 edged with green.

 ing contributors to the Christmas decorations,

Special preachers during the month have been
 The Right Reverend Bishop Sullivan, and the Reverend the Provost of Trinity College.

During the season of Advent, there was held in the Church by the Rector, three Bible readings on the subject of the “Second Advent and the Millenium.”

On Monday afternoon, January 9th, at 3.30, will begin a series of Bible studies, conducted by the Rev. the Provost of Trinity College. The class will be held in S. George's Church every Monday, at 3.30. As there will be no future announcement, please make this known among your friends.

Attention is called to a large card, which is hung near the west end of the Church. It is a table of the offerings by envelope, from Sunday to Sunday, showing the amount paid by each contributor opposite his proper number. By this means any one can see at a glance what, if any, arrears there may be, and what his financial position is in relation to the Church.

A THOUGHT FOR THE NEW YEAR.

The ship looks forward fearlessly to the new ocean with its new stars and new winds, for the same captain will sail her there who has sailed her here; and the fact that he will sail her there otherwise than he sails her here will only be the sign of how sleepless and watchful is his care.
