfortune to break her ankle while feeding the calves recently.

The Women's Institute met at the home of Miss Wood yesterday afternoon. Plans for supplying the need of the community of a suitable place for giving public dinners was discussed, but owing to the high cost of building material were laid over for a time.

Ask Ontario Government To Send Detectives To Search For Missing Girls

DISCLOSURES MAY

top of an uprooted tree had been rolled over the crude grave, totally concealing it.

It is understood here that the search party located the body on information furnished them by Charles Helmer, a younger brother of accused, who is working on a farm in Elgin County, near Sparta, purchased by his mother from the murdered man. This boy is about 16 years of age, and is under surveillance by the police, who regard him as a material witness against his brother.

Body Badly Decomposed.

Although the manner in which the aged man met his death is unknown, the authorities here believe it was by choking or assault. No marks of violence can be seen on the decomposed body, and no weapon was found by the police. The report of the post-mortem will not be made public until the inquest next Friday.

Undoubtedly Helmer made a statement when taken into custody as the crown attorney when asked if this were a fact tonight replied: "All prisoners make statements. Draw your own conclusions," but refused to discuss this point further. Both accused and Learne hired themselves out to work for district farmers, and when the latter did not keep an engagement of this nature suspicions of foul play were aroused. His diary with no entry after July 11 last found on the farm strengthened these suspicions, with the result that Charles Helmer was interviewed near Sparta, and a search party was organized, discovering the body at 5:30 a.m., Thursday, and the police at Simcoe notified.

Learne's wife died about 1912, and Lorenzo Helmer, father of the prisoner, died about the same time. His widow and Learne later became acquainted and she purchased the farm near Sparta from him and formed an agreement with him to work the Helmer farm on shares. Lorne Helmer's name is on the Walsingham Township voters' list, but Learne's is not.

Oldest of Seven.

Accused is the eldest boy of a family of seven, having two sisters. The coroner issued a certificate of burial for the body after the inquest on Thursday, and this will likely be carried out at the expense of the municipality in which it was found, as the dead man had no relatives known in the district. Learne was well nourished and weighed about 179 pounds, while the youth charged with the murder is of slighter build, clean shaven and weighs about 150 pounds. A date for a preliminary hearing for the latter has not been set, and if committed for trial on the murder charge he will be tried at Simcoe at the autumn assizes in October.

A Sinister Connection.

A peculiar feature of the case is the fact that the body was found within one-half mile of the spot where the remains of Christian Schoup were found in 1915, and for the murder of whom Emerson Shelley was hanged at Simcoe in December, 1915. In fact, searching the county records here today, an Advertiser reporter discovered that the Helmer farm was deeded to Lorenzo Helmer, father of the prisoner, in 1901 by Emmia J. Shelley, widow, and mother of the condemned murderer. Schoup was found in a field across the creek and across the road where he had been shot down by Shelley, whose motive for killing the aged miller was robbery. Shelley was charged in 1909 with the murder of Michael Hall, but was freed owing to his age at the time.

The town of Simcoe is little concerned over the arrest today, because of the fact that it is not generally known, owing to the fact that the authorities have kept their action dark. Both Learne and Helmer are well known here, and great surprise has manifested itself at the accusation preferred against the young Norfolk County farmer.

Crown's Statement.

Regarding the circumstances surrounding the crime which lead up to the arrest of Lorne Helmer, Crown Attorney T. R. Slaght, K.C., made the following statement to The Advertiser at Simcoe last night:

"All crown cases are to a certain extent while investigation is pending, subject to the withholding of certain facts which the crown deems unwise to give out for publication. There is not very much at present with which to enlighten you.

"An old man of about 70 years of age, James A. Learn, widower, who has always been matrimonially inclined, living on a farm in North Walshingham Township, Norfolk County, for how long I do not know, had some agreement with a Mrs. Helmer, who lives near Sparta, by which he was to live on the property and yield a share of the products to Mrs. Helmer, the owner. So far as I know, the old man had no immediate connections in this county.

Worked Farm by Agreement.

"A son of Mrs. Helmer, Lorne, a married man and a returned soldier, according to my information, lived on the same farm through some arrangements with Learn. I do not know yet whether any serious disagreement had developed between Lorne and the old man or between Mrs. Helmer and Learn, but about the 13th or 14th of the month Learn disappeared. He worked out on neighboring farms and had agreed to go to a farmer near his place of residence. He did not appear and inquiries were made to ascertain the reason. This farm is fifteen miles from Simcoe.

"Some days after it was brought to my attention that the old man had disappeared from the community, but there were no very grave suspicions of foul play at the time, as it was customary for him to go to Aylmer and Sparta for short visits without notice. However, a prominent man in the vicinity, whose name I cannot disclose at the present moment, came to me a few days ago and said that there was a decided feeling of uneasiness about the old man throughout the community. It was thought that he had either wandered away or been done away with. There was talk of a search for him. I approved, although I had nothing to indicate foul play. As he was somewhat erratic and eccentric I thought that he would turn up in a few days, but I encouraged the inquiries."

Suspicions of Murder.

"On Wednesday evening about 11 o'clock information was brought to me which indicated that the old man had met with foul play, in fact, had been murdered. I instructed my informants, who were police officers, to organize and institute an immediate search, with a view, if possible, to recover the body, because whether or not he had been murdered pivoted on this point. Yesterday morning a search party went out shortly after daybreak. In the meantime I had communicated with the Ontario Department of Police, as my suspicions were thoroughly aroused and the facts were too grave to allow any delay whatever. About 8 in the morning it was reported to me that the body had been discovered in a small woods on lot 19, concession 7, North Walsingham, which adjoins lot 20, where he had lived. It was found on a lot controlled by the Helmers. I directed Coroner Dr. Frank McGillvery of Simcoe to hold an inquest at once, and proceeded with him to the scene, where a jury was empaneled. I also directed by telephone Dr. E. Meek of Port Rowan to hold a postmortem, with a view to determining the cause of death. The body had not been fully uncovered in a secluded place near the boundary line of the Helmer property. Although the neighbors were able to recognize it, the body was completely exhumed. This spot was within a mile of the last known murder committed in this county, that of 1915, committed by a young lad named Shelley, who was later hanged. That community has not borne an enviable reputation in the county. I have had a number of cases of outlawry, burglary and murder from this vicinity.

Inquest Next Friday.

"Dr. Meek held a postmortem, the result of which I have not yet received a report upon. I am withholding the manner of his death, because it is important to do so, as witnesses will have to be interviewed to verify it. Bearing in mind the fact that the man disappeared on the 13th or 14th, his body was badly decomposed, and it may be perhaps impossible to discern marks of the violence responsible for his death. The jury viewed the body and the inquest was adjourned, to meet at Silver Hill next Friday at 10 a.m., without any evidence being taken.

"Further fact and disclosures will be made then which may not be available in the meantime. Suspicions pointed very strongly against Lorne Helmer, and as soon as I arrived at the scene yesterday I detailed an officer to keep the man in view. There was not sufficient evidence to my mind to arrest him at that stage, and premature arrests often defeat the ends of justice. I ascertained that he had gone away from his home in the early morning, after hitching up his horse and buggy. I thought that he was making his way to another farm at Sparta, where he has a younger brother, Charles, whom I have reason to believe is cognizant of the crime. I dispatched constables to Sparta with instructions to arrest Lorne, if he appeared there. The information was made out as I was sitting on a stump and signed by a justice of the peace who was present.

Provincial Officer On Job.

"John Miller of the provincial police arrived yesterday afternoon, and I sent him out last night with the result that this morning Lorne Helmer was arrested, brought to Simcoe, and is now in custody on a charge of murder. I dispatched Mr. Miller away again to pursue the case and obtain evidence tending to implicate Lorne Helmer as being guilty of the crime within the next 24 hours."

"There are I might tell you frankly many facts in the interest of the public and the crown that must not be published at the present time. We have not had much time to round up the case. I would venture to say that I believe this young man, Lorne Helmer, was anxious to get the old man away from this place. That, so far as I know, is the matter of suspicion and not of fact.

Both Parties Inoffensive.

"Learn was an inoffensive man, determined, well preserved and of good physique. If certain circumstances developed they would lead to the taking of the old man's life. With reference to Lorne Kelmer he appears to be a decent, inoffensive young man. One whom I would hardly pick out as a criminal, more especially as one to commit murder. I have never known him to have been charged with an offense before. Whether he murdered the old man in cold blood or that death was the result of an altercation between them I cannot say. The crown has not been asleep.

"Kelmer at the time of his arrest by Constable Roy Marshall was at the farm of a relative south of his own place and not apparently attempting to escape."

MAYFLOWER SAILS AGAIN FROM BRITAIN

Anglo-American Society Re-enacts Departure of Pilgrims.

Southampton, Eng., July 30.—Scenes attending the departure 300 years ago of that little band of adventurers known to history as the Pilgrim Fathers were re-enacted today in a pageant inaugurating a four days' celebration of the tercentenary of the sailing of the Mayflower. The pageant was preceded by a luncheon tendered by the lord mayor. There were 400 guests at the luncheon, including prominent persons in American and British official life and the heads of various Anglo-American societies.

Southampton, desirous of reminding the world of her proud claim to fame as the original port of embarkation of the founders of the American commonwealth, is vying with Plymouth in commemorating the event.

By staging today's pageant, which is entitled "John Alden's Choice," at the ancient quayside near the west gate, through which the Pilgrims left because no roadway existed, and garbing the performers in Puritanical dress, an attempt was made to have the reproduction as historically faithful as possible. The gate has remained through the intervening centuries as a veritable monument to the Pilgrim voyagers.

Outstanding events of American history, including the Boston Tea Party, Lincoln making his address at Gettysburg and American intervention in the recent world war, were depicted in the pageant, which will be repeated during Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday's programs of the celebration.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength.

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double-strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

OPPOSITION TO APPLICATION FOR RATE INCREASE

Toronto Trade Board Will Buck Railway's Second Request.

TORONTO, July 30.—In addition to the thirty per cent increase in rates which the Canadian Railway Association has already applied for, and which application will come before the Dominion Railway Board on August 10, a supplementary application is being made which, if sanctioned, would mean increase of $60,000,000 in the revenue of the railways, or a total of $120,000,000 inclusive of the original application, according to one estimate. The Toronto Board of Trade puts the total at $146,000,000.

The new application differs from the first one in that it provides for an increase in baggage charges, sleeping-car rates and in the transportation of milk, besides an increase in passenger rates. It will be opposed on the ground that the railway companies have not furnished schedules of the new rates nor given satisfactory evidence that the increase is necessitated by the award of the United States Railway Board.

KNITTING FACTORY BEGINS OPERATIONS AT DURHAM

DURHAM, July 30.—The Superior Knitting Mills, Limited, commenced operations in their local factory this week, the former Lenahan store. They are using only the upper floor at present, and have seventeen operators now busy at machines in the manufacture of boys' overalls. They will more than double their present staff if sufficient female help can be secured, as soon as the present operators have secured their training.

The high school board after some provoking delays and disappointments have at last completed the teaching staff for the coming term. The staff consists of J. C. Henderson, B.A., Coldwater, principal; Miss J. Weir, B.A., and Mrs. L. Horne, the two latter former teachers; Miss Margaret McDonald, of Almonte, assistant.

Fred Smith, formerly of Durham, but now of Eyebrow, Sask., was married in Winnipeg, on Tuesday, July 27, to Miss Margaret Petty, also of Durham, but who has taught school near Meaford.

FINANCIAL, MARKET AND COMMERCIAL SECTION

EXCHANGE COLLAPSE CHECKS ENTHUSIASM OF BULLS ON STREET

Upward Tendency Among Representative Issues Until Final Hour—Close Heavy.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Further collapse of international exchange served as a decided check to bullish enthusiasm in the stock market today, although the tendency among representative issues, including rails, was upward until the final hour, a heavy tone ruling at the end.

There was constant pressure upon such industrials as rubbers, leathers and low-priced specialties, shorts resuming their attacks against those issues on more adverse trade reports. Net losses in these and kindred issues ranged from 1 to almost 3 points, oils and steels also giving way. The total sales of stocks amounted to 400,000 shares.

The market was sustained during the greater part of the day by the comparative ease of money, much of which was loaned and renewed into next week at 8 per cent. Increasing belief in an early advance of railroad rates was another sentimental factor.

Exchange on London was again most affected by a general decline in foreign remittances, sterling demand falling to within a fraction of $3.70 to the pound, with concurrent weakness of rates to other allied centres. A large part of the British bills represented, according to reports, exports of foodstuffs and cotton.

Bankers were altogether in accord with the opinion of Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board relative to easier credit conditions. Advices from agricultural sections were mainly to the effect, however, that plenty of money is available for crop moving purposes.

Forecasts of tomorrow's clearing-house statement indicated a correction of last week's deficit of actual reserves, mainly as a result of the week's liquidation in the stock market.

Bonds, including Liberty and international issues, were irregular. The total sales of bonds, par value, aggregated $9,875,000.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call during the day.

FURTHER EVIDENCES OF RECOVERY SEEN ON TORONTO 'CHANGE

Gains Predominate—Brazilian Features Activity—General Advances in Paper Group.

TORONTO, July 30.—Further evidences of a recovery were apparent on the stock exchange in today's trading. While some of the issues are still showing a decline, gains predominated. A little more buying was apparent, but trading generally continues quiet.

Brazilian again featured the activity with transactions of 785 shares, and had an advance of ½ point to 41⅞. This stock opened ⅛ point higher and advanced to 42. American Sales Book, which has been inactive lately, was dealt in to the extent of 56 shares, and had the second largest gain of the day, 4 points, closing at 30. Atlantic Sugar continued to come back and opened 3½ points up from the previous close. It closed at 150 today, an advance of 4½ points. There was considerable activity, 205 shares changing hands. The announcement that the suspended Montreal firm did not have any large short commitments in this issue at the time of its failure is undoubtedly assisting the recovery.

In the paper group, generally, advances were noted, but activity was limited. Spanish River, preferred, was dealt in to the extent of 3 shares, and advanced 2½ points to 130. Fort shares of Abitibi were sold, and an advance of 1¼ points was made here. Brompton gained ¼ point to 71¼. Mattagami Pulp gained ¾ point to 62, and Laurentide gained 1 point to 116. The only decline in the papers was ⅛ point to 7⅜ in North American Pulp.

Canada Steamships, common, was fairly active, and broke 1 point to 72. Only 21 shares of the preferred were traded in, but a gain of ¼ point was made here. The other merger stock, Dominion Steel, was also quiet, and shared in the general advance, moving up 1¼ points to 63¾. Strength was displayed by the tractions, Quebec Railway gaining ¼ point to 30, and Twin City, ¼ point to 38. National Steel Car was up ¾ point to 5. Canadian General Electric, common, had a recovery of 1½ points to 101½.

In the mineing section trading was a little irregular, Dome Mines advancing 5c to $11.75, McIntyre, however, losing 5 points to 188. Canada Permanent suffered one of the bigest declines of the day in fairly active trading, lising 5 points to 159.

Royal Bank, the most active issues of its group, advanced ½ point to 210½. Commerce gained a like amount to 184, while Dominion jumped 2 points to 197. Merchants was 1 point easier at 181, while Hamilton was 2 points lower at 185.

Total trading: Listed stocks, 2,101 shares; unlisted stocks, 1,695 shares; war bonds, par value, $4,600.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, July 30.—Gains outnumbered losses in quiet trading on the Toronto stock exchange this morning, and apart from considerable buying of Brazilian and a break of 5 points in Canada Permanent, the market was featureless.

Over 500 shares of Brazilian were dealt in, the stock opening ⅛c higher at 41½. The price ranged between 41½ and 42, and the noon close came with sales at the high mark. Atlantic Sugar continued to recover after the precipitate de-line earlier in the week. Over 200 shares were marketed, and a gain of 4½ established, with the noon price at 150. Steamships, after remaining firm through the recent general liquidation, aws weak this morning, selling off from 73 to 71½, while Steel Corporation gained a fraction at 63¼.

In the unlisted section, Abitibi gained 1¼, and National Breweries 1⅜.

BANK CLEARINGS.

WINDSOR, July 30.—Windsor bank clearings for the week aggregated $3,873,776, as compared with $1,856,962 for the corresponding week of the previous year, an increase of $1,516,814.

WALL STREET REVIEW.

New York, July 31.—The trend of the stock market this week was decidedly downward. A number of prominent issues in the industrial division recorded minimum quotations of the year, while United States Steel fell to its lowest price in almost two years.

Credit conditions were again the chief drawback, the money market remaining very stringent, except for call loans. These were comparatively easy and in liberal supply at 8 per cent. Almost the only cheerful development was furnished by the more encouraging crop outlook. Unsettled conditions abroad were again clearly reflected in the market for international remittances. Rates on the principal foreign centres continued to weaken as the trend of events in Central and Eastern Europe assumed more complicated aspects.

EVENING STOCK LETTER.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Thomson & McKinnon wire Jones, Easton, McCallum Co., Ltd., brokers, Royal Bank Building, London, Ont., at the close of the market today as follows:

The short covering movement that developed yesterday morning was continued in a moderate way during the first minutes of today's session, but seemed to come to an abrupt end, and then when a little selling appeared, buyers were scarce, and a very thin market was again exposed to view. The trouble with the market today is not one where intrinsic value is lacking, but conditions outside of the market itself makes it inadvisable and in some instances impossible to take advantage of the apparent cheapness of stocks for investment purposes.

A glance at the growing list of commercial failures would be convincing on this point if any proof was required. Under such conditions it seems unlikely that the vast number of businessmen who are accustomed to invest in securities would be tempted to enter the market, and a continuation of existing conditions cannot but result in another wave of liquidation.

LARGE OFFERINGS OF FRUIT AND PRODUCE; PRICES REMAIN FIRM

Seventy Loads of New Hay Offered, Some Selling At $20.

There was a big market today in spite of the rain early in the morning. While fruits and vegetables were plentiful, there was a brisk demand, and prices were firm.

Lettuce sold well at 40 cents per dozen.

Cabbage was easier, and most sales were made at $1 per dozen.

Shelled peas sold from 30c to 35c a quart. The demand was active.

Vegetable marrow was offered for the first time this year, and sold at 10c each.

Celery also made its first appearance. Quotations were from 10c to 15c per bunch.

Pickling cucumbers brought from 50c to $1 per dozen. They were rather large in size and the quality was of the best.

Cauliflowers by the head sold for 20c and 30c. The demand was active.

White cherries sold for $1.25 a basket. Some offered today were of inferior grades. Next week is expected to wind up the season.

Black currants brought 30c wholesale and 35c retail per box. All black currants were of excellent quality. By the imperial quart they sold for 35c.

The retail price of both black and red raspberries was slightly easier. Both quotations were 33c a box.

Small pears found a quick sale at 15c per quart.

Apples were plentiful, but did not change in price.

This week, 70 loads of new hay were on the square. Over 20 loads were sold on Friday. The demand was so slow that many farmers took as low as $20 per ton. Hay has been on the verge of dropping, and Friday was the day. The best quotation was $27, while the majority of it went from $20 to $22 per ton.

Oats again dropped, today's figure ranging from $3.50 to $3.60 per cwt. Bushel prices ranged from $1.19 to $1.22. The demand is slow. A further drop is expected next week.

Spring ducks were plentiful, but the prices remained the same. All fowl was unchanged in price.

Hogs, fat sows and dressed ones are firm and the demand is active.

Butter and egg quotations were unchanged.

No changes in the prices of hides were recorded.

There will be no local market on Monday, owing to it being Civic Holiday. A fruit and vegetable market is expected to be Tuesday.

MISGIVINGS AS TO MONEY CONDITIONS CAUSE PRICE DROP

Curtail Buying Power At Chicago—December Down 12 1-4—Close Unsettled.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Misgivings in regard to financial condition did a great deal to curtail buying power in the wheat market, and led to a steep fall in prices. At one time December, the principle option, was down 12¼c. The close was unsettled, 10¼c to 10⅝c net lower, with December, $2.22¾ to $2.23, and March, $2.25½.

The strained financial situation dominated all the grain markets, but especially wheat. In this connection setbacks in foreign exchange rates had a particular disturbing influence by adding to the uncertainty of the export trade, and tending to shut off one of the chief outlets for producers just when an enlarged supply of railroad cars in the harvest district appeared likely to double the volume of crop movement.

Reports that until next Wednesday at least the British Royal Commission would be out of the market as a purchaser were also made much of by the bears, who likewise professed to find backing in opinions expressed by a leading banker here that food prices would be lower. The same banker expressed the opinion that farmers should hold their new grain until the old crops crowding the elevators in various sections could be disposed of.

Unfavorable crop reports from Illinois kept the corn market from any such abnormal drop in prices as there was in wheat. Nevertheless, heavy liquidation by holders took place.

Oats received support from profit-taking shorts.

Provisions were depressed in sympathy with corn and wheat.

PEACE RIVER PETROLEUMS LIMITED

OIL IN NO. 1 WELL, LOCATED IN PEACE RIVER TOWN

By the Progress Reports which have been issued from time to time the public have been able to follow the efficient and business-like development that has been made in the drilling of the wells at Peace River.

From the day the first machinery was purchased, no stone was left unturned to crown the company's efforts with success. We question if any other oil company in Canada has made such wonderful progress in six months as Peace River Petroleums, Limited.

Every shareholder and friend of the company has good reason for congratulations, when it is known that No. 1 Well has oil, and plenty of it. Our superintendent is preparing to make a pump test within thirty days, when the quantity of oil will be announced.

The proof of oil in No. 1 Well is a discovery of immense importance to Canada, and Peace River Petroleums, Limited, will, therefore, derive the greatest benefit in supplying oil for Canadian industry and commerce.

Because of the knowledge that we have oil in our No. 1 Well, and the fact that the Victory Company's No. 1 Well is also in the oil, will add wealth to Peace River Petroleums, Limited, through royalties that will be paid to our company, the shares of Peace River Petroleums, Limited, will be advanced to $1.

It will be interesting for you to know that operations at No. 2 Well have commenced, and our superintendent expects to report another discovery of oil in No. 2 Well within ninety days.

Mr. Thos. A. Cain, director of the company, and Mr. W. C. Goffatt recently visited Peace River to investigate conditions on behalf of the company, and while there received a request for 20,000 barrels of crude a month for two operating companies in the Peace River country, who fully believe we will have oil to sell at an early date, and lots of it. The question of "What will be done with the oil" is, therefore, settled through the huge local demand.

More wells will be drilled in proven territory, so as to secure oil to fill available orders and substantially increase the revenue of the company.

Important Announcement

We have a small unsold block of shares of the original allotment, which we now offer at 50 cents a share.

Don't forget, this is your LAST CHANCE to buy Shares at Fifty Cents. Forward your order immediately.

They Used To Strap On Spectacles!
Old pictures and collections show grotesque shapes in early spectacles.
In the earliest styles the lenses were round, very large and fastened in a rind of black horn half an inch wide.
They were strapped on with a leather thong over the nose and another about the head. Small wonder wearers of spectacles were ridiculed in those days. Obviously, the adjustment could not have been very good. Such crudeness makes those shudder who appreciate the scientific necessity of delicate, accurate adjustment, as practiced at

COST OF HYDRO AUXILIARY PLANT NOW PROHIBITIVE

Commission Decides Not To Proceed With 50,000 H. P. Unit.

TORONTO, July 30.—Owing to the high cost of labor and materials the capital cost of a 50,000 horsepower unit in connection with the proposed auxiliary steam plant for the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission would exceed $5,500,000, and it would be a year and a half before the extra power would be available. Therefore the hydro commission this afternoon decided not to proceed with the undertaking.

WILL DO NOTHING FURTHER ON RADIALS

TORONTO, July 30.—The Hydro-Electric Power Commission, it is understood, has informed the Ontario Government that it will not make any further commitments on radial railways, pending the report of the royal commission appointed to investigate the radial projects. The hydro commission claims to have misunderstood the Government's request at first, and went ahead with some details of the radials in the district of St. Catharines. However, the possibility of friction has now been removed.

TOLMIE SWORN IN AS MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE

OTTAWA, July 30.—(By Canadian Press.)—Hon. S. F. Tolmie, minister of agriculture, who returned from the West today, was the last of the members of Premier Meighen's cabinet to take the oath of office. He was sworn in this afternoon, previous to the meeting of the cabinet council, by Mr. Boudreau, clerk of the privy council.

RED TAPE HOLDS UP RECRUITING FOR DRY SQUAD

Rum Runners Thrive While Constables' Applications Wait.

Returned Soldiers Form Majority of Applicants As "Specials."

TORONTO, July 30.—While whiskey-runners are doing a thriving business in the border cities, and while the attorney-general is announcing that vigorous steps will be taken to stamp out the illicit traffic in liquor, it is impossible to hustle along with the appointment of the necessary special constables, because all applications for such positions must be considered by the civil service commission.

Advertisements for special constables have appeared in the Toronto papers. There was a line-up of nearly 40 men, nearly all returned soldiers, anxious to serve as "specials" in the Windsor district.

Among those who applied this morning was one who served four years in France. He went overseas in the ranks, gained a medal for bravery in the field, was granted a commission in France, and then won the Military Cross. At the present stage of the game only applications are being received, and no appointments are being made.

How many men will be actually appointed, when that will be done and where they will be sent, no person seems to know.

Vice-Chairman Dingman of the board of license commissioners, called upon the attorney-general this morning and had a long conference. He absolutely refused to discuss the Windsor situation.

Hon. W. E. Raney expressed the opinion that "We will be able to give a very good report in a few days." He added that more men would be sent down to the border cities. How many, and when, he would not say.

Lack of co-operation between officials of the license commission and those of the provincial police is apparently the main reason why greater progress has not been made in putting a stop to the liquor traffic along the border.

IRISH CIVILIANS DISARM POLICE IN CITY CENTRE

Succeed in Most Spectacular Coup in the Heart of Dublin.

DUBLIN, July 30.—Three soldiers and three Sinn Feiners were wounded Thursday night, when a body of the latter disarmed a detail of military police in the heart of Dublin. The coup was said to have been the most audacious and spectacular that the Sinn Feiners have accomplished in the matter of disarming the military.

The military police were posted at Trinity College and at the Bank of Ireland opposite the centre of Dublin traffic and within view of the principal Dublin police station. In the disorder last night about ten Sinn Feiners held up the pickets at the bank, completely disarmed them, took away their revolvers, and then mingled unconcernedly in the crowds emerging from the theatre district. During the scuffle three soldiers were wounded by discharges from comrades' rifles, and three of their assailants were slightly wounded.

A resolution introduced in the council of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce calling for a measure providing complete self-government for Ireland, has created much interest in the chamber, which represents all large business interests of the city and consists of at least 90 per cent Unionists.

The Freeman's Journal says the resolution is approximate to indorsation of the proposals for common home rule.

The Irish Times (Unionist organ), on the other hand, refers to the resolution as a perilous act and an impracticale demand.

FORECAST ECONOMIC WAR AGAINST BELFAST

BELFAST, July 30.—An economic war against Belfast by neighboring Sinn Fein territory, in reprisal for the exclusion from Belfast of Sinn Fein workers seems to be forecast in an action taken today in Louth County. The county council there, and the Dundalk Trades Council adopted resolutions asking traders to abstain from all relations with northern manufacturers and merchants until the workers excluded from Belfast are reinstated. The Dundalk bakers declared a boycott against Belfast.

It is believed here that the proposed economic warfare holds prospects of serious events.

DEPUTY LIEUTENANT FOR IRISH COUNTY IS VICTIM OF ASSASSINS

Dublin, July 30.—Frank Brook, deputy lieutenant for county Wicklow, Leinster province, was shot dead at the West Landrow station in Dublin this morning, just after alighting from a train. His assailants escaped.

Brooke was a wealthy country gentleman and a close friend of Viscount French, the lord-lieutenant, whom he visited frequently. Except for the fact of his close association with the viceroy, no particular reason for his assassination was apparent up to this afternoon.

UNNAMED IRISHMAN ACCOMPANIES MANNIX

LONDON, July 30.—The chairman of the Irish Vigilance Society in Great Britain at a meeting today announced that Archbishop Mannix of Melbourne, Australia, would be accompanied to the British Isles from the United States by an unnamed distinguished compatriot. The statement brought forth cheers for Eamonn De Valera, president of the Irish republic, from the members of the society.

The chairman of the meeting added that Archbishop Mannix and his companion would land in a manner which would astonish "the enemy" and create amusing gossip for the world.

BURN ELIZABETHAN FORT.

BELFAST, July 30. — Charlemont Fort, erected in the reign of Queen Elizabeth on the first entry of English soldiers into Tyrone, was burned by armed raiders early this morning.

The building, which overlooked the River Blackwater at Moy, was long occupied by the Charlemont family, the members of which founded the Irish volunteers at the time of the American war of independence. It was used latterly by the Government as a military stronghold.

CHATHAM TO FIGHT GAS COMPANY TO THE BITTER END

Mayor Brisco Declares in Statement Made Regarding the Ultimatum.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CHATHAM, July 30.—F. W. James, manager of the Union National Gas Company, stated this afternoon in regard to the dispatch from Toronto to the effect that Hon. Harry Mills had received an ultimatum from the Gas Company, that the gas service would be discontinued September 1 to many municipalities, "the Union Company has merely acceded to the request of the minister of mines that our action in cutting off the gas from the various municipalities in Western Ontario be postponed until a conference between the representatives of the municipalities could be held. We have issued no further ultimatum. I am not sure that the date of September 1 was mentioned in our arrangement with Hon. Mr. Mills."

When asked as to whether or not the company was going to make demand for an increase in Chatham or not, Mr. James said: "That is a matter for the Chatham Gas Company. The Union Gas Company cannot deal directly with the city of Chatham. It is the distributing agency which deals with the city." He addeed that at the present time there had been no negotiations between the two companies regarding advanced rates.

Chatham Favored.

Mayor Brisco state tonight regarding the dispatch of the ultimatum alleged to have been issued by the Union Gas Company: "The city has never been asked for increased rates, although many other municipalities have. Chatham has a contract, that the city will be given natural gas as long as the Union Company is producing gas, and at the prices Chatham has been paying. The citizens know that the Union Company has been making far more than the average corporation.

"Britain has just gone through a war to establish the sanctity of treaties and agreements, and the Chatham agreement is as binding as treaties, in my estimation, and if the Government steps in and cancels our contract, the Government will establish a precedent which might have a tendency to jeopardize all contracts, including Victory Bonds, etc.

Fight To Bitter End.

"It is Chatham's purpose to fight to the bitter end, as we do not believe the British constitution will permit the cancelling of contracts made in good faith. If the gas situation has come to such a condition that one corporation can monopolize the whole situation, disregarding the people's rights, it is time the Government stepped in and took charge of the situation."

It was learned today that Hon. Harry Mills, minister of forests and mines, made an inspection of the gas-producing area, in company with Gas Commissioner E. S. Estlin, on Wednesday last. Pumping stations and field equipment were given the "once over," and a thorough inspection was made of the drilling operations.

Extract From Audit.

The following statement is extracted from the report of and audit conducted by Warwick Mitchell, Peak & Company, chartered accountants of Toronto, who audited the Union Gas Company's books in 1918.

Since inception of the Union Gas Company on January 1, 1912, to June 30, 1918, cash dividends amounting to $2,369,530 have been distributed among its shareholders and at the last mentioned date the company had a surplus of $2,092,244, before providing for depletion and depreciation. A stock bonus of capital stock, amounting to $1,660,000 was distributed to the shareholders in 1914.

Assets Over $3,000,000.

Cash value of capital assets on June 30, 1918, was $3,319,397.86. On cash value of productive investments an average annual return of 32.31 per cent was made from net operating revenue during the six years ending December 31, 1917.

Actual cost of lease holds, plant equipment, etc., on June 30, 1918, amounted to $2,948,165.02.

Union Gas Company are now claiming for themselves assets aggregating $20,000,000 increased from a cash investment of approximately $3,000,000, and are claiming a gas rate to consumers to pay dividends on $20,000,000.

The above explains, possibly, why the Union National Gas Company want to increase the gas rates in this section. Great indignation has been expressed at the ultimatum served on Hon. Harry Mills by the citizens in general. Fuel supply in this section is doubly in hazard by the sudden turn of affairs. Practically 95 per cent of the citizens of this city use gas for general purposes, and about 40 per cent of county population also use it.

DOCTORS GIVE UP HOPES OF MAN'S RECOVERY

CAN'T PROBE FOR BULLET

Assailant Held in Walkerton Jail Pending Result of Injuries.

CHESLEY, July 30.—In a brief interview tonight, Dr. A. Wolverton Mair, one of the medical men attending Bert Cavill, the local carter who was shot by Joshua Green yesterday morning during a dispute over the removal of a piano from Green's house, said that Cavill's chances of recovery appeared very slim, and, "while he is still living, he is, I believe, slowly sinking."

The doctor also stated that it had been found impossible to probe for the bullet, which hit Cavill in the back, and has apparently penetrated the liver. In such a case, death is only a matter of time.

Speaking of the bullet which hit Cavill in the mouth and which was supposed at first to be lodged in the palate, the doctor said that an X-ray examination failed to show any sign of it in the head, and it had presumably passed out.

Green, who later gave himself up to the local police, is alleged to have fired four shots at his victim, but two went astray. He is at the present time in Walkerton jail, held on a charge of shooting with intent.

WHEAT IS SOLD AT LESS THAN U. S. GUARANTEE

For First Time Since Control Ended, Chicago Price Goes Below.

CHICAGO, July 30.—For the first time since the ending of Federal Government control of the wheat market, wheat has been sold in Chicago at less than $2.23 a bushel, the price which last year was guaranteed by Congress. December delivery of wheat went as low today as $2.21, an overnight tumble of 12¼ cents.

Absence of buying demand was the outstanding feature in today's operations. A generally accepted explanation of the apparent reluctance of purchasers was strained financial conditions, notably weakness of foreign exchange.

Corn, oats and provisions declined in sympathy with wheat, but kept within normal limits. The amount of business in the feed grains exceeded by many times the total of transactions in wheat. Dealings in future deliveries of the latter cereal appear to be increasing a little daily, but still are far below an old-time average.

CHIPPEWA WILL GIVE 100,000 H.P. YEAR FROM NOW

TORONTO, July 30.—Over one hundred thousand horsepower will be available from the Chippewa-Queenston power development by the 1st of October, 1921, according to an announcement made by Sir Adam Beck. The hydro chief stated that Messrs. Hugh L. Cooper & Co., the New York engineers who are preparing an extensive report on the development, have advised the commission that two units of 55,000 horsepower will be ready for commercial operation on the date given, provided there is no further interference with the construction program of the commission.

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY VICTIM OF LOCKJAW

Ran Nail in His Foot Ten Days Ago —Blood Poisoning Followed.

STRATFORD, July 30.—A severe case of blood poisoning followed by lockjaw resulted in the death at the General Hospital of Edward R. Jezzard, 13 years of age. About ten days ago young Jezzard stepped on a nail, the wound was cleansed and apparently healed. During the past week, however, the lad had not been feeling well, but was only taken seriously ill Wednesday, when it was found that a serious case of blood-poisoning had developed and lock-jaw resulted. He is survived by his parents and two brothers, Thomas and William, of this city.
