NO INQUEST ON SOLDIER'S DEATH

The funeral of Clarence Wright whose remains were found on the Tomogons on Saturday last, took place Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. The cortege was headed by the Newcastle band and a firing squad of his former comrades overseas, fired a farewell salute over his grave as the Last Post was sounded. Rev. Father Bricard conducted the funeral services at St. Mary's church and interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

A sad feature of the case is the serious illness of Wright's mother, Mrs. Annie Wright, who is yet unaware of the finding of her son's remains. Coroner Desmond viewed the remains, which were positively identified as those of Wright and decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Wright disappeared three years ago and it is supposed he perished in the wilderness during a snow storm.

Here and There

An appreciation of its wonderful exhibit at the Toronto Exhibition this year, the Canadian Pacific Railway has been awarded a special medal.

The Prince of Wales' Ranch at High River, Alberta, contributed the highest priced bull at a recent fall sale in Calgary, Princeton Crusader, which fetched $235.

Canadian wheat exports for the twelve months ending September 30th, 1923, amounted to 225,747,861 bushels, valued at $259,445,816, while for the twelve months ending September, 1922, they were 160,637,838 bushels, valued at $194,577,125, according to a report by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Exports of bacon from Canada to Great Britain increased almost 3,000,000 pounds during the first nine months of the current calendar year. For this period, during 1922, there were 70,988,000 pounds of Canadian bacon shipped to the British market, while this year the corresponding figure rose to 73,884,000 pounds.

The value of the asbestos exports of Canada for the 12 months ended August, 1923, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, exceeded the value of those of the previous year by nearly $3,000,000. These exports for the last year amounted to 202,646 tons, valued at $8,375,249, compared with 122,785 tons, valued at $5,604,551 in 1922.

The first consignment of 1,000 pounds of British Columbia Douglas fir seeds has been shipped to the British Forestry Commission, London, by the Dominion Forestry Branch, from its plant at New Westminster, British Columbia. The seeds were extracted from the cones recently gathered in the Fraser Valley districts.

The year 1923 will see a new record in Alberta coal production. It is expected that the total production for the year will reach 7,000,000 tons, in comparison with less than 6,000,000 last year. The production up to November 1st is 1,500,000 tons greater than the production for the same period last year. The record production previously was in 1920, when 6,400,000 tons were produced. The pay-roll this year is expected to exceed $18,000,000.

Great interest is being manifested in the International Dog Derby to be run at Quebec during the Winter Carnival on February 21st, 22nd and 23rd, 1924. The race is for teams of huskies driven by Indians, trappers, traders, mail carriers and others. At present ten entries have been received and others are expected from the north shore of the St. Lawrence and from the Abitibi mining district. As navigation will soon close, it will be necessary for entries from the latter district to mush 400 miles to reach Quebec. About five American teams will probably take part, their object being to regain the gold cup for the United States.

What might have resulted in a very serious train wreck was avoided in the nick of time on the Canadian Pacific Railway Parry Sound subdivision, by section foreman Conzani, who while patrolling the track near Brignall recently discovered two large iron nuts on top of the rails, securely fastened with hay wire. The foreman had just time to unfasten the wire and remove the nuts to clear the track for a train was due in five minutes. Two boys in the vicinity admitted, after questioning, that they wired the nuts to the local shelter for one month and their fathers were required to give bond and report to the authorities for two years.

Evidence given by farmers before the U.S. Tariff Commission showed that under American railway rates a bushel of wheat could be hauled only 35 miles for one cent, while under Canadian rates the same amount of money would move the same amount of grain 66 miles. American farmers claim that this is a saving in favor of the Canadian producer of 44 per cent, or about 8 cents a bushel. The reason given for the difference is that in the United States grain rates are based on cost of moving it to-day, while in Canada they are based on 1897 costs, when the Crow's Nest Pass agreement was made between the Government and the Canadian Pacific.

DRASTIC CHANGES IN N. B. GAME LAWS

Fredericton, N.B., Dec. 17.—Reports are being persistently circulated to the effect that further substantial changes are to be made in New Brunswick game laws following the curtailment of the hunting season for moose which went into effect this year.

It is contended in some quarters that there has been a considerable lessening of the number of big game animals in the province especially moose, and that some drastic action must be taken to protect them. On the other hand, it is said that there has been plenty of evidence that caribou are returning in considerable numbers after a period during which it has been illegal to shoot them.

Saturday was the last day for persons who took out hunting licenses during the past season to make a return to the vendor by whom the license was issued showing what game, if any, they killed. The regulation requiring the return went into effect only this year, and there is considerable speculation as to what extent it has been observed. The reason for the new regulation is said to be an effort upon behalf of the Department of Lands and Mines to make statistics as to the number of big game animals killed annually in the province something more than mere guesswork.

In the past the returns of the number of big game animals killed were based upon estimates made by the vendors and game wardens, and naturally have not been marked with any great degree of accuracy.

TIMBERLAND TAXATION

In an open letter written to the Provincial Land Assessor of the Nova Scotia Government, Mr. Barnjum discusses wood lot and timberland taxation as follows: "Mr. R. W. McKenzie, Provincial Land Assessor, Nova Scotia Government, Halifax, N.S.

Dear Sir,— Your letter of the 29th ulto is just received on my return from Halifax, from the text of which I assume an increase in taxation is contemplated, as increasing taxation seems to be the principal pastime of the Liberal governments both at Ottawa and Halifax.

I feel that it would simply be a waste of time for me to send any representative to discuss this matter with you, as suggested in your letter. The government, so far as I am concerned, may go ahead and make its own valuation, which it has no doubt already decided upon, and I will then determine on the proper course for me to pursue.

All enlightened governments are considering decreasing rather than increasing taxes. Taxing woodlands annually at their value is analogous to taxing a farm crop seventy five times in a single year, as it takes practically that length of time for a crop of trees to mature. The now generally accepted scientific method of taxing timber and woodlots is to make a nominal yearly tax on an assessed value of $1.00 per acre and then tax the timber when it is cut. Otherwise the landowner is forced to strip his lands as rapidly as possible in order to avoid burdensome taxation. If the government is anxious to see the province stripped of its few remaining trees as rapidly as possible then, of course it is pursuing the proper method, and as the Government of Nova Scotia when it does anything, always seems to do the wrong thing this is undoubtedly what it intends doing.

I am merely speaking for the people as, personally, I am devoting my means to the country and it makes little difference to me whether they take it away from me in taxes or whether it is devoted to my conservation work, other than I feel that I can expend the money more wisely than the Government, judging from past history.

Very truly yours, (Sgd.) FRANK J. D. BARNJUM Annapolis Royal, N. S., December 11th., 1923.

Indians Celebrate Opening Banff-Windermere Road

1. Indians, gaily caparisoned, await the judges' pleasure. 2. Lieutenant Governor Nichol smokes the pipe of peace—to the delight of the oldest members of the tribe (3). 4. Car-No-Sic-Kimeet and the Indian chief.

The Indian, though reticent and uncommunicative, is ever ready to show his appreciation of the fact that the pale face is a friend, a brother to him. More often than not, he takes advantage of his fetid days to show this appreciation and good-will in simple ceremonies which honor the white man by bestowing upon him the name of one of their own, and a seat in their family and council circles. The opening of the Banff-Windermere Motor Highway on June 30th occasioned the gathering of a large number of Kootenay Indians from various reserves, at Invermere, B.C. Here they entertained and were entertained by a host of visitors to the district who, having attended the opening ceremonies were easily induced by the stories of the country to stay for a few days. On this occasion the Kootenays honored Lieutenant Governor W. G. Nichol of B.C., who had officiated, with the opening of the Banff-Windermere Road, at the opening, by making him an honorary chief of their tribe. Robert Randolph Bruce, a leader in Windermere and Kootenay development was also asked to enter the circle, and after the smoking of the ceremonial pipe and listening to the liturgy in the Kootenay language, was dressed in all the panoply of power, head-dress and beaded clothes, and accepted into the tribe as full chieftain, being given the name of Car-No-Sic-Kimeet, which signifies "Red Sky", after a famous council chief of the tribe who has long since passed away. Mr. Bruce expressed his pleasure in a largesse of tobacco and a gift of a one-hundred dollar bank note for the celebration. This being over the sports were resumed and prizes were awarded to the best-costumed Indian on foot, the best costumed squaw, the best caparisoned Indian on horseback, and to others for neatness of tapers and the best travois and papoose in baby trap, and for their demonstrated skill in athletic sports.

BALDWIN ALONE TO BLAME FOR

London, Dec. 8.—According to Lords Rothermere and Beaverbrook Mr. Baldwin has himself to blame for the result of the election. Commenting on the returns of the two leading journals of these publishers which it is claimed in some quarters has been so much to aid the Conservative disaster openly condemn the Premier. Says the Express, "All the forces which through rush of many years were accumulated by Bonar Law have been dissipated by his successor in six months. This overthrow is due to the stupidity and miscalculations of Mr. Baldwin and the little ring that surrounds and advises him." Says the Mail, "The entire responsibility for the disaster rests with Mr. Baldwin, beyond question the fatal policy of hostility to France with which he allowed Lord Curzon to identify the Government was one of the principal causes of disaster."

WHAT THE SEA BOTTOM IS LIKE

When the ordinary person thinks of the bottom of the sea, said Dr. C.H. Townsend, director of the New York Aquarium, to a writer in the American Magazine, he imagines it covered with the wonderful plant life he has seen, either in reality or in pictures covering the bed of the ocean near Jamaica or Bermuda or the southern California coast. But such wonderful sea floral life is to be found only where the water is relatively shallow. It cannot exist without light.

More than half of the hundred and forty million square miles of water on the globe is more than two thousand fathoms deep, or rather more than two miles. At that depth there is utter darkness; the visible rays of the sun do not penetrate deeper than a few hundred fathoms at the most. Consequently the greatest part of the bed of the ocean does not have any plant life whatever except microscopic diatoms.

But even at the greatest there is animal life, and in some places it is abundant. The abundance of life at the bottom of the sea is often in proportion to the abundance of life at the surface. In those parts of the ocean where there is almost no life in the upper waters, there is little or none at the bottom. On the other hand, we once drew up sponges, which are a form of animal life, from a depth of 44,173 fathoms, or some four and three-quarter miles. That haul was made near the Tongo Islands in the South Pacific, where surface life was fairly abundant. The explanation is that deep sea creatures depend on the creatures at the surface for food. It is true that some deep-sea animals prey on others. But the others in turn must be fed. Virtually everything goes to the bottom; there is a constant "rain" of dead organisms from the upper strata of the sea to its bed. Those organisms form the primary food supply for the animal life below.

Immense areas of the bed of the ocean are covered with deposits formed by the remains of organisms that predominate. There are diatom ooze, pteropod ooze, globigerina ooze and so on.

Other immense areas of the ocean have beds of red clay. There is no ooze covering it, because in those parts there is virtually no life at the surface. The red-clay areas are far from any shore and so receive none of the sediment washed away from the land. They might well be called the deserts of the sea, for they have no plant life and almost no animal life.

That red clay is perhaps the oldest deposit at the bottom of the ocean. It must have formed very slowly and partly from volcanic matter such as pumice and volcanic glass; the fragments were slowly worn to pieces, and the various substances finally decomposed and formed clays. The red color is owing to oxides of iron and of manganese in the volcanic rocks.

Take It From Me

Never mind the business outlook. Be on the look-out for business.

The fellow with steady habits and a steady tongue always has a steady job.

The boss is always glad to see the fellow back from his vacation, who is glad to get back.

Another good thing about telling the truth is, you don't have to remember what you say.

There are a lot of fellows waiting to take the man's job who says "it can't be done" or "they can't be sold."

More applications—for positions these days carry the line, "I own my own car," than "I own my own home."

The bill collector who rings the bell while standing on a door mat bearing the word, "welcome" feels he is above lying.

If you have anything to say, say it, and with as few words as possible. That is what Abraham Lincoln did, and the world still remembers and repeats what he said.

Auto speedsters, like the hurry-up salesman, often land in the ditch. This would be just retribution were it not for the fact that they often injure others by their foolish haste.

A southern ducky when asked "so few colored people ever committed suicide answered, "As I sits it, Boss, it's worry wot makes people kill 'emselfs, an' when a nigrah's worried en' sits down ter think, why he jist nacherly goes ter sleep."—Moral—Don't worry.

The young fellow who has a coffee and doughnut breakfast down in town, an armchair lunch, and eats a delicatessen dinner out of paper bags when he gets home in the evening, nine times out of ten has married some fool girl because she was a good dancer.

THIS M. P. WILL BE ALL DRESSED UP

When She Enters the House of Commons.

London, Dec. 10—Lady Terrington, Liberal member in Wycombe, Buckingham, has found time to tell the public how she intends to dress when she goes to Parliament.

"I intend to wear my best clothes," she asserts. "I will put on my fur coat and my pearls. I don't believe in a woman parliamentarian wearing a dull little frock with a Quakerish collar. That sort of thing is all humbug. Everybody knows I live in a large house and keep servants and motor cars. It is sheer hypocrisy to pretend you have no nice things when you display them openly in your own home and when you make social appearances."

This was apparently a jibe at Lady Astor, who, it is recalled, set the fashion for a demure and unobtrusive style of dress in the Commons.

A JOYOUS HAPPY
CHRISTMAS TO ALL

It is not by any means certain that December the 25th is the exact day on which Christ was born. Some give good reasons for holding that this important event took place about the middle of October. However, to do away with controversy, and mark the fact of the birth, regardless of the exact time, and some differences of opinion, the Christians of the wide world, have given over the celebration of the birth, to a fixed day in this month called everywhere Christmas Day, now fast approaching. On that day we celebrate the greatest gift our world has ever received; the coming of our Blessed Redeemer, the Holy Child, Jesus.

It should be a day of worshipful remembrance and hallowed joy, and a day on which to try to turn from unhappiness and sorrow, to the brighter hopes and joys of life. Our deepest sorrows are but a trifle, in comparison with the life the "Man of Sorrows" acquainted with all our grief and woe, and our highest joys can reach no higher, than those He is ever ready to give us. If we refuse, the blessing is left untouched, while others may grasp it.

It is a season, in which those we love the nearest and the dearest, may gather with us around the festive, board and fill the home with accents of love. True, there may be vacant chairs—and there will be in many a home—in which at other times, loved ones sat, but we have not lost them forever, wherever the poor body may be laid whether away "on Flanders fields" or some quiet spot, in the home churchyard. We see them day after day in fond remembrance and love of them never dies; yes, even to such memories, Christmas can bring a beam of joy, for He whose birth we celebrate, can gather us all together again to part no more. His life dawned amid the glorious notes of an angelic choir, singing, "Glory to God in the Highest, peace on earth, good will to men," and the churches of our land, will seek to join their voices, in the Te Deum and anthem, as they worship, and listen to the sacred story of the first Christmas. The day cannot die, where Christians dwell, for without the Gift which Heaven gave to earth when "The Babe of Bethlehem" was born, without the life which He lived, and the death which He died, how could we have our faith, our hope, and the eternal glory which He has won for us?

There are those without serious thought or heart, devote the day to sport and revelry, and hail Christmas as a time for giving place to unmanly appetites. They should stop and think, and if there is any true manliness in them, hail the day as the greatest Christian Festival of all the year, and cease to observe it, as a day for mere sport, and worse. He is a poor specimen of manhood, who thinks Christmas only fit, for what he calls "a good time" Even the Devil and his hosts, do better than that for "they believe and tremble"

And what of ourselves, the Advocate and its thousands of readers? Cannot we each and all wish one another, a joyous, hallow'd, Merry Christmas? We extend to our many friends, subscribers and readers the heartfelt hope and wish, that happiness may fill every hour of their home life, on next Tuesday, the Christmas day or 1923, and the year round with many a blessing in store. Let love reign. Let us try to avoid the downward path of sorrow, and turn our path upward, toward the sunbeams of Heaven's care and love. Forget and forgive all wrongs. Let us try how happy we can be, in trying to make others happy. We will be a step nearer heaven if we can wipe away some tear of sorrow, ease the anguish of some crushed heart, feed the hungry, and bring a smile to some careworn face. It will be, a little bit of heaven dropped on earth, if we can thus devote ourselves. The home will be happy, the merry prattle of children can be around us, as the day of gifts shows many a Christmas tree. It is all well if love reigns, for love sanctifies it all. If we will, our joy can grow greater and greater, higher and higher, until forgetting all differences, our hearts feel as if we could take the world in our embrace, and with it, fly away and upward to the Eternal Courts, where dwells our only Redeemer, and Mediator, the Saviour, who long ago, became the Babe of Bethlehem born in a manger, bringing to our world the heaven-touched smile of Salvation, and its first Christmas Day.

Again we hear the "Gloria in Excelsis" as the Herald Angels sing. Again we hear the Christmas carols and the church bells ring. Heaven celebrates the immortal day, and listens to earth's response. We all join, mortals and immortals, in crying out "Hail to the new born King." The joy of the Angelic host, descends to earth, to mingle with the joys of humanity, and all creation echoes its tones of unfathomable love until the remotest bounds hears the mighty chorus and we greet the morning of the day, we call Christmas, with glad hearts wishing each other a "Merry Christmas and many of them."

ALBERT CO. MAN
TO BE ORDAINED
Invitations have been received by friends in Newcastle to the ordination of the Rev. Francis Walter Daly to the holy priesthood at the Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax on Saturday, December 22 and to his first high Mass to be celebrated at midnight Christmas service at the Church of the Precious Blood at Goshen; Albert county. Mr. Daley was for some time vice principal of Harkins Academy here, as well as at Woodstock. He is a native of Elgin, Albert County.

There are those without serious thought or heart, devote the day to sport and revelry, and hail Christmas as a time for giving place to unmanly appetites. They should stop and think, and if there is any true manliness in them, hail the day as the greatest Christian Festival of all the year, and cease to observe it, as a day for mere sport, and worse. He is a poor specimen of manhood, who thinks Christmas only fit, for what he calls "a good time" Even the Devil and his hosts, do better than that for "they believe and tremble"

Freeman, and their two sons both died in 1899. Rev. Wm. Anderson received his early education in Cumberland Academy. He taught school in several places in both Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. He then entered Mount Allison University. He entered the ministry of the Baptist Church in 1874 and was ordained at Chipman, N.B., in 1879, where he was pastor for four years. Northumberland Women in Fight

Two female residents of the Grand Downs were the principals in a police court case in Chatham on Thursday. The case was an aftermath of a neighborly squabble when the two women engaged in a fistie encounter. The plaintiff was represented by John P. Barry and the defendant by W. Harold Davidson. Magistrate Gaynor found a verdict of guilty against the defendant and a fine of $10 or two months in jail was imposed. She was also bound over to keep the peace. Both women were warned to keep out of the court in future.

EDITORS MAIL

We are not responsible for opinions expressed by writers under this heading. Correspondents would oblige by writing legibly, and on one side of the paper only, name and address (not necessarily for publication) must always be sent. Correspondence should be as concise as possible.

To the Editor of the Commercial:

Dear Sir:— One hesitates to discuss denominational differences in the public press, but in view of the large interest taken by the general public in the question of Church Union, and in view of the many unfair and misleading statements heard at the Anti-Union meeting in the Presbyterian Church at Chatham on Friday evening, I would like the privilege of setting before the people a few items of documentary evidence I do this for the sake of the people who may wish to know what the official records say.

First, then, with regard to the question of "coercion." Rev. Dr. Duncan sought to create the impression that the Action of the General Assembly has been overbearing, tyrannical and unjust. Let us read the exact instructions of the General Assembly, meeting at Port Arthur, Ont., in June last, to its official committee on Church Union which is as follows:—

"The Committee is hereby empowered for, and on behalf of, the General Assembly, in its conferences with the like committees of the other negotiating Churches and by such conferences with representatives of the minority to use its best efforts, by amendment of the proposed legislation or otherwise (consistently with the principle and general form of the legislation as approved by the Assembly) to maintain the unity of the Church, or if that be impossible, then to reach a satisfactory agreement with the minority in reference to the name and status of the non-concurring congregations and division of the denominational property and rights of the Presbyterian Church in Canada without recourse as far as possible to the Commission referred to in the said legislation."

In following these instructions the Assembly's Committee on Union, acting for, and on behalf of the Joint Union Committee of the negotiating churches, issued the following statement:—

"The committee resolved to draw the attention of any minority in the Presbyterian Church to the readiness of the Assembly's Committee on Union to Receive and Consider all Suggestions and Recommendations in terms of the above or to Confer Formally or Informally with any minority in terms of the above up to December 1st, 1923."

This offer to negotiate, has been before the anti-unionists since last June. Does this sound like "coercion?" The fact of the matter is Mr. Editor, that the inside history of the Union negotiations for the past twenty years shows that the majority has been exceedingly patient and charitable with the minority ever since there was a minority. On each and every occasion those in favor of this great forward step have used their utmost efforts towards conciliation and peace. The great movement has been delayed on two or three occasions in the interest of conciliation. This policy of Christian forbearance and patience is still being practised, and is evidenced by the fact that men like Rev. Mr. Mackintosh and Rev. Dr. Duncan are given the privilege of church buildings though they carry on a campaign in direct opposition to the decision of the church constitutionally expressed. Several persons in the audience on Friday evening last had a burning desire to answer the baseless contentions of the speakers but patiently desisted. The intelligent people of Chatham themselves are quite capable of judging between the spirit of these speakers and that which dominates leaders of the Unionist movement.

Again, because Unionists are seeking an Act of Parliament to incorporate their Church, Dr. Duncan charges that the United Church would be a "Parliamentary Church" and "in bondage to the State." Let the incorporating Bill speak for itself on this point.

SPIRITUAL INDEPENDENCE
"Section 26—Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained it is hereby declared:

"(a) That the said Union of the negotiating Churches has been formed by the free and independent action of the said Churches through their governing bodies and in accordance with their respective constitutions, and that this Act has been passed at the request of the said Churches in order to incorporate the United Church and to make necessary provision with respect to the property of the negotiating churches and the other matters dealt with by this Act.

"(b) That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to limit the independent and exclusive right and power of the United Church to legislate in all matters concerning its doctrine, worship, discipline and government, including therein the right and power from time to time to frame, adopt, alter, change, add to or modify its laws, subordinate standards and formulas and to determine and declare the same or any of them, but subject to the conditions and safeguards in that behalf contained in the basis of Union."

In conclusion allow me to say that I have every respect for those who cannot CONSCIENTIOUSLY see their way clear to favor Union, but it gives me a feeling of sadness and disgust to see the discussion of a great religious issue cheapened and degraded by personal aspersions and baseless innuendo. Let us "speak the truth in love."
Yours very truly,
W. McN. MATTHEWS

Here and There

In order to handle the grain this fall the Fort William, Ont. force of 360 elevator men will be increased to 700. From 120 to 150 grain trimmers will be employed.

For the five months to August, 1923, Canadian newspaper exports were valued at $35,303,043 against $27,267,332 for the same period in 1922. Pulp exports in the same period were valued at $20,008,461 against $16,076,533.

Grain loading on Canadian Pacific lines during the month of September totalled 26,976 cars or 38,245,200 bushels. This at the beginning of the loading season which was two weeks late this year on account of the retarded harvest.

This has been the greatest season for automobile tourists Montreal has ever experienced, according to the Secretary of the Automobile Club of Canada. Cars, he stated, had come into the city over the King Edward Highway at the rate of two hundred a day, an unusual number from California, Florida, Carolina and Virginia being noticeable.

There was nearly $100,000,000 increase in the total trade of Canada for the first five months of the current fiscal year, according to a return made by the Department of Customs and Excise. The total trade of the Dominion, according to the return, for the five months ending with August, was $785,000,000, as against $628,000,000 during the same period a year ago. Imports during the period were about $233,000,000, as against $303,000,000 a year ago, while exports of Canadian produce rose from $316,000,000 approximately to $336,000,000.

There is a heavy demand for bushmen, according to the Government Labor Bureau at Montreal. The big lumber companies have been engaging men for the bush, and the prospects are that the demand will be sufficient to make fall and winter conditions good. Wages paid this year by the lumber companies are higher than last year, the rates paid being $40 and $45 a month, whereas a year ago the schedule was down to $26 a month.

With the completion of the harbor works now in progress, Montreal will be in a much better position in 1924 to handle a record flow of grain than ever before. Windmill Point elevator will be increased by 1,250,000 bushels storage capacity, making its total capacity 3,250,000. Four additional shipping berths are being provided at this elevator and will be in commission early next month, and the elevator's loading capacity will be increased from 10,000 to 90,000 bushels an hour.

Reports to the Canadian Pacific Railway, show that there arrived at Winnipeg from the British Isles this year for the purpose of working on the harvest, 11,883 men. Special efforts are being made to find occupation for as many as possible to cover the winter period, and it is stated that it is now probable that a considerable number of these harvesters from Great Britain and the Irish Free State will remain in the Dominion.

Addressing a recent meeting of the Vancouver Board of Trade, President E. W. Beatty, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announced that the company proposed immediately to add two large modern steamers to its coast fleet in order to take care of increasing tourist traffic over the company's coastal lines. He also announced the early completion of a new pier at this harbor at a cost of several millions, which has been made necessary by the steady development of Canada's trans-Pacific trade.

LIQUID LIGHT IS THE LATEST

Modern methods of lighting by gas and electricity may become as extinct as the dodo; if a new invention does what is claimed for it, it is a light which never goes out. There is nothing to pay except the original cost of buying, say, a half pint of Liquid Light.

The Liquid Light is poured into a bulb, and the resultant light is said to be superior to electric or any other known light, except Nature's own brand of daylight. This light, being in fact, radio-active, will remain good for seven years or more, when the bulb may require to be replenished.

It is claimed also that this liquid will eventually make coal and oil power a thing of the past. If that is the case, the real abolition of smoke seems to be in sight, for although electric power is smokeless, there will be smoke as long as fuel is used for its generation.

CAN CANADA GET THEM BACK?

(Bangor Commercial)
Canada is starting a campaign of repatriation, designed to bring home those Canadians who are located in other lands. It is one thing to start the movement, quite another to conduct it to success, but there is certain to be some measure of success. Canada must do more than in- back its people who have sought other lands, more than to sound the tocsin of patriotism and loyalty to home. The reason Canadians have crossed the border or gone elsewhere is because they have found higher wages, more work or better living conditions. If the Canadian campaign is to succeed it must supply similar facilities at home and this will be a very difficult performance. Our own State, which has a large Canadian population, especially in the mill towns and adjacent to the border, has a vital interest in this Canadian movement.

HON. ROBT. ROGERS
BURY THE AXE

Saskatoon, Dec. 11—Whatever differences have separated Hon.
Robt. Rogers from the official Conservative organization in Canada;
and which go back to the formation of a Union government have been settled and forgotten, so Mr. Rogers told the Conservative Provincial Convention here today.

"I can stand here today," Mr Rogers said, "to compromise all my differences. I thought, and I still think, that my position in regard to union government was correct, but we cannot live in the past. I have no further personal political ambitions, but I do now place at the disposal of the Conservative party for the remainder of my life whatever I possess of energy and ability."

Mr. Roger's statement was heartily cheered.
More than 200 delegates were present when the first Conservative convention to be held in Saskatchewan since 1912 was called to order by James F. Bryant of Regina, Pres. of the Provincial Association.

Hon. Dr. S.F. Tolmie, in a brief address urged the importance of a thorough organization which would reach every voter. Dr.
Tolmie said he felt there was in existence in Canada a Conservative wave, which was gaining strength from day to day in every province. He predicted distinct advances for the Conservative cause east and west and said that though organization and good leadership much could be done to introduce Saskatchewan to its first Conservative government.

Mr. Rogers also sought to impress the necessity of organization
"The most unscrupulous Liberals to be found in Canada" were in Saskatchewan, declared the former Minister, and he added, "that was saying a good deal."

Martin's Bluff, Northumberland Co..
This mountain is situated near Holmes Lake on the headwaters of Little Southwest Miramichi River, which is about thirty miles due north of Boiestown. This tower will be erected this winter, and tenders will shortly be called for construction.

G.D. PRATT INTERESTED
This erection of this tower is made possible through the personal interest in fire prevention of George D. Pratt, of Brooklyn, N.Y.

Through his interest in New Brunswick, Mr. Pratt has very generously contributed one-half of the cost of the proposed Martin's Bluff Lookout; and also offered free use of the thirty-eight miles of woods telephone line, which extends from his extensive set of sporting camps at Holmes Lake to a five-mile forest service telephone line recently built, which in turn gives communication with Newcastle for the New Brunswick Companies' system. A small log cabin will be built on Martin's Bluff, for the use of watchmen, and about three miles of telephone line, which will give direct communication to the New Brunswick Telephone Company's system at Newcastle. This tower will overlook one thousand square miles of forest and will form a very valuable addition to the ten towers already erected in New Brunswick,
three of which are of steel. Mr.
Pratt, maintains a portable fire pump with the necessary hose, at his camps at Holmes Lake, which pump is available for forest fires in the vicinity.

Great Vault Doors
Refused to Open

Ottawa, Dec. 7—For over a hundred hours the most expert safebreakers in Canada have been at work trying to get into the great steel vault in the Lagevin Block, in Ottawa, which contains the surplus postage stamps of this country, money and many other things of great value.
On Monday, December 3, in the afternoon, the officers of the Post Office Department found that the great doors of the vault—certainly the strongest in Canada, and stated to be the strongest of its kind on this continent—refused to open.

Yesterday afternoon, after continuous drilling for some days, and after the most expert calculation,
a small hole was drilled through six heavy steel plates, five of which were chrome steel, and the sixth Bessemer steel. This allowed a smallar to be shoved through the hole in question and against one of the ten big two-inch in diameter steel bars
which keep the door of the safe locked. The steel bars were shoved back and the safe door swung open, and for the first time in a week officials were able to get at the reserve stock of stamps, money orders, money, etc., the property of the country.

An expert examination was then made of the vault, which was built twenty-five years ago, when Sir William Mulock was Postmaster-General of Canada. It was found that the three combinations of the safe were all in good working order, as good, in fact, as the day the safe was built. It was also found that the time lock device was also in good order.

The failure of the safe to open was caused by the breaking of a spindle
inside the door.

N.B. To Get Chief Fishing Inspector

Moncton, Dec. 12—That he was going to have a chief fishery inspector appointed for New Brunswick and that the chief inspector for the Maritime Provinces would no longer be in Halifax, was the declaration made by Hon. Ernest LaPointe, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, in his speech to night at Buctouche, Kent County,
in support of Alfred E. Bourgeois, the Liberal candidate in the by-election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Auguste Legere.

It is thought, the anticipated lumber cut of the province for this year will be reduced 10% because of the difficulties experienced in the operations, through lack of cold weather and snow. A number of the smaller operators have ceased work, pending the arrival of colder weather and better working conditions, but the larger operators are continuing as best they can.

XMAS SHOPPING

Early Christmas shopping is a programme logical and kindly upon which we can all unite. It is for the server and the served. It puts Christmas spirit on both sides of the counter. There is all the difference between good and evil in honest Christmas spirit; and in "Christmas morning spirit." We cannot come clean and happy handed to the little stockings of Christmas Eve or to the shining tree of Christmas morning if we come from the mad rush of the day before. Remember the worthy and the weary. Do your Christmas shopping to-day.

A Safe Investment

It is a peculiarity about readers of that wonderful farm and family journal, The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, that they do not look upon the $2.00 subscription as an expense, but as a safe investment which yields them huge dividends each year. They will tell you, and we do not doubt it, that each issue contains money-making and money-saving ideas which would pay the subscription price over and over. Considering the value and the remarkable qualities of that great national journal, it should be a difficult matter to find a single home where it is not known and read regularly.

And now heaped upon the phenomenal value already contained in the journal itself, the publishers of the Family Herald and Weekly Star are giving free to each new subscriber who remits in time, and to present subscribers who renew their subscription for another year, a most beautiful picture entitled, "The Wonderful Heroine." The reproduction of the original master piece has been done to perfection. In size the picture is 18 x 2 1/2 inches, on rich, heavy paper.

The life story of the Wonderful Heroine has been printed in booklet form and a copy can be obtained cost free by any of our readers who send a postal card to the Family and Weekly Star, Montreal.
