MERCY SLAYER FREED AS TRIAL JURY FAILS

Judge Grants Dismissal Motion of Prosecuting Attorney.

RELATIVES PRESENT
Lewis Mowry, Defence Counsel, Believes Decision "Victory For Humanity."

Associated Press Despatch. Littleton, Col., Nov. 12.—With the legal status of "murder for love" undetermined, Dr. Harold Elmer Blazer tonight stood free of the charge of murdering his 34-year-old daughter, Hazel, the "human husk."

Less than an hour after a jury failed to agree on a verdict, the legal stigma of murder was removed when Judge Samuel Johnson granted a motion of dismissal by Prosecuting Attorney Joel E. Stone. The jury was out less than fourteen hours.

The defendant received the decision with comparative calm. "The jury should have acquitted me, but this last move is the equivalent of acquittal," he said. "I do not wish to persecute anyone. Stone said in making his motion for dismissal, 'I don't believe this jury or any other one we might obtain could arrive at a verdict and, in fairness both to the defendant and the state, I move that all charges be dropped and the defendant be set free.'"

Mrs. Frances Bishop, daughter of the physician, was not in the courtroom when the jury was dismissed. "Oh, they should have acquitted him; they should have acquitted him," she told the man who carried the news to her in the corridor outside. She then rushed to her father, who was talking with his brother, Philip Somer Blazer of Magnolia, Ohio, a host of relatives and friends.

Dr. Blazer was alone at the council table except for H. W. Spangler, a member of his counsel staff, when Stone's motion was granted. He left soon afterward, declining to make any statement beyond that he was going to "Cumbres," Col., to "operate my sawmill there," and "give an outdoor life, which I believe will benefit my health." He smiled broadly as he talked and appeared to be relieved of the strain he had been under during the last eight days.

Prosecutor Stone saw in the action of the jury a victory "for law and order."

"These men as a body declined to put the stamp of approval on this sort of crime; they declined to state that Colorado would countenance these types of killings, and it will serve as a warning in the future," he declared. "I moved for a dismissal of charges because I do not believe any jury could agree on a verdict, and because I believe the people's will has been accomplished without the further expenditure of their money for another trial."

Called Victory For Humanity

Associated Press Despatch. Littleton, Col., Nov. 12.—"This has been a victory for humanity; for humanity was on trial, side by side with Dr. Blazer," Lewis Mowry, chief defence counsel, said at the conclusion of the Blazer trial today. "The verdict was as good as an acquittal, for it shows that on this jury were men who dealt not alone with the cold facts of law. I am informed that the vote at any time was never more than three for conviction, and that it simmered down towards the end to a point where a single juror was holding out to convict."

PROHIBIT MEMBERS TO SEEK ELECTIVE OFFICE

Resolution Introduced at Meeting of Border Utilities Commission Laid Over.

Canadian Press Despatch. Windsor, Nov. 12.—A resolution prohibiting members of the Essex border utilities commission from seeking elective office was introduced before a meeting of that body tonight by O. E. Fleming, K.C.

Mr. Fleming declared that the government took this attitude in respect to its employees. He had in mind the case of a Windsor alderman who gets $1,700 as a sanitary inspector. The man in question, he believed, spent considerable time around the city hall, and, aside from this particular case, he did not believe the practice should be permitted.

Mayor Mitchell said that the resolution was something of a surprise. He thought Mr. Fleming should give the commissioners time to think it over. Mr. Fleming finally agreed to let the resolution stand over until the next meeting of the joint board.

MILLIONS ARE DOOMED UNLESS CANCER BEATEN

Dr. William Lane Blames Faulty Living For Dread Disease—Scores Medical Methods and Modern Foods, and Comes Out in Defence of the Appendix.

That 5,000,000 of the fifty million people in England were doomed to lie of cancer, if the present rate of cancer deaths continued, asserted Dr. William Lane at a meeting of the Canadian club last evening.

The speaker, who is one of the leaders of his profession in the world, arrived in the city yesterday noon from Detroit, where he had been met by Dr. George Ramsay, president of the Western Ontario Academy of Medicine.

"The food we eat is the crowning glory of civilization," he declared. "Cancer, he termed, the most loathsome disease known to man, yet it was the chief factor in the death rate."

"Cancer never yet affected a healthy organ. It can only germinate in those organs which are already degenerated with impure blood," he asserted.

"If our eating habits were sensible, cancer would be unknown, he thought."

Sir William declared that every organ of the body had its function, and should not be removed from it. If he ruled the medical world, he would decree that the knife never be used, except in cases of bad fractures.

keep up well. A series of lantern slides was shown to illustrate deformities caused by the repetition of certain movements in certain lines of work.

"The objects of this society," he said, "are to educate the people of Europe, to prevent the spread of illness and sickness, to teach them that by eating the right kind of food they can be healthy, normal men and women."

"There are 50,000,000 people in the British Isles, and if cancer maintains its present increase, 5,000,000 of them will die by the most horrible and disgusting death I know. It is entirely a disease of civilization, of faulty diet and faulty living, lack of exercise, and wrong living habits."

"Many of the plates put in, in reducing fractures, have the appearance of being placed by insane persons, but the work has been done by sane doctors in an insane way, because their medical education was rotten from start to finish."

"The appendix is the natural drain for the impurities of the body, yet when it becomes clogged, physicians remove it, instead of eliminating the causes of its being clogged."

"When the sewers of your city become clogged, why don't you dig them up?" he asked. "It would be as logical as the removing of the appendix."

Sir William attacked modern food, and declared that modern health habits, which were engendered in the baby by its mother, were the cause of every disease which afflicts the human race.

NEW INSTRUCTOR REACHES LONDON

Gustave Francois Lussi Will Teach Figure Skating at Local Arena.

The new professional of the London Skating club, Gustave Francois Lussi, who for many years has been prominent in international figure skating and skating circles, has arrived in the city.

"After many arguments, however, it has been unanimously accepted on this continent and is everywhere being instituted by the foremost American figure-skaters. It is this style, which I intend to teach to the members of the London Skating club."

Mr. Lussi was born in Engleberg, Switzerland, 27 years ago. Here he spent the greater part of his life, in the very heart of the Alps and about 12 miles from Lake Lucerne, the famous winter playground of Europe.

"The establishment of the gold standard, British overseas trade has slightly increased, increased profitability in the affairs of a great majority of British industrial enterprises; diminution in the cost of living; the yield of revenue, which bears the budget was framed; the consuming power of the people has been maintained and even increased; the savings of the people have increased; fewer days lost owing to strikes; unemployment not increased; while employment, compared with a year ago, has increased; the world has a good harvest and the best harvest in the history of the world; an important factor for Lancashire; and the result of the Locarno conference."

Judge Decides That Mother Unfit Guardian for Baby

Canadian Press Dispatch. Toronto, Nov. 12.—In the non-jury assize court this afternoon Mr. Justice Loeble granted Wilfrid Nathaniel Bickle, following a long recital of domestic trouble in which Bickle charged that his wife, Mrs. Madeline Bickle, who also sought custody of the child, had "not played the game."

The law looks to be the best interest of the child," said his lordship, in giving the child into charge of the father. "I find that the defendant is not a fit and proper person for custody of this little girl. The interest of the child is the test, not the interests of the parent. Where the evidence of the plaintiff conflicts with the evidence of the defendant, I accept the father's evidence."

THREE YOUTHS TAKEN WITH HOLD-UP TOOLS

Escapade With Young Girls Ends in Arrest of Detroit Men.

Special to The Advertiser. Detroit, Nov. 12.—Three young men, arrested on complaint of two girls, were held by police today in connection with a series of recent holdups.

A blood-stained revolver, black masks, a "billy" and a deputy sheriff's badge were found in the youths' car, police say.

Floreda Toulouse, 13, daughter of Frank Toulouse, of 2716 Grand River avenue, is held at the Juvenile Detention Home as a witness against the youths.

Floreda and a neighbor girl named Peggy were "picked up" by Joseph Lombardo, 22, Sam Florilla, 28, both of 59 Henry street, and Joseph Mato, 19, of River Rouge, at Cass and Grand River avenues, Tuesday night, they told police.

TWENTY-THREE DIE IN TWELVE DAYS

Death Under Wheels of Trolley Is Latest Detroit Fatality.

YOUNG BOY INJURED

Special to The Advertiser by Staff Correspondent. Detroit, Nov. 12.—Charles Booth, 55 years old, 696 Brainerd avenue, who was killed instantly tonight, when he fell beneath wheels of a Myrtle street car at Brooklyn and Grand avenues, was the 23rd person to die as result of traffic accidents within the city limits of Detroit: the first 12 days of November.

Officers of the accident investigation bureau at police headquarters predicted November will set a new monthly record for traffic fatalities. The largest number of deaths from this cause recorded for any month in the last five years within the city limits was in April, 1924, when 34 persons were killed.

Could Your Hands Meet This Test? Not if They're Red Hands, Spoiled by Harsh Soap

If the courtliness of an older age were to return—would your hands meet the test? Would they stand constant scrutiny? Not if they're spoiled and roughened and reddened by the soap used in most homes for household tasks.

But thousands of women all over Canada would meet the test—women who do housework. They are the happy users of Palmolive Princess Soap Flakes. Ordinary soaps and ordinary soap flakes are harsh because they contain free caustic and cheap, chemical "filler."

Princess Soap Flakes contains neither. It's just pure soap with nothing in it to harm hands or clothes. But what a wonderful job of cleaning it does. A little of it builds tremendous, snowy suds which briskly tackle any washing task.

Princess Soap Flakes contains neither. It's just pure soap with nothing in it to harm hands or clothes. But what a wonderful job of cleaning it does.

And you can afford to use Princess Soap Flakes for every household purpose because the big, brim-full package contains all soap—every flake helping to make heaps of suds. You use less of it.

Start now to protect your lovely hands. Make Palmolive Princess Soap Flakes your all-purpose household soap.

OUR GUARANTEE We guarantee these things about Palmolive Princess Soap Flakes. We guarantee to replace any washable garment which, by reason of its having been washed with Palmolive Princess Soap Flakes, has been damaged in texture or its color made to run, provided such garment has been washed in accordance with our instructions.

OUR FREE OFFER We do not ask you to take our word for these things. We do not ask you to spend any money to find out for yourself. COUNTY PAYS MORE FOR INDIGENT PATIENTS

City Will Collect $400 Additional From Middlesex in One Year.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon between a committee of the city council and a committee of the county council an agreement was reached whereby the city will obtain approximately $400 per year additional from the county of Middlesex on account of indigent patients from the county cared for at Victoria hospital. The county, in addition to paying $1.50 a day for such patients, will be charged with the extra cost of special nurses and other extras. Where orthodox appliances are necessary, the approval of John Stuart, the county's representative on the hospital trust, will be asked on purchases before they are made. This would not result in any inconvenience to the patients, Dr. G. G. Clegg, superintendent of Victoria hospital, explained.

The county was represented at the meeting by Warden Allan McPherson, Reeve John Cousins of Warden township, Reeve A. C. Hodgins of London township and County Clerk John Stuart, Mayor Wenig, Ald. McKay, City Clerk Baker and City Treasurer Bell, with Dr. Clegg of the hospital, acted for the city.

BETTER WIVES AND MOTHERS

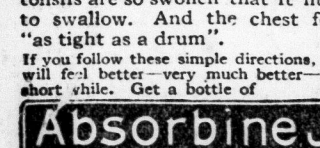

The emancipation of women as evidenced by the evolution in dress from steel stays that made a twenty-inch waist and the long street-sweeping skirts to the sports clothes of the present day has certainly had its effect upon the health of women. With proper attention to diet and exercise a large number of women and mothers are suffering from ailments which could be avoided by the use of a vegetable compound which depends upon to overcome them. Thousands of women testify to its success.

AIRD'S OPTIMISTIC OF TRADE OUTLOOK FOR ALL DOMINION

Retiring President of Bankers Association Believes Finances Are Sound.

NEILL IS PRESIDENT

Royal Bank Manager Named New Head—Future of Business Discussed.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Nov. 12.—The present prospects in Canada were much more favorable than at any previous time during the past two years, Sir John Aird, retiring president of the Canadian Bankers' association, declared here today at the annual meeting of the association in the course of a studied survey of the banking and financial outlook of the dominion. With a splendid crop, he asserted, in all parts of the country, and with reasonably good prices, there was a general improvement in business everywhere, and it was a matter of gratification that western farmers were discharging old obligations from the proceeds of the crops, and were improving their financial positions accordingly.

At the election of officers, which followed, C. E. Neill, general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, was elected to the presidency to succeed Sir John Aird. Other officers were elected as follows: Honorary presidents, Sir Vincent Meredith, Sir George Burns and E. L. Pease; vice-presidents, A. E. Phipps, general manager of the Imperial Bank of Canada, Beaudry Leman, general manager of the Banque Canadienne Nationale, J. A. McLeod, general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and J. R. Lamb, general manager of the Bank of Toronto.

There was representative attendance at the meeting. All managers of banks with head offices in Toronto were present, as well as Messrs. Neill and Leman of Montreal, and Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, a former president of the association. Sir John Aird, at the opening of his address, referred to the operation of the inspection measure of the bank act introduced in 1923, and stated there was reason to believe that the outcome was of advantage to the business of banking, as carried on in this country.

Confidence in Public

Evidence was not lacking that there was renewed confidence by the public in the soundness of Canadian banking institutions, and that the banks were well able to afford the necessary financial facilities to business and to do their part in the development of the country.

Referring to Canada's improved trade position, he said: "Relatively, we are buying less and exporting more from year to year, and there is no reason why this favorable balance should not be maintained, if prices for agricultural and animal products abroad are for wood and paper, remain at a fair level. There will be no occasion to worry over the large interest payments abroad which we have to make. The improved position of the Canadian dollar in New York in the past two years is without a doubt substantially due to these increasing exports of trade balances."

"An announcement in the New York Chronicle, with regard to the delivery of gold bullion by the mine producers to the mint at Ottawa, instead of shipping to New York, as has been the practice in recent years, is confirmatory of an announcement a few days earlier made from Ottawa in the Canadian Press.

"The premium upon the Canadian dollar in New York, and the heavier export charges from the mining districts of northern Ontario to New York over the express charges to Ottawa have operated to bring about this change.

W. B. SAVAGE IS CHOSEN MASTER OF FOREST CITY

Forest City Loyal Orange lodge, No. 752, last night elected officers for the year. W. Bro. Robert Aitken will be succeeded in the master's chair by William Savage, present deputy. W. E. Elliott, who left the office of deputy master during the war, will fill the post for 1925. W. Bro. James Clouston was unanimously re-elected recording secretary. W. Bro. F. S. Neely, after fourteen years of service as financial secretary, insisted upon retiring, and will be replaced by E. Draycott.

The remainder of the list is as follows: Chaplain, W. Wilcox; treasurer, Robert Gibb (re-elected); marshal, W. Klassen; lecturers, F. Harvill and J. Shearer; committee, W. Leonard, T. Levitt, G. Venner, J. Weighart, W. Green; inside tyler, W. Bro. F. S. Neely.

ANNUAL Y.M.C.A. BANQUET IS BILLED FOR TONIGHT

The annual members' banquet of the local Y. M. C. A. will be held in the association buildings tonight at 6:15 o'clock.

J. G. Stevenson, chairman of the men's committee, will preside. Immediately following dinner, Bill Sheerin will lead a sing-song, accompanied by Miss Griffith at the piano. It is expected that 65 members will be present at the banquet.

The speaker of the evening will be D. A. Davis, administrative secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Europe. Mr. Davis is visiting associations throughout the various cities of America.

MAGAZINE GIVES PLACE TO HIGHWAY PUBLICITY

Community Leadership, a magazine with a continent-wide circulation, carries the following reference in its most recent number, to one of the special community publicity efforts of the London chamber of commerce to attract tourist trade.

"London, Canada—The Windsor-Niagara highway, the international route, sends out a friendly document, describing the way from Windsor to Niagara Falls. It will serve as an excellent guide book for the motorist."

Third Cabin Sea Rates Increased

Canadian Press Despatch. Montreal, Nov. 12.—Tourist third cabin ocean rates on all lines have been increased by $15 for the round trip, or $10 each way, according to an official announcement in steamship circles here today. Ordinary third-class rates remain the same, at $155 for the round trip. The increase brings the tourist third cabin rate up to $170.

POPPY APPEAL IS SURE TO SUCCEED

Committee in Charge Has Good Organization for Canvass of City Saturday.

Tomorrow is poppy day. Tomorrow every citizen of London will wear one of the little red flowers made famous by "In Flanders Fields." The cause is most worthy, the entire proceeds being devoted to relief work carried on by the G. W. V. A. and the T. V. A. among veterans of the great war and their families.

London has always responded generously to appeals of this nature and it is certain that she will do so again. The success of the day depends upon the response of every individual citizen.

The committee in charge has been working hard. The city has been divided into districts and teams have been allotted their area. Every house will be called upon, so no one will have the chance to say that they did not have the opportunity to buy a poppy.

ADMITTS PROPERTY OWNERS MET ON NIGHT OF SHOOTING

Associated Press Despatch. Detroit, Nov. 12.—Admission of a meeting of property-owners the night after the fatal shooting of Leon E. Breiner was drawn in cross-examination from a state witness in the case of Ossian H. Sweet, negro doctor, his wife and nine other negroes being tried for murder in connection with the slaying.

Mrs. Florence Ware, living near the house occupied by the negroes, and from which the state charges volleys of shots which killed Breiner were fired, was the witness.

It was the first time that Clarence Darrow, chief of defence counsel, had been able to get from a witness the admission of a meeting of the Waterworks Improvement association after the shooting. The defence claims the association was organized to prevent Sweet from living in the vicinity, which had previously been occupied exclusively by white persons.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB HOLDS SOCIAL EVENING AT "Y"

A social evening was enjoyed by the members of the Young Men's club of the local Y. M. C. A. last evening in the association buildings.

Roy Johnston, a magician of some repute, assisted by Leslie Gray, offered many interesting stunts, which were greatly enjoyed by the 25 members who were present. Several novel games were also included.

Arrangements were made for the debate to be held at the next meeting of the club on Thursday, Nov. 13. The subject chosen is that "Practical experience is more beneficial than an academic education."

The affirmative will be upheld by W. Keenleyside and Ray Canfield, while Charlie White and George Reid will represent the negative. E. J. Jenkins will act as chairman of the judges. The other judges will be selected from the members of the club.

COAL ANALYSIS CAN BE MADE HERE

Board of Education Will Now Likely Make Use of Facilities at Western.

Trustee Mrs. John A. Rose is anxious that coal analyses required by the board of education be made at the University of Western Ontario rather than at either the Toronto or Detroit universities, as has been the case up to this time.

Accordingly Mrs. Rose laid before the board at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon information she had secured from Dr. K. P. R. Neville, acting dean of the University of Western Ontario, to the effect that the chemical and geological departments at the local university are now adequately equipped to perform the coal analysis upon reasonable notification and as cheaply if not more cheaply than the board has had the analyses made in the past.

Chairman S. F. Lawrason replied in explanation of the board's action in having the analyses made at out-of-town universities that two years ago, when asked to make the analysis for the board, Western university authorities had intimated that they had not the necessary equipment to complete such an analysis.

"We were not aware that the university here had installed the necessary equipment," said Mr. Lawrason, "but now that you have given us that information, Mrs. Rose, there is no reason, as far as I can see, that our coal analysis should not be made at Western university."

It was unanimously agreed that the information tabled by Mrs. Rose should be passed on to next year's board for its "consideration" at the time when the analysis has to be made.

OPPOSITION OBJECTS TO PARLIAMENT CALL

Conservatives Criticize Premier For Summoning House Before Christmas.

By E. C. BUCHANAN, Special to The Advertiser Correspondent.

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—Objection is now being raised by Conservatives to the calling of parliament before Christmas. A few days ago the complaint of the Conservatives was that Premier King was attempting to cling to office without authority.

When the prime minister announced that parliament would be summoned for Dec. 10 if statutory requirements could be met by that time the suggestion was thrown out that it was "stage play." Now, when they are convinced that Mr. King means to have parliament meet and decide the fate of the government as soon as it is unfair to bring members here before Christmas.

The Meighen opposition would prefer that the calling of parliament should be deferred till after the first of the year.

T. S. MELADY, B.A., ASSUMES DUTIES AS INSPECTOR

Thomas S. Melady, B.A., successor to J. F. Sullivan, inspector of separate schools, has taken over his new duties and began his inspection of the London separate schools Wednesday.

Mr. Melady is a resident of Stratford, but will likely become a resident of this city in the near future.

J. F. Sullivan, the former inspector, was officially transferred to the Hamilton district over a year ago. He has carried on his local work since that time, however.

Theatres Asked To Help Keep Children At School

Friendly Co-operation Sought by Board of Education in Ban on Theatre Attendance During School Hours.

Local theatres will be asked by the board of education for "their friendly co-operation" in eliminating as far as possible the attendance of children at afternoon performances during school hours.

Pointing out that he had recently had one case in juvenile court of a child attending the theatre during school hours, T. J. Holmes, attendance officer, complained that he had had several similar complaints and advised that a letter be sent by the board to the theatres.

Trustee Mrs. J. I. A. Hunt, when the subject was discussed at the regular meeting of the board yesterday afternoon, remarked that while there is no law against children attending the theatre during school hours the practice would practically cease if the law were enforced that no child under 16 years can attend the theatre unaccompanied by parent or guardian.

Asked for his opinion, Administrator G. A. Wheable, B.A., stated that if a parent took a child to the theatre during school hours then that parent could be called upon for an explanation in the juvenile court. Mr. Wheable added that while he would not like to see the theatres written "demanding" that children be refused admittance to afternoon performances, a letter "asking for their friendly co-operation" would very probably show some results.

It was finally agreed that letters in the vein of seeking co-operation be forwarded to all the theatres in the city.

Recommendation Calling For Civic Check Startles Trustees Needlessly.

Peace reigns once more between the city council and the board of education, and thereby hangs a tale.

Trustee F. H. Greenlees became instantly alarmed at the regular meeting of the board of education yesterday when the recommendation was read in the executive committee's report to the effect that the schools be used for municipal elections this year, providing a check covering the rental charges be tendered by the city council at least ten days in advance of the election.

"Does that mean," asked Mr. Greenlees, "that war has been declared again?"

"On the contrary," replied Chairman S. F. Lawrason, "peace has been declared."

"I may say that since this recommendation was made representatives of the board and of the city council have got together and smoked the pipe of peace," continued Mr. Lawrason, "and it was agreed at that conference that the council will not bill us any more for any part of the costs of the municipal elections, while we, in turn, will allow the council free use of the schools for polling both purposes at municipal elections."

ASKS TEMPERANCE STAND OF BRITAIN

Miss McCorkindale Makes Big Plea at W. M. S. Convention.

WORK IS OUTLINED

Final Session of Former Methodist W. M. S. Held in London.

"There is a thrill in standing at the springs of a nation," said Miss McCorkindale, W. C. T. U. organizer of Australia, in an address before the afternoon session of the final convention of the old Methodist W. M. S. of the London district.

"As we in Australia are laying the foundations for a nation, so are you women in Canada. It is a privilege and a great responsibility to belong to a young country. The foundation must be laid in righteousness and truth."

Miss McCorkindale went on to speak of her country, and to show something of the work that was being done by the women, particularly the missionary women, of her country.

"We have in Australia a geographical position of Australia, which necessitates a different mode of life from that of Canada."

Use Eucalyptus tree, a favorite growth in Australia, gave the speaker a splendid opportunity for an illustration. She stated that there are 218 varieties, and that each tree absorbed ten times its own weight in water. Scientists took advantage of their absorbent qualities and planted thousands of them in the swamps of Africa, where they soaked up the moisture from low-lying lands and made a center free from fever.

She compared the trees to people. She told the women that Christ expected the same powers from them. They were here, she said, to transform the world, and make it a better place for those who were to come in unborn generations.

Miss McCorkindale told another interesting story to illustrate the influence of Christian life. It was of a boy in whom her Bible class at the home of her mother, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, who is a guest with her sister, Mrs. J. G. Boucher.

Bobby Coon Determines To Discover Where Yowler Goes In the Moonlight

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.
Bobby Coon knew that the sensible thing for him to do would be to curl up in his hollow tree and stay there. Bobby wasn't ready to do this. No, sir, it wasn't quite late enough in the season. Bobby wasn't through laying up fat. He still had an appetite. So though he knew that hunters were looking for him by day and night, Bobby refused to stay at home. He slept most of the time during the day, but every night saw him out looking for more food in order that he might store up more fat under his skin.

Bobby Waited Where He Was.

But always Bobby was listening for the voice of a dog following his trail. It had happened at this season of the year every year since he could remember. Perhaps it was because Bobby always had escaped that he felt sure he could escape again. There were few tricks for fooling dogs, but Bobby had learned them all. He knew all the old tricks for which Coons are famous and he had added a few of his own. In a way Bobby looked upon it as a sort of game. It always tickled him when he succeeded in fooling the dogs and the hunters. He never stopped to think what would happen if he should fail to fool them.

One night Bobby's trail was picked up by that dog before Bobby had had time to get a mouthful to eat. In fact, that dog had picked up that trail right close behind Bobby. Under the circumstances Bobby was rather glad that he hadn't had time to eat. It was easier running on an empty stomach than it would have been on a full stomach. Still, Bobby didn't feel that he was particularly lucky that night, and furthermore, he wanted to eat, not run. So he looked about for the quickest way of getting rid of that bothersome dog.

Now it happened that the Bob Cat had started out hunting that evening at just about the same time that Bobby was starting out. As Bobby Coon ran he came to the fresh trail of Yowler the Bob Cat. A crafty look came into Bobby Coon's eyes. He turned and began to run a little faster and he ran in the same direction that Yowler the Bob Cat was going. The truth is Bobby was following Yowler's trail.

Now, Bobby was too fat to run very far. At the first opportunity he jumped up on an old stump and from there he began to run a little faster and from a fork high up he waited for what would happen. Hardly had he reached his perch when along came that dog down below with his nose to the ground, and a most excited dog he was. It wasn't the scent of Bobby Coon that was filling his nose. It was the stronger scent of Yowler the Bob Cat. That dog had forgotten that he was supposed to be hunting Bobby Coon. Straight on past the stump to which Bobby had jumped the dog ran. On the way he went, barking excitedly. Presently in the distance he began to bark in one place. Bobby knew then that Yowler the Bob Cat had gone up a tree.

Bobby waited where he was. By and by he saw lights coming through the Green Forest and beneath him passed several hunters. Two were carrying lanterns. They were talking excitedly and hurrying toward that barking dog. As soon as they had passed Bobby Coon came down from that tree and hurried to another part of the Green Forest in search of that delayed dinner. And all that time he was thinking about the fact that Yowler the Bob Cat had stayed up in that tree only until he had heard the hunters coming. Then he had jumped down and began to run a little faster and he ran in the same direction that Yowler the Bob Cat was going.

"There is nothing like making use of one's neighbors, especially when they know nothing about it," said Bobby Coon. "I must find out where Yowler is in the habit of going these moonlight nights, for I may want to make use of him again."

TRAFALGAR CORPS RECEIVES FLAG

Officially Presented To Cadets by Lt.-Col. G. H. Gillespie.

GIFT TO SCHOOL
Loch Lomond Chapter, I. O. D. E., Shows Interest in Boy Cadets.

An impressive little ceremony took place in the Trafalgar public school yesterday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, when the Loch Lomond chapter, I. O. D. E., formally presented a British standard to the school cadet corps.

The presentation took place in the assembly hall of the school, crowded with children, eager to witness the important ceremony. All of the officers of the Loch Lomond chapter were present at the invitation of L. D. McCamus, principal of the school.

Mrs. James Hendry, regent of the chapter, opened proceedings by briefly sketching the history of the flag, and the significance of its colors and their combinations.

At the close of her little talk, the flag was handed to Lieut.-Col. G. H. Gillespie, district cadet officer, who made the presentation. George Byrne, flag-bearer for the school, received the flag on behalf of the cadet corps.

In a brief talk, Col. Gillespie outlined the glorious history of the British Empire. It was a history of civilization rather than conquest, the story of the development of national independence, rather than the despotic tyranny that was practiced by Spain and France. He impressed on the children the fine spirit of British freedom, respecting the individual rights of citizenship, and with its colonies bound by a tie of sentiment.

At the close of his talk, the cadet corps stood in attention and saluted the flag. Before the gathering broke up, Principal L. D. McCamus, of the school, thanked Mrs. Hendry and her chapter, and Col. Gillespie for their interest in the school.

TILLSBURG BRIDAL PAIR AND ATTENDANTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Petz will make their home in Tillsburg.

GUIDES OF ST. PETER'S WILL MARK BIRTHDAY

To Celebrate First Anniversary With Reception On Tuesday.

The girl guide companies of St. Peter's cathedral No. 9 and 10 will celebrate their first birthday party on Tuesday next, when a reception will be held in St. Peter's Parish hall from 4 to 8 o'clock.

Part of the funds from this event will be used toward relief work, which will be carried on by each patrol at Christmas time.

Miss Winifred Prendergast is captain and Miss Mary Burns lieutenant of No. 9 company, and Miss Florence McDonagh captain and Miss Ruth Wilson secretary of No. 10 company. Part of the funds will go toward completing payment on uniforms which the guides will wear at their party on Tuesday.

ERNEST SEITZ RECITAL SET FOR NEXT WEEK

Distinguished Toronto Pianist Will Play Unusual Program.

The piano recital which is to be given in the Central collegiate institute on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 19, by Ernest Seitz, distinguished Toronto musician, will be one of the outstanding events of the month.

The recital is being arranged under the auspices of the choir of the Robinson Memorial church.

It is a very difficult and beautiful program which Mr. Seitz is to present, and one which only a musician of high rank could accomplish. It is prophesied for him that he will one day be among the leading musicians of the world.

His closing numbers include a group from Rachmaninoff, which has in it the G Minor Prelude, seldom heard on account of the great difficulties which it offers.

Mr. Seitz will also play Scenes of Childhood by Schumann, and will be heard in interesting numbers from Beethoven, Chopin, Spindlerow, Rebikov and Rachmaninoff.

GOLDEN LINK CLUB.

The members of the Golden Link club were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. Shilrick, Adelaide street, this week. Progressive eucher was played, and the prize-winners were Mrs. J. Spring, first prize; Mrs. L. Brooks, second prize; and Mrs. S. Arbutick, special prize. A dainty lunch was served at the conclusion of the games. Mrs. C. Perrin and Mrs. R. Atkins assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Brooks invited the members to hold their next meeting at her home on Lovett street.

Uncle Wiggily

Uncle Wiggily, with Sammie Little-tail, the rabbit boy, Jingle, who was a little rabbit girl, and a nice old monkey gentleman were standing inside a hollow tree house, wondering what was going to happen next.

The hollow tree was the woodshed of Uncle Wiggily's bungalow, and the friends had gone in to be safe from a snow storm. Sammie had tried to blow a tin horn, but, somehow, it wouldn't blow, and then, all of a sudden, the woodshed began to shiver. It seemed to be lifted up off the ground, so hard was it shaken.

"Oh, what do you suppose is going to happen?" cried Jingle.

"I don't know," answered Uncle Wiggily. "On these adventures of mine you never can tell what will take place."

"If I could only blow this horn!" puffed Sammie, making his cheeks look like balloons as he tried hard, "I could tell the Police Dog and he could tell us what makes this woodshed act so funny."

"Never mind your old horn!" exclaimed Jingle. "I can tell you what is the matter, without blowing for the Police Dog."

"What is the matter, my dear?" asked Uncle Wiggily, who was a bit worried lest his woodshed fall apart.

"It's the elephant," reported Jingle, looking up through the keyhole in the door, which was closed. "The circus elephant is rubbing up against this woodshed and he is making it shake and lift up off the ground."

"Poor fellow—I suppose he is cold," said Uncle Wiggily. "Elephants don't like winter, you know," he explained.

"I don't, either," chattered the old monkey gentleman.

"I can't ask the elephant in," went on Mr. Longears, looking at the small size of the woodshed room.

"Then please ask him to go away and shiver somewhere else," suggested Jingle. "Ask him to sliver against the side of a hill—it won't matter if he shakes the hill."

So Uncle Wiggily opened the door a little way, and politely twinkling his pink nose at the elephant the rabbit boy said:

"Would you mind kindly leaning up against a side hill to shiver and shake? Besides, if you don't like it here, now that it is snowing, why don't you go down South where they have no winter? Why don't you?"

"Thanks, I will," spoke the elephant through his long trunk of a nose. "I never thought of that. I'll go to Palm Beach."

"Right gladly will I do that," said the elephant. So he lifted the monkey up on his back, by his trunk, and as they were starting off Sammie again tried to blow the horn.

"But it won't toot!" said the little rabbit boy.

"Let me try," suggested the elephant. He took the horn in his trunk, and putting one end in his mouth he breathed hard. "Toot! Toot! Toot! Toot!" went the horn. "It was just frozen up a bit," said the elephant. And truly enough, he blew out a lot of snowflakes. By this time the snow was blowing in the open door of the woodshed, and Uncle Wiggily said they had all better hurry to his bungalow to get warm.

So the elephant and the monkey said goodbye to their friends, and the three rabbits jumped across the snow, making funny marks in the white surface. Uncle Wiggily leading Sammie and Jingle.

Just as they reached the bungalow they saw Susie, who was Sammie's sister. She was hopping around in the snow, crying.

"What's the matter?" kindly asked Sammie.

"I—now—I—lo—lo—lo—lost my

"I lost my penny," sobbed Susie.

"I would like to say, that with Dad far away. He is indeed happy tonight to know that you are visiting the Forest City chapter. And being welcomed so. When you will know that distance has played no part in our hearts. And I present this gift that came straight from his heart."

Sister Cousins, past worthy grand matron and grand representative of the state of Iowa, gave an interesting discourse on her visit to that state. Following a delicious refreshment, dancing was enjoyed. The refreshment convener was Mrs. Dawkins, assisted by Mrs. H. Crummer, Mrs. W. Crisp, Mrs. Cliff Read, Mrs. J. Dunkley, Mrs. B. Dawson and Miss Ada Mininely.

PRESENTATIONS TO MRS. TULLETT

Forest City Chapter Honors District Deputy Grand Matron—Give Banquet.

An enjoyable banquet was arranged last evening at the Smallman & Ingram dining-room by the members of the Forest City chapter, O. E. S., in honor of the district deputy grand matron, Mrs. Annie Tullett. A delicious supper was served, and the arrangements were in charge of Mrs. J. T. May and Mrs. Bristol.

Worthy Patron Charles Westman acted as chairman, and following the dinner he called upon the following after-dinner speakers: The honoree, Mrs. Ben Noble, J. C. Dodge, past worthy grand patron; E. T. Essery, Sisters Borland, past worthy matron, and Linnell.

The unique feature of the evening was another presentation to Mrs. Tullett in the Alma block, where the regular meeting was held. Mrs. Tullett's visit was official and she inspected the officers, rightly commending them on their work. Sister Caroline Connor was in the chair. After the work had been put on, presentations were made to Mrs. Tullett. First was the gift of a beautiful purse from the members. Mrs. J. W. Wallace and Mrs. Bond made the presentation on behalf of the chapter.

The other was the presentation of a handsome wrist watch from the Harmony Star club.

A unique feature of the evening was another presentation to Mrs. Tullett. It was of a personal nature and took the form of a gift from her husband, Fred Tullett, of a beautiful bangle, arranged with the star emblem and a diamond inset. It was presented by her daughter, who read the accompanying verse:

"I would like to say, that with Dad far away. He is indeed happy tonight to know that you are visiting the Forest City chapter. And being welcomed so. When you will know that distance has played no part in our hearts. And I present this gift that came straight from his heart."

Allow Women Seat On Vestry

Canadian Press Despatch. Brandon, Man., Nov. 13.—The meeting of the Anglican synod here yesterday partially lowered the bar against women holding offices in the church and voted to allow women a seat on the vestry of their local church. The synod after some debate, however, voted against a proposal to allow women to be elected as delegates to the general and provincial synods.

"I can't ask the elephant in," went on Mr. Longears, looking at the small size of the woodshed room.

"Then please ask him to go away and shiver somewhere else," suggested Jingle. "Ask him to sliver against the side of a hill—it won't matter if he shakes the hill."

So Uncle Wiggily opened the door a little way, and politely twinkling his pink nose at the elephant the rabbit boy said:

DEANERY EARNS ABOUT W. A. WORK

Successful Autumn Meeting Is Held in Trinity Church, Lucan.

Special to The Advertiser. Lucan, Nov. 12.—The autumn meeting of the rural deanery and woman's auxiliary of West Middlesex, was held recently in Holy Trinity church, Lucan. It was opened with the celebration of the Holy Communion, the celebrant being the Venerable Archdeacon Doherty, who was assisted by the rector, Rev. K. McCoun. The former also gave the devotional address.

After a short business session, wherein laymen's Sunday in particular was discussed, luncheon was served in the parish hall, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the rector and the ladies of Holy Trinity church for their generous hospitality.

When the company had reassembled in the church, the rector gave an address of welcome which was followed by an address on the diocesan budget, wherein he expressed the hope that 100 per cent of the deanery apportionment would be raised.

Tells of W. A. Work.
Mrs. David Williams, honorary president of the Huron W. A., in an address on woman's auxiliary work, gave an interesting report of the recent meeting of the dominion board of the W. A. at Vancouver, bringing out many encouraging features of the work, and showing that progress is being made in every department.

Mrs. T. A. Hodgins sang in sweet voice a beautiful solo. This was followed by a well-versed address on "The Church School," by Rev. Canon Andrew, showing the essentials for success in Sunday school work.

The rector, whether able to attend the Sunday school or not should be interested and should make selection of superior and teachers. Much depends on the teacher who should be a loyal member of the church and a true Christian.

Mrs. Brodie of St. John's church, Stratford, sang a much-appreciated solo.

Have Many Members.
The closing address was given by Rev. A. D. Cummer of Thorncliffe on the subject of the "Anglican Young People's Association." It dealt particularly with the work as carried on in his own parish, where they have the largest membership in the diocese, comprising 202, with an average of 156.

Rev. H. H. Diehl, following the discussion of the advantage of a teacher training class. He believed it would be a good thing if one could be organized and carried on continuously in every Sunday school.

Rev. A. Shore, during the discussion on A. Y. P. A. work, gave an interesting summary of the recent A. Y. P. A. convention held at Brantford. Rural Dean Croly, who presided throughout, expressed his appreciation of the work done at the meeting and brought to a close by Rev. Mr. Morris pronouncing the benediction.

CLUB NEWS
WELLS ACADEMY REHEARSAL.
The Wells Academy Dramatic club held its weekly rehearsal of Poor Father at the residence of C. Wells, 21 Aikin street, recently. At the close of the rehearsal refreshments were served and musical selections rendered.

SACRED HEART UNIT.
At a recent meeting of the Sacred Heart mothers' unit the following officers were elected for the current year: President, Mrs. James Welch; vice-president, Mrs. Furanna; secretary, Mrs. Robert Donohue; treasurer, Mrs. Martin Donohue. The members unanimously decided to assist the G. W. V. A. in the sale of poppies on poppy day. Plans were also discussed for a treat for the children of the school at Christmas time.

RYERSON MOTHERS' CLUB.
Mrs. J. F. Calvert was the speaker at this week's meeting of the Ryerson mothers' club. She gave a most interesting talk on Algonquin park, illustrating the same with many slides. The views were of flowers, birds and the boys' camp in particular.

Mrs. Jack Ferguson, the president, was in the chair. During a short business session plans were discussed for a social time to be held some time in January. The committee in charge of the arrangements includes the members of the executive and program committee.

Miss Dorothy Dickerson sang very sweetly. The evening concluded with a social hour and light refreshments were served.

TECUMSEH CLUB TEA.
In spite of the rain, the musicale given at the home of Mrs. Plewae, McClary avenue, under the auspices of the Tecumseh mothers' club, yesterday afternoon, was a decided success. The rooms were gay with yellow and mauve mums. Mrs. Calvert, the president, received at the door with Mrs. Plewae, and Mrs. J. T. Parkinson and Mrs. F. Galpin assisted in looking after the guests in the drawing-room. Mrs. F. Holland in-voiced to the executive. The attractive tea table was lovely with a Battenberg cloth centered with lavender mums and candles in silver candlesticks. Mrs. Bright, the honoree, president, and Mrs. C. Boyce, second vice-president, presided over the tea cups. They were assisted by the members of the executive of which Mrs. Wilson was convener.

An excellent program was rendered, including the following: Solos by Mrs. F. Galpin, accompanied by Mrs. J. T. Parkinson; duets by Mrs. E. Tremere and Mrs. E. Jenkins; violin selections by Jack Baird, and piano numbers by Miss Gladys Lowave, Miss Elsie Currie, Miss Laura Kirkwood and Mrs. F. Holland.

PRIMROSE EUCHRE CLUB.
The members of the Primrose Euchre club met at the home of Mrs.

FAMOUS.
(Six-line series)
A painter borrowed me to paint.
Because I looked so queer and quaint.
A jealous little jug, and old,
Of copper lustre, glinting gold—
Returned again to shop antique,
I'm famous now, besides untold.
—Margaret Clarke Russell

The above poem was inspired by the art exhibit at Willow Hall and the thought that some of the beautiful potteries there furnished models for the work of London artists.

Will Fughe, Hamilton road, yesterday.
A radio concert was enjoyed and at the conclusion of the games Mrs. Will Lake drew the lucky number for a pretty luncheon set donated by Mrs. Owen. The proceeds of the drawing will be devoted to relief work. After a dainty supper served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. T. Johnson, dancing and music formed a pleasant entertainment. The entire affair fell to Mrs. George Easterbrook, 1st; Mrs. Owen, 2nd, and Mrs. James Hodgson, consolation.

W. C. T. U. MOTHERS.
The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. Mothers' group was held yesterday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. A. F. Warren, in the chair. Rev. B. H. Robinson was the special speaker, giving an inspiring address on "Mothers and Men." Mr. Robinson pointed out the responsibility of motherhood and told of the wonderful things mothers might accomplish with their sons and daughters. A social hour was enjoyed by the members at the close of the meeting. Plans are under way by the club for sub-dividing the club into the four city wards, as the membership is increasing, and at the present time it is quite large.

ABERDEEN MOTHERS' CLUB.
Miss McDowel was the special speaker at last night's meeting of the Aberdeen Mothers' club. An interesting talk on "Auxiliary Classes" was given by the speaker, who told of the splendid work being done among backward children.

An excellent program was also given. It included a flute solo by J. H. Alcoat, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Alcoat. Mrs. Alcoat also contributed vocal numbers, accompanied by Miss Kathleen England. Miss England gave readings as well.

It was announced that the next tea would be held at the home of Mrs. F. Bell, 92 Drensey avenue, on Wednesday next. Mrs. J. Addison will assist the hostess.

AUXILIARY CONCERT.
Three members of the women's auxiliary board of Victoria hospital arranged a delightful concert, which was given yesterday afternoon at the hospital. Mrs. Frank White was the convener, assisted by Mrs. Frank McLachlin and Mrs. Lowry.

The program included delightful solos by Mrs. Beattie, accompanied by Mrs. McBratton, who also contributed several brilliant piano numbers. Miss Pauline Fitzgerald played a number of charming violin selections. At the supper, which was given, was added a colorful note to the trays.

CHAPTER ENTERTAINS BOYS AT SANATORIUM.
Loch Lomond Members Arrange Entertainment—Program of Music Given.

Under the auspices of the Loch Lomond chapter, I. O. D. E., a very delightful concert was given last evening at the Byron sanatorium. Mrs. J. Wilkie and Mrs. T. MacDonald were the conveners, while J. Brown acted as chairman.

Sergeant MacDonald arranged the program, taking to the sanatorium a number of pipers and dancers. The men were well entertained and greatly enjoyed the successful entertainment. The dancers included the Misses Lenore Gilmour, Ella Johnston, Violet Watson, Helen Wilkie, and Evelyn Nicholson. Miss Evelyn Nicholson also gave excellent readings, and Mrs. Geddes sang very sweetly a number of the good old-fashioned songs.

One of the features of the evening's program were songs by Carmen Learn, who shortly leaves London to be associated with Edward Johnston in New York. Mr. Learn's numbers were popular and his appealing songs were particularly appreciated.

There were many in attendance and at the conclusion of the program a dainty lunch was served.

MacBride Corruption Case Slated For Spring Court

Magistrate Refuses To Commit Brantford Mayor For Trial.
BRIBERY IS CHARGED

M. M. MacBRIDE.

Canadian Press Despatch. Brantford, Nov. 12.—On continuance of the hearing of the charge laid by W. G. Brown against M. M. MacBride, M.L.A., mayor of Brantford, this afternoon before Magistrate Campbell, of St. Catharines, of corruption over a bus franchise, the counsel addressed the magistrate. No evidence was offered for the defence. The prosecution asked for committal for trial.

Magistrate Campbell held that there was not sufficient evidence to commit Mr. MacBride for trial. He held there was no proof submitted that MacBride was then a member of the Ontario legislature, or that license fee was not required. The prosecution then asked that W. G. Brown be bound over to prosecute M. M. MacBride at the next competent court of jurisdiction, which will be the spring assizes in January. This was granted by the magistrate. The charge was amended after the case opened, the words "for himself" being added after the word "corruptly" in the original charge.

Brown, in evidence, declared that on Oct. 31, 1923, he had seen MacBride four times, in company with J. F. McCann. Conversation developed over a bus franchise from Brantford to Paris, and MacBride told him it would cost $100.

The three got into McCann's car and went to 341 St. Paul's avenue, where complainant then lived. In the presence of the complainant's wife and mother, MacBride repeated that it would cost $100. Witness promised $50 then and $50 later. MacBride said: "Don't take the money to my house; I won't be home. Take it to McCann's." A check for $50 was taken to McCann that evening. The check was produced in court. MacBride had said that he was going to Toronto the next day. He did not get the franchise, although MacBride said it would be all right, and he tried to get his money back, going to Brewster & Hyde, barristers.

DRIVES CAR WHILE DRUNK, TORONTO MAN ARRESTED

Canadian Press Despatch. St. Catharines, Ont., Nov. 12.—John Fountain, 3 Edgedale road, Toronto, drove down St. Paul street through barriers and over freshly-laid concrete on his way to the border last midnight. The local police car took after him, catching him near St. David's, after Fountain had collided with a car driven by George Vine of St. Catharines, both going into the ditch. Fountain was admitted to $200 bail today to appear on Nov. 20, charged with driving while intoxicated.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS AT MEETING OF CABINET

Three Defeated Ministers Attend Conference With Premier.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Nov. 12.—At the conclusion of the only cabinet meeting held this week, Premier King said to a group of newspapermen that he had no developments to announce. The meeting was attended by nearly all the cabinet ministers, including those whose resignations will be made shortly.

The defeated ministers holding portfolios—Hon. George Gordon, Hon. James Murdock and Hon. T. A. Low, will continue to administer the business of their departments for several days before leaving their offices to the other members of the cabinet, who will carry on as acting ministers. General interest centers about the probable length of the session. The prevailing opinion is that parliament will sit for a week or ten days after the opening, about December 10, and then adjourn for three weeks or a month over the Christmas and New Year holidays. It is presumed that the first week of the session will bring some alignment of the parties which will indicate the tenor of the fifteenth parliament.

Buy and eat Ontario Apples

For meals and between meals

Let the boys and girls take an Apple whenever they want. Don't make them wait for mealtime. Apples won't spoil the appetite for other food.

A good Apple is a bit of good health. The juice is one of nature's finest tonics. It promotes the secretions. Children who get plenty of Apples don't need "medicine".

You're just a grown-up boy or girl. Eat lots of Ontario Apples yourself.

Start the day with one or two. They gently stimulate lazy livers. Eat one when you're hungry or tired during the day. Eat them at night—any time. At meals, or between meals, you will enjoy them. There is no finer fruit.

WORKER USES HAMMER TO DETAIN MOTORIST

Demands Driver To Rush Injured Man To Hospital Following Accident.

Special to The Advertiser. Toronto, Nov. 12.—Two employees of the transportation commission, Charles Rose, aged 29, living at the rear of 107 1/2 Edward street, and William Lindsay, aged 34, of 2208 Dufferin street, are in the Western Hospital suffering from serious injuries as the result of being struck and hurled to the pavement on King street by a motor car driven by Thomas Fleming at 4:30 this morning.

Rose and Lindsay were rushed to the Western Hospital, where it was found that Rose was suffering from scalp wounds, a cut over the left eye and possible internal injuries. Following the accident, Fleming was arrested by Constable Kenny (111) on a charge of criminal negligence, and James N. Brennan of Newburg, Ont., the other occupant of the car, was also held at the scene of the accident as a material witness.

According to the police, Rose and Lindsay, with three other men, were on King street when the motor car ran through a row of red warning lanterns and hurled both the workmen to the pavement. After the accident another workman jumped in front of the car, and with uplifted hammer north car tracks at the hospital. To see that they got there he got in the car and helped to drive it to its destination. Upon arrival at the hospital the police were notified, and Constable Kenny placed Fleming and Brennan under arrest.

DEREHAM TWP. PIONEER SUCCUMBS AT INGERSOLL

Ingersoll, Nov. 12.—One of the oldest and best-known residents of Dereham township, William Wilford, died at the home of Mrs. A. J. Burrill, North Norwich. He was in his 82nd year, and came to Canada at the age of twelve years. He was a member of the Ingersoll Methodist church.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Caddy Banner, Mrs. Facey of Belton, Mrs. A. J. Burrill of North Norwich; four sons, John Wilford of Ingersoll, Neil Wilford of Palmerston, William and James Wilford of Dereham township; two sisters, Mrs. Denzil Facey of St. Marys and Mrs. Charles Sandick of Ingersoll. Mrs. Wilford predeceased him three years.

Indigestion

When chronic, is best relieved by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

In most cases, indigestion results from torpid liver and sluggish bowel action. Tablets for the stomach and aids to digestion fail in this chronic form of indigestion. You must get the filtering and excretory organs right before you can expect permanent relief and this is best accomplished by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Chronic indigestion is a very common condition. On this account many suffer for years not realizing that relief is at hand in the form of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Headaches, biliousness, spells of constipation and diarrhoea are among the accompanying ailments. What a relief it would be to be free of this condition which makes one feel so miserable and it is so easy by using this well-known regulator of the liver, kidneys and bowels.

TWELVE HUNDRED ACRE SLICE CUT OFF BAYFIELD VILLAGE

Special to The Advertiser. Goderich, Nov. 12.—The Ontario railway and municipal board today approved an application removing about 1,200 acres from the village of Bayfield and replacing the same in the township of Stanley. The lands have few buildings, and have been used only for farm purposes. The board ruled that the lands should pay school taxes into a consolidated school section composed of the village and some adjacent lands, but other taxes will be paid on a township rate. At the hearing, Vice-Chairman A. B. Ingram and J. D. Ellis composed the board; William Brydson of Clinton appeared for the applicants, and R. C. Hay, Jun., of Goderich, appeared for the corporation of Bayfield. Although Bayfield is now reduced below the requirements for a village, its identity as a village is not destroyed.

STANTON FOUND GUILTY ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Former Resident of St. Marys Is Indicted by Winnipeg Jury For Slaying of John Penny On Night of December 19, 1921.

Canadian Press Despatch. Winnipeg, Nov. 12.—John Stanton, a former resident of St. Marys, Ont., was found guilty late this afternoon by a jury in assize court here of the murder of John Penny.

The jury had been out for four hours. The trial lasted three days, during which the courtroom had been crowded by spectators, mostly women. Stanton will be sentenced at the conclusion of the assizes.

When the verdict was announced, disorder reigned in the courtroom for some time. A woman fainted. Stanton was obviously not prepared for the verdict, and slunk back in the prisoners' dock, exclaiming: "I don't know why I should have to carry the entire burden." He covered quickly, shook hands with a friendly spectator and was led away.

Extraordinary precautions were taken during the trial to guard against a possible attempt at escape. Stanton figured in the recent break from the provincial jail, in which five prisoners made a getaway. He and two others were recaptured several days later.

John Penny, an aged man, was murdered in his home on Young street, on the night of Dec. 19, 1921. The top of his skull had been beaten in with a blunt instrument and his head wound in a sheet. Some diamonds and a quantity of money which he kept in a bureau drawer in his room were stolen. The murder created a sensation because of its brutality and the age of the victim. Stanton was one of the five prisoners who recently broke out of the provincial jail here, but were recaptured several days later.

JOHN STANTON, former St. Marys man, found guilty on a charge of murdering John Penny at Winnipeg.

AGED LONDON MAN SUES FOR $50,000

Charles Anderson, 83, Seeks Use of Half of Wife's Estate.

HEARING LAID OVER Court Will Convene in Toronto in Two Weeks—Lawyers Clash.

All evidence, except that of Mr. Justice Fisher, who will testify for the defence, has been submitted in the action of Charles E. Anderson, 83, who asks Mr. Justice Lennox, presiding at the supreme court, to declare that he is entitled to half of his wife's $100,000 estate in London, being managed by the Canada Trusts Company for her since 1921. Mrs. Anderson is blind and physically and mentally incapable of managing her affairs.

As it was impossible to have Mr. Justice Fisher come to London to testify, court will convene at Toronto in two weeks' time to take his evidence as to the signature of documents in his office here before his elevation to the bench.

Yesterday afternoon's session was enlivened by several sharp clashes between J. M. McEvoy, K.C. counsel for plaintiff, and D. L. McCarthy, K.C. for the defence. Mr. McEvoy considered that all evidence regarding some checks given for rent had not been properly brought out, and submitted such as being the case. This ruffled the calm of the Toronto lawyer, who remarked heatedly: "You think you're funny, don't you?" "Not half as funny as you are, and not half as rude," rebuked Mr. McEvoy benignly.

Built Four Cottages. The evidence of the aged plaintiff went to show that he had built four cottages on Elizabeth street, and seven stores on Dundas street, on property owned by his wife. He had always shared in the rents, he declared, until the Canada Trusts company had been appointed a committee to look after his wife's estate in 1921.

The tenor of his evidence was all to the effect that he had done the building, while his wife supplied the land. Mr. McCarthy showed Mr. Anderson affidavits which went to show that the plaintiff himself had been instrumental in having the Trusts Company appointed as committee of his wife's property. Anderson denied this indignantly, declaring the documents to be a forgery, whereupon counsel for the defence said he would call witnesses to prove Anderson's signature. The plaintiff denied that he had been dependent on his wife.

Anderson sold some race horses, and Mr. McCarthy wanted to know what he had done with the proceeds.

"I used it for this lawsuit," declared witness.

Horse Races Uncertain. "Nothing is more uncertain than a horse race or a lawyer suit," he declared.

At this juncture, Mr. McCarthy put two defence witnesses in the box to prove Anderson's signature to the affidavits, before mentioned. Mr. Justice Fisher will be the third witness.

R. M. Winslow, trusts officer of the Canada Trusts Company, said the affidavits showed changes in his handwriting made at the request of Anderson.

"How long was it after that that you put the old man out of the Trusts Company office?" asked Mr. McEvoy. "Did you put him out?"

"I put him out."

"Wasn't he injured as a result? Didn't he have to go to the hospital?"

"I don't know about that. He threatened outrageous things, murder, etc."

"You had him up on a warrant, didn't you?"

"Yes it was done."

"Yes it was done," acquiesced Mr. McEvoy.

Gordon Tennent also gave evidence to the effect that the signature of Mr. Anderson to the affidavits was genuine.

Paid Rent To Anderson. The plaintiff's case then continued with the examination of a number of tenants of the Andersons in London East, who all swore that they had paid the rents to the plaintiff and never to his wife.

John Hayman, veteran contractor, declared that real estate on Dundas street east in 1875 was worth about $20 per foot.

Robert Stevenson told of working for Anderson in 1896. He had no dealings with Mrs. Anderson.

Others who gave evidence before court adjourned were Percy Chamberlain, W. H. Saborne, Albert J. Denny, J. Armour, Thomas Fawkes and E. Shaw.

D. H. Porter, who gave evidence as to the present value of the property, some $100,000, was sharply reprimanded by his lordship for keeping the court waiting some 20 minutes.

"It is an outrage for you not to be here," said the judge. "You have lost the valuable time of a great many people, even as compared with your own valuable time." However, I won't fine you this time."

Mr. Porter begged the court's pardon and apologized.

WINDSOR NOT LIABLE FOR BACK TAXES, STATES MAYOR

Windsor, Nov. 12.—Commenting upon the provincial government's demand for back taxes on admissions alleged to have been charged by sports organizations using Wigle park, Mayor Frank J. Mitchell said today that the city was not liable and that Toronto authorities wouldn't get a cent out of Windsor. "They inspector might just as well stay in Toronto," said his worship, "as only wasting his time coming down here."

DETROIT RIVER BRIDGE PLANS NOW APPROVED

C. N. R. Engineer Believes Bridge Only Solution of Traffic Problem.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Nov. 12.—Plans for construction of an international bridge to connect Detroit, Mich., and Windsor, Ontario, have been approved in a report submitted by Col. C. N. Monsarrat, consulting engineer for the Canadian National Railways.

Announcement of this effect was made by Joseph A. Bower, vice-president of the New York Trust Company, whose proposals concerning the bridge were supported at the recent Windsor meeting by a special committee of businessmen. He quoted Colonel Monsarrat as asserting a bridge would be the logical solution of the problem of handling traffic across the Detroit river.

The engineer's report also approved the estimate of $16,000,000 as comprising a careful, adequate and fair estimate of the cost of the bridge as described in the plan.

H. Ferguson intimated today.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY RE-ELECTS OFFICERS

Former Officers of London Methodist Organization Are Returned.

The former officers of the London district of the Women's Missionary society of the former Methodist church were unanimously re-elected at yesterday's convention, held at the Wellington street United church. They are Mrs. W. G. Young, London, superintendent; Mrs. W. R. Vance, Ilderton, assistant superintendent, and Miss Minnie Hawkins, London, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Lillian McVicar missionary on furlough from India, was the speaker at the evening session. Miss McVicar gave a very vivid description of some of the quaint cities of India. She told, too, of the mission work being done in the districts about Indor.

She spoke of the need of missionaries to India. In speaking of Indor Miss McVicar told of the educational work being done there. She mentioned the Normal school, where native girls were being taught to go out among their own people as teachers.

In closing, Miss McVicar told the Oldest Resident Of Chatham Dies

Special to The Advertiser. Chatham, Nov. 12.—Hiram Prior, colored, Chatham's oldest resident, passed away at his home, 118 Wellington street east. He was 102 years old. Surviving are two daughters and three sons.

women her reasons for longing to return to the mission field. It was not that she had a greater love for India than Canada, not that she loved the people there more than Canadians, but she had a message, she said, for the people of India. It was such a privilege, she stated, to have the opportunity to serve and to carry out the greatest commandment, "Go ye into all parts of the world and teach all nations the gospel of Christ."

A splendid little play was presented by the Wesley United church circle. It was entitled Dollars and Diana, and was very cleverly presented. During the evening solos were given by Mrs. George Young and Mrs. F. Webster, and a splendid quartet number was given by members of the choir.

Drastic Change Expected In Execution of L.O.B.A.

Edith Wynne-Pryce Is Prominently Mentioned For Presidential Chair.

MAY ALTER RULES Local Officials Will Make Move To Extend Player Limit To Twelve.

The L. O. B. A. meeting at the Y. M. C. A. here Saturday may mean several important revisions of the ladies' basketball rules, as well as a complete change in the personnel of the governing body.

These changes have been intimated on several occasions by those prominently connected with the association. Miss Edith Wynne-Pryce, a candidate for the presidential chair and is being promoted to the position of secretary, is also well known in Toronto basketball circles, and the choice would be a popular one.

Last year the substitute rules called for ten registered players, eight to be used in a game. Owing to the fact that there are a number of new players there, officials will make an effort to have the number increased to twelve, thus giving the newcomers a chance to travel with the team and being getting into it sooner than they would otherwise.

Development of players is something that is needed to keep up the pace, and the L. O. B. A. representatives would be wise if they carry out the local suggestion. However, it is understood that the plan would be fought by Toronto as the Toronto ladies' basketball team is split, there being two senior teams entered from the Queen City, namely the Canadians, members of the track squad that competed at Stamford Bridge, and the old Toronto Ladies' basketball team. Y. W. H. A., the other powerful basketball in the Queen City, will support the motion. Therefore the suggestion has a splendid chance of being carried.

The conclave is scheduled for 5 o'clock, and the local representatives will be Lottie Givens and Frances Caldwell of the Westwells Grads.

On the Side Lines With C.S.G.

THEY WERE FICKLE EVEN THEN.

The fickleness of modern followers of sports, sometimes called "fans," had a striking parallel in the fate which befell Angus, last fifth Duke of Swoggle, whose body was found transfixed with eight arrows, two carving knives and a billhook in June, 1483, a few days after the following episode occurred on the drawbridge of Castle Swoggle:

Enter the duke, flamboy and torches. The Duke—"This being my daughter's wedding day, ten thousand pounds will I give away."

The Citizen—"Yes, duke. . . . Attaboy. . . . Great stuff. . . . Three cheers for the duke and nine rabs for his daughter. . . . Long may you rave. . . . 'Ray, 'ray, 'ray. . . . 'Sall right. . . . What's all right? . . . Duke's all right. . . . Yubetcha. . . . 'Ray, 'ray, 'ray."

One lone voice—"Why didn't he make it eleven thousand?" The duke frowns, then scowls. The Duke—"On second thought, I think it best to put it back in the old cask chest."

The Citizen—"Oh, what a ham. . . . Drag him out. . . . Boo-o-o-o-h. . . . Give him the gate—hanging's too good for a guy like that. . . . Get the big rope, Gregory; the little one might break. . . . He's away over the third base line. . . . Boo-o-o-o-h. . . . Here's one egg that needs scrambling. . . . Lemme at 'im. . . . Boo-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-h."

THE JUNIORS' DEBUT

London responded in splendid fashion to the introduction of Jimmy Rodden into the arena. The crowds will grow, for last night sectional rivalry showed its head among the 500 and odd fans who stayed until the last tinkle of the bell. Considering the teams had had little practice, they displayed a surprisingly good brand of hockey, and Coach Marsden, who had scouts stationed all over the arena, had no trouble in getting a list of junior O. H. A. prospects, which will insure two teams for the workouts.

JABS AND JABBER

Major Leaguers Not Allowed To Play Exhibitions After October 31.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 12.—Major league diamond heroes who dabble in real estate in Florida, and others who have been attracted to the prospect of a winter league, are due for the disappointment of their young lives if Commissioner Landis means what he says. The commissioner, from his office yesterday, gravely let it be known that major league players are not permitted to play exhibition games after Oct. 31.

SIMCOE DESIRES NEW O. H. A. GROUP

Club Thinks Paris and Brantford Teams Are Too Strong. JUNIORS ARE INTACT Majority of Members of Last Year's Team Are Available.

Special to The Advertiser. Simcoe, Nov. 12.—Hockey prospects in Simcoe for the coming winter are to be thoroughly discussed at a general meeting of the O. H. A. tomorrow night. At the present time the outlook for an immediate O. H. A. is not promising, not only owing to the lack of material, but because Paris and Brantford, with whom the local team are always grouped, are known to be unusually strong. Paris will ice an intermediate team composed of last year's junior stars, plus Jemmett, who was with Port Dover last winter, and other newcomers. Brantford has imported such well-known stars as Emms, of Midland, Pearson and Park, of Kingswood, and Hollands, a goaltender, also from the north country, and has nearly all its regulars of last year's team.

SIX GIRLS ARE WINNERS IN BACON HOG CONTEST

Sixteen Contestants To Be Guests of Packers at Royal Fair.

Special to The Advertiser. Montreal, Nov. 12.—Six girls will be included in the 16 youthful contestants who are to meet next week at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair at Toronto in order to determine the winners of an interprovincial championship established by the Canadian National Railways in order to encourage the work of the boys and girls' swine clubs, and the raising of select bacon hogs in territory tributary to their lines. The six young misses are those who won the provincial championships of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Manitoba. In the other five provinces competing boys were winners. After the contest the boys and girls will have an opportunity to view all the features of the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, while on Friday they will be the guests of the Industrial and Development Council of Canadian Meat Packers, on a tour of the fair, and at a special educational display. The winners in the east Canada competitions were: Nova Scotia—Lottie Austen, Skye Glen and Annie Cameron, Mabou; New Brunswick—Alice Davis and Lillie Davis, Port Elgin; Prince Edward Island—Harold Smith and Edmund Robertson, Pownal; Ontario—Chester Brown and Archie Campbell, Ilderton, Quebec—Howard R. Parnell and Thomas A. Woodward, Lennoxville.

TORONTO MEDICAL MEN OPTIMISTIC ABOUT CURE

Have Confidence in Theory Since Endorsed by Dr. Adams.

Special to The Advertiser. Toronto, Nov. 12.—Toronto doctors have high hopes that a something satisfying in the way of cancer cure will come out of the experiments now being made at Liverpool University, England. The confirmation of the statements of Prof. Wm. Blair Bell, which has now come from Dr. Adams, the vice-chancellor of the Liverpool institute, has had the effect of heightening the hopes of the medical research men and the rank and file of the profession. "Dr. Adams is one of the ablest medical men that Canada has produced," said Dr. C. J. O. Hastings, medical officer of health for Toronto, in commenting today on the news from Britain. "He was for years at McGill University, and he ranks in the same class with Sir William Osler and other great men of medicine. He is, above all, a careful man and not given to making premature predictions of cures where there is no good basis for his statements."

HIS MAJESTY HAS SPLENDID BAG ON FIRST DAY OF HUNT

Associated Press Despatch. Thetford, Eng., Nov. 12.—With 4,000 pheasants and partridges falling before King George and several other titled guns, the first of his majesty's three days' hunting over the preserves of Lord Iveagh was not so bad, from the well-stocked covers the birds rose well and the king had a large proportion of the bag to his credit. It is customary to donate most such kills to hospitals and charitable institutions. WILLIS TO FIGHT AT MEMPHIS. New York, Nov. 12.—Harry Willis, negro heavyweight, and his manager, Paddy Quinn, leave for Memphis, Tenn., Saturday. Willis is to appear in an exhibition bout there and has other engagements in the south.

Grid Gossip

The local junior gridgers, who made a disastrous trip to Petrolia last Monday, where they were handed a 10 to 0 drubbing by the hard oil town C. I., seek further battles before they hang up their oars, and on invitation from Stratford, will journey to the Classic City Saturday to take on the C. N. R. Apprentices. The team travelled by auto to Petrolia, and had several breakdowns on the road, with the result that the full team was not there when the game started, and it was when only eight members were on the squad that the Hard Oils garnered their points. The team is made up mostly of central collegiate seniors, and a few bits of other grid material thrown in, including Bram Churchill and Bernie Fitzmaurice of the local intermediate. The squad is intent on making a better showing in Stratford than it did in Petrolia, and is preparing for the battle the players held a workout last night, and will stage another one tonight. The signals of the team are hastily made up affairs, but they will be a bit more complicated on Saturday, and the squad will be better drilled in the plays. The Apprentices have a smart aggregation that bids well to give the locals a tough game that should prove an attraction in the Classic City. Stratford hasn't had a great deal of rugby this season, and the fans there welcome an extension of the season. The local lineup will be practically the same as in the Petrolia game.

New Mark Made By Lady Bowler

M. Gash Gets Three-Game Total of 815 in League Game.

All city records for girls elevenpin bowling were broken at the Arcade last night, when the Bell Telephone company team played their weekly league games. The team total of 2,718 is the largest girls' total ever made in London. Their first game of 1,120 is also a record. Miss M. Gash made a record that will not be equalled likely for some time. Her three-game total of 815 is by far the largest ever bowled by a girl in the city. Her first game of 288 is the first time a girl has reached the 300 mark here, and this also wins the $25 prize donated by the Arcade for any girl bowler getting 300 or better.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE MARKS ARMISTICE DAY

Special to The Advertiser. Listowel, Nov. 12.—A simple and impressive service marked the seventh armistice day observance. The two minutes of silence followed the striking of the town clock. Mayor J. C. Hay briefly outlined the signing of the armistice. Rev. J. M. Nicol gave a short address and Rev. H. Jackson led in prayer. The students of the high and public schools, led by the town band, sang O Canada.

REDEKER FILLS VACANCY IN WINDSOR CITY COUNCIL

Canadian Press Despatch. Windsor, Nov. 12.—C. E. Redeker, prominent border real estate dealer, was sworn in as a member of Windsor city council today, by Miss Martha Dickinson, city clerk. He fills the vacancy created by the death of Thomas H. Warren. Ald. Redeker was a candidate for council honors in December, 1924, but was defeated by a narrow margin.

B. C. MEMBER ASKS BARRING OF KU KLUX

Says Hooded Organization Appeals Only To Deficient Minds.

Canadian Press Despatch. Victoria, B. C., Nov. 12.—A demand for government action to prevent the organization of a Canadian branch of the Ku Klux Klan was made in the British Columbia legislature late yesterday by Francis A. Browne, Labor, Burnaby. At the risk, he declared, of "being waited upon by hoodlums in nightgowns," Mr. Browne moved an amendment to the reply to the speech from the throne urging the provincial government "to take all necessary steps to restrain this seditious movement and bar its membership from all elected or official positions under the crown." The fate of the motion is expected to be decided by the assembly when the debate on the reply to the throne speech comes to an end. The Klan, argued Mr. Browne, appealed to the mentally deficient. He thought it well for those who would contribute the $10 membership fee to know that the field kliegals who organize the Klan receive $4 and the king kliegals $2. As high as $5,000 a year is made by these officials, said Mr. Browne.

ITALY PAYS BILLIONS IN DEBT TO AMERICA

Italian Commission Accepts Plans As Very Generous Treatment of Problem.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Funding of Italy's war debt to the United States has been accomplished. The accord was reached today on terms which the United States debt commission held to be the maximum burden that should be imposed on the Italian people. It was accepted by the Italian debt commission as "very generous" treatment of the funding problem. Italy was given 62 years, the same as the other nations which have completed similar negotiations, in which to pay off an obligation calculated at $2,442,000,000. Interest charges, beginning at the end of five years, were fixed to graduate from one eighth of one per cent to a maximum of two per cent, in the last seven years. The annual payments were also arranged to increase gradually in accordance with what the United States commission regarded as Italy's maximum capacity to pay. They start at $2,000,000 a year and advance to $80,000,000.

Lake Huron Boat Picks Up Pontoon

Salvage Believed To Be From Two Steel Scows Recently Lost.

Special to The Advertiser. Goderich, Nov. 12.—The tug Forest, en route from Parry Sound to Goderich, picked up a steel pontoon, 50 by 5 feet, floating in the lake off Southampton. This is the first salvage from the two steel scows which broke away from the Great Lakes tug Williams off Harbor Beach some ten days ago. The pontoon had been lashed to one of the scows. It is believed possible that the scow may still be afloat northwest of Point Clark. The salvaged pontoon was turned over to the customs collector at Southampton.

SIRE'S GREED HAS RUINED STRIBLING

Physical Conditioners Say That Youth Is Being "Fought Out."

By FAIR PLAY. Copyright, 1925. New York, Nov. 12.—Competent physical conditioners in the boxing game say that the way Pa Stribling is handling his son has destroyed any chance the boy might have had of becoming a full-fledged heavyweight and possibly a champion. The opinion is that he is being fought out. He has had over a hundred and fifty battles in the four years he has been fighting and earned $30,000 in so doing. Of late Pa has been picking soft ones with a master hand for his son, but even so, young Stribling's active life has kept his weight down and prevented him from being the stalwart heavy he might otherwise have been. He was a weary young man when he met Paul Rebenbach two years ago; was weary even before the fight, and he was lucky that it went over the short route. His subsequent showing against Ad. Stone confirmed the belief that he was burning out, and that his father did a wise thing in taking the youngster away from the thumping lane and putting him back to school for a six months' period. Now he is out of school and fighting like a slave. The Striblings are cruising the highroads in a caravan consisting of a big automobile fitted out with living quarters for the entire family. It is a familiar sight all over the country, and the older Stribling is taking on matches wherever a promoter can be found who is willing to match the youngster with a local pride. Strib has been knocking all such bow-legged out west. His knockout string is growing by leaps and bounds. Eddie Huffman, the young navy light-heavy, who met Stribling recently out west, says that he wishes the fight had been set for more than ten rounds, as the youngster was tiring rapidly in the latter frames of their bout. If Huffman is not talking through his hat it looks as though the time will soon come when Strib must be turned out to pasture. While they were living apart, last year, Mr. Bickle stated that he had visited the apartment where his wife was living with the girl Fern, and in searching for a check, which belonged to him, he had found "three Toronto Man Petitions For Breaking of Agreement Made With Wife.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Nov. 12.—Wilfrid N. Bickle, before Mr. Justice Logie in the non-jury assizes court today, asked that he, and not his wife, be granted the custody of his 3-year-old daughter, Fern. Under an agreement his wife had assumed custody of the baby girl a few days ago. Mr. Bickle stated that he and his wife had first separated after the latter had visited her mother and sister in New York. On her return "her attitude had changed," he declared. They had lived together for three years after the marriage in 1920, Mr. Bickle said, when the separation after Mrs. Bickle's visit to New York in 1922. While they were living apart, last year, Mr. Bickle stated that he had visited the apartment where his wife was living with the girl Fern, and in searching for a check, which belonged to him, he had found "three

GOVT. IS UPHELD IN G. T. P. CLAIMS

A. C. Clauson, K.C., Eminent English Counsel, Gives Opinion on Tangle. Associated Press Despatch.

London, Nov. 12.—The Canadian government's course with reference to the Grand Trunk Pacific 4 per cent debenture holders' claims for interest guaranteed by the Grand Trunk Railway Company of Canada, has been justified, according to a legal opinion just given by the eminent English counsel, A. C. Clauson, K.C.

The Grand Trunk Pacific debenture holders' committee now in place of the one that was dissolved in 1914, is not convinced of the legality of the Canadian authorities' position on the question of the payment of interest on the Grand Trunk Pacific debentures, was brought to a head by Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, writing to the Grand Trunk Pacific debenture holders' committee suggesting that the committee should obtain legal opinion on the question at issue, and if not then convinced of the legality of the Canadian authorities' position the committee should discuss the whole matter in Canada with the railway authorities, and if still unconvinced, bring an action at law.

The debentures in question, it is held by the Dominion government, were conditionally guaranteed by the Grand Trunk Railway Company, and never at any time guaranteed by the government.

The matter of the long-standing controversy between the Grand Trunk Pacific debenture holders and the Canadian National Railways, through the question of the payment of interest on the Grand Trunk Pacific debentures, was brought to a head by Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, writing to the Grand Trunk Pacific debenture holders' committee suggesting that the committee should obtain legal opinion on the question at issue, and if not then convinced of the legality of the Canadian authorities' position the committee should discuss the whole matter in Canada with the railway authorities, and if still unconvinced, bring an action at law.

The matter of the long-standing controversy between the Grand Trunk Pacific debenture holders and the Canadian National Railways, through the question of the payment of interest on the Grand Trunk Pacific debentures, was brought to a head by Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, writing to the Grand Trunk Pacific debenture holders' committee suggesting that the committee should obtain legal opinion on the question at issue, and if not then convinced of the legality of the Canadian authorities' position the committee should discuss the whole matter in Canada with the railway authorities, and if still unconvinced, bring an action at law.

The debentures in question, it is held by the Dominion government, were conditionally guaranteed by the Grand Trunk Railway Company, and never at any time guaranteed by the government.

O. A. C. TEAM WINS JUDGING CONTEST

Ontario Students Outclass
Westerners at Royal
Winter Fair.

MANITOBA IS SECOND

Canadian Press Despatch
Toronto, Nov. 12.—Preliminary to the opening of the Royal Winter Fair to the general public tomorrow morning, activities in the livestock judging arena started today with livestock-judging competitions open to college and country teams. The inter-college competition for the Farmers' Dairy Company, Limited, trophy contained added interest because of the fact that the team from a western agricultural college making the highest standing was eligible for temporary ownership of the W. C. MacDonald trophy.

This contest drew three entries, representing Ontario, Manitoba and Alberta, and was won by the Ontario Agricultural College team, consisting of J. A. Simpson, H. A. Knox, G. Y. Cruickshank, J. W. G. Dineen and A. McGuigan, with the Manitoba Agricultural College team, M. J. McPhail, J. W. Walster, W. H. McEwen, Roy West and R. M. Scott second. The Manitoba team's win was in a repetition of their 1924 success in this event. The MacDonald trophy becomes the property of the team winning it three times.

In the inter-county competition for the Jeffrey Bull memorial trophy, the team representing Oxford county proved the winner with 2,311 points out of a possible 3,000. Teams from 29 counties competed, and the team from Peel finished in second place with 2,257 points, while York county, fourth in order, produced the highest scoring individual of the two competitions in the person of Russell Boynton, Gormley, whose score in judging all classes of stock totalled $57 out of a possible $100. The members of the Oxford county team were Harold Pearce, Otterville, Ewart Jones, Mount Elgin, and Oliver McGee, Thamesford, and the Peel county team consists of Willie McKeown, Mono Road, Alex McKinney, Brampton, and Roy Laughlin, Alton.

Gold medals awarded by the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair to contestants having highest marks in each class of stock were as follows: Heavy horses, Fred McKay, Stratford, Perth county; beef cattle, Alex McKinney, Brampton, Peel county; dairy cattle, L. B. Merritt, Hillsville, Lennox and Addington; sheep, Ed Mitchell, Denfield, Middlesex; swine, Jack Frisby, Gormley, York.

BOTH PREMIER AND MEIGHEN PLAN REST BEFORE SESSION

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—Both Premier King and Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, are planning a brief rest before the strenuous work of the coming session. Mr. Meighen leaves for Toronto tonight, but will return before his holiday. Premier King will likely leave town tonight. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, left a few days ago for Atlantic City.
