 We need money. Please call and pay your account by Aug. 10th.—P. Dodds & Son.

Weekend excursion rates to Sarnia and other lake points have been restored on the G.T.R.

The Ford picnic at Bright's Grove drew quite a crowd from this vicinity Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Carl A. Class is erecting a new garage, also an ice house at the rear of his home on Ontario st.

Mr. Angus Mitchell has sold out his blacksmith and repair business to Mr. Russell Moore of Strathroy.

Some beautiful specimens of late roses are shown by Mr. Warren Bate grown in his bower of beauty on Front street.

Senders of telegrams must now pay three cents tax on each message the tax having been raised from one cent August 1st.

Watford Chautauqua—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th. Federal Square, Main street.

The Salvation Army Band from Strathroy will visit Watford this (Friday) evening, August 4th and give selections on the street.

Always be especially careful when opening a full box of matches. Do not create unnecessary friction which might cause an accidental fire in the box.

There will be morning service in Trinity church next Sunday and a celebration of the holy communion at 11 o'clock. Usual evening service at 7. All welcome.

A woman may be guilty of talking back to her husband, but it is not made public where or when she was guilty of spitting tobacco juice on the sidewalk like men do.

William H. Auld, Main Road, has some very prolific oats this year. It is O. A. C. No. 78. It is 60 inches tall and well filled out. A specimen pulled at random can be seen at this office.

Mary Miles Minter, the youngest and most beautiful screen star of today, will be presented at the Lyceum next Wednesday in her charming comedy "Her Winning Way."

Chief Elliot celebrated his 71st birthday on Wednesday and claims he is as good a man as he was at 40. His eyesight is good and he is always on the lookout for violators of motor regulations.

An advertiser in the Guide-Advocate reports five new customers within the week as the result of the adv. which he inserted last week. And yet you will still find an odd man who says advertising doesn't pay.

The new wool for early fall knitting—Monarch Knit.—Swift's.

The regular meeting of the W. I. will be held at the home of Mrs. J. D. Brown, Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 9th. The meeting to be in the form of a picnic on the lawn members please remember. The time 3.30 to 7 o'clock.—Sec'y.

Auto owners are reminded that there are only three places in town where they are allowed to park their cars with the lights out. Printed signs designate these places. The Chief intends to enforce the law in this respect without fear or favor.

Union services of the Congregational and Methodist churches continue throughout the month of August as follows: 11 a.m. in the Methodist church, and 7 p.m. in the Congregational church. The Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner will preach. Everybody welcome.

What are the correct dates of Watford Fair? How many of our readers can answer off hand? The Guide-Advocate will tell you if you will promise to remember. They are Thursday and Friday, Sept. 21 and 22. The Prize Lists for this year will be issued shortly, and Secretary Russell McCormick will supply you with one. It is none too early to think about your own Fair and consider what you are going to enter for competition. Start boosting now and make this year's Fair the best ever.

For early fall the Hawes Hats, see the new shades and shapes—Swift's.

No change in Watford markets. We have received a shipment of Clover Leaf Dishes direct from England. Prices right.—P. Dodds & Son

An exchange says it is "time to be thinking about your winter coal supply." Thinking about it does not seem to bring it any nearer.

Read the Chautauqua ad. and notice the prominence of the talent that will take part. Be prepared to purchase your season tickets when the committee calls on you.

Don't let your sense of humor die. See Mary Miles Minter in her laughable new farce "Her Winning Way" at the Lyceum Wednesday at popular summer prices, 10 and 20 cents.

The stamp tax on cheques, notes, drafts, etc., is now in force and for every additional $50 or part thereof two cents must be paid. The new law will be strictly enforced by the banks. The tax also applies to post-office money orders.

Bachelors and spinsters make up the larger part of those who in their old age are obliged to depend on the town or state for support. Figures show that of men who have a trade only one in a hundred thousand has to go to the poorhouse and that of men with a college education the proportion is smaller still.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized in Trinity church, last Wednesday evening when Miss Victoria M. Scemboe of Burford became the wife of Mr. C. W. King of Woodstock. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. J. H. Hosford, and the contracting parties were unattended.

Warning is issued by the provincial police to the effect that any person or persons allowing their cattle or horses to graze unattended on the sides of the roads are liable to prosecution. It is pointed out that this practice is one of utmost danger to motorists, especially at night.

Remnant week at Swift's. See the bargains in odd ends and garments.

While climbing up on the side of a Pere Marquette box car at Kingsville Monday, Leonard Scratch's five-year-old son fell striking on his head and shoulders, breaking his collar bone and badly injuring his head.

Notice is contained in the post office weekly bulletin issued by post office department informing postmasters that sealed parcels of merchandise may be accepted for transmission throughout Canada at parcel post rates of postage. Such merchandise may be accepted provided the sender has placed thereon a printed label stating in a general way the nature of the contents.

Crown Attorney F. W. Willson is authority for the statement that McMullen, Anderson and Yohn, the London men awaiting trial in the Lambton county jail for complicity in the Wyoming bank robbery, will be arraigned at the September assizes and "that the London story about Mrs. Koehler not appearing to give evidence on account of the supposed delay in obtaining the reward, is all bunk."

A lady of our town has found a sure cure for broken dishes. If the dish to be mended can be tied together with a stout string then placed in boiling milk for one hour, you can never tell the dish had been broken and it can afterwards be put in boiling water without the pieces coming apart. This experiment has been tried and proven and many of the broken dishes which were thought to be useless which are now as good as new.

Provo, Utah, celebrated Pioneer Day on July 24th by big festivities. There are only three, all women, of the pioneers of 1847 now numbered among the living citizens of Provo, one of them being Mrs. Jane Park Jones, wife of Patriarch Albert Jones, who went west from the district of Watford with her parents in 1847 when five years old. Mrs. Jones' sister is also one of the three, being two years younger than Mrs. Jones.

PROCLAMATION

Civic Holiday, Monday, August 7th

In compliance with a petition signed by business men and others of the village to have Monday, August 7th, set aside as a civic holiday for the municipality of Watford, I hereby proclaim that day as a public holiday and request all citizens to observe it as such.

George Harper, Reeve

GREAT LECTURERS AND NOTED PLAY SCHEDULED FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Dates Assigned for Big Four-Day Program—Music & Entertainment Featured

August 15, 16, 17, 18 are the dates just announced for Chautauqua this summer. There will be the usual eight double programs, afternoon and evening of the four days.

A casual reading of the program indicates that it is the best thus far presented here.

Great Laugh-making Play Coming "It Pays to Advertise" has long been known as the greatest laugh-making comedy of the century. It was presented with much success on the Ontario Six-Day Chautauqua Circuit last summer, and this summer will be presented here on the evening of the second day. Elias Day of Chicago, who so well produced the play of last summer, "Contentment," is responsible for the production of "It Pays to Advertise." It is said to be the most extensive feature ever brought to the communities on the Four-Day Chautauqua circuit.

Noted Lecturers to Speak Among the well-known speakers to address Chautauqua audiences are Dr. Robert Parker Miles, Englishman, newspaper man, author, preacher, world-traveler, who speaks on "Tallow Dips"; Mrs. Isobel Pirie Beyer, said to one of the best three or four women orators on the continent; and Arthur E. Rumlles of Montreal, who speaks on "Sea Power and Disarmament," showing pictures of the surrender of the German Fleet at Scapa Flow, an event he witnessed as a guest of the Admiralty; Noah Beilharz, character artist, extraordinary, who gives a program as interesting as any play presented with a cast of twenty people.

The children (between the ages of six and sixty) will be entertained by Little Alice Louise Shrode, child wonder entertainer, who whistles, sings, recites, and dances; and Stevens, the children's musical clown of New York City.

Season tickets are now on sale and remain the same in price as last summer.

WARWICK

Service in Zion Methodist church on Sunday at 2.30 p.m. The Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner will preach.

Shea—In Warwick on Thursday, July 27th, Lloyd George, infant son of Russell and Florence Shea, entered into rest aged six days. Funeral was held Friday, July 28th, at ten o'clock. Rev. Steadman conducted the service, interment in St. James' cemetery, Brooke.

Divine service will (D.V.) be held in St. Paul's church, Wisbeach, next Sunday, August 6th at 7.30 p.m.

The township of Warwick tax rate for 1922 is twelve mills, one-half mill less than 1921.

Miss Amelia Pike, Jr., is visiting friends in Detroit and Windsor.

Mrs. Carl Smith, 251 Hale street London, and Miss Laura Hawken, nurse-in-training in Sarnia General Hospital, has been holidaying at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hawken, Wisbeach.

Mrs. Peter Kingston and her niece Alice D. Miller, 804 Lorne Ave, London, left Tuesday for Portland, Oregon, being called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Kingston's brother, Mr. George Minnelly. While away they will visit friends in Edmonton, Winnipeg, Dauphin, Rose- town and other places.

The angel of death descended with startling suddenness to the home of Mr. Robert Sutton on Thursday last, July 27th, when his wife, Nancy Alberta Higgins, was called to her heavenly home. She was in her usual health up to the hour of her death and the shock was severely felt by her family and friends. She is deeply mourned by husband and four children, three girls and a boy, who have the sincere sympathy of the entire community. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Fraser of St. Thomas, and Mrs. King, 18 sideroad, and two brothers, Albert and Thos. of Brooke. Her sudden death is also deeply deplored by a very large number of friends, her ever cheerful and loving disposition having endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. The funeral was held from the family residence, lot 8, con. 5, S.E.R. on Saturday afternoon and was very largely attended. Service was held in St. James' church, the Rev. W. M. Shore officiating, assisted by Rev. J. H.

Hosford, interment in St. James' cemetery. The pallbearers were T. and R. Higgins, Gordon Sutton, A. Higgins, Bert Sutton, V. Higgins.

CHOP STUFF

The whole life of a man may be safely referred to a few deep experiences.

School fairs will be held at Warwick Village on Sept. 28th, and at Arkona on Oct. 3.

W. W. Tait who has been secretary of the Theford Fair for some years has resigned and Geo. Tudor appointed in his stead.

Quite a number of merchants in the Essex county district have neglected to pay their sales tax licenses Word from Ottawa says that the penalty for neglecting to pay is $1,000.

The funeral of A. C. McAlpine of Euphemia township took place from the family residence on Thursday, Mr. McAlpine died suddenly on Monday. He was helping stow away hay in the loft, when feeling ill, he descended to the floor and fell over dead.

A very serious accident happened at Arkona recently when a team of colts attached to the binder of Wm. McKenzie ran away in the field. Mr. McKenzie while trying to stop them was thrown into the binder and suffered severe cuts and bruises and is in a very serious condition.

A plan to reclaim 12,000 acres of swamp land near Komoka is being investigated by a suit of engineers and agricultural experts sent into the district by the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Since the construction of a Government drain a year ago the land has dried up and it is believed that reclamation can be accomplished.

Grant Thompson, Bosanquet, who had his eye injured while visiting at Dresden a couple of weeks ago, has returned home. He can see some with the injured eye, and when he visited the Chatham specialist before coming home he reported the eye in better condition than he expected. All hope the sight will be fully restored.

A painful accident befell Arthur Boon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Boon, on Thursday, July 20th. He was employed by Lew Sullivan of Euphemia, to rake hay and while going to the field the horse he was driving became frightened at a gasoline engine and kicked him on the right leg, breaking it between the knee and the ankle.

Ross Hickey, the young son of Mrs. W. R. Hickey, Bothwell, was painfully injured at a base ball game at Thamesville. The boy was just climbing in the car, and his brother, John, thinking he was in, started the car too quickly, throwing the boy violently to the ground. The car passed over his body, dislocating his knee cap and inflicting a bad cut on his leg that took thirteen stitches to close.

The entrance pupils at Wyoming who have been eagerly watching for news of their examinations have received their results. Forty-six scholars tried at Wyoming. Of this number the majority came from the surrounding districts. Of the nine Wyoming scholars who tried those who passed were Marion Middleton (honors), Clarence Middleton (honors), Harold Henderson, Merlin McIntosh, Maynard McKay.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Our reputation is what people say of us—our character is what we are.

The whole life of a man may be safely referred to a few deep experiences.

A Western editor rises to the occasion and announces in his paper that he is not worrying about the coal-strike because he has so many delinquent subscribers that he will be able to keep the office hot by roasting them.

At this season of the year hundreds of teachers spend their spare time applying for schools they have no idea of taking. Meanwhile trustees are busy reading dozens of applications from teachers they have no idea of engaging.

The wisdom of ordering a supply of barrels for the fruit crop at an early date would seem to be apparent from the fact that there is a probability of a shortage in the Province of Ontario and Quebec due to the prospects for a good crop. Barrel manufacturers are reported to have only 85 per cent of the stocks on hand that they had at the same date last year.

Kingston Standard:—Work is often hard, trying, dreary and weary—if it be allowed to become so. There is, however, one short sentence which can remove all this. We met a man yesterday who said he had done no work for two years through illness, and he went on: "It is very hard work doing nothing." Again, there are men who can find no work to do, though fortunately their numbers are decreasing. Consider these cases, and does not the short sentence, "I am glad I can do it," remove the drudgery and the hardness and the weariness of work? Use it as a charm, and see how it works.

Some changes are contained in the rules of the Senate on divorce, issued by the Department of Justice. For some years, the applicant for divorce was required to advertise weekly for six months in the Canadian Gazette and two local papers. Later this time was reduced to three months, and the latest change made in the time requirement five weeks. Also the time within which the defendant must file objections to the granting of divorce has been reduced from two months to one month. Now is the time to apply for a divorce, it will cost very little for advertising. In the old days the advertising charges were over $100.

The language of diplomacy is likely to be in future the English language. This is not by any means a reflection on the French tongue. When French became the language of the courts there was no British Empire, and the English language had not spread over the face of the globe. The United States, then, too, was not a powerful economic factor in the world, as it is today. It will be recalled that France's close ally, Belgium, where French has been the language of the Court since the days of the ruling French-speaking Counts, is no longer of the same mind with her, but has shown a desire to make England the official tongue of the nation, which, after all, is but a sign of the times.—Montreal Gazette.

Kincardine Reporter:—The little girl with the bobbed hair is having her troubles these days. Even good old Walkerton has put its stamp of disapproval on the bob. A well known young lady, clever, capable and pleasing, from these parts sent an application into the board to enter as a nurse-in-training in the county hospital. Her application was accepted, we are told, and she went to Walkerton. When they saw that she had bobbed hair, the bun was all off. In holy horror and righteousness their hands went up and her application went down. We wonder what they want out in that hospital? A nifty girl, with bobbed hair and smiling countenance should be as good as Walkerton's doctor's medicine. If people must die why not surround them with health, beauty and up-to-date style and let their last hours be made happy. Here's to "Bobby" who has come to stay!

Halifax Chronicle:—A forest ranger of repute has given the Canadian Forestry Association a unique proof of the great danger of lighted cigarettes in or near the forest. As a means of getting information on the number of fires that can be started by cigarettes along the trail he covered a distance of a mile dropping at intervals 20 lighted cigarettes. Nineteen of them were found to have set small fires, all of which, of course, were immediately extinguished. The experiment was conducted in a dry peat country. The ordinary smoker little suspects the lurking danger in the woods. Hundreds of the worst forest fires recorded in Canada this year have been due to the evil habit of tossing away lighted tobacco.

Kingsville Reporter:—The new act compelling children to go to school until eighteen years of age is filling up the schools and causing towns and cities to put up new buildings to accommodate the extra pupils. It is a debatable question whether the new regulation will be in the best interests of the boys and girls. A boy who has not learned to work with his hands as well as his head before he is 18 years of age does not become a shining success at anything. Habits of industry in boy or girl are acquired long before they are 18 years of age and if they board at home and stay in school until the school law says they can stop, the probability is that a majority have no settled purpose in life and become drifters. A few of the outstanding business men in the business world today attended school until they were 18 years of age. A good education is a fine thing and the man who has not acquired a fair amount of useful knowledge is very much handicapped in the race for success. However, some boys from birth are incapable of taking an advanced education, though they may have a natural bent for mechanics of some sort, and it would seem next to a crime to compel such youths to spend years in school when they would be able to learn some useful mechanical calling between the ages of 14 and 18.

JOHN AND SAM HAVE CHANGED

The "Melting Pot" is producing a race of small women in the United States, according to some observers. At the same time there is a tendency toward fatness on the part of the men. A writer who has recently revisited the United States, reviewing his impressions in the Fourth of July issue of The London Times, says that the commonly accepted types of John Bull and Uncle Sam should really be reversed, because there is an immensely larger proportion of fat men in the United States than in England. There are still plenty of thin men on the farms of the Middle West, the South, and New England, but modern American city life, with its fat-producing foods, evidently develops a different type from that of pioneer days.

As for the women, let us see what the mingling of races in the Eastern cities have done: "Another curious result of the mixing of races which is going on in America is the extraordinary number of diminutive women in, especially, New York; diminutive girls, rather, for so large a proportion of them are young that it seems to be a phenomenon of the rising generation; though they rise, be it said, extremely little. They are girls who won't grow up. If one walks downtown during, for instance, that wonderful lunch-hour parade on lower Broadway, it is impossible not to be struck by the immense number of girls who can be little, if anything, over four feet in stature. A person of ordinary height may loom above the surface of the moving current like a lamp post.

"What are they? What crossing of strains is it, helped, perhaps, by what condition of environment that produces these tiny people? Many of them are obviously Jews; but many are not, or at least show no trace of Jewish origin in their faces. Nor is there any appearance of stunted growth; for they are, seemingly, perfect in form, full of vitality, and often extremely pretty. They are just miniatures—tiny Dresden china beauties in flesh and blood—little 32mo. editions of very choice works. An American friend told me that there were lots of them that he would love to carry about as charms on his watch chain. Another, a physician, and more serious minded, said that when he passed them in the street he had difficulty in restraining himself from stopping them to inquire into their parentage. "Is it a mere matter of the mixture of strange strains or is there something in the conditions of American life acting on certain racial constitutions which tends to reproduction in miniature? And is the process going to continue? Are the offspring of these little creatures going to be smaller still until we get a new race of 'darlings of a pigmy size'?"

WATFORD OLD BOY WRITES FROM B. C.

The following extracts from a letter written by Mr. Fred Roche, of Mission City, B. C., when renewing his subscription to the Guide-Advocate will be of interest to his many old friends in Watford. He says:—"I often visit our old friend 'Dad Williams' he is just A1 at Lloyd's, does not look a day older than he did years ago. The Daily Province which he works on is considered the best 'daily' on the Pacific coast. The district in which I am located is a great producer of small fruits, at the present time we have about 1000 girl pickers, who come from many parts of the province. The berries are pre-cooled and then shipped chiefly to the Canadian Prairie Provinces. The new Watford rink must be a fine one and great improvement on 'Jake's' arena on the back 50. I take keen interest in your Baseball and Hockey and notice that you still have a Roche or two on the lineups. Mrs. Roche, young Jack and myself are going East next month on a six weeks visit and will endeavor to pay Watford a visit and look over the old stamping grounds which bind the past with the present. We get great shooting and fishing out in this country and often week ends we take trips up to some lake in the mountains. British Columbia is attracting a great volume of tourists trade. Kindest remembrance to yourselves and all my old friends."

GUARD BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SUMMER

The summer months are the most dangerous to children. The complaints of that season, which are cholera infantum, colic diarrhoea and dysentery, come on so quickly that often a little one is beyond aid before the mother realizes he is ill. The mother must be on her guard to prevent these troubles, or if they do come on suddenly to banish them. No other medicine is of such aid to mothers during hot weather as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the stomach and bowels and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box

PETROLEA

Petrolea Dominion Day celebration receipts failed to pay expenses by $15.00.

Mrs. King Houston received a cablegram last Thursday from her son, King, stating that he had arrived in Bursa, Persia, on the 18th inst. He reports having had a pleasant trip.

Word was received of the death of Mrs. Staff Noble, of Petrolea, at the summer home of the family at Syracuse, N. Y. On Thursday last the home was burned and Mrs. Noble was injured, passing away Sunday. It is also stated that Mrs. John Noble, mother of Staff Noble, is seriously ill from effects of burns received during the fire. The Noble family is one of the best known in Petrolea district. The late John D. Noble was well known throughout the county.

A serious auto accident occurred on the East End flats Tuesday night, when a Maxwell car, owned and driven by Wm. Kerr, a returned driller, crashed into a hydro pole. The noise of the smash was heard by residents above the hill. The other occupants in the car were Pat and Leo Kelly. It is stated that Mr. Kerr lost control of the car just as it was turning the corner, over the bridge, and before the engine could be shut off the accident happened. Pat Kelly had his face badly gashed and an artery was cut in his neck. He was also seriously bruised. His brother Leo and Mr. Kerr were also bruised and badly shaken up. The Kelly brothers were taken to the C.E.E. Hospital and Pat's condition is reported serious.

Owing to the comparatively cool weather the vegetable crop in the Sarnia vegetable district is in excellent condition. Early potatoes have been on the market for some time and the acreage planted in that district is about 10 per cent. greater than last year. The onion and tomato acreage is about normal, but the production will be greater. Fall wheat harvest is completed and threshing is in full swing. The yield is a little higher than was expected, some farmers reporting a 40-bushel crop. Oats are very promising this year as the season has been quite favorable for this crop. Cutting of oats will be general in a few days. Ruts and smut have not affected the cereal grains to any extent and growers are looking forward to a heavy crop. Corn is in good condition and only the late sown has been hindered by the cool weather. The general appearance of the crops in the country look very promising and the acreage on the whole is about normal.

One of the most effective vermifuges on the market is Miller's Worm Powders. They will not only clear the stomach and bowels of worms, but will prove a very serviceable medicine for children in regulating the infantile system and maintaining it in a healthy condition. There is nothing in their composition that will injure the most delicate stomach when directions are followed, and they can be given to children in the full assurance that they will utterly destroy all worms.

ANOTHER GHOST STORY

Lethbridge, Alta., July 21.—Guided by a ghost, the Dreamland oil company, better known as "Jamieson's Ghost Company" is now drilling for oil in the Southern Alberta fields and it all happened like this, according to T. J. Jamieson, president and organizer of the company.

The ghost of his father, Hugh Jamieson, a pioneer minister of the west, who died some 15 years ago, appeared to him in a dream and informed him of a spot in Southern Alberta where a drill would pierce a vast pool of oil. The wraith of his father used names of towns his son had never heard of and gave him such topographical information that he could not be mistaken. A third party was included in the "dream party" who marked the spot with a small earth mound. This all happened in 1917 and previously to this Mr. Jamieson had never been further south in Alberta than Medicine Hat.

Mr. Jamieson visited southern Alberta later, verified names and towns and identified the spot so vividly marked in his memory.

Later the spirit again visited him and chided him for his delay with the warning that he must speed up if he wished to reap the reward.

As a result a company was formed several thousand dollars have been placed in the venture and active operations are now under way. The property is situated between Lethbridge and the Pokowki lakes, eastward and at these lakes the Imperial and other interests have acquired leases.

MILLIONS TO KEEP WORKERS IDLE

Employees of printing establishments in Canada and the United States to the number of 9,000 went on strike a year ago for shorter hours and a 'living wage.' Yet other printers who were not called out have been able to pay to the strike fund ten per cent. out of the wages they have been getting, the same wages which were regarded as below the 'living' standard by the union officials. Nearly $9,000,000 has been spent in strike pay which does not take into account loss of wages to employees, loss to employers and loss to business generally dependent upon the printing industry. No one has benefitted and the union officials are now said to be allowing the strike to peter out. The latter made the mistake of ignoring the economic problem and the fact that conditions were such that the public would not pay increased prices for printed products.

REALIGNMENT OF THE PARTIES

(Montreal Gazette)

The Winnipeg Tribune, dealing with suggestions as to a realignment of parties, recalls that twenty-five years ago there was published in its columns an offer of a generous sum to be donated to the General Hospital if there was one man who would stand up and define any real difference between the Liberal party and the Liberal-Conservative party. There were no takers; no volunteers. Today the article goes on, certain newspapers in connection with influential elements in both old-line parties, are discussing the question of a re-arrangement of Liberals and Conservatives, putting into one fold all avowed protectionists, no matter by what names they have hitherto been known and in the other all those who from principle or otherwise, are avowed radical tariff reformers, with free trade as their ultimate goal. The failure of Liberal leaders to redeem when in power their promises made in opposition to remove the tariff burdens under which the people were said to groan are referred to, and the article concludes:

"Today, the suggestion that there should be a re-grouping of the sheep and the goats is not without merit. It might result in more sincerity in tariff discussion, and tariff enactment would henceforth be in the hands of avowed tariff-reformers, or the ultimate free-traders."

"Dishonesty in platform or parliamentary discussion is morally and therefore nationally weakening. If it were possible by a party re-arrangement, to have men speak and act as they really think, the country would be the better for it."

THE LITTLE BLACK HEN

Said the little red rooster, "Gosh all hemlock! Things are tough, and I cannot find enough, What's become of all those fat ones is a mystery to me; There were thousands through that rainy spell—but now where can they be?"

The old black hen who heard him didn't grumble or complain, She had gone through lots of dry spells, she had lived through floods of rain, So she flew up on the grindstone, and she gave her claws a whet, As she said, "I've never seen the time there weren't worms to get."

She picked a new and undug spot; the earth was hard and firm, The little rooster jeered, "New ground! That's no place for a worm."

The old black hen just spread her feet, she dug both fast and free; "I must go to the worms!" she said, "the worms won't come to me."

The rooster vainly spent his day, through habit by the ways, Where fat round worms had passed in squads back in the rainy days; When nightfall found him supperless he growled in accents rough: "I'm hungry as a fowl can be. Conditions sure are tough."

He turned then to the old black hen and said, "It's worse with you, For you're not only hungry, but you must be tired too. I rested while I watched for worms, so I feel fairly perk; But how are you? Without worms, too? And after all that work?"

The old black hen hopped to her perch and dropped her eyes to sleep, And murmured in a drowsy tone, "Young man, hear this and weep: I'm full of worms and happy, for I've dined both long and well; The worms are there as always, but I had to dig like —!"

Oh, here and there red roosters still are holding sales positions; They cannot do much business now because of poor conditions. But soon as things get right again, they'll sell a hundred firms; Meanwhile, the old black hens are out and gobbling up the worms.

41000 HARVESTERS NEEDED

Forty-one thousand harvesters will be required to handle the prairie crops this year, exclusive of those to be obtained from prairie cities and towns, it was announced at Winnipeg Tuesday, following a meeting of representatives of the railways, Western Labor Commissioners, and the grain trade interests. The rates of wages discussed were $3.50 a day for harvesters, and $4 a day for threshers. The harvesting excursions will commence to arrive in Winnipeg from Eastern Canada, August 7th, and will continue until August 25th. Excursion trains will leave Victoria Vancouver and New Westminster from August 14th to 29th, inclusive. Of the total number of men required, 37,000 will be drawn from Eastern Canada, and 4,000 from British Columbia.

BASEBALL

ONE THOUSAND PEOPLE SEE WATFORD DEFEAT FOREST 7-1

The largest crowd that has ever witnessed a ball game in Watford for many years cheered the local boys to victory over Forest by the score of 7-1. Both teams played clean snappy ball from first to last. Leslie Waddell twirled for Forest. He is considered one of the best pitchers in this part of the province, but he was up against the hardest hitting team in Western Ontario, who drove in the runs seemingly when they felt like it. Home runs were no limit for the Watford sluggers. The first innings was the big one for Watford. Irwin drove the first ball pitched to the trees for three sacks which should have been a home run as a tree stopped its journey to the race track. Waddell walked C. Roche. Bill Roche hit a hot single, scoring Irwin, but Clare was caught at third base. Millar and

Cooke then hit singles. Howie Siddall just to keep things going drove a long one to right field which resulted in him making the circuit in record time chasing Millar and Cooke ahead of him over the plate. The locals didn't score again until the fourth when "Slim" Millar drove his usual "one homer per game" over the race track. Home runs are "Slim's" big specialty. Howie Siddall got on the bases again and Leigh brought him in with a hot single, but "Smoky" was caught stealing second. He was trying out "Tubby" Baldry's arm. It was working smoothly. Forest scored their only run in the eighth when Government came all the way home from second base on a short forced ball to Roche. It was the only run decision that Archie Jamieson gave in the game. Millar scored Watford's last run when he got to second on a two base hit and Siddall drove him in with another two bagger. This ended the scoring for the game.

Millar besides batting exceptionally well pitched one of the finest games ever seen on the Watford Diamond. He was robbed of a shut out by Jamieson's decision on Government taking two bases on a overthrow.

Archie Jamieson with the exception of the one poor decision umpired an impartial game of ball, handing no favors to either team. He was the best umpire seen here this season.

There was absolutely no wrangling or disputing decisions all through the game which speaks well for the players of both teams.

Jack Stanton and his assistants had a big time looking after the crowd at the entrance. Gate receipts $183.00.

If Watford wins their protest against Waubuno they will be tied with Forest for the League championship. Each team will have lost four games.

Forest brought their band all the way to Watford with them but they went away as silently as they had come. Maybe they played "Home Sweet Home" when they got out of town.

The Mayor of Forest proclaimed last Thursday afternoon a half holiday to allow everyone in Forest to come over and see Watford's crushing defeat. It is rumored that he also proclaimed another holiday on their return, so that they might bury their ball team!

Aunt Amanda

By JANE OSBORN

(©, 1920, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

When the other girls of her age were sitting out on verandas in the company of their rustic sweethearts on summer evenings, Laura Perkins was sitting indoors beside the living-room lamp, intent on getting her mending done for all those little Perkinses to whom she played the role of big sister and mother combined. It was not that Farmer Perkins was any less prosperous than the other farmers, but it would have gone against the grain to pay out money to have this work done when Laura could do it just as well. In the meantime Laura didn't get "any young company." In fact, she never did get any, and it was not until at the age of twenty-five, when Farmer Perkins decided to ask Widow Rollins, down the road, to share his fireside and Widow Rollins accepted, that Laura ever had any chance for the pleasure and flirtation that she had missed in her girlhood.

But she had for too long been tied to the duties of the kitchen and the mending basket to take very gracefully to the art of finding a suitor then—for obviously the only thing left for Laura to do now was to marry and get a home of her own. "Of course, I want to have a place where I can do my own cooking and all," Laura would explain, "but I don't know as I want to get a man just to make crullers for him." But the truth was that there was a man that Laura would have been quite willing to cook and mend for for the rest of her life had he been disposed to ask her to accept his hand. This was Widow Rollins' son, who, when that lady came to marry Farmer Perkins, naturally was squeezed into the Perkins farmhouse to live.

"She's a real nice girl," the mother had remarked to her son in confidence. "But she's got such a lot of notions. Did you hear her carrying on about that Aunt Amanda cruller set? You know some of the women around here got the outfit. Laura was one of them. It has the cutter and a special rolling pin and the kettle and the basket for the crullers while they are in the hot fat. Well, there are one or two things about it that Laura didn't like. The basket doesn't slip into the kettle just the way she wants it to. So she gets to looking at the picture of Aunt Amanda on the package, and she makes up her mind she has got to see her. It never occurs to her that maybe there isn't any Aunt Amanda, that maybe it is just a picture on the box cover."

Edward Rollins had listened without any great interest. His mother always changed the subject in that way. He had wanted to talk of Laura, but his mother apparently preferred to talk about cruller sets. He had wanted to sound his mother on a subject that lay near his heart. He was twenty-six, just starting out for himself in the hardware business, with all that he owned in the world invested in stocks of hammers and nails and endless variety of equipment for the farmer and his wife. It was quite out of the question now to ask Laura to marry him, if that involved making a home for her. What Edward had hoped was that for the present his mother and Laura's father might let them board in the old Perkins farmhouse. But Edward, always somewhat in awe of his mother, never got to the point of asking, and not having asked and received her consent he never got to that further point of asking Laura to be his wife.

Laura was twenty-five that autumn after her father's marriage, when she went off to the city to make her own living. And Laura herself seemed to be the only one in the community who didn't realize that, with no special education or training save that of a housewife and no special talent or aptitude save considerable good sense, the future was not very promising for her.

"Seems as if the only thing she can do is to be somebody's hired girl," quoth the new Mrs. Perkins for the benefit of her son and her husband, both of whom winced under this remark.

Then old father Perkins died and Laura came home to the funeral; was gone back to the city and no one was the wiser concerning her mode of making a living. If truth must be told a rift came in the Perkins-Rollins household, in part due no doubt to the settlement of Mr. Perkins' estate. At all events those of the Perkins brood who kept in touch with Laura did not enjoy Mrs. Rollins' good will. They moved away and Laura was no more heard of.

In five years the hardware business was carried on by Edward Rollins had prospered to the point where he was in a position to settle down in life on his own, and as his mother, the present Widow Perkins, had now under consideration an alliance with old Deacon Bradshaw, a union of which her son did not approve, she was anxious enough for her son to marry.

Edward was not lacking in friends among the younger girls of the village who might conceivably look with much favor upon his suit.

"And remember, Edward," the mother laughed one day when she had called at his store, "you once had me worried for fear you'd marry that cruller-Laura. I don't suppose you have ever given her a second thought."

"I wonder what ever became of her," said Edward, and it was not the first time that this question had occurred to him.

"It was funny," mused the mother. "Said she was going to see Aunt Amanda; she thought it was a real Aunt Amanda that put out those cruller sets. So I suppose she went and looked up those Aunt Amanda people in the city and made a fool of herself."

"As far as that goes, there really is an Aunt Amanda," Edward Rollins told his mother, "and she is pushing those doughnut cookers for all they are worth. She is on the road selling them, too. Just got a circular letter from the firm today, saying that 'Aunt Amanda' had started this way, and would be here with the improved doughnut cooker besides five or six other special cooking utensils."

"Well, I'll bet that isn't her real name; I'll bet . . ."

But Mrs. Rollins never told her son just what she would bet, for she was interrupted by his clerk just then to say that "Aunt Amanda" had arrived. And Aunt Amanda was none other than Laura Perkins. "I didn't want to come here when I knew how you and your mother had felt since father died," she said. "But your store was on the list, and I didn't want to refuse to stop."

So that is how Laura Perkins at thirty—a well-dressed, debonaire Laura that hardly anyone recognized save Edward Rollins—came back to the home of her childhood.

"I went right to the Aunt Amanda people," she told Edward. "I must have been a scream. I insisted that there was an Aunt Amanda and that I had something to tell her about how she could improve her cruller cooker. I saw the president of the concern, and he told me I could be Aunt Amanda if I wanted to, and started me in right away. All the assets I had was some good common sense and a lot of enthusiasm."

"You must have made a big success," suggested Edward, fearful lest just this success would stand in his way in the plan he had in his heart to propose.

"Yes, I suppose you'd say so," said Laura. "I'm secretary of the concern now, with a good bit of stock. Then I get royalties—these new specialties are my inventions. They are things I worked out back in father's kitchen before he was married. The royalties and the interest will go on."

She stopped short, looked at Edward, and both blushed.

"Maybe so," Edward found courage to say. "But the road job won't, Laura; I'm going to marry you."

And that is how it happened that "Aunt Amanda" never went on another sales trip, but that within a few months the letterhead paper of the thriving Aunt Amanda company showed the name of Edward Rollins instead of Laura Perkins printed after "Secretary."

Printers of Quebec Clever Actors.

French-Canadian printers in the past century gave dramatic performances of much merit from time to time, as they counted among their number some first-class amateurs, writes Mr. George Gale in the Quebec Telegraph. The amateurs found inspiration in the visits of Edmund Kean, Charles Kemble, Denman Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport and others. Denman Thompson, author of "The Old Homestead," came to Quebec to play with the Nickinsons, John and his daughter, Charlotte, and later went with them to Toronto.

Frederick Glackmeyer, a German who left his native country for Canada in 1790, is credited with being the father of music and musical societies in Old Quebec. The elder Glackmeyer was fifteen when he landed and already his abilities with violin and piano were great. His son also did good work as teacher and artist until his death in 1881. M. Antoine Dessane, a graduate of the Paris Conservatory and organist at the cathedral in 1849, inaugurated the classical method of teaching. In 1872 some French-Canadians from the city were honored by being asked into the monster orchestra of Gilmore at Boston. Next among the musical stars was Calixte, Levallee, who composed the music of

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

The remains of a mastodon or some other prehistoric animal were discovered recently on a farm in Dover township. The jaw-bone weighed 40 lbs and some of the teeth were fully a foot long.

The Canadian postal department has greatly reduced the number of square inches of mucilage to be moistened per person per annum by introducing a four-cent stamp. This stamp, of a deep mustard color, is intended for use on mail addressed to the British Isles.

The Government has shipped to the commissioner in charge of the road between Essex and Cottam, a carload of a mixture which draws the moisture from the air to keep down the dust on the Talbot road. Within 24 hours the road, with this treatment, appears quite damp.

Not many days will elapse now before prospective barbers will have to go before a provincial board of examiners in Toronto, pass a rigid efficiency test and undergo a complete medical examination before they will be granted a formal diploma permitting them to serve the public, either as employer or employee.

Census returns give West Middlesex a population in 1921 of 25,033, a decrease over 1911 of 2,267 and over 1901 of 4,087. Every municipality in the riding, with the exceptions of Glencoe and Wardsville, shows a decrease in the population in the last two decades. Glencoe shows an increase in population over 1911 of 21 and Wardsville of 61.

Butter-makers in Halton County are complaining about the effect of sweet clover on butter. They state that it has a strong, greasy flavor and have been informed by Montreal buyers that it will injure the good reputation of Canadian butter in the English market. The cheese men are also up in arms against sweet clover for the pasture and for fodder as it spoils the flavor of the cheese.

Frederick Green, of Cleveland, asks what does the word dollar mean? Others are puzzled, as they look at the dollar, beyond its own home. Mr. Green sends a diagram showing "what an ounce of gold will hold," in hours of skilled labor. It will buy seventeen hours in America, fifty hours in England, ninety-five hours in Japan, one hundred and seventeen hours in France, nine hundred and one hours in Germany.

Russia which has been drunk from Bolshevism for several years, is about to jump off the water wagon. Moscow advices state that a decree authorizing the sale of vodka, which has been prohibited since 1914 is expected to be issued on August 1st. The pre-war strength of vodka was 48 per cent alcohol. Under the new decree the strength will be 38 per cent, and the manufacture will be undertaken on a state monopoly.

Canada's rural population, according to the census of 1921, was just slightly over fifty per cent, of the whole. In 1891 it was sixty eight per cent. Thirty years ago two out of every three persons in Canada lived in rural districts. Today as many people live in urban as in rural districts. And this in spite of the development of the great farming areas of the West. The increase in the total population has been gratifying but too many people are leaving the land.

With coal miners and railway employees on strike, the United States has its hands full just now. Chances are their scrapping won't warm many Canadian hearthstones next winter unless they speedily get down to business. If Canadian coal is obtainable such arrangements should be set in motion that we would be independent of Uncle Sam and the tantalizing and almost everlasting delays and trade restrictions, to say nothing about the way the prices have aviated, often for a very inferior quality of back diamonds. What about Canadian coal? It would boost our colliers and railways.

DOES IT PAY TO WORRY ABOUT APPENDICITIS?

Can appendicitis be guarded against? Yes, by preventing intestinal infection. The intestinal antiseptic, Adler-i-ka, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel removing ALL foul, decaying matter which might start infection. EXCELLENT for gas on stomach or chronic constipation. It removes matter which you never thought was in your system and which nothing else can dislodge. One man reports it is unbelievable the awful impurities Adler-i-ka brought out. J. W. McLaren, druggist, Watford.

A GIFT OF THE GODS

Bounteous nature has supplied tea for the pleasure and refreshment of mankind. When pure and fresh, it is a most delicious and beneficial drink. In winter, if it is served hot, it is delightfully exhilarating, and in the heat of summer, if iced, there is nothing more refreshing. Unquestionably, the purest and most delicious tea to use is "SALADA". Your grocer can supply you. Ask for it to-day.

William Wrigley, Jr., the successful chewing gum magnate, talking with a smoking car audience the other day, was telling the others how much a year the chic people invested in advertising. "But, Mr. Wrigley, you have spent millions of dollars and created a splendid demand now; everybody talks about and chews Spearmint. Your demand is steady and growing. Isn't it a waste to continue spending so many thousand dollars a year in publicity?" one of his auditors asked. The Spearmint King thought a moment, and then replied. "My friend, if I were to stop advertising, it would be just like taking the engine off this train. It would slow down, and after a little while stop. Advertising is the locomotive of business, and if you don't have it, business comes to a stop."

The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario has made a big reduction in the power rates for Marmora bringing the price down from $53.70 to $35 per H.P. The Herald states the reduction in the local rates amounts to 30 per cent. for both commercial and domestic users. The Herald also states "the amount of the reduction and the basis on which it is made is largely the result of the visit of the deputation from Marmora to the Hydro-Electric Commission at Toronto last February. Previous to that time the village of Marmora was given no reason to hope for a large reduction, and some of the things the deputation pressed for were claimed to be contrary to the fixed policy of the Commission."

Women who are interested in the recent amendments to the Assessment and Voters' Acts of Ontario and are looking forward to the time when they can take a more prominent part in civic affairs, will be glad to know that they will be duly enfranchised on an equality with their male friends on and after January 1st, 1923. This means that in 1923 they will be able to vote in the various municipalities for the election of controllers, aldermen, Reeves or councillors with the result that the present number of voters will be doubled. The changes will give the wives of property-owners and tenants alike the privilege of voting, and in cases where the wives are registered owners or tenants their husbands will have like privileges. In some localities it has been thought the Act would become effective in 1923, so that women would have the right to vote next year, but this view is mistaken. When the assessors prepare the lists for 1924 they will insert the names of all men and women entitled to vote as owners and tenants and the names of their husbands and wives as the occasion demands.

The Book of Common Order for the proper ordering of acts of worship and a companion to the Book of Praise, has been issued as an official publication of the Presbyterian church in Canada. Divided into three main portions, the Book of Common Order deals comprehensively with practically every contingency which might occur in the carrying out of any of the services or ceremonies of the church. Part one contains the general orders for public worship, together with alternative and additional prayers, of which besides other allied matter, there are no less than one hundred and fifty-five. Part two contains two forms for the celebration of the Holy Communion and the other sacraments of the church. Included also are the orders of service for the baptism of infants, the burial of the dead, the solemnization of marriages, and for various other occasional ceremonies, such as the laying of corner-stones of churches or the dedication of memorials. In part three is found the order for the visitation of the sick, together with a very complete lectionary for the Christian year.

Talcum Powder Healthful

Scientists have discovered that Talcum Powder has a beneficial effect upon the skin, particularly when properly borated. It is antiseptic, soothing and healing to sunburned or chafed skin, and is an excellent protection to the face and exposed portions of the body.

It is recommended that Talcum should be used freely by motorists and others who expose themselves to the sun, and as an application to the entire body after the bath, to prevent chafing, prickly heat, etc.

We recommend Nyal Talcum Powders because we know them to be absolutely pure, well borated and delightfully perfumed. We have them in a great variety of odors.

NURSE THINKS NOTHING BETTER

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Advised for all Women in Poor Health

Toronto, Ontario.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years and it is the only patent medicine I ever recommend. I am a nurse and if I find a woman is in poor health I always tell her to take it. Although you know that doctors and nurses do not use patent medicines I must say that I think there is nothing better than your Vegetable Compound. When I first took it many years ago, I was so tired when I got up in the morning that I could not eat, and when I went to bed I was too tired to sleep. My mother-in-law told me that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was just what I wanted so I tried it and only took two bottles when I felt better. Since then I have found that there is nothing that makes me feel so well, for it seems to build my system right up. I don't know any other medicine that has done so much for women."—Mrs. W. H. PARKER, 19 Wellesley Ave., Toronto, Ontario. Women testify again and again that they have been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound "after other medicines have failed." It has been tried for nearly fifty years and not found wanting. If you are suffering from any of the various ailments which accompany female weakness try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

INTERESTING NEWS FROM FAR AND NEAR

A Canadian hen which will lay 365 eggs per year is the aim which Dr. J. H. Grisdale, deputy minister of agriculture, placed before a largely attended poultrymen's meeting. Already Canada has produced hens which could lay 325 eggs in the 12 months' period, he pointed out.

Canada, which has produced better macaroni than Italy, may soon make better Dutch cheese than Holland, in the opinion of the Dominion Dairy Commissioner, who has returned from Holland with ideas and specifications for a new cheese which he believes Canadian dairies can produce with profit.

Senator A. B. McCoig of Chatham, considers that he is "some" farmer. At the conclusion of the wheat-threshing on one of his farms yesterday there were thirteen hundred bushels in the granary of thirty-two acres, or a little over forty bushels to the acre, which Mr. McCoig believes is a record hard to beat for this district.

This summer has been a remarkably prolific one for small fruit. It is many years since there has been such quantities of strawberries, raspberries, cherries and currants as have adorned the windows of the stores during the past few weeks, and the promise of larger fruits is just as good. There should be no shortage of preserves and jam next winter if housekeepers have done their duty, as the price of sugar has been within bounds.

Riding on their father's horse to the pasture field to bring in the cows Thursday morning, the two little daughters of Eli St. Jean, a farmer of St. Hubert East Township, were thrown on the ground when the horse became frightened. Both girls were badly injured, the elder being unconscious for some time. Dr. Rutherford was hurriedly summoned and found the elder girl suffering from an injury to her head. The other girl suffered from shock and several bad cuts.

A despatch from Salmon Creek, Wash., says: "Water, bring me half a gooseberry." This phase in all probability will be as common as orders for grapefruit or cantaloupe if local fruit wizards keep up their present pace. Louis Best exhibited three gooseberries which together weigh four ounces. The mammoth of the collection measures three inches long by two and one-half thick. The other two berries are but little smaller. These, as well as many bushels of smaller ones are the product of three-year-old bushes, all propagated by Best on his fruit ranch.

Bootlegging in cigarettes is the latest industry to spring up in Chatham. Since the recent excise duties were placed upon tobacco by the Dominion Government, cigarettes have gone up in price in this country. Some of the smokers are feeling the pinch and some enterprising individuals have conceived the idea of bringing over cigarettes from the States and selling them at reduced prices and still making a profit, there being no excise duties on the smokes by the States. The customs authorities, however, are keeping a close watch on the smugglers, and when a man pulls out a package of American cigarettes these days he is very apt to be called upon to give an account of where he procured it.

Attorney-General Raney jumps hard on the High Constable of York county for instructing his constables to prohibit all games of chance and lotteries. All games of chance and lotteries are not prohibited, the Attorney-General explains, pointing out as exceptions: "Raffles for prizes of small value at any bazaar held for any charitable or religious object, if permission to hold the same has been obtained from the city or other municipal council, or from mayor, reeve, or other chief officer of the city, town or other municipality, wherein such bazaar is held, and the articles raffled for thereat have first been offered for sale and none of them are of a value exceeding $50.00."

There's nothing like experience to prove the correctness of things. We commonly make up our mind from a narrow viewpoint and often forgetful that there are usually two sides, at least to every proposition. Running a newspaper is one line that many folk think is a "dead cinch" but a little testing out may prove that it may be a "doader" all right as far as writing success over the venture. It is said on good authority, that the Presbyterian Witness, published in Toronto, has gone behind $37,000 in past two years. Of course they were close going years, but with a consistency such as they had, much smaller loss might have been expected.

ed, even if receipts are seldom adequate to balance expenditure in a religious journal. A good way to help finance a newspaper is prompt pay.

Figures submitted at the Masonic Grand Lodge at Port Arthur last week show a membership this year of 94,500 compared with 88,000 last year, an increase of 6,500. The number of lodges is 525. Some orphans of Canadian Masons are being cared for in the established homes of the Oddfellows and Foresters, some in County Houses of Refuge, and at least two in Roman Catholic institutions, declared Lieut.-Col. W. N. Ponton, Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge, in the course of his address, in which he urged immediate measures for the purchase of a large central site or estate, and the erection thereof of a Masonic home, hospital and school, for the orphan children and widow dependents of deceased Masons and for infirm and aged Masons without means.

YOUR STARVED NERVES

The Cause of Neuralgia—Must be Treated Through the Blood.

Neuralgia is the cry of the nerves for more and better blood. It means that the nerves are being starved. Like every other part of the body the nerves receive their nourishment through the blood. There is therefore no doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will prove beneficial even in extreme cases of neuralgia. These pills increase and enrich the blood supply, carrying to the nerves the elements they need, thus driving away the sharp, torturing pains which nearly drive the sufferer wild. The benefit given by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is shown by the case of Miss Carrie V. Fletcher, Ravencliff, Ont., who says:—"As the result of a severe wetting I got while out in rain storm, I was attacked with neuralgia, from which I suffered greatly, and which kept me awake night after night. Although the pain diminished somewhat, I began to suffer in other ways. My appetite was poor; I got thin and had no energy. Indeed, I was becoming a wreck of my former self. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I am more than glad that I followed the advice, for they have restored me to my old-time strength. I cannot recommend the pills too highly and hope other persons in poor health will give them a fair trial."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail post-paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A MAN'S MOTHER

Your mother's life has not been easy. Your father was a poor man, and from the day she married him she stood by his side, fighting as a woman must fight. She worked, not the eight or ten hour day of the union, but the twenty-four day of the poor wife and mother. She cooked and cleaned and scrubbed and patched and nursed from dawn until bed time, and in the night was up and down getting drinks for thirsty lips, covering restless little sleepers, listening for croupy coughs. She had time to listen to your stories of boyish fun and frolic and triumph. She had time to say the things that spurred your ambition on. She never forgot to cook the little dishes you liked. She did without the dress she needed that you might not be ashamed of your clothes before your fellows. Remember this now while there is time, while she is yet living to pay back to her in love and tenderness some of the debt you owe her. You can never pay it all.

ARE YOUR EYES GETTING BETTER?

Your eyes are either getting better or they are getting worse. If your eyes need correction, any delay in getting glasses is slowly but surely damaging them. Do not hesitate to wear glasses if you need them. You can select a style which is becoming, and the comfort to your eyes will be well worth while. Have your eyes examined lately? "Take care of your eyes!"

CHOP STUFF

Charles Brisley, 17 years of age and youngest son of William Brisley of Cedar Springs, who has been in the employ of J. & N. Roe, of Howard Township, died Sunday evening from tetanus. On July 15th while working in the barn, he fell cutting his knee. Tetanus developed, and although slight hope of recovery was entertained until the latter part of the week his condition gradually became worse, until he passed away on Sunday evening.

The Ontario Beekeepers' Association has issued a report on the estimated light honey crop for 1922. The estimate for 30,061 colonies of bees is 2,355,286 lbs. of honey. Lambton, with 1,528 colonies and a yield of 144,530 pounds of honey, ranks second among all the counties in Ontario, Wellington, with a yield of 176,000 pounds being first.

At a meeting of the Dresden school board on Friday evening last it was decided that the board should at once advertise for three teachers for the Dresden continuation school. Mr. R. D. Marwick, who has been principal for the year 1921-22, has asked for a raise above the regular schedule and the board has refused to grant it and are advertising for a new principal and two assistant teachers.

It is being planned to turn Peache Island in Lake St. Clair into a Canadian public park. The island is owned by the Detroit and Windsor Ferry Company and is situated less than one-quarter of a mile from the Canadian mainland, a short distance above Belle Isle.

The death occurred Friday of Abram Warren, of the sixth line of Plympton. Deceased had been in very poor health for some time. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Misses Edna and Flossie both at home.

The Plympton voters' list for 1922 contains a total of 1072 names. Voters qualified to vote at both provincial and municipal elections 937, and those entitled to vote at municipal elections only numbered 135.
