BRIDGETOWN WINS OVER HEBRON

H. H. Crosby's Team Put Up Good Contest But Lost Out By a Score of Seven to Four Getting away with a good start of four runs in the first innings which looked like a merry-go-round for the local team, Bridgetown won out 7 to 4 over H. H. Crosby's team from Hebron.

The visitors stiffened up in the other innings and the crowd of spectators was treated to ball which while loose in spots was on the whole a very good exhibition. One of the features was a hit by Phyno in the seventh which brought home Porter and Goodwin home. Bridgetown pounded Tibbetts severely in the first innings. The whole game was played through in one hour and twenty-two minutes. 1, 2, 3 order being a prominent feature in retrials. There was some nice fielding done and the game was by no means devoid of interest and eliminating the first innings was not a bad contest.

Box score as below:

Struck out by Malcolm, 8; by Tibbetts, 6. Hits off Malcolm, 8; off Tibbetts, 11. Sacrifice hit—Austin. Umpires at bat, H. T. McKenzie. On bases, Jack McLaughlin.

WEDDING

The home of Mrs. Israel Longley, Paradise, was the scene of a very happy event at noon, on Wednesday, August 16th, when her youngest daughter, Edith Margaret, was united in marriage to Neal Gordon Balcom, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Balcom, of Paradise.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Bessie Durling, the bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, Dr. William Longley, of Baltimore, and stood beneath the bridal arch. She looked very lovely in a gown of ivory satin with beautiful embroidered overdress of georgette crepe and tulle veil held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Marion Bishop, wore yellow satin with blue trimmings and carried sweet peas and carnations. The flower girl was Miss Mabel Longley, niece of the bride, and little Miss Lurline Balcom, niece of the groom, was ring bearer. The groom was supported by Mr. Ewart Longley, brother of the bride.

The ceremony, in which the double ring service was used, was performed by Rev. J. H. Balcom, assisted by Rev. W. S. Smith. About seventy guests witnessed the service, among whom were relatives of bride and groom from Dorchester and Malden, Mass., Halifax, St. John, and various towns in the Valley. A dainty luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Balcom left by motor to visit places of interest in the Province. The numerous gifts included beautiful cut glass, linen, silver, and money, and indicated the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Balcom are held.

SOME CHANGE IN

BASEBALL PROGRAM

Owing to a misunderstanding some change has been necessary in the baseball programme at the Lawrencetown picnic on Thursday. Middleton and Bridgetown will not meet as originally intended. There will, however, be two games of ball. Junior teams in the morning, while Lawrencetown will play Wolfville in the afternoon. Notwithstanding the unexpected change in programme, interesting contests will be furnished.

MIDDLETON PLAYS HERE TO-DAY

Middleton baseball team play Bridgetown here this afternoon and there should be a record attendance to witness what is likely to be a grand contest. It will be recalled that these two teams played a twelve inning no score game early in the season, and later on July 1st in the double header at Middleton each won a game. These features would indicate a thriller in to-day's program.

DIPLOMA STUDENT TEACHERS

Inspectorial Training Institute Concluded Work--Fifty Licenses Granted

The Inspectorial Teachers' Training Institute which has been in session here for the last four weeks, closed Friday, August 18th. A large number of teachers returned to their homes, but a number stayed over Sunday, so pleased with Bridgetown that they wish to tarry a while longer. Brief closing exercises were held at Riverside Academy this morning. All the instructors were on the platform, and all gave short addresses to the teachers, expressing their pleasure of working with them and giving some good advice as to their work in the community and in society in general.

Dr. M. E. Armstrong, chairman of the Bridgetown School Board, presented the diplomas. The Dr., in behalf of the School Board, and of the town, expressed his pleasure in having the Institute here. He was deeply interested in the work of the teacher and felt that there was no profession with greater responsibilities or with greater opportunities for service than theirs. He knew that with the training they had had for four weeks they would bring honor to themselves and to their profession.

The following diplomas were presented. Qualified for "C" license, on obtaining Physical Training certificates:

- Marion A. Banks, Minnie A. Cochrane, Florence E. Collins, Kathleen E. DeVany, Lucy V. Gates, Lindsay B. Graves, Annie S. McNeil, Madeline T. Merrifam, Beatrice F. Mitchell, Gordon A. Potter, Rhoda L. Stocomb, Marie Constance Stevens, Wiloughby M. Phinney, Clara M. Smith.

Chautauque opens on August 31st and it is especially desirable that all who purpose attending should purchase tickets as promptly as possible and thus assist the guarantors who have to make good amount guaranteed. Returns on tickets sold after noon Aug. 31, do not count to credit of guarantors. The program is a good one and the full price of ticket $1.50 would cover only two performances when tickets are purchased separately.

Percy Tibbert, Walden and Donald Rice and Vernon Slauwhite left on Thursday's express en route to the West. Mrs. K. B. Ewan is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Blich, Brookside Farm, Lakeville, Kings Co.

RURAL DEANERY MEETING AT BRIDGETOWN

The clergy of the Rural Deanery of Annapolis met at Bridgetown on Monday and Tuesday, August 14th and 15th.

The Rev. W. Driffield, Rural Dean, presided, and the following were present: Canon Morris and the Rev. Messrs. Underwood, Mallor, Taylor, and Reeks. The Ven. Archdeacon Vroom and Rev. W. I. Morse were welcome visitors.

After the usual opening service and the reading of the Ordinal, a paper of great value was read by Archdeacon Vroom on "The Worship of the Early Church", which called forth an interesting conversation.

The usual reading of a portion of the Greek Testament was followed by a critical and devotional paper by Canon Morse. The Rev. W. I. Morse, of Lynn, Mass., then contributed an excellent paper on "The Translation of the Gospel into terms of Modern Life", and this was followed by an interesting review by the Rev. T. C. Mellor, of Atwater's Episcopal Church.

The usual business was transacted and arrangements made for the Archbishop's Confirmation tour. On Monday evening Rural Dean Driffield lectured in the school room on "Pre-historic Canada". On Tuesday morning the Rural Dean celebrated the Holy Communion in St. James' Church and Canon Morris preached an excellent sermon at clerum.

On Tuesday the clergy dined at the Rectory and were entertained by Mrs. O. T. Daniels in the evening. The interesting meetings, the hospitality of the parishioners, and the lovely weather all combined to make this an enjoyable and profitable gathering.

BATTLE OF BLOODY CREEK

Graphic Description of Conflict Which Ex-service Men Reproduce During Centennial

Below is given a description of fight at Bloody Creek then known as Rene Forets river, a mile west of Carleton Corner. This was the last battle between French and English in Annapolis County and took place in 1757, when the detachment of British soldiers after an expedition up river were returning cold, hungry and fatigued to the fort at Annapolis. Distances do not correspond to ones as we now know them, for then there were no roads and measurements are given as following the Annapolis River. It is fifteen miles by road from Bridgetown to Annapolis, but twenty-five following the winding of the river. Knox Narrative thus describes arrival at Bloody Creek and what happened there.

We marched about ten miles unmolested, which brought us to Rene Foret river, a most dangerous pass, about twenty miles from the fort. Here we were suddenly attacked with a dreadful shower of ball and buck-shot, seconded by as horrid a yell as ever I heard. This, with our Commanding Officer's being shot dead on the spot, and all our advanced guard (except three or four) cut off, who had got over the bridge, threw out men into some confusion, and made them fall back, repeatedly crying out, "Retreat to the plains!" This we were compelled to submit to, as they were not above a hundred yards behind our rear, the center of which was still within reach of the adjacent forests, if the enemy had thought proper to follow and line the skirts of them; but this they did not venture to do, contenting themselves with destroying the advanced-guard who were under the bank below them, and shouting all the time according to their custom. When we had reached the plains, or more properly a tract of cleared grounds, the next officer in command detached four Subalterns with small parties to the skirts of the woods, forming a kind of square; while he, with the remainder in the center, consulted with the guides and the officers who were volunteers, about the measures to be pursued in our present dilemma. These gentlemen and Mr. Dyson were not long coming to a resolution, and it was agreed upon to force the pass, and dislodge the enemy: whereupon the parties were called in, the whole was drawn up in a rank retired, (for hitherto we had marched two deep, and the officers took their posts; but, before we moved off, a trusty Sergeant was sent forward to the hollow road, to possess himself of every thing the deceased officer had about him: which he gallantly performed, regardless of the enemy's fire and noise, for they plainly perceived what he was doing, and endeavored to make him desist; but he persevered until he had got the Captain's faced hat, watch, sash, fusil, cartridge-box pistols, and his purse with near thirty guineas in it; all which he faithfully accounted for. In this small space of time the officers went from right to left, animating the men, and particularly the Commanding Officer harangued them very coolly on the occasion. Every thing being now adjusted, and our soldiers, by the example of their officers, in good spirits, we moved forward to force this detested pass, which I shall here describe: "The enemy lay concealed to the right and left of the road, on a prodigious steep hill covered with trees and spruce bushes so thick, as to be rendered almost impenetrable. This hill was on the opposite side of the bridge, and ahead of our line of march: they had a breast-work before them of stones and felled trees; at the bottom was the river, which discharged its itself into that of Annapolis, and is between forty and fifty feet broad; over it were thrown, by way of bridge, two planks of timber laid close together, both making eighteen or twenty inches in breadth, so that one man only could go over a-breast, and there was no hand-rail. These timbers were supported at each end by (sic) piers of earth and stones, and were elevated about twenty feet above the water. The ground we were on was high, and led with a descent through a

BRIDGETOWN TENNIS PLAYERS AT PROVINCIAL TOURNAMENT

The Provincial Tennis Tournament which was held at Bridgewater, was one of the most successful meets ever held by the Association. Players from some eighteen Clubs of the Province contended for the championship and the playing was of a high order. Bridgetown Tennis Club was represented by Mrs. Fred R. Fay, Miss Ethel Daniels, Messrs. Frank Ruggles and Robt Tufts, all of whom gave a good account of themselves. Mrs. Fay and Miss Daniels came down next to the semi-finals and Mrs. Fay and Mrs. Robt Tufts came down to the semi-finals, playing in seven events and winning in five. Mr. James Fay was also present during the tournament and at the request of Seely, Gastonway referred some of the games.

"hollow road to the river-side, where we received the enemy's fire, and there the march was flat, clear, and open. On both sides of the hollow way were dark thick woods, and the road took a turn to the right with a gradual rising, and three steep steps to the bridge; on the other side, the road inclined to the left, and ran serpentine up the hill, with dark forests on each side." Such is the situation of this defile, which our detachment forced their way through about eleven o'clock this morning, in the face of a heavy fire, where a more resolute party of fifty or sixty men might repulse ten times their numbers with inconceivable loss; and this shows, that, though the enemy's plan was well concerted, it was ill supported; by the time that the Commanding Officer, volunteers, and guides, with the van, had gained the opposite side of the bridge, there was a little halt or stop for the space of a minute; which they perceived, called out to their companions, and huzza'd. The officer, who brought up the rear, answered them: which encouraged our men to advance boldly, and pass the bridge not, however, without farther loss, as the rabble still repeated their fire. Upon the van's marching up the hill, they saw the enemy skulking and running from the right to the left; whereupon they briskly ascended, followed them into the woods on the left, chased them from their ambush, and gave them a close fire in their flight; by this time the whole had got by the precipice, when they found themselves in this situation, their ardour to pursue was inconceivably laudable; but the enemy were gone off, we could not tell where.

Mr. Forrest Leary, Miss Marjory Leary and Mrs. Will Leary, of New York, and Miss Florence Burrill, of Weymouth, motored up on Saturday and paid Mrs. Herk. Hicks a brief visit.

TO STAGE BLOODY CREEK BATTLE

Gesner of the recruiting committee, the members of which will report to Capt. Gesner's store not later than Saturday, August 26th. Mr. G. H. AMERICANADIAN FESTIVALS

The Popular Company.

The name of the musical company which is to be heard in our town on the opening night of the coming Chautauque does what all names ought to do, but which many do not; namely it tells exactly what the company is and does. The Popular Operatic Company presents both popular and light operatic numbers in a popular way, with the appeal of a popular concert, but with all the high grade quality of an opera program.

In the soprano roles will be heard Miss Augusta Bishop Witherow. The contralto of the company is Miss Winifred Wiley. Mr. Edward Donahue is the tenor. He has been over our circuits before in another company similar to this and his remarkable tenor voice caused much favorable comment wherever he appeared. Mr. Lennox Bigelow is the baritone. Miss Emily Sibley is the pianist and accompanist.

Musical lovers of this and neighboring communities may well mark down August 31st as a date to keep open for the Chautauque program. A committee of citizens is arranging the details of the entire Chautauque Festival of three full days and they have season tickets on sale at our attractive price.

AUGUST APPLE REPORT FOR NOVA SCOTIA

The weather conditions have been satisfactory with the result that the apples have grown particularly fast and are therefore larger than average for the time of year. The total crop throughout the Province is still estimated at approximately 75 per cent. of that of last year. Baldwins and Blenheims are a light crop but Gravensteins are a particularly good crop. All other varieties appear to be up to average. Apple Pests have been kept well under control by spraying and dusting and Black Spot is therefore not nearly as bad as might be expected from the weather conditions. Unsprayed and Undusted orchards particularly in the locality between Middleton and Annapolis show considerable apple scab but the bulk of the apple crop throughout the Valley is so far free from the disease. The following extracts are taken from the letters of crop correspondents:—Bear River.—The apple crop will be about 75 per cent. of that of 1921. Port Williams.—In this district the apple crop will be fully 75 per cent. of last year. Gravensteins, Russets, Fallwater and Ribstons will be 100 per cent. of last year. Ben Davis, Kings and Starks, 70 per cent. to 80 per cent., Blenheim and Baldwin, 20 per cent. to 30 per cent. Weather has been seasonal with enough rain to make vigorous growth and apples therefore will be large. Sprayed fruit is clean. Annapolis Royal.—The apple crop will be 60 per cent. of 1921. Nictaux West.—Apples are making a better showing than at time of last report and are growing very fast. Orchards generally have not looked so well for a number of years. The crop in this district will run from 60 per cent. to 75 per cent. of last season. Gravensteins 50per cent.; Ribstons 75 per cent.; Blenheim 40 per cent.; Baldwins 50 per cent.; Starks 75 per cent.; Spy 50 per cent.; Russets and Nonpariel 125 per cent. Bon Davis almost a failure. Considerable Black Spot is showing in unsprayed orchards. Paradise.—The apple situation has changed but little since the last report. Apples are very large for the season and the total crop will be about 75 per cent. of last year. Cravensteins, Ribstons, Spy, Starks, Golden Russets, and Nonpariel an average crop. Kings, Blenheim, Baldwin, Fallwater, Ben Davis 50 per cent. Spraying and dusting have been general and there are therefore practically no insect pests. Cambridge Station.—The apple crop in this district will be about 65 per cent. of the crop of last year. Middleton.—The fruit is growing rapidly but apple spot is developing to quite an extent. Kingsport.—Present indications are about 50 per cent. of last year but the quality is good. Ribstons, Kings, Russets, Ben Davis and Gano are a fair crop; Fallwater, Wagner, Blenheim, very light. Atlanta.—A crop of apples 60 per cent. of that of last year is expected in this district.

FALKLAND RIDGE

On account of the heavy rain Monday night the Sunday School picnic had to be called off, but on Wednesday the weather seemed favorable, so active preparations went forward for the picnic, which proved all that could be desired. Space will not permit to tell of the races—potato, three legged, obstacle, running, high vault, water sports, etc., etc., and a game of baseball after a beautiful supper, ended a very enjoyable afternoon.

This place was visited on Monday evening by a very heavy sale of wind, and about 10.30 p.m. a very heavy thunder storm passed over, followed by a heavy down-pour of rain. The thunder storm and rain lasted until about 4 a.m. Tuesday. No damage from lightning has been reported.

Mrs. Ada Cuthbertson spent the 11th with her friend, Mrs. Matilda Durling, of North Springsfield.

DEEP BROOK

A very successful ice cream sale was held on Thursday, August 10th, on the piazza of Miss Margaret Jones' bungalow. The purpose of this sale was to raise funds for a missionary motor car which is to be given to Miss Mable Archibald for her use in India in order that her missionary work may be carried on to a greater extent. The sale was well patronized. Most delicious ice cream was enjoyed by visitors from Deep Brook, Bear River and Smith's Cove. Miss Clara Beach and Miss Mable Archibald were dressed in Indian costume and presided over the sale of Indian-made delicacies, and home-made candy. The sum gathered from the sale amounted to over $25. It is hoped that in other towns where the appeal is made there will be as generous a response as has been given in Deep Brook.

On Friday afternoon a party of about twenty-five motored down from Bridgetown for a picnic and clam-bake with friends here. Soon after their arrival heavy rain interfered with their plans, but Mr. R. V. Dimars kindly allowed them use of the Sea Breeze Pavilion. Here the bountiful supper was enjoyed, after which dancing provided entertainment for the remainder of the evening. Good times can always be had at the "Sea Breeze", no matter what the weather.

Among the guests at the Sea Breeze Hotel last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Beazley, of Dartmouth, who were married at Stanley Tuesday, 23rd inst. Mrs. Beazley (nee Miss Ellen Smith) while visiting Mrs. Garnet Benson last Summer, made many friends who, together with the hotel guests, gave this popular couple a royal reception.

The Colonial Arms Hotel is having a full season, all the cottages and rooms being occupied. Guests are from Boston, New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Toronto, Halifax and Wolfville, among them being the Misses Donahue, of Halifax, who are well known in Deep Brook.

Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Payzant and son Arthur, arrived at the Sea Breeze Hotel Saturday, 5th, from Cleveland, Ohio, the trip having been made in their fine new car. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Payson, parents of Mrs. Payzant, went to Yarmouth Friday and accompanied them to Deep Brook.

Mrs. J. P. Hanlon and two daughters, Ester and Alda, of Hudson, Mass., and Mrs. G. F. Wollinger and junior, of Dorchester, Mass., spent a few days last week the guests of Mrs. L. E. Sherman.

Mr. Dennis Wright, a former teacher in Deep Brook, having just completed a Normal course in Truro, spent the week-end in Deep Brook as guest of Miss Harriet Nichols.

Mrs. A. M. Wheaton, of Wolfville, and her sister, Miss Cathrine Thompson, have spent a very enjoyable week in Deep Brook as guests of Miss Margaret Jones.

Dr. George B. Cutten, with his wife and family, spent the night in Deep Brook, on their return to Wolfville, after a month's camping in Yarmouth County.

L. E. Sherman is at the Homeopathic Hospital, Boston, recovering from a successful operation on his eyes. He is expected home about August 25th.

Wallace Henshaw, of Salem, Mass., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Henshaw. He returned to his home by auto last Saturday.

Dr. W. L. Archibald left Deep Brook on Friday, August 11th, for a trip in New Brunswick on Acadia business. A full school is expected.

SUMMER HEAT HARD ON BABY

No season of the year is so dangerous to the life of little ones as is the summer. The excessive heat throws the little stomach out of order so quickly that unless prompt aid is at hand the baby may be beyond all human help before the mother realizes he is ill. Summer is the season when diarrhoea, cholera infantum, dysentery and colic are most prevalent. Any of these troubles may prove deadly if not promptly treated. During the summer mother's best friend is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and keep baby healthy. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23rd 1922

Correspondence

To the Editor of the MONITOR:

Dear Sir:—A propos the letter in your last issue re the Church of England cemetery signed "An Observer", it will interest and please him to know that about the time his letter was being penned we were holding a meeting about the very thing of which he wrote with the result that a committee was appointed to look into the matter, get estimates and report at a future meeting.

It is not an altogether simple proposition and I fear but little can be done before the Centennial Celebration. Nevertheless, the letter was timely and, we hope, will catch the eye of many, and arouse general and practical interest. Thanks to the thought of Mr. Samuel Pratt, a good beginning has been made.

An immediate pressing need is the refraining on the part of those who have been in the habit of making this spot a thoroughfare from so doing in the future. We appeal, then, for this. We have no caretaker and must depend on their sense of what is proper and right.

May I take this opportunity of calling attention to another similar spot which should be renovated and cared for. I refer to the burial ground adjoining ours to the East, where lie the remains of Capt. John Crosskill, Ann Petty, his daughter, and her husband, Thomas James.

Of this, writing in your issue of the 2nd inst., Dr. M. E. Armstrong says:—"At that time (i. e. 1830) practically the whole town site, was in bushes and alder swamps or forest, but in the course of 100 years the rest of the town site has been cleared and used for building purposes, whilst this small area, used for this early burial lot, has been neglected—being now, no man's land, and has become a jungle of briars and wild wood so that graves, stones and enclosures are hidden."

Surely, if we would fittingly honor the memory of Capt. John Crosskill, the founder of Bridgetown, in more than a passing way, it behooves us to reclaim and renovate this spot, there place the proposed tablet, and make provision for its perpetual care.

What say our City Fathers and the Centennial Celebration Committee to seriously considering this?

Truly yours,
ERNEST UNDERWOOD,
The Rector, Bridgetown,
Aug. 21st, 1922.

THE GOVERNMENT'S CONVERSION SCHEME

The attention of the holders of the five and a half per cent. war loan bonds maturing December 1st, 1922, are directed to the offer of the Minister of Finance to renew the loan on favorable terms. The last Canadian loan was placed in New York at a satisfactory price. The Minister is making his present financial operation entirely a domestic one by offering to exchange the maturing bonds for new bonds bearing the same rate of interest, running for either five years or ten years as the bondholder may prefer. A further inducement to the investor is that he receives a bonus of one month's interest. The terms offered are decidedly favorable to the investor and it is probable that a large part of the maturing loan will be renewed. Arrangements for the exchange of the bonds can be made at any branch of the chartered banks. Holders who do not wish to re-invest will be paid in cash on the 1st December.

Local Happenings

Bridgetown schools resume on Monday next, August 28th.

In the list of successful candidates for grade "C" at Bridgetown High School published in last week's issue an error occurred in the aggregate of Henrietta Miller which should have read 409 and not 395.

The engine on the regular freight Monday afternoon broke right on the siding at Graves & Co.'s factory and went off the track just after three o'clock. A wrecking crew was sent out from Kentville arriving after supper and got the heavy engine on the rails shortly after ten o'clock.

Clarence Longmire had the misfortune on Saturday evening to go over Bath's bridge on account of the steering gear of his car going wrong. The party had a drop of about 20 feet among bushes and rocks. The car was considerably damaged and Mr. Longmire received a severe cut on the lower lip. The others with him escaped injury.

An editor can't make a house-to-house canvass for news, but is always glad to have it handed in. We want all the news. Just as pleased to mention your guests, or your visit as to mention those of your neighbors, but maybe your neighbor gives us more assistance in getting the facts. Hand in your news items. Our columns are open to them.—Picton Advocate.

The editor was delighted on Monday to have a visit from a good friend of years ago, Mr. Thomas Marshall, formerly of Westville, but for the past thirty years a leading resident of Bridgetown, Annapolis County. A very uniquely patriotic thing, so characteristically true of his family—his father was the well known, popular and esteemed James Andrew Marshall, of Westville,—is the fact that both Mr. Thomas Marshall and his son were overseas together, and both of them fought for the liberty of the world. Mr. Marshall's sister is the wife of William Maxwell, manager of the Drummond Colliery, Westville. It was thirty-five years since we saw our good friend before, and it did us good to see Mr. Marshall's genial and kindly countenance again, as his was always a cheerful and kindly disposition, and as a man true as steel.—New Glasgow Enterprise.

It is expected this number will be largely augmented, and it is requested that all others who are willing to enter floats give their names in to Mr. H. B. Hicks, Chairman of the committee.

WATCH STEALING CASE

Leonej Benham, of Jordan Falls, was committed on Tuesday by Stipendiary Elias Messenger to stand trial at next session of Supreme Court at Annapolis on the charge of stealing a watch, the property of John Weizel, of Lawrence town for whom the accused worked a couple of days.

The watch was missing on Saturday and Benham who is only about 17 years of age, had also disappeared. A description of him was given Chief Bishop who on Monday located the man who had secured employment at Kelly's mill at Upper Granville, two miles below town. The accused was taken to Annapolis on Tuesday afternoon.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

NARROWLY AVERTED

Late Saturday night Lewis Walker and John Greenlun had a narrow escape from serious injuries when they drew their team aside to allow the passage of a big car which had just come into town and across the bridge at high speed. The car swerved to the right as they held up their team on the north side of the bridge and crashing into them broke the shafts and other parts of the carriage, throwing it against the fence. John Greenlun jumped out a moment before the impact but Lewis Walker was thrown out clear of the wagon. The horse naturally ran away but was soon captured. The speeder had made no pause to ascertain the damage but kept on up Queen Street and turned east up Granville. This, however, does not conclude the matter. The sequel will come a little later.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

We have The Deltor

A revolution in dressmaking has come.

THE DELTOR is the one greatest invention for serving women since the paper pattern and the sewing-machine, and this store has it.

THE DELTOR does nothing less than make an expert dressmaker of any woman.

In bringing THE DELTOR to you, this store knows that it has done one of those things which will be a milestone in the history of service to the public.

What is THE DELTOR?

THE DELTOR is the great invention of Butterick.

It is very, very simple.

It is nothing more or less than a printed picture-story showing every step of fine dressmaking, from cutting to the last stitch.

It is enclosed in the envelope with Butterick patterns.

The picture-story shows:

1. Exactly how to lay each piece of the pattern on the cloth so as to cut without waste and with the right "grain" of the cloth.

2. Exactly how each piece, when cut out, fits to every other piece.

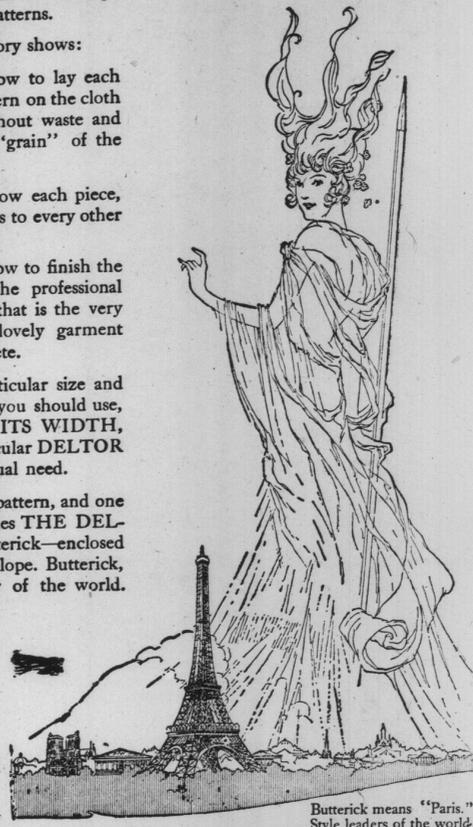

3. Exactly how to finish the garment with the professional touch of detail that is the very character of a lovely garment after it is complete.

For your particular size and for the material you should use, WHATEVER ITS WIDTH, there is the particular DELTOR for your individual need.

One make of pattern, and one make only, carries THE DELTOR—The Butterick—enclosed with it in its envelope. Butterick, the style leader of the world.

Dixie Duo

Elias Day, the organizer and coach of the Dixie Duo, writes this personal message about the company to appear on the second day of the coming Clautauqua program.

"The Dixie Duo was organized four years ago. The idea of the program as originally conceived was to assist in the perpetuation of the old time negro stories, melodies and the mountain folk songs of the Southern states. These sections have remained undisturbed by the great hordes of immigration and the folk songs have gained a place in the community life."

"Two young Southern girls were chosen.—Miss Mary Terry, the daughter of a clergyman from Chattanooga, Tenn., and Miss Monica Brosman from Greenville, Kentucky. Their programs have been universally popular both in the states and in Canada where they filled over seventy dates in Ontario alone.

"In addition to their groups of little known traditional songs and stories the heart songs of all time will be given a sympathetic presentation thus making entertainment of charm and variety. Miss Mary Terry is a soprano and reuder; Miss Brosman contralto and pianist.—Sept. 1st.

CLEMENTSPORT

"THE QUEEN OF THE BASIN"

What might have been a serious accident and serious enough it was from a financial standpoint, occurred on Friday, the 18th inst. A Buick car, the property of Mr. Frank Ruggles, Bridgetown, coming from the tennis tournament at St. John and a Cadillac car had a head on collision in the narrow section of the main highway in front of the Baptist Parsonage. We have drawn attention to this narrow section of the road before—but from appearances it seems that both drivers desired to get through this part first and there was only room for one. A minute would have prevented the costly damage which resulted. We did not see the Cadillac car, but the front axle of the Buick, the bumper and the spring were broken or bent, and the frame was forced in against the engine. No one was injured fortunately. The damaged car was towed to Annapolis Royal, by Herbert & Bealers. A few danger signs would be of great value in this vicinity.

Mrs. Rogers, of Halifax, after a two weeks' visit at Riverside Cottage, returned home on the 17th inst. Her sister, Mrs. Jack, came on the 18th for a couple of weeks at this charming resort.

A herd of cattle passed through Clementsport on the 18th inst for Mr. C. V. Henshaw, Deep Brook.

Dr. Herman, who was encamped on Mr. Purdy's field, left Clementsport on the 19th inst.

EARLY HISTORY OF BRIDGETOWN

Shipbuilding and Early Industry. First School, Organization of Churches, Etc.

THE ORGANIZATION OF CHURCHES

The early settlers of this county brought their religious inclinations with them when they came here from the American colonies or the old land and while there was some re-aligning, here and there, they followed old traditions and standards quite largely. The early New England settlers were mostly congregationalist and brought ministers with them but when the revolutionary war broke out these ministers went back to aid their fellow countrymen, against England, and thus the people here were left without ministers.

The Loyalists were nearly all Anglicans, to start with, and besides the two main divisions there were Presbyterians, Baptists, Quakers, Methodists and various other sects represented in the original stock so that the Rev. Jacob Bailey, of Annapolis, said it was impossible to find a greater mixture of sects and beliefs than was to be seen in the four hundred families settled in the township of Granville in 1784.

Attempts were made to erect small meeting houses here and there, but as the people were poor, head way was very slow and it was not until after the coming of the Loyalists and the establishment of a Church of England Sec. in Nova Scotia and with help from England and the government toward church building that our country saw or there was erected any churches worthy the name of such.

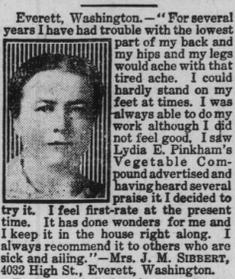

Congregationalism in New England had become rather stiff and formal and when a young man by name of Henry Alline, of Falmouth, N. S., began his meteoric life evangelistic campaign in the Provinces his "new wine" seemed so different from the ordinary type of congregationalism that it was spoken of as "Newlight".

Henry Alline paid very little attention to ordinances but required of his followers, experience, indifferent to mode of baptism, and even without baptism he joined into a society, his followers and converts from place to place until his "Newlight" movement had spread over many counties of Nova Scotia and became the talk of the new settlements, and the wonder and puzzle of the Church of England's well ordered clergymen. Alline's religious fervor and zeal took great hold of this county and very early in his ministry he visited Granville and the settlements about here, and about 1780 or soon afterward he established at Hick's Ferry a society or group in this thinly settled outpost of Granville so near the upper border or end of settled country.

Across the river (there was no bridge at that time) at Messenger's neighborhood he formed another society

COULD HARDLY STAND AT TIMES

Hips, Back and Legs Would Have That Tired Ache

Everett, Washington.—"For several years I have had trouble with the lowest part of my back and my hips and my legs would ache with that tired ache. I could hardly stand on my feet at times. I was always able to do my work although I did not feel good. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and having heard several praises I decided to try it. I feel first-rate at the present time. It has done wonders for me and I keep it in the house right along. I always recommend it to others who are sick and ailing."—Mrs. J. M. SIBBERT, 4032 High St., Everett, Washington.

To do any kind of work, or to play for that matter, is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trouble. It may cause your back or your legs to ache, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women. It is especially adapted to relieve the cause of the trouble and then any annoying pains, aches and "no good" feelings disappear. It has done this for many, many women; why not give it a fair trial—now.

A meeting house was built in Messenger neighborhood between 1775-80 and in 1779 the Rev. Thomas Handley Chipman was ordained and settled in that settlement living West of Bloody Creek, on the south of the road opposite the Corbett homestead where Mrs. Wm. Piggott now resides.

At this early date Mr. Chipman's congregation was made up of Baptists and Peto-baptists, Congregationalists, etc., but in the course of his thirty years or more of residence in that settlement the religious waters gradually settled and cleared and in the end both minister and congregation became distinctly Baptist, as we know them in our day. About the same time there was an effort made to build a meeting house in Granville on land now owned by Aaron E. Finney and his son, Joseph, and a building was framed and in course of erection by the Congregationalist and Newlight adherents in Granville. The Granville Congregation was served by a minister named Azariah Morse who afterward returned to United States.

About this time the people living in the portion of Granville in what is now Bridgetown organized a small congregation and wished a meeting house there, they were served by the minister from the south side of the river, Rev. Thomas H. Chipman, who came over here occasionally from his home beyond Bloody Creek and a half acre of land was given by Elias Wear, at a meeting house where the present Baptist Church now stands, and the first meeting house erected probably as early as 1784.

This early move of the people at the upper end of Granville did not meet with the approval of the people in the vicinity of the newly built church four miles further west and they accordingly sold their unfinished building to the Church of England, both church and some of the people became Anglican, and Deacon Dodge became Church Warden at the consecration of the church in 1791.

Mr. Chipman continued pastor of the Congregations at Messenger neighborhood and Hicks Ferry until 1809 living on the south side of the river and coming over here as an out appointment, occasionally.

In 1810 Rev. Thomas Ansley came here from New Brunswick; he settled on the Pratt property and served the circuit covered by Mr. Chipman and a great deal beside, developing his farm from which he quite largely supported himself in his missionary work in N. S. and N. B.

The church here, which at this time, was of mixed communion gradually became close communion, the final break dispensing the congregation somewhat when those adhering to sprinkling in baptism withdrew and joined other churches.

Ever since 1810 there has been a settled pastor of this first religious body here. The first building was a mere hall and gave place in 1828 to a more commodious one that contained pews that were sold to worshippers. This was rebuilt after 1850 and the first one, a small hall, later used for school house, was hauled away to help make the house now owned by G. E. Banks in the eastern end of the town. The two storey church that was then erected was outgrown in 1851 and gave place to the present modern church building that in our day is proving itself inadequate for the activities of this large church and congregation.

The two storey building that was the predecessor of the present one was purchased by Messrs. J. H. Hicks & Son moved to a site near the residence of Aaron Darling and converted into a wood working factory. This building of neat design and representing a type of church architecture not often seen in our day was destroyed by fire on a quiet Fall evening in 1907.

The church was served by Rev. Mr. Ansley until 1831, when he died while on a missionary tour in New Brunswick. He was succeeded for a time by Rev. Nathaniel Videto, then a young man just entering his long ministerial life.

Soon afterward Rev. Wm. Elden became pastor but was a little later excluded from the Baptist ministry for "having departed from several important articles held by the Baptist Churches." He afterward became a Church of England clergyman. He was highly esteemed here and the church passed through a severe trial in his dismissal. Several young men assisted here until the pastorate of Rev. John Chase began in 1839 and lasted until 1850, then came Rev. George Armstrong, D.D., and he was followed by Rev. Wm. Warren. Since Mr. Warren's pastorate ministers have come and gone more rapidly than in the 100 years before, but this seems to be the tendency of the times.

The leading laymen and officials in this large church in the first part of its one hundred and fifty years of history were Joseph Troop, Elias Wear, Joseph and Benjamin Fellows, Wm. H. Chipman, Runseys, Chutes, Rice, Moses. The late Angus M. Gidney and Samuel T. Nelly were also prominent laymen fifty years ago as well as many other worthy men, down through the century, but whose names are lost sight of here owing to the neglect in keeping or preserving church records.

ORGANIZATION OF METHODIST CHURCH

The second church to organize here was the Methodist. Wm. Black, the founder of Maritime Methodism, visited Granville as early as 1822 but made his stopping place five miles below Bridgetown or where the present Upper Granville Methodist Church is located. Here, previous to 1800, a church was built and the early mischiefs of the denomination lived, as it was the ferrying place on the river in going to and from Annapolis, it seemed an appropriate centre for a chapel and for the missionary. From this centre for many years the Wesleyan missionary went east as far as Aylesford and west to Digby Neck organizing small congregations and holding services in the various settlements of that day. In 1824, while Andrew Henderson was teaching school here, he being a Methodist, from Ireland, he secured the Baptist meeting house for the Rev. Simpson Busby to hold a service, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Ansley, and this was the first Methodist preaching here. In 1825 a building lot was secured on School Street and a Methodist Chapel erected with the following officials and trustee Board: John Bath, Oliver Foster, Asa Foster, Ezra F. Foster, Johnathan C. Morse and John Tupper. The most of these men lived outside the new town. This chapel was opened for service in 1826 and soon afterwards the mission house in Granville was sold and the Methodist ministers came to Bridgetown to live instead of in Granville. The chapel and parsonage being situated on School Street, the parsonage being the same house as now occupied by Mrs. James Todd, and the church sat along side of it and served the Methodist body until 1872 when the present parsonage was purchased. The old church was sold to George Murdock and still does service as a very comfortable tenement block on Granville Street, owned by MacKenzie Bros. EARLY HISTORY OF BRIDGETOWN date. It may have been too, at Methodist meeting the same Sunday afternoon in September, 1829, that Mr. Howe was attracted by the gaiety of our grandmothers' bonnets and fine Sunday clothes shown at the afternoon preaching meeting but it seems to have impressed him adversely and he speaks of it as a "ridiculous fondness for imported finery" and some one had amused himself while listening to the long sermon, in figuring the yards of gay colored ribbon on the ladies' hats and in estimating eight yards to each head and bust, and each yard to cost two shillings per yard the handsome sum in pounds and pence this unnecessary finery must have cost. Mr. Howe, from this, proceeded to teach a moral to the women of our young town in prudence in attire, telling them their own stainless beauty was their loveliest attire and their brightest ornament a meek and quiet spirit. He disapproved of leghorn bonnets, laces, silks, bonnazines and bracelets, etc. I give this simply to show us that our grandmothers not only had taste for the aesthetic but also enjoyed some of these pleasures of life, as well as the home-spun and hand-made trimmings of their own production. It would appear that these reflections of Mr. Howe's were called forth by his visit to the Methodist Sunday School and meeting. One wonders what he would say nowadays!

The first Methodist minister to live in Bridgetown was Rev. Albert Desbrisay, the father of the Rev. A. S. Desbrisay, who died on this circuit in 1875.

The land used for the church and parsonage was obtained from Mr. Thomas Crosskill who was a member of this communion and through his liberal offer of this property that the church and parsonage was thus early erected.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND ORGANIZED
The Church of England having secured from the Newlight the unfinished church building on the Phinney property four miles below Bridgetown had regular worship there and a stationed rector or missionary from 1791 when the church was dedicated by Bishop Charles Inglis, and the Rev. Arch. P. Inglis, became rector. The same month he dedicated Christ's Church, Granville, he dedicated St. Luke's at Annapolis Royal. Near the Granville Church he opened a school that was free to all children and built and maintained by the society of Propagation of the Gospel in England, and for a good many years these church schools taught by very competent and educated men were the only schools of the early settlements.

This church four miles below Bridgetown continued to serve the church men from this vicinity until several years after the founding of Bridgetown. The adherents of this congregation in the vicinity of Bridgetown had to find their way through the mud to the Granville Church at considerable inconvenience. This was not satisfactory to the Anglicans in the new town and an effort was made by the then young rector, Rev. Horatio Nelson Arnold, to have a church built here. He accordingly secured from Capt. Crosskill a gift of the fine square of land on which St. James' Church now stands, in the early part of 1825 and by the aid of some grants from the church societies and government of England the first St. James' Chapel was built and duly consecrated by Bishop John Inglis in December 1st, 1829. The church wardens and vestrymen and parishioners at that time were Jesse Onkes, Stephen Thorne, Thos. James, Enoch Dodge, Alex. H. Troop, John Quirk, Timothy Ruggles, Chas. T. MacColla, Silas Piper, M.D., Wm. H. Troop, Wm. H. Townsend and Thos. Spurr.

For many years previous to this there were leading Church of England families in this vicinity such as the de St. Croix's, where Bishop Chas. Inglis quite frequently made his stopping place as he passed to and from Annapolis and Digby and St. John between 1787 and 1805. Later he found his esteemed host tintured with Methodism and does not mention him thereafter. The first Samuel Chesley, of Granville was another prominent Anglican but his son Samuel later withdrew from this communion and became a Methodist.

The Rev. Mr. Arnold served the parish of Granville from 1824 to 1828. He was the grandfather of Mr. R. V. Arnold, agent of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Bridgetown.

He was succeeded by Rev. Jacob Whalley, who remained in Granville until 1835. St. James was also served about this period by Rev. Joseph Henry Clinch, he later moved to Boston, Mass., and became a poet of considerable notoriety. Rev. Dr. James Robertson came here in 1830 and resided here until 1834 when he removed to Wilmet. At that date Bridgetown was made into a separate parish and reaching from Bridgetown to Belleisle and lying between the parish of Wilmet on the east and Granville on the west.
